Dedication & Acknowledgments

Lord Acton wrote, “Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely. Great men are almost always bad men.” In politics, academia, science, business, media and even religion, the record of history confirms Acton’s aphorism. True greatness is found in a heart of non-negotiable norms and nobility; a life that transforms the world for good.

I know of ten American authors who are truly great. Their work and lives inform my thinking about First Things and true statesmanship: Thomas DiLorenzo, Sherry Peel Jackson, Larry Kramer, Sheriff Richard Mack, Judge Andrew Napolitano, Dr. Ron Paul, Stewart Rhodes, Edwin Vieira Jr., Frank Viola, and Thomas Woods.

Among these, Ed Vieira and Frank Viola are the most vital to history. Ed wrote the definitive American texts on U.S. money and the Militias of the Several States; he also drafted the AmericaAgain! Declaration sections on lawful money and restoring the Citizen Militia. Frank exposed the pagan roots of America’s institutional church, giving hope and practical direction to those who walk away from steeples to truly follow Christ. In their fields, these two men stand far above all others.

Among the ten, Sherry made the highest sacrifice for truth. The Christian mom and former IRS Fraud Examiner blew the whistle on the corrupt agency and she was imprisoned for it. What did she do? She prayed and wrote books while in prison – as the apostle Paul did.

My AmericaAgain! co-founders Oscar Zuniga and Matt Mida turn ideas into reality with long hours and no pay. (Not quite accurate; they work long hours and get to pay thousands into the mission.)

Two alternative media leaders are staunch supporters of our mission – Tim Brown, editor of Freedom Outpost.com, and Mike Church, constitutional author and radio host on MikeChurch.com, who drafted the AmericaAgain! Declaration preamble. These brothers are unique in conservative media.

The homeschooling mother is tenaciously rebuilding our civilization – one diaper, one research project, and one tearful prayer at a time. As the countless unsung women on the American frontier, if true greatness is yet found in America, it’s in these lioness hearts.

Oh you great ones! I dedicate this work to you. I pray that God will bless your children and grandchildren to replenish our desolate land, and that your hearts be lifted up in joy.

Chapter One

The Most Promising Era in History

I am not insane; hear me out and I think you will see merit in the statement above.

Because We The People have failed to do our duty, D.C. organized crime is the logical result. Blessed with the most magnificent Constitution ever devised by man, We The People of these sovereign States have never enforced it – not once. Obviously, a law that is never enforced becomes no law at all. Despite a few flaws, the U.S. Constitution is the finest rule of popular sovereignty in history; the longest surviving written constitution* on earth. Moreover, Americans agree that it is what it claims to be – the supreme Law of the Land.

Today, the European Union and its short-lived currency are flying apart. This makes sense; no human contrivance can hold together polyglot populations who for centuries fought one another to the death. Yet, witness the growing animus between American factions and parties today. We are destined to follow crumbling Europe, if we stay on our present course. So we must not stay on our present course.

AmericaAgain! is a private, perpetual charitable trust and membership organization designed to expose and end the cruel game of electoral politics; to relegate the proper place to elections: only one small part of the duty and power of popular sovereignty.

If you cannot imagine America's majority becoming moral, sane, and diligent – don't despair. Read history and you will discover that majorities are always the followers. Leaders are always few, yet they forge new lives for followers to live. How many leaders are required? In these pages, you will learn how less than 1% of our population can restore 150 years of lost liberty.

In the Bible, this is called a remnant. This book is designed to inform and equip the remnant; those who are tired of listening to arguments on the radio, television, online, and increasingly at family and social gatherings. Those who are ready to take lifelong, responsible action called popular sovereignty.

*The city-state of San Marino in Italy has an older constitution, but only for a town of 30,000 people.

Over the Law, Not Above the Law

Because we all agree that nobody is above the law, the lawful power of the American people over our highest law is an alien concept to most Americans. This book will banish that ignorance of civics and re-program the vocabulary that our enemies have used to keep us and our ancestors on their playing field and in their game. We The People now move the game onto our field – rule of law. But before any of that, you must be deprogrammed.

Honor and duty have saved the day for many populations in many ages; honor and duty can do the same again, but you must decide to stand and fight rather than complain or run when facing criminals.

Our Hijacked Republic

The supreme law of the Land is considered a joke in Washington D.C.; our servants openly violate the law and perpetrate activities that we never authorized in it. The very existence of 75% of federal agencies, bureaus, programs, and regulations violates the Constitution. Our servants have taken over our lives; Washington D.C. is a zoo, with each week's news more bizarre than last. As the Bible says, "every man did what was right in his own eyes".

To illustrate the lunacy of life in America today, here's an analogy. Imagine you have spent your whole life building a small business and, after 40 years, you've built, equipped, and paid for your building. You decide to take your first-ever vacation; on your return, you discover that your key to the building doesn't work because someone changed out the locks. Peering in the windows, you can't believe your eyes. Your business is trashed; your employees are lounging on the broken furniture, some of them sneering defiantly back at you. Everything you worked decades for is destroyed.

Noticing that there are a dozen new luxury cars in the employee lot, you quickly check your company operating account and find it overdrawn by tens of thousands of dollars. Your savings account shows a zero balance, so your $125,000 operating cushion is gone. Everything you've worked for was stolen while you were away. You don't have one embezzler; all of your employees are criminals.

In that case, would you do what the TEA Party, Ron Paul Revolution, or other reform groups have been doing – holding rallies with posters, or marching outside your building? Would you conduct an email drive to the criminals inside? Of course not; it's a silly thought. You'd call in the law and prosecute your criminal employees to recover your property.

Time to Keep It

As he walked out of the Constitutional Convention, a woman asked Ben Franklin, "Doctor Franklin, what kind of government have you given us?", to which Franklin replied, "A Republic, Madam, if you can keep it." Obviously, we have not kept it. Like our ancestors, we've allowed lawless servants to control every aspect of our lives; they steal us blind and now they tighten the chains on us. If you were born in the half century 1920-1970, you can't believe this nightmare; it's as though our whole history and ethos are sliding away through Orwell's 'memory hole'. Take heart, because it stops here with us.

D.C. Organized Crime, Stupid

In the 1992 presidential campaign, Bill Clinton's campaign manager James Carville hung a sign in campaign headquarters, with three talking points including "the economy, stupid". Carville, a crass man whose wicked facial features fit his unethical politics, was good at his job. His trope stuck with that campaign, and "the economy, stupid" won Clinton the White House.

They complain about government excess, but Americans still send their kids on D.C. bus tours to gawk with their schoolmates at 535 men and women who each spend an average $11 million annually on their operations...who each have as many as eight offices and staffs...whose palatial office complex is more opulent than most of those of Europe's kings, popes, and emperors...who daily enjoy white-glove exclusive dining rooms, limousines, spas, private jets and much more...all paid for by the People. Then they have the chutzpah to call themselves our servants, and citizens believe this!?

Please get it: these criminals skim every payroll account in these United States, they've counterfeited our money for over 150 years, and about 75% of everything they are doing violates the Constitution. By definition, criminals don't play by rules; they break them. Criminals have their way in every country's capital today; in some more blatantly than others. Americans understand that Mexico City, Moscow, and Pyongyang are organized crime centers – but when it comes to D.C., they become clueless.

Like the dumbfounded owner in his parking lot, We The People continue to read books about symptoms of organized crime. Our physical mailboxes and email in-boxes are stuffed with junk mail, "save America; send in your donation!" and we keep buying rallies, marches, fax petitions, email drives, money bombs, and electoral campaigns even though these 'solutions' have always proven futile.

We meet Einstein's definition of insanity: repeatedly doing the same thing and always expecting a different result. Not once have we called in law enforcement to put down organized crime that has defrauded and pillaged us for 150 years!

Organized crime is the accurate term for what Washington D.C. has been doing for generations, so keep this locked in mind. Not politics, crime. Or as James Carville would say, D.C. organized crime, stupid.

Not Politics, But Law Enforcement

AmericaAgain! is not about politics. We are a private, perpetual charitable trust and membership organization dedicated to popular sovereignty – finally enforcing the Constitution, taking back all that Washington D.C. has stolen from us, and restoring the founders’ Homeland Security – the Citizen Militia.

By believing government school propaganda since Lincoln’s reign, we’ve been on a fool’s errand. Washington D.C. can’t be the solution, because criminals don’t reform themselves. Read the Constitution; only We The People ourselves can perform these duties and exercise these powers.

This book will walk through a great deal of information, with much valuable material in the appendices, too. This is not a book of platitudes or theory or politics; it’s a manual for action. If you expect America to ever recover, you need to actually repent, join us, and start doing something about our domestic enemies. It’s our duty, and our power, to change life for Washington D.C. as that imperial city-state has changed our lives over five generations!

I will return to First Things and lay groundwork later; but now let’s talk turkey.

Action #1 – Ratify the Original First Amendment

The first action that AmericaAgain! will launch in 2015: We The People and our sovereign States finish something that has awaited our action for 223 years – ratifying the original First Amendment.

The original First Amendment was passed by Congress in 1789 and already ratified by 11 state legislatures. It stipulates that no U.S. congressional district can have a population greater than 50,000 people. It was designed to avoid exactly what we suffer today: multimillion-dollar campaigns for imperial congressmen who reign over 700,000 citizens that they can never know, much less represent.

Of the initial 12 amendments passed by the founding fathers’ Congress, the first two were not ratified by a sufficient number of states. But neither amendment had a time limit for ratification, so University of Texas student Gregory Watson decided in 1983 to launch a mail and telephone campaign to get 29 state legislatures to ratify the original Second Amendment, which had been ratified by nine states. The amendment stipulates that if Congress gives itself a pay raise, it does not become effective until an election intervenes.

Watson worked tirelessly for a decade, finally getting ratification votes in the additional 29 state legislatures needed. In May 1993, the U. S. Archivist pronounced that the 27th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution was officially ratified.

AmericaAgain! can do the same thing with the original First Amendment, which will become the 28th Amendment once it is ratified by 27 more legislatures (remember, 11 states already ratified). This is a vital first step in a new way of life for the sovereign People and States.

Action #2 – Force Through the Bring Congress Home Act

Once we win ratification of the 28th Amendment, no congressmen will represent more than 50,000 people. But with our population now at about 320 million, this means we will have 6,400 members of the U.S. House of Representatives. You'll be able to know your U.S. congressman quite well, but from a logistics standpoint, they will be forced to work from offices back home in their districts because putting them and their staffs all on Capitol Hill would be impossible.

The first AmericaAgain! reform law, the Bring Congress Home Act (BCHA), will be ready. The idea was proposed in 2013 when congressmen Eric Swalwell (D-CA) and Steve Pearce (R-NM) filed House Resolution 287 to bring Congress home. Our public servants finally enter the modern era with teleconferencing technology that's common in corporate America.

D.C. organized crime operates virtually unhindered today; the time is long overdue for ratifying the 28th Amendment and forcing through the BCHA. Imagine them working full-time back home where We The People can watch them; cut off from the estimated 100,000 operatives in today's underground federal lobbying industry. Imagine our servants in Congress now having one small office and a total paid staff of just two for a congressman and four for a senator.

Imagine them being limited to two terms – 12 years for a senator, four years for a congressman – and receiving no opulent benefits; just their salary, office rent, staff and reasonable expenses. They should be citizen statesmen, not career politicians; that is the Founding Fathers' design for self-government.

Change Your Mental Picture

The illustration on the cover of this book was drawn by an artist from Eastern Europe, from artwork that we discovered on the internet, originally done by a TEA Party artist that we were unable to locate.

It conveys several truths that characterize our FEAR The People™ campaign. In a few pages from now, we will begin your re-programming by exposing common terms that helped transform us into serfs and our federal servants into our masters. But consider that cover illustration, to grasp its vital messages.

First, note the Minuteman's expression. We The People – the productive and property-owning Americans who carry the parasite sector of America on our backs – are fed up with bloated, arrogant, criminal government running our lives. Enough communism; it's time to end this hijacking!

Second, note the Minuteman hauling the little politicians like trash bags to the curb. We The People gave birth to our servant Congress, which has become a lawless, arrogant gang. It's time to haul our kids home and put them under permanent probation. We need to apply parental sanctions to any future criminality – and stop being so gullible as they deliver their speeches! Like every criminal teenager, the politician is a con artist. Stop listening to their excuses; it's time to bring them home! We The People must put our domestic enemies on OUR turf; nicely divided and manageable.

Third, see that look on the little donkey and elephant's faces? That's proper fear of authority when caught in the act and facing justice. We The People will now begin to assure that our servants in Congress obey the law. They and their servant federal courts have violated it for so long that the supreme Law of the Land became a quaint joke to them.

But this isn't Russia. In America, every major criminal should have real fear in his heart – especially if that criminal is in government. The AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™ working with State criminal courts will empower the American people to arrest D.C. organized crime at last. But to make this national transformation, AmericaAgain! must build membership to a formidable national force.

Fourth, the cover illustration depicts We The People as a Minuteman – the timeless image of the Citizen Militia, whose job is to “...execute the Laws of the Union” (Art I, Sec 8, Clause 15, U.S. Constitution). If you didn't know this was your job, fellow citizen, read the Constitution.

We Do This Ourselves

Beginning in 2015, We The People take charge; Washington D.C. will have no say in ratifying the 28th Amendment, and since it was already passed by Congress we do not need a Convention of States. AmericaAgain! will help our 27 organizers to approach their state legislature; we'll help them identify and recruit the best state legislator to champion the ratification vote in that legislature. If one man could do this, the whole AmericaAgain! team can certainly do it.

Remember, the 28th Amendment is an existing constitutional amendment passed by Congress, already ratified by 11 states. This massive transformation returning power and representation to the People is entirely up to us. Let's get this done in 2015!

At Last – Real Checks and Balances

One last point of civics and tactics to demonstrate how vital our divide-and-conquer reform will be. In Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 of the Constitution, We The People grant our servants in Congress “exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, over such District (not exceeding ten Miles square)...”. Congress gets to call the shots on how Washington D.C. is run; they can do almost anything they want there because We The People granted them exclusive legislation for the D.C. zone.

When We The People bring them out of that place, they will retain full constitutional control over D.C. yet they will no longer be there. Thus a real check-and-balance tendency will build between the executive and judiciary branches that will remain in D.C. – and the now much larger, dispersed legislative branch that holds the power of the purse and the sword!

Do you see the new relationship? We The People will now hold all the cards to check and balance our federal servants who presently live as faraway emperors – who now won't get a penny unless they are an agency, bureau, department, or other body authorized in the Constitution or reasonably inferred from the 17 enumerated powers. Not only that, but now every member of Congress will work from his own district, where State criminal courts have jurisdiction over his activities!

Inside the D.C. beltway, an imperial city-state has violated our Constitution to its heart's content. Now we take away its exclusive legislative body and put it on permanent probation back home. Real checks and balances at last.

Rule of Law- Ancient and Vital

In ancient times the Latin Rex Lex meant “the king is law”. The powerful guy with the crown and the troops could do anything he wanted, to anyone in his realm; he could take your stuff, your wife, your kids – or you – without asking, and for no reason.

Rule of men has been the default position in history because it's human nature that bad guys tend to be really handy at that game and because good guys always think, “nobody can really be that bad, can they?” By the time the good guy discovers his gullibility (a.k.a. political correctness) it's too late; the bad guys have his stuff, his family, his labor, and his liberty. Then even if he wanted to, he can't fight back. This has been our condition since Lincoln's administration; D.C. organized crime runs America.

Until we do our duty, the military-banking-oil industry fully intends to keep plundering foreign oilfields and operating huge foreign bases in our name, with our sons dying for it. Abortuaries fully intend to keep burning and dismembering tiny Americans while we look the other way. The sexual pervert horde fully intends to push further into every corner of society and our children's lives. The Mohammedan sees easy pickings, thinking "it worked for them, why not for us?" Civilization's predators sharpen their fangs and blades, and they will make bigger plans for prey that are too timid to fight back.

This war for America's soul has raged since Lincoln's reign. A key indicator of our ignorance is that most Americans still worship Lincoln as Russians once worshiped Lenin and Stalin. (For the truth about that execrable man, see Appendix G.) Like our forefathers, most Americans sit and watch, but some of us know better: it's time to fight. And by fight I don't mean talk; I mean responsible, powerful, lifelong action. As you see, this isn't another book about America's problems; it's an action book with a solution.

In Latin, Lex Rex means "the law is king"; that is the American system. Our rule of law didn't begin in a sweltering Philadelphia meetinghouse in the summer of 1787, but with the Compact of Ethelred in 1014 A.D., when the English people forced their king to meet their demands if he wanted to take the throne. For the first time, kings could not simply do as they pleased.

In a video on our website, The Genealogy of the Constitution, the presenter omits the oldest root of English Common Law, the Compact of Ethelred, but explains the rest of our Constitution's lineage: the Charter of Liberties (1100 A.D.), the Magna Carta (1215 A.D.), the Petition of Right (1628 A.D.), the Grand Remonstrance (1641 A.D.) and the English Bill of Rights (1689 A.D.). Our Constitution is the result of a thousand-year process in the rule of law. Rule of law means that a written code of norms is agreed to by everyone. The law rules; men don't.

Read Appendix E, the U.S. Constitution. You'll notice that We The People created the federal government – Congress, the presidency, and the U.S. Supreme Court. All of them are our servants, created by us and limited by rule of law. Read this as often as you must, to burn this foundation of American civics in your mind; it's vital to performing your sovereign duty and teaching your children.

So. Stop living and thinking like a hard-headed old Soviet citizen. There's work to be done. Our team at AmericaAgain! Trust has spent seven years preparing the plan and mechanisms, and we will support and equip you. But the duty of securing American liberty still belongs to me and you.

Now Let's Get the Terms Right

Consider the vocabulary that is used by our enemies – and even used by us – to transform our servants into our masters. Use common sense as you consider these terms.

Government- Most people use the word government to refer to those who daily violate the Constitution. They say, “I’m against the government!” but in truth they are only against organized crime. Moreover, We The People are the highest level of government in our system.

Also, by definition federal government is only those who are performing the services enumerated in Article I, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution. Those who are skimming America’s payroll accounts, counterfeiting U.S. money out of worthless paper, and defrauding their sovereigns and the rest of the world are accurately called D.C. organized crime.

Revolution- This means overturning a government; since our Constitution creates, defines and severely limits government, the last thing we want to do is overturn it. Surely the most oxymoronic use of revolution is in the term Ron Paul Revolution. Ron Paul supports a return to the Constitution, and since that is the antithesis of revolution, that group’s name does not make sense. I’ll wager that Dr. Paul did not coin that term.

Grassroots- We The People are the highest level of government in our republic. Why use the politically-brainwashed term grassroots, like earthworms underfoot? Use the collective label, sovereigns.

Voter- Every minute of every day you are breathing, sitting, or walking; but you don’t call yourself a ‘sitter’ or a ‘walker’ or a ‘breather’, do you? Stop using the term voter as if it’s a noun – or as if voting is the sum total of our citizen power and duty. Few productive Americans vote anyway; as in any banana republic, D.C. organized crime has made elections a joke. ‘Voters’ only choose the next round of puppets. Every president for the past 20 years was elected by less than 25% of the population. So a voter is a parasite who wants porkers in office, or is a patriot who still believes in Santa Claus. Again, don’t use the word voter when you can use the accurate collective term, sovereign.

Constituent- This one is even worse than voter, as if all the tiny citizens make up their big, powerful politician. You think we make up those criminals? What a nonsense word.

Elected officials- If the office is nowhere authorized by us in the Constitution, a person cannot be an ‘official’. Call them servant if they are honest, and criminal if they are not.

Elected leaders- Someone who violates the Constitution every day is no 'leader' unless you are a criminal or parasite who shares the loot. When was the last time you were actually led by a politician, even a very good one? They're supposed to represent sovereigns, not lead serfs.

Government authorities- If someone daily exceeds the authority granted by his/her boss to the tune of billions of dollars, that person is no 'authority'. Again, say servant if he's honest, or criminal otherwise.

Remember ethics and logic; forget politics. Recognize D.C. organized crime for the enemy it is. Remember to say sovereigns when referring to We The People and criminals when referring to Washington D.C..

Remember too that popular sovereignty is collective, not individual. The American system of government is that through our established local, county, state and federal government and Citizen Militia, We The People govern ourselves. As you read this action plan, begin to recognize how far we have all fallen from the standard set by the framers of the Constitution. The abdication of our sovereign duty began in the era of Lincoln, Darwin and Marx, whose teachings began the destruction of our civilization. But all is not lost, see? Now, the rebuilding begins.

AmericaAgain!, in our FEARthePeople™ campaign, seeks to build our membership to over 500,000 citizens so that we can build our legal team, member services, legislative action team, video production unit, and all the rest that is entailed in a national action organization – and also to prove to the billionaire owners of Congress that We The People mean business.

We are determined to end America's 150-year-long hijacking by D.C. organized crime, and to end the imperial rule of a few federal judges who have turned our civilization on its head, single-handedly giving abortionists, sexual perverts, illegal aliens and Islamists power over unwilling America.

We are determined to make Congress truly fear the People as you will read in coming chapters – first by splitting them up and bringing them home as explained on pages 4-7. Now, we perform the duty that our fathers failed to perform.

And we will not look back.

Chapter Two

First Things

Before we discuss how we will finally arrest D.C. organized crime, we must consider the spiritual, moral, intellectual, economic, and legal cost of losing the culture war. It's amazing; enemies of our civilization have twisted words to their own uses while the rest of us play along.

Americans take up sex by age 9-10, as instructed by Hollywood and the government schools; half of all marriages end in divorce, and more than half of all parents are on their second or third marriage. This sexual deviation from the norm (faithful monogamy) resembles the animal kingdom; not what human family life was designed to be. The result of all this deviant coupling is that abortuaries offer no choice to a defenseless infant condemned to death, but it's called choice. With over 55 million dead (107,000 dead already just this January – 100 times more than gun-related deaths) the light bulb still doesn't come on because...well, it's judgmental.

Gay used to mean happy; now it means sexual perversion but the happy word is supposed to make it acceptable. In 37 states it is now to be treated as 'marriage' – another English word going down the memory hole; in 28 of those states, the entire population is being held hostage to sexual perverts, all by the imperial command of a single judge.

These life issues are supposed to be the duty of the family and local church – two other deeply corrupted institutions. My point here is that when we begin to see Americans calling obvious sin by its real name again, and staying with our first spouse through thick and thin, we'll know that Americans are now playing offense to restore this civilization. I'm with them.

The One-Sided War on Civilization

Though atheists and politically-correct historical revisionists will deny it, the truth is that two things held our civilization together: America's original Christian ethos, and our U.S. Constitution. Those that hack away at these moorings are at war with us; they invite Europe's values – and fate – to America. They began in Lincoln's era with the so-called 'Enlightenment', and then sexual license led to rampant divorce and over 53 million dead in America's abortuaries while most of us just stand by and watch.

No federal judge has the power or authorization to play Satan – enabling, supporting, or defending those who kill the most defenseless Americans. Though the annual rate of abortions is decreasing, still about 100,000 Americans are murdered each month in abortuaries, with the full protection of the federal government. This cannot continue.

Illegitimate Children of the 1960s

Drug addiction and rampant sexuality spread like malignant cancer beginning in the 1960s, from Hollywood to boardrooms and elementary schools. For the past decade, the militant sexual perversion lobby has taken the courts by storm, to force the populations of entire states to not only accept homosexual pairing, but to refer to it and legally treat it as ‘marriage’.

Hundreds of millions of normal Americans politely grin and bear it, as Greeks and Romans did during the fall of those perverse empires. The difference is that Greece and Rome were pagan and polytheistic, but America is Christian at our roots. Refusing to learn the lessons of history, we repeat them. We disregard our national sins and we play nice, not wanting to appear ‘offensive’ to those who kill the innocent and will happily treat our children as prey.

We live as moral mice, as Russians did while Stalin murdered 20 million; as the Chinese, while Mao did the same; as the Germans, during Hitler’s scourge. Time to awake, repent and then take action!

How Perverts Hold 37 States Hostage

Beginning in 2003 with a case in Massachusetts, the sexual pervert lobby began working on federal judges. In twelve years, they have won 19 federal rulings that now hold hostage the entire populations of 19 states. In Article III, Section 1 of the U.S. Constitution, We The People authorize Congress to create and maintain their own inferior courts – those are the federal courts – for purely federal matters.

But nowhere in the Constitution did We The People authorize Congress to take jurisdiction over sexual practices or social standards in our society! Far less do the federal courts – servants of OUR servant Congress – have any authority to rule on matters of sexual perversion parading about as ‘marriage’! This is pure mass delusion; mass insanity. The sooner We The People rein in our Congress and force them to rein in their federal courts, the sooner we will become America again.

The pervert lobby has had a decade to destroy our morals and our national morale; we can take back every bit of that lost ground, if we are as tactically shrewd as America’s enemies have been.

War-Mongers at the Trough

As seen in AmericaAgain!- The Movie (Part I), for 125 years, despite passionate pleas from two honest U.S. generals, we waved our flags as the military industry invaded and plundered over 40 countries in violation of the Constitution. We fell for shrewd hoaxes; a sinking or explosion gave cover to the puppeteers of William McKinley, Woodrow Wilson, FDR, LBJ, and G.W. Bush. This bloody fraud and pillage has warped the original American character. History's most productive non-interventionist society became earth's foremost plundering superpower – and proud of it. Three dehumanizing industries spawn this bloodlust in children: Hollywood's violence and horror genre, the computer gaming industry, and the military industry's recruiters. The result is children from pre-teen years onward who are addicted to killing, horror, and gore. Of the two available outlets for the addiction – a military career, or gang life – only the former comes with public praise and honor.

Now the Green Crescent Rises

Today, the other shoe now begins to drop – or as we Christians say, the next of God's judgments on a stiff-necked people. Militant Mohammedans are now beginning to take their turn on a clueless, self-absorbed people who live without a moral compass and have no plans to acquire one.

Militant Islam will follow the lead of the abortionists, illegal aliens and the welfare society, and militant sexual deviants; their group receives special attention and favors from Washington D.C., which then forces state and local governments to follow, in stupidity's race to the bottom.

As Rome burns, We The People just watch on the news or social media. Complaining on social media is not our best shot, as our civilization slides into the abyss in one lifetime. The mission of AmericaAgain! is to wake, recruit, educate, supply, support, and organize America's remnant (1% of the adult population will be enough) to restore our sanity and rule of law, starting now.

Not 'Religion' But Human Ethics

About 90% of the institutional church in America is not merely a pathetic joke, but a treacherous industry. The shameless careerists at America's pulpits should be locked up to keep them from further defrauding gullible folk. These wolves are a black mark on the gospel. If you're blessed to have found one of the 10% of local church bodies that still follow Christ, you've found a rare jewel.

This isn't about 'religion'; it's about the founding ethos of our republic – which is not Mormonism, Judaism, Roman Catholicism, Hinduism, Islam, Buddhism, or New Age Darwinism. Notice the ethics, family culture, economics, law and civics of a country; this is what a predominant religion does to a civilization. Christ's claims were truly revolutionary and they were exclusive; His way stands apart from all others. For three centuries those norms and nobility defined American civilization; you may not like that, but Christianity was the foundation of our civilization and ideas have consequences.

The ethos of Jesus Christ is not 'religion'; it is the opposite. It is a kind of life lived by man in a fallen world despite religions. America's founding norms and nobility were not 'Judeo-'anything. They were New Testament Christianity forging a civilization out of a thousand years of Anglo-Saxon Common Law, with people from all parts of the world.

AmericaAgain! is not about religion; but it is about rule of law, defending liberty, and limiting our servant federal government to the functions that We The People enumerated in the Constitution – and absolutely no others. Our mission is "We The People, enforcing constitutionally-limited government".

Congress and its federal courts are allowing our enemies to tear our civilization apart – and they are doing so in violation of the U.S. Constitution. We The People are the only power that can lawfully assure the U.S. Constitution is enforced against our servants (Congress) and their servants, the federal courts.

The Tenth Amendment reads, "The powers not delegated to [federal government] by the Constitution, not prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the People." More than 70% of what our federal servant government is doing today is illegal; nowhere authorized by us in the U.S. Constitution. AmericaAgain! is creating, defining, and leading a new way of life, allowing even a small remnant of Americans to assure that the sovereign People and States finally arrest out-of-control Washington D.C. by exercising our almost unlimited retained powers.

Ending the Enemy's Favorite Tactic

Consider our reform law #2 on page 49; the second of our 20 AmericaAgain! reform laws that we will force through passage. It will require that Congress keep its servant federal courts out of the issues of abortion, homosexuality, and keep them from applying international or alien religious law in America.

We The People have full control of Congress; in Article I, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution, we stipulate precisely what the federal government can do, so it has absolutely no lawful authority to do all of the other things it does today. We allow D.C. organized crime to continue – because millions of Americans receive checks from the cartel. But We The People can lawfully, peacefully end D.C. organized crime more quickly than most Americans realize.

Chapter Three

Hollow-Point Ammo and MRAP Vehicles

Over a dozen bankers commit suicide...billions of rounds of ammunition are solicited by federal agencies...thousands of armored MRAP vehicles are being delivered to American cities...a U.S. Army manual describes internment camps for American citizens...Germany demands its 374 tons of gold stored in the FED depository but so far gets less than 10% of it. What is going on?

Washington D.C. has been operating organized crime for 153 years. Counterfeiting operations always end when they are exposed; yet this one was exposed over 30 years ago, and still continues.

The only reason the FED cartel and debt-based fraudulent banking system has not been busted, with a return to honest banking and lawful (silver and gold) U.S. money as stipulated in our Constitution – is that such a return to honest money and banking will bring the most devastating deflationary crash that the world has ever experienced.

Yet, biblical and economic fundamentals demand that this crash must come, whether we like it or not. Our only question in days ahead should be: now, what will We The People do after the cataclysm, to end the cartels' control?

But first, let us consider what we will face. I have read articles, blog posts, and books suggesting that when inevitable financial collapse hits America, Civil War II will follow. I do not believe that position is supportable from history.

Mad Max, or Jericho?

To understand what life may be like for a period after a truly massive national disaster, see the TV series Jericho. In that series, the enemy (viewers don't learn who the enemy is until the end of Season 1) destroys 23 major U.S. cities, including Washington D.C., using nuclear bombs in steel drums. Though the nuclear scenario is far-fetched, the producers realistically depict the law of the jungle to be expected after a widespread collapse of society.

If you're a reader, a much more realistic scenario is painted by Mark Goodwin in his book American Exit Strategy: Book One of The Economic Collapse Chronicles. Mark is a national treasure for our day. Even if you think the 'prepper' movement is nuts, go to Mark's website Prepper Recon, and read a few of his blog posts. Goodwin is a rational, godly American; you should study his work and consider it.

Civil war and massive financial collapse are very different. They stem from different causes, employ different rules of engagement, involve different players, strategies, and tactics – and are distinct in terms of escalation, resolution, and probable outcome.

The theory of several other authors and website owners is that Congress' 150-year counterfeiting racket is coming to a cataclysmic end. I agree; but I'd like to offer a scenario that is more supportable from history than a second civil war. I think we face the scenario portrayed in Mark Goodwin's book -- and we have an opportunity to make the story end well for us, and very badly for the wicked money powers that have run Washington D.C. from behind the scenes for 175 years.

