<sup>1:41</sup>He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. <sup>1:42</sup>And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone. ¶<sup>1:43</sup>The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me. <sup>1:44</sup>Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>1:45</sup>Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. <sup>1:46</sup>And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. <sup>1:47</sup>Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! <sup>1:48</sup>Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. <sup>1:49</sup>Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel. <sup>1:50</sup>Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. <sup>1:51</sup>And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man. <sup>2:1</sup>And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: <sup>2:2</sup>and both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. <sup>2:3</sup>And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. <sup>2:4</sup>Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. <sup>2:5</sup>His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. <sup>2:6</sup>And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece. <sup>2:7</sup>Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. <sup>2:8</sup>And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it. <sup>2:9</sup>When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, <sup>2:10</sup>and saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. <sup>2:11</sup>This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him. ¶<sup>2:12</sup>After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days. ¶<sup>2:13</sup>And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, <sup>2:14</sup>and found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: <sup>2:15</sup>and when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; <sup>2:16</sup>and said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise. <sup>2:17</sup>And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up. ¶<sup>2:18</sup>Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? <sup>2:19</sup>Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. <sup>2:20</sup>Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? <sup>2:21</sup>But he spake of the temple of his body. <sup>2:22</sup>When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. ¶<sup>2:23</sup>Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. <sup>2:24</sup>But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, <sup>2:25</sup>and needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man. <sup>3:1</sup>There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: <sup>3:2</sup>the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. <sup>3:3</sup>Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. <sup>3:4</sup>Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? <sup>3:5</sup>Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>3:6</sup>That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. <sup>3:7</sup>Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. <sup>3:8</sup>The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. <sup>3:9</sup>Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? <sup>3:10</sup>Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? <sup>3:11</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. <sup>3:12</sup>If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? <sup>3:13</sup>And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. ¶<sup>3:14</sup>And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: <sup>3:15</sup>that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. ¶<sup>3:16</sup>For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. <sup>3:17</sup>For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. ¶<sup>3:18</sup>He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. <sup>3:19</sup>And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. <sup>3:20</sup>For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. <sup>3:21</sup>But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. ¶<sup>3:22</sup>After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and baptized. ¶<sup>3:23</sup> And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. <sup>3:24</sup> For John was not yet cast into prison. ¶<sup>3:25</sup> Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. <sup>3:26</sup> And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. <sup>3:27</sup> John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven. <sup>3:28</sup> Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him. <sup>3:29</sup> He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. <sup>3:30</sup> He must increase, but I must decrease. <sup>3:31</sup> He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all. <sup>3:32</sup> And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony. <sup>3:33</sup> He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true. <sup>3:34</sup> For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. <sup>3:35</sup> The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. <sup>3:36</sup> He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. <sup>4:1</sup> When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, <sup>4:2</sup> (though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,) <sup>4:3</sup> he left Judæa, and departed again into Galilee. <sup>4:4</sup> And he must needs go through Samaria. <sup>4:5</sup> Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. <sup>4:6</sup> Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour. <sup>4:7</sup> There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. <sup>4:8</sup> (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.) <sup>4:9</sup> Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. <sup>4:10</sup> Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. <sup>4:11</sup> The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water? <sup>4:12</sup> Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle? <sup>4:13</sup> Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: <sup>4:14</sup> but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. <sup>4:15</sup> The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw. <sup>4:16</sup> Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. <sup>4:17</sup> The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband: <sup>4:18</sup>for thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly. <sup>4:19</sup>The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. <sup>4:20</sup>Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. <sup>4:21</sup>Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. <sup>4:22</sup>Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. <sup>4:23</sup>But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. <sup>4:24</sup>God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. <sup>4:25</sup>The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. <sup>4:26</sup>Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he. ¶<sup>4:27</sup>And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her? <sup>4:28</sup>The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, <sup>4:29</sup>Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? <sup>4:30</sup>Then they went out of the city, and came unto him. ¶<sup>4:31</sup>In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat. <sup>4:32</sup>But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of. <sup>4:33</sup>Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? <sup>4:34</sup>Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. <sup>4:35</sup>Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. <sup>4:36</sup>And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. <sup>4:37</sup>And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. <sup>4:38</sup>I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours. ¶<sup>4:39</sup>And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did. <sup>4:40</sup>So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days. <sup>4:41</sup>And many more believed because of his own word; <sup>4:42</sup>and said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world. ¶<sup>4:43</sup>Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee. <sup>4:44</sup>For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country. <sup>4:45</sup>Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast. <sup>4:46</sup>So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. <sup>4:47</sup>When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. <sup>4:48</sup>Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. <sup>4:49</sup>The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die. <sup>4:50</sup>Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. <sup>4:51</sup>And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. <sup>4:52</sup>Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. <sup>4:53</sup>So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. <sup>4:54</sup>This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judæa into Galilee. <sup>5:1</sup>After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>5:2</sup>Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. <sup>5:3</sup>In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. <sup>5:4</sup>For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. <sup>5:5</sup>And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. <sup>5:6</sup>When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? <sup>5:7</sup>The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. <sup>5:8</sup>Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. <sup>5:9</sup>And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath. ¶ <sup>5:10</sup>The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed. <sup>5:11</sup>He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. <sup>5:12</sup>Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? <sup>5:13</sup>And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. <sup>5:14</sup>Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. <sup>5:15</sup>The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole. <sup>5:16</sup>And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day. ¶ <sup>5:17</sup>But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work. <sup>5:18</sup>Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God. <sup>5:19</sup>Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. <sup>5:20</sup>For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. <sup>5:21</sup>For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. <sup>5:22</sup>For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: <sup>5:23</sup>that all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him. <sup>5:24</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. <sup>5:25</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. <sup>5:26</sup>For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; <sup>5:27</sup>and hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. <sup>5:28</sup>Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, <sup>5:29</sup>and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. <sup>5:30</sup>I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. <sup>5:31</sup>If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. ¶<sup>5:32</sup>There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. <sup>5:33</sup>Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. <sup>5:34</sup>But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved. <sup>5:35</sup>He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. ¶<sup>5:36</sup>But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. <sup>5:37</sup>And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. <sup>5:38</sup>And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not. ¶<sup>5:39</sup>Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. <sup>5:40</sup>And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. <sup>5:41</sup>I receive not honour from men. <sup>5:42</sup>But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. <sup>5:43</sup>I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. <sup>5:44</sup>How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? <sup>5:45</sup>Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. <sup>5:46</sup>For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. <sup>5:47</sup>But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words? <sup>6:1</sup>After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. <sup>6:2</sup>And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. <sup>6:3</sup>And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. <sup>6:4</sup>And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. ¶<sup>6:5</sup>When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? <sup>6:6</sup>And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. <sup>6:7</sup>Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. <sup>6:8</sup>One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, <sup>6:9</sup>There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? <sup>6:10</sup>And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

<sup>6:11</sup>And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. <sup>6:12</sup>When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. <sup>6:13</sup>Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

<sup>6:14</sup>Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world. ¶<sup>6:15</sup>When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone. <sup>6:16</sup>And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, <sup>6:17</sup>and entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them. <sup>6:18</sup>And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. <sup>6:19</sup>So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid. <sup>6:20</sup>But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. <sup>6:21</sup>Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went. ¶<sup>6:22</sup>The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone; <sup>6:23</sup>(howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:) <sup>6:24</sup>when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

<sup>6:25</sup>And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? <sup>6:26</sup>Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled. <sup>6:27</sup>Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed. <sup>6:28</sup>Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? <sup>6:29</sup>Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. <sup>6:30</sup>They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work? <sup>6:31</sup>Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat. <sup>6:32</sup>Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. <sup>6:33</sup>For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

<sup>6:34</sup>Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. <sup>6:35</sup>And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. <sup>6:36</sup>But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not. <sup>6:37</sup>All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. <sup>6:38</sup>For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. <sup>6:39</sup>And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. <sup>6:40</sup>And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>6:41</sup>The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven. <sup>6:42</sup>And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven? <sup>6:43</sup>Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. <sup>6:44</sup>No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>6:45</sup>It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. <sup>6:46</sup>Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. <sup>6:47</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. <sup>6:48</sup>I am that bread of life. <sup>6:49</sup>Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. <sup>6:50</sup>This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. <sup>6:51</sup>I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. <sup>6:52</sup>The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? <sup>6:53</sup>Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. <sup>6:54</sup>Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>6:55</sup>For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. <sup>6:56</sup>He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. <sup>6:57</sup>As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. <sup>6:58</sup>This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. <sup>6:59</sup>These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. <sup>6:60</sup>Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it? <sup>6:61</sup>When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you? <sup>6:62</sup>What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? <sup>6:63</sup>It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. <sup>6:64</sup>But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. <sup>6:65</sup>And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. ¶<sup>6:66</sup>From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. <sup>6:67</sup>Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? <sup>6:68</sup>Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. <sup>6:69</sup>And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living

God. <sup>6:70</sup>Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? <sup>6:71</sup>He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve. <sup>7:1</sup>After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him. <sup>7:2</sup>Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. <sup>7:3</sup>His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. <sup>7:4</sup>For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. <sup>7:5</sup>For neither did his brethren believe in him. <sup>7:6</sup>Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready. <sup>7:7</sup>The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. <sup>7:8</sup>Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come. <sup>7:9</sup>When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. ¶<sup>7:10</sup>But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. <sup>7:11</sup>Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? <sup>7:12</sup>And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people. <sup>7:13</sup>Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews. ¶<sup>7:14</sup>Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. <sup>7:15</sup>And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? <sup>7:16</sup>Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. <sup>7:17</sup>If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. <sup>7:18</sup>He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. <sup>7:19</sup>Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me? <sup>7:20</sup>The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee? <sup>7:21</sup>Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel. <sup>7:22</sup>Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man. <sup>7:23</sup>If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day? <sup>7:24</sup>Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. <sup>7:25</sup>Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill? <sup>7:26</sup>But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ? <sup>7:27</sup>Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is. <sup>7:28</sup>Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. <sup>7:29</sup>But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me. <sup>7:30</sup>Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come. <sup>7:31</sup>And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done? ¶<sup>7:32</sup>The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him. <sup>7:33</sup>Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me. <sup>7:34</sup>Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come. <sup>7:35</sup>Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? <sup>7:36</sup>What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come? <sup>7:37</sup>In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. <sup>7:38</sup>He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. <sup>7:39</sup>(But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) ¶ <sup>7:40</sup>Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet. <sup>7:41</sup>Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee? <sup>7:42</sup>Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? <sup>7:43</sup>So there was a division among the people because of him. <sup>7:44</sup>And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him. ¶ <sup>7:45</sup>Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him? <sup>7:46</sup>The officers answered, Never man spake like this man. <sup>7:47</sup>Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived? <sup>7:48</sup>Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? <sup>7:49</sup>But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed. <sup>7:50</sup>Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) <sup>7:51</sup>Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth? <sup>7:52</sup>They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. <sup>7:53</sup>And every man went unto his own house. <sup>8:1</sup>Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. <sup>8:2</sup>And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. <sup>8:3</sup>And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, <sup>8:4</sup>they say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. <sup>8:5</sup>Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? <sup>8:6</sup>This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. <sup>8:7</sup>So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. <sup>8:8</sup>And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. <sup>8:9</sup>And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. <sup>8:10</sup>When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? <sup>8:11</sup>She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more. ¶ <sup>8:12</sup>Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. <sup>8:13</sup>The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true. <sup>8:14</sup>Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go. <sup>8:15</sup>Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. <sup>8:16</sup>And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. <sup>8:17</sup>It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. <sup>8:18</sup>I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. <sup>8:19</sup>Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also. <sup>8:20</sup>These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come. <sup>8:21</sup>Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come. <sup>8:22</sup>Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come. <sup>8:23</sup>And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. <sup>8:24</sup>I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. <sup>8:25</sup>Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning. <sup>8:26</sup>I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him. <sup>8:27</sup>They understood not that he spake to them of the Father. <sup>8:28</sup>Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. <sup>8:29</sup>And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him. <sup>8:30</sup>As he spake these words, many believed on him. <sup>8:31</sup>Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; <sup>8:32</sup>and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. ¶<sup>8:33</sup>They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? <sup>8:34</sup>Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. <sup>8:35</sup>And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever. <sup>8:36</sup>If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. <sup>8:37</sup>I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. <sup>8:38</sup>I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father. <sup>8:39</sup>They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. <sup>8:40</sup>But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. <sup>8:41</sup>Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. <sup>8:42</sup>Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. <sup>8:43</sup>Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. <sup>8:44</sup>Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. <sup>8:45</sup>And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. <sup>8:46</sup>Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? <sup>8:47</sup>He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. <sup>8:48</sup>Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? <sup>8:49</sup>Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. <sup>8:50</sup>And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. <sup>8:51</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. <sup>8:52</sup>Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. <sup>8:53</sup>Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? <sup>8:54</sup>Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God: <sup>8:55</sup>yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying. <sup>8:56</sup>Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. <sup>8:57</sup>Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? <sup>8:58</sup>Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am. <sup>8:59</sup>Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by. <sup>9:1</sup>And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. <sup>9:2</sup>And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? <sup>9:3</sup>Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. <sup>9:4</sup>I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. <sup>9:5</sup>As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. <sup>9:6</sup>When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, <sup>9:7</sup>and said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing. ¶ <sup>9:8</sup>The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? <sup>9:9</sup>Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he. <sup>9:10</sup>Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened? <sup>9:11</sup>He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight. <sup>9:12</sup>Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not. ¶ <sup>9:13</sup>They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. <sup>9:14</sup>And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. <sup>9:15</sup>Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see. <sup>9:16</sup>Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them. <sup>9:17</sup>They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet. <sup>9:18</sup>But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight. <sup>9:19</sup>And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? <sup>9:20</sup>His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: <sup>9:21</sup>but by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself. <sup>9:22</sup>These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. <sup>9:23</sup>Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him. <sup>9:24</sup>Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner. <sup>9:25</sup>He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. <sup>9:26</sup>Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? <sup>9:27</sup>He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples? <sup>9:28</sup>Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples. <sup>9:29</sup>We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is. <sup>9:30</sup>The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes. <sup>9:31</sup>Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth. <sup>9:32</sup>Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind. <sup>9:33</sup>If this man were not of God, he could do nothing. <sup>9:34</sup>They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out. <sup>9:35</sup>Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God? <sup>9:36</sup>He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him? <sup>9:37</sup>And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee. <sup>9:38</sup>And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him. ¶ <sup>9:39</sup>And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. <sup>9:40</sup>And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also? <sup>9:41</sup>Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth. <sup>10:1</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. <sup>10:2</sup>But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>10:3</sup>To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. <sup>10:4</sup>And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. <sup>10:5</sup>And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. <sup>10:6</sup>This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. <sup>10:7</sup>Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. <sup>10:8</sup>All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. <sup>10:9</sup>I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. <sup>10:10</sup>The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. <sup>10:11</sup>I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. <sup>10:12</sup>But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. <sup>10:13</sup>The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. <sup>10:14</sup>I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. <sup>10:15</sup>As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>10:16</sup>And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. <sup>10:17</sup>Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. <sup>10:18</sup>No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father. ¶ <sup>10:19</sup>There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings. <sup>10:20</sup>And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? <sup>10:21</sup>Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind? ¶ <sup>10:22</sup>And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. <sup>10:23</sup>And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. <sup>10:24</sup>Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. <sup>10:25</sup>Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. <sup>10:26</sup>But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. <sup>10:27</sup>My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: <sup>10:28</sup>and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. <sup>10:29</sup>My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. <sup>10:30</sup>I and my Father are one. <sup>10:31</sup>Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. <sup>10:32</sup>Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? <sup>10:33</sup>The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. <sup>10:34</sup>Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? <sup>10:35</sup>If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; <sup>10:36</sup>say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? <sup>10:37</sup>If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. <sup>10:38</sup>But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him. <sup>10:39</sup>Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand, <sup>10:40</sup>and went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode. <sup>10:41</sup>And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true. <sup>10:42</sup>And many believed on him there. <sup>11:1</sup>Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. <sup>11:2</sup>(It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) <sup>11:3</sup>Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. <sup>11:4</sup>When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby. <sup>11:5</sup>Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. <sup>11:6</sup>When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was. <sup>11:7</sup>Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judæa again. <sup>11:8</sup>His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? <sup>11:9</sup>Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. <sup>11:10</sup>But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him. <sup>11:11</sup>These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. <sup>11:12</sup>Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well. <sup>11:13</sup>Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep. <sup>11:14</sup>Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. <sup>11:15</sup>And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. <sup>11:16</sup>Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him. <sup>11:17</sup>Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already. <sup>11:18</sup>Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off: <sup>11:19</sup>and many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. <sup>11:20</sup>Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house. <sup>11:21</sup>Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. <sup>11:22</sup>But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee. <sup>11:23</sup>Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. <sup>11:24</sup>Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. <sup>11:25</sup>Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: <sup>11:26</sup>and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? <sup>11:27</sup>She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world. <sup>11:28</sup>And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee. <sup>11:29</sup>As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him. <sup>11:30</sup>Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him. <sup>11:31</sup>The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there. <sup>11:32</sup>Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. <sup>11:33</sup>When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, <sup>11:34</sup>and said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see. <sup>11:35</sup>Jesus wept. <sup>11:36</sup>Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him! <sup>11:37</sup>And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died? <sup>11:38</sup>Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. <sup>11:39</sup>Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days. <sup>11:40</sup>Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? <sup>11:41</sup>Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. <sup>11:42</sup>And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me. <sup>11:43</sup>And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. <sup>11:44</sup>And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go. <sup>11:45</sup>Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him. <sup>11:46</sup>But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done. ¶ <sup>11:47</sup>Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles. <sup>11:48</sup>If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation. <sup>11:49</sup>And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, <sup>11:50</sup>nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. <sup>11:51</sup>And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; <sup>11:52</sup>and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. <sup>11:53</sup>Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death. <sup>11:54</sup>Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples. ¶ <sup>11:55</sup>And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves. <sup>11:56</sup>Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast? <sup>11:57</sup>Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him. <sup>12:1</sup>Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. <sup>12:2</sup>There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him. <sup>12:3</sup>Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. <sup>12:4</sup>Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, <sup>12:5</sup>Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? <sup>12:6</sup>This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein. <sup>12:7</sup>Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this. <sup>12:8</sup>For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always. <sup>12:9</sup>Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. ¶ <sup>12:10</sup>But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death; <sup>12:11</sup>because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. ¶ <sup>12:12</sup>On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, <sup>12:13</sup>took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord. <sup>12:14</sup>And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, <sup>12:15</sup>Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. <sup>12:16</sup>These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. <sup>12:17</sup>The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record. <sup>12:18</sup>For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle. <sup>12:19</sup>The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him. ¶ <sup>12:20</sup>And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast: <sup>12:21</sup>the same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. <sup>12:22</sup>Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. ¶ <sup>12:23</sup>And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. <sup>12:24</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. <sup>12:25</sup>He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. <sup>12:26</sup>If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. <sup>12:27</sup>Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. <sup>12:28</sup>Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. <sup>12:29</sup>The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him. <sup>12:30</sup>Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. <sup>12:31</sup>Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. <sup>12:32</sup>And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. <sup>12:33</sup>This he said, signifying what death he should die. <sup>12:34</sup>The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? <sup>12:35</sup>Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. <sup>12:36</sup>While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them. ¶ <sup>12:37</sup>But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: <sup>12:38</sup>that the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? <sup>12:39</sup>Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, <sup>12:40</sup>He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them. <sup>12:41</sup>These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him. ¶ <sup>12:42</sup>Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: <sup>12:43</sup>for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. ¶ <sup>12:44</sup>Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. <sup>12:45</sup>And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me. <sup>12:46</sup>I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. <sup>12:47</sup>And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. <sup>12:48</sup>He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. <sup>12:49</sup>For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. <sup>12:50</sup>And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak. <sup>13:1</sup>Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. <sup>13:2</sup>And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him; <sup>13:3</sup>Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; <sup>13:4</sup>he riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. <sup>13:5</sup>After that he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. <sup>13:6</sup>Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? <sup>13:7</sup>Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. <sup>13:8</sup>Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. <sup>13:9</sup>Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. <sup>13:10</sup>Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. <sup>13:11</sup>For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. <sup>13:12</sup>So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? <sup>13:13</sup>Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. <sup>13:14</sup>If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. <sup>13:15</sup>For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. <sup>13:16</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. <sup>13:17</sup>If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. ¶ <sup>13:18</sup>I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. <sup>13:19</sup>Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he. <sup>13:20</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. <sup>13:21</sup>When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. <sup>13:22</sup>Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. <sup>13:23</sup>Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. <sup>13:24</sup>Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake. <sup>13:25</sup>He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? <sup>13:26</sup>Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. <sup>13:27</sup>And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. <sup>13:28</sup>Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. <sup>13:29</sup>For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. <sup>13:30</sup>He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night. ¶ <sup>13:31</sup>Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. <sup>13:32</sup>If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him. <sup>13:33</sup>Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you. <sup>13:34</sup>A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. <sup>13:35</sup>By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. ¶ <sup>13:36</sup>Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards. <sup>13:37</sup>Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake. <sup>13:38</sup>Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice. <sup>14:1</sup>Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. <sup>14:2</sup>In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. <sup>14:3</sup>And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. <sup>14:4</sup>And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. <sup>14:5</sup>Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? <sup>14:6</sup>Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. <sup>14:7</sup>If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. <sup>14:8</sup>Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. <sup>14:9</sup>Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? <sup>14:10</sup>Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. <sup>14:11</sup>Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. <sup>14:12</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. <sup>14:13</sup>And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14:14</sup>If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. ¶<sup>14:15</sup>If ye love me, keep my commandments. <sup>14:16</sup>And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; <sup>14:17</sup>even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. <sup>14:18</sup>I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. <sup>14:19</sup>Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. <sup>14:20</sup>At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. <sup>14:21</sup>He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. <sup>14:22</sup>Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? <sup>14:23</sup>Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. <sup>14:24</sup>He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. <sup>14:25</sup>These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. <sup>14:26</sup>But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. <sup>14:27</sup>Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. <sup>14:28</sup>Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. <sup>14:29</sup>And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. <sup>14:30</sup>Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. <sup>14:31</sup>But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence. <sup>15:1</sup>I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. <sup>15:2</sup>Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. <sup>15:3</sup>Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. <sup>15:4</sup>Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. <sup>15:5</sup>I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. <sup>15:6</sup>If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. <sup>15:7</sup>If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. <sup>15:8</sup>Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. <sup>15:9</sup>As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. <sup>15:10</sup>If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. <sup>15:11</sup>These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. <sup>15:12</sup>This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. <sup>15:13</sup>Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. <sup>15:14</sup>Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. <sup>15:15</sup>Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. <sup>15:16</sup>Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. <sup>15:17</sup>These things I command you, that ye love one another. <sup>15:18</sup>If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. <sup>15:19</sup>If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. <sup>15:20</sup>Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. <sup>15:21</sup>But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. <sup>15:22</sup>If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin. <sup>15:23</sup>He that hateth me hateth my Father also. <sup>15:24</sup>If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. <sup>15:25</sup>But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. <sup>15:26</sup>But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: <sup>15:27</sup>and ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning. <sup>16:1</sup>These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended. <sup>16:2</sup>They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. <sup>16:3</sup>And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. <sup>16:4</sup>But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you. <sup>16:5</sup>But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? <sup>16:6</sup>But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. <sup>16:7</sup>Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. <sup>16:8</sup>And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: <sup>16:9</sup>of sin, because they believe not on me; <sup>16:10</sup>of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; <sup>16:11</sup>of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. <sup>16:12</sup>I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. <sup>16:13</sup>Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. <sup>16:14</sup>He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. <sup>16:15</sup>All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you. <sup>16:16</sup>A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. <sup>16:17</sup>Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? <sup>16:18</sup>They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith. <sup>16:19</sup>Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me? <sup>16:20</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. <sup>16:21</sup>A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. <sup>16:22</sup>And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. <sup>16:23</sup>And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. <sup>16:24</sup>Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. <sup>16:25</sup>These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. <sup>16:26</sup>At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you: <sup>16:27</sup>for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God. <sup>16:28</sup>I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. <sup>16:29</sup>His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. <sup>16:30</sup>Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. <sup>16:31</sup>Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? <sup>16:32</sup>Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. <sup>16:33</sup>These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. <sup>17:1</sup>These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: <sup>17:2</sup>as thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. <sup>17:3</sup>And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. <sup>17:4</sup>I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. <sup>17:5</sup>And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. <sup>17:6</sup>I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. <sup>17:7</sup>Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee. <sup>17:8</sup>For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. <sup>17:9</sup>I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine. <sup>17:10</sup>And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them. <sup>17:11</sup>And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. <sup>17:12</sup>While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. <sup>17:13</sup>And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. <sup>17:14</sup>I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. <sup>17:15</sup>I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. <sup>17:16</sup>They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. <sup>17:17</sup>Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. <sup>17:18</sup>As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. <sup>17:19</sup>And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. <sup>17:20</sup>Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; <sup>17:21</sup>that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. <sup>17:22</sup>And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: <sup>17:23</sup>I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. <sup>17:24</sup>Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. <sup>17:25</sup>O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. <sup>17:26</sup>And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them. <sup>18:1</sup>When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples. <sup>18:2</sup>And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples. <sup>18:3</sup>Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. <sup>18:4</sup>Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye? <sup>18:5</sup>They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. <sup>18:6</sup>As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. <sup>18:7</sup>Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. <sup>18:8</sup>Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: <sup>18:9</sup>that the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none. <sup>18:10</sup>Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. <sup>18:11</sup>Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? <sup>18:12</sup>Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, <sup>18:13</sup>and led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year. <sup>18:14</sup>Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. ¶ <sup>18:15</sup>And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest. <sup>18:16</sup>But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. <sup>18:17</sup>Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. <sup>18:18</sup>And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself. ¶ <sup>18:19</sup>The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine. <sup>18:20</sup>Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. <sup>18:21</sup>Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said. <sup>18:22</sup>And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? <sup>18:23</sup>Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? <sup>18:24</sup>Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest. <sup>18:25</sup>And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. <sup>18:26</sup>One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? <sup>18:27</sup>Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew. ¶ <sup>18:28</sup>Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was

early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover. <sup>18:29</sup>Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man? <sup>18:30</sup>They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee. <sup>18:31</sup>Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: <sup>18:32</sup>that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die. <sup>18:33</sup>Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? <sup>18:34</sup>Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? <sup>18:35</sup>Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? <sup>18:36</sup>Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. <sup>18:37</sup>Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. <sup>18:38</sup>Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all. <sup>18:39</sup>But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? <sup>18:40</sup>Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber. <sup>19:1</sup>Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. <sup>19:2</sup>And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, <sup>19:3</sup>and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands. <sup>19:4</sup>Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. <sup>19:5</sup>Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man! <sup>19:6</sup>When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. <sup>19:7</sup>The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. ¶ <sup>19:8</sup>When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; <sup>19:9</sup>and went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>19:10</sup>Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? <sup>19:11</sup>Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. <sup>19:12</sup>And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar. ¶ <sup>19:13</sup>When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. <sup>19:14</sup>And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! <sup>19:15</sup>But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. <sup>19:16</sup>Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away. <sup>19:17</sup>And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: <sup>19:18</sup>where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. ¶<sup>19:19</sup>And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, Jesus of Nazareth the king of the Jews. <sup>19:20</sup>This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. <sup>19:21</sup>Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. <sup>19:22</sup>Pilate answered, What I have written I have written. ¶<sup>19:23</sup>Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. <sup>19:24</sup>They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did. ¶<sup>19:25</sup>Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. <sup>19:26</sup>When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! <sup>19:27</sup>Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. ¶<sup>19:28</sup>After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. <sup>19:29</sup>Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. <sup>19:30</sup>When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. <sup>19:31</sup>The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. <sup>19:32</sup>Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. <sup>19:33</sup>But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: <sup>19:34</sup>but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. <sup>19:35</sup>And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe. <sup>19:36</sup>For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. <sup>19:37</sup>And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced. ¶<sup>19:38</sup>And after this Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus. <sup>19:39</sup>And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight. <sup>19:40</sup>Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury. <sup>19:41</sup>Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. <sup>19:42</sup>There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand. <sup>20:1</sup>The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. <sup>20:2</sup>Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. <sup>20:3</sup>Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. <sup>20:4</sup>So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. <sup>20:5</sup>And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. <sup>20:6</sup>Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, <sup>20:7</sup>and the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. <sup>20:8</sup>Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. <sup>20:9</sup>For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. <sup>20:10</sup>Then the disciples went away again unto their own home. ¶ <sup>20:11</sup>But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, <sup>20:12</sup>and seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. <sup>20:13</sup>And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. <sup>20:14</sup>And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. <sup>20:15</sup>Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. <sup>20:16</sup>Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master. <sup>20:17</sup>Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. <sup>20:18</sup>Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her. ¶ <sup>20:19</sup>Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. <sup>20:20</sup>And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. <sup>20:21</sup>Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. <sup>20:22</sup>And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: <sup>20:23</sup>whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

¶<sup>20:24</sup>But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>20:25</sup>The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. ¶<sup>20:26</sup>And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. <sup>20:27</sup>Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. <sup>20:28</sup>And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. <sup>20:29</sup>Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. ¶<sup>20:30</sup>And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: <sup>20:31</sup>but these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. <sup>21:1</sup>After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself. <sup>21:2</sup>There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. <sup>21:3</sup>Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing. <sup>21:4</sup>But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. <sup>21:5</sup>Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No. <sup>21:6</sup>And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. <sup>21:7</sup>Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea. <sup>21:8</sup>And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes. <sup>21:9</sup>As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. <sup>21:10</sup>Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught. <sup>21:11</sup>Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken. <sup>21:12</sup>Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. <sup>21:13</sup>Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise. <sup>21:14</sup>This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead. ¶<sup>21:15</sup>So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. <sup>21:16</sup>He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. <sup>21:17</sup>He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me?

Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. <sup>21:18</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. <sup>21:19</sup>This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. <sup>21:20</sup>Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee? <sup>21:21</sup>Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do? <sup>21:22</sup>Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me. <sup>21:23</sup>Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? <sup>21:24</sup>This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true. <sup>21:25</sup>And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

The acts of the apostles

<sup>1:1</sup>The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, <sup>1:2</sup>until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen: <sup>1:3</sup>to whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: <sup>1:4</sup>and, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. <sup>1:5</sup>For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. <sup>1:6</sup>When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? <sup>1:7</sup>And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power. <sup>1:8</sup>But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. <sup>1:9</sup>And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. <sup>1:10</sup>And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; <sup>1:11</sup>which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. <sup>1:12</sup>Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey. <sup>1:13</sup>And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. <sup>1:14</sup>These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren. ¶<sup>1:15</sup>And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,) <sup>1:16</sup>Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus. <sup>1:17</sup>For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. <sup>1:18</sup>Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. <sup>1:19</sup>And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. <sup>1:20</sup>For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take. <sup>1:21</sup>Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, <sup>1:22</sup>beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. <sup>1:23</sup>And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. <sup>1:24</sup>And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, <sup>1:25</sup>that he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. <sup>1:26</sup>And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles. <sup>2:1</sup>And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. <sup>2:2</sup>And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. <sup>2:3</sup>And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. <sup>2:4</sup>And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. <sup>2:5</sup>And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. <sup>2:6</sup>Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. <sup>2:7</sup>And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilæans? <sup>2:8</sup>And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? <sup>2:9</sup>Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judæa, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, <sup>2:10</sup>Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, <sup>2:11</sup>Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God. <sup>2:12</sup>And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this? <sup>2:13</sup>Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine. ¶<sup>2:14</sup>But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words: <sup>2:15</sup>for these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. <sup>2:16</sup>But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; <sup>2:17</sup>And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: <sup>2:18</sup>and on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: <sup>2:19</sup>and I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: <sup>2:20</sup>the sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come: <sup>2:21</sup>and it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. <sup>2:22</sup>Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: <sup>2:23</sup>him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain: <sup>2:24</sup>whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. <sup>2:25</sup>For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: <sup>2:26</sup>therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope: <sup>2:27</sup>because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. <sup>2:28</sup>Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance. <sup>2:29</sup>Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. <sup>2:30</sup>Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; <sup>2:31</sup>he seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. <sup>2:32</sup>This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. <sup>2:33</sup>Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. <sup>2:34</sup>For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, <sup>2:35</sup>until I make thy foes thy footstool. <sup>2:36</sup>Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. ¶<sup>2:37</sup>Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? <sup>2:38</sup>Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. <sup>2:39</sup>For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. <sup>2:40</sup>And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. ¶ <sup>2:41</sup>Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. <sup>2:42</sup>And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. <sup>2:43</sup>And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. <sup>2:44</sup>And all that believed were together, and had all things common; <sup>2:45</sup>and sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. <sup>2:46</sup>And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, <sup>2:47</sup>praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved. <sup>3:1</sup>Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. <sup>3:2</sup>And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; <sup>3:3</sup>who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. <sup>3:4</sup>And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. <sup>3:5</sup>And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them. <sup>3:6</sup>Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. <sup>3:7</sup>And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. <sup>3:8</sup>And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. <sup>3:9</sup>And all the people saw him walking and praising God: <sup>3:10</sup>and they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him. <sup>3:11</sup>And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. ¶ <sup>3:12</sup>And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? <sup>3:13</sup>The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. <sup>3:14</sup>But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you; <sup>3:15</sup>and killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses. <sup>3:16</sup>And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. <sup>3:17</sup>And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. <sup>3:18</sup>But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

¶<sup>3:19</sup>Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; <sup>3:20</sup>and he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: <sup>3:21</sup>whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. <sup>3:22</sup>For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. <sup>3:23</sup>And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. <sup>3:24</sup>Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. <sup>3:25</sup>Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. <sup>3:26</sup>Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. <sup>4:1</sup>And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, <sup>4:2</sup>being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. <sup>4:3</sup>And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide. <sup>4:4</sup>Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand. ¶<sup>4:5</sup>And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, <sup>4:6</sup>and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. <sup>4:7</sup>And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this? <sup>4:8</sup>Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, <sup>4:9</sup>if we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole; <sup>4:10</sup>be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. <sup>4:11</sup>This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. <sup>4:12</sup>Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. ¶<sup>4:13</sup>Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. <sup>4:14</sup>And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. <sup>4:15</sup>But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, <sup>4:16</sup>saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. <sup>4:17</sup>But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. <sup>4:18</sup>And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. <sup>4:19</sup>But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. <sup>4:20</sup>For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. <sup>4:21</sup>So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done. <sup>4:22</sup>For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed. ¶ <sup>4:23</sup>And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them. <sup>4:24</sup>And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is: <sup>4:25</sup>who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things? <sup>4:26</sup>The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ. <sup>4:27</sup>For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, <sup>4:28</sup>for to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done. <sup>4:29</sup>And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, <sup>4:30</sup>by stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus. ¶ <sup>4:31</sup>And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness. <sup>4:32</sup>And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. <sup>4:33</sup>And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. <sup>4:34</sup>Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, <sup>4:35</sup>and laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. <sup>4:36</sup>And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, <sup>4:37</sup>having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet. <sup>5:1</sup>But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, <sup>5:2</sup>and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. <sup>5:3</sup>But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? <sup>5:4</sup>Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. <sup>5:5</sup>And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things. <sup>5:6</sup>And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him. <sup>5:7</sup>And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. <sup>5:8</sup>And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much. <sup>5:9</sup>Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. <sup>5:10</sup>Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. <sup>5:11</sup>And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things. ¶ <sup>5:12</sup>And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. <sup>5:13</sup>And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them. <sup>5:14</sup>And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.) <sup>5:15</sup>insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. <sup>5:16</sup>There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one. ¶ <sup>5:17</sup>Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, <sup>5:18</sup>and laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. <sup>5:19</sup>But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, <sup>5:20</sup>Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life. <sup>5:21</sup>And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. <sup>5:22</sup>But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told, <sup>5:23</sup>saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. <sup>5:24</sup>Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow. <sup>5:25</sup>Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people. <sup>5:26</sup>Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. <sup>5:27</sup>And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, <sup>5:28</sup>saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. ¶ <sup>5:29</sup>Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. <sup>5:30</sup>The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. <sup>5:31</sup>Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. <sup>5:32</sup>And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him. ¶ <sup>5:33</sup>When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them. <sup>5:34</sup>Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space; <sup>5:35</sup>and said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men. <sup>5:36</sup>For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought. <sup>5:37</sup>After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed. <sup>5:38</sup>And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: <sup>5:39</sup>but if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God. <sup>5:40</sup>And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. ¶<sup>5:41</sup>And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. <sup>5:42</sup>And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ. <sup>6:1</sup>And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. <sup>6:2</sup>Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. <sup>6:3</sup>Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. <sup>6:4</sup>But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. ¶<sup>6:5</sup>And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: <sup>6:6</sup>whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. <sup>6:7</sup>And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith. <sup>6:8</sup>And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people. ¶<sup>6:9</sup>Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen. <sup>6:10</sup>And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake. <sup>6:11</sup>Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. <sup>6:12</sup>And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council, <sup>6:13</sup>and set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law: <sup>6:14</sup>for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us. <sup>6:15</sup>And all that sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

<sup>7:2</sup>Then said the high priest, Are these things so? <sup>7:2</sup>And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, <sup>7:3</sup>and said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. <sup>7:4</sup>Then came he out of the land of the Chaldæans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell. <sup>7:5</sup>And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. <sup>7:6</sup>And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years. <sup>7:7</sup>And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. <sup>7:8</sup>And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs. <sup>7:9</sup>And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him, <sup>7:10</sup>and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. <sup>7:11</sup>Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. <sup>7:12</sup>But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. <sup>7:13</sup>And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh. <sup>7:14</sup>Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. <sup>7:15</sup>So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, <sup>7:16</sup>and were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem. <sup>7:17</sup>But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, <sup>7:18</sup>till another king arose, which knew not Joseph. <sup>7:19</sup>The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live. <sup>7:20</sup>In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months: <sup>7:21</sup>and when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. <sup>7:22</sup>And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. <sup>7:23</sup>And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. <sup>7:24</sup>And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: <sup>7:25</sup>for he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. <sup>7:26</sup>And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? <sup>7:27</sup>But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? <sup>7:28</sup>Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday? <sup>7:29</sup>Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. <sup>7:30</sup>And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. <sup>7:31</sup>When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, <sup>7:32</sup>saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold. <sup>7:33</sup>Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground. <sup>7:34</sup>I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt. <sup>7:35</sup>This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. <sup>7:36</sup>He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years. ¶ <sup>7:37</sup>This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear. <sup>7:38</sup>This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us: <sup>7:39</sup>to whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, <sup>7:40</sup>saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. <sup>7:41</sup>And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. <sup>7:42</sup>Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? <sup>7:43</sup>Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon. <sup>7:44</sup>Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen. <sup>7:45</sup>Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David; <sup>7:46</sup>who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. <sup>7:47</sup>But Solomon built him an house. <sup>7:48</sup>Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, <sup>7:49</sup>Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest? <sup>7:50</sup>Hath not my hand made all these things? ¶ <sup>7:51</sup>Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. <sup>7:52</sup>Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers: <sup>7:53</sup>who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

¶<sup>7:54</sup>When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. <sup>7:55</sup>But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, <sup>7:56</sup>and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. <sup>7:57</sup>Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, <sup>7:58</sup>and cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. <sup>7:59</sup>And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. <sup>7:60</sup>And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep. <sup>8:1</sup>And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles. <sup>8:2</sup>And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him. <sup>8:3</sup>As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison. <sup>8:4</sup>Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word. <sup>8:5</sup>Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. <sup>8:6</sup>And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. <sup>8:7</sup>For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed. <sup>8:8</sup>And there was great joy in that city. <sup>8:9</sup>But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: <sup>8:10</sup>to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. <sup>8:11</sup>And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries. <sup>8:12</sup>But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. <sup>8:13</sup>Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done. <sup>8:14</sup>Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: <sup>8:15</sup>who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: <sup>8:16</sup>(For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) <sup>8:17</sup>Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. <sup>8:18</sup>And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, <sup>8:19</sup>saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost. <sup>8:20</sup>But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. <sup>8:21</sup>Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. <sup>8:22</sup>Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. <sup>8:23</sup>For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity. <sup>8:24</sup>Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me. <sup>8:25</sup>And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans. <sup>8:26</sup>And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert. <sup>8:27</sup>And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, <sup>8:28</sup>was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet. <sup>8:29</sup>Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. <sup>8:30</sup>And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? <sup>8:31</sup>And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him. <sup>8:32</sup>The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth: <sup>8:33</sup>in his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. <sup>8:34</sup>And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? <sup>8:35</sup>Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus. <sup>8:36</sup>And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? <sup>8:37</sup>And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. <sup>8:38</sup>And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. <sup>8:39</sup>And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. <sup>8:40</sup>But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea. <sup>9:1</sup>And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, <sup>9:2</sup>and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. <sup>9:3</sup>And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven: <sup>9:4</sup>and he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? <sup>9:5</sup>And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. <sup>9:6</sup>And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. <sup>9:7</sup>And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. <sup>9:8</sup>And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9:9</sup>And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink. ¶<sup>9:10</sup>And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. <sup>9:11</sup>And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, <sup>9:12</sup>and hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. <sup>9:13</sup>Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: <sup>9:14</sup>and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. <sup>9:15</sup>But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: <sup>9:16</sup>for I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. <sup>9:17</sup>And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. <sup>9:18</sup>And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized. <sup>9:19</sup>And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. <sup>9:20</sup>And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. <sup>9:21</sup>But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests? <sup>9:22</sup>But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. ¶<sup>9:23</sup>And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him: <sup>9:24</sup>but their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. <sup>9:25</sup>Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket. <sup>9:26</sup>And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple. <sup>9:27</sup>But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. <sup>9:28</sup>And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem. <sup>9:29</sup>And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him. <sup>9:30</sup>Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. <sup>9:31</sup>Then had the churches rest throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied. ¶<sup>9:32</sup>And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda. <sup>9:33</sup>And there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy. <sup>9:34</sup>And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately. <sup>9:35</sup>And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord. ¶<sup>9:36</sup>Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. <sup>9:37</sup>And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber. <sup>9:38</sup>And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them. <sup>9:39</sup>Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. <sup>9:40</sup>But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up. <sup>9:41</sup>And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive. <sup>9:42</sup>And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord. <sup>9:43</sup>And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner. <sup>10:1</sup>There was a certain man in Cæsarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, <sup>10:2</sup>a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. <sup>10:3</sup>He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius. <sup>10:4</sup>And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. <sup>10:5</sup>And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter: <sup>10:6</sup>he lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. <sup>10:7</sup>And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; <sup>10:8</sup>and when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa. ¶<sup>10:9</sup>On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour: <sup>10:10</sup>and he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, <sup>10:11</sup>and saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth: <sup>10:12</sup>wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. <sup>10:13</sup>And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. <sup>10:14</sup>But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean. <sup>10:15</sup>And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. <sup>10:16</sup>This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven. <sup>10:17</sup>Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, <sup>10:18</sup>and called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there. ¶<sup>10:19</sup>While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

<sup>10:20</sup>Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them. <sup>10:21</sup>Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? <sup>10:22</sup>And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee. <sup>10:23</sup>Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him. <sup>10:24</sup>And the morrow after they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends. <sup>10:25</sup>And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. <sup>10:26</sup>But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. <sup>10:27</sup>And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together. <sup>10:28</sup>And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean. <sup>10:29</sup>Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me? <sup>10:30</sup>And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, <sup>10:31</sup>and said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. <sup>10:32</sup>Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee. <sup>10:33</sup>Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God. ¶<sup>10:34</sup>Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: <sup>10:35</sup>but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. <sup>10:36</sup>The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)<sup>10:37</sup> that word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judæa, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; <sup>10:38</sup>how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. <sup>10:39</sup>And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: <sup>10:40</sup>him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; <sup>10:41</sup>not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. <sup>10:42</sup>And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. <sup>10:43</sup>To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. ¶<sup>10:44</sup>While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. <sup>10:45</sup>And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. <sup>10:46</sup>For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, <sup>10:47</sup>Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? <sup>10:48</sup>And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days. <sup>11:1</sup>And the apostles and brethren that were in Judæa heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. <sup>11:2</sup>And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, <sup>11:3</sup>saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. <sup>11:4</sup>But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying, <sup>11:5</sup>I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me: <sup>11:6</sup>upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. <sup>11:7</sup>And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat. <sup>11:8</sup>But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth. <sup>11:9</sup>But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. <sup>11:10</sup>And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven. <sup>11:11</sup>And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cæsarea unto me. <sup>11:12</sup>And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house: <sup>11:13</sup>and he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; <sup>11:14</sup>who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved. <sup>11:15</sup>And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning. <sup>11:16</sup>Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. <sup>11:17</sup>Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God? <sup>11:18</sup>When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life. ¶<sup>11:19</sup>Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only. <sup>11:20</sup>And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus. <sup>11:21</sup>And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord. ¶<sup>11:22</sup>Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch. <sup>11:23</sup>Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. <sup>11:24</sup>For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord. <sup>11:25</sup>Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul: <sup>11:26</sup>and when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. ¶ <sup>11:27</sup>And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. <sup>11:28</sup>And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cæsar. <sup>11:29</sup>Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judæa: <sup>11:30</sup>which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. <sup>12:1</sup>Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. <sup>12:2</sup>And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. <sup>12:3</sup>And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) <sup>12:4</sup>And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. <sup>12:5</sup>Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. <sup>12:6</sup>And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. <sup>12:7</sup>And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. <sup>12:8</sup>And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. <sup>12:9</sup>And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision. <sup>12:10</sup>When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him. <sup>12:11</sup>And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. <sup>12:12</sup>And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying. <sup>12:13</sup>And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. <sup>12:14</sup>And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate. <sup>12:15</sup>And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel. <sup>12:16</sup>But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished. <sup>12:17</sup>But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place. <sup>12:18</sup>Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. <sup>12:19</sup>And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and there abode. ¶<sup>12:20</sup>And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country. <sup>12:21</sup>And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them. <sup>12:22</sup>And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man. <sup>12:23</sup>And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost. ¶<sup>12:24</sup>But the word of God grew and multiplied. <sup>12:25</sup>And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark. <sup>13:1</sup>Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. <sup>13:2</sup>As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. <sup>13:3</sup>And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. ¶<sup>13:4</sup>So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. <sup>13:5</sup>And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister. <sup>13:6</sup>And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus: <sup>13:7</sup>which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God. <sup>13:8</sup>But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. <sup>13:9</sup>Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him, <sup>13:10</sup>and said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? <sup>13:11</sup>And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. <sup>13:12</sup>Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord. <sup>13:13</sup>Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem. ¶<sup>13:14</sup>But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. <sup>13:15</sup>And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. <sup>13:16</sup>Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

<sup>13:17</sup>The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it. <sup>13:18</sup>And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness. <sup>13:19</sup>And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot. <sup>13:20</sup>And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. <sup>13:21</sup>And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years. <sup>13:22</sup>And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will. <sup>13:23</sup>Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus: <sup>13:24</sup>when John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. <sup>13:25</sup>And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose. <sup>13:26</sup>Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent. <sup>13:27</sup>For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him. <sup>13:28</sup>And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain. <sup>13:29</sup>And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre. <sup>13:30</sup>But God raised him from the dead: <sup>13:31</sup>and he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people. <sup>13:32</sup>And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, <sup>13:33</sup>God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. <sup>13:34</sup>And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David. <sup>13:35</sup>Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. <sup>13:36</sup>For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: <sup>13:37</sup>but he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption. ¶ <sup>13:38</sup>Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: <sup>13:39</sup>and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. <sup>13:40</sup>Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; <sup>13:41</sup>behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you. <sup>13:42</sup>And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath. <sup>13:43</sup>Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed

Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God. ¶<sup>13:44</sup>And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. <sup>13:45</sup>But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. <sup>13:46</sup>Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. <sup>13:47</sup>For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. <sup>13:48</sup>And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. <sup>13:49</sup>And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region. <sup>13:50</sup>But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. <sup>13:51</sup>But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. <sup>13:52</sup>And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost. <sup>14:1</sup>And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. <sup>14:2</sup>But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren. <sup>14:3</sup>Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. <sup>14:4</sup>But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. <sup>14:5</sup>And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them, <sup>14:6</sup>they were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about: <sup>14:7</sup>and there they preached the gospel. ¶<sup>14:8</sup>And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: <sup>14:9</sup>the same heard Paul speak: who steadfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, <sup>14:10</sup>said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked. <sup>14:11</sup>And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. <sup>14:12</sup>And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker. <sup>14:13</sup>Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people. <sup>14:14</sup>Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, <sup>14:15</sup>and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein: <sup>14:16</sup>who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. <sup>14:17</sup>Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. <sup>14:18</sup>And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them. ¶ <sup>14:19</sup>And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. <sup>14:20</sup>Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>14:21</sup>And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, <sup>14:22</sup>confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>14:23</sup>And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed. <sup>14:24</sup>And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. <sup>14:25</sup>And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia: <sup>14:26</sup>and thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled. <sup>14:27</sup>And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles. <sup>14:28</sup>And there they abode long time with the disciples. <sup>15:1</sup>And certain men which came down from Judæa taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. <sup>15:2</sup>When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. <sup>15:3</sup>And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. <sup>15:4</sup>And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them. <sup>15:5</sup>But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses. ¶ <sup>15:6</sup>And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter. <sup>15:7</sup>And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. <sup>15:8</sup>And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; <sup>15:9</sup>and put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. <sup>15:10</sup>Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? <sup>15:11</sup>But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. ¶ <sup>15:12</sup>Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. ¶ <sup>15:13</sup>And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me: <sup>15:14</sup>Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. <sup>15:15</sup>And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, <sup>15:16</sup>After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: <sup>15:17</sup>that the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. <sup>15:18</sup>Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. <sup>15:19</sup>Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: <sup>15:20</sup>but that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. <sup>15:21</sup>For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. <sup>15:22</sup>Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: <sup>15:23</sup>and they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: <sup>15:24</sup>Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: <sup>15:25</sup>it seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>15:26</sup>men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15:27</sup>We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. <sup>15:28</sup>For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; <sup>15:29</sup>that ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well. <sup>15:30</sup>So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle: <sup>15:31</sup>which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation. <sup>15:32</sup>And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. <sup>15:33</sup>And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles. <sup>15:34</sup>Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still. <sup>15:35</sup>Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. ¶ <sup>15:36</sup>And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do. <sup>15:37</sup>And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark. <sup>15:38</sup>But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. <sup>15:39</sup>And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus; <sup>15:40</sup>and Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God. <sup>15:41</sup>And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches. <sup>16:3</sup>Then came he to Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek: <sup>16:2</sup>which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. <sup>16:3</sup>Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek. <sup>16:4</sup>And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem. <sup>16:5</sup>And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily. <sup>16:6</sup>Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia, <sup>16:7</sup>after they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not. <sup>16:8</sup>And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas. <sup>16:9</sup>And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. <sup>16:10</sup>And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them. <sup>16:11</sup>Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis; <sup>16:12</sup>and from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days. <sup>16:13</sup>And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither. ¶ <sup>16:14</sup>And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. <sup>16:15</sup>And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us. ¶ <sup>16:16</sup>And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying: <sup>16:17</sup>the same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. <sup>16:18</sup>And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour. ¶ <sup>16:19</sup>And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers, <sup>16:20</sup>and brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, <sup>16:21</sup>and teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. <sup>16:22</sup>And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them. <sup>16:23</sup>And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: <sup>16:24</sup>who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. ¶ <sup>16:25</sup>And at midnight

Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them. <sup>16:26</sup>And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed. <sup>16:27</sup>And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. <sup>16:28</sup>But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. <sup>16:29</sup>Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, <sup>16:30</sup>and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? <sup>16:31</sup>And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. <sup>16:32</sup>And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. <sup>16:33</sup>And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. <sup>16:34</sup>And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house. <sup>16:35</sup>And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go. <sup>16:36</sup>And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace. <sup>16:37</sup>But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out. <sup>16:38</sup>And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans. <sup>16:39</sup>And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city. <sup>16:40</sup>And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed. <sup>17:1</sup>Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: <sup>17:2</sup>and Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, <sup>17:3</sup>opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ. <sup>17:4</sup>And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. ¶ <sup>17:5</sup>But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. <sup>17:6</sup>And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; <sup>17:7</sup>whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. <sup>17:8</sup>And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. <sup>17:9</sup>And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go. ¶ <sup>17:10</sup>And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>17:11</sup>These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. <sup>17:12</sup>Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few. <sup>17:13</sup>But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people. <sup>17:14</sup>And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still. <sup>17:15</sup>And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed. ¶ <sup>17:16</sup>Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry. <sup>17:17</sup>Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him. <sup>17:18</sup>Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection. <sup>17:19</sup>And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is? <sup>17:20</sup>For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. <sup>17:21</sup>(For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.) ¶ <sup>17:22</sup>Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. <sup>17:23</sup>For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, To the unknown god. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. <sup>17:24</sup>God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; <sup>17:25</sup>neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; <sup>17:26</sup>and hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; <sup>17:27</sup>that they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: <sup>17:28</sup>for in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. <sup>17:29</sup>Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. <sup>17:30</sup>And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: <sup>17:31</sup>because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. ¶ <sup>17:32</sup>And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter. <sup>17:33</sup>So Paul departed from among them. <sup>17:34</sup>Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them. <sup>18:1</sup>After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth; <sup>18:2</sup>and found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them. <sup>18:3</sup>And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. <sup>18:4</sup>And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. <sup>18:5</sup>And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. <sup>18:6</sup>And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. ¶ <sup>18:7</sup>And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. <sup>18:8</sup>And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. <sup>18:9</sup>Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: <sup>18:10</sup>for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city. <sup>18:11</sup>And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. ¶ <sup>18:12</sup>And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, <sup>18:13</sup>saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. <sup>18:14</sup>And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: <sup>18:15</sup>but if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters. <sup>18:16</sup>And he drave them from the judgment seat. <sup>18:17</sup>Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things. ¶ <sup>18:18</sup>And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow. <sup>18:19</sup>And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. <sup>18:20</sup>When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not; <sup>18:21</sup>but bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus. <sup>18:22</sup>And when he had landed at Cæsarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch. <sup>18:23</sup>And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples. ¶ <sup>18:24</sup>And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus. <sup>18:25</sup>This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. <sup>18:26</sup>And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly. <sup>18:27</sup>And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace: <sup>18:28</sup>for he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ. <sup>19:1</sup>And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, <sup>19:2</sup>he said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. <sup>19:3</sup>And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. <sup>19:4</sup>Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. <sup>19:5</sup>When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>19:6</sup>And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. <sup>19:7</sup>And all the men were about twelve. <sup>19:8</sup>And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. <sup>19:9</sup>But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus. <sup>19:10</sup>And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. <sup>19:11</sup>And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: <sup>19:12</sup>so that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them. ¶<sup>19:13</sup>Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. <sup>19:14</sup>And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so. <sup>19:15</sup>And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? <sup>19:16</sup>And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. <sup>19:17</sup>And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. <sup>19:18</sup>And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds. <sup>19:19</sup>Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. <sup>19:20</sup>So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed. ¶<sup>19:21</sup>After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. <sup>19:22</sup>So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season. <sup>19:23</sup>And the same time there arose no small stir about that way. <sup>19:24</sup>For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

<sup>19:25</sup>whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth. <sup>19:26</sup>Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands: <sup>19:27</sup>so that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth. <sup>19:28</sup>And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. <sup>19:29</sup>And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre. <sup>19:30</sup>And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. <sup>19:31</sup>And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre. <sup>19:32</sup>Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. <sup>19:33</sup>And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people. <sup>19:34</sup>But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. <sup>19:35</sup>And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? <sup>19:36</sup>Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly. <sup>19:37</sup>For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. <sup>19:38</sup>Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another. <sup>19:39</sup>But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly. <sup>19:40</sup>For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse. <sup>19:41</sup>And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly. <sup>20:1</sup>And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia. <sup>20:2</sup>And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece, <sup>20:3</sup>and there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia. <sup>20:4</sup>And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. <sup>20:5</sup>These going before tarried for us at Troas. <sup>20:6</sup>And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days. <sup>20:7</sup>And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight. <sup>20:8</sup>And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together. <sup>20:9</sup>And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead. <sup>20:10</sup>And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him. <sup>20:11</sup>When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. <sup>20:12</sup>And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted. ¶ <sup>20:13</sup>And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot. <sup>20:14</sup>And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. <sup>20:15</sup>And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; And the next day we came to Miletus. <sup>20:16</sup>For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. ¶ <sup>20:17</sup>And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. <sup>20:18</sup>And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, <sup>20:19</sup>servicing the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: <sup>20:20</sup>and how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, <sup>20:21</sup>testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>20:22</sup>And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: <sup>20:23</sup>save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. <sup>20:24</sup>But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. <sup>20:25</sup>And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. <sup>20:26</sup>Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. <sup>20:27</sup>For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. ¶ <sup>20:28</sup>Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. <sup>20:29</sup>For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>20:30</sup>Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. <sup>20:31</sup>Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. <sup>20:32</sup>And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. <sup>20:33</sup>I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. <sup>20:34</sup>Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

<sup>20:35</sup>I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. ¶<sup>20:36</sup>And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all. <sup>20:37</sup>And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, <sup>20:38</sup>sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship. <sup>21:1</sup>And it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara: <sup>21:2</sup>and finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth. <sup>21:3</sup>Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden. <sup>21:4</sup>And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. <sup>21:5</sup>And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed. <sup>21:6</sup>And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again. <sup>21:7</sup>And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. <sup>21:8</sup>And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him. <sup>21:9</sup>And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy. <sup>21:10</sup>And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named Agabus. <sup>21:11</sup>And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. <sup>21:12</sup>And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>21:13</sup>Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>21:14</sup>And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. <sup>21:15</sup>And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem. <sup>21:16</sup>There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge. <sup>21:17</sup>And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. <sup>21:18</sup>And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present. <sup>21:19</sup>And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. <sup>21:20</sup>And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law: <sup>21:21</sup>and they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. <sup>21:22</sup>What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come. <sup>21:23</sup>Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them; <sup>21:24</sup>them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law. <sup>21:25</sup>As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication. <sup>21:26</sup>Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them. <sup>21:27</sup>And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, <sup>21:28</sup>crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place. <sup>21:29</sup>(For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.) <sup>21:30</sup>And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut. <sup>21:31</sup>And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. <sup>21:32</sup>Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul. <sup>21:33</sup>Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done. <sup>21:34</sup>And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle. <sup>21:35</sup>And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people. <sup>21:36</sup>For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him. <sup>21:37</sup>And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek? <sup>21:38</sup>Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers? <sup>21:39</sup>But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people. <sup>21:40</sup>And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying, <sup>22:1</sup>Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you. <sup>22:2</sup>(And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,) <sup>22:3</sup>I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day. <sup>22:4</sup>And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. <sup>22:5</sup>As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished. <sup>22:6</sup>And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. <sup>22:7</sup>And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? <sup>22:8</sup>And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. <sup>22:9</sup>And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. <sup>22:10</sup>And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. <sup>22:11</sup>And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. <sup>22:12</sup>And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, <sup>22:13</sup>came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him. <sup>22:14</sup>And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth. <sup>22:15</sup>For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. <sup>22:16</sup>And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord. <sup>22:17</sup>And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; <sup>22:18</sup>and saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me. <sup>22:19</sup>And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: <sup>22:20</sup>and when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him. <sup>22:21</sup>And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. <sup>22:22</sup>And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. <sup>22:23</sup>And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, <sup>22:24</sup>the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him. <sup>22:25</sup>And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? <sup>22:26</sup>When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman. <sup>22:27</sup>Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea. <sup>22:28</sup>And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born. <sup>22:29</sup>Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. <sup>22:30</sup>On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them. <sup>23:1</sup>And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day. <sup>23:2</sup>And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth. <sup>23:3</sup>Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? <sup>23:4</sup>And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest? <sup>23:5</sup>Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people. <sup>23:6</sup>But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. <sup>23:7</sup>And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. <sup>23:8</sup>For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. <sup>23:9</sup>And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God. <sup>23:10</sup>And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle. <sup>23:11</sup>And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. <sup>23:12</sup>And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. <sup>23:13</sup>And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy. <sup>23:14</sup>And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. <sup>23:15</sup>Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him. <sup>23:16</sup>And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul. <sup>23:17</sup>Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him. <sup>23:18</sup>So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee. <sup>23:19</sup>Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me? <sup>23:20</sup>And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would

inquire somewhat of him more perfectly. <sup>23:21</sup>But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee. <sup>23:22</sup>So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me. <sup>23:23</sup>And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night; <sup>23:24</sup>and provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor. <sup>23:25</sup>And he wrote a letter after this manner: <sup>23:26</sup>Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting. <sup>23:27</sup>This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. <sup>23:28</sup>And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council: <sup>23:29</sup>whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. <sup>23:30</sup>And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell. <sup>23:31</sup>Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. <sup>23:32</sup>On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle: <sup>23:33</sup>who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him. <sup>23:34</sup>And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia; <sup>23:35</sup>I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall. <sup>24:1</sup>And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul. <sup>24:2</sup>And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, <sup>24:3</sup>we accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. <sup>24:4</sup>Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words. <sup>24:5</sup>For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: <sup>24:6</sup>who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law. <sup>24:7</sup>But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, <sup>24:8</sup>commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him. <sup>24:9</sup>And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so. <sup>24:10</sup>Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: <sup>24:11</sup>because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship. <sup>24:12</sup>And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city: <sup>24:13</sup>neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me. <sup>24:14</sup>But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets: <sup>24:15</sup>and have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. <sup>24:16</sup>And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. <sup>24:17</sup>Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings. <sup>24:18</sup>Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult. <sup>24:19</sup>Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me. <sup>24:20</sup>Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, <sup>24:21</sup>except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day. <sup>24:22</sup>And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter. <sup>24:23</sup>And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him. <sup>24:24</sup>And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. <sup>24:25</sup>And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. <sup>24:26</sup>He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. <sup>24:27</sup>But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound. <sup>25:1</sup>Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæsarea to Jerusalem. <sup>25:2</sup>Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him, <sup>25:3</sup>and desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him. <sup>25:4</sup>But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither. <sup>25:5</sup>Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him. <sup>25:6</sup>And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought. <sup>25:7</sup>And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove. <sup>25:8</sup>While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended any thing at all. <sup>25:9</sup>But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? <sup>25:10</sup>Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest. <sup>25:11</sup>For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cæsar. <sup>25:12</sup>Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæsar? unto Cæsar shalt thou go. <sup>25:13</sup>And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cæsarea to salute Festus. <sup>25:14</sup>And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix: <sup>25:15</sup>about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him. <sup>25:16</sup>To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. <sup>25:17</sup>Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth. <sup>25:18</sup>Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed: <sup>25:19</sup>but had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. <sup>25:20</sup>And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. <sup>25:21</sup>But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar. <sup>25:22</sup>Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him. <sup>25:23</sup>And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth. <sup>25:24</sup>And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25:25</sup>But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. <sup>25:26</sup>Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write. <sup>25:27</sup>For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him. <sup>26:1</sup>Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself: <sup>26:2</sup>I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews: <sup>26:3</sup>especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. <sup>26:4</sup>My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; <sup>26:5</sup>which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. <sup>26:6</sup>And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers: <sup>26:7</sup>unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews. <sup>26:8</sup>Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead? <sup>26:9</sup>I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. <sup>26:10</sup>Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. <sup>26:11</sup>And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities. <sup>26:12</sup>Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, <sup>26:13</sup>at midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me. <sup>26:14</sup>And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. <sup>26:15</sup>And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. <sup>26:16</sup>But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; <sup>26:17</sup>delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, <sup>26:18</sup>to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. <sup>26:19</sup>Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: <sup>26:20</sup>but shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judæa, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. <sup>26:21</sup>For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me. <sup>26:22</sup>Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come: <sup>26:23</sup>that Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles. <sup>26:24</sup>And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. <sup>26:25</sup>But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. <sup>26:26</sup>For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner. <sup>26:27</sup>King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. <sup>26:28</sup>Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian. <sup>26:29</sup>And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

<sup>26:30</sup>And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: <sup>26:31</sup>and when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. <sup>26:32</sup>Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar. <sup>27:1</sup>And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. <sup>27:2</sup>And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. <sup>27:3</sup>And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself. <sup>27:4</sup>And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. <sup>27:5</sup>And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. <sup>27:6</sup>And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein. <sup>27:7</sup>And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone; <sup>27:8</sup>and, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea. <sup>27:9</sup>Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them, <sup>27:10</sup>and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives. <sup>27:11</sup>Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>27:12</sup>And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west. <sup>27:13</sup>And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete. <sup>27:14</sup>But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. <sup>27:15</sup>And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive. <sup>27:16</sup>And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat: <sup>27:17</sup>which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven. <sup>27:18</sup>And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship; <sup>27:19</sup>and the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship. <sup>27:20</sup>And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away. <sup>27:21</sup>But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss. <sup>27:22</sup>And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship. <sup>27:23</sup>For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose

I am, and whom I serve, <sup>27:24</sup>saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee. <sup>27:25</sup>Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me. <sup>27:26</sup>Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island. <sup>27:27</sup>But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country; <sup>27:28</sup>and sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms. <sup>27:29</sup>Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day. <sup>27:30</sup>And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, <sup>27:31</sup>Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. <sup>27:32</sup>Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. <sup>27:33</sup>And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing. <sup>27:34</sup>Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you. <sup>27:35</sup>And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat. <sup>27:36</sup>Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat. <sup>27:37</sup>And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls. <sup>27:38</sup>And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea. <sup>27:39</sup>And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. <sup>27:40</sup>And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore. <sup>27:41</sup>And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves. <sup>27:42</sup>And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. <sup>27:43</sup>But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land: <sup>27:44</sup>and the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land. <sup>28:1</sup>And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita. <sup>28:2</sup>And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. <sup>28:3</sup>And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand. <sup>28:4</sup>And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live. <sup>28:5</sup>And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm. <sup>28:6</sup>Howbeit they looked when he should have

swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god. <sup>28:7</sup>In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously. <sup>28:8</sup>And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him. <sup>28:9</sup>So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed: <sup>28:10</sup>who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary. <sup>28:11</sup>And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux. <sup>28:12</sup>And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. <sup>28:13</sup>And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli: <sup>28:14</sup>where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome. <sup>28:15</sup>And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage. <sup>28:16</sup>And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him. <sup>28:17</sup>And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. <sup>28:18</sup>Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. <sup>28:19</sup>But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of. <sup>28:20</sup>For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. <sup>28:21</sup>And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judæa concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee. <sup>28:22</sup>But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against. <sup>28:23</sup>And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening. <sup>28:24</sup>And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not. <sup>28:25</sup>And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers, <sup>28:26</sup>saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive: <sup>28:27</sup>for the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

<sup>28:28</sup>Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it. <sup>28:29</sup>And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves. <sup>28:30</sup>And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, <sup>28:31</sup>preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

The epistle of Paul the apostle to the Romans

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, <sup>1:2</sup>(which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,) <sup>1:3</sup>concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; <sup>1:4</sup>and declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: <sup>1:5</sup>by whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: <sup>1:6</sup>among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: <sup>1:7</sup>To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:8</sup>First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. <sup>1:9</sup>For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers; <sup>1:10</sup>making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you. <sup>1:11</sup>For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; <sup>1:12</sup>that is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me. <sup>1:13</sup>Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. <sup>1:14</sup>I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise. <sup>1:15</sup>So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. <sup>1:16</sup>For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. <sup>1:17</sup>For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. <sup>1:18</sup>For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; <sup>1:19</sup>because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. <sup>1:20</sup>For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: <sup>1:21</sup>Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

<sup>1:22</sup>Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, <sup>1:23</sup>and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. <sup>1:24</sup>Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: <sup>1:25</sup>who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. <sup>1:26</sup>For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: <sup>1:27</sup>and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. <sup>1:28</sup>And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; <sup>1:29</sup>being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, <sup>1:30</sup>backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, <sup>1:31</sup>without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: <sup>1:32</sup>who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. <sup>2:1</sup>Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. <sup>2:2</sup>But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things. <sup>2:3</sup>And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? <sup>2:4</sup>Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? <sup>2:5</sup>But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; <sup>2:6</sup>who will render to every man according to his deeds: <sup>2:7</sup>to them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life: <sup>2:8</sup>but unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, <sup>2:9</sup>tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; <sup>2:10</sup>but glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: <sup>2:11</sup>for there is no respect of persons with God. <sup>2:12</sup>For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law; <sup>2:13</sup>(for not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. <sup>2:14</sup>For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves: <sup>2:15</sup>which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;) <sup>2:16</sup>in the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel. <sup>2:17</sup>Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God, <sup>2:18</sup>and knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law; <sup>2:19</sup>and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, <sup>2:20</sup>an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law. <sup>2:21</sup>Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? <sup>2:22</sup>Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? <sup>2:23</sup>Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? <sup>2:24</sup>For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written. <sup>2:25</sup>For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision. <sup>2:26</sup>Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? <sup>2:27</sup>And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law? <sup>2:28</sup>For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: <sup>2:29</sup>but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. <sup>3:1</sup>What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? <sup>3:2</sup>Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God. <sup>3:3</sup>For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? <sup>3:4</sup>God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. <sup>3:5</sup>But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man) <sup>3:6</sup>God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world? <sup>3:7</sup>For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner? <sup>3:8</sup>And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just. <sup>3:9</sup>What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; <sup>3:10</sup>as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: <sup>3:11</sup>there is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. <sup>3:12</sup>They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. <sup>3:13</sup>Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; The poison of asps is under their lips: <sup>3:14</sup>Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: <sup>3:15</sup>Their feet are swift to shed blood: <sup>3:16</sup>destruction and misery are in their ways: <sup>3:17</sup>and the way of peace have they not known: <sup>3:18</sup>There is no fear of God before their eyes. <sup>3:19</sup>Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. <sup>3:20</sup>Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. <sup>3:21</sup>But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; <sup>3:22</sup>even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: <sup>3:23</sup>for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; <sup>3:24</sup>being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: <sup>3:25</sup>whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; <sup>3:26</sup>to declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. <sup>3:27</sup>Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. <sup>3:28</sup>Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. <sup>3:29</sup>Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: <sup>3:30</sup>seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. <sup>3:31</sup>Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law. <sup>4:1</sup>What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? <sup>4:2</sup>For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. <sup>4:3</sup>For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. <sup>4:4</sup>Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. <sup>4:5</sup>But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. <sup>4:6</sup>Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, <sup>4:7</sup>saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. <sup>4:8</sup>Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. <sup>4:9</sup>Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. <sup>4:10</sup>How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. <sup>4:11</sup>And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: <sup>4:12</sup>and the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. <sup>4:13</sup>For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>4:14</sup>For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: <sup>4:15</sup>because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. <sup>4:16</sup>Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all, <sup>4:17</sup>(as it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. <sup>4:18</sup>Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. <sup>4:19</sup>And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb: <sup>4:20</sup>he staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; <sup>4:21</sup>and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. <sup>4:22</sup>And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. <sup>4:23</sup>Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; <sup>4:24</sup>but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; <sup>4:25</sup>who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. <sup>5:1</sup>Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>5:2</sup>by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>5:3</sup>And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; <sup>5:4</sup>and patience, experience; and experience, hope: <sup>5:5</sup>and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. <sup>5:6</sup>For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>5:7</sup>For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. <sup>5:8</sup>But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>5:9</sup>Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. <sup>5:10</sup>For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. <sup>5:11</sup>And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement. <sup>5:12</sup>Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: <sup>5:13</sup>(for until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. <sup>5:14</sup>Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come. <sup>5:15</sup>But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. <sup>5:16</sup>And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification. <sup>5:17</sup>For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

<sup>5:18</sup>Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. <sup>5:19</sup>For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. <sup>5:20</sup>Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: <sup>5:21</sup>that as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>6:1</sup>What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

<sup>6:2</sup>God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? <sup>6:3</sup>Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? <sup>6:4</sup>Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. <sup>6:5</sup>For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: <sup>6:6</sup>knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. <sup>6:7</sup>For he that is dead is freed from sin. <sup>6:8</sup>Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: <sup>6:9</sup>knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. <sup>6:10</sup>For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. <sup>6:11</sup>Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. <sup>6:12</sup>Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. <sup>6:13</sup>Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. <sup>6:14</sup>For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. <sup>6:15</sup>What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. <sup>6:16</sup>Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? <sup>6:17</sup>But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. <sup>6:18</sup>Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. <sup>6:19</sup>I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness. <sup>6:20</sup>For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. <sup>6:21</sup>What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. <sup>6:22</sup>But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. <sup>6:23</sup>For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. <sup>7:1</sup>Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

<sup>7:2</sup>For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. <sup>7:3</sup>So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

<sup>7:4</sup>Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. <sup>7:5</sup>For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. <sup>7:6</sup>But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. <sup>7:7</sup>What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet. <sup>7:8</sup>But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

<sup>7:9</sup>For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. <sup>7:10</sup>And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. <sup>7:11</sup>For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. <sup>7:12</sup>Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. <sup>7:13</sup>Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. <sup>7:14</sup>For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. <sup>7:15</sup>For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. <sup>7:16</sup>If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. <sup>7:17</sup>Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. <sup>7:18</sup>For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. <sup>7:19</sup>For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. <sup>7:20</sup>Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. <sup>7:21</sup>I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. <sup>7:22</sup>For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: <sup>7:23</sup>but I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. <sup>7:24</sup>O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? <sup>7:25</sup>I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin. <sup>8:1</sup>There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. <sup>8:2</sup>For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. <sup>8:3</sup>For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: <sup>8:4</sup>that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

<sup>8:5</sup>For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. <sup>8:6</sup>For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. <sup>8:7</sup>Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. <sup>8:8</sup>So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. <sup>8:9</sup>But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. <sup>8:10</sup>And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. <sup>8:11</sup>But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. <sup>8:12</sup>Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. <sup>8:13</sup>For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. <sup>8:14</sup>For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. <sup>8:15</sup>For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. <sup>8:16</sup>The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: <sup>8:17</sup>and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. <sup>8:18</sup>For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. <sup>8:19</sup>For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. <sup>8:20</sup>For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, <sup>8:21</sup>because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. <sup>8:22</sup>For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. <sup>8:23</sup>And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. <sup>8:24</sup>For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? <sup>8:25</sup>But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. <sup>8:26</sup>Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. <sup>8:27</sup>And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. <sup>8:28</sup>And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. <sup>8:29</sup>For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. <sup>8:30</sup>Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. <sup>8:31</sup>What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? <sup>8:32</sup>He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? <sup>8:33</sup>Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. <sup>8:34</sup>Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. <sup>8:35</sup>Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>8:36</sup>As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. <sup>8:37</sup>Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. <sup>8:38</sup>For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, <sup>8:39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>9:1</sup>I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost, <sup>9:2</sup>that I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart. <sup>9:3</sup>For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh: <sup>9:4</sup>who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; <sup>9:5</sup>whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen. <sup>9:6</sup>Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: <sup>9:7</sup>neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. <sup>9:8</sup>That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. <sup>9:9</sup>For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son. <sup>9:10</sup>And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac; <sup>9:11</sup>(for the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;) <sup>9:12</sup>it was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. <sup>9:13</sup>As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated. <sup>9:14</sup>What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. <sup>9:15</sup>For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. <sup>9:16</sup>So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. <sup>9:17</sup>For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. <sup>9:18</sup>Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. <sup>9:19</sup>Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will? <sup>9:20</sup>Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? <sup>9:21</sup>Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? <sup>9:22</sup>What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: <sup>9:23</sup>and that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, <sup>9:24</sup>even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles? <sup>9:25</sup>As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved. <sup>9:26</sup>And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. <sup>9:27</sup>Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved: <sup>9:28</sup>for he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth. <sup>9:29</sup>And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha. <sup>9:30</sup>What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith. <sup>9:31</sup>But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. <sup>9:32</sup>Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone; <sup>9:33</sup>as it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. <sup>10:1</sup>Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. <sup>10:2</sup>For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. <sup>10:3</sup>For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. <sup>10:4</sup>For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. <sup>10:5</sup>For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them. <sup>10:6</sup>But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above;) <sup>10:7</sup>or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) <sup>10:8</sup>but what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; <sup>10:9</sup>that if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. <sup>10:10</sup>For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. <sup>10:11</sup>For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. <sup>10:12</sup>For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. <sup>10:13</sup>For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. <sup>10:14</sup>How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? <sup>10:15</sup>And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! <sup>10:16</sup>But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? <sup>10:17</sup>So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. <sup>10:18</sup>But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. <sup>10:19</sup>But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

<sup>10:20</sup>But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. <sup>10:21</sup>But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people. <sup>11:1</sup>I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>11:2</sup>God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying, <sup>11:3</sup>Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. <sup>11:4</sup>But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. <sup>11:5</sup>Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. <sup>11:6</sup>And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. <sup>11:7</sup>What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded <sup>11:8</sup>(according as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day. <sup>11:9</sup>And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them: <sup>11:10</sup>let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back away. <sup>11:11</sup>I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>11:12</sup>Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness? <sup>11:13</sup>For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office: <sup>11:14</sup>if by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them. <sup>11:15</sup>For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? <sup>11:16</sup>For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches. <sup>11:17</sup>And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree; <sup>11:18</sup>boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. <sup>11:19</sup>Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. <sup>11:20</sup>Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: <sup>11:21</sup>for if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee. <sup>11:22</sup>Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. <sup>11:23</sup>And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. <sup>11:24</sup>For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? <sup>11:25</sup>For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. <sup>11:26</sup>And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: <sup>11:27</sup>for this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. <sup>11:28</sup>As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. <sup>11:29</sup>For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. <sup>11:30</sup>For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief: <sup>11:31</sup>even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy. <sup>11:32</sup>For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all. <sup>11:33</sup>O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! <sup>11:34</sup>For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? <sup>11:35</sup>Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? <sup>11:36</sup>For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen. <sup>12:1</sup>I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. <sup>12:2</sup>And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. <sup>12:3</sup>For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. <sup>12:4</sup>For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: <sup>12:5</sup>so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. <sup>12:6</sup>Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; <sup>12:7</sup>or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; <sup>12:8</sup>or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. <sup>12:9</sup>Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. <sup>12:10</sup>Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; <sup>12:11</sup>not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; <sup>12:12</sup>rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; <sup>12:13</sup>distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. <sup>12:14</sup>Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not. <sup>12:15</sup>Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. <sup>12:16</sup>Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. <sup>12:17</sup>Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. <sup>12:18</sup>If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. <sup>12:19</sup>Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. <sup>12:20</sup>Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. <sup>12:21</sup>Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. <sup>13:1</sup>Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

<sup>13:2</sup>Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. <sup>13:3</sup>For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: <sup>13:4</sup>for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. <sup>13:5</sup>Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. <sup>13:6</sup>For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. <sup>13:7</sup>Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. <sup>13:8</sup>Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. <sup>13:9</sup>For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. <sup>13:10</sup>Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. <sup>13:11</sup>And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. <sup>13:12</sup>The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. <sup>13:13</sup>Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. <sup>13:14</sup>But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. <sup>14:1</sup>Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations. <sup>14:2</sup>For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs. <sup>14:3</sup>Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. <sup>14:4</sup>Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand. <sup>14:5</sup>One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. <sup>14:6</sup>He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. <sup>14:7</sup>For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. <sup>14:8</sup>For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. <sup>14:9</sup>For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. <sup>14:10</sup>But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. <sup>14:11</sup>For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. <sup>14:12</sup>So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. <sup>14:13</sup>Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. <sup>14:14</sup>I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. <sup>14:15</sup>But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died. <sup>14:16</sup>Let not then your good be evil spoken of: <sup>14:17</sup>for the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. <sup>14:18</sup>For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men. <sup>14:19</sup>Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. <sup>14:20</sup>For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. <sup>14:21</sup>It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. <sup>14:22</sup>Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. <sup>14:23</sup>And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin. <sup>15:1</sup>We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. <sup>15:2</sup>Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. <sup>15:3</sup>For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. <sup>15:4</sup>For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. <sup>15:5</sup>Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: <sup>15:6</sup>that ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15:7</sup>Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God. <sup>15:8</sup>Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: <sup>15:9</sup>and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. <sup>15:10</sup>And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. <sup>15:11</sup>And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people. <sup>15:12</sup>And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. <sup>15:13</sup>Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. <sup>15:14</sup>And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. <sup>15:15</sup>Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God, <sup>15:16</sup>that I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. <sup>15:17</sup>I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God. <sup>15:18</sup>For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, <sup>15:19</sup>through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. <sup>15:20</sup>Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation: <sup>15:21</sup>but as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand. <sup>15:22</sup>For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. <sup>15:23</sup>But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you; <sup>15:24</sup>whenever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company. <sup>15:25</sup>But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints. <sup>15:26</sup>For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem. <sup>15:27</sup>It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things. <sup>15:28</sup>When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain. <sup>15:29</sup>And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ. <sup>15:30</sup>Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; <sup>15:31</sup>that I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judæa; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints; <sup>15:32</sup>that I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed. <sup>15:33</sup>Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen. <sup>16:1</sup>I commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea: <sup>16:2</sup>that ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also. <sup>16:3</sup>Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus: <sup>16:4</sup>who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. <sup>16:5</sup>Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Epænetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ. <sup>16:6</sup>Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us. <sup>16:7</sup>Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. <sup>16:8</sup>Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord. <sup>16:9</sup>Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved. <sup>16:10</sup>Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' household. <sup>16:11</sup>Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord. <sup>16:12</sup>Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord. <sup>16:13</sup>Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. <sup>16:14</sup>Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them. <sup>16:15</sup>Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them. <sup>16:16</sup>Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you. <sup>16:17</sup>Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. <sup>16:18</sup>For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. <sup>16:19</sup>For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. <sup>16:20</sup>And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen. <sup>16:21</sup>Timotheus my workfellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you. <sup>16:22</sup>I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord. <sup>16:23</sup>Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother. <sup>16:24</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. <sup>16:25</sup>Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, <sup>16:26</sup>but now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith: <sup>16:27</sup>to God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

1 Corinthians

The first epistle of Paul the apostle to the Corinthians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, <sup>1:2</sup>Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours: <sup>1:3</sup>Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:4</sup>I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; <sup>1:5</sup>that in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge; <sup>1:6</sup>even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: <sup>1:7</sup>so that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>1:8</sup>who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:9</sup>God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. <sup>1:10</sup>Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. <sup>1:11</sup>For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. <sup>1:12</sup>Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. <sup>1:13</sup>Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul? <sup>1:14</sup>I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius; <sup>1:15</sup>lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name. <sup>1:16</sup>And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. <sup>1:17</sup>For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. <sup>1:18</sup>For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. <sup>1:19</sup>For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. <sup>1:20</sup>Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? <sup>1:21</sup>For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. <sup>1:22</sup>For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: <sup>1:23</sup>but we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; <sup>1:24</sup>but unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. <sup>1:25</sup>Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. <sup>1:26</sup>For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: <sup>1:27</sup>but God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; <sup>1:28</sup>and base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: <sup>1:29</sup>that no flesh should glory in his presence. <sup>1:30</sup>But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: <sup>1:31</sup>that, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. <sup>2:1</sup>And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. <sup>2:2</sup>For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. <sup>2:3</sup>And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. <sup>2:4</sup>And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: <sup>2:5</sup>that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. <sup>2:6</sup>Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought: <sup>2:7</sup>but we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: <sup>2:8</sup>which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>2:9</sup>But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. <sup>2:10</sup>But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. <sup>2:11</sup>For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. <sup>2:12</sup>Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. <sup>2:13</sup>Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. <sup>2:14</sup>But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>2:15</sup>But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. <sup>2:16</sup>For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. <sup>3:1</sup>And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. <sup>3:2</sup>I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. <sup>3:3</sup>For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? <sup>3:4</sup>For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? <sup>3:5</sup>Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? <sup>3:6</sup>I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. <sup>3:7</sup>So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. <sup>3:8</sup>Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. <sup>3:9</sup>For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. <sup>3:10</sup>According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. <sup>3:11</sup>For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. <sup>3:12</sup>Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; <sup>3:13</sup>every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. <sup>3:14</sup>If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. <sup>3:15</sup>If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. <sup>3:16</sup>Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? <sup>3:17</sup>If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. <sup>3:18</sup>Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. <sup>3:19</sup>For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. <sup>3:20</sup>And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. <sup>3:21</sup>Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours; <sup>3:22</sup>whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; <sup>3:23</sup>and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's. <sup>4:1</sup>Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. <sup>4:2</sup>Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. <sup>4:3</sup>But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. <sup>4:4</sup>For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

<sup>4:5</sup>Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. <sup>4:6</sup>And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another. <sup>4:7</sup>For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? <sup>4:8</sup>Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. <sup>4:9</sup>For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. <sup>4:10</sup>We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised. <sup>4:11</sup>Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; <sup>4:12</sup>and labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: <sup>4:13</sup>being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day. <sup>4:14</sup>I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. <sup>4:15</sup>For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. <sup>4:16</sup>Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me. <sup>4:17</sup>For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church. <sup>4:18</sup>Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you. <sup>4:19</sup>But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power. <sup>4:20</sup>For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. <sup>4:21</sup>What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

<sup>5:1</sup>It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. <sup>5:2</sup>And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. <sup>5:3</sup>For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, <sup>5:4</sup>in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>5:5</sup>to deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. <sup>5:6</sup>Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? <sup>5:7</sup>Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: <sup>5:8</sup>therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. <sup>5:9</sup>I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators: <sup>5:10</sup>yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world. <sup>5:11</sup>But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat. <sup>5:12</sup>For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? <sup>5:13</sup>But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person. <sup>6:1</sup>Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints? <sup>6:2</sup>Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? <sup>6:3</sup>Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life? <sup>6:4</sup>If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church. <sup>6:5</sup>I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren? <sup>6:6</sup>But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers. <sup>6:7</sup>Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded? <sup>6:8</sup>Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren. <sup>6:9</sup>Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, <sup>6:10</sup>nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>6:11</sup>And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. <sup>6:12</sup>All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. <sup>6:13</sup>Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. <sup>6:14</sup>And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power. <sup>6:15</sup>Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid. <sup>6:16</sup>What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh. <sup>6:17</sup>But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. <sup>6:18</sup>Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. <sup>6:19</sup>What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? <sup>6:20</sup>For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. <sup>7:1</sup>Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. <sup>7:2</sup>Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. <sup>7:3</sup>Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. <sup>7:4</sup>The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife. <sup>7:5</sup>Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency. <sup>7:6</sup>But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment. <sup>7:7</sup>For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that. <sup>7:8</sup>I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I. <sup>7:9</sup>But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. <sup>7:10</sup>And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband: <sup>7:11</sup>but and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife. <sup>7:12</sup>But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. <sup>7:13</sup>And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. <sup>7:14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. <sup>7:15</sup>But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace. <sup>7:16</sup>For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife? <sup>7:17</sup>But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches. <sup>7:18</sup>Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. <sup>7:19</sup>Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. <sup>7:20</sup>Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. <sup>7:21</sup>Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather. <sup>7:22</sup>For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant. <sup>7:23</sup>Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men. <sup>7:24</sup>Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God. <sup>7:25</sup>Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. <sup>7:26</sup>I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be. <sup>7:27</sup>Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. <sup>7:28</sup>But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you. <sup>7:29</sup>But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; <sup>7:30</sup>and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; <sup>7:31</sup>and they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. <sup>7:32</sup>But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: <sup>7:33</sup>but he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife. <sup>7:34</sup>There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. <sup>7:35</sup>And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. <sup>7:36</sup>But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry. <sup>7:37</sup>Nevertheless he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well. <sup>7:38</sup>So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better. <sup>7:39</sup>The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. <sup>7:40</sup>But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God. <sup>8:1</sup>Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. <sup>8:2</sup>And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. <sup>8:3</sup>But if any man love God, the same is known of him. <sup>8:4</sup>As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one. <sup>8:5</sup>For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) <sup>8:6</sup>but to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. <sup>8:7</sup>Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. <sup>8:8</sup>But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. <sup>8:9</sup>But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. <sup>8:10</sup>For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; <sup>8:11</sup>and through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? <sup>8:12</sup>But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. <sup>8:13</sup>Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. <sup>9:1</sup>Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord? <sup>9:2</sup>If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. <sup>9:3</sup>Mine answer to them that do examine me is this, <sup>9:4</sup>Have we not power to eat and to drink? <sup>9:5</sup>Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? <sup>9:6</sup>Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working? <sup>9:7</sup>Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? <sup>9:8</sup>Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also? <sup>9:9</sup>For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? <sup>9:10</sup>Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. <sup>9:11</sup>If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? <sup>9:12</sup>If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. <sup>9:13</sup>Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? <sup>9:14</sup>Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. <sup>9:15</sup>But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void. <sup>9:16</sup>For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! <sup>9:17</sup>For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me. <sup>9:18</sup>What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel. <sup>9:19</sup>For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. <sup>9:20</sup>And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; <sup>9:21</sup>to them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law. <sup>9:22</sup>To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. <sup>9:23</sup>And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you. <sup>9:24</sup>Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. <sup>9:25</sup>And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. <sup>9:26</sup>I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: <sup>9:27</sup>but I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. <sup>10:1</sup>Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; <sup>10:2</sup>and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; <sup>10:3</sup>and did all eat the same spiritual meat; <sup>10:4</sup>and did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ. <sup>10:5</sup>But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. <sup>10:6</sup>Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not

lust after evil things, as they also lusted. <sup>10:7</sup>Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. <sup>10:8</sup>Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. <sup>10:9</sup>Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. <sup>10:10</sup>Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. <sup>10:11</sup>Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. <sup>10:12</sup>Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. <sup>10:13</sup>There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. <sup>10:14</sup>Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. <sup>10:15</sup>I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. <sup>10:16</sup>The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? <sup>10:17</sup>For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. <sup>10:18</sup>Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? <sup>10:19</sup>What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing? <sup>10:20</sup>But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. <sup>10:21</sup>Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils. <sup>10:22</sup>Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he? <sup>10:23</sup>All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not. <sup>10:24</sup>Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth. <sup>10:25</sup>Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake: <sup>10:26</sup>for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. <sup>10:27</sup>If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake. <sup>10:28</sup>But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof: <sup>10:29</sup>conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience? <sup>10:30</sup>For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? <sup>10:31</sup>Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>10:32</sup>Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God: <sup>10:33</sup>even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. <sup>11:1</sup>Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. <sup>11:2</sup>Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you. <sup>11:3</sup>But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. <sup>11:4</sup>Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. <sup>11:5</sup>But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven. <sup>11:6</sup>For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. <sup>11:7</sup>For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. <sup>11:8</sup>For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. <sup>11:9</sup>Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man. <sup>11:10</sup>For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels. <sup>11:11</sup>Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord. <sup>11:12</sup>For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God. <sup>11:13</sup>Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered? <sup>11:14</sup>Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him? <sup>11:15</sup>But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. <sup>11:16</sup>But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God. <sup>11:17</sup>Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. <sup>11:18</sup>For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it. <sup>11:19</sup>For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. <sup>11:20</sup>When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper. <sup>11:21</sup>For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken. <sup>11:22</sup>What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. <sup>11:23</sup>For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: <sup>11:24</sup>and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. <sup>11:25</sup>After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. <sup>11:26</sup>For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. <sup>11:27</sup>Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. <sup>11:28</sup>But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. <sup>11:29</sup>For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. <sup>11:30</sup>For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. <sup>11:31</sup>For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. <sup>11:32</sup>But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. <sup>11:33</sup>Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another. <sup>11:34</sup>And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come. <sup>12:1</sup>Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. <sup>12:2</sup>Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led. <sup>12:3</sup>Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. <sup>12:4</sup>Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. <sup>12:5</sup>And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. <sup>12:6</sup>And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. <sup>12:7</sup>But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. <sup>12:8</sup>For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; <sup>12:9</sup>to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; <sup>12:10</sup>to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: <sup>12:11</sup>but all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. <sup>12:12</sup>For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. <sup>12:13</sup>For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. <sup>12:14</sup>For the body is not one member, but many. <sup>12:15</sup>If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? <sup>12:16</sup>And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? <sup>12:17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? <sup>12:18</sup>But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him. <sup>12:19</sup>And if they were all one member, where were the body? <sup>12:20</sup>But now are they many members, yet but one body. <sup>12:21</sup>And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. <sup>12:22</sup>Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: <sup>12:23</sup>and those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness. <sup>12:24</sup>For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: <sup>12:25</sup>that there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. <sup>12:26</sup>And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it. <sup>12:27</sup>Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. <sup>12:28</sup>And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. <sup>12:29</sup>Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? <sup>12:30</sup>Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? <sup>12:31</sup>But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way. <sup>13:1</sup>Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. <sup>13:2</sup>And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. <sup>13:3</sup>And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. <sup>13:4</sup>Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, <sup>13:5</sup>doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; <sup>13:6</sup>rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; <sup>13:7</sup>beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. <sup>13:8</sup>Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. <sup>13:9</sup>For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. <sup>13:10</sup>But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. <sup>13:11</sup>When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. <sup>13:12</sup>For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. <sup>13:13</sup>And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity. <sup>14:1</sup>Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. <sup>14:2</sup>For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. <sup>14:3</sup>But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. <sup>14:4</sup>He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. <sup>14:5</sup>I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. <sup>14:6</sup>Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? <sup>14:7</sup>And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? <sup>14:8</sup>For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? <sup>14:9</sup>So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air. <sup>14:10</sup>There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification. <sup>14:11</sup>Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me. <sup>14:12</sup>Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church. <sup>14:13</sup>Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret. <sup>14:14</sup>For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. <sup>14:15</sup>What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. <sup>14:16</sup>Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? <sup>14:17</sup>For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. <sup>14:18</sup>I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all: <sup>14:19</sup>yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. <sup>14:20</sup>Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. <sup>14:21</sup>In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord. <sup>14:22</sup>Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe. <sup>14:23</sup>If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? <sup>14:24</sup>But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all: <sup>14:25</sup>and thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth. <sup>14:26</sup>How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. <sup>14:27</sup>If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret. <sup>14:28</sup>But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. <sup>14:29</sup>Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge. <sup>14:30</sup>If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. <sup>14:31</sup>For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted. <sup>14:32</sup>And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. <sup>14:33</sup>For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. <sup>14:34</sup>Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. <sup>14:35</sup>And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church. <sup>14:36</sup>What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only? <sup>14:37</sup>If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord. <sup>14:38</sup>But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant. <sup>14:39</sup>Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. <sup>14:40</sup>Let all things be done decently and in order. <sup>15:1</sup>Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; <sup>15:2</sup>by which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. <sup>15:3</sup>For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; <sup>15:4</sup>and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: <sup>15:5</sup>and that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: <sup>15:6</sup>after that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep. <sup>15:7</sup>After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles. <sup>15:8</sup>And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time. <sup>15:9</sup>For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. <sup>15:10</sup>But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. <sup>15:11</sup>Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed. <sup>15:12</sup>Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>15:13</sup>But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: <sup>15:14</sup>and if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. <sup>15:15</sup>Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. <sup>15:16</sup>For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised: <sup>15:17</sup>and if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. <sup>15:18</sup>Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. <sup>15:19</sup>If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. <sup>15:20</sup>But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. <sup>15:21</sup>For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. <sup>15:22</sup>For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. <sup>15:23</sup>But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. <sup>15:24</sup>Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. <sup>15:25</sup>For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. <sup>15:26</sup>The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. <sup>15:27</sup>For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. <sup>15:28</sup>And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. <sup>15:29</sup>Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead? <sup>15:30</sup>And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? <sup>15:31</sup>I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. <sup>15:32</sup>If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die. <sup>15:33</sup>Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. <sup>15:34</sup>Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame. <sup>15:35</sup>But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? <sup>15:36</sup>Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die: <sup>15:37</sup>and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: <sup>15:38</sup>but God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body. <sup>15:39</sup>All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. <sup>15:40</sup>There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. <sup>15:41</sup>There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. <sup>15:42</sup>So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: <sup>15:43</sup>it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: <sup>15:44</sup>it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. <sup>15:45</sup>And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. <sup>15:46</sup>Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. <sup>15:47</sup>The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven. <sup>15:48</sup>As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. <sup>15:49</sup>And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. <sup>15:50</sup>Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. <sup>15:51</sup>Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, <sup>15:52</sup>in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. <sup>15:53</sup>For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. <sup>15:54</sup>So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. <sup>15:55</sup>O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? <sup>15:56</sup>The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. <sup>15:57</sup>But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15:58</sup>Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. <sup>16:1</sup>Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. <sup>16:2</sup>Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come. <sup>16:3</sup>And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem. <sup>16:4</sup>And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me. <sup>16:5</sup>Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia. <sup>16:6</sup>And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go. <sup>16:7</sup>For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit. <sup>16:8</sup>But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost. <sup>16:9</sup>For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries. <sup>16:10</sup>Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do. <sup>16:11</sup>Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren. <sup>16:12</sup>As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time. <sup>16:13</sup>Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. <sup>16:14</sup>Let all your things be done with charity. <sup>16:15</sup>I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,) <sup>16:16</sup>that ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth. <sup>16:17</sup>I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied. <sup>16:18</sup>For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such. <sup>16:19</sup>The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house. <sup>16:20</sup>All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss. <sup>16:21</sup>The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand. <sup>16:22</sup>If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maran-atha. <sup>16:23</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. <sup>16:24</sup>My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Corinthians

The second epistle of Paul the apostle to the Corinthians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:3</sup>Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; <sup>1:4</sup>who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. <sup>1:5</sup>For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. <sup>1:6</sup>And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. <sup>1:7</sup>And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. <sup>1:8</sup>For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: <sup>1:9</sup>but we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: <sup>1:10</sup>who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; <sup>1:11</sup>ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf. <sup>1:12</sup>For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. <sup>1:13</sup>For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end; <sup>1:14</sup>as also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. <sup>1:15</sup>And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit; <sup>1:16</sup>and to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judæa. <sup>1:17</sup>When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay? <sup>1:18</sup>But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay. <sup>1:19</sup>For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea. <sup>1:20</sup>For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us. <sup>1:21</sup>Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God; <sup>1:22</sup>who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. <sup>1:23</sup>Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth. <sup>1:24</sup>Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand. <sup>2:1</sup>But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness. <sup>2:2</sup>For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me? <sup>2:3</sup>And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. <sup>2:4</sup>For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you. <sup>2:5</sup>But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all. <sup>2:6</sup>Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many. <sup>2:7</sup>So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. <sup>2:8</sup>Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. <sup>2:9</sup>For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things. <sup>2:10</sup>To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ; <sup>2:11</sup>lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices. <sup>2:12</sup>Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, <sup>2:13</sup>I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia. <sup>2:14</sup>Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place. <sup>2:15</sup>For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish: <sup>2:16</sup>to the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? <sup>2:17</sup>For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. <sup>3:1</sup>Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you? <sup>3:2</sup>Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: <sup>3:3</sup>forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of

Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart. <sup>3:4</sup>And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward: <sup>3:5</sup>not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; <sup>3:6</sup>who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. <sup>3:7</sup>But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away: <sup>3:8</sup>how shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious? <sup>3:9</sup>For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. <sup>3:10</sup>For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth. <sup>3:11</sup>For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious. <sup>3:12</sup>Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech: <sup>3:13</sup>and not as Moses, which put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished: <sup>3:14</sup>but their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ. <sup>3:15</sup>But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart. <sup>3:16</sup>Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away. <sup>3:17</sup>Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. <sup>3:18</sup>But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. <sup>4:1</sup>Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; <sup>4:2</sup>but have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>4:3</sup>But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: <sup>4:4</sup>in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. <sup>4:5</sup>For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. <sup>4:6</sup>For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. <sup>4:7</sup>But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. <sup>4:8</sup>We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; <sup>4:9</sup>persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; <sup>4:10</sup>always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. <sup>4:11</sup>For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. <sup>4:12</sup>So then death worketh in us, but life in you. <sup>4:13</sup>We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; <sup>4:14</sup>knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up

us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. <sup>4:15</sup>For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God. <sup>4:16</sup>For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. <sup>4:17</sup>For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; <sup>4:18</sup>while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. <sup>5:1</sup>For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. <sup>5:2</sup>For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: <sup>5:3</sup>if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. <sup>5:4</sup>For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. <sup>5:5</sup>Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. <sup>5:6</sup>Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: <sup>5:7</sup>(for we walk by faith, not by sight:) <sup>5:8</sup>we are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. <sup>5:9</sup>Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. <sup>5:10</sup>For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. <sup>5:11</sup>Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. <sup>5:12</sup>For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart. <sup>5:13</sup>For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause. <sup>5:14</sup>For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: <sup>5:15</sup>and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. <sup>5:16</sup>Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. <sup>5:17</sup>Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. <sup>5:18</sup>And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; <sup>5:19</sup>to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. <sup>5:20</sup>Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. <sup>5:21</sup>For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. <sup>6:1</sup>We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. <sup>6:2</sup>(For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) <sup>6:3</sup>giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed: <sup>6:4</sup>but in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, <sup>6:5</sup>in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; <sup>6:6</sup>by pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, <sup>6:7</sup>by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, <sup>6:8</sup>by honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true; <sup>6:9</sup>as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; <sup>6:10</sup>as sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things. <sup>6:11</sup>O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged. <sup>6:12</sup>Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels. <sup>6:13</sup>Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged. <sup>6:14</sup>Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? <sup>6:15</sup>And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? <sup>6:16</sup>And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. <sup>6:17</sup>Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, <sup>6:18</sup>and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. <sup>7:1</sup>Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. <sup>7:2</sup>Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. <sup>7:3</sup>I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you. <sup>7:4</sup>Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation. <sup>7:5</sup>For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. <sup>7:6</sup>Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus; <sup>7:7</sup>and not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more. <sup>7:8</sup>For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season. <sup>7:9</sup>Now I rejoyce, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing. <sup>7:10</sup>For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. <sup>7:11</sup>For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter. <sup>7:12</sup>Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you. <sup>7:13</sup>Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all. <sup>7:14</sup>For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth. <sup>7:15</sup>And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. <sup>7:16</sup>I rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

<sup>8:1</sup>Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; <sup>8:2</sup>how that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. <sup>8:3</sup>For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves; <sup>8:4</sup>praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. <sup>8:5</sup>And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God. <sup>8:6</sup>Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. <sup>8:7</sup>Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also. <sup>8:8</sup>I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

<sup>8:9</sup>For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. <sup>8:10</sup>And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago. <sup>8:11</sup>Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have. <sup>8:12</sup>For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. <sup>8:13</sup>For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened: <sup>8:14</sup>but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: <sup>8:15</sup>as it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack. <sup>8:16</sup>But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you. <sup>8:17</sup>For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you. <sup>8:18</sup>And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches; <sup>8:19</sup>and not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind: <sup>8:20</sup>avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us: <sup>8:21</sup>providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. <sup>8:22</sup>And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you. <sup>8:23</sup>Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

<sup>8:24</sup>Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf. <sup>9:1</sup>For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you: <sup>9:2</sup>for I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many. <sup>9:3</sup>Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready: <sup>9:4</sup>lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. <sup>9:5</sup>Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness. <sup>9:6</sup>But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. <sup>9:7</sup>Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. <sup>9:8</sup>And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: <sup>9:9</sup>(as it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever. <sup>9:10</sup>Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) <sup>9:11</sup>being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. <sup>9:12</sup>For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God; <sup>9:13</sup>whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men; <sup>9:14</sup>and by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you. <sup>9:15</sup>Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift. <sup>10:1</sup>Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you: <sup>10:2</sup>but I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. <sup>10:3</sup>For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: <sup>10:4</sup>(for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) <sup>10:5</sup>casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; <sup>10:6</sup>and having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. <sup>10:7</sup>Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we

Christ's. <sup>10:8</sup>For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: <sup>10:9</sup>that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters. <sup>10:10</sup>For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. <sup>10:11</sup>Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present. <sup>10:12</sup>For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. <sup>10:13</sup>But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you. <sup>10:14</sup>For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ: <sup>10:15</sup>not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, <sup>10:16</sup>to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand. <sup>10:17</sup>But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. <sup>10:18</sup>For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth. <sup>11:1</sup>Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. <sup>11:2</sup>For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. <sup>11:3</sup>But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. <sup>11:4</sup>For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. <sup>11:5</sup>For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. <sup>11:6</sup>But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things. <sup>11:7</sup>Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely? <sup>11:8</sup>I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service. <sup>11:9</sup>And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. <sup>11:10</sup>As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11:11</sup>Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth. <sup>11:12</sup>But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. <sup>11:13</sup>For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. <sup>11:14</sup>And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. <sup>11:15</sup>Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. <sup>11:16</sup>I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little. <sup>11:17</sup>That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. <sup>11:18</sup>Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also. <sup>11:19</sup>For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise. <sup>11:20</sup>For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face. <sup>11:21</sup>I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also. <sup>11:22</sup>Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. <sup>11:23</sup>Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. <sup>11:24</sup>Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. <sup>11:25</sup>Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; <sup>11:26</sup>in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; <sup>11:27</sup>in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. <sup>11:28</sup>Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. <sup>11:29</sup>Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not? <sup>11:30</sup>If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. <sup>11:31</sup>The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. <sup>11:32</sup>In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me: <sup>11:33</sup>and through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands. <sup>12:1</sup>It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. <sup>12:2</sup>I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven. <sup>12:3</sup>And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) <sup>12:4</sup>how that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. <sup>12:5</sup>Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities. <sup>12:6</sup>For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me. <sup>12:7</sup>And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. <sup>12:8</sup>For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. <sup>12:9</sup>And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. <sup>12:10</sup>Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong. <sup>12:11</sup>I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing. <sup>12:12</sup>Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. <sup>12:13</sup>For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong. <sup>12:14</sup>Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>12:15</sup>And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. <sup>12:16</sup>But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile. <sup>12:17</sup>Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you? <sup>12:18</sup>I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps? <sup>12:19</sup>Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying. <sup>12:20</sup>For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults: <sup>12:21</sup>and lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed. <sup>13:1</sup>This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established. <sup>13:2</sup>I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare: <sup>13:3</sup>since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you. <sup>13:4</sup>For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you. <sup>13:5</sup>Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? <sup>13:6</sup>But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates. <sup>13:7</sup>Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates. <sup>13:8</sup>For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. <sup>13:9</sup>For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection. <sup>13:10</sup>Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction. <sup>13:11</sup>Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. <sup>13:12</sup>Greet one another with an holy kiss. <sup>13:13</sup>All the saints salute you. <sup>13:14</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

¶The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

Galatians

The epistle of Paul the apostle to the Galatians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;) <sup>1:2</sup>and all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: <sup>1:3</sup>Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>1:4</sup>who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: <sup>1:5</sup>to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. <sup>1:6</sup>I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: <sup>1:7</sup>which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. <sup>1:8</sup>But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. <sup>1:9</sup>As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. <sup>1:10</sup>For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. <sup>1:11</sup>But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. <sup>1:12</sup>For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>1:13</sup>For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: <sup>1:14</sup>and profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. <sup>1:15</sup>But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, <sup>1:16</sup>to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: <sup>1:17</sup>neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus. <sup>1:18</sup>Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days. <sup>1:19</sup>But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother. <sup>1:20</sup>Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not. <sup>1:21</sup>Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; <sup>1:22</sup>and was unknown by face unto the churches of Judæa which were in Christ: <sup>1:23</sup>but they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed. <sup>1:24</sup>And they glorified God in me. <sup>2:1</sup>Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. <sup>2:2</sup>And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. <sup>2:3</sup>But neither Titus, who was with me, being a

Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: <sup>2:4</sup>and that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: <sup>2:5</sup>to whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. <sup>2:6</sup>But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me: <sup>2:7</sup>but contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; <sup>2:8</sup>(for he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:) <sup>2:9</sup>and when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision. <sup>2:10</sup>Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do. <sup>2:11</sup>But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. <sup>2:12</sup>For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision. <sup>2:13</sup>And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation. <sup>2:14</sup>But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? <sup>2:15</sup>We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, <sup>2:16</sup>knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. <sup>2:17</sup>But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid. <sup>2:18</sup>For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. <sup>2:19</sup>For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. <sup>2:20</sup>I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. <sup>2:21</sup>I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. <sup>3:1</sup>O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? <sup>3:2</sup>This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? <sup>3:3</sup>Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? <sup>3:4</sup>Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain. <sup>3:5</sup>He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? <sup>3:6</sup>Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. <sup>3:7</sup>Know ye therefore that they

which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. <sup>3:8</sup>And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. <sup>3:9</sup>So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. <sup>3:10</sup>For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. <sup>3:11</sup>But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. <sup>3:12</sup>And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. <sup>3:13</sup>Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: <sup>3:14</sup>that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. <sup>3:15</sup>Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. <sup>3:16</sup>Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. <sup>3:17</sup>And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. <sup>3:18</sup>For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. <sup>3:19</sup>Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. <sup>3:20</sup>Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. <sup>3:21</sup>Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. <sup>3:22</sup>But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. <sup>3:23</sup>But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. <sup>3:24</sup>Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. <sup>3:25</sup>But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. <sup>3:26</sup>For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>3:27</sup>For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. <sup>3:28</sup>There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. <sup>3:29</sup>And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. <sup>4:1</sup>Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; <sup>4:2</sup>but is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. <sup>4:3</sup>Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: <sup>4:4</sup>but when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, <sup>4:5</sup>to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. <sup>4:6</sup>And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. <sup>4:7</sup>Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. <sup>4:8</sup>Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods. <sup>4:9</sup>But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? <sup>4:10</sup>Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. <sup>4:11</sup>I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain. <sup>4:12</sup>Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all. <sup>4:13</sup>Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. <sup>4:14</sup>And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. <sup>4:15</sup>Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me. <sup>4:16</sup>Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? <sup>4:17</sup>They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them. <sup>4:18</sup>But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you. <sup>4:19</sup>My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, <sup>4:20</sup>I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you. <sup>4:21</sup>Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? <sup>4:22</sup>For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. <sup>4:23</sup>But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. <sup>4:24</sup>Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. <sup>4:25</sup>For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. <sup>4:26</sup>But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. <sup>4:27</sup>For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband. <sup>4:28</sup>Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. <sup>4:29</sup>But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. <sup>4:30</sup>Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. <sup>4:31</sup>So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free. <sup>5:1</sup>Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. <sup>5:2</sup>Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. <sup>5:3</sup>For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. <sup>5:4</sup>Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. <sup>5:5</sup>For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. <sup>5:6</sup>For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. <sup>5:7</sup>Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? <sup>5:8</sup>This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you. <sup>5:9</sup>A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. <sup>5:10</sup>I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. <sup>5:11</sup>And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased. <sup>5:12</sup>I would they were even cut off which trouble you. <sup>5:13</sup>For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. <sup>5:14</sup>For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. <sup>5:15</sup>But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another. <sup>5:16</sup>This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. <sup>5:17</sup>For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. <sup>5:18</sup>But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. <sup>5:19</sup>Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, <sup>5:20</sup>idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, <sup>5:21</sup>envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>5:22</sup>But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, <sup>5:23</sup>meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. <sup>5:24</sup>And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. <sup>5:25</sup>If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. <sup>5:26</sup>Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another. <sup>6:1</sup>Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. <sup>6:2</sup>Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. <sup>6:3</sup>For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. <sup>6:4</sup>But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. <sup>6:5</sup>For every man shall bear his own burden. <sup>6:6</sup>Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. <sup>6:7</sup>Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. <sup>6:8</sup>For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. <sup>6:9</sup>And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. <sup>6:10</sup>As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. <sup>6:11</sup>Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand. <sup>6:12</sup>As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. <sup>6:13</sup>For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. <sup>6:14</sup>But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. <sup>6:15</sup>For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. <sup>6:16</sup>And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. <sup>6:17</sup>From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6:18</sup>Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

The epistle of Paul the apostle to the Ephesians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: <sup>1:4</sup>according as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: <sup>1:5</sup>having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, <sup>1:6</sup>to the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. <sup>1:7</sup>In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; <sup>1:8</sup>wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; <sup>1:9</sup>having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: <sup>1:10</sup>that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: <sup>1:11</sup>in whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: <sup>1:12</sup>that we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. <sup>1:13</sup>In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, <sup>1:14</sup>which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. <sup>1:15</sup>Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, <sup>1:16</sup>cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; <sup>1:17</sup>that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: <sup>1:18</sup>the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, <sup>1:19</sup>and what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, <sup>1:20</sup>which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>1:21</sup>far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: <sup>1:22</sup>and hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

<sup>1:23</sup>which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. <sup>2:1</sup>And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; <sup>2:2</sup>wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: <sup>2:3</sup>among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. <sup>2:4</sup>But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, <sup>2:5</sup>even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) <sup>2:6</sup>and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: <sup>2:7</sup>that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. <sup>2:8</sup>For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: <sup>2:9</sup>not of works, lest any man should boast. <sup>2:10</sup>For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. <sup>2:11</sup>Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; <sup>2:12</sup>that at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: <sup>2:13</sup>but now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. <sup>2:14</sup>For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; <sup>2:15</sup>having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; <sup>2:16</sup>and that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: <sup>2:17</sup>and came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. <sup>2:18</sup>For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. <sup>2:19</sup>Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; <sup>2:20</sup>and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; <sup>2:21</sup>in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: <sup>2:22</sup>in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. <sup>3:1</sup>For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, <sup>3:2</sup>if ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward: <sup>3:3</sup>how that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, <sup>3:4</sup>whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) <sup>3:5</sup>which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; <sup>3:6</sup>that the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel: <sup>3:7</sup>whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. <sup>3:8</sup>Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; <sup>3:9</sup>and to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: <sup>3:10</sup>to the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, <sup>3:11</sup>according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: <sup>3:12</sup>in whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. <sup>3:13</sup>Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. <sup>3:14</sup>For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>3:15</sup>of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, <sup>3:16</sup>that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; <sup>3:17</sup>that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, <sup>3:18</sup>may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; <sup>3:19</sup>and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. <sup>3:20</sup>Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, <sup>3:21</sup>unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen. <sup>4:1</sup>I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, <sup>4:2</sup>with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; <sup>4:3</sup>endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. <sup>4:4</sup>There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; <sup>4:5</sup>one Lord, one faith, one baptism, <sup>4:6</sup>one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. <sup>4:7</sup>But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. <sup>4:8</sup>Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. <sup>4:9</sup>(Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? <sup>4:10</sup>He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) <sup>4:11</sup>And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; <sup>4:12</sup>for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: <sup>4:13</sup>till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: <sup>4:14</sup>that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; <sup>4:15</sup>but speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: <sup>4:16</sup>from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. <sup>4:17</sup>This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, <sup>4:18</sup>having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: <sup>4:19</sup>who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. <sup>4:20</sup>But ye have not so learned Christ; <sup>4:21</sup>if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: <sup>4:22</sup>that ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; <sup>4:23</sup>and be renewed in the spirit of your mind; <sup>4:24</sup>and that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. <sup>4:25</sup>Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. <sup>4:26</sup>Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: <sup>4:27</sup>neither give place to the devil. <sup>4:28</sup>Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. <sup>4:29</sup>Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. <sup>4:30</sup>And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. <sup>4:31</sup>Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: <sup>4:32</sup>and be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. <sup>5:1</sup>Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; <sup>5:2</sup>and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. <sup>5:3</sup>But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; <sup>5:4</sup>neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. <sup>5:5</sup>For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. <sup>5:6</sup>Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. <sup>5:7</sup>Be not ye therefore partakers with them. <sup>5:8</sup>For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: <sup>5:9</sup>(for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) <sup>5:10</sup>proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. <sup>5:11</sup>And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. <sup>5:12</sup>For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. <sup>5:13</sup>But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. <sup>5:14</sup>Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. <sup>5:15</sup>See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, <sup>5:16</sup>redeeming the time, because the days are evil. <sup>5:17</sup>Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. <sup>5:18</sup>And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; <sup>5:19</sup>speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; <sup>5:20</sup>giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>5:21</sup>submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. <sup>5:22</sup>Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. <sup>5:23</sup>For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. <sup>5:24</sup>Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. <sup>5:25</sup>Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; <sup>5:26</sup>that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, <sup>5:27</sup>that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. <sup>5:28</sup>So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. <sup>5:29</sup>For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: <sup>5:30</sup>for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. <sup>5:31</sup>For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. <sup>5:32</sup>This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. <sup>5:33</sup>Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband. <sup>6:1</sup>Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. <sup>6:2</sup>Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;) <sup>6:3</sup>that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. <sup>6:4</sup>And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. <sup>6:5</sup>Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; <sup>6:6</sup>not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; <sup>6:7</sup>with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: <sup>6:8</sup>knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. <sup>6:9</sup>And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him. <sup>6:10</sup>Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. <sup>6:11</sup>Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. <sup>6:12</sup>For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. <sup>6:13</sup>Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. <sup>6:14</sup>Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; <sup>6:15</sup>and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; <sup>6:16</sup>above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. <sup>6:17</sup>And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: <sup>6:18</sup>praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; <sup>6:19</sup>and for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, <sup>6:20</sup>for which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak. <sup>6:21</sup>But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things: <sup>6:22</sup>whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts. <sup>6:23</sup>Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>6:24</sup>Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

The epistle of Paul the apostle to the Philippians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:3</sup>I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, <sup>1:4</sup>always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, <sup>1:5</sup>for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; <sup>1:6</sup>being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: <sup>1:7</sup>even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace. <sup>1:8</sup>For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. <sup>1:9</sup>And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; <sup>1:10</sup>that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; <sup>1:11</sup>being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. <sup>1:12</sup>But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel; <sup>1:13</sup>so that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places; <sup>1:14</sup>and many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. <sup>1:15</sup>Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: <sup>1:16</sup>the one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds: <sup>1:17</sup>but the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel. <sup>1:18</sup>What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. <sup>1:19</sup>For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, <sup>1:20</sup>according to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. <sup>1:21</sup>For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. <sup>1:22</sup>But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. <sup>1:23</sup>For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: <sup>1:24</sup>nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. <sup>1:25</sup>And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; <sup>1:26</sup>that your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. <sup>1:27</sup>Only let your conversation be as it cometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; <sup>1:28</sup>and in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. <sup>1:29</sup>For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; <sup>1:30</sup>having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me. <sup>2:1</sup>If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, <sup>2:2</sup>fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. <sup>2:3</sup>Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. <sup>2:4</sup>Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. <sup>2:5</sup>Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: <sup>2:6</sup>who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: <sup>2:7</sup>but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: <sup>2:8</sup>and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. <sup>2:9</sup>Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: <sup>2:10</sup>that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; <sup>2:11</sup>and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. <sup>2:12</sup>Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. <sup>2:13</sup>For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. <sup>2:14</sup>Do all things without murmurings and disputings: <sup>2:15</sup>that ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world; <sup>2:16</sup>holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain. <sup>2:17</sup>Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. <sup>2:18</sup>For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me. <sup>2:19</sup>But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. <sup>2:20</sup>For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state. <sup>2:21</sup>For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. <sup>2:22</sup>But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel. <sup>2:23</sup>Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me. <sup>2:24</sup>But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. <sup>2:25</sup>Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants. <sup>2:26</sup>For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick. <sup>2:27</sup>For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>2:28</sup>I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoyce, and that I may be the less sorrowful. <sup>2:29</sup>Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation: <sup>2:30</sup>because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me. <sup>3:1</sup>Finally, my brethren, rejoyce in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe. <sup>3:2</sup>Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision. <sup>3:3</sup>For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoyce in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. <sup>3:4</sup>Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more: <sup>3:5</sup>circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee; <sup>3:6</sup>concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. <sup>3:7</sup>But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. <sup>3:8</sup>Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, <sup>3:9</sup>and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: <sup>3:10</sup>that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; <sup>3:11</sup>if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. <sup>3:12</sup>Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus. <sup>3:13</sup>Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, <sup>3:14</sup>I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. <sup>3:15</sup>Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. <sup>3:16</sup>Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing. <sup>3:17</sup>Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. <sup>3:18</sup>(For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: <sup>3:19</sup>whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) <sup>3:20</sup>For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>3:21</sup>who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. <sup>4:1</sup>Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. <sup>4:2</sup>I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. <sup>4:3</sup>And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life. <sup>4:4</sup>Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. <sup>4:5</sup>Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. <sup>4:6</sup>Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. <sup>4:7</sup>And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. <sup>4:8</sup>Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. <sup>4:9</sup>Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you. <sup>4:10</sup>But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. <sup>4:11</sup>Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. <sup>4:12</sup>I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. <sup>4:13</sup>I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. <sup>4:14</sup>Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction. <sup>4:15</sup>Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only. <sup>4:16</sup>For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity. <sup>4:17</sup>Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account. <sup>4:18</sup>But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God. <sup>4:19</sup>But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. <sup>4:20</sup>Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen. <sup>4:21</sup>Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you. <sup>4:22</sup>All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cæsar's household. <sup>4:23</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

¶It was written to the Philippians from Rome by Epaphroditus.

Colossians

The epistle of Paul the apostle to the Colossians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother, <sup>1:2</sup>To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:3</sup>We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, <sup>1:4</sup>since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints, <sup>1:5</sup>for the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel; <sup>1:6</sup>which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth: <sup>1:7</sup>as ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ; <sup>1:8</sup>who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit. <sup>1:9</sup>For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; <sup>1:10</sup>that ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; <sup>1:11</sup>strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness; <sup>1:12</sup>giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: <sup>1:13</sup>who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: <sup>1:14</sup>in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: <sup>1:15</sup>who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: <sup>1:16</sup>for by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: <sup>1:17</sup>and he is before all things, and by him all things consist. <sup>1:18</sup>And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. <sup>1:19</sup>For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell; <sup>1:20</sup>and, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. <sup>1:21</sup>And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled <sup>1:22</sup>in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight: <sup>1:23</sup>if ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister; <sup>1:24</sup>who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church: <sup>1:25</sup>whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God; <sup>1:26</sup>even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: <sup>1:27</sup>to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: <sup>1:28</sup>whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: <sup>1:29</sup>whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. <sup>2:1</sup>For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; <sup>2:2</sup>that their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the

acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; <sup>2:3</sup>in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. <sup>2:4</sup>And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words. <sup>2:5</sup>For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. <sup>2:6</sup>As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: <sup>2:7</sup>rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. <sup>2:8</sup>Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. <sup>2:9</sup>For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. <sup>2:10</sup>And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power: <sup>2:11</sup>in whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: <sup>2:12</sup>buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. <sup>2:13</sup>And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; <sup>2:14</sup>blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; <sup>2:15</sup>and having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. <sup>2:16</sup>Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: <sup>2:17</sup>which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. <sup>2:18</sup>Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, <sup>2:19</sup>and not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God. <sup>2:20</sup>Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, <sup>2:21</sup>(touch not; taste not; handle not; <sup>2:22</sup>which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men? <sup>2:23</sup>Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh. <sup>3:1</sup>If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. <sup>3:2</sup>Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. <sup>3:3</sup>For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. <sup>3:4</sup>When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. <sup>3:5</sup>Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: <sup>3:6</sup>for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: <sup>3:7</sup>in the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them. <sup>3:8</sup>But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. <sup>3:9</sup>Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; <sup>3:10</sup>and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: <sup>3:11</sup>where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. <sup>3:12</sup>Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; <sup>3:13</sup>forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. <sup>3:14</sup>And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. <sup>3:15</sup>And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. <sup>3:16</sup>Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. <sup>3:17</sup>And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. <sup>3:18</sup>Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. <sup>3:19</sup>Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. <sup>3:20</sup>Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. <sup>3:21</sup>Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged. <sup>3:22</sup>Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God: <sup>3:23</sup>and whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; <sup>3:24</sup>knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. <sup>3:25</sup>But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons. <sup>4:1</sup>Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven. <sup>4:2</sup>Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving; <sup>4:3</sup>withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds: <sup>4:4</sup>that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. <sup>4:5</sup>Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time. <sup>4:6</sup>Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. <sup>4:7</sup>All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord: <sup>4:8</sup>whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts; <sup>4:9</sup>with Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here. <sup>4:10</sup>Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;) <sup>4:11</sup>and Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me. <sup>4:12</sup>Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. <sup>4:13</sup>For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis. <sup>4:14</sup>Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you. <sup>4:15</sup>Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house. <sup>4:16</sup>And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea. <sup>4:17</sup>And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. <sup>4:18</sup>The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Thessalonians

The first epistle of Paul the apostle to the Thessalonians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, Unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:2</sup>We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; <sup>1:3</sup>remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; <sup>1:4</sup>knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God. <sup>1:5</sup>For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake. <sup>1:6</sup>And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost: <sup>1:7</sup>so that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. <sup>1:8</sup>For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing. <sup>1:9</sup>For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; <sup>1:10</sup>and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come. <sup>2:1</sup>For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain: <sup>2:2</sup>but even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. <sup>2:3</sup>For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: <sup>2:4</sup>but as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. <sup>2:5</sup>For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness: <sup>2:6</sup>nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ. <sup>2:7</sup>But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children: <sup>2:8</sup>so being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us. <sup>2:9</sup>For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. <sup>2:10</sup>Ye are witnesses, and God also, how

holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe: <sup>2:11</sup>as ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, <sup>2:12</sup>that ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. <sup>2:13</sup>For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. <sup>2:14</sup>For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judæa are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: <sup>2:15</sup>who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: <sup>2:16</sup>forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. <sup>2:17</sup>But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire. <sup>2:18</sup>Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. <sup>2:19</sup>For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? <sup>2:20</sup>For ye are our glory and joy. <sup>3:1</sup>Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone; <sup>3:2</sup>and sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith: <sup>3:3</sup>that no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto. <sup>3:4</sup>For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know. <sup>3:5</sup>For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain. <sup>3:6</sup>But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you: <sup>3:7</sup>therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: <sup>3:8</sup>for now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. <sup>3:9</sup>For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; <sup>3:10</sup>night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith? <sup>3:11</sup>Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you. <sup>3:12</sup>And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: <sup>3:13</sup>to the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints. <sup>4:1</sup>Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. <sup>4:2</sup>For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. <sup>4:3</sup>For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: <sup>4:4</sup>that every one of you should know how to

possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; <sup>4:5</sup>not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God: <sup>4:6</sup>that no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. <sup>4:7</sup>For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. <sup>4:8</sup>He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit. <sup>4:9</sup>But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another. <sup>4:10</sup>And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more; <sup>4:11</sup>and that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you; <sup>4:12</sup>that ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing. <sup>4:13</sup>But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. <sup>4:14</sup>For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. <sup>4:15</sup>For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. <sup>4:16</sup>For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: <sup>4:17</sup>then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. <sup>4:18</sup>Wherefore comfort one another with these words. <sup>5:1</sup>But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. <sup>5:2</sup>For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. <sup>5:3</sup>For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. <sup>5:4</sup>But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. <sup>5:5</sup>Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. <sup>5:6</sup>Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober. <sup>5:7</sup>For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night. <sup>5:8</sup>But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation. <sup>5:9</sup>For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>5:10</sup>who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. <sup>5:11</sup>Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do. <sup>5:12</sup>And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; <sup>5:13</sup>and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves. <sup>5:14</sup>Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men. <sup>5:15</sup>See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. <sup>5:16</sup>Rejoice evermore. <sup>5:17</sup>Pray without ceasing. <sup>5:18</sup>In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. <sup>5:19</sup>Quench not the Spirit. <sup>5:20</sup>Despise not prophesyings. <sup>5:21</sup>Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. <sup>5:22</sup>Abstain from all appearance of evil. <sup>5:23</sup>And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>5:24</sup>Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. <sup>5:25</sup>Brethren, pray for us. <sup>5:26</sup>Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss. <sup>5:27</sup>I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren. <sup>5:28</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

2 Thessalonians

The second epistle of Paul the apostle to the Thessalonians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:3</sup>We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth; <sup>1:4</sup>so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure: <sup>1:5</sup>which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: <sup>1:6</sup>seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you; <sup>1:7</sup>and to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, <sup>1:8</sup>in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>1:9</sup>who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; <sup>1:10</sup>when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day. <sup>1:11</sup>Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power: <sup>1:12</sup>that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>2:1</sup>Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, <sup>2:2</sup>that ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. <sup>2:3</sup>Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; <sup>2:4</sup>who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. <sup>2:5</sup>Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? <sup>2:6</sup>And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. <sup>2:7</sup>For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. <sup>2:8</sup>And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: <sup>2:9</sup>even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, <sup>2:10</sup>and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. <sup>2:11</sup>And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: <sup>2:12</sup>that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. <sup>2:13</sup>But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: <sup>2:14</sup>whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>2:15</sup>Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. <sup>2:16</sup>Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, <sup>2:17</sup>comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work. <sup>3:1</sup>Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: <sup>3:2</sup>and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith. <sup>3:3</sup>But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil. <sup>3:4</sup>And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you. <sup>3:5</sup>And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ. <sup>3:6</sup>Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. <sup>3:7</sup>For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; <sup>3:8</sup>neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: <sup>3:9</sup>not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. <sup>3:10</sup>For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. <sup>3:11</sup>For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. <sup>3:12</sup>Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. <sup>3:13</sup>But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing. <sup>3:14</sup>And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. <sup>3:15</sup>Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. <sup>3:16</sup>Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all. <sup>3:17</sup>The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write. <sup>3:18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 Timothy

The first epistle of Paul the apostle to Timothy

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope; <sup>1:2</sup>Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord. <sup>1:3</sup>As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, <sup>1:4</sup>neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do. <sup>1:5</sup>Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: <sup>1:6</sup>from which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; <sup>1:7</sup>desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm. <sup>1:8</sup>But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully; <sup>1:9</sup>knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, <sup>1:10</sup>for whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; <sup>1:11</sup>according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. <sup>1:12</sup>And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; <sup>1:13</sup>who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. <sup>1:14</sup>And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>1:15</sup>This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. <sup>1:16</sup>Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. <sup>1:17</sup>Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. <sup>1:18</sup>This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare; <sup>1:19</sup>holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: <sup>1:20</sup>of whom is Hymenæus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme. <sup>2:1</sup>I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; <sup>2:2</sup>for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. <sup>2:3</sup>For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; <sup>2:4</sup>who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. <sup>2:5</sup>For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; <sup>2:6</sup>who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. <sup>2:7</sup>Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity. <sup>2:8</sup>I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. <sup>2:9</sup>In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; <sup>2:10</sup>but (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works. <sup>2:11</sup>Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. <sup>2:12</sup>But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. <sup>2:13</sup>For Adam was first formed, then Eve. <sup>2:14</sup>And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. <sup>2:15</sup>Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety. <sup>3:1</sup>This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. <sup>3:2</sup>A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; <sup>3:3</sup>not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; <sup>3:4</sup>one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; <sup>3:5</sup>(for if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) <sup>3:6</sup>not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. <sup>3:7</sup>Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. <sup>3:8</sup>Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; <sup>3:9</sup>holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. <sup>3:10</sup>And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless. <sup>3:11</sup>Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. <sup>3:12</sup>Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. <sup>3:13</sup>For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>3:14</sup>These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: <sup>3:15</sup>but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. <sup>3:16</sup>And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. <sup>4:1</sup>Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; <sup>4:2</sup>speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; <sup>4:3</sup>forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. <sup>4:4</sup>For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: <sup>4:5</sup>for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. <sup>4:6</sup>If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. <sup>4:7</sup>But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness. <sup>4:8</sup>For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. <sup>4:9</sup>This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation. <sup>4:10</sup>For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. <sup>4:11</sup>These things command and teach. <sup>4:12</sup>Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. <sup>4:13</sup>Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. <sup>4:14</sup>Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. <sup>4:15</sup>Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. <sup>4:16</sup>Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. <sup>5:1</sup>Rebuke not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren; <sup>5:2</sup>the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity. <sup>5:3</sup>Honour widows that are widows indeed. <sup>5:4</sup>But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. <sup>5:5</sup>Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. <sup>5:6</sup>But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth. <sup>5:7</sup>And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless. <sup>5:8</sup>But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. <sup>5:9</sup>Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, <sup>5:10</sup>well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work. <sup>5:11</sup>But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry; <sup>5:12</sup>having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith. <sup>5:13</sup>And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. <sup>5:14</sup>I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. <sup>5:15</sup>For some are already turned aside after Satan. <sup>5:16</sup>If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed. <sup>5:17</sup>Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. <sup>5:18</sup>For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward. <sup>5:19</sup>Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses. <sup>5:20</sup>Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. <sup>5:21</sup>I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality. <sup>5:22</sup>Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. <sup>5:23</sup>Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. <sup>5:24</sup>Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after. <sup>5:25</sup>Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid. <sup>6:1</sup>Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. <sup>6:2</sup>And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort. <sup>6:3</sup>If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; <sup>6:4</sup>he is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, <sup>6:5</sup>perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. <sup>6:6</sup>But godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>6:7</sup>For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. <sup>6:8</sup>And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. <sup>6:9</sup>But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. <sup>6:10</sup>For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. <sup>6:11</sup>But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. <sup>6:12</sup>Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. <sup>6:13</sup>I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession; <sup>6:14</sup>that thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>6:15</sup>which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; <sup>6:16</sup>who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen. <sup>6:17</sup>Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; <sup>6:18</sup>that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; <sup>6:19</sup>laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life. <sup>6:20</sup>O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: <sup>6:21</sup>which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

¶The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

2 Timothy

The second epistle of Paul the apostle to Timothy

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, <sup>1:2</sup>To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>1:3</sup>I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day; <sup>1:4</sup>greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy; <sup>1:5</sup>when I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also. <sup>1:6</sup>Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. <sup>1:7</sup>For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. <sup>1:8</sup>Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God; <sup>1:9</sup>who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, <sup>1:10</sup>but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: <sup>1:11</sup>whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. <sup>1:12</sup>For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. <sup>1:13</sup>Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>1:14</sup>That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us. <sup>1:15</sup>This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. <sup>1:16</sup>The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain: <sup>1:17</sup>but, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me. <sup>1:18</sup>The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well. <sup>2:1</sup>Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>2:2</sup>And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. <sup>2:3</sup>Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. <sup>2:4</sup>No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. <sup>2:5</sup>And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully. <sup>2:6</sup>The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits. <sup>2:7</sup>Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things. <sup>2:8</sup>Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel: <sup>2:9</sup>wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound. <sup>2:10</sup>Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. <sup>2:11</sup>It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: <sup>2:12</sup>if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: <sup>2:13</sup>if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. <sup>2:14</sup>Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. <sup>2:15</sup>Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. <sup>2:16</sup>But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness. <sup>2:17</sup>And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenæus and Philetus; <sup>2:18</sup>who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some. <sup>2:19</sup>Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. <sup>2:20</sup>But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. <sup>2:21</sup>If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work. <sup>2:22</sup>Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. <sup>2:23</sup>But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. <sup>2:24</sup>And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, <sup>2:25</sup>in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; <sup>2:26</sup>and that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. <sup>3:1</sup>This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. <sup>3:2</sup>For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, <sup>3:3</sup>without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, <sup>3:4</sup>traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; <sup>3:5</sup>having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. <sup>3:6</sup>For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, <sup>3:7</sup>ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>3:8</sup>Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

<sup>3:9</sup>But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was. <sup>3:10</sup>But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, <sup>3:11</sup>persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. <sup>3:12</sup>Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. <sup>3:13</sup>But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived. <sup>3:14</sup>But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; <sup>3:15</sup>and that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>3:16</sup>All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: <sup>3:17</sup>that the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works. <sup>4:1</sup>I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; <sup>4:2</sup>preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. <sup>4:3</sup>For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; <sup>4:4</sup>and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. <sup>4:5</sup>But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. <sup>4:6</sup>For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. <sup>4:7</sup>I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: <sup>4:8</sup>henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. <sup>4:9</sup>Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me: <sup>4:10</sup>for Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia. <sup>4:11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry. <sup>4:12</sup>And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus. <sup>4:13</sup>The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments. <sup>4:14</sup>Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works: <sup>4:15</sup>of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words. <sup>4:16</sup>At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge. <sup>4:17</sup>Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. <sup>4:18</sup>And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. <sup>4:19</sup>Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. <sup>4:20</sup>Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick. <sup>4:21</sup>Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren. <sup>4:22</sup>The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶The second epistle unto Timotheus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before Nero the second time.

Titus

The epistle of Paul to Titus

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness; <sup>1:2</sup>in hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; <sup>1:3</sup>but hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour; <sup>1:4</sup>To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour. <sup>1:5</sup>For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee: <sup>1:6</sup>if any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly. <sup>1:7</sup>For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre; <sup>1:8</sup>but a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate; <sup>1:9</sup>holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. <sup>1:10</sup>For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: <sup>1:11</sup>whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. <sup>1:12</sup>One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. <sup>1:13</sup>This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; <sup>1:14</sup>not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. <sup>1:15</sup>Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. <sup>1:16</sup>They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate. <sup>2:1</sup>But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine: <sup>2:2</sup>that the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience. <sup>2:3</sup>The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things; <sup>2:4</sup>that they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, <sup>2:5</sup>to be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. <sup>2:6</sup>Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded. <sup>2:7</sup>In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, <sup>2:8</sup>sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you. <sup>2:9</sup>Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again; <sup>2:10</sup>not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. <sup>2:11</sup>For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, <sup>2:12</sup>teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; <sup>2:13</sup>looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; <sup>2:14</sup>who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. <sup>2:15</sup>These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee. <sup>3:1</sup>Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work, <sup>3:2</sup>to speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men. <sup>3:3</sup>For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. <sup>3:4</sup>But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, <sup>3:5</sup>not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; <sup>3:6</sup>which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; <sup>3:7</sup>that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. <sup>3:8</sup>This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men. <sup>3:9</sup>But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. <sup>3:10</sup>A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject; <sup>3:11</sup>knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself. <sup>3:12</sup>When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter. <sup>3:13</sup>Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them. <sup>3:14</sup>And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful. <sup>3:15</sup>All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

¶It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

Philemon

The epistle of Paul to Philemon

Archippus our fellowsoldier, and to the church in thy house: <sup>1:3</sup>Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:4</sup>I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers, <sup>1:5</sup>hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints; <sup>1:6</sup>that the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus. <sup>1:7</sup>For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother. <sup>1:8</sup>Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient, <sup>1:9</sup>yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. <sup>1:10</sup>I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds: <sup>1:11</sup>which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me: <sup>1:12</sup>whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels: <sup>1:13</sup>whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel: <sup>1:14</sup>but without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly. <sup>1:15</sup>For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever; <sup>1:16</sup>not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? <sup>1:17</sup>If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself. <sup>1:18</sup>If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account; <sup>1:19</sup>I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides. <sup>1:20</sup>Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord. <sup>1:21</sup>Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say. <sup>1:22</sup>But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you. <sup>1:23</sup>There salute thee Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus; <sup>1:24</sup>Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellowlabourers. <sup>1:25</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

The epistle of Paul the apostle to the Hebrews

<sup>1:1</sup>God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, <sup>1:2</sup>hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

<sup>1:3</sup>Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; <sup>1:4</sup>being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. <sup>1:5</sup>For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? <sup>1:6</sup>And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him. <sup>1:7</sup>And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. <sup>1:8</sup>But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. <sup>1:9</sup>Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. <sup>1:10</sup>And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands: <sup>1:11</sup>they shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; <sup>1:12</sup>and as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail. <sup>1:13</sup>But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? <sup>1:14</sup>Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? <sup>2:1</sup>Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. <sup>2:2</sup>For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward; <sup>2:3</sup>how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; <sup>2:4</sup>God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will? <sup>2:5</sup>For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak. <sup>2:6</sup>But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him? <sup>2:7</sup>Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands: <sup>2:8</sup>thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him. <sup>2:9</sup>But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. <sup>2:10</sup>For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. <sup>2:11</sup>For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, <sup>2:12</sup>saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee. <sup>2:13</sup>And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me. <sup>2:14</sup>Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; <sup>2:15</sup>and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. <sup>2:16</sup>For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

<sup>2:17</sup>Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. <sup>2:18</sup>For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

<sup>3:1</sup>Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; <sup>3:2</sup>who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. <sup>3:3</sup>For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house. <sup>3:4</sup>For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God. <sup>3:5</sup>And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after; <sup>3:6</sup>but Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

<sup>3:7</sup>Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice, <sup>3:8</sup>harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness: <sup>3:9</sup>when your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

<sup>3:10</sup>Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways. <sup>3:11</sup>So I swear in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.) <sup>3:12</sup>take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. <sup>3:13</sup>But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. <sup>3:14</sup>For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end; <sup>3:15</sup>while it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. <sup>3:16</sup>For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses. <sup>3:17</sup>But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? <sup>3:18</sup>And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? <sup>3:19</sup>So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. <sup>4:1</sup>Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. <sup>4:2</sup>For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. <sup>4:3</sup>For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. <sup>4:4</sup>For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

<sup>4:5</sup>And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest. <sup>4:6</sup>Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief: <sup>4:7</sup>again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in

David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. <sup>4:8</sup>For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day. <sup>4:9</sup>There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. <sup>4:10</sup>For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. <sup>4:11</sup>Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. <sup>4:12</sup>For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. <sup>4:13</sup>Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. <sup>4:14</sup>Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. <sup>4:15</sup>For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. <sup>4:16</sup>Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. <sup>5:1</sup>For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: <sup>5:2</sup>who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity. <sup>5:3</sup>And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. <sup>5:4</sup>And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. <sup>5:5</sup>So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. <sup>5:6</sup>As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. <sup>5:7</sup>Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared; <sup>5:8</sup>though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; <sup>5:9</sup>and being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him; <sup>5:10</sup>called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec. <sup>5:11</sup>Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing. <sup>5:12</sup>For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. <sup>5:13</sup>For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. <sup>5:14</sup>But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. <sup>6:1</sup>Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, <sup>6:2</sup>of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. <sup>6:3</sup>And this will we do, if God permit. <sup>6:4</sup>For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, <sup>6:5</sup>and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, <sup>6:6</sup>if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. <sup>6:7</sup>For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh off upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: <sup>6:8</sup>but that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned. <sup>6:9</sup>But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak. <sup>6:10</sup>For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. <sup>6:11</sup>And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end: <sup>6:12</sup>that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. <sup>6:13</sup>For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself, <sup>6:14</sup>saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. <sup>6:15</sup>And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. <sup>6:16</sup>For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. <sup>6:17</sup>Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: <sup>6:18</sup>that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: <sup>6:19</sup>which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; <sup>6:20</sup>whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. <sup>7:1</sup>For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him; <sup>7:2</sup>to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; <sup>7:3</sup>without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually. <sup>7:4</sup>Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. <sup>7:5</sup>And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham: <sup>7:6</sup>but he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises. <sup>7:7</sup>And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better. <sup>7:8</sup>And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. <sup>7:9</sup>And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham. <sup>7:10</sup>For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him. <sup>7:11</sup>If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron? <sup>7:12</sup>For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. <sup>7:13</sup>For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. <sup>7:14</sup>For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood. <sup>7:15</sup>And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, <sup>7:16</sup>who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. <sup>7:17</sup>For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. <sup>7:18</sup>For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. <sup>7:19</sup>For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. <sup>7:20</sup>And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest: <sup>7:21</sup>(for those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec;) <sup>7:22</sup>by so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. <sup>7:23</sup>And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: <sup>7:24</sup>but this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. <sup>7:25</sup>Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. <sup>7:26</sup>For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; <sup>7:27</sup>who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. <sup>7:28</sup>For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. <sup>8:1</sup>Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; <sup>8:2</sup>a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. <sup>8:3</sup>For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer. <sup>8:4</sup>For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law: <sup>8:5</sup>who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount. <sup>8:6</sup>But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. <sup>8:7</sup>For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second. <sup>8:8</sup>For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: <sup>8:9</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. <sup>8:10</sup>For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: <sup>8:11</sup>and they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. <sup>8:12</sup>For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more. <sup>8:13</sup>In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away. <sup>9:1</sup>Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. <sup>9:2</sup>For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary. <sup>9:3</sup>And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all; <sup>9:4</sup>which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; <sup>9:5</sup>and over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly. <sup>9:6</sup>Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. <sup>9:7</sup>But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: <sup>9:8</sup>the Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing: <sup>9:9</sup>which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; <sup>9:10</sup>which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. <sup>9:11</sup>But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; <sup>9:12</sup>neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. <sup>9:13</sup>For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: <sup>9:14</sup>how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? <sup>9:15</sup>And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. <sup>9:16</sup>For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. <sup>9:17</sup>For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth. <sup>9:18</sup>Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood. <sup>9:19</sup>For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, <sup>9:20</sup>saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you. <sup>9:21</sup>Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. <sup>9:22</sup>And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. <sup>9:23</sup>It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. <sup>9:24</sup>For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: <sup>9:25</sup>nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; <sup>9:26</sup>for then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. <sup>9:27</sup>And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: <sup>9:28</sup>so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. <sup>10:1</sup>For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. <sup>10:2</sup>For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins. <sup>10:3</sup>But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. <sup>10:4</sup>For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. <sup>10:5</sup>Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me: <sup>10:6</sup>in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. <sup>10:7</sup>Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God. <sup>10:8</sup>Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; <sup>10:9</sup>then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. <sup>10:10</sup>By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. <sup>10:11</sup>And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: <sup>10:12</sup>but this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; <sup>10:13</sup>from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. <sup>10:14</sup>For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. <sup>10:15</sup>Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before, <sup>10:16</sup>This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; <sup>10:17</sup>and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. <sup>10:18</sup>Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. <sup>10:19</sup>Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, <sup>10:20</sup>by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; <sup>10:21</sup>and having an high priest over the house of God; <sup>10:22</sup>let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. <sup>10:23</sup>Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) <sup>10:24</sup>and let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: <sup>10:25</sup>not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. <sup>10:26</sup>For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, <sup>10:27</sup>but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. <sup>10:28</sup>He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: <sup>10:29</sup>of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? <sup>10:30</sup>For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. <sup>10:31</sup>It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. <sup>10:32</sup>But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions; <sup>10:33</sup>partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used. <sup>10:34</sup>For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance. <sup>10:35</sup>Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward. <sup>10:36</sup>For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. <sup>10:37</sup>For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. <sup>10:38</sup>Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. <sup>10:39</sup>But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul. <sup>11:1</sup>Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. <sup>11:2</sup>For by it the elders obtained a good report. <sup>11:3</sup>Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. <sup>11:4</sup>By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh. <sup>11:5</sup>By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. <sup>11:6</sup>But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. <sup>11:7</sup>By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. <sup>11:8</sup>By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. <sup>11:9</sup>By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: <sup>11:10</sup>for he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. <sup>11:11</sup>Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she

judged him faithful who had promised. <sup>11:12</sup>Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable. <sup>11:13</sup>These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. <sup>11:14</sup>For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. <sup>11:15</sup>And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. <sup>11:16</sup>But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. <sup>11:17</sup>By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, <sup>11:18</sup>of whom it was said, that In Isaac shall thy seed be called: <sup>11:19</sup>accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure. <sup>11:20</sup>By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. <sup>11:21</sup>By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. <sup>11:22</sup>By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. <sup>11:23</sup>By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. <sup>11:24</sup>By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; <sup>11:25</sup>choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; <sup>11:26</sup>esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. <sup>11:27</sup>By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. <sup>11:28</sup>Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them. <sup>11:29</sup>By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned. <sup>11:30</sup>By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days. <sup>11:31</sup>By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace. <sup>11:32</sup>And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets: <sup>11:33</sup>who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, <sup>11:34</sup>quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. <sup>11:35</sup>Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: <sup>11:36</sup>and others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: <sup>11:37</sup>they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; <sup>11:38</sup>(of whom the world was not worthy:)

they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. <sup>11:39</sup>And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: <sup>11:40</sup>God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect. <sup>12:1</sup>Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, <sup>12:2</sup>looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>12:3</sup>For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. <sup>12:4</sup>Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. <sup>12:5</sup>And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: <sup>12:6</sup>for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. <sup>12:7</sup>If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? <sup>12:8</sup>But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. <sup>12:9</sup>Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? <sup>12:10</sup>For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. <sup>12:11</sup>Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. <sup>12:12</sup>Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; <sup>12:13</sup>and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed. <sup>12:14</sup>Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: <sup>12:15</sup>looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled; <sup>12:16</sup>lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright. <sup>12:17</sup>For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears. <sup>12:18</sup>For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, <sup>12:19</sup>and the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more: <sup>12:20</sup>(for they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart: <sup>12:21</sup>and so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:) <sup>12:22</sup>But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, <sup>12:23</sup>to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, <sup>12:24</sup>and to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. <sup>12:25</sup>See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven: <sup>12:26</sup>whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. <sup>12:27</sup>And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

<sup>12:28</sup>Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: <sup>12:29</sup>for our God is a consuming fire. <sup>13:1</sup>Let brotherly love continue. <sup>13:2</sup>Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

<sup>13:3</sup>Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body. <sup>13:4</sup>Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. <sup>13:5</sup>Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. <sup>13:6</sup>So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

<sup>13:7</sup>Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

<sup>13:8</sup>Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. <sup>13:9</sup>Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein. <sup>13:10</sup>We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. <sup>13:11</sup>For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. <sup>13:12</sup>Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. <sup>13:13</sup>Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. <sup>13:14</sup>For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come. <sup>13:15</sup>By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. <sup>13:16</sup>But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

<sup>13:17</sup>Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. <sup>13:18</sup>Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly. <sup>13:19</sup>But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner. <sup>13:20</sup>Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, <sup>13:21</sup>make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. <sup>13:22</sup>And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words. <sup>13:23</sup>Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you. <sup>13:24</sup>Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you. <sup>13:25</sup>Grace be with you all. Amen.

