13 ^{af}They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of ^{ag}their revenues because of the ^{ah}fierce anger of the LORD.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that ^{ai}touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have ^{aj}compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to ^{ak}swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to ^{al}swear by Baal; then shall they be ^{am}built in the midst of my people.

Sign of the marred girdle

13 Thus saith the LORD unto me, ^cGo and ^dget thee a linen ^egirdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I ^fgot a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the ^ggirdle that thou hast ^hgot, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a ⁱhole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, ^jas the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the ^kgirdle from ^lthence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the ^mgirdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the ⁿgirdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I ^omar the pride of Judah, and the great ^ppride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which ^qrefuse to hear my words, which ^rwalk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this ^sgirdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the ^tgirdle ^ucleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to ^vcleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that ^wthey might be unto me for a people, and ^xfor a name, and for a praise, and for a ^yglory: but they would ^znot hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every ^{aa}bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every ^{ab}bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with ^{ac}drunkenness.

14 And I will ^{ad}dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not ^{ae}pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

15 ¶ Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 ^{af}Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause ^{ag}darkness, and ^{ah}before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 ^{ai}But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall ^{aj}weep in secret places for ^{ak}your pride; and mine eye shall weep ^{al}sore, and run down with tears, because the ^{am}LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, ^{an}even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the ^{ao}south shall be shut up, and none shall open ^{ap}them: ^{aq}Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

JEREMIAH'S BELT

Some have questioned the possibility of Jeremiah's having actually buried his girdle, or belt, by the Euphrates, in view of the distance and the war conditions. However, there were periods in Jeremiah's ministry when that whole area was at peace. It is not impossible that Jeremiah may have actually made a visit to Babylon, and if so, this event could easily have taken place at that time, as he might have buried the belt on his way there and might have dug it up on his way back. It is also possible to interpret the Hebrew word as meaning, not the Euphrates but the Wadi Farah, a few miles north of Jerusalem. In this case he could have buried the belt at any time prior to the final Babylonian attack. Thus there is reason to assume that this passage describes an actual event—not a mere vision or imaginary story. Jeremiah's marred girdle served as a symbol indicating Israel's unsatisfactory life and service.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the ^anorth: where is the ^bflock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be ^ccaptains, and as chief over thee: shall not ^dsorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart, ^eWherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts ^fdiscovered, and thy heels made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian ^gchange his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I ^hscatter them ⁱas the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy ^jlot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and ^ktrusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore will I ^ldiscover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy ^mneighings, the lewdness of thy ⁿwhoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be?

Message concerning the drought (14-15)

14 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth.

2 Judah ^omourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the ^ppits, and ^qfound no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and ^rcovered their heads.

4 Because the ground is ^schapt, for there was ^tno rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, ^ubecause there was no grass.

6 And the ^vwild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like ^wdragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 ¶ ^xO LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our ^ybackslidings are many; we have ^zsinned against thee.

8 ^{aa}O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a ^{bb}stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldst thou be as a man ^{cc}astonied, as a mighty man that ^{dd}cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, ^{ee}art in the midst of us, and ^{ff}we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, ^{gg}Thus have they loved to wander, they have not ^{hh}refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth ⁱⁱnot accept them; he will now remember their iniquity, and ^{jj}visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, ^{kk}Pray not for this people for their good.

12 ^{ll}When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer ^{mm}burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 ¶ Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have ⁿⁿfamine; but I will give you assured ^{oo}peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me,

13:25 trusted. Trust is the characteristic O.T. word for the N.T. "faith" and "believe." It occurs 154 times in the O.T., and is the rendering of Hebrew words that mean to take refuge (Ps. 2:12); to lean on (Ps. 56:3); to roll on (Ps. 22:8).

14:1 dearth. The significance of a drought at this time was very great. It was one of the signs predicted in the Palestinian Covenant (Dt. 28:23-24), and had already been fulfilled in part in the reign of Ahab (1 Ki. 17:1ff.). As that sign had been followed, even though after a long interval, by the Assyrian captivity of the northern kingdom, it should have been received by Judah as a most solemn warning.

The prophets prophesy ^alies in my name: I sent them ^bnot, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the ^cdeceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be ^dconsumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have ^enone to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 ¶ Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with ^ftears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the ^gfield, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the ^hpriest go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou ⁱutterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is ^jno healing for us? ^kwe looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold ^ltrouble!

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our ^mfathers: for we have ⁿsinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for ^othy name's sake, do not disgrace the ^pthrone of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the ^qvanities of the ^rGentiles that can cause ^srain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

Judgment is inevitable

15 ^tThen said the LORD unto me, ^uThough ^vMoses and ^wSamuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them ^xout of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, ^yWhither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; ^zSuch as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the ^{aa}captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will ^{aa}appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the ^{bb}fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 ^aAnd I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of ^bManasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For who shall have ^cpity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest?

6 Thou hast ^dforsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I ^estretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with ^frepenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will ^gbe-reave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they ^hreturn not from their ways.

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at ⁱnoonday: I have caused him to fall upon it ^jsuddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 She that hath ^kborne seven languisheth: she hath ^lgiven up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them ^mwill I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

Jeremiah communes with God

15 ¶ ^vO LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and ^wre-venge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering; ^xknow that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did ^yeat them; and ^zthy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am ^{aa}called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 ^{bb}I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18 ^{cc}Why is my pain perpetual, and my ^{dd}wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a ^{ee}liar, and as waters that fail?

19 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, ^{ff}If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou ^{gg}take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a ^{hh}fenced brasen ⁱⁱwall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall ^{jj}not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

15:11 remnant. The remnant, of whom Jeremiah is the representative, is carefully distinguished from the unbelieving mass of the people. They must share with the nation the coming captivity, for they too have sinned (v. 13). However, the LORD's judgment upon the nation will be but a purifying chastisement to them, and they receive a special promise (v. 11). Verses 15-18 give the answer of the remnant to vv. 11-14. Two things characterize the believing remnant always—loyalty to the Word of God, and separation from those who mock that Word (vv. 16-17. Compare Rev. 3:8-10). entreat. That is, make supplication unto. Jer. 21:2; 37:3; 42:2.

16 The word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,
2 Thou shalt ^cnot take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the ^asons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be ^eburied; but they shall be as ^ddung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their ^gcarcasses shall be ^hmeat for the fowls of the earth, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies.

6 ⁱBoth the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall ^jmen lament for them, nor ^kcut themselves, nor make themselves ^lbald for them:

7 Neither shall ^mmen ⁿtear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall ^omen give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 ^pThou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to ^qcease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, ^sBecause your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

12 And ye have ^tdone worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may ^unot hearken unto me:

13 ^vTherefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, the ^wdays come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that ^xbrought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the ^ynorth, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will ^zbring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

17 ^{aa}For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

10 I the LORD ^dsearch the heart, I ^etry the ^freins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

Message concerning the sabbath

19 ¶ Thus said the LORD unto me; ^tGo and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ^uye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD; ^vTake heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither ^wdo ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

23 ^xBut they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to pass, ^yif ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the ^zsabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;

25 ^{aa}Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the ^{bb}cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from ^{cc}the plain, and from the mountains, and from the ^{dd}south, bringing burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and ^{ee}meat-offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

South of the Dead Sea the name is still retained (Wady el-Arabah). The south translates the Hebrew word Negev, which is based on a word meaning "to be dry." It is a geographical term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.).

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, ^csaying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was ^dmarred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, ^ecannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the ^fclay is in the potter's hand, so ^gare ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At ^hwhat instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to ⁱpluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

8 ^jIf that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will ^krepent of the evil that I thought to do unto ^lthem.

9 And at ^mwhat instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, ⁿto build and to plant it;

10 ^oIf it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit ^pthem.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a ^qdevice against you: ^rreturn ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings ^sgood.

12 And they said, There is ^tno hope: but we will walk after our own ^udevices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the ^vheathen, who hath heard such ^wthings: the virgin of Israel ^xhath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a ^yman leave the snow of Lebanon ^zwhich cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath ^{aa}forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways ^{ab}from the ^{ac}ancient paths, to walk in paths, ^{ad}in a ^{ae}way not cast up; and a perpetual ^{af}hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be ^{ag}astounded, and ^{ah}wag his head.

18 ¶ Then said they, Come, and let us devise ^{ao}devices ^{ap}against Jeremiah; ^{aq}for the law shall not perish from the ^{ar}high priest, nor counsel from the ^{as}wise, nor the word from the ^{at}prophet. ^{au}Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

18:2 potter's house. In ch. 18 God explains to Jeremiah that sovereign grace is able to take the marred pot (Israel) and remake it a useful vessel (v. 4). But to the elders, in ch. 19, the prophet declares that their generation will be ir-reparably destroyed like a smashed fragile jar, and the fragments taken to Babylon. That generation of the nation was not restored to the land (19:10-13).

Judah, the broken flask

19 Thus saith the LORD, ^eGo and get a potter's earthen ^fbottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

2 And go forth unto the ^gvalley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the ^hentry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee,

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ⁱO kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, ^jI will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall ^ktingle.

4 ^lBecause they have forsaken me, and have ^mestranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the ⁿblood of innocents;

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to ^oburn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called ^pTophet, ^qnor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to ^rfall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their ^scarcases will I give to be ^tmeat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be ^uastonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat the ^vflesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and ^wstraitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall ^xstraiten them.

10 ^yThen shalt thou break the ^zbottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so will I ^{aa}break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and ^{ab}they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the ^{bb}houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose ^{cc}roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have ^{dd}poured out drink-offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the ^{ee}court of the LORD's house; and said to all the people,

15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because ^{ff}they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, that ^{ee}triest the righteous, and seest ^{ff}the reins and the heart, let me see thy ^{gg}vengeance on them: for unto thee ^{hh}have I opened my cause.

was a painful experience, during which the victim's head, hands, and feet were held securely in holes cut in a single piece of timber.

20:3 Magor-missabib. Literally Terror on every side. v.10.

20:7 deceived me. Jeremiah is not accusing the LORD of misrepresentation but is giving vent to his great sorrow at the terrible situation in which he finds himself. God has called him to stand alone amid constant opposition, and has gradually led him into the position where He wants him to be—one that involves great misery for Jeremiah. In vv. 14-18 Jeremiah expresses his anguish in extreme language. Such passages in the prophetic books are not to be taken as merely the expression of sinful or erroneous human thoughts. The terrible sorrow of Jeremiah echoes the sorrow of God Himself as He sees His own people going on in sin and unbelief, ignoring His goodness toward them, and making it necessary for Him to chasten them. See Jer. 4:10, note.

Messages concerning Judah's last four kings: (1) Zedekiah (21:1–22:9)

21 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when ^aking Zedekiah sent unto him ^bPashur the son of Melchiah, and ^cZephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 ^dEnquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; ^eif so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up with us.

3 ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, ^fI will turn back the weapons of war that ^gare in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and ^hagainst the Chaldeans, which besiege you ⁱwithout the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I ^jmyself will fight against you with an ^koutstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: ^lthey shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will ^mdeliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not ⁿspare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I ^oset before you the way of life, and the way of death.

9 He that abideth in this city shall ^pdie by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall ^qlive, and his ^rlife shall be unto him for a ^sprey.

10 For I have set my face against this city for ^tevil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be ^ugiven into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with ^vfire.

11 ¶ And touching the ^whouse of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD; ^xExecute ^yjudgment in the morning, and deliver ^zhim that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that ^{aa}none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, ^{ab}I am against thee, O ^{ac}inhabitant of the valley, and ^{ad}rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which ^{ae}say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

14 But I will punish you according to the ^{af}fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will ^{ag}kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

22 Thus saith the LORD; Go ^{ah}down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, ^{ai}Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, ^{aj}that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD; ^{ak}Execute ye ^{al}judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the ^{am}oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the ^{an}stranger, the ^{ao}fatherless, nor the 17 But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy ^xcovetousness, and for to ^yshed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; They shall not ^zlament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

22:19 It has been claimed that the silence of the historical books about Jehoiakim's fate proves that Jeremiah prophesied wrongly. On the contrary, this prediction gives further historical information. If Jeremiah had made so precise a prediction about a contemporary and the prediction had not been fulfilled, it is unthinkable that the people would have continued to regard Jeremiah as a true prophet and to treasure his writings. God's true king: Messiah, the righteous Branch. Israel to be regathered

23 Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

22:24 Coniah. Contracted from Jecooniah, 1 Chr. 3:16.

22:30 childless. This declaration does not mean that Coniah (or Jecooniah or Jehoiachin) would have no children, for in 1 Chr. 3:17-18 some are named (compare Mt. 1:12). By divine judgment this king was to be written down childless, that is, no physical descendant would occupy a place in the list of Israel's kings. Consequently, if our Lord Jesus, who is to occupy David's throne (Lk. 1:32-33), had been begotten by Mary's husband, Joseph, who was of the line of Jecooniah (Mt. 1:12, 16), it would have contradicted this divine prediction. Christ's dynastic right to the throne came, through his foster father Joseph, from Jecooniah, but the physical descent of Jesus from David came through Mary, whose genealogy is traced to David through Nathan rather than through Solomon (compare Lk. 3:31 with Mt. 1:17).

23:3 THE FINAL RESTORATION

This final restoration will be accomplished after a period of unexampled tribulation (Jer. 30:3-10), and in connection with the manifestation of David's righteous Branch (v. 5), Jehovah-tsidkenu (v. 6). This restoration is not to be confused with the return of a remnant of Judah under Ezra, Nehemiah, and Zerubbabel at the end of the seventy years' captivity (Jer. 29:10). At His first advent Christ, David's righteous Branch (Lk. 1:31-33), did not establish an earthly kingdom, but was crowned with thorns and crucified. Neither was Israel the nation restored, nor did the Jewish people say, "THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS." Compare Rom. 10:3. The prophecy is yet to be fulfilled (Acts 15:14-17).

7 ^aTherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth, ^bwhich brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and ^cfrom all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own ^dland.

False prophets denounced

9 ¶ Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and ^ebecause of the words of his holiness.

10 For ^fthe land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the ^gpleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For both prophet and priest are ^hprofane; yea, in my ⁱhouse have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as ^jslippery ^kways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring ^levil upon them, even the year of their ^mvisitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; ⁿthey prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem ^oan horrible thing: they ^pcommit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of ^qevildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as ^rSodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will ^sfeed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken ^tnot unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they ^uspeak a vision of their own heart, and ^vnot out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, ^wYe shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the ^ximagination of his own heart, ^yNo evil shall come upon you.

18 For ^zwho hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, ^{aa}a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The ^{bb}anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the ^{cc}latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 ^{dd}I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have ^{ee}turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God ^{ff}at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any ^{gg}hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. ^{hh}Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, ⁱⁱthat prophesy lies in my name, saying, ^{jj}I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the ^{kk}deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to ^{ll}cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have ^{mm}forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

^afire? saith the LORD; and like a ^bhammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, ^cI am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am ^dagainst the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, ^eHe saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy ^ffalse dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their ^glies, and by their ^hlightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not ⁱprofit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What ^jis the ^kburden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even ^lforsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And ^mas for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, ⁿThe burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, ^oWhat hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have ^pperverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will ^qforsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and ^rcast you out of my presence:

40 And I will bring an ^severlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual ^tshame, which shall not be ^uforgotten.

Sign of the figs: some recent deportees will be returned from Babylon, but not all 24 The LORD shewed me, and, behold, ^vtwo baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that ^wNebuchadrezzar ^xking of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the ^ycarpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket ^zhad very good figs, ^{aa}even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket ^{ab}had ^{ac}very ^{ad}naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so ^{ae}bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What ^{af}seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the ^{ag}evil, very ^{ah}evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so ^{ai}evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for ^{aj}their ^{ak}good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will ^{al}bring them again to this land: and I will ^{am}build them, and not pull ^{an}them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck ^{ao}them up.

7 And I will give them an ^{ap}heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be ^{aq}my people, and I will be their God: ^{ar}for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the ^{as}evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so ^{at}evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give ^{au}to Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the ^{av}residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of ^{aw}Egypt:

9 And I will ^{ax}deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for ^{ay}their hurt, to be ^{az}reproach and ^{ba}a proverb, a taunt

Babylonian captivity
(v. 11; cp. Dan. 9:2)*

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the ^bfourth year of ^cJehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of ^dNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the ^epeople of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 From the ^fthirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and ^gI have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his ^hservants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, ⁱTurn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And ^jgo not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no ^khurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might ^lprovoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own ^khurt.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, I will send and take ^mall the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ⁿmy servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an ^oastonishment, and an ^phissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover I will take from them the ^qvoice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the ^rsound of the millstones, and the light of the ^scandle.

11 And ^tthis whole land shall be a desolation, and an ^uastonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy ^vyears.

(the first deportation being in Jehoiakim's reign, whereas the second was in 597 B.C. in Jehoiachin's reign, and the last in Zedekiah's reign in 586 B.C.) to about 535 B.C. when the exiles returned to the land after the decree of Cyrus (Ezra 1:1-3).

Message in the temple court

26 In the beginning of the reign of ^gJehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD; ^hStand in the court of the LORD'S house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD'S house, ⁱall the words that I command thee to ^jspeak unto them; diminish not a word:

3 If so be they will ^khearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may ^lrepent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; ^mIf ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my ⁿservants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like ^oShiloh, and will make this city ^pa curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

Priests and prophets seek Jeremiah's death

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had ^qmade an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people ^rtook him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be ^sdesolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

Princes spare Jeremiah

10 ¶ When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they ^tcame up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the ^uentry of the new gate of the LORD'S house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man ^vis worthy to ^wdie; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The ^xLORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now ^yamend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will ^zrepent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, ^{aa}I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and ^{ab}meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

Jehoiakim: Jehovah has set up. Son of Josiah. He was made king of Judah by Pharaoh Necho after taking Jehoahaz into captivity.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the ^apeople unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is ^bnot worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 ^cMicah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^dZion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and ^ethe mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not ^ffear the LORD, and ^gbesought the LORD, and the LORD ^hrepented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure ⁱgreat evil against our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of ^jKirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and ^kfled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, ^lElnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into ^mEgypt.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the ⁿgraves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless the hand of ^oAhikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

Sign of the yokes: surrounding nations commanded to submit to Nebuchadnezzar

27 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, ^psaying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and ^qyokes, and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them ^rto the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, ^sby my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have ^tgiven it unto whom it seemed ^umeet unto me.

6 And now have I ^vgiven all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, ^wmy servant; and the ^xbeasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And all ^ynations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, ^zuntil the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall ^{aa}serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not ^{bb}put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those ^bwill I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 ^cWhy will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts ^lconcerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away ^mcaptive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the ⁿvessels that remain ^oin the house of the LORD, and ^pin the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall ^qbe carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I ^rvisit them, saith the LORD; then will I ^sbring them up, and restore them to this place.

Hananiah's false prophecy and death

28 And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the ^treign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the ^ufourth year, and in the fifth month, ^vthat Hananiah the son of ^wAzur the prophet, which ^xwas of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the ^yyoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I ^zbring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD'S house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ^{aa}took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the ^{ab}captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, ^aAmen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The ^bprophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 The ^cprophet which prophesied of ^dpeace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent ^ehim.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the ^fyoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, ^gThus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ^hfrom the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the ⁱyoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a ^jyoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that ^kthey may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the ^lbeasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; ^mbut thou makest this people to ⁿtrust in a ^olie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^pI will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt ^qdie, because thou hast taught ^rrebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Message to the Jews of the first captivity

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were ^scarried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

2 (After that ^tJeconiah the king, and the ^uqueen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the ^vcarpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of ^wShaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) ^xsaying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ^yunto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 ^zBuild ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and ^{aa}pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

29:1 carried away. Compare 2 Ki. 24:10–16. The complete captivity of Judah came eleven years later (2 Ki. 25:1–7).

8 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^aLet not your prophets and your diviners, that ^bbe in the midst of you, ^cdeceive you, ^dneither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesy ^dfalsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ For thus saith the LORD, That ^eafter seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to ^freturn to this place.

11 ^gFor I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

12 ^hThen shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will ⁱhearken unto you.

13 And ye shall ^jseek me, and find ^kme, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

14 And I will be ^kfound of you, saith the LORD: and I will ^lturn away your captivity, and I will ^mgather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ¶ Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 ⁿKnow that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, ^oand of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, ^pI will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile ^qfigs, that cannot be eaten, they are so ^revil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will ^rdeliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an ^sastonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

19 ^tBecause they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my ^uservants the prophets, rising up early and sending ^vthem; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 ¶ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, ^vall ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a ^wlie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of ^xNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22 And of them shall be taken up a ^ycurse by all the captivity of Judah which ^zare in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like ^zAhab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;

23 Because they have committed villany in Israel, and ^{aa}have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I ^{bb}know, and ^{cc}am a witness, saith the LORD.

24 ¶ ^{dd}Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying,

25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that ^{ee}are at Jerusalem, and to ^{cc}Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man ^{ff}that is ^{dd}mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldst put him in prison, and in the ^{ee}stocks.

Ahab: uncle. A false prophet among the Jews in captivity in Babylon. Because of his lies and adultery he was burned to death by the king of Babylon.

28 For therefore ^ahe sent unto us in Babylon, saying, ^bThis captivity is long; ^cbuild ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ^dears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, ^eThus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; ^fBecause that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him ^gnot, and he caused you to trust in a ^hlie:

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: ⁱhe shall not have a man to dwell among this people; ^jneither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath taught ^krebellion against the LORD.

The day of the LORD: "the time of Jacob's trouble" (v. 7), the tribulation

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, ^lWrite thee all the ^mwords that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that ⁿI will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will ^ocause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these ^pare the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; ^pWe have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? ^qwherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in ^rtravail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! for ^sthat day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be ^tsaved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, ^uthat I will ^vbreak his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more ^wserve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and ^xDavid their ^xking, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 ¶ ^yTherefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee ^zfrom afar, and thy seed from the ^{aa}land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and ^{bb}shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make ^{aa}him afraid.

11 For I ^{cc}am with ^{cc}thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: ^{dd}though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of ^{ee}thee: but ^{ff}I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, ^{gg}Thy bruise is incurable, ^{gg}and thy wound is grievous.

13 ^{hh}There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: ^{hh}thou hast no healing medicines.

Zephaniah: whom Jehovah hid. A priest in Jerusalem during the reign of Zedekiah and the captivity.

30:1 Since the book is so largely occupied with the message of judgment (1:10), these chapters are all the more significant in predicting such glorious features as:

- (1) the indestructibility of Israel (30:11; 31:35-37);
- (2) the return from exile (30:10; 31:23; 33:7);
- (3) the coming of the Messianic King (33:15-16);
- (4) the conversion of Israel (33:8,16); and
- (5) the realization of the New Covenant (31:31ff.; 32:39-40).

30:3 bring again. That is, cause to cease.

30:7 time of Jacob's trouble. The time of trouble for Jacob is identical to the tribulation. See Rev. 7:14, note.

30:11 full end of thee. No O.T. prophet is more positive of the destruction of Israel's political economy and the consequent exile of the nation than is Jeremiah, but he is also insistent that the disaster of the hour does not mean the nation's dissolution. Repeatedly the prophet assures the nation that God will not make a "full end" of Israel (compare 4:27; 5:10,18; 30:11; 46:28). The perpetuity of Israel as a nation is thus assured.

15 Why criest thou ^bfor thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be ^cdevoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into ^dcaptivity; and they that ^espoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that ^fprey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 For I will ^grestore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; ^hbecause they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

Israel to be delivered in last days

18 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the ⁱcity shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed ^jthanksgiving and the ^kvoice of them that make merry: and I will ^lmultiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also ^mglorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 ⁿTheir children also shall be as ^oafortime, and their ^pcongregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And ^qtheir nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near; and he shall ^rapproach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be ^smy people, and I will be your God.

23 ^tBehold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The ^ufierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the ^vlatter days ye shall consider it.

Joy will replace sorrow

31 At the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my ^wpeople.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword ^xfound grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when ^yI went to cause him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, ^zI have loved thee with an everlasting ^{aa}love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy ^{bb}tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of ^{cc}them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the ^{dd}mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, ^{ee}Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and ^{ff}shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, ^{gg}save thy people, the ^{hh}remnant of ⁱⁱIsrael.

8 Behold, I will ^{jj}bring them from the north country, and ^{kk}gather them from the ^{ll}coasts of the earth, and with them the ^{mm}blind and the ⁿⁿlame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return ^{oo}thither.

11 For the LORD hath ^dredeemed Jacob, and ^eransomed him from the hand of him that was ^fstronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the ^gheight of Zion, and ^hshall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for ⁱwheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a ^jwatered garden; and ^kthey shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn ^ltheir mourning into joy, and will ^mcomfort them, and make them rejoice from their ⁿsorrow.

14 And I will ^osate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; A voice was heard in ^pRamah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rahel ^qweeping for her children ^rrefused to be comforted for her children, because they were ^snot.

16 Thus saith the LORD; ^tRefrain thy voice from ^uweeping, and thine eyes from tears: ^vfor thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall ^wcome again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is ^xhope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast ^ychastised me, and I was chastised, as a ^zbullock unaccustomed to the yoke: ^{aa}turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely ^{bb}after that I was turned, I ^{cc}repented; and after that I was instructed, ^{dd}I smote upon my thigh: I was ^{ee}ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim ^{ff}my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my ^{gg}bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have ^{hh}mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: ⁱⁱturn again, O ^{jj}virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt thou ^{kk}go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, ^{ll}when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD bless thee, ^{mm}O habitation of justice, and ⁿⁿmountain of holiness.

24 And ^{oo}there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, ^{pp}husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have ^{qq}satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I ^{rr}awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was ^{ss}sweet unto me.

31:22 new thing in the earth. Most contemporary Bible teachers understand the passage to mean that Israel, contrary to the practice of women, will woo the LORD, her divine husband. Older expositors almost unanimously took the verse to predict the virgin birth of the Messiah. Their arguments are:

(1) The "new thing in the earth" would require an event of unprecedented character.

(2) The word "created" implies an act of divine power.

(3) The term "woman" demands an individual rather than the entire nation. And

(4) the word "man" is properly used of God (Isa. 9:6).

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 In those days they shall say no more, ^aThe fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die for his ^bown iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my ^glaw in their inward parts, and write it in their ^hhearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

31:31 THE NEW COVENANT

The New Covenant of 31:31-40 and 32:40ff. is one of the significant covenants of Scripture, and is remarkably full, stating:

- (1) the time of the covenant (vv. 31, 33);
 - (2) the parties to the covenant (v. 31);
 - (3) the contrast in covenants—Mosaic and New (v. 32);
 - (4) the terms of the covenant (v. 33);
 - (5) the comprehensiveness of the covenant (v. 34);
 - (6) the basic features of the covenant (v. 34):
- (a) knowledge of God and (b) forgiveness of sin;
- (7) the perpetuity of the people of the covenant (vv. 35-37); and

(8) the guarantee of the covenant (the rebuilt city) (vv. 38-40). See Hebrew 8:8, note. Although certain features of this covenant have been fulfilled for believers in the present Church Age, e.g. (6) above, the covenant remains to be realized for Israel according to the explicit statement of v. 31.

31:28 The second or constructive phase of Jeremiah's ministry begins here. Compare Jer. 1:10.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, ^aWherefore dost thou ^bprophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will ^cgive this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take ^dit;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be ^edelivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his ^feyes;

5 And he shall ^glead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall ^hnot prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that ⁱis in Anathoth: for the ^jright of redemption ^kis thine to buy ^lit.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that ^mis in Anathoth, which ⁿis in the country of Benjamin ^ois thine, and the redemption ^pis thine; buy ^qit for thyself. Then I knew that this ^rwas the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and ^sI weighed him the money, ^teven seventeen ^ushekels of silver.

10 And I ^vsubscribed the evidence, and sealed ^wit, and ^xtook witnesses, and weighed ^yhim the money in the balances.

11 So I took the ^zevidence of the purchase, ^{aa}both that which was sealed ^{ab}according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the ^{ac}evidence of the purchase unto ^{ad}Baruch the son of ^{ae}Neria, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the ^{af}witnesses that ^{ag}subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged ^{ah}Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these ^{ai}evidences, this ^{aj}evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this ^{ak}evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be ^{al}possessed again in this land.

Jeremiah's prayer and the LORD's response

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the ^{am}evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neria, I ^{an}prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 ^{ao}Ah Lord GOD! behold, ^{ap}thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and ^{aq}stretched out arm, ^{ar}and ^{as}there is nothing too hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest ^{at}lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompenseth the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the ^{au}LORD of hosts, ^{av}is his name,

19 ^{aw}Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for ^{ax}cc^{ay}thine eyes ^{az}are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: ^{ba}dd^{ab}to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

21 And ^{be}th hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with ^{bf}gg^{ab} stretched out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to 32:9 bought the field. Here is a sign

(1) of Jeremiah's faith in his own predictions of the restoration of Judah (v. 15), for the field was then occupied by the Babylonian army; and

(2) to Judah of that coming restoration. Observe that Jeremiah was acting upon the principle of Hebrews 11:1.

their fathers to give them, a ^aland flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they ^bcame in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou ^chast caused all this evil to come upon them:

24 Behold the ^amounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and ^ewhat thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the ^fGOD of all flesh: is there any thing ^gtoo hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^hI will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set ⁱfire on this city, and burn it ^jwith the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me ^kfrom their youth: for the children of Israel have ^lonly provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; ^mthat I should remove it from before my face,

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, ⁿthey, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their ^oprophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the ^pback, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the ^qhouse, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the ^rhigh places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto ^sMolech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon ^tby the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will ^ugather them out of all countries, ^vwhither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will ^wcause them to dwell safely:

38 And they shall be ^xmy people, and I will be their God:

39 And I will ^ygive them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:

40 And I will make an ^zeverlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from ^{aa}them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, ^{bb}that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will ^{cc}rejoice over them ^{dd}to do them good, and I will ^{ee}plant them in this land assuredly with my

The prophecy of the Davidic kingdom (see 2 Sam. 7:8-16, and note)

33 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, ^hwhile he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD ⁱthe maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; ^jthe LORD is his name;

3 ^kCall unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the ^lmounts, and by the sword;

5 They come to fight with the ^mChaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have ⁿhid my face from this city.

6 Behold, I will bring it health and ^ocure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will ^pcause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will ^qbuild them, as at the first.

8 And I will ^rcleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ¶ And it shall be to me a ^sname of joy, a praise and an honour ^tbefore all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, which ye say ^u*shall be* desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,

11 The ^vvoice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, ^wPraise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the ^xsacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. The "valley" or Shephelah is a section of the Holy Land bounded on the north by the Valley of Aijalon, on the west by the Maritime Plain, on the east by the Central Plateau, and reaching to Beer-sheba in the south. It is characterized by low, rounded chalk hills divided by several broad valleys. The south translates the Hebrew word Negev, which is based on a word meaning "to be dry." It is a geographical term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.).

tains, in the cities of the ^avale, and in the cities of the ^bsouth, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks ^cpass again under the hands of him that ^dtelleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that ^egood thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 ¶ In those days, and at that time, will I cause the ^fBranch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute ^gjudgment and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days ^hshall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name where-with she shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

17 ¶ For thus saith the LORD; David shall never ⁱwant a man to sit upon the ^jthrone of the house of Israel;

18 Neither shall the ^kpriests the Levites ^lwant a man before me to offer burnt-offerings, and to kindle ^mmeat-offerings, and to ⁿdo sacrifice continually.

19 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD; ^oIf ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 Then may also my ^pcovenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 ^qAs the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I ^rmultiply the seed of David my servant, and the ^sLevites that minister unto me.

23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The ^ttwo families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have ^udespised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD; ^vIf my covenant ^wbe not with day and night, and ^xif I have not appointed ^ythe ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 ^zThen will I ^{aa}cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take ^{bb}any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: ^{cc}for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

34 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, ^{aa}when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the ^{bb}kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

3 And thou shalt ^{ee}not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee ^{ff}mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

33:13 vale. The "vale" or Shephelah is a section of the Holy Land bounded on the north by the Valley of Ajalon, on the west by the Maritime Plain, on the east by the Central Plateau, and reaching to Beer-sheba in the south. It is characterized by low, rounded chalk hills divided by several broad valleys. The south translates the Hebrew word Negev, which is based on a word meaning "to be dry." It is a geographical term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.).

33:15 See notes on Davidic Covenant (2 Sam. 7:16); Kingdom (O.T.), (Gen. 1:26; Zech. 12:8); and Kingdom (N.T.), (1 Cor. 15:24).

33:16 THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Hebrew Jehovah-tsidkenu. 1 Cor. 1:30; see Ex. 34:6, note.

33:26 return. That is, cease.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the ^aburnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, ^bAh lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against ^cLachish, and against ^dAzekah: for these ^edefenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

*Princes and people rebuked:
Jerusalem to be a desolation*

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made ^fa covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to ^gproclaim liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go ^hfree; that none should ⁱserve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should ⁱserve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a ⁱcovenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of ^kbondmen, saying, 14 At the end of ^lseven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers ^mhearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were now turned, and had ⁿdone right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me ^oin the house which is called by my name:

16 But ye ^pturned and ^qpolluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I ^rproclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be ^sremoved into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, ^twhen they cut the calf in ^utwain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The ^vprinces of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even ^wgive them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them ^xthat seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for ^ymeat ^zunto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

The Rechabites' obedience contrasted with Judah's disobedience

35 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the ^aRechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the ^echambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a ^fman of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the ^gkeeper of the door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, ^hDrink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ⁱJonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink ⁱno wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall ^kdwell in tents; that ye may ^llive many days in the land where ye be ^mstrangers.

8 Thus have we ⁿobeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to ^obuild houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when ^pNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us ^qgo to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ^rWill ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: ^snotwithstanding I have spoken unto you, ^trising early and speaking; but ^uye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my ^vservants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ^wReturn ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall ^xdwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye ^yhave not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their ^zfather, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, ^{aa}I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: ^{bb}because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called

Jehoiakim burns Jeremiah's roll

36 And it came to pass in the ^cfourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this ^dword came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a ^eroll of a book, and ^fwrite therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, ^gfrom the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

3 It ^hmay be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may ⁱreturn every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called ^jBaruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch ^kwrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a ^lroll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I ^mam shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the ⁿroll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ^oears of the people in the LORD's house upon the ^pfasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ^qears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they ^rproclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of ^sGemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the ^tentry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ^uears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD,

12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even ^vElishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and ^wElnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ^xears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent ^yJehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the ^zroll wherein thou hast read in the ^{aa}ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the ^{ab}roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ^{ac}ears. So Baruch read it in their ^{ad}ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they ^awere afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely ^btell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, ^cHe pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, ^dhide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the ^eroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ^ffears of the king.

21 So the king sent ^gJehudi to fetch the ^hroll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi ⁱread it in the ^jfears of the king, and in the ^kfears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the ^lwinterhouse in the ^mninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four ⁿleaves, he cut it with the penknife, and ^ocast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the ^proll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were ^qnot afraid, nor ^rrent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the ^sroll: but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to ^ttake Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: ^ubut the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the ^vroll, and the words which ^wBaruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another ^xroll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first ^yroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this ^zroll, saying, ^{aa}Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to ^{ab}cease from thence man and beast?

did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and ^aZephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ^bPray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not ^cput him into prison.

5 Then ^dPharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they ^edeparted from Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; ¶ Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to enquire of me; ^gBehold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and ^hfight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD; ⁱDeceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

Jeremiah falsely accused and imprisoned

11 ¶ And it came to pass, *i*that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ^kward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou ^lfailest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, ^mIt is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were ⁿwroth with Jeremiah, and ^osmote him, and put him in prison in the ^phouse of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

37:11 Five steps in Jeremiah's prison experiences are recorded:

(1) He is arrested in the gate and committed to prison on the false charge of treason (37:11-15).

(2) He is released from prison, but restricted to the courtyard of the prison (37:17-21).

(3) He is imprisoned in the miry dungeon of Malchiah (38:6).

(4) He is again released from the dungeon and kept in the prison courtyard until the capture of the city (38:17-28). And

(5) he is carried in chains from the city by Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, being finally released at Ramah (40:1-4).

THE ARRANGEMENT OF JEREMIAH'S PROPHECY

This verse explains the arrangement of Jeremiah's prophecy. As the exile came nearer, God commanded Jeremiah to write down the messages that He had already given orally (30:2) and to add to them new divine promises of return from exile and of other blessings in the more distant future (30:3,10-11).

Jehoiakim destroyed Jeremiah's scroll (36:23). God commanded Jeremiah to dictate a new scroll. Jeremiah did so, reproducing the contents of the previous scroll, which probably had been arranged in the order in which God had originally given them. But he added at the proper places certain other inspired discussions of the same subjects (36:32). Later on Jeremiah inserted messages received at later times but logically related to messages previously given, putting them at the appropriate places within the scroll already written, as for instance, chs. 21; 24; 27-29; 32-34.

Other messages given after the new scroll was written were added in the order in which they were received, and these were followed by certain special sections (chs. 45-52). Thus the arrangement of the book is partly according to the time the messages were given, and partly according to the nature of the subject matter.

tered into the dungeon, and into the ^acabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and ^bsaid, ^cIs there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be ^ddelivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I ^eoffended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the ^fcourt of the prison, and that they should ^ggive him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, ^huntil all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jeremiah, released from the pit, gives Zedekiah final opportunity to repent

38 Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and ⁱPashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, ^jHe that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall ^klive; for he shall have his life for a ^lprey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, ^mThis city shall surely be ⁿgiven into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore ^othe princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the ^phurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: ^qfor the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 ^rThen took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, ^sthat was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ¶ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, ^tone of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the ^ugate of Benjamin;

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is ^vlike to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is ^wno more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, 38:4 Here is the fundamental reason why the prophetic warnings of the O.T. and N.T. are unwelcome to an unreasoning optimism. Compare 26:11.

38:7 Ebed-melech. That is, an Ethiopian. vv. 7-13; Jer. 39:15-18.

38:10 king commanded. King Zedekiah did everything he could to make Jeremiah's imprisonment comfortable. He seems genuinely to have desired to help the prophet and to follow the messages that Jeremiah gave him from the LORD. However, Zedekiah was afraid of the nobles who had been brought into power by his wicked brother, Jehoiakim. Although Zedekiah wished to be a good king, his weakness and fear not only made him ineffective but also caused him to be actually a bad king. Jehoiakim, who preceded Zedekiah, had been hampered in some of his evil ways by the good nobles whom his father, Josiah, had put into power (compare Jer. 26), but by the end of his reign Jehoiakim had succeeded in replacing most of them with the wicked men who now controlled Zedekiah.

Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old ^acast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old ^acast clouts and rotten rags under thine ^barmholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah ^cremained in the court of the prison.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third ^dentry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ^eask thee a thing; ^fhide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? ^gand if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king ^hswore secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, ⁱthat made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that ^jseek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly ^kgo forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall ^lthis city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and ^mthou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am ⁿafraid of the Jews that are ^ofallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. ^pObey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be ^qwell unto thee, ^rand thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the ^swomen that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy ^tchildren to the Chaldeans: and ^uthou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I ^vpresented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to ^wJonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they ^xleft off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah ^yabode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, ^{that} when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they ^gfled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate ^hbetwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the ⁱplain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and ^jovertook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to ^kRiblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his ^leyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the ^mnobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's ⁿeyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to ^oBabylon.

8 ¶ And the ^pChaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with ^qfire, and brake down the ^rwalls of Jerusalem.

9 Then ^sNebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that ^tfell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

*Jeremiah remains in Judah.
Gedaliah made ruler*

40 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, ^eafter that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: ^fbecause ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, ^gI loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the ^hland is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to ⁱGedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, ^jwhom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him ^kvictuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to ^lMizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ¶ Now when all the ^mcaptains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the ⁿpoor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be ^uwell with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at ^vMizpah to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, ^wgather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

12 Even all the Jews ^yreturned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 ¶ Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing; for thou speakest ^dfalsely of Ishmael.

41 Now it came to pass in the seventh month, ^ethat Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the ^fseed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to ^gMizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and ^hsmote Gedaliah the son of ⁱAhikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made ^jgovernor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, ^keven with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, ^land the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from ^mShechem, from ⁿShiloh, and from ^oSamaria, ^peven fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes ^qrent, and having ^rcut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to ^sbring them to ^tthe house of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the son of Netha-niah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, ^uweeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was ^vso, when they came into the ^wmidst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah ^xslew them, ^yand cast them into the ^zmidst of the pit, he, and the men that ^{aa}were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for ^{ab}we have ^{ac}treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, ^{ad}was ^{ae}it which Asa the king had made ^{af}for fear of Baasha king of Israel: ^{ag}and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with ^{ah}them that ^{ai}were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the ^{aj}residue of the people that ^{ak}were in Mizpah, ^{al}even the king's ^{am}daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the ^{an}Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when ^{ao}Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that ^{ap}were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the ^{aq}great waters that ^{ar}are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, ^{as}that when all the people which ^{at}were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that ^{au}were with him, then ^{av}they were glad.

15 But ^bIshmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

Johanan rescues people

16 ¶ Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the ^cremnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon:

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of ^dChimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into ^eEgypt, 18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were ^fafraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain ^gGedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

Jeremiah warns remnant: divine judgment pronounced

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and ^hJohanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people ⁱfrom the least even unto the greatest, came near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we ^jbeseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and ^kpray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are ^lleft but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew us the ^mway wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, ⁿI will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will ^odeclare it unto you; I will keep ^pnothing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful ^qwitness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will ^robey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be ^swell with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he ^tJohanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, ^uThus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 ^vIf ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I ^wrepent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not ^xafraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for ^yI am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And I will shew ^zmercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

13 ¶ But if ye say, ^{aa}We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,

14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of ^{bb}Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, ^{cc}nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly ^{dd}set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

16 Then it shall come to pass, that the ^{ee}esword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

Jeremiah in Egypt, warns of judgment

43 And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had ^kmade an end of speaking unto all the people all the ^lwords of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest ^mfalsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But ⁿBaruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into ^oBabylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed ^pnot the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the ^qremnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the ^rking's daughters, and ^severy person that Nebuzardan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 ^tSo they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the ^uword of the LORD unto Jeremiah in ^vTahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the ^wentry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take ^xNebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^ymy servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of ^zEgypt, and ^{aa}deliver such as are for death to death; and ^{bb}such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

Message to the Jews in Egypt
(cp. Jer. 43:8-13)

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at ^cMigdol, and at ^dTahpanhes, and at ^eNoph, and in the country of ^fPathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a ^sdesolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to ^hserve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But ^kthey hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; ^aWherefore commit ye this great evil ^bagainst your souls, ^cto cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be ^da curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and ^eyour own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not ^fhumbled even unto this day, neither have they ^gfeared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will ^hset my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and ⁱthey shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be ^jconsumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an ^kastonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will ^lpunish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the ^msword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a ⁿdesire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then ^oall the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will ^pnot hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do ^qwhatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the ^rqueen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of ^svictuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we ^tleft off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, we have ^uwanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her, without our ^vmen?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, ^wdid not the LORD remember them, and ^xcame it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an ^yastonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, ^bHear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt:

30 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give ^lPharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave ^mZedekiah king of Judah into the hand of ⁿNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and ^arage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; ^bthe Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the ^cLydians, that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is the ^dday of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be ^esatiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead, and ^ftake balm, ^gO virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; ^hfor thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy ⁱshame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for ^jthe mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and ^ksmite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in ^lMigdol, and publish in ^mNoph and in ⁿTahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 ^oWhy are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 ^pHe made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and ^qlet us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is ^rbut a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, ^ssaith the King, whose ^tname is the LORD of hosts, Surely as ^uTabor is among the mountains, and as ^vCarmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, ^wfurnish thyself to go into captivity: for ^xNoph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh ^yout of the north.

21 Also ^zher hired men are in the midst of her like ^{aa}fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their ^{ab}visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because ^{bb}they are more than the grasshoppers, and are ^{cc}innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be ^{dd}delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their ^{ee}gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that ^{ff}trust in him:

26 And I will deliver them into the ^{gg}hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and ^{hh}afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

Prophecy against Philistia and Phenicia

47 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the ^dPhilistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

2 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^ewaters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands;

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the ^gPhilistines, and to cut off from ^hTyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the ⁱremnant of the country of ^jCaphtor.

5 ^kBaldness is come upon Gaza; ^lAshkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself?

6 O thou ^msword of the LORD, how long will it be ⁿere thou be quiet? put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a ^ocharge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he appointed it.

Prophecy against Moab

48 Against ^pMoab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto ^qNebo! for it is spoiled: ^rKiriathaim is confounded and taken: Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in ^sHeshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be cut down, O ^tMadmen; the sword shall pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be from ^uHoronaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the ^vgoing up of ^wLuhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the ^xgoing down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 Flee, save your lives, and be like the ^yheath in the wilderness.

7 ¶ For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy ^ztreasures, thou shalt also be taken: and ^{aa}Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together.

8 And the ^{bb}spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that ^{cc}doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from ^{dd}blood.

11 ¶ Moab hath been ^{ee}at ease from his youth, and he hath ^{ff}settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their ^{gg}bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of ^{hh}Chemosh, ⁱⁱas the house of Israel was ashamed of ^{jj}Beth-el their confidence.

14 ¶ How say ye, ^aWe are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are ^bgone down to the slaughter, saith the ^cKing, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab ^dis near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, be-moan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 Thou ^edaughter that dost inhabit Dibon, ^fcome down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O inhabitant of ^gAroer, stand by the way, and ^hespy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: ⁱhowl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled,

21 And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon ^jJahazah, and upon ^kMephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon ^lBeth-meon,

24 And upon ^mKerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 The ⁿhorn of Moab is cut off, and ^ohis arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 ¶ Make ye him drunken: for he magnified ^phimself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For was not Israel a ^qderision unto thee? was he found among ^rthieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippedst for ^rjoy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the ^sdove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the ^tpride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his ^upride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will I ^vhowl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; *mine heart shall w*mourn for the men of ^xKir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of ^yJazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.

33 And joy and ^zgladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 ^{aa}From the cry of ^{bb}Heshbon even unto ^{cc}Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from ^{dd}Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the ^{ee}high places, and him that ^{ff}burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine ^{gg}heart shall sound for Moab like ^{hh}pipes, and mine heart shall sound like ^{hh}pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the ⁱⁱriches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For ^{jj}every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be ^{kk}cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the ^{ll}housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have ^{mm}broken Moab like a vessel

Prophecy against Ammon

49 Concerning the ^oAmmonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 ^pTherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause ^qan alarm of war to be heard in ^rRabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel ^sbe heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

49:11 trust. Trust is the characteristic O.T. word for the N.T. "faith" and "believe." It occurs 154 times in the O.T., and is the rendering of Hebrew words that mean to take refuge (Ps. 2:12); to lean on (Ps. 56:3); to roll on (Ps. 22:8).

49:17 Edom (called "Seir," Gen. 32:3; 36:8) is the name of the country lying south of the ancient kingdom of Judah and extending from the Dead Sea to the Gulf of Aqaba. It includes the ruins of Petra, and is bounded on the north by Moab. Peopled by descendants of Esau (Gen. 36:1-19), Edom has a remarkable prominence in the prophetic Word as (together with Moab) the scene of the final destruction of Gentile world-power in the Day of the LORD. See Armageddon (Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17-21) and Times of the Gentiles (Lk. 21:24; Rev. 16:19). Compare Ps. 137:7; Isa. 34:1-8; 63:1-6; Jer. 49:17-22; Ezek. 25:12-14; Obad. 1-21.

Prophecy against Babylon

50 The word that the LORD spake against ^qBabylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 ^rDeclare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is ^staken, ^tBel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; ^uher idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and ^vnone shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, ^wboth man and beast.

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, ^xthe children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, ^ygoing and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual ^zcovenant that shall not be forgotten.

Chaldeans: The people of the region of Chaldea, located near the Persian Gulf.

6 My people hath been lost ^asheep: their shepherds have caused them to go ^bastray, they have turned them away on the mountains: ^cthey have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten ^dtheir restingplace.

7 All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend ^enot, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, ^fthe hope of their fathers.

8 ^gRemove out of the midst of Babylon, and ^hgo forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ For, lo, ⁱI will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall ^jset themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; ^knone shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a ^lspoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because ye were glad, because ye ^mrejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be ⁿsove confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a ^owilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be ^pastonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 ^qPut yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 ^rShout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are ^sthrown down: for it is the ^tvengeance of the LORD: ^utake vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of ^vthe oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his ^wown land.

17 ¶ Israel is a ^xscattered sheep; the lions have driven ^yhim away: first the king of ^zAssyria hath devoured him; and last this ^{aa}Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of ^{ab}Assyria.

19 And I will ^{bb}bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied ^{cc}upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the ^{dd}iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them ^{ee}whom I reserve.

21 ¶ Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of ^{ff}Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A ^{gg}sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is the ^{hh}hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a ⁱⁱsnare for thee, and thou art also ^{jj}taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast ^{kk}striven against the LORD.

26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her storehouses: cast her up as heaps, and ^cdestroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their ^dvisitation.

28 ^eThe voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion ^fthe vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 ^gCall together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: ^hrecompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been ⁱproud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore ^jshall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, ^kI am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord GOD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time ^lthat I will ^mvisit thee.

32 And the most ⁿproud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will ^okindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

34 Their ^rRedeemer is strong; the ^sLORD of hosts is his name: he shall ^tthoroughly plead their ^ucause, that he may ^vgive rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ ^wA sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her ^xwise men.

36 A sword is upon the liars; and they shall ^ydote: a sword is upon ^zher mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their ^{aa}horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the ^{ab}mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as ^{ac}women: a sword is upon her ^{ad}treasures; and they shall be robbed.

39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the ^{ai}islands shall dwell there, and the ^{aj}owls shall dwell therein: and ^{ak}it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 ^{al}As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and the ^{am}neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man ^{an}dwell therein.

41 ^{ao}Behold, a people shall come from the north, and ^{ap}a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the ^{aq}coasts of the earth.

Babylon judged by the LORD for sins against Israel

51 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against ^cBabylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon ^dfanners, ^ethat shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be ^fagainst her round about.

4 ^jThus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath ^knot been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; ^lthough their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 ^mFlee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: ⁿbe not cut off in her iniquity; for ^othis is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will ^prender unto her a recompence.

7 ^qBabylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the ^rnations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are ^smad.

8 ^tBabylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: ^uhowl for her; ^vtake balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and ^wlet us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The LORD hath ^xbrought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion ^ythe work of the LORD our God.

11 ^zMake bright the arrows; gather the shields: the ^{aa}LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the ^{bb}Medes: for his ^{cc}device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the ^{dd}vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 ^{ee}Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both ^{ff}devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, ^{gg}as with caterpillers; and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

15 ^{hh}He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath ⁱⁱstretched out the heaven by his understanding.

56 Because ^vthe spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of ^wtheir bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely ^xrequite.

57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her ^ywise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall ^zsleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the ^{aa}King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The ^{bb}broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly ^{cc}broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be ^{dd}weary.

59 ¶ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of ^{ee}Neriaah, the son of Maa-seiaah, when he went with ^{ff}Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah ^{gg}wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, ^{hh}to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate ⁱⁱfor ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast ^{jj}made an end of reading this book, ^{kk}that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and ^{ll}they shall be weary. ^{mm}Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of ^aLibnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that ^bJehoiakim had done.

3 For through the ^canger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had ^dcast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah ^erebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in the ^fninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that ^gNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and ^hpitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was ⁱsore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about;) and they went by the way of the ^jplain.

8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and ^kovertook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to ^lRiblah in the land of ^mHamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon ⁿslew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he ^oput out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 ¶ ^pNow in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of ^qNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 And ^rburned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, ^sbrake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But ^tNebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for ^uhusbandmen.

17 ^vAlso the pillars of ^wbrass that were in the house of the LORD, and ^xthe bases, and the ^ybrassen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and ^zcarried all the ^{aa}brass of them to Babylon.

18 ^{ab}The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of ^{bb}brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and ^{cc}the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the ^{cc}candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that

22 And a ^fchapter of ^abrass was upon it; and the height of one ^gchapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the ^hchapters round about, all of ^abrass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the ⁱpomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

24 ¶ And the captain of the guard took ^jSeraiah the chief priest, and ^kZephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

26 So ^lNebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

THE BOOK OF LAMENTATIONS

Author:
Jeremiah

Theme:
Mourning for Jerusalem

Date of writing:
6th Century B.C.

Literary Background

Lamentations, composed of five elegies lamenting the destruction of Jerusalem, is undoubtedly the work of Jeremiah. In literary form chapters 1—4 are alphabetic, somewhat on the order of Psalm 119. Thus in chapters 1 and 2 a new letter of the Hebrew alphabet begins each of the twenty-two verses. In chapter 3 there are sixty-six verses, arranged in twenty-two groups of three verses. Each group of three verses uses a successive letter of the alphabet, each verse in the group beginning with that one letter. The fifth chapter, although not alphabetical, contains twenty-two verses in a plaintive meter which—the second half of each verse being shorter than the first—conveys a somber effect of diminuendo.

The Old Testament in the New

The deeper significance of Lamentations lies in the fact that Jeremiah's intense burden of sympathy for Jerusalem discloses the love and sorrow of the LORD for the very people whom He is chastening, a burden similar to that which the Lord Jesus Christ expressed in His lament over Jerusalem (Matthew 23:37–39).

1 How doth the city sit ^asolitary, that was full of people! ^bhow is ^cshe become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and ^dprincess among the provinces, how is she ^ebecome ^ftributary!

2 She ^gsweepeth ^hsore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her ⁱlovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have ^jdealt treacherously with her, they are become her ^kenemies.