Big Brother is Looking Down on You

The federal government seeking to employ domestic aerial drones is a shocking development. A common news item on Infowars for years, it was brought to light for most Americans by Senator Rand Paul's March 2013 filibuster, reminiscent of countless speeches by his father, former Congressman Ron Paul, on the floor of the U.S. House. The younger Paul's speech opened the eyes of many Americans about the federal police-state buildup.

For more information on government drones – including swarms of drones the size of a quarter – read Goodwin's book. This is real, and it is ominous; but it need not end badly. We The People hold all the lawful power, and we have the numbers too.

Government Hoarding Ammo and Building Camps

Then there are the federal government's contracts to purchase over two billion rounds of hollow-point ammo. Jack Swint raised the issue in an August 2013 article; Alex Jones and Infowars ran a series of articles for several weeks in 2013 and again in early 2014 on the subject.

Then consider the recently exposed U.S. Army Field Manual FM 3-39.40 entitled Internment and Resettlement Operations, that mentions taking prisoners' Social Security numbers – demonstrating that it is meant for domestic internment camps.

In an early 2013 video, the YouTube channel called StormCloudsGathering demonstrated that per paragraphs 2-39 and 2-40, it does apply to detainment of U.S. citizens. Reviewing paragraph 7-16, it is obvious that these camps are indeed meant for Americans:

"Individual identification photographs are taken of all prisoners. The prisoner's last name, first name, and middle initial are placed on the first line of a name board, and the prisoner's social security number is placed on the second line. A prisoner registration number may be added on the third line. Two front and two profile pictures are taken of the prisoner. Fingerprints are obtained according to AR 190-47."

Oath Keepers founder Stewart Rhodes took the civil war position in a 2014 article, as did author Daxton Brown in his book Surviving Civil War II. Dozens of other dystopian guidebooks and novels also adopt the thesis that a civil war must follow the collapse of Congress' 150-year-long counterfeiting of U.S. Dollars and defaulting on its $122 trillion ocean of 'entitlement' pork.

The Civil War II theorists propose that the TEA Party movement and other constitutionalists will be on one side, but they pose different ideas of who will comprise the other side. Will it be only the 'evil government,' or perhaps an alliance of predators, parasites, and communists... Occupy Wall Street, unions, bureaucrats, welfare and Social Security recipients, and more? In Surviving Civil War II, the author suggests a shooting war using guerrilla tactics. I think these scenarios are unrealistic in light of our 19th and 20th century history, but these facts are not in dispute:

1. federal agencies are buying billions of rounds of hollow-point ammunition;
2. federal government does have a disaster plan that includes internment camps.

Use Common Sense

These two facts do not necessarily demand that Civil War II be the result. If my position is correct – that Great Depression II is coming, instead – then the ammunition orders and internment camps can be put in perspective. Again, I recommend watching the TV series Jericho for a plausible depiction of the breakdown of social order that will follow the failure of the FED cartel's scam. Add in a national shortage of food, power and/or water – and especially in urban zones, law of the jungle will kick in fast.

Property owners will want law and order to be maintained. But maintaining order in a civil war scenario is a very different set of challenges from restoring lawful money, banking, and civil government after arresting D.C. organized crime and cutting out the parasite class and corporate predator class.

Who are the Good and Bad Guys?

Our domestic enemy that presents a clear and present danger to the security of the United States is thus organized crime in Washington D.C., particularly in the U.S. Congress.

Not all members of Congress are corrupt, but many of them are. Their organized crime operations are clearly detailed in AmericaAgain!- The Movie (Part I). Since 1862, Congress has overseen the largest financial crime in history. That movie is free for the viewing in the video section of our website.

We The People face not a civil war, but law enforcement challenges. We must apply penal sanctions, then restore the Constitution's lawful form of U.S. money: gold and silver coin. Below, I'll explain one scenario for lawful money transition.

Restoring lawful U.S. money and credit is an Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 law enforcement mission of the Citizen Militia, organized and mustered by the legislatures of the sovereign States. If it comes to force of arms in these United States, no one else can lawfully assume the mission. That's the law.

Great Depression II, Not Civil War II

I repeat: restoring Rule of Law in America is not war; it's a law enforcement mission of the Citizen Militia organized and equipped by the legislatures and governors of the States. But most American gun owners are not trained in warfare – and only one State Legislature out of 50 (Arizona) even has a Militia statute as required by the Constitution. So when the wheels come off of society, 200 million American sheep will become deadly serious, overnight. They'll want heads to roll, and they'll demand resumption of constitutional order, yet will be unequipped to do their duty as stipulated in the Constitution.

For local, county, and State peace officers from constables up to State Guard, perhaps tens of millions of rounds of ammo will be needed to stop starving looters, rapists, carjackers, arsonists, and murderers that would swarm across America in the worst case. That will be a 21st century re-enactment not of the Great Depression, but of Mad Max. Jack Swint, Daxton Brown, Stewart Rhodes, and many others paint this bleak picture, and with no recovery plan in place, the FED cartel scam's collapse will make a very bleak life for all of us.

But the worst part needn't last more than a year or two if we can force our Lawful U.S. Money and Banking Act into law. It is designed to make the transition to lawful money in the shortest time possible, finally ending Congress' 153-year counterfeiting crime. AmericaAgain! will be vital – and I believe that Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers' Association (CSPOA) and Oath Keepers will be vital, also. As long as a few million sane, righteous citizens exist, America can avoid civil war in favor of long-overdue law enforcement.

The Vital Role of Citizen Militia

Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution stipulates that the Citizen Militia must "execute the laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections...".

But as constitutional scholars Edwin Vieira and Jon Roland have maintained for decades: constitutional Citizen Militia is not a gaggle of autonomous vigilante groups. It is the citizen self-defense force, always 'well-regulated' by the State Legislature, close to and accountable to the People.

Swint, Brown, Rhodes, and countless other 'Civil War II' prophets suggest that the TEA Party will square off against the State and be treated as rebels; the exact opposite of what the Constitution stipulates. But by law, the Citizen Militia regulated by its State government is the top of America's law enforcement and military defense system.

Consider the first Great Depression, over 85 years ago; it gives us an idea of the shattering social upheaval and family ruin in our future. But surely Great Depression II will be far bloodier – thus likely, also far shorter in duration. If properly-regulated Citizen Militia does not jump in and fill the void in public order, government agencies will – because someone has to.

In our proper constitutional regime of national defense and law enforcement, forces are predominantly Citizen Militia under officers appointed by State Legislatures. National armies are only called up for two years at a time, for declared wars with a demonstrable purpose to defend these United States.

Arresting organized crime will bring vital catharsis for the Constitution and for American ethics and virtue. The battle space will be the Internet, the State criminal courts, and the court of public opinion. Since some in Congress do not support this organized crime, we can't accurately label the coming cataclysm as 'the People vs. the government'.

It is law enforcement. It must be undertaken by a coalition of the willing – local and county law enforcement and State Guard, but primarily Citizen Militia forces performing our duty for the first time in 175 years. Read the Constitution; this is what the law stipulates.

The Painful Death of American Marxism

Years of law enforcement and public education will be necessary to re-condition tens of millions of communist parasites that there is no such thing as a free lunch. I refer not only to the parasitic poor; millions of middle-class and upper-class parasites and predators exist as well. The parasite and predator classes do not produce anything useful, yet some of them are the wealthiest, most honored members of society. As in the first Great Depression, many of them will find themselves in humbling, menial jobs.

Entitled to Split the Loot?

Millions of retired Americans demand that Washington D.C. keep skimming America's payroll accounts, to pay them back the Social Security and Medicare payments that Washington D.C. skimmed from their payroll checks over their careers. Here's the problem with that: it is illogical and immoral, and it only legitimizes government fraud and theft. Let me pose an analogy.

Imagine that a ring of thieves operates in your town and has become well-known for bold daylight robberies; yet you refuse to lock your home or take any other precautions. Finally last month, the thieves stole almost everything of value in your home: jewelry, computers, cash and precious metals in your little vault, cameras and electronics, firearms, and the fancy new $20,000 home theater system. The police were no help at all; nothing was recovered. Because you failed to lock your home or use basic precautions, your insurance carrier refused to pay. You're just out of luck.

Totally depressed, you decide to stay home from work for a day and you witness the thieves coming in and out of your neighbor's front door, carrying out all of their valuables. Your young neighbor always listened to your advice; liked your two best firearms so much that he bought identical ones, and purchased a few thousand silver Eagles, as you recommended he do. He even bought a home theater system identical to the one that you used to have.

So, would you walk over to the thieves' van and start taking all of the stuff that matches the stuff that they stole from you last month? The firearms, home theater system, jewelry and silver coins? After all, you are entitled, right? They took exactly the same stuff from you, so why shouldn't you take it from what they're stealing from younger folks who are still working?

Ethically and morally, it's a perfect analogy. Regardless how much the federal government has stolen from you over your career, you are not entitled to what they are now stealing from people who are working today! You were simply ripped off, and have to write it off – as difficult as that may be.

Washington D.C. is organized crime; it is defrauding and stealing from 125 million taxpayers, and splitting the loot with 40 million parasites and 75 million retirees who would never consider themselves predators. If you take money from organized crime, you are just that.

The U.S. Constitution nowhere authorizes 75% of all federal agencies, bureaus, departments, programs, and communist benefits – yet tens of millions of Americans demand these 'entitlements' and other federal freebies from the taxpaying population. Social Security is completely bankrupt; a fraud. Like Medicare, Medicaid, Food Stamps, Disability, student loans, and hundreds of illegal agencies and bureaus – all of it is absolutely unconstitutional. That means illegal.

Ironically, Jimmy Carter in 1980 attempted to throttle back the fraudulent federal Disability scam, but Congress reacted by expanding it instead, with the fraudulent Social Security Disability Benefits Reform Act of 1984 – and Ronald Reagan signed it into law. Good old 'conservative' Reagan.

The breakdown of Rule of Law requires that basic social order be first restored: Do not murder. Do not steal. Americans must produce, rather than live off the production of others; in other words, return to the Protestant work ethic that characterized us for three centuries.

As was necessary after the fall of the USSR, the oldest two generations will continue to demand their government giveaways even when it is obvious that they're illegal and nonexistent. These people will no longer be able to traipse across America in their RV, or go to Vegas or on cruises. They will either get to work, or find support from their kids and grandkids, or plug into churches and social circles...or have a very hard end in life.

To restore our constitutional republic and the norms and nobility that our founders demanded of themselves, we must repent. No more communist 'safety net' from Washington, D.C. that keeps the largest cut of the action. We must return to the American way that made us a productive people for three centuries before Woodrow Wilson.

Life After Great Depression II

The responsible citizen who will rebuild America, will be the citizen that produces more than he consumes; who employs others and takes risks, rather than seeking an easy life. There are still tens of millions of Americans who meet that description. In tough times, they will hire at least a few others; in some cases, they'll hire hundreds. They will make products that Americans really need – and we will buy American more than ever before, because all countries will become protectionist after the collapse.

The hardest hit sector will be the world's largest gambling casino – the financial industry. By definition, an industry must actually be industrious; must actually produce something of value. The American banker, financial dealer and trader, and brokers do not fit that description. Who knows what will become of the countless fancy little branch bank buildings, when only one in ten survives?

Much else will change, too. Washington, D.C. will become very small in your life. The Medicare and Social Security scams will die; every American will once more be responsible for his or her own life and future as the founders intended. Most other federal agencies will be defunded, and life will return to what it was a few generations ago. This will be a very good thing for America's future and character.

Restoring Lawful U.S. Money and Banking

Sooner or later, Americans will return to using lawful U.S. money as stipulated in the U.S. Constitution; this is a basic fact of life. So what will happen when silver and gold U.S. money as demanded by law, is restored? I'll offer a scenario that is realistic, unlike the silly $1 trillion platinum 'debt coin' idea floated by Obama supporters in 2013, in an effort to supposedly 'pay off the national debt'.

First, assume the stated government gold reserves (8,100 metric tons) do exist. Second, assume that all gold held privately in America, is left out of the calculation for now, as an offsetting assumption.

Third, assume that only one-third of the estimated 25,000 metric ton domestic silver mine reserves are monetized in the near-term. Fourth, leave out all existing publicly minted coins and private coin or bullion reserves of silver – another offsetting assumption.

Using those assumptions and U.S. Base Money Supply of $8 trillion and M3 (total long-term CDs in US banks) at $10 trillion, Congress could restore lawful U.S. money and 'regulate the value' of silver to $4,300 per troy ounce and gold to $64,500 per troy ounce for monetary use.

That is of course a very unrealistic number – at least twice what the market would allow. This is because when Congress resumes lawful U.S. money consisting of 100% gold and silver backing for all bank transactions and U.S. Dollar paper bill print runs, domestic and foreign holders of silver and gold will beat a path to the U.S. market to sell their ounces of precious metal for thousands or tens of thousands of honest new U.S. Dollars. Thus, a more realistic new value might be, say $1300/oz silver and $20,000/oz gold.

If you think this is preposterous because large gold and silver holders would become insanely wealthy, consider that for the past century, the insanely wealthy have been those holding large amounts of casino paper – Federal Reserve counterfeit U.S. Dollars, and the derivatives of that scam and the other scam called 'fractional reserve' loans. Is that arrangement more ethical than obeying the U.S. Constitution's stipulations for lawful money, allowing value to flow once more to real assets and labor?

The staggering financial crime is a financial industry enabled and supported by Congress to steal hundreds of trillions of dollars in labor and assets from America's productive class. To exacerbate the destruction, Congress for the past century has then used this 'air money' to bloat its bureaucracy and an American socialist parasite horde that now threatens our electoral process.

The ancient counterfeiting crime must be arrested; our perfect opportunity is the inevitable collapse of the U.S. 'dollar' and the financial casino.

Financial mega-shocks are by nature deflationary, so a period of deflation is to be expected. Retailers and stockholders always resist deflation at all costs, but in the coming cataclysm they will be powerless to resist. Think cancer surgery.

Incidentally, when you think of lawful U.S. money (backed 100% by gold and silver specie) don't envision carrying around huge amounts of precious metal coins. The U.S. Mint manufactures over 12 billion base metal, partial-silver, silver, and gold coins every year. That would continue and most transactions will still be electronic, paper checks, or U.S. Dollar silver certificates.

The difference will be that all transactions will be backed by 100% vault reserves and audited perhaps monthly, weekly, or even as frequently as daily, depending on the robustness of the auditing software and hardware.

Don't let the financial industry conjurers blow smoke in your eyes; this is easily accomplished and computers are very efficient. We The People merely have to hold the U.S. Congress accountable under the law – with zero tolerance for future fraud and embezzlement.

Downsizing the Federal Leviathan

The wise and diligent will prosper; the foolish and slothful will live hard lives. Amusement-oriented industries will die within months, as we realize how many careers have been wasteful and foolish in the extreme. The 700+ military installations around the world will be eliminated, since not one of them meets the Constitution's stipulations for military defense.

The automotive and petroleum industries will die in their present forms as consumption drops to half of today's levels – and as the 'Peak Oil' theory of the end of the world as we know it, is shoved off the stage by new data theorizing almost unlimited oil from abiotic deep-earth processes.

American economic activity in some areas will drop to the level of Europe; many Europeans will slide to Asia's level; much of Asia will slide back into the Third World for a time.

Communism, fraud, and counterfeiting are not American values. D.C. organized crime and millions of Baby Boomer 'entitlement' co-conspirators have gamed productive America – and this must end.

In Leviticus 25 and 27, every fiftieth year is the yobel -- the Jubilee when slaves are set free, debt is wiped out, and property returned to its original owners. In our context, tax slaves have their bill wiped out, bureaucrats are forced to find real work, and banks lose their exalted positions over owners of assets that were earned by real work of borrowers.

A New Way of Life: AmericaAgain!

AmericaAgain! will bring real responsibility and accountability back into American life. When 'the Big One' comes this time, We The People won't wander about aimlessly as we did in the 1930s; this time, a tactical remnant of We The People will assure that when the organized crime cancer surgery is over, it won't begin all over again as soon as the smoke clears.

We have identified and isolated the enemies of our Republic; we have developed tactical and strategic defenses equal to, and appropriate for, the threat. We have swept away the false flags and now see the battle space with unclouded eye.

A presently unseen force of millions of Americans will move into action after the first shocks hit and a harsh new reality sets in. Americans showed the world what we could do when driven by contrived world wars – how much more can we do when our republic is on the brink of destruction from within?

AmericaAgain! is preparing for reality in the light of history, rather than the scenarios painted by most dystopian novels. Great Depression II is inevitable, and Americans should be preparing for it. This time, a critical mass of Americans can be sincerely repentant and diligent before God, to lead the most exciting period in six American generations. Remember this, when that morning dawns and Great Depression II has begun. How it ends will be up to us.

Chapter Four

Conservative Talk is Poison

Like the horror film genre, the conservative talk industry is entertainment that excites the limbic system of the brain, inciting repeated anxiety, fear, and anger -- and is thus both cruel and destructive.

However, it produces excellent financial results because Americans are predictable consumers. Over the past generation, many young Americans came to love horror films. In the same way, I believe millions have become addicted to conservative talk, making it potentially worse for America's future than open communism.

Some of these stars openly admit that they are merely entertainers; most of them do not, and most listeners cannot discern that conservative talk is just that: talk.

During my lifetime, Americans transmogrified from an industrious people with time only for factual news -- into self-obsessed consumers, seeking entertainment in place of news. Today, a factual news report won't garner market share; too many limbic systems have been conditioned to fear, anxiety, and rage. They are now like a drug for millions of conservatives.

Does this describe you? Be honest with yourself; do you go on social media to argue, knowing you won't improve a thing? Do you listen to these talk show hosts knowing that nothing they say ever improves anything?

How the Industry Operates

Consider the passionate hero that you listen to or read, every day. Having invented the market, Rush Limbaugh removed his mask years ago; he readily admitted to being a GOP shill and an entertainer. But don't you ever wonder who will give himself a heart attack first -- Mark Levin or Alex Jones -- from all his screaming and 'anger'?

Conservative radio, TV, and Internet 'news' shares an entertainment market with ABC, MSNBC, CNN, FOX, et al...and the political parties...and the non-profits...and the End-Times preachers.

Here's the drill: keep the folks hopping mad; fear and loathing brings audience, who buy your brand-name tea...or your precious metals merchant's stuff...or your colloidal silver, water filters, and emergency food...or they will run their credit card for your latest 'money bomb' campaign or Holy Land cruise.

How long can you milk a sheep? Several decades, apparently. Get the picture now, angry patriot: if you're sincerely upset and want to restore America, these stars won't help you. Rush, Sean, Glenn, Mark, Mike, Alex, Dennis, Joe, Laura, Michael -- as well as NRA, GOA, Cato Institute, Heritage Foundation, Hillsdale College, and many other 501c3s making up 'conservatism' today -- are conservative only in that they seek to conserve their golden goose.

Don't take it personally; it's just business. A talk-star is a businessman first, in an entertainment market that daily mines a rich and growing demographic vein: the productive, disgruntled, patriotic American. Perhaps the entertainer figures, "Addicted 'talkies' will go someplace on the dial; it may as well be me!".

The GOP needs the Democrat party and vice-versa, to remain relevant (profitable); political junkies pay to see a fight. In the same way, the world of conservative talk needs to have the bad guy: organized crime in government and an increasingly tyrannical police state. These stars are just giving you what you demand. I just want you to think about this, and appreciate the irony of your own conditioning and inaction.

American Christians Have Been Here Before

One would think that gullible Americans learned their lesson after decades of public exposures of charlatans Kenneth Copeland, Benny Hinn, Creflo Dollar, Kenneth Hagin, Marilyn Hickey, Joyce Meyer, Joel Osteen, Oral Roberts, and many others. But no; when P.T. Barnum said, "there's a sucker born every minute", he was being too conservative.

Of course it's a free country. Do as you like with your money; it's none of my business. My point is only that you need to realize that no amount of listening or donating to entertainers will ever restore America. First, real solutions would put the entertainer out of business; second, no entertainer or think tank can restore a Republic. Popular sovereignty means: solutions are the duty of every citizen.

Five principles made America unique for generations:

- 1) Popular sovereignty – the People as highest authority (and true federalism; sovereign States)
- 2) Christian faith and principles including the 'Protestant work ethic'
- 3) Private property
- 4) Citizen Militia and coastal Navy as our only armed forces
- 5) George Washington's principle, "avoid entangling alliances" (foreign non-intervention)

These original American principles were dismantled by Lincoln who, like several presidents before him and almost every president after him, operated under orders from the wealthy mercantilists that run the world.

The Gun Lobby and Non-Profit Industry

Conservative talk is not limited to radio, TV, and the Internet. For instance, the NRA and GOA will never restore the citizen militia of the several States, as demanded by law; your dues to them is wasted on political fireworks, nothing more.

Besides educating us about what we've already heard, when have we ever seen any nonprofit (Heritage Foundation, Cato Institute, et al) actually sponsor real action for reform? Like government agencies, conservative think-tanks reform nothing. They produce monographs and studies, and sponsor expensive conferences that at the very most are reactive; they will never restore what we already lost.

They stir the same politics pot that has attracted the stars of 'conservative talk'. Their goal is to keep you angry, afraid, and buying or paying to 'fight the crisis'. In time, all this pointless 'action' without any restoration will make you cynical. But by then, they will have made their pile from your purchases and donations.

The most successful such campaign I ever witnessed was WorldNet Daily's 2009 Send Congress a Pink Slip campaign, that brought in $275 million from over nine million Americans in the Fall of the TEA Party's birth year. It accomplished nothing besides enriching its organizers.

These conservative heroes and organizations are no different from the liberal media, or the two corrupt political parties. They are all about market share, audience size, and ad space. However much truth you learn from them, and however much you love your favorite conservative star, they will never sponsor or push for real solutions to end the reign of the D.C. Leviathan. It's all about the money.

They need the threat to continue, so that you will keep running your credit card. Your frustration and fear is their profit model.

The first step in recovery: Admitting what you are

Einstein said that one definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over again, yet always expecting a different result. If you listen to Rush or read WorldNetDaily or Infowars every day, you will never become part of a solution. You can go to the WND or Infowars site and learn how to buy gold and ammo, hide in the boondocks, feed yourself, and kill the hungry neighbors pounding at your door, when the time comes. You can sign up for any of the NewsMax pop-up ads, and receive a "super-special, eye-opening, life-changing report...FREE!" Along with a gazillion pieces of junk mail for the rest of your life.

The stars of conservative talk will never lead a critical mass of citizens to become a unified force to preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States.

The same applies to your social media addiction. Face it -- no amount of posting patriotic quotations or pictures will change anything. Notice: has your favorite conservative web site, radio or TV show, or social media site ever promoted a real solution? Or does it just stir up your fear, loathing, and blood pressure every single day?

How about your conservative talk-star's "action plan"; did Glenn Beck's first nine "final solution" plans work out for you? Or did you finally get the picture that building ratings (thus advertiser revenue) is what these stars are after?

Guess what? Mark Levin isn't really as blood-spittingly angry as he sounds. It's his act. He's actually quite happy with his stellar ad revenue. Do you wonder how they can drum up a new cauldron of righteous indignation again tomorrow, and the next day, and the next? That's entertainment; it's an entertainer's talent. After Limbaugh made his first $50 million, he was able to start having fun as his former 'anger' cooled. The others will, too, once their estates reach a certain level.

Passive listening -- even if you scream at your radio -- changes nothing. It is not the kind of life lived by sovereigns. We became passive couch-potatoes; the conservative talk industry moved in to feed on the demographic pig-in-a-python. Limbaugh made the model for all others to follow; dozens found their own 'true believer' demographic segment. Hundreds of cities' local radio stations now play nothing but wall-to-wall conservative talkers and their wall-to-wall advertisements; they know what pays.

A destructive feedback loop

Each of these actors has built and refined his own shtick and on-air theatrical persona. This is sick. These performers should be ashamed of themselves for doing this. But when you listen to them and pay them, you are half of the feedback loop that makes Glenn cry, makes Mark scream as though he's about to have a heart attack, and makes the veins in Alex's neck and forehead pop out as he almost turns clinical. You have told them what you like; just as is true of horror movie fans, you've told them that you want the ranting, the tears, the never-ending fear and loathing.

Please understand the sin here, fellow Christian: as is the case with adultery, or drug abuse, or needing to drink every night, or pornography and masturbation, you are consciously giving yourself over to gradual self-destruction and sin. Of course the drug dealers, liquor stores, and porn industry love you -- but you are still pouring your God-given life and energy into the sewer. You can stop this, even if you absolutely LOVE Rush, or Glenn, or Mark, or Alex, or whoever.

Fellow American, grow up! Please don't tell me that I'm barking up the wrong tree; I'm exposing the conservative talk phenomenon for what it is -- and it is NOT substantive solutions. To start regaining what we've lost, it's time to tune out the high-blood-pressure machine and get working on solutions.

A Note of Clarification

I am not suggesting that I know everything that these individuals or organizations are doing in life. Nor am I suggesting that many of them do not engage in wonderful acts of charity or public service. They very well might. Nor am I suggesting that they are horrible people; "Love the sinner, hate the sin" in this context means that a great person can still feed a destructive societal mechanism. Most of these celebrities seem like very nice people; but at the end of the day, it's entertainment. It's a show.

Nor do I paint The Mike Church Show with this brush. From years of following that show, I know that Mike Church has taught American history, civics, and the Constitution even though it has meant smaller market share. Mike is the unique 'Re-Founding Father' in the industry.

We The People are the most to blame -- we neuter ourselves. These stars and organizations are simply feeding on low-hanging fruit; a huge, profitable opportunity. Like you, they can't help themselves; it's a great gig once you get there. Why would they want to change?

Some Bridges Need Burning

To you who say, "Zuniga is attacking potential allies of AmericaAgain!" -- truth is never bad policy. If my assessment of the conservative talk industry is accurate, they will never promote a solution like AmericaAgain! because ending the crimes that they harp about every day, would kill their golden goose of advertising and product sales revenues.

Besides Mike Church already mentioned, if my assessment is wrong in the case of a rare conservative talker, he will support AmericaAgain! to prove it -- but I won't hold my breath. I would love for AmericaAgain! to obtain support from talkers, but my deepest conviction is that the conservative talk industry is conditioning the American people as the Reagan presidency did: all the more dangerous because we think it is a solution even though in 30 years it hasn't been.

Leave Your Destructive Addictions

We and some of our members have tried over the years to get conservative talkers to support AmericaAgain! – but they simply refuse. Now you see why; they have a conflict of interests, and they'd rather keep that goose laying those golden eggs.

The answer to the conservative talk industry is to turn them off! Show this analysis to your addicted friend who spends hours per day listening to conservative talkers – or who spends just as much time posting futile arguments, quotations, pictures, or cynical jokes on social media. What's the point?

Reading and listening to the work of others never restored a civilization; cynicism and venting at a radio or on social media will only make you more cynical. It has already taken millions of Americans out of the fight. We have become much too soft, and while most Americans have no stamina or discipline, AmericaAgain! is looking for only the 1% that do.

Our civilization was, and again can be, unique in the world by renewing our disposition to courageous action. The New World now resembles the Old World in all the worst aspects – yet we have the best opportunity in over 150 years, to restore America to the Founding Fathers' amazing design; a republic of sovereign States, superintended by We The People, the top sovereigns – even if only a very small but responsible minority take action.

By beginning to perform the duty that makes us Americans, we can begin to restore America as no entertainer will ever do. The Internet is the most powerful tactical force massing tool in history – and our Constitution still stands, but only to the extent that we enforce it. Conservative talkers are not conserving anything, but We The People can – only if we repent our hopeless inaction and cynicism, and put action to our talk.

Chapter Five

The Threefold Mission

AmericaAgain! is a private, perpetual, charitable trust designed to last as long as the U.S. Constitution does. Its mission is “We The People, enforcing constitutionally-limited government.”

This book unpacks this new way of life – We The People taking up our duty for popular sovereignty, as our parents and grandparents and great-grandparents failed to do. That’s a tall order, but it’s the only chance we have to restore our country before it slides off the cliff into the ash-heap of history.

If you think that’s not where we’re headed, read history: Egypt, Persia, Greece, Rome, and many others believed they were the last word in civilizations – until suddenly they weren’t. In relatively modern times, the same could be said of the Ottoman Turks, of the Czars of Russia, and of the monarchs and vast mercantile companies of England, Spain, France, Portugal, and Holland.

Now only these United States are left among the world’s so-called great powers. For a few centuries (ca. 1620-1836) our civilization was perhaps truly great. Punctuated by a short-lived constitutional republic of high ideals, America then careened headlong in a tunnel of European ‘Enlightenment’; a succession of humanist utopias each with loftier promises, each ending in ethical and economic dereliction like housing projects with peeling paint and all the windows broken out.

Francis Fukuyama’s 1992 book The End of History and The Last Man was the pathetic swan song of American mercantilists’ 125-year binge that cost America her identity. The truth, as explained in AmericaAgain! – The Movie (Part I), is that since Lincoln’s time, Washington D.C. has been truly evil. The Constitution does not empower anyone to seek ‘national greatness’; it only enables us all to live in liberty and peace – both of which are endangered species in America today.

Economics is 90% ethics and 10% math. Our citizen duty is not limited to voting! This book first laid out the short-term plan for the coming few years to bust D.C. organized crime. Then we explain the three long-term aspects of the AmericaAgain! mission. First, Chapter Nine explains how the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™ will turn the tables on D.C. organized crime forever, answering common objections to this new way of life.

Chapter Ten unpacks the 20 reform laws that we will force through Congress using the Indictment Engine™ – and thus restore everything that D.C. organized crime has stolen from us.

Chapter Eleven explains the last of the three aspects, our self-defense mechanism: AmericaAgain! Minutemen™, restoring the original mission of the Citizen Militia, as our Constitution stipulates is the duty of the sovereign People and States.

The Idea of America

It is important to understand that D.C. was not alone in accomplishing our culture's destruction. It had a great deal of help from allies on the Right (banking-oil-war-pharma-etc) and plastic Christianity that transformed truth into easily-caricatured lies. On the Left, an endless horde of petty, blue-light bureaucrats, communism's empty promises, Hollywood's sexual license making normal marriage and family endangered species, and atheism's march to nihilism and lust for violence and horror.

Together, these revolutions against America's original ethos have twisted us into a truly illegal alien culture. Is America simply going the way of all flesh, following an evolutionary pattern to senescence and death? Is our civilization to die the death of a thousand cuts, like the Old World?

The premise of AmericaAgain! is that as the world's melting-pot America must not quit, but repent and walk a new way forward in the faith and diligence of our fathers.

In a March 2014 article entitled Bring Back Ideology, Elaine Glaser poses the Millennials' challenge of the Internet age: "Digital consumerism makes us too passive to revolt or to save the world. If we accept it as inevitable, it will indeed lead to the end of history, in more ways than one."

Our forefathers defied all the odds and European convention to forge this New World. It can work again; but We The People have a duty and responsibility to oversee those who are supposed to represent us and obey the Constitution but who are instead pillaging us, tracking us, and violating our highest law.

The whole world begs for the idea that was America, to show itself still alive. But first, we have much to repent; then comes the duty that once characterized Americans. It is difficult, but achievable. The only difference between great delusion and great vision is great perseverance and faith.