James

The general epistle of James

deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. <sup>1:27</sup>Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. <sup>2:1</sup>My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. <sup>2:2</sup>For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; <sup>2:3</sup>and ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool: <sup>2:4</sup>are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts? <sup>2:5</sup>Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? <sup>2:6</sup>But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats? <sup>2:7</sup>Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called? <sup>2:8</sup>If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: <sup>2:9</sup>but if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors. <sup>2:10</sup>For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. <sup>2:11</sup>For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. <sup>2:12</sup>So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty. <sup>2:13</sup>For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment. <sup>2:14</sup>What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him? <sup>2:15</sup>If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, <sup>2:16</sup>and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? <sup>2:17</sup>Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. <sup>2:18</sup>Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. <sup>2:19</sup>Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. <sup>2:20</sup>But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? <sup>2:21</sup>Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? <sup>2:22</sup>Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? <sup>2:23</sup>And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. <sup>2:24</sup>Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. <sup>2:25</sup>Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? <sup>2:26</sup>For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. <sup>3:1</sup>My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. <sup>3:2</sup>For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. <sup>3:3</sup>Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. <sup>3:4</sup>Behold also the ships, which though they

be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. <sup>3:5</sup>Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! <sup>3:6</sup>And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. <sup>3:7</sup>For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind: <sup>3:8</sup>but the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>3:9</sup>Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. <sup>3:10</sup>Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. <sup>3:11</sup>Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter? <sup>3:12</sup>Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh. <sup>3:13</sup>Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom. <sup>3:14</sup>But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. <sup>3:15</sup>This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. <sup>3:16</sup>For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. <sup>3:17</sup>But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. <sup>3:18</sup>And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace. <sup>4:1</sup>From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members? <sup>4:2</sup>Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. <sup>4:3</sup>Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. <sup>4:4</sup>Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. <sup>4:5</sup>Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy? <sup>4:6</sup>But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. <sup>4:7</sup>Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>4:8</sup>Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. <sup>4:9</sup>Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. <sup>4:10</sup>Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. <sup>4:11</sup>Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. <sup>4:12</sup>There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another? <sup>4:13</sup>Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain: <sup>4:14</sup>whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. <sup>4:15</sup>For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. <sup>4:16</sup>But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil. <sup>4:17</sup>Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin. <sup>5:1</sup>Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. <sup>5:2</sup>Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten. <sup>5:3</sup>Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. <sup>5:4</sup>Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. <sup>5:5</sup>Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. <sup>5:6</sup>Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you. <sup>5:7</sup>Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. <sup>5:8</sup>Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. <sup>5:9</sup>Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door. <sup>5:10</sup>Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. <sup>5:11</sup>Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. <sup>5:12</sup>But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation. <sup>5:13</sup>Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms. <sup>5:14</sup>Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: <sup>5:15</sup>and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. <sup>5:16</sup>Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. <sup>5:17</sup>Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. <sup>5:18</sup>And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. <sup>5:19</sup>Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; <sup>5:20</sup>let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

The first epistle general of Peter

foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. <sup>1:3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>1:4</sup>to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, <sup>1:5</sup>who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. <sup>1:6</sup>Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: <sup>1:7</sup>that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: <sup>1:8</sup>whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: <sup>1:9</sup>receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. <sup>1:10</sup>Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: <sup>1:11</sup>searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. <sup>1:12</sup>Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into. <sup>1:13</sup>Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; <sup>1:14</sup>as obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance: <sup>1:15</sup>but as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; <sup>1:16</sup>because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. <sup>1:17</sup>And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: <sup>1:18</sup>forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; <sup>1:19</sup>but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: <sup>1:20</sup>who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, <sup>1:21</sup>who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. <sup>1:22</sup>Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: <sup>1:23</sup>being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. <sup>1:24</sup>For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: <sup>1:25</sup>but the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you. <sup>2:1</sup>Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, <sup>2:2</sup>as newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

<sup>2:3</sup>if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. <sup>2:4</sup>To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, <sup>2:5</sup>ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. <sup>2:6</sup>Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. <sup>2:7</sup>Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, <sup>2:8</sup>and a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. <sup>2:9</sup>But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: <sup>2:10</sup>which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. <sup>2:11</sup>Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; <sup>2:12</sup>having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. <sup>2:13</sup>Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; <sup>2:14</sup>or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well. <sup>2:15</sup>For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: <sup>2:16</sup>as free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. <sup>2:17</sup>Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king. <sup>2:18</sup>Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. <sup>2:19</sup>For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. <sup>2:20</sup>For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. <sup>2:21</sup>For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: <sup>2:22</sup>who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: <sup>2:23</sup>who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: <sup>2:24</sup>who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. <sup>2:25</sup>For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. <sup>3:1</sup>Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; <sup>3:2</sup>while they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. <sup>3:3</sup>Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; <sup>3:4</sup>but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

<sup>3:5</sup>For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands: <sup>3:6</sup>even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement. <sup>3:7</sup>Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered. <sup>3:8</sup>Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous: <sup>3:9</sup>not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. <sup>3:10</sup>For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: <sup>3:11</sup>let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. <sup>3:12</sup>For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. <sup>3:13</sup>And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good? <sup>3:14</sup>But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; <sup>3:15</sup>but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: <sup>3:16</sup>having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. <sup>3:17</sup>For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. <sup>3:18</sup>For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit: <sup>3:19</sup>by which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison; <sup>3:20</sup>which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. <sup>3:21</sup>The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ: <sup>3:22</sup>who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

<sup>4:1</sup>Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; <sup>4:2</sup>that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. <sup>4:3</sup>For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: <sup>4:4</sup>wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: <sup>4:5</sup>who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead. <sup>4:6</sup>For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit. <sup>4:7</sup>But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. <sup>4:8</sup>And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. <sup>4:9</sup>Use hospitality one to another without grudging. <sup>4:10</sup>As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. <sup>4:11</sup>If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. <sup>4:12</sup>Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: <sup>4:13</sup>but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. <sup>4:14</sup>If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. <sup>4:15</sup>But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. <sup>4:16</sup>Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf. <sup>4:17</sup>For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? <sup>4:18</sup>And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? <sup>4:19</sup>Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator. <sup>5:1</sup>The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: <sup>5:2</sup>feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; <sup>5:3</sup>neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. <sup>5:4</sup>And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. <sup>5:5</sup>Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. <sup>5:6</sup>Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: <sup>5:7</sup>casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. <sup>5:8</sup>Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: <sup>5:9</sup>whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. <sup>5:10</sup>But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. <sup>5:11</sup>To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. <sup>5:12</sup>By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand. <sup>5:13</sup>The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my son. <sup>5:14</sup>Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Peter

The second epistle general of Peter

<sup>1:1</sup>Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, <sup>1:3</sup>according as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: <sup>1:4</sup>whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. <sup>1:5</sup>And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; <sup>1:6</sup>and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; <sup>1:7</sup>and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. <sup>1:8</sup>For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:9</sup>But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. <sup>1:10</sup>Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: <sup>1:11</sup>for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. <sup>1:12</sup>Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth. <sup>1:13</sup>Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; <sup>1:14</sup>knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me. <sup>1:15</sup>Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance. <sup>1:16</sup>For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. <sup>1:17</sup>For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. <sup>1:18</sup>And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount. <sup>1:19</sup>We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: <sup>1:20</sup>knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. <sup>1:21</sup>For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. <sup>2:1</sup>But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. <sup>2:2</sup>And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. <sup>2:3</sup>And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. <sup>2:4</sup>For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; <sup>2:5</sup>and spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; <sup>2:6</sup>and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly; <sup>2:7</sup>and delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: <sup>2:8</sup>(for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) <sup>2:9</sup>the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished: <sup>2:10</sup>but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. <sup>2:11</sup>Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord. <sup>2:12</sup>But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption; <sup>2:13</sup>and shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you; <sup>2:14</sup>having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: <sup>2:15</sup>which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; <sup>2:16</sup>but was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. <sup>2:17</sup>These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. <sup>2:18</sup>For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. <sup>2:19</sup>While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. <sup>2:20</sup>For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. <sup>2:21</sup>For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. <sup>2:22</sup>But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. <sup>3:1</sup>This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance: <sup>3:2</sup>that ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour: <sup>3:3</sup>knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, <sup>3:4</sup>and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. <sup>3:5</sup>For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water: <sup>3:6</sup>whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: <sup>3:7</sup>but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. <sup>3:8</sup>But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. <sup>3:9</sup>The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. <sup>3:10</sup>But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. <sup>3:11</sup>Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, <sup>3:12</sup>looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? <sup>3:13</sup>Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. <sup>3:14</sup>Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. <sup>3:15</sup>And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; <sup>3:16</sup>as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. <sup>3:17</sup>Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. <sup>3:18</sup>But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

1 John

The first epistle general of John

<sup>1:1</sup>That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; <sup>1:2</sup>(for the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;) <sup>1:3</sup>that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. <sup>1:4</sup>And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full. <sup>1:5</sup>This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. <sup>1:6</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: <sup>1:7</sup>but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. <sup>1:8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>1:9</sup>If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>1:10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. <sup>2:1</sup>My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: <sup>2:2</sup>and he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. <sup>2:3</sup>And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. <sup>2:4</sup>He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. <sup>2:5</sup>But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him. <sup>2:6</sup>He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. <sup>2:7</sup>Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning. <sup>2:8</sup>Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth. <sup>2:9</sup>He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. <sup>2:10</sup>He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. <sup>2:11</sup>But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes. <sup>2:12</sup>I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. <sup>2:13</sup>I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father. <sup>2:14</sup>I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one. <sup>2:15</sup>Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>2:16</sup>For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. <sup>2:17</sup>And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. <sup>2:18</sup>Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. <sup>2:19</sup>They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. <sup>2:20</sup>But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. <sup>2:21</sup>I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. <sup>2:22</sup>Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

<sup>2:23</sup>Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. <sup>2:24</sup>Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. <sup>2:25</sup>And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

<sup>2:26</sup>These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you. <sup>2:27</sup>But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. <sup>2:28</sup>And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. <sup>2:29</sup>If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

<sup>3:1</sup>Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. <sup>3:2</sup>Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. <sup>3:3</sup>And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. <sup>3:4</sup>Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. <sup>3:5</sup>And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. <sup>3:6</sup>Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

<sup>3:7</sup>Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. <sup>3:8</sup>He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. <sup>3:9</sup>Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. <sup>3:10</sup>In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. <sup>3:11</sup>For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. <sup>3:12</sup>Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. <sup>3:13</sup>Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. <sup>3:14</sup>We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

<sup>3:15</sup>Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. <sup>3:16</sup>Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

our hearts before him. <sup>3:20</sup>For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. <sup>3:21</sup>Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. <sup>3:22</sup>And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. <sup>3:23</sup>And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. <sup>3:24</sup>And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. <sup>4:1</sup>Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. <sup>4:2</sup>Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: <sup>4:3</sup>and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. <sup>4:4</sup>Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. <sup>4:5</sup>They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. <sup>4:6</sup>We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. <sup>4:7</sup>Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. <sup>4:8</sup>He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. <sup>4:9</sup>In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. <sup>4:10</sup>Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. <sup>4:11</sup>Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. <sup>4:12</sup>No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. <sup>4:13</sup>Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. <sup>4:14</sup>And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. <sup>4:15</sup>Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. <sup>4:16</sup>And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. <sup>4:17</sup>Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. <sup>4:18</sup>There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. <sup>4:19</sup>We love him, because he first loved us. <sup>4:20</sup>If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? <sup>4:21</sup>And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also. <sup>5:1</sup>Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. <sup>5:2</sup>By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. <sup>5:3</sup>For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. <sup>5:4</sup>For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. <sup>5:5</sup>Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? <sup>5:6</sup>This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. <sup>5:7</sup>For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. <sup>5:8</sup>And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. <sup>5:9</sup>If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son. <sup>5:10</sup>He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. <sup>5:11</sup>And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>5:12</sup>He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. <sup>5:13</sup>These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. <sup>5:14</sup>And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: <sup>5:15</sup>and if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him. <sup>5:16</sup>If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. <sup>5:17</sup>All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death. <sup>5:18</sup>We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. <sup>5:19</sup>And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. <sup>5:20</sup>And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. <sup>5:21</sup>Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

2 John

The second epistle of John

ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it. <sup>17</sup>For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. <sup>18</sup>Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. <sup>19</sup>Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. <sup>110</sup>If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: <sup>111</sup>for he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. <sup>112</sup>Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full. <sup>113</sup>The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

3 John

The third epistle of John

<sup>12</sup>Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. <sup>13</sup>For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth. <sup>14</sup>I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth. <sup>15</sup>Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers; <sup>16</sup>which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well: <sup>17</sup>because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles. <sup>18</sup>We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth. <sup>19</sup>I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. <sup>110</sup>Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church. <sup>111</sup>Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God. <sup>112</sup>Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true. <sup>113</sup>I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee: <sup>114</sup>but I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

The general epistle of Jude

<sup>1:1</sup>Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: <sup>1:2</sup>Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied. <sup>1:3</sup>Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. <sup>1:4</sup>For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>1:5</sup>I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. <sup>1:6</sup>And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. <sup>1:7</sup>Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. <sup>1:8</sup>Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. <sup>1:9</sup>Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. <sup>1:10</sup>But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. <sup>1:11</sup>Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. <sup>1:12</sup>These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; <sup>1:13</sup>raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. <sup>1:14</sup>And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, <sup>1:15</sup>to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. <sup>1:16</sup>These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage. <sup>1:17</sup>But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>1:18</sup>how that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. <sup>1:19</sup>These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. <sup>1:20</sup>But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, <sup>1:21</sup>keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. <sup>1:22</sup>And of some have compassion, making a difference: <sup>1:23</sup>and others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. <sup>1:24</sup>Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, <sup>1:25</sup>to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

Prophecy

Revelation

The revelation of Saint John the divine

<sup>1:1</sup>The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John: <sup>1:2</sup>who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. <sup>1:3</sup>Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. <sup>1:4</sup>John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; <sup>1:5</sup>and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, <sup>1:6</sup>and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. <sup>1:7</sup>Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. <sup>1:8</sup>I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. <sup>1:9</sup>I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. <sup>1:10</sup>I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, <sup>1:11</sup>saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. <sup>1:12</sup>And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; <sup>1:13</sup>and in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. <sup>1:14</sup>His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; <sup>1:15</sup>and his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. <sup>1:16</sup>And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. <sup>1:17</sup>And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last: <sup>1:18</sup>I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death. <sup>1:19</sup>Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter; <sup>1:20</sup>the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches. <sup>2:1</sup>Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks; <sup>2:2</sup>I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars: <sup>2:3</sup>and hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted. <sup>2:4</sup>Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. <sup>2:5</sup>Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. <sup>2:6</sup>But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. <sup>2:7</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God. <sup>2:8</sup>And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive; <sup>2:9</sup>I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. <sup>2:10</sup>Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. <sup>2:11</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death. <sup>2:12</sup>And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges; <sup>2:13</sup>I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth. <sup>2:14</sup>But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. <sup>2:15</sup>So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. <sup>2:16</sup>Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. <sup>2:17</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it. <sup>2:18</sup>And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass; <sup>2:19</sup>I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first. <sup>2:20</sup>Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols. <sup>2:21</sup>And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. <sup>2:22</sup>Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. <sup>2:23</sup>And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. <sup>2:24</sup>But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden. <sup>2:25</sup>But that which ye have already hold fast till I come. <sup>2:26</sup>And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: <sup>2:27</sup>and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father. <sup>2:28</sup>And I will give him the morning star. <sup>2:29</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. <sup>3:1</sup>And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. <sup>3:2</sup>Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. <sup>3:3</sup>Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. <sup>3:4</sup>Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. <sup>3:5</sup>He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. <sup>3:6</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. <sup>3:7</sup>And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; <sup>3:8</sup>I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. <sup>3:9</sup>Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

<sup>3:10</sup>Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. <sup>3:11</sup>Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. <sup>3:12</sup>Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. <sup>3:13</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. <sup>3:14</sup>And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God; <sup>3:15</sup>I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. <sup>3:16</sup>So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. <sup>3:17</sup>Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: <sup>3:18</sup>I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. <sup>3:19</sup>As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. <sup>3:20</sup>Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. <sup>3:21</sup>To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. <sup>3:22</sup>He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

<sup>4:1</sup>After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. <sup>4:2</sup>And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. <sup>4:3</sup>And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald. <sup>4:4</sup>And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold. <sup>4:5</sup>And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. <sup>4:6</sup>And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind. <sup>4:7</sup>And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. <sup>4:8</sup>And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. <sup>4:9</sup>And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, <sup>4:10</sup>the four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, <sup>4:11</sup>Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. <sup>5:1</sup>And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. <sup>5:2</sup>And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? <sup>5:3</sup>And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. <sup>5:4</sup>And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. <sup>5:5</sup>And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. <sup>5:6</sup>And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. <sup>5:7</sup>And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. <sup>5:8</sup>And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. <sup>5:9</sup>And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; <sup>5:10</sup>and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. <sup>5:11</sup>And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; <sup>5:12</sup>saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. <sup>5:13</sup>And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. <sup>5:14</sup>And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever. <sup>6:1</sup>And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. <sup>6:2</sup>And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer. <sup>6:3</sup>And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. <sup>6:4</sup>And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword. <sup>6:5</sup>And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. <sup>6:6</sup>And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine. <sup>6:7</sup>And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. <sup>6:8</sup>And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth. <sup>6:9</sup>And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: <sup>6:10</sup>and they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? <sup>6:11</sup>And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. <sup>6:12</sup>And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; <sup>6:13</sup>and the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. <sup>6:14</sup>And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. <sup>6:15</sup>And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; <sup>6:16</sup>and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: <sup>6:17</sup>for the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? <sup>7:1</sup>And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. <sup>7:2</sup>And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, <sup>7:3</sup>saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. <sup>7:4</sup>And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. <sup>7:5</sup>Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand. <sup>7:6</sup>Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand. <sup>7:7</sup>Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand. <sup>7:8</sup>Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand. <sup>7:9</sup>After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; <sup>7:10</sup>and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. <sup>7:11</sup>And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, <sup>7:12</sup>saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. <sup>7:13</sup>And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? <sup>7:14</sup>And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. <sup>7:15</sup>Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. <sup>7:16</sup>They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. <sup>7:17</sup>For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. <sup>8:1</sup>And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. <sup>8:2</sup>And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. <sup>8:3</sup>And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. <sup>8:4</sup>And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. <sup>8:5</sup>And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. <sup>8:6</sup>And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. <sup>8:7</sup>The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. <sup>8:8</sup>And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; <sup>8:9</sup>and the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed. <sup>8:10</sup>And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; <sup>8:11</sup>and the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. <sup>8:12</sup>And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. <sup>8:13</sup>And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound! <sup>9:1</sup>And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. <sup>9:2</sup>And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. <sup>9:3</sup>And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. <sup>9:4</sup>And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. <sup>9:5</sup>And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. <sup>9:6</sup>And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. <sup>9:7</sup>And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. <sup>9:8</sup>And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. <sup>9:9</sup>And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. <sup>9:10</sup>And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. <sup>9:11</sup>And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon. <sup>9:12</sup>One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter. <sup>9:13</sup>And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, <sup>9:14</sup>saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. <sup>9:15</sup>And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. <sup>9:16</sup>And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them. <sup>9:17</sup>And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. <sup>9:18</sup>By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. <sup>9:19</sup>For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt. <sup>9:20</sup>And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: <sup>9:21</sup>neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts. <sup>10:1</sup>And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: <sup>10:2</sup>and he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth, <sup>10:3</sup>and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. <sup>10:4</sup>And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. <sup>10:5</sup>And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, <sup>10:6</sup>and sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer: <sup>10:7</sup>but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets. <sup>10:8</sup>And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. <sup>10:9</sup>And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. <sup>10:10</sup>And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. <sup>10:11</sup>And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings. <sup>11:1</sup>And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. <sup>11:2</sup>But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. <sup>11:3</sup>And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. <sup>11:4</sup>These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth. <sup>11:5</sup>And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. <sup>11:6</sup>These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will. <sup>11:7</sup>And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. <sup>11:8</sup>And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. <sup>11:9</sup>And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. <sup>11:10</sup>And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth. <sup>11:11</sup>And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them. <sup>11:12</sup>And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. <sup>11:13</sup>And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven. <sup>11:14</sup>The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly. <sup>11:15</sup>And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. <sup>11:16</sup>And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, <sup>11:17</sup>saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. <sup>11:18</sup>And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth. <sup>11:19</sup>And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail. <sup>12:1</sup>And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: <sup>12:2</sup>and she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. <sup>12:3</sup>And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. <sup>12:4</sup>And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. <sup>12:5</sup>And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne. <sup>12:6</sup>And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days. <sup>12:7</sup>And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, <sup>12:8</sup>and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. <sup>12:9</sup>And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. <sup>12:10</sup>And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. <sup>12:11</sup>And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. <sup>12:12</sup>Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. <sup>12:13</sup>And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. <sup>12:14</sup>And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. <sup>12:15</sup>And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. <sup>12:16</sup>And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. <sup>12:17</sup>And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. <sup>13:1</sup>And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. <sup>13:2</sup>And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. <sup>13:3</sup>And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. <sup>13:4</sup>And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? <sup>13:5</sup>And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. <sup>13:6</sup>And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. <sup>13:7</sup>And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. <sup>13:8</sup>And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. <sup>13:9</sup>If any man have an ear, let him hear. <sup>13:10</sup>He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. <sup>13:11</sup>And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. <sup>13:12</sup>And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. <sup>13:13</sup>And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, <sup>13:14</sup>and deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. <sup>13:15</sup>And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. <sup>13:16</sup>And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: <sup>13:17</sup>and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. <sup>13:18</sup>Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six. <sup>14:1</sup>And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. <sup>14:2</sup>And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: <sup>14:3</sup>and they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. <sup>14:4</sup>These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. <sup>14:5</sup>And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. <sup>14:6</sup>And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, <sup>14:7</sup>saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. <sup>14:8</sup>And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. <sup>14:9</sup>And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, <sup>14:10</sup>the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: <sup>14:11</sup>and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. <sup>14:12</sup>Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. <sup>14:13</sup>And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. <sup>14:14</sup>And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. <sup>14:15</sup>And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. <sup>14:16</sup>And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. <sup>14:17</sup>And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. <sup>14:18</sup>And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. <sup>14:19</sup>And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. <sup>14:20</sup>And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs. <sup>15:1</sup>And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. <sup>15:2</sup>And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

<sup>15:3</sup>And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. <sup>15:4</sup>Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest. <sup>15:5</sup>And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: <sup>15:6</sup>and the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles. <sup>15:7</sup>And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. <sup>15:8</sup>And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled. <sup>16:1</sup>And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. <sup>16:2</sup>And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image. <sup>16:3</sup>And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. <sup>16:4</sup>And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. <sup>16:5</sup>And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus. <sup>16:6</sup>For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy. <sup>16:7</sup>And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments. <sup>16:8</sup>And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. <sup>16:9</sup>And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory. <sup>16:10</sup>And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, <sup>16:11</sup>and blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds. <sup>16:12</sup>And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. <sup>16:13</sup>And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. <sup>16:14</sup>For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. <sup>16:15</sup>Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. <sup>16:16</sup>And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. <sup>16:17</sup>And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. <sup>16:18</sup>And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. <sup>16:19</sup>And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. <sup>16:20</sup>And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. <sup>16:21</sup>And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great. <sup>17:1</sup>And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters: <sup>17:2</sup>with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. <sup>17:3</sup>So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>17:4</sup>And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: <sup>17:5</sup>and upon her forehead was a name written, Mystery, Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and abominations of the earth. <sup>17:6</sup>And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. <sup>17:7</sup>And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. <sup>17:8</sup>The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. <sup>17:9</sup>And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. <sup>17:10</sup>And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. <sup>17:11</sup>And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. <sup>17:12</sup>And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. <sup>17:13</sup>These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. <sup>17:14</sup>These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. <sup>17:15</sup>And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. <sup>17:16</sup>And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. <sup>17:17</sup>For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. <sup>17:18</sup>And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth. <sup>18:1</sup>And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. <sup>18:2</sup>And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. <sup>18:3</sup>For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. <sup>18:4</sup>And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. <sup>18:5</sup>For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. <sup>18:6</sup>Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. <sup>18:7</sup>How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. <sup>18:8</sup>Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. <sup>18:9</sup>And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, <sup>18:10</sup>standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. <sup>18:11</sup>And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: <sup>18:12</sup>the merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, <sup>18:13</sup>and cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. <sup>18:14</sup>And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. <sup>18:15</sup>The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, <sup>18:16</sup>and saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! <sup>18:17</sup>For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, <sup>18:18</sup>and cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city! <sup>18:19</sup>And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. <sup>18:20</sup>Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. <sup>18:21</sup>And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. <sup>18:22</sup>And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; <sup>18:23</sup>and the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. <sup>18:24</sup>And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth. <sup>19:1</sup>And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: <sup>19:2</sup>for true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. <sup>19:3</sup>And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. <sup>19:4</sup>And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia. <sup>19:5</sup>And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. <sup>19:6</sup>And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. <sup>19:7</sup>Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. <sup>19:8</sup>And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. <sup>19:9</sup>And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God. <sup>19:10</sup>And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. <sup>19:11</sup>And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. <sup>19:12</sup>His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. <sup>19:13</sup>And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. <sup>19:14</sup>And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. <sup>19:15</sup>And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. <sup>19:16</sup>And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, King of kings, and Lord of lords. <sup>19:17</sup>And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; <sup>19:18</sup>that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. <sup>19:19</sup>And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. <sup>19:20</sup>And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. <sup>19:21</sup>And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh. <sup>20:1</sup>And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. <sup>20:2</sup>And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, <sup>20:3</sup>and cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season. <sup>20:4</sup>And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. <sup>20:5</sup>But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. <sup>20:6</sup>Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. <sup>20:7</sup>And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, <sup>20:8</sup>and shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. <sup>20:9</sup>And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. <sup>20:10</sup>And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. <sup>20:11</sup>And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. <sup>20:12</sup>And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. <sup>20:13</sup>And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. <sup>20:14</sup>And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. <sup>20:15</sup>And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. <sup>21:1</sup>And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. <sup>21:2</sup>And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>21:3</sup>And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. <sup>21:4</sup>And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. <sup>21:5</sup>And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. <sup>21:6</sup>And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. <sup>21:7</sup>He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. <sup>21:8</sup>But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. <sup>21:9</sup>And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. <sup>21:10</sup>And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, <sup>21:11</sup>having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; <sup>21:12</sup>and had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: <sup>21:13</sup>on the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. <sup>21:14</sup>And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. <sup>21:15</sup>And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. <sup>21:16</sup>And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. <sup>21:17</sup>And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. <sup>21:18</sup>And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass. <sup>21:19</sup>And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; <sup>21:20</sup>the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst. <sup>21:21</sup>And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. <sup>21:22</sup>And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. <sup>21:23</sup>And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. <sup>21:24</sup>And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. <sup>21:25</sup>And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there. <sup>21:26</sup>And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. <sup>21:27</sup>And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. <sup>22:1</sup>And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. <sup>22:2</sup>In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. <sup>22:3</sup>And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: <sup>22:4</sup>and they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. <sup>22:5</sup>And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever. <sup>22:6</sup>And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done. <sup>22:7</sup>Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book. <sup>22:8</sup>And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. <sup>22:9</sup>Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God. <sup>22:10</sup>And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand. <sup>22:11</sup>He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. <sup>22:12</sup>And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. <sup>22:13</sup>I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. <sup>22:14</sup>Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. <sup>22:15</sup>For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. <sup>22:16</sup>I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. <sup>22:17</sup>And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. <sup>22:18</sup>For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: <sup>22:19</sup>and if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. <sup>22:20</sup>He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. <sup>22:21</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The Book of Mormon

An account written by the hand of Mormon upon plates taken from the plates of Nephi

Wherefore, it is an abridgment of the record of the people of Nephi, and also of the Lamanites—Written to the Lamanites, who are a remnant of the house of Israel; and also to Jew and Gentile—Written by way of commandment, and also by the spirit of prophecy and of revelation—Written and sealed up, and hid up unto the Lord, that they might not be destroyed—To come forth by the gift and power of God unto the interpretation thereof—Sealed by the hand of Moroni, and hid up unto the Lord, to come forth in due time by way of the Gentile—The interpretation thereof by the gift of God. An abridgment taken from the Book of Ether also, which is a record of the people of Jared, who were scattered at the time the Lord confounded the language of the people, when they were building a tower to get to heaven—Which is to show unto the remnant of the house of Israel what great things the Lord hath done for their fathers; and that they may know the covenants of the Lord, that they are not cast off forever—And also to the convincing of the Jew and Gentile that Jesus is the Christ, the Eternal God, manifesting himself unto all nations—And now, if there are faults they are the mistakes of men; wherefore, condemn not the things of God, that ye may be found spotless at the judgment-seat of Christ.

The first book of Nephi

↳ His reign and ministry

An account of Lehi and his wife Sariah and his four sons, being called, (beginning at the eldest) Laman, Lemuel, Sam, and Nephi. The Lord warns Lehi to depart out of the land of Jerusalem, because he prophesieth unto the people concerning their iniquity and they seek to destroy his life. He taketh three days' journey into the wilderness with his family. Nephi taketh his brethren and returneth to the land of Jerusalem after the record of the Jews. The account of their sufferings. They take the daughters of Ishmael to wife. They take their families and depart into the wilderness. Their sufferings and afflictions in the wilderness. The course of their travels. They come to the large waters. Nephi's brethren rebel against him. He confoundeth them, and buildeth a ship. They call the name of the place Bountiful. They cross the large waters into the promised land, and so forth. This is according to the account of Nephi; or in other words, I, Nephi, wrote this record. <sup><D>1:1</sup>I, Nephi, having been born of goodly parents, therefore I was taught somewhat in all the learning of my father; and having seen many afflictions in the course of my days, nevertheless, having been highly favored of the Lord in all my days; yea, having had a great knowledge of the goodness and the mysteries of God, therefore I make a record of my proceedings in my days. <sup>1:2</sup>Yea, I make a record in the language of my father, which consists of the learning of the Jews and the language of the Egyptians. <sup>1:3</sup>And I know that the record which I make is true; and I make it with mine own hand; and I make it according to my knowledge. <sup>1:4</sup>For it came to pass in the commencement of the first year of the reign of Zedekiah, king of Judah, (my father, Lehi, having dwelt at Jerusalem in all his days); and in that same year there came many prophets, prophesying unto the people that they must repent, or the great city Jerusalem must be destroyed. <sup>1:5</sup>Wherefore it came to pass that my father, Lehi, as he went forth prayed unto the Lord, yea, even with all his heart, in behalf of his people. <sup>1:6</sup>And it came to pass as he prayed unto the Lord, there came a pillar of fire and dwelt upon a rock before him; and he saw and heard much; and because of the things which he saw and heard he did quake and tremble exceedingly. <sup>1:7</sup>And it came to pass that he returned to his own house at Jerusalem; and he cast himself upon his bed, being overcome with the Spirit and the things which he had seen. <sup>1:8</sup>And being thus overcome with the Spirit, he was carried away in a vision, even that he saw the heavens open, and he thought he saw God sitting upon his throne, surrounded with numberless concourses of angels in the attitude of singing and praising their God. <sup>1:9</sup>And it came to pass that he saw One descending out of the midst of heaven, and he beheld that his luster was above that of the sun at noon-day. <sup>1:10</sup>And he also saw twelve others following him, and their brightness did exceed that of the stars in the firmament. <sup>1:11</sup>And they came down and went forth upon the face of the earth; and the first came and stood before my father, and gave unto him a book, and bade him that he should read. <sup>1:12</sup>And it came to pass that as he read, he was filled with the Spirit of the Lord. <sup>1:13</sup>And he read, saying: Wo, wo, unto Jerusalem, for I have seen thine abominations! Yea, and many things did my father read concerning Jerusalem—that it should be destroyed, and the inhabitants thereof; many should perish by the sword, and many should be carried away captive into Babylon. <sup>1:14</sup>And it came to pass that when my father had read and seen many great and marvelous things, he did exclaim many things unto the Lord; such as: Great and marvelous are thy works, O Lord God Almighty! Thy throne is high in the heavens, and thy power, and goodness, and mercy are over all the inhabitants of the earth; and, because thou art merciful, thou wilt not suffer those who come unto thee that they shall perish! <sup>1:15</sup>And after this manner was the language of my father in the praising of his God; for his soul did rejoice, and his whole heart was filled, because of the things which he had seen, yea, which the Lord had shown unto

him. <sup>1:16</sup>And now I, Nephi, do not make a full account of the things which my father hath written, for he hath written many things which he saw in visions and in dreams; and he also hath written many things which he prophesied and spake unto his children, of which I shall not make a full account. <sup>1:17</sup>But I shall make an account of my proceedings in my days. Behold, I make an abridgment of the record of my father, upon plates which I have made with mine own hands; wherefore, after I have abridged the record of my father then will I make an account of mine own life. <sup>1:18</sup>Therefore, I would that ye should know, that after the Lord had shown so many marvelous things unto my father, Lehi, yea, concerning the destruction of Jerusalem, behold he went forth among the people, and began to prophesy and to declare unto them concerning the things which he had both seen and heard. <sup>1:19</sup>And it came to pass that the Jews did mock him because of the things which he testified of them; for he truly testified of their wickedness and their abominations; and he testified that the things which he saw and heard, and also the things which he read in the book, manifested plainly of the coming of a Messiah, and also the redemption of the world. <sup>1:20</sup>And when the Jews heard these things they were angry with him; yea, even as with the prophets of old, whom they had cast out, and stoned, and slain; and they also sought his life, that they might take it away. But behold, I, Nephi, will show unto you that the tender mercies of the Lord are over all those whom he hath chosen, because of their faith, to make them mighty even unto the power of deliverance. <sup>2:1</sup>For behold, it came to pass that the Lord spake unto my father, yea, even in a dream, and said unto him: Blessed art thou Lehi, because of the things which thou hast done; and because thou hast been faithful and declared unto this people the things which I commanded thee, behold, they seek to take away thy life. <sup>2:2</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord commanded my father, even in a dream, that he should take his family and depart into the wilderness. <sup>2:3</sup>And it came to pass that he was obedient unto the word of the Lord, wherefore he did as the Lord commanded him. <sup>2:4</sup>And it came to pass that he departed into the wilderness. And he left his house, and the land of his inheritance, and his gold, and his silver, and his precious things, and took nothing with him, save it were his family, and provisions, and tents, and departed into the wilderness. <sup>2:5</sup>And he came down by the borders near the shore of the Red Sea; and he traveled in the wilderness in the borders which are nearer the Red Sea; and he did travel in the wilderness with his family, which consisted of my mother, Sariah, and my elder brothers, who were Laman, Lemuel, and Sam. <sup>2:6</sup>And it came to pass that when he had traveled three days in the wilderness, he pitched his tent in a valley by the side of a river of water. <sup>2:7</sup>And it came to pass that he built an altar of stones, and made an offering unto the Lord, and gave thanks unto the Lord our God. <sup>2:8</sup>And it came to pass that he called the name of the river, Laman, and it emptied into the Red Sea; and the valley was in the borders near the mouth thereof. <sup>2:9</sup>And when my father saw that the waters of the river emptied into the fountain of the Red Sea, he spake unto Laman, saying: O that thou mightest be like unto this river, continually running into the fountain of all righteousness! <sup>2:10</sup>And he also spake unto Lemuel: O that thou mightest be like unto this valley, firm and steadfast, and immovable in keeping the commandments of the Lord! <sup>2:11</sup>Now this he spake because of the stiffneckedness of Laman and Lemuel; for behold they did murmur in many things against their father, because he was a visionary man, and had led them out of the land of Jerusalem, to leave the land of their inheritance, and their gold, and their silver, and their precious things, to perish in the wilderness. And this they said he had done because of the foolish imaginations of his heart. <sup>2:12</sup>And thus Laman and Lemuel, being the eldest, did murmur against their father. And they did murmur because they knew not the dealings of that God who had created them. <sup>2:13</sup>Neither did they believe that Jerusalem, that great city, could be destroyed according to the words of the prophets. And they were like unto the Jews who were at Jerusalem, who sought to take away the life of my father. <sup>2:14</sup>And it came to pass that my father did speak unto them in the valley of Lemuel, with power, being filled with the Spirit, until their frames did shake before him. And he did confound them, that they durst not utter against him; wherefore, they did as he commanded them. <sup>2:15</sup>And my father dwelt in a tent. <sup>2:16</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, being exceedingly young, nevertheless being large in stature, and also having great desires to know of the mysteries of God, wherefore, I did cry unto the Lord; and behold he did visit me, and did soften my heart that I did believe all the words which had been spoken by my father; wherefore, I did not rebel against him like unto my brothers. <sup>2:17</sup>And I spake unto Sam, making known unto him the things which the Lord had manifested unto me by his Holy Spirit. And it came to pass that he believed in my words. <sup>2:18</sup>But, behold, Laman and Lemuel would not hearken unto my words; and being grieved because of the hardness of their hearts I cried unto the Lord for them. <sup>2:19</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord spake unto me, saying: Blessed art thou, Nephi, because of thy faith, for thou hast sought me diligently, with lowliness of heart. <sup>2:20</sup>And inasmuch as ye shall keep my commandments, ye shall prosper, and shall be led to a land of promise; yea, even a land which I have prepared for you; yea, a land which is choice above all other lands. <sup>2:21</sup>And inasmuch as thy brethren shall rebel against thee, they shall be cut off from the presence of the Lord. <sup>2:22</sup>And inasmuch as thou shalt keep my commandments, thou shalt be made a ruler and a teacher over thy brethren. <sup>2:23</sup>For behold, in that day that they shall rebel against me, I will curse them even with a sore curse, and they shall have no power over thy seed except they shall rebel against me also. <sup>2:24</sup>And if it so be that they rebel against me, they shall be a scourge unto thy seed, to stir them up in the ways of remembrance. <sup>3:1</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, returned from speaking with the Lord, to the tent of my father. <sup>3:2</sup>And it came to pass that he spake unto me, saying: Behold I have dreamed a dream, in the which the Lord hath commanded me that thou and thy brethren shall return to Jerusalem. <sup>3:3</sup>For behold, Laban hath the record of the Jews and also a genealogy of my forefathers, and they are engraven upon plates of brass. <sup>3:4</sup>Wherefore, the Lord hath commanded me that thou and thy brothers should go unto the house of Laban, and seek the records, and bring them down hither into the wilderness. <sup>3:5</sup>And now, behold thy brothers murmur, saying it is a hard thing which I have required of them; but behold I have not required it of them, but it is a commandment of the Lord. <sup>3:6</sup>Therefore go, my son, and thou shalt be favored of the Lord, because thou hast not murmured. <sup>3:7</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, said unto my father: I will go and do the things which the Lord hath commanded, for I know that the Lord giveth no commandments unto the children of men, save he shall prepare a way for them that they may accomplish the thing which he commandeth them. <sup>3:8</sup>And it came to pass that when my father had heard these words he was exceedingly glad, for he knew that I had been blessed of the Lord. <sup>3:9</sup>And I, Nephi, and my brethren took our journey in the wilderness, with our tents, to go up to the land of Jerusalem. <sup>3:10</sup>And it came to pass that when we had gone up to the land of Jerusalem, I and my brethren did consult one with another. <sup>3:11</sup>And we cast lots—who of us should go in unto the house of Laban. And it came to pass that the lot fell upon Laman; and Laman went in unto the house of Laban, and he talked with him as he sat in his house. <sup>3:12</sup>And he desired of Laban the records which were engraven upon the plates of brass, which contained the genealogy of my father. <sup>3:13</sup>And behold, it came to pass that Laban was angry, and thrust him out from his presence; and he would not that he should have the records. Wherefore, he said unto him: Behold thou art a robber, and I will slay thee. <sup>3:14</sup>But Laman fled out of his presence, and told the things which Laban had done, unto us. And we began to be exceedingly sorrowful, and my brethren were about to return unto my father in the wilderness. <sup>3:15</sup>But behold I said unto them that: As the Lord liveth, and as we live, we will not go down unto our father in the wilderness until we have accomplished the thing which the Lord hath commanded us. <sup>3:16</sup>Wherefore, let us be faithful in keeping the commandments of the Lord; therefore let us go down to the land of our father's inheritance, for behold he left gold and silver, and all manner of riches. And all this he hath done because of the commandments of the Lord. <sup>3:17</sup>For he knew that Jerusalem must be destroyed, because of the wickedness of the people. <sup>3:18</sup>For behold, they have rejected the words of the prophets. Wherefore, if my father should dwell in the land after he hath been commanded to flee out of the land, behold, he would also perish. Wherefore, it must needs be that he flee out of the land. <sup>3:19</sup>And behold, it is wisdom in God that we should obtain these records, that we may preserve unto our children the language of our fathers; <sup>3:20</sup>and also that we may preserve unto them the words which have been spoken by the mouth of all the holy prophets, which have been delivered unto them by the Spirit and power of God, since the world began, even down unto this present time. <sup>3:21</sup>And it came to pass that after this manner of language did I persuade my brethren, that they might be faithful in keeping the commandments of God. <sup>3:22</sup>And it came to pass that we went down to the land of our inheritance, and we did gather together our gold, and our silver, and our precious things. <sup>3:23</sup>And after we had gathered these things together, we went up again unto the house of Laban. <sup>3:24</sup>And it came to pass that we went in unto Laban, and desired him that he would give unto us the records which were engraven upon the plates of brass, for which we would give unto him our gold, and our silver, and all our precious things. <sup>3:25</sup>And it came to pass that when Laban saw our property, and that it was exceedingly great, he did lust after it, insomuch that he thrust us out, and sent his servants to slay us, that he might obtain our property. <sup>3:26</sup>And it came to pass that we did flee before the servants of Laban, and we were obliged to leave behind our property, and it fell into the hands of Laban. <sup>3:27</sup>And it came to pass that we fled into the wilderness, and the servants of Laban did not overtake us, and we hid ourselves in the cavity of a rock. <sup>3:28</sup>And it came to pass that Laman was angry with me, and also with my father; and also was Lemuel, for he hearkened unto the words of Laman. Wherefore Laman and Lemuel did speak many hard words unto us, their younger brothers, and they did smite us even with a rod. <sup>3:29</sup>And it came to pass as they smote us with a rod, behold, an angel of the Lord came and stood before them, and he spake unto them, saying: Why do ye smite your younger brother with a rod? Know ye not that the Lord hath chosen him to be a ruler over you, and this because of your iniquities? Behold ye shall go up to Jerusalem again, and the Lord will deliver Laban into your hands. <sup>3:30</sup>And after the angel had spoken unto us, he departed. <sup>3:31</sup>And after the angel had departed, Laman and Lemuel again began to murmur, saying: How is it possible that the Lord will deliver Laban into our hands? Behold, he is a mighty man, and he can command fifty, yea, even he can slay fifty; then why not us? <sup>4:1</sup>And it came to pass that I spake unto my brethren, saying: Let us go up again unto Jerusalem, and let us be faithful in keeping the commandments of the Lord; for behold he is mightier than all the earth, then why not mightier than Laban and his fifty, yea, or even than his tens of thousands? <sup>4:2</sup>Therefore let us go up; let us be strong like unto Moses; for he truly spake unto the waters of the Red Sea and they divided hither and thither, and our fathers came through, out of captivity, on dry ground, and the armies of Pharaoh did follow and were drowned in the waters of the Red Sea. <sup>4:3</sup>Now behold ye know that this is true; and ye also know that an angel hath spoken unto you; wherefore can ye doubt? Let us go up; the Lord is able to deliver us, even as our fathers, and to destroy Laban, even as the Egyptians. <sup>4:4</sup>Now when I had spoken these words, they were yet wroth, and did still continue to murmur; nevertheless they did follow me up until we came without the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>4:5</sup>And it was by night; and I caused that they should hide themselves without the walls. And after they had hid themselves, I, Nephi, crept into the city and went forth towards the house of Laban. <sup>4:6</sup>And I was led by the Spirit, not knowing beforehand the things which I should do. <sup>4:7</sup>Nevertheless I went forth, and as I came near unto the house of Laban I beheld a man, and he had fallen to the earth before me, for he was drunken with wine. <sup>4:8</sup>And when I came to him I found that it was Laban. <sup>4:9</sup>And I beheld his sword, and I drew it forth from the sheath thereof; and the hilt thereof was of pure gold, and the workmanship thereof was exceedingly fine, and I saw that the blade thereof was of the most precious steel. <sup>4:10</sup>And it came to pass that I was constrained by the Spirit that I should kill Laban; but I said in my heart: Never at any time have I shed the blood of man. And I shrunk and would that I might not slay him.

<sup>4:11</sup>And the Spirit said unto me again: Behold the Lord hath delivered him into thy hands. Yea, and I also knew that he had sought to take away mine own life; yea, and he would not hearken unto the commandments of the Lord; and he also had taken away our property. <sup>4:12</sup>And it came to pass that the Spirit said unto me again: Slay him, for the Lord hath delivered him into thy hands; <sup>4:13</sup>behold the Lord slayeth the wicked to bring forth his righteous purposes. It is better that one man should perish than that a nation should dwindle and perish in unbelief.

<sup>4:14</sup>And now, when I, Nephi, had heard these words, I remembered the words of the Lord which he spake unto me in the wilderness, saying that: Inasmuch as thy seed shall keep my commandments, they shall prosper in the land of promise.

<sup>4:15</sup>Yea, and I also thought that they could not keep the commandments of the Lord according to the law of Moses, save they should have the law. <sup>4:16</sup>And I also knew that the law was engraven upon the plates of brass. <sup>4:17</sup>And again, I knew that the Lord had delivered Laban into my hands for this cause — that I might obtain the records according to his commandments. <sup>4:18</sup>Therefore I did obey the voice of the Spirit, and took Laban by the hair of the head, and I smote off his head with his own sword. <sup>4:19</sup>And after I had smitten off his head with his own sword, I took the garments of Laban and put them upon mine own body; yea, even every whit; and I did gird on his armor about my loins. <sup>4:20</sup>And after I had done this, I went forth unto the treasury of Laban. And as I went forth towards the treasury of Laban, behold, I saw the servant of Laban who had the keys of the treasury. And I commanded him in the voice of Laban, that he should go with me into the treasury. <sup>4:21</sup>And he supposed me to be his master, Laban, for he beheld the garments and also the sword girded about my loins. <sup>4:22</sup>And he spake unto me concerning the elders of the Jews, he knowing that his master, Laban, had been out by night among them. <sup>4:23</sup>And I spake unto him as if it had been Laban. <sup>4:24</sup>And I also spake unto him that I should carry the engravings, which were upon the plates of brass, to my elder brethren, who were without the walls.

<sup>4:25</sup>And I also bade him that he should follow me. <sup>4:26</sup>And he, supposing that I spake of the brethren of the church, and that I was truly that Laban whom I had slain, wherefore he did follow me. <sup>4:27</sup>And he spake unto me many times concerning the elders of the Jews, as I went forth unto my brethren, who were without the walls. <sup>4:28</sup>And it came to pass that when Laman saw me he was exceedingly frightened, and also Lemuel and Sam. And they fled from before my presence; for they supposed it was Laban, and that he had slain me and had sought to take away their lives also. <sup>4:29</sup>And it came to pass that I called after them, and they did hear me; wherefore they did cease to flee from my presence.

began to tremble, and was about to flee from before me and return to the city of Jerusalem. <sup>4:31</sup>And now I, Nephi, being a man large in stature, and also having received much strength of the Lord, therefore I did seize upon the servant of Laban, and held him, that he should not flee. <sup>4:32</sup>And it came to pass that I spake with him, that if he would hearken unto my words, as the Lord liveth, and as I live, even so that if he would hearken unto our words, we would spare his life. <sup>4:33</sup>And I spake unto him, even with an oath, that he need not fear; that he should be a free man like unto us if he would go down in the wilderness with us. <sup>4:34</sup>And I also spake unto him, saying: Surely the Lord hath commanded us to do this thing; and shall we not be diligent in keeping the commandments of the Lord? Therefore, if thou wilt go down into the wilderness to my father thou shalt have place with us. <sup>4:35</sup>And it came to pass that Zoram did take courage at the words which I spake. Now Zoram was the name of the servant; and he promised that he would go down into the wilderness unto our father. Yea, and he also made an oath unto us that he would tarry with us from that time forth. <sup>4:36</sup>Now we were desirous that he should tarry with us for this cause, that the Jews might not know concerning our flight into the wilderness, lest they should pursue us and destroy us. <sup>4:37</sup>And it came to pass that when Zoram had made an oath unto us, our fears did cease concerning him. <sup>4:38</sup>And it came to pass that we took the plates of brass and the servant of Laban, and departed into the wilderness, and journeyed unto the tent of our father. <sup>5:1</sup>And it came to pass that after we had come down into the wilderness unto our father, behold, he was filled with joy, and also my mother, Sariah, was exceedingly glad, for she truly had mourned because of us. <sup>5:2</sup>For she had supposed that we had perished in the wilderness; and she also had complained against my father, telling him that he was a visionary man; saying: Behold thou hast led us forth from the land of our inheritance, and my sons are no more, and we perish in the wilderness. <sup>5:3</sup>And after this manner of language had my mother complained against my father. <sup>5:4</sup>And it had come to pass that my father spake unto her, saying: I know that I am a visionary man; for if I had not seen the things of God in a vision I should not have known the goodness of God, but had tarried at Jerusalem, and had perished with my brethren. <sup>5:5</sup>But behold, I have obtained a land of promise, in the which things I do rejoice; yea, and I know that the Lord will deliver my sons out of the hands of Laban, and bring them down again unto us in the wilderness. <sup>5:6</sup>And after this manner of language did my father, Lehi, comfort my mother, Sariah, concerning us, while we journeyed in the wilderness up to the land of Jerusalem, to obtain the record of the Jews. <sup>5:7</sup>And when we had returned to the tent of my father, behold their joy was full, and my mother was comforted. <sup>5:8</sup>And she spake, saying: Now I know of a surety that the Lord hath commanded my husband to flee into the wilderness; yea, and I also know of a surety that the Lord hath protected my sons, and delivered them out of the hands of Laban, and given them power whereby they could accomplish the thing which the Lord hath commanded them. And after this manner of language did she speak. <sup>5:9</sup>And it came to pass that they did rejoice exceedingly, and did offer sacrifice and burnt offerings unto the Lord; and they gave thanks unto the God of Israel. <sup>5:10</sup>And after they had given thanks unto the God of Israel, my father, Lehi, took the records which were engraven upon the plates of brass, and he did search them from the beginning. <sup>5:11</sup>And he beheld that they did contain the five books of Moses, which gave an account of the creation of the world, and also of Adam and Eve, who were our first parents; <sup>5:12</sup>and also a record of the Jews from the beginning, even down to the commencement of the reign of Zedekiah, king of Judah; <sup>5:13</sup>and also the prophecies of the holy prophets, from the beginning, even down to the commencement of the reign of Zedekiah; and also many prophecies which have been spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah. <sup>5:14</sup>And it came to pass that my father, Lehi, also found upon the plates of brass a genealogy of his fathers; wherefore he knew that he was a descendant of Joseph; yea, even that Joseph who was the son of Jacob, who was sold into Egypt, and who was preserved by the hand of the Lord, that he might preserve his father, Jacob, and all his household from perishing with famine. <sup>5:15</sup>And they were also led out of captivity and out of the land of Egypt, by that same God who had preserved them. <sup>5:16</sup>And thus my father, Lehi, did discover the genealogy of his fathers. And Laban also was a descendant of Joseph, wherefore he and his fathers had kept the records. <sup>5:17</sup>And now when my father saw all these things, he was filled with the Spirit, and began to prophesy concerning his seed — <sup>5:18</sup>that these plates of brass should go forth unto all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people who were of his seed.

<sup>5:19</sup>Wherefore, he said that these plates of brass should never perish; neither should they be dimmed any more by time. And he prophesied many things concerning his seed. <sup>5:20</sup>And it came to pass that thus far I and my father had kept the commandments wherewith the Lord had commanded us. <sup>5:21</sup>And we had obtained the records which the Lord had commanded us, and searched them and found that they were desirable; yea, even of great worth unto us, insomuch that we could preserve the commandments of the Lord unto our children.

<sup>5:22</sup>Wherefore, it was wisdom in the Lord that we should carry them with us, as we journeyed in the wilderness towards the land of promise. <sup><1D>6:1</sup>And now I, Nephi, do not give the genealogy of my fathers in this part of my record; neither at any time shall I give it after upon these plates which I am writing; for it is given in the record which has been kept by my father; wherefore, I do not write it in this work. <sup>6:2</sup>For it sufficeth me to say that we are descendants of Joseph. <sup>6:3</sup>And it mattereth not to me that I am particular to give a full account of all the things of my father, for they cannot be written upon these plates, for I desire the room that I may write of the things of God. <sup>6:4</sup>For the fulness of mine intent is that I may persuade men to come unto the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, and be saved. <sup>6:5</sup>Wherefore, the things which are pleasing unto the world I do not write, but the things which are pleasing unto God and unto those who are not of the world. <sup>6:6</sup>Wherefore, I shall give commandment unto my seed, that they shall not occupy these plates with things which are not of worth unto the children of men. <sup>7:1</sup>And now I would that ye might know, that after my father, Lehi, had made an end of prophesying concerning his seed, it came to pass that the Lord spake unto him again, saying that it was not meet for him, Lehi, that he should take his family into the wilderness alone; but that his sons should take daughters to wife, that they might raise up seed unto the Lord in the land of promise. <sup>7:2</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord commanded him that I, Nephi, and my brethren, should again return unto the land of Jerusalem, and bring down Ishmael and his family into the wilderness. <sup>7:3</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, did again, with my brethren, go forth into the wilderness to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>7:4</sup>And it came to pass that we went up unto the house of Ishmael, and we did gain favor in the sight of Ishmael, insomuch that we did speak unto him the words of the Lord. <sup>7:5</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord did soften the heart of Ishmael, and also his household, insomuch that they took their journey with us down into the wilderness to the tent of our father. <sup>7:6</sup>And it came to pass that as we journeyed in the wilderness, behold Laman and Lemuel, and two of the daughters of Ishmael, and the two sons of Ishmael and their families, did rebel against us; yea, against me, Nephi, and Sam, and their father, Ishmael, and his wife, and his three other daughters. <sup>7:7</sup>And it came to pass in the which rebellion, they were desirous to return unto the land of Jerusalem. <sup>7:8</sup>And now I, Nephi, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, therefore I spake unto them, saying, yea, even unto Laman and unto Lemuel: Behold ye are mine elder brethren, and how is it that ye are so hard in your hearts, and so blind in your minds, that ye have need that I, your younger brother, should speak unto you, yea, and set an example for you? <sup>7:9</sup>How is it that ye have not hearkened unto the word of the Lord? <sup>7:10</sup>How is it that ye have forgotten that ye have seen an angel of the Lord? <sup>7:11</sup>Yea, and how is it that ye have forgotten what great things the Lord hath done for us, in delivering us out of the hands of Laban, and also that we should obtain the record? <sup>7:12</sup>Yea, and how is it that ye have forgotten that the Lord is able to do all things according to his will, for the children of men, if it so be that they exercise faith in him? Wherefore, let us be faithful to him. <sup>7:13</sup>And if it so be that we are faithful to him, we shall obtain the land of promise; and ye shall know at some future period that the word of the Lord shall be fulfilled concerning the destruction of Jerusalem; for all things which the Lord hath spoken concerning the destruction of Jerusalem must be fulfilled. <sup>7:14</sup>For behold, the Spirit of the Lord ceaseth soon to strive with them; for behold, they have rejected the prophets, and Jeremiah have they cast into prison. And they have sought to take away the life of my father, insomuch that they have driven him out of the land. <sup>7:15</sup>Now behold, I say unto you that if ye will return unto Jerusalem ye shall also perish with them. And now, if ye have choice, go up to the land, and remember the words which I speak unto you, that if ye go ye will also perish; for thus the Spirit of the Lord constraineth me that I should speak. <sup>7:16</sup>And it came to pass that when I, Nephi, had spoken these words unto my brethren, they were angry with me. And it came to pass that they did lay their hands upon me, for behold, they were exceedingly wroth, and they did bind me with cords, for they sought to take away my life, that they might leave me in the wilderness to be devoured by wild beasts. <sup>7:17</sup>But it came to pass that I prayed unto the Lord, saying: O Lord, according to my faith which is in thee, wilt thou deliver me from the hands of my brethren; yea, even give me strength that I may burst these bands with which I am bound. <sup>7:18</sup>And it came to pass that when I had said these words, behold, the bands were loosed from off my hands and feet, and I stood before my brethren, and I spake unto them again. <sup>7:19</sup>And it came to pass that they were angry with me again, and sought to lay hands upon me; but behold, one of the daughters of Ishmael, yea, and also her mother, and one of the sons of Ishmael, did plead with my brethren, insomuch that they did soften their hearts; and they did cease striving to take away my life. <sup>7:20</sup>And it came to pass that they were sorrowful, because of their wickedness, insomuch that they did bow down before me, and did plead with me that I would forgive them of the thing that they had done against me. <sup>7:21</sup>And it came to pass that I did frankly forgive them all that they had done, and I did exhort them that they would pray unto the Lord their God for forgiveness. And it came to pass that they did so. And after they had done praying unto the Lord we did again travel on our journey towards the tent of our father. <sup>7:22</sup>And it came to pass that we did come down unto the tent of our father. And after I and my brethren and all the house of Ishmael had come down unto the tent of my father, they did give thanks unto the Lord their God; and they did offer sacrifice and burnt offerings unto him. <sup>8:1</sup>And it came to pass that we had gathered together all manner of seeds of every kind, both of grain of every kind, and also of the seeds of fruit of every kind. <sup>8:2</sup>And it came to pass that while my father tarried in the wilderness he spake unto us, saying: Behold, I have dreamed a dream; or, in other words, I have seen a vision. <sup>8:3</sup>And behold, because of the thing which I have seen, I have reason to rejoice in the Lord because of Nephi and also of Sam; for I have reason to suppose that they, and also many of their seed, will be saved. <sup>8:4</sup>But behold, Laman and Lemuel, I fear exceedingly because of you; for behold, methought I saw in my dream, a dark and dreary wilderness. <sup>8:5</sup>And it came to pass that I saw a man, and he was dressed in a white robe; and he came and stood before me. <sup>8:6</sup>And it came to pass that he spake unto me, and bade me follow him. <sup>8:7</sup>And it came to pass that as I followed him I beheld myself that I was in a dark and dreary waste. <sup>8:8</sup>And after I had traveled for the space of many hours in darkness, I began to pray unto the Lord that he would have mercy on me, according to the multitude of his tender mercies. <sup>8:9</sup>And it came to pass after I had prayed unto the Lord I beheld a large and spacious field. <sup>8:10</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld a tree, whose fruit was desirable to make one happy. <sup>8:11</sup>And it came to pass that I did go forth and partake of the fruit thereof; and I beheld that it was most sweet, above all that I ever before tasted. Yea, and I beheld that the fruit thereof was white, to exceed all the whiteness that I had ever seen. <sup>8:12</sup>And as I partook of the fruit thereof it filled my soul with exceedingly great joy; wherefore, I began to be

desirous that my family should partake of it also; for I knew that it was desirable above all other fruit. <sup>8:13</sup>And as I cast my eyes round about, that perhaps I might discover my family also, I beheld a river of water; and it ran along, and it was near the tree of which I was partaking the fruit. <sup>8:14</sup>And I looked to behold from whence it came; and I saw the head thereof a little way off; and at the head thereof I beheld your mother Sariah, and Sam, and Nephi; and they stood as if they knew not whither they should go. <sup>8:15</sup>And it came to pass that I beckoned unto them; and I also did say unto them with a loud voice that they should come unto me, and partake of the fruit, which was desirable above all other fruit. <sup>8:16</sup>And it came to pass that they did come unto me and partake of the fruit also. <sup>8:17</sup>And it came to pass that I was desirous that Laman and Lemuel should come and partake of the fruit also; wherefore, I cast mine eyes towards the head of the river, that perhaps I might see them. <sup>8:18</sup>And it came to pass that I saw them, but they would not come unto me and partake of the fruit. <sup>8:19</sup>And I beheld a rod of iron, and it extended along the bank of the river, and led to the tree by which I stood. <sup>8:20</sup>And I also beheld a strait and narrow path, which came along by the rod of iron, even to the tree by which I stood; and it also led by the head of the fountain, unto a large and spacious field, as if it had been a world. <sup>8:21</sup>And I saw numberless concourses of people, many of whom were pressing forward, that they might obtain the path which led unto the tree by which I stood. <sup>8:22</sup>And it came to pass that they did come forth, and commence in the path which led to the tree. <sup>8:23</sup>And it came to pass that there arose a mist of darkness; yea, even an exceedingly great mist of darkness, insomuch that they who had commenced in the path did lose their way, that they wandered off and were lost. <sup>8:24</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld others pressing forward, and they came forth and caught hold of the end of the rod of iron; and they did press forward through the mist of darkness, clinging to the rod of iron, even until they did come forth and partake of the fruit of the tree. <sup>8:25</sup>And after they had partaken of the fruit of the tree they did cast their eyes about as if they were ashamed. <sup>8:26</sup>And I also cast my eyes round about, and beheld, on the other side of the river of water, a great and spacious building; and it stood as it were in the air, high above the earth. <sup>8:27</sup>And it was filled with people, both old and young, both male and female; and their manner of dress was exceedingly fine; and they were in the attitude of mocking and pointing their fingers towards those who had come at and were partaking of the fruit. <sup>8:28</sup>And after they had tasted of the fruit they were ashamed, because of those that were scoffing at them; and they fell away into forbidden paths and were lost. <sup>8:29</sup>And now I, Nephi, do not speak all the words of my father. <sup>8:30</sup>But, to be short in writing, behold, he saw other multitudes pressing forward; and they came and caught hold of the end of the rod of iron; and they did press their way forward, continually holding fast to the rod of iron, until they came forth and fell down and partook of the fruit of the tree. <sup>8:31</sup>And he also saw other multitudes feeling their way towards that great and spacious building. <sup>8:32</sup>And it came to pass that many were drowned in the depths of the fountain; and many were lost from his view, wandering in strange roads. <sup>8:33</sup>And great was the multitude that did enter into that strange building. And after they did enter into that building they did point the finger of scorn at me and those that were partaking of the fruit also; but we heeded them not. <sup>8:34</sup>These are the words of my father: For as many as heeded them, had fallen away. <sup>8:35</sup>And Laman and Lemuel partook not of the fruit, said my father. <sup>8:36</sup>And it came to pass after my father had spoken all the words of his dream or vision, which were many, he said unto us, because of these things which he saw in a vision, he exceedingly feared for Laman and Lemuel; yea, he feared lest they should be cast off from the presence of the Lord. <sup>8:37</sup>And he did exhort them then with all the feeling of a tender parent, that they would hearken to his words, that perhaps the Lord would be merciful to them, and not cast them off; yea, my father did preach unto them. <sup>8:38</sup>And after he had preached unto them, and also prophesied unto them of many things, he bade them to keep the commandments of the Lord; and he did cease speaking unto them. <sup>9:1</sup>And all these things did my father see, and hear, and speak, as he dwelt in a tent, in the valley of Lemuel, and also a great many more things, which cannot be written upon these plates. <sup>9:2</sup>And now, as I have spoken concerning these plates, behold they are not the plates upon which I make a full account of the history of my people; for the plates upon which I make a full account of my people I have given the name of Nephi; wherefore, they are called the plates of Nephi, after mine own name; and these plates also are called the plates of Nephi. <sup>9:3</sup>Nevertheless, I have received a commandment of the Lord that I should make these plates, for the special purpose that there should be an account engraven of the ministry of my people. <sup>9:4</sup>Upon the other plates should be engraven an account of the reign of the kings, and the wars and contentions of my people; wherefore these plates are for the more part of the ministry; and the other plates are for the more part of the reign of the kings and the wars and contentions of my people. <sup>9:5</sup>Wherefore, the Lord hath commanded me to make these plates for a wise purpose in him, which purpose I know not. <sup>9:6</sup>But the Lord knoweth all things from the beginning; wherefore, he prepareth a way to accomplish all his works among the children of men; for behold, he hath all power unto the fulfilling of all his words. And thus it is. Amen. <sup><III>10:1</sup>And now I, Nephi, proceed to give an account upon these plates of my proceedings, and my reign and ministry; wherefore, to proceed with mine account, I must speak somewhat of the things of my father, and also of my brethren. <sup>10:2</sup>For behold, it came to pass after my father had made an end of speaking the words of his dream, and also of exhorting them to all diligence, he spake unto them concerning the Jews — <sup>10:3</sup>that after they should be destroyed, even that great city Jerusalem, and many be carried away captive into Babylon, according to the own due time of the Lord, they should return again, yea, even be brought back out of captivity; and after they should be brought back out of captivity they should possess again the land of their inheritance. <sup>10:4</sup>Yea, even six hundred years from the time that my father left Jerusalem, a prophet would the Lord God raise up among the Jews — even a

Messiah, or, in other words, a Savior of the world. <sup>10:5</sup>And he also spake concerning the prophets, how great a number had testified of these things, concerning this Messiah, of whom he had spoken, or this Redeemer of the world. <sup>10:6</sup>Wherefore, all mankind were in a lost and in a fallen state, and ever would be save they should rely on this Redeemer. <sup>10:7</sup>And he spake also concerning a prophet who should come before the Messiah, to prepare the way of the Lord — <sup>10:8</sup>yea, even he should go forth and cry in the wilderness: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, and make his paths straight; for there standeth one among you whom ye know not; and he is mightier than I, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. And much spake my father concerning this thing. <sup>10:9</sup>And my father said he should baptize in Bethabara, beyond Jordan; and he also said he should baptize with water; even that he should baptize the Messiah with water. <sup>10:10</sup>And after he had baptized the Messiah with water, he should behold and bear record that he had baptized the Lamb of God, who should take away the sins of the world. <sup>10:11</sup>And it came to pass after my father had spoken these words he spake unto my brethren concerning the gospel which should be preached among the Jews, and also concerning the dwindling of the Jews in unbelief. And after they had slain the Messiah, who should come, and after he had been slain he should rise from the dead, and should make himself manifest, by the Holy Ghost, unto the Gentiles. <sup>10:12</sup>Yea, even my father spake much concerning the Gentiles, and also concerning the house of Israel, that they should be compared like unto an olive-tree, whose branches should be broken off and should be scattered upon all the face of the earth. <sup>10:13</sup>Wherefore, he said it must needs be that we should be led with one accord into the land of promise, unto the fulfilling of the word of the Lord, that we should be scattered upon all the face of the earth. <sup>10:14</sup>And after the house of Israel should be scattered they should be gathered together again; or, in fine, after the Gentiles had received the fulness of the Gospel, the natural branches of the olive-tree, or the remnants of the house of Israel, should be grafted in, or come to the knowledge of the true Messiah, their Lord and their Redeemer. <sup>10:15</sup>And after this manner of language did my father prophesy and speak unto my brethren, and also many more things which I do not write in this book; for I have written as many of them as were expedient for me in mine other book. <sup>10:16</sup>And all these things, of which I have spoken, were done as my father dwelt in a tent, in the valley of Lemuel. <sup>10:17</sup>And it came to pass after I, Nephi, having heard all the words of my father, concerning the things which he saw in a vision, and also the things which he spake by the power of the Holy Ghost, which power he received by faith on the Son of God — and the Son of God was the Messiah who should come — I, Nephi, was desirous also that I might see, and hear, and know of these things, by the power of the Holy Ghost, which is the gift of God unto all those who diligently seek him, as well in times of old as in the time that he should manifest himself unto the children of men. <sup>10:18</sup>For he is the same yesterday, to-day, and forever; and the way is prepared for all men from the foundation of the world, if it so be that they repent and come unto him.

<sup>10:19</sup>For he that diligently seeketh shall find; and the mysteries of God shall be unfolded unto them, by the power of the Holy Ghost, as well in these times as in times of old, and as well in times of old as in times to come; wherefore, the course of the Lord is one eternal round. <sup>10:20</sup>Therefore remember, O man, for all thy doings thou shalt be brought into judgment. <sup>10:21</sup>Wherefore, if ye have sought to do wickedly in the days of your probation, then ye are found unclean before the judgment-seat of God; and no unclean thing can dwell with God; wherefore, ye must be cast off forever. <sup>10:22</sup>And the Holy Ghost giveth authority that I should speak these things, and deny them not. <sup>11:1</sup>For it came to pass after I had desired to know the things that my father had seen, and believing that the Lord was able to make them known unto me, as I sat pondering in mine heart I was caught away in the Spirit of the Lord, yea, into an exceedingly high mountain, which I never had before seen, and upon which I never had before set my foot. <sup>11:2</sup>And the Spirit said unto me: Behold, what desirest thou? <sup>11:3</sup>And I said: I desire to behold the things which my father saw. <sup>11:4</sup>And the Spirit said unto me: Believest thou that thy father saw the tree of which he hath spoken? <sup>11:5</sup>And I said: Yea, thou knowest that I believe all the words of my father. <sup>11:6</sup>And when I had spoken these words, the Spirit cried with a loud voice, saying: Hosanna to the Lord, the most high God; for he is God over all the earth, yea, even above all. And blessed art thou, Nephi, because thou believest in the Son of the most high God; wherefore, thou shalt behold the things which thou hast desired. <sup>11:7</sup>And behold this thing shall be given unto thee for a sign, that after thou hast beheld the tree which bore the fruit which thy father tasted, thou shalt also behold a man descending out of heaven, and him shall ye witness; and after ye have witnessed him ye shall bear record that it is the Son of God. <sup>11:8</sup>And it came to pass that the Spirit said unto me: Look! And I looked and beheld a tree; and it was like unto the tree which my father had seen; and the beauty thereof was far beyond, yea, exceeding of all beauty; and the whiteness thereof did exceed the whiteness of the driven snow. <sup>11:9</sup>And it came to pass after I had seen the tree, I said unto the Spirit: I behold thou hast shown unto me the tree which is precious above all. <sup>11:10</sup>And he said unto me: What desirest thou? <sup>11:11</sup>And I said unto him: To know the interpretation thereof—for I spake unto him as a man speaketh; for I beheld that he was in the form of a man; yet nevertheless, I knew that it was the Spirit of the Lord; and he spake unto me as a man speaketh with another. <sup>11:12</sup>And it came to pass that he said unto me: Look! And I looked as if to look upon him, and I saw him not; for he had gone from before my presence. <sup>11:13</sup>And it came to pass that I looked and beheld the great city of Jerusalem, and also other cities. And I beheld the city of Nazareth; and in the city of Nazareth I beheld a virgin, and she was exceedingly fair and white. <sup>11:14</sup>And it came to pass that I saw the heavens open; and an angel came down and stood before me; and he said unto me: Nephi, what beholdest thou? <sup>11:15</sup>And I said unto him: A virgin, most beautiful and fair above all other virgins. <sup>11:16</sup>And he said unto me: Knowest thou the condescension of God? <sup>11:17</sup>And I said unto him: I know that he loveth his children; nevertheless, I do not know the meaning of all things. <sup>11:18</sup>And he said unto me: Behold, the virgin whom thou seest is the mother of the Son of God, after the manner of the flesh. <sup>11:19</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld that she was carried away in the Spirit; and after she had been carried away in the Spirit for the space of a time the angel spake unto me, saying: Look! <sup>11:20</sup>And I looked and beheld the virgin again, bearing a child in her arms. <sup>11:21</sup>And the angel said unto me: Behold the Lamb of God, yea, even the Son of the Eternal Father! Knowest thou the meaning of the tree which thy father saw? <sup>11:22</sup>And I answered him, saying: Yea, it is the love of God, which sheddeth itself abroad in the hearts of the children of men; wherefore, it is the most desirable above all things. <sup>11:23</sup>And he spake unto me, saying: Yea, and the most joyous to the soul. <sup>11:24</sup>And after he had said these words, he said unto me: Look! And I looked, and I beheld the Son of God going forth among the children of men; and I saw many fall down at his feet and worship him. <sup>11:25</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld that the rod of iron, which my father had seen, was the word of God, which led to the fountain of living waters, or to the tree of life; which waters are a representation of the love of God; and I also beheld that the tree of life was a representation of the love of God. <sup>11:26</sup>And the angel said unto me again: Look and behold the condescension of God! <sup>11:27</sup>And I looked and beheld the Redeemer of the world, of whom my father had spoken; and I also beheld the prophet who should prepare the way before him. And the Lamb of God went forth and was baptized of him; and after he was baptized, I beheld the heavens open, and the Holy Ghost come down out of heaven and abide upon him in the form of a dove. <sup>11:28</sup>And I beheld that he went forth ministering unto the people, in power and great glory; and the multitudes were gathered together to hear him; and I beheld that they cast him out from among them. <sup>11:29</sup>And I also beheld twelve others following him. And it came to pass that they were carried away in the Spirit from before my face, and I saw them not. <sup>11:30</sup>And it came to pass that the angel spake unto me again, saying: Look! And I looked, and I beheld the heavens open again, and I saw angels descending upon the children of men; and they did minister unto them. <sup>11:31</sup>And he spake unto me again, saying: Look! And I looked, and I beheld the Lamb of God going forth among the children of men. And I beheld multitudes of people who were sick, and who were afflicted with all manner of diseases, and with devils and unclean spirits; and the angel spake and showed all these things unto me. And they were healed by the power of the Lamb of God; and the devils and the unclean spirits were cast out. <sup>11:32</sup>And it came to pass that the angel spake unto me again, saying: Look! And I looked and beheld the Lamb of God, that he was taken by the people; yea, the Son of the everlasting God was judged of the world; and I saw and bear record. <sup>11:33</sup>And I, Nephi, saw that he was lifted up upon the cross and slain for the sins of the world. <sup>11:34</sup>And after he was slain I saw the multitudes of the earth, that they were gathered together to fight against the apostles of the Lamb; for thus were the twelve called by the angel of the Lord. <sup>11:35</sup>And the multitude of the earth was gathered together; and I beheld that they were in a large and spacious building, like unto the building which my father saw. And the angel of the Lord spake unto me again, saying: Behold the world and the wisdom thereof; yea, behold the house of Israel hath gathered together to fight against the twelve apostles of the Lamb. <sup>11:36</sup>And it came to pass that I saw and bear record, that the great and spacious building was the pride of the world; and it fell, and the fall thereof was exceedingly great. And the angel of the Lord spake unto me again, saying: Thus shall be the destruction of all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people, that shall fight against the twelve apostles of the Lamb. <sup>12:1</sup>And it came to pass that the angel said unto me: Look, and behold thy seed, and also the seed of thy brethren. And I looked and beheld the land of promise; and I beheld multitudes of people, yea, even as it were in number as many as the sand of the sea. <sup>12:2</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld multitudes gathered together to battle, one against the other; and I beheld wars, and rumors of wars, and great slaughters with the sword among my people. <sup>12:3</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld many generations pass away, after the manner of wars and contentions in the land; and I beheld many cities, yea, even that I did not number them. <sup>12:4</sup>And it came to pass that I saw a mist of darkness on the face of the land of promise; and I saw lightnings, and I heard thunderings, and earthquakes, and all manner of tumultuous noises; and I saw the earth and the rocks, that they rent; and I saw mountains tumbling into pieces; and I saw the plains of the earth, that they were broken up; and I saw many cities that they were sunk; and I saw many that they were burned with fire; and I saw many that did tumble to the earth, because of the quaking thereof. <sup>12:5</sup>And it came to pass after I saw these things, I saw the vapor of darkness, that it passed from off the face of the earth; and behold, I saw multitudes who had not fallen because of the great and terrible judgments of the Lord. <sup>12:6</sup>And I saw the heavens open, and the Lamb of God descending out of heaven; and he came down and showed himself unto them. <sup>12:7</sup>And I also saw and bear record that the Holy Ghost fell upon twelve others; and they were ordained of God, and chosen. <sup>12:8</sup>And the angel spake unto me, saying: Behold the Twelve Disciples of the Lamb, who are chosen to minister unto thy seed. <sup>12:9</sup>And he said unto me: Thou rememberest the Twelve Apostles of the Lamb? Behold they are they who shall judge the twelve tribes of Israel; wherefore, the twelve ministers of thy seed shall be judged of them; for ye are of the house of Israel. <sup>12:10</sup>And these twelve ministers whom thou beholdest shall judge thy seed. And, behold, they are righteous forever; for because of their faith in the Lamb of God their garments are made white in his blood. <sup>12:11</sup>And the angel said unto me: Look! And I looked, and beheld three generations pass away in righteousness; and their garments were white even like unto the Lamb of God. And the angel said unto me: These are made white in the blood of the Lamb, because of their faith in him. <sup>12:12</sup>And I, Nephi, also saw many of the fourth generation who passed away in righteousness. <sup>12:13</sup>And it came to pass that I saw the multitudes of the earth gathered together. <sup>12:14</sup>And the angel said unto me: Behold thy seed, and also the seed of thy brethren. <sup>12:15</sup>And it came to pass that I looked and beheld the people of my seed gathered together in multitudes against the seed of my brethren; and they were gathered together to battle. <sup>12:16</sup>And the angel spake unto me, saying: Behold the fountain of filthy water which thy father saw; yea, even the river of which he spake; and the depths thereof are the depths of hell. <sup>12:17</sup>And the mists of darkness are the temptations of the devil, which blindeth the eyes, and hardeneth the hearts of the children of men, and leadeth them away into broad roads, that they perish and are lost. <sup>12:18</sup>And the large and spacious building, which thy father saw, is vain imaginations and the pride of the children of men. And a great and a terrible gulf divideth them; yea, even the word of the justice of the Eternal God, and the Messiah who is the Lamb of God, of whom the Holy Ghost beareth record, from the beginning of the world until this time, and from this time henceforth and forever. <sup>12:19</sup>And while the angel spake these words, I beheld and saw that the seed of my brethren did contend against my seed, according to the word of the angel; and because of the pride of my seed, and the temptations of the devil, I beheld that the seed of my brethren did overpower the people of my seed. <sup>12:20</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld, and saw the people of the seed of my brethren that they had overcome my seed; and they went forth in multitudes upon the face of the land. <sup>12:21</sup>And I saw them gathered together in multitudes; and I saw wars and rumors of wars among them; and in wars and rumors of wars I saw many generations pass away. <sup>12:22</sup>And the angel said unto me: Behold these shall dwindle in unbelief. <sup>12:23</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld, after they had dwindled in unbelief they became a dark, and loathsome, and a filthy people, full of idleness and all manner of abominations. <sup>13:1</sup>And it came to pass that the angel spake unto me, saying: Look! And I looked and beheld many nations and kingdoms. <sup>13:2</sup>And the angel said unto me: What beholdest thou? And I said: I behold many nations and kingdoms. <sup>13:3</sup>And he said unto me: These are the nations and kingdoms of the Gentiles. <sup>13:4</sup>And it came to pass that I saw among the nations of the Gentiles the formation of a great church. <sup>13:5</sup>And the angel said unto me: Behold the formation of a church which is most abominable above all other churches, which slayeth the saints of God, yea, and tortureth them and bindeth them down, and yoketh them with a yoke of iron, and bringeth them down into captivity. <sup>13:6</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld this great and abominable church; and I saw the devil that he was the founder of it. <sup>13:7</sup>And I also saw gold, and silver, and silks, and scarlets, and fine-twined linen, and all manner of precious clothing; and I saw many harlots. <sup>13:8</sup>And the angel spake unto me, saying: Behold the gold, and the silver, and the silks, and the scarlets, and the fine-twined linen, and the precious clothing, and the harlots, are the desires of this great and abominable church. <sup>13:9</sup>And also for the praise of the world do they destroy the saints of God, and bring them down into captivity. <sup>13:10</sup>And it came to pass that I looked and beheld many waters; and they divided the Gentiles from the seed of my brethren. <sup>13:11</sup>And it came to pass that the angel said unto me: Behold the wrath of God is upon the seed of thy brethren. <sup>13:12</sup>And I looked and beheld a man among the

Gentiles, who was separated from the seed of my brethren by the many waters; and I beheld the Spirit of God, that it came down and wrought upon the man; and he went forth upon the many waters, even unto the seed of my brethren, who were in the promised land. <sup>13:13</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld the Spirit of God, that it wrought upon other Gentiles; and they went forth out of captivity, upon the many waters. <sup>13:14</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld many multitudes of the Gentiles upon the land of promise; and I beheld the wrath of God, that it was upon the seed of my brethren; and they were scattered before the Gentiles and were smitten. <sup>13:15</sup>And I beheld the Spirit of the Lord, that it was upon the Gentiles, and they did prosper and obtain the land for their inheritance; and I beheld that they were white, and exceedingly fair and beautiful, like unto my people before they were slain. <sup>13:16</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, beheld that the Gentiles who had gone forth out of captivity did humble themselves before the Lord; and the power of the Lord was with them. <sup>13:17</sup>And I beheld that their mother Gentiles were gathered together upon the waters, and upon the land also, to battle against them. <sup>13:18</sup>And I beheld that the power of God was with them, and also that the wrath of God was upon all those that were gathered together against them to battle. <sup>13:19</sup>And I, Nephi, beheld that the Gentiles that had gone out of captivity were delivered by the power of God out of the hands of all other nations. <sup>13:20</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, beheld that they did prosper in the land; and I beheld a book, and it was carried forth among them. <sup>13:21</sup>And the angel said unto me: Knowest thou the meaning of the book? <sup>13:22</sup>And I said unto him: I know not. <sup>13:23</sup>And he said: Behold it proceedeth out of the mouth of a Jew. And I, Nephi, beheld it; and he said unto me: The book that thou beholdest is a record of the Jews, which contains the covenants of the Lord, which he hath made unto the house of Israel; and it also containeth many of the prophecies of the holy prophets; and it is a record like unto the engravings which are upon the plates of brass, save there are not so many; nevertheless, they contain the covenants of the Lord, which he hath made unto the house of Israel; wherefore, they are of great worth unto the Gentiles. <sup>13:24</sup>And the angel of the Lord said unto me: Thou hast beheld that the book proceeded forth from the mouth of a Jew; and when it proceeded forth from the mouth of a Jew it contained the fulness of the gospel of the Lord, of whom the twelve apostles bear record; and they bear record according to the truth which is in the Lamb of God. <sup>13:25</sup>Wherefore, these things go forth from the Jews in purity unto the Gentiles, according to the truth which is in God. <sup>13:26</sup>And after they go forth by the hand of the twelve apostles of the Lamb, from the Jews unto the Gentiles, thou seest the formation of that great and abominable church, which is most abominable above all other churches; for behold, they have taken away from the gospel of the Lamb many parts which are plain and most precious; and also many covenants of the Lord have they taken away. <sup>13:27</sup>And all this have they done that they might pervert the right ways of the Lord, that they might blind the eyes and harden the hearts of the children of men. <sup>13:28</sup>Wherefore, thou seest that after the book hath gone forth through the hands of the great and abominable church, that there are many plain and precious things taken away from the book, which is the book of the Lamb of God. <sup>13:29</sup>And after these plain and precious things were taken away it goeth forth unto all the nations of the Gentiles; and after it goeth forth unto all the nations of the Gentiles, yea, even across the many waters which thou hast seen with the Gentiles which have gone forth out of captivity, thou seest—because of the many plain and precious things which have been taken out of the book, which were plain unto the understanding of the children of men, according to the plainness which is in the Lamb of God—because of these things which are taken away out of the gospel of the Lamb, an exceedingly great many do stumble, yea, insomuch that Satan hath great power over them. <sup>13:30</sup>Nevertheless, thou beholdest that the Gentiles who have gone forth out of captivity, and have been lifted up by the power of God above all other nations, upon the face of the land which is choice above all other lands, which is the land that the Lord God hath covenanted with thy father that his seed should have for the land of their inheritance; wherefore, thou seest that the Lord God will not suffer that the Gentiles will utterly destroy the mixture of thy seed, which are among thy brethren. <sup>13:31</sup>Neither will he suffer that the Gentiles shall destroy the seed of thy brethren. <sup>13:32</sup>Neither will the Lord God suffer that the Gentiles shall forever remain in that awful state of blindness, which thou beholdest they are in, because of the plain and most precious parts of the gospel of the Lamb which have been kept back by that abominable church, whose formation thou hast seen. <sup>13:33</sup>Wherefore saith the Lamb of God: I will be merciful unto the Gentiles, unto the visiting of the remnant of the house of Israel in great judgment. <sup>13:34</sup>And it came to pass that the angel of the Lord spake unto me, saying: Behold, saith the Lamb of God, after I have visited the remnant of the house of Israel—and this remnant of whom I speak is the seed of thy father—wherefore, after I have visited them in judgment, and smitten them by the hand of the Gentiles, and after the Gentiles do stumble exceedingly, because of the most plain and precious parts of the gospel of the Lamb which have been kept back by that abominable church, which is the mother of harlots, saith the Lamb—I will be merciful unto the Gentiles in that day, insomuch that I will bring forth unto them, in mine own power, much of my gospel, which shall be plain and precious, saith the Lamb. <sup>13:35</sup>For, behold, saith the Lamb: I will manifest myself unto thy seed, that they shall write many things which I shall minister unto them, which shall be plain and precious; and after thy seed shall be destroyed, and dwindle in unbelief, and also the seed of thy brethren, behold, these things shall be hid up, to come forth unto the Gentiles, by the gift and power of the Lamb. <sup>13:36</sup>And in them shall be written my gospel, saith the Lamb, and my rock and my salvation. <sup>13:37</sup>And blessed are they who shall seek to bring forth my Zion at that day, for they shall have the gift and the power of the Holy Ghost; and if they endure unto the end they shall be lifted up at the last day, and shall be saved in the everlasting kingdom of the Lamb; and whoso shall publish peace, yea, tidings of great joy, how beautiful upon the mountains shall they be. <sup>13:38</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld the remnant of the seed of my brethren, and also the book of the Lamb of God, which had proceeded forth from the mouth of the Jew, that it came forth from the Gentiles unto the remnant of the seed of my brethren. <sup>13:39</sup>And after it had come forth unto them I beheld other books, which came forth by the power of the Lamb, from the Gentiles unto them, unto the convincing of the Gentiles and the remnant of the seed of my brethren, and also the Jews who were scattered upon all the face of the earth, that the records of the prophets and of the twelve apostles of the Lamb are true. <sup>13:40</sup>And the angel spake unto me, saying: These last records, which thou hast seen among the Gentiles, shall establish the truth of the first, which are of the twelve apostles of the Lamb, and shall make known the plain and precious things which have been taken away from them; and shall make known to all kindreds, tongues, and people, that the Lamb of God is the Son of the Eternal Father, and the Savior of the world; and that all men must come unto him, or they cannot be saved. <sup>13:41</sup>And they must come according to the words which shall be established by the mouth of the Lamb; and the words of the Lamb shall be made known in the records of thy seed, as well as in the records of the twelve apostles of the Lamb; wherefore they both shall be established in one; for there is one God and one Shepherd over all the earth. <sup>13:42</sup>And the time cometh that he shall manifest himself unto all nations, both unto the Jews and also unto the Gentiles; and after he has manifested himself unto the Jews and also unto the Gentiles, then he shall manifest himself unto the Gentiles and also unto the Jews, and the last shall be first, and the first shall be last. <sup>14:1</sup>And it shall come to pass, that if the Gentiles shall hearken unto the Lamb of God in that day that he shall manifest himself unto them in word, and also in power, in very deed, unto the taking away of their stumbling blocks—<sup>14:2</sup>and harden not their hearts against the Lamb of God, they shall be numbered among the seed of thy father; yea, they shall be numbered among the house of Israel; and they shall be a blessed people upon the promised land forever; they shall be no more brought down into captivity; and the house of Israel shall no more be confounded. <sup>14:3</sup>And that great pit, which hath been digged for them by that great and abominable church, which was founded by the devil and his children, that he might lead away the souls of men down to hell— yea, that great pit which hath been digged for the destruction of men shall be filled by those who digged it, unto their utter destruction, saith the Lamb of God; not the destruction of the soul, save it be the casting of it into that hell which hath no end. <sup>14:4</sup>For behold, this is according to the captivity of the devil, and also according to the justice of God, upon all those who will work wickedness and abomination before him. <sup>14:5</sup>And it came to pass that the angel spake unto me, Nephi, saying: Thou hast beheld that if the Gentiles repent it shall be well with them; and thou also knowest concerning the covenants of the Lord unto the house of Israel; and thou also hast heard that whoso repenteth not must perish. <sup>14:6</sup>Therefore, wo be unto the Gentiles if it so be that they harden their hearts against the Lamb of God. <sup>14:7</sup>For the time cometh, saith the Lamb of God, that I will work a great and a marvelous work among the children of men; a work which shall be everlasting, either on the one hand or on the other — either to the convincing of them unto peace and life eternal, or unto the deliverance of them to the hardness of their hearts and the blindness of their minds unto their being brought down into captivity, and also into destruction, both temporally and spiritually, according to the captivity of the devil, of which I have spoken. <sup>14:8</sup>And it came to pass that when the angel had spoken these words, he said unto me: Rememberest thou the covenants of the Father unto the house of Israel? I said unto him, Yea. <sup>14:9</sup>And it came to pass that he said unto me: Look, and behold that great and abominable church, which is the mother of abominations, whose founder is the devil. <sup>14:10</sup>And he said unto me: Behold there are save two churches only; the one is the church of the Lamb of God, and the other is the church of the devil; wherefore, whoso belongeth not to the church of the Lamb of God belongeth to that great church, which is the mother of abominations; and she is the whore of all the earth. <sup>14:11</sup>And it came to pass that I looked and beheld the whore of all the earth, and she sat upon many waters; and she had dominion over all the earth, among all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people. <sup>14:12</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld the church of the Lamb of God, and its numbers were few, because of the wickedness and abominations of the whore who sat upon many waters; nevertheless, I beheld that the church of the Lamb, who were the saints of God, were also upon all the face of the earth; and their dominions upon the face of the earth were small, because of the wickedness of the great whore whom I saw. <sup>14:13</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld that the great mother of abominations did gather together multitudes upon the face of all the earth, among all the nations of the Gentiles, to fight against the Lamb of God. <sup>14:14</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, beheld the power of the Lamb of God, that it descended upon the saints of the church of the Lamb, and upon the covenant people of the Lord, who were scattered upon all the face of the earth; and they were armed with righteousness and with the power of God in great glory. <sup>14:15</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld that the wrath of God was poured out upon that great and abominable church, insomuch that there were wars and rumors of wars among all the nations and kindreds of the earth. <sup>14:16</sup>And as there began to be wars and rumors of wars among all the nations which belonged to the mother of abominations, the angel spake unto me, saying: Behold, the wrath of God is upon the mother of harlots; and behold, thou seest all these things — <sup>14:17</sup>and when the day cometh that the wrath of God is poured out upon the mother of harlots, which is the great and abominable church of all the earth, whose founder is the devil, then, at that day, the work of the Father shall commence, in preparing the way for the fulfilling of his covenants, which he hath made to his people who are of the house of Israel. <sup>14:18</sup>And it came to pass that the angel spake unto me, saying: Look! <sup>14:19</sup>And I looked and beheld a man, and he was dressed in a white robe. <sup>14:20</sup>And the angel said unto me: Behold one of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. <sup>14:21</sup>Behold, he shall see and write the remainder of these things; yea, and also many things which have been. <sup>14:22</sup>And he shall also write concerning the end of the world. <sup>14:23</sup>Wherefore, the things which he shall write are just and true; and behold they are written in the book which thou beheld proceeding out of the mouth of the Jew; and at the time they proceeded out of the mouth of the Jew, or, at the time the book proceeded out of the mouth of the Jew, the things which were written were plain and pure, and most precious and easy to the understanding of all men. <sup>14:24</sup>And behold, the things which this apostle of the Lamb shall write are many things which thou hast seen; and behold, the remainder shalt thou see. <sup>14:25</sup>But the things which thou shalt see hereafter thou shalt not write; for the Lord God hath ordained the apostle of the Lamb of God that he should write them. <sup>14:26</sup>And also others who have been, to them hath he shown all things, and they have written them; and they are sealed up to come forth in their purity, according to the truth which is in the Lamb, in the own due time of the Lord, unto the house of Israel. <sup>14:27</sup>And I, Nephi, heard and bear record, that the name of the apostle of the Lamb was John, according to the word of the angel. <sup>14:28</sup>And behold, I, Nephi, am forbidden that I should write the remainder of the things which I saw and heard; wherefore the things which I have written sufficeth me; and I have written but a small part of the things which I saw. <sup>14:29</sup>And I bear record that I saw the things which my father saw, and the angel of the Lord did make them known unto me. <sup>14:30</sup>And now I make an end of speaking concerning the things which I saw while I was carried away in the spirit; and if all the things which I saw are not written, the things which I have written are true. And thus it is. Amen. <sup><IV>15:1</sup>And it came to pass that after I, Nephi, had been carried away in the spirit, and seen all these things, I returned to the tent of my father. <sup>15:2</sup>And it came to pass that I beheld my brethren, and they were disputing one with another concerning the things which my father had spoken unto them. <sup>15:3</sup>For he truly spake many great things unto them, which were hard to be understood, save a man should inquire of the Lord; and they being hard in their hearts, therefore they did not look unto the Lord as they ought. <sup>15:4</sup>And now I, Nephi, was grieved because of the hardness of their hearts, and also, because of the things which I had seen, and knew they must unavoidably come to pass because of the great wickedness of the children of men. <sup>15:5</sup>And it came to pass that I was overcome because of my afflictions, for I considered that mine afflictions were great above all, because of the destruction of my people, for I had beheld their fall. <sup>15:6</sup>And it came to pass that after I had received strength I spake unto my brethren, desiring to know of them the cause of their disputations. <sup>15:7</sup>And they said: Behold, we cannot understand the words which our father hath spoken concerning the natural branches of the olive-tree, and also concerning the Gentiles. <sup>15:8</sup>And I said unto them: Have ye inquired of the Lord? <sup>15:9</sup>And they said unto me: We have not; for the Lord maketh no such thing known unto us. <sup>15:10</sup>Behold, I said unto them: How is it that ye do not keep the commandments of the Lord? How is it that ye will perish, because of the hardness of your hearts? <sup>15:11</sup>Do ye not remember the things which the Lord hath said?—If ye will not harden your hearts, and ask me in faith, believing that ye shall receive, with diligence in keeping my commandments, surely these things shall be made known unto you. <sup>15:12</sup>Behold, I say unto you, that the house of Israel was compared unto an olive-tree, by the Spirit of the Lord which was in our father; and behold are we not broken off from the house of Israel, and are we not a branch of the house of Israel? <sup>15:13</sup>And now, the thing which our father meaneth concerning the grafting in of the natural branches through the fulness of the Gentiles, is, that in the latter days, when our seed shall have dwindled in unbelief, yea, for the space of many years, and many generations after the Messiah shall be manifested in body unto the children of men, then shall the fulness of the gospel of the Messiah come unto the Gentiles, and from the Gentiles unto the remnant of our seed — <sup>15:14</sup>and at that day shall the remnant of our seed know that they are of the house of Israel, and that they are the covenant people of the Lord; and then shall they know and come to the knowledge of their forefathers, and also to the knowledge of the gospel of their Redeemer, which was ministered unto their fathers by him; wherefore, they shall come to the knowledge of their Redeemer and the very points of his doctrine, that they may know how to come unto him and be saved. <sup>15:15</sup>And then at that day will they not rejoice and give praise unto their everlasting God, their rock and their salvation? Yea, at that day, will they not receive the strength and nourishment from the true vine? Yea, will they not come unto the true fold of God? <sup>15:16</sup>Behold, I say unto you, Yea; they shall be remembered again among the house of Israel; they shall be grafted in, being a natural branch of the olive-tree, into the true olive-tree. <sup>15:17</sup>And this is what our father meaneth; and he meaneth that it will not come to pass until after they are scattered by the Gentiles; and he meaneth that it shall come by way of the Gentiles, that the Lord may show his power unto the Gentiles, for the very cause that he shall be rejected of the Jews, or of the house of Israel. <sup>15:18</sup>Wherefore, our father hath not spoken of our seed alone, but also of all the house of Israel, pointing to the covenant which should be fulfilled in the latter days; which covenant the Lord made to our father Abraham, saying: In thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. <sup>15:19</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, spake much unto them concerning these things; yea, I spake unto them concerning the restoration of the Jews in the latter days. <sup>15:20</sup>And I did rehearse unto them the words of Isaiah, who spake concerning the restoration of the Jews, or of the house of Israel; and after they were restored they should no more be confounded, neither should they be scattered again. And it came to pass that I did speak many words unto my brethren, that they were pacified and did humble themselves before the Lord. <sup>15:21</sup>And it came to pass that they did speak unto me again, saying: What meaneth this thing which our father saw in a dream? What meaneth the tree which he saw? <sup>15:22</sup>And I said unto them: It was a representation of the tree of life. <sup>15:23</sup>And they said unto me: What meaneth the rod of iron which our father saw, that led to the tree? <sup>15:24</sup>And I said unto them that it was the word of God; and whoso would hearken unto the word of God, and would hold fast unto it, they would never perish; neither could the temptations and the fiery darts of the adversary overpower them unto blindness, to lead them away to destruction. <sup>15:25</sup>Wherefore, I, Nephi, did exhort them to give heed unto the word of the Lord; yea, I did exhort them with all the energies of my soul, and with all the faculty which I possessed, that they would give heed to the word of God and remember to keep his commandments always in all things. <sup>15:26</sup>And they said unto me: What meaneth the river of water which our father saw? <sup>15:27</sup>And I said unto them that the water which my father saw was filthiness; and so much was his mind swallowed up in other things that he beheld not the filthiness of the water. <sup>15:28</sup>And I said unto them that it was an awful gulf, which separated the wicked from the tree of life, and also from the saints of God. <sup>15:29</sup>And I said unto them that it was a representation of that awful hell, which the angel said unto me was prepared for the wicked. <sup>15:30</sup>And I said unto them that our father also saw that the justice of God did also divide the wicked from the righteous; and the brightness thereof was like unto the brightness of a flaming fire, which ascendeth up unto God forever and ever, and hath no end. <sup>15:31</sup>And they said unto me: Doth this thing mean the torment of the body in the days of probation, or doth it mean the final state of the soul after the death of the temporal body, or doth it speak of the things which are temporal? <sup>15:32</sup>And it came to pass that I said unto them that it was a representation of things both temporal and spiritual; for the day should come that they must be judged of their works, yea, even the works which were done by the temporal body in their days of probation. <sup>15:33</sup>Wherefore, if they should die in their wickedness they must be cast off also, as to the things which are spiritual, which are pertaining to righteousness; wherefore, they must be brought to stand before God, to be judged of their works; and if their works have been filthiness they must needs be filthy; and if they be filthy it must needs be that they cannot dwell in the kingdom of God; if so, the kingdom of God must be filthy also. <sup>15:34</sup>But behold, I say unto you, the kingdom of God is not filthy, and there cannot any unclean thing enter into the kingdom of God; wherefore there must needs be a place of filthiness prepared for that which is filthy. <sup>15:35</sup>And there is a place prepared, yea, even that awful hell of which I have spoken, and the devil is the preparator of it; wherefore the final state of the souls of men is to dwell in the kingdom of God, or to be cast out because of that justice of which I have spoken. <sup>15:36</sup>Wherefore, the wicked are rejected from the righteous, and also from that tree of life, whose fruit is most precious and most desirable above all other fruits; yea, and it is the greatest of all the gifts of God. And thus I spake unto my brethren. Amen.

<V><sup>16:1</sup>And now it came to pass that after I, Nephi, had made an end of speaking to my brethren, behold they said unto me: Thou hast declared unto us hard things, more than we are able to bear. <sup>16:2</sup>And it came to pass that I said unto them that I knew that I had spoken hard things against the wicked, according to the truth; and the righteous have I justified, and testified that they should be lifted up at the last day; wherefore, the guilty taketh the truth to be hard, for it cutteth them to the very center. <sup>16:3</sup>And now my brethren, if ye were righteous and were willing to hearken to the truth, and give heed unto it, that ye might walk uprightly before God, then ye would not murmur because of the truth, and say: Thou speakest hard things against us. <sup>16:4</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, did exhort my brethren, with all diligence, to keep the commandments of the Lord. <sup>16:5</sup>And it came to pass that they did humble themselves before the Lord; insomuch that I had joy and great hopes of them, that they would walk in the paths of righteousness. <sup>16:6</sup>Now, all these things were said and done as my father dwelt in a tent in the valley which he called Lemuel. <sup>16:7</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, took one of the daughters of Ishmael to wife; and also, my brethren took of the daughters of Ishmael to wife; and also Zoram took the eldest daughter of Ishmael to wife. <sup>16:8</sup>And thus my father had fulfilled all the commandments of the Lord which had been given unto him. And also, I, Nephi, had been blessed of the Lord exceedingly. <sup>16:9</sup>And it came to pass that the voice of the Lord spake unto my father by night, and commanded him that on the morrow he should take his journey into the wilderness. <sup>16:10</sup>And it came to pass that as my father arose in the morning, and went forth to the tent door, to his great astonishment he beheld upon the ground a round ball of curious workmanship; and it was of fine brass. And within the ball were two spindles; and the one pointed the way whither we should go into the wilderness. <sup>16:11</sup>And it came to pass that we did gather together whatsoever things we should carry into the wilderness, and all the remainder of our provisions which the Lord had given unto us; and we did take seed of every kind that we might carry into the wilderness. <sup>16:12</sup>And it came to pass that we did take our tents and depart into the wilderness, across the river Laman. <sup>16:13</sup>And it came to pass that we traveled for the space of four days, nearly a south-southeast direction, and we did pitch our tents again; and we did call the name of the place Shazer. <sup>16:14</sup>And it came to pass that we did take our bows and our arrows, and go forth into the wilderness to slay food for our families; and after we had slain food for our families we did return again to our families in the wilderness, to the place of Shazer. And we did go forth again in the wilderness, following the same direction, keeping in the most fertile parts of the wilderness, which were in the borders near the Red Sea. <sup>16:15</sup>And it came to pass that we did travel for the space of many days, slaying food by the way, with our bows and our arrows and our stones and our slings. <sup>16:16</sup>And we did follow the directions of the ball, which led us in the more fertile parts of the wilderness. <sup>16:17</sup>And after we had traveled for the space of many days, we did pitch our tents for the space of a time, that we might again rest ourselves and obtain food for our families. <sup>16:18</sup>And it came to pass that as I, Nephi, went forth to slay food, behold, I did break my bow, which was made of fine steel; and after I did break my bow, behold, my brethren were angry with me because of the loss of my bow, for we did obtain no food. <sup>16:19</sup>And it came to pass that we did return without food to our families, and being much fatigued, because of their journeying, they did suffer much for the want of food. <sup>16:20</sup>And it came to pass that Laman and Lemuel and the sons of Ishmael did begin to murmur exceedingly, because of their sufferings and afflictions in the wilderness; and also my father began to murmur against the Lord his God; yea, and they were all exceedingly sorrowful, even that they did murmur against the Lord. <sup>16:21</sup>Now it came to pass that I, Nephi, having been afflicted with my brethren because of the loss of my bow, and their bows having lost their springs, it began to be exceedingly difficult, yea, insomuch that we could obtain no food. <sup>16:22</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, did speak much unto my brethren, because they had hardened their hearts again, even unto complaining against the Lord their God. <sup>16:23</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, did make out of wood a bow, and out of a straight stick, an arrow; wherefore, I did arm myself with a bow and an arrow, with a sling and with stones. And I said unto my father: Whither shall I go to obtain food? <sup>16:24</sup>And it came to pass that he did inquire of the Lord, for they had humbled themselves because of my words; for I did say many things unto them in the energy of my soul. <sup>16:25</sup>And it came to pass that the voice of the Lord came unto my father; and he was truly chastened because of his murmuring against the Lord, insomuch that he was brought down into the depths of sorrow. <sup>16:26</sup>And it came to pass that the voice of the Lord said unto him: Look upon the ball, and behold the things which are written. <sup>16:27</sup>And it came to pass that when my father beheld the things which were written upon the ball, he did fear and tremble exceedingly, and also my brethren and the sons of Ishmael and our wives. <sup>16:28</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, beheld the pointers which were in the ball, that they did work according to the faith and diligence and heed which we did give unto them. <sup>16:29</sup>And there was also written upon them a new writing, which was plain to be read, which did give us understanding concerning the ways of the Lord; and it was written and changed from time to time, according to the faith and diligence which we gave unto it. And thus we see that by small means the Lord can bring about great things. <sup>16:30</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, did go forth up into the top of the mountain, according to the directions which were given upon the ball. <sup>16:31</sup>And it came to pass that I did slay wild beasts, insomuch that I did obtain food for our families. <sup>16:32</sup>And it came to pass that I did return to our tents, bearing the beasts which I had slain; and now when they beheld that I had obtained food, how great was their joy! And it came to pass that they did humble themselves before the Lord, and did give thanks unto him. <sup>16:33</sup>And it came to pass that we did again take our journey, traveling nearly the same course as in the beginning; and after we had traveled for the space of many days we did pitch our tents again, that we might tarry for the space of a time. <sup>16:34</sup>And it came to pass that Ishmael died, and was buried in the place which was called Nahom. <sup>16:35</sup>And it came to pass that the daughters of Ishmael did mourn exceedingly, because of the loss of their father, and because of their afflictions in the wilderness; and they did murmur against my father, because he had brought them out of the land of Jerusalem, saying: Our father is dead; yea, and we have wandered much in the wilderness, and we have suffered much affliction, hunger, thirst, and fatigue; and after all these sufferings we must perish in the wilderness with hunger. <sup>16:36</sup>And thus they did murmur against my father, and also against me; and they were desirous to return again to Jerusalem. <sup>16:37</sup>And Laman said unto Lemuel and also unto the sons of Ishmael: Behold, let us slay our father, and also our brother Nephi, who has taken it upon him to be our ruler and our teacher, who are his elder brethren. <sup>16:38</sup>Now, he says that the Lord has talked with him, and also that angels have ministered unto him. But behold, we know that he lies unto us; and he tells us these things, and he worketh many things by his cunning arts, that he may deceive our eyes, thinking, perhaps, that he may lead us away into some strange wilderness; and after he has led us away, he has thought to make himself a king and a ruler over us, that he may do with us according to his will and pleasure. And after this manner did my brother Laman stir up their hearts to anger. <sup>16:39</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord was with us, yea, even the voice of the Lord came and did speak many words unto them, and did chasten them exceedingly; and after they were chastened by the voice of the Lord they did turn away their anger, and did repent of their sins, insomuch that the Lord did bless us again with food, that we did not perish. <sup>17:1</sup>And it came to pass that we did again take our journey in the wilderness; and we did travel nearly eastward from that time forth. And we did travel and wade through much affliction in the wilderness; and our women did bear children in the wilderness. <sup>17:2</sup>And so great were the blessings of the Lord upon us, that while we did live upon raw meat in the wilderness, our women did give plenty of suck for their children, and were strong, yea, even like unto the men; and they began to bear their journeyings without murmurings. <sup>17:3</sup>And thus we see that the commandments of God must be fulfilled. And if it so be that the children of men keep the commandments of God he doth nourish them, and strengthen them, and provide means whereby they can accomplish the thing which he has commanded them; wherefore, he did provide means for us while we did sojourn in the wilderness. <sup>17:4</sup>And we did sojourn for the space of many years, yea, even eight years in the wilderness. <sup>17:5</sup>And we did come to the land which we called Bountiful, because of its much fruit and also wild honey; and all these things were prepared of the Lord that we might not perish. And we beheld the sea, which we called Irreantum, which, being interpreted, is many waters. <sup>17:6</sup>And it came to pass that we did pitch our tents by the seashore; and notwithstanding we had suffered many afflictions and much difficulty, yea, even so much that we cannot write them all, we were exceedingly rejoiced when we came to the seashore; and we called the place Bountiful, because of its much fruit. <sup>17:7</sup>And it came to pass that after I, Nephi, had been in the land of Bountiful for the space of many days, the voice of the Lord came unto me, saying: Arise, and get thee into the mountain. And it came to pass that I arose and went up into the mountain, and cried unto the Lord. <sup>17:8</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord spake unto me, saying: Thou shalt construct a ship, after the manner which I shall show thee, that I may carry thy people across these waters. <sup>17:9</sup>And I said: Lord, whither shall I go that I may find ore to molten, that I may make tools to construct the ship after the manner which thou hast shown unto me? <sup>17:10</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord told me whither I should go to find ore, that I might make tools. <sup>17:11</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, did make a bellows wherewith to blow the fire, of the skins of beasts; and after I had made a bellows, that I might have wherewith to blow the fire, I did smite two stones together that I might make fire. <sup>17:12</sup>For the Lord had not hitherto suffered that we should make much fire, as we journeyed in the wilderness; for he said: I will make thy food become sweet, that ye cook it not; <sup>17:13</sup>and I will also be your light in the wilderness; and I will prepare the way before you, if it so be that ye shall keep my commandments; wherefore, inasmuch as ye shall keep my commandments ye shall be led towards the promised land; and ye shall know that it is by me that ye are led. <sup>17:14</sup>Yea, and the Lord said also that: After ye have arrived in the promised land, ye shall know that I, the Lord, am God; and that I, the Lord, did deliver you from destruction; yea, that I did bring you out of the land of Jerusalem. <sup>17:15</sup>Wherefore, I, Nephi, did strive to keep the commandments of the Lord, and I did exhort my brethren to faithfulness and diligence. <sup>17:16</sup>And it came to pass that I did make tools of the ore which I did molten out of the rock. <sup>17:17</sup>And when my brethren saw that I was about to build a ship, they began to murmur against me, saying: Our brother is a fool, for he thinketh that he can build a ship; yea, and he also thinketh that he can cross these great waters. <sup>17:18</sup>And thus my brethren did complain against me, and were desirous that they might not labor, for they did not believe that I could build a ship; neither would they believe that I was instructed of the Lord. <sup>17:19</sup>And now it came to pass that I, Nephi, was exceedingly sorrowful because of the hardness of their hearts; and now when they saw that I began to be sorrowful they were glad in their hearts, insomuch that they did rejoice over me, saying: We knew that ye could not construct a ship, for we knew that ye were lacking in judgment; wherefore, thou canst not accomplish so great a work. <sup>17:20</sup>And thou art like unto our father, led away by the foolish imaginations of his heart; yea, he hath led us out of the land of Jerusalem, and we have wandered in the wilderness for these many years; and our women have toiled, being big with child; and they have borne children in the wilderness and suffered all things, save it were death; and it would have been better that they had died before they came out of Jerusalem than to have suffered these afflictions. <sup>17:21</sup>Behold, these many years we have suffered in the wilderness, which time we might have enjoyed our possessions and the land of our inheritance; yea, and we might have been happy. <sup>17:22</sup>And we know that the people who were in the land of Jerusalem were a righteous people; for they kept the statutes and judgments of the Lord, and all his commandments, according to the law of Moses; wherefore, we know that they are a righteous people; and our father hath judged them, and hath led us away because we would hearken unto his words; yea, and our brother is like unto him. And after this manner of language did my brethren murmur and complain against us. <sup>17:23</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, spake unto them, saying: Do ye believe that our fathers, who were the children of Israel, would have been led away out of the hands of the Egyptians if they had not hearkened unto the words of the Lord? <sup>17:24</sup>Yea, do ye suppose that they would have been led out of bondage, if the Lord had not commanded Moses that he should lead them out of bondage? <sup>17:25</sup>Now ye know that the children of Israel were in bondage; and ye know that they were laden with tasks, which were grievous to be borne; wherefore, ye know that it must needs be a good thing for them, that they should be brought out of bondage. <sup>17:26</sup>Now ye know that Moses was commanded of the Lord to do that great work; and ye know that by his word the waters of the Red Sea were divided hither and thither, and they passed through on dry ground. <sup>17:27</sup>But ye know that the Egyptians were drowned in the Red Sea, who were the armies of Pharaoh. <sup>17:28</sup>And ye also know that they were fed with manna in the wilderness. <sup>17:29</sup>Yea, and ye also know that Moses, by his word according to the power of God which was in him, smote the rock, and there came forth water, that the children of Israel might quench their thirst. <sup>17:30</sup>And notwithstanding they being led, the Lord their God, their Redeemer, going before them, leading them by day and giving light unto them by night, and doing all things for them which were expedient for man to receive, they hardened their hearts and blinded their minds, and reviled against Moses and against the true and living God. <sup>17:31</sup>And it came to pass that according to his word he did destroy them; and according to his word he did lead them; and according to his word he did do all things for them; and there was not any thing done save it were by his word. <sup>17:32</sup>And after they had crossed the river Jordan he did make them mighty unto the driving out of the children of the land, yea, unto the scattering them to destruction. <sup>17:33</sup>And now, do ye suppose that the children of this land, who were in the land of promise, who were driven out by our fathers, do ye suppose that they were righteous? Behold, I say unto you, Nay. <sup>17:34</sup>Do ye suppose that our fathers would have been more choice than they if they had been righteous? I say unto you, Nay. <sup>17:35</sup>Behold, the Lord esteemeth all flesh in one; he that is righteous is favored of God. But behold, this people had rejected every word of God, and they were ripe in iniquity; and the fulness of the wrath of God was upon them; and the Lord did curse the land against them, and bless it unto our fathers; yea, he did curse it against them unto their destruction, and he did bless it unto our fathers unto their obtaining power over it. <sup>17:36</sup>Behold, the Lord hath created the earth that it should be inhabited; and he hath created his children that they should possess it. <sup>17:37</sup>And he raiseth up a righteous nation, and destroyeth the nations of the wicked. <sup>17:38</sup>And he leadeth away the righteous into precious lands, and the wicked he destroyeth, and curseth the land unto them for their sakes. <sup>17:39</sup>He ruleth high in the heavens, for it is his throne, and this earth is his footstool. <sup>17:40</sup>And he loveth those who will have him to be their God. Behold, he loved our fathers, and he covenanted with them, yea, even Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and he remembered the covenants which he had made; wherefore, he did bring them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>17:41</sup>And he did straiten them in the wilderness with his rod; for they hardened their hearts, even as ye have; and the Lord straitened them because of their iniquity. He sent fiery flying serpents among them; and after they were bitten he prepared a way that they might be healed; and the labor which they had to perform was to look; and because of the simpleness of the way, or the easiness of it, there were many who perished.

<sup>17:42</sup>And they did harden their hearts from time to time, and they did revile against Moses, and also against God; nevertheless, ye know that they were led forth by his matchless power into the land of promise. <sup>17:43</sup>And now, after all these things, the time has come that they have become wicked, yea, nearly unto ripeness; and I know not but they are at this day about to be destroyed; for I know that the day must surely come that they must be destroyed, save a few only, who shall be led away into captivity. <sup>17:44</sup>Wherefore, the Lord commanded my father that he should depart into the wilderness; and the Jews also sought to take away his life; yea, and ye also have sought to take away his life; wherefore, ye are murderers in your hearts and ye are like unto them. <sup>17:45</sup>Ye are swift to do iniquity but slow to remember the Lord your God. Ye have seen an angel, and he spake unto you; yea, ye have heard his voice from time to time; and he hath spoken unto you in a still small voice, but ye were past feeling, that ye could not feel his words; wherefore, he has spoken unto you like unto the voice of thunder, which did cause the earth to shake as if it were to divide asunder. <sup>17:46</sup>And ye also know that by the power of his almighty word he can cause the earth that it shall pass away; yea, and ye know that by his word he can cause the rough places to be made smooth, and smooth places shall be broken up. O, then, why is it, that ye can be so hard in your hearts? <sup>17:47</sup>Behold, my soul is rent with anguish because of you, and my heart is pained; I fear lest ye shall be cast off forever. Behold, I am full of the Spirit of God, insomuch that my frame has no strength.

<sup>17:48</sup>And now it came to pass that when I had spoken these words they were angry with me, and were desirous to throw me into the depths of the sea; and as they came forth to lay their hands upon me I spake unto them, saying: In the name of the Almighty God, I command you that ye touch me not, for I am filled with the power of God, even unto the consuming of my flesh; and whoso shall lay his hands upon me shall wither even as a dried reed; and he shall be as naught before the power of God, for God shall smite him. <sup>17:49</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, said unto them that they should murmur no more against their father; neither should they withhold their labor from me, for God had commanded me that I should build a ship. <sup>17:50</sup>And I said unto them: If God had commanded me to do all things I could do them. If he should command me that I should say unto this water, be thou earth, it should be earth; and if I should say it, it would be done. <sup>17:51</sup>And now, if the Lord has such great power, and has wrought so many miracles among the children of men, how is it that he cannot instruct me, that I should build a ship? <sup>17:52</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, said many things unto my brethren, insomuch that they were confounded and could not contend against me; neither durst they lay their hands upon me nor touch me with their fingers, even for the space of many days. Now they durst not do this lest they should wither before me, so powerful was the Spirit of God; and thus it had wrought upon them. <sup>17:53</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord said unto me: Stretch forth thine hand again unto thy brethren, and they shall not wither before thee, but I will shock them, saith the Lord, and this will I do, that they may know that I am the Lord their God. <sup>17:54</sup>And it came to pass that I stretched forth my hand unto my brethren, and they did not wither before me; but the Lord did shake them, even according to the word which he had spoken. <sup>17:55</sup>And now, they said: We know of a surety that the Lord is with thee, for we know that it is the power of the Lord that has shaken us. And they fell down before me, and were about to worship me, but I would not suffer them, saying: I am thy brother, yea, even thy younger brother; wherefore, worship the Lord thy God, and honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God shall give thee. <sup>18:1</sup>And it came to pass that they did worship the Lord, and did go forth with me; and we did work timbers of curious workmanship. And the Lord did show me from time to time after what manner I should work the timbers of the ship. <sup>18:2</sup>Now I, Nephi, did not work the timbers after the manner which was learned by men, neither did I build the ship after the manner of men; but I did build it after the manner which the Lord had shown unto me; wherefore, it was not after the manner of men. <sup>18:3</sup>And I, Nephi, did go into the mount oft, and I did pray oft unto the Lord; wherefore the Lord showed unto me great things. <sup>18:4</sup>And it came to pass that after I had finished the ship, according to the word of the Lord, my brethren beheld that it was good, and that the workmanship thereof was exceedingly fine; wherefore, they did humble themselves again before the Lord. <sup>18:5</sup>And it came to pass that the voice of the Lord came unto my father, that we should arise and go down into the ship. <sup>18:6</sup>And it came to pass that on the morrow, after we had prepared all things, much fruits and meat from the wilderness, and honey in abundance, and provisions according to that which the Lord had commanded us, we did go down into the ship, with all our loading and our seeds, and whatsoever thing we had brought with us, every one according to his age; wherefore, we did all go down into the ship, with our wives and our children. <sup>18:7</sup>And now, my father had begat two sons in the wilderness; the elder was called Jacob and the younger Joseph. <sup>18:8</sup>And it came to pass after we had all gone down into the ship, and had taken with us our provisions and things which had been commanded us, we did put forth into the sea and were driven forth before the wind towards the promised land. <sup>18:9</sup>And after we had been driven forth before the wind for the space of many days, behold, my brethren and the sons of Ishmael and also their wives began to make themselves merry, insomuch that they began to dance, and to sing, and to speak with much rudeness, yea, even that they did forget by what power they had been brought thither; yea, they were lifted up unto exceeding rudeness. <sup>18:10</sup>And I, Nephi, began to fear exceedingly lest the Lord should be angry with us, and smite us because of our iniquity, that we should be swallowed up in the depths of the sea; wherefore, I, Nephi, began to speak to them with much soberness; but behold they were angry with me, saying: We will not that our younger brother shall be a ruler over us. <sup>18:11</sup>And it came to pass that Laman and Lemuel did take me and bind me with cords, and they did treat me with much harshness; nevertheless, the Lord did suffer it that he might show forth his power, unto the fulfilling of his word which he had spoken concerning the wicked. <sup>18:12</sup>And it came to pass that after they had bound me insomuch that I could not move, the compass, which had been prepared of the Lord, did cease to work. <sup>18:13</sup>Wherefore, they knew not whither they should steer the ship, insomuch that there arose a great storm, yea, a great and terrible tempest, and we were driven back upon the waters for the space of three days; and they began to be frightened exceedingly lest they should be drowned in the sea; nevertheless they did not loose me. <sup>18:14</sup>And on the fourth day, which we had been driven back, the tempest began to be exceedingly sore. <sup>18:15</sup>And it came to pass that we were about to be swallowed up in the depths of the sea. And after we had been driven back upon the waters for the space of four days, my brethren began to see that the judgments of God were upon them, and that they must perish save that they should repent of their iniquities; wherefore, they came unto me, and loosed the bands which were upon my wrists, and behold they had swollen exceedingly; and also mine ankles were much swollen, and great was the soreness thereof. <sup>18:16</sup>Nevertheless, I did look unto my God, and I did praise him all the day long; and I did not murmur against the Lord because of mine afflictions. <sup>18:17</sup>Now my father, Lehi, had said many things unto them, and also unto the sons of Ishmael; but, behold, they did breathe out much threatenings against anyone that should speak for me; and my parents being stricken in years, and having suffered much grief because of their children, they were brought down, yea, even upon their sick-beds. <sup>18:18</sup>Because of their grief and much sorrow, and the iniquity of my brethren, they were brought near even to be carried out of this time to meet their God; yea, their grey hairs were about to be brought down to lie low in the dust; yea, even they were near to be cast with sorrow into a watery grave. <sup>18:19</sup>And Jacob and Joseph also, being young, having need of much nourishment, were grieved because of the afflictions of their mother; and also my wife with her tears and prayers, and also my children, did not soften the hearts of my brethren that they would loose me. <sup>18:20</sup>And there was nothing save it were the power of God, which threatened them with destruction, could soften their hearts; wherefore, when they saw that they were about to be swallowed up in the depths of the sea they repented of the thing which they had done, insomuch that they loosed me. <sup>18:21</sup>And it came to pass after they had loosed me, behold, I took the compass, and it did work whither I desired it. And it came to pass that I prayed unto the Lord; and after I had prayed the winds did cease, and the storm did cease, and there was a great calm. <sup>18:22</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, did guide the ship, that we sailed again towards the promised land. <sup>18:23</sup>And it came to pass that after we had sailed for the space of many days we did arrive at the promised land; and we went forth upon the land, and did pitch our tents; and we did call it the promised land. <sup>18:24</sup>And it came to pass that we did begin to till the earth, and we began to plant seeds; yea, we did put all our seeds into the earth, which we had brought from the land of Jerusalem. And it came to pass that they did grow exceedingly; wherefore, we were blessed in abundance. <sup>18:25</sup>And it came to pass that we did find upon the land of promise, as we journeyed in the wilderness, that there were beasts in the forests of every kind, both the cow and the ox, and the ass and the horse, and the goat and the wild goat, and all manner of wild animals, which were for the use of men. And we did find all manner of ore, both of gold, and of silver, and of copper. <sup>19:1</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord commanded me, wherefore I did make plates of ore that I might engraven upon them the record of my people. And upon the plates which I made I did engraven the record of my father, and also our journeyings in the wilderness, and the prophecies of my father; and also many of mine own prophecies have I engraven upon them. <sup>19:2</sup>And I knew not at the time when I made them that I should be commanded of the Lord to make these plates; wherefore, the record of my father, and the genealogy of his fathers, and the more part of all our proceedings in the wilderness are engraven upon those first plates of which I have spoken; wherefore, the things which transpired before I made these plates are, of a truth, more particularly made mention upon the first plates. <sup>19:3</sup>And after I had made these plates by way of commandment, I, Nephi, received a commandment that the ministry and the prophecies, the more plain and precious parts of them, should be written upon these plates; and that the things which were written should be kept for the instruction of my people, who should possess the land, and also for other wise purposes, which purposes are known unto the Lord. <sup>19:4</sup>Wherefore, I, Nephi, did make a record upon the other plates, which gives an account, or which gives a greater account of the wars and contentions and destructions of my people. And this have I done, and commanded my people what they should do after I was gone; and that these plates should be handed down from one generation to another, or from one prophet to another, until further commandments of the Lord. <sup>19:5</sup>And an account of my making these plates shall be given hereafter; and then, behold, I proceed according to that which I have spoken; and this I do that the more sacred things may be kept for the knowledge of my people. <sup>19:6</sup>Nevertheless, I do not write anything upon plates save it be that I think it be sacred. And now, if I do err, even did they err of old; not that I would excuse myself because of other men, but because of the weakness which is in me, according to the flesh, I would excuse myself. <sup>19:7</sup>For the things which some men esteem to be of great worth, both to the body and soul, others set at naught and trample under their feet. Yea, even the very God of Israel do men trample under their feet; I say, trample under their feet but I would speak in other words — they set him at naught, and hearken not to the voice of his counsels. <sup>19:8</sup>And behold he cometh, according to the words of the angel, in six hundred years from the time my father left Jerusalem. <sup>19:9</sup>And the world, because of their iniquity, shall judge him to be a thing of naught; wherefore they scourge him, and he suffereth it; and they smite him, and he suffereth it. Yea, they spit upon him, and he suffereth it, because of his loving kindness and his long-suffering towards the children of men. <sup>19:10</sup>And the God of our fathers, who were led out of Egypt, out of bondage, and also were preserved in the wilderness by him, yea, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, yieldeth himself, according to the words of the angel, as a man, into the hands of wicked men, to be lifted up, according to the words of Zenock, and to be crucified, according to the words of Neum, and to be buried in a sepulchre, according to the words of Zenos, which he spake concerning the three days of darkness, which should be a sign given of his death unto those who should inhabit the isles of the sea, more especially given unto those who are of the house of Israel. <sup>19:11</sup>For thus spake the prophet: The Lord God surely shall visit all the house of Israel at that day, some with his voice, because of their righteousness, unto their great joy and salvation, and others with the thunderings and the lightnings of his power, by tempest, by fire, and by smoke, and vapor of darkness, and by the opening of the earth, and by mountains which shall be carried up. <sup>19:12</sup>And all these things must surely come, saith the prophet Zenos. And the rocks of the earth must rend; and because of the groanings of the earth, many of the kings of the isles of the sea shall be wrought upon by the Spirit of God, to exclaim: The God of nature suffers. <sup>19:13</sup>And as for those who are at Jerusalem, saith the prophet, they shall be scourged by all people, because they crucify the God of Israel, and turn their hearts aside, rejecting signs and wonders, and the power and glory of the God of Israel. <sup>19:14</sup>And because they turn their hearts aside, saith the prophet, and have despised the Holy One of Israel, they shall wander in the flesh, and perish, and become a hiss and a byword, and be hated among all nations. <sup>19:15</sup>Nevertheless, when that day cometh, saith the prophet, that they no more turn aside their hearts against the Holy One of Israel, then will he remember the covenants which he made to their fathers. <sup>19:16</sup>Yea, then will he remember the isles of the sea; yea, and all the people who are of the house of Israel, will I gather in, saith the Lord, according to the words of the prophet Zenos, from the four quarters of the earth. <sup>19:17</sup>Yea, and all the earth shall see the salvation of the Lord, saith the prophet; every nation, kindred, tongue and people shall be blessed. <sup>19:18</sup>And I, Nephi, have written these things unto my people, that perhaps I might persuade them that they would remember the Lord their Redeemer. <sup>19:19</sup>Wherefore, I speak unto all the house of Israel, if it so be that they should obtain these things. <sup>19:20</sup>For behold, I have workings in the spirit, which doth weary me even that all my joints are weak, for those who are at Jerusalem; for had not the Lord been merciful, to show unto me concerning them, even as he had prophets of old, I should have perished also. <sup>19:21</sup>And he surely did show unto the prophets of old all things concerning them; and also he did show unto many concerning us; wherefore, it must needs be that we know concerning them for they are written upon the plates of brass. <sup><VT>19:22</sup>Now it came to pass that I, Nephi, did teach my brethren these things; and it came to pass that I did read many things to them, which were engraven upon the plates of brass, that they might know concerning the doings of the Lord in other lands, among people of old. <sup>19:23</sup>And I did read many things unto them which were written in the books of Moses; but that I might more fully persuade them to believe in the Lord their Redeemer I did read unto them that which was written by the prophet Isaiah; for I did liken all scriptures unto us, that it might be for our profit and learning. <sup>19:24</sup>Wherefore I spake unto them, saying: Hear ye the words of the prophet, ye who are a remnant of the house of Israel, a branch who have been broken off; hear ye the words of the prophet, which were written unto all the house of Israel, and liken them unto yourselves, that ye may have hope as well as your brethren from whom ye have been broken off; for after this manner has the prophet written.

<sup>20:1</sup>Hearken and hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, or out of the waters of baptism, who swear by the name of the Lord, and make mention of the God of Israel, yet they swear not in truth nor in righteousness. <sup>20:2</sup>Nevertheless, they call themselves of the holy city, but they do not stay themselves upon the God of Israel, who is the Lord of Hosts; yea, the Lord of Hosts is his name. <sup>20:3</sup>Behold, I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them. I did show them suddenly. <sup>20:4</sup>And I did it because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass; <sup>20:5</sup>and I have even from the beginning declared to thee; before it came to pass I showed them thee; and I showed them for fear lest thou shouldst say—Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image hath commanded them. <sup>20:6</sup>Thou hast seen and heard all this; and will ye not declare them? And that I have showed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them. <sup>20:7</sup>They are created now, and not from the beginning, even before the day when thou heardest them not they were declared unto thee, lest thou shouldst say—Behold I knew them. <sup>20:8</sup>Yea, and thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time thine ear was not opened; for I knew that thou wouldst deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb. <sup>20:9</sup>Nevertheless, for my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain from thee, that I cut thee not off.

<sup>20:10</sup>For, behold, I have refined thee, I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction. <sup>20:11</sup>For mine own sake, yea, for mine own sake will I do this, for I will not suffer my name to be polluted, and I will not give my glory unto another. <sup>20:12</sup>Hearken unto me, O Jacob, and Israel my called, for I am he; I am the first, and I am also the last. <sup>20:13</sup>Mine hand hath also laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens. I call unto them and they stand up together.

have spoken; yea, I have called him to declare, I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. <sup>20:16</sup>Come ye near unto me; I have not spoken in secret; from the beginning, from the time that it was declared have I spoken; and the Lord God, and his Spirit, hath sent me. <sup>20:17</sup>And thus saith the Lord, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I have sent him, the Lord thy God who teacheth thee to profit, who leadeth thee by the way thou shouldst go, hath done it. <sup>20:18</sup>O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments — then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea. <sup>20:19</sup>Thy seed also had been as the sand; the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me. <sup>20:20</sup>Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter to the end of the earth; say ye: The Lord hath redeemed his servant Jacob. <sup>20:21</sup>And they thirsted not; he led them through the deserts; he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; he clave the rock also and the waters gushed out. <sup>20:22</sup>And notwithstanding he hath done all this, and greater also, there is no peace, saith the Lord, unto the wicked. <sup>21:1</sup>And again: Hearken, O ye house of Israel, all ye that are broken off and are driven out because of the wickedness of the pastors of my people; yea, all ye that are broken off, that are scattered abroad, who are of my people, O house of Israel. Listen, O isles, unto me, and hearken ye people from far; the Lord hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name. <sup>21:2</sup>And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me; <sup>21:3</sup>and said unto me: Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified. <sup>21:4</sup>Then I said, I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for naught and in vain; surely my judgment is with the Lord, and my work with my God. <sup>21:5</sup>And now, saith the Lord — that formed me from the womb that I should be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him — though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the Lord, and my God shall be my strength. <sup>21:6</sup>And he said: It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel. I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the ends of the earth. <sup>21:7</sup>Thus saith the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel, his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nations abhorreth, to servant of rulers: Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the Lord that is faithful. <sup>21:8</sup>Thus saith the Lord: In an acceptable time have I heard thee, O isles of the sea, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee; and I will preserve thee, and give thee my servant for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages; <sup>21:9</sup>that thou mayest say to the prisoners: Go forth; to them that sit in darkness: Show yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places. <sup>21:10</sup>They shall not hunger nor thirst, neither shall the heat nor the sun smite them; for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them. <sup>21:11</sup>And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. <sup>21:12</sup>And then, O house of Israel, behold, these shall come from far; and lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim. <sup>21:13</sup>Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; for the feet of those who are in the east shall be established; and break forth into singing, O mountains; for they shall be smitten no more; for the Lord hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted. <sup>21:14</sup>But, behold, Zion hath said: The Lord hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me—but he will show that he hath not. <sup>21:15</sup>For can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee, O house of Israel. <sup>21:16</sup>Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me. <sup>21:17</sup>Thy children shall make haste against thy destroyers; and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee. <sup>21:18</sup>Lift up thine eyes round about and behold; all these gather themselves together, and they shall come to thee. And as I live, saith the Lord, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on even as a bride. <sup>21:19</sup>For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants; and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away. <sup>21:20</sup>The children whom thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the first, shall again in thine ears say: The place is too strait for me; give place to me that I may dwell. <sup>21:21</sup>Then shalt thou say in thine heart: Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? And who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where have they been? <sup>21:22</sup>Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people; and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. <sup>21:23</sup>And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers; they shall bow down to thee with their face towards the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord; for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me. <sup>21:24</sup>For shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captives delivered? <sup>21:25</sup>But thus saith the Lord, even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered; for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children. <sup>21:26</sup>And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; they shall be drunken with their own blood as with sweet wine; and all flesh shall know that I, the Lord, am thy Savior and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

<sup><VI>22:1</sup>And now it came to pass that after I, Nephi, had read these things which were engraven upon the plates of brass, my brethren came unto me and said unto me: What meaneth these things which ye have read? Behold, are they to be understood according to things which are spiritual, which shall come to pass according to the spirit and not the flesh? <sup>22:2</sup>And I, Nephi, said unto them: Behold they were manifest unto the prophet by the voice of the Spirit; for by the Spirit are all things made known unto the prophets, which shall come upon the children of men according to the flesh. <sup>22:3</sup>Wherefore, the things of which I have read are things pertaining to things both temporal and spiritual; for it appears that the house of Israel, sooner or later, will be scattered upon all the face of the earth, and also among all nations. <sup>22:4</sup>And behold, there are many who are already lost from the knowledge of those who are at Jerusalem. Yea, the more part of all the tribes have been led away; and they are scattered to and fro upon the isles of the sea; and whither they are none of us knoweth, save that we know that they have been led away. <sup>22:5</sup>And since they have been led away, these things have been prophesied concerning them, and also concerning all those who shall hereafter be scattered and be confounded, because of the Holy One of Israel; for against him will they harden their hearts; wherefore, they shall be scattered among all nations and shall be hated of all men. <sup>22:6</sup>Nevertheless, after they shall be nursed by the Gentiles, and the Lord has lifted up his hand upon the Gentiles and set them up for a standard, and their children have been carried in their arms, and their daughters have been carried upon their shoulders, behold these things of which are spoken are temporal; for thus are the covenants of the Lord with our fathers; and it meaneth us in the days to come, and also all our brethren who are of the house of Israel. <sup>22:7</sup>And it meaneth that the time cometh that after all the house of Israel have been scattered and confounded, that the Lord God will raise up a mighty nation among the Gentiles, yea, even upon the face of this land; and by them shall our seed be scattered. <sup>22:8</sup>And after our seed is scattered the Lord God will proceed to do a marvelous work among the Gentiles, which shall be of great worth unto our seed; wherefore, it is likened unto their being nourished by the Gentiles and being carried in their arms and upon their shoulders. <sup>22:9</sup>And it shall also be of worth unto the Gentiles; and not only unto the Gentiles but unto all the house of Israel, unto the making known of the covenants of the Father of heaven unto Abraham, saying: In thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. <sup>22:10</sup>And I would, my brethren, that ye should know that all the kindreds of the earth cannot be blessed unless he shall make bare his arm in the eyes of the nations. <sup>22:11</sup>Wherefore, the Lord God will proceed to make bare his arm in the eyes of all the nations, in bringing about his covenants and his gospel unto those who are of the house of Israel.

<sup>22:12</sup>Wherefore, he will bring them again out of captivity, and they shall be gathered together to the lands of their inheritance; and they shall be brought out of obscurity and out of darkness; and they shall know that the Lord is their Savior and their Redeemer, the Mighty One of Israel. <sup>22:13</sup>And the blood of that great and abominable church, which is the whore of all the earth, shall turn upon their own heads; for they shall war among themselves, and the sword of their own hands shall fall upon their own heads, and they shall be drunken with their own blood. <sup>22:14</sup>And every nation which shall war against thee, O house of Israel, shall be turned one against another, and they shall fall into the pit which they digged to ensnare the people of the Lord. And all that fight against Zion shall be destroyed, and that great whore, who hath perverted the right ways of the Lord, yea, that great and abominable church, shall tumble to the dust and great shall be the fall of it. <sup>22:15</sup>For behold, saith the prophet, the time cometh speedily that Satan shall have no more power over the hearts of the children of men; for the day soon cometh that all the proud and they who do wickedly shall be as stubble; and the day cometh that they must be burned. <sup>22:16</sup>For the time soon cometh that the fulness of the wrath of God shall be poured out upon all the children of men; for he will not suffer that the wicked shall destroy the righteous. <sup>22:17</sup>Wherefore, he will preserve the righteous by his power, even if it so be that the fulness of his wrath must come, and the righteous be preserved, even unto the destruction of their enemies by fire. Wherefore, the righteous need not fear; for thus saith the prophet, they shall be saved, even if it so be as by fire. <sup>22:18</sup>Behold, my brethren, I say unto you, that these things must shortly come; yea, even blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke must come; and it must needs be upon the face of this earth; and it cometh unto men according to the flesh if it so be that they will harden their hearts against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>22:19</sup>For behold, the righteous shall not perish; for the time surely must come that all they who fight against Zion shall be cut off. <sup>22:20</sup>And the Lord will surely prepare a way for his people, unto the fulfilling of the words of Moses, which he spake, saying: A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. And it shall come to pass that all those who will not hear that prophet shall be cut off from among the people. <sup>22:21</sup>And now I, Nephi, declare unto you, that this prophet of whom Moses spake was the Holy One of Israel; wherefore, he shall execute judgment in righteousness. <sup>22:22</sup>And the righteous need not fear, for they are those who shall not be confounded. But it is the kingdom of the devil, which shall be built up among the children of men, which kingdom is established among them which are in the flesh—<sup>22:23</sup>for the time speedily shall come that all churches which are built up to get gain, and all those who are built up to get power over the flesh, and those who are built up to become popular in the eyes of the world, and those who seek the lusts of the flesh and the things of the world, and to do all manner of iniquity; yea, in fine, all those who belong to the kingdom of the devil are they who need fear, and tremble, and quake; they are those who must be brought low in the dust; they are those who must be consumed as stubble; and this is according to the words of the prophet. <sup>22:24</sup>And the time cometh speedily that the righteous must be led up as calves of the stall, and the Holy One of Israel must reign in dominion, and might, and power, and great glory. <sup>22:25</sup>And he gathereth his children from the four quarters of the earth; and he numbereth his sheep, and they know him; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd; and he shall feed his sheep, and in him they shall find pasture. <sup>22:26</sup>And because of the righteousness of his people, Satan has no power; wherefore, he cannot be loosed for the space of many years; for he hath no power over the hearts of the people, for they dwell in righteousness, and the Holy One of Israel reigneth. <sup>22:27</sup>And now behold, I, Nephi, say unto you that all these things must come according to the flesh. <sup>22:28</sup>But, behold, all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people shall dwell safely in the Holy One of Israel if it so be that they will repent. <sup>22:29</sup>And now I, Nephi, make an end; for I durst not speak further as yet concerning these things. <sup>22:30</sup>Wherefore, my brethren, I would that ye should consider that the things which have been written upon the plates of brass are true; and they testify that a man must be obedient to the commandments of God. <sup>22:31</sup>Wherefore, ye need not suppose that I and my father are the only ones that have testified, and also taught them. Wherefore, if ye shall be obedient to the commandments, and endure to the end, ye shall be saved at the last day. And thus it is. Amen.

2 Nephi

The second book of Nephi

<sup><D></sup>An account of the death of Lehi. Nephi's brethren rebel against him. The Lord warns Nephi to depart into the wilderness. His journeyings in the wilderness, and so forth. <sup>1:1</sup>And now it came to pass that after I, Nephi, had made an end of teaching my brethren, our father, Lehi, also spake many things unto them, and rehearsed unto them, how great things the Lord had done for them in bringing them out of the land of Jerusalem. <sup>1:2</sup>And he spake unto them concerning their rebellions upon the waters, and the mercies of God in sparing their lives, that they were not swallowed up in the sea. <sup>1:3</sup>And he also spake unto them concerning the land of promise, which they had obtained — how merciful the Lord had been in warning us that we should flee out of the land of Jerusalem. <sup>1:4</sup>For, behold, said he, I have seen a vision, in which I know that Jerusalem is destroyed; and had we remained in Jerusalem we should also have perished. <sup>1:5</sup>But, said he, notwithstanding our afflictions, we have obtained a land of promise, a land which is choice above all other lands; a land which the Lord God hath covenanted with me should be a land for the inheritance of my seed. Yea, the Lord hath covenanted this land unto me, and to my children forever, and also all those who should be led out of other countries by the hand of the Lord. <sup>1:6</sup>Wherefore, I, Lehi, prophesy according to the workings of the Spirit which is in me, that there shall none come into this land save they shall be brought by the hand of the Lord. <sup>1:7</sup>Wherefore, this land is consecrated unto him whom he shall bring. And if it so be that they shall serve him according to the commandments which he hath given, it shall be a land of liberty unto them; wherefore, they shall never be brought down into captivity; if so, it shall be because of iniquity; for if iniquity shall abound cursed shall be the land for their sakes, but unto the righteous it shall be blessed forever. <sup>1:8</sup>And behold, it is wisdom that this land should be kept as yet from the knowledge of other nations; for behold, many nations would overrun the land, that there would be no place for an inheritance. <sup>1:9</sup>Wherefore, I, Lehi, have obtained a promise, that inasmuch as those whom the Lord God shall bring out of the land of Jerusalem shall keep his commandments, they shall prosper upon the face of this land; and they shall be kept from all other nations, that they may possess this land unto themselves. And if it so be that they shall keep his commandments they shall be blessed upon the face of this land, and there shall be none to molest them, nor to take away the land of their inheritance; and they shall dwell safely forever. <sup>1:10</sup>But behold, when the time cometh that they shall dwindle in unbelief, after they have received so great blessings from the hand of the Lord—having a knowledge of the creation of the earth, and all men, knowing the great and marvelous works of the Lord from the creation of the world; having power given them to do all things by faith; having all the commandments from the beginning, and having been brought by his infinite goodness into this precious land of promise—behold, I say, if the day shall come that they will reject the Holy One of Israel, the true Messiah, their Redeemer and their God, behold, the judgments of him that is just shall rest upon them. <sup>1:11</sup>Yea, he will bring other nations unto them, and he will give unto them power, and he will take away from them the lands of their possessions, and he will cause them to be scattered and smitten. <sup>1:12</sup>Yea, as one generation passeth to another there shall be bloodsheds, and great visitations among them; wherefore, my sons, I would that ye would remember; yea, I would that ye would hearken unto my words. <sup>1:13</sup>O that ye would awake; awake from a deep sleep, yea, even from the sleep of hell, and shake off the awful chains by which ye are bound, which are the chains which bind the children of men, that they are carried away captive down to the eternal gulf of misery and woe. <sup>1:14</sup>Awake! and arise from the dust, and hear the words of a trembling parent, whose limbs ye must soon lay down in the cold and silent grave, from whence no traveler can return; a few more days and I go the way of all the earth. <sup>1:15</sup>But behold, the Lord hath redeemed my soul from hell; I have beheld his glory, and I am encircled about eternally in the arms of his love. <sup>1:16</sup>And I desire that ye should remember to observe the statutes and the judgments of the Lord; behold, this hath been the anxiety of my soul from the beginning. <sup>1:17</sup>My heart hath been weighed down with sorrow from time to time, for I have feared, lest for the hardness of your hearts the Lord your God should come out in the fulness of his wrath upon you, that ye be cut off and destroyed forever; <sup>1:18</sup>or, that a cursing should come upon you for the space of many generations; and ye are visited by sword, and by famine, and are hated, and are led according to the will and captivity of the devil. <sup>1:19</sup>O my sons, that these things might not come upon you, but that ye might be a choice and a favored people of the Lord. But behold, his will be done; for his ways are righteousness forever. <sup>1:20</sup>And he hath said that: Inasmuch as ye shall keep my commandments ye shall prosper in the land; but inasmuch as ye will not keep my commandments ye shall be cut off from my presence. <sup>1:21</sup>And now that my soul might have joy in you, and that my heart might leave this world with gladness because of you, that I might not be brought down with grief and sorrow to the grave, arise from the dust, my sons, and be men, and be determined in one mind and in one heart, united in all things, that ye may not come down into captivity; <sup>1:22</sup>that ye may not be cursed with a sore cursing; and also, that ye may not incur the displeasure of a just God upon you, unto the destruction, yea, the eternal destruction of both soul and body. <sup>1:23</sup>Awake, my sons; put on the armor of righteousness. Shake off the chains with which ye are bound, and come forth out of obscurity, and arise from the dust. <sup>1:24</sup>Rebel no more against your brother, whose views have been glorious, and who hath kept the commandments from the time that we left Jerusalem; and who hath been an instrument in the hands of God, in bringing us forth into the land of promise; for were it not for him, we must have perished with hunger in the wilderness; nevertheless, ye sought to take away his life; yea, and he hath suffered much sorrow because of you. <sup>1:25</sup>And I exceedingly fear and tremble because of you, lest he shall suffer again; for behold, ye have accused him that he sought power and authority over you; but I know that he hath not sought for power nor authority over you, but he hath sought the glory of God, and your own eternal welfare.

<sup>1:26</sup>And ye have murmured because he hath been plain unto you. Ye say that he hath used sharpness; ye say that he hath been angry with you; but behold, his sharpness was the sharpness of the power of the word of God, which was in him; and that which ye call anger was the truth, according to that which is in God, which he could not restrain, manifesting boldly concerning your iniquities.

<sup>1:27</sup>And it must needs be that the power of God must be with him, even unto his commanding you that ye must obey. But behold, it was not he, but it was the Spirit of the Lord which was in him, which opened his mouth to utterance that he could not shut it. <sup>1:28</sup>And now my son, Laman, and also Lemuel and Sam, and also my sons who are the sons of Ishmael, behold, if ye will hearken unto the voice of Nephi ye shall not perish. And if ye will hearken unto him I leave unto you a blessing, yea, even my first blessing. <sup>1:29</sup>But if ye will not hearken unto him I take away my first blessing, yea, even my blessing, and it shall rest upon him.

<sup>1:30</sup>And now, Zoram, I speak unto you: Behold, thou art the servant of Laban; nevertheless, thou hast been brought out of the land of Jerusalem, and I know that thou art a true friend unto my son, Nephi, forever. <sup>1:31</sup>Wherefore, because thou hast been faithful thy seed shall be blessed with his seed, that they dwell in prosperity long upon the face of this land; and nothing, save it shall be iniquity among them, shall harm or disturb their prosperity upon the face of this land forever. <sup>1:32</sup>Wherefore, if ye shall keep the commandments of the Lord, the Lord hath consecrated this land for the security of thy seed with the seed of my son.

<sup>2:1</sup>And now, Jacob, I speak unto you: Thou art my first-born in the days of my tribulation in the wilderness. And behold, in thy childhood thou hast suffered afflictions and much sorrow, because of the rudeness of thy brethren.

<sup>2:2</sup>Nevertheless, Jacob, my first-born in the wilderness, thou knowest the greatness of God; and he shall consecrate thine afflictions for thy gain.