3 ^lJudah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the ^mheathen, she findeth no ⁿrest: all her persecutors overtook her ^obetween the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are ^pdesolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in ^qbitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the ^rchief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her ^sfor the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all ^ther beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no ^upasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem ^vremembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and ^wnone did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 ^xJerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have ^yseen her nakedness: yea, she ^zsigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her ^{aa}last ^{bb}end; therefore ^{cc}she came down ^{dd}wonderfully: ^{ee}she had no comforter. O LORD, ^{ff}behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the ^mheathen ^{gg}entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should ^{hh}not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, ⁱⁱthey seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for ^{jj}meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ¶ ^{kk}Is ^{ll}nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see ^{mm}if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of ⁿⁿhis fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire ^{oo}into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath ^{pp}spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath ^{qq}made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The ^{rr}yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are ^{ss}wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the ^{tt}Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The ^{uu}Lord hath ^{vv}trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to ^{ww}crush my young men: the Lord hath ^{xx}trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep; ^{yy}mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the ^{zz}comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are ^{aa}desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort ^{bb}her: the LORD hath commanded

	II. The Day of the LORD's Anger 2 How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a s cloud in his anger, and t cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his u footstool in the day of his anger! 2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath v not pitied: he hath thrown down in w his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath x brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof. 3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the y horn of Israel: he hath	8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the oo wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath pp stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he qq made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together. 9 rr Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her ss king and her princes are among the tt Gentiles: the law is no more ; her prophets also find uu no vision from the LORD. 10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have vv cast up dust	pp 2 Ki. 21:13; Isa. 34:11 qq Isa. 3:26 rr Neh. 1:3 ss Dt. 28:36; 2 Ki. 24:15; 25:7; Lam. 1:3; 4:20 tt Or nations uu Jer. 14:14; Mic. 3:6 vv Job 2:12

2:3 horn. The words "horn" and "horns" (O.T., qeren; N.T., keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Dt. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4-5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20-21).

upon their heads; they have ^agirded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 ^bMine eyes do fail with tears, my ^cbowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is ^dcorn and wine? when they ^eswooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to ^fwitness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, ^gO virgin daughter of Zion? for thy ^hbreach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and ⁱfoolish things for thee: and they have not ^jdiscovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false ^kburdens and causes of banishment.

15 ^lAll that pass by clap their hands at thee; ^mthey hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The ⁿperfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine ^oenemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and ^pgnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the ^qday that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had ^rdevised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and ^shath not pitied: and he hath caused thine ^tenemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 ^uTheir heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, ^vlet tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches ^wpour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, ^xthat faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 ¶ Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. ^yShall the women eat their fruit, and children of a ^zspan long? shall the ^{aa}priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 The ^{bb}young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the ^{cc}sword; thou hast ^{dd}slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast ^{ee}killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day my ^{ff}terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy ^{gg}consumed.

III. Jeremiah Shares his Nation's Affliction

3 I am the man that hath seen ^{hh}affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and ⁱⁱbrought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely ^{jj}against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 ^{kk}My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my ^{ll}bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with ^{mm}gall and travail.

6 ⁿⁿHe hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 ^{oo}He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath ^{pp}made my chain heavy.

8 ^{qq}Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath ^ainclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my ^bpaths crooked.

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 ^cHe hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my ^dreins.

14 I was a ^ederision to all my people; and their ^fsong all the day.

15 ^gHe hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with ^hgravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot prosperity.

18 And I said, My strength and ⁱmy hope is perished from the LORD:

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath ^jthem still in remembrance, and is ^khumbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I ^lhope.

Jeremiah speaks of God's faithfulness

22 ¶ ^m*It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail ⁿnot.*

23 ^o*They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.*

24 The LORD is ^pmy portion, saith my soul; therefore will I ^qhope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that ^rwait for him, to the soul ^sthat seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both ^thope and quietly ^uwait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne ^vit upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be ^wthere may be hope.

30 He giveth ^xhis cheek to him that ^ysmiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 ^zFor the Lord will not cast off for ever:

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have ^{aa}compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 ^{ab}For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most High, 36 To subvert a man in his cause, ^{ac}the Lord approveth not.

37 ¶ ^{ad}Who is he ^{ae}that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

38 ^{af}Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth ^{ag}not evil and good?

39 ^{ah}Wherefore doth a living man ^{ai}complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

A call to self-judgment and confession

40 Let us ^{aj}search and ^{ak}try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us ^{al}lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

42 We have ^{am}transgressed and have rebelled: ^{an}thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast ^{ao}slain, thou hast not pitied.

3:22 This beautiful passage (vv. 22-27) sounds a note of hope and trust amid the gloom of the book. Even his grief cannot blind the prophet to the abiding faithfulness of the LORD (compare also vv. 31-33, 40-41, 55-58).

IV. Horrors of the Siege of Jerusalem

4 How is the gold become ^{aa}dim! ⁴*how* is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as ^{bb}earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the sea monsters draw out the breast, they give ^{cc}suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become ^{dd}cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the ^{ee}sucking child ^{ff}cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ^{gg}ask bread, and no man breaketh ⁱⁱit unto them.

5 They that did ^{hh}feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the ⁱⁱsin of Sodom, ^{jj}that was overthrown as in a moment, ^{kk}and no hands ^{ll}stayed on her.

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

Author:
Ezekiel

Theme:
Judgment and Glory

Date of writing:
6th Century B.C.

Background

Ezekiel, a priest whose name means God will strengthen, was among the Jewish exiles carried away to Babylon between the first and final deportations of Judah (2 Kings 24:11–16). His book shows him as a man of stern integrity and strong purpose, completely devoted to the practices of his priestly religion. Like Daniel and the Apostle John, he prophesied outside the land of Judah; and his prophecy, like theirs, follows the method of symbol and vision. Unlike the pre-exilic prophets, whose ministry was primarily either to Judah or to the ten-tribe kingdom, or to both, Ezekiel was the voice of the LORD to “the whole house of Israel.” In marked contrast with Jeremiah, all of the material in Ezekiel’s prophecy is arranged in chronological order as God revealed it to him.

Speaking broadly, the purpose of Ezekiel’s ministry was to keep before the generation born in exile the national sins which had brought Israel so low (for example, Ezekiel 14:23); to sustain the faith of the exiles by predictions of national restoration, of the execution of justice upon their oppressors, and of national glory under the Davidic monarchy.

God’s Relationship with Man

Observe that the glory of the LORD departed from the city just before the destruction of Jerusalem (11:23); this glory will return to Jerusalem in the millennial period (43:2). No Temple in Jerusalem has known the presence of the glory of God in this manner since 586 B.C.

I. The Call of Ezekiel, 1-3

Occasion of Ezekiel's first vision:
the glory of the LORD

1 Now it came to pass in the ^athirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives ^bby the river of Chebar, that the heavens were ^copened, and I saw ^dvisions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the ^ehand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 ¶ And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came ^fout of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and ^gout of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of ^hfour living creatures. And this was ⁱtheir appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had ^jfour faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of ^kburnished ^lbrass.

8 And ^mthey had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight ⁿforward.

10 As for the ^olikeness of their ^pfaces, they ^qfour had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and ^rtheir wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.

12 And they ^swent every one straight forward: ^twhither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the ^uappearance of a flash of lightning.

EZEKIEL'S VISION

In exile, far from the sight of the glory of God's earthly temple, surrounded by the pomp of idolatry, Ezekiel received a vision of the majesty and wonder of God's glory, showing that his God was more magnificent than anything to be found in heathenism, and impressing on his mind the greatness of the unseen God of Israel. The vision indicated that the affairs of the world are not directed by impersonal laws of nature, but by a living Spirit (vv. 20-21). Above the babel of man's plans, the authoritative voice of God speaks (v. 24).

The four faces in the vision (v. 10) prefigure the four aspects in which God would reveal Himself when He incarnated Himself in human flesh as Messiah.

On the right is the lion, symbol of kingship (Matthew).

On the left is the ox, symbol of the Servant (Mark).

The face of a man represents His perfect humanity (Luke).

The eagle, soaring overhead, symbolizes His Deity (John). Compare also Rev. 4:7.

1:1 fourth month. This is the month of Tammuz in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of June-July. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2. river of Chebar. A large canal between the Euphrates and Tigris Rivers.

Ezekiel: whom God will strengthen. A major prophet who prophesied the fall of Jerusalem to the Jews in exile in Babylonia. His book of Ezekiel records many of his visions as well as the hope of the coming Messiah.

1:2 fifth year. Approximately 593 B.C. 2 Ki. 24:12-15.

1:3 priest. Since Ezekiel was a priest, it is possible to trace priestly indications throughout his prophecy. His visions of the divine glory (chs. 1 and 10) are reminiscent of the Shekinah in the Mosaic system. The stages of the departure of the glory (chs. 8-11) are described by one familiar with the priestly order. Chapters 40-48 are admittedly couched in terms understandable only in the framework of the Levitical appointments. Even details of the priesthood, such as the prohibition against defilement of the priest (4:13f.), and the profanation of the Sabbath (20:12f.; 22:8) are found.

15 ¶ Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was ^alike unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and ^bthey turned not when they went.

18 As for their ^crings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their ^crings were ^dfull of eyes round about them four.

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 ^eWhithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, ^fthither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up ^gover against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 ^hWhen those went, these went; and when those ⁱstood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up ^jover against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible ^kcrystal, stretched forth over their heads ^kabove.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their ^lwings, like the ^mnoise of great waters, ⁿas the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, ^oas the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¶ And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, ^pas the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon ^qit.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 ^rAs is the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the ^sglory of the LORD. And when I saw it, ^tI fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

1:26 man. Evidently a Christophany. Compare Isa. 6:1; Jn. 12:41.

2:1 Son of man. The expression "son of man" is a common Semitic way of indicating an individual man (Ps. 4:2; 57:4; 58:1; 144:3; Jer. 49:18,33; 50:40; 51:43). God addresses Ezekiel about ninety times by this title. In Dan. 7:13 the term is used to show that an actual man will come in the clouds of heaven to receive a worldwide kingdom. From this use in Daniel it came to refer to the glorious Messiah, and in such a sense Jesus utilized it, calling Himself "the Son of man" nearly eighty times in the Gospels.

CHERUBIMS

The living creatures are identified as the cherubims in 10:20. The cherubims are symbolic of God's holy presence and unapproachability. They are celestial beings who guard and vindicate the righteousness of God (compare Gen. 3:24; Ex. 26:1,31; 36:8,35), the mercy of God (compare Ex. 25:22; 37:9), and the government of God (compare 1 Sam. 4:4; Ps. 80:1; 99:1; Ezek. 1:22,26). In the holy of holies God's glory dwelt between the cherubims (Ps. 80:1; compare Ex. 25:10-22). Some think that the living creatures of Rev. 4 are cherubims (besides points of similarity, observe dissimilarity to the cherubims in number of wings: Ezek. 1:6; 10:21; Rev. 4:8; compare Isa. 6:2). This dissimilarity may indicate that these beings have power to appear in different forms for purposes of symbolic revelation.

me when he ^aspoke unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath ^brebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are impudent children and ^cstiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will ^dforbear, (for they are a ^erebellious house,) *fy*et shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, be ^gnot afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, ^hthough briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt ⁱspeak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious.

8 But ^jthou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; ^kBe not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and ^leat that I give thee.

9 ¶ And when I looked, ^mbehold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a ⁿroll of a book was therein;

10 And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and ^owoe.

Ezekiel, God's watchman

3 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this ^proll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that ^qroll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, ^rcause thy belly to eat, and fill thy ^sbowels with this ^troll that I give thee. ^uThen did I eat it; and it was ^vin my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art ^wnot sent to a people of a ^xstrange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have ^yheardened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will ^znot hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are ^{aa}impudent and hardhearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 ^{bb}As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: ^{cc}fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will ^{dd}forbear.

12 Then the ^{ee}spirit ^{ff}took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the ^{gg}glory of the LORD from his place.

13 I heard also the ^{hh}noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels ⁱⁱffover against them, and a noise of a ^{jj}great rushing.

14 So the ^{kk}spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in ^{ll}bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the ^{mm}hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

24 Then the ^ospirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put ^pbands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue ^qcleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be ^rdumb, and shalt ^snot be to them a reprover: for they are a ^trebellious house.

3:22 Arise, go forth. Evidently this command to arise and go to the plain where the LORD appeared to him, as at the River Chebar, was given to Ezekiel after he had carried out the commission of vv. 17–21 and the people had turned against him. Then the LORD struck Ezekiel mute (v. 26), so that he was obliged to communicate by symbolic actions. Only when God had a special message to give through him could he speak (v. 27). This condition continued until the prophecy of judgment upon Jerusalem was fulfilled (24:25–27; 33:21–22).

4:1 take thee a tile. The symbolic actions during the prophet's inability to speak were testimonies to the past wickedness and chastisement of the house of Israel (the whole nation), and prophetic of a coming seige. They are therefore intermediate between the siege of 2 Ki. 24:10–16, at which time Ezekiel was carried to Babylon, and the siege of 2 Ki. 25:1–11, eleven years later.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee ^ceach day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, I will lay ^dbands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and ^efitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an ^ghin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus ^hshall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the ⁱGentiles, ^jwhither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, ^kAh Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of ^litself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there ^mabominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread ⁿtherewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the ^ostaff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall ^peat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with ^qastonishment:

17 That they may ^rwant bread and water, and be ^sastonied one with another, and ^tconsume away for their iniquity.

(3) The razor and the hair

5 And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and ^ucause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the ^vhair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the ^wcity, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a ^xknife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after ^ythem.

10 Therefore the ^ffathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I ^gscatter into all the winds.

8:3 EZEKIEL'S FOUR VISIONS

The four visions of ch. 8 emphasize the profanation of God in the very temple set aside to His worship. Idolatry was present and unchecked (vv. 5, 10-11); women were participating in the immoral cult of Tammuz; and sun worshippers brazenly turned their backs to the temple (v. 16).

Although Ezekiel was actually by the river Chebar (1:1,3; 3:23; 10:15,20,22; 43:3), in a vision he was transported back to Jerusalem. These profanations going on in the temple area were shown to the prophet so that he might justify to the new generation, born and growing up in Assyria and Babylon, the righteousness of God in the present chastening. Because of sins like these, past and present, the captivities were necessitated. This strain continues through the book to 33:21.

Interspersed with the various visions are promises of restoration and blessing to be brought about by Israel's repentance. See Israel (Gen. 12:2-3; Rom. 11:26, note); also Kingdom (O.T.) (Gen. 1:26-28; Zech. 12:6-8 and note at v. 8).

hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the ^aspirit ^blifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; ^cwhere was the seat of the image of jealousy, ^dwhich provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the ^eglory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

The temple defiled

5 ¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar ^fthis image of jealousy ^gin the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great ^habominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every ⁱform of ^jcreeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, poured upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them ^kseventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his ^lcenser in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us ^mnot; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, ⁿbetween the porch and the altar, were about ^ofive and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the ^psun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? ^qfor they have filled the land with violence, and have ^rreturned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: ^smine eye shall not ^tspare, neither will I have pity: and though they ^ucry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

9 He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the ^lland is full of blood, and ^mthe city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth ⁿnot.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall ^onot spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head.

9 And when I looked, behold the ^bfour wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as ^cthe colour of a beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 ^dWhen they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were ^efull of eyes round about, seven the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 And ^gevery one had ^hfour ⁱfaces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. ^jThis is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the ^kspirit of the living creature was in ^lthem.

18 Then the glory of the LORD ^mdeparted from off the threshold of the house, and ⁿstood over the cherubims.

19 And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the ⁿeast gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 ^oThis is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 ^pEvery one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight ^qforward.

11 Moreover the ^rspirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the ^seast gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate ^tfive and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of ^uAzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that ^vdevise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

3 Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: ^wthis city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 ¶ Therefore ^xprophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And the ^ySpirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I ^zknow the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have ^{aa}multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the ^{bb}caldron: but I will ^{cc}bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have ^{cc}feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD.

Promise of restoration of remnant of Israel to the land

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and ^lall the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: ^munto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the ⁿheathen, and although I have ^oscattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little ^psanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even ^qgather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come ^rthither, and they shall take away all the ^sde-

19 And I will ^ugive them one heart, and I will ^vput a new spirit within you; and I will take the ^wstony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an ^xheart of flesh:

11:16 sanctuary. Even in drastic judgment, as in the case of the dispersion of Israel, God provides for His people a place of refuge. This refuge, called here "a little sanctuary," is the LORD Himself (compare Ps. 90:1; 91:9; Isa. 4:6). So with all of God's own, Gentile as well as Jew, in the midst of deserved judgment there is still a sanctuary of refuge and peace in Him.

11:23 city. The departure of the divine glory (the visible symbol of God's presence) from the temple, marks the end of the theocratic kingdom in O.T. history. On the mount of transfiguration the glory of God was manifested to our Lord's disciples (Mt. 17:1-5; compare also Jn. 1:14; 2 Cor. 4:6; Jas. 2:1; 2 Pet. 1:16-18). The visible glory will return when the kingdom is restored to Israel (Ezek. 43:1-7; Rev. 21:22-24).

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy ^bstuff by day in their sight, as ^bstuff for removing; and thou shalt go forth at ^ceven ^din their sight, as they that go forth into captivity.

5 Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a ^esign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my ^bstuff by day, as ^bstuff for captivity, and in the ^ceven I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 ¶ And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, ^gWhat doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; This ^hburden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

12 And the ^kprince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net also will I ^lspread upon him, and ^mhe shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he ⁿnot see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will ^oscatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall ^pknow that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the ^qheathen ^rwhither they come; and they shall ^sknow that I am the LORD.

Lying prophets condemned

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy ^eagainst the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own ^fhearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe unto the ^gfoolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and ^hhave seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the ⁱday of the LORD.

6 They have seen ^kvanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith: and the LORD hath ^lnot sent them: and they have made ^mothers to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And mine hand shall be ⁿupon the prophets that see vanity, and that ^odivine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, ^pneither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, ^qneither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even ^xrend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower ^yin mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered morter, and bring it down to the ground, so that the ^zfoundation thereof shall be ^{aa}discovered, and it shall fall, and ^{bb}ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall ^{cc}know that I am the LORD.

15 ¶ If I cause ^anoisome ^bbeasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be ^cdesolate.

17 ¶ Or if I bring a ^dsword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I ^ecut off man and beast from it:

18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

19 ¶ Or if I send a ^fpestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 Though ^gNoah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord GOD; How much more when I send my ^hfour ⁱsore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the ^jnoisome beast, and the ^kpestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

22 ¶ Yet, behold, therein shall be

23 And they shall ^ocomfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done ^pwithout cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord GOD.

Parable of the vine tree
(cp. Isa. 5:1-24)

15 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, What is the ^qvine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast into the ^rfire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the ^smidst of it is burned. Is it ^tmeet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was ^umeet for no work: how much less shall it be ^vmeet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As the ^wvine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

14:14 Noah, Daniel, and Job. Many see here important contemporaneous testimony to the historicity and character of Daniel, who was still living when Ezekiel wrote. Compare vv. 16, 18, 20; also Jer. 15:1. It is a tribute to Daniel's character that he, though still a young man, is linked with Noah and Job.

Noah: rest. A righteous, God-fearing man who obeyed God's order to build an ark thus saving himself, his family and the living creatures on earth from a devastating flood.

Daniel: God's judge. A wise man and possibly a prophet who lived at the same time as Ezekiel.

Job: one persecuted. A righteous man who probably lived during the time of Abraham. He was tested by Satan but remained faithful to God in spite of his afflictions and loss.

THE VINE

The vine, as described by Ezekiel, symbolizes unregenerate man in general and sinful Israel in particular. Just as the vine wood is tough, twisted, unworkable, and fit only for fuel, so Israel, recalcitrant in sin, is fit only for judgment.

Whereas in ch. 15 (and in Isa. 5 also) the vine pictures only judgment, in Jn. 15 Christ uses it to portray the living union between Himself and the believer. Here the intrinsic worthlessness of the wood is wholly subordinated to the single, positive function of the vine—that of bearing fruit. Thus our Lord takes the figure of the vine wood, representative in Ezekiel of humanity ruined in sin, and transforms it into the parable of Himself as the Vine and Christians as His branches, bearing fruit for Him.

7 And I will ^aset my face against them; ^bthey shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land desolate, ^cbecause they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD.

The LORD's grace to unfaithful Jerusalem

16 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her ^dabominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto Jerusalem; Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an ^eAmorite, and thy mother an ^fHittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, ^gin the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to ^hsupple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 ⁱNone eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the lothing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, ^jLive; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 ^kI have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and ^lwaxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of ^mlove; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I ⁿswore unto thee, and entered into a ^ocovenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and ^pthou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I ^qthoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I ^ranointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with ^sbroi-dered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I ^tdecked thee also with ornaments, and I put ^ubracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel ^von thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a ^wbeautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and ^xbroi-dered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and ^ythou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a ^zkingdom.

14 And thy ^{aa}renown went forth among the ^{bb}heathen for thy ^{cc}beauty: for it was perfect through my ^{dd}comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD.

She becomes a harlot

15 ¶ But thou didst ^{ee}trust ^{ff}in thine own beauty, and ^{gg}playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pourest out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy ^{hh}high places with ⁱⁱdivers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver,

16:3 Hittite. Until the twentieth century the Hittites were unknown apart from the Bible. This once puzzling reference to them has, however, been illuminated by the findings of archaeology. From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000– which I had given thee, and madest to thyself ^aimages of men, and didst commit ^bwhoredom with them, 18 And tookest thy ^cbroidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

16:15 trust. Trust is the characteristic O.T. word for the N.T. "faith" and "believe." It occurs 154 times in the O.T., and is the rendering of Hebrew words that mean to take refuge (Ps. 2:12); to lean on (Ps. 56:3); to roll on (Ps. 22:8). playedst the harlot. An expression that, in the spiritual realm, denotes worship of the gods of the nations.

19 My ^dmeat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD.

20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast ^eborne unto me, and these hast thou ^fsacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of ^gthy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the ^hfire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and ⁱthy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy ^jyouth, when thou wast ^knaked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord GOD;)

24 That thou hast also built unto thee an ^leminent place, and ^mhast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made ⁿthy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied ^othy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the ^pEgyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased ^qthy whoredoms, to ^rprovoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have ^sstretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the ^tPhilistines, which are ^urashamed of thy lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the ^vwhore also with the ^wAssyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto ^xChaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these ^ythings, the work of an ^zimperious ^{aa}whorish woman;

31 In that thou buildest thine ^{ab}eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest ^{ac}hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all ^{ad}whores: but thou givest thy ^{ae}gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for ^{af}thy whoredom.

34 And ^{ag}as the contrary is in thee from other women in ^{ah}thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit ^{ai}whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art ^{aj}contrary.

Her judgment prophesied

35 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD:

36 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy filthiness was ^{ak}poured out, and thy nakedness ^{al}discovered through ^{am}thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all ^{an}the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 Behold, therefore I will gather all thy ^{ao}lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all ^{ap}them that thou hast loved, with all ^{aq}them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will ^{ar}discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, ^{as}as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood ^{at}in fury and jealousy.

Parable of the two eagles (vv. 3,7)

17 And the word of the LORD came unto me, ^lsaying,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; A great ⁿeagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had ^odivers colours, came unto ^pLebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of ^qtraffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a ^rfruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a ^swillow tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward ^thim, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a ^ugoodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? ^vshall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, ^wbeing planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the ^xeast wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

deal truly; he is just, he shall surely ^alive, saith the Lord GOD.

10 ¶ If he beget a son that is a robber, a ^bshedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the ^cpoor and needy, hath ^aspoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, ^ehath committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon ^fusury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his ^gblood shall be upon him.

14 ¶ Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not ^hsuch like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not ⁱwithholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath ^jgiven his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received ^kusury nor increase, hath executed my ^ljudgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the ^miniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is ⁿlawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The ^osoul that sinneth, it shall die. The ^oson shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the ^prighteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the ^qwickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will ^rturn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 ^sAll his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall ^tlive.

23 ^uHave I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and ^vlive?

24 ¶ But when the righteous ^wturneth away from his righteousness, and committeth ^xiniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall ^ynot be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he ^zdie.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, The ^{aa}way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; ^{bb}Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

18:24 ETERNAL SECURITY

This and similar passages in Ezekiel (e.g. 3:17-21; 33:10-20) have been understood by some to teach that a Christian may lose his righteous standing before God. But in support of the security of the believer it should be observed that these passages in Ezekiel do not necessarily teach the eternal loss of a saved person, because the word "righteous" may refer to ceremonial religion (compare Mt. 5:20) and not to "the righteousness which is of God by faith" (compare Phil. 3:7-9).

Moreover, the punishment threatened may refer only to physical death rather than to eternal death. In any case, these texts in Ezekiel must be considered in the light of such N.T. affirmations as Jn. 10:28; Rom. 5:8-9; 8:38-39; Phil. 1:6; etc. that so clearly teach the security of the believer.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one ^aaccording to his ways, saith the Lord GOD. ^bRepent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ ^cCast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a ^dnew heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 ^eFor I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves, and flive ye.

Lament for the princes of Israel

19 Moreover take thou up a lamentation for the ^hprinces of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? A ⁱlioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was ^jtaken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of ^kEgypt.

5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 And he ^lwent up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.

7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and ^mthe land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

8 ⁿThen the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in ^oward in chains, and ^pbrought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into ^qholds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

10 ¶ Thy mother is like a ^rvine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature ^swas exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was ^tplucked up in fury, she was ^ucast down to the ground, and the ^veast wind dried up her fruit: her ^wstrong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in the ^xwilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

14 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong ^yrod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

came to enquire of the LORD, and ^asat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^bAre ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will ^cnot be enquired of by you.

4 Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? ^dcause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

5 ¶ And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when I ^echose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to ^fbring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had ^gespied for them, ^hflowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, ⁱCast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and ^jdefile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: ^kI am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, ^lneither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will ^mpour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I ⁿwrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the ^oheathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself ^pknown unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 ¶ Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 And ^qI gave them my statutes, and shewed them my ^rjudgments, which if a man do, he shall even ^slive in them.

12 Moreover also I gave them my ^tsabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my ^ujudgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they ^vgreatly polluted: then I said, I would ^wpour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 ^xBut I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the ^yheathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 ^zYet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;

16 Because they despised my ^{aa}judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: ^{bb}for their heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, ^{cc}Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ^{dd}judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:

19 ^{ee}I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my ^{ff}judgments, and do them;

^p Josh. 2:10; 9:9-10

20:14 For my name's sake expresses one of God's motives in dealing with humanity. Although it means so little to most men, the name of the LORD is infinitely precious to Him. See 36:20, where the LORD says of unfaithful Israel,

"they profaned my holy name," and the following verse, where He says of Himself, "I had pity for mine holy name." Consistent with His holiness, God is concerned to vindicate the honor of His name.

walked not in my statutes, neither kept my ^ajudgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless I ^bwithdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the ^cheathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would ^dscatter them among the ^eheathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 Because they had not ^eexecuted my ^ajudgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore I ^fgave them also statutes that were not good, and ^ajudgments whereby they should not live;

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all ^gthat openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Yet in this your fathers have ^hblasphemed me, in that they have ⁱcommitted a trespass against me.

28 For when I had ⁱbrought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they ^ksaw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go?

And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye ^j'polluted after the manner of your ^mfathers? and commit ye ⁿwhoredom after their ^oabominations?

31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye ^pmake your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will ^qnot be enquired of by you.

32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the ^rheathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

God will establish Israel in her land

33 ¶ As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely ^swith a mighty ^thand, and with ^ua stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, ^v'will I ^wrule over you:

34 And ^xI will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a ^ystretched out arm, and ^zwith fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I ^{aa}xplead with you face to face.

36 ^{bb}'Like as I ^{cc}xpleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I ^{cc}xplead with you, saith the Lord GOD.

37 And I will cause you to ^{dd}pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the ^{dd}covenant:

38 And I will ^{ee}purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall ^{ee}not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

k Ezek. 6:13

20:29 Bamah. That is, High place, vv. 28-29; see Jud. 3:7 and 1 Ki. 3:2, notes.

20:37 pass under the rod. The passage is a prophecy of future judgment upon Israel, regathered from all nations (Gen. 12:3; see notes at Isa. 1:26 and Rom. 11:26). The issue of this judgment determines who of Israel in that day will enter kingdom blessing (Ps. 50:1-7; Ezek. 20:33-44; Mal. 3:2-5; 4:1-2). Regarding other judgments, see notes at Mt. 25:32; Jn. 12:31; 1 Cor. 11:31; 2 Cor. 5:10; Jude 6; Rev. 20:12.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; ^aGo ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but ^bpollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, ^call of them in the land, serve me: there will I ^daccept them, and there will I ^erequire your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I ^fwill accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and ^gI will be sanctified in you before the ^hheathen.

42 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, ⁱwhen I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye ^jremember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall ^klothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, ^lnor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

45 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and ^mdrop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against ⁿthe forest of the ^osouth field;

47 And say to the forest of the ^osouth, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will ^pkindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the ^qflaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces ^rfrom the south to the north shall be burned therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: ^sit shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak ^tparables?

*Signs of the sighing prophet:
parable of the sword of the LORD*

21 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^uset thy face toward Jerusalem, and ^vdrop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am ^wagainst thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the ^xrighteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against ^yall flesh from the south to the north:

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall ^znot return any more.

6 ^{aa}Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with ^{bb}the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, ^{cc}Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be ^{dd}feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD.

8 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, A ^{ee}sword, a sword is ^{ff}sharpened, and also ^{gg}furbished:

10 It is sharpened to make a ^{hh}sore slaughter; it is ⁱⁱfurbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? ^{jj}it ^{kk}contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be ^{ll}furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is ^{mm}furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the ^aprinces of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: ^bsmite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword ^ccontemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord GOD.

14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and ^dsmite thine hands together, and let ^ethe sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their ^fprivy chambers.

15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that ^g*their* heart may faint, and ^h*their* ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter.

16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, ⁱwhithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also smite ^j*mine* hands together, and I will cause my ^kifury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

Jerusalem's doom inevitable

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, ^lappoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: ^mboth twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 ⁿAppoint a way, that the sword may come to ^oRabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the ^pdefenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, ^qto use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the ^rliver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, ^sto appoint battering rams against the gates, ^tto cast a ^umount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn ^voaths: but ^whe will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are ^xdiscovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

No Davidic king till Messiah comes to reign (vv. 26-27; Rev. 19:11-20:6)

25 ¶ And thou, ^yprofane wicked prince of Israel, whose ^zday is come, when iniquity shall have an end,

26 Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^{aa}Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: ^{ab}exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 I will ^{ac}overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and ^{ad}it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it ^{ae}him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD ^{af}concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is ^{ag}ffurbished, to consume because of the glittering:

29 Whiles they see ^{ah}gvanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, ^{ai}hhwhose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 Shall I cause it to ^{aj}return into his sheath? I will ^{ak}judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the ^{al}kkland of thy nativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will ^{am}blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of ^{an}mmbrutish men, and skilful to ^{ao}nndestroy.

Sins of Israel enumerated

22 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the ^cbloody city? yea, thou ^dshalt shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, The ^ecity sheddeth ^fblood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast ^gshed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which ^hthou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: ⁱtherefore have I made thee a reproach unto the ^jheathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed.

6 Behold, the ^kprinces of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they ^lset light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the ^mstranger: in thee have they vexed the ⁿfatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast ^oprofaned my sabbaths.

9 In thee are men that carry ^ptales to shed blood: and in thee they ^qeat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they ^rcommit lewdness.

10 In thee have they ^sdiscovered ^ttheir fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was ^uset apart for pollution.

11 And one hath committed abomination with his ^vneighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his ^wdaughter in law; and another in thee hath ^xhumiliated his sister, his father's ^ydaughter.

12 In thee have they taken ^zgifts to shed blood; thou hast taken ^{aa}usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours ^{bb}by extortion, and hast ^{cc}forgotten me, saith the Lord GOD.

13 ¶ Behold, therefore I have ^{dd}smitten mine hand at thy ^{ee}dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy ^{ff}blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can ^{gg}thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? ^{hh}I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And I will ⁱⁱscatter thee among the ^{jj}heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will ^{kk}consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the ^{ll}heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

Parable of the dross in the furnace

17 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become ^{mm}dross: all they are ⁿⁿbrass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the ^{oo}furnace; they are even the dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 As they gather silver, and ^{pp}brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to ^{qq}melt it; so will ^{rr}I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and ^{ss}blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have ^{tt}poured out my fury upon you.

Thou art the land that is ^anot cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 There is a ^bconspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the ^ctreasure and precious things; they have ^dmade her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her ^epriests have violated my ^flaw, and have ^gprofaned mine holy things: they have put ^hno difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the ⁱunclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her ^jprinces in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have daubed them with ^kuntempered morter, ^lseeing vanity, and divining ^mlies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used ⁿoppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the ^ostranger wrongfully.

30 And I sought for a man among them, that should ^pmake up the hedge, and ^qstand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found ^rnone.

Parable of Aholah (Israel) and Aholibah (Judah)

23 The word of the LORD came again unto me, ^tsaying,

2 Son of man, there were two women, the ^udaughters of one mother:

3 And they committed ^vwhoredoms in Egypt; they committed ^wwhoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the ^xteats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her ^ysister: and ^zthey were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on ^{aa}the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her ^{bb}whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she ^{cc}ade-filed herself.

8 Neither left she her ^{dd}whoredoms ^{ee}brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and ^{ff}poured their ^{gg}whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of ^{hh}the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These ⁱⁱdiscovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became ^{jj}famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

23:3 whoredoms. This dark parable of Aholah and Aholibah unmasks the loathsome nature of unfaithfulness to God and provides a corrective for any light view of apostasy. The picture, revolting though it is, shows the awfulness of spiritual adultery whereby the LORD's people, who are one with Him as bride with bridegroom, repudiate their union with Him and give themselves to the service of the world, the flesh, and the devil. Compare Jas. 4:4.

23:4 Aholah. Meaning (She has) her own tent. See 2 Chr. 10:16 and Hos. 1:10, notes. Aholibah. Meaning My tent (is) in her. See 2 Ki. 17:23, note.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was ^amore corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her ^bwhoredoms more than her sister in her ^bwhoredoms.

12 She doted upon the ^cAssyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her ^bwhoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the ^dChaldeans pourtrayed with vermillion,

15 Girded with ^egirdles upon their loins, ^fexceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And as ^gsoon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent ^hmessengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their ⁱwhoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.

18 So she ^jdiscovered her ^bwhoredoms, and ^jdiscovered her nakedness: then ^kmy mind was ^lalienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her ^msister.

19 Yet she multiplied her ^bwhoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of ⁿEgypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy ^oteats by the ^pEgyptians for the ^qpaps of thy youth.

The Babylonian invasion

22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord GOD; ^rBehold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The ^sBabylonians, and all the ^tChaldeans, ^uPekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with ^vchariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will ^wset judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my ^xjealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy ^ysons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be ^zdevoured by the fire.

26 They shall also ^{aa}strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus will I ^{bb}make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy ⁱwhoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will deliver thee ^{cc}into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy ^{dd}mind is alienated:

29 ^{ee}And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy ^bwhoredoms shall be ^{ff}discovered, both thy lewdness and thy ^bwhoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast ^{gg}gone a whoring after the ^{hh}heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with ^adrunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of ^bastonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even ^cdrink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast ^dforgotten me, and ^ecast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy ^fwhoredoms.

Judgment of Aholah and Aholibah

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou ^gjudge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, ^hdeclare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and ⁱblood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their ^jsons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have ^kdefiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day ^linto my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, ^mthus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a ⁿmessenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, ^opaintedst thy eyes, and ^pdeckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a ^qstately bed, and a ^rtable prepared before it, whereupon thou hast ^sset mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from the wilderness, ^twhich put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was ^uold in adulteries, Will they now commit ^vwhoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men, they shall ^wjudge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that ^xshed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will ^ybring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with ^zstones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall ^{aa}slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be ^{bb}taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall ^{cc}know that I am the Lord GOD.

3 And utter a ^aparable unto the ^brebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Set on a ^cpot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the ^dchoice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them ^eseethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; ^fWoe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no ^glot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she ^hpoured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; ⁱWoe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it ^jempty upon the coals thereof, that the ^kbrass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be ^lmolten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

15 ¶ Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

19 ¶ And the people said unto me, ^{aa}Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou ^{ab}doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will ^{bb}profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the ^{cc}desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your ^{dd}sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

Prophecy against Ammon

25 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against the ^aAmmonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^eBecause thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

4 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the ^fmen of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall ^geat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make ^hRabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a ⁱcouchingplace for flocks: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

6 For thus saith the Lord GOD; ^jBecause thou hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and ^krejoiced in heart with all thy spite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore I ^lwill stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the ^mheathen; and I will ⁿcut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to ^operish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

Prophecy against Moab

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because that ^pMoab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the ^qheathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, ^rBeth-jeshimoth, ^sBaal-meon, and ^tKiriathaim,

10 Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Prophecy against Edom

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^uBecause that ^vEdom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will ^wcut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of ^xDedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom ^yaccording to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD.

25:2 Ammonites. During the course of the siege of Jerusalem, Ezekiel turned his attention entirely to prophecies concerning foreign nations (25:1—32:32).

Ammonites: The people of the country of Ammon, located east of the Jordan River.

Moab: progeny of a father. The region outside of Israel, located south of the Arnon River and east of the Dead Sea.

25:8 Thus saith the Lord GOD. The prophecies upon Gentile powers (see v. 2, note) have doubtless had partial fulfillments of which history and the present condition of those cities and countries bear witness, but the mention of the day of the LORD (30:3) makes it evident that a fulfillment in the final sense is still future. See Day of the LORD (Isa. 2:10-22; Joel 1:15 and Rev. 19:19, notes); also Armageddon (Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17, note). Those countries are once more to be the battleground of the nations.

17 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall ^dknow that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

26:14 THE FATE OF TYRE

The fate predicted for Tyre is unique and has been remarkably fulfilled. At the time of Ezekiel, Tyre was on the coast of Phoenicia at the shore of the Mediterranean Sea. As Ezekiel predicted, Nebuchadrezzar conquered and destroyed the city. He had no reason, however, to fulfill v. 12 by casting its ruins into the sea. Some of the people from Tyre escaped to an island and built a new city there.

Three hundred years later Alexander the Great, desiring to conquer this island city, built a causeway to it and threw all the remains of ancient Tyre (called Palaeo-tyrus by the Greeks) into the sea, fulfilling Ezek. 26:12. The old city of Tyre has never been rebuilt, but has remained like the top of a rock. Remains of ancient Sidon (28:20-24) have been excavated, and a flourishing town now stands on its old site, but the remains of ancient Tyre are in the sea under Alexander's causeway.

25:15 The Philistines' sustained animosity toward Israel, remembered chiefly from Goliath's challenge to David, required God's judgment upon them.

the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the ^aprinces of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their ^bbroided garments: they shall ^cclothe themselves with trembling; and they shall sit upon the ground, and shall ^dtremble at every moment, and be ^eastonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a ^flamentation for thee, and say to thee, ^gHow art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast ^hstrong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that ⁱhaunt it!

18 ^jNow shall the ^kisles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy ^ldeparture.

19 For thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall ^mbring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee;

20 When I shall bring thee down ⁿwith them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee ^oin the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living;

21 I will make thee a ^pterror, and thou shalt be no more: ^qthough thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found ^ragain, saith the Lord GOD.

Lament over Tyre (cp. Rev. 18:1-24) merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present ^ahorns of ivory and ebony.

16 ^bSyria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they ^coccupied in thy fairs with ^demeralds, purple, and ^ebrodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.

17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market ^fwheat of ^gMin-nith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.

18 ^hDamascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro ⁱoccupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots.

21 Arabia, and all the princes of ^jKedar, they occupied with thee in ^klambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of Sheba and ^lRamah, they were thy merchants: they ^moccupied in thy fairs with ⁿchief of all ^ospices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 ^pHaran, and Canneh, and ^qEden, the merchants of ^rSheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and ^sbrodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

26 ¶ Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the ^teast wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.

27 Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the ^uoccupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 ^vThe ^wsuburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their ^xheads, they shall ^ywallow themselves in the ashes:

31 And they shall make themselves utterly ^zbald for thee, and ^{aa}gird them with sackcloth, and they shall ^{bb}weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a ^{cc}lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, ^{dd}What city is like Tyrus, like the ^{ee}destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 When thy ^{ff}wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the ^{gg}multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

34 In the time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters thy ^{hh}merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the ⁱⁱisles shall be ^{jj}astonished at thee, and their kings shall be ^{kk}sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people shall ^{ll}hiss at thee; thou shalt be a ^{mm}terror, and never shalt be any ⁿⁿmore.

Tarshish: a city of a distant land, possibly Spain, that was rich in metals.

^aBecause thine heart is ^blifted up, and thou hast said, I am a ^cGod, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the ^dseas; yet ^ethou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

5 By thy great wisdom and by thy ⁱtraffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy ^jriches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore I will bring ^kstrangers upon thee, the ^lterrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the ^mpit, and thou shalt ⁿdie the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

14 Thou art the anointed ^ycherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy ^zmountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till ^{aa}iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have ^{bb}filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will ^{cc}cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine ^{dd}heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy ^{ee}traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will ^{ff}bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

28:12 Thou sealest . . . Here in vv. 11-17, as in Isa. 14:12-17, the language goes beyond the king of Tyre to Satan, inspirer and unseen ruler of all such pomp and pride as that of Tyre. Gen. 3:14-15 and Mt. 16:23 are other instances of thus indirectly addressing Satan. The unfallen state of Satan is here described; his fall is written in Isa. 14. See Rev. 20:10, note. Moreover, the vision is not of Satan in his own person, but of Satan fulfilling himself through an earthly king who arrogates to himself divine honors, so that the prince of Tyre foreshadows the beast (Dan. 7:8; Rev. 19:20).

28:19 Verses 1-19 contain references to the ruler and the king of Tyre (vv. 1,12); to Satan (v. 12, see note); and evidently to the city of Tyre (vv. 7-8,18-19). Other Scriptures make clear that neither the destiny of unsaved men nor of Satan involves cessation of being (Mt. 18:8; 25:41,46; Mk. 3:29; 2 Th. 1:9; Heb. 6:2; Jude 6,13; Rev. 14:11; 20:10). Existence on earth is what is involved here.

Prophecy against Zidon

20 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, ^aset thy face against ^bZidon, and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O ^cZidon; and I will be ^dglorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have ^eexecuted judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

23 ¶ For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more a ^gpricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that ^hdespised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Future regathering of Israel

25 Thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall have ⁱgathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the ^jheathen, then shall they ^kdwell in their land that I ^lhave given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they shall ^mdwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant ⁿvineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

Prophecy against Egypt

29 In the ^otenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, ^pthe word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all ^qEgypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^rBehold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great ^sdragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But I will put ^thooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee ^uthrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open ^vfields; thou shalt not be brought together, ^wnor gathered: I have given thee for ^xmeat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a ^ystaff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst ^zbreak, and ^{aa}rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their ^{bb}loins to be at a stand.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will ^{cc}bring a sword upon thee, and ^{dd}cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be ^{ee}desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 ^{ff}Ne foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

^amonth, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 ¶ ^bBehold, the ^cAssyrian was a ^dcedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The ^ewaters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the ^fmultitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the ^gfowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The ^hcedars in the ⁱgarden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; ^jnor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that ^kwere in the garden of God, ^lenvied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is ^mlifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the ⁿmighty one of the ^oheathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, the ^pterrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the ^qmountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are ^rbroken by all the rivers of the land; and all the ^speople of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 ^tUpon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the ^unether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them ^vthat go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he ^wwent down to the ^xgrave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 ^yI made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I ^zcast him down to ^{aa}hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, ^{bb}the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be ^{cc}comforted in the ^{dd}nether parts of the earth.

17 ^{ee}They also went down into ^{ff}hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the ^{gg}heathen.

18 ¶ To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the ^{hh}nether parts of the earth: thou shalt ⁱⁱlie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

Further lament over Pharaoh and Egypt

32 And it came to pass in the ^atwelfth year, in the twelfth month, that ^bthe word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up a ^clamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young ^dlion of the nations, and thou art as a ^ewhale in the seas; and thou ^fcamest forth with thy rivers, and ^gtroubledst the waters with thy feet, and ^hfouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee ⁱwith a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I ^jleave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the ^kfowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the ^lmountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also ^mwater with thy blood the land wherein thou swimdest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall put thee out, I will ⁿcover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people ^oamazed at thee, and their ^pkings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish ^qmy sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ For ^rthus saith the Lord

GOD; The ^ssword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the ^tterrible of the nations, all of them; and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; ^uneither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, ^vthen shall they know that I am the LORD.

16 This is the ^wlamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the ^xtwelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, ^ythat the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^zwail for the multitude of Egypt, and ^{aa}cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the ^{bb}nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 ^{cc}Whom dost thou pass in beauty? ^{dd}go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: ^{ee}draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The ^{ff}strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of ^{gg}hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

IV. Ezekiel's Responsibility as Watchman, 33

His solemn duty to sound warning

33 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I ⁿbring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their ^ocoasts, and set him for their ^pwatchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he ^qblow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh ^rnot warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own ^shead.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; ^tbut his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 ¶ So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a ^uwatchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and ^vwarn them from me.

wicked man, thou shalt ^asurely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but ^bthou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we ^cpine away in them, how should we then ^dlive?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ^eI have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked ^fturn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for ^gwhy will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The ^hrighteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not ⁱfall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; ^jif he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath ^kcommitted, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he ^lturn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked ^mrestore the pledge, ⁿgive again that he had robbed, ^owalk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 ^pNone of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ¶ Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even ^qdie thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall ^rlive thereby.

20 ¶ Yet ye say, The ^sway of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

Word comes of Jerusalem's capture; Ezekiel's speech returns

21 ¶ And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the ^ttenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had ^uescaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 ^vNow the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, ^wbefore he that was escaped came; and had ^xopened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and ^ymy mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

V. Prediction of Events to Take Place at the End of the Age, When Israel Is Again in Her Own Land, 34-39

Message to the faithless shepherds of Israel

34 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy ^lagainst the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; ^mWoe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds ⁿfeed the flocks?

3 Ye ^oeat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye ^pkill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The ^qdiseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye ^rsought that which was lost; but with ^sforce and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were ^tscattered, because there is no shepherd: and they ^ubecame ^vmeat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep ^wwandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and ^xnone did search or seek after them.

7 ¶ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became ^ymeat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am ^zagainst the shepherds; and I will ^{aa}require my flock at their hand, and ^{bb}cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will ^{cc}deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be ^{dd}meat for them.

Israel to be restored: the Davidic kingdom to be set up

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

13 And I will ^bbring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own ^cland, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

16 I will ^hseek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but ⁱI will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with ^jjudgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, ^kI judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have ^ltrodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the ^mdiseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I ⁿsave my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up ^oone shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And ^pI the LORD will be their God, and my servant ^qDavid a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a ^rcovenant of peace, and will cause the ^sevil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a ^t blessing; and I will ^ucause the shower to come down in his season; there shall ^vbe showers of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have ^wbroken the ^xbands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that ^yserved themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the ^zheathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall ^{aa}dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them a ^{bb}plant of renown, and they shall be ^{cc}no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither ^{dd}bear the shame of the ^zheathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that ^{ee}I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are ^{ff}my people, saith the Lord GOD.

31 And ye my flock, the flock of ^{gg}my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

4 I will ^clay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

5 ^dBecause thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the ^etime that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto ^fblood, and blood shall pursue thee: ^gwith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 And I will ^hfill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetual ⁱdesolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These ^jtwo nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will ^kpossess it; whereas the LORD was ^lthere:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do ^maccording to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, ⁿwhen I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have ^oheard all thy ^pblasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are ^qgiven us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have 14 Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^sWhen the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst ^trejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, ^uso will I do unto thee: thou shalt be ^vdesolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Restoration of Israel to the land

36 Also, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD:

2 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy hath said against you, ^wAha, even the ancient ^xhigh places are ^yours in possession:

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the ^zheathen, and ^{aa}ye are taken up in the lips of ^{bb}talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the ^{cc}mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and ^{dd}derision to the residue of the ^zheathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the ^zheathen, and against all ^{ee}Idumea, which have appointed my land into their ^{ff}possession with the ^{gg}joy of all their heart, with spiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the ^bheathen that are about you, they shall ^cbear their shame.

8 ¶ But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye ^dshall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are ^eat hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will ^fmultiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the ^gcities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded:

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you ^hafter your old estates, and will do ⁱbetter unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall ^jpossess thee, and thou shalt be their ^kinheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth ^lbereave them of men.

18 Wherefore I ^rpoured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

Israel's restoration*

37 The ^rhand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the ^sspirit of the LORD, and ^tset me down in the midst of the ^uvalley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, ^vthou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, ^whear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause ^xbreath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall ^yknow that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may ^zlive.

37:1 full of bones. Having announced the restoration of the nation (36:24-38), the LORD now gives in vision and symbol the method of its accomplishment. Verse 11 gives the clue. The bones represent the whole house of Israel lying at the time of restoration. The graves (v. 12) are the nations where they dwell. The order is:

(1) bringing the people out (v. 12);

(2) bringing them in (v. 12);

(3) their conversion (v. 13); and

(4) their being filled with the spirit (v. 14).

The symbol follows. The two sticks are Judah and the ten tribes; united, they are one nation (vv. 19-28).

26 Moreover I will make a ^zcovenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and ^{aa}multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 My ^{bb}tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, ^{cc}I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the ^{dd}heathen shall know that I the LORD do ^{ee}sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

38:2 Gog . . . Magog. The reference is to the powers in northern Europe and Asia. The whole passage should be read in connection with Zech. 12:1-4; 14:1-9; Mt. 24:14-30; Rev. 14:14-20; 19:17-21. Gog is probably the prince; Magog, his land. The northern powers have often been the persecutors of dispersed Israel, and it is congruous both with divine justice and with the covenants of God that destruction should fall in connection with the

GOD; Behold, I am ^aagainst thee, O ^bGog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

4 And I will ^cturn thee back, and ^dput hooks into thy jaws, and I will ^ebring thee forth, and all thine army, ^fhorses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armor, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:

5 Persia, ^gEthiopia, and ^hLibya with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 ⁱGomer, and all his ^jbands; the house of ^kTogarmah of the north quarters, and all his ^lbands: and many people with thee.

7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 ¶ ^mAfter many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is ⁿgathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell ^osafely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and ^pcome like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy ^qbands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt ^rthink an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of ^sunwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 ^tSheba, and ^uDedan, and the merchants of ^vTarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great ^wspoil?

14 ¶ Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto ^xGog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that ^yday when my people of Israel ^zdwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place ^{aa}out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, ^{ab}as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the ^{ac}latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the ^{ad}heathen may ^{ae}know me, when I shall be ^{af}sanctified in thee, O ^{ag}Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^{ah}Art thou he of whom I have spoken ^{ai}in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days ^{aj}many years that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when ^{ak}Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For in my ^{al}jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, ^{am}Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that ^{an}the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the ^{ao}mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

8 ¶ Behold, it is come, and ^xit is

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and ^yburn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the ^zhandstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down ^{aa}any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall ^{ab}spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto ^{ac}Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the ^{ad}passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the ^{ae}noses of the ^{af}passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may ^{ag}cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a ^{ah}renown the day that ^{ai}I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

14 And they shall ^{aj}sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the ^{ak}passengers those that remain upon the face of the ^{al}earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the ^{am}passengers that pass through the land, when ^{an}any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

29 ^uNeither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my ^vspirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

VI. The Millennial Temple and Its Worship, 40:1-47:12

Vision of the man with the measuring reed

40 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth ^{day} of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was ^vsmitten, in the ^wselfsame day the ^xhand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me ^ythither.

2 In the ^zvisions of God ^{aa}brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very ^{bb}high mountain, by which ^{cc}was the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me ^{dd}thither, and, behold, ^{ee}there was a man, whose appearance ^{ff}was like the appearance of ^{ff}brass, with a ^{gg}line of flax in his hand, and a measuring ^{hh}reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, ⁱⁱbehold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew ⁱⁱthem unto thee ^{art}thou brought ^{jj}hither: ^{kk}declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was ^cinward.

DIFFICULTIES OF EXPOSITION

The last nine chapters of Ezekiel have posed numerous problems for expositors. Five explanations have been offered:

(1) Some feel these chapters describe the Solomonic temple before its destruction in 586 B.C. This is not possible because of disagreement in detail with the accounts in the books of Kings and Chronicles.

(2) Some hold it is a description of the restoration temple completed in the sixth century B.C. This view is also untenable, because the descriptions do not tally.

(3) Others maintain that the chapters portray an ideal temple never realized. This position does not explain why the portrayal is presented, nor why there is so much detail.

(4) Still another view is the claim that the picture is one of the Church and its blessings in this age. This view does not explain the symbolism, nor why large areas of Christian doctrine are omitted. And

(5) the preferable interpretation is that Ezekiel gives a picture of the millennial temple. Judging from the broad context of the prophecy (the time subsequent to Israel's regathering and conversion) and the testimony of other Scripture (Isa. 66; Ezek. 6; 14), this interpretation is in keeping with God's prophetic program for the millennium.

The Church is not in view here, but rather it is a prophecy for the consummation of Israel's history on earth.

23 And the gate of the inner court was ^aover against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate ^ban hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and ^cthe breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court ^dtoward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate ^eaccording to these measures;

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and ^ffive and twenty ^gcubits broad.

30 And ^hthe arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the ⁱutter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the ^jgoing up to it had eight steps.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the ^koutward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the ^lgoing up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the ^mnorth gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The ⁿlittle chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the ^outter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the ^pgoing up to it had eight steps.

38 And ^qthe chambers and the ^rentries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they ^swashed the burnt-offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the ^tburnt-offering and the ^usin-offering and the ^vtrespass-offering.

40 And ^wat the side without, as one goeth up to the ^xentry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of ^yhewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the ^zburnt-offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were hooks, an ^{aa}hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the ^akeepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the ^bkeepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of ^cZadok among the sons of Levi, which ^dcome near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the ^eporch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were ^fpillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

The holy and most holy place, side chambers, the rear buildings and interior

41 Afterward he ^gbrought me to ^hthe temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, ⁱforty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the ^kmost holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six ^lcubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side ^mchambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had ⁿnot hold in the wall of the house.

7 ^oAnd there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so ^pincreased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the ^qmidst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full ^rreed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber ^swithout, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an ^thundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building ^aover against the separate place which was behind it, and the ^bgalleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door posts, and the ^cnarrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, ^aover against the door, ^dcieled with ^ewood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and ^fwithout, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure.