Chapter Six

Finding The Good Guys

The AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™ is a long-term prosecutorial tool by which our members can make State criminal courts enforce the U.S. Constitution. Not by appealing to the Constitution, but by harmonizing a defendant's crimes against our Constitution with certain sections of the defendant's State Penal Code. That's how you play hardball, and We The People need to play hardball against D.C. organized crime for the rest of American history.

But surely some members of Congress are willing to split with their corrupt elders and obey the law? We trust that there are at least a few good guys in Congress. To find them, we have launched our AmericaAgain! Good Guys campaign.

Good Guys and Bad Guys

This campaign is also designed for future crooked defendants who attempt to use the 'willfulness defense' to have their criminal indictment thrown out. AmericaAgain!- The Movie publicly asserts seven major criminal counts against every member of Congress. We give public notice to each member until we've invited all 535 members of Congress to stop supporting D.C. organized crime. Once we hold a Good Guys event in front of their office and mail them their documents, they can't plead ignorance. If they dismiss our invitation, they prove that they willfully choose D.C. business as usual.

AmericaAgain! Good Guys Banner Event

You can become an AmericaAgain! District Organizer and receive a year free membership. The first action you take is to host a 20-minute flash-mob event in front of the closest district office of your U.S. congressman or senator. Here's the process...

Bring together a few people to hold up the 10-foot long AmericaAgain! Good Guys banner, and have someone take a group photo. Read the speech (see Appendix C) aloud. And that's it; a 20-minute 'flash mob' event. Upload your group photo with your name, event location, and total number attending.

AmericaAgain! headquarters will mail the package of documents (see Appendix C) to your target.

If your target agrees to be a Good Guy, we will notify you of the date, time and location of your signing event with your Good Guy member of Congress. Unfortunately, we expect very few of them to be Good Guys.

For example, one of our targets for our first Good Guys event (January 2015) was the crowing rooster Ted Cruz, who happens to be married to a career banker with Goldman Sachs. We haven't heard a peep from Ted, although we have heard him crow his conservative credentials for years. In an Iowa stump speech in early 2015, he said that everyone claims to be a conservative, "But you know what? Talk is cheap." Our sentiments exactly, Senator Cruz.

In addition to the Good Guys campaign, AmericaAgain! is sending a loud shot across the bow of our corrupt Congress – the Bad Guys – with our FearThePeople™ campaign, beginning April 15, 2015 and continuing through 2016 and beyond. Its two action campaigns, described in Chapter One, are designed to prove to ourselves as a free people that we can indeed divide and conquer Washington D.C. organized crime, by ratifying the original First Amendment of 1789 and then bringing our servants home to work under permanent probation.

Of course, the Washington D.C. machine is huge and powerful, and has a 200-year head start. That industry will not fear an organization with a few hundred members! But the whole world will take notice of an organization with a solid plan of action, short term and long term – especially when that organization has 500,000 members or more.

Now let's turn to that tactical aspect, our FEAR the People campaign.

Chapter Seven

When Government Fears The People

One of many quotations attributed to Thomas Jefferson but not actually his, is a statement made by John Barnhill in a 1914 debate about socialism: "Where the people fear the government you have tyranny; where the government fears the people, you have liberty."

Thomas Jefferson didn't say it, but the aphorism is true of many human relationships. Consider parents who spoil their children to the point that they eventually fear them. In egregious cases such as the infamous Menendez brothers, the parents create sociopaths who murder them without remorse.

Do YOU Support State-Sponsored Terrorism?

Terrorism is defined as violent acts, or threat of violent acts, intended to create or instill fear in victims. While sociopath is an apt label for many in Congress, beyond its own violations of law is Congress' criminogenic nature. It teaches federal, state, county, and city agencies to follow its bent path, and share the loot. For instance, no organization on earth is so feared by so many, as Congress' IRS operation. Countless millions of Americans work their whole lives but never manage to get ahead; Congress' IRS thugs take the first bite out of every paycheck. The longstanding arrangement allows criminals in D.C. to live as royalty at your expense. This is not merely foolish, this is evil.

Our servants in D.C. control our lives, property, and future. Making illegal 'laws' for us, they exempt themselves. They've counterfeited our money for 150 years, for goodness sake! They invite millions of illegals over our border, forcing us to pay the welfare, healthcare, incarceration, and 'free' government schooling costs so they can milk the illegals' votes. But what do they do for us, their sovereigns? They track, record, and store our conversations, emails, travel and purchase records; they fine us for using our own land – and they regulate everything from our lightbulbs to our toilet flushes!

Having never enforced our highest law, our sociopath servants have refined their arrogance over generations. Rather than represent us for a few years, then returning to their normal lives back home, career politics makes a mockery of the offices that We The People created in our supreme law. Yes, they're criminals; but we enable them and only we can see to it that they're stopped. If we don't end this nonsense, our children will live under an even more fascist police state.

Boogeyman, Bag-Man, and ATM Machine

As a law-abiding Nontaxpayer for the past 16 years, I maintain a hobby website, TaxHonestyPrimer.com, where I list the names of 14 operatives of IRS that confronted me over almost a decade (they've been quiet for 7-8 years). Not one of these servants ever contacted me twice, nor did they ever touch a hair on my head or a dollar in my accounts, or attempt to take me to court. I tell the truth, obey the law, and make my public servants do the same.

In 1997, I bought a single-volume edition of the Tax Code and I read and highlighted it. After two years of due diligence, I saw that most Americans never owed a tax or had a duty to file anything with IRS.

I thought back on 20 years listening to my CPAs. I was a registered Architectural Engineer designing multi-million-dollar facilities and their intricate architectural, structural, mechanical, and electrical systems. A licensed pilot and SCUBA instructor, I happily swam with sharks at night in open ocean. Why on earth, without ever cracking a Tax Code, had I been terrorized by Congress' boogeyman since my first paycheck? It was pure ignorance, feeding irrational fear.

For two decades I accepted the conventional wisdom spun by the tax industry; did what my parents and grandparents had done. I feared Congress' boogeyman in the black hood. But since 1998, I've been among the estimated 67 million non-filers in America, and never feared my servants again.

As recent IRS hearings in Congress prove, the agency has zero credibility – but of course, so does Congress! Those Good Cop-Bad Cop hearings are cheap theater. The first (and last) official Historian of the IRS was Shelley Davis, who wrote a book exposing Congress' IRS mafia – and Congress didn't lift a finger. Why would they? IRS is Congress' magic ATM machine; they wouldn't dare make it less effective at skimming your payroll account. They love your money.

My website TaxHonestyPrimer.com has often been visited by tax attorneys, CPAs, and IRS operatives. I've crossed swords over the years with all of these, yet they've never tried to take me to court, and never placed any restraint on my hobby website as they have done to dozens of 'tax relief' and 'de-taxing' sites. If you read that site you'll know why they steer clear. If they ever brought me before 12 of my peers, I would show a dozen more Americans exactly how busted Congress and the IRS are.

As you can imagine, I take great satisfaction that AmericaAgain! plans to launch our FearThePeople™ campaign on April 15, 2015. If you fear the IRS, you should follow this campaign and join AmericaAgain!. This year, We The People begin to turn the tables on earth's largest, longest-running financial fraud and terror organization – the U.S. Congress.

'Men of the Cloth' and the Romans 13 Tactic

The apostle Paul instructed that any man who does not work should not eat, yet 99% of American pastors and other 'men of the cloth' do not perform productive work in the community. Americans love to be entertained with amusements for every taste, but pastors who claim they actually work hard are just twisting the New Testament for an easy gig. Christ didn't support religious careerists; in fact, He saved His harshest barbs for robed religious men.

His disciples did productive work (for instance, Paul made and repaired tents) but since America's pulpитеers live off of tax-deductible donations, they constantly quote Romans 13:

"Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are ordained by God...For the authority is not a terror to those who do good, but to those who do evil. Do you want to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same...But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he doesn't bear the sword in vain. He is a minister of God, an avenger for wrath to him who does evil."

So. Remember what you read in Chapter One? Our constitutional republic is not ancient Rome under the Caesars; so who or what are 'the higher authorities' in our system? The opening words of our supreme law make it clear: We The People, collectively, are the highest authority even over the U.S. Constitution – but we enforce the law, not our own whims, when servants "do that which is evil".

Instead, our arrogant, sociopath servants have trained us to fear them, like the Menendez brothers' parents must have feared them. Now We The People – the 'parents' who gave birth to our government – are coming to our senses. We will put fear into criminal hearts by making our State Criminal Court 'bear the sword' against each member of Congress when they violate the highest law in America.

Good Guys Have Nothing to Fear

Romans 13 says, "Do you want to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same." The 2015 AmericaAgain! Good Guys campaign will honor those in Congress who publicly step away from the organized crime known as 'D.C. business as usual'.

This will be a challenge for those who hoped to climb the career ladder in D.C. power politics; life inside The Beltway is heady brew. Hundreds of novels and dozens of famous movies depict it, but the reality is even more disgusting than the fiction. Few of them will reform easily; the freshmen members, rather than respect the “higher authorities” – the Constitution and us, its sovereigns – might very well instead look for direction from their bent elders in powerful congressional committee chairs.

If so, we don’t need to do this the easy way. Real popular sovereignty will become easier with each bent target that we have indicted, tried, convicted, and incarcerated by his or her State Criminal Court, with their family assets seized. No multi-trillion-dollar criminal is above the law.

Let’s review the civics we covered in Chapter One, because schools have not taught this for generations. We The People of the sovereign States, and the U.S. Constitution by which we created federal government, are the highest authorities over all three federal branches including the U.S. Supreme Court.

Because we have been ignorant of our Constitution and never taken the law seriously, our servants have violated it as impudently as Mexican narcoterrorists violate Mexican laws. With generations of Bible-twisting, quisling pastors providing them ‘render unto Caesar’ cover, D.C. organized crime has used fear to defraud America’s sovereigns – the highest power over our system of government.

Yes indeed; “If you do that which is evil, be afraid”. Now it’s our turn, Congress.

Making It Happen

In his book American Sovereigns, law professor Christian Fritz catalogues the American people's cluelessness with respect to simply enforcing the law: "How the People could collectively act as the sovereign has remained a persistent puzzle". He also notes that we've always managed to turn against one another when we should have been turning the tables on those who violate the Constitution: "(a)fter the Revolution, few disputed that the people would rule as the sovereign, speaking through written constitutions. But in putting this idea into practice, Americans parted company with one another". That's quite an understatement of the perpetual donkey-elephant WWF match.

Occupy Stupidity

I spoke at half a dozen TEA Party rallies before I realized that it was just another political dud. Like the three glorified street demonstrations surveyed in the book American Sovereigns, I saw that TEA Party movement events were just that – events. Nothing that the TEA Party movement is doing, can reduce the size of government, reduce taxes, or stop Congress from recruiting millions of illegal aliens as its next welfare clientele/voting bloc.

The Occupy movement is in the same boat. Even if it had one coherent message and set of goals (but like the TEA Party, it does not), street-mob tactics cannot attain its goals. That's a good thing, for many of its goals were preposterous.

Originally launched by Canadians (socialist subjects of a monarch), the original Occupy movement's goals were to usher in American socialism and anarchy. Of course it had laudable goals, too: shutting down the Wall Street casino; ending Big Brother's NSA; stopping the worldwide plunder by FED alpha wolf and its Big Bank/Big War/Big Oil wolf pack; ending the deep-capture of Congress and federal regulatory agencies by industry and billionaires.

All of those goals are shared by tens of millions of conservative Americans, and are addressed in the 20 AmericaAgain! reform laws that we will cover in Chapter 10. AmericaAgain! is a new way of life, graduating from protest events that only make us cynical. Ron Paul had all the right ideas, but like the TEA Party, his action plan was more 19th century electoral politics. Left and Right, let's grow a brain!

Our problem has been at the foundation; who we believe we are, versus who we actually are by law. Chapter One explained what the Constitution demands of our servants; that we will get nowhere until we enforce it; and that We The People are the only lawful power that can superintend its enforcement.

On the third page of Appendix D, the AmericaAgain! Declaration, the excerpt from Alexander Hamilton's Federalist #28 answers Fritz's question, how can We The People collectively rule as the sovereign? In the next chapter, we explore the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™, the mechanism whereby We The People enforce our Constitution against violations by individual members of Congress, as the violations harmonize with violations of the politician's State Penal Code.

Using this mechanism, we will push through our 20 reform laws by forcing our servants to co-sponsor them. By 'forcing', I mean as immunity deals for members of Congress not yet targeted for criminal indictment, and as plea bargain packages for those already under indictment.

America's sovereigns can finally end the long hijacking by Washington D.C. – but it's all just an idea until we grow to national scale, half a million members or more. If we get regular coverage on DRUDGE REPORT, we can reach our goal in weeks.

Send Dumpsters a Pink Slip

Given what this new way of life means to all of us, half a million members is nothing. You've seen YouTube videos or Facebook pages that went viral; it's amazing. Most of those are responses from all over the world, but to prove my point, let me tell you about an exclusively American campaign that didn't even offer a chance of real reform, yet still went viral on anger alone.

Amidst all the TEA Party hoopla that year, in late September 2009, Joe Farah's WorldNet Daily website ran a campaign called Send Congress a Pink Slip, seeking to tap widespread anger against Democrats' intention to pass Obamacare even against the will of the majority. Customers ran their credit card for $29.95 and WorldNet Daily sent a FedEx envelope stuffed with 535 tiny, Monopoly money-sized, pink slips supposedly warning every member of Congress not to vote for Obamacare.

Farah struck a gold mine, in 90 days enticing 9.3 million Americans to run their credit card for $29.95, to put a fat FedEx envelope in the USPS Capitol Hill substation dumpsters. (Postal workers would not begin to deliver 4.9 billion tiny pink slips to the politicians' offices.) Other than making Farah extremely wealthy, the campaign accomplished nothing – but my point is that anger alone made that campaign go viral, and things are far worse in America today than they were in Fall 2009.

Not an 'Event' but a New Way of Life

Elections don't change a thing; both political parties are in the same racket. Elephants miss that fact, and they also miss the fact that enablers of D.C. organized crime include the military industry. Donkeys miss the fact that the evil enablers include academia, mainstream media, and Hollywood.

It's time to leave politics – and our common ground, the U.S. Constitution, can turn our enemy's tactic on itself when it least expects it.

The AmericaAgain! team and dozens of volunteers have contributed tens of thousands of hours since 2008 to build and refine this unprecedented action mechanism; this new way of life. We've refined our service offering, tactical and staff planning, and legal strategy. Now, it's time to build membership and get this done.

If you will spend perhaps one hour total per month on the forums and overseeing your federal servants; if you will actually use this book and the AmericaAgain! website and forums; and if you will get just 2-3 friends or neighbors to adopt this way of life as well – then you will be exercising popular sovereignty as Americans have not done for six generations.

Think small: your neighbors, club, closest few friends, co-op, church group, affinity group, whatever. Not big and insane, with meetings, bylaws, officer elections, and all the rest – but small and personal and a responsible way of life; responsible citizenship without jumping through political hoops. Real popular sovereignty doesn't twist life into knots; it liberates us.

Which makes more sense: investing $30 per year and ten minutes online every few days to secure your liberty, property, family and privacy for the rest of your life – or paying $29.95 to fill the dumpsters on Capitol Hill?

Chapter Nine

The AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine

Our servants have been operating organized crime for five generations. In his book Organized Crime: The Unvarnished Truth About Government, history professor Thomas DiLorenzo exposes a century of Congress' crimes, describing its total, institutional disregard for law. In AmericaAgain! – The Movie, we present the top seven crimes that Congress perpetrates on a massive scale: 1) Counterfeiting; 2) Fraud; 3) Grand Theft; 4) International Racketeering; 5) Domestic Racketeering; 6) Extortion; and 7) Criminal Invasion of Privacy.

The 10th Amendment stipulates that the States and People retain all powers except those 17 that we enumerate as granted to our federal servant. It has absolutely no sovereignty in any other area of life, or jurisdiction in any other area of the world.

AmericaAgain! is a perpetual charitable trust established to recruit, educate, supply and tactically organize Americans to enforce the U.S. Constitution via the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™ – basically a set of algorithms to assign indictment target value to individual members of Congress.

Our staffing plan includes legal personnel that will build criminal complaints and bills of information for State grand juries, locate and recruit field attorneys, and coordinate AmericaAgain! members to superintend their State Grand Jury, State Prosecutor, State Judge, and County Sheriff as they learn to perform their duty for the first time in history. So this is new for them even as it is for us.

Yet as we discussed in Chapter One, the buck stops with us. As former Stanford Law School dean Larry Kramer explained in his book The People Themselves, We The People are superior to even the U.S. Supreme Court in any case involving federal government violating the Constitution. But we've never had a mechanism to exercise our retained powers. We cannot arrest our servants' crimes with lawlessness of our own; revolution is a non-starter precisely because our founders already did that, and gave us rule of law to enforce so that we could avoid a repeat.

How The Mechanism Operates

The AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™ is a peaceful, perpetual citizen mechanism to lodge ultimate control of American government in the People, via tactical force-massing: large numbers of citizens become plaintiffs in State Criminal Court, against individual members of Congress for crimes under the politician's State laws that happen to coincide with the politician's omission, commission, support of, or acquiescence* in Congress' violating our highest law, and violating our persons, property, liberty, privacy, and payroll accounts.

Our Legal Section will plan and organize criminal pre-indictment complaints and affidavits beginning with multibillion-dollar financial crimes committed against the residents of your State by a fellow resident of your State, who happens to be a member of the U.S. Congress.

Each time we get a State Grand Jury to hand down a criminal indictment against a member of Congress for a State Penal Code offense, our pre-arraignment plea bargaining deal will be like the deal offered by the Saxons to King Ethelred in 1014 A.D., or by the English barons to King John in the Magna Carta in 1215 A.D.: agree in writing to our terms, or we have you imprisoned and have your assets seized.

For those members of Congress not yet targeted, we will offer the same but in the form of an immunity deal worked out with the State prosecution team. Even before any of that, our 2015 AmericaAgain! Good Guys campaign is holding events in 535 communities, offering every member of Congress the opportunity to step away from D.C. organized crime before they are even targeted.

The terms are simple: stop taking part in Congress' regular violations of the law, and agree to co-sponsor our 20 reform laws to restore what Washington D.C. has stolen from the American people and from the other sovereign nations that the SCOTUS refers to as "U.S. Insular Possessions" (Puerto Rico, Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands, America Samoa, Palau, et al).

*A legal principle regarding accessories to crime is 'silence implies consent', from Latin qui tacit consentit.

Debunking Common Objections

Those who say that Congress enjoys sovereign immunity from prosecution are wrong. Look up the U.S. Supreme Court ruling in Langford v. United States and see a strident reiteration of a basic premise of 1,000 years of law in the West: no one is above the law. This applies especially to legislators.

Those who say, “the perp will just file for ‘Removal Jurisdiction’ in federal court when indicted by the State court”, are also wrong. Title 28 U.S. Code, Section 1441 Removal Jurisdiction is only available to defendants in civil cases; only arising under the U.S. Constitution or other federal laws; and only when there is ‘diversity of citizenship’ (in other words, plaintiffs and/or defendants are from different states). Neither the U.S. Supreme Court or the U.S. district courts have original or appellate jurisdiction over a criminal defendant who is a resident of a state that indicts him for violating its State Penal Code, when all plaintiffs are also residents of that state (i.e., ‘diversity of citizenship’ is absent).

Those who say that state prosecutors lack the courage or honesty to indict members of Congress should know that in 2010, the State of Texas convicted Tom DeLay for financial crimes committed while he was the second highest ranking member of the U.S. House of Representatives. AmericaAgain! Legal Section will brief and support honest State prosecutors and judges; but allied with TEA Party groups, Ron Paul Revolution and other like-minded citizen groups, we will publicize far and wide the corruption of dishonest ones, working for their removal and electoral replacement.

Those who say that DeLay’s was an insignificant case should review the State of Oklahoma’s 15-count, $11 billion fraud indictment of Worldcom CEO Bernie Ebbers, who had his assets seized and is serving out his days in prison. The Oklahoma Attorney General allowed the federal court to take jurisdiction but was prepared to re-indict if the federal court failed to satisfy Oklahoma.

State Judge Trumps federal

The U.S. Constitution, supreme Law of the Land, has been violated for 150 years by our servants because We The People have never enforced it. From now on, through our State criminal courts, we will.

We reviewed six occasions in western history, beginning a thousand years ago, when the people rose up and forced a king to agree to their terms or suffer the consequences. The seventh historic action in western rule of law was our Declaration of Independence, with the American people fighting our War for Independence, to put action to their threat. Our present Constitution then laid down the form of government that We The People chose for ourselves.

Yet only now, 226 years later, are We The People finally making our other servants, at the State level, actually enforce that law.

Think about it logically: in Article III, We The People create a U.S. Supreme Court, and then we allow Congress (which we created in Article I) to create inferior federal courts. No State Court was ever created by the Constitution; the States were pre-existing, sovereign parties to the supreme law. The so-called Supremacy Clause is Article VI, Section 2, where we stipulate that every State Judge shall be bound by the Constitution. Federal law thugs have perverted that clause to play King of The Hill, but “the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby” of course includes State judges enforcing its terms on federal servants that We The People created by that law.

The federal law guild lusts for the seat at the head of the table in American law. Lust is a common human sin and people in expensive suits love power. But it’s insane that We The People allow these operators to turn the Constitution on its head. The federal law guild is almost without peer in society; yet that guild, like the powerful guilds that once kept most of Medieval Europe in serfdom, will pass from history’s stage. That process begins now.

Some Days The World Just Changes

Medieval Europe is not such a far-fetched analogy; on their best days, most Americans grasp the world around them about as well as did the average Medieval serf.

If you feel befuddled, reading American civics for the first time – join the crowd. Bring this up in a room full of law professors and you’ll get a second of head-scratching, followed by passionate, arrogant defense of existing arrangements. Yet our duty is clear, and the federal law guild can’t stop us.

Some days the world just changes. Let me offer an example of the rapidity with which it can change.

After the Potsdam Conference ending WWII, the city of West Berlin became an oasis of liberty surrounded by communist East Germany. Germany itself was divided into the communist east and democratic west, but Berlin happened to fall fully within the communist side, so it too was cut in half, with the western half of town being free and the eastern half, communist. Life on the two sides was strikingly distinct; as different as night and day.

The one bright spot in the bleak life of communist East Germany was West Berlin. If you ever found the money and transportation to visit as an East German, you got a taste of real food, real tea and coffee, real cigarettes, clothing, appliances, everything! Of course there was a black market for all of those things – and also for airline tickets leaving West Berlin and landing in the free world. For years, every communist dreamed of taking that flight from West Berlin to freedom. But that one small hope was extinguished, literally overnight.

If you woke up in East Berlin on August 13, 1961 you discovered that during the night, Soviet occupying forces had constructed a high fence between East and West Berlin. Punctuated by stout pipe bollards and topped by sharp concertina wire, it closed off all escape to West Berlin. If you had a family, job, or lover in West Berlin, that morning put an end to the relationship. Telephone lines were cut into West Berlin, so you were not even able to inform your people on the other side.

For 28 years, the Berlin Wall changed the world of all East Germans. Over the years, the artifice of arbitrary power became a true wall; first of concrete ‘cinder blocks’ topped by razor wire, later replaced in sections with thick concrete panels, standoff pipes making it impossible to scale the wall. But like communism itself, the ruthless artifice could only remain standing by force or fraud.

Then Ronald Reagan spoke six words.

His challenge sparked the imagination of Mikhail Gorbachev and kindled East German hearts. The world changed yet again. Tasting liberty at last, the German people destroyed and carried away every chunk and shard of the Berlin Wall almost as quickly as the Soviet crew had erected it.

Hail Caesar Marshall, Emperor!

The first chief justice of the U.S. Supreme Court, John Marshall, was an ambitious and articulate jurist. Very few people outside the legal profession can appreciate how one unelected man over two centuries ago, could build the entire federal law industry and guild, and do it as surreptitiously as the Soviet troops built that fence on the night of August 12, 1961.

In a side-remark (referred to in law as a dictum) that was not even an official part of his ruling in the case of Marbury v. Madison, Marshall built an entire artifice of authority, standing, and jurisdiction in federal courts that have no business in most cases brought to them. Yet – as the Soviets did with the Berlin Wall over the years – this arrogant, multibillion-dollar guild has revised, extended, and reinforced this cruel, lawless artifice for over two centuries.

Our founders despised terms of royalty for public servants; they sought to erase all vestiges of arrogant, ruthless aristocrats and monarchs. The original principle for attorneys was that they had no special schools; they simply read law until they could stand before the bar and be found competent to be admitted to practice. The original principle for judges was that they not be lawyers like the mechanics practicing before them. Judges were to be men of all backgrounds, with sagacity and proven integrity.

Flying in the face of these original norms and ideals, for 213 years Americans have bowed and scraped before an arrogant priesthood of professors and judges, the most arrogant being federal judges – the servants of our servants! Why should We The People defer to these usurpers rather than simply enforce the plain words of the U.S. Constitution? Basic civics and logic: 1) all inferior federal courts (Article III, Section 1, U.S. Constitution) are created by, and serve at the pleasure of, Congress; 2) federal courts must recuse themselves in any case involving a crime alleged against a member of Congress – and they have no jurisdiction in matters involving State crimes.

And, since the U.S. Supreme Court is complicit in Congress' largest, longest-running financial crimes and crimes of foreign occupation (so-called 'Insular Cases'), it also must refuse jurisdiction. Case closed.

Chapter Ten

Taking Back What D.C. Stole

Given human nature, it was bound to happen. The Founding Fathers gave us a magnificent Constitution to limit and constrain our servant government, but We The People have never enforced it. A law that is not enforced for 225 years is no law at all.

As explained in my last book This Bloodless Liberty and in greater detail in AmericaAgain!- The Movie (Part I), our servants in Washington D.C. – all three branches – have been egregiously violating our highest law for over 150 years. They’ve been defrauding us, embezzling from us, and forcing us to use their worthless counterfeit paper in trade for our real labor and property.

Federal judges puff up their chests and defend their bosses in Congress, and We The People scurry away like mice! Why? Because five generations of citizens have been ignorant of our lawful power and duty over the Constitution, which We The People created to control our servants.

I’ll show you some very basic civics that you will never get in law school. If you flip back to Appendix E, the U.S. Constitution, you can see that Article III, Section I begins like this:

The judicial Power of the United States shall be vested in one supreme Court, and in such inferior Courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish.

As we saw in Chapter One, the first three words of the supreme law, We The People, indicates that the People created the federal government – all of it, including the U.S. Supreme Court. The U.S. Supreme Court is higher than the inferior federal courts, thus the adjective ‘inferior’.

Congress, our presidents, and the U.S. Supreme Court are our servants, created and limited by the Constitution. They work for We The People; they do not rule us! Here in Article III, you see that we gave our servants in Congress permission to establish courts of their own; the federal courts.

So federal courts are servants of our servant Congress; they have no jurisdiction or power over you, your property, or your activities unless you cross state lines to conduct business (and violate laws while doing so), or you decide to take a case to a federal judge, the servant of your servant, for a ruling.

Ask one hundred Americans, “which is the higher authority in our lives, a state judge or a federal judge?” and at least 99 of them will respond, “a federal judge, silly; don’t you watch TV?”.

You won’t learn this grade-school civics in America’s law schools. The legal profession is shot through with lawless rulings piled one on another, known in Latin as stare decisis, (‘let the decision stand’). Of course a better Latin term would be sicut stultus facit, stultus est (‘stupid is as stupid does’).

Not only does Congress have their pet federal judge puppies defend their lawlessness; for over a century their billionaire puppeteers have deep-captured the federal regulatory agencies, too. The banking industry first writes the banking regulations that Congress passes, then it staffs the financial regulatory agencies with its own people. All industries do the same...insurance, pharmaceuticals, energy, transportation, automotive, communications, and so on. The cartels own America. They own us.

Time for Pushback, for the Rest of History

We the People hereby announce our intention to draft, refine, and push through the passage of the following 20 reform laws. As a plea-bargaining package offered to any member of Congress criminally indicted using the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™, or as an immunity package for those who have not yet been targeted, We The People will demand that they agree in writing to co-sponsor the following, and vote for them without amendment.

The first one is the most important; it will finally restore the proper sovereign-servant relationship established by us in the U.S. Constitution. The 20 reforms are:

1) Enact the Bring Congress Home Act, or ‘BCHA’, stipulating that:

Section 1. No member of Congress shall have a private office or staff located in Washington D.C..

Section 2. All members of Congress shall serve a maximum of two terms of office.

Section 3. No district of the U.S. House of Representatives shall contain more than 50,000 people, as stipulated in the original First Amendment passed by Congress in 1789, presently working its way through ratification in the State legislatures to become the 28th Amendment.

Section 4. To remain properly accountable and accessible to the sovereigns People that (s)he represents, every member of the U.S. House of Representatives shall be provided with a single office located within his/her district, paid staff not exceeding two persons, reasonable office expenses, and the hardware, software, and encryption technology and services required to conduct the business of the U.S. House of Representatives, working from his/her own district.

Section 5. To remain properly accountable and accessible to the sovereign States that the U.S. Senate was originally designed to represent, every member of the U.S. Senate shall be provided with a single office located within close proximity to the State capitol, also with paid staff not to exceed four persons, reasonable office expenses, and the hardware, software, and encryption technology and services required to conduct the business of the U.S. Senate, working from his/her own State capitol, pursuant to such time as the 17th Amendment shall be repealed.

Section 6. Public funds used by any member of Congress shall be limited to the member's salary, office staff, space rent and expenses, self-operated vehicle lease payment, fuel and insurance; coach-class airfare for public business, and local mail costs to communicate with his/her sovereigns.

Section 7. Any and all other publicly-funded expenditures inuring to the benefit of a member of Congress shall hereafter be considered illegal use of public funds, including but not limited to: pensions and insurance premiums (retroactive), foreign travel under the guise of legislative business, limousines or other special conveyances, spas, hairdressers, and club memberships.

2) Enact the Constitutional Federal Judiciary Act, stipulating:

Section 1. Powers enumerated by The People to their federal servants are few and specific, and are found in Article I, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution. The inferior federal courts allowed to Congress by its sovereigns, the American People, under Article III, Section 1 for its own federal business shall no longer be interpreted to allow any federal court to involve itself in, adjudicate, or rule upon any case involving issues nowhere granted as powers to Congress, including but not limited to: ending the life of an innocent human being, including those in the womb; sexual practices or preferences; and foreign laws or moral codes being applied within the sovereign States of America.

Section 2. Congress shall specifically disallow from its federal courts any consideration of legalizing further killing of unborn Americans within the 50 sovereign States.

Section 3. Congress shall specifically disallow its federal courts from considering, enabling, or supporting any foreign legal system or religious law code in the 50 sovereign States.

Section 4. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

3) Enact the Clean Bill Act, stipulating:

Section 1. All bills passing out of any committee in Congress shall treat only the subject found in the title of the bill, and shall not exceed 50 pages, single-sided, double-spaced, 12-point type.

Section 2. No committee shall add any amendment, rider, or earmark or authorize any agency, bureau, department, expenditure, office, power, program, or regulation that cannot be demonstrated is directly entailed in the subject and title of the bill.