<sup>2:3</sup>Wherefore, thy soul shall be blessed, and thou shalt dwell safely with thy brother, Nephi; and thy days shall be spent in the service of thy God. Wherefore, I know that thou art redeemed, because of the righteousness of thy Redeemer; for

thou hast beheld that in the fulness of time he cometh to bring salvation unto men. <sup>2:4</sup>And thou hast beheld in thy youth his glory; wherefore, thou art blessed even as they unto whom he shall minister in the flesh; for the Spirit is the same, yesterday, today, and forever. And the way is prepared from the fall of man, and salvation is free. <sup>2:5</sup>And men are instructed sufficiently that they know good from evil. And the law is given unto men. And by the law no flesh is justified; or, by the law men are cut off. Yea, by the temporal law they were cut off; and also, by the spiritual law they perish from that which is good, and become miserable forever. <sup>2:6</sup>Wherefore, redemption cometh in and through the Holy Messiah; for he is full of grace and truth. <sup>2:7</sup>Behold, he offereth himself a sacrifice for sin, to answer the ends of the law, unto all those who have a broken heart and a contrite spirit; and unto none else can the ends of the law be answered. <sup>2:8</sup>Wherefore, how great the importance to make these things known unto the inhabitants of the earth, that they may know that there is no flesh that can dwell in the presence of God, save it be through the merits, and mercy, and grace of the Holy Messiah, who layeth down his life according to the flesh, and taketh it again by the power of the Spirit, that he may bring to pass the resurrection of the dead, being the first that should rise. <sup>2:9</sup>Wherefore, he is the firstfruits unto God, inasmuch as he shall make intercession for all the children of men; and they that believe in him shall be saved. <sup>2:10</sup>And because of the intercession for all, all men come unto God; wherefore, they stand in the presence of him, to be judged of him according to the truth and holiness which is in him. Wherefore, the ends of the law which the Holy One hath given, unto the inflicting of the punishment which is affixed, which punishment that is affixed is in opposition to that of the happiness which is affixed, to answer the ends of the atonement — <sup>2:11</sup>for it must needs be, that there is an opposition in all things. If not so, my first-born in the wilderness, righteousness could not be brought to pass, neither wickedness, neither holiness nor misery, neither good nor bad. Wherefore, all things must needs be a compound in one; wherefore, if it should be one body it must needs remain as dead, having no life neither death, nor corruption nor incorruption, happiness nor misery, neither sense nor insensibility. <sup>2:12</sup>Wherefore, it must needs have been created for a thing of naught; wherefore there would have been no purpose in the end of its creation. Wherefore, this thing must needs destroy the wisdom of God and his eternal purposes, and also the power, and the mercy, and the justice of God. <sup>2:13</sup>And if ye shall say there is no law, ye shall also say there is no sin. If ye shall say there is no sin, ye shall also say there is no righteousness. And if there be no righteousness there be no happiness. And if there be no righteousness nor happiness there be no punishment nor misery. And if these things are not there is no God. And if there is no God we are not, neither the earth; for there could have been no creation of things, neither to act nor to be acted upon; wherefore, all things must have vanished away. <sup>2:14</sup>And now, my sons, I speak unto you these things for your profit and learning; for there is a God, and he hath created all things, both the heavens and the earth, and all things that in them are, both things to act and things to be acted upon. <sup>2:15</sup>And to bring about his eternal purposes in the end of man, after he had created our first parents, and the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and in fine, all things which are created, it must needs be that there was an opposition; even the forbidden fruit in opposition to the tree of life; the one being sweet and the other bitter.

Wherefore, man could not act for himself save it should be that he was enticed by the one or the other. <sup>2:17</sup>And I, Lehi, according to the things which I have read, must needs suppose that an angel of God, according to that which is written, had fallen from heaven; wherefore, he became a devil, having sought that which was evil before God. <sup>2:18</sup>And because he had fallen from heaven, and had become miserable forever, he sought also the misery of all mankind. Wherefore, he said unto Eve, yea, even that old serpent, who is the devil, who is the father of all lies, wherefore he said: Partake of the forbidden fruit, and ye shall not die, but ye shall be as God, knowing good and evil. <sup>2:19</sup>And after Adam and Eve had partaken of the forbidden fruit they were driven out of the garden of Eden, to till the earth. <sup>2:20</sup>And they have brought forth children; yea, even the family of all the earth. <sup>2:21</sup>And the days of the children of men were prolonged, according to the will of God, that they might repent while in the flesh; wherefore, their state became a state of probation, and their time was lengthened, according to the commandments which the Lord God gave unto the children of men. For he gave commandment that all men must repent; for he showed unto all men that they were lost, because of the transgression of their parents. <sup>2:22</sup>And now, behold, if Adam had not transgressed he would not have fallen, but he would have remained in the garden of Eden. And all things which were created must have remained in the same state in which they were after they were created; and they must have remained forever, and had no end. <sup>2:23</sup>And they would have had no children; wherefore they would have remained in a state of innocence, having no joy, for they knew no misery; doing no good, for they knew no sin. <sup>2:24</sup>But behold, all things have been done in the wisdom of him who knoweth all things.

<sup>2:25</sup>Adam fell that men might be; and men are, that they might have joy. <sup>2:26</sup>And the Messiah cometh in the fulness of time, that he may redeem the children of men from the fall. And because that they are redeemed from the fall they have become free forever, knowing good from evil; to act for themselves and not to be acted upon, save it be by the punishment of the law at the great and last day, according to the commandments which God hath given. <sup>2:27</sup>Wherefore, men are free according to the flesh; and all things are given them which are expedient unto man. And they are free to choose liberty and eternal life, through the great Mediator of all men, or to choose captivity and death, according to the captivity and power of the devil; for he seeketh that all men might be miserable like unto himself. <sup>2:28</sup>And now, my sons, I would that ye should look to the great Mediator, and hearken unto his great commandments; and be faithful unto his words, and choose eternal life, according to the will of his Holy Spirit; <sup>2:29</sup>and not choose eternal death, according to the will of the flesh and the evil which is therein, which giveth the spirit of the devil power to captivate, to bring you down to hell, that he may reign over you in his own kingdom. <sup>2:30</sup>I have spoken these few words unto you all, my sons, in the last days of my probation; and I have chosen the good part, according to the words of the prophet. And I have none other object save it be the everlasting welfare of your souls. Amen. <sup><1>3:1</sup>And now I speak unto you, Joseph, my last-born. Thou wast born in the wilderness of mine afflictions; yea, in the days of my greatest sorrow did thy mother bear thee. <sup>3:2</sup>And may the Lord consecrate also unto thee this land, which is a most precious land, for thine inheritance and the inheritance of thy seed with thy brethren, for thy security forever, if it so be that ye shall keep the commandments of the Holy One of Israel. <sup>3:3</sup>And now, Joseph, my last-born, whom I have brought out of the wilderness of mine afflictions, may the Lord bless thee forever, for thy seed shall not utterly be destroyed. <sup>3:4</sup>For behold, thou art the fruit of my loins; and I am a descendant of Joseph who was carried captive into Egypt. And great were the covenants of the Lord which he made unto Joseph. <sup>3:5</sup>Wherefore, Joseph truly saw our day. And he obtained a promise of the Lord, that out of the fruit of his loins the Lord God would raise up a righteous branch unto the house of Israel; not the Messiah, but a branch which was to be broken off, nevertheless, to be remembered in the covenants of the Lord that the Messiah should be made manifest unto them in the latter days, in the spirit of power, unto the bringing of them out of darkness unto light—yea, out of hidden darkness and out of captivity unto freedom. <sup>3:6</sup>For Joseph truly testified, saying: A seer shall the Lord my God raise up, who shall be a choice seer unto the fruit of my loins. <sup>3:7</sup>Yea, Joseph truly said: Thus saith the Lord unto me: A choice seer will I raise up out of the fruit of thy loins; and he shall be esteemed highly among the fruit of thy loins. And unto him will I give commandment that he shall do a work for the fruit of thy loins, his brethren, which shall be of great worth unto them, even to the bringing of them to the knowledge of the covenants which I have made with thy fathers. <sup>3:8</sup>And I will give unto him a commandment that he shall do none other work, save the work which I shall command him. And I will make him great in mine eyes; for he shall do my work. <sup>3:9</sup>And he shall be great like unto Moses, whom I have said I would raise up unto you, to deliver my people, O house of Israel. <sup>3:10</sup>And Moses will I raise up, to deliver thy people out of the land of Egypt. <sup>3:11</sup>But a seer will I raise up out of the fruit of thy loins; and unto him will I give power to bring forth my word unto the seed of thy loins—and not to the bringing forth my word only, saith the Lord, but to the convincing them of my word, which shall have already gone forth among them. <sup>3:12</sup>Wherefore, the fruit of thy loins shall write; and the fruit of the loins of Judah shall write; and that which shall be written by the fruit of thy loins, and also that which shall be written by the fruit of the loins of Judah, shall grow together, unto the confounding of false doctrines and laying down of contentions, and establishing peace among the fruit of thy loins, and bringing them to the knowledge of their fathers in the latter days, and also to the knowledge of my covenants, saith the Lord. <sup>3:13</sup>And out of weakness he shall be made strong, in that day when my work shall commence among all my people, unto the restoring thee, O house of Israel, saith the Lord. <sup>3:14</sup>And thus prophesied Joseph, saying: Behold, that seer will the Lord bless; and they that seek to destroy him shall be confounded; for this promise, which I have obtained of the Lord, of the fruit of my loins, shall be fulfilled. Behold, I am sure of the fulfilling of this promise; <sup>3:15</sup>and his name shall be called after me; and it shall be after the name of his father. And he shall be like unto me; for the thing, which the Lord shall bring forth by his hand, by the power of the Lord shall bring my people unto salvation. <sup>3:16</sup>Yea, thus prophesied Joseph: I am sure of this thing, even as I am sure of the promise of Moses; for the Lord hath said unto me, I will preserve thy seed forever. <sup>3:17</sup>And the Lord hath said: I will raise up a Moses; and I will give power unto him in a rod; and I will give judgment unto him in writing. Yet I will not loose his tongue, that he shall speak much, for I will not make him mighty in speaking. But I will write unto him my law, by the finger of mine own hand; and I will make a spokesman for him. <sup>3:18</sup>And the Lord said unto me also: I will raise up unto the fruit of thy loins; and I will make for him a spokesman. And I, behold, I will give unto him that he shall write the writing of the fruit of thy loins, unto the fruit of thy loins; and the spokesman of thy loins shall declare it. <sup>3:19</sup>And the words which he shall write shall be the words which are expedient in my wisdom should go forth unto the fruit of thy loins. And it shall be as if the fruit of thy loins had cried unto them from the dust; for I know their faith. <sup>3:20</sup>And they shall cry from the dust; yea, even repentance unto their brethren, even after many generations have gone by them. And it shall come to pass that their cry shall go, even according to the simpleness of their words. <sup>3:21</sup>Because of their faith their words shall proceed forth out of my mouth unto their brethren who are the fruit of thy loins; and the weakness of their words will I make strong in their faith, unto the remembering of my covenant which I made unto thy fathers. <sup>3:22</sup>And now, behold, my son Joseph, after this manner did my father of old prophesy. <sup>3:23</sup>Wherefore, because of this covenant thou art blessed; for thy seed shall not be destroyed, for they shall hearken unto the words of the book. <sup>3:24</sup>And there shall rise up one mighty among them, who shall do much good, both in word and in deed, being an instrument in the hands of God, with exceeding faith, to work mighty wonders, and do that thing which is great in the sight of God, unto the bringing to pass much restoration unto the house of Israel, and unto the seed of thy brethren. <sup>3:25</sup>And now, blessed art thou, Joseph. Behold, thou art little; wherefore hearken unto the words of thy brother, Nephi, and it shall be done unto thee even according to the words which I have spoken. Remember the words of thy dying father. Amen. <sup><III>4:1</sup>And now, I, Nephi, speak concerning the prophecies of which my father hath spoken, concerning Joseph, who was carried into Egypt. <sup>4:2</sup>For behold, he truly prophesied concerning all his seed. And the prophecies which he wrote, there are not many greater. And he prophesied concerning us, and our future generations; and they are written upon the plates of brass. <sup>4:3</sup>Wherefore, after my father had made an end of speaking concerning the prophecies of Joseph, he called the children of Laman, his sons, and his daughters, and said unto them: Behold, my sons, and my daughters, who are the sons and the daughters of my first-born, I would that ye should give ear unto my words. <sup>4:4</sup>For the Lord God hath said that: Inasmuch as ye shall keep my commandments ye shall prosper in the land; and inasmuch as ye will not keep my commandments ye shall be cut off from my presence. <sup>4:5</sup>But behold, my sons and my daughters, I cannot go down to my grave save I should leave a blessing upon you; for behold, I know that if ye are brought up in the way ye should go ye will not depart from it. <sup>4:6</sup>Wherefore, if ye are cursed, behold, I leave my blessing upon you, that the cursing may be taken from you and be answered upon the heads of your parents. <sup>4:7</sup>Wherefore, because of my blessing the Lord God will not suffer that ye shall perish; wherefore, he will be merciful unto you and unto your seed forever. <sup>4:8</sup>And it came to pass that after my father had made an end of speaking to the sons and daughters of Laman, he caused the sons and daughters of Lemuel to be brought before him. <sup>4:9</sup>And he spake unto them, saying: Behold, my sons and my daughters, who are the sons and the daughters of my second son; behold I leave unto you the same blessing which I left unto the sons and daughters of Laman; wherefore, thou shalt not utterly be destroyed; but in the end thy seed shall be blessed. <sup>4:10</sup>And it came to pass that when my father had made an end of speaking unto them, behold, he spake unto the sons of Ishmael, yea, and even all his household. <sup>4:11</sup>And after he had made an end of speaking unto them, he spake unto Sam, saying: Blessed art thou, and thy seed; for thou shalt inherit the land like unto thy brother Nephi. And thy seed shall be numbered with his seed; and thou shalt be even like unto thy brother, and thy seed like unto his seed; and thou shalt be blessed in all thy days. <sup>4:12</sup>And it came to pass after my father, Lehi, had spoken unto all his household, according to the feelings of his heart and the Spirit of the Lord which was in him, he waxed old. And it came to pass that he died, and was buried. <sup>4:13</sup>And it came to pass that not many days after his death, Laman and Lemuel and the sons of Ishmael were angry with me because of the admonitions of the Lord. <sup>4:14</sup>For I, Nephi, was constrained to speak unto them, according to his word; for I had spoken many things unto them, and also my father, before his death; many of which sayings are written upon mine other plates; for a more history part are written upon mine other plates. <sup>4:15</sup>And upon these I write the things of my soul, and many of the scriptures which are engraven upon the plates of brass. For my soul delighteth in the scriptures, and my heart pondereth them, and writeth them for the learning and the profit of my children. <sup>4:16</sup>Behold, my soul delighteth in the things of the Lord; and my heart pondereth continually upon the things which I have seen and heard. <sup>4:17</sup>Nevertheless, notwithstanding the great goodness of the Lord, in showing me his great and marvelous works, my heart exclaimeth: O wretched man that I am! Yea, my heart sorroweth because of my flesh; my soul grieveth because of mine iniquities. <sup>4:18</sup>I am encompassed about, because of the temptations and the sins which do so easily beset me. <sup>4:19</sup>And when I desire to rejoice, my heart groaneth because of my sins; nevertheless, I know in whom I have trusted. <sup>4:20</sup>My God hath been my support; he hath led me through mine afflictions in the wilderness; and he hath preserved me upon the waters of the great deep. <sup>4:21</sup>He hath filled me with his love, even unto the consuming of my flesh. <sup>4:22</sup>He hath confounded mine enemies, unto the causing of them to quake before me. <sup>4:23</sup>Behold, he hath heard my cry by day, and he hath given me knowledge by visions in the night-time. <sup>4:24</sup>And by day have I waxed bold in mighty prayer before him; yea, my voice have I sent up on high; and angels came down and ministered unto me. <sup>4:25</sup>And upon the wings of his Spirit hath my body been carried away upon exceedingly high mountains. And mine eyes have beheld great things, yea, even too great for man; therefore I was bidden that I should not write them. <sup>4:26</sup>O then, if I have seen so great things, if the Lord in his condescension unto the children of men hath visited men in so much mercy, why should my heart weep and my soul linger in the valley of sorrow, and my flesh waste away, and my strength slacken, because of mine afflictions? <sup>4:27</sup>And why should I yield to sin, because of my flesh? Yea, why should I give way to temptations, that the evil one have place in my heart to destroy my peace and afflict my soul? Why am I angry because of mine enemy? <sup>4:28</sup>Awake, my soul! No longer droop in sin. Rejoice, O my heart, and give place no more for the enemy of my soul. <sup>4:29</sup>Do not anger again because of mine enemies. Do not slacken my strength because of mine afflictions. <sup>4:30</sup>Rejoice, O my heart, and cry unto the Lord, and say: O Lord, I will praise thee forever; yea, my soul will rejoice in thee, my God, and the rock of my salvation. <sup>4:31</sup>O Lord, wilt thou redeem my soul? Wilt thou deliver me out of the hands of mine enemies? Wilt thou make me that I may shake at the appearance of sin? <sup>4:32</sup>May the gates of hell be shut continually before me, because that my heart is broken and my spirit is contrite! O Lord, wilt thou not shut the gates of thy righteousness before me, that I may walk in the path of the low valley, that I may be strict in the plain road! <sup>4:33</sup>O Lord, wilt thou encircle me around in the robe of thy righteousness! O Lord, wilt thou make a way for mine escape before mine enemies! Wilt thou make my path straight before me! Wilt thou not place a stumbling block in my way—but that thou wouldst clear my way before me, and hedge not up my way, but the ways of mine enemy. <sup>4:34</sup>O Lord, I have trusted in thee, and I will trust in thee forever. I will not put my trust in the arm of flesh; for I know that cursed is he that putteth his trust in the arm of flesh. Yea, cursed is he that putteth his trust in man or maketh flesh his arm. <sup>4:35</sup>Yea, I know that God will give liberally to him that asketh. Yea, my God will give me, if I ask not amiss; therefore I will lift up my voice unto thee; yea, I will cry unto thee, my God, the rock of my righteousness. Behold, my voice shall forever ascend up unto thee, my rock and mine everlasting God. Amen. <sup><IV>5:1</sup>Behold, it came to pass that I, Nephi, did cry much unto the Lord my God, because of the anger of my brethren. <sup>5:2</sup>But behold, their anger did increase against me, insomuch that they did seek to take away my life. <sup>5:3</sup>Yea, they did murmur against me, saying: Our younger brother thinks to rule over us; and we have had much trial because of him; wherefore, now let us slay him, that we may not be afflicted more because of his words. For behold, we will not have him to be our ruler; for it belongs unto us, who are the elder brethren, to rule over this people. <sup>5:4</sup>Now I do not write upon these plates all the words which they murmured against me. But it sufficeth me to say, that they did seek to take away my life. <sup>5:5</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord did warn me, that I, Nephi, should depart from them and flee into the wilderness, and all those who would go with me. <sup>5:6</sup>Wherefore, it came to pass that I, Nephi, did take my family, and also Zoram and his family, and Sam, mine elder brother and his family, and Jacob and Joseph, my younger brethren, and also my sisters, and all those who would go with me. And all those who would go with me were those who believed in the warnings and the revelations of God; wherefore, they did hearken unto my words. <sup>5:7</sup>And we did take our tents and whatsoever things were possible for us, and did journey in the wilderness for the space of many days. And after we had journeyed for the space of many days we did pitch our tents. <sup>5:8</sup>And my people would that we should call the name of the place Nephi; wherefore, we did call it Nephi. <sup>5:9</sup>And all those who were with me did take upon them to call themselves the people of Nephi. <sup>5:10</sup>And we did observe to keep the judgments, and the statutes, and the commandments of the Lord in all things, according to the law of Moses. <sup>5:11</sup>And the Lord was with us; and we did prosper exceedingly; for we did sow seed, and we did reap again in abundance. And we began to raise flocks, and herds, and animals of every kind. <sup>5:12</sup>And I, Nephi, had also brought the records which were engraven upon the plates of brass; and also the ball, or compass, which was prepared for my father by the hand of the Lord, according to that which is written. <sup>5:13</sup>And it came to pass that we began to prosper exceedingly, and to multiply in the land. <sup>5:14</sup>And I, Nephi, did take the sword of Laban, and after the manner of it did make many swords, lest by any means the people who were now called Lamanites should come upon us and destroy us; for I knew their hatred towards me and my children and those who were called my people. <sup>5:15</sup>And I did teach my people to build buildings, and to work in all manner of wood, and of iron, and of copper, and of brass, and of steel, and of gold, and of silver, and of precious ores, which were in great abundance. <sup>5:16</sup>And I, Nephi, did build a temple; and I did construct it after the manner of the temple of Solomon save it were not built of so many precious things; for they were not to be found upon the land, wherefore, it could not be built like unto Solomon's temple. But the manner of the construction was like unto the temple of Solomon; and the workmanship thereof was exceedingly fine. <sup>5:17</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, did cause my people to be industrious, and to labor with their hands. <sup>5:18</sup>And it came to pass that they would that I should be their king. But I, Nephi, was desirous that they should have no king; nevertheless, I did for them according to that which was in my power. <sup>5:19</sup>And behold, the words of the Lord had been fulfilled unto my brethren, which he

spake concerning them, that I should be their ruler and their teacher. Wherefore, I had been their ruler and their teacher, according to the commandments of the Lord, until the time they sought to take away my life. <sup>5:20</sup>Wherefore, the word of the Lord was fulfilled which he spake unto me, saying that: Inasmuch as they will not hearken unto thy words they shall be cut off from the presence of the Lord. And behold, they were cut off from his presence. <sup>5:21</sup>And he had caused the cursing to come upon them, yea, even a sore cursing, because of their iniquity. For behold, they had hardened their hearts against him, that they had become like unto a flint; wherefore, as they were white, and exceedingly fair and delightsome, that they might not be enticing unto my people the Lord God did cause a skin of blackness to come upon them. <sup>5:22</sup>And thus saith the Lord God: I will cause that they shall be loathsome unto thy people, save they shall repent of their iniquities. <sup>5:23</sup>And cursed shall be the seed of him that mixeth with their seed; for they shall be cursed even with the same cursing. And the Lord spake it, and it was done. <sup>5:24</sup>And because of their cursing which was upon them they did become an idle people, full of mischief and subtlety, and did seek in the wilderness for beasts of prey. <sup>5:25</sup>And the Lord God said unto me: They shall be a scourge unto thy seed, to stir them up in remembrance of me; and inasmuch as they will not remember me, and hearken unto my words, they shall scourge them even unto destruction. <sup>5:26</sup>And it came to pass that I, Nephi, did consecrate Jacob and Joseph, that they should be priests and teachers over the land of my people. <sup>5:27</sup>And it came to pass that we lived after the manner of happiness. <sup>5:28</sup>And thirty years had passed away from the time we left Jerusalem. <sup>5:29</sup>And I, Nephi, had kept the records upon my plates, which I had made, of my people thus far. <sup>5:30</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord God said unto me: Make other plates; and thou shalt engraven many things upon them which are good in my sight, for the profit of thy people. <sup>5:31</sup>Wherefore, I, Nephi, to be obedient to the commandments of the Lord, went and made these plates upon which I have engraven these things. <sup>5:32</sup>And I engraved that which is pleasing unto God. And if my people are pleased with the things of God they will be pleased with mine engravings which are upon these plates. <sup>5:33</sup>And if my people desire to know the more particular part of the history of my people they must search mine other plates. <sup>5:34</sup>And it sufficeth me to say that forty years had passed away, and we had already had wars and contentions with our brethren. <sup><V>6:1</sup>The words of Jacob, the brother of Nephi, which he spake unto the people of Nephi: <sup>6:2</sup>Behold, my beloved brethren, I, Jacob, having been called of God, and ordained after the manner of his holy order, and having been consecrated by my brother Nephi, unto whom ye look as a king or a protector, and on whom ye depend for safety, behold ye know that I have spoken unto you exceedingly many things. <sup>6:3</sup>Nevertheless, I speak unto you again; for I am desirous for the welfare of your souls. Yea, mine anxiety is great for you; and ye yourselves know that it ever has been. For I have exhorted you with all diligence; and I have taught you the words of my father; and I have spoken unto you concerning all things which are written, from the creation of the world. <sup>6:4</sup>And now, behold, I would speak unto you concerning things which are, and which are to come; wherefore, I will read you the words of Isaiah. And they are the words which my brother has desired that I should speak unto you. And I speak unto you for your sakes, that ye may learn and glorify the name of your God. <sup>6:5</sup>And now, the words which I shall read are they which Isaiah spake concerning all the house of Israel; wherefore, they may be likened unto you, for ye are of the house of Israel. And there are many things which have been spoken by Isaiah which may be likened unto you, because ye are of the house of Israel. <sup>6:6</sup>And now, these are the words: Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people; and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. <sup>6:7</sup>And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers; they shall bow down to thee with their faces towards the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord; for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me. <sup>6:8</sup>And now I, Jacob, would speak somewhat concerning these words. For behold, the Lord has shown me that those who were at Jerusalem, from whence we came, have been slain and carried away captive. <sup>6:9</sup>Nevertheless, the Lord has shown unto me that they should return again. And he also has shown unto me that the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, should manifest himself unto them in the flesh; and after he should manifest himself they should scourge him and crucify him, according to the words of the angel who spake it unto me. <sup>6:10</sup>And after they have hardened their hearts and stiffened their necks against the Holy One of Israel, behold, the judgments of the Holy One of Israel shall come upon them. And the day cometh that they shall be smitten and afflicted. <sup>6:11</sup>Wherefore, after they are driven to and fro, for thus saith the angel, many shall be afflicted in the flesh, and shall not be suffered to perish, because of the prayers of the faithful; they shall be scattered, and smitten, and hated; nevertheless, the Lord will be merciful unto them, that when they shall come to the knowledge of their Redeemer, they shall be gathered together again to the lands of their inheritance. <sup>6:12</sup>And blessed are the Gentiles, they of whom the prophet has written; for behold, if it so be that they shall repent and fight not against Zion, and do not unite themselves to that great and abominable church, they shall be saved; for the Lord God will fulfil his covenants which he has made unto his children; and for this cause the prophet has written these things. <sup>6:13</sup>Wherefore, they that fight against Zion and the covenant people of the Lord shall lick up the dust of their feet; and the people of the Lord shall not be ashamed. For the people of the Lord are they who wait for him; for they still wait for the coming of the Messiah. <sup>6:14</sup>And behold, according to the words of the prophet, the Messiah will set himself again the second time to recover them; wherefore, he will manifest himself unto them in power and great glory, unto the destruction of their enemies, when that day cometh when they shall believe in him; and none will he destroy that believe in him. <sup>6:15</sup>And they that believe not in him shall be destroyed, both by fire, and by tempest, and by earthquakes, and by bloodsheds, and by pestilence, and by famine. And they shall know that the Lord is God, the Holy One of Israel. <sup>6:16</sup>For shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? <sup>6:17</sup>But thus saith the Lord: Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered; for the Mighty God shall deliver his covenant people. For thus saith the Lord: I will contend with them that contendeth with thee — <sup>6:18</sup>and I will feed them that oppress thee, with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood as with sweet wine; and all flesh shall know that I the Lord am thy Savior and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. <sup>7:1</sup>Yea, for thus saith the Lord: Have I put thee away, or have I cast thee off forever? For thus saith the Lord: Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement? To whom have I put thee away, or to which of my creditors have I sold you? Yea, to whom have I sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away. <sup>7:2</sup>Wherefore, when I came, there was no man; when I called, yea, there was none to answer. O house of Israel, is my hand shortened at all that it cannot redeem, or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make their rivers a wilderness and their fish to stink because the waters are dried up, and they die because of thirst. <sup>7:3</sup>I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. <sup>7:4</sup>The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season unto thee, O house of Israel. When ye are weary he waketh morning by morning. He waketh mine ear to hear as the learned. <sup>7:5</sup>The Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. <sup>7:6</sup>I gave my back to the smiter, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair. I hid not my face from shame and spitting. <sup>7:7</sup>For the Lord God will help me, therefore shall I not be confounded. Therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. <sup>7:8</sup>And the Lord is near, and he justifieth me. Who will contend with me? Let us stand together. Who is mine adversary? Let him come near me, and I will smite him with the strength of my mouth. <sup>7:9</sup>For the Lord God will help me. And all they who shall condemn me, behold, all they shall wax old as a garment, and the moth shall eat them up. <sup>7:10</sup>Who is among you that feareth the Lord, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness and hath no light? <sup>7:11</sup>Behold all ye that kindle fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks, walk in the light of your fire and in the sparks which ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand — ye shall lie down in sorrow. <sup>8:1</sup>Hearken unto me, ye that follow after righteousness. Look unto the rock from whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit from whence ye are digged. <sup>8:2</sup>Look unto Abraham, your father, and unto Sarah, she that bare you; for I called him alone, and blessed him. <sup>8:3</sup>For the Lord shall comfort Zion, he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord. Joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving and the voice of melody. <sup>8:4</sup>Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation; for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light for the people. <sup>8:5</sup>My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arm shall judge the people. The isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust. <sup>8:6</sup>Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment; and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner. But my salvation shall be forever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished. <sup>8:7</sup>Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart I have written my law, fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings. <sup>8:8</sup>For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool. But my righteousness shall be forever, and my salvation from generation to generation. <sup>8:9</sup>Awake, awake! Put on strength, O arm of the Lord; awake as in the ancient days. Art thou not he that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon? <sup>8:10</sup>Art thou not he who hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? <sup>8:11</sup>Therefore, the redeemed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy and holiness shall be upon their heads; and they shall obtain gladness and joy; sorrow and mourning shall flee away. <sup>8:12</sup>I am he; yea, I am he that comforteth you. Behold, who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of man, who shall die, and of the son of man, who shall be made like unto grass? <sup>8:13</sup>And forgettest the Lord thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth, and hast feared continually every day, because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? And where is the fury of the oppressor? <sup>8:14</sup>The captive exile hasteneth, that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail. <sup>8:15</sup>But I am the Lord thy God, whose waves roared; the Lord of Hosts is my name. <sup>8:16</sup>And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion: Behold, thou art my people. <sup>8:17</sup>Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the Lord the cup of his fury — thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling wrung out — <sup>8:18</sup>and none to guide her among all the sons she hath brought forth; neither that taketh her by the hand, of all the sons she hath brought up. <sup>8:19</sup>These two sons are come unto thee, who shall be sorry for thee — thy desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword — and by whom shall I comfort thee? <sup>8:20</sup>Thy sons have fainted, save these two; they lie at the head of all the streets; as a wild bull in a net, they are full of the fury of the Lord, the rebuke of thy God. <sup>8:21</sup>Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, and not with wine: <sup>8:22</sup>thus saith thy Lord, the Lord and thy God pleadeth the cause of his people; behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again. <sup>8:23</sup>But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; who have said to thy soul: Bow down, that we may go over — and thou hast laid thy body as the ground and as the street to them that went over. <sup>8:24</sup>Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city; for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. <sup>8:25</sup>Shake thyself from the dust; arise, sit down, O Jerusalem; loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion. <sup><VI>9:1</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, I have read these things that ye might know concerning the covenants of the Lord that he has covenanted with all the house of Israel — <sup>9:2</sup>that he has spoken unto the Jews, by the mouth of his holy prophets, even from the beginning down, from generation to generation, until the time comes that they shall be restored to the true church and fold of God; when they shall be gathered home to the lands of their inheritance, and shall be established in all their lands of promise. <sup>9:3</sup>Behold, my beloved brethren, I speak unto you these things that ye may rejoice, and lift up your heads forever, because of the blessings which the Lord God shall bestow upon your children. <sup>9:4</sup>For I know that ye have searched much, many of you, to know of things to come; wherefore I know that ye know that our flesh must waste away and die; nevertheless, in our bodies we shall see God. <sup>9:5</sup>Yea, I know that ye know that in the body he shall show himself unto those at Jerusalem, from whence we came; for it is expedient that it should be among them; for it behooveth the great Creator that he suffereth himself to become subject unto man in the flesh, and die for all men, that all men might become subject unto him. <sup>9:6</sup>For as death hath passed upon all men, to fulfil the merciful plan of the great Creator, there must needs be a power of resurrection, and the resurrection must needs come unto man by reason of the fall; and the fall came by reason of transgression; and because man became fallen they were cut off from the presence of the Lord. <sup>9:7</sup>Wherefore, it must needs be an infinite atonement — save it should be an infinite atonement this corruption could not put on incorruption. Wherefore, the first judgment which came upon man must needs have remained to an endless duration. And if so, this flesh must have laid down to rot and to crumble to its mother earth, to rise no more. <sup>9:8</sup>O the wisdom of God, his mercy and grace! For behold, if the flesh should rise no more our spirits must become subject to that angel who fell from before the presence of the Eternal God, and became the devil, to rise no more. <sup>9:9</sup>And our spirits must have become like unto him, and we become devils, angels to a devil, to be shut out from the presence of our God, and to remain with the father of lies, in misery, like unto himself; yea, to that being who beguiled our first parents, who transformeth himself nigh unto an angel of light, and stirreth up the children of men unto secret combinations of murder and all manner of secret works of darkness. <sup>9:10</sup>O how great the goodness of our God, who prepareth a way for our escape from the grasp of this awful monster; yea, that monster, death and hell, which I call the death of the body, and also the death of the spirit. <sup>9:11</sup>And because of the way of deliverance of our God, the Holy One of Israel, this death, of which I have spoken, which is the temporal, shall deliver up its dead; which death is the grave. <sup>9:12</sup>And this death of which I have spoken, which is the spiritual death, shall deliver up its dead; which spiritual death is hell; wherefore, death and hell must deliver up their dead, and hell must deliver up its captive spirits, and the grave must deliver up its captive bodies, and the bodies and the spirits of men will be restored one to the other; and it is by the power of the resurrection of the Holy One of Israel. <sup>9:13</sup>O how great the plan of our God! For on the other hand, the paradise of God must deliver up the spirits of the righteous, and the grave deliver up the body of the righteous; and the spirit and the body is restored to itself again, and all men become incorruptible, and immortal, and they are living souls, having a perfect knowledge like unto us in the flesh, save it be that our knowledge shall be perfect. <sup>9:14</sup>Wherefore, we shall have a perfect knowledge of all our guilt, and our uncleanness, and our nakedness; and the righteous shall have a perfect knowledge of their enjoyment, and their righteousness, being clothed with purity, yea, even with the robe of righteousness. <sup>9:15</sup>And it shall come to pass that when all men shall have passed from this first death unto life, insomuch as they have become immortal, they must appear before the judgment-seat of the Holy One of Israel; and then cometh the judgment, and then must they be judged according to the holy judgment of God. <sup>9:16</sup>And assuredly, as the Lord liveth, for the Lord God hath spoken it, and it is his eternal word, which cannot pass away, that they who are righteous shall be righteous still, and they who are filthy shall be filthy still; wherefore, they who are filthy are the devil and his angels; and they shall go away into everlasting fire, prepared for them; and their torment is as a lake of fire and brimstone, whose flame ascendeth up forever and ever and has no end. <sup>9:17</sup>O the greatness and the justice of our God! For he executeth all his words, and they have gone forth out of his mouth, and his law must be fulfilled. <sup>9:18</sup>But, behold, the righteous, the saints of the Holy One of Israel, they who have believed in the Holy One of Israel, they who have endured the crosses of the world, and despised the shame of it, they shall inherit the kingdom of God, which was prepared for them from the foundation of the world, and their joy shall be full forever. <sup>9:19</sup>O the greatness of the mercy of our God, the Holy One of Israel! For he delivereth his saints from that awful monster the devil, and death, and hell, and that lake of fire and brimstone, which is endless torment. <sup>9:20</sup>O how great the holiness of our God! For he knoweth all things, and there is not anything save he knows it. <sup>9:21</sup>And he cometh into the world that he may save all men if they will hearken unto his voice; for behold, he suffereth the pains of all men, yea, the pains of every living creature, both men, women, and children, who belong to the family of Adam. <sup>9:22</sup>And he suffereth this that the resurrection might pass upon all men, that all might stand before him at the great and judgment day. <sup>9:23</sup>And he commandeth all men that they must repent, and be baptized in his name, having perfect faith in the Holy One of Israel, or they cannot be saved in the kingdom of God. <sup>9:24</sup>And if they will not repent and believe in his name, and be baptized in his name, and endure to the end, they must be damned; for the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, has spoken it. <sup>9:25</sup>Wherefore, he has given a law; and where there is no law given there is no punishment; and where there is no punishment there is no condemnation; and where there is no condemnation the mercies of the Holy One of Israel have claim upon them, because of the atonement; for they are delivered by the power of him. <sup>9:26</sup>For the atonement satisfieth the demands of his justice upon all those who have not the law given to them, that they are delivered from that awful monster, death and hell, and the devil, and the lake of fire and brimstone, which is endless torment; and they are restored to that God who gave them breath, which is the Holy One of Israel. <sup>9:27</sup>But wo unto him that has the law given, yea, that has all the commandments of God, like unto us, and that transgresseth them, and that wasteth the days of his probation, for awful is his state! <sup>9:28</sup>O that cunning plan of the evil one! O the vainness, and the frailties, and the foolishness of men! When they are learned they think they are wise, and they hearken not unto the counsel of God, for they set it aside, supposing they know of themselves, wherefore, their wisdom is foolishness and it profiteth them not. And they shall perish. <sup>9:29</sup>But to be learned is good if they hearken unto the counsels of God. <sup>9:30</sup>But wo unto the rich, who are rich as to the things of the world. For because they are rich they despise the poor, and they persecute the meek, and their hearts are upon their treasures; wherefore, their treasure is their god. And behold, their treasure shall perish with them also. <sup>9:31</sup>And wo unto the deaf that will not hear; for they shall perish. <sup>9:32</sup>Wo unto the blind that will not see; for they shall perish also. <sup>9:33</sup>Wo unto the uncircumcised of heart, for a knowledge of their iniquities shall smite them at the last day. <sup>9:34</sup>Wo unto the liar, for he shall be thrust down to hell. <sup>9:35</sup>Wo unto the murderer who deliberately killeth, for he shall die. <sup>9:36</sup>Wo unto them who commit whoredoms, for they shall be thrust down to hell. <sup>9:37</sup>Yea, wo unto those that worship idols, for the devil of all devils delighteth in them. <sup>9:38</sup>And, in fine, wo unto all those who die in their sins; for they shall return to God, and behold his face, and remain in their sins. <sup>9:39</sup>O, my beloved brethren, remember the awfulness in transgressing against that Holy God, and also the awfulness of yielding to the enticings of that cunning one. Remember, to be carnally-minded is death, and to be spiritually-minded is life eternal. <sup>9:40</sup>O, my beloved brethren, give ear to my words. Remember the greatness of the Holy One of Israel. Do not say that I have spoken hard things against you; for if ye do, ye will revile against the truth; for I have spoken the words of your Maker. I know that the words of truth are hard against all uncleanness; but the righteous fear them not, for they love the truth and are not shaken. <sup>9:41</sup>O then, my beloved brethren, come unto the Lord, the Holy One. Remember that his paths are righteous. Behold, the way for man is narrow, but it lieth in a straight course before him, and the keeper of the gate is the Holy One of Israel; and he employeth no servant there; and there is none other way save it be by the gate; for he cannot be deceived, for the Lord God is his name. <sup>9:42</sup>And whoso knocketh, to him will he open; and the wise, and the learned, and they that are rich, who are puffed up because of their learning, and their wisdom, and their riches—yea, they are they whom he despiseth; and save they shall cast these things away, and consider themselves fools before God, and come down in the depths of humility, he will not open unto them. <sup>9:43</sup>But the things of the wise and the prudent shall be hid from them forever — yea, that happiness which is prepared for the saints. <sup>9:44</sup>O, my beloved brethren, remember my words. Behold, I take off my garments, and I shake them before you; I pray the God of my salvation that he view me with his all-searching eye; wherefore, ye shall know at the last day, when all men shall be judged of their works, that the God of Israel did witness that I shook your iniquities from my soul, and that I stand with brightness before him, and am rid of your blood. <sup>9:45</sup>O, my beloved brethren, turn away from your sins; shake off the chains of him that would bind you fast; come unto that God who is the rock of your salvation. <sup>9:46</sup>Prepare your souls for that glorious day when justice shall be administered unto the righteous, even the day of judgment, that ye may not shrink with awful fear; that ye may not remember your awful guilt in perfectness, and be constrained to exclaim: Holy, holy are thy judgments, O Lord God Almighty — but I know my guilt; I transgressed thy law, and my transgressions are mine; and the devil hath obtained me, that I am a prey to his awful misery. <sup>9:47</sup>But behold, my brethren, is it expedient that I should awake you to an awful reality of these things? Would I harrow up your souls if your minds were pure? Would I be plain unto you according to the plainness of the truth if ye were freed from sin? <sup>9:48</sup>Behold, if ye were holy I would speak unto you of holiness; but as ye are not holy, and ye look upon me as a teacher, it must needs be expedient that I teach you the consequences of sin. <sup>9:49</sup>Behold, my soul abhorreth sin, and my heart delighteth in righteousness; and I will praise the holy name of my God. <sup>9:50</sup>Come, my brethren, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters; and he that hath no money, come buy and eat; yea, come buy wine and milk without money and without price. <sup>9:51</sup>Wherefore, do not spend money for that which is of no worth, nor your labor for that which cannot satisfy. Hearken diligently unto me, and remember the words which I have spoken; and come unto the Holy One of Israel, and feast upon that which perisheth not, neither can be corrupted, and let your soul delight in fatness. <sup>9:52</sup>Behold, my beloved brethren, remember the words of your God; pray unto him continually by day, and give thanks unto his holy name by night. Let your hearts rejoice. <sup>9:53</sup>And behold how great the covenants of the Lord, and how great his condescensions unto the children of men; and because of his greatness, and his grace and mercy, he has promised unto us that our seed shall not utterly be destroyed, according to the flesh, but that he would preserve them; and in future generations they shall become a righteous branch unto the house of Israel. <sup>9:54</sup>And now, my brethren, I would speak unto you more; but on the morrow I will declare unto you the remainder of my words. Amen. <sup><VII>10:1</sup>And now I, Jacob, speak unto you again, my beloved brethren, concerning this righteous branch of which I have spoken. <sup>10:2</sup>For behold, the promises which we have obtained are promises unto us according to the flesh; wherefore, as it has been shown unto me that many of our children shall perish in the flesh because of unbelief, nevertheless, God will be merciful unto many; and our children shall be restored, that they may come to that which will give them the true knowledge of their

Redeemer. <sup>10:3</sup>Wherefore, as I said unto you, it must needs be expedient that Christ—for in the last night the angel spake unto me that this should be his name—should come among the Jews, among those who are the more wicked part of the world; and they shall crucify him—for thus it behooveth our God, and there is none other nation on earth that would crucify their God. <sup>10:4</sup>For should the mighty miracles be wrought among other nations they would repent, and know that he be their God. <sup>10:5</sup>But because of priestcrafts and iniquities, they at Jerusalem will stiffen their necks against him, that he be crucified. <sup>10:6</sup>Wherefore, because of their iniquities, destructions, famines, pestilences, and bloodshed shall come upon them; and they who shall not be destroyed shall be scattered among all nations. <sup>10:7</sup>But behold, thus saith the Lord God: When the day cometh that they shall believe in me, that I am Christ, then have I covenanted with their fathers that they shall be restored in the flesh, upon the earth, unto the lands of their inheritance. <sup>10:8</sup>And it shall come to pass that they shall be gathered in from their long dispersion, from the isles of the sea, and from the four parts of the earth; and the nations of the Gentiles shall be great in the eyes of me, saith God, in carrying them forth to the lands of their inheritance. <sup>10:9</sup>Yea, the kings of the Gentiles shall be nursing fathers unto them, and their queens shall become nursing mothers; wherefore, the promises of the Lord are great unto the Gentiles, for he hath spoken it, and who can dispute? <sup>10:10</sup>But behold, this land, said God, shall be a land of thine inheritance, and the Gentiles shall be blessed upon the land. <sup>10:11</sup>And this land shall be a land of liberty unto the Gentiles, and there shall be no kings upon the land, who shall raise up unto the Gentiles. <sup>10:12</sup>And I will fortify this land against all other nations. <sup>10:13</sup>And he that fighteth against Zion shall perish, saith God. <sup>10:14</sup>For he that raiseth up a king against me shall perish, for I, the Lord, the king of heaven, will be their king, and I will be a light unto them forever, that hear my words. <sup>10:15</sup>Wherefore, for this cause, that my covenants may be fulfilled which I have made unto the children of men, that I will do unto them while they are in the flesh, I must needs destroy the secret works of darkness, and of murders, and of abominations. <sup>10:16</sup>Wherefore, he that fighteth against Zion, both Jew and Gentile, both bond and free, both male and female, shall perish; for they are they who are the whore of all the earth; for they who are not for me are against me, saith our God. <sup>10:17</sup>For I will fulfil my promises which I have made unto the children of men, that I will do unto them while they are in the flesh—<sup>10:18</sup>wherefore, my beloved brethren, thus saith our God: I will afflict thy seed by the hand of the Gentiles; nevertheless, I will soften the hearts of the Gentiles, that they shall be like unto a father to them; wherefore, the Gentiles shall be blessed and numbered among the house of Israel. <sup>10:19</sup>Wherefore, I will consecrate this land unto thy seed, and them who shall be numbered among thy seed, forever, for the land of their inheritance; for it is a choice land, saith God unto me, above all other lands, wherefore I will have all men that dwell thereon that they shall worship me, saith God. <sup>10:20</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, seeing that our merciful God has given us so great knowledge concerning these things, let us remember him, and lay aside our sins, and not hang down our heads, for we are not cast off; nevertheless, we have been driven out of the land of our inheritance; but we have been led to a better land, for the Lord has made the sea our path, and we are upon an isle of the sea. <sup>10:21</sup>But great are the promises of the Lord unto them who are upon the isles of the sea; wherefore as it says isles, there must needs be more than this, and they are inhabited also by our brethren. <sup>10:22</sup>For behold, the Lord God has led away from time to time from the house of Israel, according to his will and pleasure. And now behold, the Lord remembereth all them who have been broken off, wherefore he remembereth us also. <sup>10:23</sup>Therefore, cheer up your hearts, and remember that ye are free to act for yourselves—to choose the way of everlasting death or the way of eternal life. <sup>10:24</sup>Wherefore, my beloved brethren, reconcile yourselves to the will of God, and not to the will of the devil and the flesh; and remember, after ye are reconciled unto God, that it is only in and through the grace of God that ye are saved. <sup>10:25</sup>Wherefore, may God raise you from death by the power of the resurrection, and also from everlasting death by the power of the atonement, that ye may be received into the eternal kingdom of God, that ye may praise him through grace divine. Amen. <sup><VIII>11:1</sup>And now, Jacob spake many more things to my people at that time; nevertheless only these things have I caused to be written, for the things which I have written sufficeth me. <sup>11:2</sup>And now I, Nephi, write more of the words of Isaiah, for my soul delighteth in his words. For I will liken his words unto my people, and I will send them forth unto all my children, for he verily saw my Redeemer, even as I have seen him. <sup>11:3</sup>And my brother, Jacob, also has seen him as I have seen him; wherefore, I will send their words forth unto my children to prove unto them that my words are true. Wherefore, by the words of three, God hath said, I will establish my word. Nevertheless, God sendeth more witnesses, and he proveth all his words. <sup>11:4</sup>Behold, my soul delighteth in proving unto my people the truth of the coming of Christ; for, for this end hath the law of Moses been given; and all things which have been given of God from the beginning of the world, unto man, are the typifying of him. <sup>11:5</sup>And also my soul delighteth in the covenants of the Lord which he hath made to our fathers; yea, my soul delighteth in his grace, and in his justice, and power, and mercy in the great and eternal plan of deliverance from death. <sup>11:6</sup>And my soul delighteth in proving unto my people that save Christ should come all men must perish. <sup>11:7</sup>For if there be no Christ there be no God; and if there be no God we are not, for there could have been no creation. But there is a God, and he is Christ, and he cometh in the fulness of his own time. <sup>11:8</sup>And now I write some of the words of Isaiah, that whoso of my people shall see these words may lift up their hearts and rejoice for all men. Now these are the words, and ye may liken them unto you and unto all men. <sup>12:1</sup>The word that Isaiah, the son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem: <sup>12:2</sup>And it shall come to pass in the last days, when the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow unto it. <sup>12:3</sup>And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths; for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. <sup>12:4</sup>And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks—nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. <sup>12:5</sup>O house of Jacob, come ye and let us walk in the light of the Lord; yea, come, for ye have all gone astray, every one to his wicked ways. <sup>12:6</sup>Therefore, O Lord, thou hast forsaken thy people, the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and hearken unto soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers. <sup>12:7</sup>Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots. <sup>12:8</sup>Their land is also full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made. <sup>12:9</sup>And the mean man boweth not down, and the great man humbleth himself not, therefore, forgive him not. <sup>12:10</sup>O ye wicked ones, enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for the fear of the Lord and the glory of his majesty shall smite thee. <sup>12:11</sup>And it shall come to pass that the lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. <sup>12:12</sup>For the day of the Lord of Hosts soon cometh upon all nations, yea, upon every one; yea, upon the proud and lofty, and upon every one who is lifted up, and he shall be brought low. <sup>12:13</sup>Yea, and the day of the Lord shall come upon all the cedars of Lebanon, for they are high and lifted up; and upon all the oaks of Bashan; <sup>12:14</sup>and upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills, and upon all the nations which are lifted up, and upon every people; <sup>12:15</sup>and upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall; <sup>12:16</sup>and upon all the ships of the sea, and upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures. <sup>12:17</sup>And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. <sup>12:18</sup>And the idols he shall utterly abolish. <sup>12:19</sup>And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for the fear of the Lord shall come upon them and the glory of his majesty shall smite them, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. <sup>12:20</sup>In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which he hath made for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats; <sup>12:21</sup>to go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for the fear of the Lord shall come upon them and the majesty of his glory shall smite them, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. <sup>12:22</sup>Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils; for wherein is he to be accounted of? <sup>13:1</sup>For behold, the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem, and from Judah, the stay and the staff, the whole staff of bread, and the whole stay of water—<sup>13:2</sup>the mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient; <sup>13:3</sup>the captain of fifty, and the honorable man, and the counselor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator. <sup>13:4</sup>And I will give children unto them to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them. <sup>13:5</sup>And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor; the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honorable. <sup>13:6</sup>When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, and shall say: Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let not this ruin come under thy hand — <sup>13:7</sup>in that day shall he swear, saying: I will not be a healer; for in my house there is neither bread nor clothing; make me not a ruler of the people. <sup>13:8</sup>For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen, because their tongues and their doings have been against the Lord, to provoke the eyes of his glory. <sup>13:9</sup>The show of their countenance doth witness against them, and doth declare their sin to be even as Sodom, and they cannot hide it. Wo unto their souls, for they have rewarded evil unto themselves! <sup>13:10</sup>Say unto the righteous that it is well with them; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. <sup>13:11</sup>Wo unto the wicked, for they shall perish; for the reward of their hands shall be upon them! <sup>13:12</sup>And my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they who lead thee cause thee to err and destroy the way of thy paths. <sup>13:13</sup>The Lord standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people. <sup>13:14</sup>The Lord will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people and the princes thereof; for ye have eaten up the vineyard and the spoil of the poor in your houses. <sup>13:15</sup>What mean ye? Ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor, saith the Lord God of Hosts. <sup>13:16</sup>Moreover, the Lord saith: Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet — <sup>13:17</sup>therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the Lord will discover their secret parts. <sup>13:18</sup>In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments, and cauls, and round tires like the moon; <sup>13:19</sup>the chains and the bracelets, and the mufflers; <sup>13:20</sup>the bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the ear-rings; <sup>13:21</sup>the rings, and nose jewels; <sup>13:22</sup>the changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the cringing-pins; <sup>13:23</sup>the glasses, and the fine linen, and hoods, and the veils. <sup>13:24</sup>And it shall come to pass, instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle, a rent; and instead of well set hair, baldness; and instead of a stomacher, a girding of sackcloth; burning instead of beauty. <sup>13:25</sup>Thy men shall fall by the sword and thy mighty in the war. <sup>13:26</sup>And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall be desolate, and shall sit upon the ground. <sup>14:1</sup>And in that day, seven women shall take hold of one man, saying: We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel; only let us be called by thy name to take away our reproach. <sup>14:2</sup>In that day shall the branch of the Lord be beautiful and glorious; the fruit of the earth excellent and comely to them that are escaped of Israel. <sup>14:3</sup>And it shall come to pass, they that are left in Zion and remain in Jerusalem shall be called holy, every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem — <sup>14:4</sup>when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning. <sup>14:5</sup>And the Lord will create upon every dwelling-place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for upon all the glory of Zion shall be a defence. <sup>14:6</sup>And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and a covert from storm and from rain. <sup>15:1</sup>And then will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved, touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill. <sup>15:2</sup>And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein; and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. <sup>15:3</sup>And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. <sup>15:4</sup>What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? Wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes it brought forth wild grapes. <sup>15:5</sup>And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard—I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and I will break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down; <sup>15:6</sup>and I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. <sup>15:7</sup>For the vineyard of the Lord of Hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant; and he looked for judgment, and behold, oppression; for righteousness, but behold, a cry. <sup>15:8</sup>Wo unto them that join house to house, till there can be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth! <sup>15:9</sup>In mine ears, said the Lord of Hosts, of a truth many houses shall be desolate, and great and fair cities without inhabitant. <sup>15:10</sup>Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah. <sup>15:11</sup>Wo unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink, that continue until night, and wine inflame them! <sup>15:12</sup>And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine are in their feasts; but they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of his hands. <sup>15:13</sup>Therefore, my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge; and their honorable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst. <sup>15:14</sup>Therefore, hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure; and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. <sup>15:15</sup>And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled. <sup>15:16</sup>But the Lord of Hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness. <sup>15:17</sup>Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat. <sup>15:18</sup>Wo unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope; <sup>15:19</sup>that say: Let him make speed, hasten his work, that we may see it; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it. <sup>15:20</sup>Wo unto them that call evil good, and good evil, that put darkness for light, and light for darkness, that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! <sup>15:21</sup>Wo unto the wise in their own eyes and prudent in their own sight! <sup>15:22</sup>Wo unto the mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink; <sup>15:23</sup>who justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

<sup>15:24</sup>Therefore, as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, their root shall be rottenness, and their blossoms shall go up as dust; because they have cast away the law of the Lord of Hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. <sup>15:25</sup>Therefore, is the anger of the Lord kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them; and the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. <sup>15:26</sup>And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth; and behold, they shall come with speed swiftly; none shall be weary nor stumble among them. <sup>15:27</sup>None shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken; <sup>15:28</sup>whose arrows shall be sharp, and all their bows bent, and their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind, their roaring like a lion. <sup>15:29</sup>They shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry away safe, and none shall deliver. <sup>15:30</sup>And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea; and if they look unto the land, behold, darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof. <IX><sup>16:1</sup>In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. <sup>16:2</sup>Above it stood the seraphim; each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. <sup>16:3</sup>And one cried unto another, and said: Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of Hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. <sup>16:4</sup>And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. <sup>16:5</sup>Then said I: Wo is unto me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips; and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of Hosts. <sup>16:6</sup>Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar; <sup>16:7</sup>and he laid it upon my mouth, and said: Lo, this has touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. <sup>16:8</sup>Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said: Here am I; send me. <sup>16:9</sup>And he said: Go and tell this people—Hear ye indeed, but they understood not; and see ye indeed, but they perceived not. <sup>16:10</sup>Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes—lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and be converted and be healed. <sup>16:11</sup>Then said I: Lord, how long? And he said: Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate; <sup>16:12</sup>and the Lord have removed men far away, for there shall be a great forsaking in the midst of the land. <sup>16:13</sup>But yet there shall be a tenth, and they shall return, and shall be eaten, as a teil-tree, and as an oak whose substance is in them when they cast their leaves; so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof. <sup>17:1</sup>And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin, king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. <sup>17:2</sup>And it was told the house of David, saying: Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind. <sup>17:3</sup>Then said the Lord unto Isaiah: Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field; <sup>17:4</sup>and say unto him: Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. <sup>17:5</sup>Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying: <sup>17:6</sup>Let us go up against Judah and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, yea, the son of Tabeal. <sup>17:7</sup>Thus saith the Lord God: It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass. <sup>17:8</sup>For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus, Rezin; and within three score and five years shall Ephraim be broken that it be not a people. <sup>17:9</sup>And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe surely ye shall not be established. <sup>17:10</sup>Moreover, the Lord spake again unto Ahaz, saying: <sup>17:11</sup>Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God; ask it either in the depths, or in the heights above. <sup>17:12</sup>But Ahaz said: I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord. <sup>17:13</sup>And he said: Hear ye now, O house of David; is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also? <sup>17:14</sup>Therefore, the Lord himself shall give you a sign— Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and shall bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. <sup>17:15</sup>Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil and to choose the good. <sup>17:16</sup>For before the child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings. <sup>17:17</sup>The Lord shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah, the king of Assyria. <sup>17:18</sup>And it shall come to pass in that day that the Lord shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. <sup>17:19</sup>And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes. <sup>17:20</sup>In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard. <sup>17:21</sup>And it shall come to pass in that day, a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep; <sup>17:22</sup>and it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk they shall give he shall eat butter; for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land. <sup>17:23</sup>And it shall come to pass in that day, every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, which shall be for briers and thorns. <sup>17:24</sup>With arrows and with bows shall men come thither, because all the land shall become briers and thorns. <sup>17:25</sup>And all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and the treading of lesser cattle. <sup>18:1</sup>Moreover, the word of the Lord said unto me: Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen, concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz. <sup>18:2</sup>And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. <sup>18:3</sup>And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived and bare a son. Then said the Lord to me: Call his name, Maher-shalal-hash-baz. <sup>18:4</sup>For behold, the child shall not have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, before the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria. <sup>18:5</sup>The Lord spake also unto me again, saying: <sup>18:6</sup>Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; <sup>18:7</sup>now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria and all his glory; and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks. <sup>18:8</sup>And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel. <sup>18:9</sup>Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear all ye of far countries; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces. <sup>18:10</sup>Take counsel together, and it shall come to naught; speak the word, and it shall not stand; for God is with us. <sup>18:11</sup>For the Lord spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying: <sup>18:12</sup>Say ye not, A confederacy, to all to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. <sup>18:13</sup>Sanctify the Lord of Hosts himself, and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. <sup>18:14</sup>And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>18:15</sup>And many among them shall stumble and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken. <sup>18:16</sup>Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. <sup>18:17</sup>And I will wait upon the Lord, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. <sup>18:18</sup>Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of Hosts, which dwelleth in Mount Zion. <sup>18:19</sup>And when they shall say unto you: Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep and mutter—should not a people seek unto their God for the living to hear from the dead? <sup>18:20</sup>To the law and to the testimony; and if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. <sup>18:21</sup>And they shall pass through it hardly bestead and hungry; and it shall come to pass that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward. <sup>18:22</sup>And they shall look unto the earth and behold trouble, and darkness, dimness of anguish, and shall be driven to darkness. <sup>19:1</sup>Nevertheless, the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, and afterwards did more grievously afflict by the way of the Red Sea beyond Jordan in Galilee of the nations. <sup>19:2</sup>The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. <sup>19:3</sup>Thou hast multiplied the nation, and increased the joy — they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. <sup>19:4</sup>For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor. <sup>19:5</sup>For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire. <sup>19:6</sup>For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called, Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. <sup>19:7</sup>Of the increase of government and peace there is no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth, even forever. The zeal of the Lord of Hosts will perform this. <sup>19:8</sup>The Lord sent his word unto Jacob and it hath lighted upon Israel. <sup>19:9</sup>And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart: <sup>19:10</sup>The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars. <sup>19:11</sup>Therefore the Lord shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together; <sup>19:12</sup>the Syrians before and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. <sup>19:13</sup>For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the Lord of Hosts. <sup>19:14</sup>Therefore will the Lord cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush in one day. <sup>19:15</sup>The ancient, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail. <sup>19:16</sup>For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed. <sup>19:17</sup>Therefore the Lord shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows; for every one of them is a hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. <sup>19:18</sup>For wickedness burneth as the fire; it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forests, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke. <sup>19:19</sup>Through the wrath of the Lord of Hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire; no man shall spare his brother. <sup>19:20</sup>And he shall snatch on the right hand and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand and they shall not be satisfied; they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm — <sup>19:21</sup>Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. <sup>20:1</sup>Wo unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed; <sup>20:2</sup>to turn away the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless! <sup>20:3</sup>And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory? <sup>20:4</sup>Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. <sup>20:5</sup>O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is their indignation. <sup>20:6</sup>I will send him against a hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. <sup>20:7</sup>Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but in his heart it is to destroy and cut off nations not a few. <sup>20:8</sup>For he saith: Are not my princes altogether kings? <sup>20:9</sup>Is not Calno as Carchemish? Is not Hamath as Arpad? Is not Samaria as Damascus? <sup>20:10</sup>As my hand hath founded the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria; <sup>20:11</sup>shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and to her idols? <sup>20:12</sup>Wherefore it shall come to pass that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon Mount Zion and upon Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. <sup>20:13</sup>For he saith: By the strength of my hand and by my wisdom I have done these things; for I am prudent; and I have moved the borders of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man; <sup>20:14</sup>and my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people; and as one gathereth eggs that are left have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped. <sup>20:15</sup>Shall the ax boast itself against him that heweth therewith? Shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? As if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself as if it were no wood! <sup>20:16</sup>Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, send among his fat ones, leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. <sup>20:17</sup>And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame, and shall burn and shall devour his thorns and his briers in one day; <sup>20:18</sup>and shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body; and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth. <sup>20:19</sup>And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them. <sup>20:20</sup>And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them, but shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. <sup>20:21</sup>The remnant shall return, yea, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God. <sup>20:22</sup>For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return; the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness. <sup>20:23</sup>For the Lord God of Hosts shall make a consumption, even determined in all the land. <sup>20:24</sup>Therefore, thus saith the Lord God of Hosts: O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian; he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt. <sup>20:25</sup>For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction. <sup>20:26</sup>And the Lord of Hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; and as his rod was upon the sea so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt. <sup>20:27</sup>And it shall come to pass in that day that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. <sup>20:28</sup>He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages. <sup>20:29</sup>They are gone over the passage; they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramath is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled. <sup>20:30</sup>Lift up the voice, O daughter of Gallim; cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.

<sup>20:32</sup>As yet shall he remain at Nob that day; he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. <sup>20:33</sup>Behold, the Lord, the Lord of Hosts shall lop the bough with terror; and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down; and the haughty shall be humbled. <sup>20:34</sup>And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one. <sup>21:1</sup>And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. <sup>21:2</sup>And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord; <sup>21:3</sup>and shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord; and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears. <sup>21:4</sup>But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. <sup>21:5</sup>And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. <sup>21:6</sup>The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion and fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. <sup>21:7</sup>And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. <sup>21:8</sup>And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den. <sup>21:9</sup>They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. <sup>21:10</sup>And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek; and his rest shall be glorious. <sup>21:11</sup>And it shall come to pass in that day that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. <sup>21:12</sup>And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. <sup>21:13</sup>The envy of Ephraim also shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. <sup>21:14</sup>But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines towards the west; they shall spoil them of the east together; they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them.

<sup>21:15</sup>And the Lord shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind he shall shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dry shod. <sup>21:16</sup>And there shall be a highway for the remnant of his people which shall be left, from Assyria, like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>22:1</sup>And in that day thou shalt say: O Lord, I will praise thee; though thou wast angry with me thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedest me. <sup>22:2</sup>Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid; for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; he also has become my salvation. <sup>22:3</sup>Therefore, with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. <sup>22:4</sup>And in that day shall ye say: Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted. <sup>22:5</sup>Sing unto the Lord; for he hath done excellent things; this is known in all the earth. <sup>22:6</sup>Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion; for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee. <sup><X>23:1</sup>The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see. <sup>23:2</sup>Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. <sup>23:3</sup>I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones, for mine anger is not upon them that rejoice in my highness. <sup>23:4</sup>The noise of the multitude in the mountains like as of a great people, a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together, the Lord of Hosts mustereth the hosts of the battle. <sup>23:5</sup>They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, yea, the Lord, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. <sup>23:6</sup>Howl ye, for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. <sup>23:7</sup>Therefore shall all hands be faint, every man's heart shall melt; <sup>23:8</sup>and they shall be afraid; pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames. <sup>23:9</sup>Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate; and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it. <sup>23:10</sup>For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light; the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. <sup>23:11</sup>And I will punish the world for evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay down the haughtiness of the terrible. <sup>23:12</sup>I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir. <sup>23:13</sup>Therefore, I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the Lord of Hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. <sup>23:14</sup>And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up; and they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land. <sup>23:15</sup>Every one that is proud shall be thrust through; yea, and every one that is joined to the wicked shall fall by the sword. <sup>23:16</sup>Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled and their wives ravished. <sup>23:17</sup>Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver and gold, nor shall they delight in it. <sup>23:18</sup>Their bows shall also dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eyes shall not spare children. <sup>23:19</sup>And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>23:20</sup>It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there. <sup>23:21</sup>But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there. <sup>23:22</sup>And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces; and her time is near to come, and her day shall not be prolonged. For I will destroy her speedily; yea, for I will be merciful unto my people, but the wicked shall perish. <sup>24:1</sup>For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land; and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob. <sup>24:2</sup>And the people shall take them and bring them to their place; yea, from far unto the ends of the earth; and they shall return to their lands of promise. And the house of Israel shall possess them, and the land of the Lord shall be for servants and handmaids; and they shall take them captives unto whom they were captives; and they shall rule over their oppressors. <sup>24:3</sup>And it shall come to pass in that day that the Lord shall give thee rest, from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve. <sup>24:4</sup>And it shall come to pass in that day, that thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say: How hath the oppressor ceased, the golden city ceased! <sup>24:5</sup>The Lord hath broken the staff of the wicked, the scepters of the rulers. <sup>24:6</sup>He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth. <sup>24:7</sup>The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet; they break forth into singing. <sup>24:8</sup>Yea, the fir-trees rejoice at thee, and also the cedars of Lebanon, saying: Since thou art laid down no feller is come up against us. <sup>24:9</sup>Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming; it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. <sup>24:10</sup>All they shall speak and say unto thee: Art thou also become weak as we? Art thou become like unto us? <sup>24:11</sup>Thy pomp is brought down to the grave; the noise of thy viols is not heard; the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee. <sup>24:12</sup>How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! Art thou cut down to the ground, which did weaken the nations! <sup>24:13</sup>For thou hast said in thy heart: I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north; <sup>24:14</sup>I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High. <sup>24:15</sup>Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. <sup>24:16</sup>They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and shall consider thee, and shall say: Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms? <sup>24:17</sup>And made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof, and opened not the house of his prisoners? <sup>24:18</sup>All the kings of the nations, yea, all of them, lie in glory, every one of them in his own house. <sup>24:19</sup>But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and the remnant of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcass trodden under feet. <sup>24:20</sup>Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land and slain thy people; the seed of evil-doers shall never be renowned. <sup>24:21</sup>Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquities of their fathers, that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities. <sup>24:22</sup>For I will rise up against them, saith the Lord of Hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the Lord. <sup>24:23</sup>I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water; and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>24:24</sup>The Lord of Hosts hath sworn, saying: Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand — <sup>24:25</sup>that I will bring the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot; then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders. <sup>24:26</sup>This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all nations. <sup>24:27</sup>For the Lord of Hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul? And his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back? <sup>24:28</sup>In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden. <sup>24:29</sup>Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken; for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. <sup>24:30</sup>And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety; and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant. <sup>24:31</sup>Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved; for there shall come from the north a smoke, and none shall be alone in his appointed times. <sup>24:32</sup>What shall then answer the messengers of the nations? That the Lord hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

<XI><sup>25:1</sup>Now I, Nephi, do speak somewhat concerning the words which I have written, which have been spoken by the mouth of Isaiah. For behold, Isaiah spake many things which were hard for many of my people to understand; for they know not concerning the manner of prophesying among the Jews. <sup>25:2</sup>For I, Nephi, have not taught them many things concerning the manner of the Jews; for their works were works of darkness, and their doings were doings of abominations. <sup>25:3</sup>Wherefore, I write unto my people, unto all those that shall receive hereafter these things which I write, that they may know the judgments of God, that they come upon all nations, according to the word which he hath spoken. <sup>25:4</sup>Wherefore, hearken, O my people, which are of the house of Israel, and give ear unto my words; for because the words of Isaiah are not plain unto you, nevertheless they are plain unto all those that are filled with the spirit of prophecy. But I give unto you a prophecy, according to the spirit which is in me; wherefore I shall prophesy according to the plainness which hath been with me from the time that I came out from Jerusalem with my father; for behold, my soul delighteth in plainness unto my people, that they may learn. <sup>25:5</sup>Yea, and my soul delighteth in the words of Isaiah, for I came out from Jerusalem, and mine eyes hath beheld the things of the Jews, and I know that the Jews do understand the things of the prophets, and there is none other people that understand the things which were spoken unto the Jews like unto them, save it be that they are taught after the manner of the things of the Jews. <sup>25:6</sup>But behold, I, Nephi, have not taught my children after the manner of the Jews; but behold, I, of myself, have dwelt at Jerusalem, wherefore I know concerning the regions round about; and I have made mention unto my children concerning the judgments of God, which hath come to pass among the Jews, unto my children, according to all that which Isaiah hath spoken, and I do not write them. <sup>25:7</sup>But behold, I proceed with mine own prophecy, according to my plainness; in the which I know that no man can err; nevertheless, in the days that the prophecies of Isaiah shall be fulfilled men shall know of a surety, at the times when they shall come to pass. <sup>25:8</sup>Wherefore, they are of worth unto the children of men, and he that supposeth that they are not, unto them will I speak particularly, and confine the words unto mine own people; for I know that they shall be of great worth unto them in the last days; for in that day shall they understand them; wherefore, for their good have I written them. <sup>25:9</sup>And as one generation hath been destroyed among the Jews because of iniquity, even so have they been destroyed from generation to generation according to their iniquities; and never hath any of them been destroyed save it were foretold them by the prophets of the Lord. <sup>25:10</sup>Wherefore, it hath been told them concerning the destruction which should come upon them, immediately after my father left Jerusalem; nevertheless, they hardened their hearts; and according to my prophecy they have been destroyed, save it be those which are carried away captive into Babylon. <sup>25:11</sup>And now this I speak because of the spirit which is in me. And notwithstanding they have been carried away they shall return again, and possess the land of Jerusalem; wherefore, they shall be restored again to the land of their inheritance. <sup>25:12</sup>But, behold, they shall have wars, and rumors of wars; and when the day cometh that the Only Begotten of the Father, yea, even the Father of heaven and of earth, shall manifest himself unto them in the flesh, behold, they will reject him, because of their iniquities, and the hardness of their hearts, and the stiffness of their necks. <sup>25:13</sup>Behold, they will crucify him; and after he is laid in a sepulchre for the space of three days he shall rise from the dead, with healing in his wings; and all those who shall believe on his name shall be saved in the kingdom of God. Wherefore, my soul delighteth to prophesy concerning him, for I have seen his day, and my heart doth magnify his holy name. <sup>25:14</sup>And behold it shall come to pass that after the Messiah hath risen from the dead, and hath manifested himself unto his people, unto as many as will believe on his name, behold, Jerusalem shall be destroyed again; for wo unto them that fight against God and the people of his church. <sup>25:15</sup>Wherefore, the Jews shall be scattered among all nations; yea, and also Babylon shall be destroyed; wherefore, the Jews shall be scattered by other nations. <sup>25:16</sup>And after they have been scattered, and the Lord God hath scourged them by other nations for the space of many generations, yea, even down from generation to generation until they shall be persuaded to believe in Christ, the Son of God, and the atonement, which is infinite for all mankind—and when that day shall come that they shall believe in Christ, and worship the Father in his name, with pure hearts and clean hands, and look not forward any more for another Messiah, then, at that time, the day will come that it must needs be expedient that they should believe these things. <sup>25:17</sup>And the Lord will set his hand again the second time to restore his people from their lost and fallen state. Wherefore, he will proceed to do a marvelous work and a wonder among the children of men. <sup>25:18</sup>Wherefore, he shall bring forth his words unto them, which words shall judge them at the last day, for they shall be given them for the purpose of convincing them of the true Messiah, who was rejected by them; and unto the convincing of them that they need not look forward any more for a Messiah to come, for there should not any come, save it should be a false Messiah which should deceive the people; for there is save one Messiah spoken of by the prophets, and that Messiah is he who should be rejected of the Jews. <sup>25:19</sup>For according to the words of the prophets, the Messiah cometh in six hundred years from the time that my father left Jerusalem; and according to the words of the prophets, and also the word of the angel of God, his name shall be Jesus Christ, the Son of God. <sup>25:20</sup>And now, my brethren, I have spoken plainly that ye cannot err. And as the Lord God liveth that brought Israel up out of the land of Egypt, and gave unto Moses power that he should heal the nations after they had been bitten by the poisonous serpents, if they would cast their eyes unto the serpent which he did raise up before them, and also gave him power that he should smite the rock and the water should come forth; yea, behold I say unto you, that as these things are true, and as the Lord God liveth, there is none other name given under heaven save it be this Jesus Christ, of which I have spoken, whereby man can be saved. <sup>25:21</sup>Wherefore, for this cause hath the Lord God promised unto me that these things which I write shall be kept and preserved, and handed down unto my seed, from generation to generation, that the promise may be fulfilled unto Joseph, that his seed should never perish as long as the earth should stand. <sup>25:22</sup>Wherefore, these things shall go from generation to generation as long as the earth shall stand; and they shall go according to the will and pleasure of God; and the nations who shall possess them shall be judged of them according to the words which are written. <sup>25:23</sup>For we labor diligently to write, to persuade our children, and also our brethren, to believe in Christ, and to be reconciled to God; for we know that it is by grace that we are saved, after all we can do. <sup>25:24</sup>And, notwithstanding we believe in Christ, we keep the law of Moses, and look forward with steadfastness unto Christ, until the law shall be fulfilled. <sup>25:25</sup>For, for this end was the law given; wherefore the law hath become dead unto us, and we are made alive in Christ because of our faith; yet we keep the law because of the commandments. <sup>25:26</sup>And we talk of Christ, we rejoice in Christ, we preach of Christ, we prophesy of Christ, and we write according to our prophecies, that our children may know to what source they may look for a remission of their sins. <sup>25:27</sup>Wherefore, we speak concerning the law that our children may know the deadness of the law; and they, by knowing the deadness of the law, may look forward unto that life which is in Christ, and know for what end the law was given. And after the law is fulfilled in Christ, that they need not harden their hearts against him when the law ought to be done away. <sup>25:28</sup> And now behold, my people, ye are a stiffnecked people; wherefore, I have spoken plainly unto you, that ye cannot misunderstand. And the words which I have spoken shall stand as a testimony against you; for they are sufficient to teach any man the right way; for the right way is to believe in Christ and deny him not; for by denying him ye also deny the prophets and the law. <sup>25:29</sup> And now behold, I say unto you that the right way is to believe in Christ, and deny him not; and Christ is the Holy One of Israel; wherefore ye must bow down before him, and worship him with all your might, mind, and strength, and your whole soul; and if ye do this ye shall in nowise be cast out. <sup>25:30</sup> And, inasmuch as it shall be expedient, ye must keep the performances and ordinances of God until the law shall be fulfilled which was given unto Moses. <sup>26:1</sup> And after Christ shall have risen from the dead he shall show himself unto you, my children, and my beloved brethren; and the words which he shall speak unto you shall be the law which ye shall do. <sup>26:2</sup> For behold, I say unto you that I have beheld that many generations shall pass away, and there shall be great wars and contentions among my people. <sup>26:3</sup> And after the Messiah shall come there shall be signs given unto my people of his birth, and also of his death and resurrection; and great and terrible shall that day be unto the wicked, for they shall perish; and they perish because they cast out the prophets, and the saints, and stone them, and slay them; wherefore the cry of the blood of the saints shall ascend up to God from the ground against them. <sup>26:4</sup> Wherefore, all those who are proud, and that do wickedly, the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of Hosts, for they shall be as stubble. <sup>26:5</sup> And they that kill the prophets, and the saints, the depths of the earth shall swallow them up, saith the Lord of Hosts; and mountains shall cover them, and whirlwinds shall carry them away, and buildings shall fall upon them and crush them to pieces and grind them to powder. <sup>26:6</sup> And they shall be visited with thunderings, and lightnings, and earthquakes, and all manner of destructions, for the fire of the anger of the Lord shall be kindled against them, and they shall be as stubble, and the day that cometh shall consume them, saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>26:7</sup> O the pain, and the anguish of my soul for the loss of the slain of my people! For I, Nephi, have seen it, and it well nigh consumeth me before the presence of the Lord; but I must cry unto my God: Thy ways are just. <sup>26:8</sup> But behold, the righteous that hearken unto the words of the prophets, and destroy them not, but look forward unto Christ with steadfastness for the signs which are given, notwithstanding all persecution—behold, they are they which shall not perish. <sup>26:9</sup> But the Son of righteousness shall appear unto them; and he shall heal them, and they shall have peace with him, until three generations shall have passed away, and many of the fourth generation shall have passed away in righteousness. <sup>26:10</sup> And when these things have passed away a speedy destruction cometh unto my people; for, notwithstanding the pains of my soul, I have seen it; wherefore, I know that it shall come to pass; and they sell themselves for naught; for, for the reward of their pride and their foolishness they shall reap destruction; for because they yield unto the devil and choose works of darkness rather than light, therefore they must go down to hell. <sup>26:11</sup>For the Spirit of the Lord will not always strive with man. And when the Spirit ceaseth to strive with man then cometh speedy destruction, and this grieveth my soul. <sup>26:12</sup>And as I spake concerning the convincing of the Jews, that Jesus is the very Christ, it must needs be that the Gentiles be convinced also that Jesus is the Christ, the Eternal God; <sup>26:13</sup>and that he manifesteth himself unto all those who believe in him, by the power of the Holy Ghost; yea, unto every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, working mighty miracles, signs, and wonders, among the children of men according to their faith. <sup>26:14</sup>But behold, I prophesy unto you concerning the last days; concerning the days when the Lord God shall bring these things forth unto the children of men. <sup>26:15</sup>After my seed and the seed of my brethren shall have dwindled in unbelief, and shall have been smitten by the Gentiles; yea, after the Lord God shall have camped against them round about, and shall have laid siege against them with a mount, and raised forts against them; and after they shall have been brought down low in the dust, even that they are not, yet the words of the righteous shall be written, and the prayers of the faithful shall be heard, and all those who have dwindled in unbelief shall not be forgotten. <sup>26:16</sup>For those who shall be destroyed shall speak unto them out of the ground, and their speech shall be low out of the dust, and their voice shall be as one that hath a familiar spirit; for the Lord God will give unto him power, that he may whisper concerning them, even as it were out of the ground; and their speech shall whisper out of the dust. <sup>26:17</sup>For thus saith the Lord God: They shall write the things which shall be done among them, and they shall be written and sealed up in a book, and those who have dwindled in unbelief shall not have them, for they seek to destroy the things of God. <sup>26:18</sup>Wherefore, as those who have been destroyed have been destroyed speedily; and the multitude of their terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away — yea, thus saith the Lord God: It shall be at an instant, suddenly — <sup>26:19</sup>and it shall come to pass, that those who have dwindled in unbelief shall be smitten by the hand of the Gentiles. <sup>26:20</sup>And the Gentiles are lifted up in the pride of their eyes, and have stumbled, because of the greatness of their stumbling block, that they have built up many churches; nevertheless, they put down the power and miracles of God, and preach up unto themselves their own wisdom and their own learning, that they may get gain and grind upon the face of the poor. <sup>26:21</sup>And there are many churches built up which cause envyings, and strifes, and malice. <sup>26:22</sup>And there are also secret combinations, even as in times of old, according to the combinations of the devil, for he is the founder of all these things; yea, the founder of murder, and works of darkness; yea, and he leadeth them by the neck with a flaxen cord, until he bindeth them with his strong cords forever. <sup>26:23</sup>For behold, my beloved brethren, I say unto you that the Lord God worketh not in darkness. <sup>26:24</sup>He doeth not anything save it be for the benefit of the world; for he loveth the world, even that he layeth down his own life that he may draw all men unto him. Wherefore, he commandeth none that they shall not partake of his salvation. <sup>26:25</sup>Behold, doth he cry unto any, saying: Depart from me? Behold, I say unto you, Nay; but he saith: Come unto me all ye ends of the earth, buy milk and honey, without money and without price. <sup>26:26</sup>Behold, hath he commanded any that they should depart out of the synagogues, or out of the houses of worship? Behold, I say unto you, Nay. <sup>26:27</sup>Hath he commanded any that they should not partake of his salvation? Behold I say unto you, Nay; but he hath given it free for all men; and he hath commanded his people that they should persuade all men to repentance. <sup>26:28</sup>Behold, hath the Lord commanded any that they should not partake of his goodness? Behold I say unto you, Nay; but all men are privileged the one like unto the other, and none are forbidden. <sup>26:29</sup>He commandeth that there shall be no priestcrafts; for, behold, priestcrafts are that men preach and set themselves up for a light unto the world, that they may get gain and praise of the world; but they seek not the welfare of Zion. <sup>26:30</sup>Behold, the Lord hath forbidden this thing; wherefore, the Lord God hath given a commandment that all men should have charity, which charity is love. And except they should have charity they were nothing. Wherefore, if they should have charity they would not suffer the laborer in Zion to perish. <sup>26:31</sup>But the laborer in Zion shall labor for Zion; for if they labor for money they shall perish. <sup>26:32</sup>And again, the Lord God hath commanded that men should not murder; that they should not lie; that they should not steal; that they should not take the name of the Lord their God in vain; that they should not envy; that they should not have malice; that they should not contend one with another; that they should not commit whoredoms; and that they should do none of these things; for whoso doeth them shall perish. <sup>26:33</sup>For none of these iniquities come of the Lord; for he doeth that which is good among the children of men; and he doeth nothing save it be plain unto the children of men; and he inviteth them all to come unto him and partake of his goodness; and he denieth none that come unto him, black and white, bond and free, male and female; and he remembereth the heathen; and all are alike unto God, both Jew and Gentile. <sup>27:1</sup>But, behold, in the last days, or in the days of the Gentiles—yea, behold all the nations of the Gentiles and also the Jews, both those who shall come upon this land and those who shall be upon other lands, yea, even upon all the lands of the earth, behold, they will be drunken with iniquity and all manner of abominations—<sup>27:2</sup>and when that day shall come they shall be visited of the Lord of Hosts, with thunder and with earthquake, and with a great noise, and with storm, and with tempest, and with the flame of devouring fire. <sup>27:3</sup>And all the nations that fight against Zion, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision; yea, it shall be unto them, even as unto a hungry man which dreameth, and behold he eateth but he awaketh and his soul is empty; or like unto a thirsty man which dreameth, and behold he drinketh but he awaketh and behold he is faint, and his soul hath appetite; yea, even so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against Mount Zion. <sup>27:4</sup>For behold, all ye that doeth iniquity, stay yourselves and wonder, for ye shall cry out, and cry; yea, ye shall be drunken but not with wine, ye shall stagger but not with strong drink. <sup>27:5</sup>For behold, the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep. For behold, ye have closed your eyes, and ye have rejected the prophets; and your rulers, and the seers hath he covered because of your iniquity. <sup>27:6</sup>And it shall come to pass that the Lord God shall bring forth unto you the words of a book, and they shall be the words of them which have slumbered. <sup>27:7</sup>And behold the book shall be sealed; and in the book shall be a revelation from God, from the beginning of the world to the ending thereof. <sup>27:8</sup>Wherefore, because of the things which are sealed up, the things which are sealed shall not be delivered in the day of the wickedness and abominations of the people. Wherefore the book shall be kept from them. <sup>27:9</sup>But the book shall be delivered unto a man, and he shall deliver the words of the book, which are the words of those who have slumbered in the dust, and he shall deliver these words unto another; <sup>27:10</sup>but the words which are sealed he shall not deliver, neither shall he deliver the book. For the book shall be sealed by the power of God, and the revelation which was sealed shall be kept in the book until the own due time of the Lord, that they may come forth; for behold, they reveal all things from the foundation of the world unto the end thereof. <sup>27:11</sup>And the day cometh that the words of the book which were sealed shall be read upon the house tops; and they shall be read by the power of Christ; and all things shall be revealed unto the children of men which ever have been among the children of men, and which ever will be even unto the end of the earth. <sup>27:12</sup>Wherefore, at that day when the book shall be delivered unto the man of whom I have spoken, the book shall be hid from the eyes of the world, that the eyes of none shall behold it save it be that three witnesses shall behold it, by the power of God, besides him to whom the book shall be delivered; and they shall testify to the truth of the book and the things therein. <sup>27:13</sup>And there is none other which shall view it, save it be a few according to the will of God, to bear testimony of his word unto the children of men; for the Lord God hath said that the words of the faithful should speak as if it were from the dead. <sup>27:14</sup>Wherefore, the Lord God will proceed to bring forth the words of the book; and in the mouth of as many witnesses as seemeth him good will he establish his word; and wo be unto him that rejecteth the word of God! <sup>27:15</sup>But behold, it shall come to pass that the Lord God shall say unto him to whom he shall deliver the book: Take these words which are not sealed and deliver them to another, that he may show them unto the learned, saying: Read this, I pray thee. And the learned shall say: Bring hither the book, and I will read them. <sup>27:16</sup>And now, because of the glory of the world and to get gain will they say this, and not for the glory of God. <sup>27:17</sup>And the man shall say: I cannot bring the book, for it is sealed. <sup>27:18</sup>Then shall the learned say: I cannot read it. <sup>27:19</sup>Wherefore it shall come to pass, that the Lord God will deliver again the book and the words thereof to him that is not learned; and the man that is not learned shall say: I am not learned. <sup>27:20</sup>Then shall the Lord God say unto him: The learned shall not read them, for they have rejected them, and I am able to do mine own work; wherefore thou shalt read the words which I shall give unto thee. <sup>27:21</sup>Touch not the things which are sealed, for I will bring them forth in mine own due time; for I will show unto the children of men that I am able to do mine own work. <sup>27:22</sup>Wherefore, when thou hast read the words which I have commanded thee, and obtained the witnesses which I have promised unto thee, then shalt thou seal up the book again, and hide it up unto me, that I may preserve the words which thou hast not read, until I shall see fit in mine own wisdom to reveal all things unto the children of men. <sup>27:23</sup>For behold, I am God; and I am a God of miracles; and I will show unto the world that I am the same yesterday, today, and forever; and I work not among the children of men save it be according to their faith. <sup>27:24</sup>And again it shall come to pass that the Lord shall say unto him that shall read the words that shall be delivered him: <sup>27:25</sup>Forasmuch as this people draw near unto me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their hearts far from me, and their fear towards me is taught by the precepts of men — <sup>27:26</sup>therefore, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, yea, a marvelous work and a wonder, for the wisdom of their wise and learned shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent shall be hid. <sup>27:27</sup>And wo unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord! And their works are in the dark; and they say: Who seeth us, and who knoweth us? And they also say: Surely, your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay. But behold, I will show unto them, saith the Lord of Hosts, that I know all their works. For shall the work say of him that made it, he made me not? Or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, he had no understanding? <sup>27:28</sup>But behold, saith the Lord of Hosts: I will show unto the children of men that it is yet a very little while and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field; and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest. <sup>27:29</sup>And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness. <sup>27:30</sup>And the meek also shall increase, and their joy shall be in the Lord, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. <sup>27:31</sup>For assuredly as the Lord liveth they shall see that the terrible one is brought to naught, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off; <sup>27:32</sup>and they that make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of naught. <sup>27:33</sup>Therefore, thus saith the Lord, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale. <sup>27:34</sup>But when he seeth his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel. <sup>27:35</sup>They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine. <sup><XII>28:1</sup>And now, behold, my brethren, I have spoken unto you, according as the Spirit hath constrained me; wherefore, I know that they must surely come to pass. <sup>28:2</sup>And the things which shall be written out of the book shall be of great worth unto the children of men, and especially unto our seed, which is a remnant of the house of Israel. <sup>28:3</sup>For it shall come to pass in that day that the churches which are built up, and not unto the Lord, when the one shall say unto the other: Behold, I, I am the Lord's; and the others shall say: I, I am the Lord's; and thus shall every one say that hath built up churches, and not unto the Lord — <sup>28:4</sup>and they shall contend one with another; and their priests shall contend one with another, and they shall teach with their learning, and deny the Holy Ghost, which giveth utterance. <sup>28:5</sup>And they deny the power of God, the Holy One of Israel; and they say unto the people: Hearken unto us, and hear ye our precept; for behold there is no God today, for the Lord and the Redeemer hath done his work, and he hath given his power unto men; <sup>28:6</sup>behold, hearken ye unto my precept; if they shall say there is a miracle wrought by the hand of the Lord, believe it not; for this day he is not a God of miracles; he hath done his work. <sup>28:7</sup>Yea, and there shall be many which shall say: Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we die; and it shall be well with us. <sup>28:8</sup>And there shall also be many which shall say: Eat, drink, and be merry; nevertheless, fear God — he will justify in committing a little sin; yea, lie a little, take the advantage of one because of his words, dig a pit for thy neighbor; there is no harm in this; and do all these things, for tomorrow we die; and if it so be that we are guilty, God will beat us with a few stripes, and at last we shall be saved in the kingdom of God. <sup>28:9</sup>Yea, and there shall be many which shall teach after this manner, false and vain and foolish doctrines, and shall be puffed up in their hearts, and shall seek deep to hide their counsels from the Lord; and their works shall be in the dark. <sup>28:10</sup>And the blood of the saints shall cry from the ground against them. <sup>28:11</sup>Yea, they have all gone out of the way; they have become corrupted. <sup>28:12</sup>Because of pride, and because of false teachers, and false doctrine, their churches have become corrupted, and their churches are lifted up; because of pride they are puffed up. <sup>28:13</sup>They rob the poor because of their fine sanctuaries; they rob the poor because of their fine clothing; and they persecute the meek and the poor in heart, because in their pride they are puffed up. <sup>28:14</sup>They wear stiff necks and high heads; yea, and because of pride, and wickedness, and abominations, and whoredoms, they have all gone astray save it be a few, who are the humble followers of Christ; nevertheless, they are led, that in many instances they do err because they are taught by the precepts of men. <sup>28:15</sup>O the wise, and the learned, and the rich, that are puffed up in the pride of their hearts, and all those who preach false doctrines, and all those who commit whoredoms, and pervert the right way of the Lord, wo, wo, wo be unto them, saith the Lord God Almighty, for they shall be thrust down to hell! <sup>28:16</sup>Wo unto them that turn aside the just for a thing of naught and revile against that which is good, and say that it is of no worth! For the day shall come that the Lord God will speedily visit the inhabitants of the earth; and in that day that they are fully ripe in iniquity they shall perish. <sup>28:17</sup>But behold, if the inhabitants of the earth shall repent of their wickedness and abominations they shall not be destroyed, saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>28:18</sup>But behold, that great and abominable church, the whore of all the earth, must tumble to the earth, and great must be the fall thereof. <sup>28:19</sup>For the kingdom of the devil must shake, and they which belong to it must needs be stirred up unto repentance, or the devil will grasp them with his everlasting chains, and they be stirred up to anger, and perish; <sup>28:20</sup>for behold, at that day shall he rage in the hearts of the children of men, and stir them up to anger against that which is good. <sup>28:21</sup>And others will he pacify, and lull them away into carnal security, that they will say: All is well in Zion; yea, Zion prospereth, all is well—and thus the devil cheateth their souls, and leadeth them away carefully down to hell. <sup>28:22</sup>And behold, others he flattereth away, and telleth them there is no hell; and he saith unto them: I am no devil, for there is none—and thus he whispereth in their ears, until he grasps them with his awful chains, from whence there is no deliverance. <sup>28:23</sup>Yea, they are grasped with death, and hell; and death, and hell, and the devil, and all that have been seized therewith must stand before the throne of God, and be judged according to their works, from whence they must go into the place prepared for them, even a lake of fire and brimstone, which is endless torment. <sup>28:24</sup>Therefore, wo be unto him that is at ease in Zion! <sup>28:25</sup>Wo be unto him that crieth: All is well! <sup>28:26</sup>Yea, wo be unto him that hearkeneth unto the precepts of men, and denieth the power of God, and the gift of the Holy Ghost! <sup>28:27</sup>Yea, wo be unto him that saith: We have received, and we need no more! <sup>28:28</sup>And in fine, wo unto all those who tremble, and are angry because of the truth of God! For behold, he that is built upon the rock receiveth it with gladness; and he that is built upon a sandy foundation trembleth lest he shall fall. <sup>28:29</sup>Wo be unto him that shall say: We have received the word of God, and we need no more of the word of God, for we have enough! <sup>28:30</sup>For behold, thus saith the Lord God: I will give unto the children of men line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little and there a little; and blessed are those who hearken unto my precepts, and lend an ear unto my counsel, for they shall learn wisdom; for unto him that receiveth I will give more; and from them that shall say, We have enough, from them shall be taken away even that which they have. <sup>28:31</sup>Cursed is he that putteth his trust in man, or maketh flesh his arm, or shall hearken unto the precepts of men, save their precepts shall be given by the power of the Holy Ghost. <sup>28:32</sup>Wo be unto the Gentiles, saith the Lord God of Hosts! For notwithstanding I shall lengthen out mine arm unto them from day to day, they will deny me; nevertheless, I will be merciful unto them, saith the Lord God, if they will repent and come unto me; for mine arm is lengthened out all the day long, saith the Lord God of Hosts. <sup>29:1</sup>But behold, there shall be many—at that day when I shall proceed to do a marvelous work among them, that I may remember my covenants which I have made unto the children of men, that I may set my hand again the second time to recover my people, which are of the house of Israel; <sup>29:2</sup>and also, that I may remember the promises which I have made unto thee, Nephi, and also unto thy father, that I would remember your seed; and that the words of your seed should proceed forth out of my mouth unto your seed; and my words shall hiss forth unto the ends of the earth, for a standard unto my people, which are of the house of Israel; <sup>29:3</sup>and because my words shall hiss forth—many of the Gentiles shall say: A Bible! A Bible! We have got a Bible, and there cannot be any more Bible. <sup>29:4</sup>But thus saith the Lord God: O fools, they shall have a Bible; and it shall proceed forth from the Jews, mine ancient covenant people. And what thank they the Jews for the Bible which they receive from them? Yea, what do the Gentiles mean? Do they remember the travails, and the labors, and the pains of the Jews, and their diligence unto me, in bringing forth salvation unto the Gentiles? <sup>29:5</sup>O ye Gentiles, have ye remembered the Jews, mine ancient covenant people? Nay; but ye have cursed them, and have hated them, and have not sought to recover them. But behold, I will return all these things upon your own heads; for I the Lord have not forgotten my people.

<sup>29:6</sup>Thou fool, that shall say: A Bible, we have got a Bible, and we need no more Bible. Have ye obtained a Bible save it were by the Jews? <sup>29:7</sup>Know ye not that there are more nations than one? Know ye not that I, the Lord your God, have created all men, and that I remember those who are upon the isles of the sea; and that I rule in the heavens above and in the earth beneath; and I bring forth my word unto the children of men, yea, even upon all the nations of the earth?

<sup>29:8</sup>Wherefore murmur ye, because that ye shall receive more of my word? Know ye not that the testimony of two nations is a witness unto you that I am God, that I remember one nation like unto another? Wherefore, I speak the same words unto one nation like unto another. And when the two nations shall run together the testimony of the two nations shall run together also. <sup>29:9</sup>And I do this that I may prove unto many that I am the same yesterday, today, and forever; and that I speak forth my words according to mine own pleasure. And because that I have spoken one word ye need not suppose that I cannot speak another; for my work is not yet finished; neither shall it be until the end of man, neither from that time henceforth and forever. <sup>29:10</sup>Wherefore, because that ye have a Bible ye need not suppose that it contains all my words; neither need ye suppose that I have not caused more to be written. <sup>29:11</sup>For I command all men, both in the east and in the west, and in the north, and in the south, and in the islands of the sea, that they shall write the words which I speak unto them; for out of the books which shall be written I will judge the world, every man according to their works, according to that which is written. <sup>29:12</sup>For behold, I shall speak unto the Jews and they shall write it; and I shall also speak unto the Nephites and they shall write it; and I shall also speak unto the other tribes of the house of Israel, which I have led away, and they shall write it; and I shall also speak unto all nations of the earth and they shall write it. <sup>29:13</sup>And it shall come to pass that the Jews shall have the words of the Nephites, and the Nephites shall have the words of the Jews; and the Nephites and the Jews shall have the words of the lost tribes of Israel; and the lost tribes of Israel shall have the words of the Nephites and the Jews. <sup>29:14</sup>And it shall come to pass that my people, which are of the house of Israel, shall be gathered home unto the lands of their possessions; and my word also shall be gathered in one. And I will show unto them that fight against my word and against my people, who are of the house of Israel, that I am God, and that I covenanted with Abraham that I would remember his seed forever. <sup>30:1</sup>And now behold, my beloved brethren, I would speak unto you; for I, Nephi, would not suffer that ye should suppose that ye are more righteous than the Gentiles shall be. For behold, except ye shall keep the commandments of God ye shall all likewise perish; and because of the words which have been spoken ye need not suppose that the Gentiles are utterly destroyed. <sup>30:2</sup>For behold, I say unto you that as many of the Gentiles as will repent are the covenant people of the Lord; and as many of the Jews as will not repent shall be cast off; for the Lord covenanteth with none save it be with them that repent and believe in his Son, who is the Holy One of Israel. <sup>30:3</sup>And now, I would prophesy somewhat more concerning the Jews and the Gentiles. For after the book of which I have spoken shall come forth, and be written unto the Gentiles, and sealed up again unto the Lord, there shall be many which shall believe the words which are written; and they shall carry them forth unto the remnant of our seed. <sup>30:4</sup>And then shall the remnant of our seed know concerning us, how that we came out from Jerusalem, and that they are descendants of the Jews. <sup>30:5</sup>And the gospel of Jesus Christ shall be declared among them; wherefore, they shall be restored unto the knowledge of their fathers, and also to the knowledge of Jesus Christ, which was had among their fathers. <sup>30:6</sup>And then shall they rejoice; for they shall know that it is a blessing unto them from the hand of God; and their scales of darkness shall begin to fall from their eyes; and many generations shall not pass away among them, save they shall be a pure and a delightsome people. <sup>30:7</sup>And it shall come to pass that the Jews which are scattered also shall begin to believe in Christ; and they shall begin to gather in upon the face of the land; and as many as shall believe in Christ shall also become a delightsome people. <sup>30:8</sup>And it shall come to pass that the Lord God shall commence his work among all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people, to bring about the restoration of his people upon the earth. <sup>30:9</sup>And with righteousness shall the Lord God judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth. And he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth; and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. <sup>30:10</sup>For the time speedily cometh that the Lord God shall cause a great division among the people, and the wicked will he destroy; and he will spare his people, yea, even if it so be that he must destroy the wicked by fire. <sup>30:11</sup>And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. <sup>30:12</sup>And then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb; and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf, and the young lion, and the fatling, together; and a little child shall lead them. <sup>30:13</sup>And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. <sup>30:14</sup>And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den. <sup>30:15</sup>They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>30:16</sup>Wherefore, the things of all nations shall be made known; yea, all things shall be made known unto the children of men. <sup>30:17</sup>There is nothing which is secret save it shall be revealed; there is no work of darkness save it shall be made manifest in the light; and there is nothing which is sealed upon the earth save it shall be loosed. <sup>30:18</sup>Wherefore, all things which have been revealed unto the children of men shall at that day be revealed; and Satan shall have power over the hearts of the children of men no more, for a long time. And now, my beloved brethren, I make an end of my sayings. <sup><XIII>31:1</sup>And now I, Nephi, make an end of my prophesying unto you, my beloved brethren. And I cannot write but a few things, which I know must surely come to pass; neither can I write but a few of the words of my brother Jacob. <sup>31:2</sup>Wherefore, the things which I have written sufficeth me, save it be a few words which I must speak concerning the doctrine of Christ; wherefore, I shall speak unto you plainly, according to the plainness of my prophesying. <sup>31:3</sup>For my soul delighteth in plainness; for after this manner doth the Lord God work among the children of men. For the Lord God giveth light unto the understanding; for he speaketh unto men according to their language, unto their understanding. <sup>31:4</sup>Wherefore, I would that ye should remember that I have spoken unto you concerning that prophet which the Lord showed unto me, that should baptize the Lamb of God, which should take away the sins of the world. <sup>31:5</sup>And now, if the Lamb of God, he being holy, should have need to be baptized by water, to fulfil all righteousness, O then, how much more need have we, being unholy, to be baptized, yea, even by water! <sup>31:6</sup>And now, I would ask of you, my beloved brethren, wherein the Lamb of God did fulfil all righteousness in being baptized by water? <sup>31:7</sup>Know ye not that he was holy? But notwithstanding he being holy, he showeth unto the children of men that, according to the flesh he humbleth himself before the Father, and witnesseth unto the Father that he would be obedient unto him in keeping his commandments. <sup>31:8</sup>Wherefore, after he was baptized with water the Holy Ghost descended upon him in the form of a dove. <sup>31:9</sup>And again, it showeth unto the children of men the straitness of the path, and the narrowness of the gate, by which they should enter, he having set the example before them. <sup>31:10</sup>And he said unto the children of men: Follow thou me. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, can we follow Jesus save we shall be willing to keep the commandments of the Father? <sup>31:11</sup>And the Father said: Repent ye, repent ye, and be baptized in the name of my Beloved Son. <sup>31:12</sup>And also, the voice of the Son came unto me, saying: He that is baptized in my name, to him will the Father give the Holy Ghost, like unto me; wherefore, follow me, and do the things which ye have seen me do. <sup>31:13</sup>Wherefore, my beloved brethren, I know that if ye shall follow the Son, with full purpose of heart, acting no hypocrisy and no deception before God, but with real intent, repenting of your sins, witnessing unto the Father that ye are willing to take upon you the name of Christ, by baptism—yea, by following your Lord and your Savior down into the water, according to his word, behold, then shall ye receive the Holy Ghost; yea, then cometh the baptism of fire and of the Holy Ghost; and then can ye speak with the tongue of angels, and shout praises unto the Holy One of Israel. <sup>31:14</sup>But, behold, my beloved brethren, thus came the voice of the Son unto me, saying: After ye have repented of your sins, and witnessed unto the Father that ye are willing to keep my commandments, by the baptism of water, and have received the baptism of fire and of the Holy Ghost, and can speak with a new tongue, yea, even with the tongue of angels, and after this should deny me, it would have been better for you that ye had not known me. <sup>31:15</sup>And I heard a voice from the Father, saying: Yea, the words of my Beloved are true and faithful. He that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. <sup>31:16</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, I know by this that unless a man shall endure to the end, in following the example of the Son of the living God, he cannot be saved. <sup>31:17</sup>Wherefore, do the things which I have told you I have seen that your Lord and your Redeemer should do; for, for this cause have they been shown unto me, that ye might know the gate by which ye should enter. For the gate by which ye should enter is repentance and baptism by water; and then cometh a remission of your sins by fire and by the Holy Ghost. <sup>31:18</sup>And then are ye in this strait and narrow path which leads to eternal life; yea, ye have entered in by the gate; ye have done according to the commandments of the Father and the Son; and ye have received the Holy Ghost, which witnesses of the Father and the Son, unto the fulfilling of the promise which he hath made, that if ye entered in by the way ye should receive. <sup>31:19</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, after ye have gotten into this strait and narrow path, I would ask if all is done? Behold, I say unto you, Nay; for ye have not come thus far save it were by the word of Christ with unshaken faith in him, relying wholly upon the merits of him who is mighty to save. <sup>31:20</sup>Wherefore, ye must press forward with a steadfastness in Christ, having a perfect brightness of hope, and a love of God and of all men. Wherefore, if ye shall press forward, feasting upon the word of Christ, and endure to the end, behold, thus saith the Father: Ye shall have eternal life. <sup>31:21</sup>And now, behold, my beloved brethren, this is the way; and there is none other way nor name given under heaven whereby man can be saved in the kingdom of God. And now, behold, this is the doctrine of Christ, and the only and true doctrine of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, which is one God, without end. Amen. <sup><XIV>32:1</sup>And now, behold, my beloved brethren, I suppose that ye ponder somewhat in your hearts concerning that which ye should do after ye have entered in by the way. But, behold, why do ye ponder these things in your hearts? <sup>32:2</sup>Do ye not remember that I said unto you that after ye had received the Holy Ghost ye could speak with the tongue of angels? And now, how could ye speak with the tongue of angels save it were by the Holy Ghost? <sup>32:3</sup>Angels speak by the power of the Holy Ghost; wherefore, they speak the words of Christ. Wherefore, I said unto you, feast upon the words of Christ; for behold, the words of Christ will tell you all things what ye should do. <sup>32:4</sup>Wherefore, now after I have spoken these words, if ye cannot understand them it will be because ye ask not, neither do ye knock; wherefore, ye are not brought into the light, but must perish in the dark. <sup>32:5</sup>For behold, again I say unto you that if ye will enter in by the way, and receive the Holy Ghost, it will show unto you all things what ye should do. <sup>32:6</sup>Behold, this is the doctrine of Christ, and there will be no more doctrine given until after he shall manifest himself unto you in the flesh. And when he shall manifest himself unto you in the flesh, the things which he shall say unto you shall ye observe to do. <sup>32:7</sup>And now I, Nephi, cannot say more; the Spirit stoppeth mine utterance, and I am left to mourn because of the unbelief, and the wickedness, and the ignorance, and the stiffneckedness of men; for they will not search knowledge, nor understand great knowledge, when it is given unto them in plainness, even as plain as word can be. <sup>32:8</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, I perceive that ye ponder still in your hearts; and it grieveth me that I must speak concerning this thing. For if ye would hearken unto the Spirit which teacheth a man to pray ye would know that ye must pray; for the evil spirit teacheth not a man to pray, but teacheth him that he must not pray. <sup>32:9</sup>But behold, I say unto you that ye must pray always, and not faint; that ye must not perform any thing unto the Lord save in the first place ye shall pray unto the Father in the name of Christ, that he will consecrate thy performance unto thee, that thy performance may be for the welfare of thy soul.

<XVI><sup>33:1</sup>And now I, Nephi, cannot write all the things which were taught among my people; neither am I mighty in writing, like unto speaking; for when a man speaketh by the power of the Holy Ghost the power of the Holy Ghost carrieth it unto the hearts of the children of men. <sup>33:2</sup>But behold, there are many that harden their hearts against the Holy Spirit, that it hath no place in them; wherefore, they cast many things away which are written and esteem them as things of naught. <sup>33:3</sup>But I, Nephi, have written what I have written, and I esteem it as of great worth, and especially unto my people. For I pray continually for them by day, and mine eyes water my pillow by night, because of them; and I cry unto my God in faith, and I know that he will hear my cry. <sup>33:4</sup>And I know that the Lord God will consecrate my prayers for the gain of my people. And the words which I have written in weakness will be made strong unto them; for it persuadeth them to do good; it maketh known unto them of their fathers; and it speaketh of Jesus, and persuadeth them to believe in him, and to endure to the end, which is life eternal. <sup>33:5</sup>And it speaketh harshly against sin, according to the plainness of the truth; wherefore, no man will be angry at the words which I have written save he shall be of the spirit of the devil. <sup>33:6</sup>I glory in plainness; I glory in truth; I glory in my Jesus, for he hath redeemed my soul from hell. <sup>33:7</sup>I have charity for my people, and great faith in Christ that I shall meet many souls spotless at his judgment-seat. <sup>33:8</sup>I have charity for the Jew—I say Jew, because I mean them from whence I came. <sup>33:9</sup>I also have charity for the Gentiles. But behold, for none of these can I hope except they shall be reconciled unto Christ, and enter into the narrow gate, and walk in the strait path which leads to life, and continue in the path until the end of the day of probation. <sup>33:10</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, and also Jew, and all ye ends of the earth, hearken unto these words and believe in Christ; and if ye believe not in these words believe in Christ. And if ye shall believe in Christ ye will believe in these words, for they are the words of Christ, and he hath given them unto me; and they teach all men that they should do good. <sup>33:11</sup>And if they are not the words of Christ, judge ye—for Christ will show unto you, with power and great glory, that they are his words, at the last day; and you and I shall stand face to face before his bar; and ye shall know that I have been commanded of him to write these things, notwithstanding my weakness. <sup>33:12</sup>And I pray the Father in the name of Christ that many of us, if not all, may be saved in his kingdom at that great and last day. <sup>33:13</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, all those who are of the house of Israel, and all ye ends of the earth, I speak unto you as the voice of one crying from the dust: Farewell until that great day shall come. <sup>33:14</sup>And you that will not partake of the goodness of God, and respect the words of the Jews, and also my words, and the words which shall proceed forth out of the mouth of the Lamb of God, behold, I bid you an everlasting farewell, for these words shall condemn you at the last day. <sup>33:15</sup>For what I seal on earth, shall be brought against you at the judgment bar; for thus hath the Lord commanded me, and I must obey. Amen.

Jacob

The book of Jacob the brother of Nephi

<↳ The words of his preaching unto his brethren. He confoundeth a man who seeketh to overthrow the doctrine of Christ. A few words concerning the history of the people of Nephi. <sup>1:1</sup>For behold, it came to pass that fifty and five years had passed away from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem; wherefore, Nephi gave me, Jacob, a commandment concerning the small plates, upon which these things are engraven. <sup>1:2</sup>And he gave me, Jacob, a commandment that I should write upon these plates a few of the things which I considered to be most precious; that I should not touch, save it were lightly, concerning the history of this people which are called the people of Nephi. <sup>1:3</sup>For he said that the history of his people should be engraven upon his other plates, and that I should preserve these plates and hand them down unto my seed, from generation to generation. <sup>1:4</sup>And if there were preaching which was sacred, or revelation which was great, or prophesying, that I should engraven the heads of them upon these plates, and touch upon them as much as it were possible, for Christ's sake, and for the sake of our people. <sup>1:5</sup>For because of faith and great anxiety, it truly had been made manifest unto us concerning our people, what things should happen unto them. <sup>1:6</sup>And we also had many revelations, and the spirit of much prophecy; wherefore, we knew of Christ and his kingdom, which should come. <sup>1:7</sup>Wherefore we labored diligently among our people, that we might persuade them to come unto Christ, and partake of the goodness of God, that they might enter into his

rest, lest by any means he should swear in his wrath they should not enter in, as in the provocation in the days of temptation while the children of Israel were in the wilderness. <sup>1:8</sup>Wherefore, we would to God that we could persuade all men not to rebel against God, to provoke him to anger, but that all men would believe in Christ, and view his death, and suffer his cross and bear the shame of the world; wherefore, I, Jacob, take it upon me to fulfil the commandment of my brother Nephi. <sup>1:9</sup>Now Nephi began to be old, and he saw that he must soon die; wherefore, he anointed a man to be a king and a ruler over his people now, according to the reigns of the kings. <sup>1:10</sup>The people having loved Nephi exceedingly, he having been a great protector for them, having wielded the sword of Laban in their defence, and having labored in all his days for their welfare—<sup>1:11</sup>wherefore, the people were desirous to retain in remembrance his name. And whoso should reign in his stead were called by the people, second Nephi, third Nephi, and so forth, according to the reigns of the kings; and thus they were called by the people, let them be of whatever name they would. <sup>1:12</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi died. <sup>1:13</sup>Now the people which were not Lamanites were Nephites; nevertheless, they were called Nephites, Jacobites, Josephites, Zoramites, Lamanites, Lemuelites, and Ishmaelites. <sup>1:14</sup>But I, Jacob, shall not hereafter distinguish them by these names, but I shall call them Lamanites that seek to destroy the people of Nephi, and those who are friendly to Nephi I shall call Nephites, or the people of Nephi, according to the reigns of the kings. <sup>1:15</sup>And now it came to pass that the people of Nephi, under the reign of the second king, began to grow hard in their hearts, and indulge themselves somewhat in wicked practices, such as like unto David of old desiring many wives and concubines, and also Solomon, his son. <sup>1:16</sup>Yea, and they also began to search much gold and silver, and began to be lifted up somewhat in pride. <sup>1:17</sup>Wherefore I, Jacob, gave unto them these words as I taught them in the temple, having first obtained mine errand from the Lord. <sup>1:18</sup>For I, Jacob, and my brother Joseph had been consecrated priests and teachers of this people, by the hand of Nephi. <sup>1:19</sup>And we did magnify our office unto the Lord, taking upon us the responsibility, answering the sins of the people upon our own heads if we did not teach them the word of God with all diligence; wherefore, by laboring with our might their blood might not come upon our garments; otherwise their blood would come upon our garments, and we would not be found spotless at the last day. <sup><1>2:1</sup>The words which Jacob, the brother of Nephi, spake unto the people of Nephi, after the death of Nephi: <sup>2:2</sup>Now, my beloved brethren, I, Jacob, according to the responsibility which I am under to God, to magnify mine office with soberness, and that I might rid my garments of your sins, I come up into the temple this day that I might declare unto you the word of God. <sup>2:3</sup>And ye yourselves know that I have hitherto been diligent in the office of my calling; but I this day am weighed down with much more desire and anxiety for the welfare of your souls than I have hitherto been. <sup>2:4</sup>For behold, as yet, ye have been obedient unto the word of the Lord, which I have given unto you. <sup>2:5</sup>But behold, hearken ye unto me, and know that by the help of the all-powerful Creator of heaven and earth I can tell you concerning your thoughts, how that ye are beginning to labor in sin, which sin appeareth very abominable unto me, yea, and abominable unto God. <sup>2:6</sup>Yea, it grieveth my soul and causeth me to shrink with shame before the presence of my Maker, that I must testify unto you concerning the wickedness of your hearts.

<sup>2:7</sup>And also it grieveth me that I must use so much boldness of speech concerning you, before your wives and your children, many of whose feelings are exceedingly tender and chaste and delicate before God, which thing is pleasing unto God; <sup>2:8</sup>and it supposeth me that they have come up hither to hear the pleasing word of God, yea, the word which healeth the wounded soul.

<sup>2:9</sup>Wherefore, it burdeneth my soul that I should be constrained, because of the strict commandment which I have received from God, to admonish you according to your crimes, to enlarge the wounds of those who are already wounded, instead of consoling and healing their wounds; and those who have not been wounded, instead of feasting upon the pleasing word of God have daggers placed to pierce their souls and wound their delicate minds. <sup>2:10</sup>But, notwithstanding the greatness of the task, I must do according to the strict commands of God, and tell you concerning your wickedness and abominations, in the presence of the pure in heart, and the broken heart, and under the glance of the piercing eye of the Almighty God. <sup>2:11</sup>Wherefore, I must tell you the truth according to the plainness of the word of God. For behold, as I inquired of the Lord, thus came the word unto me, saying: Jacob, get thou up into the temple on the morrow, and declare the word which I shall give thee unto this people.

<sup>2:12</sup>And now behold, my brethren, this is the word which I declare unto you, that many of you have begun to search for gold, and for silver, and for all manner of precious ores, in the which this land, which is a land of promise unto you and to your seed, doth abound most plentifully. <sup>2:13</sup>And the hand of providence hath smiled upon you most pleasingly, that you have obtained many riches; and because some of you have obtained more abundantly than that of your brethren ye are lifted up in the pride of your hearts, and wear stiff necks and high heads because of the costliness of your apparel, and persecute your brethren because ye suppose that ye are better than they. <sup>2:14</sup>And now, my brethren, do ye suppose that God justifieth you in this thing? Behold, I say unto you, Nay. But he condemneth you, and if ye persist in these things his judgments must speedily come unto you. <sup>2:15</sup>O that he would show you that he can pierce you, and with one glance of his eye he can smite you to the dust! <sup>2:16</sup>O that he would rid you from this iniquity and abomination. And, O that ye would listen unto the word of his commands, and let not this pride of your hearts destroy your souls!

<sup>2:17</sup>Think of your brethren like unto yourselves, and be familiar with all and free with your substance, that they may be rich like unto you. <sup>2:18</sup>But before ye seek for riches, seek ye for the kingdom of God. <sup>2:19</sup>And after ye have obtained a hope in Christ ye shall obtain riches, if ye seek them; and ye will seek them for the intent to do good—to clothe the naked, and to feed the hungry, and to liberate the captive, and administer relief to the sick and the afflicted. <sup>2:20</sup>And now, my brethren, I have spoken unto you concerning pride; and those of you which have afflicted your neighbor, and persecuted him because ye were proud in your hearts, of the things which God hath given you, what say ye of it? <sup>2:21</sup>Do ye not suppose that such things are abominable unto him who created all flesh? And the one being is as precious in his sight as the other. And all flesh is of the dust; and for the selfsame end hath he created them, that they should keep his commandments and glorify him forever. <sup>2:22</sup>And now I make an end of speaking unto you concerning this pride. And were it not that I must speak unto you concerning a grosser crime, my heart would rejoice exceedingly because of you. <sup>2:23</sup>But the word of God burdens me because of your grosser crimes. For behold, thus saith the Lord: This people begin to wax in iniquity; they understand not the scriptures, for they seek to excuse themselves in committing whoredoms, because of the things which were written concerning David, and Solomon his son. <sup>2:24</sup>Behold, David and Solomon truly had many wives and concubines, which thing was abominable before me, saith the Lord. <sup>2:25</sup>Wherefore, thus saith the Lord, I have led this people forth out of the land of Jerusalem, by the power of mine arm, that I might raise up unto me a righteous branch from the fruit of the loins of Joseph. <sup>2:26</sup>Wherefore, I the Lord God will not suffer that this people shall do like unto them of old. <sup>2:27</sup>Wherefore, my brethren, hear me, and hearken to the word of the Lord: For there shall not any man among you have save it be one wife; and concubines he shall have none; <sup>2:28</sup>for I, the Lord God, delight in the chastity of women. And whoredoms are an abomination before me; thus saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>2:29</sup>Wherefore, this people shall keep my commandments, saith the Lord of Hosts, or cursed be the land for their sakes. <sup>2:30</sup>For if I will, saith the Lord of Hosts, raise up seed unto me, I will command my people; otherwise they shall hearken unto these things. <sup>2:31</sup>For behold, I, the Lord, have seen the sorrow, and heard the mourning of the daughters of my people in the land of Jerusalem, yea, and in all the lands of my people, because of the wickedness and abominations of their husbands. <sup>2:32</sup>And I will not suffer, saith the Lord of Hosts, that the cries of the fair daughters of this people, which I have led out of the land of Jerusalem, shall come up unto me against the men of my people, saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>2:33</sup>For they shall not lead away captive the daughters of my people because of their tenderness, save I shall visit them with a sore curse, even unto destruction; for they shall not commit whoredoms, like unto them of old, saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>2:34</sup>And now behold, my brethren, ye know that these commandments were given to our father, Lehi; wherefore, ye have known them before; and ye have come unto great condemnation; for ye have done these things which ye ought not to have done. <sup>2:35</sup>Behold, ye have done greater iniquities than the Lamanites, our brethren. Ye have broken the hearts of your tender wives, and lost the confidence of your children, because of your bad examples before them; and the sobbings of their hearts ascend up to God against you. And because of the strictness of the word of God, which cometh down against you, many hearts died, pierced with deep wounds. <sup>3:1</sup>But behold, I, Jacob, would speak unto you that are pure in heart. Look unto God with firmness of mind, and pray unto him with exceeding faith, and he will console you in your afflictions, and he will plead your cause, and send down justice upon those who seek your destruction. <sup>3:2</sup>O all ye that are pure in heart, lift up your heads and receive the pleasing word of God, and feast upon his love; for ye may, if your minds are firm, forever. <sup>3:3</sup>But, wo, wo, unto you that are not pure in heart, that are filthy this day before God; for except ye repent the land is cursed for your sakes; and the Lamanites, which are not filthy like unto you, nevertheless they are cursed with a sore cursing, shall scourge you even unto destruction. <sup>3:4</sup>And the time speedily cometh, that except ye repent they shall possess the land of your inheritance, and the Lord God will lead away the righteous out from among you. <sup>3:5</sup>Behold, the Lamanites your brethren, whom ye hate because of their filthiness and the cursing which hath come upon their skins, are more righteous than you; for they have not forgotten the commandment of the Lord, which was given unto our father—that they should have save it were one wife, and concubines they should have none, and there should not be whoredoms committed among them. <sup>3:6</sup>And now, this commandment they observe to keep; wherefore, because of this observance, in keeping this commandment, the Lord God will not destroy them, but will be merciful unto them; and one day they shall become a blessed people. <sup>3:7</sup>Behold, their husbands love their wives, and their wives love their husbands; and their husbands and their wives love their children; and their unbelief and their hatred towards you is because of the iniquity of their fathers; wherefore, how much better are you than they, in the sight of your great Creator? <sup>3:8</sup>O my brethren, I fear that unless ye shall repent of your sins that their skins will be whiter than yours, when ye shall be brought with them before the throne of God. <sup>3:9</sup>Wherefore, a commandment I give unto you, which is the word of God, that ye revile no more against them because of the darkness of their skins; neither shall ye revile against them because of their filthiness; but ye shall remember your own filthiness, and remember that their filthiness came because of their fathers. <sup>3:10</sup>Wherefore, ye shall remember your children, how that ye have grieved their hearts because of the example that ye have set before them; and also, remember that ye may, because of your filthiness, bring your children unto destruction, and their sins be heaped upon your heads at the last day. <sup>3:11</sup>O my brethren, hearken unto my words; arouse the faculties of your souls; shake yourselves that ye may awake from the slumber of death; and loose yourselves from the pains of hell that ye may not become angels to the devil, to be cast into that lake of fire and brimstone which is the second death. <sup>3:12</sup>And now I, Jacob, spake many more things unto the people of Nephi, warning them against fornication and lasciviousness, and every kind of sin, telling them the awful consequences of them. <sup>3:13</sup>And a hundredth part of the proceedings of this people, which now began to be numerous, cannot be written upon these plates; but many of their proceedings are written upon the larger plates, and their wars, and their contentions, and the reigns of their kings. <sup>3:14</sup>These plates are called the plates of Jacob, and they were made by the hand of Nephi. And I make an end of speaking these words. <sup><III>4:1</sup>Now behold, it came to pass that I, Jacob, having ministered much unto my people in word, (and I cannot write but a little of my words, because of the difficulty of engraving our words upon plates) and we know that the things which we write upon plates must remain; <sup>4:2</sup>but whatsoever things we write upon anything save it be upon plates must perish and vanish away; but we can write a few words upon plates, which will give our children, and also our beloved brethren, a small degree of knowledge concerning us, or concerning their fathers — <sup>4:3</sup>now in this thing we do rejoice; and we labor diligently to engraven these words upon plates, hoping that our beloved brethren and our children will receive them with thankful hearts, and look upon them that they may learn with joy and not with sorrow, neither with contempt, concerning their first parents. <sup>4:4</sup>For, for this intent have we written these things, that they may know that we knew of Christ, and we had a hope of his glory many hundred years before his coming; and not only we ourselves had a hope of his glory, but also all the holy prophets which were before us. <sup>4:5</sup>Behold, they believed in Christ and worshiped the Father in his name, and also we worship the Father in his name. And for this intent we keep the law of Moses, it pointing our souls to him; and for this cause it is sanctified unto us for righteousness, even as it was accounted unto Abraham in the wilderness to be obedient unto the commands of God in offering up his son Isaac, which is a similitude of God and his Only Begotten Son. <sup>4:6</sup>Wherefore, we search the prophets, and we have many revelations and the spirit of prophecy; and having all these witnesses we obtain a hope, and our faith becometh unshaken, insomuch that we truly can command in the name of Jesus and the very trees obey us, or the mountains, or the waves of the sea. <sup>4:7</sup>Nevertheless, the Lord God showeth us our weakness that we may know that it is by his grace, and his great condescensions unto the children of men, that we have power to do these things. <sup>4:8</sup>Behold, great and marvelous are the works of the Lord. How unsearchable are the depths of the mysteries of him; and it is impossible that man should find out all his ways. And no man knoweth of his ways save it be revealed unto him; wherefore, brethren, despise not the revelations of God. <sup>4:9</sup>For behold, by the power of his word man came upon the face of the earth, which earth was created by the power of his word. Wherefore, if God being able to speak and the world was, and to speak and man was created, O then, why not able to command the earth, or the workmanship of his hands upon the face of it, according to his will and pleasure? <sup>4:10</sup>Wherefore, brethren, seek not to counsel the Lord, but to take counsel from his hand. For behold, ye yourselves know that he counseleth in wisdom, and in justice, and in great mercy, over all his works. <sup>4:11</sup>Wherefore, beloved brethren, be reconciled unto him through the atonement of Christ, his Only Begotten Son, and ye may obtain a resurrection, according to the power of the resurrection which is in Christ, and be presented as the first-fruits of Christ unto God, having faith, and obtained a good hope of glory in him before he manifesteth himself in the flesh.

<sup>4:12</sup>And now, beloved, marvel not that I tell you these things; for why not speak of the atonement of Christ, and attain to a perfect knowledge of him, as to attain to the knowledge of a resurrection and the world to come? <sup>4:13</sup>Behold, my brethren, he that prophesieth, let him prophesy to the understanding of men; for the Spirit speaketh the truth and lieth not. Wherefore, it speaketh of things as they really are, and of things as they really will be; wherefore, these things are manifested unto us plainly, for the salvation of our souls. But behold, we are not witnesses alone in these things; for God also spake them unto prophets of old. <sup>4:14</sup>But behold, the Jews were a stiffnecked people; and they despised the words of plainness, and killed the prophets, and sought for things that they could not understand. Wherefore, because of their blindness, which blindness came by looking beyond the mark, they must needs fall; for God hath taken away his plainness from them, and delivered unto them many things which they cannot understand, because they desired it. And because they desired it God hath done it, that they may stumble. <sup>4:15</sup>And now I, Jacob, am led on by the Spirit unto prophesying; for I perceive by the workings of the Spirit which is in me, that by the stumbling of the Jews they will reject the stone upon which they might build and have safe foundation. <sup>4:16</sup>But behold, according to the scriptures, this stone shall become the great, and the last, and the only sure foundation, upon which the Jews can build. <sup>4:17</sup>And now, my beloved, how is it possible that these, after having rejected the sure foundation, can ever build upon it, that it may become the head of their corner? <sup>4:18</sup>Behold, my beloved brethren, I will unfold this mystery unto you; if I do not, by any means, get shaken from my firmness in the Spirit, and stumble because of my over anxiety for you. <sup>5:1</sup>Behold, my brethren, do ye not remember to have read the words of the prophet Zenos, which he spake unto the house of Israel, saying: <sup>5:2</sup>Hearken, O ye house of Israel, and hear the words of me, a prophet of the Lord. <sup>5:3</sup>For behold, thus saith the Lord, I will liken thee, O house of Israel, like unto a tame olive-tree, which a man took and nourished in his vineyard; and it grew, and waxed old, and began to decay. <sup>5:4</sup>And it came to pass that the master of the vineyard went forth, and he saw that his olive-tree began to decay; and he said: I will prune it, and dig about it, and nourish it, that perhaps it may shoot forth young and tender branches, and it perish not. <sup>5:5</sup>And it came to pass that he pruned it, and digged about it, and nourished it according to his word. <sup>5:6</sup>And it came to pass that after many days it began to put forth somewhat a little, young and tender branches; but behold, the main top thereof began to perish. <sup>5:7</sup>And it came to pass that the master of the vineyard saw it, and he said unto his servant: It grieveth me that I should lose this tree; wherefore, go and pluck the branches from a wild olive-tree, and bring them hither unto me; and we will pluck off those main branches which are beginning to wither away, and we will cast them into the fire that they may be burned. <sup>5:8</sup>And behold, saith the Lord of the vineyard, I take away many of these young and tender branches, and I will graft them whithersoever I will; and it mattereth not that if it so be that the root of this tree will perish, I may preserve the fruit thereof unto myself; wherefore, I will take these young and tender branches, and I will graft them whithersoever I will. <sup>5:9</sup>Take thou the branches of the wild olive-tree, and graft them in, in the stead thereof; and these which I have plucked off I will cast into the fire and burn them, that they may not cumber the ground of my vineyard. <sup>5:10</sup>And it came to pass that the servant of the Lord of the vineyard did according to the word of the Lord of the vineyard, and grafted in the branches of the wild olive-tree. <sup>5:11</sup>And the Lord of the vineyard caused that it should be digged about, and pruned, and nourished, saying unto his servant: It grieveth me that I should lose this tree; wherefore, that perhaps I might preserve the roots thereof that they perish not, that I might preserve them unto myself, I have done this thing. <sup>5:12</sup>Wherefore, go thy way; watch the tree, and nourish it, according to my words. <sup>5:13</sup>And these will I place in the nethermost part of my vineyard, whithersoever I will, it mattereth not unto thee; and I do it that I may preserve unto myself the natural branches of the tree; and also, that I may lay up fruit thereof against the season, unto myself; for it grieveth me that I should lose this tree and the fruit thereof. <sup>5:14</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard went his way, and hid the natural branches of the tame olive-tree in the nethermost parts of the vineyard, some in one and some in another, according to his will and pleasure. <sup>5:15</sup>And it came to pass that a long time passed away, and the Lord of the vineyard said unto his servant: Come, let us go down into the vineyard, that we may labor in the vineyard. <sup>5:16</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard, and also the servant, went down into the vineyard to labor. And it came to pass that the servant said unto his master: Behold, look here; behold the tree. <sup>5:17</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard looked and beheld the tree in the which the wild olive branches had been grafted; and it had sprung forth and begun to bear fruit. And he beheld that it was good; and the fruit thereof was like unto the natural fruit. <sup>5:18</sup>And he said unto the servant: Behold, the branches of the wild tree have taken hold of the moisture of the root thereof, that the root thereof hath brought forth much strength; and because of the much strength of the root thereof the wild branches have brought forth tame fruit. Now, if we had not grafted in these branches, the tree thereof would have perished. And now, behold, I shall lay up much fruit, which the tree thereof hath brought forth; and the fruit thereof I shall lay up against the season, unto mine own self. <sup>5:19</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard said unto the servant: Come, let us go to the nethermost part of the vineyard, and behold if the natural branches of the tree have not brought forth much fruit also, that I may lay up of the fruit thereof against the season, unto mine own self. <sup>5:20</sup>And it came to pass that they went forth whither the master had hid the natural branches of the tree, and he said unto the servant: Behold these; and he beheld the first that it had brought forth much fruit; and he beheld also that it was good. And he said unto the servant: Take of the fruit thereof, and lay it up against the season, that I may preserve it unto mine own self; for behold, said he, this long time have I nourished it, and it hath brought forth much fruit. <sup>5:21</sup>And it came to pass that the servant said unto his master: How comest thou hither to plant this tree, or this branch of the tree? For behold, it was the poorest spot in all the land of thy vineyard. <sup>5:22</sup>And the Lord of the vineyard said unto him: Counsel me not; I knew that it was a poor spot of ground; wherefore, I said unto thee, I have nourished it this long time, and thou beholdest that it hath brought forth much fruit. <sup>5:23</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard said unto his servant: Look hither; behold I have planted another branch of the tree also; and thou knowest that this spot of ground was poorer than the first. But, behold the tree. I have nourished it this long time, and it hath brought forth much fruit; therefore, gather it, and lay it up against the season, that I may preserve it unto mine own self. <sup>5:24</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard said again unto his servant: Look hither, and behold another branch also, which I have planted; behold that I have nourished it also, and it hath brought forth fruit. <sup>5:25</sup>And he said unto the servant: Look hither and behold the last. Behold, this have I planted in a good spot of ground; and I have nourished it this long time, and only a part of the tree hath brought forth tame fruit, and the other part of the tree hath brought forth wild fruit; behold, I have nourished this tree like unto the others. <sup>5:26</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard said unto the servant: Pluck off the branches that have not brought forth good fruit, and cast them into the fire. <sup>5:27</sup>But behold, the servant said unto him: Let us prune it, and dig about it, and nourish it a little longer, that perhaps it may bring forth good fruit unto thee, that thou canst lay it up against the season. <sup>5:28</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard and the servant of the Lord of the vineyard did nourish all the fruit of the vineyard. <sup>5:29</sup>And it came to pass that a long time had passed away, and the Lord of the vineyard said unto his servant: Come, let us go down into the vineyard, that we may labor again in the vineyard. For behold, the time draweth near, and the end soon cometh; wherefore, I must lay up fruit against the season, unto mine own self. <sup>5:30</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard and the servant went down into the vineyard; and they came to the tree whose natural branches had been broken off, and the wild branches had been grafted in; and behold all sorts of fruit did cumber the tree. <sup>5:31</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard did taste of the fruit, every sort according to its number. And the Lord of the vineyard said: Behold, this long time have we nourished this tree, and I have laid up unto myself against the season much fruit. <sup>5:32</sup>But behold, this time it hath brought forth much fruit, and there is none of it which is good. And behold, there are all kinds of bad fruit; and it profiteth me nothing, notwithstanding all our labor; and now it grieveth me that I should lose this tree. <sup>5:33</sup>And the Lord of the vineyard said unto the servant: What shall we do unto the tree, that I may preserve again good fruit thereof unto mine own self? <sup>5:34</sup>And the servant said unto his master: Behold, because thou didst graft in the branches of the wild olive-tree they have nourished the roots, that they are alive and they have not perished; wherefore thou beholdest that they are yet good. <sup>5:35</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard said unto his servant: The tree profiteth me nothing, and the roots thereof profit me nothing so long as it shall bring forth evil fruit. <sup>5:36</sup>Nevertheless, I know that the roots are good, and for mine own purpose I have preserved them; and because of their much strength they have hitherto brought forth, from the wild branches, good fruit. <sup>5:37</sup>But behold, the wild branches have grown and have overrun the roots thereof; and because that the wild branches have overcome the roots thereof it hath brought forth much evil fruit; and because that it hath brought forth so much evil fruit thou beholdest that it beginneth to perish; and it will soon become ripened, that it may be cast into the fire, except we should do something for it to preserve it. <sup>5:38</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard said unto his servant: Let us go down into the nethermost parts of the vineyard, and behold if the natural branches have also brought forth evil fruit. <sup>5:39</sup>And it came to pass that they went down into the nethermost parts of the vineyard. And it came to pass that they beheld that the fruit of the natural branches had become corrupt also; yea, the first and the second and also the last; and they had all become corrupt. <sup>5:40</sup>And the wild fruit of the last had overcome that part of the tree which brought forth good fruit, even that the branch had withered away and died. <sup>5:41</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard wept, and said unto the servant: What could I have done more for my vineyard? <sup>5:42</sup>Behold, I knew that all the fruit of the vineyard, save it were these, had become corrupted. And now these which have once brought forth good fruit have also become corrupted; and now all the trees of my vineyard are good for nothing save it be to be hewn down and cast into the fire. <sup>5:43</sup>And behold this last, whose branch hath withered away, I did plant in a good spot of ground; yea, even that which was choice unto me above all other parts of the land of my vineyard. <sup>5:44</sup>And thou beheldest that I also cut down that which cumbered this spot of ground, that I might plant this tree in the stead thereof. <sup>5:45</sup>And thou beheldest that a part thereof brought forth good fruit, and a part thereof brought forth wild fruit; and because I plucked not the branches thereof and cast them into the fire, behold, they have overcome the good branch that it hath withered away. <sup>5:46</sup>And now, behold, notwithstanding all the care which we have taken of my vineyard, the trees thereof have become corrupted, that they bring forth no good fruit; and these I had hoped to preserve, to have laid up fruit thereof against the season, unto mine own self. But, behold, they have become like unto the wild olive-tree, and they are of no worth but to be hewn down and cast into the fire; and it grieveth me that I should lose them. <sup>5:47</sup>But what could I have done more in my vineyard? Have I slackened mine hand, that I have not nourished it? Nay, I have nourished it, and I have digged about it, and I have pruned it, and I have dunged it; and I have stretched forth mine hand almost all the day long, and the end draweth nigh. And it grieveth me that I should hew down all the trees of my vineyard, and cast them into the fire that they should be burned. Who is it that has corrupted my vineyard? <sup>5:48</sup>And it came to pass that the servant said unto his master: Is it not the loftiness of thy vineyard — have not the branches thereof overcome the roots which are good? And because the branches have overcome the roots thereof, behold they grew faster than the strength of the roots, taking strength unto themselves. Behold, I say, is not this the cause that the trees of thy vineyard have become corrupted? <sup>5:49</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard said unto the servant: Let us go to and hew down the trees of the vineyard and cast them into the fire, that they shall not cumber the ground of my vineyard, for I have done all. What could I have done more for my vineyard? <sup>5:50</sup>But, behold, the servant said unto the Lord of the vineyard: Spare it a little longer. <sup>5:51</sup>And the Lord said: Yea, I will spare it a little longer, for it grieveth me that I should lose the trees of my vineyard.

<sup>5:52</sup>Wherefore, let us take of the branches of these which I have planted in the nethermost parts of my vineyard, and let us graft them into the tree from whence they came; and let us pluck from the tree those branches whose fruit is most bitter, and graft in the natural branches of the tree in the stead thereof. <sup>5:53</sup>And this will I do that the tree may not perish, that, perhaps, I may preserve unto myself the roots thereof for mine own purpose. <sup>5:54</sup>And, behold, the roots of the natural branches of the tree which I planted whithersoever I would are yet alive; wherefore, that I may preserve them also for mine own purpose, I will take of the branches of this tree, and I will graft them in unto them. Yea, I will graft in unto them the branches of their mother tree, that I may preserve the roots also unto mine own self, that when they shall be sufficiently strong perhaps they may bring forth good fruit unto me, and I may yet have glory in the fruit of my vineyard. <sup>5:55</sup>And it came to pass that they took from the natural tree which had become wild, and grafted in unto the natural trees, which also had become wild. <sup>5:56</sup>And they also took of the natural trees which had become wild, and grafted into their mother tree. <sup>5:57</sup>And the Lord of the vineyard said unto the servant: Pluck not the wild branches from the trees, save it be those which are most bitter; and in them ye shall graft according to that which I have said. <sup>5:58</sup>And we will nourish again the trees of the vineyard, and we will trim up the branches thereof; and we will pluck from the trees those branches which are ripened, that must perish, and cast them into the fire. <sup>5:59</sup>And this I do that, perhaps, the roots thereof may take strength because of their goodness; and because of the change of the branches, that the good may overcome the evil. <sup>5:60</sup>And because that I have preserved the natural branches and the roots thereof, and that I have grafted in the natural branches again into their mother tree, and have preserved the roots of their mother tree, that, perhaps, the trees of my vineyard may bring forth again good fruit; and that I may have joy again in the fruit of my vineyard, and, perhaps, that I may rejoice exceedingly that I have preserved the roots and the branches of the first fruit—<sup>5:61</sup>wherefore, go to, and call servants, that we may labor diligently with our might in the vineyard, that we may prepare the way, that I may bring forth again the natural fruit, which natural fruit is good and the most precious above all other fruit. <sup>5:62</sup>Wherefore, let us go to and labor with our might this last time, for behold the end draweth nigh, and this is for the last time that I shall prune my vineyard. <sup>5:63</sup>Graft in the branches; begin at the last that they may be first, and that the first may be last, and dig about the trees, both old and young, the first and the last; and the last and the first, that all may be nourished once again for the last time. <sup>5:64</sup>Wherefore, dig about them, and prune them, and dung them once more, for the last time, for the end draweth nigh. And if it be so that these last grafts shall grow, and bring forth the natural fruit, then shall ye prepare the way for them, that they may grow. <sup>5:65</sup>And as they begin to grow ye shall clear away the branches which bring forth bitter fruit, according to the strength of the good and the size thereof; and ye shall not clear away the bad thereof all at once, lest the roots thereof should be too strong for the graft, and the graft thereof shall perish, and I lose the trees of my vineyard. <sup>5:66</sup>For it grieveth me that I should lose the trees of my vineyard; wherefore ye shall clear away the bad according as the good shall grow, that the root and the top may be equal in strength, until the good shall overcome the bad, and the bad be hewn down and cast into the fire, that they cumber not the ground of my vineyard; and thus will I sweep away the bad out of my vineyard. <sup>5:67</sup>And the branches of the natural tree will I graft in again into the natural tree; <sup>5:68</sup>and the branches of the natural tree will I graft into the natural branches of the tree; and thus will I bring them together again, that they shall bring forth the natural fruit, and they shall be one. <sup>5:69</sup>And the bad shall be cast away, yea, even out of all the land of my vineyard; for behold, only this once will I prune my vineyard. <sup>5:70</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord of the vineyard sent his servant; and the servant went and did as the Lord had commanded him, and brought other servants; and they were few. <sup>5:71</sup>And the Lord of the vineyard said unto them: Go to, and labor in the vineyard, with your might. For behold, this is the last time that I shall nourish my vineyard; for the end is nigh at hand, and the season speedily cometh; and if ye labor with your might with me ye shall have joy in the fruit which I shall lay up unto myself against the time which will soon come. <sup>5:72</sup>And it came to pass that the servants did go and labor with their might; and the Lord of the vineyard labored also with them; and they did obey the commandments of the Lord of the vineyard in all things. <sup>5:73</sup>And there began to be the natural fruit again in the vineyard; and the natural branches began to grow and thrive exceedingly; and the wild branches began to be plucked off and to be cast away; and they did keep the root and the top thereof equal, according to the strength thereof. <sup>5:74</sup>And thus they labored, with all diligence, according to the commandments of the Lord of the vineyard, even until the bad had been cast away out of the vineyard, and the Lord had preserved unto himself that the trees had become again the natural fruit; and they became like unto one body; and the fruits were equal; and the Lord of the vineyard had preserved unto himself the natural fruit, which was most precious unto him from the beginning. <sup>5:75</sup>And it came to pass that when the Lord of the vineyard saw that his fruit was good, and that his vineyard was no more corrupt, he called up his servants, and said unto them: Behold, for this last time have we nourished my vineyard; and thou beholdest that I have done

according to my will; and I have preserved the natural fruit, that it is good, even like as it was in the beginning. And blessed art thou; for because ye have been diligent in laboring with me in my vineyard, and have kept my commandments, and have brought unto me again the natural fruit, that my vineyard is no more corrupted, and the bad is cast away, behold ye shall have joy with me because of the fruit of my vineyard. <sup>5:76</sup>For behold, for a long time will I lay up of the fruit of my vineyard unto mine own self against the season, which speedily cometh; and for the last time have I nourished my vineyard, and pruned it, and dug about it, and dunged it; wherefore I will lay up unto mine own self of the fruit, for a long time, according to that which I have spoken. <sup>5:77</sup>And when the time cometh that evil fruit shall again come into my vineyard, then will I cause the good and the bad to be gathered; and the good will I preserve unto myself, and the bad will I cast away into its own place. And then cometh the season and the end; and my vineyard will I cause to be burned with fire. <sup><IV>6:1</sup>And now, behold, my brethren, as I said unto you that I would prophesy, behold, this is my prophecy — that the things which this prophet Zenos spake, concerning the house of Israel, in the which he likened them unto a tame olive-tree, must surely come to pass. <sup>6:2</sup>And the day that he shall set his hand again the second time to recover his people, is the day, yea, even the last time, that the servants of the Lord shall go forth in his power, to nourish and prune his vineyard; and after that the end soon cometh. <sup>6:3</sup>And how blessed are they who have labored diligently in his vineyard; and how cursed are they who shall be cast out into their own place! And the world shall be burned with fire. <sup>6:4</sup>And how merciful is our God unto us, for he remembereth the house of Israel, both roots and branches; and he stretches forth his hands unto them all the day long; and they are a stiffnecked and a gainsaying people; but as many as will not harden their hearts shall be saved in the kingdom of God. <sup>6:5</sup>Wherefore, my beloved brethren, I beseech of you in words of soberness that ye would repent, and come with full purpose of heart, and cleave unto God as he cleaveth unto you. And while his arm of mercy is extended towards you in the light of the day, harden not your hearts. <sup>6:6</sup>Yea, today, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts; for why will ye die? <sup>6:7</sup>For behold, after ye have been nourished by the good word of God all the day long, will ye bring forth evil fruit, that ye must be hewn down and cast into the fire? <sup>6:8</sup>Behold, will ye reject these words? Will ye reject the words of the prophets; and will ye reject all the words which have been spoken concerning Christ, after so many have spoken concerning him; and deny the good word of Christ, and the power of God, and the gift of the Holy Ghost, and quench the Holy Spirit, and make a mock of the great plan of redemption, which hath been laid for you? <sup>6:9</sup>Know ye not that if ye will do these things, that the power of the redemption and the resurrection, which is in Christ, will bring you to stand with shame and awful guilt before the bar of God? <sup>6:10</sup>And according to the power of justice, for justice cannot be denied, ye must go away into that lake of fire and brimstone, whose flames are unquenchable, and whose smoke ascendeth up forever and ever, which lake of fire and brimstone is endless torment. <sup>6:11</sup>O then, my beloved brethren, repent ye, and enter in at the strait gate, and continue in the way which is narrow, until ye shall obtain eternal life. <sup>6:12</sup>O be wise; what can I say more? <sup>6:13</sup>Finally, I bid you farewell, until I shall meet you before the pleasing bar of God, which bar striketh the wicked with awful dread and fear. Amen. <sup><V>7:1</sup>And now it came to pass after some years had passed away, there came a man among the people of Nephi, whose name was Sherem. <sup>7:2</sup>And it came to pass that he began to preach among the people, and to declare unto them that there should be no Christ. And he preached many things which were flattering unto the people; and this he did that he might overthrow the doctrine of Christ. <sup>7:3</sup>And he labored diligently that he might lead away the hearts of the people, insomuch that he did lead away many hearts; and he knowing that I, Jacob, had faith in Christ who should come, he sought much opportunity that he might come unto me. <sup>7:4</sup>And he was learned, that he had a perfect knowledge of the language of the people; wherefore, he could use much flattery, and much power of speech, according to the power of the devil. <sup>7:5</sup>And he had hope to shake me from the faith, notwithstanding the many revelations and the many things which I had seen concerning these things; for I truly had seen angels, and they had ministered unto me. And also, I had heard the voice of the Lord speaking unto me in very word, from time to time; wherefore, I could not be shaken. <sup>7:6</sup>And it came to pass that he came unto me, and on this wise did he speak unto me, saying: Brother Jacob, I have sought much opportunity that I might speak unto you; for I have heard and also know that thou goest about much, preaching that which ye call the gospel, or the doctrine of Christ. <sup>7:7</sup>And ye have led away much of this people that they pervert the right way of God, and keep not the law of Moses which is the right way; and convert the law of Moses into the worship of a being which ye say shall come many hundred years hence. And now behold, I, Sherem, declare unto you that this is blasphemy; for no man knoweth of such things; for he cannot tell of things to come. And after this manner did Sherem contend against me. <sup>7:8</sup>But behold, the Lord God poured in his Spirit into my soul, insomuch that I did confound him in all his words. <sup>7:9</sup>And I said unto him: Deniest thou the Christ who shall come? And he said: If there should be a Christ, I would not deny him; but I know that there is no Christ, neither has been, nor ever will be. <sup>7:10</sup>And I said unto him: Believest thou the scriptures? And he said, Yea. <sup>7:11</sup>And I said unto him: Then ye do not understand them; for they truly testify of Christ. Behold, I say unto you that none of the prophets have written, nor prophesied, save they have spoken concerning this Christ. <sup>7:12</sup>And this is not all—it has been made manifest unto me, for I have heard and seen; and it also has been made manifest unto me by the power of the Holy Ghost; wherefore, I know if there should be no atonement made all mankind must be lost. <sup>7:13</sup>And it came to pass that he said unto me: Show me a sign by this power of the Holy Ghost, in the which ye know so much. <sup>7:14</sup>And I said unto him: What am I that I should tempt God to show unto thee a sign in the thing which thou knowest to be true? Yet thou wilt deny it, because thou art of the devil. Nevertheless, not my will be done; but if God shall smite thee, let that be a sign unto thee that he has power, both in heaven and in earth; and also, that Christ shall come. And thy will, O Lord, be done, and not mine. <sup>7:15</sup>And it came to pass that when I, Jacob, had spoken these words, the power of the Lord came upon him, insomuch that he fell to the earth. And it came to pass that he was nourished for the space of many days. <sup>7:16</sup>And it came to pass that he said unto the people: Gather together on the morrow, for I shall die; wherefore, I desire to speak unto the people before I shall die. <sup>7:17</sup>And it came to pass that on the morrow the multitude were gathered together; and he spake plainly unto them and denied the things which he had taught them, and confessed the Christ, and the power of the Holy Ghost, and the ministering of angels. <sup>7:18</sup>And he spake plainly unto them, that he had been deceived by the power of the devil. And he spake of hell, and of eternity, and of eternal punishment. <sup>7:19</sup>And he said: I fear lest I have committed the unpardonable sin, for I have lied unto God; for I denied the Christ, and said that I believed the scriptures; and they truly testify of him. And because I have thus lied unto God I greatly fear lest my case shall be awful; but I confess unto God. <sup>7:20</sup>And it came to pass that when he had said these words he could say no more, and he gave up the ghost. <sup>7:21</sup>And when the multitude had witnessed that he spake these things as he was about to give up the ghost, they were astonished exceedingly; insomuch that the power of God came down upon them, and they were overcome that they fell to the earth. <sup>7:22</sup>Now, this thing was pleasing unto me, Jacob, for I had requested it of my Father who was in heaven; for he had heard my cry and answered my prayer. <sup>7:23</sup>And it came to pass that peace and the love of God was restored again among the people; and they searched the scriptures, and hearkened no more to the words of this wicked man. <sup>7:24</sup>And it came to pass that many means were devised to reclaim and restore the Lamanites to the knowledge of the truth; but it all was vain, for they delighted in wars and bloodshed, and they had an eternal hatred against us, their brethren. And they sought by the power of their arms to destroy us continually. <sup>7:25</sup>Wherefore, the people of Nephi did fortify against them with their arms, and with all their might, trusting in the God and rock of their salvation; wherefore, they became as yet, conquerors of their enemies. <sup>7:26</sup>And it came to pass that I, Jacob, began to be old; and the record of this people being kept on the other plates of Nephi, wherefore, I conclude this record, declaring that I have written according to the best of my knowledge, by saying that the time passed away with us, and also our lives passed away like as it were unto us a dream, we being a lonesome and a solemn people, wanderers, cast out from Jerusalem, born in tribulation, in a wilderness, and hated of our brethren, which caused wars and contentions; wherefore, we did mourn out our days. <sup>7:27</sup>And I, Jacob, saw that I must soon go down to my grave; wherefore, I said unto my son Enos: Take these plates. And I told him the things which my brother Nephi had commanded me, and he promised obedience unto the commands. And I make an end of my writing upon these plates, which writing has been small; and to the reader I bid farewell, hoping that many of my brethren may read my words. Brethren, adieu.