18 And it was made with ^gcherubims and palm trees, so that a ^hpalm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

19 So that the face of a ⁱman was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The ^jposts of the ^ktemple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The ^laltar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the ^mtable that is before the LORD.

23 ⁿAnd the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two ^oleaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch ^pwithout.

26 And there were narrow windows and ^qpalm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

The priests' chambers and final measurements of the temple

42 Then he ^rbrought me forth into the ^sutter court, the way toward the ^tnorth: and he brought me into the ^uchamber that was ^vover against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred ^wcubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 ^xOver against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and ^yover against the ^zpavement which was for the ^{aa}utter court, was gallery against ^{bb}gallery in three stories.

4 And before ^{cc}the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were ^{dd}shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the ^{ee}middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore ^{ff}the building was ^{gg}straitened more than the lowest and the ^{hh}middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was ⁱⁱwithout ^{jj}over against the chambers, toward the ^{kk}utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an ^ahundred cubits.

9 And from under these chambers was the ^bentry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the ^cutter court.

10 ^dThe chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, ^eover against the separate place, and ^fover against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their ^ggoings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ¶ Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the ^hpriests that ⁱapproach unto the LORD ^jshall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the ^kmeat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy ^lplace into the ^mutter court, but there they shall ⁿlay their ^ogarments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had ^pmade an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the ^qeast, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring ^rreed, five hundred ^sreeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a ^twall round about, five hundred ^ureeds long, and ^vfive hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the ^wprofane place.

Vision of glory of the LORD filling the temple (cp. Ezek. 11:22-24)

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the ^xeast:

2 And, behold, the ^yglory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his ^zvoice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his ^{aa}wglory.

3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the ^{ab}glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the ^{ac}gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the ^{ad}spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD ^{ae}filled the house.

43:3 when I came. Obviously it was not Ezekiel who came to destroy the city of Jerusalem for her sins, but the LORD Himself. On the basis of the requirements of the context, the reading in some six manuscripts, the version of Theodotion and that of the Vulgate, the best reading is

"when he came to destroy the city." A possible rendering, and perhaps preferable, would be to read the final letter of the disputed word as a well-known abbreviation for "LORD," thus giving us the reading "when the LORD came to destroy the city."

the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their ^awhoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their ^bhigh places.

8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even ^cdefiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their ^awhoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will ^ddwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ^eashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the ^fgoings out thereof, and the ^gcomings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ^hordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and ⁱdo them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the ^jmountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

Measure of the altar of sacrifice

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the ^kaltar after the cubits: The ^lcubit is a cubit and an ^mhand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a ⁿspan: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower ^osettle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the ^plesser settle even to the greater ^qsettle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four ^rhorns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve ^scubits long, twelve broad, ^tsquare in the four squares thereof.

17 And the ^usettle shall be fourteen ^vcubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his ^wstairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer ^xburnt-offerings thereon, and to ^ysprinkle blood thereon.

THE PROBLEM WITH SACRIFICES

A problem is posed by this paragraph (vv. 19-27). Since the N.T. clearly teaches that animal sacrifices do not in themselves cleanse away sin (Heb. 10:4) and that the one sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ that was made at Calvary completely provides for such expiation (compare Heb. 9:12,26,28; 10:10,14), how can there be a fulfillment of such a prophecy? Two answers have been suggested:

(1) Such sacrifices, if actually offered, will be memorial in character. They will, according to this view, look back to our Lord's work on the cross, as the offerings of the old covenant anticipated His sacrifice. They would, of course, have no expiatory value. And also of the sin-offering, and he ^ashall burn it in the appointed place of the house, ^bwithout the sanctuary.

(2) the reference to sacrifices is not to be taken literally, in view of the putting away of such offerings, but is rather to be regarded as a presentation of the worship of redeemed Israel, in her own land and in the millennial temple, using the terms with which the Jews were familiar in Ezekiel's day.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast ^cmade an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young ^dbullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast ^esalt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

25 ^fSeven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering; they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves.

27 And when these days are ^gexpired, it shall be, that upon the ^heighth day, and so ⁱforward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your ^jpeace-offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

Gate for the prince to eat bread before the LORD

44 Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the ^koutward sanctuary which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath ^lentered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the ^mprince; the prince, he shall sit in it to ⁿeat bread before the LORD; ^ohe shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

The glory fills the house

4 ¶ Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the ^pglory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I ^qfell upon my face.

5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, ^rmark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ^sordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the ^tentering in of the house, with every ^ugoing forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the ^vrebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Israel, let it ^wsuffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary ^xstrangers, ^yuncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye ^zoffer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have ^{aa}broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not ^{bb}kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

The priests of the future temple

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^{cc}No ^xstranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any ^xstranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the ^{dd}Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even ^{ee}bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall ^{ff}slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall ^{gg}stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them ^{hh}before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I ⁱⁱlifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall ^anot come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall ^bbear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

14 But I will make them ^ckeepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 ¶ But the ^dpriests the Levites, the ^esons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they ^fshall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD:

16 They shall ^genter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my ^htable, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, ⁱthey shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linen ^jbonnets upon their heads, and shall have ^klinen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the ^lutter court, even into the ^lutter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and ^mlay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall ⁿnot sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they ^oshave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow ^plong; they shall only ^qpoll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest ^rdrink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives ^swidow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall ^tteach my people the difference between the holy and ^uprofane, and cause them to ^vdiscern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in ^wcontroversy they shall stand ^xin judgment; and they shall judge it according to my ^yjudgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come ^zat no dead person to ^{aa}defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him ^{bb}seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his ^{cc}sin-offering, saith the Lord GOD.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: ^{dd}I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no ^{ee}possession in Israel: I am their possession.

29 They shall ^{ff}eat the ^{gg}meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every ^{hh}dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the ⁱⁱfirst of all the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the ^{jj}first of your dough, that he may cause the ^{kk}blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests ^{ll}shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

The LORD's portion of the land

45 Moreover, when ye shall ^{mm}divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an ⁿⁿoblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary ^{oo}five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty ^acubits round about for the ^bsuburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the ^csanctuary and the most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the ^dpriests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, ^eshall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.

6 ¶ And ye shall appoint the possession of the city ^ffive thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, ^gover against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

Portion for the prince

7 ¶ And a portion shall be for the ^hprince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall ⁱbe over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they ^jgive to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; Let it ^ksuffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and ^lexecute ^mjudgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD.

10 Ye shall have ⁿjust balances, and a just ^oephah, and a just ^pbath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the ^obath may contain the tenth part of an ^phomer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the ^qshekel shall be twenty ^rgerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your ^smaneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley:

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the ^tcor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:

15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a ^umeat-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to ^vmake reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD.

16 All the people of the land shall ^wgive this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the ^xprince's part to give burnt-offerings, and ^ymeat-offerings, and drink-offerings, in ^zthe feasts, and in the ^{aa}new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin-offering, and the ^{bb}meat-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the ^{cc}peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the ^{dd}first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock ^{ee}without blemish, and ^{ff}cleanse the sanctuary:

19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the ^{gg}four corners of the ^{hh}settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

45:18 first month. This is the month of Abib (or Nisan) in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of March-April. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2.

enth day of the month for every one that *er*reth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 ^bIn the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a *c*bullock for a sin-offering.

23 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a *d*burnt-offering to the LORD, *e*seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin-offering.

24 And he shall prepare a *f*meat-offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an *g*hin of oil for an ephah.

25 In the seventh month, in the *h*fifteenth day of the month, shall he do *i*the like in the *j*feast of the seven days, according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the *k*meat-offering, and according to the oil.

The prince to worship first; then he is to lead the people in worship

46 Thus saith the Lord God; 46 The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six *k*working days; but on the *l*sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall *m*enter by the way of the porch of that gate *n*without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be *o*shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the *p*people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt-offering that the prince shall *q*offer unto the LORD in the *r*sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the *s*meat-offering shall be an *t*ephah for a ram, and the *s*meat-offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an *t*hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the *u*new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a *s*meat-offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an *t*hin of oil to an ephah.

8 And when the *v*prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 ¶ But when the people of the land shall come *w*before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north *x*gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth *y*over against it.

10 And the prince *z*in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the *f*meat-offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an *t*ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an *t*hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt-offering or peace-offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, as he did on the *aa*sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt ^adaily prepare a burnt-offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every ^bmorning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a ^cmeat-offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ^dephah, and the third part of an ^ehin of oil, to ^etemper with the fine flour; a ^cmeat-offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the ^cmeat-offering, and the oil, every morning for a ^fcontinual burnt-offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince give a ^ggift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the ^hyear of liberty; ⁱafter it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover the ^jprince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to ^kthrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not ^lscattered every man from his possession.

Place for boiling and baking

19 ¶ ^mAfter he brought me through the ⁿentry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy ⁿchambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall ^oboil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, where they shall ^pbake the ^cmeat-offering; that they bear them not out into the ^qutter court, to ^rsanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the ^qutter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty ^sscubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

The river of the sanctuary (cp. Zech. 14:8-9; Rev. 22:1-2)

47 Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, ^twaters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south ^uside of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way ^vwithout unto the ^uutter gate by the way that looketh ^veastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the ^wman that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand ^xscubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, ^xa river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many ^ytrees on the one side and on the other.

VII. The Division of the Land during the Millennial Age, 47:13–48:35

Borders of the land (cp. Gen. 15:18-21)

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; This shall be the ^rborder, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: ^sJoseph shall have two portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I ^tlifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the ^ugreat sea, the ^vway of Hethlon, as men go to ^wZedad;

16 ^xHamath, ^yBerothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be ^zHazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to the ^{aa}waters of ^{ab}strife in Kadesh, the ^{ac}river to the ^{ad}great sea. And this is the south side southward.

20 The ^{ae}west side also shall be the ^{af}great sea from the border, till a man come over ^{ag}against Hamath. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye ^{ah}divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by ^{ai}lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the ^{aj}strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and ^{ak}they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have ^{al}inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.

Division of the land among seven of the tribes (cp. Josh. 13:1–19:51)

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

Author:
Daniel

Theme:
Rise and Fall of Kingdoms

Date of writing:
6th Century B.C.

Background

The book of Daniel, like Revelation in the New Testament, is called an apocalypse, as are also Isaiah 24–27 (the Isaiah Apocalypse), and the visions in Zechariah. “Apocalypse” means unveiling. When wickedness seemed supreme in the world, and evil powers were dominant, an apocalypse was given to show the real situation behind that which was apparent, and to indicate the eventual victory of righteousness upon the earth. Apocalyptic writing uses many figures and symbols. God used this literary form to convey His truth to His people.

The author of this book, Daniel, whose name means God is my judge, was taken in his youth to Babylon in the first deportation under Nebuchadnezzar. He soon excelled in wisdom in this land famous for its wise men, and ultimately rose to become first among the three highest officers of the Medo-Persian Empire (5:29; 6:1–3). His life in Babylon extended to at least 530 B.C.

Daniel is a book of kings and kingdoms, of thrones and dominions. While including a number of historical records, it embodies prophecies of the sequence of kingdoms in “the times of the Gentiles” (Luke 21:24; see Revelation 16:19, note) and portrays the end of this period. It voices the only prophecy in the Old Testament (9:24–27) that sets the time of Christ’s first advent.

Historical Events in Daniel

The historical events in Daniel, occurring at the beginning of the times of the Gentiles, illustrate events prophetically set forth in the book as taking place at the end of this period and culminating catastrophically in the termination of Gentile world rule at the return of Christ, the Messiah. Thus, the persecution of the children of God in chapters 3 and 6 foreshadows the more severe and universal persecution of God’s people to take place at the end of this age (7:25; 8:24; 12:1); likewise, the blasphemous repudiation of the God of Israel, as in 5:1–4; 6:5–12, will appear in a more universal form and even greater intensity at the end of the age (7:25; 9:26; 11:37,38).

The Old Testament in the New

This book is referred to or quoted many times in the New Testament (compare especially our Lord’s reference to Daniel in Matthew 24:15; Mark 13:14) and is the key to Revelation. It exercised a great influence upon the early church; its scheme of four successive empires dominated European historiography until the middle of the eighteenth century.

I. Daniel's Early Life in the Babylonian Court, 1

Daniel in the palace of Nebuchadnezzar

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with ^apart of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 ¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the ^bking's seed, and of the princes;

4 ^cChildren in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and ^dcunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily ^eprovision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might ^fstand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, ^gDaniel, ^hHananiah, ⁱMishael, and Azariah:

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of ^jShadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

Daniel's purpose of heart

8 ¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not ^kdefile himself with the portion of the king's ^lmeat, nor with the ^mwine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now ⁿGod had brought Daniel into favour and ^otender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your ^pmeat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse ^qliking than the ^rchildren which are of your ^ssort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 ^tProve thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us ^upulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the ^vchildren that eat of the portion of the king's ^wmeat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and ^xproved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared ^yfairer and fatter in flesh than all the ^zchildren which did eat the portion of the king's ^{aa}meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their ^{ab}meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them ^{ac}pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four ^{ad}children, God ^{ae}gave them ^{af}knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had ^{ag}understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the ^{ah}days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of Daniel was in the first of three deportations (see Jer. 25:11, note). The year was about 605 B.C. Jehoiakim. Daniel was deported about 8 years before Ezekiel.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

3 And the king said unto them, I have ^gdreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in ^hSyriack, ⁱO king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me ^cgifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one ^ddecree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and ^eI shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is ^fnot a man upon the earth that can ^gshew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can ^hshew it before the king, except the ⁱgods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was ^jangry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought ^kDaniel and his fellows to be slain.

*Daniel requests time;
prays for wisdom*

14 ¶ Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Ari-och the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to ^lHananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 That they would ^mdesire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

The secret revealed to Daniel

19 ¶ Then was the ⁿsecret revealed unto Daniel in a night ^ovision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, ^pBlessed be the name of God for ever and ever: ^qfor wisdom and might are his:

21 And he ^rchangeth the ^stimes and the seasons: ^the removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth ^uwisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He ^vrevealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the ^wdarkness, and the ^xlight dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, ^yO thou God of my fathers, who hast given me ^zwisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we ^{aa}desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto ^{bb}Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: ^{cc}bring me in before the king, and I will ^{dd}shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man

THE VISION OF THE WORLD EMPIRES

The vision prophetically portrays the course of world empire and its destruction by Christ, who called this period "the times of the Gentiles" (Lk. 21:24; see Rev. 16:19, note). The four metals composing the statue are explained as symbolizing four empires (vv. 38-40), not necessarily possessing the inhabited earth but divinely authorized to do so (v. 38), and fulfilled in Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece (under Alexander), and Rome. The latter power is seen divided, first into two (the legs), fulfilled in the eastern and western Roman Empires, and then into ten (the toes) (see Dan. 7:26, note). As a whole, the statue gives the imposing outward greatness and splendor of the Gentile world power.

The Smiting Stone (2:34-35) destroys the Gentile world system (in its final form) by a sudden and irremediable blow, not by the gradual processes of conversion and assimilation; and then and not before, does the Stone become a mountain which fills "the whole earth" (compare Dan. 7:26-27). Such a destruction of the Gentile monarchy system did not occur at the first advent of Christ. On the contrary, He was put to death by the sentence of an officer of the fourth empire, which was then at the zenith of its power.

After Christ's death the western part of the Roman Empire fell in A.D. 476 and the eastern part in 1453, but no other world empire has superseded Rome because only four empires will precede Christ's return and rule. The interposition of the Church Age between the first and second advents of Christ, as revealed in the N.T., is not a part of this vision. The deadly wound suffered by the fourth empire will not be healed by the restoration of the empire until the Church Age has been completed by the rapture of the Church (Rev. 13:3). Thus Gentile world power still continues, and the crushing blow is still suspended.

The detail of the end-time is given in Dan. 7 and Rev. 13-19. It is important to observe that

(1) Gentile world power is to end in a sudden catastrophic judgment (see Armageddon, Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17, note); and

(2) it is immediately to be followed by the kingdom of heaven. The God of the heavens will not set up His kingdom until after the destruction of the Gentile world system. It is noteworthy that Gentile world dominion begins and ends with a great statue, or image (Dan. 2:31; Rev. 13:14-15).

This Stone must not be identified with the Church, as some hold, for the task of the Church is never said to be the destruction of the nations of the earth.

threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image ^abecame a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

*The interpretation:

36 ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art a ^bking of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the ^cbeasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

*Second and third world empires:
Medo-Persia (cp. 7:5; 8:20) and Greece (cp. 7:6; 8:21)*

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of ^dbrass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

*Fourth world empire: Rome
(cp. 7:7; 9:26)*

40 And the ^efourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not ^fcleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

Christ's kingdom to be established on earth (see Mt. 3:2, note)

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a ^hkingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall ⁱbreak in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the ^jstone was cut out of the mountain ^kwithout hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the ^dbrass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

2:41 strength of the iron. From the head of gold (v. 38) to the iron of the fourth kingdom (Rome) there is deterioration in fineness, but increase in strength (v. 40). Then comes the deterioration of the fourth kingdom in that very quality—strength.

(1) Deterioration by division: the kingdom is divided into two, the legs (eastern and western empires), and these are again divided into kingdoms, the number of which, when the Stone strikes the image, will be ten (toes, v. 42; compare 7:23-24). And that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

(2) deterioration by admixture: the iron mixed with the clay.

2:44 This passage fixes, in relation to other predicted events, the time when the millennial kingdom will be established. It will be "in the days of these kings," that is, the days of the ten kings (compare 7:24-27) symbolized by the toes of the image. The ten kings did not exist at the advent of Messiah, nor was the federation even possible until the dissolution of the Roman Empire and the rise of the present nationalistic world system. See Kingdom (O.T.) (Gen. 1:26; Zech. 12:8, note); Kingdom (N.T.) (Lk. 1:31-33; Rev. 20:4); also notes at Mt. 3:2; 6:33; and 1 Cor. 5:24. In vv. 44-45 the method by which the millennial kingdom will be established is repeated from vv. 34-35, that is, the Smiting Stone will crush the statue that represents the world powers that are inimical to God. (See v. 31, note; compare Ps. 2:5 with 2:6; Zech. 14:1-8 with 14:9.)

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that ^ayour God is ^ba God of ^cgods, and ^da Lord of kings, and a ^erevealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 ^eThen the king ^fmade Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set ^gShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

III. The Deliverance of the Three Hebrew Youths from the Fiery Furnace, 3

Nebuchadnezzar's pride: the image of gold

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an ^himage of gold, whose height was threescore ⁱcubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the ^jprinces, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, ^kO people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the ^lcornet, ^mflute, ⁿharp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and ^oworship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be ^pcast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people ^qheard the sound of the ^lcornet, ^mflute, ⁿharp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

Daniel's three companions refuse to worship the image

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain ^rChaldeans came near, and ^saccused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, ^tO king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast ^umade a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the ^lcornet, ^mflute, ⁿharp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certain Jews ^vwhom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O

3:6 falleth not down and worshippeth. Here is a case of enforced state religion, involving the worship of a man-made image. This phenomenon, appearing at the beginning of the times of the Gentiles and continuing from time to time through history (e.g. Roman emperor worship, Japanese Shinto shrines, and Soviet veneration of Lenin), will reappear at the end of the age when, not only the dragon, but the beast and the image of the beast also will be worshipped under compulsion (Rev. 13:4-15; 14:9-11; 19:20; 20:4; compare 2 Th. 2:4). There will be increasing stress upon worship at the end of the age, but it will be satanically directed.

king, have ^anot regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his ^brage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my ^cgods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the ^dcornet, ^eflute, ^fsharp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and ^gwho is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 ^hShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our ⁱGod whom we serve is able to ^jdeliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 ^kBut if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor ^lworship the golden image which thou hast set up.

Daniel's companions protected in tribulation

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one ^mseven times more than it was ⁿwont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their ^ohosen, and their ^pphats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up ^qShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was ^rastonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, ^swalking in the midst of the fire, and they have ^tno hurt; and the ^uform of the fourth is like the Son of God.

Nebuchadnezzar recognizes the deliverance to be of God

26 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar ^vcame near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the ^wmost high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ^xcame forth of the midst of the fire.

IV. The Vision and Humbling of Nebuchadnezzar, 4

The king's proclamation to all nations

4 Nebuchadnezzar the king, ⁱunto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; ^jPeace be multiplied unto you.

2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the ^khigh God hath wrought toward me.

3 How great are his ^lsigns! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an ^meverlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

Nebuchadnezzar's vision of a great tree

4 ¶ I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and ⁿflourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the ^ovisions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to ^pbring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the ^qmagicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not ^rmake known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 ¶ But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was ^sBelteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy ^tgods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, ^umaster of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy ^vgods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the ^wvisions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold a ^xtree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was ^ymeat for all: the ^zbeasts of the field had shadow under it, and the ^{aa}fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the ^{bb}visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a ^{cc}watcher and an ^{dd}holy one came down from heaven;

14 He cried aloud, and said thus, ^{ee}Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and ^{ff}brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be

Daniel interprets the vision

19 ¶ Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was h astonished for one hour, and his thoughts i troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the j dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was k meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is l thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy m dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a n watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and o brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, p which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the q most High r ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he s will.

26 And whereas they commanded to t leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the u heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and v break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a w lengthening of thy tranquillity.

*The vision fulfilled;
the king's restoration*

28 ¶ All this x came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of y twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king spake, and said, Is not this z great Babylon, that aa I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

4:17 ruleth. This divine rule refers to the universal kingdom of God, which

- (1) includes all things;
- (2) always exists without interruption;
- (3) never fails in its purposes; and
- (4) is generally administered providentially (see vv. 25,32, 34-35; compare Ps. 103:19; 148:8).

25,32, 34-35; compare Ps. 103:19; 148:8).

This kingdom should be distinguished from the mediatorial kingdom of Christ, though the latter issues from it (compare Dan. 7:9-14) and will finally be merged with it (1 Cor. 15:24).

4:25 till thou know. This discipline was effective. Compare v. 30 with v. 37.

king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, ^aO king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was ^bdriven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that ^cliveth for ever, whose dominion is an ^deverlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as ^enothing: and he doeth ^faccording to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can ^gstay his hand, or ^hsay unto him, What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was ⁱestablished in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar ^jpraise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are ^ktruth, and his ways ^ljudgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to ^mabase.

V. Daniel's Experiences
under Belshazzar and Darius, 5-6

Belshazzar defiles the temple vessels

5 Belshazzar the king made a ⁿgreat ^ofeast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver ^pvessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden ^qvessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of ^rgold, and of silver, of ^sbrass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

The handwriting on the wall

5 ¶ ^tIn the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the ^ucandlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts ^vtroubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his ^wknees smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the ^xastrologers, the ^yChaldeans,

4:34 I blessed the most High. Progress may be traced in Nebuchadnezzar's apprehension of the true God:

(1) "God is a God of gods" (one among the national or tribal gods, but greater than they), "the Lord [Adonai, meaning Master] of kings, and a revealer of secrets" (2:47).

(2) He is still a Hebrew Deity, but Master of angels and a God who responds to faith (3:28). And

(3) here (vv. 34-35) the king rises into a true apprehension of God. Compare Darius, 6:25-27.

Belshazzar: Bel protect the king. A king of Babylon. At one of his banquets a hand appeared and wrote a message on the wall.

5:2 father. The word "father" is used here, as it is frequently employed in the Scriptures, to indicate an ancestor; e.g. David is spoken of as the father of Jesus (Lk. 1:31-32). Probably Belshazzar was the grandson of Nebuchadnezzar through his mother.

5:6 joints of his loins were loosed. That is, the strength of his legs gave way.

and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be ^aclothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the ^bthird ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they ^ccould not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar ^dgreatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were ^eastonied.

Daniel interprets the writing

10 ¶ Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, ^fO king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy ^ggods; and in the days of thy father ^hlight and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy ⁱfather, the king, I say, thy father, made ^jmaster of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch as an ^kexcellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and ^lshewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named ^mBeltshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the ⁿcaptivity of Judah, whom the king my ^ofather brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the ^pgods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 ¶ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy ^qgifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God ^rgave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

THE BIBLICAL ORDER OF THE MONARCHS OF DANIEL'S TIME

(1) Nebuchadnezzar (c. 604-562 B.C.) with whom the captivity of Judah and "the times of the Gentiles" (see Lk. 21:24 and Rev. 16:19, notes) began, and who established the first of the four world monarchies (2:37-38; 7:4).

(2) Belshazzar (c. 553-539 B.C.), the Bel-sharusur of the inscriptions, eldest son of Nabonidus and co-regent with his father.

(3) Darius, the Mede (c. 539 B.C.-?), 5:31; 6:1-27; 9:1. Concerning this Darius, secular history awaits further discoveries. It is conjectured that he was Gobryas (Gubaru), a Median official whom Cyrus made ruler of Babylon after the conquest.

(4) Cyrus (c. 539-530 B.C.), with whose rise to power the Medo-Persian world empire came fully into existence (2:39; 7:5). In verses 1-4 of ch. 8 the Median power is seen as the lesser of the two horns of the ram; the Persian power of Cyrus, as the higher horn which appeared last. Under Cyrus, who was named more than a century before his birth (Isa. 44:28-45:4), the return of the Jewish remnant to Palestine began (Ezra 1:1-4). See Dan. 11:2, notes.

5:9 countenance. Literally (Aramaic) brightnesses, v. 6.

5:12 doubts. Literally (Aramaic) riddles.

5:16 third ruler. Belshazzar was co-ruler with his father (see v. 18, note); so Daniel was next to the kings in power.

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he ^aslew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind ^bhardened in pride, he was ^cdeposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was ^ddriven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ^eruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, ^fhast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast ^glifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the ^hvessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of ⁱbrass, iron, wood, and stone, ^jwhich see not, nor hear, nor know: and the ^kGod in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ^lways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and ^mfinished it.

27 TEKEL; Thou art ⁿweighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and ^ogiven to the ^pMedes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 ¶ In that night was ^qBelshazzar the king of the Chaldeans ^rslain.

31 And ^sDarius the ^tMedian took the ^ukingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

Daniel under Darius

6 It pleased ^vDarius to set ^wover the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these three presidents; of whom ^xDaniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have ^yno damage.

3 Then this Daniel was ^zpreferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to ^{aa}set him over the whole realm.

The presidents and princes plot against Daniel

4 ¶ Then the presidents and princes sought to find ^{bb}occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5:25 MENE . . . UPHARSIN. Each of the three Aramaic words has a double sense.

"MENE" (from mena, to number) is repeated for emphasis. God has numbered the days of the Babylonian kingdom.

"TEKEL" (from tekal, to weigh) indicates that the kingdom has been morally evaluated by God, and found lacking.

"PERES" (from peres, to divide; "Persians" comes from paras) is a prediction that the kingdom is to be divided and given to the Persians.

"UPHARSIN" (u is Aramaic for and, as in Hebrew) is the plural of PERES.

5:29 third ruler. Daniel was made third ruler (see vv. 7 and 16) because Nabonidus, the last king of Babylon, had elevated his son Belshazzar to be co-regent over the kingdom in Babylon while he himself resided in Tema in Arabia.

5:31 took the kingdom. Aramaic received. Darius was probably made king under Cyrus, the Persian "king of kings" (compare 9:1).

Darius: A Persian king who reluctantly threw Daniel into the lions' den.

6:2 damage. That is, loss.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him ^aconcerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 All the ^bpresidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have ^cconsulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any ^dGod or man for thirty days, ^esave of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, ^faccording to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

Daniel's steadfastness in prayer

10 ¶ Now when Daniel ^gknew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber ^htoward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees ⁱthree times a day, and ^jprayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did ^kaforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask ^la petition of any ^mGod or man within thirty days, ⁿsave of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the ^olaw of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which ^pis of the ^qchildren of the captivity of Judah, ^rregardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was ^sso ^tdispleased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he ^ulaboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the ^vlaw of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

Daniel in the lions' den

16 ¶ Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and ^wcast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will ^xdeliver thee.

17 And a ^ystone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night ^zfasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: ^{aa}and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the ^{bb}king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, ^{cc}able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath ^{dd}sent his ^{ee}angel, and hath ^{ee}shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and ^{ee}no manner of hurt

The decree of Darius

25 ¶ Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men ^gtremble and fear before the God of Daniel: ^hfor he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of ^jCyrus the Persian.

VI. Daniel's Vision of the Four Beasts, 7

The dream (cp. 2:31-43)

7 In the first year of ^kBelshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a ^ldream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he ^mwrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the ⁿfour winds of the heaven strove upon the great ^osea.

3 And ^pfour great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

First world empire: Babylon (cp. 2:37-38)

4 The first was like a ^qlion, and had ^reagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a ^sman's heart was given to it.

Second world empire: Medo-Persia (cp. 2:39; 8:20)

5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

Third world empire: Greece (cp. 2:39; 8:21-22; 10:20; 11:2-4)

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it ^tfour wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

Fourth world empire: Rome (cp. vv. 23-24; 2:40-43; 9:26)

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten ^uhorns.

7:3 NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S VISION

The monarchy vision of Nebuchadnezzar (ch. 2) covers the same order of fulfillment as Daniel's beast vision, but with this difference: Nebuchadnezzar saw the imposing outward power and splendor of "the times of the Gentiles" (Lk. 21:24; compare Rev. 16:19, note), whereas Daniel saw the true character of Gentile world government as rapacious and warlike, established and maintained by force. It is remarkable that the heraldic insignia of the Gentile nations are all beasts or birds of prey.

7:9 Ancient of days. This title, while referring here and in v. 13 to God the Father, has equal application to Christ, e.g. v. 22; Rev. 1:8,13-18. Compare Ps. 45:6; 93:2; Mic. 5:2; Hab. 1:12.

7:13 the Son. Literally a son, and they brought him near before him. This scene is identical with that of Rev.

5:6-10. There the ascription of praise concerning those who are "kings and priests" (see Dan. 7:18, note) ends with the words, "and we shall reign on the earth." Revelation 6 opens the "vexing" of Ps. 2:5, introductory to setting the king on Zion (Ps. 2:6; Rev. 20:4). The vision (7:9-14) reverses the order of events as they will be fulfilled.

Verses 13 describes the scene in heaven (compare Rev. 5:6-10) which, in fulfillment, precedes the events which Daniel sees in vision in vv. 9-12. The order of fulfillment will be:

(1) the investiture of the Son of Man with the kingdom (Dan. 7:13,14; Rev. 5:6-10);

(2) the "vexing" of Ps. 2:5, fully described in Mt. 24:21-22; Rev. 6-18;

(3) the return of the Son of Man in glory to deliver the smiting blow of 2:45 (Dan. 7:9-11; Rev. 19:11-21); and

(4) God's judgment of individuals among the nations and the setting up of the kingdom (Dan. 7:10,26-27; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 20:1-6).

7:14 Verses 13-14 are identical with Rev. 5:1-7, and precede the fulfillment of Dan. 2:34-35. Verses 13-14 and Rev. 5:1-7 describe the investiture of the Son of Man and Son of David with the kingdom authority, while Dan. 2:34-35 describes the crushing blow (see Armageddon, Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17, note) which destroys Gentile world power, thus clearing the way for the actual setting up of the kingdom of heaven. Verses 34-35 and Rev. 19:19-21 describe the same event.

7:8 THE VISION OF THE END OF THE GENTILE WORLD

The vision is of the end of Gentile world dominion. The former Roman Empire (the iron kingdom of 2:33-35, 40-44; 7:7) will have ten horns (that is, kings, Rev. 17:12), corresponding to the ten toes of the image. As Daniel considers this vision of the ten kings, there rises up among them a "little horn" (king), who subdues three of the ten kings so completely that the separate identity of their kingdoms is destroyed. Seven kings of the ten are left, and the "little horn," who is "the prince that shall come" of 9:26, the "abomination" of 12:11 and Mt. 24:15, and the "beast out of the sea" of Rev. 13:1-10. He will be the head of the restored fourth world empire (Beast, see Rev. 19:20, note). Some expositors also equate with him the willful king of 11:36-45, and the "man of sin" of 2 Th. 2:3-8.

7:18 saints of the most High. See "saints" in vv. 22,25, and 27 also. That the Church saints, that is, believers of the Church Age, will also share this rule seems evident in that the Church, having part in the first resurrection, will "reign with Him [Christ] a thousand years" (Rev. 20:6). Compare Rom. 8:17; 2 Tim. 2:10-12; 1 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 1:6; 3:21; 5:10.

7:25 time and times and the dividing of time. The terms found in the O.T. and N.T. referring to specific lengths of time in future events require careful consideration, so as to avoid fantastic speculations. The first occurrence of a reference to a period of three and one-half years in the prophetic future is the expression "time and times and the dividing of time" found here. It is also in Dan. 12:7 and Rev. 12:14. This is the same length of time as one-half of the final seven-year period (9:27), and is likewise the period of time expressed in the term "forty and two months" (Rev. 11:2; 13:5), or "a thousand two hundred and threescore days" (Rev. 12:6).

The three-and-one-half-year period seems to be a reference to the last half of Daniel's seventieth week, also known as the great tribulation.

THE END OF GENTILE WORLD POWER

In the beast vision of ch. 7, the fourth beast (v. 7) is declared to be "the fourth kingdom," that is, the Roman Empire, the "iron" kingdom of ch. 2. The "ten horns" upon the fourth beast (Roman Empire), v. 7, are declared to be "ten kings that shall rise" (v. 24), answering to the ten toes of the image vision of ch. 2. The ten kingdoms, including the regions formerly ruled by Rome, will constitute, therefore, the form in which the fourth or Roman Empire will exist when the whole fabric of Gentile world domination is struck by the stone "cut out of the mountain without hands," that is, Christ (2:44-45; 7:9).

But Daniel sees a "little horn" rise and subdue three of the ten kings (vv. 24-26). His distinguishing mark is hatred of God and believers. He is not to be confused with the little horn of ch. 8, a prophecy fulfilled in Antiochus Epiphanes (see 8:9, note). In Rev. 13 additional particulars of the little horn of Dan. 7 are given (see Rev. 13:1, note).

an ^aeverlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall ^bserve and obey him.

28 ^cHitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations ^dmuch troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

VII. The Prophecy of the Defeat of the Persians by the Greeks, and the Desecration of the Temple, 8

The vision of the ram and male goat

8 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a ^evision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I was at ^fShushan in the palace, which is in the province of ^gElam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I ^hlifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ⁱram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an ^khe goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground; and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with ^mcholer against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he ⁿcast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he goat ^owaxed very great: and when he was strong, the great ^phorn was broken; and for it came up ^qfour notable ones toward the ^rfour winds of heaven.

The little horn

9 And out of one of them came forth a little ^shorn, which ^twaxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the ^upleasant land.

10 And it ^vwaxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and ^wstamped upon them.

11 Yea, he ^xmagnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

8:1 The remarkably precise predictions in chs. 8 and 11 about the reign, character, and antecedents of Antiochus Epiphanes, the Hellenistic king who cruelly persecuted the Jews 400 years after the time of Nebuchadnezzar, were advanced by Porphyry, an anti-Christian philosopher of the third century A.D., as proof that the Book of Daniel could not have been written before that time. This view has been followed by many modern critics but should not keep any believer in predictive prophecy from accepting the traditional date. third year. Approximately 551 B.C. vision. This chapter gives details concerning the second and third world kingdoms: the silver and bronze kingdoms of ch. 2; and the bear and leopard kingdoms of ch. 7, that is, the Medo-Persian and Grecian (Macedonian) kingdoms of history. At the time of this vision (8:1), the first world empire was nearing its end. Belshazzar was the last ruler of that monarchy in the city of Babylon. See notes at 5:2, 18, 29.

8:5 horn. The words "horn" and "horns" (O.T., qeren; N.T., keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear: (1) strength in general (Dt. 33:17); (2) arrogant pride (Ps. 75:4-5); and (3) political and military power (Dan. 8:20-21).

8:9 little horn. The little horn of this verse (compare v. 23) was fulfilled (171-164 B.C.) in the historical Antiochus Epiphanes, who came out of Syria (one of the four prominent kingdoms of vv. 8, 22), and persecuted the Jews and profaned the temple at Jerusalem. He is not to be confused with the little horn of 7:8, who is yet to come in the tribulation period (see vv. 9-13, 23). The little horn of 7:8 will rise from the ten horns into which the fourth empire (Roman) will be divided, whereas the little horn of ch. 8 comes out of one of the four horns (vv. 9, 22) into which the third empire (Grecian) is divided after Alexander's death (vv. 21-22) in the latter time of the four kingdoms of Alexander's generals (v. 23). Both little horns are violent in their hatred of the Jews and of God, and in their profaning of the temple at Jerusalem (compare 7:25 and 8:10-12).

(2) of the sanctuary (9:17), alluding to its condition in Daniel's time, when the Jews were in exile;

(3) generally, of the land (9:18), also referring to Daniel's time;

(4) of the sanctuary (9:26), fulfilled in A.D. 70 in the destruction of city and temple after the cutting off of Messiah (Lk. 21:20); and

(5), (6), and (7) of the sanctuary, by the beast, 9:27; 11:31; 12:11. Compare Mt. 24:15; Mk. 13:14; 2 Th. 2:3,8-12; Rev. 13:14-15.

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the ^agreat and ^bdreadful God, ^ckeeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have ^dsinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by ^edeparting from thy precepts and from thy ^fjudgments:

6 Neither have we ^ghearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have ^krebelled against him;

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he ^lset before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy ^mlaw, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because ⁿwe have sinned against him.

12 And he hath ^oconfirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath ^pnot been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written in the ^qlaw of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we ^rnot our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

18 O my God, ^xincline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and ^ybehold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

PROPHECY OF THE SEVENTY WEEKS

Daniel's prophecy of the seventy "weeks" ('sevens') (vv. 24-27) provides the chronological frame for Messianic prediction from Daniel to the establishment of the kingdom on earth and also a key to its interpretation. Its main features are as follows:

(1) The entire prophecy is concerned primarily with Daniel's "people" and their "holy city"—that is, Israel and Jerusalem.

(2) Two princes are mentioned; the first is named the "Messiah the Prince" (v. 25); the second is described as "the prince that shall come" (v. 26), a reference to the little horn of ch. 7:8, whose "people" would destroy the rebuilt Jerusalem after the cutting off of the Messianic Prince (v. 26).

(3) The seventy weeks of the prophecy are weeks of years, an important sabbatical time-measure in the Jewish calendar. Violation of the command to observe the sabbatical year brought the judgment of the Babylonian captivity and determined its length of seventy years. Compare Lev. 25:1-22; 26:33-35; 2 Chr. 36:19-21; Dan. 9:2. Compare also Gen. 29:26-28 for use of "week" to indicate seven years.

(4) These 490 prophetic years are each 360 days long. This is proved by the biblical references to the seventieth week of seven years, which is divided into two halves (v. 27), the latter half being variously designated as "a time and times and the dividing of time" (Dan. 7:25; compare Rev. 12:14); forty-two months (Rev. 11:2; 13:5); or 1260 days (Rev. 11:3; 12:6). In this connection it should be remembered that, in the grand sweep of prophecy, prophetic time is invariably so near as to give full warning, so indeterminate as to give no satisfaction to mere curiosity (compare Mt. 24:36; Acts 1:7).

(5) The beginning of the seventy weeks is fixed as "the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem" and its wall (v. 25). The only decree in Scripture authorizing the rebuilding of the city and its wall is recorded in Neh. 2; dated in "the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king" (that is, 445 B.C.), it is well attested in ancient history. From this date as a beginning, the first sixty-nine weeks reach to "the Messiah, the Prince."

(6) At a later time, after the threescore and two weeks which follow the first "seven weeks" (that is, after sixty-nine weeks), two important events will take place: (1) Messiah will be "cut off" and will have none of His regal rights ("but not for himself"). And (2) the rebuilt city and sanctuary will again be destroyed, this time by "the people" of another "prince" who is yet to come. It is generally agreed that these two events were fulfilled in the death of Christ (A.D. 29) and the destruction of Jerusalem by Rome in A.D. 70. Both events are placed before the seventieth week of v. 27. Hence a period of at least forty-one years between the death of Christ and the destruction of Jerusalem must intervene between the sixty-ninth and seventieth weeks.

(7) The main events of the final "one week" (v. 27) are as follows: (1) There is a seven-year "covenant" made by the future Roman prince (the "little horn" of 7:8) with the Jews. (2) In the middle of the week there is a forcible interruption of the Jewish ritual of worship by the Roman prince who introduces "abominations" that render the sanctuary desolate. (3) At the same time he launches persecution against the Jews. And (4) the end of the seventieth week brings judgment upon the desolator and also brings "everlasting righteousness" (v. 24—that is, the blessings of the Messianic kingdom).

The proof that this final week has not yet been fulfilled is seen in the fact that Christ definitely relates its main events to His second coming (Mt. 24:6,15). Hence, during the interim between the sixty-ninth and seventieth weeks there must lie the whole period of the Church set forth in the N.T. but not revealed in the O.T. The interpretation which assigns the last of the seventy weeks to the end of the age is found in the Church Fathers. When this seventieth week was referred to during the first two and one-half centuries of the Christian Church, it was almost always assigned to the end of the age. Irenaeus places the appearance of Antichrist at the end of the age in the last week; in fact, he asserts that the time of Antichrist's tyranny will last just one-half of the week, three years and six months. So likewise Hippolytus states that Daniel "indicates the showing forth of the seven years which shall be in the last times."

righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the ^acommandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall ^bMessiah be ^ccut off, but not for himself: and the people of the ^dprince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a ^eflood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

IX. Daniel's Final Vision, 10-12

The vision of the glory of God

10 In the third year of ^fCyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose ^gname was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was ^htrue, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel ⁱwas mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is ^jHiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain ^kman clothed in ^llinen, whose ^mloins were girded with fine ⁿgold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of ^olightning, and his eyes as ^plamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished ^qbrass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel ^ralone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw ^snot the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was ^tleft alone, and saw this great vision, and there ^uremained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, ^vthen was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

Conflict: holy and unholy angels

10 ¶ And, behold, a hand ^w touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man ^xgreatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and ^ystand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst ^zset thine heart to understand, and to ^{aa}chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, ^aMichael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to ^bmake thee understand what shall befall thy people in the ^clatter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I ^abecame dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men ^etouched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like ^fthe appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And said, O man greatly beloved, ^gfear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be ^hstrong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou ⁱwherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the ^jprince of ^kGrecia shall come.

21 But I will ^lshew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but ^mMichael your prince.

11 Also I in the first year of ⁿDarius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the ^otruth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of ^pGrecia.

3 And a mighty ^qking shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do ^raccording to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the ^sfour winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a ^tgreat dominion.

11:1 first year. Approximately 539 B.C.

11:2 The spirit of prophecy here returns to that which more immediately concerned Daniel and his royal masters—the near future of the empire in which he was so great a personage. Four kings were yet to follow in Medo-Persia. Then will come Alexander the “mighty king” of Greece (v. 3). The division of Alexander’s empire into four parts (v. 4), as already predicted (8:22), is foretold. The turbulent course of affairs in two parts of the disintegrated Alexandrian empire, Syria and Egypt, is then traced down to v. 20. Here Antiochus Epiphanes, the little horn of ch. 8, occupies the vision down to v. 36. His pollution of the sanctuary is again mentioned. See 8:9, note. From v. 36 the interpretation is of the willful king and his activities in the end-time. See Dan. 11:36, note. three kings. The three kings of Persia are probably Cyrus II (550–530 B.C.) referred to in Ezra 1:1 and 2 Chr. 36:22–23; Cambyses, 529–522 B.C., not referred to in the O.T.; and Darius I Hystaspes, 521–486 B.C. (Ezra 5; 6). The fourth king is either Ahasuerus, 486–465 B.C. (Ezra 4:6) or Artaxerxes I, 465–424 B.C. (Ezra 7:11–26).

11:3 mighty king. The “mighty king” is Alexander the Great who died about 323 B.C. He is referred to also in 7:6; 8:5–8,21–22.

11:4 divided. Following Alexander’s death the empire was divided among four of his generals: Cassander, ruling Macedonia; Lysimachus, ruling Thrace and Asia Minor; Ptolemy I, ruling Egypt, whose successors, the Ptolemies, ruled from 323–30 B.C.; and Seleucus, ruling Syria and the remainder of the Near East, whose successors, known as the Seleucids, ruled until c. 65 B.C.

11:5 king of the south. The “king of the south” here is Ptolemy I Soter, 323–285 B.C., and the strong one is Seleucus I Nicator, 312–281, the most powerful of all those rul-princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11:6 in the end. Or after certain years. Compare v. 13. king's daughter of the south. This king of the south is Ptolemy II Philadelphus, 285-246 B.C. The daughter was Berenice.

11:10 his sons. The two rulers of Syria are Seleucus III Ceraunus (sometimes called Soter) 226-223 B.C. and Antiochus III the Great, 223-187 B.C., whose activities continue through v. 19.

11:31 Verses 31-35 record the desolation of the Jerusalem temple by Antiochus Epiphanes.

11:32 people . . . shall be strong. For example, the Maccabees, about 168 and following. do exploits. That is, act.

11:36 king shall do. Here the prophetic foreview, having traced (vv. 3-20) the two parts of Alexander's empire (Syria and Egypt) which had to do with Palestine and the Jews up till the time of Antiochus Epiphanes, and having described his career (vv. 21-35), overleaps the Church Age and centuries to "the time of the end" (v. 35). Prophecy at this point does not concern itself with history as such but only with history as it affects Israel and the Holy Land. Antiochus Epiphanes was insignificant as compared with many historical personages whom the Bible does not mention, but he scourged the people of God and defiled His holy altar by offering a sow upon it. His attitude and actions toward Israel brought him into prophetic light.

The identity of the willful king is variously interpreted. Some expositors consider him to be the little horn of ch. 7 and the head of the revived Roman Empire. He will disregard all pagan gods ("gods of his fathers," see v. 37, margin) and the Messianic hope, and will honor the god of war (the "God of forces"). He is identified as a supreme ruler, who will "magnify himself above every god."

Another view considers him an unregenerate Jew in the Holy Land in league with the Roman beast (7:8ff.), who is an unbelieving Gentile in Rome (Rev. 17:9ff.). The willful king disregards the God of Israel ("the God of his fathers"); cares nothing for the hope of Messiah ("the desire of [Jewish] women"); and honors the Roman beast (the "god of forces"), Rev. 13:11-18.

The doom of the willful king is at the second coming of Christ (v. 45).

11:38 estate. Or office, or place.

also upon the countries: and the land of ^aEgypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the ^bEthiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to ^cmake away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his ^dpalace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

The great tribulation

12 And at that time shall ^eMichael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, ^fsuch as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

3 And they that be ⁱwise shall ^jshine ^kas the brightness of the firmament; and they that ^lturn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

God's last message to Daniel

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and ^mseal the book, even to the ⁿtime of the end: many shall ^orun to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

(v. 2), restricted to those written in the "book" (v. 1). The latter part of v. 2 may be rendered as follows: "These [that is, the ones who awake] to everlasting life; but those [that is, those left in the grave who are yet to awake] to shame and everlasting contempt." This resurrection will occur after the tribulation and concerns O.T. believers and tribulation believers—not the Church, which will be translated before the tribulation.

12:4 THE TIME OF THE END

In Daniel the expression "the time of the end" or its equivalent "in the end" occurs in 8:17-19; 9:26; 11:35, 40, 45; 12:4, 6, 9. Summary:

(1) The time of the end in Daniel begins with the violation by "the prince that shall come" (that is, little horn, "man of sin," "beast") of his covenant with the Jews for the restoration of the temple and sacrifice (9:27), and his presentation of himself as God (9:27; 11:36-38; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13:4-6), and ends with his destruction by the appearing of the Lord in glory (2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 19:19-20).

(2) The duration of the "time of the end" is three and one-half years, coinciding with the last half of the seventieth week of Daniel (7:25; 12:7; Rev. 13:5). And

(3) this "time of the end" is the "time of Jacob's trouble" (Jer. 30:7); "a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation" (Dan. 12:1); "great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be" (Mt. 24:21). The N.T., especially Revelation, adds many details.

12:12 THREE PERIODS OF DAYS

Three periods of "days" date from the "abomination" (that is, the blasphemous assumption of Deity by the beast, v. 11; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:4):

(1) Twelve hundred and sixty days to the destruction of the beast (7:25; 12:7; Rev. 13:5; 19:19-20). This is also the duration of the great tribulation (compare 12:4, note).

(2) Dating from the same event is a period of 1290 days, an addition of thirty days (12:11). And

(3) again forty-five days are added, and with them the promise of v. 12. No account is directly given of that which occupies the interval of seventy-five days between the end of the tribulation and the full blessing of v. 12.

It is suggested that the explanation may be found in the prophetic descriptions of the events following the war of Armageddon (Rev. 16:13-16; see 19:17, note). The beast is destroyed and Gentile world dominion ended by the Smiting Stone at the end of the 1260 days, but the scene is, so to speak, filled with the debris of the image which the "wind" must carry away before full blessing comes (2:35).

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

Author:
Hosea

Theme:
Redeeming Love

Date of writing:
8th Century B.C.

Background

Hosea, whose name means the LORD saves, carried on his ministry during the days of four different kings of Judah—Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah; and of Jeroboam II, the king of Israel. Hosea was a contemporary of Amos in Israel, and of Isaiah and Micah in Judah, and his ministry continued after the first, or Assyrian, captivity of the northern kingdom.

God's Relationship to Man

The theme of the opening of Hosea's prophecy is the unfaithfulness of Israel, set forth in terms of the marriage relationship, a familiar figure of speech depicting God's relation to His chosen people (Exodus 34:15–16; Leviticus 17:7; 20:5–6; Deuteronomy 32:16,21; Isaiah 54:5). Israel's forsaking of the LORD was brought home to Hosea in the adulterous acts of his own wife, so that his personal experiences became an allegory of God's experience with Israel. She was not only unfaithful, but her sin also took its character from the exalted relationship into which she had been brought.

The major truths of the book are: (1) God suffers when His people are unfaithful to Him; (2) God cannot condone sin; and (3) God will never cease to love His own and, consequently, He seeks to win back those who have forsaken Him.

*I. The Prophet's Tragic Experience,

Introduction

1 The word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of ^aUzziah, ^bJotham, ^cAhaz, and ^dHezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of ^eJeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

The marriage: birth of Jezreel

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a ^fwife of ^gwhoredoms and children of ^hwhoredoms: for the ⁱland hath committed great ^jwhoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will ^kcause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

Birth of Lo-ruhamah

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and ^lbare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will ^mno more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.

7 But ⁿI will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by ^obow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

Birth of Lo-ammi

8 ¶ Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

Future restoration of Israel (to 2:1)

10 ¶ Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the ^psand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my ^qpeople, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

11 ¶ Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

2 Say ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.

Chastisement of Israel (2 Ki. 17:1-18)

2 ¶ Plead with your mother, ^rplead: for she is ^s'not my ^twife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her ^u'whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I ^v'strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was ^w'born, and ^x'make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

Hosea: salvation. A minor prophet who declared God's judgment against idol worship in Israel.

1:2 take unto thee a wife. God did not command Hosea to take an immoral wife but permitted him to carry out his desire to marry Gomer, warning him that she would be unfaithful, and using the prophet's tragic experience as a basis for portraying God's relation to Israel during a period of unfaithfulness.

Hosea's marriage is no less historical because his children were given symbolic names as a message to Israel (vv. 4,6,9). Compare Isa. 8:18.

1:4 Jezreel. Meaning scattered. 2 Ki. 10:1-14.

1:6 Lo-ruhamah. Meaning unpitied. Isa. 27:11.

1:9 Lo-ammi. Meaning not my people.

Jezreel: God scatters. The city in which Ahab built a palace. He and his family were killed here and Jezebel fell from the palace window.

1:10 Israel in Hosea usually refers to the ten tribes forming the northern kingdom as distinguished from "Judah," the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, forming the southern kingdom which adhered to the Davidic family. Compare 1 Ki. 12:1-20. The promise of 1:10-2:1 yet awaits fulfillment. See Israel (Gen. 12:2-3; Rom. 11:26, note).

2:1 Ammi. Literally my people. v. 23; compare Hos. 1:9. Ruhamah. Literally having obtained pity. Compare Hos. 1:6.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the ^achildren of ^bwhoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will ^cgo after my lovers, that ^dgive me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will ^ehedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall ^ffollow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my ^gfirst husband; for then was it ^hbetter with me than now.

8 For she ⁱdid not know that I ^jgave her ^kcorn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and ^ltake away my ^kcorn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I ^mdiscover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to ⁿcease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn ^ofeasts.

12 And I will ^pdestroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the ^qbeasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will ^rvisit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she ^sdecked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and ^tforgot me, saith the LORD.

Restoration of Israel, the adulterous wife

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will ^ulure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak ^vcomfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from ^wthence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall ^xsing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the ^yday when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali.

17 For I will ^ztake away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the ^{aa}beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down ^{bb}safely.

"WIFE" OF THE LORD, SUMMARY

Marriage is one of many figures used in Scripture to emphasize the relationship of God to men. This illustration is used in both O.T. and N.T. to picture love, intimacy, privilege, and responsibility. In the O.T., as here in vv. 16-23, Israel is described as the wife of the LORD, though now disowned because of disobedience. Nevertheless eventually, upon repentance, Israel will be restored. This relationship is not to be confused with that of the Church to Christ (Jn. 3:29). In the mystery of the divine Trinity both are true. The N.T. speaks of the Church as a virgin espoused to one husband (2 Cor. 11:1-2), which could never be said of an adulterous wife restored in grace. Israel is, then, to be the restored and forgiven wife of the LORD; the Church is the virgin wife of the Lamb (Jn. 3:29; Rev. 19:6-8). Israel will be the LORD's earthly wife (ch. 2:23); the Church, the Lamb's heavenly bride (Rev. 19:7).

Baalim (or Baal): lord. A pagan god of the Moabites and Canaanites.

2:13 Baalim. That is, heathen gods and idols. Hos. 4:13; 11:2.

2:15 Achor. That is, trouble. Josh. 7:26; Isa. 65:10.

2:16 Ishi. Literally my husband. v. 7. Baali. Literally my lord.

2:19 betroth. The grace of God is beautifully set forth in the verb "betroth" which signifies, in the original, to woo a virgin. Compare Num. 23:21.

^ajudgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou ^bshalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, ^cI will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the ^dearth shall hear the ^ecorn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel.