4) Enact the Lawful United States Money and Banking Act which will contain elements of, but be more comprehensive than H.R. 459, 833, 1094, 1095, 1098, 1496 and 2768 and S.B. 202, stipulating at least the following:

Section 1. The American people have delegated the power to ‘coin Money’ only to Congress, and have delegated to Congress only the power to ‘coin’ Money.

Section 2. Congress lacks any authority to delegate or to fail, neglect, or refuse to exercise this power.

Section 3. The Legal Tender Act of 1862, the Federal Reserve Act of 1913, and all subsequent amendments of those acts, have been unconstitutional since their purported enactment.

Section 4. The special privileges now attaching to Federal Reserve Notes— that such notes shall be redeemed in lawful money by the United States Department of the Treasury, shall be receivable for all taxes and other public dues, and shall be legal tender for all debts, public and private—have since enactment been in violation of our Supreme Law.

Section 5. As remedies for these violations of the Constitution, Congress shall establish as an alternative to the Federal Reserve System and Federal Reserve Notes, a system of official money consisting solely of gold and silver, with silver coins to be valued in 'dollars' at the prevailing exchange rate between silver and gold in the free market.

Section 6. This new, lawful U.S. money shall be produced through immediate free coinage of whatever gold and silver may be brought to the United States Mints; including sale of the existing national gold stocks, replaced by silver stock if the gold-silver ratio suggests silver as preferable for the initial coinage.

Section 7. Said reserves and coinage and/or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, shall be substituted for Federal Reserve Notes as rapidly as maintenance of stability throughout America's economy will permit, in all financial transactions of the general government.

Section 8. The Federal Reserve Act of 1913 (as amended) shall be further amended such that: a) after the effective date of such legislation, the Federal Reserve System shall have no official relationship to the general government, and b) Federal Reserve regional banks shall obtain new charters from the States consistent with the laws thereof or cease doing business as of the date on which the Secretary of the Treasury shall certify that all financial transactions of federal government are being conducted solely in gold and silver or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver.

Section 9. The States have always enjoyed the right as sovereign governments and a duty pursuant to Article I, Section 10 of the Constitution to employ gold and silver coin or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, to the exclusion of any other currency as their medium of exchange in their sovereign functions. Neither Congress, nor the president, nor any court, nor any international or supra-national body, nor any private parties have any authority to require a State to employ anything other than gold and silver coin or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, for such purposes.

Section 10. The practice of fractional reserve banking is to be ended within 12 months of the passage of this legislation, and all American financial institutions shall be required to maintain in their vaults 100% reserves against loans made. Any financial institution accepting deposits in the normal course of business, that is unable to pay on demand all such deposits in gold and/or silver or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, the directors, officers, shareholders, partners, trustees, or other owners and managers of said institution shall be personally liable (their own personal assets subject to seizure) to satisfy unpaid deposit balances under the laws of the State in which the demand for payment of such balances is made.

Section 11. It shall be a federal felony for any person to enact or enforce any tax or financial burden on:

a) any exchange of one form of United States money for another form of money thereof, notwithstanding that the nominal value of one form may be different than the nominal value of the other form involved in the transaction; or b) the movement of privately-owned United States money by any private citizen, to or from the United States to or from any other domicile that said private citizen may desire, provided said funds are not being demonstrably used in, or do not demonstrably result from, illegal activity.

Section 12. This legislation shall apply to Federal Reserve Notes, base-metallic and debased silver coinage, and all paper currencies of the United States until the date on which the Secretary of the Treasury shall certify that all federal financial transactions are being conducted solely in gold and silver or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, and thereafter only as Congress shall determine necessary.

5) Enact the Citizens' Privacy Act, stipulating:

Section 1. The American people's own persons, houses, papers, telephone, email, and other communications, vehicles and effects shall be free from any and all government surveillance, collection, seizure, storage, or detainment unless preceded by issuance of a specific, bona fide judicial warrant issued upon probable cause, as stipulated in the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

Section 2. With the benefit of the doubt accruing to the citizen, any portion of the FISA, RFPA, USA Patriot Act, NDAA, and Intelligence Authorization Act of 2004 or any similar legislation in effect that violates the Fourth Amendment, are hereby repealed.

Section 3. Any operations of the FBI, NSA, CIA, or any other federal intelligence agency shall scrupulously refrain from infringing on the privacy and freedom of speech and expression of any American citizen, whether residing in any of the 50 sovereign States, or residing temporarily overseas.

Section 4. It shall be a federal felony for any individual or federal entity to engage in any optical, electronic, airborne, or satellite surveillance, collection, seizure, storage, detainment, tracing, or tracking of any American citizen, his property, or his communications until a judicial warrant is issued upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation and particularly describing the place, items, or data to be searched and persons or things to be seized.

Section 5. No visa of an American citizen seeking to return to one of the 50 sovereign States, shall be revoked without due process of law.

Section 6. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

6) Enact the Internet Liberty Act, stipulating:

Section 1. It shall be a federal felony for any individual or group within federal government who – unilaterally or with other individuals, groups, organizations, or foreign governments – disables or censors the Internet so that it becomes inaccessible to the average computer or other Internet device in these united States.

Section 2. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

7) Enact the Return of Sovereign Lands Act, stipulating:

Section 1. The federal government has no constitutional authority to seize by purported eminent domain any private or State sovereign land, water, timber, oil, gas, minerals, or other natural resources in, on, or under such land in any State, for any reason, under any conditions.

Section 2. Other than purchases from the States for military installations, the federal government has no constitutional authority to claim any land in any State without the “Consent of the Legislature of the State in which the Same shall be”, and in any case has no authority to claim oil, gas, minerals, or other natural resources under any land on earth. The United States government shall, within 36 months, relinquish all claims to, or jurisdiction in, all sovereign places other than those lands specifically stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 of the U.S. Constitution as being within the exclusive legislative domain of Congress.

Section 3. All federally held or controlled lands and any minerals, water, forests and timber, or any other resource within each sovereign State shall revert within 36 months to the full control and ownership of the State in which it is located, to be managed and controlled as the People of that State shall determine.

Section 4. The costs of transferring control of formerly federally-claimed lands and resources shall be borne by the State in which said lands and resources are located.

Section 5. All federal land-use regulations, national forest and park acts, and like federal controls, restrictions, and prohibitions that deprive private owners of the full use and enjoyment of their properties pursuant to the laws of the several States, are hereby repealed.

Section 6. Congress shall provide to the sovereign People of the United States, within 12 months of passage of this Act, its detailed plan to relinquish control of all foreign military bases and to cease funding for, and operations of, all foreign land-based military and civil government operations, transferring foreign civil governance to those sovereign peoples within 36 months. All foreign and insular claims and so-called 'U.S. possessions' shall revert to the full, unfettered control of the peoples of those sovereign lands, at their own expense and with no additional expense borne by American citizens after 12 months from passage of this Act.

Section 7. Within 12 months, Congress shall immediately cease all foreign aid of a military nature to any government, regime, entity, or individual.

Section 8. Within 24 months, Congress shall cease all foreign aid of a non-military nature to any government, regime, entity, or individual; said aid to be immediately reduced by 33% for the first 12 months and by 66% for the entire period of the second 12 months after passage of this Act.

8) Repeal the 16th Amendment, and enact legislation stipulating:

Section 1. Congress shall not tax wages or salaries of any American citizen, wherever domiciled, and shall levy no gift, estate, or consumption tax.

Section 2. Congress shall assure that federal employees obey the taxing statutes and regulations of the United States.

Section 3. Rulings of the United States Supreme Court relating to internal taxation shall take precedence over policies, pronouncements, or rulings of any State or federal taxing authority.

Section 4. This Act shall take effect within five (5) years of its passage, during which period the 16th Amendment shall be repealed.

Section 5. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

9) Enact Senate Joint Resolution 6 of the 111th Congress into statute, ending the illegal alien ‘anchor baby’ practice.

10) Enact the Non-Conscription Act, stipulating:

Section 1. Neither Congress nor any president or federal court has the power to conscript Americans of any age into involuntary national service or servitude of any kind.

Section 2. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

11) Enact the Secure Borders Act, stipulating:

Section 1. Each citizen of these United States has an inalienable right to defend his own life, liberty, and private property.

Section 2. Attending that right is the duty stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, for Citizen Militia to “execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections, and repel Invasions”.

Section 3. Congress hereby acknowledges each border State's legislature's special right and duty stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 16, to appoint the officers and train the Militia of that State.

Section 4. To aid in its duty per Clause 15, Congress shall provide for immediately constructing a secure border fence, with reasonable alternatives employed for riverine sections of the U.S.-Mexico border, and Congress shall waive environmental, regulatory, and bureaucratic requirements such that the border fence project shall avoid the time and cost overruns common to federal government projects.

Section 5. Congress shall provide for an increase in border federal troop strength, airborne assets, and electronic detection as to furnish a demonstrably effective impediment to illegal crossing by any means.

Section 6. Congress shall coordinate this effort with the legislatures and their duly authorized Citizen Militia (where applicable) of the sovereign States of California, Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas, and shall accept all reasonable aid and alliance with said legislatures along their own sovereign borders, to timely construct said fence.

Section 7. Congress shall immediately discontinue and defund all agencies, bureaus and programs that in any way encourage, facilitate, or appear to support illegal immigration.

Section 8. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

12) Enact the Religious Treason Act, outlawing religious laws or subversive activities in favor of any foreign religion, state, or other foreign interest operating on U.S. soil, providing as follows:

Section 1. Every applicant for U.S. naturalization shall be required to swear under oath that (s)he gives full allegiance to these United States of America and their laws and security interests.

Section 2. It shall be a federal offense for any educational or religious institution, public or private, to promote or incite violence or war on the basis of any religious teaching, scripture, tradition, law, or on any other basis than the security interests of these United States of America.

Section 3. All individuals and institutions found in violation of this law shall receive a warning and fine for the first infraction. Further offense(s) shall be subject to indictment for treason and seizure or destruction of land, buildings, training facilities, bank accounts, and other assets held within these United States.

Section 4. Any foreign diplomat or resident alien in violation of this Act shall forfeit his/her U.S. visa.

a. Upon the first instance of an individual or group discharging on behalf of a religious belief system, in any of these United States, a nuclear, chemical, or biological device capable of inflicting mass casualties: all U.S.-based land, buildings, training facilities, bank accounts, and other assets of said religious group shall be seized and if applicable, destroyed.

b. Upon the first instance of a fatal discharge in any of the United States of a conventional explosive by any individual or group on behalf of a religious belief system, there shall issue a warning of a ban on all gatherings in or use of any facilities affiliated with said religious belief system within these United States.

c. Upon the second instance of a fatal discharge in any of these United States of a conventional explosive by any individual or group on behalf of a religious belief system, there shall issue a ban on all gatherings in, or use of any facilities affiliated with said religious system within these United States.

d. Upon the third instance of a fatal discharge in any of these United States of a conventional explosive by any individual or group on behalf of a religious belief system, all property and other assets held by or in favor of, said religious system within these United States shall be seized and if applicable, destroyed, and said system of belief shall be considered treason.

Section 6. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

13) Repeal the 17th Amendment. (The U.S. Senate was designed to represent the sovereign States, and the U.S House to represent the People. The 17th Amendment destroyed the States' representation.)

14) Enact the American Sovereignty Restoration Act of 2009 (H.R. 1146) of the first session of the 111th Congress, stipulating:

Section 1. Federal funding of the United Nations shall cease within 36 months of the passage of this legislation.

Section 2. Any further funding of United Nations operations, and/or any continued concessions, variances, and immunities for United Nations diplomats shall be the responsibility of the City of New York or of the New York State Legislature.

Section 3. Should Congress be advised by an overwhelming number of the American People that they wish to continue federally funding the United Nations, Congress will propose this function in the form of specific, single-purpose legislation or as an Amendment to the U.S. Constitution for ratification by three-fourths of the legislatures of the sovereign States.

15) Enact the Constitutional Treaties Act, based on the 1953 Bricker Amendment, assuring the sovereignty of the American People and States, stipulating:

Section 1. No provision of a treaty or international agreement conflicting with this Constitution, or not made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme Law of the Land nor shall it be of any force or effect.

Section 2. No provision of a treaty or other international agreement shall become effective as internal law in the United States until it is enacted through legislation in Congress acting within its constitutionally enumerated powers.

Section 3. Any vote regarding advising and consenting to ratification of a treaty shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against shall be entered in the Journal of the Senate.

Section 4. It shall be a federal felony for any individual or group to engage in or to materially support actions that threaten the legal or financial sovereignty of any of the sovereign States of America without the knowledge and consent of the legislature of each and every State whose citizens would be affected, regardless whether such action may formally constitute treason.

16) Enact the Lawful Wars Act, reiterating Congress' duty to declare wars, repealing the War Powers Resolution of 1973, and barring any administration from initiating foreign hostilities or mobilizing the U.S. military without a Declaration of War, and requiring Congress to assure that such mobilization or hostilities are necessary to defend against a demonstrable threat to We the People and/or our sovereign States.

17) Enact the Honest Elections Act, stipulating:

Section 1. To decrease occurrences and ease of election fraud, computerized voting in federal elections shall be illegal, and only paper ballots shall be used.

Section 2. Ballots shall remain in the control of each precinct elections committee until counted and posted in said precinct for public review.

Section 3. Ballots for federal elections shall not be destroyed while a given election remains in dispute.

Section 4. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

18) Enact the Minuteman Act, pursuant to Congress's power to "provide for ... arming ... the Militia" in the U.S. Constitution, providing:

Section 1. The National Firearms Act of 1934, Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, the Gun Control Act of 1968, the Firearm Owners Protection Act of 1986, the Brady Handgun Violation Prevention Act of 1993, and the Domestic Violence Offender Gun Ban of 1996 are hereby repealed.

Section 2. No statute, regulation, executive order, or other directive with the purported force of law of federal government, present or future, or that of any State or subdivision thereof, shall infringe on or burden the right of any citizen of, or legal resident alien in, any State who is eligible for membership in that State's Militia to purchase, own, possess, transport, or sell, whether interstate or intrastate, any firearm, ammunition, or related accoutrements suitable for service in a “Militia” as that term is used in the Constitution for the united States.

Section 3. No statute, regulation, executive order, or other directive with the purported force of law of federal government, present or future, shall infringe on or burden, except on the same terms as apply to any other business, the right of any person to engage in the commercial design, manufacture, repair, sale and distribution, or other trade or occupation involving firearms, ammunition, and militia accoutrements.

Section 4. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

19) Enact the Congressional Insider Trading Act, providing as follows:

SEC insider trading rules shall apply to members of Congress. It shall be a federal crime for a member of Congress, directly or through proxies, trusts, or other entities, to purchase or sell stock in any company materially affected by legislation of which the member of Congress may be reasonably expected to have knowledge.

20) Enact the Non-Enumerated Powers Sunset Act, providing as follows:

Section 1. Congress hereby acknowledges as unconstitutional, any and all past enactment of legislation or regulations, consent to treaties, or provision of federal funds applied to executive orders that confer on federal government any power not specifically enumerated in the U.S. Constitution or reasonably inferred from the powers enumerated, notwithstanding past creative interpretations applied by Congress and presidents to the terms ‘interstate commerce’, ‘general welfare’, and ‘necessary and proper’.

Section 2. Congress hereby acknowledges that federal government lethal or non-lethal aid to any foreign individual, group, or government is a violation of the U.S. Constitution.

Section 3. Prior to being funded or observed for any future fiscal year, any federal budget item whether executive or legislative – whether an agency, bureau, department, office, power, program, or regulation, service branch, executive order or treaty – must be accompanied by proof that it falls within a specifically enumerated power in Article I Section 8 or Article II Section 2 of the U.S. Constitution or a duly ratified Amendment thereto or shall be suspended and public funding cease at the end of that fiscal year.

Section 4. Any agency, bureau, department, office, power, program, or regulation desired by Congress or the People but not specifically enumerated in the U.S. Constitution or being an obvious, unambiguously “necessary and proper” adjunct to the powers enumerated, must be proposed as a constitutional amendment adhering to Article V of the U.S. Constitution. No such agency, bureau, department, office, power, program, or regulation shall be added to others in an omnibus form amendment, but each shall be proposed as a discrete amendment for each and every agency, bureau, entity, or program requiring application of public funds.

Chapter Eleven

Minutemen of Today

In his classic work The City of God written in 410 A.D., Augustine of Hippo asked, "When there is no justice, what then is the role of the state, but a band of robbers expanded?" James Madison, Father of the Constitution, was well aware of the danger, writing in his notes on the Constitutional Convention that, "(a)s the greatest danger to liberty is from large standing armies, it is best to prevent them by an effectual provision for a good militia".

Two years later, during the debate on ratifying the Second Amendment in 1789, Massachusetts congressman Elbridge Gerry said, "Whenever governments mean to invade the rights and liberties of the people, they always attempt to destroy the militia, in order to raise an army upon their ruins."

AmericaAgain! Minutemen has two purposes. First, to help Americans push a Citizen Militia statute through every state legislature to end the State governments' violations of Article I, Section 8, Clauses 15 and 16 of the U.S. Constitution; second, to recruit local and national providers of firearms training, gun dealers, survival gear and resource providers, and qualified veterans who will be local trainers of Americans who want to take up a citizen duty that has existed since prior to the Constitution.

Beyond protecting our Second Amendment 'rights', we must do our Article I, Section 8 duty to be armed and prepared. Millions of citizens own firearms but aren't prepared or properly trained to protect their homes and communities in a crisis. We The People need a rational, lawful and peaceful plan of defense to especially defend our constitutional rule of law from domestic enemies made up of our own misguided servants in government.

Minutemen Legislative Teams

We plan to recruit an AmericaAgain! Minutemen Legislative Team (MLT) in every state capital. This team will give our Legislator's Kit to their carefully-screened state legislators who will draft and/or sponsor a Citizen Militia Act in their state. The goal is to amend all 50 state constitutions to provide for Citizen Militia as demanded by the U.S. Constitution.

First, let's review where Citizen Militia fits into our form of government and rule of law.

The Citizen Militia in America

For over 250 years, from earliest colonization in New England until the War to Enslave the States in 1861, the American defense force was predominantly Citizen Militia.

The history of the Militias of the Several States is described in Dr. Edwin Vieira's 188-page 2007 book Constitutional Homeland Security. That book also explains how to restore the Citizen Militia throughout the republic. Legislators and constitutional law students can find the colonial, pre-constitutional, and constitutional law and legislative history of the Citizen Militia examined in comprehensive detail in Dr. Vieira's CD-ROM book (2,304 pages) entitled The Sword and Sovereignty: The Constitutional Principles of the Militia of the Several States.

Reading either of these books leaves no doubt that there is only one source for ground troops stipulated in the U.S. Constitution: the Citizen Militia. But under influence of powerful individuals in industry and banking, Abraham Lincoln created a paid, full-time national army in direct violation of the Constitution.

In Article I, Section 8, Clause 12 of the Constitution, We The People grant Congress the power to muster 'Armies' for emergencies, for up to two years maximum. But in light of clauses 15 and 16, and in light of 250 years of American history, it is clear that America's ground-based defense force was supposed to be the Citizen Militia mustered into single-action 'armies', not a paid U.S. Army.

We The People and our State legislatures have abdicated our duties. AmericaAgain! Minutemen, with the leadership of our veterans, seeks to help reclaim the duties of the sovereign Citizens and States.

Who is the 'U.S. Army' in the Constitution?

Article I, Section 8, Clause 16 stipulates that Congress shall have power "...to provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining the Militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the Service of the United States, reserving to the States respectively, the Appointment of the Officers, and the Authority of training the Militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress".

In other words, your state legislature has the duty to appoint Citizen Militia officers, and provide Citizen Militia training. The constitutional design does not authorize 'unorganized militia' currently found in federal law; that is simply a worst-case temporary measure of the American People defending themselves without officers or proper logistics or supply. The Constitution also does not authorize a federal quasi-military known as 'National Guard'.

The previous clause (Article I, Section 8, Clause 15) stipulates that We The People give power to Congress "...To provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections, and repel Invasions". This means that when a citizen insurrection arises – including looting, pillaging, or other such lawlessness – it is their fellow citizens who are called to put it down. It is not the job of an unconstitutional standing military or jackboot troops, the idea of which was always abhorrent to the Founding Fathers as a threat to the life and liberties of We The People.

Legislative Teams

AmericaAgain! Minutemen will first need a Minutemen Legislative Team (MLT) in your state. We recommend that your MLT spokesman be a determined advocate for the rights of We The People, a good public speaker who can work with legislators and staff, preferably living near your state capital, ideally a former U.S. military officer with excellent leadership skills.

Legislator's Kit

AmericaAgain! Minutemen will provide a Legislator's Kit that will contain:

- 1) Legislator's Briefing; a small white paper laying out the legislature's duty by law
- 2) AmericaAgain! The Movie- Part III is a video explaining the duty of governors, state legislatures, and Citizens to restore the Militia of the Several States. This video will be a condensed action plan version of the movie Molon Labe, explaining how AmericaAgain! Minutemen affiliates will help the American People get the job done
- 3) Legislator's Plan of Action (list of Militia legislation milestones)
- 4) Contact Sheet (AmericaAgain! members in the state who can testify at committee hearings and help their staff answer questions)
- 5) Dr. Edwin Vieira's 2300-page CD-ROM book, The Sword and Sovereignty (all constitutional law needed for new legislation)
- 6) Reading List – several of the best manuals and books about the potential for a coming collapse and the Citizen Militia's duty to confront tactical and practical (survival skills) aspects in the worst case until local and county peace officers restore normalcy.

AmericaAgain! Minutemen Affiliates

AmericaAgain! Minutemen affiliates will be individually qualified veterans and other operators, gun stores, firearms training centers, and other screened, approved organizations seeking to begin building their Citizen Militia under the aegis of their State Legislature in a 'well-ordered' manner.

Citizen Militia is Stigmatized Today

Due to decades of media propaganda, when they hear the word militia, most Americans think of vigilantes or worse. The word no longer evokes the idea of responsible citizens protecting their communities in the event of turmoil, disaster, or attack as our founders designed in providing for 'Constitutional Homeland Security' in Article I, Section 8, Clauses 15 and 16 of our Constitution.

The citizen's prime duty in community is defense of that community; but as federal government and local police forces become more tyrannical, citizens increasingly fear their public servants as well-armed jailers and masters.

In addition, increasing urbanization and two generations of Hollywood programming in violence have made the original concept of peace officers obsolete in urban zones. Organized crime, gangs, drug dealers, and other miscreants are well-armed and ruthless. In response, witness the increasingly militarized urban police departments, indistinguishable from elite military units.

Much of this has transpired under federal direction, especially by the unconstitutional 'Department of Homeland Security' – a clearly non-enumerated federal power reminiscent of Hitler's Gestapo. Proliferation of federal alphabet agencies and an open-ended 'war on terror' spawned state-sponsored terror outfits that now have Americans cowering in lines at airports and creating unorganized Militias without the oversight, logistics or officer recruitment that We The People demand of State Legislatures.

Citizen Militia is Not a Hobby

This is less about firearms and tactical gear than it is about changing our whole view of who we are as Americans. In our highest law, we made ourselves the top level of government; as such, we have sovereign powers and duties as opposed to mere 'rights'. As is true of rural Volunteer Fire Departments, local militia under State legislation must be an integral and valued part of the community in concert with other emergency responders and peace officers. This is like maintaining our homes and yards, folks. Our duty for Citizen Militia is a duty of every able-bodied citizen.

AmericaAgain! Minutemen Affiliate Kit

If you're ready to start building your state model for AmericaAgain! Minutemen, advise us of your interest and we will send you a questionnaire. If you qualify, after you are vetted we will send you an Affiliate Kit when they are available, and we will begin coordinating with and supporting your efforts.

The Affiliate Kit will contain:

- 1) An overview of AmericaAgain! Minutemen discussing how to properly coordinate with local and county law enforcement. The legislative team leads the timing of all efforts, to avoid any appearance of lawlessness; state militia legislation will always precede AmericaAgain! Minutemen affiliate programs.
- 2) AmericaAgain!- The Movie (Part III); an action plan video explaining how affiliates become a critical part of the community's first responder force and generate business for their shop or training facility.
- 3) Affiliate Plan of Action (bullet list of milestones).
- 4) Affiliate's Contact Sheet: contact information on AmericaAgain! members in their state who are on the legislative action team and other point people with whom to coordinate for special events.
- 5) CD-ROM on Militia history & law: Dr. Edwin Vieira's 2300-page CD-ROM book, The Sword and Sovereignty, offering comprehensive constitutional law background for Citizen Militia.
- 6) Reading List: the top manuals, guidebooks, and novels about possible coming collapse and the Citizen Militia duty to handle the tactical, practical survival skills challenge to America.

Not an 'Event' But a New Way of Life

Since Lincoln's troops were first formed in 1861, American has been hijacked. We The People have been ignorant of our own duties and retained powers. This book is an attempt to help you end the hijacking, at least in your own U.S. congressional district. With our national ethos perverted and rule of law violated openly by our public servants, the duty of Citizen Militia to "execute the Laws of the Union" is more critical than ever.

Obviously, the cultural, economic, logistical, and other details of restoring our Citizen Militia duty will require decades to hammer out and put in place. So I suggest we get started.

Chapter Twelve

Now Just DO It

So. There you have it. As the name implies, AmericaAgain! is a new way of life for a small but determined and responsible remnant. The Founding Fathers gave us a magnificent Constitution that we haven't enforced, and a Republic that we haven't kept.

Regardless what we do or fail to do, momentous changes in the world are on the way. We must decide who we want in control when the dust settles. The benefits of doing our duty far outweigh the costs. AmericaAgain! is not a series of events or a 'movement'; it is a new way of life in which a few million of us behave like grown-ups for the first time in a long time.

Some of the transition will take decades, but America was not destroyed in a day; this hijacking is over 150 years old. Countless movies, websites and books describe the politics, history, and players behind America's problems. This book equips you to do something about it...a workbook and resource to show you who you are by law, show you what you can do, so AmericaAgain! can help you do it.

In Chapter One, I suggested that we are living in the most promising era in our history. Now you have the evidence; we've never had an opportunity like this (and the following appendices give you even more ammunition).

Discuss this book with your friends, kids, church, neighbors or club. No more empty talk! Join AmericaAgain! and go to our forums to tell others in your district, you're ready to meet up and stand up. Host a 20-minute AmericaAgain! Good Guys flash mob event outside the office of your U.S. Congressman. At www.AmericaAgainNow.com, sign up for the next date; Good Guys banner events will be on the last Saturday of each month until we've invited all 535 members of Congress to leave D.C. organized crime. On April 15, 2015 we launch our FEARthePeople™ campaign to build the organization to 500,000 members so we can staff up and launch our new way of life. Hold a banner at your US Post Office that day; or join your state's 28th Amendment ratification team at your statehouse.

We The People can take this republic back. Just ask, and we'll give you simple, practical actions to take every month. It's not rocket-science, just our duty – like home ownership or parenting. So why not make history in your part of America? Just DO it.

Sample Meetup Agendas

The biggest change we need today is to stop griping and get to work. Our duty is not that difficult, and eventually can really become interesting and fun. But we have to start somewhere – and YOU are the key to making AmericaAgain! a reality in your community. Believe me, you ARE up to it; we will give you all the materials, ideas, and support you need. But only YOU can get this done in your town.

Simple Meeting With A Few Friends (45 min)

In this format, the easiest thing is to show the short video VID-01 on your laptop, tablet, or even smartphone. Then discuss Appendix B, Frequently Asked Questions.

Derived from questions and challenges we've received over the years as we developed the AmericaAgain! mission, these questions and answers cover a lot of ground. That discussion can definitely fill a 45-minute meetup.

Invite them to the website. Get their email addresses and send them the free PDF copy of this book. Invite them to join us as we take back our lives and future by keeping our servants in their places. It is entirely up to us to defend our children, privacy, liberty, property, and wages. After generations just watching Washington D.C. engulf every area of our lives – with only a pointless vote every few years as response – AmericaAgain! is truly a new way of life. Watch 45 minutes fly by!

Larger Meeting at Church, Club, or Work

In a more formal setting, you can prepare a short (2-3 min) introductory statement for the group, telling them that AmericaAgain! is the only practical, long-term citizen action plan that you've found (unless you can find another one!).

Next, show the 54-minute AmericaAgain!- The Movie (Part 1).

Then, you can either take questions or go through some of the Frequently Asked Questions, since these are the ones you normally hear.

If you are already an AmericaAgain! District Organizer who has done a Good Guys flash mob event, you will have the 10-foot vinyl banner. That makes a good backdrop for larger presentations.

Remember, you are offering Americans in your town the solution they have been hoping and praying for! You're not pushing something that Americans don't want.

It's a huge honor to be restoring your part of America; but just be yourself and you'll be fine!

If you are preparing a public presentation in your church, to your VFW group, at a Rotary Club or the like, please email MemberServices@AmericaAgainNow.com and we will help you plan your event.

Appendix B

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is AmericaAgain! and what is its purpose?

It's a perpetual charitable trust and membership organization to help you control Washington D.C. – not the other way around.

Q: What will AmericaAgain! do for me?

1) Every member of Congress is perpetrating or enabling crimes. AmericaAgain! will be a new way of life, We The People criminally indicting (in State courts) members of Congress who violate the Constitution. Click on Indictment Engine™ on our website to learn more. www.AmericaAgainNow.com

2) AmericaAgain! will draft, refine, and force 20 key pieces of reform legislation through Congress to drastically downsize government, recover liberty, and restore lawful U.S. money; see Legislative Action for details. The first reform law is: we bring members of Congress home to office in their district, we cut off all perks and benefits, and we limit them to two terms. Then we finally enact what Congress voted to enact back in 1789 – congressional districts will have no more than 50,000 citizens. This 'Bring Congress Home Act' will transform our lives by setting right the relationship between sovereigns and servants.

3) AmericaAgain! Minutemen™ legislative teams will push Citizen Militia legislation through their State legislatures; we will network our members and affiliates (gun stores, firearms trainers) to begin making Militia duty as popular as fishing or hunting. We will offer videos, books, and supplier links for tactical defense and disaster preparedness. See the website to learn more.

4) AmericaAgain! Freedom Files™ will provide short videos and podcasts to learn the basic civics you never had in school. Most Americans are completely ignorant of the basic information required to be self-governing people.

AmericaAgain! members will use the tactical force-massing power of a national organization to fulfill our citizen duty in a few minutes per week, from home. No more political meetings, rallies, or caravans to D.C. only to be laughed at by politicians.

Q: What do you mean 'force legislation through'; can we get them to do things they don't want to do?

Yes, using the criminal prosecutor's favorite tools. First, AmericaAgain! members will approach their senators and congressmen in our AmericaAgain! Good Guys campaign. This opportunity will be offered to every member of Congress, to fight for the U.S. Constitution at last. They publicly sign on to our 20 reform laws, agreeing to sponsor or co-sponsor each of these pieces of legislation as we reach critical mass of public support and co-sponsorship.

Those who ignore or refuse to sign the immunity deal will be targeted for possible indictment in their State Criminal Court, where they will face the criminal prosecutor's second-favorite tool: the plea bargain agreement, prior to arraignment. The plea-bargain package will be identical to the immunity deal they were offered earlier: agree to co-sponsor our 20 reforms and we drop the charges; otherwise, their criminal trial will continue.