Enos

The book of Enos

<B><sup>1:1</sup>Behold, it came to pass that I, Enos, knowing my father that he was a just man—for he taught me in his language, and also in the nurture and admonition of the Lord—and blessed be the name of my God for it—<sup>1:2</sup>and I will tell you of the wrestle which I had before God, before I received a remission of my sins. <sup>1:3</sup>Behold, I went to hunt beasts in the forests; and the words which I had often heard my father speak concerning eternal life, and the joy of the saints, sunk deep into my heart. <sup>1:4</sup>And my soul hungered; and I kneeled down before my Maker, and I cried unto him in mighty prayer and supplication for mine own soul; and all the day long did I cry unto him; yea, and when the night came I did still raise my voice high that it reached the heavens. <sup>1:5</sup>And there came a voice unto me, saying: Enos, thy sins are forgiven thee, and thou shalt be blessed. <sup>1:6</sup>And I, Enos, knew that God could not lie; wherefore, my guilt was swept away. <sup>1:7</sup>And I said: Lord, how is it done? <sup>1:8</sup>And he said unto me: Because of thy faith in Christ, whom thou hast never before heard nor seen. And many years pass away before he shall manifest himself in the flesh; wherefore, go to, thy faith hath made thee whole. <sup>1:9</sup>Now, it came to pass that when I had heard these words I began to feel a desire for the welfare of my brethren, the Nephites; wherefore, I did pour out my whole soul unto God for them. <sup>1:10</sup>And while I was thus struggling in the spirit, behold, the voice of the Lord came into my mind again, saying: I will visit thy brethren according to their diligence in keeping my commandments. I have given unto them this land, and it is a holy land; and I curse it not save it be for the cause of iniquity; wherefore, I will visit thy brethren according as I have said; and their transgressions will I bring down with sorrow upon their own heads. <sup>1:11</sup>And after I, Enos, had heard these words, my faith began to be unshaken in the Lord; and I prayed unto him with many long strugglings for my brethren, the Lamanites. <sup>1:12</sup>And it came to pass that after I had prayed and labored with all diligence, the Lord said unto me: I will grant unto thee according to thy desires, because of thy faith. <sup>1:13</sup>And now behold, this was the desire which I desired of him—that if it should so be, that my people, the Nephites, should fall into transgression, and by any means be destroyed, and the Lamanites should not be destroyed, that the Lord God would preserve a record of my people, the Nephites; even if it so be by the power of his holy arm, that it might be brought forth at some future day unto the Lamanites, that, perhaps, they might be brought unto salvation—<sup>1:14</sup>for at the present our strugglings were vain in restoring them to the true faith. And they swore in their wrath that, if it were possible, they would destroy our records and us, and also all the traditions of our fathers. <sup>1:15</sup>Wherefore, I knowing that the Lord God was able to preserve our records, I cried unto him continually, for he had said unto me: Whatsoever thing ye shall ask in faith, believing that ye shall receive in the name of Christ, ye shall receive it. <sup>1:16</sup>And I had faith, and I did cry unto God that he would preserve the records; and he covenanted with me that he would bring them forth unto the Lamanites in his own due time. <sup>1:17</sup>And I, Enos, knew it would be according to the covenant which he had made; wherefore my soul did rest. <sup>1:18</sup>And the Lord said unto me: Thy fathers have also required of me this thing; and it shall be done unto them according to their faith; for their faith was like unto thine. <sup>1:19</sup>And now it came to pass that I, Enos, went about among the people of Nephi, prophesying of things to come, and testifying of the things which I had heard and seen. <sup>1:20</sup>And I bear record that the people of Nephi did seek diligently to restore the Lamanites unto the true faith in God. But our labors were vain; their hatred was fixed, and they were led by their evil nature that they became wild, and ferocious, and a blood-thirsty people, full of idolatry and filthiness; feeding upon beasts of prey; dwelling in tents, and wandering about in the wilderness with a short skin girdle about their loins and their heads shaven; and their skill was in the bow, and in the cimeter, and the ax. And many of them did eat nothing save it was raw meat; and they were continually seeking to destroy us. <sup>1:21</sup>And it came to pass that the people of Nephi did till the land, and raise all manner of grain, and of fruit, and flocks of herds, and flocks of all manner of cattle of every kind, and goats, and wild goats, and also many horses. <sup>1:22</sup>And there were exceedingly many prophets among us. And the people were a stiffnecked people, hard to understand. <sup>1:23</sup>And there was nothing save it was exceeding harshness, preaching and prophesying of wars, and contentions, and destructions, and continually reminding them of death, and the duration of eternity, and the judgments and the power of God, and all these things — stirring them up continually to keep them in the fear of the Lord. I say there was nothing short of these things, and exceedingly great plainness of speech, would keep them from going down speedily to destruction. And after this manner do I write concerning them. <sup>1:24</sup>And I saw wars between the Nephites and Lamanites in the course of my days. <sup>1:25</sup>And it came to pass that I began to be old, and an hundred and seventy and nine years had passed away from the time that our father Lehi left Jerusalem. <sup>1:26</sup>And I saw that I must soon go down to my grave, having been wrought upon by the power of God that I must preach and prophesy unto this people, and declare the word according to the truth which is in Christ. And I have declared it in all my days, and have rejoiced in it above that of the world. <sup>1:27</sup>And I soon go to the place of my rest, which is with my Redeemer; for I know that in him I shall rest. And I rejoice in the day when my mortal shall put on immortality, and shall stand before him; then shall I see his face with pleasure, and he will say unto me: Come unto me, ye blessed, there is a place prepared for you in the mansions of my Father. Amen.

Jarom

The book of Jarom

<↳1:1 Now behold, I, Jarom, write a few words according to the commandment of my father, Enos, that our genealogy may be kept. <sup>1:2</sup>And as these plates are small, and as these things are written for the intent of the benefit of our brethren the Lamanites, wherefore, it must needs be that I write a little; but I shall not write the things of my prophesying, nor of my revelations. For what could I write more than my fathers have written? For have not they revealed the plan of salvation? I say unto you, Yea; and this sufficeth me.

<sup>1:3</sup>Behold, it is expedient that much should be done among this people, because of the hardness of their hearts, and the deafness of their ears, and the blindness of their minds, and the stiffness of their necks; nevertheless, God is exceedingly merciful unto them, and has not as yet swept them off from the face of the land.

<sup>1:4</sup>And there are many among us who have many revelations, for they are not all stiffnecked. And as many as are not stiffnecked and have faith, have communion with the Holy Spirit, which maketh manifest unto the children of men, according to their faith. <sup>1:5</sup>And now, behold, two hundred years had passed away, and the people of Nephi had waxed strong in the land. They observed to keep the law of Moses and the sabbath day holy unto the Lord. And they profaned not; neither did they blaspheme. And the laws of the land were exceedingly strict. <sup>1:6</sup>And they were scattered upon much of the face of the land, and the Lamanites also. And they were exceedingly more numerous than were they of the Nephites; and they loved murder and would drink the blood of beasts. <sup>1:7</sup>And it came to pass that they came many times against us, the Nephites, to battle. But our kings and our leaders were mighty men in the faith of the Lord; and they taught the people the ways of the Lord; wherefore, we withstood the Lamanites and swept them away out of our lands, and began to fortify our cities, or whatsoever place of our inheritance. <sup>1:8</sup>And we multiplied exceedingly, and spread upon the face of the land, and became exceedingly rich in gold, and in silver, and in precious things, and in fine workmanship of wood, in buildings, and in machinery, and also in iron and copper, and brass and steel, making all manner of tools of every kind to till the ground, and weapons of war—yea, the sharp pointed arrow, and the quiver, and the dart, and the javelin, and all preparations for war. <sup>1:9</sup>And thus being prepared to meet the Lamanites, they did not prosper against us. But the word of the Lord was verified, which he spake unto our fathers, saying that: Inasmuch as ye will keep my commandments ye shall prosper in the land.

<sup>1:10</sup>And it came to pass that the prophets of the Lord did threaten the people of Nephi, according to the word of God, that if they did not keep the commandments, but should fall into transgression, they should be destroyed from off the face of the land. <sup>1:11</sup>Wherefore, the prophets, and the priests, and the teachers, did labor diligently, exhorting with all long-suffering the people to diligence; teaching the law of Moses, and the intent for which it was given; persuading them to look forward unto the Messiah, and believe in him to come as though he already was. And after this manner did they teach them. <sup>1:12</sup>And it came to pass that by so doing they kept them from being destroyed upon the face of the land; for they did prick their hearts with the word, continually stirring them up unto repentance. <sup>1:13</sup>And it came to pass that two hundred and thirty and eight years had passed away — after the manner of wars, and contentions, and dissensions, for the space of much of the time. <sup>1:14</sup>And I, Jarom, do not write more, for the plates are small. But behold, my brethren, ye can go to the other plates of Nephi; for behold, upon them the records of our wars are engraven, according to the writings of the kings, or those which they caused to be written. <sup>1:15</sup>And I deliver these plates into the hands of my son Omni, that they may be kept according to the commandments of my fathers.

Omni

The book of Omni

<sup><1>1:1</sup>Behold, it came to pass that I, Omni, being commanded by my father, Jarom, that I should write somewhat upon these plates, to preserve our genealogy — <sup>1:2</sup>wherefore, in my days, I would that ye should know that I fought much with the sword to preserve my people, the Nephites, from falling into the hands of their enemies, the Lamanites. But behold, I of myself am a wicked man, and I have not kept the statutes and the commandments of the Lord as I ought to have done. <sup>1:3</sup>And it came to pass that two hundred and seventy and six years had passed away, and we had many seasons of peace; and we had many seasons of serious war and bloodshed. Yea, and in fine, two hundred and eighty and two years had passed away, and I had kept these plates according to the commandments of my fathers; and I conferred them upon my son Amaron. And I make an end. <sup>1:4</sup>And now I, Amaron, write the things whatsoever I write, which are few, in the book of my father. <sup>1:5</sup>Behold, it came to pass that three hundred and twenty years had passed away, and the more wicked part of the Nephites were destroyed. <sup>1:6</sup>For the Lord would not suffer, after he had led them out of the land of Jerusalem and kept and preserved them from falling into the hands of their enemies, yea, he would not suffer that the words should not be verified, which he spake unto our fathers, saying that: Inasmuch as ye will not keep my commandments ye shall not prosper in the land. <sup>1:7</sup>Wherefore, the Lord did visit them in great judgment; nevertheless, he did spare the righteous that they should not perish, but did deliver them out of the hands of their enemies. <sup>1:8</sup>And it came to pass that I did deliver the plates unto my brother Chemish. <sup>1:9</sup>Now I, Chemish, write what few things I write, in the same book with my brother; for behold, I saw the last which he wrote, that he wrote it with his own hand; and he wrote it in the day that he delivered them unto me. And after this manner we keep the records, for it is according to the commandments of our fathers. And I make an end. <sup>1:10</sup>Behold, I, Abinadom, am the son of Chemish. Behold, it came to pass that I saw much war and contention between my people, the Nephites, and the Lamanites; and I, with my own sword, have taken the lives of many of the Lamanites in the defence of my brethren. <sup>1:11</sup>And behold, the record of this people is engraven upon plates which is had by the kings, according to the generations; and I know of no revelation save that which has been written, neither prophecy; wherefore, that which is sufficient is written. And I make an end. <sup>1:12</sup>Behold, I am Amaleki, the son of Abinadom. Behold, I will speak unto you somewhat concerning Mosiah, who was made king over the land of Zarahemla; for behold, he being warned of the Lord that he should flee out of the land of Nephi, and as many as would hearken unto the voice of the Lord should also depart out of the land with him, into the wilderness—<sup>1:13</sup>and it came to pass that he did according as the Lord had commanded him. And they departed out of the land into the wilderness, as many as would hearken unto the voice of the Lord; and they were led by many preachings and prophesyings. And they were admonished continually by the word of God; and they were led by the power of his arm, through the wilderness until they came down into the land which is called the land of Zarahemla. <sup>1:14</sup>And they discovered a people, who were called the people of Zarahemla. Now, there was great rejoicing among the people of Zarahemla; and also Zarahemla did rejoice exceedingly, because the Lord had sent the people of Mosiah with the plates of brass which contained the record of the Jews. <sup>1:15</sup>Behold, it came to pass that Mosiah discovered that the people of Zarahemla came out from Jerusalem at the time that Zedekiah, king of Judah, was carried away captive into Babylon. <sup>1:16</sup>And they journeyed in the wilderness, and were brought by the hand of the Lord across the great waters, into the land where Mosiah discovered them; and they had dwelt there from that time forth. <sup>1:17</sup>And at the time that Mosiah discovered them, they had become exceedingly numerous. Nevertheless, they had had many wars and serious contentions, and had fallen by the sword from time to time; and their language had become corrupted; and they had brought no records with them; and they denied the being of their Creator; and Mosiah, nor the people of Mosiah, could understand them. <sup>1:18</sup>But it came to pass that Mosiah caused that they should be taught in his language. And it came to pass that after they were taught in the language of Mosiah, Zarahemla gave a genealogy of his fathers, according to his memory; and they are written, but not in these plates. <sup>1:19</sup>And it came to pass that the people of Zarahemla, and of Mosiah, did unite together; and Mosiah was appointed to be their king. <sup>1:20</sup>And it came to pass in the days of Mosiah, there was a large stone brought unto him with engravings on it; and he did interpret the engravings by the gift and power of God. <sup>1:21</sup>And they gave an account of one Coriantumr, and the slain of his people. And Coriantumr was discovered by the people of Zarahemla; and he dwelt with them for the space of nine moons. <sup>1:22</sup>It also spake a few words concerning his fathers. And his first parents came out from the tower, at the time the Lord confounded the language of the people; and the severity of the Lord fell upon them according to his judgments, which are just; and their bones lay scattered in the land northward. <sup>1:23</sup>Behold, I, Amaleki, was born in the days of Mosiah; and I have lived to see his death; and Benjamin, his son, reigneth in his stead. <sup>1:24</sup>And behold, I have seen, in the days of king Benjamin, a serious war and much bloodshed between the Nephites and the Lamanites. But behold, the Nephites did obtain much advantage over them; yea, insomuch that king Benjamin did drive them out of the land of Zarahemla. <sup>1:25</sup>And it came to pass that I began to be old; and, having no seed, and knowing king Benjamin to be a just man before the Lord, wherefore, I shall deliver up these plates unto him, exhorting all men to come unto God, the Holy One of Israel, and believe in prophesying, and in revelations, and in the ministering of angels, and in the gift of speaking with tongues, and in the gift of interpreting languages, and in all things which are good; for there is nothing which is good save it comes from the Lord; and that which is evil cometh from the devil. <sup>1:26</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, I would that ye should come unto Christ, who is the Holy One of Israel, and partake of his salvation, and the power of his redemption. Yea, come unto him, and offer your whole souls as an offering unto him, and continue in fasting and praying, and endure to the end; and as the Lord liveth ye will be saved. <sup>1:27</sup>And now I would speak somewhat concerning a certain number who went up into the wilderness to return to the land of Nephi; for there was a large number who were desirous to possess the land of their inheritance. <sup>1:28</sup>Wherefore, they went up into the wilderness. And their leader being a strong and mighty man, and a stiffnecked man, wherefore he caused a contention among them; and they were all slain, save fifty, in the wilderness, and they returned again to the land of Zarahemla. <sup>1:29</sup>And it came to pass that they also took others to a considerable number, and took their journey again into the wilderness. <sup>1:30</sup>And I, Amaleki, had a brother, who also went with them; and I have not since known concerning them. And I am about to lie down in my grave; and these plates are full. And I make an end of my speaking.

Words of Mormon

The words of Mormon

<sup><1>1:1</sup>And now I, Mormon, being about to deliver up the record which I have been making into the hands of my son Moroni, behold I have witnessed almost all the destruction of my people, the Nephites. <sup>1:2</sup>And it is many hundred years after the coming of Christ that I deliver these records into the hands of my son; and it supposeth me that he will witness the entire destruction of my people. But may God grant that he may survive them, that he may write somewhat concerning them, and somewhat concerning Christ, that perhaps some day it may profit them. <sup>1:3</sup>And now, I speak somewhat concerning that which I have written; for after I had made an abridgment from the plates of Nephi, down to the reign of this king Benjamin, of whom Amaleki spake, I searched among the records which had been delivered into my hands, and I found these plates, which contained this small account of the prophets, from Jacob down to the reign of this king Benjamin, and also many of the words of Nephi. <sup>1:4</sup>And the things which are upon these plates pleasing me, because of the prophecies of the coming of Christ; and my fathers knowing that many of them have been fulfilled; yea, and I also know that as many things as have been prophesied concerning us down to this day have been fulfilled, and as many as go beyond this day must surely come to pass—<sup>1:5</sup>wherefore, I chose these things, to finish my record upon them, which remainder of my record I shall take from the plates of Nephi; and I cannot write the hundredth part of the things of my people. <sup>1:6</sup>But behold, I shall take these plates, which contain these prophesyings and revelations, and put them with the remainder of my record, for they are choice unto me; and I know they will be choice unto my brethren. <sup>1:7</sup>And I do this for a wise purpose; for thus it whispereth me, according to the workings of the Spirit of the Lord which is in me. And now, I do not know all things; but the Lord knoweth all things which are to come; wherefore, he worketh in me to do according to his will. <sup>1:8</sup>And my prayer to God is concerning my brethren, that they may once again come to the knowledge of God, yea, the redemption of Christ; that they may once again be a delightsome people. <sup>1:9</sup>And now I, Mormon, proceed to finish out my record, which I take from the plates of Nephi; and I make it according to the knowledge and the understanding which God has given me. <sup>1:10</sup>Wherefore, it came to pass that after Amaleki had delivered up these plates into the hands of king Benjamin, he took them and put them with the other plates, which contained records which had been handed down by the kings, from generation to generation until the days of king Benjamin. <sup>1:11</sup>And they were handed down from king Benjamin, from generation to generation until they have fallen into my hands. And I, Mormon, pray to God that they may be preserved from this time henceforth. And I know that they will be preserved; for there are great things written upon them, out of which my people and their brethren shall be judged at the great and last day, according to the word of God which is written. <sup>1:12</sup>And now, concerning this king Benjamin—he had somewhat of contentions among his own people. <sup>1:13</sup>And it came to pass also that the armies of the Lamanites came down out of the land of Nephi, to battle against his people. But behold, king Benjamin gathered together his armies, and he did stand against them; and he did fight with the strength of his own arm, with the sword of Laban. <sup>1:14</sup>And in the strength of the Lord they did contend against their enemies, until they had slain many thousands of the Lamanites. And it came to pass that they did contend against the Lamanites until they had driven them out of all the lands of their inheritance. <sup>1:15</sup>And it came to pass that after there had been false Christs, and their mouths had been shut, and they punished according to their crimes; <sup>1:16</sup>and after there had been false prophets, and false preachers and teachers among the people, and all these having been punished according to their crimes; and after there having been much contention and many dissensions away unto the Lamanites, behold, it came to pass that king Benjamin, with the assistance of the holy prophets who were among his people — <sup>1:17</sup>for behold, king Benjamin was a holy man, and he did reign over his people in righteousness; and there were many holy men in the land, and they did speak the word of God with power and with authority; and they did use much sharpness because of the stiffneckedness of the people — <sup>1:18</sup>wherefore, with the help of these, king Benjamin, by laboring with all the might of his body and the faculty of his whole soul, and also the prophets, did once more establish peace in the land.

Mosiah

The book of Mosiah

<sup><1>1:1</sup>And now there was no more contention in all the land of Zarahemla, among all the people who belonged to king Benjamin, so that king Benjamin had continual peace all the remainder of his days. <sup>1:2</sup>And it came to pass that he had three sons; and he called their names Mosiah, and Helorum, and Helaman. And he caused that they should be taught in all the language of his fathers, that thereby they might become men of understanding; and that they might know concerning the prophecies which had been spoken by the mouths of their fathers, which were delivered them by the hand of the Lord. <sup>1:3</sup>And he also taught them concerning the records which were engraven on the plates of brass, saying: My sons, I would that ye should remember that were it not for these plates, which contain these records and these commandments, we must have suffered in ignorance, even at this present time, not knowing the mysteries of God. <sup>1:4</sup>For it were not possible that our father, Lehi, could have remembered all these things, to have taught them to his children, except it were for the help of these plates; for he having been taught in the language of the Egyptians therefore he could read these engravings, and teach them to his children, that thereby they could teach them to their children, and so fulfilling the commandments of God, even down to this present time. <sup>1:5</sup>I say unto you, my sons, were it not for these things, which have been kept and preserved by the hand of God, that we might read and understand of his mysteries, and have his commandments always before our eyes, that even our fathers would have dwindled in unbelief, and we should have been like unto our brethren, the Lamanites, who know nothing concerning these things, or even do not believe them when they are taught them, because of the traditions of their fathers, which are not correct. <sup>1:6</sup>O my sons, I would that ye should remember that these sayings are true, and also that these records are true. And behold, also the plates of Nephi, which contain the records and the sayings of our fathers from the time they left Jerusalem until now, and they are true; and we can know of their surety because we have them before our eyes. <sup>1:7</sup>And now, my sons, I would that ye should remember to search them diligently, that ye may profit thereby; and I would that ye should keep the commandments of God, that ye may prosper in the land according to the promises which the Lord made unto our fathers. <sup>1:8</sup>And many more things did king Benjamin teach his sons, which are not written in this book. <sup>1:9</sup>And it came to pass that after king Benjamin had made an end of teaching his sons, that he waxed old, and he saw that he must very soon go the way of all the earth; therefore, he thought it expedient that he should confer the kingdom upon one of his sons. <sup>1:10</sup>Therefore, he had Mosiah brought before him; and these are the words which he spake unto him, saying: My son, I would that ye should make a proclamation throughout all this land among all this people, or the people of Zarahemla, and the people of Mosiah who dwell in the land, that thereby they may be gathered together; for on the morrow I shall proclaim unto this my people out of mine own mouth that thou art a king and a ruler over this people, whom the Lord our God hath given us. <sup>1:11</sup>And moreover, I shall give this people a name, that thereby they may be distinguished above all the people which the Lord God hath brought out of the land of Jerusalem; and this I do because they have been a diligent people in keeping the commandments of the Lord. <sup>1:12</sup>And I give unto them a name that never shall be blotted out, except it be through transgression. <sup>1:13</sup>Yea, and moreover I say unto you, that if this highly favored people of the Lord should fall into transgression, and become a wicked and an adulterous people, that the Lord will deliver them up, that thereby they become weak like unto their brethren; and he will no more preserve them by his matchless and marvelous power, as he has hitherto preserved our fathers. <sup>1:14</sup>For I say unto you, that if he had not extended his arm in the preservation of our fathers they must have fallen into the hands of the Lamanites, and become victims to their hatred. <sup>1:15</sup>And it came to pass that after king Benjamin had made an end of these sayings to his son, that he gave him charge concerning all the affairs of the kingdom. <sup>1:16</sup>And moreover, he also gave him charge concerning the records which were engraven on the plates of brass; and also the plates of Nephi; and also, the sword of Laban, and the ball or director, which led our fathers through the wilderness, which was prepared by the hand of the Lord that thereby they might be led, every one according to the heed and diligence which they gave unto him. <sup>1:17</sup>Therefore, as they were unfaithful they did not prosper nor progress in their journey, but were driven back, and incurred the displeasure of God upon them; and therefore they were smitten with famine and sore afflictions, to stir them up in remembrance of their duty. <sup>1:18</sup>And now, it came to pass that Mosiah went and did as his father had commanded him, and proclaimed unto all the people who were in the land of Zarahemla that thereby they might gather themselves together, to go up to the temple to hear the words which his father should speak unto them. <sup>2:1</sup>And it came to pass that after Mosiah had done as his father had commanded him, and had made a proclamation throughout all the land, that the people gathered themselves together throughout all the land, that they might go up to the temple to hear the words which king Benjamin should speak unto them. <sup>2:2</sup>And there were a great number, even so many that they did not number them; for they had multiplied exceedingly and waxed great in the land. <sup>2:3</sup>And they also took of the firstlings of their flocks, that they might offer sacrifice and burnt offerings according to the law of Moses; <sup>2:4</sup>and also that they might give thanks to the Lord their God, who had brought them out of the land of Jerusalem, and who had delivered them out of the hands of their enemies, and had appointed just men to be their teachers, and also a just man to be their king, who had established peace in the land of Zarahemla, and who had taught them to keep the commandments of God, that they might rejoice and be filled with love towards God and all men. <sup>2:5</sup>And it came to pass that when they came up to the temple, they pitched their tents round about, every man according to his family, consisting of his wife, and his sons, and his daughters, and their sons, and their daughters, from the eldest down to the youngest, every family being separate one from another. <sup>2:6</sup>And they pitched their tents round about the temple, every man having his tent with the door thereof towards the temple, that thereby they might remain in their tents and hear the words which king Benjamin should speak unto them; <sup>2:7</sup>for the multitude being so great that king Benjamin could not teach them all within the walls of the temple, therefore he caused a tower to be erected, that thereby his people might hear the words which he should speak unto them. <sup>2:8</sup>And it came to pass that he began to speak to his people from the tower; and they could not all hear his words because of the greatness of the multitude; therefore he caused that the words which he spake should be written and sent forth among those that were not under the sound of his voice, that they might also receive his words. <sup>2:9</sup>And these are the words which he spake and caused to be written, saying: My brethren, all ye that have assembled yourselves together, you that can hear my words which I shall speak unto you this day; for I have not commanded you to come up hither to trifle with the words which I shall speak, but that you should hearken unto me, and open your ears that ye may hear, and your hearts that ye may understand, and your minds that the mysteries of God may be unfolded to your view. <sup>2:10</sup>I have not commanded you to come up hither that ye should fear me, or that ye should think that I of myself am more than a mortal man. <sup>2:11</sup>But I am like as yourselves, subject to all manner of infirmities in body and mind; yet I have been chosen by this people, and consecrated by my father, and was suffered by the hand of the Lord that I should be a ruler and a king over this people; and have been kept and preserved by his matchless power, to serve you with all the

might, mind and strength which the Lord hath granted unto me. <sup>2:12</sup>I say unto you that as I have been suffered to spend my days in your service, even up to this time, and have not sought gold nor silver nor any manner of riches of you; <sup>2:13</sup>neither have I suffered that ye should be confined in dungeons, nor that ye should make slaves one of another, nor that ye should murder, or plunder, or steal, or commit adultery; nor even have I suffered that ye should commit any manner of wickedness, and have taught you that ye should keep the commandments of the Lord, in all things which he hath commanded you— <sup>2:14</sup>and even I, myself, have labored with mine own hands that I might serve you, and that ye should not be laden with taxes, and that there should nothing come upon you which was grievous to be borne—and of all these things which I have spoken, ye yourselves are witnesses this day. <sup>2:15</sup>Yet, my brethren, I have not done these things that I might boast, neither do I tell these things that thereby I might accuse you; but I tell you these things that ye may know that I can answer a clear conscience before God this day. <sup>2:16</sup>Behold, I say unto you that because I said unto you that I had spent my days in your service, I do not desire to boast, for I have only been in the service of God. <sup>2:17</sup>And behold, I tell you these things that ye may learn wisdom; that ye may learn that when ye are in the service of your fellow beings ye are only in the service of your God. <sup>2:18</sup>Behold, ye have called me your king; and if I, whom ye call your king, do labor to serve you, then ought not ye to labor to serve one another? <sup>2:19</sup>And behold also, if I, whom ye call your king, who has spent his days in your service, and yet has been in the service of God, do merit any thanks from you, O how you ought to thank your heavenly King! <sup>2:20</sup>I say unto you, my brethren, that if you should render all the thanks and praise which your whole soul has power to possess, to that God who has created you, and has kept and preserved you, and has caused that ye should rejoice, and has granted that ye should live in peace one with another—<sup>2:21</sup>I say unto you that if ye should serve him who has created you from the beginning, and is preserving you from day to day, by lending you breath, that ye may live and move and do according to your own will, and even supporting you from one moment to another—I say, if ye should serve him with all your whole souls yet ye would be unprofitable servants. <sup>2:22</sup>And behold, all that he requires of you is to keep his commandments; and he has promised you that if ye would keep his commandments ye should prosper in the land; and he never doth vary from that which he hath said; therefore, if ye do keep his commandments he doth bless you and prosper you. <sup>2:23</sup>And now, in the first place, he hath created you, and granted unto you your lives, for which ye are indebted unto him. <sup>2:24</sup>And secondly, he doth require that ye should do as he hath commanded you; for which if ye do, he doth immediately bless you; and therefore he hath paid you. And ye are still indebted unto him, and are, and will be, forever and ever; therefore, of what have ye to boast? <sup>2:25</sup>And now I ask, can ye say aught of yourselves? I answer you, Nay. Ye cannot say that ye are even as much as the dust of the earth; yet ye were created of the dust of the earth; but behold, it belongeth to him who created

you. <sup>2:26</sup>And I, even I, whom ye call your king, am no better than ye yourselves are; for I am also of the dust. And ye behold that I am old, and am about to yield up this mortal frame to its mother earth. <sup>2:27</sup>Therefore, as I said unto you that I had served you, walking with a clear conscience before God, even so I at this time have caused that ye should assemble yourselves together, that I might be found blameless, and that your blood should not come upon me, when I shall stand to be judged of God of the things whereof he hath commanded me concerning you. <sup>2:28</sup>I say unto you that I have caused that ye should assemble yourselves together that I might rid my garments of your blood, at this period of time when I am about to go down to my grave, that I might go down in peace, and my immortal spirit may join the choirs above in singing the praises of a just God. <sup>2:29</sup>And moreover, I say unto you that I have caused that ye should assemble yourselves together, that I might declare unto you that I can no longer be your teacher, nor your king; <sup>2:30</sup>for even at this time, my whole frame doth tremble exceedingly while attempting to speak unto you; but the Lord God doth support me, and hath suffered me that I should speak unto you, and hath commanded me that I should declare unto you this day, that my son Mosiah is a king and a ruler over you. <sup>2:31</sup>And now, my brethren, I would that ye should do as ye have hitherto done. As ye have kept my commandments, and also the commandments of my father, and have prospered, and have been kept from falling into the hands of your enemies, even so if ye shall keep the commandments of my son, or the commandments of God which shall be delivered unto you by him, ye shall prosper in the land, and your enemies shall have no power over you. <sup>2:32</sup>But, O my people, beware lest there shall arise contentions among you, and ye list to obey the evil spirit, which was spoken of by my father Mosiah. <sup>2:33</sup>For behold, there is a wo pronounced upon him who listeth to obey that spirit; for if he listeth to obey him, and remaineth and dieth in his sins, the same drinketh damnation to his own soul; for he receiveth for his wages an everlasting punishment, having transgressed the law of God contrary to his own knowledge. <sup>2:34</sup>I say unto you, that there are not any among you, except it be your little children that have not been taught concerning these things, but what knoweth that ye are eternally indebted to your heavenly Father, to render to him all that you have and are; and also have been taught concerning the records which contain the prophecies which have been spoken by the holy prophets, even down to the time our father, Lehi, left Jerusalem; <sup>2:35</sup>and also, all that has been spoken by our fathers until now. And behold, also, they spake that which was commanded them of the Lord; therefore, they are just and true. <sup>2:36</sup>And now, I say unto you, my brethren, that after ye have known and have been taught all these things, if ye should transgress and go contrary to that which has been spoken, that ye do withdraw yourselves from the Spirit of the Lord, that it may have no place in you to guide you in wisdom's paths that ye may be blessed, prospered, and preserved—<sup>2:37</sup>I say unto you, that the man that doeth this, the same cometh out in open rebellion against God; therefore he listeth to obey the evil spirit, and becometh an enemy to all righteousness; therefore, the Lord has no place in him, for he dwelleth not in unholy temples. <sup>2:38</sup>Therefore if that man repenteth not, and remaineth and dieth an enemy to God, the demands of divine justice do awaken his immortal soul to a lively sense of his own guilt, which doth cause him to shrink from the presence of the Lord, and doth fill his breast with guilt, and pain, and anguish, which is like an unquenchable fire, whose flame ascendeth up forever and ever. <sup>2:39</sup>And now I say unto you, that mercy hath no claim on that man; therefore his final doom is to endure a never-ending torment. <sup>2:40</sup>O, all ye old men, and also ye young men, and you little children who can understand my words, for I have spoken plainly unto you that ye might understand, I pray that ye should awake to a remembrance of the awful situation of those that have fallen into transgression. <sup>2:41</sup>And moreover, I would desire that ye should consider on the blessed and happy state of those that keep the commandments of God. For behold, they are blessed in all things, both temporal and spiritual; and if they hold out faithful to the end they are received into heaven, that thereby they may dwell with God in a state of never-ending happiness. O remember, remember that these things are true; for the Lord God hath spoken it. <sup>3:1</sup>And again my brethren, I would call your attention, for I have somewhat more to speak unto you; for behold, I have things to tell you concerning that which is to come. <sup>3:2</sup>And the things which I shall tell you are made known unto me by an angel from God. And he said unto me: Awake; and I awoke, and behold he stood before me. <sup>3:3</sup>And he said unto me: Awake, and hear the words which I shall tell thee; for behold, I am come to declare unto you the glad tidings of great joy. <sup>3:4</sup>For the Lord hath heard thy prayers, and hath judged of thy righteousness, and hath sent me to declare unto thee that thou mayest rejoice; and that thou mayest declare unto thy people, that they may also be filled with joy. <sup>3:5</sup>For behold, the time cometh, and is not far distant, that with power, the Lord Omnipotent who reigneth, who was, and is from all eternity to all eternity, shall come down from heaven among the children of men, and shall dwell in a tabernacle of clay, and shall go forth amongst men, working mighty miracles, such as healing the sick, raising the dead, causing the lame to walk, the blind to receive their sight, and the deaf to hear, and curing all manner of diseases. <sup>3:6</sup>And he shall cast out devils, or the evil spirits which dwell in the hearts of the children of men. <sup>3:7</sup>And lo, he shall suffer temptations, and pain of body, hunger, thirst, and fatigue, even more than man can suffer, except it be unto death; for behold, blood cometh from every pore, so great shall be his anguish for the wickedness and the abominations of his people. <sup>3:8</sup>And he shall be called Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Father of heaven and earth, the Creator of all things from the beginning; and his mother shall be called Mary. <sup>3:9</sup>And lo, he cometh unto his own, that salvation might come unto the children of men even through faith on his name; and even after all this they shall consider him a man, and say that he hath a devil, and shall scourge him, and shall crucify him. <sup>3:10</sup>And he shall rise the third day from the dead; and behold, he standeth to judge the world; and behold, all these things are done that a righteous judgment might come upon the children of men. <sup>3:11</sup>For behold, and also his blood atoneth for the sins of those who have fallen by the transgression of Adam, who have died not knowing the will of God concerning them, or who have ignorantly sinned. <sup>3:12</sup>But wo, wo unto him who knoweth that he rebelleth against God! For salvation cometh to none such except it be through repentance and faith on the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3:13</sup>And the Lord God hath sent his holy prophets among all the children of men, to declare these things to every kindred, nation, and tongue, that thereby whosoever should believe that Christ should come, the same might receive remission of their sins, and rejoice with exceedingly great joy, even as though he had already come among them. <sup>3:14</sup>Yet the Lord God saw that his people were a stiffnecked people, and he appointed unto them a law, even the law of Moses. <sup>3:15</sup>And many signs, and wonders, and types, and shadows showed he unto them, concerning his coming; and also holy prophets spake unto them concerning his coming; and yet they hardened their hearts, and understood not that the law of Moses availeth nothing except it were through the atonement of his blood. <sup>3:16</sup>And even if it were possible that little children could sin they could not be saved; but I say unto you they are blessed; for behold, as in Adam, or by nature, they fall, even so the blood of Christ atoneth for their sins. <sup>3:17</sup>And moreover, I say unto you, that there shall be no other name given nor any other way nor means whereby salvation can come unto the children of men, only in and through the name of Christ, the Lord Omnipotent. <sup>3:18</sup>For behold he judgeth, and his judgment is just; and the infant perisheth not that dieth in his infancy; but men drink damnation to their own souls except they humble themselves and become as little children, and believe that salvation was, and is, and is to come, in and through the atoning blood of Christ, the Lord Omnipotent. <sup>3:19</sup>For the natural man is an enemy to God, and has been from the fall of Adam, and will be, forever and ever, unless he yields to the enticings of the Holy Spirit, and putteth off the natural man and becometh a saint through the atonement of Christ the Lord, and becometh as a child, submissive, meek, humble, patient, full of love, willing to submit to all things which the Lord seeth fit to inflict upon him, even as a child doth submit to his father. <sup>3:20</sup>And moreover, I say unto you, that the time shall come when the knowledge of a Savior shall spread throughout every nation, kindred, tongue, and people. <sup>3:21</sup>And behold, when that time cometh, none shall be found blameless before God, except it be little children, only through repentance and faith on the name of the Lord God Omnipotent. <sup>3:22</sup>And even at this time, when thou shalt have taught thy people the things which the Lord thy God hath commanded thee, even then are they found no more blameless in the sight of God, only according to the words which I have spoken unto thee. <sup>3:23</sup>And now I have spoken the words which the Lord God hath commanded me. <sup>3:24</sup>And thus saith the Lord: They shall stand as a bright testimony against this people, at the judgment day; whereof they shall be judged, every man according to his works, whether they be good, or whether they be evil. <sup>3:25</sup>And if they be evil they are consigned to an awful view of their own guilt and abominations, which doth cause them to shrink from the presence of the Lord into a state of misery and endless torment, from whence they can no more return; therefore they have drunk damnation to their own souls. <sup>3:26</sup>Therefore, they have drunk out of the cup of the wrath of God, which justice could no more deny unto them than it could deny that Adam should fall because of his partaking of the forbidden fruit; therefore, mercy could have claim on them no more forever. <sup>3:27</sup>And their torment is as a lake of fire and brimstone, whose flames are unquenchable, and whose smoke ascendeth up forever and ever. Thus hath the Lord commanded me. Amen. <sup><II>4:1</sup>And now, it came to pass that when king Benjamin had made an end of speaking the words which had been delivered unto him by the angel of the Lord, that he cast his eyes round about on the multitude, and behold they had fallen to the earth, for the fear of the Lord had come upon them. <sup>4:2</sup>And they had viewed themselves in their own carnal state, even less than the dust of the earth. And they all cried aloud with one voice, saying: O have mercy, and apply the atoning blood of Christ that we may receive forgiveness of our sins, and our hearts may be purified; for we believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who created heaven and earth, and all things; who shall come down among the children of men. <sup>4:3</sup>And it came to pass that after they had spoken these words the Spirit of the Lord came upon them, and they were filled with joy, having received a remission of their sins, and having peace of conscience, because of the exceeding faith which they had in Jesus Christ who should come, according to the words which king Benjamin had spoken unto them. <sup>4:4</sup>And king Benjamin again opened his mouth and began to speak unto them, saying: My friends and my brethren, my kindred and my people, I would again call your attention, that ye may hear and understand the remainder of my words which I shall speak unto you. <sup>4:5</sup>For behold, if the knowledge of the goodness of God at this time has awakened you to a sense of your nothingness, and your worthless and fallen state — <sup>4:6</sup>I say unto you, if ye have come to a knowledge of the goodness of God, and his matchless power, and his wisdom, and his patience, and his long-suffering towards the children of men; and also, the atonement which has been prepared from the foundation of the world, that thereby salvation might come to him that should put his trust in the Lord, and should be diligent in keeping his commandments, and continue in the faith even unto the end of his life, I mean the life of the mortal body — <sup>4:7</sup>I say, that this is the man who receiveth salvation, through the atonement which was prepared from the foundation of the world for all mankind, which ever were since the fall of Adam, or who are, or who ever shall be, even unto the end of the world. <sup>4:8</sup>And this is the means whereby salvation cometh. And there is none other salvation save this which hath been spoken of; neither are there any conditions whereby man can be saved except the conditions which I have told you. <sup>4:9</sup>Believe in God; believe that he is, and that he created all things, both in heaven and in earth; believe that he has all wisdom, and all power, both in heaven and in earth;

believe that man doth not comprehend all the things which the Lord can comprehend. <sup>4:10</sup>And again, believe that ye must repent of your sins and forsake them, and humble yourselves before God; and ask in sincerity of heart that he would forgive you; and now, if you believe all these things see that ye do them. <sup>4:11</sup>And again I say unto you as I have said before, that as ye have come to the knowledge of the glory of God, or if ye have known of his goodness and have tasted of his love, and have received a remission of your sins, which causeth such exceedingly great joy in your souls, even so I would that ye should remember, and always retain in remembrance, the greatness of God, and your own nothingness, and his goodness and long-suffering towards you, unworthy creatures, and humble yourselves even in the depths of humility, calling on the name of the Lord daily, and standing steadfastly in the faith of that which is to come, which was spoken by the mouth of the angel. <sup>4:12</sup>And behold, I say unto you that if ye do this ye shall always rejoice, and be filled with the love of God, and always retain a remission of your sins; and ye shall grow in the knowledge of the glory of him that created you, or in the knowledge of that which is just and true. <sup>4:13</sup>And ye will not have a mind to injure one another, but to live peaceably, and to render to every man according to that which is his due. <sup>4:14</sup>And ye will not suffer your children that they go hungry, or naked; neither will ye suffer that they transgress the laws of God, and fight and quarrel one with another, and serve the devil, who is the master of sin, or who is the evil spirit which hath been spoken of by our fathers, he being an enemy to all righteousness. <sup>4:15</sup>But ye will teach them to walk in the ways of truth and soberness; ye will teach them to love one another, and to serve one another. <sup>4:16</sup>And also, ye yourselves will succor those that stand in need of your succor; ye will administer of your substance unto him that standeth in need; and ye will not suffer that the beggar putteth up his petition to you in vain, and turn him out to perish. <sup>4:17</sup>Perhaps thou shalt say: The man has brought upon himself his misery; therefore I will stay my hand, and will not give unto him of my food, nor impart unto him of my substance that he may not suffer, for his punishments are just—<sup>4:18</sup>but I say unto you, O man, whosoever doeth this the same hath great cause to repent; and except he repenteth of that which he hath done he perisheth forever, and hath no interest in the kingdom of God. <sup>4:19</sup>For behold, are we not all beggars? Do we not all depend upon the same Being, even God, for all the substance which we have, for both food and raiment, and for gold, and for silver, and for all the riches which we have of every kind? <sup>4:20</sup>And behold, even at this time, ye have been calling on his name, and begging for a remission of your sins. And has he suffered that ye have begged in vain? Nay; he has poured out his Spirit upon you, and has caused that your hearts should be filled with joy, and has caused that your mouths should be stopped that ye could not find utterance, so exceedingly great was your joy. <sup>4:21</sup>And now, if God, who has created you, on whom you are dependent for your lives and for all that ye have and are, doth grant unto you whatsoever ye ask that is right, in faith, believing that ye shall receive, O then, how ye ought to impart of the substance that ye have one to another. <sup>4:22</sup>And if ye judge the man who putteth up his petition to you for your substance that he perish not, and condemn him, how much more just will be your condemnation for withholding your substance, which doth not belong to you but to God, to whom also your life belongeth; and yet ye put up no petition, nor repent of the thing which thou hast done. <sup>4:23</sup>I say unto you, wo be unto that man, for his substance shall perish with him; and now, I say these things unto those who are rich as pertaining to the things of this world. <sup>4:24</sup>And again, I say unto the poor, ye who have not and yet have sufficient, that ye remain from day to day; I mean all you who deny the beggar, because ye have not; I would that ye say in your hearts that: I give not because I have not, but if I had I would give. <sup>4:25</sup>And now, if ye say this in your hearts ye remain guiltless, otherwise ye are condemned; and your condemnation is just for ye covet that which ye have not received. <sup>4:26</sup>And now, for the sake of these things which I have spoken unto you—that is, for the sake of retaining a remission of your sins from day to day, that ye may walk guiltless before God—I would that ye should impart of your substance to the poor, every man according to that which he hath, such as feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and administering to their relief, both spiritually and temporally, according to their wants. <sup>4:27</sup>And see that all these things are done in wisdom and order; for it is not requisite that a man should run faster than he has strength. And again, it is expedient that he should be diligent, that thereby he might win the prize; therefore, all things must be done in order. <sup>4:28</sup>And I would that ye should remember, that whosoever among you borroweth of his neighbor should return the thing that he borroweth, according as he doth agree, or else thou shalt commit sin; and perhaps thou shalt cause thy neighbor to commit sin also. <sup>4:29</sup>And finally, I cannot tell you all the things whereby ye may commit sin; for there are divers ways and means, even so many that I cannot number them. <sup>4:30</sup>But this much I can tell you, that if ye do not watch yourselves, and your thoughts, and your words, and your deeds, and observe the commandments of God, and continue in the faith of what ye have heard concerning the coming of our Lord, even unto the end of your lives, ye must perish. And now, O man, remember, and perish not. <sup><III>5:1</sup>And now, it came to pass that when king Benjamin had thus spoken to his people, he sent among them, desiring to know of his people if they believed the words which he had spoken unto them. <sup>5:2</sup>And they all cried with one voice, saying: Yea, we believe all the words which thou hast spoken unto us; and also, we know of their surety and truth, because of the Spirit of the Lord Omnipotent, which has wrought a mighty change in us, or in our hearts, that we have no more disposition to do evil, but to do good continually. <sup>5:3</sup>And we, ourselves, also, through the infinite goodness of God, and the manifestations of his Spirit, have great views of that which is to come; and were it expedient, we could prophesy of all things. <sup>5:4</sup>And it is the faith which we have had on the things which our king has spoken unto us that has brought us to this great knowledge, whereby we do rejoice with such exceedingly great joy. <sup>5:5</sup>And we are willing to enter into a covenant with our God to do his will, and to be obedient to his commandments in all things that he shall command us, all the remainder of our days, that we may not bring upon ourselves a never-ending torment, as has been spoken by the angel, that we may not drink out of the cup of the wrath of God. <sup>5:6</sup>And now, these are the words which king Benjamin desired of them; and therefore he said unto them: Ye have spoken the words that I desired; and the covenant which ye have made is a righteous covenant. <sup>5:7</sup>And now, because of the covenant which ye have made ye shall be called the children of Christ, his sons, and his daughters; for behold, this day he hath spiritually begotten you; for ye say that your hearts are changed through faith on his name; therefore, ye are born of him and have become his sons and his daughters. <sup>5:8</sup>And under this head ye are made free, and there is no other head whereby ye can be made free. There is no other name given whereby salvation cometh; therefore, I would that ye should take upon you the name of Christ, all you that have entered into the covenant with God that ye should be obedient unto the end of your lives. <sup>5:9</sup>And it shall come to pass that whosoever doeth this shall be found at the right hand of God, for he shall know the name by which he is called; for he shall be called by the name of Christ. <sup>5:10</sup>And now it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall not take upon him the name of Christ must be called by some other name; therefore, he findeth himself on the left hand of God. <sup>5:11</sup>And I would that ye should remember also, that this is the name that I said I should give unto you that never should be blotted out, except it be through transgression; therefore, take heed that ye do not transgress, that the name be not blotted out of your hearts. <sup>5:12</sup>I say unto you, I would that ye should remember to retain the name written always in your hearts, that ye are not found on the left hand of God, but that ye hear and know the voice by which ye shall be called, and also, the name by which he shall call you. <sup>5:13</sup>For how knoweth a man the master whom he has not served, and who is a stranger unto him, and is far from the thoughts and intents of his heart? <sup>5:14</sup>And again, doth a man take an ass which belongeth to his neighbor, and keep him? I say unto you, Nay; he will not even suffer that he shall feed among his flocks, but will drive him away, and cast him out. I say unto you, that even so shall it be among you if ye know not the name by which ye are called. <sup>5:15</sup>Therefore, I would that ye should be steadfast and immovable, always abounding in good works, that Christ, the Lord God Omnipotent, may seal you his, that you may be brought to heaven, that ye may have everlasting salvation and eternal life, through the wisdom, and power, and justice, and mercy of him who created all things, in heaven and in earth, who is God above all. Amen. <sup><IV>6:1</sup>And now, king Benjamin thought it was expedient, after having finished speaking to the people, that he should take the names of all those who had entered into a covenant with God to keep his commandments. <sup>6:2</sup>And it came to pass that there was not one soul, except it were little children, but who had entered into the covenant and had taken upon them the name of Christ. <sup>6:3</sup>And again, it came to pass that when king Benjamin had made an end of all these things, and had consecrated his son Mosiah to be a ruler and a king over his people, and had given him all the charges concerning the kingdom, and also had appointed priests to teach the people, that thereby they might hear and know the commandments of God, and to stir them up in remembrance of the oath which they had made, he dismissed the multitude, and they returned, every one, according to their families, to their own houses. <sup>6:4</sup>And Mosiah began to reign in his father's stead. And he began to reign in the thirtieth year of his age, making in the whole, about four hundred and seventy-six years from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem. <sup>6:5</sup>And king Benjamin lived three years and he died. <sup>6:6</sup>And it came to pass that king Mosiah did walk in the ways of the Lord, and did observe his judgments and his statutes, and did keep his commandments in all things whatsoever he commanded him. <sup>6:7</sup>And king Mosiah did cause his people that they should till the earth. And he also, himself, did till the earth, that thereby he might not become burdensome to his people, that he might do according to that which his father had done in all things. And there was no contention among all his people for the space of three years. <sup><v>7:1</sup>And now, it came to pass that after king Mosiah had had continual peace for the space of three years, he was desirous to know concerning the people who went up to dwell in the land of Lehi-Nephi, or in the city of Lehi-Nephi; for his people had heard nothing from them from the time they left the land of Zarahemla; therefore, they wearied him with their teasings. <sup>7:2</sup>And it came to pass that king Mosiah granted that sixteen of their strong men might go up to the land of Lehi-Nephi, to inquire concerning their brethren. <sup>7:3</sup>And it came to pass that on the morrow they started to go up, having with them one Ammon, he being a strong and mighty man, and a descendant of Zarahemla; and he was also their leader. <sup>7:4</sup>And now, they knew not the course they should travel in the wilderness to go up to the land of Lehi-Nephi; therefore they wandered many days in the wilderness, even forty days did they wander. <sup>7:5</sup>And when they had wandered forty days they came to a hill, which is north of the land of Shilom, and there they pitched their tents. <sup>7:6</sup>And Ammon took three of his brethren, and their names were Amaleki, Helem, and Hem, and they went down into the land of Nephi. <sup>7:7</sup>And behold, they met the king of the people who were in the land of Nephi, and in the land of Shilom; and they were surrounded by the king's guard, and were taken, and were bound, and were committed to prison. <sup>7:8</sup>And it came to pass when they had been in prison two days they were again brought before the king, and their bands were loosed; and they stood before the king, and were permitted, or rather commanded, that they should answer the questions which he should ask them. <sup>7:9</sup>And he said unto them: Behold, I am Limhi, the son of Noah, who was the son of Zeniff, who came up out of the land of Zarahemla to inherit this land, which was the land of their fathers, who was made a king by the voice of the people. <sup>7:10</sup>And now, I desire to know the cause whereby ye were so bold as to come near the walls of the city, when I, myself, was with my guards without the gate? <sup>7:11</sup>And now, for this cause have I suffered that ye should be preserved, that I might inquire of you, or else I should have caused that my guards should have put you to death. Ye are permitted to speak. <sup>7:12</sup>And now, when Ammon saw that he was permitted to speak, he went forth and bowed himself before the king; and rising again he said: O king, I am very thankful before God this day that I am yet alive, and am permitted to speak; and I will endeavor to speak with boldness; <sup>7:13</sup>for I am assured that if ye had known me ye would not have suffered that I should have worn these bands. For I am Ammon, and am a descendant of Zarahemla, and have come up out of the land of Zarahemla to inquire concerning our brethren, whom Zeniff brought up out of that land. <sup>7:14</sup>And now, it came to pass that after Limhi had heard the words of Ammon, he was exceedingly glad, and said: Now, I know of a surety that my brethren who were in the land of Zarahemla are yet alive. And now, I will rejoice; and on the morrow I will cause that my people shall rejoice also. <sup>7:15</sup>For behold, we are in bondage to the Lamanites, and are taxed with a tax which is grievous to be borne. And now, behold, our brethren will deliver us out of our bondage, or out of the hands of the Lamanites, and we will be their slaves; for it is better that we be slaves to the Nephites than to pay tribute to the king of the Lamanites. <sup>7:16</sup>And now, king Limhi commanded his guards that they should no more bind Ammon nor his brethren, but caused that they should go to the hill which was north of Shilom, and bring their brethren into the city, that thereby they might eat, and drink, and rest themselves from the labors of their journey; for they had suffered many things; they had suffered hunger, thirst, and fatigue. <sup>7:17</sup>And now, it came to pass on the morrow that king Limhi sent a proclamation among all his people, that thereby they might gather themselves together to the temple, to hear the words which he should speak unto them. <sup>7:18</sup>And it came to pass that when they had gathered themselves together that he spake unto them in this wise, saying: O ye, my people, lift up your heads and be comforted; for behold, the time is at hand, or is not far distant, when we shall no longer be in subjection to our enemies, notwithstanding our many strugglings, which have been in vain; yet I trust there remaineth an effectual struggle to be made. <sup>7:19</sup>Therefore, lift up your heads, and rejoice, and put your trust in God, in that God who was the God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob; and also, that God who brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, and caused that they should walk through the Red Sea on dry ground, and fed them with manna that they might not perish in the wilderness; and many more things did he do for them. <sup>7:20</sup>And again, that same God has brought our fathers out of the land of Jerusalem, and has kept and preserved his people even until now; and behold, it is because of our iniquities and abominations that he has brought us into bondage. <sup>7:21</sup>And ye all are witnesses this day, that Zeniff, who was made king over this people, he being over-zealous to inherit the land of his fathers, therefore being deceived by the cunning and craftiness of king Laman, who having entered into a treaty with king Zeniff, and having yielded up into his hands the possessions of a part of the land, or even the city of Lehi-Nephi, and the city of Shilom; and the land round about—<sup>7:22</sup>and all this he did, for the sole purpose of bringing this people into subjection or into bondage. And behold, we at this time do pay tribute to the king of the Lamanites, to the amount of one half of our corn, and our barley, and even all our grain of every kind, and one half of the increase of our flocks and our herds; and even one half of all we have or possess the king of the Lamanites doth exact of us, or our lives. <sup>7:23</sup>And now, is not this grievous to be borne? And is not this, our affliction, great? Now behold, how great reason we have to mourn. <sup>7:24</sup>Yea, I say unto you, great are the reasons which we have to mourn; for behold how many of our brethren have been slain, and their blood has been spilt in vain, and all because of iniquity. <sup>7:25</sup>For if this people had not fallen into transgression the Lord would not have suffered that this great evil should come upon them. But behold, they would not hearken unto his words; but there arose contentions among them, even so much that they did shed blood among themselves. <sup>7:26</sup>And a prophet of the Lord have they slain; yea, a chosen man of God, who told them of their wickedness and abominations, and prophesied of many things which are to come, yea, even the coming of Christ. <sup>7:27</sup>And because he said unto them that Christ was the God, the Father of all things, and said that he should take upon him the image of man, and it should be the image after which man was created in the beginning; or in other words, he said that man was created after the image of God, and that God should come down among the children of men, and take upon him flesh and blood, and go forth upon the face of the earth—<sup>7:28</sup>and now, because he said this, they did put him to death; and many more things did they do which brought down the wrath of God upon them. Therefore, who wondereth that they are in bondage, and that they are smitten with sore afflictions? <sup>7:29</sup>For behold, the Lord hath said: I will not succor my people in the day of their transgression; but I will hedge up their ways that they prosper not; and their doings shall be as a stumbling block before them. <sup>7:30</sup>And again, he saith: If my people shall sow filthiness they shall reap the chaff thereof in the whirlwind; and the effect thereof is poison. <sup>7:31</sup>And again he saith: If my people shall sow filthiness they shall reap the east wind, which bringeth immediate destruction. <sup>7:32</sup>And now, behold, the promise of the Lord is fulfilled, and ye are smitten and afflicted. <sup>7:33</sup>But if ye will turn to the Lord with full purpose of heart, and put your trust in him, and serve him with all diligence of mind, if ye do this, he will, according to his own will and pleasure, deliver you out of bondage. <sup>8:1</sup>And it came to pass that after king Limhi had made an end of speaking to his people, for he spake many things unto them and only a few of them have I written in this book, he told his people all the things concerning their brethren who were in the land of Zarahemla. <sup>8:2</sup>And he caused that Ammon should stand up before the multitude, and rehearse unto them all that had happened unto their brethren from the time that Zeniff went up out of the land even until the time that he himself came up out of the land. <sup>8:3</sup>And he also rehearsed unto them the last words which king Benjamin had taught them, and explained them to the people of king Limhi, so that they might understand all the words which he

spake. <sup>8:4</sup>And it came to pass that after he had done all this, that king Limhi dismissed the multitude, and caused that they should return every one unto his own house. <sup>8:5</sup>And it came to pass that he caused that the plates which contained the record of his people from the time that they left the land of Zarahemla, should be brought before Ammon, that he might read them. <sup>8:6</sup>Now, as soon as Ammon had read the record, the king inquired of him to know if he could interpret languages, and Ammon told him that he could not. <sup>8:7</sup>And the king said unto him: Being grieved for the afflictions of my people, I caused that forty and three of my people should take a journey into the wilderness, that thereby they might find the land of Zarahemla, that we might appeal unto our brethren to deliver us out of bondage. <sup>8:8</sup>And they were lost in the wilderness for the space of many days, yet they were diligent, and found not the land of Zarahemla but returned to this land, having traveled in a land among many waters, having discovered a land which was covered with bones of men, and of beasts, and was also covered with ruins of buildings of every kind, having discovered a land which had been peopled with a people who were as numerous as the hosts of Israel. <sup>8:9</sup>And for a testimony that the things that they had said are true they have brought twenty-four plates which are filled with engravings, and they are of pure gold. <sup>8:10</sup>And behold, also, they have brought breastplates, which are large, and they are of brass and of copper, and are perfectly sound. <sup>8:11</sup>And again, they have brought swords, the hilts thereof have perished, and the blades thereof were cankered with rust; and there is no one in the land that is able to interpret the language or the engravings that are on the plates. Therefore I said unto thee: Canst thou translate? <sup>8:12</sup>And I say unto thee again: Knowest thou of any one that can translate? For I am desirous that these records should be translated into our language; for, perhaps, they will give us a knowledge of a remnant of the people who have been destroyed, from whence these records came; or, perhaps, they will give us a knowledge of this very people who have been destroyed; and I am desirous to know the cause of their destruction. <sup>8:13</sup>Now Ammon said unto him: I can assuredly tell thee, O king, of a man that can translate the records; for he has wherewith that he can look, and translate all records that are of ancient date; and it is a gift from God. And the things are called interpreters, and no man can look in them except he be commanded, lest he should look for that he ought not and he should perish. And whosoever is commanded to look in them, the same is called seer. <sup>8:14</sup>And behold, the king of the people who are in the land of Zarahemla is the man that is commanded to do these things, and who has this high gift from God. <sup>8:15</sup>And the king said that a seer is greater than a prophet. <sup>8:16</sup>And Ammon said that a seer is a revelator and a prophet also; and a gift which is greater can no man have, except he should possess the power of God, which no man can; yet a man may have great power given him from God. <sup>8:17</sup>But a seer can know of things which are past, and also of things which are to come, and by them shall all things be revealed, or, rather, shall secret things be made manifest, and hidden things shall come to light, and things which are not known shall be made known by them, and also things shall be made known by them which otherwise could not be known. <sup>8:18</sup>Thus God has provided a means that man, through faith, might work mighty miracles; therefore he becometh a great benefit to his fellow beings. <sup>8:19</sup>And now, when Ammon had made an end of speaking these words the king rejoiced exceedingly, and gave thanks to God, saying: Doubtless a great mystery is contained within these plates, and these interpreters were doubtless prepared for the purpose of unfolding all such mysteries to the children of men. <sup>8:20</sup>O how marvelous are the works of the Lord, and how long doth he suffer with his people; yea, and how blind and impenetrable are the understandings of the children of men; for they will not seek wisdom, neither do they desire that she should rule over them! <sup>8:21</sup>Yea, they are as a wild flock which fleeth from the shepherd, and scattereth, and are driven, and are devoured by the beasts of the forest. <VT>

The Record of Zeniff An account of his people, from the time they left the land of Zarahemla until the time that they were delivered out of the hands of the Lamanites. <sup>9:1</sup>I, Zeniff, having been taught in all the language of the Nephites, and having had a knowledge of the land of Nephi, or of the land of our fathers' first inheritance, and having been sent as a spy among the Lamanites that I might spy out their forces, that our army might come upon them and destroy them—but when I saw that which was good among them I was desirous that they should not be destroyed. <sup>9:2</sup>Therefore, I contended with my brethren in the wilderness, for I would that our ruler should make a treaty with them; but he being an austere and a blood-thirsty man commanded that I should be slain; but I was rescued by the shedding of much blood; for father fought against father, and brother against brother, until the greater number of our army was destroyed in the wilderness; and we returned, those of us that were spared, to the land of Zarahemla, to relate that tale to their wives and their children. <sup>9:3</sup>And yet, I being over-zealous to inherit the land of our fathers, collected as many as were desirous to go up to possess the land, and started again on our journey into the wilderness to go up to the land; but we were smitten with famine and sore afflictions; for we were slow to remember the Lord our God. <sup>9:4</sup>Nevertheless, after many days' wandering in the wilderness we pitched our tents in the place where our brethren were slain, which was near to the land of our fathers. <sup>9:5</sup>And it came to pass that I went again with four of my men into the city, in unto the king, that I might know of the disposition of the king, and that I might know if I might go in with my people and possess the land in peace. <sup>9:6</sup>And I went in unto the king, and he covenanted with me that I might possess the land of Lehi-Nephi, and the land of Shilom. <sup>9:7</sup>And he also commanded that his people should depart out of the land, and I and my people went into the land that we might possess it. <sup>9:8</sup>And we began to build buildings, and to repair the walls of the city, yea, even the walls of the city of Lehi-Nephi, and the city of Shilom. <sup>9:9</sup>And we began to till the ground, yea, even with all manner of seeds, with seeds of corn, and of wheat, and of barley, and with neas, and with sheum, and with seeds of all manner of fruits; and we did begin to multiply and prosper in the land. <sup>9:10</sup>Now it was the cunning and the craftiness of king Laman, to bring my people into bondage, that he yielded up the land that we might possess it. <sup>9:11</sup>Therefore it came to pass, that after we had dwelt in the land for the space of twelve years that king Laman began to grow uneasy, lest by any means my people should wax strong in the land, and that they could not overpower them and bring them into bondage. <sup>9:12</sup>Now they were a lazy and an idolatrous people; therefore they were desirous to bring us into bondage, that they might glut themselves with the labors of our hands; yea, that they might feast themselves upon the flocks of our fields. <sup>9:13</sup>Therefore it came to pass that king Laman began to stir up his people that they should contend with my people; therefore there began to be wars and contentions in the land. <sup>9:14</sup>For, in the thirteenth year of my reign in the land of Nephi, away on the south of the land of Shilom, when my people were watering and feeding their flocks, and tilling their lands, a numerous host of Lamanites came upon them and began to slay them, and to take off their flocks, and the corn of their fields. <sup>9:15</sup>Yea, and it came to pass that they fled, all that were not overtaken, even into the city of Nephi, and did call upon me for protection. <sup>9:16</sup>And it came to pass that I did arm them with bows, and with arrows, with swords, and with cimeters, and with clubs, and with slings, and with all manner of weapons which we could invent, and I and my people did go forth against the Lamanites to battle. <sup>9:17</sup>Yea, in the strength of the Lord did we go forth to battle against the Lamanites; for I and my people did cry mightily to the Lord that he would deliver us out of the hands of our enemies, for we were awakened to a remembrance of the deliverance of our fathers. <sup>9:18</sup>And God did hear our cries and did answer our prayers; and we did go forth in his might; yea, we did go forth against the Lamanites, and in one day and a night we did slay three thousand and forty-three; we did slay them even until we had driven them out of our land. <sup>9:19</sup>And I, myself, with mine own hands, did help to bury their dead. And behold, to our great sorrow and lamentation, two hundred and seventy-nine of our brethren were slain. <sup>10:1</sup>And it came to pass that we again began to establish the kingdom and we again began to possess the land in peace. And I caused that there should be weapons of war made of every kind, that thereby I might have weapons for my people against the time the Lamanites should come up again to war against my people. <sup>10:2</sup>And I set guards round about the land, that the Lamanites might not come upon us again unawares and destroy us; and thus I did guard my people and my flocks, and keep them from falling into the hands of our enemies. <sup>10:3</sup>And it came to pass that we did inherit the land of our fathers for many years, yea, for the space of twenty and two years. <sup>10:4</sup>And I did cause that the men should till the ground, and raise all manner of grain and all manner of fruit of every kind. <sup>10:5</sup>And I did cause that the women should spin, and toil, and work, and work all manner of fine linen, yea, and cloth of every kind, that we might clothe our nakedness; and thus we did prosper in the land—thus we did have continual peace in the land for the space of twenty and two years. <sup>10:6</sup>And it came to pass that king Laman died, and his son began to reign in his stead. And he began to stir his people up in rebellion against my people; therefore they began to prepare for war, and to come up to battle against my people. <sup>10:7</sup>But I had sent my spies out round about the land of Shemlon, that I might discover their preparations, that I might guard against them, that they might not come upon my people and destroy them.

<sup>10:8</sup>And it came to pass that they came up upon the north of the land of Shilom, with their numerous hosts, men armed with bows, and with arrows, and with swords, and with cimeters, and with stones, and with slings; and they had their heads shaved that they were naked; and they were girded with a leathern girdle about their loins. <sup>10:9</sup>And it came to pass that I caused that the women and children of my people should be hid in the wilderness; and I also caused that all my old men that could bear arms, and also all my young men that were able to bear arms, should gather themselves together to go to battle against the Lamanites; and I did place them in their ranks, every man according to his age.

<sup>10:10</sup>And it came to pass that we did go up to battle against the Lamanites; and I, even I, in my old age, did go up to battle against the Lamanites. And it came to pass that we did go up in the strength of the Lord to battle. <sup>10:11</sup>Now, the Lamanites knew nothing concerning the Lord, nor the strength of the Lord, therefore they depended upon their own strength. Yet they were a strong people, as to the strength of men. <sup>10:12</sup>They were a wild, and ferocious, and a blood-thirsty people, believing in the tradition of their fathers, which is this — Believing that they were driven out of the land of Jerusalem because of the iniquities of their fathers, and that they were wronged in the wilderness by their brethren, and they were also wronged while crossing the sea; <sup>10:13</sup>and again, that they were wronged while in the land of their first inheritance, after they had crossed the sea, and all this because that Nephi was more faithful in keeping the commandments of the Lord — therefore he was favored of the Lord, for the Lord heard his prayers and answered them, and he took the lead of their journey in the wilderness. <sup>10:14</sup>And his brethren were wroth with him because they understood not the dealings of the Lord; they were also wroth with him upon the waters because they hardened their hearts against the Lord. <sup>10:15</sup>And again, they were wroth with him when they had arrived in the promised land, because they said that he had taken the ruling of the people out of their hands; and they sought to kill him. <sup>10:16</sup>And again, they were wroth with him because he departed into the wilderness as the Lord had commanded him, and took the records which were engraven on the plates of brass, for they said that he robbed them. <sup>10:17</sup>And thus they have taught their children that they should hate them, and that they should murder them, and that they should rob and plunder them, and do all they could to destroy them; therefore they have an eternal hatred towards the children of Nephi. <sup>10:18</sup>For this very cause has king Laman, by his cunning, and lying craftiness, and his fair promises, deceived me, that I have brought this my people up into this land, that they may destroy them; yea, and we have suffered these many years in the land. <sup>10:19</sup>And now I, Zeniff, after having told all these things unto my people concerning the Lamanites, I did stimulate them to go to battle with their might, putting their trust in the Lord; therefore, we did contend with them, face to face. <sup>10:20</sup>And it came to pass that we did drive them again out of our land; and we slew them with a great slaughter, even so many that we did not number them. <sup>10:21</sup>And it came to pass that we returned again to our own land, and my people again began to tend their flocks, and to till their ground. <sup>10:22</sup>And now I, being old, did confer the kingdom upon one of my sons; therefore, I say no more. And may the Lord bless my people. Amen. <sup><VII>11:1</sup>And now it came to pass that Zeniff conferred the kingdom upon Noah, one of his sons; therefore Noah began to reign in his stead; and he did not walk in the ways of his father. <sup>11:2</sup>For behold, he did not keep the commandments of God, but he did walk after the desires of his own heart. And he had many wives and concubines. And he did cause his people to commit sin, and do that which was abominable in the sight of the Lord. Yea, and they did commit whoredoms and all manner of wickedness. <sup>11:3</sup>And he laid a tax of one fifth part of all they possessed, a fifth part of their gold and of their silver, and a fifth part of their ziff, and of their copper, and of their brass and their iron; and a fifth part of their fatlings; and also a fifth part of all their grain. <sup>11:4</sup>And all this did he take to support himself, and his wives and his concubines; and also his priests, and their wives and their concubines; thus he had changed the affairs of the kingdom. <sup>11:5</sup>For he put down all the priests that had been consecrated by his father, and consecrated new ones in their stead, such as were lifted up in the pride of their hearts. <sup>11:6</sup>Yea, and thus they were supported in their laziness, and in their idolatry, and in their whoredoms, by the taxes which king Noah had put upon his people; thus did the people labor exceedingly to support iniquity. <sup>11:7</sup>Yea, and they also became idolatrous, because they were deceived by the vain and flattering words of the king and priests; for they did speak flattering things unto them. <sup>11:8</sup>And it came to pass that king Noah built many elegant and spacious buildings; and he ornamented them with fine work of wood, and of all manner of precious things, of gold, and of silver, and of iron, and of brass, and of ziff, and of copper; <sup>11:9</sup>and he also built him a spacious palace, and a throne in the midst thereof, all of which was of fine wood and was ornamented with gold and silver and with precious things. <sup>11:10</sup>And he also caused that his workmen should work all manner of fine work within the walls of the temple, of fine wood, and of copper, and of brass. <sup>11:11</sup>And the seats which were set apart for the high priests, which were above all the other seats, he did ornament with pure gold; and he caused a breastwork to be built before them, that they might rest their bodies and their arms upon while they should speak lying and vain words to his people. <sup>11:12</sup>And it came to pass that he built a tower near the temple; yea, a very high tower, even so high that he could stand upon the top thereof and overlook the land of Shilom, and also the land of Shemlon, which was possessed by the Lamanites; and he could even look over all the land round about. <sup>11:13</sup>And it came to pass that he caused many buildings to be built in the land Shilom; and he caused a great tower to be built on the hill north of the land Shilom, which had been a resort for the children of Nephi at the time they fled out of the land; and thus he did do with the riches which he obtained by the taxation of his people. <sup>11:14</sup>And it came to pass that he placed his heart upon his riches, and he spent his time in riotous living with his wives and his concubines; and so did also his priests spend their time with harlots. <sup>11:15</sup>And it came to pass that he planted vineyards round about in the land; and he built wine-presses, and made wine in abundance; and therefore he became a wine-bibber, and also his people. <sup>11:16</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites began to come in upon his people, upon small numbers, and to slay them in their fields, and while they were tending their flocks. <sup>11:17</sup>And king Noah sent guards round about the land to keep them off; but he did not send a sufficient number, and the Lamanites came upon them and killed them, and drove many of their flocks out of the land; thus the Lamanites began to destroy them, and to exercise their hatred upon them. <sup>11:18</sup>And it came to pass that king Noah sent his armies against them, and they were driven back, or they drove them back for a time; therefore, they returned rejoicing in their spoil. <sup>11:19</sup>And now, because of this great victory they were lifted up in the pride of their hearts; they did boast in their own strength, saying that their fifty could stand against thousands of the Lamanites; and thus they did boast, and did delight in blood, and the shedding of the blood of their brethren, and this because of the wickedness of their king and priests. <sup>11:20</sup>And it came to pass that there was a man among them whose name was Abinadi; and he went forth among them, and began to prophesy, saying: Behold, thus saith the Lord, and thus hath he commanded me, saying, Go forth, and say unto this people, thus saith the Lord—Wo be unto this people, for I have seen their abominations, and their wickedness, and their whoredoms; and except they repent I will visit them in mine anger. <sup>11:21</sup>And except they repent and turn to the Lord their God, behold, I will deliver them into the hands of their enemies; yea, and they shall be brought into bondage; and they shall be afflicted by the hand of their enemies. <sup>11:22</sup>And it shall come to pass that they shall know that I am the Lord their God, and am a jealous God, visiting the iniquities of my people. <sup>11:23</sup>And it shall come to pass that except this people repent and turn unto the Lord their God, they shall be brought into bondage; and none shall deliver them, except it be the Lord the Almighty God. <sup>11:24</sup>Yea, and it shall come to pass that when they shall cry unto me I will be slow to hear their cries; yea, and I will suffer them that they be smitten by their enemies. <sup>11:25</sup>And except they repent in sackcloth and ashes, and cry mightily to the Lord their God, I will not hear their prayers, neither will I deliver them out of their afflictions; and thus saith the Lord, and thus hath he commanded me. <sup>11:26</sup>Now it came to pass that when Abinadi had spoken these words unto them they were wroth with him, and sought to take away his life; but the Lord delivered him out of their hands. <sup>11:27</sup>Now when king Noah had heard of the words which Abinadi had spoken unto the people, he was also wroth; and he said: Who is Abinadi, that I and my people should be judged of him, or who is the Lord, that shall bring upon my people such great affliction?

<sup>11:28</sup>I command you to bring Abinadi hither, that I may slay him, for he has said these things that he might stir up my people to anger one with another, and to raise contentions among my people; therefore I will slay him. <sup>11:29</sup>Now the eyes of the people were blinded; therefore they hardened their hearts against the words of Abinadi, and they sought from that time forward to take him. And king Noah hardened his heart against the word of the Lord, and he did not repent of his evil doings. <sup>12:1</sup>And it came to pass that after the space of two years that Abinadi came among them in disguise, that they knew him not, and began to prophesy among them, saying: Thus has the Lord commanded me, saying — Abinadi, go and prophesy unto this my people, for they have hardened their hearts against my words; they have repented not of their evil doings; therefore, I will visit them in my anger, yea, in my fierce anger will I visit them in their iniquities and abominations. <sup>12:2</sup>Yea, wo be unto this generation! And the Lord said unto me: Stretch forth thy hand and prophesy, saying: Thus saith the Lord, it shall come to pass that this generation, because of their iniquities, shall be brought into bondage, and shall be smitten on the cheek; yea, and shall be driven by men, and shall be slain; and the vultures of the air, and the dogs, yea, and the wild beasts, shall devour their flesh. <sup>12:3</sup>And it shall come to pass that the life of king Noah shall be valued even as a garment in a hot furnace; for he shall know that I am the Lord. <sup>12:4</sup>And it shall come to pass that I will smite this my people with sore afflictions, yea, with famine and with pestilence; and I will cause that they shall howl all the day long. <sup>12:5</sup>Yea, and I will cause that they shall have burdens lashed upon their backs; and they shall be driven before like a dumb ass. <sup>12:6</sup>And it shall come to pass that I will send forth hail among them, and it shall smite them; and they shall also be smitten with the east wind; and insects shall pester their land also, and devour their grain. <sup>12:7</sup>And they shall be smitten with a great pestilence — and all this will I do because of their iniquities and abominations. <sup>12:8</sup>And it shall come to pass that except they repent I will utterly destroy them from off the face of the earth; yet they shall leave a record behind them, and I will preserve them for other nations which shall possess the land; yea, even this will I do that I may discover the abominations of this people to other nations. And many things did Abinadi prophesy against this people. <sup>12:9</sup>And it came to pass that they were angry with him; and they took him and carried him bound before the king, and said unto the king: Behold, we have brought a man before thee who has prophesied evil concerning thy people, and saith that God will destroy them. <sup>12:10</sup>And he also prophesieth evil concerning thy life, and saith that thy life shall be as a garment in a furnace of fire. <sup>12:11</sup>And again, he saith that thou shalt be as a stalk, even as a dry stalk of the field, which is run over by the beasts and trodden under foot. <sup>12:12</sup>And again, he saith thou shalt be as the blossoms of a thistle, which, when it is fully ripe, if the wind bloweth, it is driven forth upon the face of the land. And he pretendeth the Lord hath spoken it. And he saith all this shall come upon thee except thou repent, and this because of thine iniquities.

<sup>12:13</sup>And now, O king, what great evil hast thou done, or what great sins have thy people committed, that we should be condemned of God or judged of this man?

<sup>12:14</sup>And now, O king, behold, we are guiltless, and thou, O king, hast not sinned; therefore, this man has lied concerning you, and he has prophesied in vain.

<sup>12:15</sup>And behold, we are strong, we shall not come into bondage, or be taken captive by our enemies; yea, and thou hast prospered in the land, and thou shalt also prosper. <sup>12:16</sup>Behold, here is the man, we deliver him into thy hands; thou mayest do with him as seemeth thee good. <sup>12:17</sup>And it came to pass that king Noah caused that Abinadi should be cast into prison; and he commanded that the priests should gather themselves together that he might hold a council with them what he should do with him. <sup>12:18</sup>And it came to pass that they said unto the king: Bring him hither that we may question him; and the king commanded that he should be brought before them. <sup>12:19</sup>And they began to question him, that they might cross him, that thereby they might have wherewith to accuse him; but he answered them boldly, and withstood all their questions, yea, to their astonishment; for he did withstand them in all their questions, and did confound them in all their words. <sup>12:20</sup>And it came to pass that one of them said unto him: What meaneth the words which are written, and which have been taught by our fathers, saying: <sup>12:21</sup>How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings; that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good; that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth; <sup>12:22</sup>thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing; for they shall see eye to eye when the Lord shall bring again Zion; <sup>12:23</sup>break forth into joy; sing together ye waste places of Jerusalem; for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem; <sup>12:24</sup>the Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God? <sup>12:25</sup>And now Abinadi said unto them: Are you priests, and pretend to teach this people, and to understand the spirit of prophesying, and yet desire to know of me what these things mean? <sup>12:26</sup>I say unto you, wo be unto you for perverting the ways of the Lord! For if ye understand these things ye have not taught them; therefore, ye have perverted the ways of the Lord. <sup>12:27</sup>Ye have not applied your hearts to understanding; therefore, ye have not been wise. Therefore, what teach ye this people? <sup>12:28</sup>And they said: We teach the law of Moses. <sup>12:29</sup>And again he said unto them: If ye teach the law of Moses why do ye not keep it? Why do ye set your hearts upon riches? Why do ye commit whoredoms and spend your strength with harlots, yea, and cause this people to commit sin, that the Lord has cause to send me to prophesy against this people, yea, even a great evil against this people? <sup>12:30</sup>Know ye not that I speak the truth? Yea, ye know that I speak the truth; and you ought to tremble before God.

<sup>12:31</sup>And it shall come to pass that ye shall be smitten for your iniquities, for ye have said that ye teach the law of Moses. And what know ye concerning the law of Moses? Doth salvation come by the law of Moses? What say ye? <sup>12:32</sup>And they answered and said that salvation did come by the law of Moses. <sup>12:33</sup>But now

Abinadi said unto them: I know if ye keep the commandments of God ye shall be saved; yea, if ye keep the commandments which the Lord delivered unto Moses in the mount of Sinai, saying: <sup>12:34</sup>I am the Lord thy God, who hath brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>12:35</sup>Thou shalt have no other God before me. <sup>12:36</sup>Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing in heaven above, or things which are in the earth beneath. <sup>12:37</sup>Now Abinadi said unto them, Have ye done all this? I say unto you, Nay, ye have not. And have ye taught this people that they should do all these things? I say unto you, Nay, ye have not. <sup>13:1</sup>And now when the king had heard these words, he said unto his priests: Away with this fellow, and slay him; for what have we to do with him, for he is mad. <sup>13:2</sup>And they stood forth and attempted to lay their hands on him; but he withstood them, and said unto them: <sup>13:3</sup>Touch me not, for God shall smite you if ye lay your hands upon me, for I have not delivered the message which the Lord sent me to deliver; neither have I told you that which ye requested that I should tell; therefore, God will not suffer that I shall be destroyed at this time. <sup>13:4</sup>But I must fulfil the commandments wherewith God has commanded me; and because I have told you the truth ye are angry with me. And again, because I have spoken the word of God ye have judged me that I am mad. <sup>13:5</sup>Now it came to pass after Abinadi had spoken these words that the people of king Noah durst not lay their hands on him, for the Spirit of the Lord was upon him; and his face shone with exceeding luster, even as Moses' did while in the mount of Sinai, while speaking with the Lord. <sup>13:6</sup>And he spake with power and authority from God; and he continued his words, saying: <sup>13:7</sup>Ye see that ye have not power to slay me, therefore I finish my message. Yea, and I perceive that it cuts you to your hearts because I tell you the truth concerning your iniquities. <sup>13:8</sup>Yea, and my words fill you with wonder and amazement, and with anger. <sup>13:9</sup>But I finish my message; and then it matters not whither I go, if it so be that I am saved. <sup>13:10</sup>But this much I tell you, what you do with me, after this, shall be as a type and a shadow of things which are to come. <sup>13:11</sup>And now I read unto you the remainder of the commandments of God, for I perceive that they are not written in your hearts; I perceive that ye have studied and taught iniquity the most part of your lives. <sup>13:12</sup>And now, ye remember that I said unto you: Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of things which are in heaven above, or which are in the earth beneath, or which are in the water under the earth. <sup>13:13</sup>And again: Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquities of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generations of them that hate me; <sup>13:14</sup>and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments. <sup>13:15</sup>Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. <sup>13:16</sup>Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. <sup>13:17</sup>Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; <sup>13:18</sup>but the seventh day, the sabbath of the Lord thy God, thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; <sup>13:19</sup>for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is; wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. <sup>13:20</sup>Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. <sup>13:21</sup>Thou shalt not kill. <sup>13:22</sup>Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not steal. <sup>13:23</sup>Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor. <sup>13:24</sup>Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's. <sup><VIII>13:25</sup>And it came to pass that after Abinadi had made an end of these sayings that he said unto them: Have ye taught this people that they should observe to do all these things for to keep these commandments? <sup>13:26</sup>I say unto you, Nay; for if ye had, the Lord would not have caused me to come forth and to prophesy evil concerning this people. <sup>13:27</sup>And now ye have said that salvation cometh by the law of Moses. I say unto you that it is expedient that ye should keep the law of Moses as yet; but I say unto you, that the time shall come when it shall no more be expedient to keep the law of Moses. <sup>13:28</sup>And moreover, I say unto you, that salvation doth not come by the law alone; and were it not for the atonement, which God himself shall make for the sins and iniquities of his people, that they must unavoidably perish, notwithstanding the law of Moses. <sup>13:29</sup>And now I say unto you that it was expedient that there should be a law given to the children of Israel, yea, even a very strict law; for they were a stiffnecked people, quick to do iniquity, and slow to remember the Lord their God; <sup>13:30</sup>therefore there was a law given them, yea, a law of performances and of ordinances, a law which they were to observe strictly from day to day, to keep them in remembrance of God and their duty towards him. <sup>13:31</sup>But behold, I say unto you, that all these things were types of things to come. <sup>13:32</sup>And now, did they understand the law? I say unto you, Nay, they did not all understand the law; and this because of the hardness of their hearts; for they understood not that there could not any man be saved except it were through the redemption of God. <sup>13:33</sup>For behold, did not Moses prophesy unto them concerning the coming of the Messiah, and that God should redeem his people? Yea, and even all the prophets who have prophesied ever since the world began—have they not spoken more or less concerning these things? <sup>13:34</sup>Have they not said that God himself should come down among the children of men, and take upon him the form of man, and go forth in mighty power upon the face of the earth? <sup>13:35</sup>Yea, and have they not said also that he should bring to pass the resurrection of the dead, and that he, himself, should be oppressed and afflicted? <sup>14:1</sup>Yea, even doth not Isaiah say: Who hath believed our report, and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? <sup>14:2</sup>For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground; he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him there is no beauty that we should desire him. <sup>14:3</sup>He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. <sup>14:4</sup>Surely he has borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. <sup>14:5</sup>But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. <sup>14:6</sup>All we, like sheep, have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquities of us all. <sup>14:7</sup>He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb so he opened not his mouth. <sup>14:8</sup>He was taken from prison and from judgment; and who shall declare his generation? For he was cut off out of the land of the living; for the transgressions of my people was he stricken. <sup>14:9</sup>And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no evil, neither was any deceit in his mouth. <sup>14:10</sup>Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief; when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand. <sup>14:11</sup>He shall see the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied; by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. <sup>14:12</sup>Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death; and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bore the sins of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. <sup>15:1</sup>And now Abinadi said unto them: I would that ye should understand that God himself shall come down among the children of men, and shall redeem his people. <sup>15:2</sup>And because he dwelleth in flesh he shall be called the Son of God, and having subjected the flesh to the will of the Father, being the Father and the Son — <sup>15:3</sup>the Father, because he was conceived by the power of God; and the Son, because of the flesh; thus becoming the Father and Son — <sup>15:4</sup>and they are one God, yea, the very Eternal Father of heaven and of earth. <sup>15:5</sup>And thus the flesh becoming subject to the Spirit, or the Son to the Father, being one God, suffereth temptation, and yieldeth not to the temptation, but suffereth himself to be mocked, and scourged, and cast out, and disowned by his people. <sup>15:6</sup>And after all this, after working many mighty miracles among the children of men, he shall be led, yea, even as Isaiah said, as a sheep before the shearer is dumb, so he opened not his mouth. <sup>15:7</sup>Yea, even so he shall be led, crucified, and slain, the flesh becoming subject even unto death, the will of the Son being swallowed up in the will of the Father. <sup>15:8</sup>And thus God breaketh the bands of death, having gained the victory over death; giving the Son power to make intercession for the children of men — <sup>15:9</sup>having ascended into heaven, having the bowels of mercy; being filled with compassion towards the children of men; standing betwixt them and justice; having broken the bands of death, taken upon himself their iniquity and their transgressions, having redeemed them, and satisfied the demands of justice. <sup>15:10</sup>And now I say unto you, who shall declare his generation? Behold, I say unto you, that when his soul has been made an offering for sin he shall see his seed. And now what say ye? And who shall be his seed? <sup>15:11</sup>Behold I say unto you, that whosoever has heard the words of the prophets, yea, all the holy prophets who have prophesied concerning the coming of the Lord—I say unto you, that all those who have hearkened unto their words, and believed that the Lord would redeem his people, and have looked forward to that day for a remission of their sins, I say unto you, that these are his seed, or they are the heirs of the kingdom of God. <sup>15:12</sup>For these are they whose sins he has borne; these are they for whom he has died, to redeem them from their transgressions. And now, are they not his seed? <sup>15:13</sup>Yea, and are not the prophets, every one that has opened his mouth to prophesy, that has not fallen into transgression, I mean all the holy prophets ever since the world began? I say unto you that they are his seed. <sup>15:14</sup>And these are they who have published peace, who have brought good tidings of good, who have published salvation; and said unto Zion: Thy God reigneth! <sup>15:15</sup>And O how beautiful upon the mountains were their feet! <sup>15:16</sup>And again, how beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of those that are still publishing peace! <sup>15:17</sup>And again, how beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of those who shall hereafter publish peace, yea, from this time henceforth and forever! <sup>15:18</sup>And behold, I say unto you, this is not all. For O how beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that is the founder of peace, yea, even the Lord, who has redeemed his people; yea, him who has granted salvation unto his people; <sup>15:19</sup>for were it not for the redemption which he hath made for his people, which was prepared from the foundation of the world, I say unto you, were it not for this, all mankind must have perished. <sup>15:20</sup>But behold, the bands of death shall be broken, and the Son reigneth, and hath power over the dead; therefore, he bringeth to pass the resurrection of the dead. <sup>15:21</sup>And there cometh a resurrection, even a first resurrection; yea, even a resurrection of those that have been, and who are, and who shall be, even until the resurrection of Christ—for so shall he be called. <sup>15:22</sup>And now, the resurrection of all the prophets, and all those that have believed in their words, or all those that have kept the commandments of God, shall come forth in the first resurrection; therefore, they are the first resurrection. <sup>15:23</sup>They are raised to dwell with God who has redeemed them; thus they have eternal life through Christ, who has broken the bands of death. <sup>15:24</sup>And these are those who have part in the first resurrection; and these are they that have died before Christ came, in their ignorance, not having salvation declared unto them. And thus the Lord bringeth about the restoration of these; and they have a part in the first resurrection, or have eternal life, being redeemed by the Lord. <sup>15:25</sup>And little children also have eternal life. <sup>15:26</sup>But behold, and fear, and tremble before God, for ye ought to tremble; for the Lord redeemeth none such that rebel against him and die in their sins; yea, even all those that have perished in their sins ever since the world began, that have wilfully rebelled against God, that have known the commandments of God, and would not keep them; these are they that have no part in the first resurrection. <sup>15:27</sup>Therefore ought ye not to tremble? For salvation cometh to none such; for the Lord hath redeemed none such; yea, neither can the

Lord redeem such; for he cannot deny himself; for he cannot deny justice when it has its claim. <sup>15:28</sup>And now I say unto you that the time shall come that the salvation of the Lord shall be declared to every nation, kindred, tongue, and people. <sup>15:29</sup>Yea, Lord, thy watchmen shall lift up their voice; with the voice together shall they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring again Zion. <sup>15:30</sup>Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. <sup>15:31</sup>The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. <sup>16:1</sup>And now, it came to pass that after Abinadi had spoken these words he stretched forth his hand and said: The time shall come when all shall see the salvation of the Lord; when every nation, kindred, tongue, and people shall see eye to eye and shall confess before God that his judgments are just. <sup>16:2</sup>And then shall the wicked be cast out, and they shall have cause to howl, and weep, and wail, and gnash their teeth; and this because they would not hearken unto the voice of the Lord; therefore the Lord redeemeth them not. <sup>16:3</sup>For they are carnal and devilish, and the devil has power over them; yea, even that old serpent that did beguile our first parents, which was the cause of their fall; which was the cause of all mankind becoming carnal, sensual, devilish, knowing evil from good, subjecting themselves to the devil. <sup>16:4</sup>Thus all mankind were lost; and behold, they would have been endlessly lost were it not that God redeemed his people from their lost and fallen state. <sup>16:5</sup>But remember that he that persists in his own carnal nature, and goes on in the ways of sin and rebellion against God, remaineth in his fallen state and the devil hath all power over him. Therefore, he is as though there was no redemption made, being an enemy to God; and also is the devil an enemy to God. <sup>16:6</sup>And now if Christ had not come into the world, speaking of things to come as though they had already come, there could have been no redemption. <sup>16:7</sup>And if Christ had not risen from the dead, or have broken the bands of death that the grave should have no victory, and that death should have no sting, there could have been no resurrection. <sup>16:8</sup>But there is a resurrection, therefore the grave hath no victory, and the sting of death is swallowed up in Christ. <sup>16:9</sup>He is the light and the life of the world; yea, a light that is endless, that can never be darkened; yea, and also a life which is endless, that there can be no more death. <sup>16:10</sup>Even this mortal shall put on immortality, and this corruption shall put on incorruption, and shall be brought to stand before the bar of God, to be judged of him according to their works whether they be good or whether they be evil — <sup>16:11</sup>if they be good, to the resurrection of endless life and happiness; and if they be evil, to the resurrection of endless damnation, being delivered up to the devil, who hath subjected them, which is damnation — <sup>16:12</sup>having gone according to their own carnal wills and desires; having never called upon the Lord while the arms of mercy were extended towards them; for the arms of mercy were extended towards them, and they would not; they being warned of their iniquities and yet they would not depart from them; and they were commanded to repent and yet they would not repent. <sup>16:13</sup>And now, ought ye not to tremble and repent of your sins, and remember that only in and through Christ ye can be saved? <sup>16:14</sup>Therefore, if ye teach the law of Moses, also teach that it is a shadow of those things which are to come—<sup>16:15</sup>teach them that redemption cometh through Christ the Lord, who is the very Eternal Father. Amen. <IX><sup>17:1</sup>And now it came to pass that when Abinadi had finished these sayings, that the king commanded that the priests should take him and cause that he should be put to death. <sup>17:2</sup>But there was one among them whose name was Alma, he also being a descendant of Nephi. And he was a young man, and he believed the words which Abinadi had spoken, for he knew concerning the iniquity which Abinadi had testified against them; therefore he began to plead with the king that he would not be angry with Abinadi, but suffer that he might depart in peace. <sup>17:3</sup>But the king was more wroth, and caused that Alma should be cast out from among them, and sent his servants after him that they might slay him. <sup>17:4</sup>But he fled from before them and hid himself that they found him not. And he being concealed for many days did write all the words which Abinadi had spoken. <sup>17:5</sup>And it came to pass that the king caused that his guards should surround Abinadi and take him; and they bound him and cast him into prison. <sup>17:6</sup>And after three days, having counseled with his priests, he caused that he should again be brought before him. <sup>17:7</sup>And he said unto him: Abinadi, we have found an accusation against thee, and thou art worthy of death. <sup>17:8</sup>For thou hast said that God himself should come down among the children of men; and now, for this cause thou shalt be put to death unless thou wilt recall all the words which thou hast spoken evil concerning me and my people. <sup>17:9</sup>Now Abinadi said unto him: I say unto you, I will not recall the words which I have spoken unto you concerning this people, for they are true; and that ye may know of their surety I have suffered myself that I have fallen into your hands. <sup>17:10</sup>Yea, and I will suffer even until death, and I will not recall my words, and they shall stand as a testimony against you. And if ye slay me ye will shed innocent blood, and this shall also stand as a testimony against you at the last day. <sup>17:11</sup>And now king Noah was about to release him, for he feared his word; for he feared that the judgments of God would come upon him. <sup>17:12</sup>But the priests lifted up their voices against him, and began to accuse him, saying: He has reviled the king. Therefore the king was stirred up in anger against him, and he delivered him up that he might be slain. <sup>17:13</sup>And it came to pass that they took him and bound him, and scourged his skin with faggots, yea, even unto death. <sup>17:14</sup>And now when the flames began to scorch him, he cried unto them, saying: <sup>17:15</sup>Behold, even as ye have done unto me, so shall it come to pass that thy seed shall cause that many shall suffer the pains that I do suffer, even the pains of death by fire; and this because they believe in the salvation of the Lord their God. <sup>17:16</sup>And it will come to pass that ye shall be afflicted with all manner of diseases because of your iniquities. <sup>17:17</sup>Yea, and ye shall be smitten on every hand, and shall be driven and scattered to and fro, even as a wild flock is driven by wild and ferocious beasts. <sup>17:18</sup>And in that day ye shall be hunted, and ye shall be taken by the hand of your enemies, and then ye shall suffer, as I suffer, the pains of death by fire. <sup>17:19</sup>Thus God executeth vengeance upon those that destroy his people. O God, receive my soul. <sup>17:20</sup>And now, when Abinadi had said these words, he fell, having suffered death by fire; yea, having been put to death because he would not deny the commandments of God, having sealed the truth of his words by his death. <sup>18:1</sup>And now, it came to pass that Alma, who had fled from the servants of king Noah, repented of his sins and iniquities, and went about privately among the people, and began to teach the words of Abinadi—<sup>18:2</sup>yea, concerning that which was to come, and also concerning the resurrection of the dead, and the redemption of the people, which was to be brought to pass through the power, and sufferings, and death of Christ, and his resurrection and ascension into heaven. <sup>18:3</sup>And as many as would hear his word he did teach. And he taught them privately, that it might not come to the knowledge of the king. And many did believe his words. <sup>18:4</sup>And it came to pass that as many as did believe him did go forth to a place which was called Mormon, having received its name from the king, being in the borders of the land having been infested, by times or at seasons, by wild beasts. <sup>18:5</sup>Now, there was in Mormon a fountain of pure water, and Alma resorted thither, there being near the water a thicket of small trees, where he did hide himself in the daytime from the searches of the king. <sup>18:6</sup>And it came to pass that as many as believed him went thither to hear his words. <sup>18:7</sup>And it came to pass after many days there were a goodly number gathered together at the place of Mormon, to hear the words of Alma. Yea, all were gathered together that believed on his word, to hear him. And he did teach them, and did preach unto them repentance, and redemption, and faith on the Lord. <sup>18:8</sup>And it came to pass that he said unto them: Behold, here are the waters of Mormon (for thus were they called) and now, as ye are desirous to come into the fold of God, and to be called his people, and are willing to bear one another's burdens, that they may be light; <sup>18:9</sup>yea, and are willing to mourn with those that mourn; yea, and comfort those that stand in need of comfort, and to stand as witnesses of God at all times and in all things, and in all places that ye may be in, even until death, that ye may be redeemed of God, and be numbered with those of the first resurrection, that ye may have eternal life—<sup>18:10</sup>now I say unto you, if this be the desire of your hearts, what have you against being baptized in the name of the Lord, as a witness before him that ye have entered into a covenant with him, that ye will serve him and keep his commandments, that he may pour out his Spirit more abundantly upon you? <sup>18:11</sup>And now when the people had heard these words, they clapped their hands for joy, and exclaimed: This is the desire of our hearts. <sup>18:12</sup>And now it came to pass that Alma took Helam, he being one of the first, and went and stood forth in the water, and cried, saying: O Lord, pour out thy Spirit upon thy servant, that he may do this work with holiness of heart. <sup>18:13</sup>And when he had said these words, the Spirit of the Lord was upon him, and he said: Helam, I baptize thee, having authority from the Almighty God, as a testimony that ye have entered into a covenant to serve him until you are dead as to the mortal body; and may the Spirit of the Lord be poured out upon you; and may he grant unto you eternal life, through the redemption of Christ, whom he has prepared from the foundation of the world. <sup>18:14</sup>And after Alma had said these words, both Alma and Helam were buried in the water; and they arose and came forth out of the water rejoicing, being filled with the Spirit. <sup>18:15</sup>And again, Alma took another, and went forth a second time into the water, and baptized him according to the first, only he did not bury himself again in the water. <sup>18:16</sup>And after this manner he did baptize every one that went forth to the place of Mormon; and they were in number about two hundred and four souls; yea, and they were baptized in the waters of Mormon, and were filled with the grace of God. <sup>18:17</sup>And they were called the church of God, or the church of Christ, from that time forward. And it came to pass that whosoever was baptized by the power and authority of God was added to his church. <sup>18:18</sup>And it came to pass that Alma, having authority from God, ordained priests; even one priest to every fifty of their number did he ordain to preach unto them, and to teach them concerning the things pertaining to the kingdom of God. <sup>18:19</sup>And he commanded them that they should teach nothing save it were the things which he had taught, and which had been spoken by the mouth of the holy prophets. <sup>18:20</sup>Yea, even he commanded them that they should preach nothing save it were repentance and faith on the Lord, who had redeemed his people. <sup>18:21</sup>And he commanded them that there should be no contention one with another, but that they should look forward with one eye, having one faith and one baptism, having their hearts knit together in unity and in love one towards another. <sup>18:22</sup>And thus he commanded them to preach. And thus they became the children of God. <sup>18:23</sup>And he commanded them that they should observe the sabbath day, and keep it holy, and also every day they should give thanks to the Lord their God. <sup>18:24</sup>And he also commanded them that the priests whom he had ordained should labor with their own hands for their support. <sup>18:25</sup>And there was one day in every week that was set apart that they should gather themselves together to teach the people, and to worship the Lord their God, and also, as often as it was in their power, to assemble themselves together. <sup>18:26</sup>And the priests were not to depend upon the people for their support; but for their labor they were to receive the grace of God, that they might wax strong in the Spirit, having the knowledge of God, that they might teach with power and authority from God. <sup>18:27</sup>And again Alma commanded that the people of the church should impart of their substance, every one according to that which he had; if he have more abundantly he should impart more abundantly; and of him that had but little, but little should be required; and to him that had not should be given. <sup>18:28</sup>And thus they should impart of their substance of their own free will and good desires towards God, and to those priests that stood in need, yea, and to every needy, naked soul. <sup>18:29</sup>And this he said unto them, having been commanded of God; and they did walk uprightly before God, imparting to one another both temporally and spiritually according to their needs and their wants. <sup>18:30</sup>And now it came to pass that all this was done in Mormon, yea, by the waters of Mormon, in the forest that was near the waters of Mormon; yea, the place of Mormon, the waters of Mormon, the forest of Mormon, how beautiful are they to the eyes of them who there came to the knowledge of their Redeemer; yea, and how blessed are they, for they shall sing to his praise forever. <sup>18:31</sup>And these things were done in the borders of the land, that they might not come to the knowledge of the king. <sup>18:32</sup>But behold, it came to pass that the king, having discovered a movement among the people, sent his servants to watch them. Therefore on the day that they were assembling themselves together to hear the word of the Lord they were discovered unto the king. <sup>18:33</sup>And now the king said that Alma was stirring up the people to rebellion against him; therefore he sent his army to destroy them. <sup>18:34</sup>And it came to pass that Alma and the people of the Lord were apprised of the coming of the king's army; therefore they took their tents and their families and departed into the wilderness. <sup>18:35</sup>And they were in number about four hundred and fifty souls. <sup>19:1</sup>And it came to pass that the army of the king returned, having searched in vain for the people of the Lord. <sup>19:2</sup>And now behold, the forces of the king were small, having been reduced, and there began to be a division among the remainder of the people. <sup>19:3</sup>And the lesser part began to breathe out threatenings against the king, and there began to be a great contention among them. <sup>19:4</sup>And now there was a man among them whose name was Gideon, and he being a strong man and an enemy to the king, therefore he drew his sword, and swore in his wrath that he would slay the king. <sup>19:5</sup>And it came to pass that he fought with the king; and when the king saw that he was about to overpower him, he fled and ran and got upon the tower which was near the temple. <sup>19:6</sup>And Gideon pursued after him and was about to get upon the tower to slay the king, and the king cast his eyes round about towards the land of Shemlon, and behold, the army of the Lamanites were within the borders of the land. <sup>19:7</sup>And now the king cried out in the anguish of his soul, saying: Gideon, spare me, for the Lamanites are upon us, and they will destroy us; yea, they will destroy my people. <sup>19:8</sup>And now the king was not so much concerned about his people as he was about his own life; nevertheless, Gideon did spare his life. <sup>19:9</sup>And the king commanded the people that they should flee before the Lamanites, and he himself did go before them, and they did flee into the wilderness, with their women and their children. <sup>19:10</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites did pursue them, and did overtake them, and began to slay them. <sup>19:11</sup>Now it came to pass that the king commanded them that all the men should leave their wives and their children, and flee before the Lamanites. <sup>19:12</sup>Now there were many that would not leave them, but had rather stay and perish with them. And the rest left their wives and their children and fled. <sup>19:13</sup>And it came to pass that those who tarried with their wives and their children caused that their fair daughters should stand forth and plead with the Lamanites that they would not slay them. <sup>19:14</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites had compassion on them, for they were charmed with the beauty of their women. <sup>19:15</sup>Therefore the

Lamanites did spare their lives, and took them captives and carried them back to the land of Nephi, and granted unto them that they might possess the land, under the conditions that they would deliver up king Noah into the hands of the Lamanites, and deliver up their property, even one half of all they possessed, one half of their gold, and their silver, and all their precious things, and thus they should pay tribute to the king of the Lamanites from year to year. <sup>19:16</sup>And now there was one of the sons of the king among those that were taken captive, whose name was Limhi. <sup>19:17</sup>And now Limhi was desirous that his father should not be destroyed; nevertheless, Limhi was not ignorant of the iniquities of his father, he himself being a just man. <sup>19:18</sup>And it came to pass that Gideon sent men into the wilderness secretly, to search for the king and those that were with him. And it came to pass that they met the people in the wilderness, all save the king and his priests. <sup>19:19</sup>Now they had sworn in their hearts that they would return to the land of Nephi, and if their wives and their children were slain, and also those that had tarried with them, that they would seek revenge, and also perish with them. <sup>19:20</sup>And the king commanded them that they should not return; and they were angry with the king, and caused that he should suffer, even unto death by fire. <sup>19:21</sup>And they were about to take the priests also and put them to death, and they fled before them. <sup>19:22</sup>And it came to pass that they were about to return to the land of Nephi, and they met the men of Gideon. And the men of Gideon told them of all that had happened to their wives and their children; and that the Lamanites had granted unto them that they might possess the land by paying a tribute to the Lamanites of one half of all they possessed. <sup>19:23</sup>And the people told the men of Gideon that they had slain the king, and his priests had fled from them farther into the wilderness. <sup>19:24</sup>And it came to pass that after they had ended the ceremony, that they returned to the land of Nephi, rejoicing, because their wives and their children were not slain; and they told Gideon what they had done to the king. <sup>19:25</sup>And it came to pass that the king of the Lamanites made an oath unto them, that his people should not slay them. <sup>19:26</sup>And also Limhi, being the son of the king, having the kingdom conferred upon him by the people, made oath unto the king of the Lamanites that his people should pay tribute unto him, even one half of all they possessed. <sup>19:27</sup>And it came to pass that Limhi began to establish the kingdom and to establish peace among his people. <sup>19:28</sup>And the king of the Lamanites set guards round about the land, that he might keep the people of Limhi in the land, that they might not depart into the wilderness; and he did support his guards out of the tribute which he did receive from the Nephites. <sup>19:29</sup>And now king Limhi did have continual peace in his kingdom for the space of two years, that the Lamanites did not molest them nor seek to destroy them. <sup>20:1</sup>Now there was a place in Shemlon where the daughters of the Lamanites did gather themselves together to sing, and to dance, and to make themselves merry. <sup>20:2</sup>And it came to pass that there was one day a small number of them gathered together to sing and to dance. <sup>20:3</sup>And now the priests of king Noah, being ashamed to return to the city of Nephi, yea, and also fearing that the people would slay them, therefore they durst not return to their wives and their children. <sup>20:4</sup>And having tarried in the wilderness, and having discovered the daughters of the Lamanites, they laid and watched them; <sup>20:5</sup>and when there were but few of them gathered together to dance, they came forth out of their secret places and took them and carried them into the wilderness; yea, twenty and four of the daughters of the Lamanites they carried into the wilderness. <sup>20:6</sup>And it came to pass that when the Lamanites found that their daughters had been missing, they were angry with the people of Limhi, for they thought it was the people of Limhi. <sup>20:7</sup>Therefore they sent their armies forth; yea, even the king himself went before his people; and they went up to the land of Nephi to destroy the people of Limhi. <sup>20:8</sup>And now Limhi had discovered them from the tower, even all their preparations for war did he discover; therefore he gathered his people together, and laid wait for them in the fields and in the forests. <sup>20:9</sup>And it came to pass that when the Lamanites had come up, that the people of Limhi began to fall upon them from their waiting places, and began to slay them. <sup>20:10</sup>And it came to pass that the battle became exceedingly sore, for they fought like lions for their prey. <sup>20:11</sup>And it came to pass that the people of Limhi began to drive the Lamanites before them; yet they were not half so numerous as the Lamanites. But they fought for their lives, and for their wives, and for their children; therefore they exerted themselves and like dragons did they fight. <sup>20:12</sup>And it came to pass that they found the king of the Lamanites among the number of their dead; yet he was not dead, having been wounded and left upon the ground, so speedy was the flight of his people. <sup>20:13</sup>And they took him and bound up his wounds, and brought him before Limhi, and said: Behold, here is the king of the Lamanites; he having received a wound has fallen among their dead, and they have left him; and behold, we have brought him before you; and now let us slay him. <sup>20:14</sup>But Limhi said unto them: Ye shall not slay him, but bring him hither that I may see him. And they brought him. And Limhi said unto him: What cause have ye to come up to war against my people? Behold, my people have not broken the oath that I made unto you; therefore, why should ye break the oath which ye made unto my people? <sup>20:15</sup>And now the king said: I have broken the oath because thy people did carry away the daughters of my people; therefore, in my anger I did cause my people to come up to war against thy people. <sup>20:16</sup>And now Limhi had heard nothing concerning this matter; therefore he said: I will search among my people and whosoever has done this thing shall perish. Therefore he caused a search to be made among his people. <sup>20:17</sup>Now when Gideon had heard these things, he being the king's captain, he went forth and said unto the king: I pray thee forbear, and do not search this people, and lay not this thing to their charge. <sup>20:18</sup>For do ye not remember the priests of thy father, whom this people sought to destroy? And are they not in the wilderness? And are not they the ones who have stolen the daughters of the Lamanites? <sup>20:19</sup>And now, behold, and tell the king of these things, that he may tell his people that they may be pacified towards us; for behold they are already preparing to come against us; and behold also there are but few of us. <sup>20:20</sup>And behold, they come with their numerous hosts; and except the king doth pacify them towards us we must perish. <sup>20:21</sup>For are not the words of Abinadi fulfilled, which he prophesied against us—and all this because we would not hearken unto the words of the Lord, and turn from our iniquities? <sup>20:22</sup>And now let us pacify the king, and we fulfil the oath which we have made unto him; for it is better that we should be in bondage than that we should lose our lives; therefore, let us put a stop to the shedding of so much blood. <sup>20:23</sup>And now Limhi told the king all the things concerning his father, and the priests that had fled into the wilderness, and attributed the carrying away of their daughters to them. <sup>20:24</sup>And it came to pass that the king was pacified towards his people; and he said unto them: Let us go forth to meet my people, without arms; and I swear unto you with an oath that my people shall not slay thy people. <sup>20:25</sup>And it came to pass that they followed the king, and went forth without arms to meet the Lamanites. And it came to pass that they did meet the Lamanites; and the king of the Lamanites did bow himself down before them, and did plead in behalf of the people of Limhi. <sup>20:26</sup>And when the Lamanites saw the people of Limhi, that they were without arms, they had compassion on them and were pacified towards them, and returned with their king in peace to their own land. <sup>21:1</sup>And it came to pass that Limhi and his people returned to the city of Nephi, and began to dwell in the land again in peace. <sup>21:2</sup>And it came to pass that after many days the Lamanites began again to be stirred up in anger against the Nephites, and they began to come into the borders of the land round about. <sup>21:3</sup>Now they durst not slay them, because of the oath which their king had made unto Limhi; but they would smite them on their cheeks, and exercise authority over them; and began to put heavy burdens upon their backs, and drive them as they would a dumb ass—<sup>21:4</sup>yea, all this was done that the word of the Lord might be fulfilled. <sup>21:5</sup>And now the afflictions of the Nephites were great, and there was no way that they could deliver themselves out of their hands, for the Lamanites had surrounded them on every side. <sup>21:6</sup>And it came to pass that the people began to murmur with the king because of their afflictions; and they began to be desirous to go against them to battle. And they did afflict the king sorely with their complaints; therefore he granted unto them that they should do according to their desires. <sup>21:7</sup>And they gathered themselves together again, and put on their armor, and went forth against the Lamanites to drive them out of their land. <sup>21:8</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites did beat them, and drove them back, and slew many of them. <sup>21:9</sup>And now there was a great mourning and lamentation among the people of Limhi, the widow mourning for her husband, the son and the daughter mourning for their father, and the brothers for their brethren. <sup>21:10</sup>Now there were a great many widows in the land, and they did cry mightily from day to day, for a great fear of the Lamanites had come upon them. <sup>21:11</sup>And it came to pass that their continual cries did stir up the remainder of the people of Limhi to anger against the Lamanites; and they went again to battle, but they were driven back again, suffering much loss. <sup>21:12</sup>Yea, they went again even the third time, and suffered in the like manner; and those that were not slain returned again to the city of Nephi. <sup>21:13</sup>And they did humble themselves even to the dust, subjecting themselves to the yoke of bondage, submitting themselves to be smitten, and to be driven to and fro, and burdened, according to the desires of their enemies. <sup>21:14</sup>And they did humble themselves even in the depths of humility; and they did cry mightily to God; yea, even all the day long did they cry unto their God that he would deliver them out of their afflictions. <sup>21:15</sup>And now the Lord was slow to hear their cry because of their iniquities; nevertheless the Lord did hear their cries, and began to soften the hearts of the Lamanites that they began to ease their burdens; yet the Lord did not see fit to deliver them out of bondage. <sup>21:16</sup>And it came to pass that they began to prosper by degrees in the land, and began to raise grain more abundantly, and flocks, and herds, that they did not suffer with hunger. <sup>21:17</sup>Now there was a great number of women, more than there was of men; therefore king Limhi commanded that every man should impart to the support of the widows and their children, that they might not perish with hunger; and this they did because of the greatness of their number that had been slain. <sup>21:18</sup>Now the people of Limhi kept together in a body as much as it was possible, and secured their grain and their flocks; <sup>21:19</sup>and the king himself did not trust his person without the walls of the city, unless he took his guards with him, fearing that he might by some means fall into the hands of the Lamanites. <sup>21:20</sup>And he caused that his people should watch the land round about, that by some means they might take those priests that fled into the wilderness, who had stolen the daughters of the Lamanites, and that had caused such a great destruction to come upon them. <sup>21:21</sup>For they were desirous to take them that they might punish them; for they had come into the land of Nephi by night, and carried off their grain and many of their precious things; therefore they laid wait for them. <sup>21:22</sup>And it came to pass that there was no more disturbance between the Lamanites and the people of Limhi, even until the time that Ammon and his brethren came into the land. <sup>21:23</sup>And the king having been without the gates of the city with his guard, discovered Ammon and his brethren; and supposing them to be priests of Noah therefore he caused that they should be taken, and bound, and cast into prison. And had they been the priests of Noah he would have caused that they should be put to death. <sup>21:24</sup>But when he found that they were not, but that they were his brethren, and had come from the land of Zarahemla, he was filled with exceedingly great joy. <sup>21:25</sup>Now king Limhi had sent, previous to the coming of Ammon, a small number of men to search for the land of Zarahemla; but they could not find it, and they were lost in the wilderness. <sup>21:26</sup>Nevertheless, they did find a land which had been peopled; yea, a land which was covered with dry bones; yea, a land which had been peopled and which had been destroyed; and they, having supposed it to be the land of Zarahemla, returned to the land of Nephi, having arrived in the borders of the land not many days before the coming of Ammon. <sup>21:27</sup>And they brought a record with them, even a record of the people whose bones they had found; and it was engraven on plates of ore. <sup>21:28</sup>And now Limhi was again filled with joy on learning from the mouth of Ammon that king Mosiah had a gift from God, whereby he could interpret such engravings; yea, and Ammon also did rejoice. <sup>21:29</sup>Yet Ammon and his brethren were filled with sorrow because so many of their brethren had been slain; <sup>21:30</sup>and also that king Noah and his priests had caused the people to commit so many sins and iniquities against God; and they also did mourn for the death of Abinadi; and also for the departure of Alma and the people that went with him, who had formed a church of God through the strength and power of God, and faith on the words which had been spoken by Abinadi. <sup>21:31</sup>Yea, they did mourn for their departure, for they knew not whither they had fled. Now they would have gladly joined with them, for they themselves had entered into a covenant with God to serve him and keep his commandments. <sup>21:32</sup>And now since the coming of Ammon, king Limhi had also entered into a covenant with God, and also many of his people, to serve him and keep his commandments. <sup>21:33</sup>And it came to pass that king Limhi and many of his people were desirous to be baptized; but there was none in the land that had authority from God. And Ammon declined doing this thing, considering himself an unworthy servant. <sup>21:34</sup>Therefore they did not at that time form themselves into a church, waiting upon the Spirit of the Lord. Now they were desirous to become even as Alma and his brethren, who had fled into the wilderness. <sup>21:35</sup>They were desirous to be baptized as a witness and a testimony that they were willing to serve God with all their hearts; nevertheless they did prolong the time; and an account of their baptism shall be given hereafter. <sup>21:36</sup>And now all the study of Ammon and his people, and king Limhi and his people, was to deliver themselves out of the hands of the Lamanites and from bondage. <sup><X>22:1</sup>And now it came to pass that Ammon and king Limhi began to consult with the people how they should deliver themselves out of bondage; and even they did cause that all the people should gather themselves together; and this they did that they might have the voice of the people concerning the matter. <sup>22:2</sup>And it came to pass that they could find no way to deliver themselves out of bondage, except it were to take their women and children, and their flocks, and their herds, and their tents, and depart into the wilderness; for the Lamanites being so numerous, it was impossible for the people of Limhi to contend with them, thinking to deliver themselves out of bondage by the sword. <sup>22:3</sup>Now it came to pass that Gideon went forth and stood before the king, and said unto him: Now O king, thou hast hitherto hearkened unto my words many times when we have been contending with our brethren, the Lamanites. <sup>22:4</sup>And now O king, if thou hast not found me to be an unprofitable servant, or if thou hast hitherto listened to my words in any degree, and they have been of service to thee, even so I desire that thou wouldst listen to my words at this time, and I will be thy servant and deliver this people out of bondage. <sup>22:5</sup>And the king granted unto him that he might speak. And Gideon said unto him: <sup>22:6</sup>Behold the back pass, through the back wall, on the back side of the city. The Lamanites, or the guards of the Lamanites, by night are drunken; therefore let us send a proclamation among all this people that they gather together their flocks and herds, that they may drive them into the wilderness by night. <sup>22:7</sup>And I will go according to thy command and pay the last tribute of wine to the Lamanites, and they will be drunken; and we will pass through the secret pass on the left of their camp when they are drunken and asleep. <sup>22:8</sup>Thus we will depart with our women and our children, our flocks, and our herds into the wilderness; and we will travel around the land of Shilom. <sup>22:9</sup>And it came to pass that the king hearkened unto the words of Gideon. <sup>22:10</sup>And king Limhi caused that his people should gather their flocks together; and he sent the tribute of wine to the Lamanites; and he also sent more wine, as a present unto them; and they did drink freely of the wine which king Limhi did send unto them. <sup>22:11</sup>And it came to pass that the people of king Limhi did depart by night into the wilderness with their flocks and their herds, and they went round about the land of Shilom in the wilderness, and bent their course towards the land of Zarahemla, being led by Ammon and his brethren. <sup>22:12</sup>And they had taken all their gold, and silver, and their precious things, which they could carry, and also their provisions with them, into the wilderness; and they pursued their journey. <sup>22:13</sup>And after being many days in the wilderness they arrived in the land of Zarahemla, and joined Mosiah's people, and became his subjects. <sup>22:14</sup>And it came to pass that Mosiah received them with joy; and he also received their records, and also the records which had been found by the people of Limhi. <sup>22:15</sup>And now it came to pass when the Lamanites had found that the people of Limhi had departed out of the land by night, that they sent an army into the wilderness to pursue them; <sup>22:16</sup>and after they had pursued them two days, they could no longer follow their tracks; therefore they were lost in the wilderness.

<X> An account of Alma and the people of the Lord, who were driven into the wilderness by the people of King Noah. <sup>23:1</sup>Now Alma, having been warned of the Lord that the armies of king Noah would come upon them, and having made it known to his people, therefore they gathered together their flocks, and took of their grain, and departed into the wilderness before the armies of king Noah. <sup>23:2</sup>And the Lord did strengthen them, that the people of king Noah could not overtake them to destroy them. <sup>23:3</sup>And they fled eight days' journey into the wilderness. <sup>23:4</sup>And they came to a land, yea, even a very beautiful and pleasant land, a land of pure water. <sup>23:5</sup>And they pitched their tents, and began to till the ground, and began to build buildings; yea, they were industrious, and did labor exceedingly. <sup>23:6</sup>And the people were desirous that Alma should be their king, for he was beloved by his people. <sup>23:7</sup>But he said unto them: Behold, it is not expedient that we should have a king; for thus saith the Lord: Ye shall not esteem one flesh above another, or one man shall not think himself above another; therefore I say unto you it is not expedient that ye should have a king. <sup>23:8</sup>Nevertheless, if it were possible that ye could always have just men to be your kings it would be well for you to have a king. <sup>23:9</sup>But remember the iniquity of king Noah and his priests; and I myself was caught in a snare, and did many things which were abominable in the sight of the Lord, which caused me sore repentance; <sup>23:10</sup>nevertheless, after much tribulation, the Lord did hear my cries, and did answer my prayers, and has made me an instrument in his hands in bringing so many of you to a knowledge of his truth. <sup>23:11</sup>Nevertheless, in this I do not glory, for I am unworthy to glory of myself. <sup>23:12</sup>And now I say unto you, ye have been oppressed by king Noah, and have been in bondage to him and his priests, and have been brought into iniquity by them; therefore ye were bound with the bands of iniquity. <sup>23:13</sup>And now as ye have been delivered by the power of God out of these bonds; yea, even out of the hands of king Noah and his people, and also from the bonds of iniquity, even so I desire that ye should stand fast in this liberty wherewith ye have been made free, and that ye trust no man to be a king over you. <sup>23:14</sup>And also trust no one to be your teacher nor your minister, except he be a man of God, walking in his ways and keeping his commandments. <sup>23:15</sup>Thus did Alma teach his people, that every man should love his neighbor as himself, that there should be no contention among them. <sup>23:16</sup>And now, Alma was their high priest, he being the founder of their church. <sup>23:17</sup>And it came to pass that none received authority to preach or to teach except it were by him from God. Therefore he consecrated all their priests and all their teachers; and none were consecrated except they were just men. <sup>23:18</sup>Therefore they did watch over their people, and did nourish them with things pertaining to righteousness. <sup>23:19</sup>And it came to pass that they began to prosper exceedingly in the land; and they called the land Helam. <sup>23:20</sup>And it came to pass that they did multiply and prosper exceedingly in the land of Helam; and they built a city, which they called the city of Helam. <sup>23:21</sup>Nevertheless the Lord seeth fit to chasten his people; yea, he trieth their patience and their faith. <sup>23:22</sup>Nevertheless — whosoever putteth his trust in him the same shall be lifted up at the last day. Yea, and thus it was with this people. <sup>23:23</sup>For behold, I will show unto you that they were brought into bondage, and none could deliver them but the Lord their God, yea, even the God of Abraham and Isaac and of Jacob. <sup>23:24</sup>And it came to pass that he did deliver them, and he did show forth his mighty power unto them, and great were their rejoicings. <sup>23:25</sup>For behold, it came to pass that while they were in the land of Helam, yea, in the city of Helam, while tilling the land round about, behold an army of the Lamanites was in the borders of the land. <sup>23:26</sup>Now it came to pass that the brethren of Alma fled from their fields, and gathered themselves together in the city of Helam; and they were much frightened because of the appearance of the Lamanites. <sup>23:27</sup>But Alma went forth and stood among them, and exhorted them that they should not be frightened, but that they should remember the Lord their God and he would deliver them. <sup>23:28</sup>Therefore they hushed their fears, and began to cry unto the Lord that he would soften the hearts of the Lamanites, that they would spare them, and their wives, and their children. <sup>23:29</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord did soften the hearts of the Lamanites. And Alma and his brethren went forth and delivered themselves up into their hands; and the Lamanites took possession of the land of Helam.

<sup>23:30</sup>Now the armies of the Lamanites, which had followed after the people of king Limhi, had been lost in the wilderness for many days. <sup>23:31</sup>And behold, they had found those priests of king Noah, in a place which they called Amulon; and they had begun to possess the land of Amulon and had begun to till the ground.

<sup>23:32</sup>Now the name of the leader of those priests was Amulon. <sup>23:33</sup>And it came to pass that Amulon did plead with the Lamanites; and he also sent forth their wives, who were the daughters of the Lamanites, to plead with their brethren, that they should not destroy their husbands. <sup>23:34</sup>And the Lamanites had compassion on Amulon and his brethren, and did not destroy them, because of their wives. <sup>23:35</sup>And Amulon and his brethren did join the Lamanites, and they were traveling in the wilderness in search of the land of Nephi when they discovered the land of Helam, which was possessed by Alma and his brethren.

<sup>23:36</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites promised unto Alma and his brethren, that if they would show them the way which led to the land of Nephi that they would grant unto them their lives and their liberty. <sup>23:37</sup>But after Alma had shown them the way that led to the land of Nephi the Lamanites would not keep their promise; but they set guards round about the land of Helam, over Alma and his brethren. <sup>23:38</sup>And the remainder of them went to the land of Nephi; and a part of them returned to the land of Helam, and also brought with them the wives and the children of the guards who had been left in the land. <sup>23:39</sup>And the king of the Lamanites had granted unto Amulon that he should be a king and a ruler over his people, who were in the land of Helam; nevertheless he should have no power to do anything contrary to the will of the king of the Lamanites. <sup>24:1</sup>And it came to pass that Amulon did gain favor in the eyes of the king of the Lamanites; therefore, the king of the Lamanites granted unto him and his brethren that they should be appointed teachers over his people, yea, even over the people who were in the land of Shemlon, and in the land of Shilom, and in the land of Amulon. <sup>24:2</sup>For the Lamanites had taken possession of all these lands; therefore, the king of the Lamanites had appointed kings over all these lands. <sup>24:3</sup>And now the name of the king of the Lamanites was Laman, being called after the name of his father; and therefore he was called king Laman. And he was king over a numerous people. <sup>24:4</sup>And he appointed teachers of the brethren of Amulon in every land which was possessed by his people; and thus the language of Nephi began to be taught among all the people of the Lamanites. <sup>24:5</sup>And they were a people friendly one with another; nevertheless they knew not God; neither did the brethren of Amulon teach them anything concerning the Lord their God, neither the law of Moses; nor did they teach them the words of Abinadi; <sup>24:6</sup>but they taught them that they should keep their record, and that they might write one to another. <sup>24:7</sup>And thus the Lamanites began to increase in riches, and began to trade one with another and wax great, and began to be a cunning and a wise people, as to the wisdom of the world, yea, a very cunning people, delighting in all manner of wickedness and plunder, except it were among their own brethren.

<sup>24:8</sup>And now it came to pass that Amulon began to exercise authority over Alma and his brethren, and began to persecute him, and cause that his children should persecute their children. <sup>24:9</sup>For Amulon knew Alma, that he had been one of the king's priests, and that it was he that believed the words of Abinadi and was driven out before the king, and therefore he was wroth with him; for he was subject to king Laman, yet he exercised authority over them, and put tasks upon them, and put task-masters over them. <sup>24:10</sup>And it came to pass that so great were their afflictions that they began to cry mightily to God. <sup>24:11</sup>And Amulon commanded them that they should stop their cries; and he put guards over them to watch them, that whosoever should be found calling upon God should be put to death. <sup>24:12</sup>And Alma and his people did not raise their voices to the Lord their God, but did pour out their hearts to him; and he did know the thoughts of their hearts. <sup>24:13</sup>And it came to pass that the voice of the Lord came to them in their afflictions, saying: Lift up your heads and be of good comfort, for I know of the covenant which ye have made unto me; and I will covenant with my people and deliver them out of bondage. <sup>24:14</sup>And I will also ease the burdens which are put upon your shoulders, that even you cannot feel them upon your backs, even while you are in bondage; and this will I do that ye may stand as witnesses for me hereafter, and that ye may know of a surety that I, the Lord God, do visit my people in their afflictions. <sup>24:15</sup>And now it came to pass that the burdens which were laid upon Alma and his brethren were made light; yea, the Lord did strengthen them that they could bear up their burdens with ease, and they did submit cheerfully and with patience to all the will of the Lord. <sup>24:16</sup>And it came to pass that so great was their faith and their patience that the voice of the Lord came unto them again, saying: Be of good comfort, for on the morrow I will deliver you out of bondage. <sup>24:17</sup>And he said unto Alma: Thou shalt go before this people, and I will go with thee and deliver this people out of bondage. <sup>24:18</sup>Now it came to pass that Alma and his people in the night-time gathered their flocks together, and also of their grain; yea, even all the night-time were they gathering the flocks together. <sup>24:19</sup>And in the morning the Lord caused a deep sleep to come upon the Lamanites, yea, and all their task-masters were in a profound sleep. <sup>24:20</sup>And Alma and his people departed into the wilderness; and when they had traveled all day they pitched their tents in a valley, and they called the valley Alma, because he led their way in the wilderness. <sup>24:21</sup>Yea, and in the valley of Alma they poured out their thanks to God because he had been merciful unto them, and eased their burdens, and had delivered them out of bondage; for they were in bondage, and none could deliver them except it were the Lord their God. <sup>24:22</sup>And they gave thanks to God, yea, all their men and all their women and all their children that could speak lifted their voices in the praises of their God. <sup>24:23</sup>And now the Lord said unto Alma: Haste thee and get thou and this people out of this land, for the Lamanites have awakened and do pursue thee; therefore get thee out of this land, and I will stop the Lamanites in this valley that they come no further in pursuit of this people. <sup>24:24</sup>And it came to pass that they departed out of the valley, and took their journey into the wilderness. <sup>24:25</sup>And after they had been in the wilderness twelve days they arrived in the land of Zarahemla; and king Mosiah did also receive them with joy. <sup>25:1</sup>And now king Mosiah caused that all the people should be gathered together. <sup>25:2</sup>Now there were not so many of the children of Nephi, or so many of those who were descendants of Nephi, as there were of the people of Zarahemla, who was a descendant of Mulek, and those who came with him into the wilderness. <sup>25:3</sup>And there were not so many of the people of Nephi and of the people of Zarahemla as there were of the Lamanites; yea, they were not half so numerous. <sup>25:4</sup>And now all the people of Nephi were assembled together, and also all the people of Zarahemla, and they were gathered together in two bodies. <sup>25:5</sup>And it came to pass that Mosiah did read, and caused to be read, the records of Zeniff to his people; yea, he read the records of the people of Zeniff, from the time they left the land of Zarahemla until they returned again. <sup>25:6</sup>And he also read the account of Alma and his brethren, and all their afflictions, from the time they left the land of Zarahemla until the time they returned again. <sup>25:7</sup>And now, when Mosiah had made an end of reading the records, his people who tarried in the land were struck with wonder and amazement. <sup>25:8</sup>For they knew not what to think; for when they beheld those that had been delivered out of bondage they were filled with exceedingly great joy. <sup>25:9</sup>And again, when they thought of their brethren who had been slain by the Lamanites they were filled with sorrow, and even shed many tears of sorrow. <sup>25:10</sup>And again, when they thought of the immediate goodness of God, and his power in delivering Alma and his brethren out of the hands of the Lamanites and of bondage, they did raise their voices and give thanks to God. <sup>25:11</sup>And again, when they thought upon the Lamanites, who were their brethren, of their sinful and polluted state, they were filled with pain and anguish for the welfare of their souls. <sup>25:12</sup>And it came to pass that those who were the children of Amulon and his brethren, who had taken to wife the daughters of the Lamanites, were displeased with the conduct of their fathers, and they would no longer be called by the names of their fathers, therefore they took upon themselves the name of Nephi, that they might be called the children of Nephi and be numbered among those who were called Nephites. <sup>25:13</sup>And now all the people of Zarahemla were numbered with the Nephites, and this because the kingdom had been conferred upon none but those who were descendants of Nephi. <sup>25:14</sup>And now it came to pass that when Mosiah had made an end of speaking and reading to the people, he desired that Alma should also speak to the people. <sup>25:15</sup>And Alma did speak unto them, when they were assembled together in large bodies, and he went from one body to another, preaching unto the people repentance and faith on the Lord. <sup>25:16</sup>And he did exhort the people of Limhi and his brethren, all those that had been delivered out of bondage, that they should remember that it was the Lord that did deliver them. <sup>25:17</sup>And it came to pass that after Alma had taught the people many things, and had made an end of speaking to them, that king Limhi was desirous that he might be baptized; and all his people were desirous that they might be baptized also. <sup>25:18</sup>Therefore, Alma did go forth into the water and did baptize them; yea, he did baptize them after the manner he did his brethren in the waters of Mormon; yea, and as many as he did baptize did belong to the church of God; and this because of their belief on the words of Alma. <sup>25:19</sup>And it came to pass that king Mosiah granted unto Alma that he might establish churches throughout all the land of Zarahemla; and gave him power to ordain priests and teachers over every church. <sup>25:20</sup>Now this was done because there were so many people that they could not all be governed by one teacher; neither could they all hear the word of God in one assembly; <sup>25:21</sup>therefore they did assemble themselves together in different bodies, being called churches; every church having their priests and their teachers, and every priest preaching the word according as it was delivered to him by the mouth of Alma. <sup>25:22</sup>And thus, notwithstanding there being many churches they were all one church, yea, even the church of God; for there was nothing preached in all the churches except it were repentance and faith in God. <sup>25:23</sup>And now there were seven churches in the land of Zarahemla. And it came to pass that whosoever were desirous to take upon them the name of Christ, or of God, they did join the churches of God; <sup>25:24</sup>and they were called the people of God. And the Lord did pour out his Spirit upon them, and they were blessed, and prospered in the land. <sup>26:1</sup>Now it came to pass that there were many of the rising generation that could not understand the words of king Benjamin, being little children at the time he spake unto his people; and they did not believe the tradition of their fathers. <sup>26:2</sup>They did not believe what had been said concerning the resurrection of the dead, neither did they believe concerning the coming of Christ. <sup>26:3</sup>And now because of their unbelief they could not understand the word of God; and their hearts were hardened. <sup>26:4</sup>And they would not be baptized; neither would they join the church. And they were a separate people as to their faith, and remained so ever after, even in their carnal and sinful state; for they would not call upon the Lord their God. <sup>26:5</sup>And now in the reign of Mosiah they were not half so numerous as the people of God; but because of the dissensions among the brethren they became more numerous. <sup>26:6</sup>For it came to pass that they did deceive many with their flattering words, who were in the church, and did cause them to commit many sins; therefore it became expedient that those who committed sin, that were in the church, should be admonished by the church. <sup>26:7</sup>And it came to pass that they were brought before the priests, and delivered up unto the priests by the teachers; and the priests brought them before Alma, who was the high priest. <sup>26:8</sup>Now king Mosiah had given Alma the authority over the church. <sup>26:9</sup>And it came to pass that Alma did not know concerning them; but there were many witnesses against them; yea, the people stood and testified of their iniquity in abundance. <sup>26:10</sup>Now there had not any such thing happened before in the church; therefore Alma was troubled in his spirit, and he caused that they should be brought before the king. <sup>26:11</sup>And he said unto the king: Behold, here are many whom we have brought before thee, who are accused of their brethren; yea, and they have been taken in divers iniquities. And they do not repent of their iniquities; therefore we have brought them before thee, that thou mayest judge them according to their crimes. <sup>26:12</sup>But king Mosiah said unto Alma: Behold, I judge them not; therefore I deliver them into thy hands to be judged. <sup>26:13</sup>And now the spirit of Alma was again troubled; and he went and inquired of the Lord what he should do concerning this matter, for he feared that he should do wrong in the sight of God. <sup>26:14</sup>And it came to pass that after he had poured out his whole soul to God, the voice of the Lord came to him, saying: <sup>26:15</sup>Blessed art thou, Alma, and blessed are they who were baptized in the waters of Mormon. Thou art blessed because of thy exceeding faith in the words alone of my servant Abinadi. <sup>26:16</sup>And blessed are they because of their exceeding faith in the words alone which thou hast spoken unto them. <sup>26:17</sup>And blessed art thou because thou hast established a church among this people; and they shall be established, and they shall be my people. <sup>26:18</sup>Yea, blessed is this people who are willing to bear my name; for in my name shall they be called; and they are mine. <sup>26:19</sup>And because thou hast inquired of me concerning the transgressor, thou art blessed. <sup>26:20</sup>Thou art my servant; and I covenant with thee that thou shalt have eternal life; and thou shalt serve me and go forth in my name, and shalt gather together my sheep. <sup>26:21</sup>And he that will hear my voice shall be my sheep; and him shall ye receive into the church, and him will I also receive. <sup>26:22</sup>For behold, this is my church; whosoever is baptized shall be baptized unto repentance. And whomsoever ye receive shall believe in my name; and him will I freely forgive. <sup>26:23</sup>For it is I that taketh upon me the sins of the world; for it is I that hath created them; and it is I that granteth unto him that believeth unto the end a place at my right hand. <sup>26:24</sup>For behold, in my name are they called; and if they know me they shall come forth, and shall have a place eternally at my right hand. <sup>26:25</sup>And it shall come to pass that when the second trump shall sound then shall they that never knew me come forth and shall stand before me. <sup>26:26</sup>And then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, that I am their Redeemer; but they would not be redeemed. <sup>26:27</sup>And then I will confess unto them that I never knew them; and they shall depart into everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels. <sup>26:28</sup>Therefore I say unto you, that he that will not hear my voice, the same shall ye not receive into my church, for him I will not receive at the last day. <sup>26:29</sup>Therefore I say unto you, Go; and whosoever transgresseth against me, him shall ye judge according to the sins which he has committed; and if he confess his sins before thee and me, and repenteth in the sincerity of his heart, him shall ye forgive, and I will forgive him also. <sup>26:30</sup>Yea, and as often as my people repent will I forgive them their trespasses against me. <sup>26:31</sup>And ye shall also forgive one another your trespasses; for verily I say unto you, he that forgiveth not his neighbor's trespasses when he says that he repents, the same hath brought himself under condemnation. <sup>26:32</sup>Now I say unto you, Go; and whosoever will not repent of his sins the same shall not be numbered among my people; and this shall be observed from this time forward. <sup>26:33</sup>And it came to pass when Alma had heard these words he wrote them down that he might have them, and that he might judge the people of that church according to the commandments of God. <sup>26:34</sup>And it came to pass that Alma went and judged those that had been taken in iniquity, according to the word of the Lord. <sup>26:35</sup>And whosoever repented of their sins and did confess them, them he did number among the people of the church; <sup>26:36</sup>and those that would not confess their sins and repent of their iniquity, the same were not numbered among the people of the church, and their names were blotted out. <sup>26:37</sup>And it came to pass that Alma did regulate all the affairs of the church; and they began again to have peace and to prosper exceedingly in the affairs of the church, walking circumspectly before God, receiving many, and baptizing many. <sup>26:38</sup>And now all these things did Alma and his fellow laborers do who were over the church, walking in all diligence, teaching the word of God in all things, suffering all manner of afflictions, being persecuted by all those who did not belong to the church of God. <sup>26:39</sup>And they did admonish their brethren; and they were also admonished, every one by the word of God, according to his sins, or to the sins which he had committed, being commanded of God to pray without ceasing, and to give thanks in all things. <sup>27:1</sup>And now it came to pass that the persecutions which were inflicted on the church by the unbelievers became so great that the church began to murmur, and complain to their leaders concerning the matter; and they did complain to Alma. And Alma laid the case before their king, Mosiah. And Mosiah consulted with his priests. <sup>27:2</sup>And it came to pass that king Mosiah sent a proclamation throughout the land round about that there should not any unbeliever persecute any of those who belonged to the church of God. <sup>27:3</sup>And there was a strict command throughout all the churches that there should be no persecutions among them, that there should be an equality among all men; <sup>27:4</sup>that they should let no pride nor haughtiness disturb their peace; that every man should esteem his neighbor as himself, laboring with their own hands for their support. <sup>27:5</sup>Yea, and all their priests and teachers should labor with their own hands for their support, in all cases save it were in sickness, or in much want; and doing these things, they did abound in the grace of God. <sup>27:6</sup>And there began to be much peace again in the land; and the people began to be very numerous, and began to scatter abroad upon the face of the earth, yea, on the north and on the south, on the east and on the west, building large cities and villages in all quarters of the land. <sup>27:7</sup>And the Lord did visit them and prosper them, and they became a large and wealthy people. <sup>27:8</sup>Now the sons of Mosiah were numbered among the unbelievers; and also one of the sons of Alma was numbered among them, he being called Alma, after his father; nevertheless, he became a very wicked and an idolatrous man. And he was a man of many words, and did speak much flattery to the people; therefore he led many of the people to do after the manner of his iniquities. <sup>27:9</sup>And he became a great hinderment to the prosperity of the church of God; stealing away the hearts of the people; causing much dissension among the people; giving a chance for the enemy of God to exercise his power over them.