23 And I will ^fsow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy ^gupon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my ^hpeople, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

The future Davidic kingdom, when Israel will fear the LORD

3 Then said the LORD unto me, ⁱGo yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen ^jpieces of silver, and for an ^khomer of barley, and an half homer of barley:

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days ^lwithout a ^mking, and without a prince, and ⁿwithout a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without ^oteraphim:

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel ^preturn, and seek the LORD their God, and David their ^qking; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

II. An Indictment of Israel, 4-8

The LORD's charge against the sinful nation

4 Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a ^rcontroversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is ^sno truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and ^tlying, and ^ukillings, and ^vstealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 ^wTherefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the ^xbeasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man ^ystrive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that ^zstrive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou ^{aa}fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy ^{bb}mother.

Israel's willful ignorance

6 ¶ ^{cc}My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: ^{dd}seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were ^{ee}increased, so they sinned against me: ^{ff}therefore will I change their glory into shame.

3:4 image. This prediction has been remarkably fulfilled in the condition of Israel since the time of Christ. Scattered, without political unity under a king or a prince, and performing no sacrifices since the destruction of the temple by the Romans in A.D. 70, they have yet retained their identity and avoided idolatrous worship of sacred stones or idols.

3:5 Chapter 3 is one of the classic O.T. passages describing Israel's past, present, and future. Her idolatrous past is illustrated by Gomer's unfaithfulness to Hosea (vv. 1-2), despite which Hosea is commanded to love her and buy her back "according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel," a love which led Him to pay the purchase price of the blood of the cross to redeem Israel, the basis of her restoration. The present condition of Israel is illustrated and plainly prophesied in vv. 3-4. Her future is declared in v. 5, showing her repentance toward God who, in His faithfulness, will restore her.

4:6 This is one of the best known and most frequently quoted passages in Hosea.

ple, and they ^aset their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, ^blike people, like priest: and I will ^cpunish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall ^deat, and not have enough: they shall commit ^ewhoredom, and shall not increase: because they have ^fleft off to ^gtake heed to the LORD.

11 ^hWhoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart.

Israel's persistent idolatry

12 ¶ My people ⁱask counsel at their ^jstocks, and their staff declar-eth unto them: for the spirit of ^kwhoredoms hath caused ^lthem to err, and they have ^mgone a whoring from under their God.

13 They ⁿsacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and ^oburn incense upon the hills, ^punder oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof ^qis good: ^rtherefore your daughters shall commit ^swhoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit ^twhoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with ^uwhores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people ^vthat ^wdoth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, ^xyet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto ^yGilgal, neither go ye up to ^zBeth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel ^{aa}slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will ^{ab}feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim ^{ac}is joined to ^{ad}idols: ^{ae}wlet him alone.

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed ^{af}whoredom continually: her rulers ^{ag}with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The ^{ah}wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

The LORD's face is withdrawn

5 Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment ^{ai}is toward you, because ye have been a ^{aj}snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the ^{ak}revolters are ^{al}aprofound to make slaughter, though I ^{am}have been a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O ^{an}Ephraim, thou committest ^{ao}whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will ^{ap}not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of ^{aq}whoredoms ^{ar}is in the midst of them, and they have ^{as}not known the LORD.

5 And the ^{at}pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to ^{au}seek the LORD; but they shall ^{av}not find ^{aw}him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have ^{ax}dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten ^{ay}strange children: now shall a ^{az}month devour them with their portions.

8 ^{ba}Blow ye the ^{bb}cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in ^{bc}Ramah: cry aloud ^{bd}at ^{be}Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

The LORD laments Ephraim's (Israel's) sin

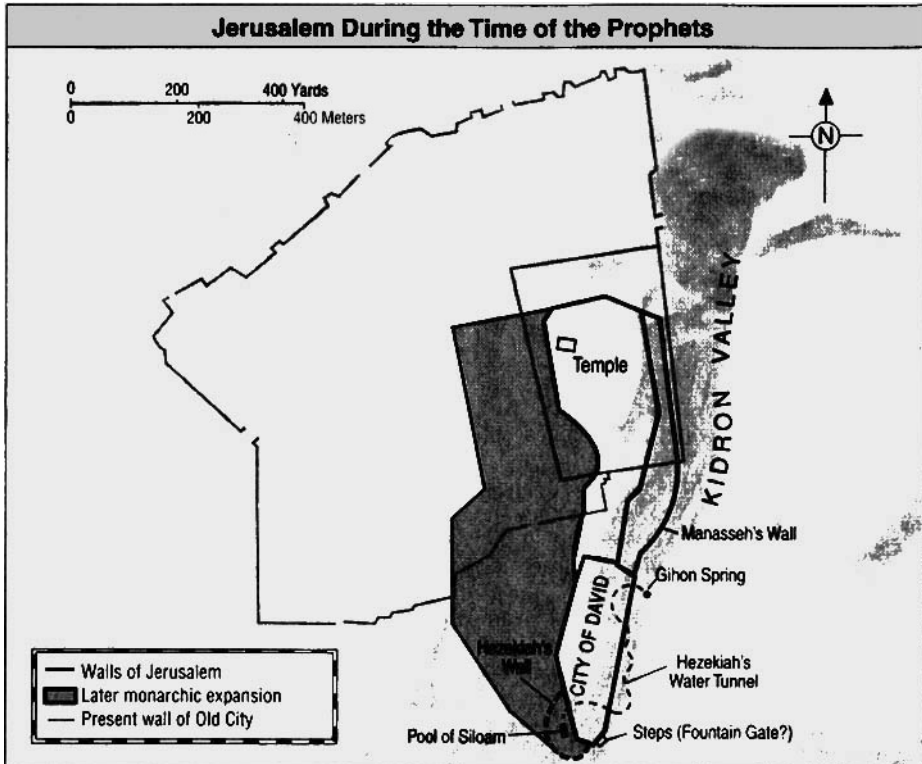

4 ¶ O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I phewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

5:15 Taken with Mt. 23:37-39, this passage gives in broad outline the course of Israel's future restoration to God. early. Literally earnestly.

6:4 Ephraim. Meaning fruitful. Hos. 7:1; 11:8.

6 For I desired ^amercy, and ^bnot sacrifice; and the ^cknowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they like men have ^dtransgressed the covenant: there have they ^edealt treacherously against me.

8 ^fGilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as ^gtroops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of ^hpriests ⁱmurder in the way by consent: for they commit ^jlewdness.

10 I have seen an ^khorrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the ^lwhoredom of ^mEphraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set an ⁿharvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

Ephraim's iniquity

7 When I ^owould have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was ^pdiscovered, and the wickedness of ^qSamaria: for they commit ^rfalsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts that I ^sremember all their wickedness: now their ^town doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

3 They make the ^uking glad with their wickedness, and the ^vprinces with their lies.

4 They are ^wall adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made ^xhim sick with ^ybottles of ^zwine; he stretched out his hand with ^{aa}scorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an ^{ab}oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: ^{bb}there is none among them that calleth unto ^{cc}me.

8 Ephraim, he hath ^{dd}mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 ^{ee}Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth ^{ff}not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the ^{gg}pride of Israel testieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ ^{hh}Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to ⁱⁱEgypt, they go to ^{jj}Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will ^{kk}spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.

13 ^{ll}Woe unto them! for they have ^{mm}flied from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have ⁿⁿredeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have ^{oo}not cried unto me with their heart, when they ^{pp}howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for ^{qq}corn and ^{rr}wine, and they ^{ss}rebel against me.

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they ^{tt}imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a ^{uu}deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this ^{vv}shall be their ^{ww}derision in the land of ^{xx}Egypt.

Reaping the whirlwind

8 Set the trumpet to thy mouth. 8 He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my ^{yy}law.

2 ^{yy}Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

9 Rejoice ^vnot, O Israel, for joy, as ^wother people: for thou hast ^zgone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every ^{aa}cornfloor.

that there shall not be a man left: yea, ^awoe also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw ^bTyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a ^cmiscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in ^dGilgal: for there I hated them: for the ^ewickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are ^frevolters.

16 Ephraim is ^gsmitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear ^hno fruit: yea, though they ⁱbring forth, yet will I slay ^jeven the beloved ^kfruit of their womb.

17 My God will ^lcast them away, because they did ^mnot hearken unto him: and they shall be ⁿwanderers among the nations.

"Break up your fallow ground" (10:12)

10 Israel is an empty ^ovine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his ^pfruit he hath ^qincreased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made ^rgoodly images.

2 Their heart is ^sdivided; now shall they be found ^tfaulty: he shall ^ubreak down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have ^vno king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, ^wswearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the ^xcalves of ^yBeth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof ^zrejoiced on it, for the ^{aa}glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto ^{ab}Assyria for a present to king ^{ac}Jareb: Ephraim shall ^{ad}receive shame, and Israel shall be ^{ae}ashamed of his own counsel.

7 ^{af}As for Samaria, her king is ^{ag}cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The ^{ah}high places also of ^{ai}Aven, the ^{aj}sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the ^{ak}thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, ^{al}Cover us; and to the hills, ^{am}Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of ^{an}Gibeah: there they stood: the ^{ao}battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 ^{ap}It is in ^{aq}my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an ^{ar}heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the ^{as}corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 ^{at}Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; ^{au}break up your fallow ground: for ^{av}it is time to ^{aw}seek the LORD, till he ^{ax}come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have ^{ay}plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the ^{az}multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy ^{ba}fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the ^{bb}mother was dashed in pieces upon ^{bc}her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the ^{bd}king of Israel utterly be cut off.

IV. God's Unceasing Love for Israel, 11:1–13:8

The LORD's past relationship with His people

11 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and ^acalled
^bmy ^cson out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they ^dwent from them: they ^esacrificed unto Baalim, and ^fburned incense to ^ggraven images.

3 I ^htaught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their ⁱarms; but they knew not that I ^jhealed them.

4 I ^kdrew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and ^lI was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I ^mlaid ⁿmeat unto them.

5 ¶ He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the ^oAssyrian shall be his king, because they ^prefused to return.

6 And the ^qsword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour ^rthem, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to ^rbacksliding from me: though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt ^shim.

8 ^sHow shall I give thee up,
Ephraim? ^thow shall I deliver thee,
Israel? how shall I make thee as ^uAdmah? ^vhow shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my ^wrepentings are kindled together.

9 I will ^vnot execute the fierce-ness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I ^{am} God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter

THE BOOK OF JOEL

Author:
Joel

Theme:
Day of the LORD

Date of writing:
9th or 8th Century B.C.

Background

The book of Joel, whose name means the LORD (Jehovah) is God, is difficult to date because no Israelite king or foreign nation is mentioned in it. Many think that it was written in the time of Jehoash. It describes the invasion of Judah by a plague of locusts that destroyed everything in its path and impoverished the people (1:1—2:11).

God's Relationship to Man

In this situation the prophet urged the people to turn to the LORD (2:12–17). God's merciful answer follows. The passage at 2:18–19 shows the LORD accepting the repentance of the people and promising that He will not only remove from them the plague of locusts (2:20), but that He will also restore to them all that the locusts have eaten (2:23–25). In 2:28ff. the prophet looks far into the future at coming judgment and coming joys. The locust invasion, now only a matter of history, may be taken as a harbinger of invasions of human armies which are yet to come. Great blessings which God promises to pour out upon His people in the latter days are described.

THE PLAGUE OF LOCUSTS

The palmerworm, locusts, etc., are thought to be different forms, at different stages of development, of one insect. The essential fact is that, according to the usual method of the Spirit in prophecy, some local circumstance is shown to be of spiritual significance, and is made the occasion of a far-reaching prophecy (e.g. Isa. 7:1–14, where the Syrian invasion and the unbelief of Ahaz give occasion to the great prophecy of v. 14). Here in Joel a plague of locusts is shown to have symbolic significance (1:13–14), portraying a coming invasion (2:1–11) if repentance is not forthcoming (2:12–17). This impending "day of the LORD" in judgment becomes a foreshadowing of that great climactic day of the LORD, not yet fulfilled (Isa. 2:12, refs.).

The picture foreshadows the end-time of Israel's age, of "the times of the Gentiles" (Lk. 21:24; Rev. 16:19); of the battle of Armageddon (Rev. 16:14; 19:11–21); of the regathering of Israel (see Rom. 11:26, note); and of kingdom blessing.

The order of events during Israel's last days may be:

- (1) the invasion of Palestine from the north by Gentile world powers (Joel 2:1–10; Armageddon, Rev. 16:14, refs.);
- (2) the Lord's army and destruction of the invaders (Rev. 19:11–21);
- (3) the repentance of Judah in the land (2:12–17; Dt. 30:3, note);
- (4) the answer of the LORD (2:18–27);
- (5) the outpouring of the Spirit in Israel's "last days" (2:28–29);
- (6) the return of the Lord in glory and the setting up of the kingdom (2:30–32; Acts 15:15–17) by the regathering of the nation and the judgment of the nations (3:1–16); and
- (7) permanent kingdom blessing (3:17–21; Zech. 14:1–21; see Mt. 25:32, note).

1:15 THE DAY OF THE LORD

The term "day of the LORD [Jehovah]" is that period of time when the LORD openly intervenes in the affairs of men, when man's day has closed ("man's judgment" of 1 Cor. 4:3 is literally "man's day."). It will be inaugurated with the rapture of the Church (1 Cor. 15:50-58; 1 Th. 4:13-18). Since the prophets saw historical events from God's viewpoint, they saw the unity of God's world program. Thus they discerned that visitations of God in their time were near foreshadowings of an ultimate fulfillment. In this sense the term is frequently used by Joel.

The day of the LORD in prophetic times will cover the time of the coming tribulation (Rev. 6-19) and the reign of Christ on David's throne (Rev. 20). It will be brought to an end by the judgment of the great white throne (Rev. 20:11-15) and the ushering in of the new heavens and earth, called "the day of God" (2 Pet. 3:10-13). See Rev. 19:19, note.

2:11 his army. In vv. 1-10 the advancing locust plague becomes illustrative of an invading army. (A locust's head resembles a horse's head in miniature.) Verse 11 states that the LORD will bring this army against His people to discipline them for their sin unless they open their hearts in abject and full repentance (vv. 12-17). Only thus can the invasion of the northern (Assyrian) army be averted (v. 20).

2:28 my spirit. Compare Acts 2:17. Peter did not state that Joel's prophecy was fulfilled on the day of Pentecost. The details of Joel 2:30-32 (compare Acts 2:19-20) were not realized at that time. Peter quoted Joel's prediction as an illustration of what was taking place in his day, and as a guarantee that God would yet completely fulfill all that Joel had prophesied. The time of that fulfillment is stated here ("afterward," compare Hos. 3:5), that is, in the latter days when Israel turns to the LORD. See also Gen. 49:1, note. all flesh. The fulfillment of Moses' desire (Num. 11:29). Compare Isa. 32:15; 44:3-4; Ezek. 36:27-28; 37:14; 39:29; Zech. 12:10.

THE BOOK OF AMOS

Author:
Amos

Theme:
Judgment on Sin

Date of writing:
8th Century B.C.

Background

Amos, whose name is related to a verb meaning to bear a load, was burdened over the sin of the northern kingdom in the eighth century B.C. Whereas Hosea was crushed with a sense of the unfaithfulness of Israel to the love of God, Amos was outraged at the violence they had done to the justice and righteousness of God. The note he strikes in his prophecy is the counterpart and corollary to the message uttered by Hosea. The words most descriptive of Amos's message are: "But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream" (5:24). Social justice is inseparable from true piety.

*I. The Pronouncement of Judgment,

Introduction

1 The words of Amos, who was among the ^aherdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of ^bUzziah king of Judah, and in the days of ^cJeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the ^dearthquake.

2 And he said, ^eThe LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the ^fhabitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the ^gtop of Carmel shall wither.

Judgments on surrounding cities and nations

3 Thus saith the LORD; ^aFor three transgressions of ^bDamascus, and for four, I will not ^cturn away the punishment thereof; because they have ^dthreshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a ^efire into the house of Hazeal, which shall devour the palaces of ^fBen-hadad.

5 I will ^abreak also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto ^bKir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^aGaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to ^bEdom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from ^aAshdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ^aAshkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the ^bPhilistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^aTyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the ^bbrotherly covenant:

10 But I will ^asend a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^aEdom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his ^bbrother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of ^aAmmon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ^bripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with ^ashouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And their king shall go into ^acaptivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

Amos: burden. A minor prophet who declared God's judgment on Judah and Israel and the surrounding nations.

1:1 Amos's pronouncement of judgment was declared about 780-755 B.C. Uzziah. Called Azariah in 2 Ki. 14:21.

1:3 Observe Amos's method of prophesying. Beginning with denunciation of Israel's enemies (compare vv. 3,6,9,11,13; and 2:1), he wins a hearing from a hostile crowd. Moving nearer, he speaks of the sin of Judah (2:4). Finally, having gained the sympathy of his hearers, he points out the sin of Israel itself (3:1). Isaiah used a similar method (Isa. 28). For three transgressions . . . and for four. An expression indicating a measure of full iniquity and inevitable judgment.

1:5 bar. The gates of ancient cities were secured by heavy bars. It was gates such as these that Samson carried away from Gaza's entrance (Jud. 16:3).

Edom: red. The nation descended from Esau. Located in the rough mountainous area south of Moab and east of Arabah at the base of the Dead Sea. The Edomites had frequent conflicts with the Israelites.

ment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the ^ajudge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the ^bprinces thereof with him, saith the LORD.

Judgment on God's people: Judah and Israel

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^cJudah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ^ddespised the law of the LORD, and have ^enot kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to ^ffer, after the which their ^gfathers have walked:

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^hIsrael, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the ⁱpoor for a pair of shoes;

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the ^jpoor, and turn aside the way of the meek; and a man and his father will go in unto the ^ksame maid, to ^lprofane my holy name:

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes ^mlaid to pledge by every altar, and they ⁿdrink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 ¶ Yet destroyed I the ^oAmorite before them, whose height was like the ^pheight of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his ^qfruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up from the land of ^rEgypt, and led you ^sforty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the ^tAmorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for ^uprophets, and of your young men for ^vNazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, ^wProphecy not.

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore ^xthe flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the ^ymighty deliver himself:

15 ^zNeither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself; neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away ^{aa}naked in that ^{bb}day, saith the LORD.

2:13 I am pressed under you. Or I press you down.

*II. Inevitable Divine Judgment
Because of Sin, 3-4*

All twelve tribes guilty

3 Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of ^aEgypt, saying,

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will ^bpunish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two ^cwalk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion ^droar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no ^egin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he ^frevealeth his secret unto his servants the ^gprophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? ^hthe Lord GOD hath spoken, ⁱwho can but prophesy?

9 ¶ Publish in the palaces at ^jAshdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the ^kmountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know ^lnot to do right, saith the LORD, who ^mstore up violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord

GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and ⁿthy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd ^otaketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a ^pcouch.

13 Hear ye, and ^qtestify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall ^rvisit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also ^svisit the altars of ^tBeth-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the ^uwinter house with the ^vsummer house; and the houses of ^wivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

The LORD scorns Beth-el's sacrifices

4 Hear this word, ye ^xwine of Bashan, that are in the ^ymountain of Samaria, which oppress the ^zpoor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us ^{aa}drink.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his ^{bb}holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

3:2 known. By covenant relationship. Dt. 4:32-37. I will punish you. The LORD's controversy with the Gentile cities which hated Israel is brief: "I will send a fire" (2:2). But Israel had been brought into the place of privilege and so of responsibility, and the LORD's indictment is detailed and unsparing. Compare Mt. 11:23; Lk. 12:47-48; 1 Pet. 4:17; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6.

3:3 Observe the seven result-cause questions in vv. 3-6, concluding with the challenge: "Shall there be evil [calamity] in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?"

3:6 be afraid. Or run together. evil. Calamity, not moral evil. Compare Isa. 14:24-27; 45:7; Jer. 4:6; Jas. 1:13,17.

4:5 thanksgiving with leaven. The use of leaven is significant. Peace with God is something which the believer shares with God. Christ is our peace offering (Eph. 2:13-18). Any thanksgiving for peace must, first of all, present Him. In Lev. 7:12 this is seen, in type, and so leaven is excluded. In Lev. 7:13 it is the offerer who gives thanks for his participation in the peace; so leaven fitly signifies that, although he has peace with God through the work of another, the offerer still has evil in him. This is illustrated in Amos 4:5, where the evil in Israel is before God. free offerings. That is, freewill.

Sodom and Gomorrah: burning. Cities located in the Valley of Siddim known for their extreme wickedness and destroyed by God with fire and brimstone. Only Lot and his family survived the destruction.

Beth-el: house of God. A city in central Palestine where God renewed his covenant with Jacob. Jacob built an altar there to mark the place where he spoke with God.

7 Ye who turn ^ajudgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and ^bOrion, and ^cturneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the ^dday dark with night: that ^ecalleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:

9 That ^fstrengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They ^ghate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 ^hForasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have ⁱbuilt houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall ^jnot drink wine of them.

12 For I ^kknow your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they ^lafflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the ^mpoor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 ⁿHate the evil, and love the good, and establish ^ajudgment in the gate: ^oit may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the ^premnant of Joseph.

IV. Some Phenomena in Relation to the Coming of the LORD, 5:16—9:10

The day of the LORD

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; ^qWailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the ^rhusbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all ^svineyards shall be wailing; for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Woe unto you that desire the ^tday of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is ^udarkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did ^vflee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD ^wbe ^xdarkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

Worship without righteousness an abomination to the LORD

21 ¶ I ^yhate, I despise your feast days, and I will not ^zsmell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye ^{aa}offer me burnt-offerings and your ^{bb}meat-offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the ^{cc}noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy ^{dd}viols.

24 But let ^{ee}judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 Have ye offered unto me ^{ff}ee sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into ^{gg}h captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose ^{hh}name is The God of hosts.

6 ⁱⁱWoe to them that are ^{jj}at ^{kk}ease in Zion, and ^{ll}trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from ^{mm}kk thence go ye to ⁿⁿHamath the great: then go down to ^{oo}Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

Amaziah sends accusation against Amos to Jeroboam

10 ¶ Then Amaziah the ^cpriest of ^dBeth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath ^econspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away ^fcaptive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, ^ggo, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy ^hnot again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's ⁱchapel, and it is the king's court.

The answer of Amos

14 ¶ Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a ^jprophet's son; but I was an ^kherdman, and a gatherer of sycamore fruit:

15 And ^lthe LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, ^mprophesy unto my people Israel.

16 ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and ⁿdrop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thy ^owife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a ^ppolluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity ^qforth of his land.

8 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and behold a ^rbasket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest

3 And the ^tsongs of the temple shall be ^uhowlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that ^vswallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the ^wnew moon be gone, that we may sell ^xcorn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ^yeephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by ^zdeceit?

6 That we may buy the ^{aa}poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath ^{bb}sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land ^{cc}tremble for this, and every one ^{dd}mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall ^{ee}rise up wholly as a ^{ff}flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the ^{ff}flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the ^{gg}sun to go down at noon, and I will ^{hh}darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into ⁱⁱmourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up ^{jj}sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it ^{kk}as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, ^{ll}but of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to ^{mm}seek the word of the LORD, and shall ⁿⁿnot find it.

(6) Israel's permanent settlement in the holy land (v. 15).

9:11 is fallen. The Davidic monarchy, pictured by a tabernacle, was in a degraded condition. Compare Isa. 11:1. On the basis of this verse the Talmudic rabbis called Messiah Bar Naphli ("the son of the fallen"). But He will arise (Mal. 4:2).

9:12 The ancient Greek translation rendered this verse as follows: "That the rest of mankind may seek [the LORD], and all the nations upon whom my name is called, says the LORD, who does all these things." Strange as it may seem to those who are unfamiliar with the Hebrew language, the Hebrew text may be rendered this way, with little more

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

Author: Obadiah

Theme:
Doom of Edom

Date of writing:
6th Century B.C.

Background

Obadiah is completely unknown, apart from the meaning of his name (servant or worshipper of the LORD). The date of his prophecy is not certain, but internal evidence seems best to point to about 585 B.C., the year after the destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. Some scholars suggest a much earlier date, however, that is, around the ninth century.

The book, which in literary form is a “doom song,” has a single theme—judgment upon Edom, the nation descended from Esau. In Obadiah’s time Sela (later called Petra) was the capital of Edom. Its unique ruins, cut out of solid cliffs of rose-colored rock and long hidden in the arid regions south of the Dead Sea, were discovered in A.D. 1812 and stand as a silent witness to the fulfillment of the prophecy.

The book may be divided as follows:

1 Obadiah's pronouncement of doom on Edom took place about 585 B.C., v. 11. Edom. The enmity between Jacob and Esau (Gen. 36), the founder of Edom, persisted through the centuries (Ex. 15:15; Num. 20:14ff.; Ps. 83:6; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 3:19; etc.). The sin of Edom was pride (v. 3), which led to violation of the bond between brothers (vv. 10-14).

3 clefts. The allusion is to Petra, the great cliff-city which, in Obadiah's time, was called Sela. See Introduction.

Obadiah: worshipper of Jehovah. A minor prophet who prophesied against Edom.

Esau: hairy. The oldest son of Isaac and Rebekah who was tricked by his brother into selling him the birthright. He was later also deprived of the family blessing.

9 Teman. Teman was noted for its wisdom, Jer. 49:7. slaughter. The destruction described here (compare Jer. 49:7-22; Ezek. 25:12-14) was probably at the hands of the Arabs. As a result Edom was almost devoid of population during the Persian period. The presence of Arabs in the neighborhood is shown by the aggression of Geshem, the Arab, the enemy of Nehemiah (Neh. 6:1-2). Later a mixture of Arabs with the remainder of the Edomites became quite a factor in the region of Petra, the former capital of Edom, establishing there a kingdom called the Nabataean kingdom, as well as in southern Palestine, which was largely in the hands of the Edomites. The Greeks and Romans called the Edomites Idumeans, another form of the same name. King Herod was an Edomite.

11 carried away captive his forces. Probably the deportation by Nebuchadnezzar, about 586 B.C.

17 there shall be holiness. Here Obadiah points to the essential element of the Messianic kingdom. Because the LORD's kingdom must be a holy kingdom, man who is by himself unholy can never establish it. Only the Holy One of Israel can set up a holy kingdom.

18 Esau. Edom will be revived (compare Isa. 11:14) in the latter days.

19 The south translates the Hebrew word Negev, which is based on a word meaning "to be dry." It is a geographical term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.). plain. The "plain" or Shephelah is a section of the Holy Land bounded on the north by the Valley of Aijalon, on the west by the Maritime Plain, on the east by the Central Plateau, and reaching to Beer-sheba in the south. It is characterized by low, rounded chalk hills divided by several broad valleys.

21 Saviours, or deliverers on the earth, as in Jud. 3:9,15, will serve under the Lord Jesus Christ, the King of kings (Rev. 19:16; compare also Rev. 20:4). This final verse is clearly Messianic. Short though his book is, Obadiah concludes, as do so many of the other prophets, with the promise of future deliverance for Israel in the kingdom.

THE BOOK OF JONAH

Author:
Jonah

Theme:
God's Mercy

Date of writing:
8th Century B.C.

Background

Jonah was a prophet of Israel who lived about the time of Jeroboam II (2 Kings 14:25). His name means dove, and he occupies a unique place as the first foreign missionary. The historical character of Jonah's preservation in the great fish and his preaching to the inhabitants of Nineveh is attested by Christ, who likens the prophet's experience to His own burial and resurrection (Matthew 12:38–42).

A masterpiece of condensed narration, this book has suffered from overemphasis upon the miracle of the great fish (see 1:17, note). However, neither deletion nor rationalization solves the difficulty of the miracle which remains an object of faith, not explanation. The Book of Jonah is full of the supernatural; aside from the great fish, there are the vine, the worm, the east wind, and, greatest of all, the repentance of the entire city of Nineveh.

God's Relationship with Man

Jonah's character and God's dealing with him foreshadow the subsequent history of the nation of Israel: outside the land, a trouble to the Gentiles, yet witnessing to them; cast out, but miraculously preserved; in future deepest distress calling upon the LORD as Saviour, finding deliverance and then becoming missionaries to the Gentiles (Zechariah 8:7–23). But chiefly Jonah typifies Christ as the Sent-One, raised from the dead, and carrying salvation to the Gentiles.

I. The Disobedience and Flight of Jonah, 1:1-11

Introduction

1 Now the word of the LORD came unto ^aJonah the son of Amittai, saying,

Jonah flees from the LORD

2 Arise, go to ^bNineveh, that ^cgreat city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to ^dTarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish ^efrom the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ The LORD sent out a great ^fwind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was ^glike to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and ^hcast forth the wares that ⁱwere in the ship into the sea, to lighten ^jit of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, ^kcall upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast ^llots, that we may know for whose cause this evil ^mis upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil ⁿis upon us; What ^ois thine occupation? and ^pwhence comest thou? what ^qis thy country? and of what people ^rart thou?

9 And he said unto them, I ^sam an Hebrew; and I ^tfear the LORD, the God of heaven, ^uwhich hath made the sea and the dry ^vland.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea ^wwrought, and was tempestuous.

II. Jonah and the Great Fish,
1:12-2:10

Jonah swallowed by the fish

12 And he said unto them, Take ^xme up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that ^yfor my sake this great tempest ^zis upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring ^{aa}it to the land; but they could ^{ab}not: for the sea ^{ac}wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent ^{ad}blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it ^{ae}pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ^{af}ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD

1:1 Jonah. The prophet's home was Gath-hepher of Zebulun (2 Ki. 14:25), north of Nazareth in Galilee. Compare the misstatement quoted in Jn. 7:52.

Jonah: dove. A minor prophet who ran from God's call. Famous for surviving being swallowed by a great fish.

1:2 Nineveh, the capital of the ancient Assyrian Empire, was noted for its cruelty and violence (Jon. 3:8). This is confirmed by the ancient records found there. Under the preaching of Jonah in the eighth century B.C., the city and king had turned to God (Jon. 3:3-10). But in the time of Nahum, a century or more later, the city had wholly departed from God. The message of Nahum, therefore, though given perhaps a generation before the destruction of the city, is not a call to repentance but an unrelieved warning of judgment (1:9; 3:10). Such is the way of God; light rejected brings destruction.

Nineveh: The capital of Assyria. Jonah was sent here to tell the people to repent of their wickedness.

1:3 Joppa. The place of Peter's vision, Acts 9:36,43; 10:5.

Tarshish: a city of a distant land, possibly Spain, that was rich in metals.

1:4 sent out. Literally hurled. Compare Ps. 148:8.

1:5 mariners. Probably the famous Phoenicians.

1:9 fear. "The fear of the LORD" is an O.T. expression meaning reverential trust, including the hatred of evil.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a ^agreat fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish ^bthree days and three nights.

Jonah's prayer; the LORD's answer

2 Then Jonah ^cprayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, ^dI cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of ^ehell cried I, and thou hearest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy ^fbillows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then I ^gsaid, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The ^hwaters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I ⁱremembered the LORD: and my ^jprayer came in unto thee, into thine ^kholy temple.

8 They that ^lobserve lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will ^msacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have ⁿvowed. Salvation is of the ^oLORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD ^aspake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

III. The Greatest Revival in History, 3

Nineveh repents and is spared

3 And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the ^psecond time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto ^qNineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

1:17 prepared. Literally appointed, ordered. Jon. 4:6,7,8.

2:1 prayed. That Jonah prayed implies that he was alive and conscious. The prayer is full of passages from the Psalms, indicating that Jonah had stored the Word of God in his heart. Compare Rom. 15:4.

2:9 Salvation is of the LORD. The theme of the Bible. Ps. 3:8.

3:3 Nineveh was one of the greatest cities of ancient times. So large was its metropolitan area that it would take three days to go through it. This statement in Jonah was much questioned before the rise of modern archaeology. Excavations in Mesopotamia have fully confirmed the statements in Jonah, Nahum, and other parts of the O.T. about the greatness of Nineveh. Yet in 612 B.C. Nineveh was so completely destroyed by its enemies that even its location was forgotten. See 3:4, note.

MIRACLES OF THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

No other miracle of Scripture has called forth so much unbelief. It has been claimed that a whale could not swallow a man, yet types of whales have been found that could easily do so. In addition, the word used here, like the one in Mt. 12:40, does not exclusively mean whale but could also be translated sea monster, possibly the whale shark or rhinodon, the largest of all fish, sometimes attaining a length of seventy feet. The real miracle is not the swallowing but the fact that Jonah was alive when he was cast out of the great fish on to the dry land. After all, a miracle is what might be expected of divine love, interposing for good in a physically and morally disordered universe (Rom. 8:19–23).

THE MESSAGE OF JONAH

The message of Jonah, as is so often the case in prophetic books, was ethically conditioned. If Nineveh repented, it would be spared; if it refused, it was to be destroyed.

Since God knew that Nineveh would ultimately reject His Word and would turn to even greater wickedness than before, the prediction of destruction is given in absolute form. Never was a city more terribly destroyed than was Nineveh. The whole Book of Nahum is devoted to predicting this terrible utter destruction. The forty-day element was ethically conditioned, and the time was lengthened at the occurrence of the great temporary revival described here in ch. 3. Compare the similar postponement of a predicted catastrophe in 1 Ki. 21:29.

5 ¶ So the ^apeople of Nineveh ^bbelieved God, and proclaimed a ^cfast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and ^acovered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be ^eproclaimed and published through Nineveh by the ^fdecree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and ^gcry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 Who can tell hif God will turn and ⁱrepent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God ⁱrepented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it ⁱnot.

IV. The Wideness of God's Mercy, 4

Jonah's displeasure

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very ^kangry.

2 And he ^lprayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a ^mgracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and ⁿrepentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, ^otake, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is ^abetter for me to die than to live.

4:1 displeased Jonah. The old nature resists the display of God's grace to any of His creatures. An example is Jonah's own admission in 4:2.

Jonah rebuked by the LORD

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be ^bangry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and ^csat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it ^dwithered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I spare ^eNinveh, that ^fgreat city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

4:10 In these last verses the great missionary lesson of the book is sharply drawn: Are the souls of men not worth as much as a vine? Like Jonah, God's people today are often more concerned about the material benefits so freely bestowed upon us by God than about the destiny of a lost world.

THE BOOK OF MICAH

Author:
Micah

Theme:
Judgment and Kingdom

Date of writing:
8th Century B.C.

Background

Micah, whose name means Who is like the LORD?, prophesied in the eighth century B.C. as a contemporary of Isaiah (compare 1:1 with Isaiah 1:1). He came from the small town of Moresheth, about twenty miles southwest of Jerusalem. There are many similarities between passages in Isaiah and Micah (compare Micah 4:1–5 with Isaiah 2:2–4). Jeremiah mentions Micah by name (Jeremiah 26:18) and relates him to the reign of Hezekiah, and our Lord quotes Micah 7:6 in Matthew 10:35–36. Samaria, Jerusalem, all Judah, Israel, and the nations are the subject of the prophecy. Assyria is the prominent foreign power. The messages are particularly to the capital cities, Samaria and Jerusalem, as the centers of influence in the nation. God pleads with Israel and Judah to turn to Him from their sin, setting forth the Assyrian as the rod of His wrath, and He concludes with promises of future glory under the Messiah and His righteous reign.

I. Condemnation and Captivity, 1-2

Introduction

1 The word of the LORD that came to ^aMicah the Morasthite in the days of ^bJotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Judgment on Israel

2 Hear, all ye people; ^chearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be ^dwitness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the ^ehigh places of the earth.

4 And the ^fmountains shall be ^gmolten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not ^hSamaria? and what are the ⁱhigh places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

Assyria will destroy Samaria and reach the gate of Jerusalem

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as ^jplantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will ^kdiscover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the ^lgraven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the ^mhire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will ⁿwail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the ^odragons, and mourning as the ^powls.

9 For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the ^qgate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 ¶ Declare ye it not at ^rGath, weep ye not at all: in the house of Aphrah roll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy ^sshame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited ^tcarefully for ^ugood: but ^vevil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of ^wLachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were ^xfound in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give ^ypresents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of ^zAchzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto ^{aa}Adullam the glory of Israel.

16 Make thee bald, and ^{bb}poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into ^{cc}captivity from thee.

Micah: who is like Jehovah. A minor prophet who prophesied God's judgment on Israel.

1:1 The word of the LORD came to Micah in about 740 B.C.

1:3 These words predict Shalmaneser's destruction of the northern kingdom, Sennacherib's invasion, and Nebuchadnezzar's invasion.

1:6 In vv. 6-16 the Assyrian invasion is described. Compare 2 Ki. 17:1-18. This is the local circumstance which gives rise to the prophecy of the greater invasion in the last days (4:11-13), when the Lord will deliver His people at the Battle of Armageddon (Rev. 16:13-16; see Rev. 19:17, note).

1:7 hires. That is, rewards. Hos. 2:5,12. all the hires.

Probably costly vessels that had been given to heathen temples.

Jacob: supplanter. The younger son of Isaac and Rebekah who tricked his brother Esau into selling him his birthright. He deceived his father in order to receive the family blessing. Married Leah and Rachel. Had twelve sons by his wives and concubines. Also referred to as Israel.

Samaria: guard. The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel.

2 Woe to them that ^adevise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the ^bmorning is light, they practise it, because it is in the ^cpower of their hand.

2 And they ^dcovet fields, and take them by ^eviolence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this ^ffamily do I devise an ^gevil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye ^hgo haughtily: for this time is evil.

4 ¶ In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly ⁱspoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall ^jcast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 ^kProphesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the ^lspirit of the LORD ^mstraitened? are these his ⁿdoings? do not my words ^odo good to him that ^pwalketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out ^qfrom their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 ^rArise ye, and depart; for this is not your ^srest: because it is ^tpolluted, it shall destroy you, even with a ^usore destruction.

11 If a man walking in the spirit and ^vfalsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the ^wprophet of this people.

Deliverance promised

12 ¶ I will surely ^xassemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the ^yremnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the ^zmultitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

GEOGRAPHICAL PUNS

Micah cleverly uses puns to convey his message. The puns are a play on the meanings of some of the place names in Micah 1:10-15.

Name	Meaning	Phrase played off of
Gath	sounds like the Hebrew word for "declare"	"Declare it not in Gath" (v. 10a)
Aphrah	means "dust"	"Roll . . . in the dust" (v. 10b)
Moresheh-gath	means "possession of Gath"	"give presents to" (v. 14)
Achzib	means "lie"	"shall be a lie to the kings" (v. 14)
Mareshah	means "inheritance"	"bring an heir" (v. 15)
Adullam	means "justice of the people"	"the glory of Israel" (v. 15)

3 Who also c eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the d caldron.

4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will e not hear them: he will even f hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD concerning the g prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

6 Therefore h night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over i them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the j diviners confounded: yea, they shall all k cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of l power by the m spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his n transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that o abhor p judgment, and pervert all equity.

(2) the universality of the future kingdom (v. 2);

(3) its character—peace (v. 3); and

(4) its effect—prosperity (v. 4). Compare Isa. 2:1-5; 11:1-12.

4:13 horn. The words "horn" and "horns" (O.T., qeren; N.T., keras) are used in Scripture both literally and figuratively. In the latter sense at least three meanings appear:

MICAH'S PROPHECIES

Having described the future kingdom (vv. 1-8) and glanced at the Babylonian captivity (vv. 9-10), Micah looks forward into the last days to refer to the great battle (see Armageddon, Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17, note) which immediately precedes the setting up of the Messianic kingdom. See Kingdom (O.T.) (Gen. 1:26-28; Zech. 12:8, note); also, Kingdom (N.T.) (Lk. 1:31-33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note).

In chapter 5:2 the scene shifts from the great battle (yet future) to the birth and rejection of the King, Messiah (Mt. 27:24-25,37). This is followed by the statement that Israel will be abandoned "until the time that she who travaileth hath brought forth" (v. 3). There is a twofold "travail" of Israel: (1) that which brings forth the "male Child" (Christ) (Rev. 12:1-2,5); and (2) that which, in the last days, brings forth a believing remnant out of the still unbelieving nation (v. 3; 4:10; Jer. 30:6-11). Both aspects are combined in Isa. 66. In Isa. 66:7 there is the male Child (Christ) of Rev. 12:1-2,5; in Is. 66:8-24, the remnant, established in kingdom blessing.

The meaning of Mic. 5:3 is that, from the rejection of Christ at His first coming, the LORD will abandon Israel until the believing remnant appear; then He stands and shepherds in His proper strength as the LORD (v. 4); He is the defense of His people as in 4:3,11-13; and afterward the remnant go as missionaries to Israel and to all the world (5:7-8; Zech. 8:23).

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the ^hremnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and ⁱfeed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now ^jshall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man shall be the peace, when the ^kAssyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

6 And they shall ^lwaste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the ^mland of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he ⁿdeliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the ^oremnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a ^pdew from the LORD, as the ^qshowers upon the grass, that tarri-eth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the ^rGentiles in the midst of many people as a ^slion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both ^ttreadeth down, and ^uteareth in pieces, and ^vnone can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be ^wlifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

6:7 firstborn. The law claimed the firstborn of man and beast for the LORD (Ex. 13:2,12). The firstborn of beasts were sacrificed. However, the sacrifice of children was forbidden on pain of death (Lev. 18:21; 20:2-5; Dt. 12:31; 18:10). They were redeemed (Ex. 13:13). This passage does not teach that human sacrifice was common in Israel; it merely reveals the futility of such a practice.

7:7 Verses 7-20 are, primarily, the confession and intercession of the prophet, who identifies himself with Israel. Compare Dan. 9:3-19. Intercession was a part of the prophetic office (Gen. 20:7; Jer. 27:18). But Micah's prayer voices also the heart exercise of the remnant in the last days. Such is prophecy, an intermingling of the near and the far. Compare Ps. 22:1; Mt. 27:46.

Annually the orthodox Jew, at a river or running stream, symbolically empties his pockets of his sins, casting them into the water (see v. 19).

THE BOOK OF NAHUM

Author:
Nahum

Theme:
Nineveh's Doom

Date of writing:
7th Century B.C.

Background

Nahum means comfort (of God) and is related to the name Nehemiah. Nahum prophesied during the seventh century B.C. His book forms the sequel to the Book of Jonah. The repentance under Jonah delayed the judgment of God for about a century. Nahum's prophecy may be dated between the destruction of Thebes or No Amon (3:8) by Ashurbanipal in 666 B.C. and the capture of Nineveh by the Babylonians and their allies in 612 B.C.

Style of the Book

The style of Nahum is lyric poetry of a high order, which some have considered the most impassioned in all the prophets. All must concede that his messages are vivid and forceful.

Outline

The book may be divided as follows:

I. The Character of God, 1:1-8

Introduction

1 The ^aburden of ^bNineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

The holiness of the LORD; judgment upon Nineveh

2 ^cGod is jealous, and the LORD ^drevenge; the LORD ^drevenge, and is furious; the LORD will ^etake vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 ^fThe LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: ^gthe LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: ^hBashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountains ⁱquake at him, and the hills ^jmelt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 ^kWho can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the ^lrocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is ^mgood, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and ⁿhe knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

II. God's Punishment of His Enemies, 1:9-15

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be ^ofolden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be ^pdevoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be ^qcut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee ^rno more.

13 For now will I ^sbreak his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

1:1 Nahum's vision occurred about 666-615 B.C. Nineveh. The capital of the ancient Assyrian Empire was noted for its cruelty and violence (Jon. 3:8). This is confirmed by the ancient records found there. Under the preaching of Jonah in the eighth century B.C., the city and king had turned to God (Jon. 3:3-10). But in the time of Nahum, a century or more later, the city had wholly departed from God. The message of Nahum, therefore, though given perhaps a generation before the destruction of the city, is not a call to repentance but an unrelieved warning of judgment (1:9; 3:10). Such is the way of God; light rejected brings destruction.

Nahum: comforter. A minor prophet who prophesied the destruction of Nineveh.

1:2 The great ethical lesson of Nahum is that the character of God makes Him not only "slow to anger" (v. 3) and a refuge to those who trust Him (v. 7), but also one who "will not at all acquit the wicked" (v. 3). He can be "just and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus" (Rom. 3:26), but only because His holy law has been vindicated in the cross.

1:4 Bashan, Carmel, and Lebanon are known to have been among the most fertile regions of Palestine.

1:11 wicked counsellor. It is generally agreed that the invader is Sennacherib, king of Assyria, who threatened Judah in the fourteenth year of Hezekiah's reign. Compare 2 Ki. 18:13-19:37; Isa. 36-37.

AN ASSYRIAN LEGAL FORMULA

In the context the expression "quiet, and likewise many," although a literal translation of the Hebrew, does not seem to make much sense. Actually the Hebrew here represents a transliteration of a long-forgotten Assyrian legal formula. Excavation in the ruins of ancient Nineveh, buried since 612 B.C., has brought to light thousands of ancient Assyrian tablets, dozens of which contain this Assyrian legal formula. It proves, on investigation, to indicate joint and separate responsibility for carrying out an obligation.

Nahum quotes the LORD as using this Assyrian formula in speaking to the Assyrians, saying in effect, "Even though your entire nation joins as one person to resist me, nevertheless I shall overcome you." As the words would have been equally incomprehensible to the later Hebrew copyists, their retention is striking evidence of the care of the scribes in copying exactly what they found in the manuscripts, and testifies to God's providential preservation of the Biblical text.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that ^ano more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the ^bgraven image and the ^cmolten image: I will make thy ^dgrave; for thou art ^eevile.

15 Behold upon the mountains the ^ffeet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, ^gkeep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for ^hthe wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is ⁱutterly cut off.

III. The Destruction of Nineveh Detailed, 2

2 He that ⁱdasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the ^kmunition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD hath turned away the ^lexcellency of Jacob, as the ^lexcellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The ^mshield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in ⁿscarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall ^ojostle one against another ^pin the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall ^qrun like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his ^rworthies: they shall ^sstumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The ^tgates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And ^uHuzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the ^vvoice of doves, ^wtabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall ^xlook back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of ^ygold: for there is ^znone end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the ^{aa}lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and ^{bb}filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ^{cc}ravin.

13 ^{dd}Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will ^{ee}burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy ^{ff}messengers shall no more be heard.

IV. The Cause of the Destruction, 3

3 Woe to the ^{gg}bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the ^{hh}jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a ⁱⁱgreat number of carcasses; and there is ^znone end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

Author:
Habakkuk

Theme:
From Doubt to Faith

Date of writing:
7th Century B.C.

Background

Habakkuk, whose name means embrace, prophesied to Judah in the last quarter of the seventh century B.C. concerning the impending invasion by the Chaldeans (1:6). The conditions of 1:2–4 are corroborated by the record in 2 Kings 21–22; moral and spiritual decline marked the life of the nation.

Habakkuk was a man of a deeply tender nature and spiritual character. He manifested a great love for his people, fulfilling the position of watchman over them. His questions and doubts arose from his jealousy for the holiness and justice of God. The prophet was perplexed over God's permission of evil in Judah, and even more so over God's use of Babylon as the rod of correction for His people. The answer to his questions is found in 2:4, which is the key verse of the book and is quoted in Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38. It sets forth the cause of life and death. Sin must issue in destruction; faith invariably leads to spiritual life.

The theophany in chapter 3, reminiscent of that at Mount Sinai, is one of the grandest in the Bible. (Compare Ezekiel 40:3–4; see Genesis 12:7, note.) The reference in 3:19 to "stringed instruments" suggests that the prophet was a Levite and a musician.

Introduction

1 The ^aburden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

The problem: Why is sin unjudged?

2 O LORD, ^bhow long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! ^ceven cry out unto thee ^dof ^eviolence, and thou wilt ^fnot save!

3 Why dost thou shew me ^giniquity, and cause ^hme to behold grievance? for ⁱspoiling and violence ^jare before me: and there are ^kthat raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the ^llaw is slacked, and ^mjudgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth ⁿcompass about the righteous; therefore wrong ^ojudgment ^pproceedeth.

The LORD's answer

5 ¶ ^qBehold ye among the ^rheathen, and regard, and ^swonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, ^twhich ye will not believe, though it be told ^uyou.

6 For, lo, I ^vraise up the Chaldeans, ^wthat bitter and hasty ^xnation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces ^ythat are not theirs.

7 They are ^zterrible and dreadful: their ^{aa}judgment and their dignity shall proceed of ^{ab}themselves.

8 Their horses also are ^{ac}swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the ^{ad}eagle ^{ae}that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: ^{af}their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall ^{ag}wgather the ^{ah}captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall ^{ai}vscoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall ^{aj}his mind change, and he shall ^{ak}pass over, and offend, ^{al}imputing this his ^{am}power unto his god.

Habakkuk's perplexity:

How can God use wicked Babylon?

12 ¶ ^{an}Art thou not ^{ao}from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for ^{ap}correction.

13 ^{aq}Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: ^{ar}wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth ^{as}the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, ^{at}that have no ruler over them?

15 ^{au}They take up all of them with the ^{av}angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by ^{aw}ss them their portion ^{ax}is fat, and their ^{ay}meat plentiful.

17 Shall they therefore empty their ^{az}net, and not spare continually to ^{ba}slay the nations?

2 I will ^{bb}stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see ^{bc}what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

1:1 Habakkuk's burden took place about 627–586 B.C. burden. The "burden" (or oracle; see Isa. 13:1, note) is not Habakkuk's question in vv. 2–4, nor the one in 1:12–2:1, but the LORD's answer to both of these questions.

Habakkuk: embrace. A minor prophet who prophesied God's judgment against Judah.

1:3 iniquity. Like Asaph (Ps. 73) and Job, Habakkuk is perplexed by the affliction of the godly and the prosperity of the ungodly. The key to the solution is 2:4.

1:6 Chaldeans. The Chaldeans were Semites, descendants from Kesed, son of Nahor, brother of Abraham (Gen. 22:22). Habakkuk sees the Chaldeans as the rod of God's anger on the kingdom of Judah, as Isaiah (5:26–30) saw the Assyrians as the agent of God's punishment on the kingdom of Israel (Isa. 10:5).

1:7 judgment. The Chaldeans, recognizing no superiors, were a law unto themselves.

1:12 O mighty God. Literally, O Rock. Dt. 32:4.

1:13 behold. That is, look with favor upon.

The just shall live by faith

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, ^aWrite the vision, and make it plain upon ^btables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an ^cappointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and ^dnot lie: though it tarry, ^ewait for it; because it will ^fsurely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not ^gupright in him: but the just shall live by his ^hfaith.

5 ¶ Yea also, because he ⁱtransgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who ^jenlargeth his desire as ^khell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these ^ltake up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth ^mthat which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and ⁿawake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for ^obooties unto them?

8 ^pBecause thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; ^qbecause of men's blood, and ^rfor the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Woe to him that coveteth an ^sevil covetousness to his house, that he may ^tset his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10 Thou hast ^uconsulted ^vshame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast ^wsinned against thy soul.

11 For the ^xstone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

2:3 THE RESPONSE OF THE VISION

To the watching prophet comes the response of the vision (vv. 2-20). Three elements are to be distinguished:

(1) The moral judgment of the LORD upon the evils practiced by Israel (vv. 5-13, 15-19).

(2) The future purpose of God that "the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea" (v. 14). That this revelation awaits the return of the Lord in glory is shown (a) by the parallel passage in Isa. 11:9-12; and (b) by the quotation of v. 3 in Heb. 10:37-38, where the "it" of the vision becomes "he" and refers to the return of the Lord. It is then, after the vision is fulfilled, that "the knowledge of the glory," etc. shall fill the earth. But

(3) meantime, "the just shall live by his faith." This great evangelical word is applied to Jews and Gentiles in Rom. 1:17; to the Gentiles in Gal. 3:11-14; and to Hebrews especially in Heb. 10:38. This opening of life to faith alone, makes possible not only the salvation of the Gentiles, but also the existence of a believing remnant in Israel while the nation, as such, is in blindness and unbelief (see Rom. 11:1 and 5, notes), with neither priesthood nor temple, and consequently unable to keep the ordinances of the law. Such is the LORD!

In disciplinary government His ancient Israel is cast out of the land and judicially blinded (2 Cor. 3:12-15), but in covenanted mercy the individual Jew may resort to the simple faith of Abraham (Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:1-5) and be saved. This, however, does not set aside the Palestinian and Davidic Covenants (see Dt. 30:3 and 2 Sam. 7:16, notes), for "the earth shall be filled," etc. (v. 14), and the LORD will again be in His temple (v. 20). Compare Rom. 11:25-27.

2:2 run that readeth it. Not, as usually quoted, "that he that runneth may read," but "that he may run that readeth"; that is, as a messenger of the vision. Compare Zech. 2:4-5.

2:4 the just shall live by his faith. Here is the central theme of the Bible. The cause of life and death is presented. Trust in God brings life (Gen. 15:6; Jer. 3:16; Rom. 6:23); pride leads to death, because it will not accept by faith the grace of God (Rom. 1:17; Gal. 3:11; Heb. 10:38).

SHEOL

The Hebrew Sheol is, in the O.T., the place to which the dead go.

(1) Often, therefore, it is spoken of as the equivalent of the grave, where all human activities cease; the terminus toward which all human life moves (e.g. Gen. 42:38; Job 14:13; Ps. 88:3).

(2) To the man "under the sun," the natural man, who of necessity judges from appearances, Sheol seems no more than the grave—the end and total cessation, not only of the activities of life, but also of life itself (Eccl. 9:5,10). But

(3) Scripture reveals Sheol as a place of sorrow (2 Sam. 22:6; Ps. 18:5; 116:3), into which the wicked are turned (Ps. 9:17), and where they are fully conscious (Isa. 14:9-17; Ezek. 32:21). Compare Jon. 2:2; what the belly of the great fish was to Jonah, Sheol is to those who are therein.

The Sheol of the O.T. and Hades of the N.T. are identical. See Lk. 16:23, note.

12 ¶ Woe to him that ^abuildeth a town with blood, and ^bstablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people ^cshall labour ^din the very fire, and the ^epeople shall weary themselves for ^fvery vanity?

14 For the earth shall be ^gfilled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy ^hbottle to him, and makest him ⁱdrunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled with ^jshame for glory; drink thou also, and let thy ^kforeskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and ^lfor the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ What profiteth the ^mgraven image that the maker thereof hath ⁿgraven it; the ^omolten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work ^ptrusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, ^qAwake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with ^rgold and silver, and there is no breath at all ^sin the midst of it.