Q: Wait a minute; isn't this extortion?

No, it is We The People finally arresting D.C. organized crime, via the prosecutor's everyday methods.

Q: But my U.S. Congressman and Senators are some of the good guys. Will you leave them alone?

Like every government on earth, Washington D.C. is systemically corrupt. For over a century, the wealthiest one-tenth of 1% of American families has run the lives of the other 99.9% of us, using Washington D.C. as their personal tool. These are the key players in 'the system', yet We The People cannot touch them.

Moreover, although the majority of government agencies and departments are bureaucratic Leviathans nowhere allowed by the Constitution, they grow in size and power every year. Even the best-intentioned statesman cannot stop 'the system'.

Only the serious threat of a long State Penitentiary term and seizure of all family assets has sufficient impact to end D.C. organized crime. The systemic corruption controlling every part of American government calls for law enforcement, to give the 'good guys' political cover.

Our AmericaAgain! Good Guys campaign will support those members of Congress who still respect and obey the Constitution. Every member of Congress is part of Congress' FED counterfeiting and banking industry fractional reserve frauds – even if only a criminally negligent co-conspirator. By signing on to support our 20 reform laws, they prove that they are honestly one of the 'good guys'.

Q: Most Americans don't seem to care that D.C. is corrupt; they're so apathetic. And what about those who abuse welfare, unemployment, Medicare, Social Security, and other welfare state systems? Are you suggesting we can get a majority of Americans to reform their lifestyle?

First, we mustn't confuse powerlessness for apathy; every productive American despises the corruption; they just don't know how they can stop it.

Secondly, unlike electoral politics, AmericaAgain! does not need a majority. Just half of 1% of the population is 1.5 million citizens or 3,600 citizens per congressman; 31,200 citizens per U.S. senator. That is a staggering numerical advantage when we get just half of 1% of the citizens to join us.

The Obama administration signals the end and not the beginning of American communism as defined by Karl Marx. Abe Lincoln admired Marx and launched American communism as explained in THIS article. Woodrow Wilson and FDR made things worse; after the Great Depression, the cartels doubled down, putting their people in the federal regulatory agencies, as explained in AmericaAgain! – The Movie.

As for those in the welfare population: the welfare state violates the Constitution. It is also cruel and degrading to those it 'helps', tyrannical and lawless to those whose payroll accounts it skims to do the 'helping', and leads to collapse of our economy.

AmericaAgain! will equip citizens to enforce rule of law from millions of homes and mobile devices, retain control of what we earn by our honest effort, and keep government out of the extortion and coercion business so that individuals, churches, and charities can resume our traditional roles as America's support system for the truly needy, rather than letting government breed generations of parasitic citizens, to secure their votes.

Q: Enforcing the U.S. Constitution seems so obvious; why haven't we done this before?

For the same reason the Pharaohs didn't have air conditioning: there's a time for everything in history. Some days, the world just changes.

Q: I like the plan, but you lost me when you mention $30 dues.

This is not Communist China; assuming you don't live with your parents, would you show up at work if you were not paid? An enduring enforcement institution for the Constitution requires trained specialists and a high-security environment allowing them to work without fear of assassination. We require staff to recruit over 300,000 paying members to finance R&D and roll-out of the Indictment Engine™. The price of a moderate dinner for two is a small price to pay for restoring American liberty.

Q: There are so many 'save America' plans asking for donations; none of them is actually doing anything. Why is AmericaAgain! any different?

Unique among 'save America' efforts, ours is a long-term action plan that is peaceful, practical, and perpetual; we have staffing and facilities plans in place and legal organization (charitable trust) that can deliver real results over generations. We have membership from coast to coast, and are recruiting and training organizers in all 435 U.S. congressional districts. Our AmericaAgain! Good Guys campaign in 2015 will recruit honest members of Congress, and our FearThePeople™ campaign will target the rest.

Seven years in incubation and design, we believe AmericaAgain! is the best plan but if you find a better plan to defend the Constitution, please support it. We are all on the same team.

Q: Constitutional law firms such as The Justice Foundation, Rutherford Institute and others, already exist. Why assemble another national legal team?

Because no public interest law firm pursues D.C. organized crime. Excellent organizations such as those listed above perform a vital function, defending Americans whose constitutional rights are threatened. The Legal Section at AmericaAgain! will offer more vital public interest law: defending the U.S. Constitution itself, and the sovereign powers of the People and States.

Q: If I sign up, can we put my U.S. senator in prison right now? He's a criminal!

After allowing every member of Congress to leave organized crime, we plan to hold the first Indictment Engine™ dragnet 6-8 months after we reach our capitalization goal. Selection of the six politicians initially targeted will be based on such factors as:

- 1) Can local AmericaAgain! members recruit 100+ residents to fill a courtroom with co-plaintiffs?
- 2) Is your State criminal prosecutor honest and dedicated to the Constitution?
- 3) Is/are your State judge(s) beyond being bought?
- 4) Is your sheriff a member or supporter of CSPOA?

Q: Why not just use Nullification?

It is presently the best option available, but it does not arrest any of the seven major classes of D.C. organized crime explained in AmericaAgain!- The Movie. Nullification only creates an increasing hodgepodge; it cannot keep pace with D.C. organized crime, much less stop it.

Q: What about Mark Levin's book 'The Liberty Amendments', and groups like Citizens for Self-Governance, Convention of States, and others calling for a Constitutional Convention?

Washington D.C. brazenly violates the Constitution not because it needs amendment but because it needs enforcement. Criminals will no more obey a new Constitution than they obey the present one.

Q: What about MayDay and MoveToAmend, seeking to end big money in elections?

We applaud both of those Progressive movements to cripple the cartels but ironically, national elections are meaningless as long as cartels control federal government. The 28th Amendment and our Bring Congress Home Act is the only solution. For the long term, only law enforcement in our sovereign State courts, overseen by millions of citizens, will restore our rule of law and only restoring the Citizen Militia as stipulated in the Constitution, will keep rule of law.

They may not agree with our position on social issues, but Progressives will agree with us about the banking, military, and oil industries, and about ending D.C. organized crime.

Q: Does AmericaAgain! agree with CSPOA (Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Assn) and Oath Keepers?

We more than simply agree; our founder considers Sheriff Mack and Stewart Rhodes to be comrades in arms, and those two action organizations to be vital to the AmericaAgain! mission and new way of life.

Q: What will AmericaAgain! do to stop Islam in America? Its terrorism is transforming us into another Europe!

While it is true that radical Islam has been tactically shrewd and ruthless in European history for 1,000 years, with respect to America, consider two things:

1) Compare death tolls; the U.S. military has killed over a million Muslims in 15 years. A foreign power occupies and plunders their towns and they will never forget it. Foreign invasions by the U.S. military have been longstanding violations of the U.S. Constitution, the oil industry receiving free security services as it sucks Arab lands dry of oil, raking in billions in profits every quarter while taxpayers foot the bill. Thousands of brave Americans give their lives, limbs, and sanity for banking, petrochemical, and arms industry bottom lines. This is lawless and un-American.

2) The strength of America is our willingness to let people worship anything they like, as long as they don't harm others or commit acts of violence. Ironically, Americans imported Mohammed's cult in the person of Muslim slaves; thus, Muslims have lived in America since before the Revolutionary War!

At one time, Roman Catholics tortured, imprisoned, and killed those who refused to adopt their belief system and Mormon men once kept harems of wives including pre-pubescent girls. Why no national call to exterminate Roman Catholicism or Mormonism in America? Because those belief systems now conform to American law; the same needs to happen with Islam. We will make it the Muslims' choice whether their belief system is outlawed or not.

Q: What about the flood of illegal aliens coming across our border to flood our schools and hospitals?

See the 20 AmericaAgain! Legislative Action reform laws: first, we end the lawless ‘Anchor Baby’ tactic; second, we finish building the border fence and beef up ground and aerial border assets; third, we push Congress to get tough on enforcement.

For 50 years since the Eisenhower administration, Congress has served corporations and the wealthy by looking the other way to provide housekeepers, nannies, gardeners, dishwashers and laborers at 30 cents on the dollar while taxpayers pay for the education and healthcare for illegals’ children.

Last, see our reform law #20, which will end unconstitutional welfare state programs for rich and poor alike, removing the economic incentive for illegal immigration.

Q: Is AmericaAgain! a GOP front group?

No; our founder's book This Bloodless Liberty dedicates a chapter to exposing the corrupt GOP. The Democrat party is also corrupt and incites class warfare, parasitism and bureaucracy. But it is a fact of history that Karl Marx's most influential follower was Lincoln.

Both major parties are corrupt to the core; AmericaAgain! leaves politics behind forever.

Q: Does AmericaAgain! align with the TEA Party movement or Ron Paul Revolution?

AmericaAgain! embodies James Madison's principles, thus those of Ron Paul, so we are aligned with TEA Party groups that have not joined the GOP. The TEA Party was the most important citizen awakening in a century, and will remain vital to electing local, county, and state servants who obey the Constitution, especially after we get the 28th Amendment ratified; then, U.S. House elections will be entirely small and local, as the founders planned it. As things stand now, Washington D.C. is massive organized crime; elections can't replace law enforcement. Ron Paul tried electoral politics for decades yet TEA Party wins in 2010, 2012 and 2014 haven't fazed D.C. corruption. AmericaAgain! breaks through that system.

Q: What are we going to do about all the armored vehicles and billions of rounds of ammo being purchased by governments local, state, and federal? Does AmericaAgain! have a plan to fight this power aimed at us?

In Chapter Three of our founder's new book FEAR The People, we offer a rational analysis of MRAPs and billions of rounds of ammunition. Citizens should not trust government any further than we can control them, but gangs of roving thugs and starving, armed neighbors will be a harsh reality if a Great Depression II hits. As we stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the Constitution, We The People in our Citizen Militia have the duty to “enforce the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections, and repel Invasions”, but we have not formed Citizen Militia. In case of a collapse, someone will have to keep gangs from pillaging.

Q: When I join AmericaAgain!, do I become part of my local Citizen Militia?

No. We are not the Citizen Militia, but a proposed national resource to help push Militia legislation through State legislatures, per Article I, Section 8, Clause 16 of the U.S. Constitution, and help citizens do their duty per Clause 15 by networking citizens with service suppliers. If you have a local unorganized Citizen Militia group, it can become an AmericaAgain! Minutemen™ affiliate, as can any gun shop, tactical training center, or tactical trainer.

Q: I want to take real action now...what can I do to hit back at our domestic enemies TODAY?

So glad you asked. After you finish reading this book and especially internalize Chapter One to overcome a lifetime of government and media programming, send a free PDF copy to anyone you know who is cynical or disheartened about the future of America.

Two mouse clicks on Facebook, 'Like' and 'Share', only take about 10 seconds.

Order an AmericaAgain! or FEARthePeople bumper sticker, T-shirt, or yard sign at our Zazzle store to spread the word.

Join AmericaAgain! and go into the forums to let others know you're out there and they are not alone.

You can host a showing of AmericaAgain! – The Movie (VID-02 on the website) for a small meet-up group or a larger group, club, church, etc. Then discuss the movie afterwards. Give your friends hope by introducing them to AmericaAgain!.

Take initiative. Click on the District Organizer button on the signup page; come and brainstorm with other leaders in our forums and get ready to lead others in responsible action for the long term.

Spread the word on alternative media comment threads.

If you become an AmericaAgain! District Organizer, do a Good Guys banner event to invite your congressman or senator to obey the Constitution. Or do a FEAR The People banner event on April 15, 2015 at your local post office. Or help us tag one of your state legislators, to lead the campaign to ratify the 28th amendment in your state legislature. We need 27 more states to do so.

We provide the speech, PDF documents, banner, and planning for all of these public events. All you need to do is ask!

Q: Can your AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™ trump the Constitution's Supremacy Clause, that makes federal courts supreme over State courts?

That is not what Article VI, Section 2 (the Supremacy Clause) does. It stipulates that the U.S. Constitution and all laws made in harmony with it "shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby". This means every State judge is bound to obey the U.S. Constitution and also to enforce it against members of Congress who by defrauding those they pretend to represent, also violate their State Penal Code. In every such case, a State Judge is constitutionally superior to any federal judge.

Q: What about Congress' sovereign immunity in the Constitution?

Article I, Section 6 says, "They shall in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest...". AmericaAgain! will bring State felony cases against members of Congress.

Q: Still, can't the bad guys in Congress just get federal courts to shut us down?

Article III, Section 2 stipulates that the U.S. Supreme Court has original jurisdiction only over cases concerning the U.S. Constitution or a federal law, or where a State is a party. In all AmericaAgain! cases, plaintiffs and defendants will be citizens of the same State. Also, if Congress is the defendant, federal courts cannot adjudicate because they exist and serve at Congress' pleasure (see Article III, Section 1).

Q: What about so-called 'Removal Jurisdiction'? They just get a federal judge to spring them!

Removal Jurisdiction (28 USC 1441) is a clever law allowing any federal actor brought up on State charges to apply to the federal court to remove the case from the State courts. But that section only applies to civil lawsuits brought in a State against a federal actor; it does not apply in criminal cases.

More importantly, the court of public opinion would not allow an indicted politician to use a Get-Out-Of-Jail-Free card concocted by Congress itself, to free himself from felony indictment. If they attempt it, AmericaAgain! will expose the tactic immediately in international media, for We The People are determined to end D.C. organized crime.

Q: Is this 'Common Law Grand Juries' run by citizens, separate from government?

Absolutely not; all criminal cases brought by AmericaAgain! members will be standard criminal indictments brought in our State criminal courts.

Q: Will my State Criminal Court hear a case against a member of Congress? It's never been done.

Yes it has: a 2010 Texas criminal court convicted former U.S. Congressman Tom DeLay on two counts for crimes committed while he was Minority Whip of the U.S. House of Representatives. (A Texas criminal court in 2014 also indicted Governor Rick Perry, the longest-serving governor in its history.)

Through the James Madison Briefing Room™, our Legal Section will brief State prosecutors and judges who are ignorant of their sovereign power to enforce the Supreme Law.

Our cases will be brought in clusters, so prosecutors and judges will not have to take these historic cases by themselves, but will have identical cases being heard by other courts in the same State, in approximately the same time frame.

Q: But our State judges are as corrupt as the federal judges are!

We do not deny the existence of corrupt members of the judiciary and law enforcement; but most are honest and conscientious. Having said that, if a State prosecutor or judge refuses to enforce the Constitution, AmericaAgain! members will work with TEA Party and other patriot groups in that district to replace the corrupt actor. AmericaAgain! is a new way of life, not a short-term political tactic.

Q: Can I and other AmericaAgain! members get our court to indict our corrupt State legislators? They're as bad as Congress.

AmericaAgain! focuses on corrupt members of Congress; if other organizations rise up to pursue corrupt city, county, and state politicians, we wish them great success.

Q: You mention God and Jesus Christ in the declaration; are you proposing theocracy?

Nothing in our organization proposes establishing religion. As long as they do no harm to others, Americans should be free to worship or not to worship or believe in God at all.

Q: As a Christian organization, does AmericaAgain! accept people of other faiths?

Absolutely! The liberty to believe or not is a God-given liberty protected by the Constitution and a valuable aspect of life in our blessed republic. As a private trust and member organization, we will not deny the place of Jesus Christ in the foundation of our civilization, but welcome Americans of any faith or no faith to join us in informed self-government.

Q: It seems impossible to obey the Constitution and restore only silver and gold U.S. money. There is not enough gold on earth to do that; plus, doesn't that just reward the evil gold-hoarders?

Organized crime's 152-year-long counterfeiting scheme is collapsing; as of July 2014 many major countries including Brazil, Russia, India, China, Iran, South Africa, and Germany – as well as many smaller countries – are abandoning the FED cartel's counterfeit U.S. Dollar as their trading reserve currency. This mega-crime is headed for collapse.

Congress' $220 trillion in unfunded liabilities also constitutes a ticking bomb; if/when Great Depression II comes, recovery will demand a return to lawful U.S. money stipulated in the Constitution.

There is indeed sufficient precious metal, as we explain in the second half of our blog article entitled Great Depression II.

Q: Who started AmericaAgain! and who will run it?

Click on the About tab on the website and its pull-down sub-tabs on our site for background on the founding team, member governance, and operations staff.

Once the mission is capitalized and we have a group of AmericaAgain! Good Guys in Congress endorsing our mission, we hope to approach statesman and 16-year-veteran criminal prosecutor Trey Gowdy (R-SC) to become AmericaAgain! Chief Counsel, to lead our Legal Section to R&D and roll out the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™ and to begin re-training State criminal court judges and prosecutors and America's law school professors, regarding the Constitution's proper order of sovereigns.

Q: Where can I find the entire mission defined?

See Appendix D, the AmericaAgain! Declaration, the founding document dated Thanksgiving Day 2012, on which the AmericaAgain! trust mission is based.

Enforcing Constitutionally Limited Government

March 30, 2015

Representative [Target first name] [Target last name]
U.S. House of Representatives [District]

Dear Elected Servant,

This is your formal notice that Saturday, We The People — your sovereigns back home — held a public event in front of your office. Throughout 2015, the AmericaAgain! Good Guys campaign will be holding such events in 535 communities, as We The People turn the tide of history, first enlisting those in Congress who agree to stand for the Constitution and against established D.C. corruption surveyed in this movie:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AvFqE5G7ugI>

Exposing 150 years of D.C. organized crime established, aided and abetted by Congress, this movie explains how We The People intend to arrest that crime, using the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™.

We did not require your attendance at the event at ‘your’ district office; actually our office, since we pay for it. These events will be attended by AmericaAgain! members and other patriotic citizens, and by citizen bloggers and photographers; no mainstream media. We The People are as disgusted with that other corrupt institution as we are with Congress.

We invite you to be one of the AmericaAgain! Good Guys by informing me by email within 14 days, of a date and time (within 30 days of this letter) at which, in your local office, you will sign the attached public statement of your intention to support, co-sponsor, and/or vote for our attached list of reform laws, without amendment. That public signing will be attended by me, other AmericaAgain! members, a Notary Public, and a photographer.

If I do not receive your email response within 14 days of the date on the USPS Certified Mail return receipt, you will remain on the AmericaAgain! roster as one of the ‘bad guys’, thus a felony indictment target.

In either case, we will make history together this year.

Sincerely,

[DO first name] [DO last name]
AmericaAgain! District Organizer, [State]
Email: [District]@AmericaAgainNow.com

THIS IS THE COVER LETTER THAT WE SEND TO EACH TARGET, IN THE NAME OF THE DISTRICT ORGANIZER. WITHIN 14 DAYS WE KNOW IF THE POLITICIAN IS WILLING TO STAND FOR THE CONSTITUTION AND AGAINST THE POWERFUL, BENT MEMBERS OF CONGRESS. IF SO, THE DISTRICT ORGANIZER BRINGS A NOTARY PUBLIC AND A PHOTOGRAPHER TO THE SIGNING CEREMONY AT THE TARGET'S OFFICE.

THIS IS THE SPEECH THAT THE DISTRICT ORGANIZER DELIVERS AT THE 'BANNER EVENT', WHICH MAY BE MODIFIED WITH THE APPROVAL AND FINAL EDITING OF HEADQUARTERS STAFF.

AmericaAgain! Good Guys 'Banner Speech'

Today, here in _____ and in cities all across the republic, We The People — just regular, productive citizens like you and me — are launching a new way of life called AmericaAgain!

Seven years in the making, the national mission's website is AmericaAgainNow dot com. This event today is the launch of our Good Guys campaign in our area and throughout 2015, We The People will be inviting our servants in Congress to sign a document promising to co-sponsor our 20 reform laws ending all federal activities that are not authorized by the Constitution.

Of the 20 sweeping reform laws that AmericaAgain! will force through Congress, the first one is called the Bring Congress Home Act. We're going to bring Congress home to work right here among us, full-time. We'll limit them to two terms of office, House or Senate. We'll limit a congressional district to only 50,000 citizens so our representatives will know us and actually represent us; so that campaigns will be much smaller and we cut out big money interests.

We will end Congress' imperial perks and benefits including pensions, retroactively. We expect citizen statesmen serving America, not careerists serving themselves!

The Good Guys will acknowledge publicly that Washington DC is wrecking our lives, sundering our liberty, and destroying our economy — and they will agree to stop doing it, or we will criminally indict them.

Our Constitution is the highest law in America. We The People now intend to start enforcing it, because things just don't add up.

For instance, Wall Street soars to new heights just as it did before the Great Depression. Yet true unemployment is over 20% because millions have given up looking for work. Millions work part time because it's all they can get. Millions of households and small businesses live month to month, on the ragged edge. No, something is not adding up for America's producers.

For 153 years, Congress has forced us to use counterfeit paper instead of gold and silver as required by our Constitution. It's the law...but Congress doesn't care. Congress, our presidents, and our supreme courts have run a counterfeiting operation for six generations. A century ago, they outsourced the crime to the FED cartel. Congress is organized crime and We The People now must ACT.

For over 125 years, the arms, banking, oil, and other industries have used Congress to siphon trillions of our hard-earned dollars and to waste hundreds of thousands of American lives for foreign plunder in over 40 countries. In almost every case from Hawaii to Iraq, those invasions violated our Constitution, but Congress doesn't care. Congress is organized crime, and We the People now must ACT.

Bad guys are in control today because America's good guys haven't had an action plan; we keep settling for bogus elections. Every January, Washington D.C. hosts the same political theater that we're watching this month. Congress' approval rating is 10% because they're not just pathetic, bickering children; they're criminals, destroying our Republic. They've made America like every other corrupt country: a tiny aristocracy of predators teamed up with a growing mob of parasites, together feeding off the productive population. That isn't America.

As hard as things have been for many of us, America's still the greatest place on earth. Not because we're better people; we're just like all other people on earth because Americans are from every place on earth. America's the greatest civilization because of our forefathers' faith and hard work, and because we have history's most magnificent Constitution. We The People just need to enforce it.

Throughout this year, AmericaAgain! will host Flash Mob events like this one in 535 cities and towns across America. The honest and productive part of America, telling the dishonest and unproductive population: your free ride is over.

Every member of Congress, you will either join the AmericaAgain! Good Guys, or using the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™, We The People will target you for criminal indictment in our State criminal court. This is a new way of life; the end of politics and the beginning of real popular sovereignty.

(Congressman) (Senator), if you really stand for the Constitution, you don't stand a chance against your party machine. To beat the corrupt machine, you'll need an unprecedented coalition behind you, of young and old, black and white, rich and poor...of every ethnic extraction, former Democrats and former Republicans, all grown up now and supporting neither corrupt party. Well, that's AmericaAgain!.

Yes, we have our differences on social issues, but on one thing we stand together: our servants will obey the U.S. Constitution. Period. D.C. organized crime must end, and We The People will see to it that our State criminal courts do their duty to end it.

If you're ne of the Good Guys, you won't play footsies with those who violate the Constitution, violate our payroll accounts, and who violate our privacy, liberty, and property. A few members of Congress will have to serve time in their State Penitentiary with their family assets seized by the Court, before the rest get the picture.

We the People will now begin to make our criminal courts restore our rule of law; we will restore lawful U.S. money and moral banking; and we will restore America's non-interventionist character as it was up until the bloody 20th century. We intend to end the permanent warfare state that uses our name to plunder the far corners of the world where our servants have NO lawful authority.

Admittedly, our little groups gathered today in a few cities are not impressive or intimidating yet because AmericaAgain! is just beginning. Today's events from coast to coast represent millions of Americans who haven't heard the good news yet... but they will.

We represent all the brave men & women who died for what they thought was the Constitution's cause...

We represent every American mom who sacrifices so her kids can flourish in the greatest country on earth...

We represent all dads who work hard, play fair and obey the law, while criminals live large in government or as parasites on government...

We represent all peace officers who risk their lives every day to do the right thing in a hard world, protecting the innocent from the guilty — including some on their own force...

We represent all American entrepreneurs who take risks and work all hours for a chance at success, carrying a growing cancer of government on their backs...

We represent the one in 100 American pastors who still tell hard truth instead of government-approved lies...

We represent all truckers that deliver our necessities in all kinds of weather, all day and night, and who often can't make ends meet, carrying Congress' IRS oversize-load...

And we represent hard-working Americans making minimum wage or two part-time jobs because they can't get anything better – who still believe that by working hard they'll one day achieve the American dream.

(Congressman) (Senator), tomorrow we'll send your Good Guys package to your DC office. You have 14 days to set a date within the next month when you will come meet me and a few other AmericaAgain! members, plus a Notary Public and a photographer, in your office right here — actually OUR office, since we pay for it.

Come and publicly sign the statement agreeing to join our AmericaAgain! Good Guys roster.

We The People are the highest level of American government. Beginning today, we intend to act like it.

Public Statement of Agreement in Principle

Whereas, the People themselves are the highest governmental authority in America and according to the opening words of the Constitution, the only human power over that law; and

Whereas, I have been elected by the sovereign citizens of my State or U.S. congressional district to serve and represent them by obeying and supporting the U.S. Constitution; and

Whereas, all three branches of federal government for generations have engaged in violations of that supreme Law of the Land; and

Whereas, the People's failure to enforce that supreme law in no way constrains them from taking up its enforcement at any time they see fit; and

Whereas, the criminal courts of the sovereign States of this republic must arrest felony crimes perpetrated by residents of their State – whether perpetrated by omission, commission, negligence, abuse of office, ignorance, or other condition – and must apply such sanctions as will address said conditions of perpetrators; and

Whereas, I have no desire to ignore, enable, legitimize, or cover up such crimes committed by Congress, however convenient or cherished the resulting funds may be to the recipients; and

Whereas, I am aware that many federal laws affecting industry and regulatory bodies have been, and are, written by operatives to favor the affected industry, and often voted for by legislators who have not considered — or even read — the bill;

Therefore, I support in principle the 20 reform laws put forth by AmericaAgain!, publicly asserting my intention to support such laws drafted by the People as presented to me for co-sponsorship, consideration, or vote, and I will make no attempt to amend, attach riders or earmarks to, or impede the expeditious passage of said reform bills through calendar and committee procedures, as that would constitute obstruction of the sovereign right of the People and States to enforce the U.S. Constitution.

AmericaAgain! Legislative Reforms

- 1) Shut down D.C. Organized Crime by enacting the Bring Congress Home Act, a) relocating all members of Congress to their district office where we can superintend them, b) limiting Congress to two terms, House or Senate, and c) ending all congressional benefits, including pensions.
- 2) Outlaw back-door pork and tyranny by enacting the Clean Bill Act, outlawing the addition of riders, unrelated-issue amendments, and earmarks to legislation.
- 3) End the rule of banksters by enacting the Lawful U.S. Money and Banking Act, ending the FED cartel, the corrupt 'fractional reserve' banking practice, and the derivatives industry.
- 4) Restore Privacy by enacting the Citizens' Privacy Act, reiterating the 4th Amendment privacy of the American people's persons, houses, papers, data communications, vehicles, and effects.
- 5) Secure the Internet for citizen use by enacting the Internet Liberty Act, providing criminal sanctions against anyone attempting to disable Internet service within the USA.
- 6) Restore Sovereign Lands by enacting the Sovereign States' Restoration Act, stipulating that other than D.C. and military bases purchased from the 50 States, all U.S. land claims/control shall revert to the sovereign States and foreign countries within 36 months.
- 7) Within 12 months, Congress through the Respect for Sovereigns Act, will provide We The People with its plan to -- within 36 months -- close all foreign military bases and relinquish all claims, control, or government of foreign islands by the U.S. government. Within 12 months, Congress ceases all military foreign aid; within 24 months, all non-military foreign aid.
- 8) Repeal the 16th Amendment by enacting legislation barring Congress from taxing personal wages and salaries, stipulating that IRS shall obey the Tax Code and IRM.
- 9) Enact as law Senate Joint Resolution 6 of the 111th Congress, stipulating that a person born in the United States shall not be a citizen unless the parents meet qualification requirements.

- 10) Secure our Border by enacting the Secure Borders Act.
- 11) Outlaw conscription by enacting legislation stipulating that federal government has no authority to conscript Americans of any age into involuntary servitude, for any purpose.
- 12) Enact legislation outlawing religious laws or subversive activities meant to incite violence or war on behalf of Israel, Islam, or any other religion or foreign interest.
- 13) Enact the *American Sovereignty Restoration Act of 2009 (H.R. 1146) of the first session of the 111th Congress, de-funding the U.N. and ending its delegates' federal diplomatic immunity.
- 14) Enact a Constitutional Treaties Act based on the 1953 Bricker Amendment, assuring that no treaty is valid if it violates the U.S. Constitution, and recording all Senate votes for each treaty.
- 15) End foreign wars of plunder by enacting legislation per Subsection (c) of the War Powers Resolution of 1973 disallowing funding for foreign hostilities without a Declaration of War.
- 16) Repeal the 17th Amendment to restore the framers' design of our government, wherein State legislatures elect members of the U.S. Senate to offset the mob tendency of the U.S. House.
- 17) Enact the Honest Elections Act, outlawing computerized voting or vote counting, stipulating that only paper ballots be used in all federal elections.
- 18) Restore the Citizen Militias by enacting the Minuteman Act, repealing every federal action that infringes on the right of citizens to design, manufacture, repair, buy, sell, keep, carry or transport firearms, ammunition, and accoutrements suitable for constitutional Militia service.
- 19) Enact the Congressional Insider Trading Act, providing that SEC insider trading rules shall apply such that no member of Congress, directly or through proxies, trusts, or other entities, may purchase or sell stock in any company materially affected by legislation of which the member of Congress may be reasonably expected to have knowledge.
- 20) Drastically Shrink Federal Government by enacting the Non-Enumerated Powers Sunset Act, providing that federal government shall within 24 months discontinue funding for every federal activity, agency, bureau or power not specifically enumerated in the U.S. Constitution; nullifying all past creative applications of 'elastic clauses'.

Appendix D

The AmericaAgain! Declaration

When a government has ceased to protect the lives, liberty and property of We The People from whom its legitimate powers are derived, and for the advancement of whose happiness it was instituted, and so far from being a guarantee for the enjoyment of those inestimable and inalienable rights, becomes an instrument in the hands of evil rulers for their oppression;

When the federal republican Constitution, which they have sworn to support, no longer has a substantial existence – the whole nature of our servant government having been changed without our consent, from a restricted republic of sovereign States to a consolidated central despotism in which productive Americans are forced to work for bureaucrats, bankers, favored industries, and a growing parasitic population that has rendered our Republic fully socialist;

When, long after the spirit of the Constitution has departed, moderation is thrown to the wind by those in power, the semblance of freedom removed, and the forms of the Constitution discontinued – as in the arrogant violation of the Second Amendment’s proscription against any infringement of the right of the People to keep and bear arms (which Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 assumes is the duty of all able-bodied Americans);

When for five generations, We The People have suffered the general government’s instigation, perpetration, funding, and defense of organized crime;

When, far from our petitions being regarded, citizens who show public concern for these infringements and usurpations are marked as ‘terrorists’ by tyrannical new federal agencies hatched under the guise of ‘war on terror’;

When, with each new legislature, administration, and federal Supreme Court, the public servants of We The People more openly and arrogantly burden us and encroach on our privacy; on our liberty to travel freely; on our ability to enjoy our own property freely or to raise our children as we see fit; on our ability to actually own our property free and clear; to operate our farms, shops, or businesses as we see fit without posing any harm to others;

In consequence of such acts of malfeasance and abdication on the part of the servant government, anarchy threatens to dissolve civil society into its original elements, the first law of nature and the right of self-preservation, the powers reserved by We The People as stipulated in the U.S. Constitution, Amendment X enjoins not only our right but a sacred obligation to our posterity, to enforce the specific limits of federal power as enumerated in that supreme Law of the Land, through the Courts of our sovereign States and through such federal legislative reforms as We The People may effect, to secure our future welfare and happiness.