<sup>27:10</sup>And now it came to pass that while he was going about to destroy the church of God, for he did go about secretly with the sons of Mosiah seeking to destroy the church, and to lead astray the people of the Lord, contrary to the commandments of God, or even the king —<sup>27:11</sup>and as I said unto you, as they were going about rebelling against God, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto them; and he descended as it were in a cloud; and he spake as it were with a voice of thunder, which caused the earth to shake upon which they stood; <sup>27:12</sup>and so great was their astonishment, that they fell to the earth, and understood not the words which he spake unto them. <sup>27:13</sup>Nevertheless he cried again, saying: Alma, arise and stand forth, for why persecutest thou the church of God? For the Lord hath said: This is my church, and I will establish it; and nothing shall overthrow it, save it is the transgression of my people. <sup>27:14</sup>And again, the angel said: Behold, the Lord hath heard the prayers of his people, and also the prayers of his servant, Alma, who is thy father; for he has prayed with much faith concerning thee that thou mightest be brought to the knowledge of the truth; therefore, for this purpose have I come to convince thee of the power and authority of God, that the prayers of his servants might be answered according to their faith. <sup>27:15</sup>And now behold, can ye dispute the power of God? For behold, doth not my voice shake the earth? And can ye not also behold me before you? And I am sent from God. <sup>27:16</sup>Now I say unto thee: Go, and remember the captivity of thy fathers in the land of Helam, and in the land of Nephi; and remember how great things he has done for them; for they were in bondage, and he has delivered them. And now I say unto thee, Alma, go thy way, and seek to destroy the church no more, that their prayers may be answered, and this even if thou wilt of thyself be cast off. <sup>27:17</sup>And now it came to pass that these were the last words which the angel spake unto Alma, and he departed. <sup>27:18</sup>And now Alma and those that were with him fell again to the earth, for great was their astonishment; for with their own eyes they had beheld an angel of the Lord; and his voice was as thunder, which shook the earth; and they knew that there was nothing save the power of God that could shake the earth and cause it to tremble as though it would part asunder. <sup>27:19</sup>And now the astonishment of Alma was so great that he became dumb, that he could not open his mouth; yea, and he became weak, even that he could not move his hands; therefore he was taken by those that were with him, and carried helpless, even until he was laid before his father. <sup>27:20</sup>And they rehearsed unto his father all that had happened unto them; and his father rejoiced, for he knew that it was the power of God. <sup>27:21</sup>And he caused that a multitude should be gathered together that they might witness what the Lord had done for his son, and also for those that were with him. <sup>27:22</sup>And he caused that the priests should assemble themselves together; and they began to fast, and to pray to the Lord their God that he would open the mouth of Alma, that he might speak, and also that his limbs might receive their strength — that the eyes of the people might be opened to see and know of the goodness and glory of God. <sup>27:23</sup>And it came to pass after they had fasted and prayed for the space of two days and two nights, the limbs of Alma received their strength, and he stood up and began to speak unto them, bidding them to be of good comfort: <sup>27:24</sup>For, said he, I have repented of my sins, and have been redeemed of the Lord; behold I am born of the Spirit. <sup>27:25</sup>And the Lord said unto me: Marvel not that all mankind, yea, men and women, all nations, kindreds, tongues and people, must be born again; yea, born of God, changed from their carnal and fallen state, to a state of righteousness, being redeemed of God, becoming his sons and daughters; <sup>27:26</sup>and thus they become new creatures; and unless they do this, they can in nowise inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>27:27</sup>I say unto you, unless this be the case, they must be cast off; and this I know, because I was like to be cast off. <sup>27:28</sup>Nevertheless, after wading through much tribulation, repenting nigh unto death, the Lord in mercy hath seen fit to snatch me out of an everlasting burning, and I am born of God. <sup>27:29</sup>My soul hath been redeemed from the gall of bitterness and bonds of iniquity. I was in the darkest abyss; but now I behold the marvelous light of God. My soul was racked with eternal torment; but I am snatched, and my soul is pained no more. <sup>27:30</sup>I rejected my Redeemer, and denied that which had been spoken of by our fathers; but now that they may foresee that he will come, and that he remembereth every creature of his creating, he will make himself manifest unto all. <sup>27:31</sup>Yea, every knee shall bow, and every tongue confess before him. Yea, even at the last day, when all men shall stand to be judged of him, then shall they confess that he is God; then shall they confess, who live without God in the world, that the judgment of an everlasting punishment is just upon them; and they shall quake, and tremble, and shrink beneath the glance of his all-searching eye. <sup>27:32</sup>And now it came to pass that Alma began from this time forward to teach the people, and those who were with Alma at the time the angel appeared unto them, traveling round about through all the land, publishing to all the people the things which they had heard and seen, and preaching the word of God in much tribulation, being greatly persecuted by those who were unbelievers, being smitten by many of them. <sup>27:33</sup>But notwithstanding all this, they did impart much consolation to the church, confirming their faith, and exhorting them with long-suffering and much travail to keep the commandments of God. <sup>27:34</sup>And four of them were the sons of Mosiah; and their names were Ammon, and Aaron, and Omner, and Himni; these were the names of the sons of Mosiah. <sup>27:35</sup>And they traveled throughout all the land of Zarahemla, and among all the people who were under the reign of king Mosiah, zealously striving to repair all the injuries which they had done to the church, confessing all their sins, and publishing all the things which they had seen, and explaining the prophecies and the scriptures to all who desired to hear them. <sup>27:36</sup>And thus they were instruments in the hands of God in bringing many to the knowledge of the truth, yea, to the knowledge of their Redeemer. <sup>27:37</sup>And how blessed are they! For they did publish peace; they did publish good tidings of good; and they did declare unto the people that the Lord reigneth. <sup><XII>28:1</sup>Now it came to pass that after the sons of Mosiah had done all these things, they took a small number with them and returned to their father, the king, and desired of him that he would grant unto them that they might, with these whom they had selected, go up to the land of Nephi that they might preach the things which they had heard, and that they might impart the word of God to their brethren, the Lamanites—<sup>28:2</sup>that perhaps they might bring them to the knowledge of the Lord their God, and convince them of the iniquity of their fathers; and that perhaps they might cure them of their hatred towards the Nephites, that they might also be brought to rejoice in the Lord their God, that they might become friendly to one another, and that there should be no more contentions in all the land which the Lord their God had given them. <sup>28:3</sup>Now they were desirous that salvation should be declared to every creature, for they could not bear that any human soul should perish; yea, even the very thoughts that any soul should endure endless torment did cause them to quake and tremble. <sup>28:4</sup>And thus did the Spirit of the Lord work upon them, for they were the very vilest of sinners. And the Lord saw fit in his infinite mercy to spare them; nevertheless they suffered much anguish of soul because of their iniquities, suffering much and fearing that they should be cast off forever. <sup>28:5</sup>And it came to pass that they did plead with their father many days that they might go up to the land of Nephi. <sup>28:6</sup>And king Mosiah went and inquired of the Lord if he should let his sons go up among the Lamanites to preach the word. <sup>28:7</sup>And the Lord said unto Mosiah: Let them go up, for many shall believe on their words, and they shall have eternal life; and I will deliver thy sons out of the hands of the Lamanites. <sup>28:8</sup>And it came to pass that Mosiah granted that they might go and do according to their request. <sup>28:9</sup>And they took their journey into the wilderness to go up to preach the word among the Lamanites; and I shall give an account of their proceedings hereafter. <sup>28:10</sup>Now king Mosiah had no one to confer the kingdom upon, for there was not any of his sons who would accept of the kingdom. <sup>28:11</sup>Therefore he took the records which were engraven on the plates of brass, and also the plates of Nephi, and all the things which he had kept and preserved according to the commandments of God, after having translated and caused to be written the records which were on the plates of gold which had been found by the people of Limhi, which were delivered to him by the hand of Limhi; <sup>28:12</sup>and this he did because of the great anxiety of his people; for they were desirous beyond measure to know concerning those people who had been destroyed. <sup>28:13</sup>And now he translated them by the means of those two stones which were fastened into the two rims of a bow. <sup>28:14</sup>Now these things were prepared from the beginning, and were handed down from generation to generation, for the purpose of interpreting languages; <sup>28:15</sup>and they have been kept and preserved by the hand of the Lord, that he should discover to every creature who should possess the land the iniquities and abominations of his people; <sup>28:16</sup>and whosoever has these things is called seer, after the manner of old times. <sup>28:17</sup>Now after Mosiah had finished translating these records, behold, it gave an account of the people who were destroyed, from the time that they were destroyed back to the building of the great tower, at the time the Lord confounded the language of the people and they were scattered abroad upon the face of all the earth, yea, and even from that time back until the creation of Adam. <sup>28:18</sup>Now this account did cause the people of Mosiah to mourn exceedingly, yea, they were filled with sorrow; nevertheless it gave them much knowledge, in the which they did rejoice. <sup>28:19</sup>And this account shall be written hereafter; for behold, it is expedient that all people should know the things which are written in this account. <sup><XIII>28:20</sup>And now, as I said unto you, that after king Mosiah had done these things, he took the plates of brass, and all the things which he had kept, and conferred them upon Alma, who was the son of Alma; yea, all the records, and also the interpreters, and conferred them upon him, and commanded him that he should keep and preserve them, and also keep a record of the people, handing them down from one generation to another, even as they had been handed down from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem. <sup>29:1</sup>Now when Mosiah had done this he sent out throughout all the land, among all the people, desiring to know their will concerning who should be their king. <sup>29:2</sup>And it came to pass that the voice of the people came, saying: We are desirous that Aaron thy son should be our king and our ruler. <sup>29:3</sup>Now Aaron had gone up to the land of Nephi, therefore the king could not confer the kingdom upon him; neither would Aaron take upon him the kingdom; neither were any of the sons of Mosiah willing to take upon them the kingdom. <sup>29:4</sup>Therefore king Mosiah sent again among the people; yea, even a written word sent he among the people. And these were the words that were written, saying: <sup>29:5</sup>Behold, O ye my people, or my brethren, for I esteem you as such, I desire that ye should consider the cause which ye are called to consider—for ye are desirous to have a king. <sup>29:6</sup>Now I declare unto you that he to whom the kingdom doth rightly belong has declined, and will not take upon him the kingdom. <sup>29:7</sup>And now if there should be another appointed in his stead, behold I fear there would rise contentions among you. And who knoweth but what my son, to whom the kingdom doth belong, should turn to be angry and draw away a part of this people after him, which would cause wars and contentions among you, which would be the cause of shedding much blood and perverting the way of the Lord, yea, and destroy the souls of many people. <sup>29:8</sup>Now I say unto you let us be wise and consider these things, for we have no right to destroy my son, neither should we have any right to destroy another if he should be appointed in his stead. <sup>29:9</sup>And if my son should turn again to his pride and vain things he would recall the things which he had said, and claim his right to the kingdom, which would cause him and also this people to commit much sin. <sup>29:10</sup>And now let us be wise and look forward to these things, and do that which will make for the peace of this people. <sup>29:11</sup>Therefore I will be your king the remainder of my days; nevertheless, let us appoint judges, to judge this people according to our law; and we will newly arrange the affairs of this people, for we will appoint wise men to be judges, that will judge this people according to the commandments of God. <sup>29:12</sup>Now it is better that a man should be judged of God than of man, for the judgments of God are always just, but the judgments of man are not always just. <sup>29:13</sup>Therefore, if it were possible that you could have just men to be your kings, who would establish the laws of God, and judge this people according to his commandments, yea, if ye could have men for your kings who would do even as my father Benjamin did for this people—I say unto you, if this could always be the case then it would be expedient that ye should always have kings to rule over you. <sup>29:14</sup>And even I myself have labored with all the power and faculties which I have possessed, to teach you the commandments of God, and to establish peace throughout the land, that there should be no wars nor contentions, no stealing, nor plundering, nor murdering, nor any manner of iniquity; <sup>29:15</sup>and whosoever has committed iniquity, him have I punished according to the crime which he has committed, according to the law which has been given to us by our fathers. <sup>29:16</sup>Now I say unto you, that because all men are not just it is not expedient that ye should have a king or kings to rule over you. <sup>29:17</sup>For behold, how much iniquity doth one wicked king cause to be committed, yea, and what great destruction! <sup>29:18</sup>Yea, remember king Noah, his wickedness and his abominations, and also the wickedness and abominations of his people. Behold what great destruction did come upon them; and also because of their iniquities they were brought into bondage. <sup>29:19</sup>And were it not for the interposition of their all-wise Creator, and this because of their sincere repentance, they must unavoidably remain in bondage until now. <sup>29:20</sup>But behold, he did deliver them because they did humble themselves before him; and because they cried mightily unto him he did deliver them out of bondage; and thus doth the Lord work with his power in all cases among the children of men, extending the arm of mercy towards them that put their trust in him. <sup>29:21</sup>And behold, now I say unto you, ye cannot dethrone an iniquitous king save it be through much contention, and the shedding of much blood. <sup>29:22</sup>For behold, he has his friends in iniquity, and he keepeth his guards about him; and he teareth up the laws of those who have reigned in righteousness before him; and he trampleth under his feet the commandments of God; <sup>29:23</sup>and he enacteth laws, and sendeth them forth among his people, yea, laws after the manner of his own wickedness; and whosoever doth not obey his laws he causeth to be destroyed; and whosoever doth rebel against him he will send his armies against them to war, and if he can he will destroy them; and thus an unrighteous king doth pervert the ways of all righteousness. <sup>29:24</sup>And now behold I say unto you, it is not expedient that such abominations should come upon you. <sup>29:25</sup>Therefore, choose you by the voice of this people, judges, that ye may be judged according to the laws which have been given you by our fathers, which are correct, and which were given them by the hand of the Lord. <sup>29:26</sup>Now it is not common that the voice of the people desireth anything contrary to that which is right; but it is common for the lesser part of the people to desire that which is not right; therefore this shall ye observe and make it your law—to do your business by the voice of the people. <sup>29:27</sup>And if the time comes that the voice of the people doth choose iniquity, then is the time that the judgments of God will come upon you; yea, then is the time he will visit you with great destruction even as he has hitherto visited this land. <sup>29:28</sup>And now if ye have judges, and they do not judge you according to the law which has been given, ye can cause that they may be judged of a higher judge. <sup>29:29</sup>If your higher judges do not judge righteous judgments, ye shall cause that a small number of your lower judges should be gathered together, and they shall judge your higher judges, according to the voice of the people. <sup>29:30</sup>And I command you to do these things in the fear of the Lord; and I command you to do these things, and that ye have no king; that if these people commit sins and iniquities they shall be answered upon their own heads. <sup>29:31</sup>For behold I say unto you, the sins of many people have been caused by the iniquities of their kings; therefore their iniquities are answered upon the heads of their kings. <sup>29:32</sup>And now I desire that this inequality should be no more in this land, especially among this my people; but I desire that this land be a land of liberty, and every man may enjoy his rights and privileges alike, so long as the Lord sees fit that we may live and inherit the land, yea, even as long as any of our posterity remains upon the face of the land. <sup>29:33</sup>And many more things did king Mosiah write unto them, unfolding unto them all the trials and troubles of a righteous king, yea, all the travails of soul for their people, and also all the murmurings of the people to their king; and he explained it all unto them. <sup>29:34</sup>And he told them that these things ought not to be; but that the burden should come upon all the people, that every man might bear his part. <sup>29:35</sup>And he also unfolded unto them all the disadvantages they labored under, by having an unrighteous king to rule over them; <sup>29:36</sup>yea, all his iniquities and abominations, and all the wars, and contentions, and bloodshed, and the stealing, and the plundering, and the committing of whoredoms, and all manner of iniquities which cannot be enumerated — telling them that these things ought not to be, that they were expressly repugnant to the commandments of God. <sup>29:37</sup>And now it came to pass, after king Mosiah had sent these things forth among the people they were convinced of the truth of his words. <sup>29:38</sup>Therefore they relinquished their desires for a king, and became exceedingly anxious that every man should have an equal chance throughout all the land; yea, and every man expressed a willingness to answer for his own sins. <sup>29:39</sup>Therefore, it came to pass that they assembled themselves together in bodies throughout the land, to cast in their voices concerning who should be their judges, to judge them according to the law which had been given them; and they were exceedingly rejoiced because of the liberty which had been granted unto them. <sup>29:40</sup>And they did wax strong in love towards Mosiah; yea, they did esteem him more than any other man; for they did not look upon him as a tyrant who was seeking for gain, yea, for that lucre which doth corrupt the soul; for he had not exacted riches of them, neither had he delighted in the shedding of blood; but he had established peace in the land, and he had granted unto his people that they should be delivered from all manner of bondage; therefore they did esteem him, yea, exceedingly, beyond measure. <sup>29:41</sup>And it came to pass that they did appoint judges to rule over them, or to judge them according to the law; and this they did throughout all the land. <sup>29:42</sup>And it came to pass that Alma was appointed to be the first chief judge, he being also the high priest, his father having conferred the office upon him, and having given him the charge concerning all the affairs of the church. <sup>29:43</sup>And now it came to pass that Alma did walk in the ways of the Lord, and he did keep his commandments, and he did judge righteous judgments; and there was continual peace through the land. <sup>29:44</sup>And thus commenced the reign of the judges throughout all the land of Zarahemla, among all the people who were called the Nephites; and Alma was the first and chief judge. <sup>29:45</sup>And now it came to pass that his father died, being eighty and two years old, having lived to fulfil the commandments of God. <sup>29:46</sup>And it came to pass that Mosiah died also, in the thirty and third year of his reign, being sixty and three years old; making in the whole, five hundred and nine years from the time Lehi left Jerusalem. <sup>29:47</sup>And thus ended the reign of the kings over the people of Nephi; and thus ended the days of Alma, who was the founder of their church.

The book of Alma the son of Alma

<↳ The account of Alma, who was the son of Alma, the first and chief judge over the people of Nephi, and also the high priest over the Church. An account of the reign of the judges, and the wars and contentions among the people. And also an account of a war between the Nephites and the Lamanites, according to the record of Alma, the first and chief judge. <sup>1:1</sup>Now it came to pass that in the first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, from this time forward, king Mosiah having gone the way of all the earth, having warred a good warfare, walking uprightly before God, leaving none to reign in his stead; nevertheless he had established laws, and they were acknowledged by the people; therefore they were obliged to abide by the laws which he had made. <sup>1:2</sup>And it came to pass that in the first year of the reign of Alma in the judgment-seat, there was a man brought before him to be judged, a man who was large, and was noted for his much strength. <sup>1:3</sup>And he had gone about among the people, preaching to them that which he termed to be the word of God, bearing down against the church; declaring unto the people that every priest and teacher ought to become popular; and they ought not to labor with their hands, but that they ought to be supported by the people. <sup>1:4</sup>And he also testified unto the people that all mankind should be saved at the last day, and that they need not fear nor tremble, but that they might lift up their heads and rejoice; for the Lord had created all men, and had also redeemed all men; and, in the end, all men should have eternal life. <sup>1:5</sup>And it came to pass that he did teach these things so much that many did believe on his words, even so many that they began to support him and give him money. <sup>1:6</sup>And he began to be lifted up in the pride of his heart, and to wear very costly apparel, yea, and even began to establish a church after the manner of his preaching. <sup>1:7</sup>And it came to pass as he was going, to preach to those who believed on his word, he met a man who belonged to the church of God, yea, even one of their teachers; and he began to contend with him sharply, that he might lead away the people of the church; but the man withstood him, admonishing him with the words of God. <sup>1:8</sup>Now the name of the man was Gideon; and it was he who was an instrument in the hands of God in delivering the people of Limhi out of bondage. <sup>1:9</sup>Now, because Gideon withstood him with the words of God he was wroth with Gideon, and drew his sword and began to smite him. Now Gideon being stricken with many years, therefore he was not able to withstand his blows, therefore he was slain by the sword. <sup>1:10</sup>And the man who slew him was taken by the people of the church, and was brought before Alma, to be judged according to the crimes which he had committed. <sup>1:11</sup>And it came to pass that he stood before Alma and pleaded for himself with much boldness. <sup>1:12</sup>But Alma said unto him: Behold, this is the first time that priestcraft has been introduced among this people. And behold, thou art not only guilty of priestcraft, but hast endeavored to enforce it by the sword; and were priestcraft to be enforced among this people it would prove their entire destruction. <sup>1:13</sup>And thou hast shed the blood of a righteous man, yea, a man who has done much good among this people; and were we to spare thee his blood would come upon us for vengeance. <sup>1:14</sup>Therefore thou art condemned to die, according to the law which has been given us by Mosiah, our last king; and it has been acknowledged by this people; therefore this people must abide by the law. <sup>1:15</sup>And it came to pass that they took him; and his name was Nehor; and they carried him upon the top of the hill Manti, and there he was caused, or rather did acknowledge, between the heavens and the earth, that what he had taught to the people was contrary to the word of God; and there he suffered an ignominious death. <sup>1:16</sup>Nevertheless, this did not put an end to the spreading of priestcraft through the land; for there were many who loved the vain things of the world, and they went forth preaching false doctrines; and this they did for the sake of riches and honor. <sup>1:17</sup>Nevertheless, they durst not lie, if it were known, for fear of the law, for liars were punished; therefore they pretended to preach according to their belief; and now the law could have no power on any man for his belief. <sup>1:18</sup>And they durst not steal, for fear of the law, for such were punished; neither durst they rob, nor murder, for he that murdered was punished unto death. <sup>1:19</sup>But it came to pass that whosoever did not belong to the church of God began to persecute those that did belong to the church of God, and had taken upon them the name of Christ. <sup>1:20</sup>Yea, they did persecute them, and afflict them with all manner of words, and this because of their humility; because they were not proud in their own eyes, and because they did impart the word of God, one with another, without money and without price. <sup>1:21</sup>Now there was a strict law among the people of the church, that there should not any man, belonging to the church, arise and persecute those that did not belong to the church, and that there should be no persecution among themselves. <sup>1:22</sup>Nevertheless, there were many among them who began to be proud, and began to contend warmly with their adversaries, even unto blows; yea, they would smite one another with their fists. <sup>1:23</sup>Now this was in the second year of the reign of Alma, and it was a cause of much affliction to the church; yea, it was the cause of much trial with the church. <sup>1:24</sup>For the hearts of many were hardened, and their names were blotted out, that they were remembered no more among the people of God. And also many withdrew themselves from among them. <sup>1:25</sup>Now this was a great trial to those that did stand fast in the faith; nevertheless, they were steadfast and immovable in keeping the commandments of God, and they bore with patience the persecution which was heaped upon them. <sup>1:26</sup>And when the priests left their labor to impart the word of God unto the people, the people also left their labors to hear the word of God. And when the priest had imparted unto them the word of God they all returned again diligently unto their labors; and the priest, not esteeming himself above his hearers, for the preacher was no better than the hearer, neither was the teacher any better than the learner; and thus they were all equal, and they did all labor, every man according to his strength. <sup>1:27</sup>And they did impart of their substance, every man according to that which he had, to the poor, and the needy, and the sick, and the afflicted; and they did not wear costly apparel, yet they were neat and comely. <sup>1:28</sup>And thus they did establish the affairs of the church; and thus they began to have continual peace again, notwithstanding all their persecutions. <sup>1:29</sup>And now, because of the steadiness of the church they began to be exceedingly rich, having abundance of all things whatsoever they stood in need — an abundance of flocks and herds, and fatlings of every kind, and also abundance of grain, and of gold, and of silver, and of precious things, and abundance of silk and fine-twined linen, and all manner of good homely cloth. <sup>1:30</sup>And thus, in their prosperous circumstances, they did not send away any who were naked, or that were hungry, or that were athirst, or that were sick, or that had not been nourished; and they did not set their hearts upon riches; therefore they were liberal to all, both old and young, both bond and free, both male and female, whether out of the church or in the church, having no respect to persons as to those who stood in need. <sup>1:31</sup>And thus they did prosper and become far more wealthy than those who did not belong to their church. <sup>1:32</sup>For those who did not belong to their church did indulge themselves in sorceries, and in idolatry or idleness, and in babblings, and in envyings and strife; wearing costly apparel; being lifted up in the pride of their own eyes; persecuting, lying, thieving, robbing, committing whoredoms, and murdering, and all manner of wickedness; nevertheless, the law was put in force upon all those who did transgress it, inasmuch as it was possible. <sup>1:33</sup>And it came to pass that by thus exercising the law upon them, every man suffering according to that which he had done, they became more still, and durst not commit any wickedness if it were known; therefore, there was much peace among the people of Nephi until the fifth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>2:1</sup>And it came to pass in the commencement of the fifth year of their reign there began to be a contention among the people; for a certain man, being called Amlici, he being a very cunning man, yea, a wise man as to the wisdom of the world, he being after the order of the man that slew Gideon by the sword, who was executed according to the law — <sup>2:2</sup>now this Amlici had, by his cunning, drawn away much people after him; even so much that they began to be very powerful; and they began to endeavor to establish Amlici to be a king over the people. <sup>2:3</sup>Now this was alarming to the people of the church, and also to all those who had not been drawn away after the persuasions of Amlici; for they knew that according to their law that such things must be established by the voice of the people. <sup>2:4</sup>Therefore, if it were possible that Amlici should gain the voice of the people, he, being a wicked man, would deprive them of their rights and privileges of the church; for it was his intent to destroy the church of God. <sup>2:5</sup>And it came to pass that the people assembled themselves together throughout all the land, every man according to his mind, whether it were for or against Amlici, in separate bodies, having much dispute and wonderful contentions one with another. <sup>2:6</sup>And thus they did assemble themselves together to cast in their voices concerning the matter; and they were laid before the judges. <sup>2:7</sup>And it came to pass that the voice of the people came against Amlici, that he was not made king over the people. <sup>2:8</sup>Now this did cause much joy in the hearts of those who were against him; but Amlici did stir up those who were in his favor to anger against those who were not in his favor. <sup>2:9</sup>And it came to pass that they gathered themselves together, and did consecrate Amlici to be their king. <sup>2:10</sup>Now when Amlici was made king over them he commanded them that they should take up arms against their brethren; and this he did that he might subject them to him. <sup>2:11</sup>Now the people of Amlici were distinguished by the name of Amlici, being called Amlicites; and the remainder were called Nephites, or the people of God. <sup>2:12</sup>Therefore the people of the Nephites were aware of the intent of the Amlicites, and therefore they did prepare to meet them; yea, they did arm themselves with swords, and with cimeters, and with bows, and with arrows, and with stones, and with slings, and with all manner of weapons of war, of every kind. <sup>2:13</sup>And thus they were prepared to meet the Amlicites at the time of their coming. And there were appointed captains, and higher captains, and chief captains, according to their numbers. <sup>2:14</sup>And it came to pass that Amlici did arm his men with all manner of weapons of war of every kind; and he also appointed rulers and leaders over his people, to lead them to war against their brethren. <sup>2:15</sup>And it came to pass that the Amlicites came upon the hill Amnihu, which was east of the river Sidon, which ran by the land of Zarahemla, and there they began to make war with the Nephites. <sup>2:16</sup>Now Alma, being the chief judge and the governor of the people of Nephi, therefore he went up with his people, yea, with his captains, and chief captains, yea, at the head of his armies, against the Amlicites to battle. <sup>2:17</sup>And they began to slay the Amlicites upon the hill east of

Sidon. And the Amlicites did contend with the Nephites with great strength, insomuch that many of the Nephites did fall before the Amlicites. <sup>2:18</sup>Nevertheless the Lord did strengthen the hand of the Nephites, that they slew the Amlicites with great slaughter, that they began to flee before them. <sup>2:19</sup>And it came to pass that the Nephites did pursue the Amlicites all that day, and did slay them with much slaughter, insomuch that there were slain of the Amlicites twelve thousand five hundred thirty and two souls; and there were slain of the Nephites six thousand five hundred sixty and two souls. <sup>2:20</sup>And it came to pass that when Alma could pursue the Amlicites no longer he caused that his people should pitch their tents in the valley of Gideon, the valley being called after that Gideon who was slain by the hand of Nehor with the sword; and in this valley the Nephites did pitch their tents for the night. <sup>2:21</sup>And Alma sent spies to follow the remnant of the Amlicites, that he might know of their plans and their plots, whereby he might guard himself against them, that he might preserve his people from being destroyed. <sup>2:22</sup>Now those whom he had sent out to watch the camp of the Amlicites were called Zeram, and Amnor, and Manti, and Limher; these were they who went out with their men to watch the camp of the Amlicites. <sup>2:23</sup>And it came to pass that on the morrow they returned into the camp of the Nephites in great haste, being greatly astonished, and struck with much fear, saying: <sup>2:24</sup>Behold, we followed the camp of the Amlicites, and to our great astonishment, in the land of Minon, above the land of Zarahemla, in the course of the land of Nephi, we saw a numerous host of the Lamanites; and behold, the Amlicites have joined them; <sup>2:25</sup>and they are upon our brethren in that land; and they are fleeing before them with their flocks, and their wives, and their children, towards our city; and except we make haste they obtain possession of our city, and our fathers, and our wives, and our children be slain. <sup>2:26</sup>And it came to pass that the people of Nephi took their tents, and departed out of the valley of Gideon towards their city, which was the city of Zarahemla. <sup>2:27</sup>And behold, as they were crossing the river Sidon, the Lamanites and the Amlicites, being as numerous almost, as it were, as the sands of the sea, came upon them to destroy them. <sup>2:28</sup>Nevertheless, the Nephites being strengthened by the hand of the Lord, having prayed mightily to him that he would deliver them out of the hands of their enemies, therefore the Lord did hear their cries, and did strengthen them, and the Lamanites and the Amlicites did fall before them. <sup>2:29</sup>And it came to pass that Alma fought with Amlici with the sword, face to face; and they did contend mightily, one with another. <sup>2:30</sup>And it came to pass that Alma, being a man of God, being exercised with much faith, cried, saying: O Lord, have mercy and spare my life, that I may be an instrument in thy hands to save and preserve this people. <sup>2:31</sup>Now when Alma had said these words he contended again with Amlici; and he was strengthened, insomuch that he slew Amlici with the sword. <sup>2:32</sup>And he also contended with the king of the Lamanites; but the king of the Lamanites fled back from before Alma and sent his guards to contend with Alma. <sup>2:33</sup>But Alma, with his guards, contended with the guards of the king of the

Lamanites until he slew and drove them back. <sup>2:34</sup>And thus he cleared the ground, or rather the bank, which was on the west of the river Sidon, throwing the bodies of the Lamanites who had been slain into the waters of Sidon, that thereby his people might have room to cross and contend with the Lamanites and the Amlicites on the west side of the river Sidon. <sup>2:35</sup>And it came to pass that when they had all crossed the river Sidon that the Lamanites and the Amlicites began to flee before them, notwithstanding they were so numerous that they could not be numbered. <sup>2:36</sup>And they fled before the Nephites towards the wilderness which was west and north, away beyond the borders of the land; and the Nephites did pursue them with their might, and did slay them. <sup>2:37</sup>Yea, they were met on every hand, and slain and driven, until they were scattered on the west, and on the north, until they had reached the wilderness, which was called Hermounts; and it was that part of the wilderness which was infested by wild and ravenous beasts. <sup>2:38</sup>And it came to pass that many died in the wilderness of their wounds, and were devoured by those beasts and also the vultures of the air; and their bones have been found, and have been heaped up on the earth. <sup>3:1</sup>And it came to pass that the Nephites who were not slain by the weapons of war, after having buried those who had been slain—now the number of the slain were not numbered, because of the greatness of their number—after they had finished burying their dead they all returned to their lands, and to their houses, and their wives, and their children. <sup>3:2</sup>Now many women and children had been slain with the sword, and also many of their flocks and their herds; and also many of their fields of grain were destroyed, for they were trodden down by the hosts of men. <sup>3:3</sup>And now as many of the Lamanites and the Amlicites who had been slain upon the bank of the river Sidon were cast into the waters of Sidon; and behold their bones are in the depths of the sea, and they are many. <sup>3:4</sup>And the Amlicites were distinguished from the Nephites, for they had marked themselves with red in their foreheads after the manner of the Lamanites; nevertheless they had not shorn their heads like unto the Lamanites. <sup>3:5</sup>Now the heads of the Lamanites were shorn; and they were naked, save it were skin which was girded about their loins, and also their armor, which was girded about them, and their bows, and their arrows, and their stones, and their slings, and so forth. <sup>3:6</sup>And the skins of the Lamanites were dark, according to the mark which was set upon their fathers, which was a curse upon them because of their transgression and their rebellion against their brethren, who consisted of Nephi, Jacob, and Joseph, and Sam, who were just and holy men. <sup>3:7</sup>And their brethren sought to destroy them, therefore they were cursed; and the Lord God set a mark upon them, yea, upon Laman and Lemuel, and also the sons of Ishmael, and Ishmaelitish women. <sup>3:8</sup>And this was done that their seed might be distinguished from the seed of their brethren, that thereby the Lord God might preserve his people, that they might not mix and believe in incorrect traditions which would prove their destruction. <sup>3:9</sup>And it came to pass that whosoever did mingle his seed with that of the Lamanites did bring the same curse upon his seed. <sup>3:10</sup>Therefore, whosoever suffered himself to be led away by the Lamanites was called under that head, and there was a mark set upon him. <sup>3:11</sup>And it came to pass that whosoever would not believe in the tradition of the Lamanites, but believed those records which were brought out of the land of Jerusalem, and also in the tradition of their fathers, which were correct, who believed in the commandments of God and kept them, were called the Nephites, or the people of Nephi, from that time forth—<sup>3:12</sup>and it is they who have kept the records which are true of their people, and also of the people of the Lamanites. <sup>3:13</sup>Now we will return again to the Amlicites, for they also had a mark set upon them; yea, they set the mark upon themselves, yea, even a mark of red upon their foreheads. <sup>3:14</sup>Thus the word of God is fulfilled, for these are the words which he said to Nephi: Behold, the Lamanites have I cursed, and I will set a mark on them that they and their seed may be separated from thee and thy seed, from this time henceforth and forever, except they repent of their wickedness and turn to me that I may have mercy upon them. <sup>3:15</sup>And again: I will set a mark upon him that mingleth his seed with thy brethren, that they may be cursed also. <sup>3:16</sup>And again: I will set a mark upon him that fighteth against thee and thy seed. <sup>3:17</sup>And again, I say he that departeth from thee shall no more be called thy seed; and I will bless thee, and whomsoever shall be called thy seed, henceforth and forever; and these were the promises of the Lord unto Nephi and to his seed. <sup>3:18</sup>Now the Amlicites knew not that they were fulfilling the words of God when they began to mark themselves in their foreheads; nevertheless they had come out in open rebellion against God; therefore it was expedient that the curse should fall upon them. <sup>3:19</sup>Now I would that ye should see that they brought upon themselves the curse; and even so doth every man that is cursed bring upon himself his own condemnation. <sup>3:20</sup>Now it came to pass that not many days after the battle which was fought in the land of Zarahemla, by the Lamanites and the Amlicites, that there was another army of the Lamanites came in upon the people of Nephi, in the same place where the first army met the Amlicites. <sup>3:21</sup>And it came to pass that there was an army sent to drive them out of their land. <sup>3:22</sup>Now Alma himself being afflicted with a wound did not go up to battle at this time against the Lamanites; <sup>3:23</sup>but he sent up a numerous army against them; and they went up and slew many of the Lamanites, and drove the remainder of them out of the borders of their land. <sup>3:24</sup>And then they returned again and began to establish peace in the land, being troubled no more for a time with their enemies. <sup>3:25</sup>Now all these things were done, yea, all these wars and contentions were commenced and ended in the fifth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>3:26</sup>And in one year were thousands and tens of thousands of souls sent to the eternal world, that they might reap their rewards according to their works, whether they were good or whether they were bad, to reap eternal happiness or eternal misery, according to the spirit which they listed to obey, whether it be a good spirit or a bad one. <sup>3:27</sup>For every man receiveth wages of him whom he listeth to obey, and this according to the words of the spirit of prophecy; therefore let it be according to the truth. And thus endeth the fifth year of the reign of the judges. <sup><II>4:1</sup>Now it came to pass in the sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, there were no contentions nor wars in the land of Zarahemla; <sup>4:2</sup>but the people were afflicted, yea, greatly afflicted for the loss of their brethren, and also for the loss of their flocks and herds, and also for the loss of their fields of grain, which were trodden under foot and destroyed by the Lamanites. <sup>4:3</sup>And so great were their afflictions that every soul had cause to mourn; and they believed that it was the judgments of God sent upon them because of their wickedness and their abominations; therefore they were awakened to a remembrance of their duty. <sup>4:4</sup>And they began to establish the church more fully; yea, and many were baptized in the waters of Sidon and were joined to the church of God; yea, they were baptized by the hand of Alma, who had been consecrated the high priest over the people of the church, by the hand of his father Alma. <sup>4:5</sup>And it came to pass in the seventh year of the reign of the judges there were about three thousand five hundred souls that united themselves to the church of God and were baptized. And thus ended the seventh year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi; and there was continual peace in all that time. <sup>4:6</sup>And it came to pass in the eighth year of the reign of the judges, that the people of the church began to wax proud, because of their exceeding riches, and their fine silks, and their fine-twined linen, and because of their many flocks and herds, and their gold and their silver, and all manner of precious things, which they had obtained by their industry; and in all these things were they lifted up in the pride of their eyes, for they began to wear very costly apparel. <sup>4:7</sup>Now this was the cause of much affliction to Alma, yea, and to many of the people whom Alma had consecrated to be teachers, and priests, and elders over the church; yea, many of them were sorely grieved for the wickedness which they saw had begun to be among their people. <sup>4:8</sup>For they saw and beheld with great sorrow that the people of the church began to be lifted up in the pride of their eyes, and to set their hearts upon riches and upon the vain things of the world, that they began to be scornful, one towards another, and they began to persecute those that did not believe according to their own will and pleasure. <sup>4:9</sup>And thus, in this eighth year of the reign of the judges, there began to be great contentions among the people of the church; yea, there were envyings, and strife, and malice, and persecutions, and pride, even to exceed the pride of those who did not belong to the church of God. <sup>4:10</sup>And thus ended the eighth year of the reign of the judges; and the wickedness of the church was a great stumbling-block to those who did not belong to the church; and thus the church began to fail in its progress. <sup>4:11</sup>And it came to pass in the commencement of the ninth year, Alma saw the wickedness of the church, and he saw also that the example of the church began to lead those who were unbelievers on from one piece of iniquity to another, thus bringing on the destruction of the people. <sup>4:12</sup>Yea, he saw great inequality among the people, some lifting themselves up with their pride, despising others, turning their backs upon the needy and the naked and those who were hungry, and those who were

athirst, and those who were sick and afflicted. <sup>4:13</sup>Now this was a great cause for lamentations among the people, while others were abasing themselves, succoring those who stood in need of their succor, such as imparting their substance to the poor and the needy, feeding the hungry, and suffering all manner of afflictions, for Christ's sake, who should come according to the spirit of prophecy; <sup>4:14</sup>looking forward to that day, thus retaining a remission of their sins; being filled with great joy because of the resurrection of the dead, according to the will and power and deliverance of Jesus Christ from the bands of death. <sup>4:15</sup>And now it came to pass that Alma, having seen the afflictions of the humble followers of God, and the persecutions which were heaped upon them by the remainder of his people, and seeing all their inequality, began to be very sorrowful; nevertheless the Spirit of the Lord did not fail him. <sup>4:16</sup>And he selected a wise man who was among the elders of the church, and gave him power according to the voice of the people, that he might have power to enact laws according to the laws which had been given, and to put them in force according to the wickedness and the crimes of the people. <sup>4:17</sup>Now this man's name was Nephiah, and he was appointed chief judge; and he sat in the judgment-seat to judge and to govern the people. <sup>4:18</sup>Now Alma did not grant unto him the office of being high priest over the church, but he retained the office of high priest unto himself; but he delivered the judgment-seat unto Nephiah. <sup>4:19</sup>And this he did that he himself might go forth among his people, or among the people of Nephi, that he might preach the word of God unto them, to stir them up in remembrance of their duty, and that he might pull down, by the word of God, all the pride and craftiness and all the contentions which were among his people, seeing no way that he might reclaim them save it were in bearing down in pure testimony against them. <sup>4:20</sup>And thus in the commencement of the ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, Alma delivered up the judgment-seat to Nephiah, and confined himself wholly to the high priesthood of the holy order of God, to the testimony of the word, according to the spirit of revelation and prophecy. <sup><III></sup>The words which Alma, the High Priest according to the holy order of God, delivered to the people in their cities and villages throughout the land. <sup>5:1</sup>Now it came to pass that Alma began to deliver the word of God unto the people, first in the land of Zarahemla, and from thence throughout all the land. <sup>5:2</sup>And these are the words which he spake to the people in the church which was established in the city of Zarahemla, according to his own record, saying: <sup>5:3</sup>I, Alma, having been consecrated by my father, Alma, to be a high priest over the church of God, he having power and authority from God to do these things, behold, I say unto you that he began to establish a church in the land which was in the borders of Nephi; yea, the land which was called the land of Mormon; yea, and he did baptize his brethren in the waters of Mormon. <sup>5:4</sup>And behold, I say unto you, they were delivered out of the hands of the people of king Noah, by the mercy and power of God. <sup>5:5</sup>And behold, after that, they were brought into bondage by the hands of the Lamanites in the wilderness; yea, I say unto you, they were in captivity, and again the Lord did deliver them out of bondage by the power of his word; and we were brought into this land, and here we began to establish the church of God throughout this land also. <sup>5:6</sup>And now behold, I say unto you, my brethren, you that belong to this church, have you sufficiently retained in remembrance the captivity of your fathers? Yea, and have you sufficiently retained in remembrance his mercy and long-suffering towards them? And moreover, have ye sufficiently retained in remembrance that he has delivered their souls from hell? <sup>5:7</sup>Behold, he changed their hearts; yea, he awakened them out of a deep sleep, and they awoke unto God. Behold, they were in the midst of darkness; nevertheless, their souls were illuminated by the light of the everlasting word; yea, they were encircled about by the bands of death, and the chains of hell, and an everlasting destruction did await them. <sup>5:8</sup>And now I ask of you, my brethren, were they destroyed? Behold, I say unto you, Nay, they were not. <sup>5:9</sup>And again I ask, were the bands of death broken, and the chains of hell which encircled them about, were they loosed? I say unto you, Yea, they were loosed, and their souls did expand, and they did sing redeeming love. And I say unto you that they are saved. <sup>5:10</sup>And now I ask of you on what conditions are they saved? Yea, what grounds had they to hope for salvation? What is the cause of their being loosed from the bands of death, yea, and also the chains of hell? <sup>5:11</sup>Behold, I can tell you—did not my father Alma believe in the words which were delivered by the mouth of Abinadi? And was he not a holy prophet? Did he not speak the words of God, and my father Alma believe them? <sup>5:12</sup>And according to his faith there was a mighty change wrought in his heart. Behold I say unto you that this is all true. <sup>5:13</sup>And behold, he preached the word unto your fathers, and a mighty change was also wrought in their hearts, and they humbled themselves and put their trust in the true and living God. And behold, they were faithful until the end; therefore they were saved. <sup>5:14</sup>And now behold, I ask of you, my brethren of the church, have ye spiritually been born of God? Have ye received his image in your countenances? Have ye experienced this mighty change in your hearts? <sup>5:15</sup>Do ye exercise faith in the redemption of him who created you? Do you look forward with an eye of faith, and view this mortal body raised in immortality, and this corruption raised in incorruption, to stand before God to be judged according to the deeds which have been done in the mortal body? <sup>5:16</sup>I say unto you, can you imagine to yourselves that ye hear the voice of the Lord, saying unto you, in that day: Come unto me ye blessed, for behold, your works have been the works of righteousness upon the face of the earth? <sup>5:17</sup>Or do ye imagine to yourselves that ye can lie unto the Lord in that day, and say—Lord, our works have been righteous works upon the face of the earth—and that he will save you? <sup>5:18</sup>Or otherwise, can ye imagine yourselves brought before the tribunal of God with your souls filled with guilt and remorse, having a remembrance of all your guilt, yea, a perfect remembrance of all your wickedness, yea, a remembrance that ye have set at defiance the commandments of God? <sup>5:19</sup>I say unto you, can ye look up to God at that day with a pure heart and clean hands? I say unto you, can you look up, having the image of God engraven upon your countenances? <sup>5:20</sup>I say unto you, can ye think of being saved when you have yielded yourselves to become subjects to the devil? <sup>5:21</sup>I say unto you, ye will know at that day that ye cannot be saved; for there can no man be saved except his garments are washed white; yea, his garments must be purified until they are cleansed from all stain, through the blood of him of whom it has been spoken by our fathers, who should come to redeem his people from their sins. <sup>5:22</sup>And now I ask of you, my brethren, how will any of you feel, if ye shall stand before the bar of God, having your garments stained with blood and all manner of filthiness? Behold, what will these things testify against you? <sup>5:23</sup>Behold will they not testify that ye are murderers, yea, and also that ye are guilty of all manner of wickedness? <sup>5:24</sup>Behold, my brethren, do ye suppose that such an one can have a place to sit down in the kingdom of God, with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob, and also all the holy prophets, whose garments are cleansed and are spotless, pure and white? <sup>5:25</sup>I say unto you, Nay; except ye make our Creator a liar from the beginning, or suppose that he is a liar from the beginning, ye cannot suppose that such can have place in the kingdom of heaven; but they shall be cast out for they are the children of the kingdom of the devil. <sup>5:26</sup>And now behold, I say unto you, my brethren, if ye have experienced a change of heart, and if ye have felt to sing the song of redeeming love, I would ask, can ye feel so now? <sup>5:27</sup>Have ye walked, keeping yourselves blameless before God? Could ye say, if ye were called to die at this time, within yourselves, that ye have been sufficiently humble? That your garments have been cleansed and made white through the blood of Christ, who will come to redeem his people from their sins? <sup>5:28</sup>Behold, are ye stripped of pride? I say unto you, if ye are not ye are not prepared to meet God. Behold ye must prepare quickly; for the kingdom of heaven is soon at hand, and such an one hath not eternal life. <sup>5:29</sup>Behold, I say, is there one among you who is not stripped of envy? I say unto you that such an one is not prepared; and I would that he should prepare quickly, for the hour is close at hand, and he knoweth not when the time shall come; for such an one is not found guiltless. <sup>5:30</sup>And again I say unto you, is there one among you that doth make a mock of his brother, or that heapeth upon him persecutions? <sup>5:31</sup>Wo unto such an one, for he is not prepared, and the time is at hand that he must repent or he cannot be saved! <sup>5:32</sup>Yea, even wo unto all ye workers of iniquity; repent, repent, for the Lord God hath spoken it! <sup>5:33</sup>Behold, he sendeth an invitation unto all men, for the arms of mercy are extended towards them, and he saith: Repent, and I will receive you. <sup>5:34</sup>Yea, he saith: Come unto me and ye shall partake of the fruit of the tree of life; yea, ye shall eat and drink of the bread and the waters of life freely; <sup>5:35</sup>yea, come unto me and bring forth works of righteousness, and ye shall not be hewn down and cast into the fire—<sup>5:36</sup>for behold, the time is at hand that whosoever bringeth forth not good fruit, or whosoever doeth not the works of righteousness, the same have cause to wail and mourn. <sup>5:37</sup>O ye workers of iniquity; ye that are puffed up in the vain things of the world, ye that have professed to have known the ways of righteousness nevertheless have gone astray, as sheep having no shepherd, notwithstanding a shepherd hath called after you and is still calling after you, but ye will not hearken unto his voice!

<sup>5:38</sup>Behold, I say unto you, that the good shepherd doth call you; yea, and in his own name he doth call you, which is the name of Christ; and if ye will not hearken unto the voice of the good shepherd, to the name by which ye are called, behold, ye are not the sheep of the good shepherd. <sup>5:39</sup>And now if ye are not the sheep of the good shepherd, of what fold are ye? Behold, I say unto you, that the devil is your shepherd, and ye are of his fold; and now, who can deny this? Behold, I say unto you, whosoever denieth this is a liar and a child of the devil.

<sup>5:40</sup>For I say unto you that whatsoever is good cometh from God, and whatsoever is evil cometh from the devil. <sup>5:41</sup>Therefore, if a man bringeth forth good works he hearkeneth unto the voice of the good shepherd, and he doth follow him; but whosoever bringeth forth evil works, the same becometh a child of the devil, for he hearkeneth unto his voice, and doth follow him. <sup>5:42</sup>And whosoever doeth this must receive his wages of him; therefore, for his wages he receiveth death, as to things pertaining unto righteousness, being dead unto all good works. <sup>5:43</sup>And now, my brethren, I would that ye should hear me, for I speak in the energy of my soul; for behold, I have spoken unto you plainly that ye cannot err, or have spoken according to the commandments of God. <sup>5:44</sup>For I am called to speak after this manner, according to the holy order of God, which is in Christ Jesus; yea, I am commanded to stand and testify unto this people the things which have been spoken by our fathers concerning the things which are to come. <sup>5:45</sup>And this is not all. Do ye not suppose that I know of these things myself? Behold, I testify unto you that I do know that these things whereof I have spoken are true. And how do ye suppose that I know of their surety? <sup>5:46</sup>Behold, I say unto you they are made known unto me by the Holy Spirit of God. Behold, I have fasted and prayed many days that I might know these things of myself. And now I do know of myself that they are true; for the Lord God hath made them manifest unto me by his Holy Spirit; and this is the spirit of revelation which is in me. <sup>5:47</sup>And moreover, I say unto you that it has thus been revealed unto me, that the words which have been spoken by our fathers are true, even so according to the spirit of prophecy which is in me, which is also by the manifestation of the Spirit of God.

<sup>5:48</sup>I say unto you, that I know of myself that whatsoever I shall say unto you, concerning that which is to come, is true; and I say unto you, that I know that Jesus Christ shall come, yea, the Son, the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace, and mercy, and truth. And behold, it is he that cometh to take away the sins of the world, yea, the sins of every man who steadfastly believeth on his name. <sup>5:49</sup>And now I say unto you that this is the order after which I am called, yea, to preach unto my beloved brethren, yea, and every one that dwelleth in the land; yea, to preach unto all, both old and young, both bond and free; yea, I say unto you the aged, and also the middle aged, and the rising generation; yea, to cry unto them that they must repent and be born again. <sup>5:50</sup>Yea, thus saith the Spirit: Repent, all ye ends of the earth, for the kingdom of heaven is soon at hand; yea, the Son of God cometh in his glory, in his might, majesty, power, and dominion. Yea, my beloved brethren, I say unto you, that the Spirit saith: Behold the glory of the King of all the earth; and also the King of heaven shall very soon shine forth among all the children of men. <sup>5:51</sup>And also the Spirit saith unto me, yea, crieth unto me with a mighty voice, saying: Go forth and say unto this people—Repent, for except ye repent ye can in nowise inherit the kingdom of heaven. <sup>5:52</sup>And again I say unto you, the Spirit saith: Behold, the ax is laid at the root of the tree; therefore every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be hewn down and cast into the fire, yea, a fire which cannot be consumed, even an unquenchable fire. Behold, and remember, the Holy One hath spoken it. <sup>5:53</sup>And now my beloved brethren, I say unto you, can ye withstand these sayings; yea, can ye lay aside these things, and trample the Holy One under your feet; yea, can ye be puffed up in the pride of your hearts; yea, will ye still persist in the wearing of costly apparel and setting your hearts upon the vain things of the world, upon your riches? <sup>5:54</sup>Yea, will ye persist in supposing that ye are better one than another; yea, will ye persist in the persecution of your brethren, who humble themselves and do walk after the holy order of God, wherewith they have been brought into this church, having been sanctified by the Holy Spirit, and they do bring forth works which are meet for repentance—<sup>5:55</sup>yea, and will ye persist in turning your backs upon the poor, and the needy, and in withholding your substance from them? <sup>5:56</sup>And finally, all ye that will persist in your wickedness, I say unto you that these are they who shall be hewn down and cast into the fire except they speedily repent. <sup>5:57</sup>And now I say unto you, all you that are desirous to follow the voice of the good shepherd, come ye out from the wicked, and be ye separate, and touch not their unclean things; and behold, their names shall be blotted out, that the names of the wicked shall not be numbered among the names of the righteous, that the word of God may be fulfilled, which saith: The names of the wicked shall not be mingled with the names of my people; <sup>5:58</sup>for the names of the righteous shall be written in the book of life, and unto them will I grant an inheritance at my right hand. And now, my brethren, what have ye to say against this? I say unto you, if ye speak against it, it matters not, for the word of God must be fulfilled. <sup>5:59</sup>For what shepherd is there among you having many sheep doth not watch over them, that the wolves enter not and devour his flock? And behold, if a wolf enter his flock doth he not drive him out? Yea, and at the last, if he can, he will destroy him. <sup>5:60</sup>And now I say unto you that the good shepherd doth call after you; and if you will hearken unto his voice he will bring you into his fold, and ye are his sheep; and he commandeth you that ye suffer no ravenous wolf to enter among you, that ye may not be destroyed. <sup>5:61</sup>And now I, Alma, do command you in the language of him who hath commanded me, that ye observe to do the words which I have spoken unto you. <sup>5:62</sup>I speak by way of command unto you that belong to the church; and unto those who do not belong to the church I speak by way of invitation, saying:

Come and be baptized unto repentance, that ye also may be partakers of the fruit of the tree of life. <sup><1V>6:1</sup>And now it came to pass that after Alma had made an end of speaking unto the people of the church, which was established in the city of Zarahemla, he ordained priests and elders, by laying on his hands according to the order of God, to preside and watch over the church. <sup>6:2</sup>And it came to pass that whosoever did not belong to the church who repented of their sins were baptized unto repentance, and were received into the church. <sup>6:3</sup>And it also came to pass that whosoever did belong to the church that did not repent of their wickedness and humble themselves before God—I mean those who were lifted up in the pride of their hearts—the same were rejected, and their names were blotted out, that their names were not numbered among those of the righteous. <sup>6:4</sup>And thus they began to establish the order of the church in the city of Zarahemla. <sup>6:5</sup>Now I would that ye should understand that the word of God was liberal unto all, that none were deprived of the privilege of assembling themselves together to hear the word of God. <sup>6:6</sup>Nevertheless the children of God were commanded that they should gather themselves together oft, and join in fasting and mighty prayer in behalf of the welfare of the souls of those who knew not God. <sup>6:7</sup>And now it came to pass that when Alma had made these regulations he departed from them, yea, from the church which was in the city of Zarahemla, and went over upon the east of the river Sidon, into the valley of Gideon, there having been a city built, which was called the city of Gideon, which was in the valley that was called Gideon, being called after the man who was slain by the hand of Nehor with the sword. <sup>6:8</sup>And Alma went and began to declare the word of God unto the church which was established in the valley of Gideon, according to the revelation of the truth of the word which had been spoken by his fathers, and according to the spirit of prophecy which was in him, according to the testimony of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who should come to redeem his people from their sins, and the holy order by which he was called. And thus it is written. Amen. <sup><1></sup>The words of Alma which he delivered to the people in Gideon, according to his own record. <sup>7:1</sup>Behold my beloved brethren, seeing that I have been permitted to come unto you, therefore I attempt to address you in my language; yea, by my own mouth, seeing that it is the first time that I have spoken unto you by the words of my mouth, I having been wholly confined to the judgment-seat, having had much business that I could not come unto you. <sup>7:2</sup>And even I could not have come now at this time were it not that the judgment-seat hath been given to another, to reign in my stead; and the Lord in much mercy hath granted that I should come unto you. <sup>7:3</sup>And behold, I have come having great hopes and much desire that I should find that ye had humbled yourselves before God, and that ye had continued in the supplicating of his grace, that I should find that ye were blameless before him, that I should find that ye were not in the awful dilemma that our brethren were in at Zarahemla. <sup>7:4</sup>But blessed be the name of God, that he hath given me to know, yea, hath given unto me the exceedingly great joy of knowing that they are established again in the way of his righteousness. <sup>7:5</sup>And I trust, according to the Spirit of God which is in me, that I shall also have joy over you; nevertheless I do not desire that my joy over you should come by the cause of so much afflictions and sorrow which I have had for the brethren at Zarahemla, for behold, my joy cometh over them after wading through much affliction and sorrow. <sup>7:6</sup>But behold, I trust that ye are not in a state of so much unbelief as were your brethren; I trust that ye are not lifted up in the pride of your hearts; yea, I trust that ye have not set your hearts upon riches and the vain things of the world; yea, I trust that you do not worship idols, but that ye do worship the true and the living God, and that ye look forward for the remission of your sins, with an everlasting faith, which is to come. <sup>7:7</sup>For behold, I say unto you there be many things to come; and behold, there is one thing which is of more importance than they all—for behold, the time is not far distant that the Redeemer liveth and cometh among his people. <sup>7:8</sup>Behold, I do not say that he will come among us at the time of his dwelling in his mortal tabernacle; for behold, the Spirit hath not said unto me that this should be the case. Now as to this thing I do not know; but this much I do know, that the Lord God hath power to do all things which are according to his word. <sup>7:9</sup>But behold, the Spirit hath said this much unto me, saying: Cry unto this people, saying—Repent ye, and prepare the way of the Lord, and walk in his paths, which are straight; for behold, the kingdom of heaven is at hand, and the Son of God cometh upon the face of the earth. <sup>7:10</sup>And behold, he shall be born of Mary, at Jerusalem which is the land of our forefathers, she being a virgin, a precious and chosen vessel, who shall be overshadowed and conceive by the power of the Holy Ghost, and bring forth a son, yea, even the Son of God. <sup>7:11</sup>And he shall go forth, suffering pains and afflictions and temptations of every kind; and this that the word might be fulfilled which saith he will take upon him the pains and the sicknesses of his people. <sup>7:12</sup>And he will take upon him death, that he may loose the bands of death which bind his people; and he will take upon him their infirmities, that his bowels may be filled with mercy, according to the flesh, that he may know according to the flesh how to succor his people according to their infirmities. <sup>7:13</sup>Now the Spirit knoweth all things; nevertheless the Son of God suffereth according to the flesh that he might take upon him the sins of his people, that he might blot out their transgressions according to the power of his deliverance; and now behold, this is the testimony which is in me. <sup>7:14</sup>Now I say unto you that ye must repent, and be born again; for the Spirit saith if ye are not born again ye cannot inherit the kingdom of heaven; therefore come and be baptized unto repentance, that ye may be washed from your sins, that ye may have faith on the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sins of the world, who is mighty to save and to cleanse from all unrighteousness. <sup>7:15</sup>Yea, I say unto you come and fear not, and lay aside every sin, which easily doth beset you, which doth bind you down to destruction, yea, come and go forth, and show unto your God that ye are willing to repent of your sins and enter into a covenant with him to keep his commandments, and witness it unto him this day by going into the waters of baptism. <sup>7:16</sup>And whosoever doeth this, and keepeth the commandments of God from thenceforth, the same will remember that I say unto him, yea, he will remember that I have said unto him, he shall have eternal life, according to the testimony of the Holy Spirit, which testifieth in me. <sup>7:17</sup>And now my beloved brethren, do you believe these things? Behold, I say unto you, yea, I know that ye believe them; and the way that I know that ye believe them is by the manifestation of the Spirit which is in me. And now because your faith is strong concerning that, yea, concerning the things which I have spoken, great is my joy. <sup>7:18</sup>For as I said unto you from the beginning, that I had much desire that ye were not in the state of dilemma like your brethren, even so I have found that my desires have been gratified. <sup>7:19</sup>For I perceive that ye are in the paths of righteousness; I perceive that ye are in the path which leads to the kingdom of God; yea, I perceive that ye are making his paths straight. <sup>7:20</sup>I perceive that it has been made known unto you, by the testimony of his word, that he cannot walk in crooked paths; neither doth he vary from that which he hath said; neither hath he a shadow of turning from the right to the left, or from that which is right to that which is wrong; therefore, his course is one eternal round. <sup>7:21</sup>And he doth not dwell in unholy temples; neither can filthiness or anything which is unclean be received into the kingdom of God; therefore I say unto you the time shall come, yea, and it shall be at the last day, that he who is filthy shall remain in his filthiness. <sup>7:22</sup>And now my beloved brethren, I have said these things unto you that I might awaken you to a sense of your duty to God, that ye may walk blameless before him, that ye may walk after the holy order of God, after which ye have been received. <sup>7:23</sup>And now I would that ye should be humble, and be submissive and gentle; easy to be entreated; full of patience and long-suffering; being temperate in all things; being diligent in keeping the commandments of God at all times; asking for whatsoever things ye stand in need, both spiritual and temporal; always returning thanks unto God for whatsoever things ye do receive. <sup>7:24</sup>And see that ye have faith, hope, and charity, and then ye will always abound in good works. <sup>7:25</sup>And may the Lord bless you, and keep your garments spotless, that ye may at last be brought to sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and the holy prophets who have been ever since the world began, having your garments spotless even as their garments are spotless, in the kingdom of heaven to go no more out. <sup>7:26</sup>And now my beloved brethren, I have spoken these words unto you according to the Spirit which testifieth in me; and my soul doth exceedingly rejoice, because of the exceeding diligence and heed which ye have given unto my word. <sup>7:27</sup>And now, may the peace of God rest upon you, and upon your houses and lands, and upon your flocks and herds, and all that you possess, your women and your children, according to your faith and good works, from this time forth and forever. And thus I have spoken. Amen. <sup><VI>8:1</sup> And now it came to pass that Alma returned from the land of Gideon, after having taught the people of Gideon many things which cannot be written, having established the order of the church, according as he had before done in the land of Zarahemla, yea, he returned to his own house at Zarahemla to rest himself from the labors which he had performed. <sup>8:2</sup>And thus ended the ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>8:3</sup>And it came to pass in the commencement of the tenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, that Alma departed from thence and took his journey over into the land of Melek, on the west of the river Sidon, on the west by the borders of the wilderness. <sup>8:4</sup>And he began to teach the people in the land of Melek according to the holy order of God, by which he had been called; and he began to teach the people throughout all the land of Melek. <sup>8:5</sup>And it came to pass that the people came to him throughout all the borders of the land which was by the wilderness side. And they were baptized throughout all the land; <sup>8:6</sup>so that when he had finished his work at Melek he departed thence, and traveled three days' journey on the north of the land of Melek; and he came to a city which was called Ammonihah. <sup>8:7</sup>Now it was the custom of the people of Nephi to call their lands, and their cities, and their villages, yea, even all their small villages, after the name of him who first possessed them; and thus it was with the land of Ammonihah. <sup>8:8</sup>And it came to pass that when Alma had come to the city of Ammonihah he began to preach the word of God unto them. <sup>8:9</sup>Now Satan had gotten great hold upon the hearts of the people of the city of Ammonihah; therefore they would not hearken unto the words of Alma. <sup>8:10</sup>Nevertheless Alma labored much in the spirit, wrestling with God in mighty prayer, that he would pour out his Spirit upon the people who were in the city; that he would also grant that he might baptize them unto repentance. <sup>8:11</sup>Nevertheless, they hardened their hearts, saying unto him: Behold, we know that thou art Alma; and we know that thou art high priest over the church which thou hast established in many parts of the land, according to your tradition; and we are not of thy church, and we do not believe in such foolish traditions. <sup>8:12</sup>And now we know that because we are not of thy church we know that thou hast no power over us; and thou hast delivered up the judgment-seat unto Nephihah; therefore thou art not the chief judge over us. <sup>8:13</sup>Now when the people had said this, and withstood all his words, and reviled him, and spit upon him, and caused that he should be cast out of their city, he departed thence and took his journey towards the city which was called Aaron. <sup>8:14</sup>And it came to pass that while he was journeying thither, being weighed down with sorrow, wading through much tribulation and anguish of soul, because of the wickedness of the people who were in the city of Ammonihah, it came to pass while Alma was thus weighed down with sorrow, behold an angel of the Lord appeared unto him, saying: <sup>8:15</sup>Blessed art thou, Alma; therefore, lift up thy head and rejoice, for thou hast great cause to rejoice; for thou hast been faithful in keeping the commandments of God from the time which thou receivedst thy first message from him. Behold, I am he that delivered it unto you. <sup>8:16</sup>And behold, I am sent to command thee that thou return to the city of Ammonihah, and preach again unto the people of the city; yea, preach unto them. Yea, say unto them, except they repent the Lord God will destroy them. <sup>8:17</sup>For behold, they do study at this time that they may destroy the liberty of thy people, (for thus saith the Lord) which is contrary to the statutes, and judgments, and commandments which he has given unto his people. <sup>8:18</sup>Now it came to pass that after Alma had received his message from the angel of the Lord he returned speedily to the land of Ammonihah. And he entered the city by another way, yea, by the way which is on the south of the city of Ammonihah. <sup>8:19</sup>And as he entered the city he was an hungered, and he said to a man: Will ye give to an humble servant of God something to eat? <sup>8:20</sup>And the man said unto him: I am a Nephite, and I know that thou art a holy prophet of God, for thou art the man whom an angel said in a vision: Thou shalt receive. Therefore, go with me into my house and I will impart unto thee of my food; and I know that thou wilt be a blessing unto me and my house. <sup>8:21</sup>And it came to pass that the man received him into his house; and the man was called Amulek; and he brought forth bread and meat and set before Alma. <sup>8:22</sup>And it came to pass that Alma ate bread and was filled; and he blessed Amulek and his house, and he gave thanks unto God. <sup>8:23</sup>And after he had eaten and was filled he said unto Amulek: I am Alma, and am the high priest over the church of God throughout the land. <sup>8:24</sup>And behold, I have been called to preach the word of God among all this people, according to the spirit of revelation and prophecy; and I was in this land and they would not receive me, but they cast me out and I was about to set my back towards this land forever. <sup>8:25</sup>But behold, I have been commanded that I should turn again and prophesy unto this people, yea, and to testify against them concerning their iniquities. <sup>8:26</sup>And now, Amulek, because thou hast fed me and taken me in, thou art blessed; for I was an hungered, for I had fasted many days. <sup>8:27</sup>And Alma tarried many days with Amulek before he began to preach unto the people. <sup>8:28</sup>And it came to pass that the people did wax more gross in their iniquities. <sup>8:29</sup>And the word came to Alma, saying: Go; and also say unto my servant Amulek, go forth and prophesy unto this people, saying—Repent ye, for thus saith the Lord, except ye repent I will visit this people in mine anger; yea, and I will not turn my fierce anger away. <sup>8:30</sup>And Alma went forth, and also Amulek, among the people, to declare the words of God unto them; and they were filled with the Holy Ghost. <sup>8:31</sup>And they had power given unto them, insomuch that they could not be confined in dungeons; neither was it possible that any man could slay them; nevertheless they did not exercise their power until they were bound in bands and cast into prison. Now, this was done that the Lord might show forth his power in them. <sup>8:32</sup>And it came to pass that they went forth and began to preach and to prophesy unto the people, according to the spirit and power which the Lord had given them. <sup><VII></sup>The words of Alma, and also the words of Amulek, which were declared unto the people who were in the land of Ammonihah. And also they are cast into prison, and delivered by the miraculous power of God which was in them, according to the record of Alma. <sup>9:1</sup>And again, I, Alma, having been commanded of God that I should take Amulek and go forth and preach again unto this people, or the people who were in the city of Ammonihah, it came to pass as I began to preach unto them, they began to contend with me, saying: <sup>9:2</sup>Who art thou? Suppose ye that we shall believe the testimony of one man, although he should preach unto us that the earth should pass away? <sup>9:3</sup>Now they understood not the words which they spake; for they knew not that the earth should pass away. <sup>9:4</sup>And they said also: We will not believe thy words if thou shouldst prophesy that this great city should be destroyed in one day. <sup>9:5</sup>Now they knew not that God could do such marvelous works, for they were a hard-hearted and a stiffnecked people. <sup>9:6</sup>And they said: Who is God, that sendeth no more authority than one man among this people, to declare unto them the truth of such great and marvelous things? <sup>9:7</sup>And they stood forth to lay their hands on me; but behold, they did not. And I stood with boldness to declare unto them, yea, I did boldly testify unto them, saying: <sup>9:8</sup>Behold, O ye wicked and perverse generation, how have ye forgotten the tradition of your fathers; yea, how soon ye have forgotten the commandments of God. <sup>9:9</sup>Do ye not remember that our father, Lehi, was brought out of Jerusalem by the hand of God? Do ye not remember that they were all led by him through the wilderness? <sup>9:10</sup>And have ye forgotten so soon how many times he delivered our fathers out of the hands of their enemies, and preserved them from being destroyed, even by the hands of their own brethren? <sup>9:11</sup>Yea, and if it had not been for his matchless power, and his mercy, and his long-suffering towards us, we should unavoidably have been cut off from the face of the earth long before this period of time, and perhaps been consigned to a state of endless misery and woe. <sup>9:12</sup>Behold, now I say unto you that he commandeth you to repent; and except ye repent, ye can in nowise inherit the kingdom of God. But behold, this is not all—he has commanded you to repent, or he will utterly destroy you from off the face of the earth; yea, he will visit you in his anger, and in his fierce anger he will not turn away. <sup>9:13</sup>Behold, do ye not remember the words which he spake unto Lehi, saying that: Inasmuch as ye shall keep my commandments, ye shall prosper in the land? And again it is said that: Inasmuch as ye will not keep my commandments ye shall be cut off from the presence of the Lord. <sup>9:14</sup>Now I would that ye should remember, that inasmuch as the Lamanites have not kept the commandments of God, they have been cut off from the presence of the Lord. Now we see that the word of the Lord has been verified in this thing, and the Lamanites have been cut off from his presence, from the beginning of their transgressions in the land. <sup>9:15</sup>Nevertheless I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for them in the day of judgment than for you, if ye remain in your sins, yea, and even more tolerable for them in this life than for you, except ye repent. <sup>9:16</sup>For there are many promises which are extended to the Lamanites; for it is because of the traditions of their fathers that caused them to remain in their state of ignorance; therefore the Lord will be merciful unto them and prolong their existence in the land. <sup>9:17</sup>And at some period of time they will be brought to believe in his word, and to know of the incorrectness of the traditions of their fathers; and many of them will be saved, for the Lord will be merciful unto all who call on his name. <sup>9:18</sup>But behold, I say unto you that if ye persist in your wickedness that your days shall not be prolonged in the land, for the Lamanites shall be sent upon you; and if ye repent not they shall come in a time when you know not, and ye shall be visited with utter destruction; and it shall be according to the fierce anger of the Lord. <sup>9:19</sup>For he will not suffer you that ye shall live in your iniquities, to destroy his people. I say unto you, Nay; he would rather suffer that the Lamanites might destroy all his people who are called the people of Nephi, if it were possible that they could fall into sins and transgressions, after having had so much light and so much knowledge given unto them of the Lord their God; <sup>9:20</sup>yea, after having been such a highly favored people of the Lord; yea, after having been favored above every other nation, kindred, tongue, or people; after having had all things made known unto them, according to their desires, and their faith, and prayers, of that which has been, and which is, and which is to come; <sup>9:21</sup>having been visited by the Spirit of God; having conversed with angels, and having been spoken unto by the voice of the Lord; and having the spirit of prophecy, and the spirit of revelation, and also many gifts, the gift of speaking with tongues, and the gift of preaching, and the gift of the Holy Ghost, and the gift of translation; <sup>9:22</sup>yea, and after having been delivered of God out of the land of Jerusalem, by the hand of the Lord; having been saved from famine, and from sickness, and all manner of diseases of every kind; and they having waxed strong in battle, that they might not be destroyed; having been brought out of bondage time after time, and having been kept and preserved until now; and they have been prospered until they are rich in all manner of things — <sup>9:23</sup>and now behold I say unto you, that if this people, who have received so many blessings from the hand of the Lord, should transgress contrary to the light and knowledge which they do have, I say unto you that if this be the case, that if they should fall into transgression, it would be far more tolerable for the Lamanites than for them. <sup>9:24</sup>For behold, the promises of the Lord are extended to the Lamanites, but they are not unto you if ye transgress; for has not the Lord expressly promised and firmly decreed, that if ye will rebel against him that ye shall utterly be destroyed from off the face of the earth? <sup>9:25</sup>And now for this cause, that ye may not be destroyed, the Lord has sent his angel to visit many of his people, declaring unto them that they must go forth and cry mightily unto this people, saying: Repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is nigh at hand; <sup>9:26</sup>and not many days hence the Son of God shall come in his glory; and his glory shall be the glory of the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace, equity, and truth, full of patience, mercy, and long-suffering, quick to hear the cries of his people and to answer their prayers. <sup>9:27</sup>And behold, he cometh to redeem those who will be baptized unto repentance, through faith on his name. <sup>9:28</sup>Therefore, prepare ye the way of the Lord, for the time is at hand that all men shall reap a reward of their works, according to that which they have been — if they have been righteous they shall reap the salvation of their souls, according to the power and deliverance of Jesus Christ; and if they have been evil they shall reap the damnation of their souls, according to the power and captivation of the devil.

<sup>9:29</sup>Now behold, this is the voice of the angel, crying unto the people. <sup>9:30</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, for ye are my brethren, and ye ought to be beloved, and ye ought to bring forth works which are meet for repentance, seeing that your hearts have been grossly hardened against the word of God, and seeing that ye are a lost and a fallen people. <sup>9:31</sup>Now it came to pass that when I, Alma, had spoken these words, behold, the people were wroth with me because I said unto them that they were a hard-hearted and a stiffnecked people. <sup>9:32</sup>And also because I said unto them that they were a lost and a fallen people they were angry with me, and sought to lay their hands upon me, that they might cast me into prison. <sup>9:33</sup>But it came to pass that the Lord did not suffer them that they should take me at that time and cast me into prison. <sup>9:34</sup>And it came to pass that Amulek went and stood forth, and began to preach unto them also. And now the words of Amulek are not all written, nevertheless a part of his words are written in this book. <sup><VIII>10:1</sup>Now these are the words which Amulek preached unto the people who were in the land of Ammonihah, saying: <sup>10:2</sup>I am Amulek; I am the son of Giddonah, who was the son of Ishmael, who was a descendant of Aminadi; and it was the same Aminadi who interpreted the writing which was upon the wall of the temple, which was written by the finger of God. <sup>10:3</sup>And Aminadi was a descendant of Nephi, who was the son of Lehi, who came out of the land of Jerusalem, who was a descendant of Manasseh, who was the son of Joseph who was sold into Egypt by the hands of his brethren. <sup>10:4</sup>And behold, I am also a man of no small reputation among all those who know me; yea, and behold, I have many kindreds and friends, and I have also acquired much riches by the hand of my industry. <sup>10:5</sup>Nevertheless, after all this, I never have known much of the ways of the Lord, and his mysteries and marvelous power. I said I never had known much of these things; but behold, I mistake, for I have seen much of his mysteries and his marvelous power; yea, even in the preservation of the lives of this people. <sup>10:6</sup>Nevertheless, I did harden my heart, for I was called many times and I would not hear; therefore I knew concerning these things, yet I would not know; therefore I went on rebelling against God, in the wickedness of my heart, even until the fourth day of this seventh month, which is in the tenth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>10:7</sup>As I was journeying to see a very near kindred, behold an angel of the Lord appeared unto me and said: Amulek, return to thine own house, for thou shalt feed a prophet of the Lord; yea, a holy man, who is a chosen man of God; for he has fasted many days because of the sins of this people, and he is an hungered, and thou shalt receive him into thy house and feed him, and he shall bless thee and thy house; and the blessing of the Lord shall rest upon thee and thy house. <sup>10:8</sup>And it came to pass that I obeyed the voice of the angel, and returned towards my house. And as I was going thither I found the man whom the angel said unto me: Thou shalt receive into thy house — and behold it was this same man who has been speaking unto you concerning the things of God. <sup>10:9</sup>And the angel said unto me he is a holy man; wherefore I know he is a holy man because it was said by an angel of God. <sup>10:10</sup>And again, I know that the things whereof he hath testified are true; for behold I say unto you, that as the Lord liveth, even so has he sent his angel to make these things manifest unto me; and this he has done while this Alma hath dwelt at my house. <sup>10:11</sup>For behold, he hath blessed mine house, he hath blessed me, and my women, and my children, and my father and my kinsfolk; yea, even all my kindred hath he blessed, and the blessing of the Lord hath rested upon us according to the words which he spake. <sup>10:12</sup>And now, when Amulek had spoken these words the people began to be astonished, seeing there was more than one witness who testified of the things whereof they were accused, and also of the things which were to come, according to the spirit of prophecy which was in them. <sup>10:13</sup>Nevertheless, there were some among them who thought to question them, that by their cunning devices they might catch them in their words, that they might find witness against them, that they might deliver them to their judges that they might be judged according to the law, and that they might be slain or cast into prison, according to the crime which they could make appear or witness against them. <sup>10:14</sup>Now it was those men who sought to destroy them, who were lawyers, who were hired or appointed by the people to administer the law at their times of trials, or at the trials of the crimes of the people before the judges. <sup>10:15</sup>Now these lawyers were learned in all the arts and cunning of the people; and this was to enable them that they might be skilful in their profession. <sup>10:16</sup>And it came to pass that they began to question Amulek, that thereby they might make him cross his words, or contradict the words which he should speak. <sup>10:17</sup>Now they knew not that Amulek could know of their designs. But it came to pass as they began to question him, he perceived their thoughts, and he said unto them: O ye wicked and perverse generation, ye lawyers and hypocrites, for ye are laying the foundations of the devil; for ye are laying traps and snares to catch the holy ones of God. <sup>10:18</sup>Ye are laying plans to pervert the ways of the righteous, and to bring down the wrath of God upon your heads, even to the utter destruction of this people. <sup>10:19</sup>Yea, well did Mosiah say, who was our last king, when he was about to deliver up the kingdom, having no one to confer it upon, causing that this people should be governed by their own voices—yea, well did he say that if the time should come that the voice of this people should choose iniquity, that is, if the time should come that this people should fall into transgression, they would be ripe for destruction. <sup>10:20</sup>And now I say unto you that well doth the Lord judge of your iniquities; well doth he cry unto this people, by the voice of his angels: Repent ye, repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. <sup>10:21</sup>Yea, well doth he cry, by the voice of his angels that: I will come down among my people, with equity and justice in my hands. <sup>10:22</sup>Yea, and I say unto you that if it were not for the prayers of the righteous, who are now in the land, that ye would even now be visited with utter destruction; yet it would not be by flood, as were the people in the days of Noah, but it would be by famine, and by pestilence, and the sword. <sup>10:23</sup>But it is by the prayers of the righteous that ye are spared; now therefore, if ye will cast out the righteous from among you then will not the Lord stay his hand; but in his fierce anger he will come out against you; then ye shall be smitten by famine, and by pestilence, and by the sword; and the time is soon at hand except ye repent. <sup>10:24</sup>And now it came to pass that the people were more angry with Amulek, and they cried out, saying: This man doth revile against our laws which are just, and our wise lawyers whom we have selected. <sup>10:25</sup>But Amulek stretched forth his hand, and cried the mightier unto them, saying: O ye wicked and perverse generation, why hath Satan got such great hold upon your hearts? Why will ye yield yourselves unto him that he may have power over you, to blind your eyes, that ye will not understand the words which are spoken, according to their truth? <sup>10:26</sup>For behold, have I testified against your law? Ye do not understand; ye say that I have spoken against your law; but I have not, but I have spoken in favor of your law, to your condemnation. <sup>10:27</sup>And now behold, I say unto you, that the foundation of the destruction of this people is beginning to be laid by the unrighteousness of your lawyers and your judges. <sup>10:28</sup>And now it came to pass that when Amulek had spoken these words the people cried out against him, saying: Now we know that this man is a child of the devil, for he hath lied unto us; for he hath spoken against our law. And now he says that he has not spoken against it. <sup>10:29</sup>And again, he has reviled against our lawyers, and our judges. <sup>10:30</sup>And it came to pass that the lawyers put it into their hearts that they should remember these things against him. <sup>10:31</sup>And there was one among them whose name was Zeezrom. Now he was the foremost to accuse Amulek and Alma, he being one of the most expert among them, having much business to do among the people. <sup>10:32</sup>Now the object of these lawyers was to get gain; and they got gain according to their employ. <sup>11:1</sup>Now it was in the law of Mosiah that every man who was a judge of the law, or those who were appointed to be judges, should receive wages according to the time which they labored to judge those who were brought before them to be judged. <sup>11:2</sup>Now if a man owed another, and he would not pay that which he did owe, he was complained of to the judge; and the judge executed authority, and sent forth officers that the man should be brought before him; and he judged the man according to the law and the evidences which were brought against him, and thus the man was compelled to pay that which he owed, or be stripped, or be cast out from among the people as a thief and a robber. <sup>11:3</sup>And the judge received for his wages according to his time—a senine of gold for a day, or a senum of silver, which is equal to a senine of gold; and this is according to the law which was given. <sup>11:4</sup>Now these are the names of the different pieces of their gold, and of their silver, according to their value. And the names are given by the Nephites, for they did not reckon after the manner of the Jews who were at Jerusalem; neither did they measure after the manner of the Jews; but they altered their reckoning and their measure, according to the minds and the circumstances of the people, in every generation, until the reign of the judges, they having been established by king Mosiah. <sup>11:5</sup>Now the reckoning is thus—a senine of gold, a seon of gold, a shum of gold, and a limnah of gold. <sup>11:6</sup>A senum of silver, an amnor of silver, an ezrom of silver, and an onti of silver. <sup>11:7</sup>A senum of silver was equal to a senine of gold, and either for a measure of barley, and also for a measure of every kind of grain. <sup>11:8</sup>Now the amount of a seon of gold was twice the value of a senine. <sup>11:9</sup>And a shum of gold was twice the value of a seon. <sup>11:10</sup>And a limnah of gold was the value of them all. <sup>11:11</sup>And an amnor of silver was as great as two senums. <sup>11:12</sup>And an ezrom of silver was as great as four senums. <sup>11:13</sup>And an onti was as great as them all. <sup>11:14</sup>Now this is the value of the lesser numbers of their reckoning — <sup>11:15</sup>a shiblon is half of a senum; therefore, a shiblon for half a measure of barley. <sup>11:16</sup>And a shiblum is a half of a shiblon. <sup>11:17</sup>And a Leah is the half of a shiblum. <sup>11:18</sup>Now this is their number, according to their reckoning. <sup>11:19</sup>Now an antion of gold is equal to three shiblons. <sup>11:20</sup>Now, it was for the sole purpose to get gain, because they received their wages according to their employ, therefore, they did stir up the people to riotings, and all manner of disturbances and wickedness, that they might have more employ, that they might get money according to the suits which were brought before them; therefore they did stir up the people against Alma and Amulek. <sup>11:21</sup>And this Zeezrom began to question Amulek, saying: Will ye answer me a few questions which I shall ask you? Now Zeezrom was a man who was expert in the devices of the devil, that he might destroy that which was good; therefore, he said unto Amulek: Will ye answer the questions which I shall put unto you? <sup>11:22</sup>And Amulek said unto him: Yea, if it be according to the Spirit of the Lord, which is in me; for I shall say nothing which is contrary to the Spirit of the Lord. And Zeezrom said unto him: Behold, here are six onties of silver, and all these will I give thee if thou wilt deny the existence of a Supreme Being. <sup>11:23</sup>Now Amulek said: O thou child of hell, why tempt ye me? Knowest thou that the righteous yieldeth to no such temptations? <sup>11:24</sup>Believest thou that there is no God? I say unto you, Nay, thou knowest that there is a God, but thou lovest that lucre more than him. <sup>11:25</sup>And now thou hast lied before God unto me. Thou saidst unto me — Behold these six onties, which are of great worth, I will give unto thee — when thou hadst it in thy heart to retain them from me; and it was only thy desire that I should deny the true and living God, that thou mightest have cause to destroy me. And now behold, for this great evil thou shalt have thy reward. <sup>11:26</sup>And Zeezrom said unto him: Thou sayest there is a true and living God? <sup>11:27</sup>And Amulek said: Yea, there is a true and living God. <sup>11:28</sup>Now Zeezrom said: Is there more than one God? <sup>11:29</sup>And he answered, No. <sup>11:30</sup>Now Zeezrom said unto him again: How knowest thou these things? <sup>11:31</sup>And he said: An angel hath made them known unto me. <sup>11:32</sup>And Zeezrom said again: Who is he that shall come? Is it the Son of God? <sup>11:33</sup>And he said unto him, Yea. <sup>11:34</sup>And Zeezrom said again: Shall he save his people in their sins? And Amulek answered and said unto him: I say unto you he shall not, for it is impossible for him to deny his word. <sup>11:35</sup>Now Zeezrom said unto the people: See that ye remember these things; for he said there is but one God; yet he saith that the Son of God shall come, but he shall not save his people — as though he had authority to command God. <sup>11:36</sup>Now Amulek saith again unto him: Behold thou hast lied, for thou sayest that I spake as though I had authority to command God because I said he shall not save his people in their sins. <sup>11:37</sup>And I say unto you again that he cannot save them in their sins; for I cannot deny his word, and he hath said that no unclean thing can inherit the kingdom of heaven; therefore, how can ye be saved, except ye inherit the kingdom of heaven? Therefore, ye cannot be saved in your sins. <sup>11:38</sup>Now Zeezrom saith again unto him: Is the Son of God the very Eternal Father? <sup>11:39</sup>And Amulek said unto him: Yea, he is the very Eternal Father of heaven and of earth, and all things which in them are; he is the beginning and the end, the first and the last; <sup>11:40</sup>and he shall come into the world to redeem his people; and he shall take upon him the transgressions of those who believe on his name; and these are they that shall have eternal life, and salvation cometh to none else. <sup>11:41</sup>Therefore the wicked remain as though there had been no redemption made, except it be the loosing of the bands of death; for behold, the day cometh that all shall rise from the dead and stand before God, and be judged according to their works. <sup>11:42</sup>Now, there is a death which is called a temporal death; and the death of Christ shall loose the bands of this temporal death, that all shall be raised from this temporal death. <sup>11:43</sup>The spirit and the body shall be reunited again in its perfect form; both limb and joint shall be restored to its proper frame, even as we now are at this time; and we shall be brought to stand before God, knowing even as we know now, and have a bright recollection of all our guilt. <sup>11:44</sup>Now, this restoration shall come to all, both old and young, both bond and free, both male and female, both the wicked and the righteous; and even there shall not so much as a hair of their heads be lost; but every thing shall be restored to its perfect frame, as it is now, or in the body, and shall be brought and be arraigned before the bar of Christ the Son, and God the Father, and the Holy Spirit, which is one Eternal God, to be judged according to their works, whether they be good or whether they be evil. <sup>11:45</sup>Now, behold, I have spoken unto you concerning the death of the mortal body, and also concerning the resurrection of the mortal body. I say unto you that this mortal body is raised to an immortal body, that is from death, even from the first death unto life, that they can die no more; their spirits uniting with their bodies, never to be divided; thus the whole becoming spiritual and immortal, that they can no more see corruption. <sup>11:46</sup>Now, when Amulek had finished these words the people began again to be astonished, and also Zeezrom began to tremble. And thus ended the words of Amulek, or this is all that I have written. <sup><IX>12:1</sup>Now Alma, seeing that the words of Amulek had silenced Zeezrom, for he beheld that Amulek had caught him in his lying and deceiving to destroy him, and seeing that he began to tremble under a consciousness of his guilt, he opened his mouth and began to speak unto him, and to establish the words of Amulek, and to explain things beyond, or to unfold the scriptures beyond that which Amulek had done. <sup>12:2</sup>Now the words that Alma spake unto Zeezrom were heard by the people round about; for the multitude was great, and he spake on this wise: <sup>12:3</sup>Now Zeezrom, seeing that thou hast been taken in thy lying and craftiness, for thou hast not lied unto men only but thou hast lied unto God; for behold, he knows all thy thoughts, and thou seest that thy thoughts are made known unto us by his Spirit; <sup>12:4</sup>and thou seest that we know that thy plan was a very subtle plan, as to the subtlety of the devil, for to lie and to deceive this people that thou mightest set them against us, to revile us and to cast us out—<sup>12:5</sup>now this was a plan of thine adversary, and he hath exercised his power in thee. Now I would that ye should remember that what I say unto thee I say unto all. <sup>12:6</sup>And behold I say unto you all that this was a snare of the adversary, which he has laid to catch this people, that he might bring you into subjection unto him, that he might encircle you about with his chains, that he might chain you down to everlasting destruction, according to the power of his captivity. <sup>12:7</sup>Now when Alma had spoken these words, Zeezrom began to tremble more exceedingly, for he was convinced more and more of the power of God; and he was also convinced that Alma and Amulek had a knowledge of him, for he was convinced that they knew the thoughts and intents of his heart; for power was given unto them that they might know of these things according to the spirit of prophecy. <sup>12:8</sup>And Zeezrom began to inquire of them diligently, that he might know more concerning the kingdom of God. And he said unto Alma: What does this mean which Amulek hath spoken concerning the resurrection of the dead, that all shall rise from the dead, both the just and the unjust, and are brought to stand before God to be judged according to their works? <sup>12:9</sup>And now Alma began to expound these things unto him, saying: It is given unto many to know the mysteries of God; nevertheless they are laid under a strict command that they shall not impart only according to the portion of his word which he doth grant unto the children of men, according to the heed and diligence which they give unto him. <sup>12:10</sup>And therefore, he that will harden his heart, the same receiveth the lesser portion of the word; and he that will not harden his heart, to him is given the greater portion of the word, until it is given unto him to know the mysteries of God until he know them in full. <sup>12:11</sup>And they that will harden their hearts, to them is given the lesser portion of the word until they know nothing concerning his mysteries; and then they are taken captive by the devil, and led by his will down to destruction. Now this is what is meant by the chains of hell. <sup>12:12</sup>And Amulek hath spoken plainly concerning death, and being raised from this mortality to a state of immortality, and being brought before the bar of God, to be judged according to our works. <sup>12:13</sup>Then if our hearts have been hardened, yea, if we have hardened our hearts against the word, insomuch that it has not been found in us, then will our state be awful, for then we shall be condemned. <sup>12:14</sup>For our words will condemn us, yea, all our works will condemn us; we shall not be found spotless; and our thoughts will also condemn us; and in this awful state we shall not dare to look up to our God; and we would fain be glad if we could command the rocks and the mountains to fall upon us to hide us from his presence. <sup>12:15</sup>But this cannot be; we must come forth and stand before him in his glory, and in his power, and in his might, majesty, and dominion, and acknowledge to our everlasting shame that all his judgments are just; that he is just in all his works, and that he is merciful unto the children of men, and that he has all power to save every man that believeth on his name and bringeth forth fruit meet for repentance. <sup>12:16</sup>And now behold, I say unto you then cometh a death, even a second death, which is a spiritual death; then is a time that whosoever dieth in his sins, as to a temporal death, shall also die a spiritual death; yea, he shall die as to things pertaining unto righteousness. <sup>12:17</sup>Then is the time when their torments shall be as a lake of fire and brimstone, whose flame ascendeth up forever and ever; and then is the time that they shall be chained down to an everlasting destruction, according to the power and captivity of Satan, he having subjected them according to his will. <sup>12:18</sup>Then, I say unto you, they shall be as though there had been no redemption made; for they cannot be redeemed according to God's justice; and they cannot die, seeing there is no more corruption. <sup>12:19</sup>Now it came to pass that when Alma had made an end of speaking these words, the people began to be more astonished; <sup>12:20</sup>but there was one Antionah, who was a chief ruler among them, came forth and said unto him: What is this that thou hast said, that man should rise from the dead and be changed from this mortal to an immortal state that the soul can never die? <sup>12:21</sup>What does the scripture mean, which saith that God placed cherubim and a flaming sword on the east of the garden of Eden, lest our first parents should enter and partake of the fruit of the tree of life, and live forever? And thus we see that there was no possible chance that they should live forever. <sup>12:22</sup>Now Alma said unto him: This is the thing which I was about to explain. Now we see that Adam did fall by the partaking of the forbidden fruit, according to the word of God; and thus we see, that by his fall, all mankind became a lost and fallen people. <sup>12:23</sup>And now behold, I say unto you that if it had been possible for Adam to have partaken of the fruit of the tree of life at that time, there would have been no death, and the word would have been void, making God a liar, for he said: If thou eat thou shalt surely die. <sup>12:24</sup>And we see that death comes upon mankind, yea, the death which has been spoken of by Amulek, which is the temporal death; nevertheless there was a space granted unto man in which he might repent; therefore this life became a probationary state; a time to prepare to meet God; a time to prepare for that endless state which has been spoken of by us, which is after the resurrection of the dead. <sup>12:25</sup>Now, if it had not been for the plan of redemption, which was laid from the foundation of the world, there could have been no resurrection of the dead; but there was a plan of redemption laid, which shall bring to pass the resurrection of the dead, of which has been spoken. <sup>12:26</sup>And now behold, if it were possible that our first parents could have gone forth and partaken of the tree of life they would have been forever miserable, having no preparatory state; and thus the plan of redemption would have been frustrated, and the word of God would have been void, taking none effect. <sup>12:27</sup>But behold, it was not so; but it was appointed unto men that they must die; and after death, they must come to judgment, even that same judgment of which we have spoken, which is the end. <sup>12:28</sup>And after God had appointed that these things should come unto man, behold, then he saw that it was expedient that man should know concerning the things whereof he had appointed unto them; <sup>12:29</sup>therefore he sent angels to converse with them, who caused men to behold of his glory. <sup>12:30</sup>And they began from that time forth to call on his name; therefore God conversed with men, and made known unto them the plan of redemption, which had been prepared from the foundation of the world; and this he made known unto them according to their faith and repentance and their holy works. <sup>12:31</sup>Wherefore, he gave commandments unto men, they having first transgressed the first commandments as to things which were temporal, and becoming as Gods, knowing good from evil, placing themselves in a state to act, or being placed in a state to act according to their wills and pleasures, whether to do evil or to do good — <sup>12:32</sup>therefore God gave unto them commandments, after having made known unto them the plan of redemption, that they should not do evil, the penalty thereof being a second death, which was an everlasting death as to things pertaining unto righteousness; for on such the plan of redemption could have no power, for the works of justice could not be destroyed, according to the supreme goodness of God. <sup>12:33</sup>But God did call on men, in the name of his Son, (this being the plan of redemption which was laid) saying: If ye will repent and harden not your hearts, then will I have mercy upon you, through mine Only Begotten Son; <sup>12:34</sup>therefore, whosoever repenteth, and hardeneth not his heart, he shall have claim on mercy through mine Only Begotten Son, unto a remission of his sins; and these shall enter into my rest. <sup>12:35</sup>And whosoever will harden his heart and will do iniquity, behold, I swear in my wrath that he shall not enter into my rest. <sup>12:36</sup>And now, my brethren, behold I say unto you, that if ye will harden your hearts ye shall not enter into the rest of the Lord; therefore your iniquity provoketh him that he sendeth down his wrath upon you as in the first provocation, yea, according to his word in the last provocation as well as the first, to the everlasting destruction of your souls; therefore, according to his word, unto the last death, as well as the first. <sup>12:37</sup>And now, my brethren, seeing we know these things, and they are true, let us repent, and harden not our hearts, that we provoke not the Lord our God to pull down his wrath upon us in these his second commandments which he has given unto us; but let us enter into the rest of God, which is prepared according to his word. <sup>13:1</sup>And again, my brethren, I would cite your minds forward to the time when the Lord God gave these commandments unto his children; and I would that ye should remember that the Lord God ordained priests, after his holy order, which was after the order of his Son, to teach these things unto the people. <sup>13:2</sup>And those priests were ordained after the order of his Son, in a manner that thereby the people might know in what manner to look forward to his Son for redemption. <sup>13:3</sup>And this is the manner after which they were ordained — being called and prepared from the foundation of the world according to the foreknowledge of God, on account of their exceeding faith and good works; in the first place being left to choose good or evil; therefore they having chosen good, and exercising exceedingly great faith, are called with a holy calling, yea, with that holy calling which was prepared with, and according to, a preparatory redemption for such. <sup>13:4</sup>And thus they have been called to this holy calling on account of their faith, while others would reject the Spirit of God on account of the hardness of their hearts and blindness of their minds, while, if it had not been for this they might have had as great privilege as their brethren. <sup>13:5</sup>Or in fine, in the first place they were on the same standing with their brethren; thus this holy calling being prepared from the foundation of the world for such as would not harden their hearts, being in and through the atonement of the Only Begotten Son, who was prepared — <sup>13:6</sup>and thus being called by this holy calling, and ordained unto the high priesthood of the holy order of God, to teach his commandments unto the children of men, that they also might enter into his rest — <sup>13:7</sup>this high priesthood being after the order of his Son, which order was from the foundation of the world; or in other words, being without beginning of days or end of years, being prepared from eternity to all eternity, according to his foreknowledge of all things — <sup>13:8</sup>now they were ordained after this manner—being called with a holy calling, and ordained with a holy ordinance, and taking upon them the high priesthood of the holy order, which calling, and ordinance, and high priesthood, is without beginning or end — <sup>13:9</sup>thus they become high priests forever, after the order of the Son, the Only Begotten of the Father, who is without beginning of days or end of years, who is full of grace, equity, and truth. And thus it is. Amen. <sup><X>13:10</sup>Now, as I said concerning the holy order, or this high priesthood, there were many who were ordained and became high priests of God; and it was on account of their exceeding faith and repentance, and their righteousness before God, they choosing to repent and work righteousness rather than to perish; <sup>13:11</sup>therefore they were called after this holy order, and were sanctified, and their garments were washed white through the blood of the Lamb. <sup>13:12</sup>Now they, after being sanctified by the Holy Ghost, having their garments made white, being pure and spotless before God, could not look upon sin save it were with abhorrence; and there were many, exceedingly great many, who were made pure and entered into the rest of the Lord their God. <sup>13:13</sup>And now, my brethren, I would that ye should humble yourselves before God, and bring forth fruit meet for repentance, that ye may also enter into that rest. <sup>13:14</sup>Yea, humble yourselves even as the people in the days of Melchizedek, who was also a high priest after this same order which I have spoken, who also took upon him the high priesthood forever. <sup>13:15</sup>And it was this same Melchizedek to whom Abraham paid tithes; yea, even our father Abraham paid tithes of one-tenth part of all he possessed. <sup>13:16</sup>Now these ordinances were given after this manner, that thereby the people might look forward on the Son of God, it being a type of his order, or it being his order, and this that they might look forward to him for a remission of their sins, that they might enter into the rest of the Lord. <sup>13:17</sup>Now this Melchizedek was a king over the land of Salem; and his people had waxed strong in iniquity and abomination; yea, they had all gone astray; they were full of all manner of wickedness; <sup>13:18</sup>but Melchizedek having exercised mighty faith, and received the office of the high priesthood according to the holy order of God, did preach repentance unto his people. And behold, they did repent; and Melchizedek did establish peace in the land in his days; therefore he was called the prince of peace, for he was the king of Salem; and he did reign under his father. <sup>13:19</sup>Now, there were many before him, and also there were many afterwards, but none were greater; therefore, of him they have more particularly made mention. <sup>13:20</sup>Now I need not rehearse the matter; what I have said may suffice. Behold, the scriptures are before you; if ye will wrest them it shall be to your own destruction. <sup>13:21</sup>And now it came to pass that when Alma had said these words unto them, he stretched forth his hand unto them and cried with a mighty voice, saying: Now is the time to repent, for the day of salvation draweth nigh; <sup>13:22</sup>yea, and the voice of the Lord, by the mouth of angels, doth declare it unto all nations; yea, doth declare it, that they may have glad tidings of great joy; yea, and he doth sound these glad tidings among all his people, yea, even to them that are scattered abroad upon the face of the earth; wherefore they have come unto us. <sup>13:23</sup>And they are made known unto us in plain terms, that we may understand, that we cannot err; and this because of our being wanderers in a strange land; therefore, we are thus highly favored, for we have these glad tidings declared unto us in all parts of our vineyard. <sup>13:24</sup>For behold, angels are declaring it unto many at this time in our land; and this is for the purpose of preparing the hearts of the children of men to receive his word at the time of his coming in his glory. <sup>13:25</sup>And now we only wait to hear the joyful news declared unto us by the mouth of angels, of his coming; for the time cometh, we know not how soon. Would to God that it might be in my day; but let it be sooner or later, in it I will rejoice. <sup>13:26</sup>And it shall be made known unto just and holy men, by the mouth of angels, at the time of his coming, that the words of our fathers may be fulfilled, according to that which they have spoken concerning him, which was according to the spirit of prophecy which was in them. <sup>13:27</sup>And now, my brethren, I wish from the inmost part of my heart, yea, with great anxiety even unto pain, that ye would hearken unto my words, and cast off your sins, and not procrastinate the day of your repentance; <sup>13:28</sup>but that ye would humble yourselves before the Lord, and call on his holy name, and watch and pray continually, that ye may not be tempted above that which ye can bear, and thus be led by the Holy Spirit, becoming humble, meek, submissive, patient, full of love and all long-suffering; <sup>13:29</sup>having faith on the Lord; having a hope that ye shall receive eternal life; having the love of God always in your hearts, that ye may be lifted up at the last day and enter into his rest. <sup>13:30</sup>And may the Lord grant unto you repentance, that ye may not bring down his wrath upon you, that ye may not be bound down by the chains of hell, that ye may not suffer the second death. <sup>13:31</sup>And Alma spake many more words unto the people, which are not written in this book. <sup>14:1</sup>And it came to pass after he had made an end of speaking unto the people many of them did believe on his words, and began to repent, and to search the scriptures. <sup>14:2</sup>But the more part of them were desirous that they might destroy Alma and Amulek; for they were angry with Alma, because of the plainness of his words unto Zeezrom; and they also said that Amulek had lied unto them, and had reviled against their law and also against their lawyers and judges. <sup>14:3</sup>And they were also angry with Alma and Amulek; and because they had testified so plainly against their wickedness, they sought to put them away privily. <sup>14:4</sup>But it came to pass that they did not; but they took them and bound them with strong cords, and took them before the chief judge of the land. <sup>14:5</sup>And the people went forth and witnessed against them — testifying that they had reviled against the law, and their lawyers and judges of the land, and also of all the people that were in the land; and also testified that there was but one God, and that he should send his Son among the people, but he should not save them; and many such things did the people testify against Alma and Amulek. Now this was done before the chief judge of the land. <sup>14:6</sup>And it came to pass that Zeezrom was astonished at the words which had been spoken; and he also knew concerning the blindness of the minds, which he had caused among the people by his lying words; and his soul began to be harrowed up under a consciousness of his own guilt; yea, he began to be encircled about by the pains of hell. <sup>14:7</sup>And it came to pass that he began to cry unto the people, saying: Behold, I am guilty, and these men are spotless before God. And he began to plead for them from that time forth; but they reviled him, saying: Art thou also possessed with the devil? And they spit upon him, and cast him out from among them, and also all those who believed in the words which had been spoken by Alma and Amulek; and they cast them out, and sent men to cast stones at them. <sup>14:8</sup>And they brought their wives and children together, and whosoever believed or had been taught to believe in the word of God they caused that they should be cast into the fire; and they also brought forth their records which contained the holy scriptures, and cast them into the fire also, that they might be burned and destroyed by fire. <sup>14:9</sup>And it came to pass that they took Alma and Amulek, and carried them forth to the place of martyrdom, that they might witness the destruction of those who were consumed by fire. <sup>14:10</sup>And when Amulek saw the pains of the women and children who were consuming in the fire, he also was pained; and he said unto Alma: How can we witness this awful scene? Therefore let us stretch forth our hands, and exercise the power of God which is in us, and save them from the flames. <sup>14:11</sup>But Alma said unto him: The Spirit constraineth me that I must not stretch forth mine hand; for behold the Lord receiveth them up unto himself, in glory; and he doth suffer that they may do this thing, or that the people may do this thing unto them, according to the hardness of their hearts, that the judgments which he shall exercise upon them in his wrath may be just; and the blood of the innocent shall stand as a witness against them, yea, and cry mightily against them at the last day. <sup>14:12</sup>Now Amulek said unto Alma: Behold, perhaps they will burn us also. <sup>14:13</sup>And Alma said: Be it according to the will of the Lord. But, behold, our work is not finished; therefore they burn us not.

<sup>14:14</sup>Now it came to pass that when the bodies of those who had been cast into the fire were consumed, and also the records which were cast in with them, the chief judge of the land came and stood before Alma and Amulek, as they were bound; and he smote them with his hand upon their cheeks, and said unto them: After what ye have seen, will ye preach again unto this people, that they shall be cast into a lake of fire and brimstone? <sup>14:15</sup>Behold, ye see that ye had not power to save those who had been cast into the fire; neither has God saved them because they were of thy faith. And the judge smote them again upon their cheeks, and asked: What say ye for yourselves? <sup>14:16</sup>Now this judge was after the order and faith of Nehor, who slew Gideon. <sup>14:17</sup>And it came to pass that Alma and Amulek answered him nothing; and he smote them again, and delivered them to the officers to be cast into prison. <sup>14:18</sup>And when they had been cast into prison three days, there came many lawyers, and judges, and priests, and teachers, who were of the profession of Nehor; and they came in unto the prison to see them, and they questioned them about many words; but they answered them nothing.

<sup>14:19</sup>And it came to pass that the judge stood before them, and said: Why do ye not answer the words of this people? Know ye not that I have power to deliver you up unto the flames? And he commanded them to speak; but they answered nothing. <sup>14:20</sup>And it came to pass that they departed and went their ways, but came again on the morrow; and the judge also smote them again on their cheeks. And many came forth also, and smote them, saying: Will ye stand again and judge this people, and condemn our law? If ye have such great power why do ye not deliver yourselves? <sup>14:21</sup>And many such things did they say unto them, gnashing their teeth upon them, and spitting upon them, and saying: How shall we look when we are damned? <sup>14:22</sup>And many such things, yea, all manner of such things did they say unto them; and thus they did mock them for many days. And they did withhold food from them that they might hunger, and water that they might thirst; and they also did take from them their clothes that they were naked; and thus they were bound with strong cords, and confined in prison.

<sup>14:23</sup>And it came to pass after they had thus suffered for many days, (and it was on the twelfth day, in the tenth month, in the tenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi) that the chief judge over the land of Ammonihah and many of their teachers and their lawyers went in unto the prison where Alma and Amulek were bound with cords. <sup>14:24</sup>And the chief judge stood before them, and smote them again, and said unto them: If ye have the power of God deliver yourselves from these bands, and then we will believe that the Lord will destroy this people according to your words. <sup>14:25</sup>And it came to pass that they all went forth and smote them, saying the same words, even until the last; and when the last had spoken unto them the power of God was upon Alma and Amulek, and they rose and stood upon their feet. <sup>14:26</sup>And Alma cried, saying: How long shall we suffer these great afflictions, O Lord? O Lord, give us strength according to our faith which is in Christ, even unto deliverance. And they broke the cords with which they were bound; and when the people saw this, they began to flee, for the fear of destruction had come upon them. <sup>14:27</sup>And it came to pass that so great was their fear that they fell to the earth, and did not obtain the outer door of the prison; and the earth shook mightily, and the walls of the prison were rent in twain, so that they fell to the earth; and the chief judge, and the lawyers, and priests, and teachers, who smote upon Alma and Amulek, were slain by the fall thereof. <sup>14:28</sup>And Alma and Amulek came forth out of the prison, and they were not hurt; for the Lord had granted unto them power, according to their faith which was in Christ. And they straightway came forth out of the prison; and they were loosed from their bands; and the prison had fallen to the earth, and every soul within the walls thereof, save it were Alma and Amulek, was slain; and they straightway came forth into the city. <sup>14:29</sup>Now the people having heard a great noise came running together by multitudes to know the cause of it; and when they saw Alma and Amulek coming forth out of the prison, and the walls thereof had fallen to the earth, they were struck with great fear, and fled from the presence of Alma and Amulek even as a goat fleeth with her young from two lions; and thus they did flee from the presence of Alma and Amulek. <sup>15:1</sup>And it came to pass that Alma and Amulek were commanded to depart out of that city; and they departed, and came out even into the land of Sidom; and behold, there they found all the people who had departed out of the land of Ammonihah, who had been cast out and stoned, because they believed in the words of Alma. <sup>15:2</sup>And they related unto them all that had happened unto their wives and children, and also concerning themselves, and of their power of deliverance. <sup>15:3</sup>And also Zeezrom lay sick at Sidom, with a burning fever, which was caused by the great tribulations of his mind on account of his wickedness, for he supposed that Alma and Amulek were no more; and he supposed that they had been slain because of his iniquity. And this great sin, and his many other sins, did harrow up his mind until it did become exceedingly sore, having no deliverance; therefore he began to be scorched with a burning heat. <sup>15:4</sup>Now, when he heard that Alma and Amulek were in the land of Sidom, his heart began to take courage; and he sent a message immediately unto them, desiring them to come unto him. <sup>15:5</sup>And it came to pass that they went immediately, obeying the message which he had sent unto them; and they went in unto the house unto Zeezrom; and they found him upon his bed, sick, being very low with a burning fever; and his mind also was exceedingly sore because of his iniquities; and when he saw them he stretched forth his hand, and besought them that they would heal him. <sup>15:6</sup>And it came to pass that Alma said unto him, taking him by the hand: Believest thou in the power of Christ unto salvation? <sup>15:7</sup>And he answered and said: Yea, I believe all the words that thou hast taught. <sup>15:8</sup>And Alma said: If thou believest in the redemption of Christ thou canst be healed. <sup>15:9</sup>And he said: Yea, I believe according to thy words. <sup>15:10</sup>And then Alma cried unto the Lord, saying: O Lord our God, have mercy on this man, and heal him according to his faith which is in Christ. <sup>15:11</sup>And when Alma had said these words, Zeezrom leaped upon his feet, and began to walk; and this was done to the great astonishment of all the people; and the knowledge of this went forth throughout all the land of Sidom. <sup>15:12</sup>And Alma baptized Zeezrom unto the Lord; and he began from that time forth to preach unto the people. <sup>15:13</sup>And Alma established a church in the land of Sidom, and consecrated priests and teachers in the land, to baptize unto the Lord whosoever were desirous to be baptized. <sup>15:14</sup>And it came to pass that they were many; for they did flock in from all the region round about Sidom, and were baptized. <sup>15:15</sup>But as to the people that were in the land of Ammonihah, they yet remained a hard-hearted and a stiffnecked people; and they repented not of their sins, ascribing all the power of Alma and Amulek to the devil; for they were of the profession of Nehor, and did not believe in the repentance of their sins. <sup>15:16</sup>And it came to pass that Alma and Amulek, Amulek having forsaken all his gold, and silver, and his precious things, which were in the land of Ammonihah, for the word of God, he being rejected by those who were once his friends and also by his father and his kindred; <sup>15:17</sup>therefore, after Alma having established the church at Sidom, seeing a great check, yea, seeing that the people were checked as to the pride of their hearts, and began to humble themselves before God, and began to assemble themselves together at their sanctuaries to worship God before the altar, watching and praying continually, that they might be delivered from Satan, and from death, and from destruction—<sup>15:18</sup>now as I said, Alma having seen all these things, therefore he took Amulek and came over to the land of Zarahemla, and took him to his own house, and did administer unto him in his tribulations, and strengthened him in the Lord. <sup>15:19</sup>And thus ended the tenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup><Xl>16:1</sup>And it came to pass in the eleventh year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, on the fifth day of the second month, there having been much peace in the land of Zarahemla, there having been no wars nor contentions for a certain number of years, even until the fifth day of the second month in the eleventh year, there was a cry of war heard throughout the land. <sup>16:2</sup>For behold, the armies of the Lamanites had come in upon the wilderness side, into the borders of the land, even into the city of Ammonihah, and began to slay the people and destroy the city. <sup>16:3</sup>And now it came to pass, before the Nephites could raise a sufficient army to drive them out of the land, they had destroyed the people who were in the city of Ammonihah, and also some around the borders of Noah, and taken others captive into the wilderness. <sup>16:4</sup>Now it came to pass that the Nephites were desirous to obtain those who had been carried away captive into the wilderness. <sup>16:5</sup>Therefore, he that had been appointed chief captain over the armies of the Nephites, (and his name was Zoram, and he had two sons, Lehi and Aha)—now Zoram and his two sons, knowing that Alma was high priest over the church, and having heard that he had the spirit of prophecy, therefore they went unto him and desired of him to know whither the Lord would that they should go into the wilderness in search of their brethren, who had been taken captive by the Lamanites. <sup>16:6</sup>And it came to pass that Alma inquired of the Lord concerning the matter. And Alma returned and said unto them: Behold, the Lamanites will cross the river Sidon in the south wilderness, away up beyond the borders of the land of Manti. And behold there shall ye meet them, on the east of the river Sidon, and there the Lord will deliver unto thee thy brethren who have been taken captive by the Lamanites. <sup>16:7</sup>And it came to pass that Zoram and his sons crossed over the river Sidon, with their armies, and marched away beyond the borders of Manti into the south wilderness, which was on the east side of the river Sidon. <sup>16:8</sup>And they came upon the armies of the Lamanites, and the Lamanites were scattered and driven into the wilderness; and they took their brethren who had been taken captive by the Lamanites, and there was not one soul of them had been lost that were taken captive. And they were brought by their brethren to possess their own lands. <sup>16:9</sup>And thus ended the eleventh year of the judges, the Lamanites having been driven out of the land, and the people of Ammonihah were destroyed; yea, every living soul of the Ammonihahites was destroyed, and also their great city, which they said God could not destroy, because of its greatness. <sup>16:10</sup>But behold, in one day it was left desolate; and the carcasses were mangled by dogs and wild beasts of the wilderness. <sup>16:11</sup>Nevertheless, after many days their dead bodies were heaped up upon the face of the earth, and they were covered with a shallow covering. And now so great was the scent thereof that the people did not go in to possess the land of Ammonihah for many years. And it was called Desolation of Nehors; for they were of the profession of Nehor, who were slain; and their lands remained desolate. <sup>16:12</sup>And the Lamanites did not come again to war against the Nephites until the fourteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. And thus for three years did the people of Nephi have continual peace in all the land. <sup>16:13</sup>And Alma and Amulek went forth preaching repentance to the people in their temples, and in their sanctuaries, and also in their synagogues, which were built after the manner of the Jews. <sup>16:14</sup>And as many as would hear their words, unto them they did impart the word of God, without any respect of persons, continually. <sup>16:15</sup>And thus did Alma and Amulek go forth, and also many more who had been chosen for the work, to preach the word throughout all the land. And the establishment of the church became general throughout the land, in all the region round about, among all the people of the Nephites. <sup>16:16</sup>And there was no inequality among them; the Lord did pour out his Spirit on all the face of the land to prepare the minds of the children of men, or to prepare their hearts to receive the word which should be taught among them at the time of his coming — <sup>16:17</sup>that they might not be hardened against the word, that they might not be unbelieving, and go on to destruction, but that they might receive the word with joy, and as a branch be grafted into the true vine, that they might enter into the rest of the Lord their God. <sup>16:18</sup>Now those priests who did go forth among the people did preach against all lyings, and deceivings, and envyings, and strifes, and malice, and revilings, and stealing, robbing, plundering, murdering, committing adultery, and all manner of lasciviousness, crying that these things ought not so to be—<sup>16:19</sup>holding forth things which must shortly come; yea, holding forth the coming of the Son of God, his sufferings and death, and also the resurrection of the dead. <sup>16:20</sup>And many of the people did inquire concerning the place where the Son of God should come; and they were taught that he would appear unto them after his resurrection; and this the people did hear with great joy and gladness. <sup>16:21</sup>And now after the church had been established throughout all the land—having got the victory over the devil, and the word of God being preached in its purity in all the land, and the Lord pouring out his blessings upon the people—thus ended the fourteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <XII> An account of the sons of Mosiah, who rejected their rights to the kingdom for the word of God, and went up to the land of Nephi to preach to the Lamanites; their sufferings and deliverance—according to the record of Alma. <sup>17:1</sup>And now it came to pass that as Alma was journeying from the land of Gideon southward, away to the land of Manti, behold, to his astonishment, he met with the sons of Mosiah journeying towards the land of Zarahemla. <sup>17:2</sup>Now these sons of Mosiah were with Alma at the time the angel first appeared unto him; therefore Alma did rejoice exceedingly to see his brethren; and what added more to his joy, they were still his brethren in the Lord; yea, and they had waxed strong in the knowledge of the truth; for they were men of a sound understanding and they had searched the scriptures diligently, that they might know the word of God. <sup>17:3</sup>But this is not all; they had given themselves to much prayer, and fasting; therefore they had the spirit of prophecy, and the spirit of revelation, and when they taught, they taught with power and authority of God. <sup>17:4</sup>And they had been teaching the word of God for the space of fourteen years among the Lamanites, having had much success in bringing many to the knowledge of the truth; yea, by the power of their words many were brought before the altar of God, to call on his name and confess their sins before him. <sup>17:5</sup>Now these are the circumstances which attended them in their journeyings, for they had many afflictions; they did suffer much, both in body and in mind, such as hunger, thirst and fatigue, and also much labor in the spirit. <sup>17:6</sup>Now these were their journeyings: Having taken leave of their father, Mosiah, in the first year of the judges; having refused the kingdom which their father was desirous to confer upon them, and also this was the minds of the people; <sup>17:7</sup>nevertheless they departed out of the land of Zarahemla, and took their swords, and their spears, and their bows, and their arrows, and their slings; and this they did that they might provide food for themselves while in the wilderness. <sup>17:8</sup>And thus they departed into the wilderness with their numbers which they had selected, to go up to the land of Nephi, to preach the word of God unto the Lamanites. <sup>17:9</sup>And it came to pass that they journeyed many days in the wilderness, and they fasted much and prayed much that the Lord would grant unto them a portion of his Spirit to go with them, and abide with them, that they might be an instrument in the hands of God to bring, if it were possible, their brethren, the Lamanites, to the knowledge of the truth, to the knowledge of the baseness of the traditions of their fathers, which were not correct. <sup>17:10</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord did visit them with his Spirit, and said unto them: Be comforted. And they were comforted. <sup>17:11</sup>And the Lord said unto them also: Go forth among the Lamanites, thy brethren, and establish my word; yet ye shall be patient in long-suffering and afflictions, that ye may show forth good examples unto them in me, and I will make an instrument of thee in my hands unto the salvation of many souls. <sup>17:12</sup>And it came to pass that the hearts of the sons of Mosiah, and also those who were with them, took courage to go forth unto the Lamanites to declare unto them the word of God. <sup>17:13</sup>And it came to pass when they had arrived in the borders of the land of the Lamanites, that they separated themselves and departed one from another, trusting in the Lord that they should meet again at the close of their harvest; for they supposed that great was the work which they had undertaken. <sup>17:14</sup>And assuredly it was great, for they had undertaken to preach the word of God to a wild and a hardened and a ferocious people; a people who delighted in murdering the Nephites, and robbing and plundering them; and their hearts were set upon riches, or upon gold and silver, and precious stones; yet they sought to obtain these things by murdering and plundering, that they might not labor for them with their own hands. <sup>17:15</sup>Thus they were a very indolent people, many of whom did worship idols, and the curse of God had fallen upon them because of the traditions of their fathers; notwithstanding the promises of the Lord were extended unto them on the conditions of repentance. <sup>17:16</sup>Therefore, this was the cause for which the sons of Mosiah had undertaken the work, that perhaps they might bring them unto repentance; that perhaps they might bring them to know of the plan of redemption. <sup>17:17</sup>Therefore they separated themselves one from another, and went forth among them, every man alone, according to the word and power of God which was given unto him. <sup>17:18</sup>Now Ammon being the chief among them, or rather he did administer unto them, and he departed from them, after having blessed them according to their several stations, having imparted the word of God unto them, or administered unto them before his departure; and thus they took their several journeys throughout the land. <sup>17:19</sup>And Ammon went to the land of Ishmael, the land being called after the sons of Ishmael, who also became Lamanites. <sup>17:20</sup>And as Ammon entered the land of Ishmael, the Lamanites took him and bound him, as was their custom to bind all the Nephites who fell into their hands, and carry them before the king; and thus it was left to the pleasure of the king to slay them, or to retain them in captivity, or to cast them into prison, or to cast them out of his land, according to his will and pleasure. <sup>17:21</sup>And thus Ammon was carried before the king who was over the land of Ishmael; and his name was Lamoni; and he was a descendant of Ishmael. <sup>17:22</sup>And the king inquired of Ammon if it were his desire to dwell in the land among the Lamanites, or among his people. <sup>17:23</sup>And Ammon said unto him: Yea, I desire to dwell among this people for a time; yea, and perhaps until the day I die. <sup>17:24</sup>And it came to pass that king Lamoni was much pleased with Ammon, and caused that his bands should be loosed; and he would that Ammon should take one of his daughters to wife. <sup>17:25</sup>But Ammon said unto him: Nay, but I will be thy servant. Therefore Ammon became a servant to king Lamoni. And it came to pass that he was set among other servants to watch the flocks of Lamoni, according to the custom of the Lamanites. <sup>17:26</sup>And after he had been in the service of the king three days, as he was with the Lamanitish servants going forth with their flocks to the place of water, which was called the water of Sebus, and all the Lamanites drive their flocks hither, that they may have water — <sup>17:27</sup>therefore, as Ammon and the servants of the king were driving forth their flocks to this place of water, behold, a certain number of the Lamanites, who had been with their flocks to water, stood and scattered the flocks of Ammon and the servants of the king, and they scattered them insomuch that they fled many ways. <sup>17:28</sup>Now the servants of the king began to murmur, saying: Now the king will slay us, as he has our brethren because their flocks were scattered by the wickedness of these men. And they began to weep exceedingly, saying: Behold, our flocks are scattered already. <sup>17:29</sup>Now they wept because of the fear of being slain. Now when Ammon saw this his heart was swollen within him with joy; for, said he, I will show forth my power unto these my fellow-servants, or the power which is in me, in restoring these flocks unto the king, that I may win the hearts of these my fellow-servants, that I may lead them to believe in my words. <sup>17:30</sup>And now, these were the thoughts of Ammon, when he saw the afflictions of those whom he termed to be his brethren. <sup>17:31</sup>And it came to pass that he flattered them by his words, saying: My brethren, be of good cheer and let us go in search of the flocks, and we will gather them together and bring them back unto the place of water; and thus we will preserve the flocks unto the king and he will not slay us. <sup>17:32</sup>And it came to pass that they went in search of the flocks, and they did follow Ammon, and they rushed forth with much swiftness and did head the flocks of the king, and did gather them together again to the place of water. <sup>17:33</sup>And those men again stood to scatter their flocks; but Ammon said unto his brethren: Encircle the flocks round about that they flee not; and I go and contend with these men who do scatter our flocks. <sup>17:34</sup>Therefore, they did as Ammon commanded them, and he went forth and stood to contend with those who stood by the waters of Sebus; and they were in number not a few. <sup>17:35</sup>Therefore they did not fear Ammon, for they supposed that one of their men could slay him according to their pleasure, for they knew not that the Lord had promised Mosiah that he would deliver his sons out of their hands; neither did they know anything concerning the Lord; therefore they delighted in the destruction of their brethren; and for this cause they stood to scatter the flocks of the king. <sup>17:36</sup>But Ammon stood forth and began to cast stones at them with his sling; yea, with mighty power he did sling stones amongst them; and thus he slew a certain number of them insomuch that they began to be astonished at his power; nevertheless they were angry because of the slain of their brethren, and they were determined that he should fall; therefore, seeing that they could not hit him with their stones, they came forth with clubs to slay him. <sup>17:37</sup>But behold, every man that lifted his club to smite Ammon, he smote off their arms with his sword; for he did withstand their blows by smiting their arms with the edge of his sword, insomuch that they began to be astonished, and began to flee before him; yea, and they were not few in number; and he caused them to flee by the strength of his arm. <sup>17:38</sup>Now six of them had fallen by the sling, but he slew none save it were their leader with his sword; and he smote off as many of their arms as were lifted against him, and they were not a few. <sup>17:39</sup>And when he had driven them afar off, he returned and they watered their flocks and returned them to the pasture of the king, and then went in unto the king, bearing the arms which had been smitten off by the sword of Ammon, of those who sought to slay him; and they were carried in unto the king for a testimony of the things which they had done. <sup>18:1</sup>And it came to pass that king Lamoni caused that his servants should stand forth and testify to all the things which they had seen concerning the matter. <sup>18:2</sup>And when they had all testified to the things which they had seen, and he had learned of the faithfulness of Ammon in preserving his flocks, and also of his great power in contending against those who sought to slay him, he was astonished exceedingly, and said: Surely, this is more than a man. Behold, is not this the Great Spirit who doth send such great punishments upon this people, because of their murders? <sup>18:3</sup>And they answered the king, and said: Whether he be the Great Spirit or a man, we know not; but this much we do know, that he cannot be slain by the enemies of the king; neither can they scatter the king's flocks when he is with us, because of his expertness and great strength; therefore, we know that he is a friend to the king. And now, O king, we do not believe that a man has such great power, for we know he cannot be slain. <sup>18:4</sup>And now, when the king heard these words, he said unto them: Now I know that it is the Great Spirit; and he has come down at this time to preserve your lives, that I might not slay you as I did your brethren. Now this is the Great Spirit of whom our fathers have spoken. <sup>18:5</sup>Now this was the tradition of Lamoni, which he had received from his father, that there was a Great Spirit. Notwithstanding they believed in a Great Spirit they supposed that whatsoever they did was right; nevertheless, Lamoni began to fear exceedingly, with fear lest he had done wrong in slaying his servants; <sup>18:6</sup>for he had slain many of them because their brethren had scattered their flocks at the place of water; and thus, because they had had their flocks scattered they were slain. <sup>18:7</sup>Now it was the practice of these Lamanites to stand by the waters of Sebus to scatter the flocks of the people, that thereby they might drive away many that were scattered unto their own land, it being a practice of plunder among them. <sup>18:8</sup>And it came to pass that king Lamoni inquired of his servants, saying: Where is this man that has such great power? <sup>18:9</sup>And they said unto him: Behold, he is feeding thy horses. Now the king had commanded his servants, previous to the time of the watering of their flocks, that they should prepare his horses and chariots, and conduct him forth to the land of Nephi; for there had been a great feast appointed at the land of Nephi, by the father of Lamoni, who was king over all the land. <sup>18:10</sup>Now when king Lamoni heard that Ammon was preparing his horses and his chariots he was more astonished, because of the faithfulness of Ammon, saying: Surely there has not been any servant among all my servants that has been so faithful as this man; for even he doth remember all my commandments to execute them. <sup>18:11</sup>Now I surely know that this is the Great Spirit, and I would desire him that he come in unto me, but I durst not. <sup>18:12</sup>And it came to pass that when Ammon had made ready the horses and the chariots for the king and his servants, he went in unto the king, and he saw that the countenance of the king was changed; therefore he was about to return out of his presence. <sup>18:13</sup>And one of the king's servants said unto him, Rabbanah, which is, being interpreted, powerful or great king, considering their kings to be powerful; and thus he said unto him: Rabbanah, the king desireth thee to stay. <sup>18:14</sup>Therefore Ammon turned himself unto the king, and said unto him: What wilt thou that I should do for thee, O king? And the king answered him not for the space of an hour, according to their time, for he knew not what he should say unto him. <sup>18:15</sup>And it came to pass that Ammon said unto him again: What desirest thou of me? But the king answered him not. <sup>18:16</sup>And it came to pass that Ammon, being filled with the Spirit of God, therefore he perceived the thoughts of the king. And he said unto him: Is it because thou hast heard that I defended thy servants and thy flocks, and slew seven of their brethren with the sling and with the sword, and smote off the arms of others, in order to defend thy flocks and thy servants; behold, is it this that causeth thy marvelings? <sup>18:17</sup>I say unto you, what is it, that thy marvelings are so great? Behold, I am a man, and am thy servant; therefore, whatsoever thou desirest which is right, that will I do. <sup>18:18</sup>Now when the king had heard these words, he marveled again, for he beheld that Ammon could discern his thoughts; but notwithstanding this, king Lamoni did open his mouth, and said unto him: Who art thou? Art thou that Great Spirit, who knows all things? <sup>18:19</sup>Ammon answered and said unto him: I am not. <sup>18:20</sup>And the king said: How knowest thou the thoughts of my heart? Thou mayest speak boldly, and tell me concerning these things; and also tell me by what power ye slew and smote off the arms of my brethren that scattered my flocks — <sup>18:21</sup>and now, if thou wilt tell me concerning these things, whatsoever thou desirest I will give unto thee; and if it were needed, I would guard thee with my armies; but I know that thou art more powerful than all they; nevertheless, whatsoever thou desirest of me I will grant it unto thee. <sup>18:22</sup>Now Ammon being wise, yet harmless, he said unto Lamoni: Wilt thou hearken unto my words, if I tell thee by what power I do these things? And this is the thing that I desire of thee. <sup>18:23</sup>And the king answered him, and said: Yea, I will believe all thy words. And thus he was caught with guile. <sup>18:24</sup>And Ammon began to speak unto him with boldness, and said unto him: Believest thou that there is a God? <sup>18:25</sup>And he answered, and said unto him: I do not know what that meaneth. <sup>18:26</sup>And then Ammon said: Believest thou that there is a Great Spirit? <sup>18:27</sup>And he said, Yea. <sup>18:28</sup>And Ammon said: This is God.

And Ammon said unto him again: Believest thou that this Great Spirit, who is God, created all things which are in heaven and in the earth? <sup>18:29</sup>And he said: Yea, I believe that he created all things which are in the earth; but I do not know the heavens. <sup>18:30</sup>And Ammon said unto him: The heavens is a place where God dwells and all his holy angels. <sup>18:31</sup>And king Lamoni said: Is it above the earth? <sup>18:32</sup>And Ammon said: Yea, and he looketh down upon all the children of men; and he knows all the thoughts and intents of the heart; for by his hand were they all created from the beginning. <sup>18:33</sup>And king Lamoni said: I believe all these things which thou hast spoken. Art thou sent from God? <sup>18:34</sup>Ammon said unto him: I am a man; and man in the beginning was created after the image of God, and I am called by his Holy Spirit to teach these things unto this people, that they may be brought to a knowledge of that which is just and true; <sup>18:35</sup>and a portion of that Spirit dwelleth in me, which giveth me knowledge, and also power according to my faith and desires which are in God. <sup>18:36</sup>Now when Ammon had said these words, he began at the creation of the world, and also the creation of Adam, and told him all the things concerning the fall of man, and rehearsed and laid before him the records and the holy scriptures of the people, which had been spoken by the prophets, even down to the time that their father, Lehi, left Jerusalem. <sup>18:37</sup>And he also rehearsed unto them (for it was unto the king and to his servants) all the journeyings of their fathers in the wilderness, and all their sufferings with hunger and thirst, and their travail, and so forth. <sup>18:38</sup>And he also rehearsed unto them concerning the rebellions of Laman and Lemuel, and the sons of Ishmael, yea, all their rebellions did he relate unto them; and he expounded unto them all the records and scriptures from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem down to the present time. <sup>18:39</sup>But this is not all; for he expounded unto them the plan of redemption, which was prepared from the foundation of the world; and he also made known unto them concerning the coming of Christ, and all the works of the Lord did he make known unto them. <sup>18:40</sup>And it came to pass that after he had said all these things, and expounded them to the king, that the king believed all his words. <sup>18:41</sup>And he began to cry unto the Lord, saying: O Lord, have mercy; according to thy abundant mercy which thou hast had upon the people of Nephi, have upon me, and my people. <sup>18:42</sup>And now, when he had said this, he fell unto the earth, as if he were dead. <sup>18:43</sup>And it came to pass that his servants took him and carried him in unto his wife, and laid him upon a bed; and he lay as if he were dead for the space of two days and two nights; and his wife, and his sons, and his daughters mourned over him, after the manner of the Lamanites, greatly lamenting his loss. <sup>19:1</sup>And it came to pass that after two days and two nights they were about to take his body and lay it in a sepulchre, which they had made for the purpose of burying their dead. <sup>19:2</sup>Now the queen having heard of the fame of Ammon, therefore she sent and desired that he should come in unto her. <sup>19:3</sup>And it came to pass that Ammon did as he was commanded, and went in unto the queen, and desired to know what she would that he should do. <sup>19:4</sup>And she said unto him: The servants of my husband have made it known unto me that thou art a prophet of a holy God, and that thou hast power to do many mighty works in his name; <sup>19:5</sup>therefore, if this is the case, I would that ye should go in and see my husband, for he has been laid upon his bed for the space of two days and two nights; and some say that he is not dead, but others say that he is dead and that he stinketh, and that he ought to be placed in the sepulchre; but as for myself, to me he doth not stink. <sup>19:6</sup>Now, this was what Ammon desired, for he knew that king Lamoni was under the power of God; he knew that the dark veil of unbelief was being cast away from his mind, and the light which did light up his mind, which was the light of the glory of God, which was a marvelous light of his goodness—yea, this light had infused such joy into his soul, the cloud of darkness having been dispelled, and that the light of everlasting life was lit up in his soul, yea, he knew that this had overcome his natural frame, and he was carried away in God—<sup>19:7</sup>therefore, what the queen desired of him was his only desire. Therefore, he went in to see the king according as the queen had desired him; and he saw the king, and he knew that he was not dead. <sup>19:8</sup>And he said unto the queen: He is not dead, but he sleepeth in God, and on the morrow he shall rise again; therefore bury him not. <sup>19:9</sup>And Ammon said unto her: Believest thou this? And she said unto him: I have had no witness save thy word, and the word of our servants; nevertheless I believe that it shall be according as thou hast said. <sup>19:10</sup>And Ammon said unto her: Blessed art thou because of thy exceeding faith; I say unto thee, woman, there has not been such great faith among all the people of the Nephites. <sup>19:11</sup>And it came to pass that she watched over the bed of her husband, from that time even until that time on the morrow which Ammon had appointed that he should rise. <sup>19:12</sup>And it came to pass that he arose, according to the words of Ammon; and as he arose, he stretched forth his hand unto the woman, and said: Blessed be the name of God, and blessed art thou. <sup>19:13</sup>For as sure as thou livest, behold, I have seen my Redeemer; and he shall come forth, and be born of a woman, and he shall redeem all mankind who believe on his name. Now, when he had said these words, his heart was swollen within him, and he sunk again with joy; and the queen also sunk down, being overpowered by the Spirit. <sup>19:14</sup>Now Ammon seeing the Spirit of the Lord poured out according to his prayers upon the Lamanites, his brethren, who had been the cause of so much mourning among the Nephites, or among all the people of God because of their iniquities and their traditions, he fell upon his knees, and began to pour out his soul in prayer and thanksgiving to God for what he had done for his brethren; and he was also overpowered with joy; and thus they all three had sunk to the earth. <sup>19:15</sup>Now, when the servants of the king had seen that they had fallen, they also began to cry unto God, for the fear of the Lord had come upon them also, for it was they who had stood before the king and testified unto him concerning the great power of Ammon. <sup>19:16</sup>And it came to pass that they did call on the name of the Lord, in their might, even until they had all fallen to the earth, save it were one of the Lamanitish women, whose name was Abish, she having been converted unto the Lord for many years, on account of a remarkable vision of her father—<sup>19:17</sup>thus, having been converted to the Lord, and never having made it known, therefore, when she saw that all the servants of Lamoni had fallen to the earth, and also her mistress, the queen, and the king, and Ammon lay prostrate upon the earth, she knew that it was the power of God; and supposing that this opportunity, by making known unto the people what had happened among them, that by beholding this scene it would cause them to believe in the power of God, therefore she ran forth from house to house, making it known unto the people. <sup>19:18</sup>And they began to assemble themselves together unto the house of the king. And there came a multitude, and to their astonishment they beheld the king, and the queen, and their servants prostrate upon the earth, and they all lay there as though they were dead; and they also saw Ammon, and behold, he was a Nephite. <sup>19:19</sup>And now the people began to murmur among themselves; some saying that it was a great evil that had come upon them, or upon the king and his house, because he had suffered that the Nephite should remain in the land. <sup>19:20</sup>But others rebuked them, saying: The king hath brought this evil upon his house, because he slew his servants who had had their flocks scattered at the waters of Sebus. <sup>19:21</sup>And they were also rebuked by those men who had stood at the waters of Sebus and scattered the flocks which belonged to the king, for they were angry with Ammon because of the number which he had slain of their brethren at the waters of Sebus, while defending the flocks of the king. <sup>19:22</sup>Now, one of them, whose brother had been slain with the sword of Ammon, being exceedingly angry with Ammon, drew his sword and went forth that he might let it fall upon Ammon, to slay him; and as he lifted the sword to smite him, behold, he fell dead. <sup>19:23</sup>Now we see that Ammon could not be slain, for the Lord had said unto Mosiah, his father: I will spare him, and it shall be unto him according to thy faith—therefore, Mosiah trusted him unto the Lord. <sup>19:24</sup>And it came to pass that when the multitude beheld that the man had fallen dead, who lifted the sword to slay Ammon, fear came upon them all, and they durst not put forth their hands to touch him or any of those who had fallen; and they began to marvel again among themselves what could be the cause of this great power, or what all these things could mean. <sup>19:25</sup>And it came to pass that there were many among them who said that Ammon was the Great Spirit, and others said he was sent by the Great Spirit; <sup>19:26</sup>but others rebuked them all, saying that he was a monster, who had been sent from the Nephites to torment them. <sup>19:27</sup>And there were some who said that Ammon was sent by the Great Spirit to afflict them because of their iniquities; and that it was the Great Spirit that had always attended the Nephites, who had ever delivered them out of their hands; and they said that it was this Great Spirit who had destroyed so many of their brethren, the Lamanites. <sup>19:28</sup>And thus the contention began to be exceedingly sharp among them. And while they were thus contending, the woman servant who had caused the multitude to be gathered together came, and when she saw the contention which was among the multitude she was exceedingly sorrowful, even unto tears. <sup>19:29</sup>And it came to pass that she went and took the queen by the hand, that perhaps she might raise her from the ground; and as soon as she touched her hand she arose and stood upon her feet, and cried with a loud voice, saying: O blessed Jesus, who has saved me from an awful hell! O blessed God, have mercy on this people! <sup>19:30</sup>And when she had said this, she clasped her hands, being filled with joy, speaking many words which were not understood; and when she had done this, she took the king, Lamoni, by the hand, and behold he arose and stood upon his feet. <sup>19:31</sup>And he, immediately, seeing the contention among his people, went forth and began to rebuke them, and to teach them the words which he had heard from the mouth of Ammon; and as many as heard his words believed, and were converted unto the Lord. <sup>19:32</sup>But there were many among them who would not hear his words; therefore they went their way. <sup>19:33</sup>And it came to pass that when Ammon arose he also administered unto them, and also did all the servants of Lamoni; and they did all declare unto the people the selfsame thing — that their hearts had been changed; that they had no more desire to do evil. <sup>19:34</sup>And behold, many did declare unto the people that they had seen angels and had conversed with them; and thus they had told them things of God, and of his righteousness. <sup>19:35</sup>And it came to pass that there were many that did believe in their words; and as many as did believe were baptized; and they became a righteous people, and they did establish a church among them. <sup>19:36</sup>And thus the work of the Lord did commence among the Lamanites; thus the Lord did begin to pour out his Spirit upon them; and we see that his arm is extended to all people who will repent and believe on his name. <sup>20:1</sup>And it came to pass that when they had established a church in that land, that king Lamoni desired that Ammon should go with him to the land of Nephi, that he might show him unto his father. <sup>20:2</sup>And the voice of the Lord came to Ammon, saying: Thou shalt not go up to the land of Nephi, for behold, the king will seek thy life; but thou shalt go to the land of Middoni; for behold, thy brother Aaron, and also Muloki and Ammah are in prison. <sup>20:3</sup>Now it came to pass that when Ammon had heard this, he said unto Lamoni: Behold, my brother and brethren are in prison at Middoni, and I go that I may deliver them. <sup>20:4</sup>Now Lamoni said unto Ammon: I know, in the strength of the Lord thou canst do all things. But behold, I will go with thee to the land of Middoni; for the king of the land of Middoni, whose name is Antiomno, is a friend unto me; therefore I go to the land of Middoni, that I may flatter the king of the land, and he will cast thy brethren out of prison. Now Lamoni said unto him: Who told thee that thy brethren were in prison? <sup>20:5</sup>And Ammon said unto him: No one hath told me, save it be God; and he said unto me — Go and deliver thy brethren, for they are in prison in the land of Middoni. <sup>20:6</sup>Now when Lamoni had heard this he caused that his servants should make ready his horses and his chariots. <sup>20:7</sup>And he said unto Ammon: Come, I will go with thee down to the land of Middoni, and there I will plead with the king that he will cast thy brethren out of prison. <sup>20:8</sup>And it came to pass that as Ammon and Lamoni were journeying thither, they met the father of Lamoni, who was king over all the land. <sup>20:9</sup>And behold, the father of

Lamoni said unto him: Why did ye not come to the feast on that great day when I made a feast unto my sons, and unto my people? <sup>20:10</sup> And he also said: Whither art thou going with this Nephite, who is one of the children of a liar? <sup>20:11</sup> And it came to pass that Lamoni rehearsed unto him whither he was going, for he feared to offend him. <sup>20:12</sup> And he also told him all the cause of his tarrying in his own kingdom, that he did not go unto his father to the feast which he had prepared. <sup>20:13</sup> And now when Lamoni had rehearsed unto him all these things, behold, to his astonishment, his father was angry with him, and said: Lamoni, thou art going to deliver these Nephites, who are sons of a liar. Behold, he robbed our fathers; and now his children are also come amongst us that they may, by their cunning and their lyings, deceive us, that they again may rob us of our property. <sup>20:14</sup> Now the father of Lamoni commanded him that he should slay Ammon with the sword. And he also commanded him that he should not go to the land of Middoni, but that he should return with him to the land of Ishmael. <sup>20:15</sup> But Lamoni said unto him: I will not slay Ammon, neither will I return to the land of Ishmael, but I go to the land of Middoni that I may release the brethren of Ammon, for I know that they are just men and holy prophets of the true God. <sup>20:16</sup> Now when his father had heard these words, he was angry with him, and he drew his sword that he might smite him to the earth. <sup>20:17</sup> But Ammon stood forth and said unto him: Behold, thou shalt not slay thy son; nevertheless, it were better that he should fall than thee, for behold, he has repented of his sins; but if thou shouldst fall at this time, in thine anger, thy soul could not be saved. <sup>20:18</sup> And again, it is expedient that thou shouldst forbear; for if thou shouldst slay thy son, he being an innocent man, his blood would cry from the ground to the Lord his God, for vengeance to come upon thee; and perhaps thou wouldst lose thy soul. <sup>20:19</sup> Now when Ammon had said these words unto him, he answered him, saying: I know that if I should slay my son, that I should shed innocent blood; for it is thou that hast sought to destroy him. <sup>20:20</sup> And he stretched forth his hand to slay Ammon. But Ammon withstood his blows, and also smote his arm that he could not use it. <sup>20:21</sup> Now when the king saw that Ammon could slay him, he began to plead with Ammon that he would spare his life. <sup>20:22</sup> But Ammon raised his sword, and said unto him: Behold, I will smite thee except thou wilt grant unto me that my brethren may be cast out of prison. <sup>20:23</sup> Now the king, fearing he should lose his life, said: If thou wilt spare me I will grant unto thee whatsoever thou wilt ask, even to half of the kingdom. <sup>20:24</sup> Now when Ammon saw that he had wrought upon the old king according to his desire, he said unto him: If thou wilt grant that my brethren may be cast out of prison, and also that Lamoni may retain his kingdom, and that ye be not displeased with him, but grant that he may do according to his own desires in whatsoever thing he thinketh, then will I spare thee; otherwise I will smite thee to the earth. <sup>20:25</sup> Now when Ammon had said these words, the king began to rejoice because of his life. <sup>20:26</sup> And when he saw that Ammon had no desire to destroy him, and when he also saw the great love he had for his son Lamoni, he was astonished exceedingly, and said: Because this is all that thou hast desired, that I would release thy brethren, and suffer that my son Lamoni should retain his kingdom, behold, I will grant unto you that my son may retain his kingdom from this time and forever; and I will govern him no more—<sup>20:27</sup>and I will also grant unto thee that thy brethren may be cast out of prison, and thou and thy brethren may come unto me, in my kingdom; for I shall greatly desire to see thee. For the king was greatly astonished at the words which he had spoken, and also at the words which had been spoken by his son Lamoni, therefore he was desirous to learn them. <sup>20:28</sup>And it came to pass that Ammon and Lamoni proceeded on their journey towards the land of Middoni. And Lamoni found favor in the eyes of the king of the land; therefore the brethren of Ammon were brought forth out of prison. <sup>20:29</sup>And when Ammon did meet them he was exceedingly sorrowful, for behold they were naked, and their skins were worn exceedingly because of being bound with strong cords. And they also had suffered hunger, thirst, and all kinds of afflictions; nevertheless they were patient in all their sufferings. <sup>20:30</sup>And, as it happened, it was their lot to have fallen into the hands of a more hardened and a more stiffnecked people; therefore they would not hearken unto their words, and they had cast them out, and had smitten them, and had driven them from house to house, and from place to place, even until they had arrived in the land of Middoni; and there they were taken and cast into prison, and bound with strong cords, and kept in prison for many days, and were delivered by Lamoni and Ammon. <XIII> An account of the preaching of Aaron, and Muloki, and their brethren, to the Lamanites. <sup>21:1</sup>Now when Ammon and his brethren separated themselves in the borders of the land of the Lamanites, behold Aaron took his journey towards the land which was called by the Lamanites, Jerusalem, calling it after the land of their fathers' nativity; and it was away joining the borders of Mormon. <sup>21:2</sup>Now the Lamanites and the Amalekites and the people of Amulon had built a great city, which was called Jerusalem. <sup>21:3</sup>Now the Lamanites of themselves were sufficiently hardened, but the Amalekites and the Amulonites were still harder; therefore they did cause the Lamanites that they should harden their hearts, that they should wax strong in wickedness and their abominations. <sup>21:4</sup>And it came to pass that Aaron came to the city of Jerusalem, and first began to preach to the Amalekites. And he began to preach to them in their synagogues, for they had built synagogues after the order of the Nehors; for many of the Amalekites and the Amulonites were after the order of the Nehors. <sup>21:5</sup>Therefore, as Aaron entered into one of their synagogues to preach unto the people, and as he was speaking unto them, behold there arose an Amalekite and began to contend with him, saying: What is that thou hast testified? Hast thou seen an angel? Why do not angels appear unto us? Behold are not this people as good as thy people? <sup>21:6</sup>Thou also sayest, except we repent we shall perish. How knowest thou the thought and intent of our hearts? How knowest thou that we have cause to repent? How knowest thou that we are not a righteous people? Behold, we have built sanctuaries, and we do assemble ourselves together to worship God.

We do believe that God will save all men. <sup>21:7</sup>Now Aaron said unto him: Believest thou that the Son of God shall come to redeem mankind from their sins? <sup>21:8</sup>And the man said unto him: We do not believe that thou knowest any such thing. We do not believe in these foolish traditions. We do not believe that thou knowest of things to come, neither do we believe that thy fathers and also that our fathers did know concerning the things which they spake, of that which is to come.

<sup>21:9</sup>Now Aaron began to open the scriptures unto them concerning the coming of Christ, and also concerning the resurrection of the dead, and that there could be no redemption for mankind save it were through the death and sufferings of Christ, and the atonement of his blood. <sup>21:10</sup>And it came to pass as he began to expound these things unto them they were angry with him, and began to mock him; and they would not hear the words which he spake. <sup>21:11</sup>Therefore, when he saw that they would not hear his words, he departed out of their synagogue, and came over to a village which was called Ani-Anti, and there he found Muloki preaching the word unto them; and also Ammah and his brethren. And they contended with many about the word. <sup>21:12</sup>And it came to pass that they saw that the people would harden their hearts, therefore they departed and came over into the land of Middoni. And they did preach the word unto many, and few believed on the words which they taught. <sup>21:13</sup>Nevertheless, Aaron and a certain number of his brethren were taken and cast into prison, and the remainder of them fled out of the land of Middoni unto the regions round about. <sup>21:14</sup>And those who were cast into prison suffered many things, and they were delivered by the hand of Lamoni and Ammon, and they were fed and clothed. <sup>21:15</sup>And they went forth again to declare the word, and thus they were delivered for the first time out of prison; and thus they had suffered. <sup>21:16</sup>And they went forth whithersoever they were led by the Spirit of the Lord, preaching the word of God in every synagogue of the Amalekites, or in every assembly of the Lamanites where they could be admitted. <sup>21:17</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord began to bless them, insomuch that they brought many to the knowledge of the truth; yea, they did convince many of their sins, and of the traditions of their fathers, which were not correct. <sup>21:18</sup>And it came to pass that Ammon and Lamoni returned from the land of Middoni to the land of Ishmael, which was the land of their inheritance.

<sup>21:19</sup>And king Lamoni would not suffer that Ammon should serve him, or be his servant. <sup>21:20</sup>But he caused that there should be synagogues built in the land of Ishmael; and he caused that his people, or the people who were under his reign, should assemble themselves together. <sup>21:21</sup>And he did rejoice over them, and he did teach them many things. And he did also declare unto them that they were a people who were under him, and that they were a free people, that they were free from the oppressions of the king, his father; for that his father had granted unto him that he might reign over the people who were in the land of Ishmael, and in all the land round about. <sup>21:22</sup>And he also declared unto them that they might have the liberty of worshiping the Lord their God according to their desires, in whatsoever place they were in, if it were in the land which was under the reign of king Lamoni. <sup>21:23</sup>And Ammon did preach unto the people of king Lamoni; and it came to pass that he did teach them all things concerning things pertaining to righteousness. And he did exhort them daily, with all diligence; and they gave heed unto his word, and they were zealous for keeping the commandments of God. <sup>22:1</sup>Now, as Ammon was thus teaching the people of Lamoni continually, we will return to the account of Aaron and his brethren; for after he departed from the land of Middoni he was led by the Spirit to the land of Nephi, even to the house of the king which was over all the land save it were the land of Ishmael; and he was the father of Lamoni. <sup>22:2</sup>And it came to pass that he went in unto him into the king's palace, with his brethren, and bowed himself before the king, and said unto him: Behold, O king, we are the brethren of Ammon, whom thou hast delivered out of prison. <sup>22:3</sup>And now, O king, if thou wilt spare our lives, we will be thy servants. And the king said unto them: Arise, for I will grant unto you your lives, and I will not suffer that ye shall be my servants; but I will insist that ye shall administer unto me; for I have been somewhat troubled in mind because of the generosity and the greatness of the words of thy brother Ammon; and I desire to know the cause why he has not come up out of Middoni with thee. <sup>22:4</sup>And Aaron said unto the king: Behold, the Spirit of the Lord has called him another way; he has gone to the land of Ishmael, to teach the people of Lamoni. <sup>22:5</sup>Now the king said unto them: What is this that ye have said concerning the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, this is the thing which doth trouble me. <sup>22:6</sup>And also, what is this that Ammon said — If ye will repent ye shall be saved, and if ye will not repent, ye shall be cast off at the last day? <sup>22:7</sup>And Aaron answered him and said unto him: Believest thou that there is a God? And the king said: I know that the Amalekites say that there is a God, and I have granted unto them that they should build sanctuaries, that they may assemble themselves together to worship him. And if now thou sayest there is a God, behold I will believe. <sup>22:8</sup>And now when Aaron heard this, his heart began to rejoice, and he said: Behold, assuredly as thou livest, O king, there is a God. <sup>22:9</sup>And the king said: Is God that Great Spirit that brought our fathers out of the land of Jerusalem? <sup>22:10</sup>And Aaron said unto him: Yea, he is that Great Spirit, and he created all things both in heaven and in earth. Believest thou this? <sup>22:11</sup>And he said: Yea, I believe that the Great Spirit created all things, and I desire that ye should tell me concerning all these things, and I will believe thy words. <sup>22:12</sup>And it came to pass that when Aaron saw that the king would believe his words, he began from the creation of Adam, reading the scriptures unto the king — how God created man after his own image, and that God gave him commandments, and that because of transgression, man had fallen. <sup>22:13</sup>And Aaron did expound unto him the scriptures from the creation of Adam, laying the fall of man before him, and their carnal state and also the plan of redemption, which was prepared from the foundation of the world, through Christ, for all whosoever would believe on his name. <sup>22:14</sup>And since man had fallen he could not merit anything of himself; but the sufferings and death of Christ atone for their sins, through faith and repentance, and so forth; and that he breaketh the bands of death, that the grave shall have no victory, and that the sting of death should be swallowed up in the hopes of glory; and Aaron did expound all these things unto the king.

<sup>22:15</sup>And it came to pass that after Aaron had expounded these things unto him, the king said: What shall I do that I may have this eternal life of which thou hast spoken? Yea, what shall I do that I may be born of God, having this wicked spirit rooted out of my breast, and receive his Spirit, that I may be filled with joy, that I may not be cast off at the last day? Behold, said he, I will give up all that I possess, yea, I will forsake my kingdom, that I may receive this great joy. <sup>22:16</sup>But Aaron said unto him: If thou desirest this thing, if thou wilt bow down before God, yea, if thou wilt repent of all thy sins, and will bow down before God, and call on his name in faith, believing that ye shall receive, then shalt thou receive the hope which thou desirest. <sup>22:17</sup>And it came to pass that when Aaron had said these words, the king did bow down before the Lord, upon his knees; yea, even he did prostrate himself upon the earth, and cried mightily, saying: <sup>22:18</sup>O God, Aaron hath told me that there is a God; and if there is a God, and if thou art God, wilt thou make thyself known unto me, and I will give away all my sins to know thee, and that I may be raised from the dead, and be saved at the last day. And now when the king had said these words, he was struck as if he were dead.

<sup>22:19</sup>And it came to pass that his servants ran and told the queen all that had happened unto the king. And she came in unto the king; and when she saw him lay as if he were dead, and also Aaron and his brethren standing as though they had been the cause of his fall, she was angry with them, and commanded that her servants, or the servants of the king, should take them and slay them.

<sup>22:20</sup>Now the servants had seen the cause of the king's fall, therefore they durst not lay their hands on Aaron and his brethren; and they pled with the queen saying: Why commandest thou that we should slay these men, when behold one of them is mightier than us all? Therefore we shall fall before them. <sup>22:21</sup>Now when the queen saw the fear of the servants she also began to fear exceedingly, lest there should some evil come upon her. And she commanded her servants that they should go and call the people, that they might slay Aaron and his brethren.

<sup>22:22</sup>Now when Aaron saw the determination of the queen, he, also knowing the hardness of the hearts of the people, feared lest that a multitude should assemble themselves together, and there should be a great contention and a disturbance among them; therefore he put forth his hand and raised the king from the earth, and said unto him: Stand. And he stood upon his feet, receiving his strength.

<sup>22:23</sup>Now this was done in the presence of the queen and many of the servants. And when they saw it they greatly marveled, and began to fear. And the king stood forth, and began to minister unto them. And he did minister unto them, insomuch that his whole household were converted unto the Lord. <sup>22:24</sup>Now there was a multitude gathered together because of the commandment of the queen, and there began to be great murmurings among them because of Aaron and his brethren. <sup>22:25</sup>But the king stood forth among them and administered unto them.

And they were pacified towards Aaron and those who were with him. <sup>22:26</sup>And it came to pass that when the king saw that the people were pacified, he caused that Aaron and his brethren should stand forth in the midst of the multitude, and that they should preach the word unto them. <sup>22:27</sup>And it came to pass that the king sent a proclamation throughout all the land, amongst all his people who were in all his land, who were in all the regions round about, which was bordering even to the sea, on the east and on the west, and which was divided from the land of Zarahemla by a narrow strip of wilderness, which ran from the sea east even to the sea west, and round about on the borders of the seashore, and the borders of the wilderness which was on the north by the land of Zarahemla, through the borders of Manti, by the head of the river Sidon, running from the east towards the west—and thus were the Lamanites and the Nephites divided. <sup>22:28</sup>Now, the more idle part of the Lamanites lived in the wilderness, and dwelt in tents; and they were spread through the wilderness on the west, in the land of Nephi; yea, and also on the west of the land of Zarahemla, in the borders by the seashore, and on the west in the land of Nephi, in the place of their fathers' first inheritance, and thus bordering along by the seashore. <sup>22:29</sup>And also there were many Lamanites on the east by the seashore, whither the Nephites had driven them. And thus the Nephites were nearly surrounded by the Lamanites; nevertheless the Nephites had taken possession of all the northern parts of the land bordering on the wilderness, at the head of the river Sidon, from the east to the west, round about on the wilderness side; on the north, even until they came to the land which they called Bountiful. <sup>22:30</sup>And it bordered upon the land which they called Desolation, it being so far northward that it came into the land which had been peopled and been destroyed, of whose bones we have spoken, which was discovered by the people of Zarahemla, it being the place of their first landing. <sup>22:31</sup>And they came from there up into the south wilderness. Thus the land on the northward was called Desolation, and the land on the southward was called Bountiful, it being the wilderness which is filled with all manner of wild animals of every kind, a part of which had come from the land northward for food. <sup>22:32</sup>And now, it was only the distance of a day and a half's journey for a Nephite, on the line Bountiful and the land Desolation, from the east to the west sea; and thus the land of Nephi and the land of Zarahemla were nearly surrounded by water, there being a small neck of land between the land northward and the land southward. <sup>22:33</sup>And it came to pass that the Nephites had inhabited the land Bountiful, even from the east unto the west sea, and thus the Nephites in their wisdom, with their guards and their armies, had hemmed in the Lamanites on the south, that thereby they should have no more possession on the north, that they might not overrun the land northward. <sup>22:34</sup>Therefore the Lamanites could have no more possessions only in the land of Nephi, and the wilderness round about. Now this was wisdom in the Nephites—as the Lamanites were an enemy to them, they would not suffer their afflictions on every hand, and also that they might have a country whither they might flee, according to their desires. <sup>22:35</sup>And now I, after having said this, return again to the account of Ammon and Aaron, Omner and Himni, and their brethren.