20 ^tBut the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

III. The Triumphant Faith of Habakkuk, 3

3 A ^uprayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.

2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was ^vafraid: O LORD, ^wrevive ^xthy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember ^ymercy.

3 ^zGod came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. ^{aa}Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the ^{bb}earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was as the light; he had ^{cc}horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove ^{dd}asunder the nations; and the everlasting ^{ee}mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in ^{ff}affliction: and the curtains of the land of ^{gg}Midian did tremble.

8 Was the LORD displeased against the ^{hh}rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy ⁱⁱchariots of salvation?

BIBLE PRAYERS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

Prayer is an integral part of worship, in the O.T. and in the N.T. In the O.T. the petitions and supplications of God's people are based upon His character and the divine covenants. O.T. saints, often acting in the priestly office of representing the people before the LORD, frequently appeal to the honor of the name of God and the steadfastness of His word as they plead with the Almighty to fulfill on their behalf the promises that He has graciously made to them as His covenant people (Gen. 15:2-3; 18:23-32; Ex. 32:11-14; 2 Sam. 7:18-29; 1 Ki. 8:22-53; 18:36-37; Dan. 9:3-19). For Bible prayers (N.T.), see Lk. 11:2, note.

9 Thy bow was ^amade quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep ^buttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

11 The ^csun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst ^dthresh the ^eheathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with ^fthine anointed; thou ^gwoundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by ^hdiscovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

14 Thou didst strike through with his ⁱstaves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to ^jdevour the poor secretly.

15 ^kThou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, ^l*through* the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

17 ¶ Although the ^mfig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no ⁿmeat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be ^ono herd in the stalls:

18 Yet I will ^prejoice in the LORD, I will ^qjoy in the God of my salvation.

19 The LORD God is my ^rstrength, and he will make my feet like ^shinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine ^thigh places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

God should send him suffering and loss, he declares, he will still rejoice in the God of his salvation. Here is one of the strongest manifestations of faith in the Scriptures.

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

Author:
Zephaniah

Theme:
Day of the LORD

Date of writing:
7th Century B.C.

Background

Zephaniah, which means the LORD hides or protects, was a great-great-grandson of King Hezekiah (1:1). The internal evidence of the book shows that he prophesied during the reign of King Josiah, probably in the decade before the great revival of 621 B.C. Stirred by the moral declension of his time, he foresaw the fall of Jerusalem which, in his inspired vision, became a figure of the day of the LORD. Not only so, but he also looked forward to the judgment of the Gentiles and the restoration of Israel in the Messianic kingdom.

A leading theme of Zephaniah is the day of the LORD, a future event that he describes with vivid power. Zephaniah uses the term, "day of the LORD," more than any other prophet except Joel, yet he pleads with Judah to "seek the LORD" that they might be "hidden in the day of the LORD's anger" (2:3).

4 I will also ^dstretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will ^ecut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests;

5 And them that worship the host of heaven ^fupon the housetops; and them that worship and that ^gswear by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham;

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will ⁿpunish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with ^ostrange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with ^pviolence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an ^qhowling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 ^rHowl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear ^ssilver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with ^tcandles, and punish the men that are ^usettled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD will not ^vdo good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall ^wbecome a booty, and their houses a desolation: ^xthey shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but ^ynot drink the wine thereof.

14 The great ^zday of the LORD is near, it is near, and ^{aa}hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

1:7 ZEPHANIAH'S PROPHECY

In predictive prophecy, such as Zephaniah's portrayal of the day of the LORD, the near and far view are often merged. From a distance a great mountain range appears as a single barrier against the sky, although it actually comprises many foothills and intermediate summits separated by extensive valleys from the ultimate heights. So Zephaniah, seeing in the impending fall of Jerusalem the nearest aspect of the day of the LORD, can say that it is "at hand" (v. 7) and "near" (v. 14); whereas, towering in the distant future of unfulfilled prophecy, the final Day of the LORD awaits the return of Christ in glory. It is then that all earth-judgment will culminate, to be followed by the restoration and blessing of Israel and the nations in the kingdom. See Day of the LORD (Isa. 2:10-22; see Joel 1:15 and Rev. 19:19, notes); Israel (Gen. 12:2-3; Rom. 11:26).

Zephaniah's call to repentance

2 ^kGather yourselves together, ^lyea, gather together, O nation not desired;

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass ^mas the chaff, before the ⁿfierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you.

3 ^oSeek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have ^pwrought his ^qjudgment; seek righteousness, ^rseek meekness: it ^smay be ye shall be ^thid in the day of the LORD's anger.

II. Predictions of Judgments of Surrounding Nations, 2:4-15

4 ¶ For ^uGaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the ^vCherethites! the word of the LORD is ^vagainst you; O Canaan, the land of the ^wPhilistines, I will even ^xdestroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the ^yremnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed ^zthereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ I have heard the reproach of ^{aa}Moab, and the revilings of the children of ^{bb}Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely ^{cc}Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of ^{dd}Ammon as ^{ee}Gomorrhah, even the ^{ff}breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall ^{gg}spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their ^{hh}pride, because they have reproached themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be ⁱⁱterrible unto them: for he will famish all the ^{jj}gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the ^{kk}isles of the ^{ll}heathen.

12 ¶ Ye ^{mm}Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy ⁿⁿAssyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

2:13 Nineveh. The capital of the ancient Assyrian Empire was noted for its cruelty and violence (Jon. 3:8). This is confirmed by the ancient records found there. Under the preaching of Jonah in the eighth century B.C., the city and king had turned to God (Jon. 3:3-10). But in the time of Nahum, a century or more later, the city had wholly departed from God. The message of Nahum, therefore, though given perhaps a generation before the destruction of the city, is not a call to repentance but an unrelieved warning of judgment (1:9; 3:10). Such is the way of God; light rejected brings destruction.

3:7 fear. "The fear of the LORD" is an O.T. expression meaning reverential trust, including the hatred of evil.

3:9 then will I turn. In Zephaniah the conversion of "the people" is stated out of the usual prophetic order, in which the blessing of Israel and the setting up of the kingdom precede the conversion of the Gentiles. See Zech. 12:1,8, with notes. But the passage gives clear testimony as to when the conversion of the nations will occur. It is after the smiting of the nations. Compare Isa. 11:9 with context; Ps. 2:5-8; Dan. 2:34-35; Acts 15:15-17; Rev. 19:19-20:6. pure language. The prophet is not foretelling a universal language, as though to reverse the consequences of Babel, but the conversion of the nations, a spiritual transformation readily discernible in their purified speech.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

Author:
Haggai

Theme:
Rebuilding the Temple

Date of writing:
6th Century B.C.

Background

Haggai, whose name means festive, was one of the early post-captivity prophets. His ministry was to rebuke the returned exiles for their delay in rebuilding the Temple and to encourage them to set to work. Haggai was a contemporary of Zechariah (Ezra 5:1–2).

The five messages that make up the Book of Haggai are among the most precisely dated of all prophecies, the year, month, and day being specified in each case (1:1,15; 2:1,10,20). Such expressions as “then the word of the LORD came” and “Thus saith the LORD of hosts” occur about nineteen times in the two chapters of the prophecy.

Outline

The book may be divided according to the five messages of Haggai, as follows:

|---|---------|
| I. The First Message of Rebuke | 1:1–11 |
| A. Introduction | 1:1–2 |
| B. The Condition of the Exiles: God’s Discipline Because of Disobedience | 1:3–11 |

| V. The Third Message of Encouragement: the Final Overthrow of Gentile World Power | 2:20–23 |

I. The First Message of Rebuke, 1:1-11

Introduction

1 In the ^asecond year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first ^bday of the month, came the word of the LORD by ^cHaggai the prophet unto ^dZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^egovernor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

The condition of the exiles: God's discipline because of disobedience

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your ^fscieled houses, and this house ^glie ^hwaste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

6 Ye have ⁱsown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the ^jmountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will ^ktake pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, ^lit came to little; and when ye brought

1:1 Darius the king. The dating of a Hebrew prophecy, 520 B.C., by the reign of a Gentile monarch, in this instance Darius I Hystaspis, reveals that the times of the Gentiles were in progress (Lk. 21:24). For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2. Haggai. Haggai's prophecy should be compared with the prophecy of Zechariah, his contemporary, and also with the historical record in the Book of Ezra, as follows: Hag. 1:1–11 with Ezra 4:24–5:1; Hag. 1:12–15 with Ezra 5:2 and Zech. 1:1–6; Hag. 2:10–23 with Zech. 1:7–6:15. III. The Second Message of Encouragement: the Future Glory of the Temple, 2:1-9

The temples

2 In the ^bseventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying,

2 Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 ^cWho is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now ^dbe strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for ^eI am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 *According to the word that I f*covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my ^gspirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^hYet once, it is a little while, and I will ⁱshake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

7 And I will shake all nations, and the ^jdesire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with ^kglory, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

IV. The Second Message of Rebuke, 2:10-19

God's message of cleansing and blessing

10 ¶ In the ^lfour and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^mAsk now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear ⁿholy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any ^omeat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, *If one that is p*unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean?

For that reason Christ purified the temple of His day, erected though it was by an Idumean usurper to please the Jews (Mt. 21:12–13). Peace will be bestowed through the Prince of Peace (Isa. 9:6–7; compare Mic. 5:5).

2:13 unclean. The principle is illuminated by Lev. 6:18;

2:3 HAGGAI'S MESSAGE

The prophet calls the old men who remembered Solomon's temple, to witness to the new generation how greatly that structure exceeded the present in magnificence; and he then utters a prophecy (vv. 7–9) which can only refer to the future kingdom temple described by Ezekiel. It is certain that the restoration temple and all subsequent structures, including Herod's, were far inferior in costliness and splendor to Solomon's.

The present period is described in Hos. 3:4–5. Verse 6 is quoted in Heb. 12:26–27. Verse 7, "I will shake all nations," refers to the great tribulation and is followed by the coming of Christ in glory, as in Mt. 24:29–30. "The desire of all nations" (LXX, "the riches of all nations" that is, the treasures or desirable things) is an expression that refers ultimately to Christ, in whom all true riches culminate. See Mal. 3:1, note.

And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, ^aSo is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a ^bstone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

Author:
Zechariah

Theme:
Messiah's Advents

Date of writing:
6th Century B.C.

Background

Zechariah, whose name means the LORD remembers, was a prophet of the restoration from Babylon. As a contemporary of Haggai (compare 1:1 with Haggai 1:1), he began his two-year ministry in the second year of Darius I Hystaspis, 520 B.C. His messages cover events beginning with the rebuilding of the Temple and concluding with the millennium.

Expositors, both Jewish and Christian, have complained of the difficulty of the book. This is due largely to the visions of chapters 1–6. But no Old Testament prophet has more prophecy concerning Christ, Israel, and the nations in so short a space than Zechariah. He predicts the second coming of Christ. His reign, His priesthood, His kingship, His humanity, His Deity, His building of the Temple of the LORD, His coming in lowliness, His bringing of permanent peace, His rejection and betrayal for thirty pieces of silver, His return to Israel as the crucified One, and His being smitten by the sword of the LORD.

Zechariah's predictions of other prophetic events of the end-time are equally clear and significant. In the last chapter alone the prophet discloses the last siege of Jerusalem, the initial victory of the enemies of Israel, the cleaving of the Mount of Olives, the LORD's defense of Jerusalem by His visible appearing on Olivet, judgment on the confederated nations, the topographical changes in the land of Israel, the Feast of Tabernacles in the millennium, and the ultimate holiness of Jerusalem and her people.

I. Call to Repentance, 1:1-6

Introduction

1 In the ^aeighth month, in the second year of ^bDarius, came the word of the LORD unto ^cZechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of ^dIddo the prophet, saying,

A solemn warning and call to repentance

2 The LORD hath been ^esore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^fTurn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not ^gas your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and ^hfrom your evil doings: but they ⁱdid not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where ^jare they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not ^ktake hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, ^lLike as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

II. A Series of Eight Visions to Comfort Jerusalem, 1:7-6:15

(1) The rider on the red horse

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, ^kcame the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that ^lwere in the bottom; and behind him ^mwere there ⁿred horses, ^ospeckled, and white.

9 Then said I, ^pO my lord, what ^qare these? And the ^rangel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these ^sbe.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These ^tare ^uthey whom the LORD hath sent to ^vwalk to and fro through the earth.

11 And they answered the ^wangel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, ^xall the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

The LORD displeased with the nations

12 ¶ Then the ^yangel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, ^zhow long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these ^{aa}threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the ^{ab}angel that talked with me ^{ac}with good words and ^{ad}comfortable words.

14 So the ^{ae}angel that ^{af}communied with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of

1:8 saw by night. Zechariah's first vision (vv. 8-17) reveals Judah in dispersion, Jerusalem under adverse possession, and the Gentile nations at rest about it. This condition still continues, and the LORD's answer to the intercession of the angel sweeps on to the end-time of Gentile domination, when "the LORD shall yet comfort Zion," etc. (vv. 16-17; Isa. 40:1-5). See Kingdom (O.T.) (Gen. 1:26-28; Zech. 12:8, note). red horse. Compare Rev. 6:4. The whole period of Gentile world power is characterized by the red horse, that is, by the sword. 2:1 THE MEASURING LINE

The measuring line (or reed) is used by Ezekiel (Ezek. 40:3,5) as a symbol of preparation for rebuilding the city and temple in the Kingdom Age. Here it has that meaning, as the context shows (vv. 4-13).

The subject of the vision is the restoration of nation and city. In no sense has this prophecy been fulfilled. The order is:

(1) the LORD in glory in Jerusalem (v. 5) (compare Mt. 24:29-30);

(2) the restoration of Israel (v. 6);

(3) the judgment of the LORD upon the nations (vv. 8-9) (compare Mt. 25:31-32); and

(4) the full blessing of the earth (vv. 10-13).

See Kingdom (OT) (Gen. 1:26-28; Zech. 12:8, note; Israel, Gen. 12:2-3; Rom. 11:26, note).

1:18 lifted I up mine eyes. A horn is sometimes used as a symbol of a Gentile king (Dan. 7:24; Rev. 17:12), and the vision is of the four world empires (Dan. 2:36-44; 7:3-7), which have "scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem" (v. 19). See Dt. 33:17, note.

1:20 four carpenters. The four carpenters may denote the four judgments of Ezek. 14:21 ("the sword and the famine and the noisome beast and the pestilence"), and in turn the four horsemen and horses of Rev. 6:1-8. See v. 18, note.

3 And he shewed me ^dJoshua the high priest standing before the ^eangel of the LORD, and ^fSatan standing at his right hand to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, ^gThe LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a ^hbrand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Joshua was ⁱclothed with filthy garments, and stood before the ^eangel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, ^jTake away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have ^kcaused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will ^lclothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a ^mfair mitre upon his head. So they set a ^mfair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the ^eangel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the ^eangel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt ⁿkeep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee three places to walk among these that stand by.

3:1 high priest. The purpose of this vision was to set forth the reinstatement of Israel into their priestly office. Compare Ex. 19:5-6. It discloses:

(1) the change from self-righteousness to the righteousness of God (see Rom. 3:21, note), of which Paul's experience in Phil. 3:1-9 is the illustration, as it is also the foreshadowing of the conversion of Israel; and

(2) in type, the preparation of Israel for receiving the LORD's Branch (see Isa. 4:2, note).

The refusal of the Jews to abandon self-righteousness for the righteousness of God blinded them to the presence of the Branch in their midst at His first advent (Rom. 10:1-4; 11:7-8). Compare Zech. 6:12-15, which speaks of the manifestation of the Branch in glory (v. 13) as the Priest-King, when Israel will receive Him. See Heb. 5:6, note.

THE VISION OF THE CANDLESTICK

In this vision the candlestick represents God's witness before the world. In the time of Zechariah this witness was maintained by Israel. In the Church Age it is maintained by the Church (compare Rev. 1:12,13,20; 2:1,5; etc.). Although the Church will be removed at the rapture (1 Th. 4:13-17; etc.), God will still maintain a witness in the world. The two olive trees represent two phases of God's government, one the priestly and the other the kingly. From these two olive trees the oil was carried to the candlestick. Oil is the uniform symbol of the Holy Spirit. See Acts 2:4, note.

The two olive trees represent Joshua and Zerubbabel, whose witness in that day is the prototype of the two witnesses of Rev. 11:3-12. Actually no human being can be the real source of the power that actuates God's witness. It is only as Joshua, Zerubbabel, or any other human being represents Christ, the true Priest-King, that he fulfills this vision. In their fullest significance the two olive trees speak of Christ, the LORD's Priest-King (compare Ps. 110:4).

Zerubbabel: scattered in Babylon. A prince of Judah who led the first group of exiles back to Judah. He started the work of rebuilding the temple and restored the worship of God.

5:1 flying roll. A roll (or scroll), in Scripture symbolism, denotes the written word, whether of God or man (Ezra 6:2; Jer. 36:2,4,6, etc.; Ezek. 3:1-3, etc.). Zechariah's sixth vision is of the rebuke of sin by the Word of God. The two sins mentioned really transgress both tablets of the law. To steal is to set aside our neighbor's right; to swear is to set aside God's claim to reverence. As always, the law can only curse (v. 3; Gal. 3:10-14).

5:3,6 earth. Or land, that is, Palestine.

5:5 In the vision of the ephah (vv.5-11) there is a blending of elements from Zechariah's time with those of the far distant future. The ephah, being a very large dry measure among the Hebrews, is employed to indicate how the measure of Israel's sins had accumulated in that day. Compare, for the figure of a measure, 2 Sam. 8:2; Jer. 51:13; Hab. 3:6-7; Mt. 7:2; 23:32. For such iniquity there must be, first of all, the restraint of God in order that the righteous may be

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ^aephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is ^bwickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a ^cstork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the ^dangel that talked with me, ^eWhither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

(8) The four chariots

6 And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came ^ffour chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of ^gbrass.

2 In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

3 And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot ^hgrisled and bay horses.

4 Then I answered and said unto the ⁱangel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the ⁱangel answered and said unto me, These are the ^jfour spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the ^knorth country; and the white go forth after them; and the ^hgrisled go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and ^lsought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, ^mGet you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted ⁿmy spirit in the north country.

permitted to live in the land; this is symbolized by the basket's lead cover. Second, evil must be completely eradicated from the land and carried back to the seat of idolatry and defiance of God, namely, Babylon; this is indicated by the flight of the basket to Babylon, its base. Compare Rev. 18.

5:11 Shinar. That is, Babylon, Gen. 10:10; Dan. 1:2.

6:1 four chariots. The interpretation of the eighth vision must be governed by the authoritative declaration of v. 5. The four chariots with their horses do not symbolize the four world empires of Daniel, but "four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth." These spirits are angels (Lk. 1:19; Heb. 1:14). They have also a ministry earthward, and of like nature with the spirits of Zech. 6:1-8, that is, judgment. The symbol (chariots and horses) is in perfect harmony with this. Always in Scripture symbolism, they stand for the power of God earthward in judgment (Jer. 46:9-10; Joel 2:3-11; Nah. 3:1-7). The vision, then, speaks of the LORD's judgments upon the Gentile nations north and south in the day of the LORD (Isa. 2:10-22; Rev. 19:11-21).

6:11 crowns. Following the earth-judgments symbolized in the war chariots (6:1-8) comes the manifestation of Christ in His kingdom glory (vv. 9-15). This is the invariable prophetic order: first, the judgments of the day of the LORD (Isa. 2:10-22; Rev. 19:11-21); then, the kingdom (compare Ps. 2:5 with 2:6; Isa. 3:24-26 with 4:2-6; 10:33-34 with 11:1-10; Rev. 19:19-21 with 20:4-6). This is set forth symbolically by the crowning of Joshua, which was not a vision but was actually done (compare Ezek. 37:16-22). The fulfillment in the Branch will infinitely transcend the symbol. He "shall bear the glory" (v. 13; Mt. 16:27; 24:30; 25:31) as the Priest-King on His own throne (vv. 12-13; Heb. 7:1-3). Christ is now a Priest but is still in the holiest within the veil (Heb. 9:11-14,24; compare Lev. 16:15) and seated on the Father's throne (Rev. 3:21). He has not yet come out to take His own throne (Heb. 9:28). It was to keep alive this larger hope of Israel that this crown was made for the symbolical crowning of Joshua; it was to be laid up in the temple as a memorial.

14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaijah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

7:2 A FAST DAY OBSERVANCE

The mission of these Jews concerned a fast day instituted by the Jews during the captivity in commemoration of the destruction of Jerusalem, wholly of their own will and without warrant from the Word of God. In the beginning there was doubtless sincere contrition in the observance of the day; now it had become a mere ceremonial. The Jews sent from Beth-el would be rid of it, but seek authority from the priests. The whole matter, like much in modern pseudo-Christianity, was extra-Biblical, formal, and futile.

The LORD takes the occasion to send a divine message to the inquirers. That message is in five parts:

(1) Their fast was a mere religious form; they should rather have given heed to the "former prophets" (vv. 4-7; compare Isa. 1:12; Mt. 15:1-10).

(2) They are told why their prayer of seventy years has not been answered (vv. 8-14; compare Ps. 66:18; Isa. 1:14-17).

(3) The unchanged purpose of the LORD and the blessing of Israel in the kingdom are alluded to (8:1-8; compare a like order in Isa. 1:24-31 with 2:1-4).

(4) The messengers of the captivity are exhorted to hear of the prophets "these days," that is, Haggai and Zechariah, and to do justly; then all their fasts and feasts will become gladness and joy (8:9-19). And

(5) they are assured that Jerusalem is yet to be the religious center of the earth (8:20-23; compare Isa. 2:1-3; Zech. 14:16-21).

7:1 Chisleu. This is the ninth month in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of November-December. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2. Neh. 1:1.

7:7 The south translates the Hebrew word Negev, which is based on a word meaning "to be dry." It is a geographical term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.). plain. The "plain" or Shephelah is a section of the Holy Land bounded on the north by the Valley of Aijalon, on the west by the Maritime Plain, on the east by the Central Plateau, and reaching to Beer-sheba in the south. It is characterized by low, rounded chalk hills divided by several broad valleys.

Why their prayers were unanswered

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, ^cExecute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And ^doppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the ^estranger, nor the poor; and let none of you ^fimagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they ^grefused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should ^hnot hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the ⁱformer prophets: therefore came a great ^jwrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would ^knot hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But I ^lscattered them with a ^mwhirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

The LORD will restore Israel in the kingdom

8 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was ⁿjealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am ^oreturned unto Zion, and will ^pdwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the ^qholy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet ^rold men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be ^sfull of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be marvellous in the eyes of the ^tremnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous ^uin mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the ^veast country, and from the west country;

8 And I will ^wbring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be ^xmy people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

Exhortation to hear the prophets

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the ^yprophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 ^zBut now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

8:3 SANCTIFICATION, HOLINESS IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

In the O.T. the words consecration, dedication, sanctification, and holiness are renderings of one Hebrew word. The terms are used of persons and of things, and have an identical meaning, that is, set apart. Only when used of God Himself (e.g. Lev. 11:45), or of the holy angels (e.g. Dan. 4:13), is any inward moral quality necessarily implied. Doubtless a priest or other person set apart to the service of God, whose whole will and desire went with his setting apart, experienced progressively an inner detachment from evil. See Mt. 4:5 and Rev. 22:11, notes.

8:6 remnant. The remnant in vv. 6, 11, 12 refers to the remnant of Judah which returned from Babylon, among whom Zechariah was prophesying. See Rom. 11:5, note.

8:9 prophets. Haggai and Zechariah, who were in Jerusalem when the temple was begun (Ezra 5:1-2).

8:11 residuc. Or remnant.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their ^adew; and I will cause ^bthe remnant of this people to possess all these things.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As I ^ethought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I ^frepented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to ^gdo ^hwell unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: ⁱfear ye not.

8:23 In those days. That is, in the days when Jerusalem has been made the center of earth's worship, in the millennial age. Verse 23 explains: the Jew (compare Remnant, Isa. 1:9; see Rom. 11:5, note) will then be the missionary.

8:14 REPENTANCE IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

In the O.T., "repentance" is one of the English words used to translate the Hebrew nacham, to be eased or comforted. It is used of both God and man. Notwithstanding the literal meaning of nacham, it is evident, from a study of all the passages, that the sacred writers use it in the sense of metanoia in the N.T., meaning a change of mind. See Mt. 3:2; Acts 17:30, note.

As in the N.T., such change of mind is often accompanied by contrition and self-judgment. When applied to God, the word is used phenomenally, according to O.T. custom. God seems to change His mind. The phenomena are such as, in the case of a man, would indicate a change of mind.

and ^aDamascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And ^bHamath also shall border thereby; ^cTyrus, and Zidon, though it be very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and ^dheaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will ^ecast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be ^fdevoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and ^gEkron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in ^hAshdod, and I will cut off the pride of the ⁱPhilistines.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And I will ^jencamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and ^kno oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

10 And I will cut off the ^pchariot from Ephraim, and the ^qhorse from Jerusalem, and the ^rbattle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the ^sheathen: and his ^tdominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the ^ublood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn you to the ^vstrong hold, ye prisoners of ^whope: even to day do I declare that I will render ^xdouble unto thee;

13 When I have ^yvented Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O ^zGreece, and made thee as the ^{aa}sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen ^{bb}over them, and his ^{cc}arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with ^{dd}whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall ^{ee}defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue ^{ff}with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the ^{gg}corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall ^{hh}save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the ⁱⁱstones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

9:8 him that passeth by. This refers to the advance and return of Alexander (v. 13) after the battle of Issus. He subdued the cities mentioned in vv. 1-6, and afterward returned to Greece without harming Jerusalem. But the greater meaning converges on the yet future last days (see Acts 2:17, note), as the latter part of v. 8 shows, for many oppressors have passed through Jerusalem since the days of Alexander.

9:9 thy King cometh. The events following this manifestation of Christ as King are recorded in the Gospels. The real faith of the multitude who cried "Hosanna" is given in Mt.

21:11. So little was Jesus deceived by His apparent reception as King that He wept over Jerusalem and announced its impending destruction, fulfilled in A.D. 70. Compare Lk. 19:38-44. The same multitude soon cried, "Crucify Him."

9:10 After the King is introduced in v. 9, the following verses look forward to the end time and the kingdom.

9:11 have sent forth thy prisoners. Compare Isa. 24:17-23, where vv. 21, 23 fix the time as the day of the LORD. See Rev. 19:19, note.

10:1 latter rain. Compare Hos. 6:3; Joel 2:23-32; Zech. 12:10. There are both a physical and spiritual meaning: rain as of old will be restored to Palestine, but also there will be a mighty effusion of the Spirit upon restored Israel.

10:4 came forth. The tense is futuristic: "From him [Judah] shall be the cornerstone [Ex. 17:6; see 1 Pet. 2:8, note], from him the nail [Isa. 22:23-24], from him the battle bow," etc. The whole scene is of the events which cluster around the deliverance of Israel at the time of the invasion of Palestine from the north (Ezek. 38-39) and the final liberation which will be completely effected by the return of the Lord (Rev. 19:11-21); but previously He strengthens the hard-pressed Israelites (Mic. 4:13; Zech. 9:13-15; 10:5-7; 12:2-6; 14:14). That there may have been a fulfillment in the Maccabean victories can neither be affirmed nor denied from Scripture, but the ultimate fulfillment, when Christ comes again, is certain.

10:9 turn again. That is, return.

10:11 the river. That is, the Nile. Isa. 19:5-7.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves ^anot guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am ^brich: and their own shepherds pity them ^cnot.

6 For I will ^dno more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will ^edeliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will ^fnot deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O ^gpoor of the flock. And I took unto me two ^hstaves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be ⁱcut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even /Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might ^jbreak my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day; and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. ^kSo they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the ^lpotter: a ^mgoodly price that I was ⁿprised at of them. And I took the ^othirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

The foolish shepherd to be overthrown

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a ^pfoolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in ^qpieces.

17 ^rWoe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his ^sarm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be ^tclean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

11:7 two staves. The scene belongs to the first advent. "Beauty" and "Bonds"—literally, "Graciousness" and "Binders" (unifiers)—signify first, God's protection over Israel by His restraint upon the nations; then, the brotherly ties within the nation itself. With the breaking of the first staff, Judah was abandoned to the destruction foretold in vv. 1-6, which was fulfilled in A.D. 70. The breaking of the second staff meant the destruction of the inner bond of the nation, resulting in the internal strife and divisions that contributed largely to the downfall of the Jewish state in A.D. 70.

The order of this chapter is:

(1) the wrath against the land (vv. 1-6), fulfilled in the destruction of Jerusalem after the rejection of Christ (Lk. 19:41-44);

(2) the cause of that wrath in the betrayal and rejection of Christ (vv. 7-14); and

(3) the rise of the "worthless shepherd," the beast (Dan. 7:8; Rev. 19:20), and his destruction (vv. 15-17).

11:10 people. That is, all nations.

11:11 poor of the flock. That is, the "remnant according to the election of grace" (Rom. 11:5), are those Jews who did not wait for the manifestation of Christ in glory but believed in Him at His first coming and subsequently. Of them it is said that they "waited upon me," and "knew."

11:16 raise up a shepherd. The reference is to the coming beast; no other personage of prophecy in any sense meets the description. He who came in His Father's name was rejected. The alternative is one who comes in his own name (Jn. 5:43; Rev. 13:4-8). cut off. That is, perishing.

11:7 PARABLES IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

A parable is a similitude used to teach or enforce a truth.

The O.T. parables fall into three classes:

(1) the story-parable, of which Jud. 9:7-15 is an instance;

(2) parabolic discourses, for example, Isa. 5:1-7; and

(3) parabolic actions, for example Ezek. 37:16-22.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

t Zech. 14:2-3

12:1 Chapters 12-14 form one prophecy, the general theme of which is the return of the Lord and the establishment of the kingdom. The order is:

(1) the siege of Jerusalem preceding the battle of Armageddon (vv. 1-3);

(2) the battle itself (vv. 4-9);

(3) the pouring out of the Spirit and the personal revelation of Christ to the family of David and the remnant in Jerusalem, not merely as the glorious Deliverer but also as the One whom Israel pierced and has long rejected (v. 10);

(4) the godly sorrow which follows that revelation (vv. 11-14); and

(5) the cleansing fountain (Zech. 13:1) then to be opened effectually to Israel.

12:8

KINGDOM OF THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

(See also Kingdom [N.T.] Lk. 1:33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note):

I. Dominion over the Earth before the Call of Abraham.

(1) Dominion over creation was given to the first man and woman (Gen. 1:26-28). Through the fall this dominion was lost, Satan becoming "prince of this world" (Mt. 4:8-10; Jn. 14:30).

(2) After the flood, the principle of human government was established under the covenant with Noah (Gen. 9:6; see Gen. 9:16, note). Biblically, this is still the charter of all government.

II. The Theocratic Kingdom in Israel. (See also 1 Sam. 8:7, note.)

The call of Abraham involved, with much else, the creation of a distinctive people through whom great purposes of God toward the human race might be worked out (see Israel, Gen. 12:1-3; Rom. 11:26, note). Among these purposes is the establishment of a worldwide kingdom. The history of the divine mediatorial rule in Israel is as follows:

(1) Its establishment under Moses (Ex. 19:3-7; compare Ex. 3:1-10; 24:12).

(2) Its administration under leader-judges (Josh. 1:1-5; Jud. 2:16-18).

(3) Its administration under kings (1 Sam. 10:1,24; 16:1-13; 1 Ki. 9:1-5).

(4) Its end at the captivity (Ezek. 21:25-27; compare Jer. 27:6-8; Dan. 2:36-38).

III. The Future Restoration of the Theocratic Kingdom.

(1) The Davidic Covenant (2 Sam. 7:8-16 [see v. 16, note]; Ps. 89:3-4,20-21,28-37).

(2) The exposition of the Davidic Covenant by the prophets (Isa. 1:25-26 [see v. 26, note] to Zech. 12:6-8). They describe the kingdom as follows:

KINGDOM OF THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY (continued)

- (a) It will be Davidic, to be established under David's heir, who is to be born of a virgin, therefore truly man, but also "Immanuel," "the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace" (Isa. 7:13-14; 9:6-7; 11:1; Jer. 23:5; Ezek. 34:23; 37:24; Hos. 3:4-5).
- (b) It will be a kingdom heavenly in origin, principle, and authority (Dan. 2:34-35,44-45), but set up on the earth, with Jerusalem as the capital (Isa. 2:2-4; 4:3,5; 24:23; 33:20; 62:1-7; Jer. 23:5; 31:38-40; Joel 3:1, 16-17).
- (c) The kingdom is to be established first over regathered, restored, and converted Israel, and is then to become universal (Ps. 2:6-8; 22:1-31; 24:1-10; Isa. 1:2-3; 11:1,10-13; 60:12; Jer. 23:5-8; 30:7-11; Ezek. 20:33-40; 37:21-25; Zech. 9:10; 14:16-19).
- (d) The moral characteristics of the kingdom are to be righteousness and peace. The meek, not the proud, will inherit the earth; longevity will be greatly increased; the knowledge of the LORD will be universal; beast-ferocity will be removed; absolute equity will be enforced; and open sin will be visited with instant judgment; whereas the enormous majority of earth's inhabitants will be saved (Ps. 2:9; Isa. 11:4,6-9; 26:9; 65:20; Zech. 14:16-21). The N.T. (Rev. 20:1-5) adds a detail of immense significance—the removal of Satan from the scene. It is impossible to conceive to what heights of spiritual, intellectual, and physical perfection humanity will attain in this, its coming age of righteousness and peace (Ps. 72:1-10; Isa. 11:4-9).
- (e) The kingdom is to be established by power, not persuasion, and is to follow divine judgment upon the Gentile world powers (Ps. 2:4-9; Isa. 9:7; Dan. 2:35,44-45; 7:26-27; Zech. 14:1-19). See Zech. 6:11, note.
- (f) The restoration of Israel and the establishment of the kingdom are connected with the advent of the LORD, yet future (Dt. 30:3-5; Ps. 2:1-9; Zech. 14:4).
- (g) The chastisement reserved for disobedience in the house of David (2 Sam. 7:14; Ps. 89:30-33) fell in the captivities and worldwide dispersion. Since that time, though a remnant returned under prince Zerubbabel, Jerusalem has generally been under the political authority of Gentiles. Even today, under Israeli rule, Gentiles control many important sites within the Holy City. The Davidic Covenant has not been abrogated (Ps. 89:33-37), however, but is yet to be fulfilled (Acts 15:14-17).

7 ¶ Awake, O ^esword, against my ^fshepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: ^gsmite the ^hshepherd, and the ⁱsheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

Israel to be refined and delivered

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, *it*wo parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will ^krefine them as silver is refined, and will ^ltry them as gold is ^mtried: they shall ⁿcall on my name, and I will ^ohear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall ^psay, The LORD is my God.

The LORD's triumphant return to earth to bring deliverance

14 Behold, the ^qday of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will ^rgather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the ^shouses rifled, and the women ravished; and ^thalf of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and ^ufight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

u Armageddon (battle of): vv. 1-5; Mt. 24:28. (Isa. 10:27; Rev. 19:17, note)

13:6 This verse is best understood as an evasive reply of a false prophet in the last days. It carries on and concludes the subject begun in v. 2. By no valid interpretation may it be referred to the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no clear change of subject between vv. 5 and 6 such as exists between vv. 6 and 7. Christ would not claim that He was not a prophet (compare Dt. 18:15-18); He was not a farmer; He was not bought or sold from His youth. Verse 7 does speak of Christ, as Mt. 26:31 and Mk. 14:27 attest.

13:8 This chapter now returns to the subject of 12:10. Verses 8-9 refer to the sufferings of the remnant (Isa. 1:5; Rom. 11:9) preceding the great battle. Then ch. 14 is a recapitulation of the whole matter.

The order is:

- (1) the gathering of the nations, 14:2 (see Armageddon, Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17, note);
- (2) the deliverance, 14:3;
- (3) the return of Christ to the mount of Olives, and the physical change of the scene, 14:4-8; and
- (4) the setting up of the kingdom, and full earthly blessing, 14:9-21.

HOLY SPIRIT IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

(1) The personality and Deity of the Holy Spirit appear from the attributes ascribed to Him and from His works.

(2) He is revealed as sharing the work of creation and, therefore, as omnipotent (Gen. 1:2; Job 26:13; 33:4; Ps. 104:30); omnipresent (Ps. 139:7); striving with men (Gen. 6:3); enlightening (Job 32:8); enduing with constructive skill (Ex. 28:3; 31:3); giving physical strength (Jud. 14:6,19), executive ability, and wisdom (Jud. 3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 13:25); enabling men to receive and utter divine revelations (Num. 11:25; 2 Sam. 23:2); and, generally, empowering the servants of God (Ps. 51:12; Joel 2:28; Mic. 3:8; Zech. 4:6).

(3) He is called holy (Ps. 51:11); good (Ps. 143:10); the Spirit of judgment and burning (Isa. 4:4); the Spirit of the LORD, of wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, knowledge, the fear of the LORD (Isa. 11:2), and of grace and supplication (Zech. 12:10).

(4) In the O.T. the Holy Spirit acts in free sovereignty, coming upon men and even upon a dumb beast as He wills; nor are conditions set forth (as in the N.T.) by compliance with which any one may receive the Spirit. The indwelling of every believer by the abiding Spirit is a N.T. blessing consequent upon the death and resurrection of Christ (Jn. 7:39; 16:7; Acts 2:33; Gal. 3:1-6). And

(5) the O.T. contains predictions of a future pouring out of the Spirit upon Israel (Ezek. 37:14; 39:29), and upon "all flesh" (Joel 2:28-29). The expectation of Israel, therefore, was twofold—of the coming of Messiah-Immanuel, and of such a pouring out of the Spirit as the prophets described. See Holy Spirit, Acts 2:4, note.

The visible return in glory: physical changes in Palestine (vv. 4,10)

4 ¶ And his feet shall ^astand in that day upon the mount of ^bOlives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the ^cearthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the ^dLORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ^ethe light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be done day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at ^fevening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that ^hliving waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

The kingdom set up on the earth

9 And the LORD shall be ⁱking over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as ^ka plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be ^llifted up, and ^minhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the ⁿtower of Hananeel unto the king's wine-presses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be ^osafely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall ^pconsume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall ^qlay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And ^rJudah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the ^swealth of all the ^theathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the ^uplague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

The worship and spirituality of the kingdom

16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even ^vgo up from year to year to ^wworship the ^xKing, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the ^yfeast of tabernacles.

THE BOOK OF MALACHI

Author:
Malachi

Theme:
Formalism Rebuked

Date of writing:
5th Century B.C.

Background

Malachi means my messenger, which is probably an abbreviated form of the messenger of the LORD. Apart from the meaning of his name, nothing is known of Malachi, who carried out his ministry in the second half of the fifth century B.C. This final message of the Old Testament contains the prophecy of John the Baptist's ministry, the fulfillment of which begins the New Testament. Malachi develops his main theme, which is the corruption of the priests and the sins of the people against the family and their miserliness toward God, followed by questions from those addressed and statements proving the original assertions, a dialectic form of discussion which later became quite popular in Judaism.

3 And I hated Esau, and ^elaid his mountains and his heritage waste for the ^fdragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and ^gbuild the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will ^hthrow down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be ⁱmagnified from the border of Israel.

Malachi: messenger of Jehovah. A minor prophet who preached against Israel's poor worship practices and called them to religious renewal.

Jacob: supplanter. The younger son of Isaac and Rebekah who tricked his brother Esau into selling him his birthright. He deceived his father in order to receive the family blessing. Married Leah and Rachel. Had twelve sons by his wives and concubines. Also referred to as Israel.

Esau: hairy. The oldest son of Isaac and Rebekah who was tricked by his brother into selling him the birthright. He was later also deprived of the family blessing.

1:1 The word of the LORD came to Malachi about 450-400 B.C.

1:3 hated. The statement that God loved Jacob but hated Esau, must be taken as relative rather than absolute. Special blessings were promised to Esau and his descendants (Gen. 27:38-40). However, the spiritual insight of Jacob was far greater, and Jacob was the one through whom the promised seed was to come. The comparison of the good things done for Jacob with those done for Esau is like the difference between loving and hating. Compare Lk. 14:26, the statement that if a man does not hate his father and mother he cannot be a disciple of Christ. Love for father

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for and mother is commanded in the Scripture. No Christian can hate his father and mother. What is meant is that his love for Christ should be so great that, in comparison, the love for father and mother would seem almost like hate.

1:4 Edom. That is, Esau's descendants. Gen. 25:30.

Edom: red. The nation descended from Esau. Located in the rough mountainous area south of Moab and east of Arabah at the base of the Dead Sea. The Edomites had frequent conflicts with the Israelites.

1:6 I be a father. See Isa. 63:16, note. The relationship here is national, not personal (Jer. 3:18-19); here, apparently, the Jews were calling the LORD "Father" but were yielding Him no filial obedience. Compare Jn. 8:37-39; Rom. 9:1-8.

1:7 polluted bread. The very sins that provoked Nehemiah (Neh. 5:1-13; 7:63-65; 9:4ff.; 13:23-27) are condemned by Malachi:

(1) defilement of the priesthood;

(2) foreign marriages after divorce from Jewish wives; and

(3) neglect of the tithe and offerings.

1:7 contemptible. Contempt was shown by the offering of forbidden sacrifices (vv. 7-8; compare Dt. 15:21).

1:9 by your means. Literally from your hand.

1:10 Who is . . . doors. Or I would that one among you would shut the doors [of the temple] that no more vain fire should kindle on mine altar. Compare Isa. 1:11-15.

^anought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for ^anought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I ^baccept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the ^cGentiles; and in every place ^dincense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the ^cheathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have ^eprofaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his ^fmeat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a ^gsweariness is it! and ye have ^hsnuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a ⁱcorrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is ^jdreadful among the ^cheathen.

Priests to be disciplined by God

2 And now, O ye ^kpriests, this commandment is for you.

2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them ^lalready, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the ^mdung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The ⁿlaw of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he ^owalked with me in peace and equity, and did ^pturn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priest's lips should keep ^qknowledge, and they should ^rseek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to ^sstumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been ^tpartial in the law.

III. Israel's Sins against One Another and against the Family, 2:10-17

Sins against brotherhood

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his ^ubrother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

Sins against God in the family

11 ¶ Judah hath ^vdealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath ^wprofaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a ^xstrange god.

12 ^yThe LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that ^zoffereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he ^{aa}regardeth

2:2 curse your blessings. Israel's distinctive blessings

15 And did not he make ^cone? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And ^awherefore one? That he might seek a ^dgodly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the ^eGod of Israel, saith that he hateth ^fputting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

Sin of insincere religious profession

17 ¶ Ye have ^gwearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, ^hWherein have we wearied him? When ye say, ⁱEvery one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, ^jWhere is the God of ^kjudgment?

IV. The Coming of the Forerunner, John the Baptist, 3:1-6

A parenthetical passage

3 Behold, I will send ^kmy messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the ^lmessenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall ^mcome, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may ⁿabide the day of his coming? and ^owho shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's ^pfire, and like fullers' soap:

3 And he shall sit ^qas a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall ^rpurify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may ^soffer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be ^tpleasant unto the LORD, as in the ^udays of old, and as in former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against ^vfalse swearers, and against those that ^woppress the hireling in his wages, the ^xwidow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the ^ystranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, I ^zchange not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

2:16 hateth putting away. This verse does not contradict Dt. 24:1, where divorce is permitted by the law of Moses, not prescribed. Compare Mt. 19:3-9.

3:1 the Lord, whom you seek. The first part of v. 1 is quoted of John the Baptist (Mt. 11:10; Mk. 1:2; Lk. 7:27), but the next words, "the Lord whom you seek," etc., are nowhere quoted in the N.T. The reason is obviously that, in everything except Christ's first advent, the picture in vv. 2-5 of the LORD who suddenly comes to His temple (Hab. 2:20) is one of judgment, not of grace. Malachi, in common with other O.T. prophets, saw both advents of Messiah blended in one horizon, but did not see the separating interval described in Mt. 13 which was consequent upon the rejection of the King (Mt. 13:16-17). Still less was the Church Age in his vision (Eph. 3:3-6; Col. 1:25-27). "My messenger" (v. 1) is John the Baptist; the "messenger of the covenant" is Christ in both of His advents, but with special reference to the events which are to follow His second coming. shall suddenly come. God's answer to the last question in 2:17.

3:3 refiner. Malachi reveals God in several relationships to Israel: Father, Lord, God, and Judge.

THE DEITY OF GOD IN THE OLD TESTAMENT— ITS REVELATION, SUMMARY

God is revealed in the O.T. (1) through His names as follows:

CLASS	ENGLISH FORM	HEBREW EQUIVALENT
Primary	God	El, Elah, or Elohim , Gen. 1:1, note
	LORD	YHWH (Jehovah) , Gen. 2:4; Ex. 34:6, note
	Lord	Adonai, or Adonai , Gen. 15:2, note
Compound with El = God	God Almighty	El Shaddai , Gen. 17:1, note
	Most High, or Most High God	El Elyon , Gen. 14:18, note
	Everlasting God	El Olam , Gen. 21:33, note
	Mighty God	El Gibbor , Isa. 9:6-7
Compound with YHWH (Jehovah) = LORD	LORD God	YHWH (Jehovah) Elohim , Gen. 2:4; Ex. 34:6, note
	Lord GOD	Adonai YHWH (Jehovah) , Gen. 15:2, note
	LORD of hosts	YHWH (Jehovah) Sabaoth , 1 Sam. 1:3, note

This revelation of God by His names is invariably made in connection with some particular need of His people, and there can be no need of man to which these names do not answer as showing that man's true resource is in God. Even human failure and sin but to evoke new and fuller revelations of the divine fullness.

(2) The O.T. Scriptures reveal the existence of a Supreme Being, the Creator of the universe and of man, the Source of all life and of all intelligence, who is to be worshipped and served by men and angels. This Supreme Being is One, but, in some manner not fully revealed in the O.T., is a unity in plurality. This is shown by the use of the plural pronoun in the interrelation of Deity as evidenced in Gen. 1:26; 3:22; Ps. 110:1; and Isa. 6:8. That the interrelation of Deity includes that of Father and Son is directly asserted in Ps. 2:7 (with Heb. 1:5); likewise the Spirit is distinctly recognized in His personality, and to Him are ascribed all the divine attributes (e.g. Gen. 1:2; Num. 11:25; 24:2; Jud. 3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 13:25; 14:6, 19; 15:14; 2 Sam. 23:2; Job 26:13; 33:4; Ps. 106:33; 139:7; Isa. 40:7; 59:19; 63:10. See Zech. 12:10, note).

(3) The incarnation is intimated in the theophanies, or appearances of God in human form (e.g. Gen. 18:1, 13, 17-22; 32:24-30), and distinctly predicted in the promises connected with redemption (e.g. Gen. 3:15) and with the Davidic Covenant (e.g. Isa. 7:13-14; 9:6-7; Jer. 23:5-6). The revelation of Deity in the N.T. so illuminates that of the O.T. that the latter is seen to be, from Genesis to Malachi, the foreshadowing of the coming incarnation of God in Jesus the Christ. In promise, covenant, type, and prophecy the O.T. points forward to Him.

(4) The revelation of God to man is one of authority and of redemption. He requires righteousness from man, but saves the unrighteous through sacrifice; and in His redemptive dealings with man all the divine persons and attributes are brought into manifestation. The O.T. reveals the justice of God as fully as His mercy, but never in opposition to His mercy. The flood, for example, was an unspeakable mercy to unborn generations. From Genesis to Malachi He is revealed as the seeking God who has no pleasure in the death of the wicked, and who heaps up before the sinner every possible motive to persuade him to faith and obedience.

(5) In the experience of the O.T. men of faith, their God inspires reverence but never slavish fear; they exhaust the resources of language to express their love and adoration in view of His loving-kindness and tender mercy. This adoring love of His saints is the triumphant answer to those who pretend to find the O.T. revelation of God cruel and repellent. It is in harmony, not contrast, with the N.T. revelation of God in Christ.

(6) Those passages which attribute to God bodily parts and human emotions (e.g. Ex. 33:11, 20-23; Dt. 29:20; 2 Chr. 16:9; Jer. 15:6) are metaphorical and mean that in the infinite being of God there exists that which answers spiritually to these things—eyes, a hand, feet, etc.; and the jealousy and anger attributed to Him are the emotions of perfect love in view of the havoc of sin.

(7) In the O.T. revelation there is a true sense in which, wholly apart from sin or infirmity, God is like His creature, man (Gen. 1:27); and the supreme and perfect revelation of God, toward which the O.T. points, is a revelation in and through a perfect Man, the Lord Jesus Christ, God's unique Son.

4:1 This verse gives no basis for the error of annihilationism. It describes physical death, not the state of the soul after death. The unsaved are in conscious eternal woe (Rev. 14:10-11; 20:11-15), as the saved are in conscious eternal bliss (Rev. 21:1-7).

4:2 fear. "The fear of the LORD" is an O.T. expression meaning reverential trust, including the hatred of evil.

4:6 curse. Genesis reveals the entrance of the curse into the human family (Gen. 3); the last word of the O.T. shows the curse still persisting (Mal. 4:6); Matthew begins (1:1) with Him who came to remove the curse (Gal. 3:13; Rev. 21:3-5; 22:3).

FROM MALACHI TO MATTHEW

Background

The close of the Old Testament canon left Israel in two divisions. Most of the nation was dispersed throughout the Persian Empire, more as colonists than as captives. A remnant, chiefly of the tribe of Judah, with Zerubbabel, a prince of the Davidic family, and the surviving priests and Levites had returned to the land under the permissive decrees of Cyrus and his successors (Daniel 5:18, and 9:24, notes), and had re-established Temple worship. It is on this remnant that the interest of the student of Scripture centers; and this interest concerns both their political and religious history.

Political History

Politically, the fortunes of the Palestinian Jews are linked to the history of the Gentile world powers as foretold by Daniel (Daniel 2 and 7).

1. The Persian rule continued about one hundred years after the close of the Old Testament canon, and seems to have been mild and tolerant, allowing to the high priest, along with his religious functions, a measure of civil power, but still under the governors of Syria. In this period the rival worship of Samaria, which began during the Israelite monarchy, was developed and its own Temple established.

2. In 334 B.C. Syria fell under the power of the third of the world empires, the Greco-Macedonian Empire of Alexander. That conqueror was induced to treat the Jews favorably, but with the breaking up of his empire, Judea fell between the anvil and the hammer of Syria and Egypt, coming first under the power of Syria, but later under Egypt as ruled by the Ptolemaic kings. During this period (323–198 B.C.) great numbers of Jews were established in Egypt, and the Septuagint (LXX) translation of the Old Testament was begun (about 285 B.C.).

In 198 B.C. Judea was conquered by Antiochus III the Great, and annexed to Syria. At this time the land was divided into the five provinces familiar to readers of the Gospels—Galilee, Samaria, Judea (these three being often collectively called Judea), Trachonitis, and Perea. The Jews were at first permitted to regulate their own lives by their own laws under a high priest and a council. In 171 B.C. Antiochus IV Epiphanes (the “small” horn of Daniel 8:9), after repeated interferences with the Temple and priesthood, plundered Jerusalem, profaned the Temple, and slew many of the inhabitants. In 168 B.C. Antiochus offered a sow upon the great altar and erected an altar to Jupiter. This is the “desolation” of Daniel 8:13. Temple worship was forbidden; the people were condemned to eat swine’s flesh.

The excesses of Antiochus provoked the revolt of the Maccabees, one of the most heroic pages of history. Mattathias, the first of the Maccabees, a priest of great sanctity and energy of character, began the revolt with a band of godly and determined Jews pledged to free their nation and restore its ancient worship. He was succeeded by his son Judas, known in history as Maccabeus, from the Hebrew word for “hammer.” He was assisted by four brothers, of whom Simon is best known.

In 165 B.C. Judas regained possession of Jerusalem and purified and rededicated the Temple, an event celebrated in the Jewish Feast of the Dedication. Judas, who was slain in battle, was succeeded by his brother, Jonathan. In him the civil and priestly authority were united (143 B.C.). Under Jonathan, his brother Simon, and his nephew John Hyrcanus I, the Hasmonean line of priest-rulers was established by treaty with Rome. An account of the history of Antiochus Epiphanes and the Maccabees is found in the apocryphal book, 1 Maccabees.

3. After some years, there was a civil war in Judea, which was ended in 63 B.C. by the Roman conquest of Judea and Jerusalem by Pompey. Pompey left Hyrcanus II, the last of the Hasmoneans, a nominal sovereignty, but with Antipater, an Idumean, wielding the actual power. In 47 B.C. Antipater was made procurator of Judea by Julius Caesar. Antipater appointed his son, Herod, governor of Galilee. Following Caesar's assassination, disorder broke out in Judea, and Herod fled to Rome. There, in 40 B.C., he was appointed king of the Jews; on his return he conciliated the people by his marriage with Mariamne (38 B.C.), the granddaughter of Hyrcanus II, and appointed her brother, the Maccabean Aristobulus III, as high priest. When Jesus Christ was born, Herod was king.

Religious History

The religious history of the Jews during the long period from Malachi (about 400 B.C.) to Christ follows the course of the troublous political history as to outer ceremonies, the high priestly office, and Temple worship. But of greater importance than these are the efforts and means by which the faith of Israel was nurtured and kept alive.

1. The experience of the captivity seems to have destroyed the Jews' tendency to idolatry. Their problem during the captivity, when they were deprived of Temple and priest, was how to maintain the exalted spiritual and moral ideals given them by the older prophets. Afterward, during the intertestamental period, the problem continued. Despite the revival of Temple and priesthood, the struggle became one of preserving the prophetic faith of the Jews in the midst of outward persecution and sordid divisions within.

2. The external means to this end was the synagogue, an institution which formed no part of the Biblical order of national life and which did not develop as a separate entity until after the time of Malachi. Its origin is obscure, but its roots may go back to the captivity when the Jews, who were without the Temple and its rites, met on the Sabbath for prayer. Such meetings, which would give opportunity for the reading of Scripture, would require some order of procedure as well as some authority for the restraint of disorder. Whatever its precise beginnings were, the synagogue doubtless grew out of the necessities of the situation in which the Jews were placed during the closing centuries of the pre-Christian era. It served the vital purpose of maintaining familiarity with the inspired writings, upon which the spiritual life of the true Israel (Romans 9:6, note) was nourished.