Nations, as well as individuals, are amenable for their acts to the public opinion of mankind. A statement of a part of our grievances is therefore submitted to an impartial world along with the peaceful, lawful, and legitimate enforcement steps that We The People of these United States now intend to take, to which the nations of the earth are witness.

We The People of the fifty sovereign States of America, creators of the U.S. Constitution, acknowledge the duty of every American to preserve, protect, and defend that Supreme Law. We hereby announce to a watching world our intention to restore the original form, purpose, and enumerated limits of our government, superintending from this day forward our State courts and federal servants so that we may once more secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and to our posterity.

These fifty United States have a solemn duty to serve their citizen masters by enforcing our supreme Law of the Land when one or more branches of federal government violate it. The three branches of federal government are creatures — things created by us in the U.S. Constitution, the highest Law of the Land throughout this Republic.

In the Constitution, We the People clearly enumerate the powers of federal government. We retain any powers not specifically enumerated therein, to ourselves and our sovereign States. Any exercise of power by federal government beyond those listed powers is an ongoing violation of the Supreme Law.

President Jefferson said that “in questions of powers...let no more be heard of confidence in man, but bind him down from mischief by the chains of the Constitution”. Such “binding down” can be peaceably accomplished by binding the federal purse and by We the People and sovereign States enforcing that Law of Limitation for the first time in American history.

The present $3.9 trillion annual federal revenue – and the far larger mountain of fraudulent financial derivatives that Congress allows the financial industry to create from thin air and our labor – have spawned a brood of corruptions as unlimited oceans of money always do. This ocean of illicit D.C. cash has spawned unconstitutional federal powers, cabinet departments, agents, agencies, programs, projects, offices, regulations, and financial industry ‘assets’ that for sheer number are impossible to list here but that threaten our liberties, property, livelihood, posterity, and public morals, making a joke of our Supreme Law.

In Federalist #28, Alexander Hamilton said that by merely exercising our power as creators of the federal government, we can prevail: “the larger the American population would become, the more effectively we can resist federal government tyranny... Power being almost always the rival of power, the general government will at all times stand ready to check the usurpations of State governments, and these will have the same disposition towards the general government. The People, by throwing themselves into either scale, will infallibly make it preponderate. If their rights are invaded by either, they can make use of the other as the instrument of redress..”. The mission of AmericaAgain! is to make good on the guarantees offered in the Federalist Papers to our forefathers.

All three branches of our federal creature have ceased to check-and-balance one another, instead colluding over the past 150 years abusing the “necessary and proper”, “general welfare”, and “interstate commerce” clauses to fashion a lawless, limitless system of power, pork, and perquisites warned against by James Madison, the primary author of the Constitution: “...it is evident that there is not a single power whatever, which may not have some reference to the common defense or the general welfare; nor a power of any magnitude which, in its exercise, does not involve or admit an application of money. The government, therefore, which possesses power in either one or other of these extents, is a government without the limitations formed by a particular enumeration of powers. Consequently, the meaning and effect of this particular enumeration is destroyed by the exposition given to these general phrases...Congress is authorized to provide money for the common defense and general welfare. In both, is subjoined to this authority an enumeration of the cases to which their power shall extend...a question arises whether (any) particular measure be within the enumerated authorities vested in Congress. If it be, the money requisite for it may be applied to it; if it be not, no such application can be made.”

“It is incumbent in this, as in every other exercise of power by the federal government, to prove from the Constitution, that it grants the particular power exercised.”

“With respect to the words “general welfare,” I have always regarded them as qualified by the detail of powers connected with them. To take them in a literal and unlimited sense would be a metamorphosis of the Constitution into a character which there is a host of proofs was not contemplated by its creators.”

Congress and presidents for many generations have violated the highest law in America in precisely this blank-check manner, at a cost of tens of trillions of dollars – and at the further cost of our liberty, privacy, and rights to property and peaceful self-government. When a government of, by, and for The People stands in perennial, collusive violation of the Constitution, We The People have constitutional authority to take enforcement action. The duty of constitutional law enforcement falls on We the People, not by resisting government’s lawlessness with lawlessness of our own but rather through having the courts of our sovereign States bring law enforcement power to bear as our right and duty under that Law.

With respect to compliance with his “Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution”, no public official can ever be allowed to be the judge of his own case, as Presidents Jefferson and Madison observed.

The nefarious practice of issuing executive orders is nowhere authorized in Article II of the Constitution. Numerous such executive fiats are demonstrable violations of the limited powers stipulated in Article II, yet We The People have had no voice in said imperial edicts issued by presidents. The same principle holds true for treaties signed by tyrannical presidents under the noses of the American people, and to our clear detriment yet without sufficient popular review before being trundled through a complicit U.S. Senate.

Every public official's oath is made to We the People; the Constitution commands that the official be bound by that oath; thus We the People have the right to enforce that oath and the power to do so as well, for no right can exist without an effective remedy, including remedy via State courts.

Corrupt practices of Congress now infest our State, county, and municipal governments also, as U.S. Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis suggested in his 1928 dissenting opinion in Olmsted v. U.S.: "In a government of laws... Our government is the potent, the omnipresent teacher. For good or for ill, it teaches the whole people by its example. Crime is contagious. If the government becomes a lawbreaker, it breeds contempt for law..."

Congress has perennially refused to balance its federal budgets.

The flow of illegal aliens across our borders reached epidemic proportions long ago, yet Congress refuses to seal the borders, instead arming a ticking time bomb against our culture and civil order; saddling Taxpayers with the cost of socialist programs for politicians' future political pawns. America was always a melting pot Republic with a common language, currency, culture and work ethic; now it is polyglot warring factions seeking African-America, Mexican-America, Israeli-America, and Muslim America.

The U.S. Congress was intended to be populated by citizen-statesmen for limited terms so that no lifelong political oligarchy would rise up to rule over the citizens as is now the case, with members of Congress being wealthy, insular individuals with little affinity with, or empathy for, the average citizen. Members of Congress shamelessly enjoy fat pensions, insurance policies, private spas, limousines, private jets hidden in federal budgets, and much more – paid for by citizens who will never enjoy such free luxuries.

The original intent of the Constitution's framers was to balance the Legislative branch with two bodies, the House of Representatives representing the interests of the People, and the Senate representing the interests of the States. Prior to 1913, the individual State legislatures appointed representatives to serve in the US Senate who were expected to act and vote in the interest of the State or were subject to immediate recall and replacement.

During the administration of Woodrow Wilson, Congress introduced the Seventeenth Amendment, which was ratified under questionable circumstances. The new amendment stripped away a critical power of the States to control Washington, D.C. by balancing the desires of the mob with cooler heads in their deliberative legislatures. Making both houses of Congress elected directly by the People opened the Senate to even greater corruption by moneyed interests and their lobbyists.

Many socialist accretions that have drained America's private sector wealth and inflated dependent populations, could never have passed if the sovereign States had retained direct control of the U.S. Senate as designed by the framers. Repealing the 17th Amendment will restore this critical check-and-balance mechanism as our founding fathers intended when they designed the U.S. Constitution.

Because the Thirteenth Amendment disallows slavery or involuntary servitude, national conscription for military or other national service would be illegal.

In the interests of a massive industry rather than national security, the U.S. Congress has refused to cut off funding for undeclared, unprovoked foreign attacks and invasions ordered or maintained by presidents who cannot prove they serve a national defense purpose. There will always be men in the world whose goal is plunder, to amass insane wealth; such chieftains buy and trade politicians as game pieces, world without end. They amass plunder using the U.S. military as free mercenaries.

The U.S. Constitution only authorizes Congress to use military power in declared war with a Navy, or with a Citizen Militia mustered for national purposes for a maximum of two years, or to use the Citizen Militia of the Several States, with officers and training provided by the States, "to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections, and repel Invasions". No other federal armed forces are authorized by the Constitution.

Thus, it is illegal for full-time U.S. military to even exist, much less to plunder foreign resources or threaten foreign people who present no threat to us, under the guise of ‘democracy’, ‘peacekeeping’, ‘nation-building’, or ‘protecting American interests abroad’.

The only difference that the United States military industry brings to conquered lands is replacing Arab family crests or banana republic dictators’ logos with U.S.-based corporate logos. While this lawless plunder continues, We The People will continue to be regarded as enemies by citizens of the world.

The majority of Americans was once Christian; most still profess Christianity at least in name. The melting-pot culture that made America the envy of the world was not theocracy, but was demonstrably the ethic of Christ, not of Mormonism, Judaism, or Islam. We The People refuse to have America become as Europe – another battleground for a 1,400-year old Muslim-Jewish conflict.

The legislation labeled ‘Legal Tender Act’ beginning in 1862 and collusive rulings by the U.S. Supreme Court in 1871 and 1884 violated the U.S. Constitution’s stipulations in Article I, Sections 8 and 10. By law, only Congress has the power only to coin gold and silver, and every State shall use only gold and silver coin as legal tender. All paper scrip – and the tens of trillions of dollars annually in derivative financial instruments – are manifestly illegal and immoral, yet enabled under the protection of Congress, whose members have overseen and acquiesced in a 150-year-old conspiracy to defraud, embezzle from, and place into servitude the citizens they pretend to serve and represent.

It is illegal for Congress to declare that paper shall be considered lawful money. It is illegal for Congress to grant a concession to a private cartel using the Federal Reserve brand to manufacture counterfeit (paper) money and to require the People and sovereign States to pay face value plus interest for the worthless scrip.

Congress has willfully allowed the Internal Revenue Service to perennially violate the federal tax laws, regulations, and its own operating manual, transforming Taxpayers by terrorist coercion into pack-mules to carry the financial burdens of Congress’ demonstrable crimes. We refuse to allow Congress to burden future generations with an equally corrupt revenue-neutral ‘fair tax’, so-called, that would continue to amass over four times the revenues required to fund enumerated federal powers.

It is illegal for Congress to allow its servants, federal judges, to hold the entire populations of 19 sovereign states hostage to the sexual pervert lobby. In the Constitution, nowhere do We The People empower Congress or any federal court to hold an entire state's population hostage to an immoral, arrogant minority by the imperial whim of one person in a robe. Yet this is the moral hijacking endured today by the majority of the people in Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Indiana, Montana, Nevada, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming. This will not stand.

On a Sunday night in March 2010, the Democrat members of Congress conspired to transform the IRS into an American Gestapo – finally unmasking its terror organization to enforce its unconstitutional 'health care' scheme in which Barack Hussein Obama was also complicit. Now with the GOP members of Congress fully on board with this arrogant tyranny, history proves that if Congress is allowed to fully arrogate this lawless new power, it will never relinquish them. This will not stand.

It is illegal for Congress to allow illegal aliens to enter this country and be literally catered to by federal government — the exact opposite of enforcing immigration laws that every productive American expects to have enforced. As the Obama administration and Congress hold over 300 million American people hostage on behalf of a militant, tactically shrewd lobby of a few thousand activists, We The People who pay property taxes in these sovereign States are held hostage again; forced to pay the education, food, clothing, medical, incarceration, and law enforcement bills of this illegal horde, invited and catered to by a lawless, arrogant, dismissive Congress. This will not stand.

Now, the militant Islamist army is following the path opened by the abortionists, by militant sexual perverts, and by the illegal alien lobby. It is illegal for Congress to allow any federal judge to enforce, support, enable, or even allow any alien law-code — whether Islamic sharia or any other — to be recognized or enforced in addition to the established civil and criminal laws of these sovereign States. This will not stand.

After our long failure to perform our citizen duties, bearing the cost of our abdication on every hand, We the People of these fifty united States intend to lawfully, peacefully begin enforcing the Constitution in each of the 435 U.S. House districts and in each of our 50 States against its violation by our U.S. congressmen and senators, effecting such law enforcement through local AmericaAgain! chapters singly and statewide in a mechanism we shall refer to as the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™.

We the People hereby announce our intention to draft, refine, and push through the passage of the following Legislative Action projects. As a plea-bargaining package offered to any member of Congress criminally indicted using the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™, or as an immunity package for those who have not yet been targeted, We The People will demand that members of the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate agree in writing to do the following:

1) Enact the Bring Congress Home Act, or ‘BCHA’, stipulating that:

Section 1. No member of Congress shall have a private office or staff located in Washington D.C..

Section 2. All members of Congress shall serve a maximum of two terms of office.

Section 3. No district of the U.S. House of Representatives shall contain more than 50,000 citizens of voting age, as stipulated in the original First Amendment passed by Congress in 1789 and currently working its way through ratification in the State legislatures as the 28th Amendment.

Section 4. Every member of Congress shall only meet in person with other members of his respective house on one occasion annually, per Article I, Section 4, Clause 2 of the U.S. Constitution. Said in-person meeting to transact the extraordinary business of the Congress that may require the personal attendance of all members, shall not exceed ten (10) days’ total duration, and shall begin on the 3rd day of January, in accordance with Amendment XX of the U.S. Constitution.

Section 5. To remain properly accountable and accessible to the sovereigns People that (s)he represents, every member of the U.S. House of Representatives shall be provided with a single office located within his/her district, paid staff not exceeding three persons, reasonable office expenses, and the hardware, software, and encryption technology and services required to conduct the business of the U.S. House of Representatives, working from his/her own district.

Section 6. To remain properly accountable and accessible to the sovereign States that the U.S. Senate was originally designed to represent, every member of the U.S. Senate shall be provided with a single office located within close proximity to the State capitol, also with paid staff not to exceed five persons, reasonable office expenses, and the hardware, software, and encryption technology and services required to conduct the business of the U.S. Senate, working from his/her own State capitol, pursuant to such time as the 17th Amendment shall be repealed.

Section 7. Public funds used by any member of Congress shall be limited to the member's salary, office staff, space rent and expenses, self-operated vehicle lease payment, fuel and insurance; coach-class airfare for public business, and local mail costs to communicate with his/her sovereigns.

Section 8. Any and all other publicly-funded expenditures inuring to the benefit of a member of Congress shall hereafter be considered illegal use of public funds, including but not limited to: pensions and insurance premiums (retroactive), foreign travel under the guise of legislative business, limousines or other special conveyances, spas, hairdressers, and club memberships.

2) Enact the Constitutional Federal Judiciary Act, stipulating:

Section 1. Powers enumerated by The People to their federal servants are few and specific, and are found in Article I, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution. The inferior federal courts allowed to Congress by its sovereigns, the American People, under Article III, Section 1 for its own federal business shall no longer be interpreted to allow any federal court to involve itself in, adjudicate, or rule upon any case involving issues nowhere granted as powers to Congress, including but not limited to: ending the life of an innocent human being, including those in the womb; sexual practices or preferences; and foreign laws or moral codes being applied within the sovereign States of America.

Section 2. Congress shall specifically disallow from its federal courts any consideration of legalizing further killing of unborn Americans within the 50 sovereign States.

Section 3. Congress shall specifically disallow from its federal courts from considering, enabling, or supporting any foreign legal system or religious law code in the 50 sovereign States.

Section 4. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

3) Enact the Clean Bill Act, stipulating:

Section 1. All bills passing out of any committee in Congress shall treat only the subject found in the title of the bill, and shall not exceed 50 pages, single-sided, double-spaced, 12-point type.

Section 2. No committee shall add any amendment, rider, or earmark or authorize any agency, bureau, department, expenditure, office, power, program, or regulation that cannot be demonstrated is directly entailed in the subject and title of the bill.

4) Enact the Lawful United States Money and Banking Act which will contain elements of, but be more comprehensive than H.R. 459, 833, 1094, 1095, 1098, 1496 and 2768 and S.B. 202, stipulating at least the following:

Section 1. The American people have delegated the power to ‘coin Money’ only to Congress, and have delegated to Congress only the power to ‘coin’ Money.

Section 2. Congress lacks any authority to delegate or to fail, neglect, or refuse to exercise this power.

Section 3. The Legal Tender Act of 1862, the Federal Reserve Act of 1913, and all subsequent amendments of those acts, have been unconstitutional since their purported enactment.

Section 4. The special privileges now attaching to Federal Reserve Notes— that such notes shall be redeemed in lawful money by the United States Department of the Treasury, shall be receivable for all taxes and other public dues, and shall be legal tender for all debts, public and private—have since enactment been in violation of our Supreme Law.

Section 5. As remedies for these violations of the Constitution, Congress shall establish as an alternative to the Federal Reserve System and Federal Reserve Notes, a system of official money consisting solely of gold and silver, with silver coins to be valued in 'dollars' at the prevailing exchange rate between silver and gold in the free market.

Section 6. This new, lawful U.S. money shall be produced through immediate free coinage of whatever gold and silver may be brought to the United States Mints; including sale of the existing national gold stocks, replaced by silver stock if the gold-silver ratio suggests silver as preferable for the initial coinage.

Section 7. Said reserves and coinage and/or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, shall be substituted for Federal Reserve Notes as rapidly as maintenance of stability throughout America's economy will permit, in all financial transactions of the general government.

Section 8. The Federal Reserve Act of 1913 (as amended) shall be further amended such that: a) after the effective date of such legislation, the Federal Reserve System shall have no official relationship to the general government, and b) Federal Reserve regional banks shall obtain new charters from the States consistent with the laws thereof or cease doing business as of the date on which the Secretary of the Treasury shall certify that all financial transactions of federal government are being conducted solely in gold and silver or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver.

Section 9. The States have always enjoyed the right as sovereign governments and a duty pursuant to Article I, Section 10 of the Constitution to employ gold and silver coin or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, to the exclusion of any other currency as their medium of exchange in their sovereign functions. Neither Congress, nor the president, nor any court, nor any international or supra-national body, nor any private parties have any authority to require a State to employ anything other than gold and silver coin or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, for such purposes.

Section 10. The practice of fractional reserve banking is to be ended within 12 months of the passage of this legislation, and all American financial institutions shall be required to maintain in their vaults 100% reserves against loans made. Any financial institution accepting deposits in the normal course of business, that is unable to pay on demand all such deposits in gold and/or silver or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, the directors, officers, shareholders, partners, trustees, or other owners and managers of said institution shall be personally liable (their own personal assets subject to seizure) to satisfy unpaid deposit balances under the laws of the State in which the demand for payment of such balances is made.

Section 11. It shall be a federal felony for any person to enact or enforce any tax or financial burden on:
a) any exchange of one form of United States money for another form of money thereof, notwithstanding that the nominal value of one form may be different than the nominal value of the other form involved in the transaction; or b) the movement of privately-owned United States money by any private citizen, to or from the United States to or from any other domicile that said private citizen may desire, provided said funds are not being demonstrably used in, or do not demonstrably result from, illegal activity.

Section 12. This legislation shall apply to Federal Reserve Notes, base-metallic and debased silver coinage, and all paper currencies of the United States until the date on which the Secretary of the Treasury shall certify that all federal financial transactions are being conducted solely in gold and silver or fully-convertible paper or electronic receipts for physical gold and silver, and thereafter only as Congress shall determine necessary.

5) Enact the Citizens' Privacy Act, stipulating:

Section 1. The American people's own persons, houses, papers, telephone, email, and other communications, vehicles and effects shall be free from any and all government surveillance, collection, seizure, storage, or detainment unless preceded by issuance of a specific, bona fide judicial warrant issued upon probable cause, as stipulated in the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

Section 2. With the benefit of the doubt accruing to the citizen, any portion of the FISA, RFPA, USA Patriot Act, NDAA, and Intelligence Authorization Act of 2004 or any similar legislation in effect that violates the Fourth Amendment, are hereby repealed.

Section 3. Any operations of the FBI, NSA, CIA, or any other federal intelligence agency shall scrupulously refrain from infringing on the privacy and freedom of speech and expression of any American citizen, whether residing in any of the 50 sovereign States, or residing temporarily overseas.

Section 4. It shall be a federal felony for any individual or federal entity to engage in any optical, electronic, airborne, or satellite surveillance, collection, seizure, storage, detainment, tracing, or tracking of any American citizen, his property, or his communications until a judicial warrant is issued upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation and particularly describing the place, items, or data to be searched and persons or things to be seized.

Section 5. No visa of an American citizen seeking to return to one of the 50 sovereign States, shall be revoked without due process of law.

Section 6. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

6) Enact the Internet Liberty Act, stipulating:

Section 1. It shall be a federal felony for any individual or group within federal government who – unilaterally or with other individuals, groups, organizations, or foreign governments – disables or censors the Internet so that it becomes inaccessible to the average computer or other Internet device in these united States.

Section 2. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

7) Enact the Return of Sovereign Lands Act, stipulating:

Section 1. The federal government has no constitutional authority to seize by purported eminent domain any private or State sovereign land, water, timber, oil, gas, minerals, or other natural resources in, on, or under such land in any State, for any reason, under any conditions.

Section 2. Other than purchases from the States for military installations, the federal government has no constitutional authority to claim any land in any State without the "Consent of the Legislature of the State in which the Same shall be", and in any case has no authority to claim oil, gas, minerals, or other natural resources under any land on earth. The United States government shall, within 36 months, relinquish all claims to, or jurisdiction in, all sovereign places other than those lands specifically stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 of the U.S. Constitution as being within the exclusive legislative domain of Congress.

Section 3. All federally held or controlled lands and any minerals, water, forests and timber, or any other resource within each sovereign State shall revert within 36 months to the full control and ownership of the State in which it is located, to be managed and controlled as the People of that State shall determine.

Section 4. The costs of transferring control of formerly federally-claimed lands and resources shall be borne by the State in which said lands and resources are located.

Section 5. All federal land-use regulations, national forest and park acts, and like federal controls, restrictions, and prohibitions that deprive private owners of the full use and enjoyment of their properties pursuant to the laws of the several States, are hereby repealed.

Section 6. Congress shall provide to the sovereign People of the United States, within 12 months of passage of this Act, its detailed plan to relinquish control of all foreign military bases and to cease funding for, and operations of, all foreign land-based military and civil government operations, transferring foreign civil governance to those sovereign peoples within 36 months. All foreign and insular claims and so-called 'U.S. possessions' shall revert to the full, unfettered control of the peoples of those sovereign lands, at their own expense and with no additional expense borne by American citizens after 12 months from passage of this Act.

Section 7. Within 12 months, Congress shall immediately cease all foreign aid of a military nature to any government, regime, entity, or individual.

Section 8. Within 24 months, Congress shall cease all foreign aid of a non-military nature to any government, regime, entity, or individual; said aid to be immediately reduced by 33% for the first 12 months and by 66% for the entire period of the second 12 months after passage of this Act.

8) Repeal the 16th Amendment, and enact legislation stipulating:

Section 1. Congress shall not tax wages or salaries of any American citizen, wherever domiciled, and shall levy no gift, estate, or consumption tax.

Section 2. Congress shall assure that federal employees obey the taxing statutes and regulations of the United States.

Section 3. Rulings of the United States Supreme Court relating to internal taxation shall take precedence over policies, pronouncements, or rulings of any State or federal taxing authority.

Section 4. This Act shall take effect within five (5) years of its passage, during which period the 16th Amendment shall be repealed.

Section 5. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

9) Enact Senate Joint Resolution 6 of the 111th Congress into statute, ending the illegal alien ‘anchor baby’ practice.

10) Enact the Non-Conscription Act, stipulating:

Section 1. Neither Congress nor any president or federal court has the power to conscript Americans of any age into involuntary national service or servitude of any kind.

Section 2. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

11) Enact the Secure Borders Act, stipulating:

Section 1. Each citizen of these United States has an inalienable right to defend his own life, liberty, and private property.

Section 2. Attending that right is the duty stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, for Citizen Militia to “execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections, and repel Invasions”.

Section 3. Congress hereby acknowledges each border State’s legislature’s special right and duty stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 16, to appoint the officers and train the Militia of that State.

Section 4. To aid in its duty per Clause 15, Congress shall provide for immediately constructing a secure border fence, with reasonable alternatives employed for riverine sections of the U.S.-Mexico border, and Congress shall waive environmental, regulatory, and bureaucratic requirements such that the border fence project shall avoid the time and cost overruns common to federal government projects.

Section 5. Congress shall provide for an increase in border federal troop strength, airborne assets, and electronic detection as to furnish a demonstrably effective impediment to illegal crossing by any means.

Section 6. Congress shall coordinate this effort with the legislatures and their duly authorized Citizen Militia (where applicable) of the sovereign States of California, Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas, and shall accept all reasonable aid and alliance with said legislatures along their own sovereign borders, to timely construct said fence.

Section 7. Congress shall immediately discontinue and defund all agencies, bureaus and programs that in any way encourage, facilitate, or appear to support illegal immigration.

Section 8. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

12) Enact the Religious Treason Act, outlawing religious laws or subversive activities in favor of any foreign religion, state, or other foreign interest operating on U.S. soil, providing as follows:

Section 1. Every applicant for U.S. naturalization shall be required to swear under oath that (s)he gives full allegiance to these United States of America and their laws and security interests.

Section 2. It shall be a federal offense for any educational or religious institution, public or private, to promote or incite violence or war on the basis of any religious teaching, scripture, tradition, law, or on any other basis than the security interests of these United States of America.

Section 3. All individuals and institutions found in violation of this law shall receive a warning and fine for the first infraction. Further offense(s) shall be subject to indictment for treason and seizure or destruction of land, buildings, training facilities, bank accounts, and other assets held within these United States.

Section 4. Any foreign diplomat or resident alien in violation of this Act shall forfeit his/her U.S. visa.

Section 5.

a. Upon the first instance of an individual or group discharging on behalf of a religious belief system, in any of these United States, a nuclear, chemical, or biological device capable of inflicting mass casualties: all U.S.-based land, buildings, training facilities, bank accounts, and other assets of said religious group shall be seized and if applicable, destroyed.

b. Upon the first instance of a fatal discharge in any of these United States of a conventional explosive by any individual or group on behalf of a religious belief system, there shall issue a warning of a ban on all gatherings in, or use of any facilities affiliated with said religious belief system within these United States.

c. Upon the second instance of a fatal discharge in any of these United States of a conventional explosive by any individual or group on behalf of a religious belief system, there shall issue a ban on all gatherings in, or use of any facilities affiliated with said religious system within these United States.

d. Upon the third instance of a fatal discharge in any of these United States of a conventional explosive by any individual or group on behalf of a religious belief system, all property and other assets held by or in favor of, said religious system within these United States shall be seized and if applicable, destroyed, and said system of belief shall be considered treason.

Section 6. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

13) Repeal the 17th Amendment.

14) Enact the American Sovereignty Restoration Act of 2009 (H.R. 1146) of the first session of the 111th Congress, stipulating:

Section 1. Federal funding of the United Nations shall cease within 36 months of the passage of this legislation.

Section 2. Any further funding of United Nations operations, and/or any continued concessions, variances, and immunities for United Nations diplomats shall be the responsibility of the City of New York or of the New York State Legislature.

Section 3. Should Congress be advised by an overwhelming number of the American People that they wish to continue federally funding the United Nations, Congress will propose this function in the form of specific, single-purpose legislation or as an Amendment to the U.S. Constitution for ratification by three-fourths of the legislatures of the sovereign States.

15) Enact the Constitutional Treaties Act, based on the 1953 Bricker Amendment, assuring the sovereignty of the American People and States, stipulating:

Section 1. No provision of a treaty or international agreement conflicting with this Constitution, or not made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme Law of the Land nor shall it be of any force or effect.

Section 2. No provision of a treaty or other international agreement shall become effective as internal law in the United States until it is enacted through legislation in Congress acting within its constitutionally enumerated powers.

Section 3. Any vote regarding advising and consenting to ratification of a treaty shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against shall be entered in the Journal of the Senate.

Section 4. It shall be a federal felony for any individual or group to engage in or to materially support actions that threaten the legal or financial sovereignty of any of the sovereign States of America without the knowledge and consent of the legislature of each and every State whose citizens would be affected, regardless whether such action may formally constitute treason.

16) Enact the Lawful Wars Act, reiterating Congress' duty to declare wars, repealing the War Powers Resolution of 1973, and barring any administration from initiating foreign hostilities or mobilizing the U.S. military without a Declaration of War, and requiring Congress to assure that such mobilization or hostilities are necessary to defend against a demonstrable threat to We the People and/or our sovereign States.

17) Enact the Honest Elections Act, stipulating:

Section 1. To decrease occurrences and ease of election fraud, computerized voting in federal elections shall be illegal, and only paper ballots shall be used.

Section 2. Ballots shall remain in the control of each precinct elections committee until counted and posted in said precinct for public review.

Section 3. Ballots for federal elections shall not be destroyed while a given election remains in dispute.

Section 4. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

18) Enact the Minuteman Act, pursuant to Congress's power to "provide for ... arming ... the Militia" in the U.S. Constitution, providing:

Section 1. The National Firearms Act of 1934, Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, the Gun Control Act of 1968, the Firearm Owners Protection Act of 1986, the Brady Handgun Violation Prevention Act of 1993, and the Domestic Violence Offender Gun Ban of 1996 are hereby repealed.

Section 2. No statute, regulation, executive order, or other directive with the purported force of law of federal government, present or future, or that of any State or subdivision thereof, shall infringe on or burden the right of any citizen of, or legal resident alien in, any State who is eligible for membership in that State's Militia to purchase, own, possess, transport, or sell, whether interstate or intrastate, any firearm, ammunition, or related accoutrements suitable for service in a "Militia" as that term is used in the Constitution for the united States.

Section 3. No statute, regulation, executive order, or other directive with the purported force of law of federal government, present or future, shall infringe on or burden, except on the same terms as apply to any other business, the right of any person to engage in the commercial design, manufacture, repair, sale and distribution, or other trade or occupation involving firearms, ammunition, and militia accoutrements.

Section 4. As stipulated in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution, the several States shall have power to enforce this legislation by appropriate State legislation and duly authorized Citizen Militia enforcement within their respective jurisdictions.

19) Enact the Congressional Insider Trading Act, providing as follows:

SEC insider trading rules shall apply to members of Congress. It shall be a federal crime for a member of Congress, directly or through proxies, trusts, or other entities, to purchase or sell stock in any company materially affected by legislation of which the member of Congress may be reasonably expected to have knowledge.

20) Enact the Non-Enumerated Powers Sunset Act, providing as follows:

Section 1. Congress hereby acknowledges as unconstitutional, any and all past enactment of legislation or regulations, consent to treaties, or provision of federal funds applied to executive orders that confer on federal government any power not specifically enumerated in the U.S. Constitution or reasonably inferred from the powers enumerated, notwithstanding past creative interpretations applied by Congress and presidents to the terms ‘interstate commerce’, ‘general welfare’, and ‘necessary and proper’.

Section 2. Congress hereby acknowledges that federal government lethal or non-lethal aid to any foreign individual, group, or government is a violation of the U.S. Constitution.