<XIV><sup>23:1</sup>Behold, now it came to pass that the king of the Lamanites sent a proclamation among all his people, that they should not lay their hands on Ammon, or Aaron, or Omner, or Himni, nor either of their brethren who should go forth preaching the word of God, in whatsoever place they should be, in any part of their land. <sup>23:2</sup>Yea, he sent a decree among them, that they should not lay their hands on them to bind them, or to cast them into prison; neither should they spit upon them, nor smite them, nor cast them out of their synagogues, nor scourge them; neither should they cast stones at them, but that they should have free access to their houses, and also their temples, and their sanctuaries. <sup>23:3</sup>And thus they might go forth and preach the word according to their desires, for the king had been converted unto the Lord, and all his household; therefore he sent his proclamation throughout the land unto his people, that the word of God might have no obstruction, but that it might go forth throughout all the land, that his people might be convinced concerning the wicked traditions of their fathers, and that they might be convinced that they were all brethren, and that they ought not to murder, nor to plunder, nor to steal, nor to commit adultery, nor to commit any manner of wickedness. <sup>23:4</sup>And now it came to pass that when the king had sent forth this proclamation, that Aaron and his brethren went forth from city to city, and from one house of worship to another, establishing churches, and consecrating priests and teachers throughout the land among the Lamanites, to preach and to teach the word of God among them; and thus they began to have great success. <sup>23:5</sup>And thousands were brought to the knowledge of the Lord, yea, thousands were brought to believe in the traditions of the Nephites; and they were taught the records and prophecies which were handed down even to the present time. <sup>23:6</sup>And as sure as the Lord liveth, so sure as many as believed, or as many as were brought to the knowledge of the truth, through the preaching of Ammon and his brethren, according to the spirit of revelation and of prophecy, and the power of God working miracles in them—yea, I say unto you, as the Lord liveth, as many of the Lamanites as believed in their preaching, and were converted unto the Lord, never did fall away. <sup>23:7</sup>For they became a righteous people; they did lay down the weapons of their rebellion, that they did not fight against God any more, neither against any of their brethren. <sup>23:8</sup>Now, these are they who were converted unto the Lord: <sup>23:9</sup>the people of the Lamanites who were in the land of Ishmael; <sup>23:10</sup>and also of the people of the Lamanites who were in the land of Middoni; <sup>23:11</sup>and also of the people of the Lamanites who were in the city of Nephi; <sup>23:12</sup>and also of the people of the Lamanites who were in the land of Shilom, and who were in the land of Shemlon, and in the city of Lemuel, and in the city of Shimnilom. <sup>23:13</sup>And these are the names of the cities of the Lamanites which were converted unto the Lord; and these are they that laid down the weapons of their rebellion, yea, all their weapons of war; and they were all Lamanites. <sup>23:14</sup>And the Amalekites were not converted, save only one; neither were any of the Amulonites; but they did harden their hearts, and also the hearts of the Lamanites in that part of the land wheresoever they dwelt, yea, and all their villages and all their cities.

<sup>23:15</sup>Therefore, we have named all the cities of the Lamanites in which they did repent and come to the knowledge of the truth, and were converted. <sup>23:16</sup>And now it came to pass that the king and those who were converted were desirous that they might have a name, that thereby they might be distinguished from their brethren; therefore the king consulted with Aaron and many of their priests, concerning the name that they should take upon them, that they might be distinguished. <sup>23:17</sup>And it came to pass that they called their names Anti-Nephi-Lehies; and they were called by this name and were no more called Lamanites.

<sup>23:18</sup>And they began to be a very industrious people; yea, and they were friendly with the Nephites; therefore, they did open a correspondence with them, and the curse of God did no more follow them. <sup>24:1</sup>And it came to pass that the Amalekites and the Amulonites and the Lamanites who were in the land of Amulon, and also in the land of Helam, and who were in the land of Jerusalem, and in fine, in all the land round about, who had not been converted and had not taken upon them the name of Anti-Nephi-Lehi, were stirred up by the Amalekites and by the Amulonites to anger against their brethren. <sup>24:2</sup>And their hatred became exceedingly sore against them, even insomuch that they began to rebel against their king, insomuch that they would not that he should be their king; therefore, they took up arms against the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi. <sup>24:3</sup>Now the king conferred the kingdom upon his son, and he called his name Anti-Nephi-Lehi. <sup>24:4</sup>And the king died in that selfsame year that the Lamanites began to make preparations for war against the people of God. <sup>24:5</sup>Now when Ammon and his brethren and all those who had come up with him saw the preparations of the Lamanites to destroy their brethren, they came forth to the land of Midian, and there Ammon met all his brethren; and from thence they came to the land of Ishmael that they might hold a council with Lamoni and also with his brother Anti-Nephi-Lehi, what they should do to defend themselves against the Lamanites. <sup>24:6</sup>Now there was not one soul among all the people who had been converted unto the Lord that would take up arms against their brethren; nay, they would not even make any preparations for war; yea, and also their king commanded them that they should not. <sup>24:7</sup>Now, these are the words which he said unto the people concerning the matter: I thank my God, my beloved people, that our great God has in goodness sent these our brethren, the Nephites, unto us to preach unto us, and to convince us of the traditions of our wicked fathers. <sup>24:8</sup>And behold, I thank my great God that he has given us a portion of his Spirit to soften our hearts, that we have opened a correspondence with these brethren, the Nephites. <sup>24:9</sup>And behold, I also thank my God, that by opening this correspondence we have been convinced of our sins, and of the many murders which we have committed. <sup>24:10</sup>And I also thank my God, yea, my great God, that he hath granted unto us that we might repent of these things, and also that he hath forgiven us of those our many sins and murders which we have committed, and taken away the guilt from our hearts, through the merits of his Son. <sup>24:11</sup>And now behold, my brethren, since it has been all that we could do, (as we were the most lost of all mankind) to repent of all our sins and the many murders which we have committed, and to get God to take them away from our hearts, for it was all we could do to repent sufficiently before God that he would take away our stain—<sup>24:12</sup>now, my best beloved brethren, since God hath taken away our stains, and our swords have become bright, then let us stain our swords no more with the blood of our brethren. <sup>24:13</sup>Behold, I say unto you, Nay, let us retain our swords that they be not stained with the blood of our brethren; for perhaps, if we should stain our swords again they can no more be washed bright through the blood of the Son of our great God, which shall be shed for the atonement of our sins. <sup>24:14</sup>And the great God has had mercy on us, and made these things known unto us that we might not perish; yea, and he has made these things known unto us beforehand, because he loveth our souls as well as he loveth our children; therefore, in his mercy he doth visit us by his angels, that the plan of salvation might be made known unto us as well as unto future generations. <sup>24:15</sup>Oh, how merciful is our God! And now behold, since it has been as much as we could do to get our stains taken away from us, and our swords are made bright, let us hide them away that they may be kept bright, as a testimony to our God at the last day, or at the day that we shall be brought to stand before him to be judged, that we have not stained our swords in the blood of our brethren since he imparted his word unto us and has made us clean thereby. <sup>24:16</sup>And now, my brethren, if our brethren seek to destroy us, behold, we will hide away our swords, yea, even we will bury them deep in the earth, that they may be kept bright, as a testimony that we have never used them, at the last day; and if our brethren destroy us, behold, we shall go to our God and shall be saved. <sup>24:17</sup>And now it came to pass that when the king had made an end of these sayings, and all the people were assembled together, they took their swords, and all the weapons which were used for the shedding of man's blood, and they did bury them up deep in the earth. <sup>24:18</sup>And this they did, it being in their view a testimony to God, and also to men, that they never would use weapons again for the shedding of man's blood; and this they did, vouching and covenanting with God, that rather than shed the blood of their brethren they would give up their own lives; and rather than take away from a brother they would give unto him; and rather than spend their days in idleness they would labor abundantly with their hands. <sup>24:19</sup>And thus we see that, when these Lamanites were brought to believe and to know the truth, they were firm, and would suffer even unto death rather than commit sin; and thus we see that they buried their weapons of peace, or they buried the weapons of war, for peace. <sup>24:20</sup>And it came to pass that their brethren, the Lamanites, made preparations for war, and came up to the land of Nephi for the purpose of destroying the king, and to place another in his stead, and also of destroying the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi out of the land. <sup>24:21</sup>Now when the people saw that they were coming against them they went out to meet them, and prostrated themselves before them to the earth, and began to call on the name of the Lord; and thus they were in this attitude when the Lamanites began to fall upon them, and began to slay them with the sword. <sup>24:22</sup>And thus without meeting any resistance, they did slay a thousand and five of them; and we know that they are blessed, for they have gone to dwell with their God. <sup>24:23</sup>Now when the Lamanites saw that their brethren would not flee from the sword, neither would they turn aside to the right hand or to the left, but that they would lie down and perish, and praised God even in the very act of perishing under the sword—<sup>24:24</sup>now when the Lamanites saw this they did forbear from slaying them; and there were many whose hearts had swollen in them for those of their brethren who had fallen under the sword, for they repented of the things which they had done. <sup>24:25</sup>And it came to pass that they threw down their weapons of war, and they would not take them again, for they were stung for the murders which they had committed; and they came down even as their brethren, relying upon the mercies of those whose arms were lifted to slay them. <sup>24:26</sup>And it came to pass that the people of God were joined that day by more than the number who had been slain; and those who had been slain were righteous people, therefore we have no reason to doubt but what they were saved. <sup>24:27</sup>And there was not a wicked man slain among them; but there were more than a thousand brought to the knowledge of the truth; thus we see that the Lord worketh in many ways to the salvation of his people. <sup>24:28</sup>Now the greatest number of those of the Lamanites who slew so many of their brethren were Amalekites and Amulonites, the greatest number of whom were after the order of the Nehors. <sup>24:29</sup>Now, among those who joined the people of the Lord, there were none who were Amalekites or Amulonites, or who were of the order of Nehor, but they were actual descendants of Laman and Lemuel. <sup>24:30</sup>And thus we can plainly discern, that after a people have been once enlightened by the Spirit of God, and have had great knowledge of things pertaining to righteousness, and then have fallen away into sin and transgression, they become more hardened, and thus their state becomes worse than though they had never known these things. <sup>25:1</sup>And behold, now it came to pass that those Lamanites were more angry because they had slain their brethren; therefore they swore vengeance upon the Nephites; and they did no more attempt to slay the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi at that time. <sup>25:2</sup>But they took their armies and went over into the borders of the land of Zarahemla, and fell upon the people who were in the land of Ammonihah and destroyed them. <sup>25:3</sup>And after that, they had many battles with the Nephites, in the which they were driven and slain. <sup>25:4</sup>And among the Lamanites who were slain were almost all the seed of Amulon and his brethren, who were the priests of Noah, and they were slain by the hands of the Nephites; <sup>25:5</sup>and the remainder, having fled into the east wilderness, and having usurped the power and authority over the Lamanites, caused that many of the Lamanites should perish by fire because of their belief—<sup>25:6</sup>for many of them, after having suffered much loss and so many afflictions, began to be stirred up in remembrance of the words which Aaron and his brethren had preached to them in their land; therefore they began to disbelieve the traditions of their fathers, and to believe in the Lord, and that he gave great power unto the Nephites; and thus there were many of them converted in the wilderness. <sup>25:7</sup>And it came to pass that those rulers who were the remnant of the children of Amulon caused that they should be put to death, yea, all those that believed in these things. <sup>25:8</sup>Now this martyrdom caused that many of their brethren should be stirred up to anger; and there began to be contention in the wilderness; and the Lamanites began to hunt the seed of Amulon and his brethren and began to slay them; and they fled into the east wilderness. <sup>25:9</sup>And behold they are hunted at this day by the Lamanites. Thus the words of Abinadi were brought to pass, which he said concerning the seed of the priests who caused that he should suffer death by fire. <sup>25:10</sup>For he said unto them: What ye shall do unto me shall be a type of things to come. <sup>25:11</sup>And now Abinadi was the first that suffered death by fire because of his belief in God; now this is what he meant, that many should suffer death by fire, according as he had suffered. <sup>25:12</sup>And he said unto the priests of Noah that their seed should cause many to be put to death, in the like manner as he was, and that they should be scattered abroad and slain, even as a sheep having no shepherd is driven and slain by wild beasts; and now behold, these words were verified, for they were driven by the Lamanites, and they were hunted, and they were smitten. <sup>25:13</sup>And it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that they could not overpower the Nephites they returned again to their own land; and many of them came over to dwell in the land of Ishmael and the land of Nephi, and did join themselves to the people of God, who were the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi. <sup>25:14</sup>And they did also bury their weapons of war, according as their brethren had, and they began to be a righteous people; and they did walk in the ways of the Lord, and did observe to keep his commandments and his statutes. <sup>25:15</sup>Yea, and they did keep the law of Moses; for it was expedient that they should keep the law of Moses as yet, for it was not all fulfilled. But notwithstanding the law of Moses, they did look forward to the coming of Christ, considering that the law of Moses was a type of his coming, and believing that they must keep those outward performances until the time that he should be revealed unto them. <sup>25:16</sup>Now they did not suppose that salvation came by the law of Moses; but the law of Moses did serve to strengthen their faith in Christ; and thus they did retain a hope through faith, unto eternal salvation, relying upon the spirit of prophecy, which spake of those things to come. <sup>25:17</sup>And now behold, Ammon, and Aaron, and Omner, and Himni, and their brethren did rejoice exceedingly, for the success which they had had among the Lamanites, seeing that the Lord had granted unto them according to their prayers, and that he had also verified his word unto them in every particular. <sup>26:1</sup>And now, these are the words of Ammon to his brethren, which say thus: My brothers and my brethren, behold I say unto you, how great reason have we to rejoice; for could we have supposed when we started from the land of Zarahemla that God would have granted unto us such great blessings? <sup>26:2</sup>And now, I ask, what great blessings has he bestowed upon us? Can ye tell? <sup>26:3</sup>Behold, I answer for you; for our brethren, the Lamanites, were in darkness, yea, even in the darkest abyss, but behold, how many of them are brought to behold the marvelous light of God! And this is the blessing which hath been bestowed upon us, that we have been made instruments in the hands of God to bring about this great work. <sup>26:4</sup>Behold, thousands of them do rejoice, and have been brought into the fold of God. <sup>26:5</sup>Behold, the field was ripe, and blessed are ye, for ye did thrust in the sickle, and did reap with your might, yea, all the day long did ye labor; and behold the number of your sheaves! And they shall be gathered into the garners, that they are not wasted. <sup>26:6</sup>Yea, they shall not be beaten down by the storm at the last day; yea, neither shall they be harrowed up by the whirlwinds; but when the storm cometh they shall be gathered together in their place, that the storm cannot penetrate to them; yea, neither shall they be driven with fierce winds whithersoever the enemy listeth to carry them. <sup>26:7</sup>But behold, they are in the hands of the Lord of the harvest, and they are his; and he will raise them up at the last day. <sup>26:8</sup>Blessed be the name of our God; let us sing to his praise, yea, let us give thanks to his holy name, for he doth work righteousness forever. <sup>26:9</sup>For if we had not come up out of the land of Zarahemla, these our dearly beloved brethren, who have so dearly beloved us, would still have been racked with hatred against us, yea, and they would also have been strangers to God. <sup>26:10</sup>And it came to pass that when Ammon had said these words, his brother Aaron rebuked him, saying: Ammon, I fear that thy joy doth carry thee away unto boasting. <sup>26:11</sup>But Ammon said unto him: I do not boast in my own strength, nor in my own wisdom; but behold, my joy is full, yea, my heart is brim with joy, and I will rejoice in my God. <sup>26:12</sup>Yea, I know that I am nothing; as to my strength I am weak; therefore I will not boast of myself, but I will boast of my God, for in his strength I can do all things; yea, behold, many mighty miracles we have wrought in this land, for which we will praise his name forever. <sup>26:13</sup>Behold, how many thousands of our brethren has he loosed from the pains of hell; and they are brought to sing redeeming love, and this because of the power of his word which is in us, therefore have we not great reason to rejoice? <sup>26:14</sup>Yea, we have reason to praise him forever, for he is the Most High God, and has loosed our brethren from the chains of hell. <sup>26:15</sup>Yea, they were encircled about with everlasting darkness and destruction; but behold, he has brought them into his everlasting light, yea, into everlasting salvation; and they are encircled about with the matchless bounty of his love; yea, and we have been instruments in his hands of doing this great and marvelous work. <sup>26:16</sup>Therefore, let us glory, yea, we will glory in the Lord; yea, we will rejoice, for our joy is full; yea, we will praise our God forever. Behold, who can glory too much in the Lord? Yea, who can say too much of his great power, and of his mercy, and of his long-suffering towards the children of men? Behold, I say unto you, I cannot say the smallest part which I feel. <sup>26:17</sup>Who could have supposed that our God would have been so merciful as to have snatched us from our awful, sinful, and polluted state? <sup>26:18</sup>Behold, we went forth even in wrath, with mighty threatenings to destroy his church. <sup>26:19</sup>Oh then, why did he not consign us to an awful destruction, yea, why did he not let the sword of his justice fall upon us, and doom us to eternal despair? <sup>26:20</sup>Oh, my soul, almost as it were, fleeth at the thought. Behold, he did not exercise his justice upon us, but in his great mercy hath brought us over that everlasting gulf of death and misery, even to the salvation of our souls. <sup>26:21</sup>And now behold, my brethren, what natural man is there that knoweth these things? I say unto you, there is none that knoweth these things, save it be the penitent. <sup>26:22</sup>Yea, he that repenteth and exerciseth faith, and bringeth forth good works, and prayeth continually without ceasing — unto such it is given to know the mysteries of God; yea, unto such it shall be given to reveal things which never have been revealed; yea, and it shall be given unto such to bring thousands of souls to repentance, even as it has been given unto us to bring these our brethren to repentance. <sup>26:23</sup>Now do ye remember, my brethren, that we said unto our brethren in the land of Zarahemla, we go up to the land of Nephi, to preach unto our brethren, the Lamanites, and they laughed us to scorn? <sup>26:24</sup>For they said unto us: Do ye suppose that ye can bring the Lamanites to the knowledge of the truth? Do ye suppose that ye can convince the Lamanites of the incorrectness of the traditions of their fathers, as stiffnecked a people as they are; whose hearts delight in the shedding of blood; whose days have been spent in the grossest iniquity; whose ways have been the ways of a transgressor from the beginning? Now my brethren, ye remember that this was their language. <sup>26:25</sup>And moreover they did say: Let us take up arms against them, that we destroy them and their iniquity out of the land, lest they overrun us and destroy us. <sup>26:26</sup>But behold, my beloved brethren, we came into the wilderness not with the intent to destroy our brethren, but with the intent that perhaps we might save some few of their souls. <sup>26:27</sup>Now when our hearts were depressed, and we were about to turn back, behold, the Lord comforted us, and said: Go amongst thy brethren, the Lamanites, and bear with patience thine afflictions, and I will give unto you success. <sup>26:28</sup>And now behold, we have come, and been forth amongst them; and we have been patient in our sufferings, and we have suffered every privation; yea, we have traveled from house to house, relying upon the mercies of the world — not upon the mercies of the world alone but upon the mercies of God. <sup>26:29</sup>And we have entered into their houses and taught them, and we have taught them in their streets; yea, and we have taught them upon their hills; and we have also entered into their temples and their synagogues and taught them; and we have been cast out, and mocked, and spit upon, and smote upon our cheeks; and we have been stoned, and taken and bound with strong cords, and cast into prison; and through the power and wisdom of God we have been delivered again. <sup>26:30</sup>And we have suffered all manner of afflictions, and all this, that perhaps we might be the means of saving some soul; and we supposed that our joy would be full if perhaps we could be the means of saving some. <sup>26:31</sup>Now behold, we can look forth and see the fruits of our labors; and are they few? I say unto you, Nay, they are many; yea, and we can witness of their sincerity, because of their love towards their brethren and also towards us. <sup>26:32</sup>For behold, they had rather sacrifice their lives than even to take the life of their enemy; and they have buried their weapons of war deep in the earth, because of their love towards their brethren. <sup>26:33</sup>And now behold I say unto you, has there been so great love in all the land? Behold, I say unto you, Nay, there has not, even among the Nephites. <sup>26:34</sup>For behold, they would take up arms against their brethren; they would not suffer themselves to be slain. But behold how many of these have laid down their lives; and we know that they have gone to their God, because of their love and of their hatred to sin. <sup>26:35</sup>Now have we not reason to rejoice? Yea, I say unto you, there never were men that had so great reason to rejoice as we, since the world began; yea, and my joy is carried away, even unto boasting in my God; for he has all power, all wisdom, and all understanding; he comprehendeth all things, and he is a merciful Being, even unto salvation, to those who will repent and believe on his name. <sup>26:36</sup>Now if this is boasting, even so will I boast; for this is my life and my light, my joy and my salvation, and my redemption from everlasting wo. Yea, blessed is the name of my God, who has been mindful of this people, who are a branch of the tree of Israel, and has been lost from its body in a strange land; yea, I say, blessed be the name of my God, who has been mindful of us, wanderers in a strange land. <sup>26:37</sup>Now my brethren, we see that God is mindful of every people, whatsoever land they may be in; yea, he numbereth his people, and his bowels of mercy are over all the earth. Now this is my joy, and my great thanksgiving; yea, and I will give thanks unto my God forever. Amen. <sup><XV>27:1</sup>Now it came to pass that when those Lamanites who had gone to war against the Nephites had found, after their many struggles to destroy them, that it was in vain to seek their destruction, they returned again to the land of Nephi. <sup>27:2</sup>And it came to pass that the Amalekites, because of their loss, were exceedingly angry. And when they saw that they could not seek revenge from the Nephites, they began to stir up the people in anger against their brethren, the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi; therefore they began again to destroy them. <sup>27:3</sup>Now this people again refused to take their arms, and they suffered themselves to be slain according to the desires of their enemies. <sup>27:4</sup>Now when Ammon and his brethren saw this work of destruction among those whom they so dearly beloved, and among those who had so dearly beloved them—for they were treated as though they were angels sent from God to save them from everlasting destruction—therefore, when Ammon and his brethren saw this great work of destruction, they were moved with compassion, and they said unto the king: <sup>27:5</sup>Let us gather together this people of the Lord, and let us go down to the land of Zarahemla to our brethren the Nephites, and flee out of the hands of our enemies, that we be not destroyed. <sup>27:6</sup>But the king said unto them: Behold, the Nephites will destroy us, because of the many murders and sins we have committed against them. <sup>27:7</sup>And Ammon said: I will go and inquire of the Lord, and if he say unto us, go down unto our brethren, will ye go? <sup>27:8</sup>And the king said unto him: Yea, if the Lord saith unto us go, we will go down unto our brethren, and we will be their slaves until we repair unto them the many murders and sins which we have committed against them. <sup>27:9</sup>But Ammon said unto him: It is against the law of our brethren, which was established by my father, that there should be any slaves among them; therefore let us go down and rely upon the mercies of our brethren. <sup>27:10</sup>But the king said unto him: Inquire of the Lord, and if he saith unto us go, we will go; otherwise we will perish in the land. <sup>27:11</sup>And it came to pass that Ammon went and inquired of the Lord, and the Lord said unto him: <sup>27:12</sup>Get this people out of this land, that they perish not; for Satan has great hold on the hearts of the Amalekites, who do stir up the Lamanites to anger against their brethren to slay them; therefore get thee out of this land; and blessed are this people in this generation, for I will preserve them. <sup>27:13</sup>And now it came to pass that Ammon went and told the king all the words which the Lord had said unto him. <sup>27:14</sup>And they gathered together all their people, yea, all the people of the Lord, and did gather together all their flocks and herds, and departed out of the land, and came into the wilderness which divided the land of Nephi from the land of Zarahemla, and came over near the borders of the land. <sup>27:15</sup>And it came to pass that Ammon said unto them: Behold, I and my brethren will go forth into the land of Zarahemla, and ye shall remain here until we return; and we will try the hearts of our brethren, whether they will that ye shall come into their land. <sup>27:16</sup>And it came to pass that as Ammon was going forth into the land, that he and his brethren met Alma, over in the place of which has been spoken; and behold, this was a joyful meeting. <sup>27:17</sup>Now the joy of Ammon was so great even that he was full; yea, he was swallowed up in the joy of his God, even to the exhausting of his strength; and he fell again to the earth. <sup>27:18</sup>Now was not this exceeding joy? Behold, this is joy which none receiveth save it be the truly penitent and humble seeker of happiness. <sup>27:19</sup>Now the joy of Alma in meeting his brethren was truly great, and also the joy of Aaron, of Omner, and Himni; but behold their joy was not that to exceed their strength. <sup>27:20</sup>And now it came to pass that Alma conducted his brethren back to the land of Zarahemla; even to his own house. And they went and told the chief judge all the things that had happened unto them in the land of Nephi, among their brethren, the Lamanites. <sup>27:21</sup>And it came to pass that the chief judge sent a proclamation throughout all the land, desiring the voice of the people concerning the admitting their brethren, who were the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi. <sup>27:22</sup>And it came to pass that the voice of the people came, saying: Behold, we will give up the land of Jershon, which is on the east by the sea, which joins the land Bountiful, which is on the south of the land Bountiful; and this land Jershon is the land which we will give unto our brethren for an inheritance. <sup>27:23</sup>And behold, we will set our armies between the land Jershon and the land Nephi, that we may protect our brethren in the land Jershon; and this we do for our brethren, on account of their fear to take up arms against their brethren lest they should commit sin; and this their great fear came because of their sore repentance which they had, on account of their many murders and their awful wickedness. <sup>27:24</sup>And now behold, this will we do unto our brethren, that they may inherit the land Jershon; and we will guard them from their enemies with our armies, on condition that they will give us a portion of their substance to assist us that we may maintain our armies. <sup>27:25</sup>Now, it came to pass that when Ammon had heard this, he returned to the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi, and also Alma with him, into the wilderness, where they had pitched their tents, and made known unto them all these things. And Alma also related unto them his conversion, with Ammon and Aaron, and his brethren. <sup>27:26</sup>And it came to pass that it did cause great joy among them. And they went down into the land of Jershon, and took possession of the land of Jershon; and they were called by the Nephites the people of Ammon; therefore they were distinguished by that name ever after. <sup>27:27</sup>And they were among the people of Nephi, and also numbered among the people who were of the church of God. And they were also distinguished for their zeal towards God, and also towards men; for they were perfectly honest and upright in all things; and they were firm in the faith of Christ, even unto the end. <sup>27:28</sup>And they did look upon shedding the blood of their brethren with the greatest abhorrence; and they never could be prevailed upon to take up arms against their brethren; and they never did look upon death with any degree of terror, for their hope and views of Christ and the resurrection; therefore, death was swallowed up to them by the victory of Christ over it. <sup>27:29</sup>Therefore, they would suffer death in the most aggravating and distressing manner which could be inflicted by their brethren, before they would take the sword or cimeter to smite them. <sup>27:30</sup>And thus they were a zealous and beloved people, a highly favored people of the Lord. <sup>28:1</sup>And now it came to pass that after the people of Ammon were established in the land of Jershon, and a church also established in the land of Jershon, and the armies of the Nephites were set round about the land of Jershon, yea, in all the borders round about the land of Zarahemla; behold the armies of the Lamanites had followed their brethren into the wilderness. <sup>28:2</sup>And thus there was a tremendous battle; yea, even such an one as never had been known among all the people in the land from the time Lehi left Jerusalem; yea, and tens of thousands of the Lamanites were slain and scattered abroad. <sup>28:3</sup>Yea, and also there was a tremendous slaughter among the people of Nephi; nevertheless, the Lamanites were driven and scattered, and the people of Nephi returned again to their land. <sup>28:4</sup>And now this was a time that there was a great mourning and lamentation heard throughout all the land, among all the people of Nephi—<sup>28:5</sup>yea, the cry of widows mourning for their husbands, and also of fathers mourning for their sons, and the daughter for the brother, yea, the brother for the father; and thus the cry of mourning was heard among all of them, mourning for their kindred who had been slain. <sup>28:6</sup>And now surely this was a sorrowful day; yea, a time of solemnity, and a time of much fasting and prayer. <sup>28:7</sup>And thus endeth the fifteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi; <sup>28:8</sup>and this is the account of Ammon and his brethren, their journeyings in the land of Nephi, their sufferings in the land, their sorrows, and their afflictions, and their incomprehensible joy, and the reception and safety of the brethren in the land of Jershon. And now may the Lord, the Redeemer of all men, bless their souls forever. <sup>28:9</sup>And this is the account of the wars and contentions among the Nephites, and also the wars between the Nephites and the Lamanites; and the fifteenth year of the reign of the judges is ended. <sup>28:10</sup>And from the first year to the fifteenth has brought to pass the destruction of many thousand lives; yea, it has brought to pass an awful scene of bloodshed. <sup>28:11</sup>And the bodies of many thousands are laid low in the earth, while the bodies of many thousands are moldering in heaps upon the face of the earth; yea, and many thousands are mourning for the loss of their kindred, because they have reason to fear, according to the promises of the Lord, that they are consigned to a state of endless wo. <sup>28:12</sup>While many thousands of others truly mourn for the loss of their kindred, yet they rejoice and exult in the hope, and even know, according to the promises of the Lord, that they are raised to dwell at the right hand of God, in a state of never-ending happiness. <sup>28:13</sup>And thus we see how great the inequality of man is because of sin and transgression, and the power of the devil, which comes by the cunning plans which he hath devised to ensnare the hearts of men. <sup>28:14</sup>And thus we see the great call of diligence of men to labor in the vineyards of the Lord; and thus we see the great reason of sorrow, and also of rejoicing—sorrow because of death and destruction among men, and joy because of the light of Christ unto life. <sup>29:1</sup>O that I were an angel, and could have the wish of mine heart, that I might go forth and speak with the trump of God, with a voice to shake the earth, and cry repentance unto every people! <sup>29:2</sup>Yea, I would declare unto every soul, as with the voice of thunder, repentance and the plan of redemption, that they should repent and come unto our God, that there might not be more sorrow upon all the face of the earth. <sup>29:3</sup>But behold, I am a man, and do sin in my wish; for I ought to be content with the things which the Lord hath allotted unto me. <sup>29:4</sup>I ought not to harrow up in my desires, the firm decree of a just God, for I know that he granteth unto men according to their desire, whether it be unto death or unto life; yea, I know that he allotteth unto men, yea, decreeth unto them decrees which are unalterable, according to their wills, whether they be unto salvation or unto destruction. <sup>29:5</sup>Yea, and I know that good and evil have come before all men; he that knoweth not good from evil is blameless; but he that knoweth good and evil, to him it is given according to his desires, whether he desireth good or evil, life or death, joy or remorse of conscience. <sup>29:6</sup>Now, seeing that I know these things, why should I desire more than to perform the work to which I have been called? <sup>29:7</sup>Why should I desire that I were an angel, that I could speak unto all the ends of the earth? <sup>29:8</sup>For behold, the Lord doth grant unto all nations, of their own nation and tongue, to teach his word, yea, in wisdom, all that he seeth fit that they should have; therefore we see that the Lord doth counsel in wisdom, according to that which is just and true. <sup>29:9</sup>I know that which the Lord hath commanded me, and I glory in it. I do not glory of myself, but I glory in that which the Lord hath commanded me; yea, and this is my glory, that perhaps I may be an instrument in the hands of God to bring some soul to repentance; and this is my joy. <sup>29:10</sup>And behold, when I see many of my brethren truly penitent, and coming to the Lord their God, then is my soul filled with joy; then do I remember what the Lord has done for me, yea, even that he hath heard my prayer; yea, then do I remember his merciful arm which he extended towards me. <sup>29:11</sup>Yea, and I also remember the captivity of my fathers; for I surely do know that the Lord did deliver them out of bondage, and by this did establish his church; yea, the Lord God, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, did deliver them out of bondage. <sup>29:12</sup>Yea, I have always remembered the captivity of my fathers; and that same God who delivered them out of the hands of the Egyptians did deliver them out of bondage. <sup>29:13</sup>Yea, and that same God did establish his church among them; yea, and that same God hath called me by a holy calling, to preach the word unto this people, and hath given me much success, in the which my joy is full. <sup>29:14</sup>But I do not joy in my own success alone, but my joy is more full because of the success of my brethren, who have been up to the land of Nephi. <sup>29:15</sup>Behold, they have labored exceedingly, and have brought forth much fruit; and how great shall be their reward! <sup>29:16</sup>Now, when I think of the success of these my brethren my soul is carried away, even to the separation of it from the body, as it were, so great is my joy. <sup>29:17</sup>And now may God grant unto these, my brethren, that they may sit down in the kingdom of God; yea, and also all those who are the fruit of their labors that they may go no more out, but that they may praise him forever. And may God grant that it may be done according to my words, even as I have spoken. Amen. <sup><XVI>30:1</sup>Behold, now it came to pass that after the people of Ammon were established in the land of Jershon, yea, and also after the Lamanites were driven out of the land, and their dead were buried by the people of the land—<sup>30:2</sup>now their dead were not numbered because of the greatness of their numbers; neither were the dead of the Nephites numbered—but it came to pass after they had buried their dead, and also after the days of fasting, and mourning, and prayer, (and it was in the sixteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi) there began to be continual peace throughout all the land. <sup>30:3</sup>Yea, and the people did observe to keep the commandments of the Lord; and they were strict in observing the ordinances of God, according to the law of Moses; for they were taught to keep the law of Moses until it should be fulfilled. <sup>30:4</sup>And thus the people did have no disturbance in all the sixteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>30:5</sup>And it came to pass that in the commencement of the seventeenth year of the reign of the judges, there was continual peace. <sup>30:6</sup>But it came to pass in the latter end of the seventeenth year, there came a man into the land of Zarahemla, and he was Anti-Christ, for he began to preach unto the people against the prophecies which had been spoken by the prophets, concerning the coming of Christ. <sup>30:7</sup>Now there was no law against a man's belief; for it was strictly contrary to the commands of God that there should be a law which should bring men on to unequal grounds. <sup>30:8</sup>For thus saith the scripture: Choose ye this day, whom ye will serve. <sup>30:9</sup>Now if a man desired to serve God, it was his privilege; or rather, if he believed in God it was his privilege to serve him; but if he did not believe in him there was no law to punish him. <sup>30:10</sup>But if he murdered he was punished unto death; and if he robbed he was also punished; and if he stole he was also punished; and if he committed adultery he was also punished; yea, for all this wickedness they were punished. <sup>30:11</sup>For there was a law that men should be judged according to their crimes. Nevertheless, there was no law against a man's belief; therefore, a man was punished only for the crimes which he had done; therefore all men were on equal grounds. <sup>30:12</sup>And this Anti-Christ, whose name was Korihor, (and the law could have no hold upon him) began to preach unto the people that there should be no Christ. And after this manner did he preach, saying: <sup>30:13</sup>O ye that are bound down under a foolish and a vain hope, why do ye yoke yourselves with such foolish things? Why do ye look for a Christ? For no man can know of anything which is to come. <sup>30:14</sup>Behold, these things which ye call prophecies, which ye say are handed down by holy prophets, behold, they are foolish traditions of your fathers. <sup>30:15</sup>How do ye know of their surety? Behold, ye cannot know of things which ye do not see; therefore ye cannot know that there shall be a Christ. <sup>30:16</sup>Ye look forward and say that ye see a remission of your sins. But behold, it is the effect of a frenzied mind; and this derangement of your minds comes because of the traditions of your fathers, which lead you away into a belief of things which are not so. <sup>30:17</sup>And many more such things did he say unto them, telling them that there could be no atonement made for the sins of men, but every man fared in this life according to the management of the creature; therefore every man prospered according to his genius, and that every man conquered according to his strength; and whatsoever a man did was no crime. <sup>30:18</sup>And thus he did preach unto them, leading away the hearts of many, causing them to lift up their heads in their wickedness, yea, leading away many women, and also men, to commit whoredoms—telling them that when a man was dead, that was the end thereof. <sup>30:19</sup>Now this man went over to the land of Jershon also, to preach these things among the people of Ammon, who were once the people of the Lamanites. <sup>30:20</sup>But behold they were more wise than many of the Nephites; for they took him, and bound him, and carried him before Ammon, who was a high priest over that people. <sup>30:21</sup>And it came to pass that he caused that he should be carried out of the land. And he came over into the land of Gideon, and began to preach unto them also; and here he did not have much success, for he was taken and bound and carried before the high priest, and also the chief judge over the land. <sup>30:22</sup>And it came to pass that the high priest said unto him: Why do ye go about perverting the ways of the Lord? Why do ye teach this people that there shall be no Christ, to interrupt their rejoicings? Why do ye speak against all the prophecies of the holy prophets? <sup>30:23</sup>Now the high priest's name was Giddonah.

And Korihor said unto him: Because I do not teach the foolish traditions of your fathers, and because I do not teach this people to bind themselves down under the foolish ordinances and performances which are laid down by ancient priests, to usurp power and authority over them, to keep them in ignorance, that they may not lift up their heads, but be brought down according to thy words. <sup>30:24</sup>Ye say that this people is a free people. Behold, I say they are in bondage. Ye say that those ancient prophecies are true. Behold, I say that ye do not know that they are true. <sup>30:25</sup>Ye say that this people is a guilty and a fallen people, because of the transgression of a parent. Behold, I say that a child is not guilty because of its parents. <sup>30:26</sup>And ye also say that Christ shall come. But behold, I say that ye do not know that there shall be a Christ. And ye say also that he shall be slain for the sins of the world — <sup>30:27</sup>and thus ye lead away this people after the foolish traditions of your fathers, and according to your own desires; and ye keep them down, even as it were in bondage, that ye may glut yourselves with the labors of their hands, that they durst not look up with boldness, and that they durst not enjoy their rights and privileges. <sup>30:28</sup>Yea, they durst not make use of that which is their own lest they should offend their priests, who do yoke them according to their desires, and have brought them to believe, by their traditions and their dreams and their whims and their visions and their pretended mysteries, that they should, if they did not do according to their words, offend some unknown being, who they say is God — a being who never has been seen or known, who never was nor ever will be. <sup>30:29</sup>Now when the high priest and the chief judge saw the hardness of his heart, yea, when they saw that he would revile even against God, they would not make any reply to his words; but they caused that he should be bound; and they delivered him up into the hands of the officers, and sent him to the land of Zarahemla, that he might be brought before Alma, and the chief judge who was governor over all the land. <sup>30:30</sup>And it came to pass that when he was brought before Alma and the chief judge, he did go on in the same manner as he did in the land of Gideon; yea, he went on to blaspheme. <sup>30:31</sup>And he did rise up in great swelling words before Alma, and did revile against the priests and teachers, accusing them of leading away the people after the silly traditions of their fathers, for the sake of glutting on the labors of the people. <sup>30:32</sup>Now Alma said unto him: Thou knowest that we do not glut ourselves upon the labors of this people; for behold I have labored even from the commencement of the reign of the judges until now, with mine own hands for my support, notwithstanding my many travels round about the land to declare the word of God unto my people. <sup>30:33</sup>And notwithstanding the many labors which I have performed in the church, I have never received so much as even one senine for my labor; neither has any of my brethren, save it were in the judgment-seat; and then we have received only according to law for our time. <sup>30:34</sup>And now, if we do not receive anything for our labors in the church, what doth it profit us to labor in the church save it were to declare the truth, that we may have rejoicings in the joy of our brethren? <sup>30:35</sup>Then why sayest thou that we preach unto this people to get gain, when thou, of thyself, knowest that we receive no gain? And now, believest thou that we deceive this people, that causes such joy in their hearts?

<sup>30:36</sup>And Korihor answered him, Yea. <sup>30:37</sup>And then Alma said unto him: Believest thou that there is a God? <sup>30:38</sup>And he answered, Nay. <sup>30:39</sup>Now Alma said unto him: Will ye deny again that there is a God, and also deny the Christ? For behold, I say unto you, I know there is a God, and also that Christ shall come.

<sup>30:40</sup>And now what evidence have ye that there is no God, or that Christ cometh not? I say unto you that ye have none, save it be your word only. <sup>30:41</sup>But, behold, I have all things as a testimony that these things are true; and ye also have all things as a testimony unto you that they are true; and will ye deny them? Believest thou that these things are true? <sup>30:42</sup>Behold, I know that thou believest, but thou art possessed with a lying spirit, and ye have put off the Spirit of God that it may have no place in you; but the devil has power over you, and he doth carry you about, working devices that he may destroy the children of God.

<sup>30:43</sup>And now Korihor said unto Alma: If thou wilt show me a sign, that I may be convinced that there is a God, yea, show unto me that he hath power, and then will I be convinced of the truth of thy words. <sup>30:44</sup>But Alma said unto him: Thou hast had signs enough; will ye tempt your God? Will ye say, Show unto me a sign, when ye have the testimony of all these thy brethren, and also all the holy prophets? The scriptures are laid before thee, yea, and all things denote there is a God; yea, even the earth, and all things that are upon the face of it, yea, and its motion, yea, and also all the planets which move in their regular form do witness that there is a Supreme Creator. <sup>30:45</sup>And yet do ye go about, leading away the hearts of this people, testifying unto them there is no God? And yet will ye deny against all these witnesses? And he said: Yea, I will deny, except ye shall show me a sign. <sup>30:46</sup>And now it came to pass that Alma said unto him: Behold, I am grieved because of the hardness of your heart, yea, that ye will still resist the spirit of the truth, that thy soul may be destroyed. <sup>30:47</sup>But behold, it is better that thy soul should be lost than that thou shouldst be the means of bringing many souls down to destruction, by thy lying and by thy flattering words; therefore if thou shalt deny again, behold God shall smite thee, that thou shalt become dumb, that thou shalt never open thy mouth any more, that thou shalt not deceive this people any more. <sup>30:48</sup>Now Korihor said unto him: I do not deny the existence of a God, but I do not believe that there is a God; and I say also, that ye do not know that there is a God; and except ye show me a sign, I will not believe.

<sup>30:49</sup>Now Alma said unto him: This will I give unto thee for a sign, that thou shalt be struck dumb, according to my words; and I say, that in the name of God, ye shall be struck dumb, that ye shall no more have utterance. <sup>30:50</sup>Now when Alma had said these words, Korihor was struck dumb, that he could not have utterance, according to the words of Alma. <sup>30:51</sup>And now when the chief judge saw this, he put forth his hand and wrote unto Korihor, saying: Art thou convinced of the power of God? In whom did ye desire that Alma should show forth his sign? Would ye that he should afflict others, to show unto thee a sign?

Behold, he has showed unto you a sign; and now will ye dispute more? <sup>30:52</sup>And Korihor put forth his hand and wrote, saying: I know that I am dumb, for I cannot speak; and I know that nothing save it were the power of God could bring this upon me; yea, and I always knew that there was a God. <sup>30:53</sup>But behold, the devil hath deceived me; for he appeared unto me in the form of an angel, and said unto me: Go and reclaim this people, for they have all gone astray after an unknown God. And he said unto me: There is no God; yea, and he taught me that which I should say. And I have taught his words; and I taught them because they were pleasing unto the carnal mind; and I taught them, even until I had much success, insomuch that I verily believed that they were true; and for this cause I withstood the truth, even until I have brought this great curse upon me. <sup>30:54</sup>Now when he had said this, he besought that Alma should pray unto God, that the curse might be taken from him. <sup>30:55</sup>But Alma said unto him: If this curse should be taken from thee thou wouldst again lead away the hearts of this people; therefore, it shall be unto thee even as the Lord will. <sup>30:56</sup>And it came to pass that the curse was not taken off of Korihor; but he was cast out, and went about from house to house begging for his food. <sup>30:57</sup>Now the knowledge of what had happened unto Korihor was immediately published throughout all the land; yea, the proclamation was sent forth by the chief judge to all the people in the land, declaring unto those who had believed in the words of Korihor that they must speedily repent, lest the same judgments would come unto them. <sup>30:58</sup>And it came to pass that they were all convinced of the wickedness of Korihor; therefore they were all converted again unto the Lord; and this put an end to the iniquity after the manner of Korihor. And Korihor did go about from house to house, begging food for his support. <sup>30:59</sup>And it came to pass that as he went forth among the people, yea, among a people who had separated themselves from the Nephites and called themselves Zoramites, being led by a man whose name was Zoram—and as he went forth amongst them, behold, he was run upon and trodden down, even until he was dead. <sup>30:60</sup>And thus we see the end of him who perverteth the ways of the Lord; and thus we see that the devil will not support his children at the last day, but doth speedily drag them down to hell. <sup>31:1</sup>Now it came to pass that after the end of Korihor, Alma having received tidings that the Zoramites were perverting the ways of the Lord, and that Zoram, who was their leader, was leading the hearts of the people to bow down to dumb idols, his heart again began to sicken because of the iniquity of the people. <sup>31:2</sup>For it was the cause of great sorrow to Alma to know of iniquity among his people; therefore his heart was exceedingly sorrowful because of the separation of the Zoramites from the Nephites. <sup>31:3</sup>Now the Zoramites had gathered themselves together in a land which they called Antionum, which was east of the land of Zarahemla, which lay nearly bordering upon the seashore, which was south of the land of Jershon, which also bordered upon the wilderness south, which wilderness was full of the Lamanites. <sup>31:4</sup>Now the Nephites greatly feared that the Zoramites would enter into a correspondence with the Lamanites, and that it would be the means of great loss on the part of the Nephites. <sup>31:5</sup>And now, as the preaching of the word had a great tendency to lead the people to do that which was just—yea, it had had more powerful effect upon the minds of the people than the sword, or anything else, which had happened unto them—therefore Alma thought it was expedient that they should try the virtue of the word of God. <sup>31:6</sup>Therefore he took Ammon, and Aaron, and Omner; and Himni he did leave in the church in Zarahemla; but the former three he took with him, and also Amulek and Zeezrom, who were at Melek; and he also took two of his sons. <sup>31:7</sup>Now the eldest of his sons he took not with him, and his name was Helaman; but the names of those whom he took with him were Shiblon and Corianton; and these are the names of those who went with him among the Zoramites, to preach unto them the word. <sup>31:8</sup>Now the Zoramites were dissenters from the Nephites; therefore they had had the word of God preached unto them. <sup>31:9</sup>But they had fallen into great errors, for they would not observe to keep the commandments of God, and his statutes, according to the law of Moses. <sup>31:10</sup>Neither would they observe the performances of the church, to continue in prayer and supplication to God daily, that they might not enter into temptation. <sup>31:11</sup>Yea, in fine, they did pervert the ways of the Lord in very many instances; therefore, for this cause, Alma and his brethren went into the land to preach the word unto them. <sup>31:12</sup>Now, when they had come into the land, behold, to their astonishment they found that the Zoramites had built synagogues, and that they did gather themselves together on one day of the week, which day they did call the day of the Lord; and they did worship after a manner which Alma and his brethren had never beheld; <sup>31:13</sup>for they had a place built up in the center of their synagogue, a place for standing, which was high above the head; and the top thereof would only admit one person. <sup>31:14</sup>Therefore, whosoever desired to worship must go forth and stand upon the top thereof, and stretch forth his hands towards heaven, and cry with a loud voice, saying: <sup>31:15</sup>Holy, holy God; we believe that thou art God, and we believe that thou art holy, and that thou wast a spirit, and that thou art a spirit, and that thou wilt be a spirit forever. <sup>31:16</sup>Holy God, we believe that thou hast separated us from our brethren; and we do not believe in the tradition of our brethren, which was handed down to them by the childishness of their fathers; but we believe that thou hast elected us to be thy holy children; and also thou hast made it known unto us that there shall be no Christ. <sup>31:17</sup>But thou art the same yesterday, today, and forever; and thou hast elected us that we shall be saved, whilst all around us are elected to be cast by thy wrath down to hell; for the which holiness, O God, we thank thee; and we also thank thee that thou hast elected us, that we may not be led away after the foolish traditions of our brethren, which doth bind them down to a belief of Christ, which doth lead their hearts to wander far from thee, our God. <sup>31:18</sup>And again we thank thee, O God, that we are a chosen and a holy people. Amen. <sup>31:19</sup>Now it came to pass that after Alma and his brethren and his sons had heard these prayers, they were astonished beyond all measure. <sup>31:20</sup>For behold, every man did go forth and offer up these same prayers. <sup>31:21</sup>Now the place was called by them Rameumptom, which, being interpreted, is the holy stand. <sup>31:22</sup>Now, from this stand they did offer up, every man, the selfsame prayer unto God, thanking their God that they were chosen of him, and that he did not lead them away after the tradition of their brethren, and that their hearts were not stolen away to believe in things to come, which they knew nothing about. <sup>31:23</sup>Now, after the people had all offered up thanks after this manner, they returned to their homes, never speaking of their God again until they had assembled themselves together again to the holy stand, to offer up thanks after their manner. <sup>31:24</sup>Now when Alma saw this his heart was grieved; for he saw that they were a wicked and a perverse people; yea, he saw that their hearts were set upon gold, and upon silver, and upon all manner of fine goods. <sup>31:25</sup>Yea, and he also saw that their hearts were lifted up unto great boasting, in their pride. <sup>31:26</sup>And he lifted up his voice to heaven, and cried, saying: O, how long, O Lord, wilt thou suffer that thy servants shall dwell here below in the flesh, to behold such gross wickedness among the children of men? <sup>31:27</sup>Behold, O God, they cry unto thee, and yet their hearts are swallowed up in their pride. Behold, O God, they cry unto thee with their mouths, while they are puffed up, even to greatness, with the vain things of the world. <sup>31:28</sup>Behold, O my God, their costly apparel, and their ringlets, and their bracelets, and their ornaments of gold, and all their precious things which they are ornamented with; and behold, their hearts are set upon them, and yet they cry unto thee and say—We thank thee, O God, for we are a chosen people unto thee, while others shall perish. <sup>31:29</sup>Yea, and they say that thou hast made it known unto them that there shall be no Christ. <sup>31:30</sup>O Lord God, how long wilt thou suffer that such wickedness and infidelity shall be among this people? O Lord, wilt thou give me strength, that I may bear with mine infirmities. For I am infirm, and such wickedness among this people doth pain my soul. <sup>31:31</sup>O Lord, my heart is exceedingly sorrowful; wilt thou comfort my soul in Christ. O Lord, wilt thou grant unto me that I may have strength, that I may suffer with patience these afflictions which shall come upon me, because of the iniquity of this people. <sup>31:32</sup>O Lord, wilt thou comfort my soul, and give unto me success, and also my fellow laborers who are with me—yea, Ammon, and Aaron, and Omner, and also Amulek and Zeezrom and also my two sons—yea, even all these wilt thou comfort, O Lord. Yea, wilt thou comfort their souls in Christ. <sup>31:33</sup>Wilt thou grant unto them that they may have strength, that they may bear their afflictions which shall come upon them because of the iniquities of this people. <sup>31:34</sup>O Lord, wilt thou grant unto us that we may have success in bringing them again unto thee in Christ. <sup>31:35</sup>Behold, O Lord, their souls are precious, and many of them are our brethren; therefore, give unto us, O Lord, power and wisdom that we may bring these, our brethren, again unto thee. <sup>31:36</sup>Now it came to pass that when Alma had said these words, that he clapped his hands upon all them who were with him. And behold, as he clapped his hands upon them, they were filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>31:37</sup>And after that they did separate themselves one from another, taking no thought for themselves what they should eat, or what they should drink, or what they should put on. <sup>31:38</sup>And the Lord provided for them that they should hunger not, neither should they thirst; yea, and he also gave them strength, that they should suffer no manner of afflictions, save it were swallowed up in the joy of Christ. Now this was according to the prayer of Alma; and this because he prayed in faith. <sup>32:1</sup>And it came to pass that they did go forth, and began to preach the word of God unto the people, entering into their synagogues, and into their houses; yea, and even they did preach the word in their streets. <sup>32:2</sup>And it came to pass that after much labor among them, they began to have success among the poor class of people; for behold, they were cast out of the synagogues because of the coarseness of their apparel — <sup>32:3</sup>therefore they were not permitted to enter into their synagogues to worship God, being esteemed as filthiness; therefore they were poor; yea, they were esteemed by their brethren as dross; therefore they were poor as to things of the world; and also they were poor in heart. <sup>32:4</sup>Now, as Alma was teaching and speaking unto the people upon the hill Onidah, there came a great multitude unto him, who were those of whom we have been speaking, of whom were poor in heart, because of their poverty as to the things of the world. <sup>32:5</sup>And they came unto Alma; and the one who was the foremost among them said unto him: Behold, what shall these my brethren do, for they are despised of all men because of their poverty, yea, and more especially by our priests; for they have cast us out of our synagogues which we have labored abundantly to build with our own hands; and they have cast us out because of our exceeding poverty; and we have no place to worship our God; and behold, what shall we do? <sup>32:6</sup>And now when Alma heard this, he turned him about, his face immediately towards him, and he beheld with great joy; for he beheld that their afflictions had truly humbled them, and that they were in a preparation to hear the word. <sup>32:7</sup>Therefore he did say no more to the other multitude; but he stretched forth his hand, and cried unto those whom he beheld, who were truly penitent, and said unto them: <sup>32:8</sup>I behold that ye are lowly in heart; and if so, blessed are ye. <sup>32:9</sup>Behold thy brother hath said, What shall we do? — for we are cast out of our synagogues, that we cannot worship our God. <sup>32:10</sup>Behold I say unto you, do ye suppose that ye cannot worship God save it be in your synagogues only? <sup>32:11</sup>And moreover, I would ask, do ye suppose that ye must not worship God only once in a week? <sup>32:12</sup>I say unto you, it is well that ye are cast out of your synagogues, that ye may be humble, and that ye may learn wisdom; for it is necessary that ye should learn wisdom; for it is because that ye are cast out, that ye are despised of your brethren because of your exceeding poverty, that ye are brought to a lowliness of heart; for ye are necessarily brought to be humble. <sup>32:13</sup>And now, because ye are compelled to be humble blessed are ye; for a man sometimes, if he is compelled to be humble, seeketh repentance; and now surely, whosoever repenteth shall find mercy; and he that findeth mercy and endureth to the end the same shall be saved. <sup>32:14</sup>And now, as I said unto you, that because ye were compelled to be humble ye were blessed, do ye not suppose that they are more blessed who truly humble themselves because of the word? <sup>32:15</sup>Yea, he that truly humbleth himself, and repenteth of his sins, and endureth to the end, the same shall be blessed — yea, much more blessed than they who are compelled to be humble because of their exceeding poverty. <sup>32:16</sup>Therefore, blessed are they who humble themselves without being compelled to be humble; or rather, in other words, blessed is he that believeth in the word of God, and is baptized without stubbornness of heart, yea, without being brought to know the word, or even compelled to know, before they will believe. <sup>32:17</sup>Yea, there are many who do say: If thou wilt show unto us a sign from heaven, then we shall know of a surety; then we shall believe. <sup>32:18</sup>Now I ask, is this faith? Behold, I say unto you, Nay; for if a man knoweth a thing he hath no cause to believe, for he knoweth it. <sup>32:19</sup>And now, how much more cursed is he that knoweth the will of God and doeth it not, than he that only believeth, or only hath cause to believe, and falleth into transgression? <sup>32:20</sup>Now of this thing ye must judge. Behold, I say unto you, that it is on the one hand even as it is on the other; and it shall be unto every man according to his work. <sup>32:21</sup>And now as I said concerning faith — faith is not to have a perfect knowledge of things; therefore if ye have faith ye hope for things which are not seen, which are true. <sup>32:22</sup>And now, behold, I say unto you, and I would that ye should remember, that God is merciful unto all who believe on his name; therefore he desireth, in the first place, that ye should believe, yea, even on his word. <sup>32:23</sup>And now, he imparteth his word by angels unto men, yea, not only men but women also. Now this is not all; little children do have words given unto them many times, which confound the wise and the learned. <sup>32:24</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, as ye have desired to know of me what ye shall do because ye are afflicted and cast out — now I do not desire that ye should suppose that I mean to judge you only according to that which is true — <sup>32:25</sup>for I do not mean that ye all of you have been compelled to humble yourselves; for I verily believe that there are some among you who would humble themselves, let them be in whatsoever circumstances they might. <sup>32:26</sup>Now, as I said concerning faith — that it was not a perfect knowledge — even so it is with my words. Ye cannot know of their surety at first, unto perfection, any more than faith is a perfect knowledge. <sup>32:27</sup>But behold, if ye will awake and arouse your faculties, even to an experiment upon my words, and exercise a particle of faith, yea, even if ye can no more than desire to believe, let this desire work in you, even until ye believe in a manner that ye can give place for a portion of my words. <sup>32:28</sup>Now, we will compare the word unto a seed. Now, if ye give place, that a seed may be planted in your heart, behold, if it be a true seed, or a good seed, if ye do not cast it out by your unbelief, that ye will resist the Spirit of the Lord, behold, it will begin to swell within your breasts; and when you feel these swelling motions, ye will begin to say within yourselves — It must needs be that this is a good seed, or that the word is good, for it beginneth to enlarge my soul; yea, it beginneth to enlighten my understanding, yea, it beginneth to be delicious to me. <sup>32:29</sup>Now behold, would not this increase your faith? I say unto you, Yea; nevertheless it hath not grown up to a perfect knowledge. <sup>32:30</sup>But behold, as the seed swelleth, and sprouteth, and beginneth to grow, then you must needs say that the seed is good; for behold it swelleth, and sprouteth, and beginneth to grow. And now, behold, will not this strengthen your faith? Yea, it will strengthen your faith: for ye will say I know that this is a good seed; for behold it sprouteth and beginneth to grow. <sup>32:31</sup>And now, behold, are ye sure that this is a good seed? I say unto you, Yea; for every seed bringeth forth unto its own likeness. <sup>32:32</sup>Therefore, if a seed groweth it is good, but if it groweth not, behold it is not good, therefore it is cast away. <sup>32:33</sup>And now, behold, because ye have tried the experiment, and planted the seed, and it swelleth and sprouteth, and beginneth to grow, ye must needs know that the seed is good. <sup>32:34</sup>And now, behold, is your knowledge perfect? Yea, your knowledge is perfect in that thing, and your faith is dormant; and this because you know, for ye know that the word hath swelled your souls, and ye also know that it hath sprouted up, that your understanding doth begin to be enlightened, and your mind doth begin to expand. <sup>32:35</sup>O then, is not this real? I say unto you, Yea, because it is light; and whatsoever is light, is good, because it is discernible, therefore ye must know that it is good; and now behold, after ye have tasted this light is your knowledge perfect? <sup>32:36</sup>Behold I say unto you, Nay; neither must ye lay aside your faith, for ye have only exercised your faith to plant the seed that ye might try the experiment to know if the seed was good. <sup>32:37</sup>And behold, as the tree beginneth to grow, ye will say: Let us nourish it with great care, that it may get root, that it may grow up, and bring forth fruit unto us. And now behold, if ye nourish it with much care it will get root, and grow up, and bring forth fruit. <sup>32:38</sup>But if ye neglect the tree, and take no thought for its nourishment, behold it will not get any root; and when the heat of the sun cometh and scorcheth it, because it hath no root it withers away, and ye pluck it up and cast it out. <sup>32:39</sup>Now, this is not because the seed was not good, neither is it because the fruit thereof would not be desirable; but it is because your ground is barren, and ye will not nourish the tree, therefore ye cannot have the fruit thereof. <sup>32:40</sup>And thus, if ye will not nourish the word, looking forward with an eye of faith to the fruit thereof, ye can never pluck of the fruit of the tree of life. <sup>32:41</sup>But if ye will nourish the word, yea, nourish the tree as it beginneth to grow, by your faith with great diligence, and with patience, looking forward to the fruit thereof, it shall take root; and behold it shall be a tree springing up unto everlasting life. <sup>32:42</sup>And because of your diligence and your faith and your patience with the word in nourishing it, that it may take root in you, behold, by and by ye shall pluck the fruit thereof, which is most precious, which is sweet above all that is sweet, and which is white above all that is white, yea, and pure above all that is pure; and ye shall feast upon this fruit even until ye are filled, that ye hunger not, neither shall ye thirst. <sup>32:43</sup>Then, my brethren, ye shall reap the rewards of your faith, and your diligence, and patience, and long-suffering, waiting for the tree to bring forth fruit unto you. <sup>33:1</sup>Now after Alma had spoken these words, they sent forth unto him desiring to know whether they should believe in one God, that they might obtain this fruit of which he had spoken, or how they should plant the seed, or the word of which he had spoken, which he said must be planted in their hearts; or in what manner they should begin to exercise their faith. <sup>33:2</sup>And Alma said unto them: Behold, ye have said that ye could not worship your God because ye are cast out of your synagogues. But behold, I say unto you, if ye suppose that ye cannot worship God, ye do greatly err, and ye ought to search the scriptures; if ye suppose that they have taught you this, ye do not understand them. <sup>33:3</sup>Do ye remember to have read what Zenos, the prophet of old, has said concerning prayer or worship? <sup>33:4</sup>For he said: Thou art merciful, O God, for thou hast heard my prayer, even when I was in the wilderness; yea, thou wast merciful when I prayed concerning those who were mine enemies, and thou didst turn them to me. <sup>33:5</sup>Yea, O God, and thou wast merciful unto me when I did cry unto thee in my field; when I did cry unto thee in my prayer, and thou didst hear me. <sup>33:6</sup>And again, O God, when I did turn to my house thou didst hear me in my prayer. <sup>33:7</sup>And when I did turn unto my closet, O Lord, and prayed unto thee, thou didst hear me. <sup>33:8</sup>Yea, thou art merciful unto thy children when they cry unto thee, to be heard of thee and not of men, and thou wilt hear them. <sup>33:9</sup>Yea, O God, thou hast been merciful unto me, and heard my cries in the midst of thy congregations. <sup>33:10</sup>Yea, and thou hast also heard me when I have been cast out and have been despised by mine enemies; yea, thou didst hear my cries, and wast angry with mine enemies, and thou didst visit them in thine anger with speedy destruction. <sup>33:11</sup>And thou didst hear me because of mine afflictions and my sincerity; and it is because of thy Son that thou hast been thus merciful unto me, therefore I will cry unto thee in all mine afflictions, for in thee is my joy; for thou hast turned thy judgments away from me, because of thy Son. <sup>33:12</sup>And now Alma said unto them: Do ye believe those scriptures which have been written by them of old? <sup>33:13</sup>Behold, if ye do, ye must believe what Zenos said; for, behold he said: Thou hast turned away thy judgments because of thy Son. <sup>33:14</sup>Now behold, my brethren, I would ask if ye have read the scriptures? If ye have, how can ye disbelieve on the Son of God? <sup>33:15</sup>For it is not written that Zenos alone spake of these things, but Zenock also spake of these things—<sup>33:16</sup>for behold, he said: Thou art angry, O Lord, with this people, because they will not understand thy mercies which thou hast bestowed upon them because of thy Son. <sup>33:17</sup>And now, my brethren, ye see that a second prophet of old has testified of the Son of God, and because the people would not understand his words they stoned him to death. <sup>33:18</sup>But behold, this is not all; these are not the only ones who have spoken concerning the Son of God. <sup>33:19</sup>Behold, he was spoken of by Moses; yea, and behold a type was raised up in the wilderness, that whosoever would look upon it might live. And many did look and live. <sup>33:20</sup>But few understood the meaning of those things, and this because of the hardness of their hearts. But there were many who were so hardened that they would not look, therefore they perished. Now the reason they would not look is because they did not believe that it would heal them. <sup>33:21</sup>O my brethren, if ye could be healed by merely casting about your eyes that ye might be healed, would ye not behold quickly, or would ye rather harden your hearts in unbelief, and be slothful, that ye would not cast about your eyes, that ye might perish? <sup>33:22</sup>If so, wo shall come upon you; but if not so, then cast about your eyes and begin to believe in the Son of God, that he will come to redeem his people, and that he shall suffer and die to atone for their sins; and that he shall rise again from the dead, which shall bring to pass the resurrection, that all men shall stand before him, to be judged at the last and judgment day, according to their works. <sup>33:23</sup>And now, my brethren, I desire that ye shall plant this word in your hearts, and as it beginneth to swell even so nourish it by your faith. And behold, it will become a tree, springing up in you unto everlasting life. And then may God grant unto you that your burdens may be light, through the joy of his Son. And even all this can ye do if ye will. Amen. <sup>34:1</sup>And now it came to pass that after Alma had spoken these words unto them he sat down upon the ground, and Amulek arose and began to teach them, saying: <sup>34:2</sup>My brethren, I think that it is impossible that ye should be ignorant of the things which have been spoken concerning the coming of Christ, who is taught by us to be the Son of God; yea, I know that these things were taught unto you bountifully before your dissension from among us. <sup>34:3</sup>And as ye have desired of my beloved brother that he should make known unto you what ye should do, because of your afflictions; and he hath spoken somewhat unto you to prepare your minds; yea, and he hath exhorted you unto faith and to patience — <sup>34:4</sup>yea, even that ye would have so much faith as even to plant the word in your hearts, that ye may try the experiment of its goodness. <sup>34:5</sup>And we have beheld that the great question which is in your minds is whether the word be in the Son of God, or whether there shall be no Christ. <sup>34:6</sup>And ye also beheld that my brother has proved unto you, in many instances, that the word is in Christ unto salvation. <sup>34:7</sup>My brother has called upon the words of Zenos, that redemption cometh through the Son of God, and also upon the words of Zenock; and also he has appealed unto Moses, to prove that these things are true. <sup>34:8</sup>And now, behold, I will testify unto you of myself that these things are true. Behold, I say unto you, that I do know that Christ shall come among the children of men, to take upon him the transgressions of his people, and that he shall atone for the sins of the world; for the Lord God hath spoken it. <sup>34:9</sup>For it is expedient that an atonement should be made; for according to the great plan of the Eternal God there must be an atonement made, or else all mankind must unavoidably perish; yea, all are hardened; yea, all are fallen and are lost, and must perish except it be through the atonement which it is expedient should be made. <sup>34:10</sup>For it is expedient that there should be a great and last sacrifice; yea, not a sacrifice of man, neither of beast, neither of any manner of fowl; for it shall not be a human sacrifice; but it must be an infinite and eternal sacrifice. <sup>34:11</sup>Now there is not any man that can sacrifice his own blood which will atone for the sins of another. Now, if a man murdereth, behold will our law, which is just, take the life of his brother? I say unto you, Nay. <sup>34:12</sup>But the law requireth the life of him who hath murdered; therefore there can be nothing which is short of an infinite atonement which will suffice for the sins of the world. <sup>34:13</sup>Therefore, it is expedient that there should be a great and last sacrifice, and then shall there be, or it is expedient there should be, a stop to the shedding of blood; then shall the law of Moses be fulfilled; yea, it shall be all fulfilled, every jot and tittle, and none shall have passed away.

<sup>34:14</sup>And behold, this is the whole meaning of the law, every whit pointing to that great and last sacrifice; and that great and last sacrifice will be the Son of God, yea, infinite and eternal. <sup>34:15</sup>And thus he shall bring salvation to all those who shall believe on his name; this being the intent of this last sacrifice, to bring about the bowels of mercy, which overpowereth justice, and bringeth about means unto men that they may have faith unto repentance. <sup>34:16</sup>And thus mercy can satisfy the demands of justice, and encircles them in the arms of safety, while he that exercises no faith unto repentance is exposed to the whole law of the demands of justice; therefore only unto him that has faith unto repentance is brought about the great and eternal plan of redemption. <sup>34:17</sup>Therefore may God grant unto you, my brethren, that ye may begin to exercise your faith unto repentance, that ye begin to call upon his holy name, that he would have mercy upon you; <sup>34:18</sup>yea, cry unto him for mercy; for he is mighty to save. <sup>34:19</sup>Yea, humble yourselves, and continue in prayer unto him. <sup>34:20</sup>Cry unto him when ye are in your fields, yea, over all your flocks. <sup>34:21</sup>Cry unto him in your houses, yea, over all your household, both morning, mid-day, and evening. <sup>34:22</sup>Yea, cry unto him against the power of your enemies. <sup>34:23</sup>Yea, cry unto him against the devil, who is an enemy to all righteousness. <sup>34:24</sup>Cry unto him over the crops of your fields, that ye may prosper in them. <sup>34:25</sup>Cry over the flocks of your fields, that they may increase. <sup>34:26</sup>But this is not all; ye must pour out your souls in your closets, and your secret places, and in your wilderness. <sup>34:27</sup>Yea, and when you do not cry unto the Lord, let your hearts be full, drawn out in prayer unto him continually for your welfare, and also for the welfare of those who are around you. <sup>34:28</sup>And now behold, my beloved brethren, I say unto you, do not suppose that this is all; for after ye have done all these things, if ye turn away the needy, and the naked, and visit not the sick and afflicted, and impart of your substance, if ye have, to those who stand in need—I say unto you, if ye do not any of these things, behold, your prayer is vain, and availeth you nothing, and ye are as hypocrites who do deny the faith. <sup>34:29</sup>Therefore, if ye do not remember to be charitable, ye are as dross, which the refiners do cast out, (it being of no worth) and is trodden under foot of men. <sup>34:30</sup>And now, my brethren, I would that, after ye have received so many witnesses, seeing that the holy scriptures testify of these things, ye come forth and bring fruit unto repentance. <sup>34:31</sup>Yea, I would that ye would come forth and harden not your hearts any longer; for behold, now is the time and the day of your salvation; and therefore, if ye will repent and harden not your hearts, immediately shall the great plan of redemption be brought about unto you. <sup>34:32</sup>For behold, this life is the time for men to prepare to meet God; yea, behold the day of this life is the day for men to perform their labors. <sup>34:33</sup>And now, as I said unto you before, as ye have had so many witnesses, therefore, I beseech of you that ye do not procrastinate the day of your repentance until the end; for after this day of life, which is given us to prepare for eternity, behold, if we do not improve our time while in this life, then cometh the night of darkness wherein there can be no labor performed. <sup>34:34</sup>Ye cannot say, when ye are brought to that awful crisis, that I will repent, that I will return to my God. Nay, ye cannot say this; for that same spirit which doth possess your bodies at the time that ye go out of this life, that same spirit will have power to possess your body in that eternal world. <sup>34:35</sup>For behold, if ye have procrastinated the day of your repentance even until death, behold, ye have become subjected to the spirit of the devil, and he doth seal you his; therefore, the Spirit of the Lord hath withdrawn from you, and hath no place in you, and the devil hath all power over you; and this is the final state of the wicked. <sup>34:36</sup>And this I know, because the Lord hath said he dwelleth not in unholy temples, but in the hearts of the righteous doth he dwell; yea, and he has also said that the righteous shall sit down in his kingdom, to go no more out; but their garments should be made white through the blood of the Lamb. <sup>34:37</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, I desire that ye should remember these things, and that ye should work out your salvation with fear before God, and that ye should no more deny the coming of Christ; <sup>34:38</sup>that ye contend no more against the Holy Ghost, but that ye receive it, and take upon you the name of Christ; that ye humble yourselves even to the dust, and worship God, in whatsoever place ye may be in, in spirit and in truth; and that ye live in thanksgiving daily, for the many mercies and blessings which he doth bestow upon you. <sup>34:39</sup>Yea, and I also exhort you, my brethren, that ye be watchful unto prayer continually, that ye may not be led away by the temptations of the devil, that he may not overpower you, that ye may not become his subjects at the last day; for behold, he rewardeth you no good thing. <sup>34:40</sup>And now my beloved brethren, I would exhort you to have patience, and that ye bear with all manner of afflictions; that ye do not revile against those who do cast you out because of your exceeding poverty, lest ye become sinners like unto them; <sup>34:41</sup>but that ye have patience, and bear with those afflictions, with a firm hope that ye shall one day rest from all your afflictions. <sup>35:1</sup>Now it came to pass that after Amulek had made an end of these words, they withdrew themselves from the multitude and came over into the land of Jershon. <sup>35:2</sup>Yea, and the rest of the brethren, after they had preached the word unto the Zoramites, also came over into the land of Jershon. <sup>35:3</sup>And it came to pass that after the more popular part of the Zoramites had consulted together concerning the words which had been preached unto them, they were angry because of the word, for it did destroy their craft; therefore they would not hearken unto the words. <sup>35:4</sup>And they sent and gathered together throughout all the land all the people, and consulted with them concerning the words which had been spoken. <sup>35:5</sup>Now their rulers and their priests and their teachers did not let the people know concerning their desires; therefore they found out privily the minds of all the people. <sup>35:6</sup>And it came to pass that after they had found out the minds of all the people, those who were in favor of the words which had been spoken by Alma and his brethren were cast out of the land; and they were many; and they came over also into the land of Jershon. <sup>35:7</sup>And it came to pass that Alma and his brethren did minister unto them. <sup>35:8</sup>Now the people of the Zoramites were angry with the people of Ammon who were in Jershon, and the chief ruler of the Zoramites, being a very wicked man, sent over unto the people of Ammon desiring them that they should cast out of their land all those who came over from them into their land. <sup>35:9</sup>And he breathed out many threatenings against them. And now the people of Ammon did not fear their words; therefore they did not cast them out, but they did receive all the poor of the Zoramites that came over unto them; and they did nourish them, and did clothe them, and did give unto them lands for their inheritance; and they did administer unto them according to their wants. <sup>35:10</sup>Now this did stir up the Zoramites to anger against the people of Ammon, and they began to mix with the Lamanites and to stir them up also to anger against them. <sup>35:11</sup>And thus the Zoramites and the Lamanites began to make preparations for war against the people of Ammon, and also against the Nephites. <sup>35:12</sup>And thus ended the seventeenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>35:13</sup>And the people of Ammon departed out of the land of Jershon, and came over into the land of Melek, and gave place in the land of Jershon for the armies of the Nephites, that they might contend with the armies of the Lamanites and the armies of the Zoramites; and thus commenced a war betwixt the Lamanites and the Nephites, in the eighteenth year of the reign of the judges; and an account shall be given of their wars hereafter. <sup>35:14</sup>And Alma, and Ammon, and their brethren, and also the two sons of Alma returned to the land of Zarahemla, after having been instruments in the hands of God of bringing many of the Zoramites to repentance; and as many as were brought to repentance were driven out of their land; but they have lands for their inheritance in the land of Jershon, and they have taken up arms to defend themselves, and their wives, and children, and their lands. <sup>35:15</sup>Now Alma, being grieved for the iniquity of his people, yea for the wars, and the bloodsheds, and the contentions which were among them; and having been to declare the word, or sent to declare the word, among all the people in every city; and seeing that the hearts of the people began to wax hard, and that they began to be offended because of the strictness of the word, his heart was exceedingly sorrowful. <sup>35:16</sup>Therefore, he caused that his sons should be gathered together, that he might give unto them every one his charge, separately, concerning the things pertaining unto righteousness. And we have an account of his commandments, which he gave unto them according to his own record.

<XVII> The commandments of Alma to his son Helaman. <sup>36:1</sup>My son, give ear to my words; for I swear unto you, that inasmuch as ye shall keep the commandments of God ye shall prosper in the land. <sup>36:2</sup>I would that ye should do as I have done, in remembering the captivity of our fathers; for they were in bondage, and none could deliver them except it was the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he surely did deliver them in their afflictions. <sup>36:3</sup>And now, O my son Helaman, behold, thou art in thy youth, and therefore, I beseech of thee that thou wilt hear my words and learn of me; for I do know that whosoever shall put their trust in God shall be supported in their trials, and their troubles, and their afflictions, and shall be lifted up at the last day. <sup>36:4</sup>And I would not that ye think that I know of myself—not of the temporal but of the spiritual, not of the carnal mind but of God. <sup>36:5</sup>Now, behold, I say unto you, if I had not been born of God I should not have known these things; but God has, by the mouth of his holy angel, made these things known unto me, not of any worthiness of myself; <sup>36:6</sup>for I went about with the sons of Mosiah, seeking to destroy the church of God; but behold, God sent his holy angel to stop us by the way. <sup>36:7</sup>And behold, he spake unto us, as it were the voice of thunder, and the whole earth did tremble beneath our feet; and we all fell to the earth, for the fear of the Lord came upon us. <sup>36:8</sup>But behold, the voice said unto me: Arise. And I arose and stood up, and beheld the angel. <sup>36:9</sup>And he said unto me: If thou wilt of thyself be destroyed, seek no more to destroy the church of God. <sup>36:10</sup>And it came to pass that I fell to the earth; and it was for the space of three days and three nights that I could not open my mouth, neither had I the use of my limbs. <sup>36:11</sup>And the angel spake more things unto me, which were heard by my brethren, but I did not hear them; for when I heard the words—If thou wilt be destroyed of thyself, seek no more to destroy the church of God—I was struck with such great fear and amazement lest perhaps I should be destroyed, that I fell to the earth and I did hear no more. <sup>36:12</sup>But I was racked with eternal torment, for my soul was harrowed up to the greatest degree and racked with all my sins. <sup>36:13</sup>Yea, I did remember all my sins and iniquities, for which I was tormented with the pains of hell; yea, I saw that I had rebelled against my God, and that I had not kept his holy commandments. <sup>36:14</sup>Yea, and I had murdered many of his children, or rather led them away unto destruction; yea, and in fine so great had been my iniquities, that the very thought of coming into the presence of my God did rack my soul with inexpressible horror. <sup>36:15</sup>Oh, thought I, that I could be banished and become extinct both soul and body, that I might not be brought to stand in the presence of my God, to be judged of my deeds. <sup>36:16</sup>And now, for three days and for three nights was I racked, even with the pains of a damned soul. <sup>36:17</sup>And it came to pass that as I was thus racked with torment, while I was harrowed up by the memory of my many sins, behold, I remembered also to have heard my father prophesy unto the people concerning the coming of one Jesus Christ, a Son of God, to atone for the sins of the world. <sup>36:18</sup>Now, as my mind caught hold upon this thought, I cried within my heart: O Jesus, thou Son of God, have mercy on me, who am in the gall of bitterness, and am encircled about by the everlasting chains of death. <sup>36:19</sup>And now, behold, when I thought this, I could remember my pains no more; yea, I was harrowed up by the memory of my sins no more. <sup>36:20</sup>And oh, what joy, and what marvelous light I did behold; yea, my soul was filled with joy as exceeding as was my pain! <sup>36:21</sup>Yea, I say unto you, my son, that there could be nothing so exquisite and so bitter as were my pains. Yea, and again I say unto you, my son, that on the other hand, there can be nothing so exquisite and sweet as was my joy. <sup>36:22</sup>Yea, methought I saw, even as our father Lehi saw, God sitting upon his throne, surrounded with numberless concourses of angels, in the attitude of singing and praising their God; yea, and my soul did long to be there. <sup>36:23</sup>But behold, my limbs did receive their strength again, and I stood upon my feet, and did manifest unto the people that I had been born of God. <sup>36:24</sup>Yea, and from that time even until now, I have labored without ceasing, that I might bring souls unto repentance; that I might bring them to taste of the exceeding joy of which I did taste; that they might also be born of God, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. <sup>36:25</sup>Yea, and now behold, O my son, the Lord doth give me exceedingly great joy in the fruit of my labors; <sup>36:26</sup>for because of the word which he has imparted unto me, behold, many have been born of God, and have tasted as I have tasted, and have seen eye to eye as I have seen; therefore they do know of these things of which I have spoken, as I do know; and the knowledge which I have is of God. <sup>36:27</sup>And I have been supported under trials and troubles of every kind, yea, and in all manner of afflictions; yea, God has delivered me from prison, and from bonds, and from death; yea, and I do put my trust in him, and he will still deliver me. <sup>36:28</sup>And I know that he will raise me up at the last day, to dwell with him in glory; yea, and I will praise him forever, for he has brought our fathers out of Egypt, and he has swallowed up the Egyptians in the Red Sea; and he led them by his power into the promised land; yea, and he has delivered them out of bondage and captivity from time to time. <sup>36:29</sup>Yea, and he has also brought our fathers out of the land of Jerusalem; and he has also, by his everlasting power, delivered them out of bondage and captivity, from time to time even down to the present day; and I have always retained in remembrance their captivity; yea, and ye also ought to retain in remembrance, as I have done, their captivity. <sup>36:30</sup>But behold, my son, this is not all; for ye ought to know as I do know, that inasmuch as ye shall keep the commandments of God ye shall prosper in the land; and ye ought to know also, that inasmuch as ye will not keep the commandments of God ye shall be cut off from his presence. Now this is according to his word. <sup>37:1</sup>And now, my son Helaman, I command you that ye take the records which have been entrusted with me; <sup>37:2</sup>and I also command you that ye keep a record of this people, according as I have done, upon the plates of Nephi, and keep all these things sacred which I have kept, even as I have kept them; for it is for a wise purpose that they are kept. <sup>37:3</sup>And these plates of brass, which contain these engravings, which have the records of the holy scriptures upon them, which have the genealogy of our forefathers, even from the beginning—<sup>37:4</sup>behold, it has been prophesied by our fathers, that they should be kept and handed down from one generation to another, and be kept and preserved by the hand of the Lord until they should go forth unto every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, that they shall know of the mysteries contained thereon. <sup>37:5</sup>And now behold, if they are kept they must retain their brightness; yea, and they will retain their brightness; yea, and also shall all the plates which do contain that which is holy writ. <sup>37:6</sup>Now ye may suppose that this is foolishness in me; but behold I say unto you, that by small and simple things are great things brought to pass; and small means in many instances doth confound the wise. <sup>37:7</sup>And the Lord God doth work by means to bring about his great and eternal purposes; and by very small means the Lord doth confound the wise and bringeth about the salvation of many souls. <sup>37:8</sup>And now, it has hitherto been wisdom in God that these things should be preserved; for behold, they have enlarged the memory of this people, yea, and convinced many of the error of their ways, and brought them to the knowledge of their God unto the salvation of their souls. <sup>37:9</sup>Yea, I say unto you, were it not for these things that these records do contain, which are on these plates, Ammon and his brethren could not have convinced so many thousands of the Lamanites of the incorrect tradition of their fathers; yea, these records and their words brought them unto repentance; that is, they brought them to the knowledge of the Lord their God, and to rejoice in Jesus Christ their Redeemer. <sup>37:10</sup>And who knoweth but what they will be the means of bringing many thousands of them, yea, and also many thousands of our stiffnecked brethren, the Nephites, who are now hardening their hearts in sin and iniquities, to the knowledge of their Redeemer? <sup>37:11</sup>Now these mysteries are not yet fully made known unto me; therefore I shall forbear. <sup>37:12</sup>And it may suffice if I only say they are preserved for a wise purpose, which purpose is known unto God; for he doth counsel in wisdom over all his works, and his paths are straight, and his course is one eternal round. <sup>37:13</sup>O remember, remember, my son Helaman, how strict are the commandments of God. And he said: If ye will keep my commandments ye shall prosper in the land—but if ye keep not his commandments ye shall be cut off from his presence. <sup>37:14</sup>And now remember, my son, that God has entrusted you with these things, which are sacred, which he has kept sacred, and also which he will keep and preserve for a wise purpose in him, that he may show forth his power unto future generations. <sup>37:15</sup>And now behold, I tell you by the spirit of prophecy, that if ye transgress the commandments of God, behold, these things which are sacred shall be taken away from you by the power of God, and ye shall be delivered up unto Satan, that he may sift you as chaff before the wind. <sup>37:16</sup>But if ye keep the commandments of God, and do with these things which are sacred according to that which the Lord doth command you, (for you must appeal unto the Lord for all things whatsoever ye must do with them) behold, no power of earth or hell can take them from you, for God is powerful to the fulfilling of all his words. <sup>37:17</sup>For he will fulfil all his promises which he shall make unto you, for he has fulfilled his promises which he has made unto our fathers. <sup>37:18</sup>For he promised unto them that he would preserve these things for a wise purpose in him, that he might show forth his power unto future generations. <sup>37:19</sup>And now behold, one purpose hath he fulfilled, even to the restoration of many thousands of the

Lamanites to the knowledge of the truth; and he hath shown forth his power in them, and he will also still show forth his power in them unto future generations; therefore they shall be preserved. <sup>37:20</sup>Therefore I command you, my son Helaman, that ye be diligent in fulfilling all my words, and that ye be diligent in keeping the commandments of God as they are written. <sup>37:21</sup>And now, I will speak unto you concerning those twenty-four plates, that ye keep them, that the mysteries and the works of darkness, and their secret works, or the secret works of those people who have been destroyed, may be made manifest unto this people; yea, all their murders, and robbings, and their plunderings, and all their wickedness and abominations, may be made manifest unto this people; yea, and that ye preserve these interpreters. <sup>37:22</sup>For behold, the Lord saw that his people began to work in darkness, yea, work secret murders and abominations; therefore the Lord said, if they did not repent they should be destroyed from off the face of the earth. <sup>37:23</sup>And the Lord said: I will prepare unto my servant Gazelem, a stone, which shall shine forth in darkness unto light, that I may discover unto my people who serve me, that I may discover unto them the works of their brethren, yea, their secret works, their works of darkness, and their wickedness and abominations. <sup>37:24</sup>And now, my son, these interpreters were prepared that the word of God might be fulfilled, which he spake, saying: <sup>37:25</sup>I will bring forth out of darkness unto light all their secret works and their abominations; and except they repent I will destroy them from off the face of the earth; and I will bring to light all their secrets and abominations, unto every nation that shall hereafter possess the land. <sup>37:26</sup>And now, my son, we see that they did not repent; therefore they have been destroyed, and thus far the word of God has been fulfilled; yea, their secret abominations have been brought out of darkness and made known unto us. <sup>37:27</sup>And now, my son, I command you that ye retain all their oaths, and their covenants, and their agreements in their secret abominations; yea, and all their signs and their wonders ye shall keep from this people, that they know them not, lest peradventure they should fall into darkness also and be destroyed. <sup>37:28</sup>For behold, there is a curse upon all this land, that destruction shall come upon all those workers of darkness, according to the power of God, when they are fully ripe; therefore I desire that this people might not be destroyed. <sup>37:29</sup>Therefore ye shall keep these secret plans of their oaths and their covenants from this people, and only their wickedness and their murders and their abominations shall ye make known unto them; and ye shall teach them to abhor such wickedness and abominations and murders; and ye shall also teach them that these people were destroyed on account of their wickedness and abominations and their murders. <sup>37:30</sup>For behold, they murdered all the prophets of the Lord who came among them to declare unto them concerning their iniquities; and the blood of those whom they murdered did cry unto the Lord their God for vengeance upon those who were their murderers; and thus the judgments of God did come upon these workers of darkness and secret combinations. <sup>37:31</sup>Yea, and cursed be the land forever and ever unto those workers of darkness and secret combinations, even unto destruction, except they repent before they are fully ripe. <sup>37:32</sup>And now, my son, remember the words which I have spoken unto you; trust not those secret plans unto this people, but teach them an everlasting hatred against sin and iniquity. <sup>37:33</sup>Preach unto them repentance, and faith on the Lord Jesus Christ; teach them to humble themselves and to be meek and lowly in heart; teach them to withstand every temptation of the devil, with their faith on the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>37:34</sup>Teach them to never be weary of good works, but to be meek and lowly in heart; for such shall find rest to their souls. <sup>37:35</sup>O, remember, my son, and learn wisdom in thy youth; yea, learn in thy youth to keep the commandments of God. <sup>37:36</sup>Yea, and cry unto God for all thy support; yea, let all thy doings be unto the Lord, and whithersoever thou goest let it be in the Lord; yea, let all thy thoughts be directed unto the Lord; yea, let the affections of thy heart be placed upon the Lord forever. <sup>37:37</sup>Counsel with the Lord in all thy doings, and he will direct thee for good; yea, when thou liest down at night lie down unto the Lord, that he may watch over you in your sleep; and when thou risest in the morning let thy heart be full of thanks unto God; and if ye do these things, ye shall be lifted up at the last day. <sup>37:38</sup>And now, my son, I have somewhat to say concerning the thing which our fathers call a ball, or director—or our fathers called it Liahona, which is, being interpreted, a compass; and the Lord prepared it. <sup>37:39</sup>And behold, there cannot any man work after the manner of so curious a workmanship. And behold, it was prepared to show unto our fathers the course which they should travel in the wilderness. <sup>37:40</sup>And it did work for them according to their faith in God; therefore, if they had faith to believe that God could cause that those spindles should point the way they should go, behold, it was done; therefore they had this miracle, and also many other miracles wrought by the power of God, day by day. <sup>37:41</sup>Nevertheless, because those miracles were worked by small means it did show unto them marvelous works. They were slothful, and forgot to exercise their faith and diligence and then those marvelous works ceased, and they did not progress in their journey; <sup>37:42</sup>therefore, they tarried in the wilderness, or did not travel a direct course, and were afflicted with hunger and thirst, because of their transgressions. <sup>37:43</sup>And now, my son, I would that ye should understand that these things are not without a shadow; for as our fathers were slothful to give heed to this compass (now these things were temporal) they did not prosper; even so it is with things which are spiritual. <sup>37:44</sup>For behold, it is as easy to give heed to the word of Christ, which will point to you a straight course to eternal bliss, as it was for our fathers to give heed to this compass, which would point unto them a straight course to the promised land. <sup>37:45</sup>And now I say, is there not a type in this thing? For just as surely as this director did bring our fathers, by following its course, to the promised land, shall the words of Christ, if we follow their course, carry us beyond this vale of sorrow into a far better land of promise. <sup>37:46</sup>O my son, do not let us be slothful because of the easiness of the way; for so was it with our fathers; for so was it prepared for them, that if they would look they might live; even so it is with us. The way is prepared, and if we will look we may live forever. <sup>37:47</sup>And now, my son, see that ye take care of these sacred things, yea, see that ye look to God and live. Go unto this people and declare the word, and be sober. My son, farewell. <XVIII>The commandments of Alma to his son Shiblon. <sup>38:1</sup>My son, give ear to my words, for I say unto you, even as I said unto Helaman, that inasmuch as ye shall keep the commandments of God ye shall prosper in the land; and inasmuch as ye will not keep the commandments of God ye shall be cut off from his presence. <sup>38:2</sup>And now, my son, I trust that I shall have great joy in you, because of your steadiness and your faithfulness unto God; for as you have commenced in your youth to look to the Lord your God, even so I hope that you will continue in keeping his commandments; for blessed is he that endureth to the end. <sup>38:3</sup>I say unto you, my son, that I have had great joy in thee already, because of thy faithfulness and thy diligence, and thy patience and thy long-suffering among the people of the Zoramites. <sup>38:4</sup>For I know that thou wast in bonds; yea, and I also know that thou wast stoned for the word's sake; and thou didst bear all these things with patience because the Lord was with thee; and now thou knowest that the Lord did deliver thee. <sup>38:5</sup>And now my son, Shiblon, I would that ye should remember, that as much as ye shall put your trust in God even so much ye shall be delivered out of your trials, and your troubles, and your afflictions, and ye shall be lifted up at the last day. <sup>38:6</sup>Now, my son, I would not that ye should think that I know these things of myself, but it is the Spirit of God which is in me which maketh these things known unto me; for if I had not been born of God I should not have known these things. <sup>38:7</sup>But behold, the Lord in his great mercy sent his angel to declare unto me that I must stop the work of destruction among his people; yea, and I have seen an angel face to face, and he spake with me, and his voice was as thunder, and it shook the whole earth. <sup>38:8</sup>And it came to pass that I was three days and three nights in the most bitter pain and anguish of soul; and never, until I did cry out unto the Lord Jesus Christ for mercy, did I receive a remission of my sins. But behold, I did cry unto him and I did find peace to my soul. <sup>38:9</sup>And now, my son, I have told you this that ye may learn wisdom, that ye may learn of me that there is no other way or means whereby man can be saved, only in and through Christ. Behold, he is the life and the light of the world. Behold, he is the word of truth and righteousness. <sup>38:10</sup>And now, as ye have begun to teach the word even so I would that ye should continue to teach; and I would that ye would be diligent and temperate in all things. <sup>38:11</sup>See that ye are not lifted up unto pride; yea, see that ye do not boast in your own wisdom, nor of your much strength. <sup>38:12</sup>Use boldness, but not overbearance; and also see that ye bridle all your passions, that ye may be filled with love; see that ye refrain from idleness. <sup>38:13</sup>Do not pray as the Zoramites do, for ye have seen that they pray to be heard of men, and to be praised for their wisdom. <sup>38:14</sup>Do not say: O God, I thank thee that we are better than our brethren; but rather say: O Lord, forgive my unworthiness, and remember my brethren in mercy — yea, acknowledge your unworthiness before

God at all times. <sup>38:15</sup>And may the Lord bless your soul, and receive you at the last day into his kingdom, to sit down in peace. Now go, my son, and teach the word unto this people. Be sober. My son, farewell. <XIX>The commandments of Alma to his son Corianton. <sup>39:1</sup>And now, my son, I have somewhat more to say unto thee than what I said unto thy brother; for behold, have ye not observed the steadiness of thy brother, his faithfulness, and his diligence in keeping the commandments of God? Behold, has he not set a good example for thee? <sup>39:2</sup>For thou didst not give so much heed unto my words as did thy brother, among the people of the Zoramites. Now this is what I have against thee; thou didst go on unto boasting in thy strength and thy wisdom. <sup>39:3</sup>And this is not all, my son. Thou didst do that which was grievous unto me; for thou didst forsake the ministry, and did go over into the land of Siron among the borders of the Lamanites, after the harlot Isabel. <sup>39:4</sup>Yea, she did steal away the hearts of many; but this was no excuse for thee, my son. Thou shouldst have tended to the ministry wherewith thou wast entrusted. <sup>39:5</sup>Know ye not, my son, that these things are an abomination in the sight of the Lord; yea, most abominable above all sins save it be the shedding of innocent blood or denying the Holy Ghost? <sup>39:6</sup>For behold, if ye deny the Holy Ghost when it once has had place in you, and ye know that ye deny it, behold, this is a sin which is unpardonable; yea, and whosoever murdereth against the light and knowledge of God, it is not easy for him to obtain forgiveness; yea, I say unto you, my son, that it is not easy for him to obtain a forgiveness. <sup>39:7</sup>And now, my son, I would to God that ye had not been guilty of so great a crime. I would not dwell upon your crimes, to harrow up your soul, if it were not for your good. <sup>39:8</sup>But behold, ye cannot hide your crimes from God; and except ye repent they will stand as a testimony against you at the last day. <sup>39:9</sup>Now my son, I would that ye should repent and forsake your sins, and go no more after the lusts of your eyes, but cross yourself in all these things; for except ye do this ye can in nowise inherit the kingdom of God. Oh, remember, and take it upon you, and cross yourself in these things. <sup>39:10</sup>And I command you to take it upon you to counsel with your elder brothers in your undertakings; for behold, thou art in thy youth, and ye stand in need to be nourished by your brothers. And give heed to their counsel. <sup>39:11</sup>Suffer not yourself to be led away by any vain or foolish thing; suffer not the devil to lead away your heart again after those wicked harlots. Behold, O my son, how great iniquity ye brought upon the Zoramites; for when they saw your conduct they would not believe in my words. <sup>39:12</sup>And now the Spirit of the Lord doth say unto me: Command thy children to do good, lest they lead away the hearts of many people to destruction; therefore I command you, my son, in the fear of God, that ye refrain from your iniquities; <sup>39:13</sup>that ye turn to the Lord with all your mind, might, and strength; that ye lead away the hearts of no more to do wickedly; but rather return unto them, and acknowledge your faults and that wrong which ye have done. <sup>39:14</sup>Seek not after riches nor the vain things of this world; for behold, you cannot carry them with you. <sup>39:15</sup>And now, my son, I would say somewhat unto you concerning the coming of Christ. Behold, I say unto you, that it is he that surely shall come to take away the sins of the world; yea, he cometh to declare glad tidings of salvation unto his people. <sup>39:16</sup>And now, my son, this was the ministry unto which ye were called, to declare these glad tidings unto this people, to prepare their minds; or rather that salvation might come unto them, that they may prepare the minds of their children to hear the word at the time of his coming. <sup>39:17</sup>And now I will ease your mind somewhat on this subject. Behold, you marvel why these things should be known so long beforehand. Behold, I say unto you, is not a soul at this time as precious unto God as a soul will be at the time of his coming? <sup>39:18</sup>Is it not as necessary that the plan of redemption should be made known unto this people as well as unto their children? <sup>39:19</sup>Is it not as easy at this time for the Lord to send his angel to declare these glad tidings unto us as unto our children, or as after the time of his coming? <sup>40:1</sup>Now my son, here is somewhat more I would say unto thee; for I perceive that thy mind is worried concerning the resurrection of the dead. <sup>40:2</sup>Behold, I say unto you, that there is no resurrection—or, I would say, in other words, that this mortal does not put on immortality, this corruption does not put on incorruption—until after the coming of Christ. <sup>40:3</sup>Behold, he bringeth to pass the resurrection of the dead. But behold, my son, the resurrection is not yet. Now, I unfold unto you a mystery; nevertheless, there are many mysteries which are kept, that no one knoweth them save God himself. But I show unto you one thing which I have inquired diligently of God that I might know—that is concerning the resurrection. <sup>40:4</sup>Behold, there is a time appointed that all shall come forth from the dead. Now when this time cometh no one knows; but God knoweth the time which is appointed. <sup>40:5</sup>Now, whether there shall be one time, or a second time, or a third time, that men shall come forth from the dead, it mattereth not; for God knoweth all these things; and it sufficeth me to know that this is the case—that there is a time appointed that all shall rise from the dead. <sup>40:6</sup>Now there must needs be a space betwixt the time of death and the time of the resurrection. <sup>40:7</sup>And now I would inquire what becometh of the souls of men from this time of death to the time appointed for the resurrection? <sup>40:8</sup>Now whether there is more than one time appointed for men to rise it mattereth not; for all do not die at once, and this mattereth not; all is as one day with God, and time only is measured unto men. <sup>40:9</sup>Therefore, there is a time appointed unto men that they shall rise from the dead; and there is a space between the time of death and the resurrection. And now, concerning this space of time, what becometh of the souls of men is the thing which I have inquired diligently of the Lord to know; and this is the thing of which I do know. <sup>40:10</sup>And when the time cometh when all shall rise, then shall they know that God knoweth all the times which are appointed unto man. <sup>40:11</sup>Now, concerning the state of the soul between death and the resurrection—Behold, it has been made known unto me by an angel, that the spirits of all men, as soon as they are departed from this mortal body, yea, the spirits of all men, whether they be good or evil, are taken home to that God who gave them life.

<sup>40:12</sup>And then shall it come to pass, that the spirits of those who are righteous are received into a state of happiness, which is called paradise, a state of rest, a state of peace, where they shall rest from all their troubles and from all care, and sorrow. <sup>40:13</sup>And then shall it come to pass, that the spirits of the wicked, yea, who are evil—for behold, they have no part nor portion of the Spirit of the Lord; for behold, they chose evil works rather than good; therefore the spirit of the devil did enter into them, and take possession of their house—and these shall be cast out into outer darkness; there shall be weeping, and wailing, and gnashing of teeth, and this because of their own iniquity, being led captive by the will of the devil. <sup>40:14</sup>Now this is the state of the souls of the wicked, yea, in darkness, and a state of awful, fearful looking for the fiery indignation of the wrath of God upon them; thus they remain in this state, as well as the righteous in paradise, until the time of their resurrection. <sup>40:15</sup>Now, there are some that have understood that this state of happiness and this state of misery of the soul, before the resurrection, was a first resurrection. Yea, I admit it may be termed a resurrection, the raising of the spirit or the soul and their consignment to happiness or misery, according to the words which have been spoken. <sup>40:16</sup>And behold, again it hath been spoken, that there is a first resurrection, a resurrection of all those who have been, or who are, or who shall be, down to the resurrection of Christ from the dead. <sup>40:17</sup>Now, we do not suppose that this first resurrection, which is spoken of in this manner, can be the resurrection of the souls and their consignment to happiness or misery. Ye cannot suppose that this is what it meaneth. <sup>40:18</sup>Behold, I say unto you, Nay; but it meaneth the reuniting of the soul with the body, of those from the days of Adam down to the resurrection of Christ. <sup>40:19</sup>Now, whether the souls and the bodies of those of whom has been spoken shall all be reunited at once, the wicked as well as the righteous, I do not say; let it suffice, that I say that they all come forth; or in other words, their resurrection cometh to pass before the resurrection of those who die after the resurrection of Christ. <sup>40:20</sup>Now, my son, I do not say that their resurrection cometh at the resurrection of Christ; but behold, I give it as my opinion, that the souls and the bodies are reunited, of the righteous, at the resurrection of Christ, and his ascension into heaven. <sup>40:21</sup>But whether it be at his resurrection or after, I do not say; but this much I say, that there is a space between death and the resurrection of the body, and a state of the soul in happiness or in misery until the time which is appointed of God that the dead shall come forth, and be reunited, both soul and body, and be brought to stand before God, and be judged according to their works. <sup>40:22</sup>Yea, this bringeth about the restoration of those things of which has been spoken by the mouths of the prophets. <sup>40:23</sup>The soul shall be restored to the body, and the body to the soul; yea, and every limb and joint shall be restored to its body; yea, even a hair of the head shall not be lost; but all things shall be restored to their proper and perfect frame. <sup>40:24</sup>And now, my son, this is the restoration of which has been spoken by the mouths of the prophets—<sup>40:25</sup>and then shall the righteous shine forth in the kingdom of God. <sup>40:26</sup>But behold, an awful death cometh upon the wicked; for they die as to things pertaining to things of righteousness; for they are unclean, and no unclean thing can inherit the kingdom of God; but they are cast out, and consigned to partake of the fruits of their labors or their works, which have been evil; and they drink the dregs of a bitter cup. <sup>41:1</sup>And now, my son, I have somewhat to say concerning the restoration of which has been spoken; for behold, some have wrested the scriptures, and have gone far astray because of this thing. And I perceive that thy mind has been worried also concerning this thing. But behold, I will explain it unto thee. <sup>41:2</sup>I say unto thee, my son, that the plan of restoration is requisite with the justice of God; for it is requisite that all things should be restored to their proper order. Behold, it is requisite and just, according to the power and resurrection of Christ, that the soul of man should be restored to its body, and that every part of the body should be restored to itself. <sup>41:3</sup>And it is requisite with the justice of God that men should be judged according to their works; and if their works were good in this life, and the desires of their hearts were good, that they should also, at the last day, be restored unto that which is good. <sup>41:4</sup>And if their works are evil they shall be restored unto them for evil. Therefore, all things shall be restored to their proper order, every thing to its natural frame—mortality raised to immortality, corruption to incorruption—raised to endless happiness to inherit the kingdom of God, or to endless misery to inherit the kingdom of the devil, the one on one hand, the other on the other—<sup>41:5</sup>the one raised to happiness according to his desires of happiness, or good according to his desires of good; and the other to evil according to his desires of evil; for as he has desired to do evil all the day long even so shall he have his reward of evil when the night cometh. <sup>41:6</sup>And so it is on the other hand. If he hath repented of his sins, and desired righteousness until the end of his days, even so he shall be rewarded unto righteousness. <sup>41:7</sup>These are they that are redeemed of the Lord; yea, these are they that are taken out, that are delivered from that endless night of darkness; and thus they stand or fall; for behold, they are their own judges, whether to do good or do evil. <sup>41:8</sup>Now, the decrees of God are unalterable; therefore, the way is prepared that whosoever will may walk therein and be saved. <sup>41:9</sup>And now behold, my son, do not risk one more offense against your God upon those points of doctrine, which ye have hitherto risked to commit sin. <sup>41:10</sup>Do not suppose, because it has been spoken concerning restoration, that ye shall be restored from sin to happiness. Behold, I say unto you, wickedness never was happiness. <sup>41:11</sup>And now, my son, all men that are in a state of nature, or I would say, in a carnal state, are in the gall of bitterness and in the bonds of iniquity; they are without God in the world, and they have gone contrary to the nature of God; therefore, they are in a state contrary to the nature of happiness. <sup>41:12</sup>And now behold, is the meaning of the word restoration to take a thing of a natural state and place it in an unnatural state, or to place it in a state opposite to its nature? <sup>41:13</sup>O, my son, this is not the case; but the meaning of the word restoration is to bring back again evil for evil, or carnal for carnal, or devilish for devilish—good for that which is good; righteous for that which is righteous; just for that which is just; merciful for that which is merciful.

<sup>41:14</sup>Therefore, my son, see that you are merciful unto your brethren; deal justly, judge righteously, and do good continually; and if ye do all these things then shall ye receive your reward; yea, ye shall have mercy restored unto you again; ye shall have justice restored unto you again; ye shall have a righteous judgment restored unto you again; and ye shall have good rewarded unto you again.

<sup>41:15</sup>For that which ye do send out shall return unto you again, and be restored; therefore, the word restoration more fully condemneth the sinner, and justifieth him not at all. <sup>42:1</sup>And now, my son, I perceive there is somewhat more which doth worry your mind, which ye cannot understand — which is concerning the justice of God in the punishment of the sinner; for ye do try to suppose that it is injustice that the sinner should be consigned to a state of misery. <sup>42:2</sup>Now behold, my son, I will explain this thing unto thee. For behold, after the Lord God sent our first parents forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground, from whence they were taken — yea, he drew out the man, and he placed at the east end of the garden of Eden, cherubim, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the tree of life — <sup>42:3</sup>now, we see that the man had become as God, knowing good and evil; and lest he should put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat and live forever, the Lord God placed cherubim and the flaming sword, that he should not partake of the fruit — <sup>42:4</sup>and thus we see, that there was a time granted unto man to repent, yea, a probationary time, a time to repent and serve God. <sup>42:5</sup>For behold, if Adam had put forth his hand immediately, and partaken of the tree of life, he would have lived forever, according to the word of God, having no space for repentance; yea, and also the word of God would have been void, and the great plan of salvation would have been frustrated. <sup>42:6</sup>But behold, it was appointed unto man to die — therefore, as they were cut off from the tree of life they should be cut off from the face of the earth — and man became lost forever, yea, they became fallen man. <sup>42:7</sup>And now, ye see by this that our first parents were cut off both temporally and spiritually from the presence of the Lord; and thus we see they became subjects to follow after their own will. <sup>42:8</sup>Now behold, it was not expedient that man should be reclaimed from this temporal death, for that would destroy the great plan of happiness. <sup>42:9</sup>Therefore, as the soul could never die, and the fall had brought upon all mankind a spiritual death as well as a temporal, that is, they were cut off from the presence of the Lord, it was expedient that mankind should be reclaimed from this spiritual death. <sup>42:10</sup>Therefore, as they had become carnal, sensual, and devilish, by nature, this probationary state became a state for them to prepare; it became a preparatory state. <sup>42:11</sup>And now remember, my son, if it were not for the plan of redemption, (laying it aside) as soon as they were dead their souls were miserable, being cut off from the presence of the Lord. <sup>42:12</sup>And now, there was no means to reclaim men from this fallen state, which man had brought upon himself because of his own disobedience; <sup>42:13</sup>therefore, according to justice, the plan of redemption could not be brought about, only on conditions of repentance of men in this probationary state, yea, this preparatory state; for except it were for these conditions, mercy could not take effect except it should destroy the work of justice. Now the work of justice could not be destroyed; if so, God would cease to be God. <sup>42:14</sup>And thus we see that all mankind were fallen, and they were in the grasp of justice; yea, the justice of God, which consigned them forever to be cut off from his presence. <sup>42:15</sup>And now, the plan of mercy could not be brought about except an atonement should be made; therefore God himself atoneth for the sins of the world, to bring about the plan of mercy, to appease the demands of justice, that God might be a perfect, just God, and a merciful God also. <sup>42:16</sup>Now, repentance could not come unto men except there were a punishment, which also was eternal as the life of the soul should be, affixed opposite to the plan of happiness, which was as eternal also as the life of the soul. <sup>42:17</sup>Now, how could a man repent except he should sin? How could he sin if there was no law? How could there be a law save there was a punishment? <sup>42:18</sup>Now, there was a punishment affixed, and a just law given, which brought remorse of conscience unto man. <sup>42:19</sup>Now, if there was no law given—if a man murdered he should die—would he be afraid he would die if he should murder? <sup>42:20</sup>And also, if there was no law given against sin men would not be afraid to sin. <sup>42:21</sup>And if there was no law given, if men sinned what could justice do, or mercy either, for they would have no claim upon the creature? <sup>42:22</sup>But there is a law given, and a punishment affixed, and a repentance granted; which repentance, mercy claimeth; otherwise, justice claimeth the creature and executeth the law, and the law inflicteth the punishment; if not so, the works of justice would be destroyed, and God would cease to be God. <sup>42:23</sup>But God ceaseth not to be God, and mercy claimeth the penitent, and mercy cometh because of the atonement; and the atonement bringeth to pass the resurrection of the dead; and the resurrection of the dead bringeth back men into the presence of God; and thus they are restored into his presence, to be judged according to their works, according to the law and justice. <sup>42:24</sup>For behold, justice exerciseth all his demands, and also mercy claimeth all which is her own; and thus, none but the truly penitent are saved. <sup>42:25</sup>What, do ye suppose that mercy can rob justice? I say unto you, Nay; not one whit. If so, God would cease to be God. <sup>42:26</sup>And thus God bringeth about his great and eternal purposes, which were prepared from the foundation of the world. And thus cometh about the salvation and the redemption of men, and also their destruction and misery. <sup>42:27</sup>Therefore, O my son, whosoever will come may come and partake of the waters of life freely; and whosoever will not come the same is not compelled to come; but in the last day it shall be restored unto him according to his deeds. <sup>42:28</sup>If he has desired to do evil, and has not repented in his days, behold, evil shall be done unto him, according to the restoration of God. <sup>42:29</sup>And now, my son, I desire that ye should let these things trouble you no more, and only let your sins trouble you, with that trouble which shall bring you down unto repentance. <sup>42:30</sup>O my son, I desire that ye should deny the justice of God no more. Do not endeavor to excuse yourself in the least point because of your sins, by denying the justice of God; but do you let the justice of God, and his mercy, and his long-suffering have full sway in your heart; and let it bring you down to the dust in humility. <sup>42:31</sup>And now, O my son, ye are called of God to preach the word unto this people. And now, my son, go thy way, declare the word with truth and soberness, that thou mayest bring souls unto repentance, that the great plan of mercy may have claim upon them. And may God grant unto you even according to my words. Amen. <sup><XX>43:1</sup>And now it came to pass that the sons of Alma did go forth among the people, to declare the word unto them. And Alma, also, himself, could not rest, and he also went forth. <sup>43:2</sup>Now we shall say no more concerning their preaching, except that they preached the word, and the truth, according to the spirit of prophecy and revelation; and they preached after the holy order of God by which they were called. <sup>43:3</sup>And now I return to an account of the wars between the Nephites and the Lamanites, in the eighteenth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>43:4</sup>For behold, it came to pass that the Zoramites became Lamanites; therefore, in the commencement of the eighteenth year the people of the Nephites saw that the Lamanites were coming upon them; therefore they made preparations for war; yea, they gathered together their armies in the land of Jershon. <sup>43:5</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites came with their thousands; and they came into the land of Antionum, which is the land of the Zoramites; and a man by the name of Zerahemnah was their leader. <sup>43:6</sup>And now, as the Amalekites were of a more wicked and murderous disposition than the Lamanites were, in and of themselves, therefore, Zerahemnah appointed chief captains over the Lamanites, and they were all Amalekites and Zoramites. <sup>43:7</sup>Now this he did that he might preserve their hatred towards the Nephites, that he might bring them into subjection to the accomplishment of his designs. <sup>43:8</sup>For behold, his designs were to stir up the Lamanites to anger against the Nephites; this he did that he might usurp great power over them, and also that he might gain power over the Nephites by bringing them into bondage. <sup>43:9</sup>And now the design of the Nephites was to support their lands, and their houses, and their wives, and their children, that they might preserve them from the hands of their enemies; and also that they might preserve their rights and their privileges, yea, and also their liberty, that they might worship God according to their desires. <sup>43:10</sup>For they knew that if they should fall into the hands of the Lamanites, that whosoever should worship God in spirit and in truth, the true and the living God, the Lamanites would destroy. <sup>43:11</sup>Yea, and they also knew the extreme hatred of the Lamanites towards their brethren, who were the people of Anti-Nephi-Lehi, who were called the people of Ammon—and they would not take up arms, yea, they had entered into a covenant and they would not break it—therefore, if they should fall into the hands of the Lamanites they would be destroyed. <sup>43:12</sup>And the Nephites would not suffer that they should be destroyed; therefore they gave them lands for their inheritance. <sup>43:13</sup>And the people of Ammon did give unto the Nephites a large portion of their substance to support their armies; and thus the Nephites were compelled, alone, to withstand against the Lamanites, who were a compound of Laman and Lemuel, and the sons of Ishmael, and all those who had dissented from the Nephites, who were Amalekites and Zoramites, and the descendants of the priests of Noah. <sup>43:14</sup>Now those descendants were as numerous, nearly, as were the Nephites; and thus the Nephites were obliged to contend with their brethren, even unto bloodshed.

<sup>43:15</sup>And it came to pass as the armies of the Lamanites had gathered together in the land of Antionum, behold, the armies of the Nephites were prepared to meet them in the land of Jershon. <sup>43:16</sup>Now, the leader of the Nephites, or the man who had been appointed to be the chief captain over the Nephites — now the chief captain took the command of all the armies of the Nephites — and his name was Moroni; <sup>43:17</sup>and Moroni took all the command, and the government of their wars. And he was only twenty and five years old when he was appointed chief captain over the armies of the Nephites. <sup>43:18</sup>And it came to pass that he met the Lamanites in the borders of Jershon, and his people were armed with swords, and with cimeters, and all manner of weapons of war. <sup>43:19</sup>And when the armies of the Lamanites saw that the people of Nephi, or that Moroni, had prepared his people with breastplates and with arm-shields, yea, and also shields to defend their heads, and also they were dressed with thick clothing — <sup>43:20</sup>now the army of Zerahemnah was not prepared with any such thing; they had only their swords and their cimeters, their bows and their arrows, their stones and their slings; and they were naked, save it were a skin which was girded about their loins; yea, all were naked, save it were the Zoramites and the Amalekites; <sup>43:21</sup>but they were not armed with breastplates, nor shields — therefore, they were exceedingly afraid of the armies of the Nephites because of their armor, notwithstanding their number being so much greater than the Nephites. <sup>43:22</sup>Behold, now it came to pass that they durst not come against the Nephites in the borders of Jershon; therefore they departed out of the land of Antionum into the wilderness, and took their journey round about in the wilderness, away by the head of the river Sidon, that they might come into the land of Manti and take possession of the land; for they did not suppose that the armies of Moroni would know whither they had gone.

<sup>43:23</sup>But it came to pass, as soon as they had departed into the wilderness Moroni sent spies into the wilderness to watch their camp; and Moroni, also, knowing of the prophecies of Alma, sent certain men unto him, desiring him that he should inquire of the Lord whither the armies of the Nephites should go to defend themselves against the Lamanites. <sup>43:24</sup>And it came to pass that the word of the Lord came unto Alma, and Alma informed the messengers of Moroni, that the armies of the Lamanites were marching round about in the wilderness, that they might come over into the land of Manti, that they might commence an attack upon the weaker part of the people. And those messengers went and delivered the message unto Moroni. <sup>43:25</sup>Now Moroni, leaving a part of his army in the land of Jershon, lest by any means a part of the Lamanites should come into that land and take possession of the city, took the remaining part of his army and marched over into the land of Manti. <sup>43:26</sup>And he caused that all the people in that quarter of the land should gather themselves together to battle against the Lamanites, to defend their lands and their country, their rights and their liberties; therefore they were prepared against the time of the coming of the Lamanites. <sup>43:27</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni caused that his army should be secreted in the valley which was near the bank of the river Sidon, which was on the west of the river Sidon in the wilderness. <sup>43:28</sup>And Moroni placed spies round about, that he might know when the camp of the Lamanites should come. <sup>43:29</sup>And now, as Moroni knew the intention of the Lamanites, that it was their intention to destroy their brethren, or to subject them and bring them into bondage that they might establish a kingdom unto themselves over all the land; <sup>43:30</sup>and he also knowing that it was the only desire of the Nephites to preserve their lands, and their liberty, and their church, therefore he thought it no sin that he should defend them by stratagem; therefore, he found by his spies which course the Lamanites were to take. <sup>43:31</sup>Therefore, he divided his army and brought a part over into the valley, and concealed them on the east, and on the south of the hill Riplah; <sup>43:32</sup>and the remainder he concealed in the west valley, on the west of the river Sidon, and so down into the borders of the land Manti. <sup>43:33</sup>And thus having placed his army according to his desire, he was prepared to meet them. <sup>43:34</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites came up on the north of the hill, where a part of the army of Moroni was concealed. <sup>43:35</sup>And as the Lamanites had passed the hill Riplah, and came into the valley, and began to cross the river Sidon, the army which was concealed on the south of the hill, which was led by a man whose name was Lehi, and he led his army forth and encircled the Lamanites about on the east in their rear. <sup>43:36</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites, when they saw the Nephites coming upon them in their rear, turned them about and began to contend with the army of Lehi. <sup>43:37</sup>And the work of death commenced on both sides, but it was more dreadful on the part of the Lamanites, for their nakedness was exposed to the heavy blows of the Nephites with their swords and their cimeters, which brought death almost at every stroke. <sup>43:38</sup>While on the other hand, there was now and then a man fell among the Nephites, by their swords and the loss of blood, they being shielded from the more vital parts of the body, or the more vital parts of the body being shielded from the strokes of the Lamanites, by their breastplates, and their armshields, and their head-plates; and thus the Nephites did carry on the work of death among the Lamanites. <sup>43:39</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites became frightened, because of the great destruction among them, even until they began to flee towards the river Sidon. <sup>43:40</sup>And they were pursued by Lehi and his men; and they were driven by Lehi into the waters of Sidon, and they crossed the waters of Sidon. And Lehi retained his armies upon the bank of the river Sidon that they should not cross. <sup>43:41</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni and his army met the Lamanites in the valley, on the other side of the river Sidon, and began to fall upon them and to slay them. <sup>43:42</sup>And the Lamanites did flee again before them, towards the land of Manti; and they were met again by the armies of Moroni. <sup>43:43</sup>Now in this case the Lamanites

did fight exceedingly; yea, never had the Lamanites been known to fight with such exceedingly great strength and courage, no, not even from the beginning. <sup>43:44</sup>And they were inspired by the Zoramites and the Amalekites, who were their chief captains and leaders, and by Zerahemnah, who was their chief captain, or their chief leader and commander; yea, they did fight like dragons, and many of the Nephites were slain by their hands, yea, for they did smite in two many of their head-plates, and they did pierce many of their breastplates, and they did smite off many of their arms; and thus the Lamanites did smite in their fierce anger. <sup>43:45</sup>Nevertheless, the Nephites were inspired by a better cause, for they were not fighting for monarchy nor power but they were fighting for their homes and their liberties, their wives and their children, and their all, yea, for their rites of worship and their church. <sup>43:46</sup>And they were doing that which they felt was the duty which they owed to their God; for the Lord had said unto them, and also unto their fathers, that: Inasmuch as ye are not guilty of the first offense, neither the second, ye shall not suffer yourselves to be slain by the hands of your enemies. <sup>43:47</sup>And again, the Lord has said that: Ye shall defend your families even unto bloodshed. Therefore for this cause were the Nephites contending with the Lamanites, to defend themselves, and their families, and their lands, their country, and their rights, and their religion. <sup>43:48</sup>And it came to pass that when the men of Moroni saw the fierceness and the anger of the Lamanites, they were about to shrink and flee from them. And Moroni, perceiving their intent, sent forth and inspired their hearts with these thoughts — yea, the thoughts of their lands, their liberty, yea, their freedom from bondage. <sup>43:49</sup>And it came to pass that they turned upon the Lamanites, and they cried with one voice unto the Lord their God, for their liberty and their freedom from bondage. <sup>43:50</sup>And they began to stand against the Lamanites with power; and in that selfsame hour that they cried unto the Lord for their freedom, the Lamanites began to flee before them; and they fled even to the waters of Sidon. <sup>43:51</sup>Now, the Lamanites were more numerous, yea, by more than double the number of the Nephites; nevertheless, they were driven insomuch that they were gathered together in one body in the valley, upon the bank by the river Sidon. <sup>43:52</sup>Therefore the armies of Moroni encircled them about, yea, even on both sides of the river, for behold, on the east were the men of Lehi. <sup>43:53</sup>Therefore when Zerahemnah saw the men of Lehi on the east of the river Sidon, and the armies of Moroni on the west of the river Sidon, that they were encircled about by the Nephites, they were struck with terror. <sup>43:54</sup>Now Moroni, when he saw their terror, commanded his men that they should stop shedding their blood. <sup>44:1</sup>And it came to pass that they did stop and withdrew a pace from them. And Moroni said unto Zerahemnah: Behold, Zerahemnah, that we do not desire to be men of blood. Ye know that ye are in our hands, yet we do not desire to slay you. <sup>44:2</sup>Behold, we have not come out to battle against you that we might shed your blood for power; neither do we desire to bring any one to the yoke of bondage. But this is the very cause for which ye have come against us; yea, and ye are angry with us because of our religion.

<sup>44:3</sup>But now, ye behold that the Lord is with us; and ye behold that he has delivered you into our hands. And now I would that ye should understand that this is done unto us because of our religion and our faith in Christ. And now ye see that ye cannot destroy this our faith. <sup>44:4</sup>Now ye see that this is the true faith of God; yea, ye see that God will support, and keep, and preserve us, so long as we are faithful unto him, and unto our faith, and our religion; and never will the Lord suffer that we shall be destroyed except we should fall into transgression and deny our faith. <sup>44:5</sup>And now, Zerahemnah, I command you, in the name of that all-powerful God, who has strengthened our arms that we have gained power over you, by our faith, by our religion, and by our rites of worship, and by our church, and by the sacred support which we owe to our wives and our children, by that liberty which binds us to our lands and our country; yea, and also by the maintenance of the sacred word of God, to which we owe all our happiness; and by all that is most dear unto us —<sup>44:6</sup>yea, and this is not all; I command you by all the desires which ye have for life, that ye deliver up your weapons of war unto us, and we will seek not your blood, but we will spare your lives, if ye will go your way and come not again to war against us. <sup>44:7</sup>And now, if ye do not this, behold, ye are in our hands, and I will command my men that they shall fall upon you, and inflict the wounds of death in your bodies, that ye may become extinct; and then we will see who shall have power over this people; yea, we will see who shall be brought into bondage. <sup>44:8</sup>And now it came to pass that when Zerahemnah had heard these sayings he came forth and delivered up his sword and his cimeter, and his bow into the hands of Moroni, and said unto him: Behold, here are our weapons of war; we will deliver them up unto you, but we will not suffer ourselves to take an oath unto you, which we know that we shall break, and also our children; but take our weapons of war, and suffer that we may depart into the wilderness; otherwise we will retain our swords, and we will perish or conquer. <sup>44:9</sup>Behold, we are not of your faith; we do not believe that it is God that has delivered us into your hands; but we believe that it is your cunning that has preserved you from our swords. Behold, it is your breastplates and your shields that have preserved you. <sup>44:10</sup>And now when Zerahemnah had made an end of speaking these words, Moroni returned the sword and the weapons of war, which he had received, unto Zerahemnah, saying: Behold, we will end the conflict. <sup>44:11</sup>Now I cannot recall the words which I have spoken, therefore as the Lord liveth, ye shall not depart except ye depart with an oath that ye will not return again against us to war. Now as ye are in our hands we will spill your blood upon the ground, or ye shall submit to the conditions which I have proposed. <sup>44:12</sup>And now when Moroni had said these words, Zerahemnah retained his sword, and he was angry with Moroni, and he rushed forward that he might slay Moroni; but as he raised his sword, behold, one of Moroni's soldiers smote it even to the earth, and it broke by the hilt; and he also smote Zerahemnah that he took off his scalp and it fell to the earth. And Zerahemnah withdrew from before them into the midst of his soldiers. <sup>44:13</sup>And it came to pass that the soldier who stood by, who smote off the scalp of Zerahemnah, took up the scalp from off the ground by the hair, and laid it upon the point of his sword, and stretched it forth unto them, saying unto them with a loud voice: <sup>44:14</sup>Even as this scalp has fallen to the earth, which is the scalp of your chief, so shall ye fall to the earth except ye will deliver up your weapons of war and depart with a covenant of peace. <sup>44:15</sup>Now there were many, when they heard these words and saw the scalp which was upon the sword, that were struck with fear; and many came forth and threw down their weapons of war at the feet of Moroni, and entered into a covenant of peace. And as many as entered into a covenant they suffered to depart into the wilderness. <sup>44:16</sup>Now it came to pass that Zerahemnah was exceedingly wroth, and he did stir up the remainder of his soldiers to anger, to contend more powerfully against the Nephites. <sup>44:17</sup>And now Moroni was angry, because of the stubbornness of the Lamanites; therefore he commanded his people that they should fall upon them and slay them. And it came to pass that they began to slay them; yea, and the Lamanites did contend with their swords and their might. <sup>44:18</sup>But behold, their naked skins and their bare heads were exposed to the sharp swords of the Nephites; yea, behold they were pierced and smitten, yea, and did fall exceedingly fast before the swords of the Nephites; and they began to be swept down, even as the soldier of Moroni had prophesied. <sup>44:19</sup>Now Zerahemnah, when he saw that they were all about to be destroyed, cried mightily unto Moroni, promising that he would covenant and also his people with them, if they would spare the remainder of their lives, that they never would come to war again against them. <sup>44:20</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni caused that the work of death should cease again among the people. And he took the weapons of war from the Lamanites; and after they had entered into a covenant with him of peace they were suffered to depart into the wilderness. <sup>44:21</sup>Now the number of their dead was not numbered because of the greatness of the number; yea, the number of their dead was exceedingly great, both on the Nephites and on the Lamanites. <sup>44:22</sup>And it came to pass that they did cast their dead into the waters of Sidon, and they have gone forth and are buried in the depths of the sea. <sup>44:23</sup>And the armies of the Nephites, or of Moroni, returned and came to their houses and their lands. <sup>44:24</sup>And thus ended the eighteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. And thus ended the record of Alma, which was written upon the plates of Nephi. <XXI>The account of the people of Nephi, and their wars and dissensions, in the days of Helaman, according to the record of Helaman, which he kept in his days. <sup>45:1</sup>Behold, now it came to pass that the people of Nephi were exceedingly rejoiced, because the Lord had again delivered them out of the hands of their enemies; therefore they gave thanks unto the Lord their God; yea, and they did fast much and pray much, and they did worship God with exceedingly great joy. <sup>45:2</sup>And it came to pass in the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, that Alma came unto his son Helaman and said unto him: Believest thou the words which I spake unto thee concerning those records which have been kept? <sup>45:3</sup>And

Helaman said unto him: Yea, I believe. <sup>45:4</sup>And Alma said again: Believest thou in Jesus Christ, who shall come? <sup>45:5</sup>And he said: Yea, I believe all the words which thou hast spoken. <sup>45:6</sup>And Alma said unto him again: Will ye keep my commandments? <sup>45:7</sup>And he said: Yea, I will keep thy commandments with all my heart. <sup>45:8</sup>Then Alma said unto him: Blessed art thou; and the Lord shall prosper thee in this land. <sup>45:9</sup>But behold, I have somewhat to prophesy unto thee; but what I prophesy unto thee ye shall not make known; yea, what I prophesy unto thee shall not be made known, even until the prophecy is fulfilled; therefore write the words which I shall say. <sup>45:10</sup>And these are the words: Behold, I perceive that this very people, the Nephites, according to the spirit of revelation which is in me, in four hundred years from the time that Jesus Christ shall manifest himself unto them, shall dwindle in unbelief. <sup>45:11</sup>Yea, and then shall they see wars and pestilences, yea, famines and bloodshed, even until the people of Nephi shall become extinct—<sup>45:12</sup>yea, and this because they shall dwindle in unbelief and fall into the works of darkness, and lasciviousness, and all manner of iniquities; yea, I say unto you, that because they shall sin against so great light and knowledge, yea, I say unto you, that from that day, even the fourth generation shall not all pass away before this great iniquity shall come. <sup>45:13</sup>And when that great day cometh, behold, the time very soon cometh that those who are now, or the seed of those who are now numbered among the people of Nephi, shall no more be numbered among the people of Nephi. <sup>45:14</sup>But whosoever remaineth, and is not destroyed in that great and dreadful day, shall be numbered among the Lamanites, and shall become like unto them, all, save it be a few who shall be called the disciples of the Lord; and them shall the Lamanites pursue even until they shall become extinct. And now, because of iniquity, this prophecy shall be fulfilled. <sup>45:15</sup>And now it came to pass that after Alma had said these things to Helaman, he blessed him, and also his other sons; and he also blessed the earth for the righteous' sake. <sup>45:16</sup>And he said: Thus saith the Lord God—Cursed shall be the land, yea, this land, unto every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, unto destruction, which do wickedly, when they are fully ripe; and as I have said so shall it be; for this is the cursing and the blessing of God upon the land, for the Lord cannot look upon sin with the least degree of allowance. <sup>45:17</sup>And now, when Alma had said these words he blessed the church, yea, all those who should stand fast in the faith from that time henceforth. <sup>45:18</sup>And when Alma had done this he departed out of the land of Zarahemla, as if to go into the land of Melek. And it came to pass that he was never heard of more; as to his death or burial we know not of. <sup>45:19</sup>Behold, this we know, that he was a righteous man; and the saying went abroad in the church that he was taken up by the Spirit, or buried by the hand of the Lord, even as Moses. But behold, the scriptures saith the Lord took Moses unto himself; and we suppose that he has also received Alma in the spirit, unto himself; therefore, for this cause we know nothing concerning his death and burial. <sup>45:20</sup>And now it came to pass in the commencement of the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, that Helaman went forth among the people to declare the word unto them. <sup>45:21</sup>For behold, because of their wars with the Lamanites and the many little dissensions and disturbances which had been among the people, it became expedient that the word of God should be declared among them, yea, and that a regulation should be made throughout the church. <sup>45:22</sup>Therefore, Helaman and his brethren went forth to establish the church again in all the land, yea, in every city throughout all the land which was possessed by the people of Nephi. And it came to pass that they did appoint priests and teachers throughout all the land, over all the churches. <sup>45:23</sup>And now it came to pass that after Helaman and his brethren had appointed priests and teachers over the churches that there arose a dissension among them, and they would not give heed to the words of Helaman and his brethren; <sup>45:24</sup>but they grew proud, being lifted up in their hearts, because of their exceedingly great riches; therefore they grew rich in their own eyes, and would not give heed to their words, to walk uprightly before God. <sup>46:1</sup>And it came to pass that as many as would not hearken to the words of Helaman and his brethren were gathered together against their brethren. <sup>46:2</sup>And now behold, they were exceedingly wroth, insomuch that they were determined to slay them. <sup>46:3</sup>Now the leader of those who were wroth against their brethren was a large and a strong man; and his name was Amalickiah. <sup>46:4</sup>And Amalickiah was desirous to be a king; and those people who were wroth were also desirous that he should be their king; and they were the greater part of them the lower judges of the land, and they were seeking for power. <sup>46:5</sup>And they had been led by the flatteries of Amalickiah, that if they would support him and establish him to be their king that he would make them rulers over the people. <sup>46:6</sup>Thus they were led away by Amalickiah to dissensions, notwithstanding the preaching of Helaman and his brethren, yea, notwithstanding their exceedingly great care over the church, for they were high priests over the church. <sup>46:7</sup>And there were many in the church who believed in the flattering words of Amalickiah, therefore they dissented even from the church; and thus were the affairs of the people of Nephi exceedingly precarious and dangerous, notwithstanding their great victory which they had had over the Lamanites, and their great rejoicings which they had had because of their deliverance by the hand of the Lord. <sup>46:8</sup>Thus we see how quick the children of men do forget the Lord their God, yea, how quick to do iniquity, and to be led away by the evil one. <sup>46:9</sup>Yea, and we also see the great wickedness one very wicked man can cause to take place among the children of men. <sup>46:10</sup>Yea, we see that Amalickiah, because he was a man of cunning device and a man of many flattering words, that he led away the hearts of many people to do wickedly; yea, and to seek to destroy the church of God, and to destroy the foundation of liberty which God had granted unto them, or which blessing God had sent upon the face of the land for the righteous' sake. <sup>46:11</sup>And now it came to pass that when Moroni, who was the chief commander of the armies of the Nephites, had heard of these dissensions, he was angry with Amalickiah. <sup>46:12</sup>And it came to pass that he rent his coat; and he took a piece thereof, and wrote upon it—In memory of our God, our religion, and freedom, and our peace, our wives, and our children—and he fastened it upon the end of a pole. <sup>46:13</sup>And he fastened on his head-plate, and his breastplate, and his shields, and girded on his armor about his loins; and he took the pole, which had on the end thereof his rent coat, (and he called it the title of liberty) and he bowed himself to the earth, and he prayed mightily unto his God for the blessings of liberty to rest upon his brethren, so long as there should a band of Christians remain to possess the land—<sup>46:14</sup>for thus were all the true believers of Christ, who belonged to the church of God, called by those who did not belong to the church. <sup>46:15</sup>And those who did belong to the church were faithful; yea, all those who were true believers in Christ took upon them, gladly, the name of Christ, or Christians as they were called, because of their belief in Christ who should come. <sup>46:16</sup>And therefore, at this time, Moroni prayed that the cause of the Christians, and the freedom of the land might be favored. <sup>46:17</sup>And it came to pass that when he had poured out his soul to God, he named all the land which was south of the land Desolation, yea, and in fine, all the land, both on the north and on the south—A chosen land, and the land of liberty. <sup>46:18</sup>And he said: Surely God shall not suffer that we, who are despised because we take upon us the name of Christ, shall be trodden down and destroyed, until we bring it upon us by our own transgressions. <sup>46:19</sup>And when Moroni had said these words, he went forth among the people, waving the rent part of his garment in the air, that all might see the writing which he had written upon the rent part, and crying with a loud voice, saying: <sup>46:20</sup>Behold, whosoever will maintain this title upon the land, let them come forth in the strength of the Lord, and enter into a covenant that they will maintain their rights, and their religion, that the Lord God may bless them. <sup>46:21</sup>And it came to pass that when Moroni had proclaimed these words, behold, the people came running together with their armor girded about their loins, rending their garments in token, or as a covenant, that they would not forsake the Lord their God; or, in other words, if they should transgress the commandments of God, or fall into transgression, and be ashamed to take upon them the name of Christ, the Lord should rend them even as they had rent their garments. <sup>46:22</sup>Now this was the covenant which they made, and they cast their garments at the feet of Moroni, saying: We covenant with our God, that we shall be destroyed, even as our brethren in the land northward, if we shall fall into transgression; yea, he may cast us at the feet of our enemies, even as we have cast our garments at thy feet to be trodden under foot, if we shall fall into transgression. <sup>46:23</sup>Moroni said unto them: Behold, we are a remnant of the seed of Jacob; yea, we are a remnant of the seed of Joseph, whose coat was rent by his brethren into many pieces; yea, and now behold, let us remember to keep the commandments of God, or our garments shall be rent by our brethren, and we be cast into prison, or be sold, or be slain. <sup>46:24</sup>Yea, let us preserve our liberty as a remnant of Joseph; yea, let us remember the words of Jacob, before his death, for behold, he saw that a part of the remnant of the coat of Joseph was preserved and had not decayed. And he said — Even as this remnant of garment of my son hath been preserved, so shall a remnant of the seed of my son be preserved by the hand of God, and be taken unto himself, while the remainder of the seed of Joseph shall perish, even as the remnant of his garment. <sup>46:25</sup>Now behold, this giveth my soul sorrow; nevertheless, my soul hath joy in my son, because of that part of his seed which shall be taken unto God. <sup>46:26</sup>Now behold, this was the language of Jacob. <sup>46:27</sup>And now who knoweth but what the remnant of the seed of Joseph, which shall perish as his garment, are those who have dissented from us? Yea, and even it shall be ourselves if we do not stand fast in the faith of Christ. <sup>46:28</sup>And now it came to pass that when Moroni had said these words he went forth, and also sent forth in all the parts of the land where there were dissensions, and gathered together all the people who were desirous to maintain their liberty, to stand against Amalickiah and those who had dissented, who were called Amalickiahites. <sup>46:29</sup>And it came to pass that when Amalickiah saw that the people of Moroni were more numerous than the Amalickiahites — and he also saw that his people were doubtful concerning the justice of the cause in which they had undertaken — therefore, fearing that he should not gain the point, he took those of his people who would and departed into the land of Nephi. <sup>46:30</sup>Now Moroni thought it was not expedient that the Lamanites should have any more strength; therefore he thought to cut off the people of Amalickiah, or to take them and bring them back, and put Amalickiah to death; yea, for he knew that he would stir up the Lamanites to anger against them, and cause them to come to battle against them; and this he knew that Amalickiah would do that he might obtain his purposes. <sup>46:31</sup>Therefore Moroni thought it was expedient that he should take his armies, who had gathered themselves together, and armed themselves, and entered into a covenant to keep the peace — and it came to pass that he took his army and marched out with his tents into the wilderness, to cut off the course of Amalickiah in the wilderness. <sup>46:32</sup>And it came to pass that he did according to his desires, and marched forth into the wilderness, and headed the armies of Amalickiah. <sup>46:33</sup>And it came to pass that Amalickiah fled with a small number of his men, and the remainder were delivered up into the hands of Moroni and were taken back into the land of Zarahemla. <sup>46:34</sup>Now, Moroni being a man who was appointed by the chief judges and the voice of the people, therefore he had power according to his will with the armies of the Nephites, to establish and to exercise authority over them. <sup>46:35</sup>And it came to pass that whomsoever of the Amalickiahites that would not enter into a covenant to support the cause of freedom, that they might maintain a free government, he caused to be put to death; and there were but few who denied the covenant of freedom. <sup>46:36</sup>And it came to pass also, that he caused the title of liberty to be hoisted upon every tower which was in all the land, which was possessed by the Nephites; and thus Moroni planted the standard of liberty among the Nephites. <sup>46:37</sup>And they began to have peace again in the land; and thus they did maintain peace in the land until nearly the end of the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>46:38</sup>And Helaman and the high priests did also maintain order in the church; yea, even for the space of four years did they have much peace and rejoicing in the church. <sup>46:39</sup>And it came to pass that there were many who died, firmly believing that their souls were redeemed by the Lord Jesus Christ; thus they went out of the world rejoicing. <sup>46:40</sup>And there were some who died with fevers, which at some seasons of the year were very frequent in the land—but not so much so with fevers, because of the excellent qualities of the many plants and roots which God had prepared to remove the cause of diseases, to which men were subject by the nature of the climate—<sup>46:41</sup>but there were many who died with old age; and those who died in the faith of Christ are happy in him, as we must needs suppose. <sup>47:1</sup>Now we will return in our record to Amalickiah and those who had fled with him into the wilderness; for, behold, he had taken those who went with him, and went up in the land of Nephi among the Lamanites, and did stir up the Lamanites to anger against the people of Nephi, insomuch that the king of the Lamanites sent a proclamation throughout all his land, among all his people, that they should gather themselves together again to go to battle against the Nephites. <sup>47:2</sup>And it came to pass that when the proclamation had gone forth among them they were exceedingly afraid; yea, they feared to displease the king, and they also feared to go to battle against the Nephites lest they should lose their lives. And it came to pass that they would not, or the more part of them would not, obey the commandments of the king. <sup>47:3</sup>And now it came to pass that the king was wroth because of their disobedience; therefore he gave Amalickiah the command of that part of his army which was obedient unto his commands, and commanded him that he should go forth and compel them to arms. <sup>47:4</sup>Now behold, this was the desire of Amalickiah; for he being a very subtle man to do evil therefore he laid the plan in his heart to dethrone the king of the Lamanites. <sup>47:5</sup>And now he had got the command of those parts of the Lamanites who were in favor of the king; and he sought to gain favor of those who were not obedient; therefore he went forward to the place which was called Onidah, for thither had all the Lamanites fled; for they discovered the army coming, and, supposing that they were coming to destroy them, therefore they fled to Onidah, to the place of arms. <sup>47:6</sup>And they had appointed a man to be a king and a leader over them, being fixed in their minds with a determined resolution that they would not be subjected to go against the Nephites. <sup>47:7</sup>And it came to pass that they had gathered themselves together upon the top of the mount which was called Antipas, in preparation to battle. <sup>47:8</sup>Now it was not Amalickiah's intention to give them battle according to the commandments of the king; but behold, it was his intention to gain favor with the armies of the Lamanites, that he might place himself at their head and dethrone the king and take possession of the kingdom. <sup>47:9</sup>And behold, it came to pass that he caused his army to pitch their tents in the valley which was near the mount Antipas. <sup>47:10</sup>And it came to pass that when it was night he sent a secret embassy into the mount Antipas, desiring that the leader of those who were upon the mount, whose name was Lehonti, that he should come down to the foot of the mount, for he desired to speak with him.

<sup>47:11</sup>And it came to pass that when Lehonti received the message he durst not go down to the foot of the mount. And it came to pass that Amalickiah sent again the second time, desiring him to come down. And it came to pass that Lehonti would not; and he sent again the third time. <sup>47:12</sup>And it came to pass that when Amalickiah found that he could not get Lehonti to come down off from the mount, he went up into the mount, nearly to Lehonti's camp; and he sent again the fourth time his message unto Lehonti, desiring that he would come down, and that he would bring his guards with him. <sup>47:13</sup>And it came to pass that when Lehonti had come down with his guards to Amalickiah, that Amalickiah desired him to come down with his army in the night-time, and surround those men in their camps over whom the king had given him command, and that he would deliver them up into Lehonti's hands, if he would make him (Amalickiah) a second leader over the whole army. <sup>47:14</sup>And it came to pass that Lehonti came down with his men and surrounded the men of Amalickiah, so that before they awoke at the dawn of day they were surrounded by the armies of Lehonti.

<sup>47:15</sup>And it came to pass that when they saw that they were surrounded, they plead with Amalickiah that he would suffer them to fall in with their brethren, that they might not be destroyed. Now this was the very thing which Amalickiah desired. <sup>47:16</sup>And it came to pass that he delivered his men, contrary to the commands of the king. Now this was the thing that Amalickiah desired, that he might accomplish his designs in dethroning the king. <sup>47:17</sup>Now it was the custom among the Lamanites, if their chief leader was killed, to appoint the second leader to be their chief leader. <sup>47:18</sup>And it came to pass that Amalickiah caused that one of his servants should administer poison by degrees to Lehonti, that he died. <sup>47:19</sup>Now, when Lehonti was dead, the Lamanites appointed Amalickiah to be their leader and their chief commander. <sup>47:20</sup>And it came to pass that Amalickiah marched with his armies (for he had gained his desires) to the land of Nephi, to the city of Nephi, which was the chief city. <sup>47:21</sup>And the king came out to meet him with his guards, for he supposed that Amalickiah had fulfilled his commands, and that Amalickiah had gathered together so great an army to go against the Nephites to battle. <sup>47:22</sup>But behold, as the king came out to meet him Amalickiah caused that his servants should go forth to meet the king. And they went and bowed themselves before the king, as if to reverence him because of his greatness. <sup>47:23</sup>And it came to pass that the king put forth his hand to raise them, as was the custom with the Lamanites, as a token of peace, which custom they had taken from the Nephites. <sup>47:24</sup>And it came to pass that when he had raised the first from the ground, behold he stabbed the king to the heart; and he fell to the earth. <sup>47:25</sup>Now the servants of the king fled; and the servants of Amalickiah raised a cry, saying: <sup>47:26</sup>Behold, the servants of the king have stabbed him to the heart, and he has fallen and they have fled; behold, come and see.

<sup>47:27</sup>And it came to pass that Amalickiah commanded that his armies should march forth and see what had happened to the king; and when they had come to the spot, and found the king lying in his gore, Amalickiah pretended to be wroth, and said: Whosoever loved the king, let him go forth, and pursue his servants that they may be slain. <sup>47:28</sup>And it came to pass that all they who loved the king, when they heard these words, came forth and pursued after the servants of the king. <sup>47:29</sup>Now when the servants of the king saw an army pursuing after them, they were frightened again, and fled into the wilderness, and came over into the land of Zarahemla and joined the people of Ammon. <sup>47:30</sup>And the army which pursued after them returned, having pursued after them in vain; and thus Amalickiah, by his fraud, gained the hearts of the people. <sup>47:31</sup>And it came to pass on the morrow he entered the city Nephi with his armies, and took possession of the city. <sup>47:32</sup>And now it came to pass that the queen, when she had heard that the king was slain—for Amalickiah had sent an embassy to the queen informing her that the king had been slain by his servants, that he had pursued them with his army, but it was in vain, and they had made their escape—<sup>47:33</sup>therefore, when the queen had received this message she sent unto Amalickiah, desiring him that he would spare the people of the city; and she also desired him that he should come in unto her; and she also desired him that he should bring witnesses with him to testify concerning the death of the king. <sup>47:34</sup>And it came to pass that Amalickiah took the same servant that slew the king, and all them who were with him, and went in unto the queen, unto the place where she sat; and they all testified unto her that the king was slain by his own servants; and they said also: They have fled; does not this testify against them? And thus they satisfied the queen concerning the death of the king. <sup>47:35</sup>And it came to pass that Amalickiah sought the favor of the queen, and took her unto him to wife; and thus by his fraud, and by the assistance of his cunning servants, he obtained the kingdom; yea, he was acknowledged king throughout all the land, among all the people of the Lamanites, who were composed of the Lamanites and the Lemuelites and the Ishmaelites, and all the dissenters of the Nephites, from the reign of Nephi down to the present time. <sup>47:36</sup>Now these dissenters, having the same instruction and the same information of the Nephites, yea, having been instructed in the same knowledge of the Lord, nevertheless, it is strange to relate, not long after their dissensions they became more hardened and impenitent, and more wild, wicked and ferocious than the Lamanites—drinking in with the traditions of the Lamanites; giving way to indolence, and all manner of lasciviousness; yea, entirely forgetting the Lord their God. <sup>48:1</sup>And now it came to pass that, as soon as Amalickiah had obtained the kingdom he began to inspire the hearts of the Lamanites against the people of Nephi; yea, he did appoint men to speak unto the Lamanites from their towers, against the Nephites. <sup>48:2</sup>And thus he did inspire their hearts against the Nephites, insomuch that in the latter end of the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges, he having accomplished his designs thus far, yea, having been made king over the Lamanites, he sought also to reign over all the land, yea, and all the people who were in the land, the Nephites as well as the Lamanites. <sup>48:3</sup>Therefore he had accomplished his design, for he had hardened the hearts of the Lamanites and blinded their minds, and stirred them up to anger, insomuch that he had gathered together a numerous host to go to battle against the Nephites. <sup>48:4</sup>For he was determined, because of the greatness of the number of his people, to overpower the Nephites and to bring them into bondage. <sup>48:5</sup>And thus he did appoint chief captains of the Zoramites, they being the most acquainted with the strength of the Nephites, and their places of resort, and the weakest parts of their cities; therefore he appointed them to be chief captains over his armies. <sup>48:6</sup>And it came to pass that they took their camp, and moved forth toward the land of Zarahemla in the wilderness. <sup>48:7</sup>Now it came to pass that while Amalickiah had thus been obtaining power by fraud and deceit, Moroni, on the other hand, had been preparing the minds of the people to be faithful unto the Lord their God. <sup>48:8</sup>Yea, he had been strengthening the armies of the Nephites, and erecting small forts, or places of resort; throwing up banks of earth round about to enclose his armies, and also building walls of stone to encircle them about, round about their cities and the borders of their lands; yea, all round about the land. <sup>48:9</sup>And in their weakest fortifications he did place the greater number of men; and thus he did fortify and strengthen the land which was possessed by the Nephites. <sup>48:10</sup>And thus he was preparing to support their liberty, their lands, their wives, and their children, and their peace, and that they might live unto the Lord their God, and that they might maintain that which was called by their enemies the cause of Christians. <sup>48:11</sup>And Moroni was a strong and a mighty man; he was a man of a perfect understanding; yea, a man that did not delight in bloodshed; a man whose soul did joy in the liberty and the freedom of his country, and his brethren from bondage and slavery; <sup>48:12</sup>yea, a man whose heart did swell with thanksgiving to his God, for the many privileges and blessings which he bestowed upon his people; a man who did labor exceedingly for the welfare and safety of his people. <sup>48:13</sup>Yea, and he was a man who was firm in the faith of Christ, and he had sworn with an oath to defend his people, his rights, and his country, and his religion, even to the loss of his blood. <sup>48:14</sup>Now the Nephites were taught to defend themselves against their enemies, even to the shedding of blood if it were necessary; yea, and they were also taught never to give an offense, yea, and never to raise the sword except it were against an enemy, except it were to preserve their lives. <sup>48:15</sup>And this was their faith, that by so doing God would prosper them in the land, or in other words, if they were faithful in keeping the commandments of God that he would prosper them in the land; yea, warn them to flee, or to prepare for war, according to their danger; <sup>48:16</sup>and also, that God would make it known unto them whither they should go to defend themselves against their enemies, and by so doing, the Lord would deliver them; and this was the faith of Moroni, and his heart did glory in it; not in the shedding of blood but in doing good, in preserving his people, yea, in keeping the commandments of God, yea, and resisting iniquity. <sup>48:17</sup>Yea, verily, verily I say unto you, if all men had been, and were, and ever would be, like unto Moroni, behold, the very powers of hell would have been shaken forever; yea, the devil would never have power over the hearts of the children of men.