3. Also during this period there was created that mass of tradition, comment, and interpretation, known as Mishna, Gemara (forming the Talmud), Midrashim, and Kabbala, that was so superimposed upon the law that obedience was transferred from the law itself to the traditional interpretations.

4. During this same period there arose the two great sects known in the Gospel narratives as Pharisees and Sadducees. (See Matthew 3:7, with notes.) The Herodians were a political party rather than a sect.

Among these people, the Jews—governed under Rome by an Idumean usurper, torn by bitter religious controversies, and maintaining an elaborate religious ritual—appeared Jesus, the Son of God, the Christ, and the Saviour of the world.

THE FOUR GOSPELS

Background

The four Gospels record the eternal being, human ancestry, birth, life and ministry, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus the Christ, Son of God and Son of man. Taken together, they set forth not a biography but a Person.

The fact that the four Gospels present a Person rather than a complete biography indicates the spirit in which they should be approached. What is most important is to see and know through these narratives Him whom they reveal. It is of less importance to endeavor to piece together a full account of His life from these inspired records (John 21:25). For some adequate reason it did not please God to lead men to write a full biography of His Son. The years up to the beginning of His ministry are passed over in a silence that is broken but once, and that in a few verses in Luke's Gospel (Luke 2:40–52). It is wise to respect the divine reticence.

Incomplete Story, Complete Revelation

But the four Gospels, though designedly incomplete as a story, are complete as a revelation. We may not know everything that Jesus did, but we may know Him. In four great narratives, each of which in some respects supplements the other three, we have Jesus Christ Himself.

This is the essential respect in which these narratives differ from biography or portraiture. "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life" (John 6:63). The believing student finds here the living Christ.

The distinctive part that each evangelist has in this presentation of the living Christ is briefly noted in the separate introductions to the Gospels, but it may be profitable to make some general suggestions for study and interpretation.

I. The Old Testament is the inspired introduction to the New Testament, and whoever comes to the study of the four Gospels with a mind saturated with the Old Testament foreview of Christ—His Person, work, and kingdom—will be greatly helped in understanding them. Into the Gospels are woven Old Testament quotation, allusion, and type. The very first verse of the New Testament drives the reader back to the Old Testament; and the risen Christ took His disciples back to the Hebrew Scriptures for an explanation of His sufferings and glory (Luke 24:27,44). One of His last acts was the opening of their understanding that they might comprehend the Old Testament in relation to Himself (Luke 24:45).

Therefore, in approaching the study of the Gospels, the mind should be freed, as far as possible, from such presuppositions as that the Church is to be equated with the true Israel, and that the Old Testament promises to Israel and the foreview of the kingdom relate only to the Church. Interpretations are not true simply because they are familiar. It should not, therefore, be assumed that "the throne of his father David" (Luke 1:32) is synonymous with the Father's throne (Revelation 3:21), or that "the house of Jacob" (Luke 1:33) is the Church composed of both Jew and Gentile.

II. The mission of Jesus was initially to the Jews (Matthew 10:5–6; 15:23–25; John 1:11). He was born "under the law" (Galatians 4:4), and was "a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers" (Romans 15:8) and to fulfill the law that grace might abound. Therefore, a strong legal and Jewish coloring is to be expected up to the cross (Matthew 5:17–19; compare Matthew 10:5–6; 15:22–28; 23:2; Mark 1:44; etc.). The Sermon on the Mount is closely related to law in the highest spiritual sense, for it demands as the condition of blessing (Matthew 5:3–9) that perfect character which only grace through divine power creates (Galatians 5:22–23).

III. The doctrines of grace are developed in the Epistles, not in the Gospels; but they are implicit in the Gospels, because they rest upon the death and resurrection of Christ and upon the great germinal truths He taught, truths of which the Epistles are the unfolding. The Christ of the Gospels is the perfect manifestation of grace.

IV. The Gospels do not develop the doctrine of the Church. The word "church" occurs in Matthew only. After His rejection as King and Savior by the Jews, our Lord, announcing a mystery until that moment "hidden in God" (Ephesians 3:3–10), said, "I will build my church" (Matthew 16:18). It was, therefore, yet future; but His personal ministry had gathered out the believers who were, on the Day of Pentecost, made by the baptism with the Spirit the first members of "the church, which is his body" (Ephesians 1:23; compare 1 Corinthians 12:12–13).

The Gospels present a group of Jewish disciples, associated on earth with a Messiah in humiliation. The Epistles present a Church which is the body of Christ, made up of the regenerate who are associated with Him "in the heavens," co-heirs with Him of the Father, co-rulers with Him of the coming kingdom; and, as to the earth, although strangers and pilgrims, yet acting as His witnesses and the instruments for doing His will among men (Acts 1:8; 1 Corinthians 12:12–13; 2 Corinthians 5:14–21; Ephesians 1:3–14,20–23; 2:4–6; 1 Peter 2:11).

V. The Gospels present Christ in His three offices of Prophet, Priest, and King.

As Prophet His ministry resembles that of the Old Testament prophets. But it is the nature and dignity of His Person that makes Him the unique Prophet. In former times God spoke through the prophets; now He speaks in the Son (Hebrews 1:1–2). The Old Testament prophet was a voice from God; the Son is God Himself (Deuteronomy 18:18–19).

The prophet in any dispensation is God's messenger to His people, first, to establish truth; and, second, when His people are in declension and apostasy, to call them back to truth. The prophet's message, therefore, is usually one of rebuke and appeal. At times, however, as when his message of rebuke and appeal is not heeded, he becomes a fore-teller of things to come. In this, too, Christ is like the other prophets; most of His predictive ministry occurs after His rejection as King.

The sphere and character of Christ's kingly office are defined in the Davidic Covenant (2 Samuel 7:16, note), as interpreted by the prophets and confirmed by the New Testament. Whereas the New Testament in no way abrogates or changes the Davidic Covenant or its interpretation, it adds details which were not in the original covenant. The Sermon on the Mount is an elaboration of the idea of righteousness as the predominant characteristic of the kingdom (Isaiah 11:2–5; Jeremiah 23:5–6; 33:14–16). The Old Testament prophet saw in one horizon, so to speak, the suffering and glory of Messiah (1 Peter 1:10–11). The New Testament shows that His suffering and glory are separated by the present Church Age, and points forward to the Lord's return as the time when the Davidic Covenant of blessing through power will be fulfilled (Luke 1:30–33; Acts 2:29–36; 15:14–17), just as the Abrahamic Covenant of blessing through suffering was fulfilled at His first coming (Acts 3:24–25; Galatians 3:6–14).

Christ is never called King of the Church. "The King" is indeed one of His divine titles, and the Church joins Israel in exalting "the King eternal, immortal, invisible" (Psalm 10:16; 1 Timothy 1:17). The Church is to reign under Him. The Holy Spirit is now calling out, not the subjects but the co-heirs and co-rulers of the kingdom (Romans 8:15–18; 1 Corinthians 6:2–3; 2 Timothy 2:11–12; Revelation 1:6; 3:21; 5:10).

Christ's priestly office is the complement of His prophetic office. The prophet represents God to the people; the priest represents the people to God. Because the people are sinful he, the priest, must be a sacrificer; because they are needy, he must be a compassionate intercessor (Hebrews 5:1–2; 8:1–3). So Christ on the cross entered upon His high priestly work, offering Himself without spot unto God (Hebrews 9:14), as now He exercises an ever-living intercession for His people (Hebrews 7:25). John 17 provides the pattern of that continuing intercession.

VI. In the Gospels, primary interpretation should be distinguished from moral application. Much in the Gospels that belongs in strict interpretation to the Jews or the kingdom is yet such a revelation of the mind of God and is so based on eternal principles as to have a moral application to the people of God, whatever their dispensational position. It is always true that "the pure in heart" are blessed because they "see God" and that "woe" is the portion of religious formalists whether under law or grace.

VII. Special emphasis rests upon that to which all four Gospels bear united testimony.

1. In all of them there is revealed the one unique Person. The pen is a different pen, the incidents in which He is seen are sometimes different incidents, but He is always the same Christ.

2. All the evangelists record the ministry of John the Baptist.

3. All record the feeding of the five thousand.

4. All record Christ's offer of Himself as King, according to Zechariah 9:9.

5. All record the betrayal by Judas; the denial by Peter.

6. All record the trial and crucifixion of Christ.

7. All record the bodily resurrection of Christ.

8. All record events occurring during the forty days of the post-resurrection ministry of Christ—a ministry keyed to a new note of universality and of power.

9. All point forward to His second coming.

And this record is so presented as to testify that the supreme business that brought Him into the world was His death and resurrection; that all that precedes these was preparation, and that from them flow all the blessings God ever has bestowed or ever will bestow upon humanity.

VIII. Since the first three Gospels contain so much material in common that they may be arranged as a synopsis, they are called the Synoptic Gospels. Careful readers of the New Testament will observe the similarities among and also the differences peculiar to these Gospels. That they contain dissimilarities is not surprising in view of the fact that each of these three Gospels is written for a particular purpose—Matthew to present Jesus as King, Mark to present Him as Servant, and Luke to present Him as Son of Man.

Matthew may have been the first Gospel written. It is thought that Mark's account reflects, in its subject matter, Peter's view of our Lord. That there were in existence many early accounts of the life and work of Christ is plain from Luke's prologue to his Gospel (Luke 1:1–4).

As for John, this Gospel is in a class by itself. Probably written later than the Synoptics, it does not outline the life of our Lord but selects its material (including much that is not in the first three Gospels) in keeping with the writer's declared aim of presenting Jesus as the Son of God (John 20:30-31).

An effort has been made by certain scholars to trace the forms or patterns into which the earliest traditions about Christ were put for oral repetition. These forms are supposed to have provided material for the Gospels and are also thought to have been so thoroughly shaped by the needs of the early Church as to preclude a full historical basis for all the events recorded in the Gospels. In its effort to explain the differences in the Gospels, this critical view raises a question concerning the historical accuracy of the whole record. However, it fails to recognize evidence which supports the historicity of the Gospels. It may also be observed that selectivity of material does not necessarily mean distortion of fact, nor is the use of reliable tradition incompatible with the inspiration of the Gospel records.

The important thing to keep in mind is the established fact that these Gospels are inspired historical documents of genuine authenticity and full integrity. Moreover, the believer in Christ knows in his own life the reality of the living Lord, who is so faithfully and yet so variously presented in the Synoptics and in John's Gospel.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Author:
Matthew

Theme:
Christ, the King

Date of writing:
c. A.D. 50

Background

Matthew, also called Levi, was the writer of the First Gospel. His name appears seventh or eighth in the New Testament lists of the apostles (Matthew 10:3; Mark 3:18; Luke 6:15). Matthew was a Jew who collected taxes for the Roman government. He was thus despised by loyal Jews.

God's Relationship with Man

Written originally for the Jews, the Gospel of Matthew presents Christ as the Son of David and the Son of Abraham. Because He is portrayed as King, His genealogy is traced to King David; and the place of His birth, Bethlehem, the home of David, is emphasized. Seven times in this Gospel Christ is spoken of as "the Son of David" (1:1; 9:27; 12:23; 15:22; 20:30; 21:9; 22:42). Only in Matthew does Christ speak of "the throne of His glory" (19:28; compare 25:31). Moreover, only here in the Gospels is Jerusalem referred to as "the holy city" (4:5) and "the city of the great King" (5:35). Since it is the Gospel of the King, Matthew is also the Gospel of the kingdom; in it the word "kingdom" appears more than fifty times and the expression "the kingdom of heaven," which is found nowhere else in the New Testament, appears about thirty times.

The Old Testament in the New

Matthew, more than any of the Gospel writers, connects events and utterances in the life of our Lord with Old Testament predictions, for example 1:22; 2:15,17,23; 4:14; 12:17; 13:14; 21:4; 26:54,56; 27:9,35.

1:1 generation. There are two genealogies of our Lord—here and at Lk. 3:23–38 (where see note at v. 23). The genealogy in Matthew begins with Abraham, founder of the Hebrew nation, and concludes with Joseph, the husband of Mary. Luke’s genealogy begins with Joseph and carries the Messianic line back as far as Adam. Matthew inserts historical data, Luke does not. The list in Matthew is divided into three sections.

The last individual in these genealogies in the O.T. records is Zorobabel (Mt. 1:13; Lk. 3:27). There are some omissions, as between Joram and Ozias (Mt. 1:8), for which see 2 Ki. 8:24 and 1 Chr. 3:11. Women are mentioned in the Matthew genealogy, contrary to usual custom (compare 1 Chr. 1–8).

1:8 Ozias (called Azariah, 2 Ki. 14:21) was not the son, but the great-great-grandson of Joram. Compare 2 Ki. 8:25; 13:1–15:38; 2 Chr. 22–25. “Begat” may indicate that a man is a more remote ancestor than a father.

1:11 Jechonias. This man is called Coniah in Jer. 22:24–30 where a curse is pronounced upon this former king of Judah. There it is predicted that none of his seed should prosper sitting on David’s throne. Had our Lord been the natural son of Joseph, who was descended from Jechonias, He could never reign in power and righteousness because of the curse. But Christ came through Mary’s line, not Joseph’s. As the adopted son of Joseph, the curse upon Coniah’s seed did not affect Him.

1:16 of whom was born. The changed expression here is important. It is no longer “begat,” but “the husband of Mary, of whom [feminine singular] was born Jesus.” Jesus was not begotten of natural generation. Christ (Christos means anointed), the Greek form of the Hebrew Messiah (Dan. 9:25–26), is the official name of our Lord, as “Jesus” is His human name (Lk. 1:31; 2:21). The name, or title, “Christ,” connects Him with the entire O.T. foreview (see Zech. 12:8, note) of a coming Prophet (Dt. 18:15–19), Priest (Ps. 110:4), and King (2 Sam. 7:12–13). As these were typically anointed with oil (1 Ki. 19:16; compare Ex. 29:7; 1 Sam. 16:13 respectively), so Jesus was anointed with the Holy Spirit (Mt. 3:16; Mk. 1:10–11; Lk. 3:21–22; Jn. 1:32–33), thus becoming officially identified as the Christ.

1:17 fourteen generations. As in the genealogies of the O.T. (Gen. 5; 1 Chr. 1–9), certain generations are omitted here in order to make the arrangement uniform. Compare 1 Chr. 3:11–12; Ezra 7:1–5. The list may have been put in this form for purposes of memorization. Memorization is aided by the fact that each of the triads of names concludes with an important era in Israel’s history, that is, David’s reign, the Babylonian captivity, and the advent of the promised Messiah.

Conception and birth of Jesus

(Lk. 1:26-38; 2:1-7; Jn. 1:1-2,14)

18 ¶ ^aNow the birth of Jesus Christ was ^bon this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy ^cGhost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a ^djust man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away ^eprivily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, ^fthe angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy ^cGhost.

21 And she shall bring forth a ^gson, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall ^hsave his people from their ⁱsins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ^jof the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, ^ka virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

Visit of the wise men

2 Now ^lwhen Jesus was ^mborn in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born ⁿKing of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard ^othese things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where ^pChrist should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is ^qwritten by the prophet,

6 And thou ^rBethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had ^sprivily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the ^sstar appeared.

1:21,25 JESUS. Greek form of Hebrew Jehoshua, meaning Jehovah is salvation.

1:23 Emmanuel. Why was Jesus not actually called "Emmanuel"? According to Hebrew usage the name does not represent a title but a characterization, as in Isa. 1:26 and 9:6. The name "Emmanuel" shows that He really was "God with us." Thus the Deity of Christ is stressed at the very beginning of Matthew.

2:1 born. Approximately 5 B.C. Jesus was born. In the 708th year from the foundation of Rome (46 B.C. by Christian reckoning) Julius Caesar established the Julian calendar, beginning the year with January 1st. But it was not until the sixth century A.D. that Dionysius Exiguus, a Scythian monk living in Rome, who was confirming the Easter cycle, originated the system of reckoning time from the birth of Christ. Gradually this usage spread, being adopted in England by the Synod of Whitby in 664, until it gained universal acceptance. In 1582 Pope Gregory XIII reformed the Julian calendar. However, more accurate knowledge shows that the earlier reckonings of the time of Christ's birth were in error by several years. Thus it is now agreed that the birth of Christ should be placed at approximately 6-4 B.C. Herod. The Herod mentioned here (vv. 1,3,7,12, 13,16,19,22) and in Lk. 1:5 is known to history as Herod the Great. His family was nominally Jewish but actually Idumæan (Edomite, see Gen. 36:1, note). The Romans had appointed his grandfather, Antipater (died 78 B.C.) governor of Idumæa, and Julius Caesar had made his father, Antipater, procurator of Judea (47-43 B.C.). The Roman triumvir, Mark Antony, appointed Herod the Great tetrarch of Galilee in 37 B.C. He greatly increased the splendor of Jerusalem, erecting the temple, which was the center of Jewish worship in the time of our Lord. Herod's slaughter of the infants at Bethlehem (v. 16) was in keeping with his cruel character. Herod died in March, 4 B.C., and was succeeded by a son, Archelaus (Mt. 2:22). For other members of the Herodian family, see Mk. 6:14, note. wise men (or "magi"). From the Greek magoi, a Persian word for men expert in the study of the stars. There is no evidence that these magi were only three in number or that they were kings. Their interest aroused by the star that signalized Christ's birth, they journeyed to Judea to seek the newborn King of the Jews. They arrived some months after His birth. When Herod sent them to Bethlehem, the star reappeared and led them to the Christ child.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him ^agifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

Flight into Egypt

13 And when they were departed, behold, ^bthe angel of the Lord

appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for ^cHerod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was ^dspoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

Herod slays innocent children

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding ^ewroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the ^fcoasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the ^gwise men.

2:15 Out of Egypt . . . son. The words quoted are from Hos. 11:1, and the passage illustrates the principle that prophetic utterances often have a latent and deeper meaning than at first appears. Israel, nationally, was a son (Ex. 4:22), but Christ was the greater Son. Compare Isa. 41:8 with Isa. 42:1-4 and 52:13-14, where the servant-nation and the Servant-Son are both in view; also Rom. 9:4-5.

2:4 THE ROLE OF THE SCRIBES

Scribes were so called because it was their office to make copies of the Scriptures, to classify and teach the precepts of the oral law (see Pharisees, Mt. 3:7, note), and to keep careful count of every letter in the O.T. writings. Such an office was necessary in a religion of law and precept, and was an O.T. function (2 Sam. 8:17; 20:25; 1 Ki. 4:3; Jer. 8:8; 36:10,12,26). To this legitimate work the teachers added a record of rabbinical decisions on questions of ritual (Halachoth); the new code resulting from those decisions (Mishna); the Hebrew sacred legends (Gemara, forming with the Mishna, the Talmud); commentaries on the O.T. (Midrashim); reasonings upon these (Hagada); and, finally, mystical interpretations which found in Scripture meanings other than the grammatical, lexical, and obvious ones (the Kabbala), not unlike the allegorical method of Origen. In our Lord's time, the Pharisees considered it orthodox to receive this mass of writing which had been superimposed upon and had obscured the Scripture.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

3:2 THE MEANING OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

The expression "kingdom of heaven" (literally "of the heavens"), one that is peculiar to Matthew, refers to the rule of the heavens, i.e. the rule of the God of heaven over the earth (compare Dan. 2:44; 4:25, 32). The kingdom of heaven is similar in many respects to the kingdom of God and is often used synonymously with it, though emphasizing certain features of divine government. When contrasted with the universal kingdom of God, the kingdom of heaven includes only men on earth, excluding angels and other creatures. The kingdom of heaven is the earthly sphere of profession as shown by the inclusion of those designated as wheat and tares, the latter of which are cast out of the kingdom (Mt. 13:41), and is compared to a net containing both the good and bad fish which are later separated (Mt. 13:47).

The kingdom of heaven is revealed in three aspects in Matthew:

(1) As "at hand" (see 4:17, note), the kingdom is offered in the Person of the King, of whom Jn. the Baptist is the forerunner (Mt. 3:1).

(2) As fulfilled in the present age, the kingdom of heaven is presented in seven "mysteries" (Mt. 13), revealing the character of the rule of heaven over the earth between the first and second comings of the Lord. And

(3) as fulfilled after the second coming of Christ, the kingdom of heaven will be realized in the future millennial kingdom as predicted by Daniel (Dan. 2:34-36, 44-45) and covenanted to David (2 Sam. 7:12-16; see Zech. 12:8, note). This millennial form of the kingdom of heaven is wholly future and will be set up after the return of the King in glory (Mt. 24:29-25:46; Acts 15:14-17; see Mt. 6:33, note).

2:19 dead. Approximately 4 B.C. See Mk. 6:14, note.

Herod: Herod the Great was king of Judea at the time of Christ's birth. He ordered all infant males to be killed.

2:22 Archelaus. Son of Herod the Great. See Mt. 2:1, note.

2:23 He shall be called a Nazarene. Probably refers to Isa. 11:1, where the Messiah is spoken of as "a rod [netzer] out of the stem of Jesse."

3:7 Pharisees. Called "Pharisees" from a Hebrew word meaning separate. After the ministry of the post-exilic prophets ceased, godly men called Chasidim (saints) arose who sought to keep alive reverence for the law among the descendants of the Jews who returned from the Babylonian captivity. This movement degenerated into the Pharisaism warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is ^bhewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy ^cGhost, and with ^dfire:

of our Lord's day—a letter-strictness which overlaid the law with traditional interpretations held to have been communicated by the LORD to Moses as oral explanations of equal authority with the law itself (compare Mt. 15:2-3; Mk. 7:8-13; Gal. 1:14).

The Pharisees were strictly a sect. A member was a chaber (that is, "knit together," Jud. 20:11) and was obligated to remain true to the principles of Pharisaism. They were moral, zealous, and self-denying, but self-righteous (Lk. 18:9) and destitute of the sense of sin and need (Lk. 7:39). They were the foremost persecutors of Jesus Christ and the objects of His unsparing denunciation, e.g. Mt. 23:1-36; Lk. 11:42-44.

3:7 Sadducees. The Sadducees were a Jewish sect that denied the existence of angels or other spirits, and all miracles, especially the resurrection of the body. They were the religious rationalists of the time (Mk. 12:18-23; Acts 23:8), and were strongly entrenched in the Sanhedrin and priesthood (Acts 4:1-2; 5:17). The Sadducees are identified with no affirmative doctrine, but were mere deniers of the supernatural. generation. Literally offspring.

Abraham: father of a great multitude. A man chosen by God to become the father of the great nation Israel. God promised Abraham that he would have descendants as numerous as the stars in the heavens. Abraham was revered throughout generations for his great faith.

3:13 Then cometh Jesus. Approximately A.D. 26.

3:14 forbad. Or would have hindered.

3:15 Suffer it. Why the Lord, who needed no repentance, should insist upon receiving a rite which signified confession (v. 6) and repentance (v. 11) is nowhere directly explained. It may be suggested that:

(1) Jesus was now to enter into His mediatorial office as Prophet, Priest, and King and, as the Aaronic high priest publicly entered his office in a special ceremony (Ex. 29:4-7), so our Lord's baptism signifies His entering His ministry;

(2) our Lord's baptism was the means for His introduction as Messiah to His people (Jn. 1:31-34);

(3) by thus taking His place with sinners, He was illustrating the doctrine of identification (compare Isa. 53:12; 2 Cor. 5:21); and

(4) He was prophetically looking forward to His own death and resurrection, which alone could "fulfil all righteousness." See Mt. 20:22, where Christ speaks of His death as His baptism.

4:1 THE FIRST AND LAST ADAM

The temptation of Christ, the "last Adam" (1 Cor. 15:45), is best understood when contrasted with that of "the first man Adam." Adam was tempted in his place of lord of creation, a lordship with but one reservation, the knowledge of good and evil (Gen. 1:26; 2:16-17). Through the woman he was tempted to add that also to his dominion. Falling, he lost all. But Christ took the place of a lowly Servant, acting only from and in obedience to the Father (Phil. 2:5-8; compare Jn. 5:19; 8:28,54; see Isa. 41:8, note), that He might redeem a fallen race and a creation under the divine curse (Gen. 3:17-19; compare Rom. 8:19-23).

Satan's one object in the threefold temptation was to induce Christ to act from Himself, independent of His Father. The first two temptations were a challenge to Christ from the god of this world to prove Himself indeed the Son of God (vv. 3,6). The third was the offer of the usurping prince of this world to divest himself of that which rightfully belonged to Christ as Son of Man and Son of David, on the condition that He accept the scepter on Satan's world principles (compare Jn. 18:36; see Rev. 13:8, note). Christ defeated Satan by a means open to His humblest follower, the intelligent use of the Word of God (vv. 4,7,10). In his second temptation Satan also used Scripture, but he cited a promise available only to one in the path of obedience.

3:16 when he was baptized . . . For the first time the Trinity, foreshadowed in many ways in the O.T., is clearly manifested. The Spirit descends upon the Son and, at the same moment, the Father's voice is heard from heaven.

3:17 This is my beloved Son. Literally This is my Son, the Beloved. Mt. 17:5; Mk. 9:7; Lk. 9:35; compare Isa. 42:1; Eph. 1:3-6.

4:5 holy city. In the N.T. one Greek word, hagios, in its various forms, is rendered, "holy," "holiness," "sanctify," "sanctified" and "sanctification." Like the Hebrew qodesh, it signifies set apart.

4:8 world. The Greek word kosmos means order, arrangement, and so, with the Greeks, beauty; for order and arrangement, in the sense of system, are at the bottom of the Greek conception of beauty. Sometimes kosmos means world. When the word is employed in the N.T. for humanity, the world of men, it denotes organized humanity—humanity in families, tribes, nations. The word for chaotic, unorganized humanity—the mere mass of men—is thalassa, the "sea" of men (e.g. Rev. 13:1). For "world" (kosmos) in the bad ethical sense, see Rev. 13:8, note.

4:17 From that time. The phrase "from that time" is used by Matthew to indicate two sharply contrasted phases of our Lord's teaching ministry. The first begins here with His proclamation of the kingdom as "at hand." The second comes at 16:21 when, following Israel's rejection of the King and His kingdom, Christ begins to declare openly the necessity of His death and resurrection. at hand. The Biblical term "at hand" or "near" is never a positive affirmation that the person or thing said to be at hand will immediately appear, but only that that person or thing has the quality of imminency. When Christ appeared to the Jewish people, the next thing, in the order of revelation as they understood it, should have been the setting up of the Davidic kingdom. Yet God had predicted the rejection and crucifixion of the King (Ps. 22; Isa. 53). The long period of the mystery-form of the kingdom (Mt. 13:11), the worldwide preaching of the cross, and the out-calling of the Church was as yet locked up in the secret counsels of God (Mt. 13:11,17; Eph. 3:3-12).

4:18 two brethren. Peter and Andrew were already disciples (Jn. 1:35-42). This is a call to service.

4:21 James. Four persons are called by this name in the N.T.:

(1) James, the son of Zebedee, an apostle (Mt. 10:2) and the brother of the Apostle John, apart from whom he is never mentioned and with whom, together with Peter, he was admitted to the special intimacy of our Lord (Mt. 17:1; Mk. 5:37; 9:2; 14:33). He was martyred by Herod (Acts 12:2).

(2) James, the son of Alphaeus, who was one of the twelve apostles (Mt. 10:3). He is called James "the less" (Mk. 15:40).

(3) James, the Lord's half brother (Mt. 13:55; Mk. 6:3; Gal. 1:19). The younger children of Mary did not believe in Jesus during His earthly life (Jn. 7:5) but joined His followers after His resurrection (Acts 1:14). James became the leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 12:17; 15:13; 21:18; Gal. 1:19; 2:9,12) and wrote the Epistle of James. And

(4) James, the father of the Apostle Judas (Lk. 6:16; Acts 1:13).

5:2 saying. The beatific character and attitude described by our Lord in vv. 3-12 are unattainable by self-effort, but

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The Similitudes

(Mk. 4:21-23; Lk. 8:16-18)

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Relation of Christ to the law

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

5:3 THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

Having announced the kingdom of heaven as "at hand," the King now, in the Sermon on the Mount (Mt. 5-7), declares to His disciples (5:1) the principles of that kingdom.

1. In this sermon our Lord reaffirms the Mosaic law of the O.T. theocratic kingdom as the governing code in His coming kingdom on earth (5:17), and declares that the attitude of men toward this law will determine their place in the kingdom (5:19).

2. Christ here also declares that He has come to fulfill the Law (5:17), which He now proceeds to do in part in the Sermon on the Mount: (a) by showing that the divine law deals with thoughts and motives as well as overt acts (5:27-28; 6:1-6); and, (b) by abrogating certain concessions made formerly because of the hardness of men's hearts (5:31-32; compare 19:8).

3. In the Sermon on the Mount, Christ sets forth the perfect standard of righteousness demanded by the law (5:48), thus demonstrating that all men are sinners, habitually falling short of the divine standard, and that, therefore, salvation by works of law is an impossibility.

4. Although the law, as expressed in the Sermon on the Mount, cannot save sinners (Rom. 3:20), and the redeemed of the present age are not under law (Rom. 6:14), nevertheless both the Mosaic law and the Sermon on the Mount are a part of Holy Scripture which is inspired by God and therefore "profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness" (2 Tim. 3:16) for the redeemed of all ages.

5:17 CHRIST'S RELATIONSHIP TO THE LAW

Christ's relation to the Law of Moses may be thus summarized:

(1) Christ was made under the law (Gal. 4:4).

(2) He lived in perfect obedience to the law (Mt. 17:5; Jn. 8:46; 1 Pet. 2:21-23).

(3) He was a minister of the law to the Jews, clearing it from rabbinical sophistries, enforcing it upon those who professed to obey it (e.g. Lk. 10:25-37), but confirming the promises made to the fathers under the Mosaic Covenant (Rom. 15:8; see Ex. 19:5, note).

(4) He fulfilled the types of the law by His holy life and sacrificial death (Heb. 9:11-28).

(5) He bore, vicariously, the curse of the law, so that the Abrahamic Covenant (see Gen. 12:2, note) might avail all who believe (Gal. 3:13-14).

(6) He brought out, by His redemptive work, all who believe—from the place of servants under the law to the place of sons (Gal. 4:1-7). And

(7) He mediated by His blood the New Covenant (see Heb. 8:8, note) of assurance and grace in which all believers stand (Rom. 5:2), so establishing the "law of Christ" (Gal. 6:2, refs.) with its precepts of righteous living made possible by the indwelling Spirit.

5:22 Raca. Literally Empty, an abusive epithet. hell fire. Greek geenna equals Gehenna, the place in the Valley of Hinnom where, anciently, human sacrifices were offered (2 Chr. 33:6; Jer. 7:31), and where the continuous burning of rubbish illustrated for the Jewish people unending judgment upon the wicked. The word occurs in Mt. 5:22,29,30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15,33; Mk. 9:43,45,47; Lk. 12:5; Jas. 3:6. In every instance except the last, the word was spoken by Jesus Christ in most solemn warning of the consequences of sin. He described it as the place where "their worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched" (Mk. 9:48). The expression is identical in meaning with "lake of fire" in Rev. 19:20; 20:10,14,15. See Death, the second (Jn. 8:24; Rev. 21:8); also Lk. 16:23, note.

5:29,30 offend. Literally cause thee to stumble. hell. Greek geenna. See Mt. 5:22, note.

45 That ye may be the ^kchildren of your Father which is in heaven: for he ^lmaketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

COINAGE IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

In N.T. times, not only Roman but Greek, Syrian, and Egyptian coins were in common circulation, some of them with local imitations of varying value. Estimates differ widely as to the proper value of these coins in terms of American dollars, the variation depending on whether the value of gold, silver, or purchasing power is made the basis. Moreover, the U.S. dollar value of precious metals varies from day to day.

The most common coin was

(1) the Roman denarius, a silver coin about two-thirds the size of an American quarter, worth about 16 cents and representing an ordinary day's wages for a laborer (Mt. 18:28; 20:2,9,10,13; 22:19; Mk. 6:37; 12:15; 14:5; Lk. 7:41; 10:35; 20:24; Jn. 6:7; 12:5; Rev. 6:6).

(2) The Greek equivalent was the drachma, mentioned only in Lk. 15:8. Some locally coined drachmas were worth less.

(3) The "didrachma," i.e. a double drachma, cited in Mt. 17:24, was probably coined locally and used as "tribute money" for payment of the temple tax.

(4) The "pieces of silver" (Mt. 26:15; 27:3,5,6,9) were probably tetradrachmas, i.e. a coin worth four drachmas, corresponding to the O.T. shekel (compare Zech. 11:12,13).

(5) But the coins in Acts 19:19, described as "pieces of silver," were probably Greek drachmas.

(6) The stater, a silver coin equivalent to four Greek drachmas or one shekel¹, and worth about 64 cents, is referred to as "a piece of money" in Mt. 17:27. It was the exact amount of the tax for two people, i.e. Christ and Peter. Gold staters, not mentioned in the Bible, were half the weight of the silver stater. The Roman aureus, a gold coin, is not mentioned in the N.T. except indirectly as "gold" in Mt. 10:9. Many coins were issued of copper or bronze.

(7) A coin referred to as brass (that is, copper Greek chalkos) in Mt. 10:9 and Mk. 6:8, and as "money" in Mk. 12:41 was probably a small Greek or Roman coin worth about one-half cent.

(8) The "farthing" (Greek kodrantes) of Mt. 5:26, transliterated as quadrans in Mk. 12:42, was worth about one-fourth cent.

(9) Four farthings made one assarius (Greek assarion, Mt. 10:29; Lk 12:6), worth about one cent. And

(10) the "mite" (Greek lepton), the smallest coin (Mk. 12:42; Lk. 12:59; 21:2), was one-half a farthing and worth about one-eighth cent.

Sums of money were indicated by the word "pound" (Greek mina), worth 100 denarii, and by "talents" worth 6,000 denarii. For coinage in the Old Testament, see Ex. 30:13, note.

48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

Religious ostentation rebuked

6 Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no ^areward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou ^bdoest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall ^areward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy ^ccloset, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall ^areward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not ^dvain repetitions, as the ^eheathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father ^fknoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

6:1 alms. "Alms" is equivalent to righteous acts. The expression refers to religious externalities. Although others may observe these acts, this fact must not be the motive behind the deeds.

6:9 Verses 9-13 contain what is familiarly known as The Lord's Prayer. It is His prayer in that He is its author. It was intended to be a model prayer for the disciples: "After this manner, . . . pray." See Lk. 11:2, note.

6:12 debts. That is, sin. See Rom. 3:23, note. as we forgive. The problem raised by the conditional nature of this petition for forgiveness may be explained as follows: In the fully developed doctrine of Christian salvation there are two areas of divine forgiveness. The first area is that of the forgiveness that comes to the sinner at the time of justification, and deals with the guilt of his sins in a total sense (Eph. 1:7). To this forgiveness there is attached but one condition, that is, to receive it once for all by faith in Christ (Rom. 4:5-8). The second area of forgiveness covers the relation of the divine Father to those who have become His children and deals specifically with the matter of fellowship whenever it is broken by sin. To obtain such forgiveness we must confess and forsake the sin (1 Jn. 1:9; compare Ps. 66:18 and Prov. 28:13). The forgiveness mentioned here in v. 12 belongs in this second area, because it occurs in a prayer given to disciples of Christ (5:2) who could call upon God as their Father (6:9,26). The ultimate motive for forgiving our debtors is based upon the grace of God, and appears later in the progress of revelation (Eph. 4:32; Col. 3:13).

6:13 evil. Or the evil one. For thine . . . Amen. This doxology does not appear in the oldest Greek manuscripts, and, in those which do include it, there are variations. The account by Luke omits it altogether (Lk. 11:2-4). Many eminent textual authorities believe that it was added by later hands, perhaps to make the prayer more suitable for public worship. The doxology, however, is biblical, for its main ideas seem clearly to parallel a prayer of David recorded in 1 Chr. 29:11—"Thine, O LORD, is . . . the power and the glory . . . thine is the kingdom." Moreover, the majority of Greek manuscripts do contain the doxology.

Treasure in heaven

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves ^btreasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in ^cheaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The ^dlight of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be ^esingle, thy whole body shall be full of light.

24 ¶ No man can serve ^ftwo masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and ^gmammon.

The cure for care

25 Therefore I say unto you, ^hTake no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than ⁱmeat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by ^jtaking thought can add one ^kcubit unto his stature?

28 And why ^ltake ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even ^mSolomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more ⁿclothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore ^otake no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father ^pknoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his ^qrighteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 ¶ Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

THE MEANING OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

The expression, "the kingdom of God" (Mt. 12:28), although used in many cases as synonymous with the kingdom of heaven, is to be distinguished from it in some instances (see Mt. 3:2, note):

(1) The kingdom of God is at times viewed as everlasting and universal, that is, the rule of the sovereign God over all creatures and things (Ps. 103:19; Dan. 4:3). In this sense the kingdom of God includes the kingdom of heaven.

(2) The kingdom of God is also used to designate the sphere of salvation entered only by the new birth (Jn. 3:5-7) in contrast with the kingdom of heaven as the sphere of profession which may be real or false (see Mt. 13:3, note; 25:1,11-12). And

(3) since the kingdom of heaven is in the earthly sphere of the universal kingdom of God, the two have many things in common and in some contexts the terms are interchangeable.

Like the kingdom of heaven, the kingdom of God is realized in the rule of God in the present age and will also be fulfilled in the future millennial kingdom. It continues forever in the eternal state (compare Dan. 4:3).

6:23 evil. That is, defective.

6:34 evil. The Greek word here denotes trouble, adversity, misfortune.

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

8:2 In chs. 5-7 the King declares the principles of the kingdom; in chs. 8-9 He gives proof of His power to banish from the earth the consequences of sin and to control the elements of nature. Lord. Greek kurios. This is the first occurrence of the word, as applied to Jesus, with His evident sanction. In itself the word means master, and is so used of human relationships in, e.g. Mt. 6:24; 15:27; Mk. 13:35; Eph. 6:9. But the general use of the word in the N.T. is as a divine title (over 650 times), translated either "Lord" or "Master." Both uses, divine and human, are brought together in Eph. 6:9 and Col. 4:1. It is the Greek equivalent of the Hebrew Adonai (see Gen. 15:2, note), but it is also used in the N.T. to translate the Hebrew Jehovah (LORD; see Ex. 34:6, note), e.g. Mt. 1:20,22; 2:15; 3:3; 4:7,10; 11:25; 21:9; Mk. 12:29-30; Lk. 1:68; 2:9. Both of these O.T. titles of Deity are rendered by kurios in one sentence (Mt. 22:44). Our Lord used it of His Father (Mt. 4:7,10; etc.). But the most frequent use of kurios is as a divine title of Jesus. That the intent is to identify Jesus Christ with the O.T. Deity is evident from Mt. 3:3; 12:8; 21:9 (Ps. 118:26);

7:22

THE REALITY OF DEMONS

Although the Greek daimonia is generally translated "devils" in the KJV, "demons" better distinguishes these evil spirits from Satan. There is only one devil (Greek diabolos), that is, Satan.

To the reality and personality of demons the N.T. Scriptures bear abundant testimony. As to their origin, nothing is clearly revealed, but they are not to be confused with the angels mentioned in 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6. Summary:

- (1) Demons are spirits (Mt. 12:43,45), Satan's emissaries (Mt. 12:26-27), and so numerous as to make Satan's power practically ubiquitous (Mk. 5:9).
- (2) They are capable of entering and controlling both men and animals (Mk. 5:2-5,11-13), and earnestly seek embodiment, without which, apparently, they are powerless for evil (Mt. 12:43-44; Mk. 5:10-12).
- (3) Demon influence and demon possession are distinguished in the N.T. Instances of the latter are Mt. 4:24; 8:16,28,33; 9:32; 12:22; Mk. 1:32; 5:15-16,18; Lk. 8:36; Acts 8:7; 16:16.
- (4) Demons are unclean, sullen, violent and malicious (Mt. 8:28; 9:33; 10:1; 12:43; Mk. 1:23; 5:3-5; 9:17,20; Lk. 6:18; 9:39).
- (5) They know Jesus Christ as Most High God and recognize His supreme authority (Mt. 8:31-32; Mk. 1:23-24; Acts 19:15; Jas. 2:19).
- (6) They know their eternal fate to be one of torment (Mt. 8:29; Lk. 8:31).
- (7) They inflict physical maladies (Mt. 12:22; 17:15-18; Lk. 13:16). However, mental disease is to be distinguished from the disorder of mind due to demonic control.
- (8) Demon influence may manifest itself in religious asceticism (1 Tim. 4:1-3), degenerating into uncleanness.
- (9) The sign of demon influence in religion is departure from the faith, that is, the body of revealed truth in the Scriptures (1 Tim. 4:1).
- (10) The demons maintain a conflict with Christians who would be spiritual (Eph. 6:12; 1 Tim. 4:1-3). The Christian's resources are prayer and bodily control (Mt. 17:21), "the whole armor of God" (Eph. 6:13-18).
- (11) All unbelievers are open to demon possession (Eph. 2:2).
- (12) Exorcism in the name of Jesus Christ (Acts 16:18) was practiced for demon possession. And
- (13) one of the awful features of the apocalyptic judgments in which this age will end is an emergence of demons out of the bottomless pit (Rev. 9:1-11,20).

5 ¶ And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a *f*centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under *g*authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he h marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great *i*faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the *k*kingdom of heaven.

12 But the *l*children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of *l*teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and *m*as thou hast *i*believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was *b*healed in the *n*selfsame hour.

15 And he *p*touched her hand, and the *q*fever *b*left her: and she arose, and *r*ministered unto *s*them.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the ^bdevils.

8:20 THE MEANING OF THE SON OF MAN

The name "Son of Man" is based on the great Messianic passage in Dan. 7:13. Compare Mt. 16:28; 19:28; 25:31; 26:64; Mk. 14:62; Lk. 22:69. Our Lord uses this term about eighty times to refer to Himself. It is His name as the representative Man, in the sense of 1 Cor. 15:45-47, as Son of David is distinctively His Jewish name, and Son of God His divine name. Our Lord constantly uses this term as implying that His mission (e.g. Mt. 11:19; Lk. 19:10), His death and resurrection (e.g. Mt. 12:40; 20:18; 26:2), and His second coming (e.g. Mt. 24:37-44; Lk. 12:40) transcend in scope and result all merely Jewish limitations.

When Nathanael confesses Him as "King of Israel," our Lord's answer is, "Thou shalt see greater things . . . the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man" (Jn. 1:50-51). When His messengers are cast out by the Jews, His thought leaps forward to the time when the Son of man comes again to the human race (compare Mt. 10:5-6 with v. 23). It is in this name also that universal judgment is committed to Him (Jn. 5:22,27). It is also a name indicating that in Him is fulfilled the O.T. foreview of blessing through a coming man (see Gen. 1:26, note; 3:15; 12:3; Ps. 8:4; 80:17; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; 32:2).

Jesus answers the Pharisees

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus sat ^aat meat in the house, behold, many ^bpublicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the ^cPharisees saw it, they ^dsaid unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with ^bpublicans and ^esinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be ^fwhole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, ¶ I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the ^grighteous, but ⁱsinners to ^jrepentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the ^kPharisees fast ^loft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the ^mchildren of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

Parable of the cloth and bottles
(Mk. 2:21-22; Lk. 5:36-39)

16 No man putteth a piece of new ⁿcloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the ^orent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old ^pbottles: else the ^qbottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the ^rbottles perish: but they put new wine into new ^sbottles, and both are ^tpreserved.

Two miracles of healing
(Mk. 5:21-43; Lk. 8:40-56)

18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, ^usaying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his ^vdisciples.

20 ¶ And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an ^wissue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and ^xtouched the hem of his ^ygarment:

21 For she ^zsaid within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be ^{aa}whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy ^{ab}faith hath ^{ac}made thee ^{ad}whole. And the woman was made ^{ae}whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the ^{af}minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and ^{ag}took her by the hand, and the maid ^{ah}arose.

26 And the ^{ai}cfame hereof went abroad into all that land.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your ^{am}faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were ^{an}opened; and Jesus ^{ao}straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his ^{ap}cfame in all that country.

32 ¶ As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a ^{aq}devil.

The twelve apostles sent forth (Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 9:1-6)

10 And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them ^hpower against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; ⁱJames the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the ^jpublican; James the son of Alphæus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddæus;

4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:

10:5-15 The instructions for this mission differ from the Great Commission given just before our Lord's ascension. (1) Here the mission is to Israel only, avoiding Gentiles

THE MEANING OF APOSTLE

The word "apostle" (Greek apostolos) means a messenger, one sent forth with orders. It is used concerning our Lord Himself (Heb. 3:1). Elsewhere it is used of the Twelve, who were called to that office by our Lord during His earthly ministry; of Paul, called to the apostleship by the risen and ascended Lord; of Barnabas (Acts 14:14), specially designated by the Holy Spirit (Acts 13:2); and of Matthias, chosen by lot to take the place of Judas Iscariot (Acts 1:15-26). Although Matthias is never actually referred to as an apostle, it is said of him, "and he was numbered with the eleven apostles."

The "signs of an apostle" were:

- (1) They were chosen directly by the Lord Himself or, as in the case of Barnabas, by the Holy Spirit (Mt. 10:1-2; Mk. 3:13-14; Lk. 6:13; Acts 9:6,15; 13:2; 22:10,14-15; Rom. 1:1).
- (2) They were endowed with sign-gifts, miraculous powers which were the divine credentials of their office (Mt. 10:1; Acts 5:15-16; 16:16-18; 28:8-9).
- (3) Their relation to the kingdom was that of heralds, announcing, to Israel only (Mt. 10:5-6), the kingdom as at hand (see Mt. 4:17, note), and manifesting kingdom powers (Mt. 10:7-8).
- (4) Our Lord delegated, first to Peter (Mt. 16:19) and then to the remainder of the apostolate (Mt. 18:18; Jn. 20:21-23) on behalf of all Christians, the authority to deal with men's sins through the Gospel, under the figure of "the keys of the kingdom."
- (5) The apostles' future relation to the kingdom will be that of judges over the twelve tribes (Mt. 19:28).
- (6) Consequent upon the rejection of the kingdom and the revelation of the mystery hidden in God (Mt. 16:18; Eph. 3:1-12), the Church, the apostolic office was invested with a new endowment, the baptism with the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:1-4); a new power, that of imparting the Spirit to Jewish believers in Christ; a new relation, that of foundation stones of the new temple (Eph. 2:20-22); and a new function, that of preaching the glad tidings of salvation, through the crucified and risen Lord, to Jew and Gentile alike.
- (7) It is implied that an apostle was one who was an eyewitness of the resurrection of Christ (Acts 1:22; 1 Cor. 9:1), that is, he must have seen the risen Lord. There is no N.T. record that Barnabas, called an apostle in Acts 14:14, saw Christ after His resurrection, but if such a qualification was implicit in apostleship, he must have been such an eyewitness.

(2) here the Twelve, being heralds of Israel's King, are to depend upon the hospitality of each village that they enter (vv. 9-14), whereas at the end of His ministry Christ commands those who are to preach the Gospel in His absence to do the opposite (Lk. 22:35-36). See also the practice implied in 3 Jn. 7.

10:6 lost. Greek apollumi. Jer. 50:6; see Jn. 3:16, note.

10:16 The scope of vv. 16-23 reaches beyond the personal ministry of the Twelve. They cover not only the sphere of service in a general sense during this age, but the words of v. 23 make it apparent that they have in view particularly the preaching of the remnant (Isa. 1:9; see Rom.

11:5, note) in the tribulation (Ps. 2:5; see Rev. 7:14, note), and immediately preceding the return of Christ in glory (see Dt. 30:3, note; Acts 1:11, note). The remnant then will not have gone over the cities of Israel until the Lord comes.

10:22 saved. The word "saved" is used here, not in the sense of the salvation of the soul but of deliverance out of persecution.

32 Whosoever therefore shall ^econfess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But whosoever shall ^fdeny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at ^gvariance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not ^hworthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 ¶ ⁱHe that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

Jesus eulogizes John the Baptist (Lk. 7:18-35)

11 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ^qmade an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to ^rteach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when ^sJohn had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should ^tcome, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The ^ublind ^vreceive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the ^wgospel ^xpreached to them.

6 And blessed is ^yhe, whosoever shall not be ^zoffended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft ^{aa}clothing are in kings' houses.

(2) "Peace from God" (Rom. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:3, etc.), which is to be found in the salutation of all the epistles bearing Paul's name, and which emphasizes the source of all true peace.

(3) "Peace of God" (Phil. 4:7), inward peace, the state of the soul of the Christian who, having entered into peace with God, has committed all his anxieties to God through prayer and supplication with thanksgiving (Lk. 7:50; Phil. 4:6-7); this phrase emphasizes the quality or the nature of the peace granted. 11:11 greater than he. Positionally greater, not morally. John the Baptist was as great, in strength of character, as any man "born of woman" but, as to the kingdom, his ministry was to announce that it was at hand. The kingdom did not then come but was rejected, and John was martyred and the King subsequently crucified. The least in the kingdom, when it is set up in glory (see Kingdom [N.T.], Lk. 1:31-33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note) will be greater than John in the fullness of the Lord's power and glory. It is not heaven which is in question, but Messiah's earthly kingdom. See Mt. 3:2, note; 6:33, note.

11:12 violence. It has been much disputed whether the violence (force) here is external, as against the kingdom in the persons of John the Baptist and Jesus; or that, considering the opposition of the scribes and Pharisees, only the violently resolute would press into it. Both things are true. The King and His herald suffered violence, and this is the primary and greater meaning; but also, some were resolutely becoming disciples. Compare Lk. 16:16.

11:19 children. That is, deeds or works.

11:20 The kingdom of heaven, announced as at hand by John the Baptist, by the King Himself, and by the Twelve, and attested by mighty works, has been morally rejected. The places chosen for the testing of the nation, Chorazin, Bethsaida, etc., having rejected both John and Jesus, the rejected King now speaks of judgment. The official rejection was later (Mt. 27:21-25).

11:28 The new message of Jesus. The rejected King now turns from the rejecting nation and offers, not the kingdom but rest and service to all who are in conscious need of His help. It is a pivotal point in the ministry of Jesus.

12:2 not lawful. It was lawful to glean grain (Dt.

23:24-25), but not on the sabbath.

12:3 what David did. Jesus' action (vv. 1-8) is highly significant. "What David did" refers to the time of his rejection and persecution by Saul (1 Sam. 21:6). Jesus here is not so much the rejected Savior as the rejected King.

12:1

THE MEANING OF SABBATH, SUMMARY

"Sabbath," from Hebrew shabbath (Greek sabbaton), means cessation from labor, rest.

(1) The sabbath appears in Scripture as the day of God's rest in the finished work of creation (Gen. 2:2-3). During the long period from Eden to Sinai, no mention is made of it. Then the sabbath was revealed to Israel (Ex. 16:23; Neh. 9:13-14), made a part of the law (Ex. 20:8-11), and invested with the character of a "sign" between the LORD and Israel, and a perpetual reminder to Israel of their separation to God (Ex. 31:13-17). It was observed by complete rest (Ex. 35:2-3); and by the LORD's express order a man was put to death for gathering sticks on the sabbath day (Num. 15:32-36). Apart from maintaining the continued burnt offering (Num. 28:9), and its connection with the annual feasts (Ex. 12:16; Lev. 23:3,8; Num. 28:25), the seventh-day sabbath was never made a day of sacrifice, worship, or any manner of religious service. It was simply and only a day of complete rest for man and beast, a humane provision for man's needs. In Christ's words, "The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath" (Mk. 2:27).

(2) Our Lord found the observance of the day encrusted with rabbinical evasions and restrictions (Mt. 12:2), wholly unknown to the law, so that He was Himself held to be a sabbath-breaker by the religious authorities of the time. The sabbath will be again observed during the tribulation period (Mt. 24:20-21) and the Kingdom Age (Isa. 66:23).

(3) The Christian first-day-rest perpetuates in the dispensation of the Church the principle that one-seventh of the time is especially sacred, but in all other respects is in contrast with the sabbath. One is the seventh day; the other the first. The sabbath commemorates God's creation-rest; the first day, Christ's resurrection. On the seventh day God rested; on the first day Christ was ceaselessly active. The sabbath commemorates a finished creation; the first day, a finished redemption. The sabbath was a day of legal obligation; the first day, one of voluntary worship and service. The sabbath is mentioned in Acts only in connection with the Jews, and in the balance of the N.T. but twice (Col. 2:16; Heb. 4:4). In these passages the seventh-day sabbath is explained to be, not a day to be observed by the Christians, but a type of the present rest into which the believer will enter when "he also ceases from his own work" and trusts Christ.

to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do ^awell on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was ^brestored ^cwhole, like as the other.

Many others healed (Mk. 3:6-12)

14 ¶ Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might ^ddestroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And ^echarged them that they should not make him known:

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth ^kjudgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a ^ldevil, blind, and dumb: and he ^mhealed him, inasmuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

24 But when the ^oPharisees heard it, they said, This ^pfellow doth not cast out ^qdevils, ^rbut by Beelzebub the prince of the ^sdevils.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if ^tSatan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I ^uBeelzebub cast out ^vdevils, by whom do your ^wchildren cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I ^xcast out ^ydevils by the ^zSpirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

12:18 Gentiles. The rejected King of Israel will turn to the Gentiles (contrast Mt. 10:5-6). In fulfillment this awaited the official rejection, and the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ (Lk. 24:46-48; Acts 9:15; 13:46; 28:25-28; Rom. 11:11).

12:21 trust. That is, hope.

12:31 blasphemy. The "blasphemy against the Holy Ghost" consisted in ascribing to Satan the work of the Holy Spirit (compare v. 24). Such a sin was unpardonable because of the unusual circumstances of their rejection of Christ. This most serious sin of the Pharisees was the climax of their continual denial of the obvious truth that the miracles of Jesus represented the power of God (e.g. 9:33-34), so that Jesus' message was heaven-authenticated. Their folly in deliberately apostatizing by ascribing to the devil the mighty works of Christ by the Holy Spirit is summarized by our Lord in Mt. 23:13-36 and Lk. 11:52. Anyone who is concerned about his rejection of Christ has obviously not committed this "unpardonable sin," and can still come to Christ.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the ^eday of judgment.