Section 3. Prior to being funded or observed for any future fiscal year, any federal budget item whether executive or legislative – whether an agency, bureau, department, office, power, program, or regulation, service branch, executive order or treaty – must be accompanied by proof that it falls within a specifically enumerated power in Article I Section 8 or Article II Section 2 of the U.S. Constitution or a duly ratified Amendment thereto or shall be suspended and public funding cease at the end of that fiscal year.

Section 4. Any agency, bureau, department, office, power, program, or regulation desired by Congress or the People but not specifically enumerated in the U.S. Constitution or being an obvious, unambiguously “necessary and proper” adjunct to the powers enumerated, must be proposed as a constitutional amendment adhering to Article V of the U.S. Constitution. No such agency, bureau, department, office, power, program, or regulation shall be added to others in an omnibus form amendment, but each shall be proposed as a discrete amendment for each and every agency, bureau, entity, or program requiring application of public funds.

We the People reserve the right to revise and extend the list of federal government arrogations, violations, and usurpations brought to our attention for remediation by AmericaAgain! members via our State courts and through reform legislation.

As members of AmericaAgain! we resolve to enforce the Law of the Land under the Tenth Amendment, in which we retain all powers not specifically enumerated to federal government. We intend to tighten the chains of the Constitution, criminally prosecuting members of Congress who violate our Supreme Law.

Notwithstanding the long tradition of congressional corruption and arrogation warned against by James Madison, the numerous retained powers of We The People includes our power to allow no implication beyond those powers specifically enumerated to our federal servant – for our benefit, not theirs.

We shall bring our corrupt members of Congress home from building their personal estates, from doing the bidding of powerful individuals behind the scenes – to now work under our watchful eyes back home, and when necessary, we shall bring criminal actions against them for violating their State statutes committed while the perpetrator is a member Congress.

Violations of State statutes are exclusive original and appellate jurisdiction of the Courts of the State in which the parties reside. No State being a party to these actions, nothing in the Constitution or federal law can be construed to allow federal courts to steal jurisdiction and free such perpetrators.

AmericaAgain! will seek to rekindle the Militias of the Several States, for many practical reasons. We share the founders' concerns about government disarming the People; it behooves all citizens to be armed and trained to fulfill the Citizen Militia functions in Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 of the U.S. Constitution. Per Clause 16, it is the duty of the States to provide officers and training for Citizen Militias, yet no State legislature has yet fulfilled that duty. Until the State legislatures do so, it is the People's express and retained power as well as our God-given right, to defend ourselves. Notwithstanding, AmericaAgain! does not condone or support collective offensive (vigilante) action; only self-defense. Nor do we condone citizens conducting armed public drills, muster, etc. except as authorized by State Militia legislation.

We hope to be better stewards of the natural resources that God has entrusted to us – rather than allowing our government in our name, to help corporations plunder resources of foreign countries.

We seek no theocracy; only to state for the record that America was founded a Christian – not Atheist, Jewish, Muslim, or Mormon – commonwealth. Although some of the founding fathers were not orthodox Christians, the vast majority was; and a survey of America's original colonial documents of government, law, economics, and social life proves that America is founded on Christianity and no other belief system. Not all beliefs produce equally efficacious or humane law, ethics, economics, or social practices.

We refuse to operate in any unlawful, seditious, riotous, rebellious, paranoid, or terroristic manner. We also refuse to allow this tactical mission of We the People to be co-opted, overseen, or infested by politicians, lobbyists, or operatives from any government or political party, foreign or domestic.

We will organize and operate locally as free citizens in the privacy of our homes, businesses, and churches – or in public parks and any venue that suits us as owners and residents of such places – expecting to have no government oversight, infiltration, or coercion as is common to tyrant regimes.

Should our member of Congress refuse to stop violating the law; should he prevaricate and bloviate as politicians often do, or return to D.C. to conspire anew with like-minded scoundrels and moneyed oligarchs who purchased his first allegiance – we will seek his criminal conviction in State Court; the longest possible State Penitentiary term; and as actual and punitive damages for multi-trillion-dollar fraud and conspiracy, we will seek to have our State Court seize all of his assets held under any structure whatsoever, in any jurisdiction in the world whatsoever, inuring to his benefit or that of his family or descendants.

To any State grand jury, prosecutor, district attorney, judge, constable, sheriff or other State official who refuses (whether by complicity, timidity, or coercion) to oversee justice as his oath of office demands, We The People will see to it that you are peacefully replaced, as quickly as can be achieved by law.

No defendant in Congress can plead ignorance of the U.S. Constitution or ignorance of federal laws over which he is responsible – even those for which he voted without reading. Ignorance is no defense for public servants who swear an oath to support the U.S. Constitution, only to violate it daily.

We the People will offer immunity from indictment only if a defendant, in writing with notarized witnesses from among our AmericaAgain! membership, agrees to:

- a) withdraw support for or cease acquiescence in the crime(s) for which we seek his indictment;
- b) sponsor or co-sponsor legislation outlined above, drafted by citizens; and
- c) refrain from proposing or supporting any amendment thereto.

AmericaAgain! is an effort conceived by free, productive citizens of these sovereign States of America who believe that by God's grace, a diligent minority of Americans can restore liberty, property, rule of law, and the sovereignty of We The People guaranteed in the Ninth and Tenth Amendments.

We The People are attempting to end American fascism and socialism; in this us-versus-them struggle, a public employee or elected official is one of them. As a private membership organization, AmericaAgain! is open to any citizen of the fifty United States of America, and not to residents of the District of Columbia, any extraterritorial protectorate, nor to any public official or employee at any level from school board to Congress whose citizenship, salary, or public position derive from taxes. Such individuals have a conflict of interests and a motivation opposite to ours.

Each member of Congress leaves a public record in history. Their response to citizens now enforcing the Constitution will demonstrate their repentant fidelity, or their ignominious corruption.

We give thanks to God in the name of Jesus Christ His Son, and ask His blessing on this formerly godly republic, that we may be AmericaAgain!

We The People of the fifty United States of America

Appendix E

The U.S. Constitution

This edition of the Constitution contains the exact language of the original, including archaic spellings. For ease of reference, we have added an indexing system, appearing before each clause in bold numerals. For instance, Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 reads thus: “1.8.15 To provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections and repel Invasions”. This indexing system developed by Michael Holler allows the citizen to quickly reference and more easily memorize any clause of the Constitution.

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Article I

Section 1

All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2

1.2.1 The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

1.2.2 No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

1.2.3 Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other Persons.

1.2.4 The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they shall by Law direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty Thousand, but each State shall have at Least one Representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New-York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

1.2.5 When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such Vacancies.

1.2.6 The House of Representatives shall chuse their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.

Section 3

1.3.1 The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.

1.3.2 Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one third may be chosen every second Year;

1.3.3 and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.

1.3.4 No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

1.3.5 The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, unless they be equally divided.

1.3.6 The Senate shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the Absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

1.3.7 The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

1.3.8 Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

Section 4

1.4.1 The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of chusing Senators.

1.4.2 The Congress shall assemble at least once in every Year, and such Meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by Law appoint a different Day. [Changed; see 20th Amendment.]

Section 5

1.5.1 Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members, and a Majority of each shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties as each House may provide.

1.5.2 Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behaviour, and, with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member.

1.5.3 Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their Judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

1.5.4 Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

Section 6

1.6.1 The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States.

1.6.2 They shall in all Cases, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, be privileged from Arrest during their Attendance at the Session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any Speech or Debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other Place.

1.6.3 No Senator or Representative shall, during the Time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil Office under the Authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the Emoluments whereof shall have been encreased during such time; and no Person holding any Office under the United States, shall be a Member of either House during his Continuance in Office.

1.7.1 All Bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with Amendments as on other Bills.

1.7.2 Every Bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall, before it become a Law, be presented to the President of the United States; If he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his Objections to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the Objections at large on their Journal, and proceed to reconsider it.

1.7.3 If after such Reconsideration two thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the Objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that House, it shall become a Law.

1.7.4 But in all such Cases the Votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and Nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for and against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively. If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten Days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the Same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a Law.

1.7.5 Every Order, Resolution, or Vote to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of Adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the Same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the Rules and Limitations prescribed in the Case of a Bill.

Section 8

1.8.1 The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

1.8.2 To borrow Money on the credit of the United States;

1.8.3 To regulate Commerce with foreign Nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian Tribes;

1.8.4 To establish an uniform Rule of Naturalization, and uniform Laws on the subject of Bankruptcies throughout the United States;

1.8.5 To coin Money, regulate the Value thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and Measures;

1.8.6 To provide for the Punishment of counterfeiting the Securities and current Coin of the United States;

1.8.7 To establish Post Offices and post Roads;

1.8.8 To promote the Progress of Science and useful Arts, by securing for limited Times to Authors and Inventors the exclusive Right to their respective Writings and Discoveries;

1.8.9 To constitute Tribunals inferior to the supreme Court;

1.8.10 To define and punish Piracies and Felonies committed on the high Seas, and Offences against the Law of Nations;

1.8.11 To declare War, grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal, and make Rules concerning Captures on Land and Water;

1.8.12 To raise and support Armies, but no Appropriation of Money to that Use shall be for a longer Term than two Years;

1.8.13 To provide and maintain a Navy;

1.8.14 To make Rules for the Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces;

1.8.15 To provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections and repel Invasions;

1.8.16 To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining, the Militia, and for governing such Part of them as may be employed in the Service of the United States, reserving to the States respectively, the Appointment of the Officers, and the Authority of training the Militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress;

1.8.17 To exercise exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, over such District (not exceeding ten Miles square) as may, by Cession of particular States, and the Acceptance of Congress, become the Seat of the Government of the United States, and to exercise like Authority over all Places purchased by the Consent of the Legislature of the State in which the Same shall be, for the Erection of Forts, Magazines, Arsenals, dock-Yards, and other needful Buildings;—And

1.8.18 To make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any Department or Officer thereof.

Section 9

1.9.1 The Migration or Importation of such Persons as any of the States now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the Congress prior to the Year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a Tax or duty may be imposed on such Importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each Person. [Nullified; now obsolete.]

1.9.2 The Privilege of the Writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in Cases of Rebellion or Invasion the public Safety may require it.

1.9.3 No Bill of Attainder or ex post facto Law shall be passed.

1.9.4 No Capitation, or other direct, Tax shall be laid, unless in Proportion to the Census or enumeration herein before directed to be taken.

1.9.5 No Tax or Duty shall be laid on Articles exported from any State.

1.9.6 No Preference shall be given by any Regulation of Commerce or Revenue to the Ports of one State over those of another: nor shall Vessels bound to, or from, one State, be obliged to enter, clear, or pay Duties in another.

1.9.7 No Money shall be drawn from the Treasury, but in Consequence of Appropriations made by Law; and a regular Statement and Account of the Receipts and Expenditures of all public Money shall be published from time to time.

1.9.8 No Title of Nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no Person holding any Office of Profit or Trust under them, shall, without the Consent of the Congress, accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any kind whatever, from any King, Prince, or foreign State.

1.10.1 No State shall enter into any Treaty, Alliance, or Confederation; grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal;

1.10.2 coin Money; emit Bills of Credit; make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts;

1.10.3 pass any Bill of Attainder, ex post facto Law,

1.10.4 or Law impairing the Obligation of Contracts, or grant any Title of Nobility.

1.10.5 No State shall, without the Consent of the Congress, lay any Imposts or Duties on Imports or Exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing it's inspection Laws: and the net Produce of all Duties and Imposts, laid by any State on Imports or Exports, shall be for the Use of the Treasury of the United States; and all such Laws shall be subject to the Revision and Controul of the Congress.

1.10.6 No State shall, without the Consent of Congress, lay any Duty of Tonnage, keep Troops, or Ships of War in time of Peace, enter into any Agreement or Compact with another State, or with a foreign Power, or engage in War, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent Danger as will not admit of delay.

Article II

2.1.1 The executive Power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his Office during the Term of four Years, and, together with the Vice President, chosen for the same Term, be elected, as follows

2.1.2 Each State shall appoint, in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress: but no Senator or Representative, or Person holding an Office of Trust or Profit under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

2.1.3 The Electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by Ballot for two Persons, of whom one at least shall not be an Inhabitant of the same State with themselves.

2.1.4 And they shall make a List of all the Persons voted for, and of the Number of Votes for each; which List they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the Seat of the Government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate.

2.1.5 The President of the Senate shall, in the Presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the Certificates, and the Votes shall then be counted. The Person having the greatest Number of Votes shall be the President, if such Number be a Majority of the whole Number of Electors appointed;

2.1.6 and if there be more than one who have such Majority, and have an equal Number of Votes, then the House of Representatives shall immediately chuse by Ballot one of them for President; and if no Person have a Majority, then from the five highest on the List the said House shall in like Manner chuse the President. But in chusing the President, the Votes shall be taken by States, the Representation from each State having one Vote; A quorum for this Purpose shall consist of a Member or Members

2.1.7 [Removed; see 20th Amendment.]

2.1.8 [Removed by the 20th Amendment.]

2.1.9 In every Case, after the Choice of the President, the Person having the greatest Number of Votes of the Electors shall be the Vice President. But if there should remain two or more who have equal Votes, the Senate shall chuse from them by Ballot the Vice President. [Changed; see 12th Amendment.]

2.1.10 The Congress may determine the Time of chusing the Electors, and the Day on which they shall give their Votes; which Day shall be the same throughout the United States.

2.1.11 No Person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any Person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States.

2.1.12 In Case of the Removal of the President from Office, or of his Death, Resignation, or Inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said Office, the Same shall devolve on the Vice President, [Changed; see 25th Amendment.]

2.1.13 [See 25th Amendment]

2.1.14 and the Congress may by Law provide for the Case of Removal, Death, Resignation or Inability, both of the President and Vice President, declaring what Officer shall then act as President, and such Officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a President shall be elected.

2.1.15-18 [See 25th Amendment]

2.1.19 The President shall, at stated Times, receive for his Services, a Compensation, which shall neither be encreased nor diminished during the Period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that Period any other Emolument from the United States, or any of them.

2.1.20 Before he enter on the Execution of his Office, he shall take the following Oath or Affirmation:—"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

2.2.1 The President shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the Militia of the several States, when called into the actual Service of the United States; he may require the Opinion, in writing, of the principal Officer in each of the executive Departments, upon any Subject relating to the Duties of their respective Offices, and he shall have Power to grant Reprieves and Pardons for Offences against the United States, except in Cases of Impeachment.

2.2.2 He shall have Power, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, to make Treaties, provided two thirds of the Senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, shall appoint Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls, Judges of the supreme Court, and all other Officers of the United States, whose Appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by Law:

2.2.3 but the Congress may by Law vest the Appointment of such inferior Officers, as they think proper, in the President alone, in the Courts of Law, or in the Heads of Departments.

2.2.4 The President shall have Power to fill up all Vacancies that may happen during the Recess of the Senate, by granting Commissions which shall expire at the End of their next Session.

2.3.1 He shall from time to time give to the Congress Information of the State of the Union, and recommend to their Consideration such Measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient;

2.3.2 he may, on extraordinary Occasions, convene both Houses, or either of them, and in Case of Disagreement between them, with Respect to the Time of Adjournment, he may adjourn them to such Time as he shall think proper;

2.3.3 he shall receive Ambassadors and other public Ministers; he shall take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed, and shall Commission all the Officers of the United States.

Section 4

The President, Vice President and all civil Officers of the United States, shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, or other high Crimes and Misdemeanors.

Article III

Section 1

The judicial Power of the United States, shall be vested in one supreme Court, and in such inferior Courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The Judges, both of the supreme and inferior Courts, shall hold their Offices during good Behaviour, and shall, at stated Times, receive for their Services, a Compensation, which shall not be diminished during their Continuance in Office.

3.2.1 The judicial Power shall extend to all Cases, in Law and Equity, arising under this Constitution, the Laws of the United States, and Treaties made, or which shall be made, under their Authority;—to all Cases affecting Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls;—to all Cases of admiralty and maritime Jurisdiction;—to Controversies to which the United States shall be a Party;—to Controversies between two or more States;— between a State and Citizens of another State,—between Citizens of different States,—between Citizens of the same State claiming Lands under Grants of different States, and between a State, or the Citizens thereof, and foreign States, Citizens or Subjects. [Changed by the 11th Amendment.]

3.2.2 In all Cases affecting Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls, and those in which a State shall be Party, the supreme Court shall have original Jurisdiction. In all the other Cases before mentioned, the supreme Court shall have appellate Jurisdiction, both as to Law and Fact, with such Exceptions, and under such Regulations as the Congress shall make.

3.2.3 The Trial of all Crimes, except in Cases of Impeachment, shall be by Jury; and such Trial shall be held in the State where the said Crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any State, the Trial shall be at such Place or Places as the Congress may by Law have directed.

3.3.1 Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying War against them, or in adhering to their Enemies, giving them Aid and Comfort. No Person shall be convicted of Treason unless on the Testimony of two Witnesses to the same overt Act, or on Confession in open Court.

3.3.2 The Congress shall have Power to declare the Punishment of Treason, but no Attainder of Treason shall work Corruption of Blood, or Forfeiture except during the Life of the Person attainted.

Article IV

Section 1

Full Faith and Credit shall be given in each State to the public Acts, Records, and judicial Proceedings of every other State. And the Congress may by general Laws prescribe the Manner in which such Acts, Records and Proceedings shall be proved, and the Effect thereof.

Section 2

4.2.1 The Citizens of each State shall be entitled to all Privileges and Immunities of Citizens in the several States.

4.2.2 A Person charged in any State with Treason, Felony, or other Crime, who shall flee from Justice, and be found in another State, shall on Demand of the executive Authority of the State from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the State having Jurisdiction of the Crime.

4.2.3 No Person held to Service or Labour in one State, under the Laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in Consequence of any Law or Regulation therein, be discharged from such Service or Labour, but shall be delivered up on Claim of the Party to whom such Service or Labour may be due. [Made obsolete by the 13th Amendment.]

Section 3

4.3.1 New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new State shall be formed or erected within the Jurisdiction of any other State; nor any State be formed by the Junction of two or more States, or Parts of States, without the Consent of the Legislatures of the States concerned as well as of the Congress.

4.3.2 The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

Section 4

The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each of them against Invasion; and on Application of the Legislature, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened), against domestic Violence.

Article V

Section 1 The Congress, whenever two thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose Amendments to this Constitution, or, on the Application of the Legislatures of two thirds of the several States, shall call a Convention for proposing Amendments,

Section 2 which, in either Case, shall be valid to all Intents and Purposes, as Part of this Constitution, when ratified by the Legislatures of three fourths of the several States, or by Conventions in three fourths thereof, as the one or the other Mode of Ratification may be proposed by the Congress;

Section 3 Provided that no Amendment which may be made prior to the Year One thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any Manner affect the first and fourth Clauses in the Ninth Section of the first Article; and that no State, without its Consent, shall be deprived of its equal Suffrage in the Senate.

Article VI

Section 1 All Debts contracted and Engagements entered into, before the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation.

Section 2 This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding.

Section 3 The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States.

Article VII

The Ratification of the Conventions of nine States, shall be sufficient for the Establishment of this Constitution between the States so ratifying the Same.

Done in Convention by the Unanimous Consent of the States present the Seventeenth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty seven and of the Independence of the United States of America the Twelfth In witness whereof We have hereunto subscribed our Names,

In Convention Monday, September 17th, 1787.

Present

The States of

New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut, MR. Hamilton from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia.

Resolved,

That the preceding Constitution be laid before the United States in Congress assembled, and that it is the Opinion of this Convention, that it should afterwards be submitted to a Convention of Delegates, chosen in each State by the People thereof, under the Recommendation of its Legislature, for their Assent and Ratification; and that each Convention assenting to, and ratifying the Same, should give Notice thereof to the United States in Congress assembled. Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Convention, that as soon as the Conventions of nine States shall have ratified this Constitution, the United States in Congress assembled should fix a Day on which Electors should be appointed by the States which have ratified the same, and a Day on which the Electors should assemble to vote for the President, and the Time and Place for commencing Proceedings under this Constitution. That after such Publication the Electors should be appointed, and the Senators and Representatives elected: That the Electors should meet on the Day fixed for the Election of the President, and should transmit their Votes certified, signed, sealed and directed, as the Constitution requires, to the Secretary of the United States in Congress assembled, that the Senators and Representatives should convene at the Time and Place assigned; that the Senators should appoint a President of the Senate, for the sole purpose of receiving, opening and counting the Votes for President; and, that after he shall be chosen, the Congress, together with the President, should, without Delay, proceed to execute this Constitution.

By the Unanimous Order of the Convention

W. JACKSON Secretary

Amendments to the Constitution

On September 25, 1789, the First Congress of the United States proposed 12 amendments to the Constitution. The 1789 Joint Resolution of Congress proposing the amendments is on display in the Rotunda in the National Archives Museum. Ten of the proposed 12 amendments were ratified by three-fourths of the state legislatures on December 15, 1791. The ratified Articles (Articles 3–12) constitute the first 10 amendments of the Constitution, or the U.S. Bill of Rights. In 1992, 203 years after the first states ratified it, Article 2 was ratified as the 27th Amendment to the Constitution. Article 1 has been ratified by 11 states, and AmericaAgain! is working on gaining ratification by the additional 27 states required to make it become the 28th Amendment, requiring that no U.S. congressional district shall contain more than 50,000 persons.

The U.S. Bill of Rights

The Preamble to The Bill of Rights

Congress of the United States begun and held at the City of New-York, on Wednesday the fourth of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine.

THE Conventions of a number of the States, having at the time of their adopting the Constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added: And as extending the ground of public confidence in the Government, will best ensure the beneficent ends of its institution.

RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following Articles be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, as amendments to the Constitution of the United States, all, or any of which Articles, when ratified by three fourths of the said Legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said Constitution; viz.

ARTICLES in addition to, and Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America, proposed by Congress, and ratified by the Legislatures of the several States, pursuant to the fifth Article of the original Constitution.

Note: The following text is a transcription of the first ten amendments to the Constitution in their original form. These amendments were ratified December 15, 1791, and form what is known as the "Bill of Rights."

Amendment I

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Amendment II

A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

Amendment III

No Soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Amendment IV

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Amendment V

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Amendment VI

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the Assistance of Counsel for his defence.

Amendment VII

In Suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

Amendment VIII

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Amendment IX

The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Amendment X

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

AMENDMENT XI

Passed by Congress March 4, 1794. Ratified February 7, 1795.

Note: Article III, section 2, of the Constitution was modified by amendment 11.

The Judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by Citizens of another State, or by Citizens or Subjects of any Foreign State.

AMENDMENT XII

Passed by Congress December 9, 1803. Ratified June 15, 1804.

Note: A portion of Article II, section 1 of the Constitution was superseded by the 12th amendment.

The Electors shall meet in their respective states and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate; — the President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted; — The person having the greatest number of votes for President, shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of Electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President. But in choosing the President, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. [And if the House of Representatives shall not choose a President whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the Vice-President shall act as President, as in case of the death or other constitutional disability of the President. —]* The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President, shall be the Vice-President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of Electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the Senate shall choose the Vice-President; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of Senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of President shall be eligible to that of Vice-President of the United States.

AMENDMENT XIII

Passed by Congress January 31, 1865. Ratified December 6, 1865.

Note: A portion of Article IV, section 2, of the Constitution was superseded by the 13th amendment.

Section 1.

Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Section 2.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

AMENDMENT XIV

Passed by Congress June 13, 1866. Ratified July 9, 1868.

Note: Article I, section 2, of the Constitution was modified by section 2 of the 14th amendment.

Section 1.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Section 2.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the Executive and Judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age,* and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Section 3.

No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Section 4.

The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Section 5.

The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

Changed by section 1 of the 26th amendment.*

AMENDMENT XV

Passed by Congress February 26, 1869. Ratified February 3, 1870.

Section 1.

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude—

Section 2.

The Congress shall have the power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

AMENDMENT XVI

Passed by Congress July 2, 1909. Ratified February 3, 1913.

Note: Article I, section 9, of the Constitution was modified by amendment 16, and that declaring “without regard to any census or enumeration” is akin to making a law that declares you do not have to obey the law.

The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

AMENDMENT XVII

Passed by Congress May 13, 1912. Ratified April 8, 1913.

Note: Article I, section 3, of the Constitution was modified by the 17th amendment.

The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each Senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State legislatures.

When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, That the legislature of any State may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any Senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution.

AMENDMENT XVIII

Passed by Congress December 18, 1917. Ratified January 16, 1919. Repealed by amendment 21.

Section 1.

After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

Section 2.

The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Section 3.

This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of the several States, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress.

AMENDMENT XIX

Passed by Congress June 4, 1919. Ratified August 18, 1920.

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

AMENDMENT XX

Passed by Congress March 2, 1932. Ratified January 23, 1933.

Note: Article I, section 4, of the Constitution was modified by section 2 of this amendment. In addition, a portion of the 12th amendment was superseded by section 3.

Section 1.

The terms of the President and the Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3d day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

Section 2.

The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3d day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

Section 3.

If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice President elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice President shall have qualified.

Section 4.

The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

Section 5.

Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article.

Section 6.

This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission.

AMENDMENT XXI

Passed by Congress February 20, 1933. Ratified December 5, 1933.

Section 1.

The eighteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

Section 2.

The transportation or importation into any State, Territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited.

Section 3.

This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by conventions in the several States, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress.

AMENDMENT XXII

Passed by Congress March 21, 1947. Ratified February 27, 1951.

Section 1.

No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

Section 2.

This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress.

AMENDMENT XXIII

Passed by Congress June 16, 1960. Ratified March 29, 1961.

Section 1.

The District constituting the seat of Government of the United States shall appoint in such manner as the Congress may direct:

A number of electors of President and Vice President equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives in Congress to which the District would be entitled if it were a State, but in no event more than the least populous State; they shall be in addition to those appointed by the States, but they shall be considered, for the purposes of the election of President and Vice President, to be electors appointed by a State; and they shall meet in the District and perform such duties as provided by the twelfth article of amendment.

Section 2.

The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

AMENDMENT XXIV

Passed by Congress August 27, 1962. Ratified January 23, 1964.

Section 1.

The right of citizens of the United States to vote in any primary or other election for President or Vice President, for electors for President or Vice President, or for Senator or Representative in Congress, shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State by reason of failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.

Section 2.

The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

AMENDMENT XXV

Passed by Congress July 6, 1965. Ratified February 10, 1967.

Note: Article II, section 1, of the Constitution was affected by the 25th amendment.

Section 1.

In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.

Section 2.

Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

Section 3.

Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice President as Acting President.

Section 4.

Whenever the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive departments or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting President.

Thereafter, when the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that no inability exists, he shall resume the powers and duties of his office unless the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive department or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit within four days to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office.

Thereupon Congress shall decide the issue, assembling within forty-eight hours for that purpose if not in session. If the Congress, within twenty-one days after receipt of the latter written declaration, or, if Congress is not in session, within twenty-one days after Congress is required to assemble, determines by two-thirds vote of both Houses that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office.

AMENDMENT XXVI

Passed by Congress March 23, 1971. Ratified July 1, 1971.

Note: Amendment 14, section 2, of the Constitution was modified by section 1 of the 26th amendment.

Section 1.

The right of citizens of the United States, who are eighteen years of age or older, to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of age.

Section 2.

The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

AMENDMENT XXVII

Originally proposed Sept. 25, 1789. Ratified May 7, 1992.

No law, varying the compensation for the services of the Senators and Representatives, shall take effect, until an election of Representatives shall have intervened.

The Declaration of Independence

The Declaration of Independence as finally edited by Congress from Thomas Jefferson's draft, appeared on July 8, 1776 in The Pennsylvania Packet, a weekly newspaper.

The Unanimous Declaration of the Thirteen United States of America

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any form of government becomes destructive to these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness.

Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. —Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these states. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the state remaining in the meantime exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these states; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislature.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these states:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule in these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burned our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow citizens taken captive on the high seas to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare, is undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress, assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by the authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, that these united colonies are, and of right ought to be free and independent states; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as free and independent states, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor.

Suggested Reading

There is a George Santayana aphorism, those that refuse to learn the lessons of history are doomed to repeat them. Most people ignore history's frauds when they see them, thinking that if they just ignore evil, it will go away. Instead, we keep seeing Edmund Burke's dictum coming true, the only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing. Ignoring the bad guys only emboldens them to increasingly enslave us.

The U.S. Constitution is the Supreme Law of the Land, but criminals consider themselves untouchable inside the beltway. To arrest their crimes, We The People need informed, coordinated tactical action. Every American can make a difference – but not until we're educated. We need to read books that go beyond restating America's problems and pointing out our domestic enemies, and teach us how to arrest their advance. That is the aim of this action manual; but you need foundation, too.

I could easily have picked 250 books to make the essential library for self-governing Americans, but I have gleaned only the following 55 works to vault you over walls of ignorance about our history and Constitution; about money, credit, and banking; about our wars, the state of our republic, and the powerless Christian church. These works won't make you an intellectual; they will impart real wisdom.

If you think the Internet is all we need because it is opening minds and threatening tyrants all over the world, Egyptian dictator Mubarak proved in early 2011 that government can shut down a country's Internet access. It can't happen yet in America; but as Tim Wu explains in Master Switch, it may happen in the future if we drop our guard.

Most people won't read 55 works over the next few years, so I'll first list what I believe are the dozen most vital works including a free website and a free online booklet. Pick the work that most intrigues you; buy it and read it, highlighter in hand. After you finish one, try another. Move at your own pace; you'll find that great books grow on you. As you review highlighted passages, life lessons emerge; pieces come together as you begin to see through media propaganda, to grasp today's vital issues.

In paper or e-book format, for less than the cost of two college courses, this Liberty Library will place you and your children among the rarest of species – the informed, self-governing American.

The Dozen Most Vital Works

The Sovereign Individual by James Davidson & Lord William Rees-Mogg explains the shake-up of nations introduced by the Internet, much like the impact that the moveable-type printing press had in medieval times. Even now, 17 years after the first edition of this book, the world's institutions have not come to grips with the Internet. But the news is daily illustrating the acceleration of revolution against wicked and bloated industries, institutions, and governments. As institutions attempt to deal with newly-liberated humanity, the authors posit that informed individuals and small businesses will win, and big governments and institutions will lose. At AmericaAgain!, we agree.

Lincoln Unmasked by Thomas J. DiLorenzo debunks the legends offered as reasons for Lincoln's war. The author exposes why Lincoln suspended habeas corpus, why he imprisoned thousands of Northern war dissenters, and why he shut down hundreds of opposition newspapers. The author also exposes Lincoln's real economic agenda. If you wonder why you weren't taught this in school, read the chapters about Lincoln gatekeepers in academia, and the appendix entitled What They Don't Want You to Read.

Lincoln's Marxists: Marxism in the Civil War by Walter D. Kennedy and Al Benson, Jr. is another of those books that convinced me that I was cheated even in my expensive private education. The book exposes Union army generals that were Marxists, and the Marxist ideas that informed the Lincoln administration. I voted GOP for 25 years because I thought the GOP was the party that would conserve the Constitution. How little I knew about the history of the GOP's founding and its Red Roots! Rather than the party of individual liberty, it has always been the power center for American mercantilists and bankers.