<sup>48:18</sup>Behold, he was a man like unto Ammon, the son of Mosiah, yea, and even the other sons of Mosiah, yea, and also Alma and his sons, for they were all men of God. <sup>48:19</sup>Now behold, Helaman and his brethren were no less serviceable unto the people than was Moroni; for they did preach the word of God, and they did baptize unto repentance all men whosoever would hearken unto their words.

<sup>48:20</sup>And thus they went forth, and the people did humble themselves because of their words, insomuch that they were highly favored of the Lord, and thus they were free from wars and contentions among themselves, yea, even for the space of four years. <sup>48:21</sup>But, as I have said, in the latter end of the nineteenth year, yea, notwithstanding their peace amongst themselves, they were compelled reluctantly to contend with their brethren, the Lamanites. <sup>48:22</sup>Yea, and in fine, their wars never did cease for the space of many years with the Lamanites, notwithstanding their much reluctance. <sup>48:23</sup>Now, they were sorry to take up arms against the Lamanites, because they did not delight in the shedding of blood; yea, and this was not all—they were sorry to be the means of sending so many of their brethren out of this world into an eternal world, unprepared to meet their God. <sup>48:24</sup>Nevertheless, they could not suffer to lay down their lives, that their wives and their children should be massacred by the barbarous cruelty of those who were once their brethren, yea, and had dissented from their church, and had left them and had gone to destroy them by joining the Lamanites. <sup>48:25</sup>Yea, they could not bear that their brethren should rejoice over the blood of the Nephites, so long as there were any who should keep the commandments of God, for the promise of the Lord was, if they should keep his commandments they should prosper in the land. <sup>49:1</sup>And now it came to pass in the eleventh month of the nineteenth year, on the tenth day of the month, the armies of the Lamanites were seen approaching towards the land of Ammonihah. <sup>49:2</sup>And behold, the city had been rebuilt, and Moroni had stationed an army by the borders of the city, and they had cast up dirt round about to shield them from the arrows and the stones of the Lamanites; for behold, they fought with stones and with arrows. <sup>49:3</sup>Behold, I said that the city of Ammonihah had been rebuilt. I say unto you, yea, that it was in part rebuilt; and because the Lamanites had destroyed it once because of the iniquity of the people, they supposed that it would again become an easy prey for them. <sup>49:4</sup>But behold, how great was their disappointment; for behold, the Nephites had dug up a ridge of earth round about them, which was so high that the Lamanites could not cast their stones and their arrows at them that they might take effect, neither could they come upon them save it was by their place of entrance. <sup>49:5</sup>Now at this time the chief captains of the Lamanites were astonished exceedingly, because of the wisdom of the Nephites in preparing their places of security. <sup>49:6</sup>Now the leaders of the Lamanites had supposed, because of the greatness of their numbers, yea, they supposed that they should be privileged to come upon them as they had hitherto done; yea, and they had also prepared themselves with shields, and with breastplates; and they had also prepared themselves with garments of skins, yea, very thick garments to cover their nakedness. <sup>49:7</sup>And being thus prepared they supposed that they should easily overpower and subject their brethren to the yoke of bondage, or slay and massacre them according to their pleasure. <sup>49:8</sup>But behold, to their uttermost astonishment, they were prepared for them, in a manner which never had been known among the children of Lehi. Now they were prepared for the Lamanites, to battle after the manner of the instructions of Moroni. <sup>49:9</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites, or the Amalickiahites, were exceedingly astonished at their manner of preparation for war. <sup>49:10</sup>Now, if king Amalickiah had come down out of the land of Nephi, at the head of his army, perhaps he would have caused the Lamanites to have attacked the Nephites at the city of Ammonihah; for behold, he did care not for the blood of his people. <sup>49:11</sup>But behold, Amalickiah did not come down himself to battle. And behold, his chief captains durst not attack the Nephites at the city of Ammonihah, for Moroni had altered the management of affairs among the Nephites, insomuch that the Lamanites were disappointed in their places of retreat and they could not come upon them. <sup>49:12</sup>Therefore they retreated into the wilderness, and took their camp and marched towards the land of Noah, supposing that to be the next best place for them to come against the Nephites. <sup>49:13</sup>For they knew not that Moroni had fortified, or had built forts of security, for every city in all the land round about; therefore, they marched forward to the land of Noah with a firm determination; yea, their chief captains came forward and took an oath that they would destroy the people of that city. <sup>49:14</sup>But behold, to their astonishment, the city of Noah, which had hitherto been a weak place, had now, by the means of Moroni, become strong, yea, even to exceed the strength of the city Ammonihah. <sup>49:15</sup>And now, behold, this was wisdom in Moroni; for he had supposed that they would be frightened at the city Ammonihah; and as the city of Noah had hitherto been the weakest part of the land, therefore they would march thither to battle; and thus it was according to his desires. <sup>49:16</sup>And behold, Moroni had appointed Lehi to be chief captain over the men of that city; and it was that same Lehi who fought with the Lamanites in the valley on the east of the river Sidon. <sup>49:17</sup>And now behold it came to pass, that when the Lamanites had found that Lehi commanded the city they were again disappointed, for they feared Lehi exceedingly; nevertheless their chief captains had sworn with an oath to attack the city; therefore, they brought up their armies. <sup>49:18</sup>Now behold, the Lamanites could not get into their forts of security by any other way save by the entrance, because of the highness of the bank which had been thrown up, and the depth of the ditch which had been dug round about, save it were by the entrance. <sup>49:19</sup>And thus were the Nephites prepared to destroy all such as should attempt to climb up to enter the fort by any other way, by casting over stones and arrows at them. <sup>49:20</sup>Thus they were prepared, yea, a body of their strongest men, with their swords and their slings, to smite down all who should attempt to come into their place of security by the place of entrance; and thus were they prepared to defend themselves against the Lamanites.

<sup>49:21</sup>And it came to pass that the captains of the Lamanites brought up their armies before the place of entrance, and began to contend with the Nephites, to get into their place of security; but behold, they were driven back from time to time, insomuch that they were slain with an immense slaughter. <sup>49:22</sup>Now when they found that they could not obtain power over the Nephites by the pass, they began to dig down their banks of earth that they might obtain a pass to their armies, that they might have an equal chance to fight; but behold, in these attempts they were swept off by the stones and arrows which were thrown at them; and instead of filling up their ditches by pulling down the banks of earth, they were filled up in a measure with their dead and wounded bodies. <sup>49:23</sup>Thus the Nephites had all power over their enemies; and thus the Lamanites did attempt to destroy the Nephites until their chief captains were all slain; yea, and more than a thousand of the Lamanites were slain; while, on the other hand, there was not a single soul of the Nephites which was slain. <sup>49:24</sup>There were about fifty who were wounded, who had been exposed to the arrows of the Lamanites through the pass, but they were shielded by their shields, and their breastplates, and their head-plates, insomuch that their wounds were upon their legs, many of which were very severe. <sup>49:25</sup>And it came to pass, that when the Lamanites saw that their chief captains were all slain they fled into the wilderness. And it came to pass that they returned to the land of Nephi, to inform their king, Amalickiah, who was a Nephite by birth, concerning their great loss. <sup>49:26</sup>And it came to pass that he was exceedingly angry with his people, because he had not obtained his desire over the Nephites; he had not subjected them to the yoke of bondage. <sup>49:27</sup>Yea, he was exceedingly wroth, and he did curse God, and also Moroni, swearing with an oath that he would drink his blood; and this because Moroni had kept the commandments of God in preparing for the safety of his people. <sup>49:28</sup>And it came to pass, that on the other hand, the people of Nephi did thank the Lord their God, because of his matchless power in delivering them from the hands of their enemies. <sup>49:29</sup>And thus ended the nineteenth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>49:30</sup>Yea, and there was continual peace among them, and exceedingly great prosperity in the church because of their heed and diligence which they gave unto the word of God, which was declared unto them by Helaman, and Shiblon, and Corianton, and Ammon and his brethren, yea, and by all those who had been ordained by the holy order of God, being baptized unto repentance, and sent forth to preach among the people. <sup><XXII>50:1</sup>And now it came to pass that Moroni did not stop making preparations for war, or to defend his people against the Lamanites; for he caused that his armies should commence in the commencement of the twentieth year of the reign of the judges, that they should commence in digging up heaps of earth round about all the cities, throughout all the land which was possessed by the Nephites. <sup>50:2</sup>And upon the top of these ridges of earth he caused that there should be timbers, yea, works of timbers built up to the height of a man, round about the cities. <sup>50:3</sup>And he caused that upon those works of timbers there should be a frame of pickets built upon the timbers round about; and they were strong and high. <sup>50:4</sup>And he caused towers to be erected that overlooked those works of pickets, and he caused places of security to be built upon those towers, that the stones and the arrows of the Lamanites could not hurt them. <sup>50:5</sup>And they were prepared that they could cast stones from the top thereof, according to their pleasure and their strength, and slay him who should attempt to approach near the walls of the city. <sup>50:6</sup>Thus Moroni did prepare strongholds against the coming of their enemies, round about every city in all the land. <sup>50:7</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni caused that his armies should go forth into the east wilderness; yea, and they went forth and drove all the Lamanites who were in the east wilderness into their own lands, which were south of the land of Zarahemla. <sup>50:8</sup>And the land of Nephi did run in a straight course from the east sea to the west. <sup>50:9</sup>And it came to pass that when Moroni had driven all the Lamanites out of the east wilderness, which was north of the lands of their own possessions, he caused that the inhabitants who were in the land of Zarahemla and in the land round about should go forth into the east wilderness, even to the borders by the seashore, and possess the land. <sup>50:10</sup>And he also placed armies on the south, in the borders of their possessions, and caused them to erect fortifications that they might secure their armies and their people from the hands of their enemies. <sup>50:11</sup>And thus he cut off all the strongholds of the Lamanites in the east wilderness, yea, and also on the west, fortifying the line between the Nephites and the Lamanites, between the land of Zarahemla and the land of Nephi, from the west sea, running by the head of the river Sidon—the Nephites possessing all the land northward, yea, even all the land which was northward of the land Bountiful, according to their pleasure. <sup>50:12</sup>Thus Moroni, with his armies, which did increase daily because of the assurance of protection which his works did bring forth unto them, did seek to cut off the strength and the power of the Lamanites from off the lands of their possessions, that they should have no power upon the lands of their possession. <sup>50:13</sup>And it came to pass that the Nephites began the foundation of a city, and they called the name of the city Moroni; and it was by the east sea; and it was on the south by the line of the possessions of the Lamanites. <sup>50:14</sup>And they also began a foundation for a city between the city of Moroni and the city of Aaron, joining the borders of Aaron and Moroni; and they called the name of the city, or the land, Nephahah. <sup>50:15</sup>And they also began in that same year to build many cities on the north, one in a particular manner which they called Lehi, which was in the north by the borders of the seashore. <sup>50:16</sup>And thus ended the twentieth year. <sup>50:17</sup>And in these prosperous circumstances were the people of Nephi in the commencement of the twenty and first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>50:18</sup>And they did prosper exceedingly, and they became exceedingly rich; yea, and they did multiply and wax strong in the land. <sup>50:19</sup>And thus we see how merciful and just are all the dealings of the Lord, to the fulfilling of all his words unto the children of men; yea, we can behold that his words are verified, even at this time, which he spake unto Lehi, saying: <sup>50:20</sup>Blessed art thou and thy children; and they shall be blessed, inasmuch as they shall keep my commandments they shall prosper in the land. But remember, inasmuch as they will not keep my commandments they shall be cut off from the presence of the Lord. <sup>50:21</sup>And we see that these promises have been verified to the people of Nephi; for it has been their quarrelings and their contentions, yea, their murderings, and their plunderings, their idolatry, their whoredoms, and their abominations, which were among themselves, which brought upon them their wars and their destructions. <sup>50:22</sup>And those who were faithful in keeping the commandments of the Lord were delivered at all times, whilst thousands of their wicked brethren have been consigned to bondage, or to perish by the sword, or to dwindle in unbelief, and mingle with the Lamanites. <sup>50:23</sup>But behold there never was a happier time among the people of Nephi, since the days of Nephi, than in the days of Moroni, yea, even at this time, in the twenty and first year of the reign of the judges. <sup>50:24</sup>And it came to pass that the twenty and second year of the reign of the judges also ended in peace; yea, and also the twenty and third year. <sup>50:25</sup>And it came to pass that in the commencement of the twenty and fourth year of the reign of the judges, there would also have been peace among the people of Nephi had it not been for a contention which took place among them concerning the land of Lehi, and the land of Morianton, which joined upon the borders of Lehi; both of which were on the borders by the seashore. <sup>50:26</sup>For behold, the people who possessed the land of Morianton did claim a part of the land of Lehi; therefore there began to be a warm contention between them, insomuch that the people of Morianton took up arms against their brethren, and they were determined by the sword to slay them. <sup>50:27</sup>But behold, the people who possessed the land of Lehi fled to the camp of Moroni, and appealed unto him for assistance; for behold they were not in the wrong. <sup>50:28</sup>And it came to pass that when the people of Morianton, who were led by a man whose name was Morianton, found that the people of Lehi had fled to the camp of Moroni, they were exceedingly fearful lest the army of Moroni should come upon them and destroy them. <sup>50:29</sup>Therefore, Morianton put it into their hearts that they should flee to the land which was northward, which was covered with large bodies of water, and take possession of the land which was northward. <sup>50:30</sup>And behold, they would have carried this plan into effect, (which would have been a cause to have been lamented) but behold, Morianton being a man of much passion, therefore he was angry with one of his maid servants, and he fell upon her and beat her much. <sup>50:31</sup>And it came to pass that she fled, and came over to the camp of Moroni, and told Moroni all things concerning the matter, and also concerning their intentions to flee into the land northward. <sup>50:32</sup>Now behold, the people who were in the land Bountiful, or rather Moroni, feared that they would hearken to the words of Morianton and unite with his people, and thus he would obtain possession of those parts of the land, which would lay a foundation for serious consequences among the people of Nephi, yea, which consequences would lead to the overthrow of their liberty. <sup>50:33</sup>Therefore Moroni sent an army, with their camp, to head the people of Morianton, to stop their flight into the land northward. <sup>50:34</sup>And it came to pass that they did not head them until they had come to the borders of the land Desolation; and there they did head them, by the narrow pass which led by the sea into the land northward, yea, by the sea, on the west and on the east. <sup>50:35</sup>And it came to pass that the army which was sent by Moroni, which was led by a man whose name was Teancum, did meet the people of Morianton; and so stubborn were the people of Morianton, (being inspired by his wickedness and his flattering words) that a battle commenced between them, in the which Teancum did slay Morianton and defeat his army, and took them prisoners, and returned to the camp of Moroni. And thus ended the twenty and fourth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>50:36</sup>And thus were the people of Morianton brought back. And upon their covenanting to keep the peace they were restored to the land of Morianton, and a union took place between them and the people of Lehi; and they were also restored to their lands. <sup>50:37</sup>And it came to pass that in the same year that the people of Nephi had peace restored unto them, that Nephiah, the second chief judge, died, having filled the judgment-seat with perfect uprightness before God. <sup>50:38</sup>Nevertheless, he had refused Alma to take possession of those records and those things which were esteemed by Alma and his fathers to be most sacred; therefore Alma had conferred them upon his son, Helaman. <sup>50:39</sup>Behold, it came to pass that the son of Nephiah was appointed to fill the judgment-seat, in the stead of his father; yea, he was appointed chief judge and governor over the people, with an oath and sacred ordinance to judge righteously, and to keep the peace and the freedom of the people, and to grant unto them their sacred privileges to worship the Lord their God, yea, to support and maintain the cause of God all his days, and to bring the wicked to justice according to their crime. <sup>50:40</sup>Now behold, his name was Pahoran. And Pahoran did fill the seat of his father, and did commence his reign in the end of the twenty and fourth year, over the people of Nephi.

<XXIII><sup>51:1</sup> And now it came to pass in the commencement of the twenty and fifth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, they having established peace between the people of Lehi and the people of Morianton concerning their lands, and having commenced the twenty and fifth year in peace; <sup>51:2</sup>nevertheless, they did not long maintain an entire peace in the land, for there began to be a contention among the people concerning the chief judge Pahoran; for behold, there were a part of the people who desired that a few particular points of the law should be altered. <sup>51:3</sup>But behold, Pahoran would not alter nor suffer the law to be altered; therefore, he did not hearken to those who had sent in their voices with their petitions concerning the altering of the law. <sup>51:4</sup>Therefore, those who were desirous that the law should be altered were angry with him, and desired that he should no longer be chief judge over the land; therefore there arose a warm dispute concerning the matter, but not unto bloodshed. <sup>51:5</sup>And it came to pass that those who were desirous that Pahoran should be dethroned from the judgment-seat were called king-men, for they were desirous that the law should be altered in a manner to overthrow the free government and to establish a king over the land. <sup>51:6</sup>And those who were desirous that Pahoran should remain chief judge over the land took upon them the name of freemen; and thus was the division among them, for the freemen had sworn or covenanted to maintain their rights and the privileges of their religion by a free government. <sup>51:7</sup>And it came to pass that this matter of their contention was settled by the voice of the people. And it came to pass that the voice of the people came in favor of the freemen, and Pahoran retained the judgment-seat, which caused much rejoicing among the brethren of Pahoran and also many of the people of liberty, who also put the king-men to silence, that they durst not oppose but were obliged to maintain the cause of freedom. <sup>51:8</sup>Now those who were in favor of kings were those of high birth, and they sought to be kings; and they were supported by those who sought power and authority over the people. <sup>51:9</sup>But behold, this was a critical time for such contentions to be among the people of Nephi; for behold, Amalickiah had again stirred up the hearts of the people of the Lamanites against the people of the Nephites, and he was gathering together soldiers from all parts of his land, and arming them, and preparing for war with all diligence; for he had sworn to drink the blood of Moroni. <sup>51:10</sup>But behold, we shall see that his promise which he made was rash; nevertheless, he did prepare himself and his armies to come to battle against the Nephites. <sup>51:11</sup>Now his armies were not so great as they had hitherto been, because of the many thousands who had been slain by the hand of the Nephites; but notwithstanding their great loss, Amalickiah had gathered together a wonderfully great army, insomuch that he feared not to come down to the land of Zarahemla. <sup>51:12</sup>Yea, even Amalickiah did himself come down, at the head of the Lamanites. And it was in the twenty and fifth year of the reign of the judges; and it was at the same time that they had begun to settle the affairs of their contentions concerning the chief judge, Pahoran. <sup>51:13</sup>And it came to pass that when the men who were called king-men had heard that the Lamanites were coming down to battle against them, they were glad in their hearts; and they refused to take up arms, for they were so wroth with the chief judge, and also with the people of liberty, that they would not take up arms to defend their country. <sup>51:14</sup>And it came to pass that when Moroni saw this, and also saw that the Lamanites were coming into the borders of the land, he was exceedingly wroth because of the stubbornness of those people whom he had labored with so much diligence to preserve; yea, he was exceedingly wroth; his soul was filled with anger against them. <sup>51:15</sup>And it came to pass that he sent a petition, with the voice of the people, unto the governor of the land, desiring that he should read it, and give him (Moroni) power to compel those dissenters to defend their country or to put them to death. <sup>51:16</sup>For it was his first care to put an end to such contentions and dissensions among the people; for behold, this had been hitherto a cause of all their destruction. And it came to pass that it was granted according to the voice of the people. <sup>51:17</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni commanded that his army should go against those king-men, to pull down their pride and their nobility and level them with the earth, or they should take up arms and support the cause of liberty. <sup>51:18</sup>And it came to pass that the armies did march forth against them; and they did pull down their pride and their nobility, insomuch that as they did lift their weapons of war to fight against the men of Moroni they were hewn down and leveled to the earth. <sup>51:19</sup>And it came to pass that there were four thousand of those dissenters who were hewn down by the sword; and those of their leaders who were not slain in battle were taken and cast into prison, for there was no time for their trials at this period. <sup>51:20</sup>And the remainder of those dissenters, rather than be smitten down to the earth by the sword, yielded to the standard of liberty, and were compelled to hoist the title of liberty upon their towers, and in their cities, and to take up arms in defence of their country. <sup>51:21</sup>And thus Moroni put an end to those king-men, that there were not any known by the appellation of king-men; and thus he put an end to the stubbornness and the pride of those people who professed the blood of nobility; but they were brought down to humble themselves like unto their brethren, and to fight valiantly for their freedom from bondage. <sup>51:22</sup>Behold, it came to pass that while Moroni was thus breaking down the wars and contentions among his own people, and subjecting them to peace and civilization, and making regulations to prepare for war against the Lamanites, behold, the Lamanites had come into the land of Moroni, which was in the borders by the seashore. <sup>51:23</sup>And it came to pass that the Nephites were not sufficiently strong in the city of Moroni; therefore Amalickiah did drive them, slaying many. And it came to pass that Amalickiah took possession of the city, yea, possession of all their fortifications. <sup>51:24</sup>And those who fled out of the city of Moroni came to the city of Nephihah; and also the people of the city of Lehi gathered themselves together, and made preparations and were ready to receive the Lamanites to battle. <sup>51:25</sup>But it came to pass that Amalickiah would not suffer the Lamanites to go against the city of Nephihah to battle, but kept them down by the seashore, leaving men in every city to maintain and defend it. <sup>51:26</sup>And thus he went on, taking possession of many cities, the city of Nephihah, and the city of Lehi, and the city of Morianton, and the city of Omner, and the city of Gid, and the city of Mulek, all of which were on the east borders by the seashore. <sup>51:27</sup>And thus had the Lamanites obtained, by the cunning of Amalickiah, so many cities, by their numberless hosts, all of which were strongly fortified after the manner of the fortifications of Moroni; all of which afforded strongholds for the Lamanites. <sup>51:28</sup>And it came to pass that they marched to the borders of the land Bountiful, driving the Nephites before them and slaying many. <sup>51:29</sup>But it came to pass that they were met by Teancum, who had slain Morianton and had headed his people in his flight. <sup>51:30</sup>And it came to pass that he headed Amalickiah also, as he was marching forth with his numerous army that he might take possession of the land Bountiful, and also the land northward. <sup>51:31</sup>But behold he met with a disappointment by being repulsed by Teancum and his men, for they were great warriors; for every man of Teancum did exceed the Lamanites in their strength and in their skill of war, insomuch that they did gain advantage over the Lamanites. <sup>51:32</sup>And it came to pass that they did harass them, insomuch that they did slay them even until it was dark. And it came to pass that Teancum and his men did pitch their tents in the borders of the land Bountiful; and Amalickiah did pitch his tents in the borders on the beach by the seashore, and after this manner were they driven. <sup>51:33</sup>And it came to pass that when the night had come, Teancum and his servant stole forth and went out by night, and went into the camp of Amalickiah; and behold, sleep had overpowered them because of their much fatigue, which was caused by the labors and heat of the day. <sup>51:34</sup>And it came to pass that Teancum stole privily into the tent of the king, and put a javelin to his heart; and he did cause the death of the king immediately that he did not awake his servants. <sup>51:35</sup>And he returned again privily to his own camp, and behold, his men were asleep, and he awoke them and told them all the things that he had done. <sup>51:36</sup>And he caused that his armies should stand in readiness, lest the Lamanites had awakened and should come upon them. <sup>51:37</sup>And thus endeth the twenty and fifth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi; and thus endeth the days of Amalickiah. <sup><XXIV>52:1</sup>And now, it came to pass in the twenty and sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, behold, when the Lamanites awoke on the first morning of the first month, behold, they found Amalickiah was dead in his own tent; and they also saw that Teancum was ready to give them battle on that day. <sup>52:2</sup>And now, when the Lamanites saw this they were affrighted; and they abandoned their design in marching into the land northward, and retreated with all their army into the city of Mulek, and sought protection in their fortifications. <sup>52:3</sup>And it came to pass that the brother of Amalickiah was appointed king over the people; and his name was Ammoron; thus king Ammoron, the brother of king Amalickiah, was appointed to reign in his stead. <sup>52:4</sup>And it came to pass that he did command that his people should maintain those cities, which they had taken by the shedding of blood; for they had not taken any cities save they had lost much blood. <sup>52:5</sup>And now, Teancum saw that the Lamanites were determined to maintain those cities which they had taken, and those parts of the land which they had obtained possession of; and also seeing the enormity of their number, Teancum thought it was not expedient that he should attempt to attack them in their forts. <sup>52:6</sup>But he kept his men round about, as if making preparations for war; yea, and truly he was preparing to defend himself against them, by casting up walls round about and preparing places of resort. <sup>52:7</sup>And it came to pass that he kept thus preparing for war until Moroni had sent a large number of men to strengthen his army. <sup>52:8</sup>And Moroni also sent orders unto him that he should retain all the prisoners who fell into his hands; for as the Lamanites had taken many prisoners, that he should retain all the prisoners of the Lamanites as a ransom for those whom the Lamanites had taken. <sup>52:9</sup>And he also sent orders unto him that he should fortify the land Bountiful, and secure the narrow pass which led into the land northward, lest the Lamanites should obtain that point and should have power to harass them on every side. <sup>52:10</sup>And Moroni also sent unto him, desiring him that he would be faithful in maintaining that quarter of the land, and that he would seek every opportunity to scourge the Lamanites in that quarter, as much as was in his power, that perhaps he might take again by stratagem or some other way those cities which had been taken out of their hands; and that he also would fortify and strengthen the cities round about, which had not fallen into the hands of the Lamanites. <sup>52:11</sup>And he also said unto him, I would come unto you, but behold, the Lamanites are upon us in the borders of the land by the west sea; and behold, I go against them, therefore I cannot come unto you. <sup>52:12</sup>Now, the king (Ammoron) had departed out of the land of Zarahemla, and had made known unto the queen concerning the death of his brother, and had gathered together a large number of men, and had marched forth against the Nephites on the borders by the west sea. <sup>52:13</sup>And thus he was endeavoring to harass the Nephites, and to draw away a part of their forces to that part of the land, while he had commanded those whom he had left to possess the cities which he had taken, that they should also harass the Nephites on the borders by the east sea, and should take possession of their lands as much as it was in their power, according to the power of their armies. <sup>52:14</sup>And thus were the Nephites in those dangerous circumstances in the ending of the twenty and sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>52:15</sup>But behold, it came to pass in the twenty and seventh year of the reign of the judges, that Teancum, by the command of Moroni — who had established armies to protect the south and the west borders of the land, and had begun his march towards the land Bountiful, that he might assist Teancum with his men in retaking the cities which they had lost — <sup>52:16</sup>and it came to pass that Teancum had received orders to make an attack upon the city of Mulek, and retake it if it were possible. <sup>52:17</sup>And it came to pass that Teancum made preparations to make an attack upon the city of Mulek, and march forth with his army against the Lamanites; but he saw that it was impossible that he could overpower them while they were in their fortifications; therefore he abandoned his designs and returned again to the city Bountiful, to wait for the coming of Moroni, that he might receive strength to his army. <sup>52:18</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni did arrive with his army at the land of Bountiful, in the latter end of the twenty and seventh year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>52:19</sup>And in the commencement of the twenty and eighth year, Moroni and Teancum and many of the chief captains held a council of war — what they should do to cause the Lamanites to come out against them to battle; or that they might by some means flatter them out of their strongholds, that they might gain advantage over them and take again the city of Mulek. <sup>52:20</sup>And it came to pass they sent embassies to the army of the Lamanites, which protected the city of Mulek, to their leader, whose name was Jacob, desiring him that he would come out with his armies to meet them upon the plains between the two cities. But behold, Jacob, who was a Zoramite, would not come out with his army to meet them upon the plains. <sup>52:21</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni, having no hopes of meeting them upon fair grounds, therefore, he resolved upon a plan that he might decoy the Lamanites out of their strongholds. <sup>52:22</sup>Therefore he caused that Teancum should take a small number of men and march down near the seashore; and Moroni and his army, by night, marched in the wilderness, on the west of the city Mulek; and thus, on the morrow, when the guards of the Lamanites had discovered Teancum, they ran and told it unto Jacob, their leader. <sup>52:23</sup>And it came to pass that the armies of the Lamanites did march forth against Teancum, supposing by their numbers to overpower Teancum because of the smallness of his numbers. And as Teancum saw the armies of the Lamanites coming out against him he began to retreat down by the seashore, northward. <sup>52:24</sup>And it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that he began to flee, they took courage and pursued them with vigor. And while Teancum was thus leading away the Lamanites who were pursuing them in vain, behold, Moroni commanded that a part of his army who were with him should march forth into the city, and take possession of it. <sup>52:25</sup>And thus they did, and slew all those who had been left to protect the city, yea, all those who would not yield up their weapons of war. <sup>52:26</sup>And thus Moroni had obtained possession of the city Mulek with a part of his army, while he marched with the remainder to meet the Lamanites when they should return from the pursuit of Teancum. <sup>52:27</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites did pursue Teancum until they came near the city Bountiful, and then they were met by Lehi and a small army, which had been left to protect the city Bountiful. <sup>52:28</sup>And now behold, when the chief captains of the Lamanites had beheld Lehi with his army coming against them, they fled in much confusion, lest perhaps they should not obtain the city Mulek before Lehi should overtake them; for they were wearied because of their march, and the men of Lehi were fresh. <sup>52:29</sup>Now the Lamanites did not know that Moroni had been in their rear with his army; and all they feared was Lehi and his men. <sup>52:30</sup>Now Lehi was not desirous to overtake them till they should meet Moroni and his army. <sup>52:31</sup>And it came to pass that before the Lamanites had retreated far they were surrounded by the Nephites, by the men of Moroni on one hand, and the men of Lehi on the other, all of whom were fresh and full of strength; but the Lamanites were wearied because of their long march. <sup>52:32</sup>And Moroni commanded his men that they should fall upon them until they had given up their weapons of war. <sup>52:33</sup>And it came to pass that Jacob, being their leader, being also a Zoramite, and having an unconquerable spirit, he led the Lamanites forth to battle with exceeding fury against Moroni. <sup>52:34</sup>Moroni being in their course of march, therefore Jacob was determined to slay them and cut his way through to the city of Mulek. But behold, Moroni and his men were more powerful; therefore they did not give way before the Lamanites. <sup>52:35</sup>And it came to pass that they fought on both hands with exceeding fury; and there were many slain on both sides; yea, and Moroni was wounded and Jacob was killed. <sup>52:36</sup>And Lehi pressed upon their rear with such fury with his strong men, that the Lamanites in the rear delivered up their weapons of war; and the remainder of them, being much confused, knew not whither to go or to strike. <sup>52:37</sup>Now Moroni seeing their confusion, he said unto them: If ye will bring forth your weapons of war and deliver them up, behold we will forbear shedding your blood. <sup>52:38</sup>And it came to pass that when the Lamanites had heard these words, their chief captains, all those who were not slain, came forth and threw down their weapons of war at the feet of Moroni, and also commanded their men that they should do the same. <sup>52:39</sup>But behold, there were many that would not; and those who would not deliver up their swords were taken and bound, and their weapons of war were taken from them, and they were compelled to march with their brethren forth into the land Bountiful. <sup>52:40</sup>And now the number of prisoners who were taken exceeded more than the number of those who had been slain, yea, more than those who had been slain on both sides. <sup>53:1</sup>And it came to pass that they did set guards over the prisoners of the Lamanites, and did compel them to go forth and bury their dead, yea, and also the dead of the Nephites who were slain; and Moroni placed men over them to guard them while they should perform their labors. <sup>53:2</sup>And Moroni went to the city of Mulek with Lehi, and took command of the city and gave it unto Lehi. Now behold, this Lehi was a man who had been with Moroni in the more part of all his battles; and he was a man like unto Moroni, and they rejoiced in each other's safety; yea, they were beloved by each other, and also beloved by all the people of Nephi. <sup>53:3</sup>And it came to pass that after the Lamanites had finished burying their dead and also the dead of the Nephites, they were marched back into the land Bountiful; and Teancum, by the orders of Moroni, caused that they should commence laboring in digging a ditch round about the land, or the city, Bountiful. <sup>53:4</sup>And he caused that they should build a breastwork of timbers upon the inner bank of the ditch; and they cast up dirt out of the ditch against the breastwork of timbers; and thus they did cause the Lamanites to labor until they had encircled the city of Bountiful round about with a strong wall of timbers and earth, to an exceeding height. <sup>53:5</sup>And this city became an exceeding stronghold ever after; and in this city they did guard the prisoners of the Lamanites; yea, even within a wall which they had caused them to build with their own hands. Now Moroni was compelled to cause the Lamanites to labor, because it was easy to guard them while at their labor; and he desired all his forces when he should make an attack upon the Lamanites. <sup>53:6</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni had thus gained a victory over one of the greatest of the armies of the Lamanites, and had obtained possession of the city of Mulek, which was one of the strongest holds of the Lamanites in the land of Nephi; and thus he had also built a stronghold to retain his prisoners. <sup>53:7</sup>And it came to pass that he did no more attempt a battle with the Lamanites in that year, but he did employ his men in preparing for war, yea, and in making fortifications to guard against the Lamanites, yea, and also delivering their women and their children from famine and affliction, and providing food for their armies. <sup>53:8</sup>And now it came to pass that the armies of the Lamanites, on the west sea, south, while in the absence of Moroni on account of some intrigue amongst the Nephites, which caused dissensions amongst them, had gained some ground over the Nephites, yea, insomuch that they had obtained possession of a number of their cities in that part of the land. <sup>53:9</sup>And thus because of iniquity amongst themselves, yea, because of dissensions and intrigue among themselves they were placed in the most dangerous circumstances. <sup>53:10</sup>And now behold, I have somewhat to say concerning the people of Ammon, who, in the beginning, were Lamanites; but by Ammon and his brethren, or rather by the power and word of God, they had been converted unto the Lord; and they had been brought down into the land of Zarahemla, and had ever since been protected by the Nephites. <sup>53:11</sup>And because of their oath they had been kept from taking up arms against their brethren; for they had taken an oath that they never would shed blood more; and according to their oath they would have perished; yea, they would have suffered themselves to have fallen into the hands of their brethren, had it not been for the pity and the exceeding love which Ammon and his brethren had had for them. <sup>53:12</sup>And for this cause they were brought down into the land of Zarahemla; and they ever had been protected by the Nephites. <sup>53:13</sup>But it came to pass that when they saw the danger, and the many afflictions and tribulations which the Nephites bore for them, they were moved with compassion and were desirous to take up arms in the defence of their country. <sup>53:14</sup>But behold, as they were about to take their weapons of war, they were overpowered by the persuasions of Helaman and his brethren, for they were about to break the oath which they had made. <sup>53:15</sup>And Helaman feared lest by so doing they should lose their souls; therefore all those who had entered into this covenant were compelled to behold their brethren wade through their afflictions, in their dangerous circumstances at this time. <sup>53:16</sup>But behold, it came to pass they had many sons, who had not entered into a covenant that they would not take their weapons of war to defend themselves against their enemies; therefore they did assemble themselves together at this time, as many as were able to take up arms, and they called themselves Nephites. <sup>53:17</sup>And they entered into a covenant to fight for the liberty of the Nephites, yea, to protect the land unto the laying down of their lives; yea, even they covenanted that they never would give up their liberty, but they would fight in all cases to protect the Nephites and themselves from bondage. <sup>53:18</sup>Now behold, there were two thousand of those young men, who entered into this covenant and took their weapons of war to defend their country. <sup>53:19</sup>And now behold, as they never had hitherto been a disadvantage to the Nephites, they became now at this period of time also a great support; for they took their weapons of war, and they would that Helaman should be their leader. <sup>53:20</sup>And they were all young men, and they were exceedingly valiant for courage, and also for strength and activity; but behold, this was not all—they were men who were true at all times in whatsoever thing they were entrusted. <sup>53:21</sup>Yea, they were men of truth and soberness, for they had been taught to keep the commandments of God and to walk uprightly before him. <sup>53:22</sup>And now it came to pass that Helaman did march at the head of his two thousand stripling soldiers, to the support of the people in the borders of the land on the south by the west sea. <sup>53:23</sup>And thus ended the twenty and eighth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup><XXV>54:1</sup>And now it came to pass in the commencement of the twenty and ninth year of the judges, that Ammoron sent unto Moroni desiring that he would exchange prisoners. <sup>54:2</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni felt to rejoice exceedingly at this request, for he desired the provisions which were imparted for the support of the Lamanite prisoners for the support of his own people; and he also desired his own people for the strengthening of his army. <sup>54:3</sup>Now the Lamanites had taken many women and children, and there was not a woman nor a child among all the prisoners of Moroni, or the prisoners whom Moroni had taken; therefore Moroni resolved upon a stratagem to obtain as many prisoners of the Nephites from the Lamanites as it were possible. <sup>54:4</sup>Therefore he wrote an epistle, and sent it by the servant of Ammoron, the same who had brought an epistle to Moroni. Now these are the words which he wrote unto Ammoron, saying: <sup>54:5</sup>Behold, Ammoron, I have written unto you somewhat concerning this war which ye have waged against my people, or rather which thy brother hath waged against them, and which ye are still determined to carry on after his death. <sup>54:6</sup>Behold, I would tell you somewhat concerning the justice of God, and the sword of his almighty wrath, which doth hang over you except ye repent and withdraw your armies into your own lands, or the land of your possessions, which is the land of Nephi. <sup>54:7</sup>Yea, I would tell you these things if ye were capable of hearkening unto them; yea, I would tell you concerning that awful hell that awaits to receive such murderers as thou and thy brother have been, except ye repent and withdraw your murderous purposes, and return with your armies to your own lands. <sup>54:8</sup>But as ye have once rejected these things, and have fought against the people of the Lord, even so I may expect you will do it again. <sup>54:9</sup>And now behold, we are prepared to receive you; yea, and except you withdraw your purposes, behold, ye will pull down the wrath of that God whom you have rejected upon you, even to your utter destruction. <sup>54:10</sup>But, as the Lord liveth, our armies shall come upon you except ye withdraw, and ye shall soon be visited with death, for we will retain our cities and our lands; yea, and we will maintain our religion and the cause of our God. <sup>54:11</sup>But behold, it supposeth me that I talk to you concerning these things in vain; or it supposeth me that thou art a child of hell; therefore I will close my epistle by telling you that I will not exchange prisoners, save it be on conditions that ye will deliver up a man and his wife and his children, for one prisoner; if this be the case that ye will do it, I will exchange. <sup>54:12</sup>And behold, if ye do not this, I will come against you with my armies; yea, even I will arm my women and my children, and I will come against you, and I will follow you even into your own land, which is the land of our first inheritance; yea, and it shall be blood for blood, yea, life for life; and I will give you battle even until you are destroyed from off the face of the earth. <sup>54:13</sup>Behold, I am in my anger, and also my people; ye have sought to murder us, and we have only sought to defend ourselves. But behold, if ye seek to destroy us more we will seek to destroy you; yea, and we will seek our land, the land of our first inheritance. <sup>54:14</sup>Now I close my epistle. I am Moroni; I am a leader of the people of the Nephites. <sup>54:15</sup>Now it came to pass that Ammoron, when he had received this epistle, was angry; and he wrote another epistle unto Moroni, and these are the words which he wrote, saying: <sup>54:16</sup>I am Ammoron, the king of the Lamanites; I am the brother of Amalickiah whom ye have murdered. Behold, I will avenge his blood upon you, yea, and I will come upon you with my armies for I fear not your threatenings. <sup>54:17</sup>For behold, your fathers did wrong their brethren, insomuch that they did rob them of their right to the government when it rightly belonged unto them. <sup>54:18</sup>And now behold, if ye will lay down your arms, and subject yourselves to be governed by those to whom the government doth rightly belong, then will I cause that my people shall lay down their weapons and shall be at war no more. <sup>54:19</sup>Behold, ye have breathed out many threatenings against me and my people; but behold, we fear not your threatenings. <sup>54:20</sup>Nevertheless, I will grant to exchange prisoners according to your request, gladly, that I may preserve my food for my men of war; and we will wage a war which shall be eternal, either to the subjecting the Nephites to our authority or to their eternal extinction. <sup>54:21</sup>And as concerning that God whom ye say we have rejected, behold, we know not such a being; neither do ye; but if it so be that there is such a being, we know not but that he hath made us as well as you. <sup>54:22</sup>And if it so be that there is a devil and a hell, behold will he not send you there to dwell with my brother whom ye have murdered, whom ye have hinted that he hath gone to such a place? But behold these things matter not. <sup>54:23</sup>I am Ammoron, and a descendant of Zoram, whom your fathers pressed and brought out of Jerusalem. <sup>54:24</sup>And behold now, I am a bold Lamanite; behold, this war hath been waged to avenge their wrongs, and to maintain and to obtain their rights to the government; and I close my epistle to Moroni. <sup>55:1</sup>Now it came to pass that when Moroni had received this epistle he was more angry, because he knew that Ammoron had a perfect knowledge of his fraud; yea, he knew that Ammoron knew that it was not a just cause that had caused him to wage a war against the people of Nephi. <sup>55:2</sup>And he said: Behold, I will not exchange prisoners with Ammoron save he will withdraw his purpose, as I have stated in my epistle; for I will not grant unto him that he shall have any more power than what he hath got. <sup>55:3</sup>Behold, I know the place where the Lamanites do guard my people whom they have taken prisoners; and as Ammoron would not grant unto me mine epistle, behold, I will give unto him according to my words; yea, I will seek death among them until they shall sue for peace. <sup>55:4</sup>And now it came to pass that when Moroni had said these words, he caused that a search should be made among his men, that perhaps he might find a man who was a descendant of Laman among them. <sup>55:5</sup>And it came to pass that they found one, whose name was Laman; and he was one of the servants of the king who was murdered by Amalickiah. <sup>55:6</sup>Now Moroni caused that Laman and a small number of his men should go forth unto the guards who were over the

Nephites. <sup>55:7</sup>Now the Nephites were guarded in the city of Gid; therefore Moroni appointed Laman and caused that a small number of men should go with him. <sup>55:8</sup>And when it was evening Laman went to the guards who were over the Nephites, and behold, they saw him coming and they hailed him; but he saith unto them: Fear not; behold, I am a Lamanite. Behold, we have escaped from the Nephites, and they sleep; and behold we have taken of their wine and brought with us. <sup>55:9</sup>Now when the Lamanites heard these words they received him with joy; and they said unto him: Give us of your wine, that we may drink; we are glad that ye have thus taken wine with you for we are weary. <sup>55:10</sup>But Laman said unto them: Let us keep of our wine till we go against the Nephites to battle. But this saying only made them more desirous to drink of the wine; <sup>55:11</sup>for, said they: We are weary, therefore let us take of the wine, and by and by we shall receive wine for our rations, which will strengthen us to go against the Nephites. <sup>55:12</sup>And Laman said unto them: You may do according to your desires. <sup>55:13</sup>And it came to pass that they did take of the wine freely; and it was pleasant to their taste, therefore they took of it more freely; and it was strong, having been prepared in its strength. <sup>55:14</sup>And it came to pass they did drink and were merry, and by and by they were all drunken. <sup>55:15</sup>And now when Laman and his men saw that they were all drunken, and were in a deep sleep, they returned to Moroni and told him all the things that had happened. <sup>55:16</sup>And now this was according to the design of Moroni. And Moroni had prepared his men with weapons of war; and he went to the city Gid, while the Lamanites were in a deep sleep and drunken, and cast in weapons of war unto the prisoners, insomuch that they were all armed; <sup>55:17</sup>yea, even to their women, and all those of their children, as many as were able to use a weapon of war, when Moroni had armed all those prisoners; and all those things were done in a profound silence. <sup>55:18</sup>But had they awakened the Lamanites, behold they were drunken and the Nephites could have slain them. <sup>55:19</sup>But behold, this was not the desire of Moroni; he did not delight in murder or bloodshed, but he delighted in the saving of his people from destruction; and for this cause he might not bring upon him injustice, he would not fall upon the Lamanites and destroy them in their drunkenness. <sup>55:20</sup>But he had obtained his desires; for he had armed those prisoners of the Nephites who were within the wall of the city, and had given them power to gain possession of those parts which were within the walls. <sup>55:21</sup>And then he caused the men who were with him to withdraw a pace from them, and surround the armies of the Lamanites. <sup>55:22</sup>Now behold this was done in the night-time, so that when the Lamanites awoke in the morning they beheld that they were surrounded by the Nephites without, and that their prisoners were armed within. <sup>55:23</sup>And thus they saw that the Nephites had power over them; and in these circumstances they found that it was not expedient that they should fight with the Nephites; therefore their chief captains demanded their weapons of war, and they brought them forth and cast them at the feet of the Nephites, pleading for mercy. <sup>55:24</sup>Now behold, this was the desire of Moroni. He took them prisoners of war, and took possession of the city, and caused that all the prisoners should be liberated, who were Nephites; and they did join the army of Moroni, and were a great strength to his army. <sup>55:25</sup>And it came to pass that he did cause the Lamanites, whom he had taken prisoners, that they should commence a labor in strengthening the fortifications round about the city Gid. <sup>55:26</sup>And it came to pass that when he had fortified the city Gid, according to his desires, he caused that his prisoners should be taken to the city Bountiful; and he also guarded that city with an exceedingly strong force. <sup>55:27</sup>And it came to pass that they did, notwithstanding all the intrigues of the Lamanites, keep and protect all the prisoners whom they had taken, and also maintain all the ground and the advantage which they had retaken. <sup>55:28</sup>And it came to pass that the Nephites began again to be victorious, and to reclaim their rights and their privileges. <sup>55:29</sup>Many times did the Lamanites attempt to encircle them about by night, but in these attempts they did lose many prisoners. <sup>55:30</sup>And many times did they attempt to administer of their wine to the Nephites, that they might destroy them with poison or with drunkenness. <sup>55:31</sup>But behold, the Nephites were not slow to remember the Lord their God in this their time of affliction. They could not be taken in their snares; yea, they would not partake of their wine, save they had first given to some of the Lamanite prisoners. <sup>55:32</sup>And they were thus cautious that no poison should be administered among them; for if their wine would poison a Lamanite it would also poison a Nephite; and thus they did try all their liquors. <sup>55:33</sup>And now it came to pass that it was expedient for Moroni to make preparations to attack the city Morianton; for behold, the Lamanites had, by their labors, fortified the city Morianton until it had become an exceeding stronghold. <sup>55:34</sup>And they were continually bringing new forces into that city, and also new supplies of provisions. <sup>55:35</sup>And thus ended the twenty and ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup><XXV>56:1</sup>And now it came to pass in the commencement of the thirtieth year of the reign of the judges, on the second day in the first month, Moroni received an epistle from Helaman, stating the affairs of the people in that quarter of the land. <sup>56:2</sup>And these are the words which he wrote, saying: My dearly beloved brother, Moroni, as well in the Lord as in the tribulations of our warfare; behold, my beloved brother, I have somewhat to tell you concerning our warfare in this part of the land. <sup>56:3</sup>Behold, two thousand of the sons of those men whom Ammon brought down out of the land of Nephi — now ye have known that these were descendants of Laman, who was the eldest son of our father Lehi; <sup>56:4</sup>now I need not rehearse unto you concerning their traditions or their unbelief, for thou knowest concerning all these things — <sup>56:5</sup>therefore it sufficeth me that I tell you that two thousand of these young men have taken their weapons of war, and would that I should be their leader; and we have come forth to defend our country. <sup>56:6</sup>And now ye also know concerning the covenant which their fathers made, that they would not take up their weapons of war against their brethren to shed blood. <sup>56:7</sup>But in the twenty and sixth year, when they saw our afflictions and our tribulations for them, they were about to break the covenant which they had made and take up their weapons of war in our defence. <sup>56:8</sup>But I would not suffer them that they should break this covenant which they had made, supposing that God would strengthen us, insomuch that we should not suffer more because of the fulfilling the oath which they had taken. <sup>56:9</sup>But behold, here is one thing in which we may have great joy. For behold, in the twenty and sixth year, I, Helaman, did march at the head of these two thousand young men to the city of Judea, to assist Antipus, whom ye had appointed a leader over the people of that part of the land. <sup>56:10</sup>And I did join my two thousand sons, (for they are worthy to be called sons) to the army of Antipus, in which strength Antipus did rejoice exceedingly; for behold, his army had been reduced by the Lamanites because their forces had slain a vast number of our men, for which cause we have to mourn. <sup>56:11</sup>Nevertheless, we may console ourselves in this point, that they have died in the cause of their country and of their God, yea, and they are happy. <sup>56:12</sup>And the Lamanites had also retained many prisoners, all of whom are chief captains, for none other have they spared alive. And we suppose that they are now at this time in the land of Nephi; it is so if they are not slain. <sup>56:13</sup>And now these are the cities of which the Lamanites have obtained possession by the shedding of the blood of so many of our valiant men; <sup>56:14</sup>the land of Manti, or the city of Manti, and the city of Zeezrom, and the city of Cumeni, and the city of Antiparah. <sup>56:15</sup>And these are the cities which they possessed when I arrived at the city of Judea; and I found Antipus and his men toiling with their might to fortify the city. <sup>56:16</sup>Yea, and they were depressed in body as well as in spirit, for they had fought valiantly by day and toiled by night to maintain their cities; and thus they had suffered great afflictions of every kind. <sup>56:17</sup>And now they were determined to conquer in this place or die; therefore you may well suppose that this little force which I brought with me, yea, those sons of mine, gave them great hopes and much joy. <sup>56:18</sup>And now it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that Antipus had received a greater strength to his army, they were compelled by the orders of Ammoron to not come against the city of Judea, or against us, to battle. <sup>56:19</sup>And thus were we favored of the Lord; for had they come upon us in this our weakness they might have perhaps destroyed our little army; but thus were we preserved. <sup>56:20</sup>They were commanded by Ammoron to maintain those cities which they had taken. And thus ended the twenty and sixth year. And in the commencement of the twenty and seventh year we had prepared our city and ourselves for defence. <sup>56:21</sup>Now we were desirous that the Lamanites should come upon us; for we were not desirous to make an attack upon them in their strongholds. <sup>56:22</sup>And it came to pass that we kept spies out round about, to watch the movements of the Lamanites, that they might not pass us by night nor by day to make an attack upon our other cities which were on the northward. <sup>56:23</sup>For we knew in those cities they were not sufficiently strong to meet them; therefore we were desirous, if they should pass by us, to fall upon them in their rear, and thus bring them up in the rear at the same time they were met in the front. We supposed that we could overpower them; but behold, we were disappointed in this our desire.

<sup>56:24</sup>They durst not pass by us with their whole army, neither durst they with a part, lest they should not be sufficiently strong and they should fall. <sup>56:25</sup>Neither durst they march down against the city of Zarahemla; neither durst they cross the head of Sidon, over to the city of Nephiah. <sup>56:26</sup>And thus, with their forces, they were determined to maintain those cities which they had taken. <sup>56:27</sup>And now it came to pass in the second month of this year, there was brought unto us many provisions from the fathers of those my two thousand sons. <sup>56:28</sup>And also there were sent two thousand men unto us from the land of Zarahemla. And thus we were prepared with ten thousand men, and provisions for them, and also for their wives and their children. <sup>56:29</sup>And the Lamanites, thus seeing our forces increase daily, and provisions arrive for our support, they began to be fearful, and began to sally forth, if it were possible to put an end to our receiving provisions and strength. <sup>56:30</sup>Now when we saw that the Lamanites began to grow uneasy on this wise, we were desirous to bring a stratagem into effect upon them; therefore Antipus ordered that I should march forth with my little sons to a neighboring city, as if we were carrying provisions to a neighboring city. <sup>56:31</sup>And we were to march near the city of Antiparah, as if we were going to the city beyond, in the borders by the seashore. <sup>56:32</sup>And it came to pass that we did march forth, as if with our provisions, to go to that city. <sup>56:33</sup>And it came to pass that Antipus did march forth with a part of his army, leaving the remainder to maintain the city. But he did not march forth until I had gone forth with my little army, and came near the city Antiparah. <sup>56:34</sup>And now, in the city Antiparah were stationed the strongest army of the Lamanites; yea, the most numerous. <sup>56:35</sup>And it came to pass that when they had been informed by their spies, they came forth with their army and marched against us. <sup>56:36</sup>And it came to pass that we did flee before them, northward. And thus we did lead away the most powerful army of the Lamanites; <sup>56:37</sup>yea, even to a considerable distance, insomuch that when they saw the army of Antipus pursuing them, with their might, they did not turn to the right nor to the left, but pursued their march in a straight course after us; and, as we suppose, it was their intent to slay us before Antipus should overtake them, and this that they might not be surrounded by our people. <sup>56:38</sup>And now Antipus, beholding our danger, did speed the march of his army. But behold, it was night; therefore they did not overtake us, neither did Antipus overtake them; therefore we did camp for the night. <sup>56:39</sup>And it came to pass that before the dawn of the morning, behold, the Lamanites were pursuing us. Now we were not sufficiently strong to contend with them; yea, I would not suffer that my little sons should fall into their hands; therefore we did continue our march, and we took our march into the wilderness. <sup>56:40</sup>Now they durst not turn to the right nor to the left lest they should be surrounded; neither would I turn to the right nor to the left lest they should overtake me, and we could not stand against them, but be slain, and they would make their escape; and thus we did flee all that day into the wilderness, even until it was dark. <sup>56:41</sup>And it came to pass that again, when the light of the morning came we saw the Lamanites upon us, and we did flee before them. <sup>56:42</sup>But it came to pass that they did not pursue us far before they halted; and it was in the morning of the third day of the seventh month. <sup>56:43</sup>And now, whether they were overtaken by Antipus we knew not, but I said unto my men: Behold, we know not but they have halted for the purpose that we should come against them, that they might catch us in their snare; <sup>56:44</sup>therefore what say ye, my sons, will ye go against them to battle? <sup>56:45</sup>And now I say unto you, my beloved brother Moroni, that never had I seen so great courage, nay, not amongst all the Nephites. <sup>56:46</sup>For as I had ever called them my sons (for they were all of them very young) even so they said unto me: Father, behold our God is with us, and he will not suffer that we should fall; then let us go forth; we would not slay our brethren if they would let us alone; therefore let us go, lest they should overpower the army of Antipus. <sup>56:47</sup>Now they never had fought, yet they did not fear death; and they did think more upon the liberty of their fathers than they did upon their lives; yea, they had been taught by their mothers, that if they did not doubt, God would deliver them. <sup>56:48</sup>And they rehearsed unto me the words of their mothers, saying: We do not doubt our mothers knew it. <sup>56:49</sup>And it came to pass that I did return with my two thousand against these Lamanites who had pursued us. And now behold, the armies of Antipus had overtaken them, and a terrible battle had commenced. <sup>56:50</sup>The army of Antipus being weary, because of their long march in so short a space of time, were about to fall into the hands of the Lamanites; and had I not returned with my two thousand they would have obtained their purpose. <sup>56:51</sup>For Antipus had fallen by the sword, and many of his leaders, because of their weariness, which was occasioned by the speed of their march—therefore the men of Antipus, being confused because of the fall of their leaders, began to give way before the Lamanites. <sup>56:52</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites took courage, and began to pursue them; and thus were the Lamanites pursuing them with great vigor when Helaman came upon their rear with his two thousand, and began to slay them exceedingly, insomuch that the whole army of the Lamanites halted and turned upon Helaman. <sup>56:53</sup>Now when the people of Antipus saw that the Lamanites had turned them about, they gathered together their men and came again upon the rear of the Lamanites. <sup>56:54</sup>And now it came to pass that we, the people of Nephi, the people of Antipus, and I with my two thousand, did surround the Lamanites, and did slay them; yea, insomuch that they were compelled to deliver up their weapons of war and also themselves as prisoners of war. <sup>56:55</sup>And now it came to pass that when they had surrendered themselves up unto us, behold, I numbered those young men who had fought with me, fearing lest there were many of them slain. <sup>56:56</sup>But behold, to my great joy, there had not one soul of them fallen to the earth; yea, and they had fought as if with the strength of God; yea, never were men known to have fought with such miraculous strength; and with such mighty power did they fall upon the Lamanites, that they did frighten them; and for this cause did the Lamanites deliver themselves up as prisoners of war. <sup>56:57</sup>And as we had no place for our prisoners, that we could guard them to keep them from the armies of the Lamanites, therefore we sent them to the land of Zarahemla, and a part of those men who were not slain of Antipus, with them; and the remainder I took and joined them to my stripling Ammonites, and took our march back to the city of Judea. <sup>57:1</sup>And now it came to pass that I received an epistle from Ammoron, the king, stating that if I would deliver up those prisoners of war whom we had taken that he would deliver up the city of Antiparah unto us. <sup>57:2</sup>But I sent an epistle unto the king, that we were sure our forces were sufficient to take the city of Antiparah by our force; and by delivering up the prisoners for that city we should suppose ourselves unwise, and that we would only deliver up our prisoners on exchange. <sup>57:3</sup>And Ammoron refused mine epistle, for he would not exchange prisoners; therefore we began to make preparations to go against the city of Antiparah. <sup>57:4</sup>But the people of Antiparah did leave the city, and fled to their other cities, which they had possession of, to fortify them; and thus the city of Antiparah fell into our hands. <sup>57:5</sup>And thus ended the twenty and eighth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>57:6</sup>And it came to pass that in the commencement of the twenty and ninth year, we received a supply of provisions, and also an addition to our army, from the land of Zarahemla, and from the land round about, to the number of six thousand men, besides sixty of the sons of the Ammonites who had come to join their brethren, my little band of two thousand. And now behold, we were strong, yea, and we had also plenty of provisions brought unto us. <sup>57:7</sup>And it came to pass that it was our desire to wage a battle with the army which was placed to protect the city Cumeni. <sup>57:8</sup>And now behold, I will show unto you that we soon accomplished our desire; yea, with our strong force, or with a part of our strong force, we did surround, by night, the city Cumeni, a little before they were to receive a supply of provisions. <sup>57:9</sup>And it came to pass that we did camp round about the city for many nights; but we did sleep upon our swords, and keep guards, that the Lamanites could not come upon us by night and slay us, which they attempted many times; but as many times as they attempted this their blood was spilt. <sup>57:10</sup>At length their provisions did arrive, and they were about to enter the city by night. And we, instead of being Lamanites, were Nephites; therefore, we did take them and their provisions. <sup>57:11</sup>And notwithstanding the Lamanites being cut off from their support after this manner, they were still determined to maintain the city; therefore it became expedient that we should take those provisions and send them to Judea, and our prisoners to the land of Zarahemla. <sup>57:12</sup>And it came to pass that not many days had passed away before the Lamanites began to lose all hopes of succor; therefore they yielded up the city unto our hands; and thus we had accomplished our designs in obtaining the city Cumeni. <sup>57:13</sup>But it came to pass that our prisoners were so numerous that, notwithstanding the enormity of our numbers, we were obliged to employ all our force to keep them, or to put them to death. <sup>57:14</sup>For behold, they would break out in great numbers, and would fight with stones, and with clubs, or whatsoever thing they could get into their hands, insomuch that we did slay upwards of two thousand of them after they had surrendered themselves prisoners of war. <sup>57:15</sup>Therefore it became expedient for us, that we should put an end to their lives, or guard them, sword in hand, down to the land of Zarahemla; and also our provisions were not any more than sufficient for our own people, notwithstanding that which we had taken from the Lamanites. <sup>57:16</sup>And now, in those critical circumstances, it became a very serious matter to determine concerning these prisoners of war; nevertheless, we did resolve to send them down to the land of Zarahemla; therefore we selected a part of our men, and gave them charge over our prisoners to go down to the land of Zarahemla. <sup>57:17</sup>But it came to pass that on the morrow they did return. And now behold, we did not inquire of them concerning the prisoners; for behold, the Lamanites were upon us, and they returned in season to save us from falling into their hands. For behold, Ammoron had sent to their support a new supply of provisions and also a numerous army of men. <sup>57:18</sup>And it came to pass that those men whom we sent with the prisoners did arrive in season to check them, as they were about to overpower us. <sup>57:19</sup>But behold, my little band of two thousand and sixty fought most desperately; yea, they were firm before the Lamanites, and did administer death unto all those who opposed them. <sup>57:20</sup>And as the remainder of our army were about to give way before the Lamanites, behold, those two thousand and sixty were firm and undaunted. <sup>57:21</sup>Yea, and they did obey and observe to perform every word of command with exactness; yea, and even according to their faith it was done unto them; and I did remember the words which they said unto me that their mothers had taught them. <sup>57:22</sup>And now behold, it was these my sons, and those men who had been selected to convey the prisoners, to whom we owe this great victory; for it was they who did beat the Lamanites; therefore they were driven back to the city of Manti. <sup>57:23</sup>And we retained our city Cumeni, and were not all destroyed by the sword; nevertheless, we had suffered great loss. <sup>57:24</sup>And it came to pass that after the Lamanites had fled, I immediately gave orders that my men who had been wounded should be taken from among the dead, and caused that their wounds should be dressed. <sup>57:25</sup>And it came to pass that there were two hundred, out of my two thousand and sixty, who had fainted because of the loss of blood; nevertheless, according to the goodness of God, and to our great astonishment, and also the joy of our whole army, there was not one soul of them who did perish; yea, and neither was there one soul among them who had not received many wounds. <sup>57:26</sup>And now, their preservation was astonishing to our whole army, yea, that they should be spared while there was a thousand of our brethren who were slain. And we do justly ascribe it to the miraculous power of God, because of their exceeding faith in that which they had been taught to believe—that there was a just God, and whosoever did not doubt, that they should be preserved by his marvelous power. <sup>57:27</sup>Now this was the faith of these of whom I have spoken; they are young, and their minds are firm, and they do put their trust in God continually. <sup>57:28</sup>And now it came to pass that after we had thus taken care of our wounded men, and had buried our dead and also the dead of the Lamanites, who were many, behold, we did inquire of Gid concerning the prisoners whom they had started to go down to the land of Zarahemla with. <sup>57:29</sup>Now Gid was the chief captain over the band who was appointed to guard them down to the land. <sup>57:30</sup>And now, these are the words which Gid said unto me: Behold, we did start to go down to the land of Zarahemla with our prisoners. And it came to pass that we did meet the spies of our armies, who had been sent out to watch the camp of the Lamanites. <sup>57:31</sup>And they cried unto us, saying—Behold, the armies of the Lamanites are marching towards the city of Cumeni; and behold, they will fall upon them, yea, and will destroy our people. <sup>57:32</sup>And it came to pass that our prisoners did hear their cries, which caused them to take courage; and they did rise up in rebellion against us. <sup>57:33</sup>And it came to pass because of their rebellion we did cause that our swords should come upon them. And it came to pass that they did in a body run upon our swords, in the which, the greater number of them were slain; and the remainder of them broke through and fled from us. <sup>57:34</sup>And behold, when they had fled and we could not overtake them, we took our march with speed towards the city Cumeni; and behold, we did arrive in time that we might assist our brethren in preserving the city. <sup>57:35</sup>And behold, we are again delivered out of the hands of our enemies. And blessed is the name of our God; for behold, it is he that has delivered us; yea, that has done this great thing for us. <sup>57:36</sup>Now it came to pass that when I, Helaman, had heard these words of Gid, I was filled with exceeding joy because of the goodness of God in preserving us, that we might not all perish; yea, and I trust that the souls of them who have been slain have entered into the rest of their God. <sup>58:1</sup>And behold, now it came to pass that our next object was to obtain the city of Manti; but behold, there was no way that we could lead them out of the city by our small bands. For behold, they remembered that which we had hitherto done; therefore we could not decoy them away from their strongholds. <sup>58:2</sup>And they were so much more numerous than was our army that we durst not go forth and attack them in their strongholds. <sup>58:3</sup>Yea, and it became expedient that we should employ our men to the maintaining those parts of the land which we had regained of our possessions; therefore it became expedient that we should wait, that we might receive more strength from the land of Zarahemla and also a new supply of provisions. <sup>58:4</sup>And it came to pass that I thus did send an embassy to the governor of our land, to acquaint him concerning the affairs of our people. And it came to pass that we did wait to receive provisions and strength from the land of Zarahemla. <sup>58:5</sup>But behold, this did profit us but little; for the Lamanites were also receiving great strength from day to day, and also many provisions; and thus were our circumstances at this period of time. <sup>58:6</sup>And the Lamanites were sallying forth against us from time to time, resolving by stratagem to destroy us; nevertheless we could not come to battle with them, because of their retreats and their strongholds. <sup>58:7</sup>And it came to pass that we did wait in these difficult circumstances for the space of many months, even until we were about to perish for the want of food. <sup>58:8</sup>But it came to pass that we did receive food, which was guarded to us by an army of two thousand men to our assistance; and this is all the assistance which we did receive, to defend ourselves and our country from falling into the hands of our enemies, yea, to contend with an enemy which was innumerable. <sup>58:9</sup>And now the cause of these our embarrassments, or the cause why they did not send more strength unto us, we knew not; therefore we were grieved and also filled with fear, lest by any means the judgments of God should come upon our land, to our overthrow and utter destruction. <sup>58:10</sup>Therefore we did pour out our souls in prayer to God, that he would strengthen us and deliver us out of the hands of our enemies, yea, and also give us strength that we might retain our cities, and our lands, and our possessions, for the support of our people. <sup>58:11</sup>Yea, and it came to pass that the Lord our God did visit us with assurances that he would deliver us; yea, insomuch that he did speak peace to our souls, and did grant unto us great faith, and did cause us that we should hope for our deliverance in him. <sup>58:12</sup>And we did take courage with our small force which we had received, and were fixed with a determination to conquer our enemies, and to maintain our lands, and our possessions, and our wives, and our children, and the cause of our liberty. <sup>58:13</sup>And thus we did go forth with all our might against the Lamanites, who were in the city of Manti; and we did pitch our tents by the wilderness side, which was near to the city. <sup>58:14</sup>And it came to pass that on the morrow, that when the Lamanites saw that we were in the borders by the wilderness which was near the city, that they sent out their spies round about us that they might discover the number and the strength of our army. <sup>58:15</sup>And it came to pass that when they saw that we were not strong, according to our numbers, and fearing that we should cut them off from their support except they should come out to battle against us and kill us, and also supposing that they could easily destroy us with their numerous hosts, therefore they began to make preparations to come out against us to battle. <sup>58:16</sup>And when we saw that they were making preparations to come out against us, behold, I caused that Gid, with a small number of men, should secrete himself in the wilderness, and also that Teomner and a small number of men should secrete themselves also in the wilderness. <sup>58:17</sup>Now Gid and his men were on the right and the others on the left; and when they had thus secreted themselves, behold, I remained, with the remainder of my army, in that same place where we had first pitched our tents against the time that the Lamanites should come out to battle. <sup>58:18</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites did come out with their numerous army against us. And when they had come and were about to fall upon us with the sword, I caused that my men, those who were with me, should retreat into the wilderness. <sup>58:19</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites did follow after us with great speed, for they were exceedingly desirous to overtake us that they might slay us; therefore they did follow us into the wilderness; and we did pass by in the midst of Gid and Teomner, insomuch that they were not discovered by the Lamanites. <sup>58:20</sup>And it came to pass that when the Lamanites had passed by, or when the army had passed by, Gid and Teomner did rise up from their secret places, and did cut off the spies of the Lamanites that they should not return to the city. <sup>58:21</sup>And it came to pass that when they had cut them off, they ran to the city and fell upon the guards who were left to guard the city, insomuch that they did destroy them and did take possession of the city. <sup>58:22</sup>Now this was done because the Lamanites did suffer their whole army, save a few guards only, to be led away into the wilderness. <sup>58:23</sup>And it came to pass that Gid and Teomner by this means had obtained possession of their strongholds. And it came to pass that we took our course, after having traveled much in the wilderness towards the land of Zarahemla. <sup>58:24</sup>And when the Lamanites saw that they were marching towards the land of Zarahemla, they were exceedingly afraid, lest there was a plan laid to lead them on to destruction; therefore they began to retreat into the wilderness again, yea, even back by the same way which they had come. <sup>58:25</sup>And behold, it was night and they did pitch their tents, for the chief captains of the Lamanites had supposed that the Nephites were weary because of their march; and supposing that they had driven their whole army therefore they took no thought concerning the city of Manti. <sup>58:26</sup>Now it came to pass that when it was night, I caused that my men should not sleep, but that they should march forward by another way towards the land of Manti. <sup>58:27</sup>And because of this our march in the night-time, behold, on the morrow we were beyond the Lamanites, insomuch that we did arrive before them at the city of Manti. <sup>58:28</sup>And thus it came to pass, that by this stratagem we did take possession of the city of Manti without the shedding of blood. <sup>58:29</sup>And it came to pass that when the armies of the Lamanites did arrive near the city, and saw that we were prepared to meet them, they were astonished exceedingly and struck with great fear, insomuch that they did flee into the wilderness. <sup>58:30</sup>Yea, and it came to pass that the armies of the Lamanites did flee out of all this quarter of the land. But behold, they have carried with them many women and children out of the land. <sup>58:31</sup>And those cities which had been taken by the Lamanites, all of them are at this period of time in our possession; and our fathers and our women and our children are returning to their homes, all save it be those who have been taken prisoners and carried off by the Lamanites. <sup>58:32</sup>But behold, our armies are small to maintain so great a number of cities and so great possessions. <sup>58:33</sup>But behold, we trust in our God who has given us victory over those lands, insomuch that we have obtained those cities and those lands, which were our own. <sup>58:34</sup>Now we do not know the cause that the government does not grant us more strength; neither do those men who came up unto us know why we have not received greater strength. <sup>58:35</sup>Behold, we do not know but what ye are unsuccessful, and ye have drawn away the forces into that quarter of the land; if so, we do not desire to murmur. <sup>58:36</sup>And if it is not so, behold, we fear that there is some faction in the government, that they do not send more men to our assistance; for we know that they are more numerous than that which they have sent. <sup>58:37</sup>But, behold, it mattereth not—we trust God will deliver us, notwithstanding the weakness of our armies, yea, and deliver us out of the hands of our enemies. <sup>58:38</sup>Behold, this is the twenty and ninth year, in the latter end, and we are in the possession of our lands; and the Lamanites have fled to the land of Nephi. <sup>58:39</sup>And those sons of the people of Ammon, of whom I have so highly spoken, are with me in the city of Manti; and the Lord had supported them, yea, and kept them from falling by the sword, insomuch that even one soul has not been slain. <sup>58:40</sup>But behold, they have received many wounds; nevertheless they stand fast in that liberty wherewith God has made them free; and they are strict to remember the Lord their God from day to day; yea, they do observe to keep his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments continually; and their faith is strong in the prophecies concerning that which is to come. <sup>58:41</sup>And now, my beloved brother, Moroni, may the Lord our God, who has redeemed us and made us free, keep you continually in his presence; yea, and may he favor this people, even that ye may have success in obtaining the possession of all that which the Lamanites have taken from us, which was for our support. And now, behold, I close mine epistle. I am Helaman, the son of Alma. <sup><XXVII>59:1</sup>Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, after Moroni had received and had read Helaman's epistle, he was exceedingly rejoiced because of the welfare, yea, the exceeding success which Helaman had had, in obtaining those lands which were lost. <sup>59:2</sup>Yea, and he did make it known unto all his people, in all the land round about in that part where he was, that they might rejoice also. <sup>59:3</sup>And it came to pass that he immediately sent an epistle to Pahoran, desiring that he should cause men to be gathered together to strengthen Helaman, or the armies of Helaman, insomuch that he might with ease maintain that part of the land which he had been so miraculously prospered in regaining. <sup>59:4</sup>And it came to pass when Moroni had sent this epistle to the land of Zarahemla, he began again to lay a plan that he might obtain the remainder of those possessions and cities which the Lamanites had taken from them. <sup>59:5</sup>And it came to pass that while Moroni was thus making preparations to go against the Lamanites to battle, behold, the people of Nephiah, who were gathered together from the city of Moroni and the city of Lehi and the city of Morianton, were attacked by the Lamanites. <sup>59:6</sup>Yea, even those who had been compelled to flee from the land of Manti, and from the land round about, had come over and joined the Lamanites in this part of the land. <sup>59:7</sup>And thus being exceedingly numerous, yea, and receiving strength from day to day, by the command of Ammoron they came forth against the people of Nephiah, and they did begin to slay them with an exceedingly great slaughter. <sup>59:8</sup>And their armies were so numerous that the remainder of the people of Nephiah were obliged to flee before them; and they came even and joined the army of Moroni. <sup>59:9</sup>And now as Moroni had supposed that there should be men sent to the city of Nephiah, to the assistance of the people to maintain that city, and knowing that it was easier to keep the city from falling into the hands of the Lamanites than to retake it from them, he supposed that they would easily maintain that city. <sup>59:10</sup>Therefore he retained all his force to maintain those places which he had recovered. <sup>59:11</sup>And now, when Moroni saw that the city of Nephihah was lost he was exceedingly sorrowful, and began to doubt, because of the wickedness of the people, whether they should not fall into the hands of their brethren. <sup>59:12</sup>Now this was the case with all his chief captains. They doubted and marveled also because of the wickedness of the people, and this because of the success of the Lamanites over them. <sup>59:13</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni was angry with the government, because of their indifference concerning the freedom of their country. <sup>60:1</sup>And it came to pass that he wrote again to the governor of the land, who was Pahoran, and these are the words which he wrote, saying: Behold, I direct mine epistle to Pahoran, in the city of Zarahemla, who is the chief judge and the governor over the land, and also to all those who have been chosen by this people to govern and manage the affairs of this war. <sup>60:2</sup>For behold, I have somewhat to say unto them by the way of condemnation; for behold, ye yourselves know that ye have been appointed to gather together men, and arm them with swords, and with cimeters, and all manner of weapons of war of every kind, and send forth against the Lamanites, in whatsoever parts they should come into our land. <sup>60:3</sup>And now behold, I say unto you that myself, and also my men, and also Helaman and his men, have suffered exceedingly great sufferings; yea, even hunger, thirst, and fatigue, and all manner of afflictions of every kind. <sup>60:4</sup>But behold, were this all we had suffered we would not murmur nor complain. <sup>60:5</sup>But behold, great has been the slaughter among our people; yea, thousands have fallen by the sword, while it might have otherwise been if ye had rendered unto our armies sufficient strength and succor for them. Yea, great has been your neglect towards us. <sup>60:6</sup>And now behold, we desire to know the cause of this exceedingly great neglect; yea, we desire to know the cause of your thoughtless state. <sup>60:7</sup>Can you think to sit upon your thrones in a state of thoughtless stupor, while your enemies are spreading the work of death around you? Yea, while they are murdering thousands of your brethren—<sup>60:8</sup>yea, even they who have looked up to you for protection, yea, have placed you in a situation that ye might have succored them, yea, ye might have sent armies unto them, to have strengthened them, and have saved thousands of them from falling by the sword. <sup>60:9</sup>But behold, this is not all—ye have withheld your provisions from them, insomuch that many have fought and bled out their lives because of their great desires which they had for the welfare of this people; yea, and this they have done when they were about to perish with hunger, because of your exceedingly great neglect towards them. <sup>60:10</sup>And now, my beloved brethren—for ye ought to be beloved; yea, and ye ought to have stirred yourselves more diligently for the welfare and the freedom of this people; but behold, ye have neglected them insomuch that the blood of thousands shall come upon your heads for vengeance; yea, for known unto God were all their cries, and all their sufferings—<sup>60:11</sup>behold, could ye suppose that ye could sit upon your thrones, and because of the exceeding goodness of God ye could do nothing and he would deliver you? Behold, if ye have supposed this ye have supposed in vain. <sup>60:12</sup>Do ye suppose that, because so many of your brethren have been killed it is because of their wickedness? I say unto you, if ye have supposed this ye have supposed in vain; for I say unto you, there are many who have fallen by the sword; and behold it is to your condemnation; <sup>60:13</sup>for the Lord suffereth the righteous to be slain that his justice and judgment may come upon the wicked; therefore ye need not suppose that the righteous are lost because they are slain; but behold, they do enter into the rest of the Lord their God. <sup>60:14</sup>And now behold, I say unto you, I fear exceedingly that the judgments of God will come upon this people, because of their exceeding slothfulness, yea, even the slothfulness of our government, and their exceedingly great neglect towards their brethren, yea, towards those who have been slain. <sup>60:15</sup>For were it not for the wickedness which first commenced at our head, we could have withstood our enemies that they could have gained no power over us. <sup>60:16</sup>Yea, had it not been for the war which broke out among ourselves; yea, were it not for these king-men, who caused so much bloodshed among ourselves; yea, at the time we were contending among ourselves, if we had united our strength as we hitherto have done; yea, had it not been for the desire of power and authority which those king-men had over us; had they been true to the cause of our freedom, and united with us, and gone forth against our enemies, instead of taking up their swords against us, which was the cause of so much bloodshed among ourselves; yea, if we had gone forth against them in the strength of the Lord, we should have dispersed our enemies, for it would have been done, according to the fulfilling of his word. <sup>60:17</sup>But behold, now the Lamanites are coming upon us, taking possession of our lands, and they are murdering our people with the sword, yea, our women and our children, and also carrying them away captive, causing them that they should suffer all manner of afflictions, and this because of the great wickedness of those who are seeking for power and authority, yea, even those king-men. <sup>60:18</sup>But why should I say much concerning this matter? For we know not but what ye yourselves are seeking for authority. We know not but what ye are also traitors to your country. <sup>60:19</sup>Or is it that ye have neglected us because ye are in the heart of our country and ye are surrounded by security, that ye do not cause food to be sent unto us, and also men to strengthen our armies? <sup>60:20</sup>Have ye forgotten the commandments of the Lord your God? Yea, have ye forgotten the captivity of our fathers? Have ye forgotten the many times we have been delivered out of the hands of our enemies? <sup>60:21</sup>Or do ye suppose that the Lord will still deliver us, while we sit upon our thrones and do not make use of the means which the Lord has provided for us? <sup>60:22</sup>Yea, will ye sit in idleness while ye are surrounded with thousands of those, yea, and tens of thousands, who do also sit in idleness, while there are thousands round about in the borders of the land who are falling by the sword, yea, wounded and bleeding? <sup>60:23</sup>Do ye suppose that God will look upon you as guiltless while ye sit still and behold these things? Behold I say unto you, Nay. Now I would that ye should remember that God has said that the inward vessel shall be cleansed first, and then shall the outer vessel be cleansed also.

<sup>60:24</sup>And now, except ye do repent of that which ye have done, and begin to be up and doing, and send forth food and men unto us, and also unto Helaman, that he may support those parts of our country which he has regained, and that we may also recover the remainder of our possessions in these parts, behold it will be expedient that we contend no more with the Lamanites until we have first cleansed our inward vessel, yea, even the great head of our government. <sup>60:25</sup>And except ye grant mine epistle, and come out and show unto me a true spirit of freedom, and strive to strengthen and fortify our armies, and grant unto them food for their support, behold I will leave a part of my freemen to maintain this part of our land, and I will leave the strength and the blessings of God upon them, that none other power can operate against them — <sup>60:26</sup>and this because of their exceeding faith, and their patience in their tribulations — <sup>60:27</sup>and I will come unto you, and if there be any among you that has a desire for freedom, yea, if there be even a spark of freedom remaining, behold I will stir up insurrections among you, even until those who have desires to usurp power and authority shall become extinct. <sup>60:28</sup>Yea, behold I do not fear your power nor your authority, but it is my God whom I fear; and it is according to his commandments that I do take my sword to defend the cause of my country, and it is because of your iniquity that we have suffered so much loss. <sup>60:29</sup>Behold it is time, yea, the time is now at hand, that except ye do bestir yourselves in the defence of your country and your little ones, the sword of justice doth hang over you; yea, and it shall fall upon you and visit you even to your utter destruction. <sup>60:30</sup>Behold, I wait for assistance from you; and, except ye do administer unto our relief, behold, I come unto you, even in the land of Zarahemla, and smite you with the sword, insomuch that ye can have no more power to impede the progress of this people in the cause of our freedom. <sup>60:31</sup>For behold, the Lord will not suffer that ye shall live and wax strong in your iniquities to destroy his righteous people. <sup>60:32</sup>Behold, can you suppose that the Lord will spare you and come out in judgment against the Lamanites, when it is the tradition of their fathers that has caused their hatred, yea, and it has been redoubled by those who have dissented from us, while your iniquity is for the cause of your love of glory and the vain things of the world? <sup>60:33</sup>Ye know that ye do transgress the laws of God, and ye do know that ye do trample them under your feet. Behold, the Lord saith unto me: If those whom ye have appointed your governors do not repent of their sins and iniquities, ye shall go up to battle against them. <sup>60:34</sup>And now behold, I, Moroni, am constrained, according to the covenant which I have made to keep the commandments of my God; therefore I would that ye should adhere to the word of God, and send speedily unto me of your provisions and of your men, and also to Helaman. <sup>60:35</sup>And behold, if ye will not do this I come unto you speedily; for behold, God will not suffer that we should perish with hunger; therefore he will give unto us of your food, even if it must be by the sword. Now see that ye fulfil the word of God. <sup>60:36</sup>Behold, I am Moroni, your chief captain. I seek not for power, but to pull it down. I seek not for honor of the world, but for the glory of my God, and the freedom and welfare of my country. And thus I close mine epistle. <XXVIII>61:1 Behold, now it came to pass that soon after Moroni had sent his epistle unto the chief governor, he received an epistle from Pahoran, the chief governor. And these are the words which he received: 61:2 I, Pahoran, who am the chief governor of this land, do send these words unto Moroni, the chief captain over the army. Behold, I say unto you, Moroni, that I do not joy in your great afflictions, yea, it grieves my soul. 61:3 But behold, there are those who do joy in your afflictions, yea, insomuch that they have risen up in rebellion against me, and also those of my people who are freemen, yea, and those who have risen up are exceedingly numerous. 61:4 And it is those who have sought to take away the judgment-seat from me that have been the cause of this great iniquity; for they have used great flattery, and they have led away the hearts of many people, which will be the cause of sore affliction among us; they have withheld our provisions, and have daunted our freemen that they have not come unto you. 61:5 And behold, they have driven me out before them, and I have fled to the land of Gideon, with as many men as it were possible that I could get. 61:6 And behold, I have sent a proclamation throughout this part of the land; and behold, they are flocking to us daily, to their arms, in the defence of their country and their freedom, and to avenge our wrongs. 61:7 And they have come unto us, insomuch that those who have risen up in rebellion against us are set at defiance, yea, insomuch that they do fear us and durst not come out against us to battle. 61:8 They have got possession of the land, or the city, of Zarahemla; they have appointed a king over them, and he hath written unto the king of the Lamanites, in the which he hath joined an alliance with him; in the which alliance he hath agreed to maintain the city of Zarahemla, which maintenance he supposeth will enable the Lamanites to conquer the remainder of the land, and he shall be placed king over this people when they shall be conquered under the Lamanites. 61:9 And now, in your epistle you have censured me, but it mattereth not; I am not angry, but do rejoice in the greatness of your heart. I, Pahoran, do not seek for power, save only to retain my judgment-seat that I may preserve the rights and the liberty of my people. My soul standeth fast in that liberty in the which God hath made us free. 61:10 And now, behold, we will resist wickedness even unto bloodshed. We would not shed the blood of the Lamanites if they would stay in their own land. 61:11 We would not shed the blood of our brethren if they would not rise up in rebellion and take the sword against us. 61:12 We would subject ourselves to the yoke of bondage if it were requisite with the justice of God, or if he should command us so to do. 61:13 But behold he doth not command us that we shall subject ourselves to our enemies, but that we should put our trust in him, and he will deliver us. 61:14 Therefore, my beloved brother, Moroni, let us resist evil, and whatsoever evil we cannot resist with our words, yea, such as rebellions and dissensions, let us resist them with our swords, that we may retain our freedom, that we may rejoice in the great privilege of our church, and in the cause of our Redeemer and our God. 61:15 Therefore, come unto me speedily with a few of your men, and leave the remainder in the charge of Lehi and Teancum; give unto them power to conduct the war in that part of the land, according to the Spirit of God, which is also the spirit of freedom which is in them. <sup>61:16</sup>Behold I have sent a few provisions unto them, that they may not perish until ye can come unto me. <sup>61:17</sup>Gather together whatsoever force ye can upon your march hither, and we will go speedily against those dissenters, in the strength of our God according to the faith which is in us. <sup>61:18</sup>And we will take possession of the city of Zarahemla, that we may obtain more food to send forth unto Lehi and Teancum; yea, we will go forth against them in the strength of the Lord, and we will put an end to this great iniquity. <sup>61:19</sup>And now, Moroni, I do joy in receiving your epistle, for I was somewhat worried concerning what we should do, whether it should be just in us to go against our brethren. <sup>61:20</sup>But ye have said, except they repent the Lord hath commanded you that ye should go against them. <sup>61:21</sup>See that ye strengthen Lehi and Teancum in the Lord; tell them to fear not, for God will deliver them, yea, and also all those who stand fast in that liberty wherewith God hath made them free. And now I close mine epistle to my beloved brother, Moroni. <sup><XXIX>62:1</sup>And now it came to pass that when Moroni had received this epistle his heart did take courage, and was filled with exceedingly great joy because of the faithfulness of Pahoran, that he was not also a traitor to the freedom and cause of his country. <sup>62:2</sup>But he did also mourn exceedingly because of the iniquity of those who had driven Pahoran from the judgment-seat, yea, in fine because of those who had rebelled against their country and also their God. <sup>62:3</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni took a small number of men, according to the desire of Pahoran, and gave Lehi and Teancum command over the remainder of his army, and took his march towards the land of Gideon. <sup>62:4</sup>And he did raise the standard of liberty in whatsoever place he did enter, and gained whatsoever force he could in all his march towards the land of Gideon. <sup>62:5</sup>And it came to pass that thousands did flock unto his standard, and did take up their swords in the defence of their freedom, that they might not come into bondage. <sup>62:6</sup>And thus, when Moroni had gathered together whatsoever men he could in all his march, he came to the land of Gideon; and uniting his forces with those of Pahoran they became exceedingly strong, even stronger than the men of Pachus, who was the king of those dissenters who had driven the freemen out of the land of Zarahemla and had taken possession of the land. <sup>62:7</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni and Pahoran went down with their armies into the land of Zarahemla, and went forth against the city, and did meet the men of Pachus, insomuch that they did come to battle. <sup>62:8</sup>And behold, Pachus was slain and his men were taken prisoners, and Pahoran was restored to his judgment-seat. <sup>62:9</sup>And the men of Pachus received their trial, according to the law, and also those king-men who had been taken and cast into prison; and they were executed according to the law; yea, those men of Pachus and those king-men, whosoever would not take up arms in the defence of their country, but would fight against it, were put to death. <sup>62:10</sup>And thus it became expedient that this law should be strictly observed for the safety of their country; yea, and whosoever was found denying their freedom was speedily executed according to the law.

<sup>62:11</sup>And thus ended the thirtieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi; Moroni and Pahoran having restored peace to the land of Zarahemla, among their own people, having inflicted death upon all those who were not true to the cause of freedom. <sup>62:12</sup>And it came to pass in the commencement of the thirty and first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, Moroni immediately caused that provisions should be sent, and also an army of six thousand men should be sent unto Helaman, to assist him in preserving that part of the land. <sup>62:13</sup>And he also caused that an army of six thousand men, with a sufficient quantity of food, should be sent to the armies of Lehi and Teancum. And it came to pass that this was done to fortify the land against the Lamanites.

<sup>62:14</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni and Pahoran, leaving a large body of men in the land of Zarahemla, took their march with a large body of men towards the land of Nephiah, being determined to overthrow the Lamanites in that city.

<sup>62:15</sup>And it came to pass that as they were marching towards the land, they took a large body of men of the Lamanites, and slew many of them, and took their provisions and their weapons of war. <sup>62:16</sup>And it came to pass after they had taken them, they caused them to enter into a covenant that they would no more take up their weapons of war against the Nephites. <sup>62:17</sup>And when they had entered into this covenant they sent them to dwell with the people of Ammon, and they were in number about four thousand who had not been slain. <sup>62:18</sup>And it came to pass that when they had sent them away they pursued their march towards the land of Nephiah. And it came to pass that when they had come to the city of Nephiah, they did pitch their tents in the plains of Nephiah, which is near the city of Nephiah. <sup>62:19</sup>Now Moroni was desirous that the Lamanites should come out to battle against them, upon the plains; but the Lamanites, knowing of their exceedingly great courage, and beholding the greatness of their numbers, therefore they durst not come out against them; therefore they did not come to battle in that day. <sup>62:20</sup>And when the night came, Moroni went forth in the darkness of the night, and came upon the top of the wall to spy out in what part of the city the Lamanites did camp with their army. <sup>62:21</sup>And it came to pass that they were on the east, by the entrance; and they were all asleep. And now Moroni returned to his army, and caused that they should prepare in haste strong cords and ladders, to be let down from the top of the wall into the inner part of the wall. <sup>62:22</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni caused that his men should march forth and come upon the top of the wall, and let themselves down into that part of the city, yea, even on the west, where the Lamanites did not camp with their armies. <sup>62:23</sup>And it came to pass that they were all let down into the city by night, by the means of their strong cords and their ladders; thus when the morning came they were all within the walls of the city. <sup>62:24</sup>And now, when the Lamanites awoke and saw that the armies of Moroni were within the walls, they were affrighted exceedingly, insomuch that they did flee out by the pass. <sup>62:25</sup>And now when Moroni saw that they were fleeing before him, he did cause that his men should march forth against them, and slew many, and surrounded many others, and took them prisoners; and the remainder of them fled into the land of Moroni, which was in the borders by the seashore. <sup>62:26</sup>Thus had Moroni and Pahoran obtained the possession of the city of Nephiah without the loss of one soul; and there were many of the Lamanites who were slain. <sup>62:27</sup>Now it came to pass that many of the Lamanites that were prisoners were desirous to join the people of Ammon and become a free people. <sup>62:28</sup>And it came to pass that as many as were desirous, unto them it was granted according to their desires. <sup>62:29</sup>Therefore, all the prisoners of the Lamanites did join the people of Ammon, and did begin to labor exceedingly, tilling the ground, raising all manner of grain, and flocks and herds of every kind; and thus were the Nephites relieved from a great burden; yea, insomuch that they were relieved from all the prisoners of the Lamanites. <sup>62:30</sup>Now it came to pass that Moroni, after he had obtained possession of the city of Nephiah, having taken many prisoners, which did reduce the armies of the Lamanites exceedingly, and having regained many of the Nephites who had been taken prisoners, which did strengthen the army of Moroni exceedingly; therefore Moroni went forth from the land of Nephiah to the land of Lehi. <sup>62:31</sup>And it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that Moroni was coming against them, they were again frightened and fled before the army of Moroni. <sup>62:32</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni and his army did pursue them from city to city, until they were met by Lehi and Teancum; and the Lamanites fled from Lehi and Teancum, even down upon the borders by the seashore, until they came to the land of Moroni. <sup>62:33</sup>And the armies of the Lamanites were all gathered together, insomuch that they were all in one body in the land of Moroni. Now Ammoron, the king of the Lamanites, was also with them. <sup>62:34</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni and Lehi and Teancum did encamp with their armies round about in the borders of the land of Moroni, insomuch that the Lamanites were encircled about in the borders by the wilderness on the south, and in the borders by the wilderness on the east. <sup>62:35</sup>And thus they did encamp for the night. For behold, the Nephites and the Lamanites also were weary because of the greatness of the march; therefore they did not resolve upon any stratagem in the night-time, save it were Teancum; for he was exceedingly angry with Ammoron, insomuch that he considered that Ammoron, and Amalickiah his brother, had been the cause of this great and lasting war between them and the Lamanites, which had been the cause of so much war and bloodshed, yea, and so much famine. <sup>62:36</sup>And it came to pass that Teancum in his anger did go forth into the camp of the Lamanites, and did let himself down over the walls of the city. And he went forth with a cord, from place to place, insomuch that he did find the king; and he did cast a javelin at him, which did pierce him near the heart. But behold, the king did awaken his servants before he died, insomuch that they did pursue Teancum, and slew him. <sup>62:37</sup>Now it came to pass that when Lehi and Moroni knew that Teancum was dead they were exceedingly sorrowful; for behold, he had been a man who had fought valiantly for his country, yea, a true friend to liberty; and he had suffered very many exceedingly sore afflictions. But behold, he was dead, and had gone the way of all the earth. <sup>62:38</sup>Now it came to pass that Moroni marched forth on the morrow, and came upon the Lamanites, insomuch that they did slay them with a great slaughter; and they did drive them out of the land; and they did flee, even that they did not return at that time against the Nephites. <sup>62:39</sup>And thus ended the thirty and first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi; and thus they had had wars, and bloodsheds, and famine, and affliction, for the space of many years. <sup>62:40</sup>And there had been murders, and contentions, and dissensions, and all manner of iniquity among the people of Nephi; nevertheless for the righteous' sake, yea, because of the prayers of the righteous, they were spared. <sup>62:41</sup>But behold, because of the exceedingly great length of the war between the Nephites and the Lamanites many had become hardened, because of the exceedingly great length of the war; and many were softened because of their afflictions, insomuch that they did humble themselves before God, even in the depth of humility. <sup>62:42</sup>And it came to pass that after Moroni had fortified those parts of the land which were most exposed to the Lamanites, until they were sufficiently strong, he returned to the city of Zarahemla; and also Helaman returned to the place of his inheritance; and there was once more peace established among the people of Nephi. <sup>62:43</sup>And Moroni yielded up the command of his armies into the hands of his son, whose name was Moronihah; and he retired to his own house that he might spend the remainder of his days in peace. <sup>62:44</sup>And Pahoran did return to his judgment-seat; and Helaman did take upon him again to preach unto the people the word of God; for because of so many wars and contentions it had become expedient that a regulation should be made again in the church. <sup>62:45</sup>Therefore, Helaman and his brethren went forth, and did declare the word of God with much power unto the convincing of many people of their wickedness, which did cause them to repent of their sins and to be baptized unto the Lord their God. <sup>62:46</sup>And it came to pass that they did establish again the church of God, throughout all the land. <sup>62:47</sup>Yea, and regulations were made concerning the law. And their judges, and their chief judges were chosen. <sup>62:48</sup>And the people of Nephi began to prosper again in the land, and began to multiply and to wax exceedingly strong again in the land. And they began to grow exceedingly rich. <sup>62:49</sup>But notwithstanding their riches, or their strength, or their prosperity, they were not lifted up in the pride of their eyes; neither were they slow to remember the Lord their God; but they did humble themselves exceedingly before him. <sup>62:50</sup>Yea, they did remember how great things the Lord had done for them, that he had delivered them from death, and from bonds, and from prisons, and from all manner of afflictions and he had delivered them out of the hands of their enemies. <sup>62:51</sup>And they did pray unto the Lord their God continually, insomuch that the Lord did bless them, according to his word, so that they did wax strong and prosper in the land. <sup>62:52</sup>And it came to pass that all these things were done. And Helaman died, in the thirty and fifth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup><XXX>63:1</sup>And it came to pass in the commencement of the thirty and sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, that Shiblon took possession of those sacred things which had been delivered unto Helaman by Alma. <sup>63:2</sup>And he was a just man, and he did walk uprightly before God; and he did observe to do good continually, to keep the commandments of the Lord his God; and also did his brother. <sup>63:3</sup>And it came to pass that Moroni died also. And thus ended the thirty and sixth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>63:4</sup>And it came to pass that in the thirty and seventh year of the reign of the judges, there was a large company of men, even to the amount of five thousand and four hundred men, with their wives and their children, departed out of the land of Zarahemla into the land which was northward. <sup>63:5</sup>And it came to pass that Hagoth, he being an exceedingly curious man, therefore he went forth and built him an exceedingly large ship, on the borders of the land Bountiful, by the land Desolation, and launched it forth into the west sea, by the narrow neck which led into the land northward. <sup>63:6</sup>And behold, there were many of the Nephites who did enter therein and did sail forth with much provisions, and also many women and children; and they took their course northward. And thus ended the thirty and seventh year. <sup>63:7</sup>And in the thirty and eighth year, this man built other ships. And the first ship did also return, and many more people did enter into it; and they also took much provisions, and set out again to the land northward. <sup>63:8</sup>And it came to pass that they were never heard of more. And we suppose that they were drowned in the depths of the sea. And it came to pass that one other ship also did sail forth; and whither she did go we know not. <sup>63:9</sup>And it came to pass that in this year there were many people who went forth into the land northward. And thus ended the thirty and eighth year. <sup>63:10</sup>And it came to pass in the thirty and ninth year of the reign of the judges, Shiblon died also, and Corianton had gone forth to the land northward in a ship, to carry forth provisions unto the people who had gone forth into that land. <sup>63:11</sup>Therefore it became expedient for Shiblon to confer those sacred things, before his death, upon the son of Helaman, who was called Helaman, being called after the name of his father. <sup>63:12</sup>Now behold, all those engravings which were in the possession of Helaman were written and sent forth among the children of men throughout all the land, save it were those parts which had been commanded by Alma should not go forth. <sup>63:13</sup>Nevertheless, these things were to be kept sacred, and handed down from one generation to another; therefore, in this year, they had been conferred upon Helaman, before the death of Shiblon. <sup>63:14</sup>And it came to pass also in this year that there were some dissenters who had gone forth unto the Lamanites; and they were stirred up again to anger against the Nephites. <sup>63:15</sup>And also in this same year they came down with a numerous army to war against the people of Moronihah, or against the army of Moronihah, in the which they were beaten and driven back again to their own lands, suffering great loss. <sup>63:16</sup>And thus ended the thirty and ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>63:17</sup>And thus ended the account of Alma, and Helaman his son, and also Shiblon, who was his son.

Helaman

The book of Helaman

<B>An account of the Nephites. Their wars and contentions, and their dissensions. And also the prophecies of many holy prophets, before the coming of Christ, according to the records of Helaman, who was the son of Helaman, and also according to the records of his sons, even down to the coming of Christ. And also many of the Lamanites are converted. An account of their conversion. An account of the righteousness of the Lamanites, and the wickedness and abominations of the Nephites, according to the record of Helaman and his sons, even down to the coming of Christ, which is called the book of Helaman. <sup>1:1</sup>And now behold, it came to pass in the commencement of the fortieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, there began to be a serious difficulty among the people of the Nephites. <sup>1:2</sup>For behold, Pahoran had died, and gone the way of all the earth; therefore there began to be a serious contention concerning who should have the judgment-seat among the brethren, who were the sons of Pahoran. <sup>1:3</sup>Now these are their names who did contend for the judgment-seat, who did also cause the people to contend: Pahoran, Paanchi, and Pacumeni. <sup>1:4</sup>Now these are not all the sons of Pahoran (for he had many), but these are they who did contend for the judgment-seat; therefore, they did cause three divisions among the people. <sup>1:5</sup>Nevertheless, it came to pass that Pahoran was appointed by the voice of the people to be chief judge and a governor over the people of Nephi. <sup>1:6</sup>And it came to pass that Pacumeni, when he saw that he could not obtain the judgment-seat, he did unite with the voice of the people. <sup>1:7</sup>But behold, Paanchi, and that part of the people that were desirous that he should be their governor, was exceedingly wroth; therefore, he was about to flatter away those people to rise up in rebellion against their brethren. <sup>1:8</sup>And it came to pass as he was about to do this, behold, he was taken, and was tried according to the voice of the people, and condemned unto death; for he had raised up in rebellion and sought to destroy the liberty of the people. <sup>1:9</sup>Now when those people who were desirous that he should be their governor saw that he was condemned unto death, therefore they were angry, and behold, they sent forth one Kishkumen, even to the judgment-seat of Pahoran, and murdered Pahoran as he sat upon the judgment-seat. <sup>1:10</sup>And he was pursued by the servants of Pahoran; but behold, so speedy was the flight of Kishkumen that no man could overtake him. <sup>1:11</sup>And he went unto those that sent him, and they all entered into a covenant, yea, swearing by their everlasting Maker, that they would tell no man that Kishkumen had murdered Pahoran. <sup>1:12</sup>Therefore,

Kishkumen was not known among the people of Nephi, for he was in disguise at the time that he murdered Pahoran. And Kishkumen and his band, who had covenanted with him, did mingle themselves among the people, in a manner that they all could not be found; but as many as were found were condemned unto death. <sup>1:13</sup>And now behold, Pacumeni was appointed, according to the voice of the people, to be a chief judge and a governor over the people, to reign in the stead of his brother Pahoran; and it was according to his right. And all this was done in the fortieth year of the reign of the judges; and it had an end. <sup>1:14</sup>And it came to pass in the forty and first year of the reign of the judges, that the Lamanites had gathered together an innumerable army of men, and armed them with swords, and with cimeters and with bows, and with arrows, and with head-plates, and with breastplates, and with all manner of shields of every kind. <sup>1:15</sup>And they came down again that they might pitch battle against the Nephites. And they were led by a man whose name was Coriantumr; and he was a descendant of Zarahemla; and he was a dissenter from among the Nephites; and he was a large and a mighty man. <sup>1:16</sup>Therefore, the king of the Lamanites, whose name was Tubaloth, who was the son of Ammoron, supposing that Coriantumr, being a mighty man, could stand against the Nephites, with his strength and also with his great wisdom, insomuch that by sending him forth he should gain power over the Nephites—<sup>1:17</sup>therefore he did stir them up to anger, and he did gather together his armies, and he did appoint Coriantumr to be their leader, and did cause that they should march down to the land of Zarahemla to battle against the Nephites. <sup>1:18</sup>And it came to pass that because of so much contention and so much difficulty in the government, that they had not kept sufficient guards in the land of Zarahemla; for they had supposed that the Lamanites durst not come into the heart of their lands to attack that great city Zarahemla. <sup>1:19</sup>But it came to pass that Coriantumr did march forth at the head of his numerous host, and came upon the inhabitants of the city, and their march was with such exceedingly great speed that there was no time for the Nephites to gather together their armies. <sup>1:20</sup>Therefore Coriantumr did cut down the watch by the entrance of the city, and did march forth with his whole army into the city, and they did slay every one who did oppose them, insomuch that they did take possession of the whole city. <sup>1:21</sup>And it came to pass that Pacumeni, who was the chief judge, did flee before Coriantumr, even to the walls of the city. And it came to pass that Coriantumr did smite him against the wall, insomuch that he died. And thus ended the days of Pacumeni. <sup>1:22</sup>And now when Coriantumr saw that he was in possession of the city of Zarahemla, and saw that the Nephites had fled before them, and were slain, and were taken, and were cast into prison, and that he had obtained the possession of the strongest hold in all the land, his heart took courage insomuch that he was about to go forth against all the land. <sup>1:23</sup>And now he did not tarry in the land of Zarahemla, but he did march forth with a large army, even towards the city of Bountiful; for it was his determination to go forth and cut his way through with the sword, that he might obtain the north

parts of the land. <sup>1:24</sup>And, supposing that their greatest strength was in the center of the land, therefore he did march forth, giving them no time to assemble themselves together save it were in small bodies; and in this manner they did fall upon them and cut them down to the earth. <sup>1:25</sup>But behold, this march of Coriantumr through the center of the land gave Moronihah great advantage over them, notwithstanding the greatness of the number of the Nephites who were slain. <sup>1:26</sup>For behold, Moronihah had supposed that the Lamanites durst not come into the center of the land, but that they would attack the cities round about in the borders as they had hitherto done; therefore Moronihah had caused that their strong armies should maintain those parts round about by the borders. <sup>1:27</sup>But behold, the Lamanites were not frightened according to his desire, but they had come into the center of the land, and had taken the capital city which was the city of Zarahemla, and were marching through the most capital parts of the land, slaying the people with a great slaughter, both men, women, and children, taking possession of many cities and of many strongholds. <sup>1:28</sup>But when Moronihah had discovered this, he immediately sent forth Lehi with an army round about to head them before they should come to the land Bountiful. <sup>1:29</sup>And thus he did; and he did head them before they came to the land Bountiful, and gave unto them battle, insomuch that they began to retreat back towards the land of Zarahemla. <sup>1:30</sup>And it came to pass that Moronihah did head them in their retreat, and did give unto them battle, insomuch that it became an exceedingly bloody battle; yea, many were slain, and among the number who were slain Coriantumr was also found. <sup>1:31</sup>And now, behold, the Lamanites could not retreat either way, neither on the north, nor on the south, nor on the east, nor on the west, for they were surrounded on every hand by the Nephites. <sup>1:32</sup>And thus had Coriantumr plunged the Lamanites into the midst of the Nephites, insomuch that they were in the power of the Nephites, and he himself was slain, and the Lamanites did yield themselves into the hands of the Nephites. <sup>1:33</sup>And it came to pass that Moronihah took possession of the city of Zarahemla again, and caused that the Lamanites who had been taken prisoners should depart out of the land in peace. <sup>1:34</sup>And thus ended the forty and first year of the reign of the judges. <sup>2:1</sup>And it came to pass in the forty and second year of the reign of the judges, after Moronihah had established again peace between the Nephites and the Lamanites, behold there was no one to fill the judgment-seat; therefore there began to be a contention again among the people concerning who should fill the judgment-seat. <sup>2:2</sup>And it came to pass that Helaman, who was the son of Helaman, was appointed to fill the judgment-seat, by the voice of the people. <sup>2:3</sup>But behold, Kishkumen, who had murdered Pahoran, did lay wait to destroy Helaman also; and he was upheld by his band, who had entered into a covenant that no one should know his wickedness. <sup>2:4</sup>For there was one Gadianton, who was exceedingly expert in many words, and also in his craft, to carry on the secret work of murder and of robbery; therefore he became the leader of the band of Kishkumen. <sup>2:5</sup>Therefore he did flatter them, and also Kishkumen, that if they would place him in the judgment-seat he would grant unto those who belonged to his band that they should be placed in power and authority among the people; therefore Kishkumen sought to destroy Helaman. <sup>2:6</sup>And it came to pass as he went forth towards the judgment-seat to destroy Helaman, behold one of the servants of Helaman, having been out by night, and having obtained, through disguise, a knowledge of those plans which had been laid by this band to destroy Helaman—<sup>2:7</sup>and it came to pass that he met Kishkumen, and he gave unto him a sign; therefore Kishkumen made known unto him the object of his desire, desiring that he would conduct him to the judgment-seat that he might murder Helaman. <sup>2:8</sup>And when the servant of Helaman had known all the heart of Kishkumen, and how that it was his object to murder, and also that it was the object of all those who belonged to his band to murder, and to rob, and to gain power, (and this was their secret plan, and their combination) the servant of Helaman said unto Kishkumen: Let us go forth unto the judgment-seat. <sup>2:9</sup>Now this did please Kishkumen exceedingly, for he did suppose that he should accomplish his design; but behold, the servant of Helaman, as they were going forth unto the judgment-seat, did stab Kishkumen even to the heart, that he fell dead without a groan. And he ran and told Helaman all the things which he had seen, and heard, and done. <sup>2:10</sup>And it came to pass that Helaman did send forth to take this band of robbers and secret murderers, that they might be executed according to the law. <sup>2:11</sup>But behold, when Gadianton had found that Kishkumen did not return he feared lest that he should be destroyed; therefore he caused that his band should follow him. And they took their flight out of the land, by a secret way, into the wilderness; and thus when Helaman sent forth to take them they could nowhere be found. <sup>2:12</sup>And more of this Gadianton shall be spoken hereafter. And thus ended the forty and second year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>2:13</sup>And behold, in the end of this book ye shall see that this Gadianton did prove the overthrow, yea, almost the entire destruction of the people of Nephi. <sup>2:14</sup>Behold I do not mean the end of the book of Helaman, but I mean the end of the book of Nephi, from which I have taken all the account which I have written. <sup><1>3:1</sup>And now it came to pass in the forty and third year of the reign of the judges, there was no contention among the people of Nephi save it were a little pride which was in the church, which did cause some little dissensions among the people, which affairs were settled in the ending of the forty and third year. <sup>3:2</sup>And there was no contention among the people in the forty and fourth year; neither was there much contention in the forty and fifth year. <sup>3:3</sup>And it came to pass in the forty and sixth, yea, there was much contention and many dissensions; in the which there were an exceedingly great many who departed out of the land of Zarahemla, and went forth unto the land northward to inherit the land. <sup>3:4</sup>And they did travel to an exceedingly great distance, insomuch that they came to large bodies of water and many rivers. <sup>3:5</sup>Yea, and even they did spread forth into all parts of the land, into whatever parts it had not been rendered desolate and without timber, because of the many inhabitants who had before inherited the land. <sup>3:6</sup>And now no part of the land was desolate, save it were for timber; but because of the greatness of the destruction of the people who had before inhabited the land it was called desolate. <sup>3:7</sup>And there being but little timber upon the face of the land, nevertheless the people who went forth became exceedingly expert in the working of cement; therefore they did build houses of cement, in the which they did dwell. <sup>3:8</sup>And it came to pass that they did multiply and spread, and did go forth from the land southward to the land northward, and did spread insomuch that they began to cover the face of the whole earth, from the sea south to the sea north, from the sea west to the sea east. <sup>3:9</sup>And the people who were in the land northward did dwell in tents, and in houses of cement, and they did suffer whatsoever tree should spring up upon the face of the land that it should grow up, that in time they might have timber to build their houses, yea, their cities, and their temples, and their synagogues, and their sanctuaries, and all manner of their buildings. <sup>3:10</sup>And it came to pass as timber was exceedingly scarce in the land northward, they did send forth much by the way of shipping. <sup>3:11</sup>And thus they did enable the people in the land northward that they might build many cities, both of wood and of cement. <sup>3:12</sup>And it came to pass that there were many of the people of Ammon, who were Lamanites by birth, did also go forth into this land. <sup>3:13</sup>And now there are many records kept of the proceedings of this people, by many of this people, which are particular and very large, concerning them. <sup>3:14</sup>But behold, a hundredth part of the proceedings of this people, yea, the account of the Lamanites and of the Nephites, and their wars, and contentions, and dissensions, and their preaching, and their prophecies, and their shipping and their building of ships, and their building of temples, and of synagogues and their sanctuaries, and their righteousness, and their wickedness, and their murders, and their robbings, and their plundering, and all manner of abominations and whoredoms, cannot be contained in this work. <sup>3:15</sup>But behold, there are many books and many records of every kind, and they have been kept chiefly by the Nephites. <sup>3:16</sup>And they have been handed down from one generation to another by the Nephites, even until they have fallen into transgression and have been murdered, plundered, and hunted, and driven forth, and slain, and scattered upon the face of the earth, and mixed with the Lamanites until they are no more called the Nephites, becoming wicked, and wild, and ferocious, yea, even becoming Lamanites. <sup>3:17</sup>And now I return again to mine account; therefore, what I have spoken had passed after there had been great contentions, and disturbances, and wars, and dissensions, among the people of Nephi. <sup>3:18</sup>The forty and sixth year of the reign of the judges ended; <sup>3:19</sup>and it came to pass that there was still great contention in the land, yea, even in the forty and seventh year, and also in the forty and eighth year. <sup>3:20</sup>Nevertheless Helaman did fill the judgment-seat with justice and equity; yea, he did observe to keep the statutes, and the judgments, and the commandments of God; and he did do that which was right in the sight of God continually; and he did walk after the ways of his father, insomuch that he did prosper in the land. <sup>3:21</sup>And it came to pass that he had two sons. He gave unto the eldest the name of Nephi, and unto the youngest, the name of Lehi. And they began to grow up unto the Lord. <sup>3:22</sup>And it came to pass that the wars and contentions began to cease, in a small degree, among the people of the Nephites, in the latter end of the forty and eighth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>3:23</sup>And it came to pass in the forty and ninth year of the reign of the judges, there was continual peace established in the land, all save it were the secret combinations which Gadianton the robber had established in the more settled parts of the land, which at that time were not known unto those who were at the head of government; therefore they were not destroyed out of the land. <sup>3:24</sup>And it came to pass that in this same year there was exceedingly great prosperity in the church, insomuch that there were thousands who did join themselves unto the church and were baptized unto repentance. <sup>3:25</sup>And so great was the prosperity of the church, and so many the blessings which were poured out upon the people, that even the high priests and the teachers were themselves astonished beyond measure. <sup>3:26</sup>And it came to pass that the work of the Lord did prosper unto the baptizing and uniting to the church of God, many souls, yea, even tens of thousands. <sup>3:27</sup>Thus we may see that the Lord is merciful unto all who will, in the sincerity of their hearts, call upon his holy name. <sup>3:28</sup>Yea, thus we see that the gate of heaven is open unto all, even to those who will believe on the name of Jesus Christ, who is the Son of God. <sup>3:29</sup>Yea, we see that whosoever will may lay hold upon the word of God, which is quick and powerful, which shall divide asunder all the cunning and the snares and the wiles of the devil, and lead the man of Christ in a strait and narrow course across that everlasting gulf of misery which is prepared to engulf the wicked — <sup>3:30</sup>and land their souls, yea, their immortal souls, at the right hand of God in the kingdom of heaven, to sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and with Jacob, and with all our holy fathers, to go no more out. <sup>3:31</sup>And in this year there was continual rejoicing in the land of Zarahemla, and in all the regions round about, even in all the land which was possessed by the Nephites. <sup>3:32</sup>And it came to pass that there was peace and exceedingly great joy in the remainder of the forty and ninth year; yea, and also there was continual peace and great joy in the fiftieth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>3:33</sup>And in the fifty and first year of the reign of the judges there was peace also, save it were the pride which began to enter into the church — not into the church of God, but into the hearts of the people who professed to belong to the church of God — <sup>3:34</sup>and they were lifted up in pride, even to the persecution of many of their brethren. Now this was a great evil, which did cause the more humble part of the people to suffer great persecutions, and to wade through much affliction. <sup>3:35</sup>Nevertheless they did fast and pray oft, and did wax stronger and stronger in their humility, and firmer and firmer in the faith of Christ, unto the filling their souls with joy and consolation, yea, even to the purifying and the sanctification of their hearts, which sanctification cometh because of their yielding their hearts unto God. <sup>3:36</sup>And it came to pass that the fifty and second year ended in peace also, save it were the exceedingly great pride which had gotten into the hearts of the people; and it was because of their exceedingly great riches and their prosperity in the land; and it did grow upon them from day to day. <sup>3:37</sup>And it came to pass in the fifty and third year of the reign of the judges, Helaman died, and his eldest son Nephi began to reign in his stead. And it came to pass that he did fill the judgment-seat with justice and equity; yea, he did keep the commandments of God, and did walk in the ways of his father. <sup>4:1</sup>And it came to pass in the fifty and fourth year there were many dissensions in the church, and there was also a contention among the people, insomuch that there was much bloodshed. <sup>4:2</sup>And the rebellious part were slain and driven out of the land, and they did go unto the king of the Lamanites. <sup>4:3</sup>And it came to pass that they did endeavor to stir up the Lamanites to war against the Nephites; but behold, the Lamanites were exceedingly afraid, insomuch that they would not hearken to the words of those dissenters. <sup>4:4</sup>But it came to pass in the fifty and sixth year of the reign of the judges, there were dissenters who went up from the Nephites unto the Lamanites; and they succeeded with those others in stirring them up to anger against the Nephites; and they were all that year preparing for war. <sup>4:5</sup>And in the fifty and seventh year they did come down against the Nephites to battle, and they did commence the work of death; yea, insomuch that in the fifty and eighth year of the reign of the judges they succeeded in obtaining possession of the land of Zarahemla; yea, and also all the lands, even unto the land which was near the land Bountiful. <sup>4:6</sup>And the Nephites and the armies of Moronihah were driven even into the land of Bountiful; <sup>4:7</sup>and there they did fortify against the Lamanites, from the west sea, even unto the east; it being a day's journey for a Nephite, on the line which they had fortified and stationed their armies to defend their north country. <sup>4:8</sup>And thus those dissenters of the Nephites, with the help of a numerous army of the Lamanites, had obtained all the possession of the Nephites which was in the land southward. And all this was done in the fifty and eighth and ninth years of the reign of the judges. <sup>4:9</sup>And it came to pass in the sixtieth year of the reign of the judges, Moronihah did succeed with his armies in obtaining many parts of the land; yea, they regained many cities which had fallen into the hands of the Lamanites. <sup>4:10</sup>And it came to pass in the sixty and first year of the reign of the judges they succeeded in regaining even the half of all their possessions. <sup>4:11</sup>Now this great loss of the Nephites, and the great slaughter which was among them, would not have happened had it not been for their wickedness and their abomination which was among them; yea, and it was among those also who professed to belong to the church of God. <sup>4:12</sup>And it was because of the pride of their hearts, because of their exceeding riches, yea, it was because of their oppression to the poor, withholding their food from the hungry, withholding their clothing from the naked, and smiting their humble brethren upon the cheek, making a mock of that which was sacred, denying the spirit of prophecy and of revelation, murdering, plundering, lying, stealing, committing adultery, rising up in great contentions, and deserting away into the land of

Nephi, among the Lamanites—<sup>4:13</sup>and because of this their great wickedness, and their boastings in their own strength, they were left in their own strength; therefore they did not prosper, but were afflicted and smitten, and driven before the Lamanites, until they had lost possession of almost all their lands. <sup>4:14</sup>But behold, Moronihah did preach many things unto the people because of their iniquity, and also Nephi and Lehi, who were the sons of Helaman, did preach many things unto the people, yea, and did prophesy many things unto them concerning their iniquities, and what should come unto them if they did not repent of their sins. <sup>4:15</sup>And it came to pass that they did repent, and inasmuch as they did repent they did begin to prosper. <sup>4:16</sup>For when Moronihah saw that they did repent he did venture to lead them forth from place to place, and from city to city, even until they had regained the one-half of their property and the one-half of all their lands. <sup>4:17</sup>And thus ended the sixty and first year of the reign of the judges. <sup>4:18</sup>And it came to pass in the sixty and second year of the reign of the judges, that Moronihah could obtain no more possessions over the Lamanites. <sup>4:19</sup>Therefore they did abandon their design to obtain the remainder of their lands, for so numerous were the Lamanites that it became impossible for the Nephites to obtain more power over them; therefore Moronihah did employ all his armies in maintaining those parts which he had taken. <sup>4:20</sup>And it came to pass, because of the greatness of the number of the Lamanites the Nephites were in great fear, lest they should be overpowered, and trodden down, and slain, and destroyed. <sup>4:21</sup>Yea, they began to remember the prophecies of Alma, and also the words of Mosiah; and they saw that they had been a stiffnecked people, and that they had set at naught the commandments of God; <sup>4:22</sup>and that they had altered and trampled under their feet the laws of Mosiah, or that which the Lord commanded him to give unto the people; and they saw that their laws had become corrupted, and that they had become a wicked people, insomuch that they were wicked even like unto the Lamanites. <sup>4:23</sup>And because of their iniquity the church had begun to dwindle; and they began to disbelieve in the spirit of prophecy and in the spirit of revelation; and the judgments of God did stare them in the face. <sup>4:24</sup>And they saw that they had become weak, like unto their brethren, the Lamanites, and that the Spirit of the Lord did no more preserve them; yea, it had withdrawn from them because the Spirit of the Lord doth not dwell in unholy temples—<sup>4:25</sup>therefore the Lord did cease to preserve them by his miraculous and matchless power, for they had fallen into a state of unbelief and awful wickedness; and they saw that the Lamanites were exceedingly more numerous than they, and except they should cleave unto the Lord their God they must unavoidably perish. <sup>4:26</sup>For behold, they saw that the strength of the Lamanites was as great as their strength, even man for man. And thus had they fallen into this great transgression; yea, thus had they become weak, because of their transgression, in the space of not many years. <sup>5:1</sup>And it came to pass that in this same year, behold, Nephi delivered up the judgment-seat to a man whose name was Cezoram. <sup>5:2</sup>For as their laws and their governments were established by the voice of the people, and they who chose evil were more numerous than they who chose good, therefore they were ripening for destruction, for the laws had become corrupted. <sup>5:3</sup>Yea, and this was not all; they were a stiffnecked people, insomuch that they could not be governed by the law nor justice, save it were to their destruction. <sup>5:4</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi had become weary because of their iniquity; and he yielded up the judgment-seat, and took it upon him to preach the word of God all the remainder of his days, and his brother Lehi also, all the remainder of his days; <sup>5:5</sup>for they remembered the words which their father Helaman spake unto them. And these are the words which he spake: <sup>5:6</sup>Behold, my sons, I desire that ye should remember to keep the commandments of God; and I would that ye should declare unto the people these words. Behold, I have given unto you the names of our first parents who came out of the land of Jerusalem; and this I have done that when you remember your names ye may remember them; and when ye remember them ye may remember their works; and when ye remember their works ye may know how that it is said, and also written, that they were good. <sup>5:7</sup>Therefore, my sons, I would that ye should do that which is good, that it may be said of you, and also written, even as it has been said and written of them. <sup>5:8</sup>And now my sons, behold I have somewhat more to desire of you, which desire is, that ye may not do these things that ye may boast, but that ye may do these things to lay up for yourselves a treasure in heaven, yea, which is eternal, and which fadeth not away; yea, that ye may have that precious gift of eternal life, which we have reason to suppose hath been given to our fathers. <sup>5:9</sup>O remember, remember, my sons, the words which king Benjamin spake unto his people; yea, remember that there is no other way nor means whereby man can be saved, only through the atoning blood of Jesus Christ, who shall come; yea, remember that he cometh to redeem the world. <sup>5:10</sup>And remember also the words which Amulek spake unto Zeezrom, in the city of Ammonihah; for he said unto him that the Lord surely should come to redeem his people, but that he should not come to redeem them in their sins, but to redeem them from their sins. <sup>5:11</sup>And he hath power given unto him from the Father to redeem them from their sins because of repentance; therefore he hath sent his angels to declare the tidings of the conditions of repentance, which bringeth unto the power of the Redeemer, unto the salvation of their souls. <sup>5:12</sup>And now, my sons, remember, remember that it is upon the rock of our Redeemer, who is Christ, the Son of God, that ye must build your foundation; that when the devil shall send forth his mighty winds, yea, his shafts in the whirlwind, yea, when all his hail and his mighty storm shall beat upon you, it shall have no power over you to drag you down to the gulf of misery and endless wo, because of the rock upon which ye are built, which is a sure foundation, a foundation whereon if men build they cannot fall. <sup>5:13</sup>And it came to pass that these were the words which Helaman taught to his sons; yea, he did teach them many things which are not written, and also many things which are written. <sup>5:14</sup>And they did remember his words; and therefore they went forth, keeping the commandments of God, to teach the word of God among all the people of Nephi, beginning at the city Bountiful; <sup>5:15</sup>and from thenceforth to the city of Gid; and from the city of Gid to the city of Mulek; <sup>5:16</sup>and even from one city to another, until they had gone forth among all the people of Nephi who were in the land southward; and from thence into the land of Zarahemla, among the Lamanites. <sup>5:17</sup>And it came to pass that they did preach with great power, insomuch that they did confound many of those dissenters who had gone over from the Nephites, insomuch that they came forth and did confess their sins and were baptized unto repentance, and immediately returned to the Nephites to endeavor to repair unto them the wrongs which they had done. <sup>5:18</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi did preach unto the Lamanites with such great power and authority, for they had power and authority given unto them that they might speak, and they also had what they should speak given unto them — <sup>5:19</sup>therefore they did speak unto the great astonishment of the Lamanites, to the convincing them, insomuch that there were eight thousand of the Lamanites who were in the land of Zarahemla and round about baptized unto repentance, and were convinced of the wickedness of the traditions of their fathers. <sup>5:20</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi did proceed from thence to go to the land of Nephi. <sup>5:21</sup>And it came to pass that they were taken by an army of the Lamanites and cast into prison; yea, even in that same prison in which Ammon and his brethren were cast by the servants of Limhi. <sup>5:22</sup>And after they had been cast into prison many days without food, behold, they went forth into the prison to take them that they might slay them. <sup>5:23</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi were encircled about as if by fire, even insomuch that they durst not lay their hands upon them for fear lest they should be burned. Nevertheless, Nephi and Lehi were not burned; and they were as standing in the midst of fire and were not burned. <sup>5:24</sup>And when they saw that they were encircled about with a pillar of fire, and that it burned them not, their hearts did take courage. <sup>5:25</sup>For they saw that the Lamanites durst not lay their hands upon them; neither durst they come near unto them, but stood as if they were struck dumb with amazement. <sup>5:26</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi did stand forth and began to speak unto them, saying: Fear not, for behold, it is God that has shown unto you this marvelous thing, in the which is shown unto you that ye cannot lay your hands on us to slay us. <sup>5:27</sup>And behold, when they had said these words, the earth shook exceedingly, and the walls of the prison did shake as if they were about to tumble to the earth; but behold, they did not fall. And behold, they that were in the prison were Lamanites and Nephites who were dissenters. <sup>5:28</sup>And it came to pass that they were overshadowed with a cloud of darkness, and an awful solemn fear came upon them. <sup>5:29</sup>And it came to pass that there came a voice as if it were above the cloud of darkness, saying: Repent ye, repent ye, and seek no more to destroy my servants whom I have sent unto you to declare good tidings. <sup>5:30</sup>And it came to pass when they heard this voice, and beheld that it was not a voice of thunder, neither was it a voice of a great tumultuous noise, but behold, it was a still voice of perfect mildness, as if it had been a whisper, and it did pierce even to the very soul—<sup>5:31</sup>and notwithstanding the mildness of the voice, behold the earth shook exceedingly, and the walls of the prison trembled again, as if it were about to tumble to the earth; and behold the cloud of darkness, which had overshadowed them, did not disperse—<sup>5:32</sup>and behold the voice came again, saying: Repent ye, repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand; and seek no more to destroy my servants. And it came to pass that the earth shook again, and the walls trembled.<sup>5:33</sup> And also again the third time the voice came, and did speak unto them marvelous words which cannot be uttered by man; and the walls did tremble again, and the earth shook as if it were about to divide asunder.<sup>5:34</sup> And it came to pass that the Lamanites could not flee because of the cloud of darkness which did overshadow them; yea, and also they were immovable because of the fear which did come upon them.<sup>5:35</sup> Now there was one among them who was a Nephite by birth, who had once belonged to the church of God but had dissented from them.<sup>5:36</sup> And it came to pass that he turned him about, and behold, he saw through the cloud of darkness the faces of Nephi and Lehi; and behold, they did shine exceedingly, even as the faces of angels. And he beheld that they did lift their eyes to heaven; and they were in the attitude as if talking or lifting their voices to some being whom they beheld.<sup>5:37</sup> And it came to pass that this man did cry unto the multitude, that they might turn and look. And behold, there was power given unto them that they did turn and look; and they did behold the faces of Nephi and Lehi.<sup>5:38</sup> And they said unto the man: Behold, what do all these things mean, and who is it with whom these men do converse?<sup>5:39</sup> Now the man's name was Aminadab. And Aminadab said unto them: They do converse with the angels of God.<sup>5:40</sup> And it came to pass that the Lamanites said unto him: What shall we do, that this cloud of darkness may be removed from overshadowing us?<sup>5:41</sup> And Aminadab said unto them: You must repent, and cry unto the voice, even until ye shall have faith in Christ, who was taught unto you by Alma, and Amulek, and Zeezrom; and when ye shall do this, the cloud of darkness shall be removed from overshadowing you.<sup>5:42</sup> And it came to pass that they all did begin to cry unto the voice of him who had shaken the earth; yea, they did cry even until the cloud of darkness was dispersed.<sup>5:43</sup> And it came to pass that when they cast their eyes about, and saw that the cloud of darkness was dispersed from overshadowing them, behold, they saw that they were encircled about, yea every soul, by a pillar of fire.<sup>5:44</sup> And Nephi and Lehi were in the midst of them; yea, they were encircled about; yea, they were as if in the midst of a flaming fire, yet it did harm them not, neither did it take hold upon the walls of the prison; and they were filled with that joy which is unspeakable and full of glory.<sup>5:45</sup> And behold, the Holy Spirit of God did come down from heaven, and did enter into their hearts, and they were filled as if with fire, and they could speak forth marvelous words.<sup>5:46</sup> And it came to pass that there came a voice unto them, yea, a pleasant voice, as if it were a whisper, saying:<sup>5:47</sup> Peace, peace be unto you, because of your faith in my Well Beloved, who was from the foundation of the world. <sup>5:48</sup>And now, when they heard this they cast up their eyes as if to behold from whence the voice came; and behold, they saw the heavens open; and angels came down out of heaven and ministered unto them. <sup>5:49</sup>And there were about three hundred souls who saw and heard these things; and they were bidden to go forth and marvel not, neither should they doubt. <sup>5:50</sup>And it came to pass that they did go forth, and did minister unto the people, declaring throughout all the regions round about all the things which they had heard and seen, insomuch that the more part of the Lamanites were convinced of them, because of the greatness of the evidences which they had received. <sup>5:51</sup>And as many as were convinced did lay down their weapons of war, and also their hatred and the tradition of their fathers. <sup>5:52</sup>And it came to pass that they did yield up unto the Nephites the lands of their possession. <sup>6:1</sup>And it came to pass that when the sixty and second year of the reign of the judges had ended, all these things had happened and the Lamanites had become, the more part of them, a righteous people, insomuch that their righteousness did exceed that of the Nephites, because of their firmness and their steadiness in the faith. <sup>6:2</sup>For behold, there were many of the Nephites who had become hardened and impenitent and grossly wicked, insomuch that they did reject the word of God and all the preaching and prophesying which did come among them.

<sup>6:3</sup>Nevertheless, the people of the church did have great joy because of the conversion of the Lamanites, yea, because of the church of God, which had been established among them. And they did fellowship one with another, and did rejoice one with another, and did have great joy. <sup>6:4</sup>And it came to pass that many of the Lamanites did come down into the land of Zarahemla, and did declare unto the people of the Nephites the manner of their conversion, and did exhort them to faith and repentance. <sup>6:5</sup>Yea, and many did preach with exceedingly great power and authority, unto the bringing down many of them into the depths of humility, to be the humble followers of God and the Lamb. <sup>6:6</sup>And it came to pass that many of the Lamanites did go into the land northward; and also Nephi and Lehi went into the land northward, to preach unto the people. And thus ended the sixty and third year. <sup>6:7</sup>And behold, there was peace in all the land, insomuch that the Nephites did go into whatsoever part of the land they would, whether among the Nephites or the Lamanites. <sup>6:8</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites did also go whithersoever they would, whether it were among the Lamanites or among the Nephites; and thus they did have free intercourse one with another, to buy and to sell, and to get gain, according to their desire. <sup>6:9</sup>And it came to pass that they became exceedingly rich, both the Lamanites and the Nephites; and they did have an exceeding plenty of gold, and of silver, and of all manner of precious metals, both in the land south and in the land north. <sup>6:10</sup>Now the land south was called Lehi and the land north was called Mulek, which was after the son of Zedekiah; for the Lord did bring Mulek into the land north, and Lehi into the land south. <sup>6:11</sup>And behold, there was all manner of gold in both these lands, and of silver, and of precious ore of every kind; and there were also curious workmen, who did work all kinds of ore and did refine it; and thus they did become rich. <sup>6:12</sup>They did raise grain in abundance, both in the north and in the south; and they did flourish exceedingly, both in the north and in the south. And they did multiply and wax exceedingly strong in the land. And they did raise many flocks and herds, yea, many fatlings. <sup>6:13</sup>Behold their women did toil and spin, and did make all manner of cloth, of fine-twined linen and cloth of every kind, to clothe their nakedness. And thus the sixty and fourth year did pass away in peace. <sup>6:14</sup>And in the sixty and fifth year they did also have great joy and peace, yea, much preaching and many prophecies concerning that which was to come. And thus passed away the sixty and fifth year. <sup>6:15</sup>And it came to pass that in the sixty and sixth year of the reign of the judges, behold, Cezoram was murdered by an unknown hand as he sat upon the judgment-seat. And it came to pass that in the same year, that his son, who had been appointed by the people in his stead, was also murdered. And thus ended the sixty and sixth year. <sup>6:16</sup>And in the commencement of the sixty and seventh year the people began to grow exceedingly wicked again. <sup>6:17</sup>For behold, the Lord had blessed them so long with the riches of the world that they had not been stirred up to anger, to wars, nor to bloodshed; therefore they began to set their hearts upon their riches; yea, they began to seek to get gain that they might be lifted up one above another; therefore they began to commit secret murders, and to rob and to plunder, that they might get gain. <sup>6:18</sup>And now behold, those murderers and plunderers were a band who had been formed by Kishkumen and Gadianton. And now it had come to pass that there were many, even among the Nephites, of Gadianton's band. But behold, they were more numerous among the more wicked part of the Lamanites. And they were called Gadianton's robbers and murderers. <sup>6:19</sup>And it was they who did murder the chief judge Cezoram, and his son, while in the judgment-seat; and behold, they were not found. <sup>6:20</sup>And now it came to pass that when the Lamanites found that there were robbers among them they were exceedingly sorrowful; and they did use every means in their power to destroy them off the face of the earth. <sup>6:21</sup>But behold, Satan did stir up the hearts of the more part of the Nephites, insomuch that they did unite with those bands of robbers, and did enter into their covenants and their oaths, that they would protect and preserve one another in whatsoever difficult circumstances they should be placed, that they should not suffer for their murders, and their plunderings, and their stealings. <sup>6:22</sup>And it came to pass that they did have their signs, yea, their secret signs, and their secret words; and this that they might distinguish a brother who had entered into the covenant, that whatsoever wickedness his brother should do he should not be injured by his brother, nor by those who did belong to his band, who had taken this covenant. <sup>6:23</sup>And thus they might murder, and plunder, and steal, and commit whoredoms and all manner of wickedness, contrary to the laws of their country and also the laws of their God. <sup>6:24</sup>And whosoever of those who belonged to their band should reveal unto the world of their wickedness and their abominations, should be tried, not

according to the laws of their country, but according to the laws of their wickedness, which had been given by Gadianton and Kishkumen. <sup>6:25</sup>Now behold, it is these secret oaths and covenants which Alma commanded his son should not go forth unto the world, lest they should be a means of bringing down the people unto destruction. <sup>6:26</sup>Now behold, those secret oaths and covenants did not come forth unto Gadianton from the records which were delivered unto Helaman; but behold, they were put into the heart of Gadianton by that same being who did entice our first parents to partake of the forbidden fruit—<sup>6:27</sup>yea, that same being who did plot with Cain, that if he would murder his brother Abel it should not be known unto the world. And he did plot with Cain and his followers from that time forth. <sup>6:28</sup>And also it is that same being who put it into the hearts of the people to build a tower sufficiently high that they might get to heaven. And it was that same being who led on the people who came from that tower into this land; who spread the works of darkness and abominations over all the face of the land, until he dragged the people down to an entire destruction, and to an everlasting hell. <sup>6:29</sup>Yea, it is that same being who put it into the heart of Gadianton to still carry on the work of darkness, and of secret murder; and he has brought it forth from the beginning of man even down to this time. <sup>6:30</sup>And behold, it is he who is the author of all sin. And behold, he doth carry on his works of darkness and secret murder, and doth hand down their plots, and their oaths, and their covenants, and their plans of awful wickedness, from generation to generation according as he can get hold upon the hearts of the children of men. <sup>6:31</sup>And now behold, he had got great hold upon the hearts of the Nephites; yea, insomuch that they had become exceedingly wicked; yea, the more part of them had turned out of the way of righteousness, and did trample under their feet the commandments of God, and did turn unto their own ways, and did build up unto themselves idols of their gold and their silver. <sup>6:32</sup>And it came to pass that all these iniquities did come unto them in the space of not many years, insomuch that a more part of it had come unto them in the sixty and seventh year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>6:33</sup>And they did grow in their iniquities in the sixty and eighth year also, to the great sorrow and lamentation of the righteous. <sup>6:34</sup>And thus we see that the Nephites did begin to dwindle in unbelief, and grow in wickedness and abominations, while the Lamanites began to grow exceedingly in the knowledge of their God; yea, they did begin to keep his statutes and commandments, and to walk in truth and uprightness before him. <sup>6:35</sup>And thus we see that the Spirit of the Lord began to withdraw from the Nephites, because of the wickedness and the hardness of their hearts. <sup>6:36</sup>And thus we see that the Lord began to pour out his Spirit upon the Lamanites, because of their easiness and willingness to believe in his words. <sup>6:37</sup>And it came to pass that the Lamanites did hunt the band of robbers of Gadianton; and they did preach the word of God among the more wicked part of them, insomuch that this band of robbers was utterly destroyed from among the Lamanites. <sup>6:38</sup>And it came to pass on the other hand, that the Nephites did build them up and support them, beginning at the more wicked part of them, until they had overspread all the land of the Nephites, and had seduced the more part of the righteous until they had come down to believe in their works and partake of their spoils, and to join with them in their secret murders and combinations.

<sup>6:39</sup>And thus they did obtain the sole management of the government, insomuch that they did trample under their feet and smite and rend and turn their backs upon the poor and the meek, and the humble followers of God. <sup>6:40</sup>And thus we see that they were in an awful state, and ripening for an everlasting destruction.

<sup>6:41</sup>And it came to pass that thus ended the sixty and eighth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup><III></sup>The prophecy of Nephi, the son of Helaman—God threatens the people of Nephi that he will visit them in his anger, to their utter destruction except they repent of their wickedness. God smiteth the people of Nephi with pestilence; they repent and turn unto him. Samuel, a Lamanite, prophesies unto the Nephites. <sup>7:1</sup>Behold, now it came to pass in the sixty and ninth year of the reign of the judges over the people of the Nephites, that Nephi, the son of Helaman, returned to the land of Zarahemla from the land northward. <sup>7:2</sup>For he had been forth among the people who were in the land northward and did preach the word of God unto them, and did prophesy many things unto them; <sup>7:3</sup>and they did reject all his words, insomuch that he could not stay among them, but returned again unto the land of his nativity. <sup>7:4</sup>And seeing the people in a state of such awful wickedness, and those Gadianton robbers filling the judgment-seats—having usurped the power and authority of the land; laying aside the commandments of God, and not in the least aright before him; doing no justice unto the children of men; <sup>7:5</sup>condemning the righteous because of their righteousness; letting the guilty and the wicked go unpunished because of their money; and moreover to be held in office at the head of government, to rule and do according to their wills, that they might get gain and glory of the world, and, moreover, that they might the more easily commit adultery, and steal, and kill, and do according to their own wills—<sup>7:6</sup>now this great iniquity had come upon the Nephites, in the space of not many years; and when Nephi saw it, his heart was swollen with sorrow within his breast; and he did exclaim in the agony of his soul: <sup>7:7</sup>Oh, that I could have had my days in the days when my father Nephi first came out of the land of Jerusalem, that I could have joyed with him in the promised land; then were his people easy to be entreated, firm to keep the commandments of God, and slow to be led to do iniquity; and they were quick to hearken unto the words of the Lord—<sup>7:8</sup>yea, if my days could have been in those days, then would my soul have had joy in the righteousness of my brethren.

<sup>7:9</sup>But behold, I am consigned that these are my days, and that my soul shall be filled with sorrow because of this the wickedness of my brethren. <sup>7:10</sup>And behold, now it came to pass that it was upon a tower, which was in the garden of Nephi, which was by the highway which led to the chief market, which was in the city of Zarahemla; therefore, Nephi had bowed himself upon the tower which was in his garden, which tower was also near unto the garden gate by which led the highway. <sup>7:11</sup>And it came to pass that there were certain men passing by and saw Nephi as he was pouring out his soul unto God upon the tower; and they ran and told the people what they had seen, and the people came together in multitudes that they might know the cause of so great mourning for the wickedness of the people. <sup>7:12</sup>And now, when Nephi arose he beheld the multitudes of people who had gathered together. <sup>7:13</sup>And it came to pass that he opened his mouth and said unto them: Behold, why have ye gathered yourselves together? That I may tell you of your iniquities? <sup>7:14</sup>Yea, because I have got upon my tower that I might pour out my soul unto my God, because of the exceeding sorrow of my heart, which is because of your iniquities! <sup>7:15</sup>And because of my mourning and lamentation ye have gathered yourselves together, and do marvel; yea, and ye have great need to marvel; yea, ye ought to marvel because ye are given away that the devil has got so great hold upon your hearts. <sup>7:16</sup>Yea, how could you have given way to the enticing of him who is seeking to hurl away your souls down to everlasting misery and endless wo? <sup>7:17</sup>O repent ye, repent ye! Why will ye die? Turn ye, turn ye unto the Lord your God. Why has he forsaken you? <sup>7:18</sup>It is because you have hardened your hearts; yea, ye will not hearken unto the voice of the good shepherd; yea, ye have provoked him to anger against you. <sup>7:19</sup>And behold, instead of gathering you, except ye will repent, behold, he shall scatter you forth that ye shall become meat for dogs and wild beasts. <sup>7:20</sup>O, how could you have forgotten your God in the very day that he has delivered you? <sup>7:21</sup>But behold, it is to get gain, to be praised of men, yea, and that ye might get gold and silver. And ye have set your hearts upon the riches and the vain things of this world, for the which ye do murder, and plunder, and steal, and bear false witness against your neighbor, and do all manner of iniquity. <sup>7:22</sup>And for this cause wo shall come unto you except ye shall repent. For if ye will not repent, behold, this great city, and also all those great cities which are round about, which are in the land of our possession, shall be taken away that ye shall have no place in them; for behold, the Lord will not grant unto you strength, as he has hitherto done, to withstand against your enemies. <sup>7:23</sup>For behold, thus saith the Lord: I will not show unto the wicked of my strength, to one more than the other, save it be unto those who repent of their sins, and hearken unto my words. Now therefore, I would that ye should behold, my brethren, that it shall be better for the Lamanites than for you except ye shall repent. <sup>7:24</sup>For behold, they are more righteous than you, for they have not sinned against that great knowledge which ye have received; therefore the Lord will be merciful unto them; yea, he will lengthen out their days and increase their seed, even when thou shalt be utterly destroyed except thou shalt repent. <sup>7:25</sup>Yea, wo be unto you because of that great abomination which has come among you; and ye have united yourselves unto it, yea, to that secret band which was established by Gadianton! <sup>7:26</sup>Yea, wo shall come unto you because of that pride which ye have suffered to enter your hearts, which has lifted you up beyond that which is good because of your exceedingly great riches! <sup>7:27</sup>Yea, wo be unto you because of your wickedness and abominations! <sup>7:28</sup>And except ye repent ye shall perish; yea, even your lands shall be taken from you, and ye shall be destroyed from off the face of the earth.

<sup>7:29</sup>Behold now, I do not say that these things shall be, of myself, because it is not of myself that I know these things; but behold, I know that these things are true because the Lord God has made them known unto me, therefore I testify that they shall be. <sup>8:1</sup>And now it came to pass that when Nephi had said these words, behold, there were men who were judges, who also belonged to the secret band of Gadianton, and they were angry, and they cried out against him, saying unto the people: Why do ye not seize upon this man and bring him forth, that he may be condemned according to the crime which he has done? <sup>8:2</sup>Why seest thou this man, and hearest him revile against this people and against our law? <sup>8:3</sup>For behold, Nephi had spoken unto them concerning the corruptness of their law; yea, many things did Nephi speak which cannot be written; and nothing did he speak which was contrary to the commandments of God. <sup>8:4</sup>And those judges were angry with him because he spake plainly unto them concerning their secret works of darkness; nevertheless, they durst not lay their own hands upon him, for they feared the people lest they should cry out against them. <sup>8:5</sup>Therefore they did cry unto the people, saying: Why do you suffer this man to revile against us? For behold he doth condemn all this people, even unto destruction; yea, and also that these our great cities shall be taken from us, that we shall have no place in them. <sup>8:6</sup>And now we know that this is impossible, for behold, we are powerful, and our cities great, therefore our enemies can have no power over us. <sup>8:7</sup>And it came to pass that thus they did stir up the people to anger against Nephi, and raised contentions among them; for there were some who did cry out: Let this man alone, for he is a good man, and those things which he saith will surely come to pass except we repent; <sup>8:8</sup>yea, behold, all the judgments will come upon us which he has testified unto us; for we know that he has testified aright unto us concerning our iniquities. And behold they are many, and he knoweth as well all things which shall befall us as he knoweth of our iniquities; <sup>8:9</sup>yea, and behold, if he had not been a prophet he could not have testified concerning those things.

<sup>8:10</sup>And it came to pass that those people who sought to destroy Nephi were compelled because of their fear, that they did not lay their hands on him; therefore he began again to speak unto them, seeing that he had gained favor in the eyes of some, insomuch that the remainder of them did fear. <sup>8:11</sup>Therefore he was constrained to speak more unto them saying: Behold, my brethren, have ye not read that God gave power unto one man, even Moses, to smite upon the waters of the Red Sea, and they parted hither and thither, insomuch that the Israelites, who were our fathers, came through upon dry ground, and the waters closed upon the armies of the Egyptians and swallowed them up? <sup>8:12</sup>And now behold, if God gave unto this man such power, then why should ye dispute among yourselves, and say that he hath given unto me no power whereby I may know concerning the judgments that shall come upon you except ye repent?