40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the ⁱwhale's belly; so shall the ^jSon of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the ^kearth.

The fact that, in this key passage where our Lord uses the experience of Jonah to predict His burial, the other four references—that is, to the men of Nineveh, the queen of Sheba, Solomon, and Christ Himself (“a greater than Solomon”)—are plainly historical, confirms the historicity of Jonah. For the Lord would hardly include a mythical figure, as some call Jonah, in the identical context with these four historical references.

13:3 spake . . . in parables. The seven parables of ch. 13, called by our Lord "mysteries of the kingdom of heaven" (v. 11), taken together describe the result of the presence of the Gospel in the world during the present age, that is, the time of seed-sowing which began with our Lord's personal ministry and will end with the "harvest" (vv. 40-43). The result is the mingled tares and wheat, good fish and bad, in the sphere of Christian profession. It is Christendom. sower. The figure marks a new beginning. To labor in God's vineyard (Israel, Isa. 5:1-7) is one thing; to go forth sowing the seed of the Word in a field which is the world, quite another (compare Mt. 10:5). One-fourth of the seed takes permanent root, and the result is "wheat" (v. 25; 1 Pet. 1:23), or "children of the kingdom" (v. 38). This parable (vv. 3-9) is treated throughout as foundational to the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven. It is interpreted by our Lord Himself (vv. 18-23).

13:11 MYSTERIES IN SCRIPTURE

A "mystery" in Scripture is a previously hidden truth now divinely revealed. This chapter shows clearly for the first time that there will be an interval between Christ's first and second advents (vv. 17,35; compare 1 Pet. 1:10-12).

The greater mysteries are:

- (1) the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven (Mt. 13:3-50);
- (2) the mystery of Israel's blindness during this age (Rom. 11:25, with context);
- (3) the mystery of the translation of living saints at the end of this age (1 Cor. 15:51-52; 1 Th. 4:13-17);
- (4) the mystery of the N.T. Church as one body composed of Jews and Gentiles (Eph. 3:1-12; Rom. 16:25; Eph. 6:19; Col. 4:3);
- (5) the mystery of the Church as the bride of Christ (Eph. 5:23-32);
- (6) the mystery of the indwelling Christ (Gal. 2:20; Col. 1:26-27);
- (7) the "mystery of God, even Christ," that is, Christ as the incarnate fullness of the Godhead embodied, in whom all the divine wisdom for man subsists (1 Cor. 2:7; Col. 2:2,9);
- (8) the mystery of the processes by which godlikeness is restored to man (1 Tim. 3:16);
- (9) the mystery of iniquity (2 Th. 2:7; compare Mt. 13:33);
- (10) the mystery of the seven stars (Rev. 1:20); and
- (11) the mystery of Babylon (Rev. 17:5,7).

hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he ^ahath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: ^bbecause they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the ^cprophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not ^dperceive:

15 For this people's heart is ^ewaxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have ^fclosed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should ^gheal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they ^hhear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and ⁱrighteous men have ^jdesired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ ^kHear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the ^lkingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked ^mone, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and ⁿanon with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but ^odureth for a while: for when ^ptribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, ^qby and by he is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this ^rworld, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh ^sunfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth ^tfruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

(2) The tares among the wheat
(cp. vv. 36-43)

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The ^ukingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed ^vgood seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed ^wtares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

13:24 THE PARABLE OF THE SEED

This parable (vv. 24-30) is also interpreted by our Lord (vv. 36-43). Here the "good seed" is not the "word," as in the first parable (vv. 19,23), but rather that which the Word has produced (1 Pet. 1:23), that is, the children of the kingdom. These are providentially "sown" (v. 37), that is, scattered here and there in the "field" of the "world" (v. 38). The "world" here is both geographic and ethnic—the earth-world, and also the world of men. The wheat of God at once becomes the scene of Satan's activity. Where children of the kingdom are gathered, there, "among the wheat" (vv. 25,38,39), Satan sows "children of the wicked one," who profess to be children of the kingdom and, in outward ways, are so like the true children that only the angels may, in the end, be trusted to separate them (vv. 40-43). So great is Satan's power of deception that the tares often really suppose themselves to be children of the kingdom (7:21-23).

Many other parables and exhortations have this mingled condition in view (e.g. 22:11-14; 25:1-13,14-30; Lk. 18:10-14; Heb. 6:4-9). Indeed, it characterizes Matthew from ch. 13 to the end. The parable of the wheat and the tares is not a description of the world, but of that which professes to be the kingdom. Not all unbelievers are called children of the devil; only those who have willfully rejected the light are so designated (compare v. 38; Jn. 8:38-44).

13:15 converted. Literally turned about.

13:17 prophets. The O.T. prophets saw in one blended vision the rejection and crucifixion of the King (see Heb. 10:18, note), and also His glory as David's Son (see Zech. 12:8, note), but "what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow," was not revealed to them—only that the vision was not for themselves (1 Pet. 1:10-12). That revelation Christ makes in these parables. A period of time is to intervene between His sufferings and His glory. That interval is occupied with the "mysteries of the kingdom of heaven" described here.

13:22 world. Greek aiōn. See Mk. 10:30, note.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

(3) The mustard seed (Mk. 4:30-32)

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

(4) The leaven (Lk. 13:20-21)

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in par-

The Church, translated before the tribulation, will be gathered into the millennial kingdom, together with those living believers who have survived the tribulation period (v. 43; 24:13; 25:31,34) and the resurrected righteous men and women of all the previous ages.

13:31 Another parable. The parable of the mustard seed suggests the rapid but unsubstantial growth of the mystery aspect of the kingdom (see 13:3, note) from a small beginning (Acts 1:15; 2:41; 1 Cor. 1:26) to a great place on the earth.

THE MEANING OF LEAVEN IN SCRIPTURE, SUMMARY

It was common practice to retain a lump of leavened or fermented dough from a former baking and use it to leaven new dough. Under the Mosaic law, however, leaven was forbidden in bread used in the feast of unleavened bread and the passover (Ex. 12:8, 15-20; Lev. 23:6-8), and similar exclusion of leaven applied to offerings placed on the altar (Ex. 23:18; 34:25; Lev. 2:11; 6:17). The only exceptions were the use of leaven in the two wave-loaves offered as firstfruits (Lev. 23:17) and some of the cakes of bread offered with the peace-offerings (Lev. 7:13, note).

Leaven, which brings about fermentation, is uniformly regarded in Scripture as typifying the presence of impurity or evil (Ex. 12:15, 19; 13:7; Lev. 2:11; Dt. 16:4; Mt. 16:6, 12; Mk. 8:15; Lk. 12:1; 1 Cor. 5:6-9; Gal. 5:9). The two wave-loaves, representing Israel and the Gentiles as forming the Church, contained leaven in recognition of imperfections in the believers (see Lev. 23:17, note). The use of leaven in the three measurements of meal seems intended likewise to represent evil within the kingdom of heaven. The teaching that leaven in this parable represents the beneficent influence of the Gospel pervading the world has no Scriptural justification. Nowhere in Scripture does leaven represent good; the idea of a converted world at the end of the age is contradicted by the presence of tares among the wheat and bad fish among the good in the kingdom itself. Although Biblical truth has a beneficial moral influence on the world, the mingling of leaven is not the method of divine salvation or enlargement of the kingdom. Tares never become wheat. The parable is, therefore, a warning that true doctrine, represented by the meal, would be corrupted by false doctrine (compare 1 Tim. 4:1-3; 2 Tim. 2:17-18; 4:3-4; 2 Pet. 2:1-3).

Summary:

(1) Leaven, as a symbolic or typical substance, is always mentioned in the O.T. in an evil sense (Gen. 19:3, marg.).

(2) The use of the word in the N.T. explains its symbolic meaning. It is "malice and wickedness" as contrasted with "sincerity and truth" (1 Cor. 5:6-8). It is evil doctrine (Mt. 16:12) in its threefold form of Pharisaism, Sadduceism, and Herodianism (Mt. 16:6; Mk. 8:15). The leaven of the Pharisees was externalism in religion (Mt. 23:14-16, 23-28); of the Sadducees, skepticism as to the supernatural and as to the Scriptures (Mt. 22:23, 29); of the Herodians, worldliness—a Herod party among the Jews (Mt. 22:16-21; Mk. 3:6). And

(3) the use of the word in Mt. 13:33 is congruous with its meaning elsewhere in the Scriptures, as denoted in the paragraphs above.

13:41 iniquity. That is, lawlessness.

13:43 Then shall the righteous. The kingdom does not become the kingdom of the Father until Christ, having "put all enemies under His feet," including the last enemy, death, "delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father" (1 Cor. 15:24-28). There is triumph over death at the first resurrection (1 Cor. 15:54-55), but death, "the last enemy," is not destroyed until the end of the millennium (Rev. 20:14).

13:45 pearls. The true Church is the pearl of great price. Its formation covers a large part of the period of the mysteries of the kingdom, and is itself called a mystery (Rom. 16:25-26; Eph. 3:3-12; 5:32; Col. 1:24-27). A pearl is an illustration of the Church:

(1) A pearl is formed by accretion, and that not mechanically but vitally, as Christ adds to the Church (Acts 2:41,47; 5:14; 11:24; Eph. 2:21; Col. 2:19). And

(2) Christ, having given Himself for the pearl, is now preparing it for presentation to Himself (Eph. 5:25-27). The kingdom is not the Church, but the true children of the kingdom during the fulfillment of these mysteries, baptized by one Spirit into one body (1 Cor. 12:12-13), compose the Church, the pearl.

THE PARABLE OF THE TREASURE

The interpretation of the parable of the treasure which makes the buyer of the field to be a sinner who is seeking Christ, has no warrant in the parable itself. The field is declared to be the world (v. 38). The seeking sinner does not buy, but forsakes the world to gain Christ. Furthermore, the sinner has nothing to sell; neither is Christ for sale or hidden in a field; nor, having found Christ, does the sinner hide Him again (compare Mk. 7:24; Acts 4:20). At every point the interpretation breaks down.

The field is the world (v. 38), which was purchased by our Lord at the priceless cost of His own blood in order that He might have the treasure (1 Pet. 1:18). As Israel was God's treasure in O.T. times (Ex. 19:5; Ps. 135:4), so there is at the present time "a remnant [of Israel] according to the election of grace" (Rom. 11:5). Those who compose the remnant are no longer reckoned as Jews (Gal. 3:28) but as members of the "one body" together with saved Gentiles (Eph. 2:14-18; 4:4) and thus Christ's inheritance (Eph. 1:18) and His joy (Heb. 12:2).

forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

(8) The householder

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

THE PARABLE OF THE NET

The parable of the net (literally "dragnet") presents, as does that of the wheat and the tares, the mystery of the kingdom as the sphere of profession, but with this difference: there Satan was the active agent; here the admixture is more the result of the tendency of a movement to gather to itself that which is not really of it. The kingdom of heaven is like a net which, cast into the sea of humanity, gathers of every kind, good and bad. These remain together in the net (v. 49) and not merely in the sea until the end of the age. It is not even a converted net, much less a converted sea. Much violence has been done to sound exegesis by the notion that the world is to be converted in this age. Against that notion stands our Lord's own interpretation of the parables of the sower, the wheat and the tares, and the net.

Such, then, is the mystery form of the kingdom (see Mt. 3:2, note; 6:33, note). It is the sphere of Christian profession during this age. It is a mingled body of true and false, wheat and tares, good and bad. It is defiled by formalism, doubt, and worldliness. But within it Christ sees the true children of the true kingdom who, at the end, are to "shine forth like the sun." In the great field, the world, He sees His treasure that He redeems for His own through His cross. Thus, in this aspect of the kingdom, He sees the Church, His body and bride composed of believing Israelites and Gentiles and for joy sells all that He has (2 Cor. 8:9) and buys the field, the treasure, and the pearl.

11 And his head was brought in a ^bcharger, and given to the ^edamsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ When Jesus heard of it, he ^fdeparted thence by ^gship into a desert place ^hapart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; ^lgive ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he ^mcommanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he ⁿblessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 ^oAnd they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that ^premained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a ^smountain ^tapart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ^uship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, ^vwalking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, ^wIt is a ^xspirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good ^ycheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ^zship, he ^{aa}walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the ^{ab}wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, ^{ac}Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of ^{ad}little faith, wherefore didst thou ^{ae}doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ^{af}ship, the wind ^{ag}ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ^{ah}ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the ^{ai}Son of God.

God's commandments versus man's tradition (Mk. 7:1-13)

15 Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the ^dtradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the ^ecommandment of God by your tradition?

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to ^ghis father or ^hhis mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

Diagnosis of the heart of man (Mk. 7:14-23)

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 ^pNot that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the ^qPharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: they be ^rblind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, ^sDeclare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the ^tbelly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the ^uheart; and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart proceed ^vevil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are ^wthe things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

Further healing (cp. Mk. 7:31-37)

29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came ⁱnigh unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

Peter's confession of Christ
(Mk. 8:27-30; Lk. 9:18-21;
cp. Jn. 6:68-69)

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the ^ecoasts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, ¶ Whom do ^gmen say that I the ^hSon of man am?

14 And they said, Some say that thou art ⁱJohn the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or ^jone of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ^kye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the ^lChrist, the Son of the living God.

19 And I will give unto thee the ^rkeys of the ^skingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and ^tsuffer many things of the elders and chief priests and ^uscribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

16:17 Bar-jona. Meaning son of Jonah.

16:18 Peter. In the Greek there is a play upon words in this statement: "Thou art Peter [petros, a stone], and upon this rock [petra, a massive rock] I will build my church." It is upon Christ Himself that the Church is built. See what the Apostle Peter writes (1 Pet. 2:4-8); compare also Paul's statement (1 Cor. 3:11). church. The word "church" (Greek ekklesiá, from a verb meaning to call out) is used of any assembly and in itself implies no more than a gathering of people who have been called forth, e.g. the town meeting at Ephesus (Acts 19:41), and Israel, called out of Egypt and assembled in the wilderness (Acts 7:38). Israel was a "church," but not in any sense the N.T. church—the primary point of similarity being that both were "called out" and by the same God. See Acts 7:38 and Heb. 12:23, notes.

16:20 charged. The disciples had been proclaiming Jesus as the Christ, that is, the covenanted King of a kingdom promised to the Jews and at hand. The Church, on the contrary, must be built upon testimony to Him as crucified, risen from the dead, ascended, and made "head over all things to the church" (Eph. 1:20-23). The former testimony was ended; the new testimony was not yet ready because the blood of the new covenant had not yet been shed, but our Lord began to speak of His death and resurrection (v. 21). It is a turning point of immense significance. Jesus. Many manuscripts omit the word Jesus.

16:19 THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM

These are not the keys of the Church but of the kingdom of heaven in the sense of ch. 13, that is, the sphere of Christian profession. A key is a badge of power or authority (compare Isa. 22:22; Rev. 3:7). The apostolic history explains and limits this trust, for it was Peter who opened the door of Christian opportunity to Israel on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:38-42) and to Gentiles in the house of Cornelius (Acts 10:34-48). There was no assumption by Peter of any other authority (Acts 15:7-11). In the council James, not Peter, seems to have presided (Acts 15:19; compare Gal. 2:11-14). Peter claimed no more for himself than to be an apostle by gift (1 Pet. 1:1) and an elder by office (1 Pet. 5:1).

The power of binding and loosing was shared (Mt. 18:18) by the apostles and other believers (Jn. 20:22-23, where see note; compare Lk. 24:33). An illustration of Peter's use of this authority as related to forgiveness (Jn. 20:23) is given in Acts 10:43. See also Paul's use of it in Acts 13:38-39. The keys of death and the place of departed spirits are held by the Lord Jesus Christ alone (Rev. 1:18).

thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

Cost of discipleship
(Mk. 8:34-38; Lk. 9:23-26)

24 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

The transfiguration:
a foreview of the future kingdom
(Mk. 9:2-13; Lk. 9:28-36)

17 And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him what-

17:2 CHRIST'S TRANSFIGURATION

The transfiguration scene contains, in miniature, all the elements of the future kingdom in manifestation (2 Pet. 1:15-21):

(1) the Lord Jesus, not in humiliation but in glory (v. 2);

(2) Moses, in glory, representative of the redeemed who have passed through death into the kingdom (Mt. 13:43; compare Lk. 9:30-31);

(3) Elijah, in glory, representative of the redeemed who have entered the kingdom by translation (1 Cor. 15:50-53; 1 Th. 4:13-17);

(4) Peter, James, and John, not glorified, representatives, for the moment, of Israel in the flesh in the future kingdom (Ezek. 37:21-27); and

(5) the multitude at the foot of the mountain (v. 14), representative of those who are to be brought into the kingdom after it is established over Israel (Isa. 11:10-12; etc.).

16:26 world. Greek kosmos. See Mt. 4:8, note.

Moses: saved from the water. The great leader of the Israelites who led them out of slavery in Egypt to the Promised Land.

17:10 Compare Mal. 3:1; 4:5-6; Mt. 11:14; Mk. 9:11-13; Lk. 1:17. All the passages must be taken together.

(1) Christ confirms the specific and still unfulfilled prophecy of Mal. 4:5-6: "Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things." Here, as in Malachi, the prediction fulfilled in John the Baptist, and that yet to be fulfilled in Elijah, are kept distinct.

(2) But John the Baptist had come already, and with a ministry so completely in the spirit and power of Elijah's future ministry (Lk. 1:17) that in a typical sense, it could be said: "Elijah is come already." Compare Mt. 10:40; Phile. 12,17, where the same thought of identification, although still preserving personal distinction, occurs (compare Jn. 1:21).

soever they ^alisted. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

*The powerless disciples:
the mighty Christ
(Mk. 9:14-29; Lk. 9:37-43)*

14 ¶ And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, ^bkneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is ^clunatick, and ^dsore vexed: for ^eofttimes he falleth into the fire, and ^foft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, ^o faithless and ^hperverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I ⁱsuffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus ^jrebuked the ^kdevil; and he departed out of him: and the child was ^lcured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus ^mapart, and said, ⁿWhy could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have ^ofaith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, ^pRemove hence to yonder place; and it shall ^qremove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out ^rbut by prayer and ^sfasting.

*Jesus again foretells
His death and resurrection
(Mk. 9:30-32; Lk. 9:43-45)*

22 ¶ And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The ^tSon of man shall be ^ubetrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding ^vsorry.

*The miracle of the tribute money from the mouth of a fish
(cp. Mk. 12:13-17)*

24 ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received ^vtribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus ^wprevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own ^xchildren, or of ^ystrangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the ^xchildren free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt ^zfind a ^zpiece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

*Childlike faith necessary for entrance into the kingdom of heaven
(Mk. 9:33-41; Lk. 9:46-50)*

18 At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the ^{aa}greatest in the ^{bb}kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little ^{cc}child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the ^{bb}kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the ^{bb}kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveveth me.

6 *But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.*

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 Wherefore ^aif thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into ^blife ^chalt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their ^dangels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

12 How think ye? ^hif a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the ⁱwill of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover if thy ^jbrother shall ^ktrespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of ^ltwo or 17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an ^mheathen man and a ⁿpublican.

Jesus teaches concerning divorce
(cp. 5:31-32; Mk. 10:1-12; Lk. 16:18; Rom. 7:1-3; 1 Cor. 7:10-16)

19 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he ^gdeparted from Galilee, and came into the ^hcoasts of Judæa beyond Jordan;

2 And great multitudes followed him; and he ⁱhealed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, ^jtempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not ^kread, ^lthat he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and ^mthey ⁿtwain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more

^otwain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then ^pcommand to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the ^qhardness of your hearts ^rsuffered you to put away your ^swives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, ^tAll men cannot receive this saying, ^usave they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have ^vmade themselves eunuchs for the ^wkingdom of heaven's ^xsake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

14 But Jesus said, ^zSuffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of ^{aa}such is the ^wkingdom of heaven.

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be h perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a i rich man shall /hardly k enter into the k kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, m than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

19:16 MISTAKES OF THE RICH YOUNG MAN

The rich young man made four mistakes, each of which was met by the Lord with unerring wisdom:

(1) His mistake about the Person of Christ, thinking Him only a good teacher, was answered by the inescapable dilemma—either He is God or He is not a good man (v. 17).

(2) His mistake about the way of eternal life, supposing it could be earned by works, was met by confronting him with the high demands of divine law (v. 17).

(3) His mistake about himself, thinking he had kept the law (v. 20), was answered by testing him as to works of righteousness (v. 21) and opening his eyes to his failure (v. 22). And

(4) his most tragic mistake was in not heeding the final words of Christ, "Come and follow me" (v. 21); for therein was offered gracious hope for a sinner.

In the Lord's explanation to the disciples, after the incident, He made it clear that salvation is never won by human attainment, but that "with God all things are possible" (vv. 24-26)—even the salvation of those who love riches. Salvation has always been by God's grace to the sinner, through his faith in Christ's atoning sacrifice. See Jn. 1:17, note.

19:24 needle. Greek raphis, a sewing needle.

19:28 regeneration. The word "regeneration," (Greek palinogenesis meaning new birth, renewal, re-creation) occurs only one other time in the N.T., in Ti. 3:5. There it refers to the Christian's new birth; here, to the re-creation of the social order and renewal of the earth (Isa. 11:6-9; Rom. 8:19-23) when the kingdom comes. See Restoration (Acts 3:21, note); Kingdom, O.T. (Zech. 12:8, note); Kingdom, N.T. (1 Cor. 15:24, note). judging the twelve tribes. Our Lord's prediction discloses how the promise of Isa. 1:26 will be fulfilled when the kingdom is set up. The kingdom will be administered over Israel through the apostles, according to the ancient theocratic judgeship (Jud. 2:18).

20:1 labourers. The complaint of these laborers (vv. 11-12) reveals their character. They had been dealt with fairly; they protested because others had been dealt with generously.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a ^apenny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did ^blike-wise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when ^ceven was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they ^dreceived every man a ^apenny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise ^ereceived every man a ^apenny.

11 And when they had received it, they ^fmurmured against the ^ggoodman of the house, 12 Saying, These last have ^hwrought but one hour, and thou hast made them ⁱequal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a ^apenny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do ^jwhat I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

16 So the ^klast shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

Jesus again predicts His death and resurrection (Mk. 10:32-34; Lk. 18:31-34; cp. also Mt. 12:38-42; 16:21-28; 17:22-23)

17 ¶ And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples ^lapart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the ^mSon of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 And shall deliver him to the ⁿGentiles to ^omock, and to ^pscourge, and to ^qcrucify him: and the third day he shall ^rrise again.

Christ's response to request of the mother of James and John (Mk. 10:35-45)

20 ¶ Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may ^ssit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy ^tkingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the ^ucup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized ^vwith the baptism that I am baptized with: but to ^wsit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with ^xindignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

31 And the multitude ^drebuked them, ^ebecause they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village ^jover against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ^kought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath ^lneed of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was ^mspoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy ⁿKing ^ocometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set ^phim thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their ^qgarments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and ^rstrawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: ^sBlessed is he that ^tcometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the ^uprophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

20:30

THE MIRACLE OF THE BLIND MEN

A twofold discrepancy is alleged to exist between the account of this miracle in Mt. 20:29-34 and those in Mk. 10:46-52 and Lk. 18:35-43: the subjects, and time of the healing. Two blind men were involved; Bartimaeus, the more active, is mentioned by name in Mark. Nothing is known of the other. Luke states that the time of the healing was before Christ entered Jericho; Matthew and Mark place it at His departure from the city. An explanation is possible on one of two grounds:

- (1) the healing could have taken place after our Lord left the old Jericho, and was drawing near the new Jericho, which Herod the Great had built some distance away; and
- (2) the blind men could have entreated the Lord for healing when He approached the city, but were healed as He departed from it.

Jesus drives traders from temple
(Mk. 11:15-18; Lk. 19:45-47;
cp. Jn. 2:13-16)

12 ¶ And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is ^awritten, ^bMy house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the ^cblind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the ^dson of David; they were ^esore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never ^aread, ^fOut of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 And he left them, and ^gwent out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there.

The barren fig tree
(Mk. 11:12-14, 20-26)

18 ¶ Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he ^hhungry.

19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree ⁱwithered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have ^jfaith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And ^kall things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

Jesus' authority challenged
(Mk. 11:27-33; Lk. 20:1-8)

23 ¶ And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The ^mbaptism of ⁿJohn, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they ^oreasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we ^pfear the people; for all hold John as a ^qprophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, ^rNeither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

Parable of the two sons

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he ^urepented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

Parable of the householder
(Mk. 12:1-9; Lk. 20:9-19;
cp. Isa. 5:1-7)

33 ¶ Hear another ^dparable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and ^edugged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and ^flet it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the ^ghusbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the ^hhusbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he ⁱsent unto them his ^json, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the ^khusbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the ^lheir; come, let us ^mkill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and cast ⁿhim out of the vineyard, and slew ^ohim.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those ^phusbandmen?

41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will ^qlet out ^rhis vineyard unto other ^shusbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never ^mread in the scriptures, The ⁿstone which the builders rejected, the same is become the ^ohead of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The ^pkingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this ^qstone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and ^rPharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they ^sfeared the multitude, because they ^ttook him for a prophet.

21:44 CHRIST AS THE STONE

Christ as the Stone is revealed in a threefold way:

(1) To Israel, Christ, coming not in Messianic glory but in the form of a servant, is a Stumbling Stone and Rock of offense (Isa. 8:14-15; Rom. 9:32-33; 1 Cor. 1:23; 1 Pet. 2:8).

(2) To the Church, Christ is the Foundation Stone and the Head of the corner (1 Cor. 3:11; Eph. 2:20-22; 1 Pet 2:4-5). And

(3) to the Gentile world powers (see Times of the Gentiles, Lk. 21:24, note; Rev. 16:19, note), Christ is to be the Smiting Stone of destruction (Dan. 2:34). Israel stumbled over Christ; the Church is built upon Christ; Gentile world dominion will be crushed by Christ. See Armageddon, Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17, note.

21:43 you. That is, national Israel, the barren vine (vv. 33-41). Compare Isa. 5:1-7. kingdom of God. Our Lord here uses the expression "kingdom of God," referring to a sphere of genuine faith in God, in contrast with His usual expression "kingdom of heaven." The kingdom of God is declared to be "taken away from you," that is, taken from the scribes and Pharisees represented in the parable as the wicked vinedressers, and given to a people who will bring forth the fruits of salvation. This passage teaches that unbelieving scribes and Pharisees would not be saved, because of their rejection of the Son. Others who will manifest the fruits of salvation take their place. Neither in the present age nor in the future millennium is the kingdom of God the exclusive possession of either Israel or the Gentiles.

22:3,4 marriage . . . wedding. Or marriage feast.

vants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and ^aentreated them ^bspitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was ^cwroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the ^dhighways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a ^fwedding garment? And he was ^gspeechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into ^houter darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For ⁱmany are called, but few are chosen.

Jesus answers the Herodians
(Mk. 12:13-17; Lk. 20:20-26)

15 ¶ Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the ^jHerodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give ^ktribute unto Cæsar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why ^ltempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a ^mpenny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are ⁿCæsar's; and unto God the things that are ^oGod's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

Jesus answers the Sadducees
(Mk. 12:18-27; Lk. 20:27-38)

23 ¶ The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no ^presurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, Moses ^qsaid, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, ^rdeceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection ^swhose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

22:4,8,9,10 marriage . . . wedding. Or marriage feast.

22:9 The worldwide call. Mt. 28:16-20; Rev. 22:17.

22:15 Verses 15-46 record our Lord's meetings with the representatives of Israel—the Herodians, the Sadducees, and the Pharisees (see 3:7, note). Although He answered their questions and put them to silence (v. 46), they did not repent and turn to Him in faith. The only message left for them was the woes of ch. 23.

22:16 Herodians. Not a sect but a political party that supported the Herod dynasty.

22:29 Ye do err (from the Greek verb planaō) carries the idea of being deceived. Thus Jesus' answer to the Sadducees' question gives the three incapacities of the rationalist:

neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are ^aas the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not ^bread that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 ^cI am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

Jesus answers the Pharisees
(Mk. 12:28-34; cp. Lk. 10:25-28)

34 ¶ But when the ^dPharisees had heard that he had put the ^eSadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, ^ftempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the ^ggreat commandment in the ^hlaw?

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt ⁱlove the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy ^jneighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang ^kall the law and the prophets.

Jesus questions the Pharisees concerning the Messiah
(Mk. 12:35-37; Lk. 20:41-44)

41 ¶ While the ^kPharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The ^lSon of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in ^mspirit call him Lord, saying,

44 ⁿThe LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither ^odurst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

(Mk. 12:38-40; Lk. 20:45-47)

23 Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, ^pthat observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4 For they ^qbind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do for to ^rbe seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And love the uppermost ^srooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

(1) self-deception (Rom. 1:21-22);

22:35 lawyer. The Greek word nomikos is translated "lawyer" here and in Lk. 7:30; 10:25; 11:45,46,52; 14:3; Ti. 3:13. In the Matthean and Lucan references it describes men expert in the Jewish law, normally called "scribes" (compare Ezra 7:6,10). In Titus it probably refers to one who was expert in Roman law.
22:41 asked. Jesus' question was not personal but doctrinal; "Whose son is he [the Messiah]?" Compare Jn. 19:7; Acts 2:25-36; Rom. 1:3-4.

23:1 Verses 1-12 introduce the woes that Christ pronounced upon the scribes and Pharisees, and particularly emphasize the pride and self-exaltation of these interpreters of the law. The woes are expressed in the most severe language Christ ever used.
23:2 Moses' seat has reference to the position of a teacher of the law of Moses. Compare Ezra 7:6,25-26. The law is to be honored, but not the hypocritical teachers of it.
23:5 phylacteries. Compare Dt. 6:8, which describes the proper and spiritual use of God's commandments. A phylactery was a small case in which passages of Scripture were enclosed. It was bound upon a man's arm and forehead.

8 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, ^awhich is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

Jesus announces seven woes upon the Pharisees

(Mk. 12:38-40; Lk. 20:47)

13 ¶ But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the ^bkingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither ^csuffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye ^dblind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a ^edebtor!

17 Ye ^ffools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that ^gsanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is ^eguilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that ^gsanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay ^htithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have ⁱomitted the weightier matters of the ^jlaw, ^kjudgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto ^lwhited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye ^mbuild the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

(1) Israel must say, "Blessed is He" (v. 39; compare Rom. 10:3-4).

24:16 Compare Lk. 21:20-24. The passage in Luke refers in express terms to a destruction of Jerusalem which was fulfilled by Titus in A.D. 70; the passage in Matthew alludes to a future crisis in Jerusalem after the manifestation of the "abomination." See Beast (Dan. 7:8; Rev. 19:20, note); and Armageddon (Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17, note). As the circumstances in both cases will be similar, so are the warnings. In the former case Jerusalem was destroyed; in the latter it will be delivered by divine interposition.

THE TWOFOLD QUESTION

Chapter 24, with Lk. 21:20-24, answers the twofold question. The order is as follows: "When shall these things be?"—that is, destruction of the temple and city. The answer is in Lk. 21:20,24. The remainder of Mt. 24:3 really constitutes a single question: "And what will be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?" The answer is in vv. 4-33. Verses 4-14 have a double interpretation:

They give

(1) the character of the age—wars, international unrest, famines, pestilences, persecutions, and false Christs (compare Dan. 9:26). This is not the description of a converted world. But

(2) the same answer applies in a specific way to the end of the age, that is, Daniel's seventieth week (see Dan. 9:24, note). All that has characterized the age gathers into awful intensity at the end. Verse 14 has specific reference to the proclamation of the good news that the kingdom is again "at hand" (Rev. 14:6-7; see Rom. 11:5, note). Verse 15 gives the sign of the abomination (see Dan. 9:24, note)—the man of sin, or beast (2 Th. 2:3-8; compare Dan. 9:27; 12:11; Rev. 13:4-7).

This introduces the great tribulation (Ps. 2:5; see Rev. 7:14, note), which runs its awful course of three and a half years, culminating in the battle of Rev. 19:19-21 (see Rev. 19:19, note), at which time Christ becomes the Smiting Stone of Dan. 2:34. The detail of this period (vv. 15-28) is:

(1) the abomination in the holy place (v. 15), causing sacrifice to cease;

(2) the warning (vv. 16-20) to believing Jews who will then be in Judea;

(3) the great tribulation, with renewed warning about false Christs (vv. 21-26);

(4) the sudden smiting of the Gentile world power (vv. 27-28);

(5) the glorious appearing of the Lord, visible to all nations, and the regathering of Israel (vv. 29-31);

(6) the sign of the fig tree (vv. 32-33); and

(7) warnings, applicable to this present age over which these events are ever impending (vv. 34-51; compare Phil. 4:5). Careful study of Dan. 2; 7; 9; and Rev. 13 will make the interpretation clear. See, also, Remnant (Isa. 1:9; Rom. 11:5, note).

The great tribulation (latter half of week). (Mk. 13:19-23; cp. Ps. 2:5; Lk. 21:23-24; see Rev. 7:14, note)

21 For then shall be ^cgreat tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the ^delect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For there shall arise ^efalse Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very ^delect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

The King's return to earth at the close of the tribulation (Mk. 13:24-27; Lk. 21:29-33)

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of ^jthose days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 And then shall appear the sign of the ^kSon of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth ^lmourn, and they shall see the Son of man ^mcoming in the clouds of heaven with power and great ⁿglory.

31 And he shall send his ^oangels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they ^pshall gather together his ^qelect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

24:34 generation. The word "generation" (Greek genea), though commonly used in Scripture of those living at one time, could not here mean those alive at the time of Christ, as none of "these things"—that is, the worldwide preaching of the kingdom, the tribulation, the return of the Lord in visible glory, and the regathering of the elect—occurred then.

The expression "this generation" here

(1) may mean that the future generation which will endure the tribulation and see the signs, will also see the consummation, the return of the Lord; or

(2) it may be used in the sense of race or family, meaning that the nation or family of Israel will be preserved "till all these things be fulfilled," a promise wonderfully fulfilled to this day.

44 Therefore be ye also ^hready: for in such an hour as ye think not the ⁱSon of man ^acometh.

The parable of the ten virgins

25 Then shall the ^pkingdom of heaven be ^qlikened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and ^rtrimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom ^scame; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, ^topen to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you ^unot.

13 ^vWatch therefore, for ye ^vknow neither the day nor the hour wherein the ^wSon of man ^acometh.

The parable of the talents

14 ¶ For the ^xkingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five ^ytalents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and ^ztraded with the same, and made ^zthem other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had ^zreceived two, he also gained other two.

1-13; (2) as testing service, vv. 14-30; and (3) as testing individual Gentiles, vv. 31-46. bridegroom. Syriac and Vulgate add and the bride.

20 And so he that had received five ^dtalents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and ^efaithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will ^fmake thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the ^gjoy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two ^dtalents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

24 Then he which had received the one ^dtalent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an ^hhard man, ⁱreaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not ^jstrawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou ^kwicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not ^jstrawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with ^lusury.

31 ¶ When the ^qSon of man shall ^rcome in his glory, and all the ^sholy ^tangels with him, ^uthen shall he sit upon the throne of his ^vglory:

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have ^{aa}done it unto me.

VII. The Death and Resurrection of the King, 26–28

Jewish authorities plot death of Jesus (Mk. 14:1-2; Lk. 22:1-2)

26 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the ^hpassover, and the ⁱSon of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the ^jscribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And ^kconsulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the ^lpeople.

Jesus anointed for His burial by Mary of Bethany (Mk. 14:3-9; Jn. 12:1-8)

6 ¶ Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the ^mleper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he ⁿsat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

25:32

THE JUDGMENT OF INDIVIDUAL GENTILES

This judgment of individual Gentiles is to be distinguished from other judgments in scripture, such as the judgment of the Church (2 Cor. 5:10-11), the judgment of Israel (Ezek. 20:33-38), and the judgment of the wicked after the millennium (Rev. 20:11-15).

The time of this judgment is "when the Son of man comes in his glory," that is, at the second coming of Christ after the tribulation. The subjects of this judgment are "all nations," that is, all Gentiles (Greek ethnē) then living on earth. Three classes of individuals are mentioned:

- (1) sheep, saved Gentiles;
- (2) goats, unsaved Gentiles; and
- (3) brethren, the people of Israel.

The scene is on earth; no books are opened; it deals with the living rather than with those translated or raised from the dead. The test of this judgment is the treatment by individual Gentiles of those whom Christ calls "my brethren" living in the preceding tribulation period when Israel is fearfully persecuted (compare Gen. 12:3).

The good works mentioned are the proof but not the ground of faith and salvation. The fact that the righteous and the unrighteous are still mingled and require separation after the establishment of Christ's throne on earth makes evident that no rapture, that is, translation of the saints, could have taken place at the time of Christ's coming to the earth after the tribulation. In such a case the separation here described would have already occurred before the establishment of the throne. The sheep are Gentiles saved on earth during the period between the rapture and Christ's second coming to the earth. For the other six important judgments see Jn. 12:31, note; 1 Cor. 11:31, note; 2 Cor. 5:10, note; Ezek. 20:37, note; Jude 6, note; and Rev. 20:12, note.

Judas agrees to betray Jesus (Mk. 14:10-11; Lk. 22:3-6)

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will ^edeliver him unto you? And they ^fcovenant with him for thirty ^gpieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

Preparation for the Passover (Mk. 14:12-16; Lk. 22:7-13)

17 ¶ Now the first ^hday of the ⁱfeast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, ^jMy time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

The last Passover (Mk. 14:17-21; Lk. 22:14-20,24-30; cp. Jn. 13:1-12)

20 Now when the ^keven was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall ^lbetray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that ^mdippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall ⁿbetray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is ^owritten of him; but ^pwoe unto that man by whom the Son of man is ^qbetrayed! ^rIt had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

The Lord's Supper instituted (Mk. 14:22-25; Lk. 22:17-20; cp. 1 Cor. 11:23-34; Jn. 13:12-30)

26 ¶ And as they were eating, Jesus took ^sbread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my ^tbody.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my ^ublood of the ^vnew testament, which is shed for many for the ^wremission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that ^xday when I drink it new with you in my Father's ^ykingdom.

26:20 ORDER OF EVENTS: THE EVENING OF THE PASSOVER

The order of events on this solemn evening appears to have been:

- (1) Jesus partakes of the passover with the apostles, and rebukes their contention (Mt. 26:20; Mk. 14:17; Lk. 22:14-16,24-30);
- (2) washes their feet (Jn. 13:1-20);
- (3) identifies Judas as the traitor (Mt. 26:21-25; Mk. 14:18-21; Lk. 22:21-23; Jn. 13:21-29);
- (4) Judas withdraws, the others profess loyalty (Jn. 13:30-38; compare Mt. 26:31-35; Mk. 14:27-31; Lk. 22:31-38);
- (5) Jesus institutes the Lord's Supper (Mt. 26:26-29; Mk. 14:22-25; Lk. 22:17-20);
- (6) addresses the Eleven in the upper room (Jn. 14);
- (7) addresses them again on the way to Gethsemane (Jn. 15-16);
- (8) intercedes with the Father for His own (Jn. 17); and
- (9) agonizes in the garden, is betrayed and arrested (Mt. 26:30,36-50; Mk. 14:26,32-52; Lk. 22:39-53; Jn. 18:1-12).

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is ^awritten, I will smite the ^bshepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am ^crisen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the ^dcock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

(Here read John 15-17)

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

26:28 FORGIVENESS, SUMMARY

The Greek word here translated "remission" (also in Acts 10:43; Heb. 9:22) is elsewhere rendered "forgiveness." It means to send off or away. And this, throughout Scripture, is the one fundamental meaning of forgiveness—to separate the sin from the sinner.

Distinction must be made between divine and human forgiveness:

(1) Human forgiveness means the remission of a penalty deserved, whereas the divine forgiveness, in type and fulfillment in both O.T. and N.T., always follows the execution of the penalty. "The priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him" (Lev. 4:35). "This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission [sending away, forgiveness] of sins" (Mt. 26:28). "Without shedding of blood is no remission" (Heb. 9:22). See Sacrifice (Gen. 4:4 and Heb. 10:18, notes). The sin of the justified believer interrupts his fellowship; it is forgiven upon confession, but always on the ground of Christ's propitiating sacrifice (1 Jn. 1:6-9; 2:2). And

(2) human forgiveness rests upon and results from the divine forgiveness. In many passages this is assumed rather than stated, but the principle is declared in Mt. 18:32-33; Eph. 4:32.

Jesus' agony in the garden
(Mk. 14:32-42; Lk. 22:39-46; Jn. 18:1)

36 ¶ Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very ^eheavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

The first prayer

(Mk. 14:35-36; Lk. 22:41-42)

39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and ^fprayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this ^gcup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, ^hbut as thou wilt.

The sleeping disciples

(Mk. 14:37-40; Lk. 22:45-46)

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into ⁱtemptation: ^jthe spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

The second prayer

(Mk. 14:39; Lk. 22:44)

42 He went away again the second time, and ^kprayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

The third prayer (Mk. 14:41)

44 And he left them, and went away again, and ^lprayed the third time, saying the same words.

26:39 cup. The "cup" must be interpreted by our Lord's own use of that symbol in speaking of His approaching sacrificial death (20:22; Jn. 18:11). In view of Jn. 10:17-18, He could have been in no fear of an unwilling death. The value of the account of the agony in the garden is in the evidence that it affords that He knew fully what the agony of the cross would mean when His soul would be made an offering for sin (Isa. 53:10)—the hiding of the Father's face. Knowing completely what the cost would be, He voluntarily paid it.

Jesus' betrayal and arrest
(Mk. 14:43-50; Lk. 22:47-53;
Jn. 18:3-11)

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

Jesus brought before Caiaphas and Sanhedrin (Mk. 14:53-65;
cp. Jn. 18:12,19-24)

57 ¶ And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought a false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet

26:57 ORDER OF EVENTS:
AFTER CHRIST'S ARREST

The order of events following the arrest of the Lord Jesus appears to have been:

(1) The Jewish trial of Jesus, composed of three stages:

(a) the preliminary hearing before Annas (Jn. 18:12-14,19-24);

(b) the informal trial before Caiaphas and the Sanhedrin, presumably before dawn (Mt. 26:57-68; Mk. 14:53-65; Lk. 22:54,63-65; Jn. 18:24); and

(c) the formal trial by the Sanhedrin (Mt. 27:1; Mk. 15:1; Lk. 22:66-71).

(2) Associated with (1) but before (3) were Peter's denials (Mt. 26:58,69-75; Mk. 14:54,66-72; Lk. 22:54-62; Jn. 18:15-18,25-27) and Judas' suicide (Mt. 27:3-10; Acts 1:18-19).

(3) The Gentile trial of Jesus, composed of three stages:

(a) Jesus was questioned by Pilate the first time (Mt. 27:2,11-14; Mk. 15:1-5; Lk. 23:1-5; Jn. 18:28-38);

(b) Pilate sent Jesus to Herod (Lk. 23:6-12); and

(c) Herod sent Jesus back to Pilate, who released Barabbas (Mt. 27:15-26; Mk. 15:6-15; Lk. 23:13-25; Jn. 18:39-40).

This was followed by:

(4) Jesus was crowned with thorns and brutally beaten by the Roman soldiers (Mt. 27:27-30; Mk. 15:16-19; Jn. 19:1-3).

(5) As Christ was led forth to be crucified, the cross was laid on Simon (Mt. 27:31-32; Mk. 15:20-21; Lk. 23:26). And

(6) on the way to Golgotha, Jesus warned the weeping women of judgment yet to fall on Jerusalem (Lk. 23:27-31). For the order of events at the crucifixion, see Mt. 27:33, note.

26:50 Friend. Here is one of the most touching things in the Bible. The Lord still reaches out to Judas in friendship while he is about to betray Him.

26:51 smote. That is, cut.

26:53 legions. At that time a Roman legion comprised between 3,000 and 6,000 men.

found they none. At the last came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to ^adestroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But Jesus ^bheld his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I ^cadjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the ^dSon of man ^esitting on the right hand of power, and ^fcoming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest ^grent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken ^hblasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

67 Then did they ⁱspit in his face, and buffeted him; and others ^jsmote him with the palms of their hands,

68 Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

Peter's three denials
(Mk. 14:66-72; Lk. 22:55-62;
Jn. 18:15-18,25-27)

69 ¶ Now Peter sat ^kwithout in the ^lpalace: and a ^mdamsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy ⁿspeech ^obewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to ^pcurse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock ^qcrew.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

Jesus delivered to Pilate
(Mk. 15:1; Lk. 23:1; Jn. 18:28)

27 When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

Judas' unavailing remorse

3 ¶ Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty ^rpieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have ^ssinned in that I have betrayed the ^tinnocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the ^upieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and ^vhanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver ^wpieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

Regarding the alleged discrepancies in these accounts, it should be said that an excited crowd had gathered, and Peter was interrogated in two places: with the guards (v. 58), where the first charge was made (v. 69); and in the gateway (v. 71), where a great number of people would be gathered. Here the second and third interrogations were made by another maid and by the crowd, that is, "they" (vv. 71,73; Jn. 18:25).

Pontius Pilate: armed with a javelin. The governor of Judea during Christ's ministry, suffering and death. He allowed Jesus to be crucified.

^acalled, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was ^bspoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty ^cpieces of silver, the price of ^dhim that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

Jesus examined by Pilate

(Mk. 15:2-5; Lk. 23:2-3; Jn. 18:29-38)

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered ^fnothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

Jesus or Barabbas?

(Mk. 15:6-15; Lk. 23:13-25; cp. Jn. 18:38-40)

15 Now at that feast the governor was ^gwont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for ^henvy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was ⁱset down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that ^jjust man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, ^kWhether of the ^ltwain will ye that I release unto you? They said, ^mBarabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, ⁿWhy, what evil hath he ^odone? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail ^pnothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and ^qwashed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this ^rjust person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people,

27:17 THE LEGAL SYSTEM THAT CONDEMNED JESUS

There were two legal systems that condemned Christ: the Jewish and the Roman, the very two which underlie modern jurisprudence. The arrest and proceedings under Annas, Caiaphas, and the Sanhedrin were under Jewish law; those under Pilate and Herod were under Roman law.

The Jewish trial was illegal in several particulars:

(1) The judge was not impartial and did not protect the accused. There is no evidence that the quorum of twenty-three judges was present; the judges took part in the arrest; and they were hostile (Mt. 26:62-63).

(2) The arrest was unlawful because it was carried out under no formal accusation.

(3) In criminal trials all sessions had to be started and carried on only during the day. Night sessions were illegal.

(4) A verdict of guilty could not be rendered on the same day as the conclusion of the trial. It had to be given on the next day.

(5) The search for hostile testimony was illegal (Mt. 26:59; Mk. 14:56; Jn. 11:53).

(6) No accused could be convicted on his own evidence, yet they sought replies and admissions from Christ to condemn Him (Mt. 26:63-66; Jn. 18:19). And

(7) no valid legal evidence was presented against Him.

After Pilate declared Christ innocent (Mt. 27:24), his subsequent acts were all contrary to the letter and spirit of Roman law.

27:9 Jeremy. There may be an allusion to Jer. 18:1-4 and 19:1-3, but the reference is distinctly to Zech. 11:12-13. A Talmudic tradition states that the prophetic writings were placed in the canon in this order: Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Isaiah, etc. Many Hebrew manuscripts follow this order. Thus Matthew cited the passage as from the roll of the prophets and by the name of the first book.

Barabbas: son of Abba. A robber who was released instead of Jesus.

ORDER OF EVENTS: THE CRUCIFIXION

The order of events at the crucifixion:

(1) The arrival at Golgotha (v. 33; Mk. 15:22; Lk. 23:33; Jn. 19:17).

(2) The offer of the stupefying drink is refused (v. 34; Mk. 15:23).

(3) Jesus is crucified between two thieves (vv. 35-38; Mk. 15:24-28; Lk. 23:33-38; Jn. 19:18).

(4) He utters the first cry from the cross, "Father, forgive," etc. (Lk. 23:34).

(5) The soldiers part His garments (v. 35; Mk. 15:24; Lk. 23:34; Jn. 19:23).

(6) The Jews mock Jesus (vv. 39-43; Mk. 15:29-32; Lk. 23:35).

(7) The thieves rail at Him, but one repents and believes (v. 44; Mk. 15:32; Lk. 23:39-43).

(8) The second cry from the cross, "To day thou shalt be with me," etc. (Lk. 23:43).

(9) The third cry, "Woman, behold thy son," etc. (Jn. 19:26-27).

(10) The darkness (v. 45; Mk. 15:33; Lk. 23:44).

(11) The fourth cry, "My God," etc. (vv. 46-47; Mk. 15:34-36).

(12) The fifth cry, "I thirst!" (Jn. 19:28).

(13) The sixth cry, "It is finished!" (Jn. 19:30).

(14) The seventh cry, "Father, into thy hands," etc. (Lk. 23:46). And

(15) our Lord dismisses His spirit (v. 50; Mk. 15:37; Lk. 23:46; Jn. 19:30).

27:37 THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Compare Mk. 15:26; Lk. 23:38; Jn. 19:19. These accounts supplement but do not contradict each other. No one of the evangelists quotes the entire inscription. All have "the King of the Jews." Matthew and Luke add to this the further words, "This is"; Matthew quotes the name "Jesus"; while John gives the additional words, "of Nazareth." The narratives combined give the entire inscription: "This is [Matthew, Luke] Jesus [Matthew, John] of Nazareth [John] the King of the Jews" [all].

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, ^bsaying, ^cEli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, ^dMy God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with ^evinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, ^fyielded up the ^gghost.

54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, ^mTruly this was the Son of God.

27:50 yielded up the ghost. The Greek phrases used here and in Jn. 19:30 are unique in the N.T. In fifteen other Bible verses, "gave up the spirit," or "yielded up the spirit," is used to translate a single Hebrew or Greek word meaning breathe out or expire. This is true of the description of the death of Jesus in Mk. 15:37,39 and Lk. 23:46. But in Mt. 27:50 and Jn. 19:30 alone these expressions translate Greek phrases of three words, meaning give over the spirit or deliver up the spirit. The death of Jesus was different from that of any other man. No one could take His life from Him except as He was willing to permit it (Jn. 10:18). Christ chose to die so that we might live. the. Or his.

27:51 veil. The veil that was torn, or rent, divided the holy place from the most holy place, into which only the high priest might enter on the Day of Atonement (see Ex. 26:31, note; Lev. 16:1-30). The tearing of that veil, which was a type of the human body of Christ (Heb. 10:20), signified that a "new and living way" was opened for all believers into the very presence of God, with no other sacrifice or priesthood except Christ's (compare Heb. 9:1-8; 10:19-22).

27:52 graves. Although the graves were opened at the time of Christ's death (vv. 50-51), the bodies did not arise until "after His resurrection" (v. 53). Christ is the firstborn from among the dead (Col. 1:18; Rev. 1:5) and "the first-fruits of them that slept" (1 Cor. 15:20). It is not said that these bodies returned to their graves. The wave sheaf (Lev. 23:10-12) typifies the resurrection of Christ, but it would appear from the symbol used that plurality is implied. It was a single "corn of wheat" that fell into the ground in the crucifixion and entombment of Christ (Jn. 12:24); it was a sheaf which came forth in resurrection. The inference is that these saints went with the risen Christ into heaven.

27:56 James. Son of Alphaeus. See Mt. 4:21, note.

60 And laid it in ^ahis own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that ^bdeceiver said, while he was yet alive, ^cAfter three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

28 In the end of the ^dsabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for ^ethe angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 ^fHis countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as ^gdead men.

ORDER OF EVENTS: RESURRECTION MORNING

Combining the four narratives, the order of events on the resurrection morning would seem to be as follows:

(1) In the early morning, the women went to the sepulchre of Jesus to anoint His body, even though they did not know how they could get into the sepulchre (Mk. 16:2-3). There were the three, Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James, Mk. 16:1; Lk. 24:10), and Salome, followed by other women who had accompanied Jesus from Galilee (Lk. 23:55-24:1).

(2) The three women found the stone had been removed by an angel (Mt. 28:2).

(3) Mary Magdalene hurried to tell Peter and John, who ran toward the sepulchre (Jn. 20:2-4).

(4) Meanwhile, Mary the mother of James, Salome, and then the other women arrived at the sepulchre, entered it and saw angels who assured them Jesus had risen. They ran from the sepulchre in fear and joy to inform His disciples (Mt. 28:8).

(5) Peter and John arrived at the sepulchre, entered, observed, and left (Jn. 20:4-10).

(6) Mary Magdalene returned to the sepulchre, stood weeping, and Jesus revealed Himself to her (Jn. 20:11-18).

(7) As the other women were on their way to tell His disciples, Jesus appeared to them (Mt. 28:9-10).

THE TRINITY

In the progress of revelation the one true God appears clearly in the N.T. as existing in three divine Persons: named here "the Father," and "the Son," and "the Holy Ghost." Compare also Mt. 3:16-17; 1 Cor. 12:4-6; 2 Cor. 13:14; Eph. 2:18; 4:4-6; 5:18-20; 1 Pet. 1:2; Jude 20-21.

1. Each of these divine Persons possesses His own personal characteristics and is clearly distinguished from the other Persons (compare Jn. 14:16-17,26; 15:26; 16:7-15). Yet the three Persons are equal in being, power, and glory: each being called "God" (Jn. 6:27; Heb. 1:8; Acts 5:3-4); each possessing all the divine attributes (Jas. 1:17; Heb. 13:8; 9:14); each performing divine works (Jn. 5:21; Rom. 8:11); and each receiving divine honors (Jn. 5:23; 2 Cor. 13:14).

2. With reference to the order of their activities, the Father is first, the Son is second, and the Holy Spirit is third; the general formula being as follows: of the Father (1 Cor. 8:6), through the Son (Jn. 3:17), by the Holy Spirit (Eph. 3:5), and unto the Father (Eph. 2:18). Even so, however, no one of the Persons acts independently of the other Persons; but there is always mutual concurrence, as our Lord said, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work" (Jn. 5:17); and, "The Son can do nothing of himself" (Jn. 5:19); and again, "I and my Father are one" (Jn. 10:28-30).