Overthrow: America's Century of Regime Change from Hawaii to Iraq by veteran news correspondent Stephen Kinzer is the best single-volume historical survey I can find covering the U.S. government's attempts at empire. This fast-moving little book is a series of vignettes of U.S. government takeovers of Hawaii, Guam, the Philippines, Puerto Rico and countless others including botched invasions of Mexico, Venezuela, Panama, and sweet spots around the globe, all long before the present invasion of Iraq and Afghanistan. Small nations and islands of the world have been mere real estate assets for American corporations and military, flying in the face of our Founding Fathers' ideals.

Reset: Iran, Turkey, and America's Future is another master work by Kinzer. It is likely that 99.99% of Americans have never heard of the popular revolutions against Islamic rule by the people of Iran and Turkey, a century ago. The 'Young Turks' succeeded, while the Persian people were pressed back into the oppressive ways of Mohammed. Fascinating reading.

The New American Militarism: How Americans Are Seduced by War is unlike 'anti-war' books, which I do not generally care for. Andrew Bacevich is a former U.S. Army colonel, Vietnam veteran, West Point professor of history and international relations. A conscientious Christian offering a logical, historically accurate analysis of what President Eisenhower dubbed the Military-Industrial Complex in his 1961 Farewell Address. Patriotic Christians, especially active military or veterans who love the Constitution, can discover that while the U.S. military industry outspends all other militaries on earth combined, it also opposes the positions of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and James Madison. The author forces veterans to reconsider what they were taught by the industry that shapes America's huge military subculture and in violation of our Supreme Law, directs the foreign policy of our republic.

The New Empire of Debt by Bill Bonner and Addison Wiggin is the second edition of a work that traces America's past 120 years of world conquest, measuring blood and money with a mix of humor and morose fact that keeps you turning the pages to find out how stupid we can get before Congress' mercantilist puppeteers bankrupt us entirely. Whether or not We The People can ever put an end to this nonsense in our name, this modern classic leaves no doubt about how America has become so hated around the world, our government nearing complete bankruptcy.

The Mystery of Banking by Murray N. Rothbard, a student of Ludwig von Mises, a founder of 'Austrian School' classical economics. Rothbard shows where the bodies were buried as bankers and Washington D.C. debased and despoiled our currency and engage daily in fraud, theft, and counterfeiting. More importantly, on pages 262-268 the author provides a concise plan to restore lawful currency and banking in America that, together with the work of Professor Huerta de Soto (see below), AmericaAgain! is using to draft our Lawful United States Money and Banking Act.

The Official Counterfeiter is a 36-page free cartoon booklet created in 1969 by Vic Lockman. It is the clearest explanation I've ever read, of Congress' money and banking crimes against our Constitution and We The People, on behalf of the corrupt banking industry. Ages 8-9 to adult; the link to the booklet is: <http://scripturalscrutinydotcom.files.wordpress.com/2012/01/the-official-counterfeiter-biblical-economics.pdf>

Constitutional Income: Do You have Any? by former Idaho Rep. and structural engineer Phil Hart is the meticulously-documented story of how from 1909-1913, Congress conspired to create the largest, longest-running financial crime in history. Featuring facsimile copies of congressional floor debate, private memoranda, and newspaper articles of the period, this book will make every Taxpayer furious, and give ammunition to every law-abiding Nontaxpayer among today's estimated 67 million non-filers. All of that corruption and pork isn't magic; follow the money.

A Tax Honesty Primer

This is not a book, but my little TaxHonestyPrimer.com website. Having read the Internal Revenue Code, countless court rulings and cases, seven books on Tax Honesty, and dozens of websites over two years, I then became a law-abiding Nontaxpayer 16 years ago. I couldn't find in one place enough information to take action and expose the corruption, so I created A Tax Honesty Primer as the first step in Taxpayer due diligence, so that others can avoid years of wading through nutty tax protestor theories. The site is not my opinion or 'position'; it's a compendium of easily verifiable facts, court rulings, Tax Code sections, federal regulations, jury verdicts, former IRS commissioner and IRS employee statements, and well-settled law. On the site, I do not sell anything or accept donations.

Tax Honesty is wonderful defense for the self-employed (it's all but impossible if you work for someone else, especially a large company); but playing defense will never arrest Congress' crimes. The AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™ is designed to be a permanent citizen mechanism to arrest organized crime in Congress. One of 20 proposed AmericaAgain! Legislative Action projects is a constitutional amendment outlawing taxation of wages and salaries. This was promised by the politicians when they instituted the income tax, as Phil Hart's book explains. Until we pass that amendment, Tax Honesty offers short-term relief; house-by-house secession from Congress' corruption.

The Fourth Turning: What the Cycles of History Tell Us About America's Next Rendezvous With Destiny by William Strauss and Neil Howe is a smaller, more exciting 1998 follow-up to their 1991 book Generations: The History of America's Future. In this national bestseller, Strauss and Howe illustrate the historical 80- to 100-year cycle called a saecula, further divided into five 20-year periods/generations. The authors call each transition between these generations, a turning. Thus in 1998, the authors accurately predicted the fourth turning of our saecula; a crisis period from 2005-2015. This has been fulfilled with the Ron Paul Revolution, the TEA Party and Occupy Wall Street movements, the 'Great Recession', the staggering collapse of the U.S. Dollar, and increasing mistrust of most institutions. Tracing 'heroic' generations back to pre-colonial times, the authors conclude that by 2015, a critical mass of Americans in the 'Baby Boomer' and 'Thirteener' generations might step up to the plate as heroes, to meet the crisis. I concur with their prognosis; it's time to get to work! I also find this book to be well-supported by facts, very encouraging (there's nothing new under the sun), and a wonderful antidote to the Chicken Little school of thought.

The Rest of the Best

President Who?: Forgotten Founders by Stanley L. Klos was a serious shock to me. Did you know that George Washington called Peyton Randolph "the Father of our country" because Randolph was the first President of the United States in Congress Assembled? Did you know that nine other presidents served prior to George Washington? If you didn't know these things, you're not alone; most of us were cheated in our 'education'. Unfortunately, this one is very hard to find even on Amazon used or eBay. But you can get most of the information on Mr. Klos's website, www.forgottenfounders.org.

The Republic of Letters: The Correspondence Between Jefferson and Madison 1776-1826 a 3-volume compendium of 50 years' correspondence between the two giants among America's founding fathers. Series editor James Smith makes segues from their correspondence to their historical context, helping the reader grasp these founders' development over their lifetimes. I learned more about James Madison from these letters than from seven Madison biographies. To grasp a man's thinking over time, read his letters.

Ideas Have Consequences by Richard M. Weaver is a little classic which proposes that language, virtue, maleness, femaleness, and ancient mores have almost gone out of our world. I disagree with Weaver's somber note at the end, but this book caused me to think about truth, goodness, and beauty outside my religious categories.

Democracy in America by Alexis deTocqueville is a classic work of economics, sociology, and political science. Although the young Frenchman did not grasp the republican form of government guaranteed in our Constitution, he was prescient about democracy in America. Our founders created a representative constitutional republic of sovereign States specifically to avoid democracy, majority rule that always degenerates into warring mobs, grabbing for goodies from the all-knowing Nanny State.

From his limited view as a foreigner, Tocqueville still accurately predicted that democracy in America would degenerate into soft despotism and 'tyranny of the majority' as Madison predicted 50 years earlier. Tocqueville said that majoritarian tyranny would spring from the confluence of two corrupting factors: dependence on government for material security, and the growing prejudices of an increasingly ignorant mass, against one another's factions and groups. He was precisely correct and, after 150 years of government education, most Americans are now European socialists, unfit to rule our own passions and unwilling to oversee our servant government, instead making it their master by begging security and provision from it.

Hamilton's Curse: How Jefferson's Arch Enemy Betrayed the American Revolution – and What it Means for Americans Today by Thomas J. DiLorenzo (2009) is a long-overdue correction of the record about Alexander Hamilton. Although a courageous hero of our War for Independence, Hamilton was a wily tactician in laying the foundation for America's corrupt banking industry, and perhaps the most destructive 'founding father'. DiLorenzo debunks the long-held legends that deify Hamilton, exposing the man for what he was: a conniving, self-absorbed con artist. In the final chapter, Ending the Curse, I find nothing upon which to disagree with the author except that, like most authors offering reform proposals, he fails to offer a mechanism to enact his solutions.

The U.S. Constitution

The Constitution Made Easy by Mike Holler (original edition) is a spiral-bound, super-handly desk copy of the U.S. Constitution with a unique design. It features the original, archaic language on each left-hand page with the modern language version on the right-hand page facing it. The author has provided a wonderful numbering system for each clause in the Constitution, which we use in the copy of the Constitution here in Appendix C. All of the amendments are integrated in context where they affect the law. To fulfill your sovereign duty over our Supreme Law, the first step is to know what it says!

Free, Sovereign, and Independent States: The Intended Meaning of the American Constitution by John Remington Graham explains the U.S. Constitution clause by clause, tracing legislative history from the kings' courts and parliaments of Great Britain to our Constitutional Convention. This ready reference on every clause in the Constitution is a masterful briefing on the origins of America's Supreme Law.

The Founders' Constitution by editors Kurland and Lerner is a 5-volume massive reference set offering a more in-depth treatment than Graham's. It includes extracts from leading works of political theory, history, law, and constitutional argument that the Framers and their contemporaries used and produced. Available in paperback and CD-ROM, I find the electronic edition considerably handier.

The People Themselves: Popular Constitutionalism and Judicial Review by Larry D. Kramer, former dean of Stanford Law School, is no dry tome filled with legal jargon. It's a refreshing look at why We The People have more lawful power than the U.S. Supreme Court. Dean Kramer discusses why it's critical that We The People begin to exercise that power peacefully and lawfully – or we will lose that power, and rule of law with it. This book was seminal in the tactical planning for AmericaAgain!.

Economics, Money and Banking

Economics in One Lesson by Henry Hazlitt is a classic economics primer for people who would never read economics subjects but want to know how labor, money, government and credit operate in society to cause wars, inflation, depressions, and such.

Blood Money: The Civil War and the Federal Reserve by John Remington Graham is a little booklet explaining that the Federal Reserve scam actually began generations before the Jekyll Island gang and Congress teamed up in 1910-13.

Barbara Villiers or, A History of Monetary Crimes by Alexander del Mar is a tiny book with a misleading name. Villiers was a favored mistress of an English king, for whose personal benefit coinage laws were passed. If you think this bizarre, read Rothbard's history, cited above; American monetary legislation since Lincoln's time has been the same kind of deals but with many 'mistresses'.

The Case Against the Fed by Rothbard is a much smaller book with a much more practical goal: to show how Americans can shut down the longest-running counterfeiting scam in history. This work forms the basic guide for the design of the AmericaAgain! proposed legislation, The Lawful American Money and Banking Act.

Money, Bank Credit, and Economic Cycles in the second English edition (2009) by Professor Jesus Huerta de Soto is the finest single volume in print concerning practical economics. Like the late Murray Rothbard, this author also explains the criminal nature of the fractional reserve banking scam throughout history; how all business boom-and-bust cycles have been created by the Federal Reserve crime families.

Like Joseph Salerno is his book Money: Sound & Unsound, the author explains how the theories of Keynes and Marx are still used by central banks and the banking industry generally to defraud us. In his final chapter, Professor de Soto offers a simple, powerful plan to restore honest money and banking.

Pieces of Eight: The Monetary Powers and Disabilities of the United States Constitution by Edwin Vieira, Jr. is the definitive explanation of lawful U.S. money as stipulated in our Supreme Law, and also the definitive history of the U.S. Dollar. Out of print for about a decade, the huge two-volume hardbound set (over 1,700 pages) is available again through Amazon.com and at $200 is a bargain for anyone needing definitive legal citations on U.S. money.

Unaccountable: How the accounting profession forfeited a public trust by Mike Brewster takes you from ancient clay tablets in Sumeria up to the breakup of the Big Eight, in a fast-moving tale of deceit and unprofessionalism, making 'the dismal profession' a riveting read.

I always have to laugh when someone challenges me with statements such as, "What criminal counts do you think you can get members of Congress on? You'll never make anything stick."

It's a target-rich environment, to be sure. The best introduction to this subject is our 55-minute AmericaAgain! – The Movie, Part I, available free on our website. If you want more background on how deeply Congress has been involved in financial crimes this century, that movie is a good start.

At the end of last century, the S&L crisis was a tremor of things to come, as former federal bank regulator and UMKC Law Professor William Black explains in his book The Best Way to Rob a Bank is to Own One. Many more recent books expose the grifters' games today; three good ones are

It Takes a Pillage: Behind the Bailouts, Bonuses and Backroom Deals From Washington to Wall Street by Nomi Prins

The Great American Stickup: Greedy Bankers and the Politicians Who Love Them by Robert Scheer

Griftopia: A Story of Bankers, Politicians, and the Most Audacious Power Grab in History by Matt Taibbi

If you're not much of a reader, then to learn how staggeringly corrupt the banking industry is (including its control of Congress and presidents) watch our 55-minute movie or the Academy-Award winning documentary, Inside Job. You will never feel the same walking into your bank.

Truth About Presidents and Wars

America's Caesar: The Decline and Fall of Republican Government in the United States of America by Greg L. Durand probes more deeply than does DiLorenzo into the personal and religious aspects of Lincoln's character, using primary-source documentation to prove that Lincoln was a cross between Bill Clinton and Saddam Hussein: a slick, godless butcher with a wonderful public persona. After you read these quotes from his friends, contemporaries, and Lincoln's own pen, you'll realize that you received a propagandist education.

Reassessing the Presidency: The Rise of the Executive State and the Decline of Freedom is a 791-page lesson about how American history has been steered by our presidents; edited by John V. Denson. Each chapter can be read on its own to grasp a particular presidency or period. The book's recurring theme was Madison's and Jefferson's: that presidents are not to be trusted (and they were both presidents themselves), and that the People must stay in control and ever-vigilant.

The Costs of War: America's Pyrrhic Victories is another compendium edited by John Denson. A treasure-trove for those who want to learn why our wars were fought. The book is worth buying for Raico's Rethinking Churchill chapter alone; it finally puts the Butcherous Bulldog of Britain in the hall of infamy alongside Lincoln, Teddy Roosevelt, and FDR.

Wilson's War: How Woodrow Wilson's Great Blunder led to Hitler, Lenin, Stalin & World War II by Jim Powell is an excellent primer on Tom 'Woodrow' Wilson, highlighting the milquetoast do-gooder's colossal blunders from Mexico to Venezuela to America joining Europe's two world wars for huge military industry profits. Reading this account of presidential incompetence that many other presidents have since displayed, I finally understood that Wilson's chief weakness wasn't incompetence so much as useful stupidity; why government dragged the American People into Europe's world wars.

FDR's Folly: How Roosevelt and his New Deal prolonged the Great Depression is the second primer on America's world-war presidents by historian Jim Powell. As he does with Wilson, the author here illustrates how mendacious and bungling FDR was. The hero of my parents' generation was a good friend of Stalin, who killed 20 million of his own people; but this book proves that beyond being evil, FDR was a blithering idiot.

Roosevelt's Secret War: FDR & World War II Espionage is the story of FDR's creation of America's intelligence network. Author Joseph Persico says, "Few leaders were better adapted temperamentally to espionage than FDR; (he) compartmentalized information, misled associates, manipulated people, conducted intrigues, used private lines of communication, scattered responsibility, duplicated assignments, provoked rivalries, held the cards while showing few, and left few fingerprints." And this from an author that likes FDR, referring to him as a principled Machiavellian who hoped to achieve several clear ends (i.e., getting America into WWII) although most Americans wanted nothing to do with it before FDR's Pearl Harbor scam.

Day of Deceit: The Truth about FDR and Pearl Harbor is Robert B. Stinnett's copious proof showing that Pearl Harbor was no surprise to FDR, just the 9/11 that the devious president needed to prime a multi-billion-dollar war machine on both sides of the ocean, supposedly creating millions of new jobs. What's a few tens of thousands dead? As is the case with Persico, Stinnett is still supportive of FDR. Yet by simply reporting what he found, Stinnett's smoking guns show FDR as a willing puppet of the Military-Industrial Complex, a generation before Eisenhower coined the term.

Big Oil, Truther Movement, Coming Challenges

Churchill's Folly: How Winston Churchill created modern Iraq by Christopher Catherwood, is the story of Britain's dissection of the Persian empire into the petrodollar bloodbath we've seen ever since. Ralph Raico's Rethinking Churchill chapter in the book Reassessing the Presidency removed my blinders about the old Bulldog whose clever turns of phrase had always captured me. In this book, I learned just what a scheming monster the man actually was.

It's the Crude, Dude: Greed, Gas, War, and the American Way by Linda McQuaig is a well-documented history of America's role in the game played first by the British and French in the sands of Araby. As bloody as we think Mohammedans are, this book proves that the money-loving 'leaders' on both sides cause these wars. The book evokes sympathy for any Middle East population as long as big petroleum owns our Congress.

Crossing the Rubicon: The Decline of the American Empire at the End of the Age of Oil by Michael Ruppert is the only 9/11 book I include. This will be a long synopsis, because the 9/11 debacle is important – not for the tragedy itself, but because of the major shift in our government that has taken place in the years since.

Erasmus of Rotterdam said that in the land of the blind, the one-eyed man is king. We needn't know everything about the 911 debacle; even a fourth-grader in possession of the facts can grasp the fact that powerful men and institutions have influenced governments throughout history.

The 150-year pattern in America since Fort Sumter is: first we experience a catalyst attack either of unexplained origin, or out of proportion to the war that follows in response. Next, federal government and its industry allies ratchet their power. The term 'ratchet' used in this way is author Robert Higgs' way of describing the historical phenomenon of government gaining new ground against its own population, then holding that new ground to gain further illicit powers; a one-way advance of tyranny.

I don't know Mr. Ruppert, but his book is the most professional and credible of twenty-two books and three videos I reviewed over eight years relating to the 9/11 debacle.

I no longer spend much time on this issue and only include this book because that hoax catalyzed American domestic and foreign policy for the foreseeable future. The government's official story and its media hacks should be hooted off the stage, but it's pointless to argue about 9/11. Instead, AmericaAgain! will beat the predator-parasite horde at their own game: self-governing citizens and resurgent sovereign States enforcing the Constitution, arresting the long pattern of government-corporate-military corruption by using a legal choke-collar on each member of Congress. While we work on a new arrest mechanism, it makes no sense to argue about the criminal's last atrocity among many.

Whoever our domestic enemies are, they use Congress for financing and legislative enablement. International players' goal is always to become insanely wealthy, and Congress is their key. After every war, they get us arguing amongst ourselves for decades about who caused the fire so we won't stop to think about trapping the kingpins that hired the arsonist. Americans will be duped into wars until citizens develop a lasting law-enforcement mechanism like the AmericaAgain! Indictment Engine™.

I'm one of several hundred engineers, scientists, and architects who signed on at Architects and Engineers for 911 Truth not because I care to argue about this latest in a long pattern of war-sparking hoaxes, but because the official story is so preposterous in structural forensics, physics, and materials science. As a professional engineer having performed structural design for two decades, I became interested in the story from the first few seconds of video I watched of the collapses that morning. To assert that the first three instances in history of fire-induced pulverizing structural collapse of steel multistory buildings occurred in one city, in one day – one of them with no aircraft collision – is ludicrous. Of countless raging fires in steel structures around the world, some have lasted far longer than the WTC fires, yet none led to plastic collapse, much less to the pulverizing, free-fall-velocity collapse seen thrice on 911 but never seen before or since – except in every controlled demolition.

Occam's Razor holds that the simplest explanation is most likely; if evidence contradicts an explanation that demands adding unlikely assumptions, that explanation is likely untrue. Moreover, on the morning of July 28, 1945, a fully-fueled B-25 Mitchell bomber lost in fog over Manhattan slammed into the 79th floor of the Empire State Building. The structure sustained no lasting damage, much less did it collapse in the free-fall-velocity, symmetrical axial implosion failure mode seen in steel structures only in controlled demolition.

Geopolitical forces in play in the world's mega-events need phenomenal amounts of money, logistics, and coordination that only major financial players enjoy. The idea that the bungling Bush administration could have done 9/11 alone or with a handful of Muslims is preposterous. It's one thing to believe legends about 'Honest Abe' because you were indoctrinated in school; it's another thing to believe a preposterous story that defies logic and evidence just because some people in the 'truther' community are off the deep end. Like the 20-year-long who-killed-Kennedy argument, the 13-year-long 9/11 Truth argument is designed to keep Americans distracted. Don't fall for it! We must stay focused on our target, their power source: corrupt Congress.

The Master Switch by Columbia University professor Tim Wu explains several things that I had always wondered about. How did the big radio corporations of the early 20th century become big television and media empires by the end of the century? How do media content empires fit together with the distribution empires to determine what Americans see and hear? Is the Internet really the open sea of information for everyone to dip into as we imagine, or do certain entities control what we can get access to, and how it's presented? What about Microsoft, Apple, and Google (the 800-pound gorilla on the block, whose motto was “don’t be evil”)? Are they being co-opted by government to be evil, controlling the content of what we see as the Internet world? The author probes all this, and more.

Crumbling and Corrupt Institutions

Constitutional Chaos: What Happens When the Government Breaks its Own Laws by Fox News Senior Judicial Analyst and former New Jersey Superior Court Judge Andrew P. Napolitano is the first book I would read by this trenchant jurist if you’d like to unfold the story of our constitutional crisis in stages.

The Constitution in Exile: How the federal government has seized power by rewriting the Supreme Law of the Land might be called an atrocity update, written in 2006, two years after the abovementioned book and covers much of the same ground. This one by JudgeNap is even more appalling than the other.

Lies the Government Told You: Myth, Power, and Deception in American History is perhaps Judge Napolitano’s best work yet; a list of 17 lies by which the federal Leviathan keeps citizens on their leashes, versus the other way around, which was the Founders’ intention. While none of Judge Napolitano’s solutions come close to matching the efficacy of AmericaAgain!, he is the most honest jurist writing and speaking publicly today in America about the moral bankruptcy of the federal government, including its courts.

The Beast on the East River: The U.N. Threat to America’s Sovereignty and Security by Nathan Tabor, the founder of The ConservativeVoice.com, is the best analysis of the U.N. threat that I have read. We used this work to draft the sections of the AmericaAgain! Declaration that deal with ending our U.N. debacle.

The Harsh Truth About America’s Public Schools by homeschooling Houston attorney Bruce N. Shortt, Texas coordinator for Exodus Mandate. He and his wife homeschool their own children, but Bruce was so shocked as he investigated the public schools that he felt compelled to write this shocking investigative report to warn parents whose children are enrolled in them. As Bruce has reported over the years since publishing this book, things have only gotten worse. This book will alert you to the failure of government schools to teach honest history or any civics; but if your children are enrolled in them, it’s your parental duty to know the emotional and spiritual trauma they face there also.

Specific to Christianity

Martyrs Mirror by Thielemann vanBraght is a massive, hardbound compendium of 16 centuries of martyrs for the faith, from the apostles of Christ, through the time of the supposed ‘Reformation’, when plain believers who refused to sprinkle their babies and call it baptism were financially ruined, run out of town, jailed indefinitely and left to starve, drowned, or burned to death by Roman Catholics, Lutherans, and Calvinists. The purpose of reviewing all these senseless murders is to see that: a) Christians have been as savage in the past as Mohammedans, in the name of religion; b) the ‘Reformation’ is history’s most well-disguised political fraud; and c) those of the ‘Reformed’ faith run from confronting these facts as much as Roman Catholics run from confronting the Spanish Inquisition.

The Untold Story of the New Testament Church by Frank Viola explains how trying to read the Bible in the order we have it today is like re-arranging all the chapters of a novel, binding it back together, then trying to make sense of the story. One of the most fascinating Christian books I've ever read.

Finding Organic Church: A Comprehensive Guide to Starting and Sustaining Authentic Christian Communities also by Frank Viola is a sequel to the amazing book, Pagan Christianity? – explaining how to gather with other believers in an organic fellowship without repeating the lunacy of Christianity, Inc. or the opposite lunacy of most short-lived house church startups. Frank Viola brings many years of hard experiences – his and those of many others who have given him input as he has become a major figure in modern reformation.

The Great Christian Revolution by Otto Scott demonstrates that no matter how they may balk, even the most heathen anti-Christian in the West is benefitting from centuries of Christian groundwork in every area of human endeavor.

Dismissing God by D. Bruce Lockerbie exposes the lives and work of the most influential writers of Abraham Lincoln's and at least four subsequent generations. Lockerbie explains how and why these angry humanists kicked out our moral underpinnings: Emily Dickinson, Walt Whitman, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Herman Melville, Mark Twain, William Blake, Percy Bysshe Shelley, John Keats, John Ruskin, William Morris, William Butler Yeats, James Joyce, D.H. Lawrence, Oscar Wilde, F. Scott Fitzgerald, and others including Ernest Hemingway. In this book, you'll find the lineup of perpetrators used by America's schools to destroy our civilization – and Lockerbie's writing is beautiful.

Appendix H

Life Upgrades

Some time ago, our oldest granddaughter (age 11 at the time) took pity on a homeless man who could always be found begging at a highway exit. For months, our grandchildren and their mother made special trips to deliver clothing, socks, shoes, sandwiches and more, to Richard. Finally, their homeschooling parents suggested that what Richard really needed is dignity; life purpose. Handouts destroy human dignity, but work and purpose rebuild it.

So the kids asked one of the fathers in their house church group if he had a place to put Richard to work. The man (manager of a thriving business) took compassion on Richard and not only gave him a job but also goes out of his way to pick Richard up and leave him off from work every day. Richard's life is now vastly improved, because he has purpose and dignity.

We all have a duty to superintend our constitutional system of government, yet 90% of Americans will happily push their duty onto the 10% to carry it for them. Most Americans have become un-American; ethically slothful, like panhandlers on street corners. Slothful majorities are the default condition in all civilizations, but America was unique as long as we had faith in God and the self-respect to do our duty. No one had to tell an American to work; it was in our blood – the Protestant work ethic.

Now like Richard, America has fallen and can't get up. First, because we were ignorant; but having read this book, you no longer have that excuse. Restoring life in America will take sacrifice and diligence.

You may not be prepared to make the major reforms listed here, but millions of Americans are doing so. When a major collapse occurs, tens of millions more Americans will have no choice. Remember this.

Leave Your Government Job

If you're one of the 20 million Americans working for government, your paychecks and benefits are better than in the private sector – but they originate from Congress skimming other people's payroll accounts. People like things easy, so government has become like a cancer. Government employee, if you want America to recover, stop rationalizing; this isn't China. You need to find a real job.

Tax Honesty

It makes no sense to complain about corrupt, bloated government while you keep funding it. Former IRS Fraud Examiner Sherry Jackson estimated in 2005 there were 67 million non-filers. Since then, D.C. organized crime has less credibility; surely the number of non-filers is even higher. I've been a happy, law-abiding Nontaxpayer for 16 years. On my TaxHonestyPrimer.com website I list the names of 14 IRS operatives who tried to coax or threaten me back into the 'fair share' line; they all went home empty-handed. For millions of Americans like me, April 15 is just another day. We don't fund our enemy.

The Big Three

Home office. Homeschooling. House churches. Over the past 40 years, these three movements went from being 'fringe' to being the preferred way of life. It's not rocket science; for two generations, Americans rushed into corporate climbing, putting the kids on a bus to become someone else's problem, and sitting in a pew for an hour, to be entertained. All three experiments failed miserably, and the death toll is still climbing. Want America back? Don't wait for a magic pill or for Washington D.C. to fix life. Restoration starts one family at a time. Bottom line, the easy way is hard and the hard way is best.

Leave Urban Zones

Children love activity and fun. Some people never grow out of it; they love big city life. Unfortunately, when things go bad (natural disaster, loss of services, economic collapse) life will be much harder in urban areas. As the FED cartel and European central banks run printing presses at full tilt to bring on Great Depression II, prudence dictates that you move to rural places where people don't become animals when things get rough. Most 'preppers' are not insane; research their websites. Urban Americans can still pull together in tough times, but crops and farm animals don't grow on concrete.

Get Out of Debt

This one's self-explanatory; when you're debt-free, your family has options.

Join AmericaAgain!

As this membership organization matures and grows, difficult reforms will become much easier as friends and neighbors adopt a responsible way of life. But it will never be easy, and we don't expect the majority to become responsible; they don't have to. We simply start where we are today and if we and our children stay with it, in a few generations America will be more honest, moral, diligent and free. Repentance isn't rocket science; it's laid out in these pages. To begin restoring your part of America, go to AmericaAgainNow.com and we'll inform, supply, support, and organize you and your neighbors to help make us America again.

About the Author

David M. Zuniga is a graduate of the University of Texas (BS, Architectural Engineering) and registered professional engineer who designed commercial and institutional buildings for 28 years.

Having founded four classical Christian K-12 schools in three states, helping to design their curricula including Latin, Logic, the Rhetoric of Oratory and Debate, and the Great Books of Western Civilization, he became overwhelmed at the average American's ignorance of our most basic founding documents and the norms and nobility that made America unique in human history.

Spending 14 months in monastic seclusion, prayer and study of over 110 key books, David finally wrote the first draft AmericaAgain! Declaration in 2006, then spent almost 18 months refining the document with the help of many Americans including constitutionalist and radio show host Mike Church, and legal scholar Edwin Vieira Jr, author of many books including Pieces of Eight, the 1700-page definitive legal history of the U.S. Dollar and The Sword and Sovereignty, the 2300-page CD-ROM definitive history and constitutional law respecting the Militias of the Several States.

After establishing AmericaAgain! Trust in 2009, he wrote his first book This Bloodless Liberty in 2010, conveying his vision for AmericaAgain!. It is his firm conviction that contrary to doomsday prophecies, if we are repentant and bold, this generation has the opportunity to restore our Constitution, as God again uses America to demonstrate His love to a world without hope.

David has been a guest on The Mike Church Show, Infowars Nightly News, and talk radio programs across America. His articles have appeared on blogs, forums and alternative media including Freedom Outpost, D.C. Clothesline, The Liberty Beacon, Prepper Recon, Sons of Liberty and others.

David and his wife of 38 years have two children and six grandchildren. They live in Texas, where they fear God and fear no man, serving "no king but King Jesus!".

Time for ACTION.

The time for talk ended long ago.

Tired of marching, contacting corrupt D.C. politicians, and working half the year to pay for your D.C. masters to live large...of having to fund abortion, sexual perversion, illegal aliens, and Islamic jihad, destroying our civilization in one generation? If so, AmericaAgain! is for you.

The TEA Party, Ron Paul Revolution, Oath Keepers, GOOOH and many others have been playing by the enemy's rules, abdicating our power of popular sovereignty. AmericaAgain! will first ratify the long-forgotten original First Amendment, passed in 1789 by Congress and already ratified by 11 states. This reform alone will accomplish what GOOOH sought to do, and AmericaAgain! will also force 20 additional reform laws through Congress. How? Read this book to find out.

This is a detailed plan of action for us to do what our parents, grandparents, and great grandparents failed to do... sovereignly oversee our federal servants. This peaceful, practical, perpetual mechanism allows us to finally liberate ourselves from D.C. organized crime. A new way of life that We The People will forge for our servants — rather than remaining in the chains they have forged for us.