<sup>8:13</sup>But, behold, ye not only deny my words, but ye also deny all the words which have been spoken by our fathers, and also the words which were spoken by this man, Moses, who had such great power given unto him, yea, the words which he hath spoken concerning the coming of the Messiah. <sup>8:14</sup>Yea, did he not bear record that the Son of God should come? And as he lifted up the brazen serpent in the wilderness, even so shall he be lifted up who should come. <sup>8:15</sup>And as many as should look upon that serpent should live, even so as many as should look upon the Son of God with faith, having a contrite spirit, might live, even unto that life which is eternal. <sup>8:16</sup>And now behold, Moses did not only testify of these things, but also all the holy prophets, from his days even to the days of Abraham. <sup>8:17</sup>Yea, and behold, Abraham saw of his coming, and was filled with gladness and did rejoice. <sup>8:18</sup>Yea, and behold I say unto you, that Abraham not only knew of these things, but there were many before the days of Abraham who were called by the order of God; yea, even after the order of his Son; and this that it should be shown unto the people, a great many thousand years before his coming, that even redemption should come unto them. <sup>8:19</sup>And now I would that ye should know, that even since the days of Abraham there have been many prophets that have testified these things; yea, behold, the prophet Zenos did testify boldly; for the which he was slain. <sup>8:20</sup>And behold, also Zenock, and also Ezias, and also Isaiah, and Jeremiah, (Jeremiah being that same prophet who testified of the destruction of Jerusalem) and now we know that Jerusalem was destroyed according to the words of Jeremiah. O then why not the Son of God come, according to his prophecy? <sup>8:21</sup>And now will you dispute that Jerusalem was destroyed? Will ye say that the sons of Zedekiah were not slain, all except it were Mulek? Yea, and do ye not behold that the seed of Zedekiah are with us, and they were driven out of the land of Jerusalem? But behold, this is not all — <sup>8:22</sup>our father Lehi was driven out of Jerusalem because he testified of these things. Nephi also testified of these things, and also almost all of our fathers, even down to this time; yea, they have testified of the coming of Christ, and have looked forward, and have rejoiced in his day which is to come. <sup>8:23</sup>And behold, he is God, and he is with them, and he did manifest himself unto them, that they were redeemed by him; and they gave unto him glory, because of that which is to come. <sup>8:24</sup>And now, seeing ye know these things and cannot deny them except ye shall lie, therefore in this ye have sinned, for ye have rejected all these things, notwithstanding so many evidences which ye have received; yea, even ye have received all things, both things in heaven, and all things which are in the earth, as a witness that they are true. <sup>8:25</sup>But behold, ye have rejected the truth, and rebelled against your holy God; and even at this time, instead of laying up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where nothing doth corrupt, and where nothing can come which is unclean, ye are heaping up for yourselves wrath against the day of judgment. <sup>8:26</sup>Yea, even at this time ye are ripening, because of your murders and your fornication and wickedness, for everlasting destruction; yea, and except ye repent it will come unto you soon. <sup>8:27</sup>Yea, behold it is now even at your doors; yea, go ye in unto the judgment-seat, and search; and behold, your judge is murdered, and he lieth in his blood; and he hath been murdered by his brother, who seeketh to sit in the judgment-seat. <sup>8:28</sup>And behold, they both belong to your secret band, whose author is Gadianton and the evil one who seeketh to destroy the souls of men. <sup>9:1</sup>Behold, now it came to pass that when Nephi had spoken these words, certain men who were among them ran to the judgment-seat; yea, even there were five who went, and they said among themselves, as they went: <sup>9:2</sup>Behold, now we will know of a surety whether this man be a prophet and God hath commanded him to prophesy such marvelous things unto us. Behold, we do not believe that he hath; yea, we do not believe that he is a prophet; nevertheless, if this thing which he has said concerning the chief judge be true, that he be dead, then will we believe that the other words which he has spoken are true. <sup>9:3</sup>And it came to pass that they ran in their might, and came in unto the judgment-seat; and behold, the chief judge had fallen to the earth, and did lie in his blood. <sup>9:4</sup>And now behold, when they saw this they were astonished exceedingly, insomuch that they fell to the earth; for they had not believed the words which Nephi had spoken concerning the chief judge. <sup>9:5</sup>But now, when they saw they believed, and fear came upon them lest all the judgments which Nephi had spoken should come upon the people; therefore they did quake, and had fallen to the earth. <sup>9:6</sup>Now, immediately when the judge had been murdered—he being stabbed by his brother by a garb of secrecy, and he fled, and the servants ran and told the people, raising the cry of murder among them; <sup>9:7</sup>and behold the people did gather themselves together unto the place of the judgment-seat—and behold, to their astonishment they saw those five men who had fallen to the earth. <sup>9:8</sup>And now behold, the people knew nothing concerning the multitude who had gathered together at the garden of Nephi; therefore they said among themselves: These men are they who have murdered the judge, and God has smitten them that they could not flee from us. <sup>9:9</sup>And it came to pass that they laid hold on them, and bound them and cast them into prison. And there was a proclamation sent abroad that the judge was slain, and that the murderers had been taken and were cast into prison. <sup>9:10</sup>And it came to pass that on the morrow the people did assemble themselves together to mourn and to fast, at the burial of the great chief judge who had been slain. <sup>9:11</sup>And thus also those judges who were at the garden of Nephi, and heard his words, were also gathered together at the burial. <sup>9:12</sup>And it came to pass that they inquired among the people, saying: Where are the five who were sent to inquire concerning the chief judge whether he was dead? And they answered and said: Concerning this five whom ye say ye have sent, we know not; but there are five who are the murderers, whom we have cast into prison. <sup>9:13</sup>And it came to pass that the judges desired that they should be brought; and they were brought, and behold they were the five who were sent; and behold the judges inquired of them to know concerning the matter, and they told them all that they had done, saying: <sup>9:14</sup>We ran and came to the place of the judgment-seat, and when we saw all things even as Nephi had testified, we were astonished insomuch that we fell to the earth; and when we were recovered from our astonishment, behold they cast us into prison. <sup>9:15</sup>Now, as for the murder of this man, we know not who has done it; and only this much we know, we ran and came according as ye desired, and behold he was dead, according to the words of Nephi. <sup>9:16</sup>And now it came to pass that the judges did expound the matter unto the people, and did cry out against Nephi, saying: Behold, we know that this Nephi must have agreed with some one to slay the judge, and then he might declare it unto us, that he might convert us unto his faith, that he might raise himself to be a great man, chosen of God, and a prophet. <sup>9:17</sup>And now behold, we will detect this man, and he shall confess his fault and make known unto us the true murderer of this judge. <sup>9:18</sup>And it came to pass that the five were liberated on the day of the burial. Nevertheless, they did rebuke the judges in the words which they had spoken against Nephi, and did contend with them one by one, insomuch that they did confound them. <sup>9:19</sup>Nevertheless, they caused that Nephi should be taken and bound and brought before the multitude, and they began to question him in divers ways that they might cross him, that they might accuse him to death — <sup>9:20</sup>saying unto him: Thou art confederate; who is this man that hath done this murder? Now tell us, and acknowledge thy fault; saying, Behold here is money; and also we will grant unto thee thy life if thou wilt tell us, and acknowledge the agreement which thou hast made with him. <sup>9:21</sup>But Nephi said unto them: O ye fools, ye uncircumcised of heart, ye blind, and ye stiffnecked people, do ye know how long the Lord your God will suffer you that ye shall go on in this your way of sin? <sup>9:22</sup>O ye ought to begin to howl and mourn, because of the great destruction which at this time doth await you, except ye shall repent. <sup>9:23</sup>Behold ye say that I have agreed with a man that he should murder Seezoram, our chief judge. But behold, I say unto you, that this is because I have testified unto you that ye might know concerning this thing; yea, even for a witness unto you, that I did know of the wickedness and abominations which are among you. <sup>9:24</sup>And because I have done this, ye say that I have agreed with a man that he should do this thing; yea, because I showed unto you this sign ye are angry with me, and seek to destroy my life. <sup>9:25</sup>And now behold, I will show unto you another sign, and see if ye will in this thing seek to destroy me. <sup>9:26</sup>Behold I say unto you: Go to the house of Seantum, who is the brother of Seezoram, and say unto him — <sup>9:27</sup>has Nephi, the pretended prophet, who doth prophesy so much evil concerning this people, agreed with thee, in the which ye have murdered Seezoram, who is your brother? <sup>9:28</sup>And behold, he shall say unto you, Nay. <sup>9:29</sup>And ye shall say unto him: Have ye murdered your brother? <sup>9:30</sup>And he shall stand with fear, and wist not what to say. And behold, he shall deny unto you; and he shall make as if he were astonished; nevertheless, he shall declare unto you that he is innocent. <sup>9:31</sup>But behold, ye shall examine him, and ye shall find blood upon the skirts of his cloak. <sup>9:32</sup>And when ye have seen this, ye shall say: From whence cometh this blood? Do we not know that it is the blood of your brother? <sup>9:33</sup>And then shall he tremble, and shall look pale, even as if death had come upon him. <sup>9:34</sup>And then shall ye say: Because of this fear and this paleness which has come upon your face, behold, we know that thou art guilty. <sup>9:35</sup>And then shall greater fear come upon him; and then shall he confess unto you, and deny no more that he has done this murder. <sup>9:36</sup>And then shall he say unto you, that I, Nephi, know nothing concerning the matter save it were given unto me by the power of God. And then shall ye know that I am an honest man, and that I am sent unto you from God. <sup>9:37</sup>And it came to pass that they went and did, even according as Nephi had said unto them. And behold, the words which he had said were true; for according to the words he did deny; and also according to the words he did confess. <sup>9:38</sup>And he was brought to prove that he himself was the very murderer, insomuch that the five were set at liberty, and also was Nephi. <sup>9:39</sup>And there were some of the Nephites who believed on the words of Nephi; and there were some also, who believed because of the testimony of the five, for they had been converted while they were in prison. <sup>9:40</sup>And now there were some among the people, who said that Nephi was a prophet. <sup>9:41</sup>And there were others who said: Behold, he is a god, for except he was a god he could not know of all things. For behold, he has told us the thoughts of our hearts, and also has told us things; and even he has brought unto our knowledge the true murderer of our chief judge. <sup>10:1</sup>And it came to pass that there arose a division among the people, insomuch that they divided hither and thither and went their ways, leaving Nephi alone, as he was standing in the midst of them. <sup>10:2</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi went his way towards his own house, pondering upon the things which the Lord had shown unto him. <sup>10:3</sup>And it came to pass as he was thus pondering—being much cast down because of the wickedness of the people of the Nephites, their secret works of darkness, and their murderings, and their plunderings, and all manner of iniquities—and it came to pass as he was thus pondering in his heart, behold, a voice came unto him saying: <sup>10:4</sup>Blessed art thou, Nephi, for those things which thou hast done; for I have beheld how thou hast with unwearyingness declared the word, which I have given unto thee, unto this people. And thou hast not feared them, and hast not sought thine own life, but hast sought my will, and to keep my commandments. <sup>10:5</sup>And now, because thou hast done this with such unwearyingness, behold, I will bless thee forever; and I will make thee mighty in word and in deed, in faith and in works; yea, even that all things shall be done unto thee according to thy word, for thou shalt not ask that which is contrary to my will. <sup>10:6</sup>Behold, thou art Nephi, and I am God. Behold, I declare it unto thee in the presence of mine angels, that ye shall have power over this people, and shall smite the earth with famine, and with pestilence, and destruction, according to the wickedness of this people. <sup>10:7</sup>Behold, I give unto you power, that whatsoever ye shall seal on earth shall be sealed in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven; and thus shall ye have power among this people. <sup>10:8</sup>And thus, if ye shall say unto this temple it shall be rent in twain, it shall be done. <sup>10:9</sup>And if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou cast down and become smooth, it shall be done. <sup>10:10</sup>And behold, if ye shall say that

God shall smite this people, it shall come to pass. <sup>10:11</sup>And now behold, I command you, that ye shall go and declare unto this people, that thus saith the Lord God, who is the Almighty: Except ye repent ye shall be smitten, even unto destruction. <sup>10:12</sup>And behold, now it came to pass that when the Lord had spoken these words unto Nephi, he did stop and did not go unto his own house, but did return unto the multitudes who were scattered about upon the face of the land, and began to declare unto them the word of the Lord which had been spoken unto him, concerning their destruction if they did not repent. <sup>10:13</sup>Now behold, notwithstanding that great miracle which Nephi had done in telling them concerning the death of the chief judge, they did harden their hearts and did not hearken unto the words of the Lord. <sup>10:14</sup>Therefore Nephi did declare unto them the word of the Lord, saying: Except ye repent, thus saith the Lord, ye shall be smitten even unto destruction. <sup>10:15</sup>And it came to pass that when Nephi had declared unto them the word, behold, they did still harden their hearts and would not hearken unto his words; therefore they did revile against him, and did seek to lay their hands upon him that they might cast him into prison. <sup>10:16</sup>But behold, the power of God was with him, and they could not take him to cast him into prison, for he was taken by the Spirit and conveyed away out of the midst of them. <sup>10:17</sup>And it came to pass that thus he did go forth in the Spirit, from multitude to multitude, declaring the word of God, even until he had declared it unto them all, or sent it forth among all the people. <sup>10:18</sup>And it came to pass that they would not hearken unto his words; and there began to be contentions, insomuch that they were divided against themselves and began to slay one another with the sword. <sup>10:19</sup>And thus ended the seventy and first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup><IV>11:1</sup>And now it came to pass in the seventy and second year of the reign of the judges that the contentions did increase, insomuch that there were wars throughout all the land among all the people of Nephi. <sup>11:2</sup>And it was this secret band of robbers who did carry on this work of destruction and wickedness. And this war did last all that year; and in the seventy and third year it did also last. <sup>11:3</sup>And it came to pass that in this year Nephi did cry unto the Lord, saying: <sup>11:4</sup>O Lord, do not suffer that this people shall be destroyed by the sword; but O Lord, rather let there be a famine in the land, to stir them up in remembrance of the Lord their God, and perhaps they will repent and turn unto thee. <sup>11:5</sup>And so it was done, according to the words of Nephi. And there was a great famine upon the land, among all the people of Nephi. And thus in the seventy and fourth year the famine did continue, and the work of destruction did cease by the sword but became sore by famine. <sup>11:6</sup>And this work of destruction did also continue in the seventy and fifth year. For the earth was smitten that it was dry, and did not yield forth grain in the season of grain; and the whole earth was smitten, even among the Lamanites as well as among the Nephites, so that they were smitten that they did perish by thousands in the more wicked parts of the land. <sup>11:7</sup>And it came to pass that the people saw that they were about to perish by famine, and they began to remember the Lord their God; and they began to remember the words of Nephi. <sup>11:8</sup>And the people began to plead with their chief judges and their leaders, that they would say unto Nephi: Behold, we know that thou art a man of God, and therefore cry unto the Lord our God that he turn away from us this famine, lest all the words which thou hast spoken concerning our destruction be fulfilled. <sup>11:9</sup>And it came to pass that the judges did say unto Nephi, according to the words which had been desired. And it came to pass that when Nephi saw that the people had repented and did humble themselves in sackcloth, he cried again unto the Lord, saying: <sup>11:10</sup>O Lord, behold this people repenteth; and they have swept away the band of Gadianton from amongst them insomuch that they have become extinct, and they have concealed their secret plans in the earth. <sup>11:11</sup>Now, O Lord, because of this their humility wilt thou turn away thine anger, and let thine anger be appeased in the destruction of those wicked men whom thou hast already destroyed. <sup>11:12</sup>O Lord, wilt thou turn away thine anger, yea, thy fierce anger, and cause that this famine may cease in this land. <sup>11:13</sup>O Lord, wilt thou hearken unto me, and cause that it may be done according to my words, and send forth rain upon the face of the earth, that she may bring forth her fruit, and her grain in the season of grain. <sup>11:14</sup>O Lord, thou didst hearken unto my words when I said, Let there be a famine, that the pestilence of the sword might cease; and I know that thou wilt, even at this time, hearken unto my words, for thou saidst that: If this people repent I will spare them. <sup>11:15</sup>Yea, O Lord, and thou seest that they have repented, because of the famine and the pestilence and destruction which has come unto them. <sup>11:16</sup>And now, O Lord, wilt thou turn away thine anger, and try again if they will serve thee? And if so, O Lord, thou canst bless them according to thy words which thou hast said. <sup>11:17</sup>And it came to pass that in the seventy and sixth year the Lord did turn away his anger from the people, and caused that rain should fall upon the earth, insomuch that it did bring forth her fruit in the season of her fruit. And it came to pass that it did bring forth her grain in the season of her grain. <sup>11:18</sup>And behold, the people did rejoice and glorify God, and the whole face of the land was filled with rejoicing; and they did no more seek to destroy Nephi, but they did esteem him as a great prophet, and a man of God, having great power and authority given unto him from God. <sup>11:19</sup>And behold, Lehi, his brother, was not a whit behind him as to things pertaining to righteousness. <sup>11:20</sup>And thus it did come to pass that the people of Nephi began to prosper again in the land, and began to build up their waste places, and began to multiply and spread, even until they did cover the whole face of the land, both on the northward and on the southward, from the sea west to the sea east. <sup>11:21</sup>And it came to pass that the seventy and sixth year did end in peace. And the seventy and seventh year began in peace; and the church did spread throughout the face of all the land; and the more part of the people, both the Nephites and the Lamanites, did belong to the church; and they did have exceedingly great peace in the land; and thus ended the seventy and seventh year. <sup>11:22</sup>And also they had peace in the seventy and eighth year, save it were a few contentions concerning the points of doctrine which had been laid down by the prophets.

<sup>11:23</sup>And in the seventy and ninth year there began to be much strife. But it came to pass that Nephi and Lehi, and many of their brethren who knew concerning the true points of doctrine, having many revelations daily, therefore they did preach unto the people, insomuch that they did put an end to their strife in that same year. <sup>11:24</sup>And it came to pass that in the eightieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, there were a certain number of the dissenters from the people of Nephi, who had some years before gone over unto the Lamanites, and taken upon themselves the name of Lamanites, and also a certain number who were real descendants of the Lamanites, being stirred up to anger by them, or by those dissenters, therefore they commenced a war with their brethren. <sup>11:25</sup>And they did commit murder and plunder; and then they would retreat back into the mountains, and into the wilderness and secret places, hiding themselves that they could not be discovered, receiving daily an addition to their numbers, inasmuch as there were dissenters that went forth unto them. <sup>11:26</sup>And thus in time, yea, even in the space of not many years, they became an exceedingly great band of robbers; and they did search out all the secret plans of Gadianton; and thus they became robbers of Gadianton. <sup>11:27</sup>Now behold, these robbers did make great havoc, yea, even great destruction among the people of Nephi, and also among the people of the Lamanites. <sup>11:28</sup>And it came to pass that it was expedient that there should be a stop put to this work of destruction; therefore they sent an army of strong men into the wilderness and upon the mountains to search out this band of robbers, and to destroy them. <sup>11:29</sup>But behold, it came to pass that in that same year they were driven back even into their own lands. And thus ended the eightieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>11:30</sup>And it came to pass in the commencement of the eighty and first year they did go forth again against this band of robbers, and did destroy many; and they were also visited with much destruction. <sup>11:31</sup>And they were again obliged to return out of the wilderness and out of the mountains unto their own lands, because of the exceeding greatness of the numbers of those robbers who infested the mountains and the wilderness. <sup>11:32</sup>And it came to pass that thus ended this year. And the robbers did still increase and wax strong, insomuch that they did defy the whole armies of the Nephites, and also of the Lamanites; and they did cause great fear to come unto the people upon all the face of the land. <sup>11:33</sup>Yea, for they did visit many parts of the land, and did do great destruction unto them; yea, did kill many, and did carry away others captive into the wilderness, yea, and more especially their women and their children. <sup>11:34</sup>Now this great evil, which came unto the people because of their iniquity, did stir them up again in remembrance of the Lord their God. <sup>11:35</sup>And thus ended the eighty and first year of the reign of the judges. <sup>11:36</sup>And in the eighty and second year they began again to forget the Lord their God. And in the eighty and third year they began to wax strong in iniquity. And in the eighty and fourth year they did not mend their ways. <sup>11:37</sup>And it came to pass in the eighty and fifth year they did wax stronger and stronger in their pride, and in their wickedness; and thus they were ripening again for destruction. <sup>11:38</sup>And thus ended the eighty and fifth year. <sup>12:1</sup>And thus we can behold how false, and also the unsteadiness of the hearts of the children of men; yea, we can see that the Lord in his great infinite goodness doth bless and prosper those who put their trust in him. <sup>12:2</sup>Yea, and we may see at the very time when he doth prosper his people, yea, in the increase of their fields, their flocks and their herds, and in gold, and in silver, and in all manner of precious things of every kind and art; sparing their lives, and delivering them out of the hands of their enemies; softening the hearts of their enemies that they should not declare wars against them; yea, and in fine, doing all things for the welfare and happiness of his people; yea, then is the time that they do harden their hearts, and do forget the Lord their God, and do trample under their feet the Holy One—yea, and this because of their ease, and their exceedingly great prosperity. <sup>12:3</sup>And thus we see that except the Lord doth chasten his people with many afflictions, yea, except he doth visit them with death and with terror, and with famine and with all manner of pestilence, they will not remember him. <sup>12:4</sup>O how foolish, and how vain, and how evil, and devilish, and how quick to do iniquity, and how slow to do good, are the children of men; yea, how quick to hearken unto the words of the evil one, and to set their hearts upon the vain things of the world! <sup>12:5</sup>Yea, how quick to be lifted up in pride; yea, how quick to boast, and do all manner of that which is iniquity; and how slow are they to remember the Lord their God, and to give ear unto his counsels, yea, how slow to walk in wisdom's paths! <sup>12:6</sup>Behold, they do not desire that the Lord their God, who hath created them, should rule and reign over them; notwithstanding his great goodness and his mercy towards them, they do set at naught his counsels, and they will not that he should be their guide. <sup>12:7</sup>O how great is the nothingness of the children of men; yea, even they are less than the dust of the earth. <sup>12:8</sup>For behold, the dust of the earth moveth hither and thither, to the dividing asunder, at the command of our great and everlasting God. <sup>12:9</sup>Yea, behold at his voice do the hills and the mountains tremble and quake. <sup>12:10</sup>And by the power of his voice they are broken up, and become smooth, yea, even like unto a valley. <sup>12:11</sup>Yea, by the power of his voice doth the whole earth shake; <sup>12:12</sup>yea, by the power of his voice, do the foundations rock, even to the very center. <sup>12:13</sup>Yea, and if he say unto the earth—Move—it is moved. <sup>12:14</sup>Yea, if he say unto the earth—Thou shalt go back, that it lengthen out the day for many hours—it is done; <sup>12:15</sup>and thus, according to his word the earth goeth back, and it appeareth unto man that the sun standeth still; yea, and behold, this is so; for surely it is the earth that moveth and not the sun. <sup>12:16</sup>And behold, also, if he say unto the waters of the great deep—Be thou dried up—it is done. <sup>12:17</sup>Behold, if he say unto this mountain—Be thou raised up, and come over and fall upon that city, that it be buried up—behold it is done. <sup>12:18</sup>And behold, if a man hide up a treasure in the earth, and the Lord shall say—Let it be accursed, because of the iniquity of him who hath hid it up—behold, it shall be accursed.

<sup>12:19</sup>And if the Lord shall say—Be thou accursed, that no man shall find thee from this time henceforth and forever—behold, no man getteth it henceforth and forever. <sup>12:20</sup>And behold, if the Lord shall say unto a man—Because of thine iniquities, thou shalt be accursed forever—it shall be done. <sup>12:21</sup>And if the Lord shall say—Because of thine iniquities thou shalt be cut off from my presence—he will cause that it shall be so. <sup>12:22</sup>And wo unto him to whom he shall say this, for it shall be unto him that will do iniquity, and he cannot be saved; therefore, for this cause, that men might be saved, hath repentance been declared. <sup>12:23</sup>Therefore, blessed are they who will repent and hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; for these are they that shall be saved. <sup>12:24</sup>And may God grant, in his great fulness, that men might be brought unto repentance and good works, that they might be restored unto grace for grace, according to their works. <sup>12:25</sup>And I would that all men might be saved. But we read that in the great and last day there are some who shall be cast out, yea, who shall be cast off from the presence of the Lord; <sup>12:26</sup>yea, who shall be consigned to a state of endless misery, fulfilling the words which say: They that have done good shall have everlasting life; and they that have done evil shall have everlasting damnation. And thus it is. Amen.

<V>The prophecy of Samuel, the Lamanite, to the Nephites. <sup>13:1</sup>And now it came to pass in the eighty and sixth year, the Nephites did still remain in wickedness, yea, in great wickedness, while the Lamanites did observe strictly to keep the commandments of God, according to the law of Moses. <sup>13:2</sup>And it came to pass that in this year there was one Samuel, a Lamanite, came into the land of Zarahemla, and began to preach unto the people. And it came to pass that he did preach, many days, repentance unto the people, and they did cast him out, and he was about to return to his own land. <sup>13:3</sup>But behold, the voice of the Lord came unto him, that he should return again, and prophesy unto the people whatsoever things should come into his heart. <sup>13:4</sup>And it came to pass that they would not suffer that he should enter into the city; therefore he went and got upon the wall thereof, and stretched forth his hand and cried with a loud voice, and prophesied unto the people whatsoever things the Lord put into his heart. <sup>13:5</sup>And he said unto them: Behold, I, Samuel, a Lamanite, do speak the words of the Lord which he doth put into my heart; and behold he hath put it into my heart to say unto this people that the sword of justice hangeth over this people; and four hundred years pass not away save the sword of justice falleth upon this people. <sup>13:6</sup>Yea, heavy destruction awaiteth this people, and it surely cometh unto this people, and nothing can save this people save it be repentance and faith on the Lord Jesus Christ, who surely shall come into the world, and shall suffer many things and shall be slain for his people. <sup>13:7</sup>And behold, an angel of the Lord hath declared it unto me, and he did bring glad tidings to my soul. And behold, I was sent unto you to declare it unto you also, that ye might have glad tidings; but behold ye would not receive me. <sup>13:8</sup>Therefore, thus saith the Lord: Because of the hardness of the hearts of the people of the Nephites, except they repent I will take away my word from them, and I will withdraw my Spirit from them, and I will suffer them no longer, and I will turn the hearts of their brethren against them. <sup>13:9</sup>And four hundred years shall not pass away before I will cause that they shall be smitten; yea, I will visit them with the sword and with famine and with pestilence. <sup>13:10</sup>Yea, I will visit them in my fierce anger, and there shall be those of the fourth generation who shall live, of your enemies, to behold your utter destruction; and this shall surely come except ye repent, saith the Lord; and those of the fourth generation shall visit your destruction. <sup>13:11</sup>But if ye will repent and return unto the Lord your God I will turn away mine anger, saith the Lord; yea, thus saith the Lord, blessed are they who will repent and turn unto me, but wo unto him that repenteth not. <sup>13:12</sup>Yea, wo unto this great city of Zarahemla; for behold, it is because of those who are righteous that it is saved; yea, wo unto this great city, for I perceive, saith the Lord, that there are many, yea, even the more part of this great city, that will harden their hearts against me, saith the Lord. <sup>13:13</sup>But blessed are they who will repent, for them will I spare. But behold, if it were not for the righteous who are in this great city, behold, I would cause that fire should come down out of heaven and destroy it. <sup>13:14</sup>But behold, it is for the righteous' sake that it is spared. But behold, the time cometh, saith the Lord, that when ye shall cast out the righteous from among you, then shall ye be ripe for destruction; yea, wo be unto this great city, because of the wickedness and abominations which are in her. <sup>13:15</sup>Yea, and wo be unto the city of Gideon, for the wickedness and abominations which are in her. <sup>13:16</sup>Yea, and wo be unto all the cities which are in the land round about, which are possessed by the Nephites, because of the wickedness and abominations which are in them. <sup>13:17</sup>And behold, a curse shall come upon the land, saith the Lord of Hosts, because of the peoples' sake who are upon the land, yea, because of their wickedness and their abominations. <sup>13:18</sup>And it shall come to pass, saith the Lord of Hosts, yea, our great and true God, that whoso shall hide up treasures in the earth shall find them again no more, because of the great curse of the land, save he be a righteous man and shall hide it up unto the Lord. <sup>13:19</sup>For I will, saith the Lord, that they shall hide up their treasures unto me; and cursed be they who hide not up their treasures unto me; for none hideth up their treasures unto me save it be the righteous; and he that hideth not up his treasures unto me, cursed is he, and also the treasure, and none shall redeem it because of the curse of the land. <sup>13:20</sup>And the day shall come that they shall hide up their treasures, because they have set their hearts upon riches; and because they have set their hearts upon their riches, and will hide up their treasures when they shall flee before their enemies; because they will not hide them up unto me, cursed be they and also their treasures; and in that day shall they be smitten, saith the Lord. <sup>13:21</sup>Behold ye, the people of this great city, and hearken unto my words; yea, hearken unto the words which the Lord saith; for behold, he saith that ye are cursed because of your riches, and also are your riches cursed because ye have set your hearts upon them, and have not hearkened unto the words of him who gave them unto you. <sup>13:22</sup>Ye do not remember the Lord your God in the things with which he hath blessed you, but ye do always remember your riches, not to thank the Lord your God for them; yea, your hearts are not drawn out unto the Lord, but they do swell with great pride, unto boasting, and unto great swelling, envyings, strifes, malice, persecutions, and murders, and all manner of iniquities. <sup>13:23</sup>For this cause hath the Lord God caused that a curse should come upon the land, and also upon your riches, and this because of your iniquities. <sup>13:24</sup>Yea, wo unto this people, because of this time which has arrived, that ye do cast out the prophets, and do mock them, and cast stones at them, and do slay them, and do all manner of iniquity unto them, even as they did of old time. <sup>13:25</sup>And now when ye talk, ye say: If our days had been in the days of our fathers of old, we would not have slain the prophets; we would not have stoned them, and cast them out.

<sup>13:26</sup>Behold ye are worse than they; for as the Lord liveth, if a prophet come among you and declareth unto you the word of the Lord, which testifieth of your sins and iniquities, ye are angry with him, and cast him out and seek all manner of ways to destroy him; yea, you will say that he is a false prophet, and that he is a sinner, and of the devil, because he testifieth that your deeds are evil. <sup>13:27</sup>But behold, if a man shall come among you and shall say: Do this, and there is no iniquity; do that and ye shall not suffer; yea, he will say: Walk after the pride of your own hearts; yea, walk after the pride of your eyes, and do whatsoever your heart desireth — and if a man shall come among you and say this, ye will receive him, and say that he is a prophet. <sup>13:28</sup>Yea, ye will lift him up, and ye will give unto him of your substance; ye will give unto him of your gold, and of your silver, and ye will clothe him with costly apparel; and because he speaketh flattering words unto you, and he saith that all is well, then ye will not find fault with him. <sup>13:29</sup>O ye wicked and ye perverse generation; ye hardened and ye stiffnecked people, how long will ye suppose that the Lord will suffer you? Yea, how long will ye suffer yourselves to be led by foolish and blind guides? Yea, how long will ye choose darkness rather than light? <sup>13:30</sup>Yea, behold, the anger of the Lord is already kindled against you; behold, he hath cursed the land because of your iniquity. <sup>13:31</sup>And behold, the time cometh that he curseth your riches, that they become slippery, that ye cannot hold them; and in the days of your poverty ye cannot retain them. <sup>13:32</sup>And in the days of your poverty ye shall cry unto the Lord; and in vain shall ye cry, for your desolation is already come upon you, and your destruction is made sure; and then shall ye weep and howl in that day, saith the Lord of Hosts. And then shall ye lament, and say: <sup>13:33</sup>O that I had repented, and had not killed the prophets, and stoned them, and cast them out. Yea, in that day ye shall say: O that we had remembered the Lord our God in the day that he gave us our riches, and then they would not have become slippery that we should lose them; for behold, our riches are gone from us. <sup>13:34</sup>Behold, we lay a tool here and on the morrow it is gone; and behold, our swords are taken from us in the day we have sought them for battle. <sup>13:35</sup>Yea, we have hid up our treasures and they have slipped away from us, because of the curse of the land. <sup>13:36</sup>O that we had repented in the day that the word of the Lord came unto us; for behold the land is cursed, and all things are become slippery, and we cannot hold them.

<sup>13:37</sup>Behold, we are surrounded by demons, yea, we are encircled about by the angels of him who hath sought to destroy our souls. Behold, our iniquities are great. O Lord, canst thou not turn away thine anger from us? And this shall be your language in those days. <sup>13:38</sup>But behold, your days of probation are past; ye have procrastinated the day of your salvation until it is everlastingly too late, and your destruction is made sure; yea, for ye have sought all the days of your lives for that which ye could not obtain; and ye have sought for happiness in doing iniquity, which thing is contrary to the nature of that righteousness which is in our great and Eternal Head. <sup>13:39</sup>O ye people of the land, that ye would hear my words! And I pray that the anger of the Lord be turned away from you, and that ye would repent and be saved. <sup>14:1</sup>And now it came to pass that Samuel, the Lamanite, did prophesy a great many more things which cannot be written.

<sup>14:2</sup>And behold, he said unto them: Behold, I give unto you a sign; for five years more cometh, and behold, then cometh the Son of God to redeem all those who shall believe on his name. <sup>14:3</sup>And behold, this will I give unto you for a sign at the time of his coming; for behold, there shall be great lights in heaven, insomuch that in the night before he cometh there shall be no darkness, insomuch that it shall appear unto man as if it was day. <sup>14:4</sup>Therefore, there shall be one day and a night and a day, as if it were one day and there were no night; and this shall be unto you for a sign; for ye shall know of the rising of the sun and also of its setting; therefore they shall know of a surety that there shall be two days and a night; nevertheless the night shall not be darkened; and it shall be the night before he is born. <sup>14:5</sup>And behold, there shall a new star arise, such an one as ye never have beheld; and this also shall be a sign unto you. <sup>14:6</sup>And behold this is not all, there shall be many signs and wonders in heaven. <sup>14:7</sup>And it shall come to pass that ye shall all be amazed, and wonder, insomuch that ye shall fall to the earth. <sup>14:8</sup>And it shall come to pass that whosoever shall believe on the Son of God, the same shall have everlasting life. <sup>14:9</sup>And behold, thus hath the Lord commanded me, by his angel, that I should come and tell this thing unto you; yea, he hath commanded that I should prophesy these things unto you; yea, he hath said unto me: Cry unto this people, repent and prepare the way of the Lord.

<sup>14:10</sup>And now, because I am a Lamanite, and have spoken unto you the words which the Lord hath commanded me, and because it was hard against you, ye are angry with me and do seek to destroy me, and have cast me out from among you. <sup>14:11</sup>And ye shall hear my words, for, for this intent have I come up upon the walls of this city, that ye might hear and know of the judgments of God which do await you because of your iniquities, and also that ye might know the conditions of repentance; <sup>14:12</sup>and also that ye might know of the coming of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Father of heaven and of earth, the Creator of all things from the beginning; and that ye might know of the signs of his coming, to the intent that ye might believe on his name. <sup>14:13</sup>And if ye believe on his name ye will repent of all your sins, that thereby ye may have a remission of them through his merits.

<sup>14:15</sup>For behold, he surely must die that salvation may come; yea, it behooveth him and becometh expedient that he dieth, to bring to pass the resurrection of the dead, that thereby men may be brought into the presence of the Lord. <sup>14:16</sup>Yea, behold, this death bringeth to pass the resurrection, and redeemeth all mankind from the first death—that spiritual death; for all mankind, by the fall of Adam being cut off from the presence of the Lord, are considered as dead, both as to things temporal and to things spiritual. <sup>14:17</sup>But behold, the resurrection of Christ redeemeth mankind, yea, even all mankind, and bringeth them back into the presence of the Lord. <sup>14:18</sup>Yea, and it bringeth to pass the condition of repentance, that whosoever repenteth the same is not hewn down and cast into the fire; but whosoever repenteth not is hewn down and cast into the fire; and there cometh upon them again a spiritual death, yea, a second death, for they are cut off again as to things pertaining to righteousness. <sup>14:19</sup>Therefore repent ye, repent ye, lest by knowing these things and not doing them ye shall suffer yourselves to come under condemnation, and ye are brought down unto this second death. <sup>14:20</sup>But behold, as I said unto you concerning another sign, a sign of his death, behold, in that day that he shall suffer death the sun shall be darkened and refuse to give his light unto you; and also the moon and the stars; and there shall be no light upon the face of this land, even from the time that he shall suffer death, for the space of three days, to the time that he shall rise again from the dead. <sup>14:21</sup>Yea, at the time that he shall yield up the ghost there shall be thunderings and lightnings for the space of many hours, and the earth shall shake and tremble; and the rocks which are upon the face of this earth, which are both above the earth and beneath, which ye know at this time are solid, or the more part of it is one solid mass, shall be broken up; <sup>14:22</sup>yea, they shall be rent in twain, and shall ever after be found in seams and in cracks, and in broken fragments upon the face of the whole earth, yea, both above the earth and beneath. <sup>14:23</sup>And behold, there shall be great tempests, and there shall be many mountains laid low, like unto a valley, and there shall be many places which are now called valleys which shall become mountains, whose height is great. <sup>14:24</sup>And many highways shall be broken up, and many cities shall become desolate. <sup>14:25</sup>And many graves shall be opened, and shall yield up many of their dead; and many saints shall appear unto many. <sup>14:26</sup>And behold, thus hath the angel spoken unto me; for he said unto me that there should be thunderings and lightnings for the space of many hours. <sup>14:27</sup>And he said unto me that while the thunder and the lightning lasted, and the tempest, that these things should be, and that darkness should cover the face of the whole earth for the space of three days. <sup>14:28</sup>And the angel said unto me that many shall see greater things than these, to the intent that they might believe that these signs and these wonders should come to pass upon all the face of this land, to the intent that there should be no cause for unbelief among the children of men— <sup>14:29</sup>and this to the intent that whosoever will believe might be saved, and that whosoever will not believe, a righteous judgment might come upon them; and also if they are condemned they bring upon themselves their own condemnation. <sup>14:30</sup>And now remember, remember, my brethren, that whosoever perisheth, perisheth unto himself; and whosoever doeth iniquity, doeth it unto himself; for behold, ye are free; ye are permitted to act for yourselves; for behold, God hath given unto you a knowledge and he hath made you free. <sup>14:31</sup>He hath given unto you that ye might know good from evil, and he hath given unto you that ye might choose life or death; and ye can do good and be restored unto that which is good, or have that which is good restored unto you; or ye can do evil, and have that which is evil restored unto you. <sup>15:1</sup>And now, my beloved brethren, behold, I declare unto you that except ye shall repent your houses shall be left unto you desolate. <sup>15:2</sup>Yea, except ye repent, your women shall have great cause to mourn in the day that they shall give suck; for ye shall attempt to flee and there shall be no place for refuge; yea, and wo unto them which are with child, for they shall be heavy and cannot flee; therefore, they shall be trodden down and shall be left to perish. <sup>15:3</sup>Yea, wo unto this people who are called the people of Nephi except they shall repent, when they shall see all these signs and wonders which shall be showed unto them; for behold, they have been a chosen people of the Lord; yea, the people of Nephi hath he loved, and also hath he chastened them; yea, in the days of their iniquities hath he chastened them because he loveth them. <sup>15:4</sup>But behold my brethren, the Lamanites hath he hated because their deeds have been evil continually, and this because of the iniquity of the tradition of their fathers. But behold, salvation hath come unto them through the preaching of the Nephites; and for this intent hath the Lord prolonged their days. <sup>15:5</sup>And I would that ye should behold that the more part of them are in the path of their duty, and they do walk circumspectly before God, and they do observe to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments according to the law of Moses. <sup>15:6</sup>Yea, I say unto you, that the more part of them are doing this, and they are striving with unwearied diligence that they may bring the remainder of their brethren to the knowledge of the truth; therefore there are many who do add to their numbers daily. <sup>15:7</sup>And behold, ye do know of yourselves, for ye have witnessed it, that as many of them as are brought to the knowledge of the truth, and to know of the wicked and abominable traditions of their fathers, and are led to believe the holy scriptures, yea, the prophecies of the holy prophets, which are written, which leadeth them to faith on the Lord, and unto repentance, which faith and repentance bringeth a change of heart unto them—<sup>15:8</sup>therefore, as many as have come to this, ye know of yourselves are firm and steadfast in the faith, and in the thing wherewith they have been made free. <sup>15:9</sup>And ye know also that they have buried their weapons of war, and they fear to take them up lest by any means they should sin; yea, ye can see that they fear to sin—for behold they will suffer themselves that they be trodden down and slain by their enemies, and will not lift their swords against them, and this because of their faith in Christ. <sup>15:10</sup>And now, because of their steadfastness when they do believe in that thing which they do believe, for

because of their firmness when they are once enlightened, behold, the Lord shall bless them and prolong their days, notwithstanding their iniquity — <sup>15:11</sup>yea, even if they should dwindle in unbelief the Lord shall prolong their days, until the time shall come which hath been spoken of by our fathers, and also by the prophet Zenos, and many other prophets, concerning the restoration of our brethren, the Lamanites, again to the knowledge of the truth — <sup>15:12</sup>yea, I say unto you, that in the latter times the promises of the Lord have been extended to our brethren, the Lamanites; and notwithstanding the many afflictions which they shall have, and notwithstanding they shall be driven to and fro upon the face of the earth, and be hunted, and shall be smitten and scattered abroad, having no place for refuge, the Lord shall be merciful unto them. <sup>15:13</sup>And this is according to the prophecy, that they shall again be brought to the true knowledge, which is the knowledge of their Redeemer, and their great and true shepherd, and be numbered among his sheep. <sup>15:14</sup>Therefore I say unto you, it shall be better for them than for you except ye repent. <sup>15:15</sup>For behold, had the mighty works been shown unto them which have been shown unto you, yea, unto them who have dwindled in unbelief because of the traditions of their fathers, ye can see of yourselves that they never would again have dwindled in unbelief. <sup>15:16</sup>Therefore, saith the Lord: I will not utterly destroy them, but I will cause that in the day of my wisdom they shall return again unto me, saith the Lord. <sup>15:17</sup>And now behold, saith the Lord, concerning the people of the Nephites: If they will not repent, and observe to do my will, I will utterly destroy them, saith the Lord, because of their unbelief notwithstanding the many mighty works which I have done among them; and as surely as the Lord liveth shall these things be, saith the Lord. <sup>16:1</sup>And now, it came to pass that there were many who heard the words of Samuel, the Lamanite, which he spake upon the walls of the city. And as many as believed on his word went forth and sought for Nephi; and when they had come forth and found him they confessed unto him their sins and denied not, desiring that they might be baptized unto the Lord. <sup>16:2</sup>But as many as there were who did not believe in the words of Samuel were angry with him; and they cast stones at him upon the wall, and also many shot arrows at him as he stood upon the wall; but the Spirit of the Lord was with him, insomuch that they could not hit him with their stones neither with their arrows. <sup>16:3</sup>Now when they saw that they could not hit him, there were many more who did believe on his words, insomuch that they went away unto Nephi to be baptized. <sup>16:4</sup>For behold, Nephi was baptizing, and prophesying, and preaching, crying repentance unto the people, showing signs and wonders, working miracles among the people, that they might know that the Christ must shortly come — <sup>16:5</sup>telling them of things which must shortly come, that they might know and remember at the time of their coming that they had been made known unto them beforehand, to the intent that they might believe; therefore as many as believed on the words of Samuel went forth unto him to be baptized, for they came repenting and confessing their sins. <sup>16:6</sup>But the more part of them did not believe in the words of Samuel; therefore when they saw that they could not hit him with their stones and their arrows, they cried unto their captains, saying: Take this fellow and bind him, for behold he hath a devil; and because of the power of the devil which is in him we cannot hit him with our stones and our arrows; therefore take him and bind him, and away with him. <sup>16:7</sup>And as they went forth to lay their hands on him, behold, he did cast himself down from the wall, and did flee out of their lands, yea, even unto his own country, and began to preach and to prophesy among his own people.

<sup>16:8</sup>And behold, he was never heard of more among the Nephites; and thus were the affairs of the people. <sup>16:9</sup>And thus ended the eighty and sixth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>16:10</sup>And thus ended also the eighty and seventh year of the reign of the judges, the more part of the people remaining in their pride and wickedness, and the lesser part walking more circumspectly before God. <sup>16:11</sup>And these were the conditions also, in the eighty and eighth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>16:12</sup>And there was but little alteration in the affairs of the people, save it were the people began to be more hardened in iniquity, and do more and more of that which was contrary to the commandments of God, in the eighty and ninth year of the reign of the judges. <sup>16:13</sup>But it came to pass in the ninetieth year of the reign of the judges, there were great signs given unto the people, and wonders; and the words of the prophets began to be fulfilled.

<sup>16:14</sup>And angels did appear unto men, wise men, and did declare unto them glad tidings of great joy; thus in this year the scriptures began to be fulfilled.

<sup>16:15</sup>Nevertheless, the people began to harden their hearts, all save it were the most believing part of them, both of the Nephites and also of the Lamanites, and began to depend upon their own strength and upon their own wisdom, saying: <sup>16:16</sup>Some things they may have guessed right, among so many; but behold, we know that all these great and marvelous works cannot come to pass, of which has been spoken. <sup>16:17</sup>And they began to reason and to contend among themselves, saying: <sup>16:18</sup>That it is not reasonable that such a being as a Christ shall come; if so, and he be the Son of God, the Father of heaven and of earth, as it has been spoken, why will he not show himself unto us as well as unto them who shall be at Jerusalem? <sup>16:19</sup>Yea, why will he not show himself in this land as well as in the land of Jerusalem? <sup>16:20</sup>But behold, we know that this is a wicked tradition, which has been handed down unto us by our fathers, to cause us that we should believe in some great and marvelous thing which should come to pass, but not among us, but in a land which is far distant, a land which we know not; therefore they can keep us in ignorance, for we cannot witness with our own eyes that they are true. <sup>16:21</sup>And they will, by the cunning and the mysterious arts of the evil one, work some great mystery which we cannot understand, which will keep us down to be servants to their words, and also servants unto them, for we depend upon them to teach us the word; and thus will they keep us in ignorance if we will yield ourselves unto them, all the days of our lives. <sup>16:22</sup>And many more things did the people imagine up in their hearts, which were foolish and vain; and they were much disturbed, for Satan did stir them up to do iniquity continually; yea, he did go about spreading rumors and contentions upon all the face of the land, that he might harden the hearts of the people against that which was good and against that which should come. <sup>16:23</sup>And notwithstanding the signs and the wonders which were wrought among the people of the Lord, and the many miracles which they did, Satan did get great hold upon the hearts of the people upon all the face of the land. <sup>16:24</sup>And thus ended the ninetieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi. <sup>16:25</sup>And thus ended the book of Helaman, according to the record of Helaman and his sons.

The book of Nephi the son of Nephi, who was the son of Helaman <B>And Helaman was the son of Helaman, who was the son of Alma, who was the son of Alma, being a descendant of Nephi who was the son of Lehi, who came out of Jerusalem in the first year of the reign of Zedekiah, the king of Judah. <sup>1:1</sup>Now it came to pass that the ninety and first year had passed away and it was six hundred years from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem; and it was in the year that Lachoneus was the chief judge and the governor over the land. <sup>1:2</sup>And Nephi, the son of Helaman, had departed out of the land of Zarahemla, giving charge unto his son Nephi, who was his eldest son, concerning the plates of brass, and all the records which had been kept, and all those things which had been kept sacred from the departure of Lehi out of Jerusalem. <sup>1:3</sup>Then he departed out of the land, and whither he went, no man knoweth; and his son Nephi did keep the records in his stead, yea, the record of this people. <sup>1:4</sup>And it came to pass that in the commencement of the ninety and second year, behold, the prophecies of the prophets began to be fulfilled more fully; for there began to be greater signs and greater miracles wrought among the people. <sup>1:5</sup>But there were some who began to say that the time was past for the words to be fulfilled, which were spoken by Samuel, the Lamanite. <sup>1:6</sup>And they began to rejoice over their brethren, saying: Behold the time is past, and the words of Samuel are not fulfilled; therefore, your joy and your faith concerning this thing hath been vain. <sup>1:7</sup>And it came to pass that they did make a great uproar throughout the land; and the people who believed began to be very sorrowful, lest by any means those things which had been spoken might not come to pass. <sup>1:8</sup>But behold, they did watch steadfastly for that day and that night and that day which should be as one day as if there were no night, that they might know that their faith had not been vain. <sup>1:9</sup>Now it came to pass that there was a day set apart by the unbelievers, that all those who believed in those traditions should be put to death except the sign should come to pass, which had been given by Samuel the prophet. <sup>1:10</sup>Now it came to pass that when Nephi, the son of Nephi, saw this wickedness of his people, his heart was exceedingly sorrowful. <sup>1:11</sup>And it came to pass that he went out and bowed himself down upon the earth, and cried mightily to his God in behalf of his people, yea, those who were about to be destroyed because of their faith in the tradition of their fathers. <sup>1:12</sup>And it came to pass that he cried mightily unto the Lord all that day; and behold, the voice of the Lord came unto him, saying: <sup>1:13</sup>Lift up your head and be of good cheer; for behold, the time is at hand, and on this night shall the sign be given, and on the morrow come I into the world, to show unto the world that I will fulfil all that which I have caused to be spoken by the mouth of my holy prophets. <sup>1:14</sup>Behold, I come unto my own, to fulfil all things which I have made known unto the children of men from the foundation of the world, and to do the will, both of the Father and of the Son—of the Father because of me, and of the Son because of my flesh. And behold, the time is at hand, and this night shall the sign be given. <sup>1:15</sup>And it came to pass that the words which came unto Nephi were fulfilled, according as they had been spoken; for behold, at the going down of the sun there was no darkness; and the people began to be astonished because there was no darkness when the night came. <sup>1:16</sup>And there were many, who had not believed the words of the prophets, who fell to the earth and became as if they were dead, for they knew that the great plan of destruction which they had laid for those who believed in the words of the prophets had been frustrated; for the sign which had been given was already at hand. <sup>1:17</sup>And they began to know that the Son of God must shortly appear; yea, in fine, all the people upon the face of the whole earth from the west to the east, both in the land north and in the land south, were so exceedingly astonished that they fell to the earth. <sup>1:18</sup>For they knew that the prophets had testified of these things for many years, and that the sign which had been given was already at hand; and they began to fear because of their iniquity and their unbelief. <sup>1:19</sup>And it came to pass that there was no darkness in all that night, but it was as light as though it was mid-day. And it came to pass that the sun did rise in the morning again, according to its proper order; and they knew that it was the day that the Lord should be born, because of the sign which had been given. <sup>1:20</sup>And it had come to pass, yea, all things, every whit, according to the words of the prophets. <sup>1:21</sup>And it came to pass also that a new star did appear, according to the word. <sup>1:22</sup>And it came to pass that from this time forth there began to be lyings sent forth among the people, by Satan, to harden their hearts, to the intent that they might not believe in those signs and wonders which they had seen; but notwithstanding these lyings and deceivings the more part of the people did believe, and were converted unto the Lord. <sup>1:23</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi went forth among the people, and also many others, baptizing unto repentance, in the which there was a great remission of sins. And thus the people began again to have peace in the land. <sup>1:24</sup>And there were no contentions, save it were a few that began to preach, endeavoring to prove by the scriptures that it was no more expedient to observe the law of Moses. Now in this thing they did err, having not understood the scriptures. <sup>1:25</sup>But it came to pass that they soon became converted, and were convinced of the error which they were in, for it was made known unto them that the law was not yet fulfilled, and that it must be fulfilled in every whit; yea, the word came unto them that it must be fulfilled; yea, that one jot or tittle should not pass away till it should all be fulfilled; therefore in this same year were they brought to a knowledge of their error and did confess their faults. <sup>1:26</sup>And thus the ninety and second year did pass away, bringing glad tidings unto the people because of the signs which did come to pass, according to the words of the prophecy of all the holy prophets. <sup>1:27</sup>And it came to pass that the ninety and third year did also pass away in peace, save it were for the Gadianton robbers, who dwelt upon the mountains, who did infest the land; for so strong were their holds and their secret places that the people could not overpower them; therefore they did commit many murders, and did do much slaughter among the people. <sup>1:28</sup>And it came to pass that in the ninety and fourth year they began to increase in a great degree, because there were many dissenters of the Nephites who did flee unto them, which did cause much sorrow unto those Nephites who did remain in the land. <sup>1:29</sup>And there was also a cause of much sorrow among the Lamanites; for behold, they had many children who did grow up and began to wax strong in years, that they became for themselves, and were led away by some who were Zoramites, by their lyings and their flattering words, to join those Gadianton robbers. <sup>1:30</sup>And thus were the Lamanites afflicted also, and began to decrease as to their faith and righteousness, because of the wickedness of the rising generation. <sup>2:1</sup>And it came to pass that thus passed away the ninety and fifth year also, and the people began to forget those signs and wonders which they had heard, and began to be less and less astonished at a sign or a wonder from heaven, insomuch that they began to be hard in their hearts, and blind in their minds, and began to disbelieve all which they had heard and seen — <sup>2:2</sup>imagining up some vain thing in their hearts, that it was wrought by men and by the power of the devil, to lead away and deceive the hearts of the people; and thus did Satan get possession of the hearts of the people again, insomuch that he did blind their eyes and lead them away to believe that the doctrine of Christ was a foolish and a vain thing. <sup>2:3</sup>And it came to pass that the people began to wax strong in wickedness and abominations; and they did not believe that there should be any more signs or wonders given; and Satan did go about, leading away the hearts of the people, tempting them and causing them that they should do great wickedness in the land. <sup>2:4</sup>And thus did pass away the ninety and sixth year; and also the ninety and seventh year; and also the ninety and eighth year; and also the ninety and ninth year; <sup>2:5</sup>and also an hundred years had passed away since the days of Mosiah, who was king over the people of the Nephites. <sup>2:6</sup>And six hundred and nine years had passed away since Lehi left Jerusalem. <sup>2:7</sup>And nine years had passed away from the time when the sign was given, which was spoken of by the prophets, that Christ should come into the world. <sup>2:8</sup>Now the Nephites began to reckon their time from this period when the sign was given, or from the coming of Christ; therefore, nine years had passed away. <sup>2:9</sup>And Nephi, who was the father of Nephi, who had the charge of the records, did not return to the land of Zarahemla, and could nowhere be found in all the land. <sup>2:10</sup>And it came to pass that the people did still remain in wickedness, notwithstanding the much preaching and prophesying which was sent among them; and thus passed away the tenth year also; and the eleventh year also passed away in iniquity. <sup>2:11</sup>And it came to pass in the thirteenth year there began to be wars and contentions throughout all the land; for the Gadianton robbers had become so numerous, and did slay so many of the people, and did lay waste so many cities, and did spread so much death and carnage throughout the land, that it became expedient that all the people, both the Nephites and the Lamanites, should take up arms against them. <sup>2:12</sup>Therefore, all the Lamanites who had become converted unto the Lord did unite with their brethren, the Nephites, and were compelled, for the safety of their lives and their women and their children, to take up arms against those Gadianton robbers, yea, and also to maintain their rights, and the privileges of their church and of their worship, and their freedom and their liberty. <sup>2:13</sup>And it came to pass that before this thirteenth year had passed away the Nephites were threatened with utter destruction because of this war, which had become exceedingly sore. <sup>2:14</sup>And it came to pass that those Lamanites who had united with the Nephites were numbered among the Nephites; <sup>2:15</sup>and their curse was taken from them, and their skin became white like unto the Nephites; <sup>2:16</sup>and their young men and their daughters became exceedingly fair, and they were numbered among the Nephites, and were called Nephites. And thus ended the thirteenth year. <sup>2:17</sup>And it came to pass in the commencement of the fourteenth year, the war between the robbers and the people of Nephi did continue and did become exceedingly sore; nevertheless, the people of Nephi did gain some advantage of the robbers, insomuch that they did drive them back out of their lands into the mountains and into their secret places. <sup>2:18</sup>And thus ended the fourteenth year. And in the fifteenth year they did come forth against the people of Nephi; and because of the wickedness of the people of Nephi, and their many contentions and dissensions, the Gadianton robbers did gain many advantages over them. <sup>2:19</sup>And thus ended the fifteenth year, and thus were the people in a state of many afflictions; and the sword of destruction did hang over them, insomuch that they were about to be smitten down by it, and this because of their iniquity. <sup><I>3:1</sup>And now it came to pass that in the sixteenth year from the coming of Christ, Lachoneus, the governor of the land, received an epistle from the leader and the governor of this band of robbers; and these were the words which were written, saying: <sup>3:2</sup>Lachoneus, most noble and chief governor of the land, behold, I write this epistle unto you, and do give unto you exceedingly great praise because of your firmness, and also the firmness of your people, in maintaining that which ye suppose to be your right and liberty; yea, ye do stand well, as if ye were supported by the hand of a god, in the defence of your liberty, and your property, and your country, or that which ye do call so. <sup>3:3</sup>And it seemeth a pity unto me, most noble Lachoneus, that ye should be so foolish and vain as to suppose that ye can stand against so many brave men who are at my command, who do now at this time stand in their arms, and do await with great anxiety for the word—Go down upon the Nephites and destroy them. <sup>3:4</sup> And I, knowing of their unconquerable spirit, having proved them in the field of battle, and knowing of their everlasting hatred towards you because of the many wrongs which ye have done unto them, therefore if they should come down against you they would visit you with utter destruction. <sup>3:5</sup> Therefore I have written this epistle, sealing it with mine own hand, feeling for your welfare, because of your firmness in that which ye believe to be right, and your noble spirit in the field of battle. <sup>3:6</sup> Therefore I write unto you, desiring that ye would yield up unto this my people, your cities, your lands, and your possessions, rather than that they should visit you with the sword and that destruction should come upon you. <sup>3:7</sup> Or in other words, yield yourselves up unto us, and unite with us and become acquainted with our secret works, and become our brethren that ye may be like unto us—not our slaves, but our brethren and partners of all our substance. <sup>3:8</sup> And behold, I swear unto you, if ye will do this, with an oath, ye shall not be destroyed; but if ye will not do this, I swear unto you with an oath, that on the morrow month I will command that my armies shall come down against you, and they shall not stay their hand and shall spare not, but shall slay you, and shall let fall the sword upon you even until ye shall become extinct. <sup>3:9</sup> And behold, I am Giddianhi; and I am the governor of this the secret society of Gadianton; which society and the works thereof I know to be good; and they are of ancient date and they have been handed down unto us. <sup>3:10</sup> And I write this epistle unto you, Lachoneus, and I hope that ye will deliver up your lands and your possessions, without the shedding of blood, that this my people may recover their rights and government, who have dissented away from you because of your wickedness in retaining from them their rights of government, and except ye do this, I will avenge their wrongs. I am Giddianhi. <sup>3:11</sup> And now it came to pass when Lachoneus received this epistle he was exceedingly astonished, because of the boldness of Giddianhi demanding the possession of the land of the Nephites, and also of threatening the people and avenging the wrongs of those that had received no wrong, save it were they had wronged themselves by dissenting away unto those wicked and abominable robbers. <sup>3:12</sup> Now behold, this Lachoneus, the governor, was a just man, and could not be frightened by the demands and the threatenings of a robber; therefore he did not hearken to the epistle of Giddianhi, the governor of the robbers, but he did cause that his people should cry unto the Lord for strength against the time that the robbers should come down against them. <sup>3:13</sup> Yea, he sent a proclamation among all the people, that they should gather together their women, and their children, their flocks and their herds, and all their substance, save it were their land, unto one place. <sup>3:14</sup> And he caused that fortifications should be built round about them, and the strength thereof should be exceedingly great. And he caused that armies, both of the Nephites and of the Lamanites, or of all them who were numbered among the Nephites, should be placed as guards round about to watch them, and to guard them from the robbers day and night. <sup>3:15</sup>Yea, he said unto them: As the Lord liveth, except ye repent of all your iniquities, and cry unto the Lord, ye will in no wise be delivered out of the hands of those Gadianton robbers. <sup>3:16</sup>And so great and marvelous were the words and prophecies of Lachoneus that they did cause fear to come upon all the people; and they did exert themselves in their might to do according to the words of Lachoneus. <sup>3:17</sup>And it came to pass that Lachoneus did appoint chief captains over all the armies of the Nephites, to command them at the time that the robbers should come down out of the wilderness against them. <sup>3:18</sup>Now the chiefest among all the chief captains and the great commander of all the armies of the Nephites was appointed, and his name was Gidgiddoni. <sup>3:19</sup>Now it was the custom among all the Nephites to appoint for their chief captains, (save it were in their times of wickedness) some one that had the spirit of revelation and also prophecy; therefore, this Gidgiddoni was a great prophet among them, as also was the chief judge. <sup>3:20</sup>Now the people said unto Gidgiddoni: Pray unto the Lord, and let us go up upon the mountains and into the wilderness, that we may fall upon the robbers and destroy them in their own lands. <sup>3:21</sup>But Gidgiddoni saith unto them: The Lord forbid; for if we should go up against them the Lord would deliver us into their hands; therefore we will prepare ourselves in the center of our lands, and we will gather all our armies together, and we will not go against them, but we will wait till they shall come against us; therefore as the Lord liveth, if we do this he will deliver them into our hands. <sup>3:22</sup>And it came to pass in the seventeenth year, in the latter end of the year, the proclamation of Lachoneus had gone forth throughout all the face of the land, and they had taken their horses, and their chariots, and their cattle, and all their flocks, and their herds, and their grain, and all their substance, and did march forth by thousands and by tens of thousands, until they had all gone forth to the place which had been appointed that they should gather themselves together, to defend themselves against their enemies. <sup>3:23</sup>And the land which was appointed was the land of Zarahemla, and the land which was between the land Zarahemla and the land Bountiful, yea, to the line which was between the land Bountiful and the land Desolation. <sup>3:24</sup>And there were a great many thousand people who were called Nephites, who did gather themselves together in this land. Now Lachoneus did cause that they should gather themselves together in the land southward, because of the great curse which was upon the land northward. <sup>3:25</sup>And they did fortify themselves against their enemies; and they did dwell in one land, and in one body, and they did fear the words which had been spoken by Lachoneus, insomuch that they did repent of all their sins; and they did put up their prayers unto the Lord their God, that he would deliver them in the time that their enemies should come down against them to battle. <sup>3:26</sup>And they were exceedingly sorrowful because of their enemies. And Gidgiddoni did cause that they should make weapons of war of every kind, and they should be strong with armor, and with shields, and with bucklers, after the manner of his instruction. <sup>4:1</sup>And it came to pass that in the latter end of the eighteenth year those armies of robbers had prepared for battle, and began to come down and to sally forth from the hills, and out of the mountains, and the wilderness, and their strongholds, and their secret places, and began to take possession of the lands, both which were in the land south and which were in the land north, and began to take possession of all the lands which had been deserted by the Nephites, and the cities which had been left desolate. <sup>4:2</sup>But behold, there were no wild beasts nor game in those lands which had been deserted by the Nephites, and there was no game for the robbers save it were in the wilderness. <sup>4:3</sup>And the robbers could not exist save it were in the wilderness, for the want of food; for the Nephites had left their lands desolate, and had gathered their flocks and their herds and all their substance, and they were in one body. <sup>4:4</sup>Therefore, there was no chance for the robbers to plunder and to obtain food, save it were to come up in open battle against the Nephites; and the Nephites being in one body, and having so great a number, and having reserved for themselves provisions, and horses and cattle, and flocks of every kind, that they might subsist for the space of seven years, in the which time they did hope to destroy the robbers from off the face of the land; and thus the eighteenth year did pass away. <sup>4:5</sup>And it came to pass that in the nineteenth year Giddianhi found that it was expedient that he should go up to battle against the Nephites, for there was no way that they could subsist save it were to plunder and rob and murder. <sup>4:6</sup>And they durst not spread themselves upon the face of the land insomuch that they could raise grain, lest the Nephites should come upon them and slay them; therefore Giddianhi gave commandment unto his armies that in this year they should go up to battle against the Nephites. <sup>4:7</sup>And it came to pass that they did come up to battle; and it was in the sixth month; and behold, great and terrible was the day that they did come up to battle; and they were girded about after the manner of robbers; and they had a lamb-skin about their loins, and they were dyed in blood, and their heads were shorn, and they had head-plates upon them; and great and terrible was the appearance of the armies of Giddianhi, because of their armor, and because of their being dyed in blood. <sup>4:8</sup>And it came to pass that the armies of the Nephites, when they saw the appearance of the army of Giddianhi, had all fallen to the earth, and did lift their cries to the Lord their God, that he would spare them and deliver them out of the hands of their enemies. <sup>4:9</sup>And it came to pass that when the armies of Giddianhi saw this they began to shout with a loud voice, because of their joy, for they had supposed that the Nephites had fallen with fear because of the terror of their armies. <sup>4:10</sup>But in this thing they were disappointed, for the Nephites did not fear them; but they did fear their God and did supplicate him for protection; therefore, when the armies of Giddianhi did rush upon them they were prepared to meet them; yea, in the strength of the Lord they did receive them. <sup>4:11</sup>And the battle commenced in this the sixth month; and great and terrible was the battle

thereof, yea, great and terrible was the slaughter thereof, insomuch that there never was known so great a slaughter among all the people of Lehi since he left Jerusalem. <sup>4:12</sup>And notwithstanding the threatenings and the oaths which Giddianhi had made, behold, the Nephites did beat them, insomuch that they did fall back from before them. <sup>4:13</sup>And it came to pass that Gidgiddoni commanded that his armies should pursue them as far as the borders of the wilderness, and that they should not spare any that should fall into their hands by the way; and thus they did pursue them and did slay them, to the borders of the wilderness, even until they had fulfilled the commandment of Gidgiddoni. <sup>4:14</sup>And it came to pass that Giddianhi, who had stood and fought with boldness, was pursued as he fled; and being weary because of his much fighting he was overtaken and slain. And thus was the end of Giddianhi the robber. <sup>4:15</sup>And it came to pass that the armies of the Nephites did return again to their place of security. And it came to pass that this nineteenth year did pass away, and the robbers did not come again to battle; neither did they come again in the twentieth year. <sup>4:16</sup>And in the twenty and first year they did not come up to battle, but they came up on all sides to lay siege round about the people of Nephi; for they did suppose that if they should cut off the people of Nephi from their lands, and should hem them in on every side, and if they should cut them off from all their outward privileges, that they could cause them to yield themselves up according to their wishes. <sup>4:17</sup>Now they had appointed unto themselves another leader, whose name was Zemnarihah; therefore it was Zemnarihah that did cause that this siege should take place. <sup>4:18</sup>But behold, this was an advantage to the Nephites; for it was impossible for the robbers to lay siege sufficiently long to have any effect upon the Nephites, because of their much provision which they had laid up in store, <sup>4:19</sup>and because of the scantiness of provisions among the robbers; for behold, they had nothing save it were meat for their subsistence, which meat they did obtain in the wilderness; <sup>4:20</sup>and it came to pass that the wild game became scarce in the wilderness insomuch that the robbers were about to perish with hunger. <sup>4:21</sup>And the Nephites were continually marching out by day and by night, and falling upon their armies, and cutting them off by thousands and by tens of thousands. <sup>4:22</sup>And thus it became the desire of the people of Zemnarihah to withdraw from their design, because of the great destruction which came upon them by night and by day. <sup>4:23</sup>And it came to pass that Zemnarihah did give command unto his people that they should withdraw themselves from the siege, and march into the furthestmost parts of the land northward. <sup>4:24</sup>And now, Gidgiddoni being aware of their design, and knowing of their weakness because of the want of food, and the great slaughter which had been made among them, therefore he did send out his armies in the night-time, and did cut off the way of their retreat, and did place his armies in the way of their retreat. <sup>4:25</sup>And this did they do in the night-time, and got on their march beyond the robbers, so that on the morrow, when the robbers began their march, they were met by the armies of the Nephites both in their front and in their rear.

<sup>4:26</sup>And the robbers who were on the south were also cut off in their places of retreat. And all these things were done by command of Gidgiddoni. <sup>4:27</sup>And there were many thousands who did yield themselves up prisoners unto the Nephites, and the remainder of them were slain. <sup>4:28</sup>And their leader, Zemnarihah, was taken and hanged upon a tree, yea, even upon the top thereof until he was dead. And when they had hanged him until he was dead they did fell the tree to the earth, and did cry with a loud voice, saying: <sup>4:29</sup>May the Lord preserve his people in righteousness and in holiness of heart, that they may cause to be felled to the earth all who shall seek to slay them because of power and secret combinations, even as this man hath been felled to the earth. <sup>4:30</sup>And they did rejoice and cry again with one voice, saying: May the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, protect this people in righteousness, so long as they shall call on the name of their God for protection. <sup>4:31</sup>And it came to pass that they did break forth, all as one, in singing, and praising their God for the great thing which he had done for them, in preserving them from falling into the hands of their enemies. <sup>4:32</sup>Yea, they did cry: Hosanna to the Most High God. And they did cry: Blessed be the name of the Lord God Almighty, the Most High God. <sup>4:33</sup>And their hearts were swollen with joy, unto the gushing out of many tears, because of the great goodness of God in delivering them out of the hands of their enemies; and they knew it was because of their repentance and their humility that they had been delivered from an everlasting destruction. <sup>5:1</sup>And now behold, there was not a living soul among all the people of the Nephites who did doubt in the least the words of all the holy prophets who had spoken; for they knew that it must needs be that they must be fulfilled. <sup>5:2</sup>And they knew that it must be expedient that Christ had come, because of the many signs which had been given, according to the words of the prophets; and because of the things which had come to pass already they knew that it must needs be that all things should come to pass according to that which had been spoken. <sup>5:3</sup>Therefore they did forsake all their sins, and their abominations, and their whoredoms, and did serve God with all diligence day and night. <sup>5:4</sup>And now it came to pass that when they had taken all the robbers prisoners, insomuch that none did escape who were not slain, they did cast their prisoners into prison, and did cause the word of God to be preached unto them; and as many as would repent of their sins and enter into a covenant that they would murder no more were set at liberty. <sup>5:5</sup>But as many as there were who did not enter into a covenant, and who did still continue to have those secret murders in their hearts, yea, as many as were found breathing out threatenings against their brethren were condemned and punished according to the law. <sup>5:6</sup>And thus they did put an end to all those wicked, and secret, and abominable combinations, in the which there was so much wickedness, and so many murders committed. <sup>5:7</sup>And thus had the twenty and second year passed away, and the twenty and third year also, and the twenty and fourth, and the twenty and fifth; and thus had twenty and five years passed away. <sup>5:8</sup>And there had many things transpired which, in the eyes of some, would be great and marvelous; nevertheless, they cannot all be written in this book; yea, this book cannot contain even a hundredth part of what was done among so many people in the space of twenty and five years; <sup>5:9</sup>but behold there are records which do contain all the proceedings of this people; and a shorter but true account was given by Nephi. <sup>5:10</sup>Therefore I have made my record of these things according to the record of Nephi, which was engraven on the plates which were called the plates of Nephi. <sup>5:11</sup>And behold, I do make the record on plates which I have made with mine own hands. <sup>5:12</sup>And behold, I am called Mormon, being called after the land of Mormon, the land in which Alma did establish the church among the people, yea, the first church which was established among them after their transgression. <sup>5:13</sup>Behold, I am a disciple of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. I have been called of him to declare his word among his people, that they might have everlasting life. <sup>5:14</sup>And it hath become expedient that I, according to the will of God, that the prayers of those who have gone hence, who were the holy ones, should be fulfilled according to their faith, should make a record of these things which have been done—<sup>5:15</sup>yea, a small record of that which hath taken place from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem, even down until the present time. <sup>5:16</sup>Therefore I do make my record from the accounts which have been given by those who were before me, until the commencement of my day; <sup>5:17</sup>and then I do make a record of the things which I have seen with mine own eyes. <sup>5:18</sup>And I know the record which I make to be a just and a true record; nevertheless there are many things which, according to our language, we are not able to write. <sup>5:19</sup>And now I make an end of my saying, which is of myself, and proceed to give my account of the things which have been before me. <sup>5:20</sup>I am Mormon, and a pure descendant of Lehi. I have reason to bless my God and my Savior Jesus Christ, that he brought our fathers out of the land of Jerusalem, (and no one knew it save it were himself and those whom he brought out of that land) and that he hath given me and my people so much knowledge unto the salvation of our souls. <sup>5:21</sup>Surely he hath blessed the house of Jacob, and hath been merciful unto the seed of Joseph. <sup>5:22</sup>And insomuch as the children of Lehi have kept his commandments he hath blessed them and prospered them according to his word. <sup>5:23</sup>Yea, and surely shall he again bring a remnant of the seed of Joseph to the knowledge of the Lord their God. <sup>5:24</sup>And as surely as the Lord liveth, will he gather in from the four quarters of the earth all the remnant of the seed of Jacob, who are scattered abroad upon all the face of the earth. <sup>5:25</sup>And as he hath covenanted with all the house of Jacob, even so shall the covenant wherewith he hath covenanted with the house of Jacob be fulfilled in his own due time, unto the restoring all the house of Jacob unto the knowledge of the covenant that he hath covenanted with them. <sup>5:26</sup>And then shall they know their Redeemer, who is Jesus Christ, the Son of God; and then shall they be gathered in from the four quarters of the earth unto their own lands, from whence they have been dispersed; yea, as the Lord liveth so shall it be. Amen. <sup><III>6:1</sup> And now it came to pass that the people of the Nephites did all return to their own lands in the twenty and sixth year, every man, with his family, his flocks and his herds, his horses and his cattle, and all things whatsoever did belong unto them. <sup>6:2</sup>And it came to pass that they had not eaten up all their provisions; therefore they did take with them all that they had not devoured, of all their grain of every kind, and their gold, and their silver, and all their precious things, and they did return to their own lands and their possessions, both on the north and on the south, both on the land northward and on the land southward. <sup>6:3</sup>And they granted unto those robbers who had entered into a covenant to keep the peace of the land, who were desirous to remain Lamanites, lands, according to their numbers, that they might have, with their labors, wherewith to subsist upon; and thus they did establish peace in all the land. <sup>6:4</sup>And they began again to prosper and to wax great; and the twenty and sixth and seventh years passed away, and there was great order in the land; and they had formed their laws according to equity and justice. <sup>6:5</sup>And now there was nothing in all the land to hinder the people from prospering continually, except they should fall into transgression. <sup>6:6</sup>And now it was Gidgiddoni, and the judge, Lachoneus, and those who had been appointed leaders, who had established this great peace in the land. <sup>6:7</sup>And it came to pass that there were many cities built anew, and there were many old cities repaired. <sup>6:8</sup>And there were many highways cast up, and many roads made, which led from city to city, and from land to land, and from place to place. <sup>6:9</sup>And thus passed away the twenty and eighth year, and the people had continual peace. <sup>6:10</sup>But it came to pass in the twenty and ninth year there began to be some disputings among the people; and some were lifted up unto pride and boastings because of their exceedingly great riches, yea, even unto great persecutions; <sup>6:11</sup>for there were many merchants in the land, and also many lawyers, and many officers. <sup>6:12</sup>And the people began to be distinguished by ranks, according to their riches and their chances for learning; yea, some were ignorant because of their poverty, and others did receive great learning because of their riches. <sup>6:13</sup>Some were lifted up in pride, and others were exceedingly humble; some did return railing for railing, while others would receive railing and persecution and all manner of afflictions, and would not turn and revile again, but were humble and penitent before God. <sup>6:14</sup>And thus there became a great inequality in all the land, insomuch that the church began to be broken up; yea, insomuch that in the thirtieth year the church was broken up in all the land save it were among a few of the Lamanites who were converted unto the true faith; and they would not depart from it, for they were firm, and steadfast, and immovable, willing with all diligence to keep the commandments of the Lord. <sup>6:15</sup>Now the cause of this iniquity of the people was this—Satan had great power, unto the stirring up of the people to do all manner of iniquity, and to the puffing them up with pride, tempting them to seek for power, and authority, and riches, and the vain things of the world. <sup>6:16</sup>And thus Satan did lead away the hearts of the people to do all manner of iniquity; therefore they had enjoyed peace but a few years. <sup>6:17</sup>And thus, in the commencement of the thirtieth year—the people having been delivered up for the space of a long time to be carried about by the temptations of the devil whithersoever he desired to carry them, and to do whatsoever iniquity he desired they should—and thus in the commencement of this, the thirtieth year, they were in a state of awful wickedness. <sup>6:18</sup>Now they did not sin ignorantly, for they knew the will of God concerning them, for it had been taught unto them; therefore they did wilfully rebel against God. <sup>6:19</sup>And now it was in the days of Lachoneus, the son of Lachoneus, for Lachoneus did fill the seat of his father and did govern the people that year. <sup>6:20</sup>And there began to be men inspired from heaven and sent forth, standing among the people in all the land, preaching and testifying boldly of the sins and iniquities of the people, and testifying unto them concerning the redemption which the Lord would make for his people, or in other words, the resurrection of Christ; and they did testify boldly of his death and sufferings. <sup>6:21</sup>Now there were many of the people who were exceedingly angry because of those who testified of these things; and those who were angry were chiefly the chief judges, and they who had been high priests and lawyers; yea, all those who were lawyers were angry with those who testified of these things. <sup>6:22</sup>Now there was no lawyer nor judge nor high priest that could have power to condemn any one to death save their condemnation was signed by the governor of the land. <sup>6:23</sup>Now there were many of those who testified of the things pertaining to Christ who testified boldly, who were taken and put to death secretly by the judges, that the knowledge of their death came not unto the governor of the land until after their death. <sup>6:24</sup>Now behold, this was contrary to the laws of the land, that any man should be put to death except they had power from the governor of the land—<sup>6:25</sup>therefore a complaint came up unto the land of Zarahemla, to the governor of the land, against these judges who had condemned the prophets of the Lord unto death, not according to the law. <sup>6:26</sup>Now it came to pass that they were taken and brought up before the judge, to be judged of the crime which they had done, according to the law which had been given by the people. <sup>6:27</sup>Now it came to pass that those judges had many friends and kindreds; and the remainder, yea, even almost all the lawyers and the high priests, did gather themselves together, and unite with the kindreds of those judges who were to be tried according to the law. <sup>6:28</sup>And they did enter into a covenant one with another, yea, even into that covenant which was given by them of old, which covenant was given and administered by the devil, to combine against all righteousness. <sup>6:29</sup>Therefore they did combine against the people of the Lord, and enter into a covenant to destroy them, and to deliver those who were guilty of murder from the grasp of justice, which was about to be administered according to the law. <sup>6:30</sup>And they did set at defiance the law and the rights of their country; and they did covenant one with another to destroy the governor, and to establish a king over the land, that the land should no more be at liberty but should be subject unto kings. <sup>7:1</sup>Now behold, I will show unto you that they did not establish a king over the land; but in this same year, yea, the thirtieth year, they did destroy upon the judgment-seat, yea, did murder the chief judge of the land. <sup>7:2</sup>And the people were divided one against another; and they did separate one from another into tribes, every man according to his family and his kindred and friends; and thus they did destroy the government of the land. <sup>7:3</sup>And every tribe did appoint a chief or a leader over them; and thus they became tribes and leaders of tribes. <sup>7:4</sup>Now behold, there was no man among them save he had much family and many kindreds and friends; therefore their tribes became exceedingly great. <sup>7:5</sup>Now all this was done, and there were no wars as yet among them; and all this iniquity had come upon the people because they did yield themselves unto the power of Satan. <sup>7:6</sup>And the regulations of the government were destroyed, because of the secret combination of the friends and kindreds of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>7:7</sup>And they did cause a great contention in the land, insomuch that the more righteous part of the people had nearly all become wicked; yea, there were but few righteous men among them. <sup>7:8</sup>And thus six years had not passed away since the more part of the people had turned from their righteousness, like the dog to his vomit, or like the sow to her wallowing in the mire. <sup>7:9</sup>Now this secret combination, which had brought so great iniquity upon the people, did gather themselves together, and did place at their head a man whom they did call Jacob; <sup>7:10</sup>and they did call him their king; therefore he became a king over this wicked band; and he was one of the chiefest who had given his voice against the prophets who testified of Jesus. <sup>7:11</sup>And it came to pass that they were not so strong in number as the tribes of the people, who were united together save it were their leaders did establish their laws, every one according to his tribe; nevertheless they were enemies; notwithstanding they were not a righteous people, yet they were united in the hatred of those who had entered into a covenant to destroy the government. <sup>7:12</sup>Therefore, Jacob seeing that their enemies were more numerous than they, he being the king of the band, therefore he commanded his people that they should take their flight into the northernmost part of the land, and there build up unto themselves a kingdom, until they were joined by dissenters, (for he flattered them that there would be many dissenters) and they become sufficiently strong to contend with the tribes of the people; and they did so. <sup>7:13</sup>And so speedy was their march that it could not be impeded until they had gone forth out of the reach of the people. And thus ended the thirtieth year; and thus were the affairs of the people of Nephi. <sup>7:14</sup>And it came to pass in the thirty and first year that they were divided into tribes, every man according to his family, kindred and friends; nevertheless they had come to an agreement that they would not go to war one with another; but they were not united as to their laws, and their manner of government, for they were established according to the minds of those who were their chiefs and their leaders. But they did establish very strict laws that one tribe should not trespass against another, insomuch that in some degree they had peace in the land; nevertheless, their hearts were turned from the Lord their God, and they did stone the prophets and did cast them out from among them. <sup>7:15</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi—having been visited by angels and also the voice of the Lord, therefore having seen angels, and being eye-witness, and having had power given unto him that he might know concerning the ministry of Christ, and also being eye-witness to their quick return from righteousness unto their wickedness and abominations; <sup>7:16</sup>therefore, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts and the blindness of their minds — went forth among them in that same year, and began to testify, boldly, repentance and remission of sins through faith on the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>7:17</sup>And he did minister many things unto them; and all of them cannot be written, and a part of them would not suffice, therefore they are not written in this book. And Nephi did minister with power and with great authority. <sup>7:18</sup>And it came to pass that they were angry with him, even because he had greater power than they, for it were not possible that they could disbelieve his words, for so great was his faith on the Lord Jesus Christ that angels did minister unto him daily. <sup>7:19</sup>And in the name of Jesus did he cast out devils and unclean spirits; and even his brother did he raise from the dead, after he had been stoned and suffered death by the people. <sup>7:20</sup>And the people saw it, and did witness of it, and were angry with him because of his power; and he did also do many more miracles, in the sight of the people, in the name of Jesus. <sup>7:21</sup>And it came to pass that the thirty and first year did pass away, and there were but few who were converted unto the Lord; but as many as were converted did truly signify unto the people that they had been visited by the power and Spirit of God, which was in Jesus Christ, in whom they believed. <sup>7:22</sup>And as many as had devils cast out from them, and were healed of their sicknesses and their infirmities, did truly manifest unto the people that they had been wrought upon by the Spirit of God, and had been healed; and they did show forth signs also and did do some miracles among the people. <sup>7:23</sup>Thus passed away the thirty and second year also. And Nephi did cry unto the people in the commencement of the thirty and third year; and he did preach unto them repentance and remission of sins. <sup>7:24</sup>Now I would have you to remember also, that there were none who were brought unto repentance who were not baptized with water. <sup>7:25</sup>Therefore, there were ordained of Nephi, men unto this ministry, that all such as should come unto them should be baptized with water, and this as a witness and a testimony before God, and unto the people, that they had repented and received a remission of their sins. <sup>7:26</sup>And there were many in the commencement of this year that were baptized unto repentance; and thus the more part of the year did pass away. <sup><IV>8:1</sup>And now it came to pass that according to our record, and we know our record to be true, for behold, it was a just man who did keep the record — for he truly did many miracles in the name of Jesus; and there was not any man who could do a miracle in the name of Jesus save he were cleansed every whit from his iniquity — <sup>8:2</sup>and now it came to pass, if there was no mistake made by this man in the reckoning of our time, the thirty and third year had passed away; <sup>8:3</sup>and the people began to look with great earnestness for the sign which had been given by the prophet Samuel, the Lamanite, yea, for the time that there should be darkness for the space of three days over the face of the land. <sup>8:4</sup>And there began to be great doubtings and disputations among the people, notwithstanding so many signs had been given. <sup>8:5</sup>And it came to pass in the thirty and fourth year, in the first month, on the fourth day of the month, there arose a great storm, such an one as never had been known in all the land. <sup>8:6</sup>And there was also a great and terrible tempest; and there was terrible thunder, insomuch that it did shake the whole earth as if it was about to divide asunder. <sup>8:7</sup>And there were exceedingly sharp lightnings, such as never had been known in all the land. <sup>8:8</sup>And the city of Zarahemla did take fire. <sup>8:9</sup>And the city of Moroni did sink into the depths of the sea, and the inhabitants thereof were drowned. <sup>8:10</sup>And the earth was carried up upon the city of Moronihah, that in the place of the city there became a great mountain. <sup>8:11</sup>And there was a great and terrible destruction in the land southward. <sup>8:12</sup>But behold, there was a more great and terrible destruction in the land northward; for behold, the whole face of the land was changed, because of the tempest and the whirlwinds, and the thunderings and the lightnings, and the exceedingly great quaking of the whole earth; <sup>8:13</sup>and the highways were broken up, and the level roads were spoiled, and many smooth places became rough. <sup>8:14</sup>And many great and notable cities were sunk, and many were burned, and many were shaken till the buildings thereof had fallen to the earth, and the inhabitants thereof were slain, and the places were left desolate. <sup>8:15</sup>And there were some cities which remained; but the damage thereof was exceedingly great, and there were many in them who were slain. <sup>8:16</sup>And there were some who were carried away in the whirlwind; and whither they went no man knoweth, save they know that they were carried away. <sup>8:17</sup>And thus the face of the whole earth became deformed, because of the tempests, and the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the quaking of the earth. <sup>8:18</sup>And behold, the rocks were rent in twain; they were broken up upon the face of the whole earth, insomuch that they were found in broken fragments, and in seams and in cracks, upon all the face of the land. <sup>8:19</sup>And it came to pass that when the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the storm, and the tempest, and the quakings of the earth did cease—for behold, they did last for about the space of three hours; and it was said by some that the time was greater; nevertheless, all these great and terrible things were done in about the space of three hours—and then behold, there was darkness upon the face of the land. <sup>8:20</sup>And it came to pass that there was thick darkness upon all the face of the land, insomuch that the inhabitants thereof who had not fallen could feel the vapor of darkness; <sup>8:21</sup>and there could be no light, because of the darkness, neither candles, neither torches; neither could there be fire kindled with their fine and exceedingly dry wood, so that there could not be any light at all; <sup>8:22</sup>and there was not any light seen, neither fire, nor glimmer, neither the sun, nor the moon, nor the stars, for so great were the mists of darkness which were upon the face of the land. <sup>8:23</sup>And it came to pass that it did last for the space of three days that there was no light seen; and there was great mourning and howling and weeping among all the people continually; yea, great were the groanings of the people, because of the darkness and the great destruction which had come upon them. <sup>8:24</sup>And in one place they were heard to cry, saying: O that we had repented before this great and terrible day, and then would our brethren have been spared, and they would not have been burned in that great city Zarahemla. <sup>8:25</sup>And in another place they were heard to cry and mourn, saying: O that we had repented before this great and terrible day, and had not killed and stoned the prophets, and cast them out; then would our mothers and our fair daughters, and our children have been spared, and not have been buried up in that great city Moronihah. And thus were the howlings of the people great and terrible. <sup>9:1</sup>And it came to pass that there was a voice heard among all the inhabitants of the earth, upon all the face of this land, crying: <sup>9:2</sup>Wo, wo, wo unto this people; wo unto the inhabitants of the whole earth except they shall repent; for the devil laugheth, and his angels rejoice, because of the slain of the fair sons and daughters of my people; and it is because of their iniquity and abominations that they are fallen! <sup>9:3</sup>Behold, that great city Zarahemla have I burned with fire, and the inhabitants thereof. <sup>9:4</sup>And behold, that great city Moroni have I caused to be sunk in the depths of the sea, and the inhabitants thereof to be drowned. <sup>9:5</sup>And behold, that great city Moronihah have I covered with earth, and the inhabitants thereof, to hide their iniquities and their abominations from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and the saints shall not come any more unto me against them. <sup>9:6</sup>And behold, the city of Gilgal have I caused to be sunk, and the inhabitants thereof to be buried up in the depths of the earth; <sup>9:7</sup>yea, and the city of Onihah and the inhabitants thereof, and the city of Mocum and the inhabitants thereof, and the city of Jerusalem and the inhabitants thereof; and waters have I caused to come up in the stead thereof, to hide their wickedness and abominations from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and the saints shall not come up any more unto me against them. <sup>9:8</sup>And behold, the city of Gadiandi, and the city of Gadiomnah, and the city of Jacob, and the city of Gimgimno, all these have I caused to be sunk, and made hills and valleys in the places thereof; and the inhabitants thereof have I buried up in the depths of the earth, to hide their wickedness and abominations from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and the saints should not come up any more unto me against them. <sup>9:9</sup>And behold, that great city Jacobugath, which was inhabited by the people of king Jacob, have I caused to be burned with fire because of their sins and their wickedness, which was above all the wickedness of the whole earth, because of their secret murders and combinations; for it was they that did destroy the peace of my people and the government of the land; therefore I did cause them to be burned, to destroy them from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and the saints should not come up unto me any more against them. <sup>9:10</sup>And behold, the city of Laman, and the city of Josh, and the city of Gad, and the city of Kishkumen, have I caused to be burned with fire, and the inhabitants thereof, because of their wickedness in casting out the prophets, and stoning those whom I did send to declare unto them concerning their wickedness and their abominations. <sup>9:11</sup>And because they did cast them all out, that there were none righteous among them, I did send down fire and destroy them, that their wickedness and abominations might be hid from before my face, that the blood of the prophets and the saints whom I sent among them might not cry unto me from the ground against them. <sup>9:12</sup>And many great destructions have I caused to come upon this land, and upon this people, because of their wickedness and their abominations. <sup>9:13</sup>O all ye that are spared because ye were more righteous than they, will ye not now return unto me, and repent of your sins, and be converted, that I may heal you? <sup>9:14</sup>Yea, verily I say unto you, if ye will come unto me ye shall have eternal life. Behold, mine arm of mercy is extended towards you, and whosoever will come, him will I receive; and blessed are those who come unto me. <sup>9:15</sup>Behold, I am Jesus Christ the Son of God. I created the heavens and the earth, and all things that in them are. I was with the Father from the beginning. I am in the Father, and the Father in me; and in me hath the Father glorified his name. <sup>9:16</sup>I came unto my own, and my own received me not. And the scriptures concerning my coming are fulfilled. <sup>9:17</sup>And as many as have received me, to them have I given to become the sons of God; and even so will I to as many as shall believe on my name, for behold, by me redemption cometh, and in me is the law of Moses fulfilled. <sup>9:18</sup>I am the light and the life of the world. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. <sup>9:19</sup>And ye shall offer up unto me no more the shedding of blood; yea, your sacrifices and your burnt offerings shall be done away, for I will accept none of your sacrifices and your burnt offerings. <sup>9:20</sup>And ye shall offer for a sacrifice unto me a broken heart and a contrite spirit. And whoso cometh unto me with a broken heart and a contrite spirit, him will I baptize with fire and with the Holy Ghost, even as the Lamanites, because of their faith in me at the time of their conversion, were baptized with fire and with the Holy Ghost, and they knew it not. <sup>9:21</sup>Behold, I have come unto the world to bring redemption unto the world, to save the world from sin. <sup>9:22</sup>Therefore, whoso repenteth and cometh unto me as a little child, him will I receive, for of such is the kingdom of God. Behold, for such I have laid down my life, and have taken it up again; therefore repent, and come unto me ye ends of the earth, and be saved. <sup>10:1</sup>And now behold, it came to pass that all the people of the land did hear these sayings, and did witness of it. And after these sayings there was silence in the land for the space of many hours; <sup>10:2</sup>for so great was the astonishment of the people that they did cease lamenting and howling for the loss of their kindred which had been slain; therefore there was silence in all the land for the space of many hours. <sup>10:3</sup>And it came to pass that there came a voice again unto the people, and all the people did hear, and did witness of it, saying: <sup>10:4</sup>O ye people of these great cities which have fallen, who are descendants of Jacob, yea, who are of the house of Israel, how oft have I gathered you as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and have nourished you. <sup>10:5</sup>And again, how oft would I have gathered you as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, yea, O ye people of the house of Israel, who have fallen; yea, O ye people of the house of Israel, ye that dwell at Jerusalem, as ye that have fallen; yea, how oft would I have gathered you as a hen gathereth her chickens, and ye would not. <sup>10:6</sup>O ye house of Israel whom I have spared, how oft will I gather you as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, if ye will repent and return unto me with full purpose of heart. <sup>10:7</sup>But if not, O house of Israel, the places of your dwellings shall become desolate until the time of the fulfilling of the covenant to your fathers. <sup>10:8</sup>And now it came to pass that after the people had heard these words, behold, they began to weep and howl again because of the loss of their kindred and friends. <sup>10:9</sup>And it came to pass that thus did the three days pass away. And it was in the morning, and the darkness dispersed from off the face of the land, and the earth did cease to tremble, and the rocks did cease to rend, and the dreadful groanings did cease, and all the tumultuous noises did pass away. <sup>10:10</sup>And the earth did cleave together again, that it stood; and the mourning, and the weeping, and the wailing of the people who were spared alive did cease; and their mourning was turned into joy, and their lamentations into the praise and thanksgiving unto the Lord Jesus Christ, their Redeemer. <sup>10:11</sup>And thus far were the scriptures fulfilled which had been spoken by the prophets. <sup>10:12</sup>And it was the more righteous part of the people who were saved, and it was they who received the prophets and stoned them not; and it was they who had not shed the blood of the saints, who were spared — <sup>10:13</sup>and they were spared and were not sunk and buried up in the earth; and they were not drowned in the depths of the sea; and they were not burned by fire, neither were they fallen upon and crushed to death; and they were not carried away in the whirlwind; neither were they overpowered by the vapor of smoke and of darkness. <sup>10:14</sup>And now, whoso readeth, let him understand; he that hath the scriptures, let him search them, and see and behold if all these deaths and destructions by fire, and by smoke, and by tempests, and by whirlwinds, and by the opening of the earth to receive them, and all these things are not unto the fulfilling of the prophecies of many of the holy prophets. <sup>10:15</sup>Behold, I say unto you, Yea, many have testified of these things at the coming of Christ, and were slain because they testified of these things. <sup>10:16</sup>Yea, the prophet Zenos did testify of these things, and also Zenock spake concerning these things, because they testified particularly concerning us, who are the remnant of their seed. <sup>10:17</sup>Behold, our father Jacob also testified concerning a remnant of the seed of Joseph. And behold, are not we a remnant of the seed of Joseph? And these things which testify of us, are they not written upon the plates of brass which our father Lehi brought out of Jerusalem? <sup>10:18</sup>And it came to pass that in the ending of the thirty and fourth year, behold, I will show unto you that the people of Nephi who were spared, and also those who had been called Lamanites, who had been spared, did have great favors shown unto them, and great blessings poured out upon their heads, insomuch that soon after the ascension of Christ into heaven he did truly manifest himself unto them — <sup>10:19</sup>showing his body unto them, and ministering unto them; and an account of his ministry shall be given hereafter. Therefore for this time I make an end of my sayings. <V>Jesus Christ did show himself unto the people of Nephi, as the multitude were gathered together in the land Bountiful, and did minister unto them; and on this wise did he show himself unto them. <sup>11:1</sup>And now it came to pass that there were a great multitude gathered together, of the people of Nephi, round about the temple which was in the land Bountiful; and they were marveling and wondering one with another, and were showing one to another the great and marvelous change which had taken place. <sup>11:2</sup>And they were also conversing about this Jesus Christ, of whom the sign had been given concerning his death. <sup>11:3</sup>And it came to pass that while they were thus conversing one with another, they heard a voice as if it came out of heaven; and they cast their eyes round about, for they understood not the voice which they heard; and it was not a harsh voice, neither was it a loud voice; nevertheless, and notwithstanding it being a small voice it did pierce them that did hear to the center, insomuch that there was no part of their frame that it did not cause to quake; yea, it did pierce them to the very soul, and did cause their hearts to burn. <sup>11:4</sup>And it came to pass that again they heard the voice, and they understood it not. <sup>11:5</sup>And again the third time they did hear the voice, and did open their ears to hear it; and their eyes were towards the sound thereof; and they did look steadfastly towards heaven, from whence the sound came. <sup>11:6</sup>And behold, the third time they did understand the voice which they heard; and it said unto them: <sup>11:7</sup>Behold my Beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased, in whom I have glorified my name—hear ye him. <sup>11:8</sup>And it came to pass, as they understood they cast their eyes up again towards heaven; and behold, they saw a Man descending out of heaven; and he was clothed in a white robe; and he came down and stood in the midst of them; and the eyes of the whole multitude were turned upon him, and they durst not open their mouths, even one to another, and wist not what it meant, for they thought it was an angel that had appeared unto them. <sup>11:9</sup>And it came to pass that he stretched forth his hand and spake unto the people, saying: <sup>11:10</sup>Behold, I am Jesus Christ, whom the prophets testified shall come into the world. <sup>11:11</sup>And behold, I am the light and the life of the world; and I have drunk out of that bitter cup which the Father hath given me, and have glorified the Father in taking upon me the sins of the world, in the which I have suffered the will of the Father in all things from the beginning. <sup>11:12</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words the whole multitude fell to the earth; for they remembered that it had been prophesied among them that Christ should show himself unto them after his ascension into heaven. <sup>11:13</sup>And it came to pass that the Lord spake unto them saying: <sup>11:14</sup>Arise and come forth unto me, that ye may thrust your hands into my side, and also that ye may feel the prints of the nails in my hands and in my feet, that ye may know that I am the God of Israel, and the God of the whole earth, and have been slain for the sins of the world. <sup>11:15</sup>And it came to pass that the multitude went forth, and thrust their hands into his side, and did feel the prints of the nails in his hands and in his feet; and this they did do, going forth one by one until they had all gone forth, and did see with their eyes and did feel with their hands, and did know of a surety and did bear record, that it was he, of whom it was written by the prophets, that should come. <sup>11:16</sup>And when they had all gone forth and had witnessed for themselves, they did cry out with one accord, saying: <sup>11:17</sup>Hosanna! Blessed be the name of the Most High God! And they did fall down at the feet of Jesus, and did worship him. <sup>11:18</sup>And it came to pass that he spake unto Nephi (for Nephi was among the multitude) and he commanded him that he should come forth. <sup>11:19</sup>And Nephi arose and went forth, and bowed himself before the Lord and did kiss his feet. <sup>11:20</sup>And the Lord commanded him that he should arise. And he arose and stood before him. <sup>11:21</sup>And the Lord said unto him: I give unto you power that ye shall baptize this people when I am again ascended into heaven. <sup>11:22</sup>And again the Lord called others, and said unto them likewise; and he gave unto them power to baptize. And he said unto them: On this wise shall ye baptize; and there shall be no disputations among you. <sup>11:23</sup>Verily I say unto you, that whoso repenteth of his sins through your words, and desireth to be baptized in my name, on this wise shall ye baptize them—Behold, ye shall go down and stand in the water, and in my name shall ye baptize them. <sup>11:24</sup>And now behold, these are the words which ye shall say, calling them by name, saying: <sup>11:25</sup>Having authority given me of Jesus Christ, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. <sup>11:26</sup>And then shall ye immerse them in the water, and come forth again out of the water. <sup>11:27</sup>And after this manner shall ye baptize in my name; for behold, verily I say unto you, that the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost are one; and I am in the Father, and the Father in me, and the Father and I are one. <sup>11:28</sup>And according as I have commanded you thus shall ye baptize. And there shall be no disputations among you, as there have hitherto been; neither shall there be disputations among you concerning the points of my doctrine, as there have hitherto been. <sup>11:29</sup>For verily, verily I say unto you, he that hath the spirit of contention is not of me, but is of the devil, who is the father of contention, and he stirreth up the hearts of men to contend with anger, one with another. <sup>11:30</sup>Behold, this is not my doctrine, to stir up the hearts of men with anger, one against another; but this is my doctrine, that such things should be done away. <sup>11:31</sup>Behold, verily, verily, I say unto you, I will declare unto you my doctrine. <sup>11:32</sup>And this is my doctrine, and it is the doctrine which the Father hath given unto me; and I bear record of the Father, and the Father beareth record of me, and the Holy Ghost beareth record of the Father and me; and I bear record that the Father commandeth all men, everywhere, to repent and believe in me. <sup>11:33</sup>And whoso believeth in me, and is baptized, the same shall be saved; and they are they who shall inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>11:34</sup>And whoso believeth not in me, and is not baptized, shall be damned. <sup>11:35</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, that this is my doctrine, and I bear record of it from the Father; and whoso believeth in me believeth in the Father also; and unto him will the Father bear record of me, for he will visit him with fire and with the Holy Ghost. <sup>11:36</sup>And thus will the Father bear record of me, and the Holy Ghost will bear record unto him of the Father and me; for the Father, and I, and the Holy Ghost are one. <sup>11:37</sup>And again I say unto you, ye must repent, and become as a little child, and be baptized in my name, or ye can in nowise receive these things.

<sup>11:38</sup>And again I say unto you, ye must repent, and be baptized in my name, and become as a little child, or ye can in nowise inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>11:39</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, that this is my doctrine, and whoso buildeth upon this buildeth upon my rock, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against them. <sup>11:40</sup>And whoso shall declare more or less than this, and establish it for my doctrine, the same cometh of evil, and is not built upon my rock; but he buildeth upon a sandy foundation, and the gates of hell stand open to receive such when the floods come and the winds beat upon them. <sup>11:41</sup>Therefore, go forth unto this people, and declare the words which I have spoken, unto the ends of the earth.

<sup>12:1</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words unto Nephi, and to those who had been called, (now the number of them who had been called, and received power and authority to baptize, was twelve) and behold, he stretched forth his hand unto the multitude, and cried unto them, saying: Blessed are ye if ye shall give heed unto the words of these twelve whom I have chosen from among you to minister unto you, and to be your servants; and unto them I have given power that they may baptize you with water; and after that ye are baptized with water, behold, I will baptize you with fire and with the Holy Ghost; therefore blessed are ye if ye shall believe in me and be baptized, after that ye have seen me and know that I am. <sup>12:2</sup>And again, more blessed are they who shall believe in your words because that ye shall testify that ye have seen me, and that ye know that I am. Yea, blessed are they who shall believe in your words, and come down into the depths of humility and be baptized, for they shall be visited with fire and with the Holy Ghost, and shall receive a remission of their sins. <sup>12:3</sup>Yea, blessed are the poor in spirit who come unto me, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. <sup>12:4</sup>And again, blessed are all they that mourn, for they shall be comforted. <sup>12:5</sup>And blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

<sup>12:6</sup>And blessed are all they who do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled with the Holy Ghost. <sup>12:7</sup>And blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. <sup>12:8</sup>And blessed are all the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

<sup>12:9</sup>And blessed are all the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God. <sup>12:10</sup>And blessed are all they who are persecuted for my name's sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. <sup>12:11</sup>And blessed are ye when men shall revile you and persecute, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake; <sup>12:12</sup>for ye shall have great joy and be exceedingly glad, for great shall be your reward in heaven; for so persecuted they the prophets who were before you. <sup>12:13</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, I give unto you to be the salt of the earth; but if the salt shall lose its savor wherewith shall the earth be salted? The salt shall be thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and to be trodden under foot of men. <sup>12:14</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, I give unto you to be the light of this people. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. <sup>12:15</sup>Behold, do men light a candle and put it under a bushel? Nay, but on a candlestick, and it giveth light to all that are in the house; <sup>12:16</sup>therefore let your light so shine before this people, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven. <sup>12:17</sup>Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets. I am not come to destroy but to fulfil; <sup>12:18</sup>for verily I say unto you, one jot nor one tittle hath not passed away from the law, but in me it hath all been fulfilled. <sup>12:19</sup>And behold, I have given you the law and the commandments of my Father, that ye shall believe in me, and that ye shall repent of your sins, and come unto me with a broken heart and a contrite spirit. Behold, ye have the commandments before you, and the law is fulfilled. <sup>12:20</sup>Therefore come unto me and be ye saved; for verily I say unto you, that except ye shall keep my commandments, which I have commanded you at this time, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. <sup>12:21</sup>Ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, and it is also written before you, that thou shalt not kill, and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment of God; <sup>12:22</sup>but I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother shall be in danger of his judgment. And whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. <sup>12:23</sup>Therefore, if ye shall come unto me, or shall desire to come unto me, and rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee—<sup>12:24</sup>go thy way unto thy brother, and first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come unto me with full purpose of heart, and I will receive you. <sup>12:25</sup>Agree with thine adversary quickly while thou art in the way with him, lest at any time he shall get thee, and thou shalt be cast into prison. <sup>12:26</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto thee, thou shalt by no means come out thence until thou hast paid the uttermost senine. And while ye are in prison can ye pay even one senine? Verily, verily, I say unto you, Nay. <sup>12:27</sup>Behold, it is written by them of old time, that thou shalt not commit adultery; <sup>12:28</sup>but I say unto you, that whosoever looketh on a woman, to lust after her, hath committed adultery already in his heart. <sup>12:29</sup>Behold, I give unto you a commandment, that ye suffer none of these things to enter into your heart; <sup>12:30</sup>for it is better that ye should deny yourselves of these things, wherein ye will take up your cross, than that ye should be cast into hell. <sup>12:31</sup>It hath been written, that whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement. <sup>12:32</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, that whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery; and whoso shall marry her who is divorced committeth adultery. <sup>12:33</sup>And again it is written, thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths; <sup>12:34</sup>but verily, verily, I say unto you, swear not at all; neither by heaven, for it is God's throne; <sup>12:35</sup>nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; <sup>12:36</sup>neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair black or white; <sup>12:37</sup>but let your communication be Yea, yea; Nay, nay; for whatsoever cometh of more than these is evil. <sup>12:38</sup>And behold, it is written, an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth; <sup>12:39</sup>but I say unto you, that ye shall not resist evil, but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also; <sup>12:40</sup>and if any man will sue thee at the law and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also; <sup>12:41</sup>and whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain. <sup>12:42</sup>Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn thou not away. <sup>12:43</sup>And behold it is written also, that thou shalt love thy neighbor and hate thine enemy; <sup>12:44</sup>but behold I say unto you, love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them who despitefully use you and persecute you; <sup>12:45</sup>that ye may be the children of your Father who is in heaven; for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good. <sup>12:46</sup>Therefore those things which were of old time, which were under the law, in me are all fulfilled. <sup>12:47</sup>Old things are done away, and all things have become new. <sup>12:48</sup>Therefore I would that ye should be perfect even as I, or your Father who is in heaven is perfect. <sup>13:1</sup>Verily, verily, I say that I would that ye should do alms unto the poor; but take heed that ye do not your alms before men to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward of your Father who is in heaven. <sup>13:2</sup>Therefore, when ye shall do your alms do not sound a trumpet before you, as will hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. <sup>13:3</sup>But when thou doest alms let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth; <sup>13:4</sup>that thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father who seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly. <sup>13:5</sup>And when thou prayest thou shalt not do as the hypocrites, for they love to pray, standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. <sup>13:6</sup>But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. <sup>13:7</sup>But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen, for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. <sup>13:8</sup>Be not ye therefore like unto them, for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him. <sup>13:9</sup>After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. <sup>13:10</sup>Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. <sup>13:11</sup>And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. <sup>13:12</sup>And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. <sup>13:13</sup>For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen. <sup>13:14</sup>For, if ye forgive men their trespasses your heavenly Father will also forgive you; <sup>13:15</sup>but if ye forgive not men their trespasses neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. <sup>13:16</sup>Moreover, when ye fast be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance, for they disfigure their faces that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. <sup>13:17</sup>But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face; <sup>13:18</sup>that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father, who is in secret; and thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. <sup>13:19</sup>Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and thieves break through and steal; <sup>13:20</sup>but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. <sup>13:21</sup>For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. <sup>13:22</sup>The light of the body is the eye; if, therefore, thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. <sup>13:23</sup>But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If, therefore, the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! <sup>13:24</sup>No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon. <sup><VI>13:25</sup>And now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words he looked upon the twelve whom he had chosen, and said unto them: Remember the words which I have spoken. For behold, ye are they whom I have chosen to minister unto this people. Therefore I say unto you, take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? <sup>13:26</sup>Behold the fowls of the air, for they sow not, neither do they reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? <sup>13:27</sup>Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? <sup>13:28</sup>And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin; <sup>13:29</sup>and yet I say unto you, that even Solomon, in all his glory, was not arrayed like one of these. <sup>13:30</sup>Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, even so will he clothe you, if ye are not of little faith. <sup>13:31</sup>Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? <sup>13:32</sup>For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. <sup>13:33</sup>But seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. <sup>13:34</sup>Take therefore no thought for the morrow, for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient is the day unto the evil thereof. <sup>14:1</sup>And now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words he turned again to the multitude, and did open his mouth unto them again, saying: Verily, verily, I say unto you, Judge not, that ye be not judged. <sup>14:2</sup>For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged; and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. <sup>14:3</sup>And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? <sup>14:4</sup>Or how wilt thou say to thy brother: Let me pull the mote out of thine eye—and behold, a beam is in thine own eye? <sup>14:5</sup>Thou hypocrite, first cast the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast the mote out of thy brother's eye. <sup>14:6</sup>Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. <sup>14:7</sup>Ask, and it shall be given unto you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. <sup>14:8</sup>For every one that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened. <sup>14:9</sup>Or what man is there of you, who, if his son ask bread, will give him a stone? <sup>14:10</sup>Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? <sup>14:11</sup>If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? <sup>14:12</sup>Therefore, all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them, for this is the law and the prophets. <sup>14:13</sup>Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, which leadeth to destruction, and many there be who go in thereat; <sup>14:14</sup>because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. <sup>14:15</sup>Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. <sup>14:16</sup>Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? <sup>14:17</sup>Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. <sup>14:18</sup>A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. <sup>14:19</sup>Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. <sup>14:20</sup>Wherefore, by their fruits ye shall know them. <sup>14:21</sup>Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven. <sup>14:22</sup>Many will say to me in that day: Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name, and in thy name have cast out devils, and in thy name done many wonderful works? <sup>14:23</sup>And then will I profess unto them: I never knew you; depart from me, ye that work iniquity. <sup>14:24</sup>Therefore, whoso heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, who built his house upon a rock— <sup>14:25</sup>and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock. <sup>14:26</sup>And every one that heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them not shall be likened unto a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand— <sup>14:27</sup>and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell, and great was the fall of it. <sup><VII>15:1</sup>And now it came to pass that when Jesus had ended these sayings he cast his eyes round about on the multitude, and said unto them: Behold, ye have heard the things which I taught before I ascended to my Father; therefore, whoso remembereth these sayings of mine and doeth them, him will I raise up at the last day. <sup>15:2</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had said these words he perceived that there were some among them who marveled, and wondered what he would concerning the law of Moses; for they understood not the saying that old things had passed away, and that all things had become new. <sup>15:3</sup>And he said unto them: Marvel not that I said unto you that old things had passed away, and that all things had become new. <sup>15:4</sup>Behold, I say unto you that the law is fulfilled that was given unto Moses. <sup>15:5</sup>Behold, I am he that gave the law, and I am he who covenanted with my people Israel; therefore, the law in me is fulfilled, for I have come to fulfil the law; therefore it hath an end. <sup>15:6</sup>Behold, I do not destroy the prophets, for as many as have not been fulfilled in me, verily I say unto you, shall all be fulfilled. <sup>15:7</sup>And because I said unto you that old things have passed away, I do not destroy that which hath been spoken concerning things which are to come. <sup>15:8</sup>For behold, the covenant which I have made with my people is not all fulfilled; but the law which was given unto Moses hath an end in me. <sup>15:9</sup>Behold, I am the law, and the light. Look unto me, and endure to the end, and ye shall live; for unto him that endureth to the end will I give eternal life. <sup>15:10</sup>Behold, I have given unto you the commandments; therefore keep my commandments. And this is the law and the prophets, for they truly testified of me. <sup>15:11</sup>And now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words, he said unto those twelve whom he had chosen: <sup>15:12</sup>Ye are my disciples; and ye are a light unto this people, who are a remnant of the house of Joseph. <sup>15:13</sup>And behold, this is the land of your inheritance; and the Father hath given it unto you. <sup>15:14</sup>And not at any time hath the Father given me commandment that I should tell it unto your brethren at Jerusalem. <sup>15:15</sup>Neither at any time hath the Father given me commandment that I should tell unto them concerning the other tribes of the house of Israel, whom the Father hath led away out of the land. <sup>15:16</sup>This much did the Father command me, that I should tell unto them: <sup>15:17</sup>That other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. <sup>15:18</sup>And now, because of stiffneckedness and unbelief they understood not my word; therefore I was commanded to say no more of the Father concerning this thing unto them. <sup>15:19</sup>But, verily, I say unto you that the Father hath commanded me, and I tell it unto you, that ye were separated from among them because of their iniquity; therefore it is because of their iniquity that they know not of you. <sup>15:20</sup>And verily, I say unto you again that the other tribes hath the Father separated from them; and it is because of their iniquity that they know not of them. <sup>15:21</sup>And verily I say unto you, that ye are they of whom I said: Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. <sup>15:22</sup>And they understood me not, for they supposed it had been the Gentiles; for they understood not that the Gentiles should be converted through their preaching. <sup>15:23</sup>And they understood me not that I said they shall hear my voice; and they understood me not that the Gentiles should not at any time hear my voice — that I should not manifest myself unto them save it were by the Holy Ghost. <sup>15:24</sup>But behold, ye have both heard my voice, and seen me; and ye are my sheep, and ye are numbered among those whom the Father hath given me. <sup>16:1</sup>And verily, verily, I say unto you that I have other sheep, which are not of this land, neither of the land of Jerusalem, neither in any parts of that land round about whither I have been to minister. <sup>16:2</sup>For they of whom I speak are they who have not as yet heard my voice; neither have I at any time manifested myself unto them. <sup>16:3</sup>But I have received a commandment of the Father that I shall go unto them, and that they shall hear my voice, and shall be numbered among my sheep, that there may be one fold and one shepherd; therefore I go to show myself unto them. <sup>16:4</sup>And I command you that ye shall write these sayings after I am gone, that if it so be that my people at Jerusalem, they who have seen me and been with me in my ministry, do not ask the Father in my name, that they may receive a knowledge of you by the Holy Ghost, and also of the other tribes whom they know not of, that these sayings which ye shall write shall be kept and shall be manifested unto the Gentiles, that through the fulness of the Gentiles, the remnant of their seed, who shall be scattered forth upon the face of the earth because of their unbelief, may be brought in, or may be brought to a knowledge of me, their Redeemer. <sup>16:5</sup>And then will I gather them in from the four quarters of the earth; and then will I fulfil the covenant which the Father hath made unto all the people of the house of Israel. <sup>16:6</sup>And blessed are the Gentiles, because of their belief in me, in and of the Holy Ghost, which witnesses unto them of me and of the Father. <sup>16:7</sup>Behold, because of their belief in me, saith the Father, and because of the unbelief of you, O house of Israel, in the latter day shall the truth come unto the Gentiles, that the fulness of these things shall be made known unto them. <sup>16:8</sup>But wo, saith the Father, unto the unbelieving of the Gentiles—for notwithstanding they have come forth upon the face of this land, and have scattered my people who are of the house of Israel; and my people who are of the house of Israel have been cast out from among them, and have been trodden under feet by them; <sup>16:9</sup>and because of the mercies of the Father unto the Gentiles, and also the judgments of the Father upon my people who are of the house of Israel, verily, verily, I say unto you, that after all this, and I have caused my people who are of the house of Israel to be smitten, and to be afflicted, and to be slain, and to be cast out from among them, and to become hated by them, and to become a hiss and a byword among them—<sup>16:10</sup>and thus commandeth the Father that I should say unto you: At that day when the Gentiles shall sin against my gospel, and shall reject the fulness of my gospel, and shall be lifted up in the pride of their hearts above all nations, and above all the people of the whole earth, and shall be filled with all manner of lyings, and of deceits, and of mischiefs, and all manner of hypocrisy, and murders, and priestcrafts, and whoredoms, and of secret abominations; and if they shall do all those things, and shall reject the fulness of my gospel, behold, saith the Father, I will bring the fulness of my gospel from among them. <sup>16:11</sup>And then will I remember my covenant which I have made unto my people, O house of Israel, and I will bring my gospel unto them. <sup>16:12</sup>And I will show unto thee, O house of Israel, that the Gentiles shall not have power over you; but I will remember my covenant unto you, O house of Israel, and ye shall come unto the knowledge of the fulness of my gospel. <sup>16:13</sup>But if the Gentiles will repent and return unto me, saith the Father, behold they shall be numbered among my people, O house of Israel. <sup>16:14</sup>And I will not suffer my people, who are of the house of Israel, to go through among them, and tread them down, saith the Father. <sup>16:15</sup>But if they will not turn unto me, and hearken unto my voice, I will suffer them, yea, I will suffer my people, O house of Israel, that they shall go through among them, and shall tread them down, and they shall be as salt that hath lost its savor, which is thenceforth good for nothing but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of my people, O house of Israel. <sup>16:16</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, thus hath the Father commanded me—that I should give unto this people this land for their inheritance. <sup>16:17</sup>And then the words of the prophet Isaiah shall be fulfilled, which say: <sup>16:18</sup>Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing, for they shall see eye to eye when the Lord shall bring again Zion. <sup>16:19</sup>Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. <sup>16:20</sup>The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of God. <sup><VIII>17:1</sup>Behold, now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words he looked round about again on the multitude, and he said unto them: Behold, my time is at hand. <sup>17:2</sup>I perceive that ye are weak, that ye cannot understand all my words which I am commanded of the Father to speak unto you at this time. <sup>17:3</sup>Therefore, go ye unto your homes, and ponder upon the things which I have said, and ask of the Father, in my name, that ye may understand, and prepare your minds for the morrow, and I come unto you again. <sup>17:4</sup>But now I go unto the Father, and also to show myself unto the lost tribes of Israel, for they are not lost unto the Father, for he knoweth whither he hath taken them. <sup>17:5</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had thus spoken, he cast his eyes round about again on the multitude, and beheld they were in tears, and did look steadfastly upon him as if they would ask him to tarry a little longer with them. <sup>17:6</sup>And he said unto them: Behold, my bowels are filled with compassion towards you. <sup>17:7</sup>Have ye any that are sick among you? Bring them hither. Have ye any that are lame, or blind, or halt, or maimed, or leprous, or that are withered, or that are deaf, or that are afflicted in any manner? Bring them hither and I will heal them, for I have compassion upon you; my bowels are filled with mercy. <sup>17:8</sup>For I perceive that ye desire that I should show unto you what I have done unto your brethren at Jerusalem, for I see that your faith is sufficient that I should heal you. <sup>17:9</sup>And it came to pass that when he had thus spoken, all the multitude, with one accord, did go forth with their sick and their afflicted, and their lame, and with their blind, and with their dumb, and with all them that were afflicted in any manner; and he did heal them every one as they were brought forth unto him. <sup>17:10</sup>And they did all, both they who had been healed and they who were whole, bow down at his feet, and did worship him; and as many as could come for the multitude did kiss his feet, insomuch that they did bathe his feet with their tears. <sup>17:11</sup>And it came to pass that he commanded that their little children should be brought. <sup>17:12</sup>So they brought their little children and set them down upon the ground round about him, and Jesus stood in the midst; and the multitude gave way till they had all been brought unto him. <sup>17:13</sup>And it came to pass that when they had all been brought, and Jesus stood in the midst, he commanded the multitude that they should kneel down upon the ground. <sup>17:14</sup>And it came to pass that when they had knelt upon the ground, Jesus groaned within himself, and said: Father, I am troubled because of the wickedness of the people of the house of Israel. <sup>17:15</sup>And when he had said these words, he himself also knelt upon the earth; and behold he prayed unto the Father, and the things which he prayed cannot be written, and the multitude did bear record who heard him. <sup>17:16</sup>And after this manner do they bear record: The eye hath never seen, neither hath the ear heard, before, so great and marvelous things as we saw and heard Jesus speak unto the Father; <sup>17:17</sup>and no tongue can speak, neither can there be written by any man, neither can the hearts of men conceive so great and marvelous things as we both saw and heard Jesus speak; and no one can conceive of the joy which filled our souls at the time we heard him pray for us unto the Father. <sup>17:18</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had made an end of praying unto the Father, he arose; but so great was the joy of the multitude that they were overcome. <sup>17:19</sup>And it came to pass that Jesus spake unto them, and bade them arise. <sup>17:20</sup>And they arose from the earth, and he said unto them: Blessed are ye because of your faith. And now behold, my joy is full. <sup>17:21</sup>And when he had said these words, he wept, and the multitude bare record of it, and he took their little children, one by one, and blessed them, and prayed unto the Father for them. <sup>17:22</sup>And when he had done this he wept again; <sup>17:23</sup>and he spake unto the multitude, and said unto them: Behold your little ones. <sup>17:24</sup>And as they looked to behold they cast their eyes towards heaven, and they saw the heavens open, and they saw angels descending out of heaven as it were in the midst of fire; and they came down and encircled those little ones about, and they were encircled about with fire; and the angels did minister unto them. <sup>17:25</sup>And the multitude did see and hear and bear record; and they know that their record is true for they all of them did see and hear, every man for himself; and they were in number about two thousand and five hundred souls; and they did consist of men, women, and children. <sup>18:1</sup>And it came to pass that Jesus commanded his Disciples that they should bring forth some bread and wine unto him. <sup>18:2</sup>And while they were gone for bread and wine, he commanded the multitude that they should sit themselves down upon the earth. <sup>18:3</sup>And when the Disciples had come with bread and wine, he took of the bread and brake and blessed it; and he gave unto the Disciples and commanded that they should eat. <sup>18:4</sup>And when they had eaten and were filled, he commanded that they should give unto the multitude. <sup>18:5</sup>And when the multitude had eaten and were filled, he said unto the Disciples: Behold there shall one be ordained among you, and to him will I give power that he shall break bread and bless it and give it unto the people of my church, unto all those who shall believe and be baptized in my name. <sup>18:6</sup>And this shall ye always observe to do, even as I have done, even as I have broken bread and blessed it and given it unto you. <sup>18:7</sup>And this shall ye do in remembrance of my body, which I have shown unto you. And it shall be a testimony unto the Father that ye do always remember me. And if ye do always remember me ye shall have my Spirit to be with you. <sup>18:8</sup>And it came to pass that when he said these words, he commanded his Disciples that they should take of the wine of the cup and drink of it, and that they should also give unto the multitude that they might drink of it. <sup>18:9</sup>And it came to pass that they did so, and did drink of it and were filled; and they gave unto the multitude, and they did drink, and they were filled. <sup>18:10</sup>And when the Disciples had done this, Jesus said unto them: Blessed are ye for this thing which ye have done, for this is fulfilling my commandments, and this doth witness unto the Father that ye are willing to do that which I have commanded you. <sup>18:11</sup>And this shall ye always do to those who repent and are baptized in my name; and ye shall do it in remembrance of my blood, which I have shed for you, that ye may witness unto the Father that ye do always remember me. And if ye do always remember me ye shall have my Spirit to be with you. <sup>18:12</sup>And I give unto you a commandment that ye shall do these things. And if ye shall always do these things blessed are ye, for ye are built upon my rock. <sup>18:13</sup>But whoso among you shall do more or less than these are not built upon my rock, but are built upon a sandy foundation; and when the rain descends, and the floods come, and the winds blow, and beat upon them, they shall fall, and the gates of hell are ready open to receive them. <sup>18:14</sup>Therefore blessed are ye if ye shall keep my commandments, which the Father hath commanded me that I should give unto you. <sup>18:15</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, ye must watch and pray always, lest ye be tempted by the devil, and ye be led away captive by him. <sup>18:16</sup>And as I have prayed among you even so shall ye pray in my church, among my people who do repent and are baptized in my name. Behold I am the light; I have set an example for you. <sup>18:17</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words unto his Disciples, he turned again unto the multitude and said unto them: <sup>18:18</sup>Behold, verily, verily, I say unto you, ye must watch and pray always lest ye enter into temptation; for Satan desireth to have you, that he may sift you as wheat. <sup>18:19</sup>Therefore ye must always pray unto the Father in my name; <sup>18:20</sup>and whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, which is right, believing that ye shall receive, behold it shall be given unto you. <sup>18:21</sup>Pray in your families unto the Father, always in my name, that your wives and your children may be blessed. <sup>18:22</sup>And behold, ye shall meet together oft; and ye shall not forbid any man from coming unto you when ye shall meet together, but suffer them that they may come unto you and forbid them not; <sup>18:23</sup>but ye shall pray for them, and shall not cast them out; and if it so be that they come unto you oft ye shall pray for them unto the Father, in my name. <sup>18:24</sup>Therefore, hold up your light that it may shine unto the world. Behold I am the light which ye shall hold up—that which ye have seen me do. Behold ye see that I have prayed unto the Father, and ye all have witnessed. <sup>18:25</sup>And ye see that I have commanded that none of you should go away, but rather have commanded that ye should come unto me, that ye might feel and see; even so shall ye do unto the world; and whosoever breaketh this commandment suffereth himself to be led into temptation. <sup>18:26</sup>And now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words, he turned his eyes again upon the Disciples whom he had chosen, and said unto them: <sup>18:27</sup>Behold verily, verily, I say unto you, I give unto you another commandment, and then I must go unto my Father that I may fulfil other commandments which he hath given me. <sup>18:28</sup>And now behold, this is the commandment which I give unto you, that ye shall not suffer any one knowingly to partake of my flesh and blood unworthily, when ye shall minister it; <sup>18:29</sup>for whoso eateth and drinketh my flesh and blood unworthily eateth and drinketh damnation to his soul; therefore if ye know that a man is unworthy to eat and drink of my flesh and blood ye shall forbid him. <sup>18:30</sup>Nevertheless, ye shall not cast him out from among you, but ye shall minister unto him and shall pray for him unto the Father, in my name; and if it so be that he repenteth and is baptized in my name, then shall ye receive him, and shall minister unto him of my flesh and blood. <sup>18:31</sup>But if he repent not he shall not be numbered among my people, that he may not destroy my people, for behold I know my sheep, and they are numbered. <sup>18:32</sup>Nevertheless, ye shall not cast him out of your synagogues, or your places of worship, for unto such shall ye continue to minister; for ye know not but what they will return and repent, and come unto me with full purpose of heart, and I shall heal them; and ye shall be the means of bringing salvation unto them. <sup>18:33</sup>Therefore, keep these sayings which I have commanded you that ye come not under condemnation; for wo unto him whom the Father condemneth. <sup>18:34</sup>And I give you these commandments because of the disputations which have been among you. And blessed are ye if ye have no disputations among you. <sup>18:35</sup>And now I go unto the Father, because it is expedient that I should go unto the Father for your sakes. <sup>18:36</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had made an end of these sayings, he touched with his hand the Disciples whom he had chosen, one by one, even until he had touched them all, and spake unto them as he touched them. <sup>18:37</sup>And the multitude heard not the words which he spake, therefore they did not bear record; but the Disciples bare record that he gave them power to give the Holy Ghost. And I will show unto you hereafter that this record is true. <sup>18:38</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had touched them all, there came a cloud and overshadowed the multitude that they could not see Jesus. <sup>18:39</sup>And while they were overshadowed he departed from them, and ascended into heaven. And the Disciples saw and did bear record that he ascended again into heaven. <sup><IX>19:1</sup>And now it came to pass that when Jesus had ascended into heaven, the multitude did disperse, and every man did take his wife and his children and did return to his own home. <sup>19:2</sup>And it was noised abroad among the people immediately, before it was yet dark, that the multitude had seen Jesus, and that he had ministered unto them, and that he would also show himself on the morrow unto the multitude. <sup>19:3</sup>Yea, and even all the night it was noised abroad concerning Jesus; and insomuch did they send forth unto the people that there were many, yea, an exceedingly great number, did labor exceedingly all that night, that they might be on the morrow in the place where Jesus should show himself unto the multitude. <sup>19:4</sup>And it came to pass that on the morrow, when the multitude was gathered together, behold, Nephi and his brother whom he had raised from the dead, whose name was Timothy, and also his son, whose name was Jonas, and also Mathoni, and Mathonihah, his brother, and Kumen, and Kumenonhi, and Jeremiah, and Shemnon, and Jonas, and Zedekiah, and Isaiah—now these were the names of the disciples whom Jesus had chosen—and it came to pass that they went forth and stood in the midst of the multitude. <sup>19:5</sup>And behold, the multitude was so great that they did cause that they should be separated into twelve bodies. <sup>19:6</sup>And the twelve did teach the multitude; and behold, they did cause that the multitude should kneel down upon the face of the earth, and should pray unto the Father in the name of Jesus.

<sup>19:7</sup>And the disciples did pray unto the Father also in the name of Jesus. And it came to pass that they arose and ministered unto the people. <sup>19:8</sup>And when they had ministered those same words which Jesus had spoken—nothing varying from the words which Jesus had spoken—behold, they knelt again and prayed to the Father in the name of Jesus. <sup>19:9</sup>And they did pray for that which they most desired; and they desired that the Holy Ghost should be given unto them. <sup>19:10</sup>And when they had thus prayed they went down unto the water's edge, and the multitude followed them. <sup>19:11</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi went down into the water and was baptized. <sup>19:12</sup>And he came up out of the water and began to baptize. And he baptized all those whom Jesus had chosen. <sup>19:13</sup>And it came to pass when they were all baptized and had come up out of the water, the Holy Ghost did fall upon them, and they were filled with the Holy Ghost and with fire. <sup>19:14</sup>And behold, they were encircled about as if it were by fire; and it came down from heaven, and the multitude did witness it, and did bear record; and angels did come down out of heaven and did minister unto them. <sup>19:15</sup>And it came to pass that while the angels were ministering unto the disciples, behold, Jesus came and stood in the midst and ministered unto them. <sup>19:16</sup>And it came to pass that he spake unto the multitude, and commanded them that they should kneel down again upon the earth, and also that his disciples should kneel down upon the earth. <sup>19:17</sup>And it came to pass that when they had all knelt down upon the earth, he commanded his disciples that they should pray. <sup>19:18</sup>And behold, they began to pray; and they did pray unto Jesus, calling him their Lord and their God. <sup>19:19</sup>And it came to pass that Jesus departed out of the midst of them, and went a little way off from them and bowed himself to the earth, and he said: <sup>19:20</sup>Father, I thank thee that thou hast given the Holy Ghost unto these whom I have chosen; and it is because of their belief in me that I have chosen them out of the world. <sup>19:21</sup>Father, I pray thee that thou wilt give the Holy Ghost unto all them that shall believe in their words. <sup>19:22</sup>Father, thou hast given them the Holy Ghost because they believe in me; and thou seest that they believe in me because thou hearest them, and they pray unto me; and they pray unto me because I am with them. <sup>19:23</sup>And now Father, I pray unto thee for them, and also for all those who shall believe on their words, that they may believe in me, that I may be in them as thou, Father, art in me, that we may be one. <sup>19:24</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had thus prayed unto the Father, he came unto his disciples, and behold, they did still continue, without ceasing, to pray unto him; and they did not multiply many words, for it was given unto them what they should pray, and they were filled with desire. <sup>19:25</sup>And it came to pass that Jesus blessed them as they did pray unto him; and his countenance did smile upon them, and the light of his countenance did shine upon them, and behold they were as white as the countenance and also the garments of Jesus; and behold the whiteness thereof did exceed all the whiteness, yea, even there could be nothing upon earth so white as the whiteness thereof. <sup>19:26</sup>And Jesus said unto them: Pray on; nevertheless they did not cease to pray. <sup>19:27</sup>And he turned from them again, and went a little way off and bowed himself to the earth; and he prayed again unto the Father, saying: <sup>19:28</sup>Father, I thank thee that thou hast purified those whom I have chosen, because of their faith, and I pray for them, and also for them who shall believe on their words, that they may be purified in me, through faith on their words, even as they are purified in me. <sup>19:29</sup>Father, I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me out of the world, because of their faith, that they may be purified in me, that I may be in them as thou, Father, art in me, that we may be one, that I may be glorified in them. <sup>19:30</sup>And when Jesus had spoken these words he came again unto his disciples; and behold they did pray steadfastly, without ceasing, unto him; and he did smile upon them again; and behold they were white, even as Jesus. <sup>19:31</sup>And it came to pass that he went again a little way off and prayed unto the Father; <sup>19:32</sup>and tongue cannot speak the words which he prayed, neither can be written by man the words which he prayed. <sup>19:33</sup>And the multitude did hear and do bear record; and their hearts were open and they did understand in their hearts the words which he prayed. <sup>19:34</sup>Nevertheless, so great and marvelous were the words which he prayed that they cannot be written, neither can they be uttered by man. <sup>19:35</sup>And it came to pass that when Jesus had made an end of praying he came again to the disciples, and said unto them: So great faith have I never seen among all the Jews; wherefore I could not show unto them so great miracles, because of their unbelief. <sup>19:36</sup>Verily I say unto you, there are none of them that have seen so great things as ye have seen; neither have they heard so great things as ye have heard. <sup>20:1</sup>And it came to pass that he commanded the multitude that they should cease to pray, and also his disciples. And he commanded them that they should not cease to pray in their hearts. <sup>20:2</sup>And he commanded them that they should arise and stand up upon their feet. And they arose up and stood upon their feet. <sup>20:3</sup>And it came to pass that he brake bread again and blessed it, and gave to the disciples to eat. <sup>20:4</sup>And when they had eaten he commanded them that they should break bread, and give unto the multitude. <sup>20:5</sup>And when they had given unto the multitude he also gave them wine to drink, and commanded them that they should give unto the multitude. <sup>20:6</sup>Now, there had been no bread, neither wine, brought by the disciples, neither by the multitude; <sup>20:7</sup>but he truly gave unto them bread to eat, and also wine to drink. <sup>20:8</sup>And he said unto them: He that eateth this bread eateth of my body to his soul; and he that drinketh of this wine drinketh of my blood to his soul; and his soul shall never hunger nor thirst, but shall be filled. <sup>20:9</sup>Now, when the multitude had all eaten and drunk, behold, they were filled with the Spirit; and they did cry out with one voice, and gave glory to Jesus, whom they both saw and heard. <sup>20:10</sup>And it came to pass that when they had all given glory unto Jesus, he said unto them: Behold now I finish the commandment which the Father hath commanded me concerning this people, who are a remnant of the house of Israel. <sup>20:11</sup>Ye remember that I spake unto you, and said that when the words of Isaiah should be fulfilled—behold they are written, ye have them before you, therefore search them—<sup>20:12</sup>and verily, verily, I say unto you, that when they shall be fulfilled then is the fulfilling of the covenant which the Father hath made unto his people, O house of Israel. <sup>20:13</sup> And then shall the remnants, which shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the earth, be gathered in from the east and from the west, and from the south and from the north; and they shall be brought to the knowledge of the Lord their God, who hath redeemed them. <sup>20:14</sup> And the Father hath commanded me that I should give unto you this land, for your inheritance. <sup>20:15</sup> And I say unto you, that if the Gentiles do not repent after the blessing which they shall receive, after they have scattered my people—<sup>20:16</sup> then shall ye, who are a remnant of the house of Jacob, go forth among them; and ye shall be in the midst of them who shall be many; and ye shall be among them as a lion among the beasts of the forest, and as a young lion among the flocks of sheep, who, if he goeth through both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver. <sup>20:17</sup> Thy hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off. <sup>20:18</sup> And I will gather my people together as a man gathereth his sheaves into the floor. <sup>20:19</sup> For I will make my people with whom the Father hath covenanted, yea, I will make thy horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass. And thou shalt beat in pieces many people; and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth. And behold, I am he who doeth it. <sup>20:20</sup> And it shall come to pass, saith the Father, that the sword of my justice shall hang over them at that day; and except they repent it shall fall upon them, saith the Father, yea, even upon all the nations of the Gentiles. <sup>20:21</sup> And it shall come to pass that I will establish my people, O house of Israel. <sup>20:22</sup> And behold, this people will I establish in this land, unto the fulfilling of the covenant which I made with your father Jacob; and it shall be a New Jerusalem. And the powers of heaven shall be in the midst of this people; yea, even I will be in the midst of you. <sup>20:23</sup> Behold, I am he of whom Moses spake, saying: A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. And it shall come to pass that every soul who will not hear that prophet shall be cut off from among the people. <sup>20:24</sup> Verily I say unto you, yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have testified of me. <sup>20:25</sup> And behold, ye are the children of the prophets; and ye are of the house of Israel; and ye are of the covenant which the Father made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham: And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. <sup>20:26</sup> The Father having raised me up unto you first, and sent me to bless you in turning away every one of you from his iniquities; and this because ye are the children of the covenant—<sup>20:27</sup> and after that ye were blessed then fulfilleth the Father the covenant which he made with Abraham, saying: In thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed—unto the pouring out of the Holy Ghost through me upon the Gentiles, which blessing upon the Gentiles shall make them mighty above all, unto the scattering of my people, O house of Israel. <sup>20:28</sup> And they shall be a scourge unto the people of this land. Nevertheless, when they shall have received the fulness of my gospel, then if they shall harden their hearts against me I will return their iniquities upon their own heads, saith the Father. <sup>20:29</sup>And I will remember the covenant which I have made with my people; and I have covenanted with them that I would gather them together in mine own due time, that I would give unto them again the land of their fathers for their inheritance, which is the land of Jerusalem, which is the promised land unto them forever, saith the Father.

<sup>20:30</sup>And it shall come to pass that the time cometh, when the fulness of my gospel shall be preached unto them; <sup>20:31</sup>and they shall believe in me, that I am Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and shall pray unto the Father in my name. <sup>20:32</sup>Then shall their watchmen lift up their voice, and with the voice together shall they sing; for they shall see eye to eye. <sup>20:33</sup>Then will the Father gather them together again, and give unto them Jerusalem for the land of their inheritance. <sup>20:34</sup>Then shall they break forth into joy—Sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for the Father hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. <sup>20:35</sup>The Father hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of the Father; and the Father and I are one. <sup>20:36</sup>And then shall be brought to pass that which is written: Awake, awake again, and put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city, for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. <sup>20:37</sup>Shake thyself from the dust; arise, sit down, O Jerusalem; loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion. <sup>20:38</sup>For thus saith the Lord: Ye have sold yourselves for naught, and ye shall be redeemed without money. <sup>20:39</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, that my people shall know my name; yea, in that day they shall know that I am he that doth speak. <sup>20:40</sup>And then shall they say: How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings unto them, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings unto them of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion: Thy God reigneth! <sup>20:41</sup>And then shall a cry go forth: Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch not that which is unclean; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord. <sup>20:42</sup>For ye shall not go out with haste nor go by flight; for the Lord will go before you, and the God of Israel shall be your rearward. <sup>20:43</sup>Behold, my servant shall deal prudently; he shall be exalted and extolled and be very high. <sup>20:44</sup>As many were astonished at thee—his visage was so marred, more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men—<sup>20:45</sup>so shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him, for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider. <sup>20:46</sup>Verily, verily, I say unto you, all these things shall surely come, even as the Father hath commanded me. Then shall this covenant which the Father hath covenanted with his people be fulfilled; and then shall Jerusalem be inhabited again with my people, and it shall be the land of their inheritance. <sup>21:1</sup>And verily I say unto you, I give unto you a sign, that ye may know the time when these things shall be about to take place—that I shall gather in, from their long dispersion, my people, O house of Israel, and shall establish again among them my Zion; <sup>21:2</sup>and behold, this is the thing which I will give unto you for a sign—for verily I say unto you that when these things which I declare unto you, and which I shall declare unto you hereafter of myself, and by the power of the Holy Ghost which shall be given unto you of the Father, shall be made known unto the Gentiles that they may know concerning this people who are a remnant of the house of Jacob, and concerning this my people who shall be scattered by them; <sup>21:3</sup>verily, verily, I say unto you, when these things shall be made known unto them of the Father, and shall come forth of the Father, from them unto you; <sup>21:4</sup>for it is wisdom in the Father that they should be established in this land, and be set up as a free people by the power of the Father, that these things might come forth from them unto a remnant of your seed, that the covenant of the Father may be fulfilled which he hath covenanted with his people, O house of Israel; <sup>21:5</sup>therefore, when these works and the works which shall be wrought among you hereafter shall come forth from the Gentiles, unto your seed which shall dwindle in unbelief because of iniquity; <sup>21:6</sup>for thus it behooveth the Father that it should come forth from the Gentiles, that he may show forth his power unto the Gentiles, for this cause that the Gentiles, if they will not harden their hearts, that they may repent and come unto me and be baptized in my name and know of the true points of my doctrine, that they may be numbered among my people, O house of Israel; <sup>21:7</sup>and when these things come to pass that thy seed shall begin to know these things—it shall be a sign unto them, that they may know that the work of the Father hath already commenced unto the fulfilling of the covenant which he hath made unto the people who are of the house of Israel. <sup>21:8</sup>And when that day shall come, it shall come to pass that kings shall shut their mouths; for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider. <sup>21:9</sup>For in that day, for my sake shall the Father work a work, which shall be a great and a marvelous work among them; and there shall be among them those who will not believe it, although a man shall declare it unto them. <sup>21:10</sup>But behold, the life of my servant shall be in my hand; therefore they shall not hurt him, although he shall be marred because of them. Yet I will heal him, for I will show unto them that my wisdom is greater than the cunning of the devil. <sup>21:11</sup>Therefore it shall come to pass that whosoever will not believe in my words, who am Jesus Christ, which the Father shall cause him to bring forth unto the Gentiles, and shall give unto him power that he shall bring them forth unto the Gentiles, (it shall be done even as Moses said) they shall be cut off from among my people who are of the covenant. <sup>21:12</sup>And my people who are a remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles, yea, in the midst of them as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep, who, if he go through both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver. <sup>21:13</sup>Their hand shall be lifted up upon their adversaries, and all their enemies shall be cut off. <sup>21:14</sup>Yea, wo be unto the Gentiles except they repent; for it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Father, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots; <sup>21:15</sup>and I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strongholds; <sup>21:16</sup>and I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy land, and thou shalt have no more soothsayers; <sup>21:17</sup>thy graven images I will also cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee, and thou shalt no more worship the works of thy hands; <sup>21:18</sup>and I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee; so will I destroy thy cities. <sup>21:19</sup>And it shall come to pass that all lyings, and deceivings, and envyings, and strifes, and priestcrafts, and whoredoms, shall be done away. <sup>21:20</sup>For it shall come to pass, saith the Father, that at that day whosoever will not repent and come unto my Beloved Son, them will I cut off from among my people, O house of Israel; <sup>21:21</sup>and I will execute vengeance and fury upon them, even as upon the heathen, such as they have not heard. <sup><X>21:22</sup>But if they will repent and hearken unto my words, and harden not their hearts, I will establish my church among them, and they shall come in unto the covenant and be numbered among this the remnant of Jacob, unto whom I have given this land for their inheritance; <sup>21:23</sup>and they shall assist my people, the remnant of Jacob, and also as many of the house of Israel as shall come, that they may build a city, which shall be called the New Jerusalem. <sup>21:24</sup>And then shall they assist my people that they may be gathered in, who are scattered upon all the face of the land, in unto the New Jerusalem. <sup>21:25</sup>And then shall the power of heaven come down among them; and I also will be in the midst. <sup>21:26</sup>And then shall the work of the Father commence at that day, even when this gospel shall be preached among the remnant of this people. Verily I say unto you, at that day shall the work of the Father commence among all the dispersed of my people, yea, even the tribes which have been lost, which the Father hath led away out of Jerusalem. <sup>21:27</sup>Yea, the work shall commence among all the dispersed of my people, with the Father to prepare the way whereby they may come unto me, that they may call on the Father in my name. <sup>21:28</sup>Yea, and then shall the work commence, with the Father among all nations in preparing the way whereby his people may be gathered home to the land of their inheritance. <sup>21:29</sup>And they shall go out from all nations; and they shall not go out in haste, nor go by flight, for I will go before them, saith the Father, and I will be their rearward. <sup>22:1</sup>And then shall that which is written come to pass: Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child; for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord. <sup>22:2</sup>Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thy habitations; spare not, lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes; <sup>22:3</sup>for thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left, and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles and make the desolate cities to be inhabited. <sup>22:4</sup>Fear not, for thou shalt not be ashamed; neither be thou confounded, for thou shalt not be put to shame; for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more. <sup>22:5</sup>For thy maker, thy husband, the Lord of Hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel—the God of the whole earth shall he be called. <sup>22:6</sup>For the Lord hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God. <sup>22:7</sup>For a small moment have I forsaken thee, but with great mercies will I gather thee. <sup>22:8</sup>In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment, but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer. <sup>22:9</sup>For this, the waters of Noah unto me, for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee. <sup>22:10</sup>For the mountains shall depart and the hills be removed, but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee. <sup>22:11</sup>O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted! Behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colors, and lay thy foundations with sapphires. <sup>22:12</sup>And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones. <sup>22:13</sup>And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children. <sup>22:14</sup>In righteousness shalt thou be established; thou shalt be far from oppression for thou shalt not fear, and from terror for it shall not come near thee. <sup>22:15</sup>Behold, they shall surely gather together against thee, not by me; whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake. <sup>22:16</sup>Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. <sup>22:17</sup>No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall revile against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord. <sup>23:1</sup>And now, behold, I say unto you, that ye ought to search these things. Yea, a commandment I give unto you that ye search these things diligently; for great are the words of Isaiah. <sup>23:2</sup>For surely he spake as touching all things concerning my people which are of the house of Israel; therefore it must needs be that he must speak also to the Gentiles. <sup>23:3</sup>And all things that he spake have been and shall be, even according to the words which he spake. <sup>23:4</sup>Therefore give heed to my words; write the things which I have told you; and according to the time and the will of the Father they shall go forth unto the Gentiles. <sup>23:5</sup>And whosoever will hearken unto my words and repenteth and is baptized, the same shall be saved. Search the prophets, for many there be that testify of these things. <sup>23:6</sup>And now it came to pass that when Jesus had said these words he said unto them again, after he had expounded all the scriptures unto them which they had received, he said unto them: Behold, other scriptures I would that ye should write, that ye have not. <sup>23:7</sup>And it came to pass that he said unto Nephi: Bring forth the record which ye have kept. <sup>23:8</sup>And when Nephi had brought forth the records, and laid them before him, he cast his eyes upon them and said: <sup>23:9</sup>Verily I say unto you, I commanded my servant Samuel, the Lamanite, that he should testify unto this people, that at the day that the Father should glorify his name in me that there were many saints who should arise from the dead, and should appear unto many, and should minister unto them. And he said unto them: Was it not so? <sup>23:10</sup>And his disciples answered him and said: Yea, Lord, Samuel did prophesy according to thy words, and they were all fulfilled. <sup>23:11</sup>And Jesus said unto them: How be it that ye have not written this thing, that many saints did arise and appear unto many and did minister unto them? <sup>23:12</sup>And it came to pass that Nephi remembered that this thing had not been written. <sup>23:13</sup>And it came to pass that Jesus commanded that it should be written; therefore it was written according as he commanded. <sup><XI>23:14</sup>And now it came to pass that when Jesus had expounded all the scriptures in one, which they had written, he commanded them that they should teach the things which he had expounded unto them. <sup>24:1</sup>And it came to pass that he commanded them that they should write the words which the Father had given unto Malachi, which he should tell unto them. And it came to pass that after they were written he expounded them. And these are the words which he did tell unto them, saying: Thus said the Father unto Malachi—Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in; behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>24:2</sup>But who may abide the day of his coming, and who shall stand when he appeareth? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap. <sup>24:3</sup>And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness. <sup>24:4</sup>Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old, and as in former years. <sup>24:5</sup>And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger, and fear not me, saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>24:6</sup>For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. <sup>24:7</sup>Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me and I will return unto you, saith the Lord of Hosts. But ye say: Wherein shall we return? <sup>24:8</sup>Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say: Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. <sup>24:9</sup>Ye are cursed with a curse, for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. <sup>24:10</sup>Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in my house; and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it. <sup>24:11</sup>And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the fields, saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>24:12</sup>And all nations shall call you blessed, for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the Lord of Hosts. <sup>24:13</sup>Your words have been stout against me, saith the Lord. Yet ye say: What have we spoken against thee? <sup>24:14</sup>Ye have said: It is vain to serve God, and what doth it profit that we have kept his ordinances and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of Hosts? <sup>24:15</sup>And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered. <sup>24:16</sup>Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another, and the Lord hearkened and heard; and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name. <sup>24:17</sup>And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of Hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. <sup>24:18</sup>Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not. <sup>25:1</sup>For behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble; and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of Hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. <sup>25:2</sup>But unto you that fear my name, shall the Son of Righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth and grow up as calves in the stall. <sup>25:3</sup>And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of Hosts.

<sup>25:4</sup>Remember ye the law of Moses, my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments. <sup>25:5</sup>Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord; <sup>25:6</sup>and he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse. <sup>26:1</sup>And now it came to pass that when Jesus had told these things he expounded them unto the multitude; and he did expound all things unto them, both great and small. <sup>26:2</sup>And he saith: These scriptures, which ye had not with you, the Father commanded that I should give unto you; for it was wisdom in him that they should be given unto future generations. <sup>26:3</sup>And he did expound all things, even from the beginning until the time that he should come in his glory — yea, even all things which should come upon the face of the earth, even until the elements should melt with fervent heat, and the earth should be wrapt together as a scroll, and the heavens and the earth should pass away; <sup>26:4</sup>and even unto the great and last day, when all people, and all kindreds, and all nations and tongues shall stand before God, to be judged of their works, whether they be good or whether they be evil — <sup>26:5</sup>if they be good, to the resurrection of everlasting life; and if they be evil, to the resurrection of damnation; being on a parallel, the one on the one hand and the other on the other hand, according to the mercy, and the justice, and the holiness which is in Christ, who was before the world began. <sup><XII>26:6</sup>And now there cannot be written in this book even a hundredth part of the things which Jesus did truly teach unto the people; <sup>26:7</sup>but behold the plates of Nephi do contain the more part of the things which he taught the people. <sup>26:8</sup>And these things have I written, which are a lesser part of the things which he taught the people; and I have written them to the intent that they may be brought again unto this people, from the Gentiles, according to the words which Jesus hath spoken. <sup>26:9</sup>And when they shall have received this, which is expedient that they should have first, to try their faith, and if it shall so be that they shall believe these things then shall the greater things be made manifest unto them. <sup>26:10</sup>And if it so be that they will not believe these things, then shall the greater things be
