

Welcome writers to NewsNinja2012! Thank you for your interest in being part of our team! We are looking forward to working with Patriots who have a love for our country, constitution and the advancement of conservative principles!

Here are some guidelines that should be followed.

1. We are striving for excellence in every way on NewsNinja2012-- so make a strong effort concerning spelling, grammar, typos, etc in all your submissions. Use spell-check. If at all possible, please have someone you trust read over your work before submitting it to us.

Every punctuation error or grammar mistake we have to correct on this end slows down the publishing process. Please do everything you can to minimize such occurrences from happening. Double check your facts and claims. Going back to make corrections after the fact will not only add time, but it will be false information we are promoting.

Thousands of people will be reading, so once it's published it's out there and hard to change. Please capitalize the title and include at least 1 hyperlink in every body of work to be used as a source.

2. Articles should be between 500 and 900 words with one offering per week on a regular day you choose (you'll need to let us know what day of the week would work best for you; if we confirm that as your publication day, we'd need your submissions emailed to us no later than the day before publication day by 7pm). Please contact the editor if you for some reason can't make the deadline, otherwise, it will be published the following day of your original publication day.

3. Every article must come with a picture. They must be royalty-free and be 700x500. Creative Commons is a good outlet to find royalty-free photos.

4. Our goal to keep things classy and tasteful on our site. No profanity, no lewd/sexual stuff, please. Blunt speaking and straightforward talk is encouraged, but we ask that you do it in a way that is responsible and mature; not lewd or vulgar. Remember, you are journalists and ultimately how you are perceived affects NewsNinja 2012 as a whole.

5. NewsNinja2012 has a private Facebook page strictly for writers. It is here that you will post the story you are interested in writing and then take it as your own by writing the words "Claimed" above it. This will help avoid a story being published twice. NewsNinja2012, would like to keep the news fresh and new as it is happening. Please provide at least one hyper link so readers know where the information in the article is sourced.

6. We review everything before we publish it. We reserve the right to correct any spelling errors, typos, grammatical glitches, etc. At times, we might tweak a minor feature of a submission for any number of reasons such as the title. Remember, a catchy title is what will draw the reader in so that is one of the most important elements to your piece. We will try not to change anything significant unless we get the go ahead from the author first.

7. NewsNinja2012 respectfully requests that its writers refrain from using content written for NewsNinja2102 on other websites. Any body of work used should be original content.

8. NewsNinja2012 requires 4 articles to be published before we will consider adding the author to the website as a regular contributor.

9. NewsNinja2012 requires all writers to have an updated picture and bio at all times. If yours needs updating at any time, please contact the editor.

10. If NewsNinja2012 accepts you are a regular contributor, please understand that we will do all we can to promote the site and our writers. We are a team at NewsNinja2012 and the writers will be responsible for pulling in numbers for their pieces. Sharing on social media (Facebook, Twitter, Tumblr, Reddit ect.) will help not only NewsNinja2012, but you as a writer.

11. NewsNinja2012 will be known as the top leader in conservative news. We want to be well rounded with the information we publish concerning politics and what is happening to our nation. If you are unsure about a subject, please contact your editor.

12. Once an article is posted to NewsNinja2012, we retain the rights to the story to use in future postings, promotions, advertising etc. This is true even if you no longer write for NewsNinja.com

13. NewsNinja2012 does not currently pay it's writers for content. It is our hopes that the mutual partnership we will develop will help promote you as a writer, as it will be exposed to thousands of potential readers as well as help NewsNinja2012 grow as a leading news source.

Thank you for your interest in NewsNinja2012! Good Luck!