3. In the N.T. revelation of God as a tri-personal Being, there is no retreat from the stern monotheism of the O.T. (compare Dt. 6:4-5 with Mk. 12:29-30 and Rom. 3:30). The three divine Persons are one God, not three gods. It was necessary in the O.T. to emphasize first the divine unity in order to guard against polytheistic tendencies. But even in the O.T., read in the light of the N.T., a plurality of Persons appears within the one true God (compare Gen. 1:26; Isa. 6:8; 48:12 with 48:16).

4. The Trinity of God is confessedly a great mystery, something wholly beyond the possibility of complete explanation. But we can guard against error by holding fast to the facts of divine revelation: that (1) with respect to His Being or essence, God is one; (2) with respect to His Personality, God is three; and (3) we must neither divide the essence, nor confuse the Persons. Yet, in spite of its mystery, the doctrine of the divine Trinity has always proved to be rich in spiritual and practical values.

5. The importance attached to the divine Trinity, in N.T. revelation, appears in the fact that the doctrine is firmly embedded in two formulas which are constantly repeated in the hearing of the church: (1) the formula of baptism (Mt. 28:19); and (2) the formula of benediction (2 Cor. 13:14).

For names of Deity, see notes at Gen. 1:1; 14:18; 15:2; 17:1; 21:33; Ex. 34:6; 1 Sam. 1:3; Mal. 3:18. Also see notes at Lord, Mt. 8:2; Word (Logos), Jn. 1:1; Lord (Deity of Christ), Jn. 20:28; Holy Spirit, Acts 2:4.

Background

Mark, the author of the Second Gospel, was a native of Jerusalem. His mother's name was Mary (Acts 12:12); his father is not known to us. John Mark is not named in the Gospels but appears in The Acts when, with his uncle, Barnabas, he accompanied Paul on the first missionary journey as far as Perga, where he turned back for reasons that are not given (Acts 13:13). Rejected by Paul, he went with Barnabas to Cyprus (Acts 15:38–40). During Paul's later years, however, Mark was at his side (Colossians 4:10; Philemon 24) and was sent for by Paul shortly before the apostle's execution (2 Timothy 4:11). Peter referred to Mark as "my son" (1 Peter 5:13). From the early days of the church, Mark's Gospel has been thought to reflect Peter's view of Christ.

God's Relationship with Man

Although it is the briefest of the Gospels, Mark's narrative is often more vivid and detailed than the parallel accounts in Matthew and Luke—for example the story of the demoniac of Gadara (5:1–20). Written principally for the Roman world, this Gospel presents Christ as the Servant of the Lord, sent to accomplish a specific work for God. Therefore, it is a book of deeds more than words, and contains no long discourses and few parables. In Mark the word "immediately" translates the Greek euthus on forty occasions, showing the continuous activities of the Servant. As the Servant of the Lord, Christ fulfills such Messianic prophecies as Isaiah 42:1–21; 49:1–7; 50:4–11; 52:13–53:12; Zechariah 3:8. Because He is presented as a servant, a genealogy is not needed. An unusual number of passages give insight into the feelings of our Lord (compare 3:5; 7:34; 10:21). Although Christ is set forth in Mark in His servant character, the strong emphasis upon His miracles points to His power as the Son of God.

I. The Introduction of the Servant to His Public Ministry, 1:1-13

*Ministry of John the Baptist
(Mt. 3:1-12; Lk. 3:1-20;
Jn. 1:6-8,15-37)*

1 The ^abeginning of the ^bgospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God;
2 As it is ^cwritten in the prophets, ^dBehold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare way before thee.

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the ^ebaptism of ^frepentance for the remission of ^gsins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judæa, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their ^hsins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a ⁱgirdle of a skin about his ^jloins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, There ^kcometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and ^lunloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy ^mGhost.

*Baptism of Jesus
(Mt. 3:13-17; Lk. 3:21-22)*

9 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was ⁿbaptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the ^oheavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove ^pdescending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my ^qbeloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

*Temptation of Jesus
(Mt. 4:1-11; Lk. 4:1-13)*

12 ¶ And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, ^rtempted of ^sSatan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

II. The Work Accomplished by the Servant, 1:14-13:37

*First tour of Galilee
(Mt. 4:12-17; Lk. 4:14)*

14 ¶ Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the ^tgospel of the ^ukingdom of God,

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is ^vat hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

*Jesus' first disciples
(Mt. 4:18-22; Lk. 5:1-11;
cp. Jn. 1:35-49)*

16 ¶ Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become ^wfishers of men.

18 And straightway they ^xforsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ^yship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they ^zleft their father Zebedee in the ^{aa}ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

Jesus casts out demons at Capernaum (Lk. 4:31-37)

21 ¶ And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the ^{bb}synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were ^{cc}astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the ^{dd}scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an ^{ee}unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; ^awhat have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I ^bknow thee who thou art, the ^cHoly One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he ^dcame out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, in-somuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his ^efame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

Peter's mother in law healed (Mt. 8:14-15; Lk. 4:38-39)

29 ¶ And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and ^fanon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

Further healing and preaching (Mt. 8:16-17; Lk. 4:40-44)

32 ¶ And ^gat even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him ^hall that were diseased, and them that were possessed with ⁱdevils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 ^jAnd he healed many that were sick of ^kdivers diseases, and ^lcast out many ⁱdevils; and ^msuffered not the ⁱdevils to speak, because they knew him.

35 ¶ And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there ⁿprayed.

36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, ^oAll men ^pseek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for ^qtherefore came I forth.

39 And he ^rpreached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and ^scast out ^tdevils.

If thou wilt, thou ^acanst make me clean.

41 And Jesus, moved with ^bcompassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, ^cimmediately the leprosy ^ddeparted from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he ^estraitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing /those things which ^gMoses ^hcommanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to ⁱblaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

*A paralytic man healed
(Mt. 9:1-8; Lk. 5:17-26)*

2 And again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was ^jnoised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he ^kpreached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the ^lpalsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come ^mnigh unto him for the ⁿpress, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jesus saw their ^ofaith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy ^psins be ^qforgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the ^rscribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can ^sforgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, *Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the ^tSon of man hath ^upower on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he ^varose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and ^wglorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

*Call of Levi (Matthew)
(Mt. 9:9-15; Lk. 5:27-35)*

13 ¶ And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the ^xreceipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and ^yfollowed him.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, that as Jesus ^zsat at meat in his house, many ^{aa}publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the ^{bb}scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with ^{cc}publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with ^{dd}publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are ^{ee}whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the ^{ff}righteous, but sinners to ^{ee}repentance.

Parable of the cloth and wineskins
(cp. Mt. 9:16-17; Lk. 5:36-39)

21 ¶ No man also ^aseweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the ^erent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old ^bbottles: else the new wine doth burst the ^bbottles, and the wine is spilled, and the ^bbottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new ^bbottles.

Jesus is Lord of the sabbath
(Mt. 12:1-8; Lk. 6:1-5)

23 ¶ And it came to pass, that he went through the ^scorn fields on the ^hsabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to ⁱpluck the ears of ^scorn.

24 And the ^jPharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is ^knot lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read ^lwhat David did, when he had need, and was ^man hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did ⁿeat the ^oshewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the ^psabbath:

28 Therefore the ^qSon of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

Jesus heals on the sabbath
(Mt. 12:9-14; Lk. 6:6-11)

3 And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a ^rwithered hand.

2 And they ^swatched him, whether he would ^theal him on the ^hsabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the ^rwithered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the ^uhardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was ^vrestored ^wwhole as the other.

Many others healed
(Mt. 12:15-16; Lk. 6:17-19)

6 ¶ And the ^xPharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the ^yHerodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judæa,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumæa, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what ^zgreat things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ^{aa}ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should ^{bb}through him.

10 For he had healed ^{cc}many; in-somuch that they pressed upon him for to ^{dd}touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, ^{ee}saying, Thou art the ^{ff}Son of God.

12 And he ^{gg}straitly ^{hh}charged them that they should not make him known.

RELIGIOUS SECTS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

The Pharisees

This pious religious group consisted of about 6,000 members during the time of Christ. They had two practical obligations: 1) to observe with great strictness all the ordinances concerning ceremonial purity; 2) to be most scrupulous in the payment of tithes and other religious dues. They carefully relied on the oral traditions of the rabbis as well as the Scripture itself to help them interpret their responsibilities. Sometimes they even held tradition above the actual Law. Their insincerity regarding both purity and tithing was rebuked by Christ.

In doctrinal beliefs, the Pharisees strongly opposed the Sadducees. They believed in the existence of angels and spirits; expected the resurrection of the dead or in any angels or spirits. They firmly believed in the free will of man. These doctrinal differences led to many disagreements with the Pharisees.

Although this group was small in number they were highly influential; their members were wealthy and held high positions in society. In the days of the apostles the high priest and his party were of this sect (Acts 4:1; 5:17). They were less prominent than the Pharisees in their opposition to Christ, though the two sects are both named as trying to entrap Jesus with questions (Matthew 16:1; 22:34). Christ also warned His disciples of them (Matthew 16:6). After Christ's death and resurrection, when it became clear that the doctrine of the new church was Christ being raised from the dead, the opposition of the Sadducees became more pronounced (Acts 4:1,2; 5:17; 23:6-10).

The Sadducees

This religious group was strongly opposed to the Pharisees. The Sadducees adhered to a strict literalism of interpretation and application of the Law. They set aside the authority of tradition in favor of the letter of the Law and went on to deny all that Scripture does not plainly and literally teach. They did not believe in rewards and punishments, the resurrection of the dead or in any angels or spirits. They firmly believed in the free will of man. These doctrinal differences led to many disagreements with the Pharisees.

Although this group was small in number they were highly influential; their members were wealthy and held high positions in society. In the days of the apostles the high priest and his party were of this sect (Acts 4:1; 5:17). They were less prominent than the Pharisees in their opposition to Christ, though the two sects are both named as trying to entrap Jesus with questions (Matthew 16:1; 22:34). Christ also warned His disciples of them (Matthew 16:6). After Christ's death and resurrection, when it became clear that the doctrine of the new church was Christ being raised from the dead, the opposition of the Sadducees became more pronounced (Acts 4:1,2; 5:17; 23:6-10).

The Essenes

This religious group believed in striving after purity and sharing all possessions. In their rigorous observance of the Sabbath and reverence for the Law they were similar to the Pharisees; in fact, some have described them as exaggerated Pharisees. But the Essenes sought an absolute purity—a freedom from the pollution that comes from being in contact with material things, in order that the spirit might find a freer and larger fellowship with the Divine. Thus they lived a life separate from the world: their settlements were in the country districts, they lived extremely simply, sharing all that they had. They lived highly disciplined lives governed by rigid rules and regulations; they were prone to secrecy and seclusion. Much of their distinctive doctrine reappears in the later Gnostic heresies.

*The unpardonable sin
(Mt. 12:31-32; Lk. 11:14-21)*

22 ¶ And the ^bscribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the ^cprince of the ^ddevils casteth he out ^ddevils.

23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in ^eparables, How can ^fSatan cast out Satan?

24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house ^gcannot stand.

26 And if ^fSatan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 No man can ^henter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

28 Verily I say unto you, All ⁱsins shall be ^fforgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy ^kGhost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

30 Because they ⁱsaid, He hath an unclean spirit.

*The new relationships
(Mt. 12:46-50; Lk. 8:19-21)*

31 ¶ There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing ^mwithout, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren ^mwithout seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and ⁿsaid, Behold my mother and my brethren!

35 For whosoever shall do the ^owill of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

The parable of the sower and the soils (Mt. 13:1-17; Lk. 8:4-10)

4 And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ^pship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by ^eparables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the ^qway side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on ^rstony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had ^sno root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the ^tthorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on ^ugood ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some ^vthirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to ^wknow the mystery of the ^xkingdom of God: but unto them that are ^mwithout, all these things are done in parables:

12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be ^fforgiven them.

The parable explained
(Mt. 13:18-23; Lk. 8:11-15)

13 ¶ And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ The sower ^asoweth the word.

15 And these are they by the ^bway side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, ^cSatan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on ^dstony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no ^eroot in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among ^fthorns; such as hear the word, 19 And the ^gcares of this ^hworld, and the ⁱdeceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on ^jgood ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth ^kfruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

Parable of the lamp (cp. Mt. 5:15-16; Lk. 8:16-18; 11:33-36)

21 ¶ And he said unto them, ^lIs a ^mcandle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a ⁿcandlestick?

22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be ^omanifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come ^pabroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye ^qmete, it shall be ^rmeasured to you; and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For he that ^shath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

Parable of spiritual growth

26 ¶ And he said, ^tSo is the ^ukingdom of God, as if a man should cast ^vseed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and ^wgrow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth ^xbringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full ^ycorn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the ^zharvest is come.

Parable of the mustard seed
(see Mt. 13:31-32, note;
Lk. 13:18-19)

30 ¶ ^{aa}And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and ^{ab}becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the ^{ac}fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such ^{bb}parables spake he the word unto them, as they were ^{cc}able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them; and when they were alone, he ^{dd}expounded all things to his disciples.

2 And when he was come out of the ^aship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an ^kunclean spirit,

3 Who had ^lhis dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any ^mman tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, ⁿthou Son of the most high God? I ^oadjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, ^mCome out of the man, ⁿthou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What ^ois thy name? And he answered, saying,

My name is ⁿLegion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there ^onigh unto the mountains a great herd of ^pswine feeding.

12 And all the ^qdevils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus ^rgave them leave. And the unclean spirits ^hwent out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine ^sfled, and told ^tit in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was ^upossessed with the ^qdevil, and had the legion, ^vsitting, and ^vclothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

Jesus visits Nazareth(Mt. 13:54-58; see Lk. 4:16, note)

6 And he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the ^asabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were ^bastonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were ^coffended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, A ^dprophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he could there do no mighty work, ^esave that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and ^fhealed them.

6 And he marvelled because of their ^gunbelief. And he went round about the villages, ^hteaching.

The twelve sent forth to preach and heal (Mt. 10:1-42; Lk. 9:1-6)

7 ¶ And he called unto him the twelve, and began to ⁱsend them forth by ^jtwo and two; and gave them ^kpower over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, ^lsave a staff only; no ^mscrip, no bread, no ⁿmoney in their purse:

9 But ^obe ^pshod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrhah in the ^qday of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should ^rrepent.

13 And they ^scast out many

6:14 THE HERODIAN FAMILY

The Herodian family is important in N.T. history. In addition to the father, Herod the Great, and his son and successor, Archelaus (see Mt. 2:1, note), three other sons are named in the N.T.:

(1) Herod Antipas (mentioned here, v. 14ff.; Mt. 14:1; Lk. 3:1), tetrarch of Galilee and Perea (4 B.C. until banished, A.D. 39);

(2) Herod Philip (Boëthos), mentioned here as Philip (v. 17; Mt. 14:3; Lk. 3:19); and

(3) Another Herod Philip (Lk. 3:1), tetrarch of territory east of Jordan (4 B.C.—A.D. 33).

Two children of another son of Herod the Great, Aristobulus (a son not included in the N.T.), are also named: Herodias (mentioned here, v. 17ff.; Mt. 14:3) and Herod Agrippa I (Acts 12:1,6,18-24).

It was Herodias, who had been married to her uncle, Herod Philip (Boëthos) but left him to live with another uncle, Herod Antipas, whom John the Baptist rebuked (vv. 14-29; Mt. 14:1-14). Herodias' daughter is not named in the N.T. She is mentioned only as "the daughter of the said Herodias" (v. 22ff.; Mt. 14:6-11), but from other sources it is known that her name was Salome, whose first husband was her great uncle (the Philip of Lk. 3:1).

Others of the Herodian family named in the N.T. are three children of Herod Agrippa I:

(1) Herod Agrippa II (Acts 25:13ff.; 26:1,2,27-32);

(2) Drusilla (Acts 24:24); and

(3) Bernice (Acts 25:13; 26:30).

Thus it will be observed that two or more names of each of three successive generations after Herod the Great are mentioned in the N.T.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me ^aby and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head ^bin a charger, and gave it to the ^cdamsel: and the ^cdamsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and ^dtook up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

The apostles return to Jesus after first preaching tour (Lk. 9:10)

30 ¶ And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and ^etold him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves ^fapart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

Five thousand fed (Mt. 14:13-21; Lk. 9:10-17; Jn. 6:5-13)

32 And they departed into a desert place by ^gship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many ^hknew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and ⁱoutwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw ^jmuch people, and was moved with ^kcompassion toward them, because they were as ^lsheep not having a shepherd: and he began to ^mteach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, ⁿShall we go and buy two hundred ^opennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, ^pFive, and two fishes.

39 And he ^qcommanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ^rranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he ^slooked up to heaven, and ^tblessed, and brake the loaves, and gave ^uthem to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were ^vfilled.

43 And they took up ^wtwelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about ^xfive thousand men.

53 ¶ And when they had passed over, they ^lcame into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ^mship, straightway they ⁿknew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to ^ocarry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might ^ptouch if it were but the ^qborder of his garment: and as many as touched him ^rwere made ^swhole.

God's commandments versus man's traditions (Mt. 15:1-9)

7 Then came together unto him the ^tPharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with ^uunwashed hands, they ^vfound fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands ^woft, eat not, holding the ^xtradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the ^ymarket, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, ^zbrassen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you ^{aa}hypocrites, as it is ^{ab}written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching ^{bb}for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the ^{cc}commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye ^{dd}reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses ^{ee}said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; ^{ff}he shall be free.

12 And ye ^{gg}suffer him no more to do ^{hh}ought ⁱⁱfor his father or his mother;

7:5 tradition. The tradition of the elders is what was called the "oral law," which was alleged to have been handed down from Moses. It is actually a traditional interpretation of the written law. Compare v. 7, marg.

7:6 heart. "Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart" (1 Sam. 16:7).

7:10 die the death. Literally surely die. Ex. 20:12; 21:17; Lev. 20:9; Dt. 21:18-21; Prov. 20:20.

7:11 gift. The sense of the latter part of v. 11 and of v. 12 is: "that is to say, 'I have dedicated to God that which would relieve your need.' No longer do you Pharisees and scribes let him use it for his father or mother."

Diagnosis of the heart of man
(Mt. 15:10-20)

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and ^aunderstand:

15 There is nothing from ^bwithout a man, that ^centering into him can defile him: but the things which ^dcome out of him, those are they that ^edefile the man.

16 If any man have ears to ^fhear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, ¶ Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from ^bwithout entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the ^hbelly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all ⁱmeats?

20 And he said, ¶ That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the ^kheart of men, ^lproceed evil thoughts, ^madulteries, ⁿfornications, ^omurders,

22 Thefts, ^pcovetousness, wickedness, ^qdeceit, ^rlasciviousness, an evil eye, ^sblasphemy, ^tpride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

Jesus and the Syrophoenician woman
(Mt. 15:21-28)

24 ¶ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be ^uhid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and ^vfell at his feet:

26 The woman was a Greek, a

Syrophoenician by nation; and she ^wbesought him that he would cast forth the ^xdevil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not ^ymeet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, ¶ For this saying go thy way; the ^xdevil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the ^xdevil ^{aa}gone out, and her daughter ^{bb}laid upon the bed.

Further healing
(Mt. 15:29-31)

31 ¶ And again, departing from the ^{cc}coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the ^{cc}coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him ^{dd}aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he ^{ee}spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And ^{ff}looking up to heaven, he ^{gg}sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, ^{hh}Be opened.

35 ^{aa}And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were ⁱⁱbeyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he ^{jj}maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

Four thousand fed (Mt. 15:32-39)

8 In those days the multitude being very great, and having ^anothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have ^bcompassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for ^cdivers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, ^dFrom whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many ^eloaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to ^fsit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a ^gfew small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and ^hwere ⁱfilled: and they took up of the broken meat that was ^jleft seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

Symbol of leaven explained (Mt. 16:1-12)

10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ^kship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the ^lPharisees came forth, and began to ^mquestion with him, seeking of him a ⁿsign from heaven, ^otempting him.

12 And he ^psighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall ^qno sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ^rship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now ^sthe disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ^tship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, ^ubeware of the ^vleaven of the ^wPharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? ^xperceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not ^yremember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, ^zTwelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, ^{aa}Seven.

Blind man healed

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

Peter's confession of Christ
(Mt. 16:13-16; Lk. 9:18-21)

27 ¶ And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cæsarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, *m*Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 ¶ And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

Cost of discipleship
(Mt. 16:24-28; Lk. 9:23-26)

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

The transfiguration
(Mt. 17:1-8; Lk. 9:28-36)

9 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

8:23 led him out. Our Lord's action here is significant. Having abandoned Bethsaida to judgment (Mt. 11:21-24), He would neither heal in that village nor permit further testimony to be borne there (v. 26). The probation of Bethsaida as a community was ended, but He would still show mercy to individuals. Compare Rev. 3:20. Christ is outside

Jesus again foretells His death and resurrection (Mt. 20:17-19; Lk. 18:31-33)

32 ¶ And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

Christ's response to request of James and John (Mt. 20:20-28)

35 ¶ And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Bartimæus receives his sight (Mt. 20:29-34; cp. Lk. 18:35-43)

46 ¶ And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimæus, the son of Timæus, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

10:30 world. Thirty-six times in the N.T. the Greek noun aiōn, is rendered "world," twice "worlds." It has various connotations: a period of time (e.g. the Mosaic age; the Church age) and, in certain contexts eternity or forever. Where the KJV translates it "world," the margin in this edition of the Bible has "age" or "ages." "World" is normally the translation of the Greek kosmos (see Mt. 4:8 and Rev.

13:8, notes) or of the Greek oikoumenē (see Lk. 2:1, note).

11:22 Have faith in God. Literally faith of God. Compare 1 Cor. 12:9; Eph. 2:8.

12:1 This parable (vv. 1–9), addressed to the religious leaders of Israel—"the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders" (11:27)—illustrates God's dealings with the nation and their rejection of His proffered love and of their responsibilities to Him. The "man" (v. 1) is God Himself; the vineyard is Israel (v. 1; compare Isa. 5:1–7); the servants (vv. 2–5) are the O.T. prophets and John the Baptist; the "one son, his wellbeloved" whom they killed (vv. 6–8), is Jesus Himself (compare Heb. 1:1–3); and the destruction of the tenants (v. 9) is a prediction regarding Jerusalem's fall in A.D. 70 (compare Lk. 21:20–24). That the chief priests, the scribes, and elders recognized that it was they of whom Christ spoke is recorded in v. 12. The words of the Lord discovered and laid bare the thoughts and intents of their hearts (compare Heb. 4:12).

POLITICAL PARTIES IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

The Herodians

A political party of Jews who supported the dynasty of Herod and the rule of Rome. They are only mentioned three times in Scripture (Mt. 22:16; Mk. 3:6; 12:13). They were lax in morals and in religious observance and thus were detested by the Pharisees. However, the two opposing groups joined together to destroy Jesus and to try to trick Him, once they realized that Jesus was their common foe.

The Zealots

A Jewish political party formed to resist Roman rule and aggression. The Zealots resorted to violence and assassination in attacking the Romans they so hated. They were fanatics in their fight against Roman authority; it is from this zeal their name is derived. One of the apostles, Simon, is surnamed the Zealot in Lk. 6:15; Acts 1:13.

The Galileans

These people were natives of Galilee and were looked down upon by the southern Jews as an ignorant and rustic group of folks. They were a people of passionate and excitable temperament, a spirit which united them with the Zealots. Their lawless spirit and extreme resistance to being taxed by the Romans was a source of constant anxiety to the Roman authorities. Eventually the name Galilean became synonymous with lawlessness and violence and it was intentionally brought up at Jesus' trial to arouse prejudice against Christ, when it was pointed out that He was from Galilee.

The Assassins

This group was a secret society well known in Rome during the last troubled years of the Republic. With dagger concealed beneath the cloak they secretly murdered their own or their patrons' enemies, generally escaping detection by the swiftness of the attack and their quick mingling with the horror-stricken crowd. They are mentioned in Acts 21:38.

brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

Jesus answers the Pharisees (Mt. 22:34-40; cp. Lk. 10:25-37)

28 ¶ And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, name- ly this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burntofferings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

Jesus questions the Pharisees concerning Messiah (Mt. 22:41-46; Lk. 20:41-44)

35 ¶ And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the Son of David?

36 For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the market-places,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

40 Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two ^cmites, which make a ^cfarthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

*The Olivet Discourse (Mt. 24-25): the disciples' two questions
(Mt. 24:3; Lk. 21:7)*

13 And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great ^abuildings? there shall not be ^eleft one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives ^fover against the temple, ^gPeter and ^hJames and ⁱJohn and ^jAndrew asked him privately,

4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

*Daniel's seventieth week of years
(Dan. 9:27); the end time
(Mt. 24:4-14; cp. Lk. 21:8-11)*

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man ^kdeceive you:

6 For many shall ^lcome in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the ^mend shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and ⁿkingdom against kingdom: and there shall be ^oearthquakes in ^pdivers places, and there shall be ^qfamines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 ¶ But take heed to yourselves: for they shall ^rdeliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And the ^sgospel must first be ^tpublished among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy ^uGhost.

12 Now the ^vbrother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be ^whated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be ^xsaved.

*The middle of the week:
the abomination of desolation
(Mt. 24:15-20)*

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the ^yabomination of desolation, ^zspoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where ^{aa}it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) ^{bb}then let them that be in Judæa flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

Parable of the fig tree (Mt. 24:32-33; Lk. 21:29-31)

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

Watchfulness enjoined (Mt. 24:36-51)

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

III. The Servant's Obedience unto Death, 14-15

Jewish authorities plot death of Jesus (Mt. 26:2-5; Lk. 22:1-2)

14 After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

Jesus anointed by Mary of Bethany (Mt. 26:6-13; Jn. 12:1-8)

3 ¶ And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

Judas agrees to betray Jesus
(Mt. 26:14-16; Lk. 22:3-6)

10 ¶ And ^aJudas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to ^bgive him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

Preparation for the Passover
(Mt. 26:17-19; Lk. 22:7-13)

12 ¶ And the ^cfirst day of unleavened bread, when they killed the ^dpassover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the ^egoodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the ^fguestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

The last Passover (Mt. 26:20-24; Lk. 22:14,21-23; Jn. 13:18-19)

17 ¶ And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, ^gOne of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be ^hsorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, ⁱas it is ^jwritten of him: but ^kwoe to that man by whom the ^lSon of man is betrayed! ^mgood were it for that man if he had never been born.

The Lord's Supper instituted
(Mt. 26:26-29; Lk. 22:17-20; cp. 1 Cor. 11:23-26; Jn. 13:12-30)

22 ¶ And as they did eat, Jesus took ⁿbread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my ^obody.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all ^pdrank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my ^qblood of the ^rnew testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the ^skingdom of God.

Jesus foretells Peter's denial
(Mt. 26:30-35; Lk. 22:31-34; Jn. 13:36-38)

26 ¶ And when they had ^tsung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, ^uAll ye shall be ^voffended because of me this night: for it is ^wwritten, I will ^xsmite the ^yshepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am ^zrisen, I will ^{aa}go before you into Galilee.

29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any ^{bb}wise. Likewise also said they all.

Jesus' agony in the garden
(Mt. 26:36-46; Lk. 22:39-46; Jn. 18:1)

Gethsemane: olive oil press. A garden near Jerusalem, where Jesus prayed and was betrayed and arrested.

33 And he ^atooketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be ^bsore amazed, and to be very ^cheavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding ^dsorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and ^eprayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, /Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this ^gcup from me: ^hnevertheless not what I will, but ⁱwhat thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 /Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the ^kflesh is weak.

The second prayer

(Mt. 26:42; Lk. 22:44)

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither ^lwist they what to answer him.

The third prayer

(Mt. 26:44)

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take ^myour rest: it is enough, the ⁿhour is come; behold, the ^oSon of man is betrayed into the hands of ^psinners.

Jesus' betrayal and arrest

(Mt. 26:47-56; Lk. 22:47-53;

Jn. 18:3-11)

43 ¶ And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh ^rJudas, one of the twelve, and with him a great ^smultitude with swords and ^tstaves, from the chief priests and the ^uscribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a ^vtoken, saying, Whomsoever I shall ^wkiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and ^ywith ^zstaves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple ^{aa}teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be ^{ab}fulfilled.

50 And they all ^{ac}forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

Jn. 18:16-18,25-27)

66 ¶ And ^oas Peter was beneath in the ^ppalace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with ^qJesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock ^rcrew.

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is ^sone of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art ^tone of them: for thou art a Galilæan, and thy speech agreeth ^uthereto.

71 But he began to ^vcurse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock ^wcrew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

(Mt. 27:1-2,11-15;

15 And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a ^xconsultation with the elders and ^yscribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried ^zhim away, and ^{aa}delivered ^{ab}him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the ^{ac}King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he ^{ad}answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou ^{ae}nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

7 And there was ^{ag}one named Barabbas, ^{ah}which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire ^{ai}him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, ^{aj}Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for ^{ak}envy.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

LUKE

Author:
Luke

Theme:
Christ, the Man

Date of writing:
c. A.D. 60

Background

Luke, who wrote the Third Gospel and Acts, was known as “the beloved physician” (Colossians 4:14). He was a companion and fellow worker with Paul (Philemon 24). Compare the Introduction to Acts.

This book, the longest of the Gospels, was written principally for the Greeks. Its emphasis is upon the perfect humanity of Christ, whom it presents as the Son of Man, the human-divine Person, and whose genealogy it traces to Adam. Luke’s narrative of the birth and infancy of the Lord is from the point of view of the virgin mother. He alone tells of Christ’s boyhood and reveals more of His prayer life than the other Synoptics. The parables found in this Gospel show Christ’s concern for lost humanity. In the accounts of certain miracles, the trained observation of a physician is evident.

God’s Relationship with Man

Luke is in many ways the Gospel of compassion, stressing, as it does, the Lord’s sympathy for the brokenhearted, the sick, the mistreated, and the bereaved. It also shows the ministry of women to Christ. Along with its presentation of the Son of Man, the book emphasizes the worldwide scope of salvation. Luke alone records the parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin, and the lost son (15:3–32) and the mission of the Seventy (10:1–24).

I. The Introduction, 1:1-4

1 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those ^athings which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they ^bdelivered them unto us, which from the ^cbeginning were ^deyewitnesses, and ^eministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to ^fwrite unto thee in order, most excellent ^gTheophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those ^hthings, wherein thou hast been instructed.

II. The Birth, Baptism, Genealogy, and Temptation of Christ, 1:5-4:13

John the Baptist's birth foretold

5 ¶ There was in the days of Herod, the king of ⁱJudæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the ^jcourse of ^kAbia: and his ^lwife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both ^mrighteous before God, walking in all the ⁿcommandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, ^obecause that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to ^pburn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying ^qwithout at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an ^rangel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw ^shim, he was ^ttroubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the ^uangel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy ^vprayer is heard; and thy wife ^wElisabeth shall ^xbear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name ^yJohn.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall ^zrejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be ^{aa}great in the sight of the Lord, and shall ^{ab}drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy ^{ac}Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he ^{ad}turn to the Lord their God.

17 ^{ae}And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? ^{af}for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad ^{ag}tidings.

20 And, behold, thou shalt be ^{ah}dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he

1:3 From the very first is from the Greek anōthen (adv., from anō, which can mean "up," "upward," or "above"), which is translated elsewhere by "from above" (Jn. 3:31; 19:11; Jas. 1:17; 3:15,17). Luke's use of anōthen is an affirmation that his knowledge of these things, derived from those who had been eyewitnesses from the beginning (v. 2), was confirmed by revelation. In like manner Paul had doubtless heard from the Eleven the story of the institution of the Lord's Supper; but he also had it by revelation from the Lord (1 Cor. 11:23) and his writing, like Luke's knowledge, thus became firsthand and not simply traditional. Observe, too, Luke's expression "in order," an emphatic term to indicate his purpose of presenting the Gospel record in an orderly fashion.

could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he ^abeckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his ^bown house.

24 And after those days his wife ^cElisabeth ^dconceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to ^etake away my reproach among men.

The annunciation of Jesus' birth

26 ¶ And in the ^fsixth month the ^gangel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a ^hvirgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was ⁱtroubled at his saying, and ^jcast in her mind what manner of ^ksalutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found ^lfavour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt ^mconceive in thy womb, and bring forth a ⁿson, and shalt call his ^oname JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the ^pHighest: and the Lord God shall ^qgive unto him the ^rthrone of his ^sfather David:

33 And he ^tshall reign over the house of Jacob ^ufor ever; and of his ^vkingdom there shall be no end.

Jesus' miraculous conception

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, ^wseeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy ^xGhost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that ^yholy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the ^zSon of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 ^{aa}For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; ^{bb}be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

THE MARYS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Six Marys are to be distinguished in the N.T.:

(1) Mary, the mother of Jesus, always clearly identified by the context.

(2) Mary, the mother of the Apostle James (called "the less," Mk. 15:40) and wife of Clopas (Jn. 19:25), who may be identified with Alphaeus (Mt. 10:3; Mk. 3:18; Lk. 6:15). She was evidently the cousin of Mary, the mother of Jesus. This Mary watched the crucifixion (Mt. 27:56; Mk. 15:40; Jn. 19:25), visited the garden tomb (Mk. 15:47; 16:1; Lk. 24:10), and was presumably among the women who saw the risen Lord on the resurrection day (Mt. 28:7-9; Lk. 24:9,22-24). She is normally mentioned only in connection with one or both of her sons. Some have conjectured that this Mary was the sister of Mary, the mother of Jesus, but it is highly improbable that two sisters would have the same name.

(3) Mary of Bethany, sister of Martha and Lazarus, mentioned by name only in Lk. 10:39,42; Jn. 11:1,2,19,20,28,31,32,45; 12:3, but referred to in Mt. 26:7; Mk. 14:3-9.

(4) Mary Magdalene, a woman of Magdala, "out of whom went seven devils" (Lk. 8:2). She is never mentioned apart from the identifying word "Magdalene" and is not to be confused with the sinful woman who anointed the Savior's feet in a city of Galilee (Lk. 7:36-50).

(5) Mary, the mother of John Mark, and sister of Barnabas (Acts 12:12). And

(6) Mary, a Christian woman of Rome, to whom Paul sent his salutation (Rom. 16:6).

1:26 Gabriel. Meaning man of God. Dan. 8:16; 9:21.

1:28 highly favoured. Or endued with grace. Verse 30; compare Dan. 9:23; 10:19.

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and ^asaluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the ^bsalutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was ^cfilled with the Holy ^dGhost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, ^eBlessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should *f*come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy ^bsalutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And ^gblessed is she that ^hbelieved: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

Mary's "Magnificat"
(cp. 1 Sam. 2:1-10)

46 And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath ⁱrejoiced in ^jGod my ^kSaviour.

48 For he hath ^lregarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me ^mgreat things; and ⁿholy is his name.

50 And his ^omercy is on them that ^pfear him from generation to generation.

51 He hath shewed strength with his ^qarm; he hath scattered the ^rproud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 ^sHe hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He hath ^tfilled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath ^uholpen his ^vservant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;

55 ^wAs he ^xspake to our ^yfathers, to Abraham, and to his ^zseed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

John is born and named

57 ¶ Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they ^{aa}rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on the ^{bb}eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called ^{cc}John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing ^{dd}table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was ^{ee}opened immediately, and his tongue ^{loosed}, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judæa.

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their ^{ff}hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zacharias' "Benedictus"

67 ¶ And his father Zacharias was ^{gg}filled with the Holy ^dGhost, and prophesied, saying,

68 ^{hh}Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath ⁱⁱvisited and ^{jj}redeemed his ^{kk}people,

69 And hath raised up an ^{ll}horn of ^{mm}salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

Jesus is born in Bethlehem
(Mt. 1:18-25; 2:1; cp. Jn. 1:14)

2 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus, that all the world should be ⁿtaxed.

2 (And this ^otaxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be ⁿtaxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, unto the city of David, which is called ^pBethlehem; (because he was of the ^qhouse and lineage of David:)

5 To be ⁿtaxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she ^rbrought forth her ^sfirstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Angelic announcement of Jesus' birth

8 ¶ And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, ^tthe ^uangel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were ^vsore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, ^wFear not: for, behold, I bring you good ^xtidings of great joy, which shall be to ^yall people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a ^zSaviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth ^{aa}peace, good will toward men.

Shepherds visit the baby, Jesus

15 ¶ And it came to pass, as the ^{bb}angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

RIGHTEOUSNESS
OLD TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

The words "righteous" and "just" are used to translate the Hebrew yashar, "upright"; tsaddiq, "just." In these words but one idea inheres: the righteous or just man is so called because he is right with God; and he is right with God because he has walked "in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord" (Lk. 1:6; compare Rom. 10:5; Phil. 3:6). The O.T. righteous man was not sinless (Eccl. 7:20) but one who, for his sins, trusted the coming Messiah and offered in faith the required sacrifice (e.g. Lev. 4:27-35). Compare Righteousness (N.T.), Rom. 10:10, note, and Paul's contrast, Phil. 3:4-9.

thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

Anna's testimony to Christ

36 ¶ And there was one Anna, a ^aprophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of ^bAser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a ^cwidow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and ^dprayers night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that ^elooked for ^fredemption in Jerusalem.

Return to Nazareth: the silent years (after events of Mt. 2)

39 ¶ And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 ^gAnd the child grew, and ^hwaxed strong in spirit, filled with ⁱwisdom: and the ^jgrace of God was upon him.

Jesus' visit to His "Father's house" in Jerusalem

41 ¶ Now his parents went to ^kJerusalem every year at the feast of the ^lpassover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the ^mcustom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the ⁿdays, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not ^oof it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among ^ptheir kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they ^qfound him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the ^rdoctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were ^sastonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were ^tamazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? ^uwist ye not that I must be 'about 'my Father's business?

50 And they understood ^vnot the saying which he spake unto them.

Jesus grows in wisdom, stature, and favour

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother ^wkept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus ^xincreased in ^ywisdom and stature, ^zand in favour with God and man.

Ministry of John the Baptist (Mt. 3:1-11; Mk. 1:1-8; Jn. 1:6-8,15-37)

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, ^{aa}Pontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituræa and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 Annas and ^{bb}Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto ^{cc}John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of ^{dd}repentance for the remission of ^{ee}sins;

4 As it is ^{ff}written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, ^{gg}saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;

THE GENEALOGIES OF JESUS

The genealogies of our Lord recorded in Mt. 1:1-17 and Lk. 3:23-38 have their similarities and their differences. Though the Lucan genealogy goes back to Adam and that of Matthew goes only to Abraham, they are both in absolute agreement in the generations between Abraham and David. It is with the Son of David that the great difference begins, for Luke traces our Lord's ancestry from David through Nathan, whereas Matthew uses the royal line through Solomon. It is true that the names Shealtiel, Zerubbabel, and possibly Matthat (Matthan in Matthew) appear subsequently in both, but otherwise the lists are entirely different. Indeed in one, Jacob is spoken of as Joseph's father; whereas in the other, Heli is presumably so presented.

Two views have been maintained by equally godly and learned scholars. Some believe both genealogies are of Joseph, but that the one in Matthew gives the legal descendants of David to establish our Lord's claim to the Davidic throne, while Luke gives the particular line to which Joseph actually belonged. The second list, then, is spoken of as the collateral line and is eligible for royal duty when the legal line is incapacitated or becomes extinct.

A far simpler solution, and in all probability the true one, is that since every individual has two genealogies—one through his father and another through his mother—so Matthew presents Joseph's genealogy (the Lord's foster or legal father, not his actual father), whereas Luke presents Mary's genealogy. This view is supported by linguistic and historical evidence and is held by many students of the Bible. In addition, appeal may be made to Num. 27:1-11 and 36:1-12 to give Scriptural precedent for the substitution of Joseph's name in Lk. 3:23. At the same time it avoids the judgment spoken of in Jer. 22:28-30 (see Mt. 1:11, note).

6 And the devil said unto him, All this ^apower will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is ^bdelivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I ^cgive it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, ^dall shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, ^eSatan: for it is ^fwritten, ^gThou shalt ^hworship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and ⁱset him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the ^jSon of God, ^kcast thyself down from hence:

10 For it is ^lwritten, ^mHe shall give his ⁿangels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in ^otheir hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is ^psaid, ^qThou shalt not ^rtempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the ^stemptation, he ^tdeparted from him for a season.

III. The Public Ministry of the Son of Man, to the Triumphal Entry, 4:14-19:27

First tour of Galilee (Mt. 4:12-17; Mk. 1:14-15)

14 ¶ And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a ^ufame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he ^vtaught in their synagogues, ^wbeing glorified of all.

Jesus in the synagogue at Nazareth; His rejection (cp. Mt. 13:53-58; Mk. 6:1-6)

16 ¶ And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his ^xcustom was, he went into the synagogue on the ^ysabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was ^zwritten,

18 ^{aa}The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the ^{ab}gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to ^{ac}set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave ^{ad}it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture ^{ae}fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the ^{af}gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, ^{ag}Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, ^{ah}heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard ^{ai}done in ^{aj}Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No ^{ak}prophet is accepted in his own country.

4:10 it is written. After Satan's failure to cause the Lord Jesus to depart from Scripture, he seeks to tempt Him by Scripture. However, Satan misquotes it in omitting the phrase "in all thy ways" (Ps. 91:11). The Lord's ways were those marked out for Him in perfect dependence upon His Father's will. Compare Heb. 10:7,9.

4:19 acceptable year. A comparison with the passage quoted, Isa. 61:1-2, affords an instance of the exquisite accuracy of the Lord's use of Scripture. Jesus stopped at "the acceptable year of the LORD," which is connected with the first advent and His gracious offer of Himself (Gen. 3:15; Acts 1:11, note), whereas "the day of vengeance of our God" (Isa. 61:2) belongs to the second advent and judgment (Dt. 30:3; Acts 1:11, note).

5:12 if thou wilt. The leper honored Christ by recognizing His power to heal, and begged Him, "if thou wilt," to heal his leprosy. Similarly the Christian should recognize Christ's power to heal, but should always pray, "if thou wilt" (1 Jn. 5:14). Even the Lord Jesus prayed, "Not my will, but thine, be done" (Lk. 22:42). Paul prayed three times that his "thorn in the flesh" might be removed, but when God willed not to do so, Paul realized that God had a wise and good purpose in asking him to continue to bear it (2 Cor. 12:7-9; Rom. 8:28).

25 And immediately he ^arose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, ^bglorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they ^cglorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

Call of Levi (Matthew): Jesus questioned by scribes and Pharisees (Mt. 9:9-15; Mk. 2:13-20)

27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a ^dpublican, named Levi, sitting at the ^ereceipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and ^gfollowed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of ^dpublicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their ^hscribes and ⁱPharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, ^jWhy do ye eat and drink with ^dpublicans and ^ksinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are ^lwhole need not a physician; but they that are ^msick.

32 I came not to call the ⁿrighteous, but sinners to ^orepentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John ^pfast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the ^qchildren of the bridechamber fast, while the ^rbridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spake also a ^sparable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if ^totherwise, then both the new maketh a ^urent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old ^vbottles; else the new wine will burst the ^vbottles, and be spilled, and the ^vbottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new ^vbottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

Jesus is Lord of the sabbath (Mt. 12:1-8; Mk. 2:23-28)

6 And it came to pass on the second ^wsabbath after the first, that he went through the ^xcorn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of ^ycorn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the ^zPharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the ^{aa}sabbath days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not ^{bb}read so much as this, ^{cc}what David did, when himself was an ^{dd}hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the ^{ee}shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the ^{ff}Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 ¶ And it came to pass also on another ^{gg}w sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was ^{hh}withered.

7 And the scribes and ⁱⁱPharisees watched him, whether he would ^{jj}heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an ^{kk}accusation against him.

Jesus heals a centurion's servant
(Mt. 8:5-13)

7 Now when he had ended all his sayings in the ^baudience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him ^cinstantly, saying, That he was ^dworthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but ^esay in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man ^fset under ^gauthority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he ^hmarvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great ⁱfaith, no, not in ^jIsrael.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant ^kwhole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and ^lmuch people.

12 Now when he came ^mnigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and ⁿmuch people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had ^ocompassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare ^phim stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, ^qArise.

15 And he that was dead ^rsat ^sup, and began to speak. And he ^tdelivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a ^ufear on all: and they ^vglorified God, saying, That a great ^wprophet is ^xrisen up among us; and, That God hath ^yvisited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judæa, and throughout all the region round about.

speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

7:44 Simon. See Jas. 2:14-26. When Jesus would justify the woman in the eyes of Simon, He points to her works, for only through her works could Simon see the proof of her faith; but when He would send the woman away in peace, He points to her faith (v. 50), not her works. See Ti.

2:14; 3:4-8. The believer should never base his assurance on his own works (compare Mt. 7:22-23); assurance rests completely on the finished work of Christ. See Assurance (Isa. 32:17; Jude 1, note).

46 My ^ahead with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my ^bfeet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, ^cThy ^dsins are ^eforgiven.

49 And they that ^fsat at meat with him began to say within themselves, ^gWho is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy ^hfaith hath saved thee; go in peace.

Women who ministered to Jesus on preaching tours

8 And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the ⁱglad tidings of the ^jkingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 ^kAnd certain ^lwomen, which had been ^mhealed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called ⁿMagdalene, out of whom went seven ^odevils,

Parable of the sower and the soils (Mt. 13:1-23; Mk. 4:1-20)

4 ¶ And when ^pmuch people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a ^qparable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, ^rHe that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the ^smysteries of the ^tkingdom of God: but to others in parables; ^uthat seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The ^vseed is the ^wword of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the ^xdevil, and ^ytaketh away the word out of their ^zhearts, lest they should believe and be ^{aa}saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these ^{bb}have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of ^{cc}temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among ^{dd}thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and ^{ee}riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the ^{ff}good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, ^{gg}keep it, and bring forth fruit with ^{hh}patience.

Parable of the lighted candle

(Mt. 5:15-16; Mk. 4:21-23; Lk. 11:33-36)

16 ¶ No man, when he hath lighted a ⁱⁱcandle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a ^{jj}candlestick, that they which enter in may see the ^{kk}light.

17 For ^{ll}nothing is secret, that shall not be ^{mm}made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come ⁿⁿabroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: ^{oo}for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to ^{pp}have.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, ^fsaying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ^gceased, and there was a calm.

Jesus casts out demons at Gadara

(Mt. 8:28-34; Mk. 5:1-20)

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is ^kover against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had ^ldevils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the ^mtombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he ⁿcried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, ^oWhat have I to do with thee, Jesus, ^pthou Son of God ^qmost high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For ^roftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he ^sbrake the ^tbands, and was driven of the ^udevil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many ^vdevils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many ^wswine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would ^xsuffer them to enter into them. And he ^ysuffered them.

8:37 Gadarenes. Or Gerasenes. besought him to depart. Unconscious of their own need, the Gadarenes asked the Lord to depart; for His power terrified and con-part from them; for they were taken with great ^afear: and he went up into the ^bship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the ^cdevils were departed ^dbesought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and ^eshew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and ^fpublished throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people ^ggladly received him: for they were all ^hwaiting for him.

*Two miracles of healing
(Mt. 9:18-26; Mk. 5:21-43)*

41 ¶ And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ⁱruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' ^jfeet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one ^konly daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a ^ldying. But as he went the people ^mthronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an ⁿissue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind ^ohim, and ^ptouched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanch'd.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude ^qthrough thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that ^rvirtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she ^sdeclared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: ^tthy ^ufaith hath made thee ^vwhole; ^wgo in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's ^xhouse, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard ^yit, he answered him, saying, Fear not: ^z'believe only, and she shall be made ^{aa}'whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he ^{bb}w suffered no man to go in, ^{cc}save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, ^{dd}'Weep not; she is not dead, but ^{ee}sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, ^{ff}arise.

55 And her spirit ^{gg}came again, and she ^{hh}arose straightway: and he commanded to give her ⁱⁱmeat.

56 And her parents were ^{jj}astonished: but he ^{kk}charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

2 And he sent them to preach the ^{qq}kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up

17 And they did eat, and were all ^kfilled: and there was taken up of fragments that ^lremained to them twelve baskets.

Jesus again passes through Samaria

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he ^estedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as ^gElias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of ^hspirit ye are of.

56 For the ⁱSon of man is not ^jcome to destroy men's lives, but to ^ksave them. And they went to another village.

(Mt. 8:19-22)

57 ¶ And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the ^lSon of man ^mhath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, ⁿsuffer me first to go and ^obury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the ^pdead bury their ^qdead: but go thou and preach the ^rkingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

The seventy sent forth
(contra. Mt. 10)

10 After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The ^vharvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth ^wlabourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 ^xCarry neither purse, nor ^yscrip, nor shoes: and ^zsalute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, aaPeace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: bb for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The ^{cc}kingdom of God is come ^{dd}ccnigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which ^{ee}cleaveth on us, we do ^{ff}wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the ^{gg}kingdom of God is come ^{hh}ccnigh unto you.

BIBLE PRAYERS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

This well-loved prayer which our Lord taught His disciples, known as The Lord's Prayer, was evidently given upon two separate occasions and under different circumstances, and with some variations: first, in the Sermon on the Mount, while Christ was warning His disciples against ostentatious formality in prayer (compare Mt. 5:1 with 6:5-13, where see notes); and second, at an unnamed "certain place" in response to the request of one of the disciples, "Lord, teach us to pray" (Lk. 11:1-4). Although the Lord's Prayer was obviously not given to be used only as a form, the two accounts teach us many precious lessons about the nature of prayer.

(1) Such prayer is based upon the relationship of God as the Father of all who truly believe in His Son (Jn. 1:13), for only these can truly say, "Our Father" (Mt. 6:9).

(2) It must begin with the attitude of worship: "Hallowed be thy name"—an acknowledgement of the absolute holiness of all that God is and does.

(3) In the sense of petition, prayer must put first the kingdom and its coming down from heaven.

(4) True prayer accepts in advance the will of God, whether known or unknown, whether to grant or to withhold.

(5) Prayer should always envision the divine will and kingdom as objectives which will certainly be realized on earth.

(6) In the meantime the children of God may be properly concerned in prayer with present physical needs.

(7) Prayer may be hindered when the fellowship of the children with their Father is broken because of sin (Mt. 6:12, 15). And

(8) the children of God must be divinely taught "to pray," not merely how to pray (Lk. 11:1).

This prayer, as originally given, does not specify in detail the complete doctrine of prayer for the Church, although it contains it in germ. The element of thanksgiving is not specifically mentioned (compare Phil. 4:6-7), yet surely thanksgiving is implicit in "Hallowed be thy name"; for who can hallow God, that is, hold Him sacred and offer worship to Him, without thanksgiving? Later, in the progress of divine revelation, our Lord gave the definite command to believers to pray in His name (Jn. 16:23-24).

and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his ^aimportunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, ^bAsk, and it shall be given you; ^cseek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Parable of fatherhood

11 ^dIf a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give ^egood gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the ^fHoly Spirit to them that ask him?

A demoniac boy healed

14 ¶ And he was casting out a ^gdevil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the ^hdevil was ⁱgone out, the dumb spake; and the people ^jwondered.

Pharisees blaspheme the Holy Spirit (Mt. 12:24-30; Mk. 3:22-30)

15 But some of them said, He casteth out ^kdevils through ^lBeelzebub the chief of the ^mdevils.

16 And others, ⁿtempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he, ^oknowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If ^pSatan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out ^qdevils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I ^rby Beelzebub ^scast out ^tdevils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the ^ufinger of God cast out ^vdevils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a ^wstronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he ^xtaketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me is ^yagainst me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

Worthlessness of self-reformation (Mt. 12:43-45)

24 ¶ When the ^zunclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth ^{aa}it ^{ab}swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh ^{ac}to ^{ad}him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last ^{ae}state of that man is ^{af}worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, ^{ag}Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the ^{ah}paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, ^{ai}Yea rather, ^{aj}blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

11:13 give the Holy Spirit. To the Jew this promise was undoubtedly new and staggering, for it indicates that in advance of the fulfillment of Joel 2:28-29, all might receive the Holy Spirit. It should be kept in mind, however, that in accordance with the promise, as recorded in Lk. 24:49; Jn.

The sign of Jonas
(Mt. 12:38-41)

29 ¶ And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a ^asign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the ^bsign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For ^cas Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the ^dSon of man be to this generation.

31 The ^equeen of the south shall rise up in the ^fjudgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the ^gutmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a ^hgreater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they ⁱrepented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a ^jgreater than Jonas is here.

Parable of lighted candle
(Mt. 5:14-16; Mk. 4:21-22;
cp. Lk. 8:16)

33 ^kNo man, when he hath lighted a ^lcandle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a ^mcandlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The ⁿlight of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is ^osingle, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be ^pfull of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a ^qcandle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain ^rPharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to ^smeat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first ^twashed before dinner.

Woes unto the Pharisees
(cp. Mt. 23:13-35)

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your ^uinward part is full of ^vravens and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not ^whe that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But rather ^xgive alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe the mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and ^ypass over ^zjudgment and the ^{aa}love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye ^{ab}love the ^{ac}uppermost seats in the synagogues, and ^{ad}greetings in the ^{ae}markets.

44 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! ^{af}for ye are as ^{ag}graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the ^{ah}lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye ^{ai}lawyers! for ye ^{aj}lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ^{ak}ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers ^{al}killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the ^{am}wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be ^{an}required of this generation; temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe unto you, ^alawyers! for ye have taken away the ^bkey of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye ^chindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the ^dscribes and the Pharisees began to ^eurge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and ^fseeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

Jesus warns of false doctrine (leaven) of Pharisees

(cp. Mt. 16:6-12; Mk. 8:14-21)

12 In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the ^gleaven of the ^hPharisees, which is ⁱhypocrisy.

2 ^jFor there is nothing covered, that shall not be ^krevealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in ^lclosets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say unto you my ^mfriends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, ⁿFear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two ^ofarthings, and ^pnot one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, ^qWhosoever shall confess me ^rbefore men, him shall the ^sSon of man also confess before the ^tangels of God:

9 But he that ^udenieth me before men shall be denied before the ^vangels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the ^wSon of man, it shall be ^xforgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy ^yGhost it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, ^ztake ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy ^{aa}Ghost shall ^{ab}teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a ^{ac}judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's ^{ad}life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

Parable of the rich fool

16 ¶ And he spake a ^{ae}parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no ^{af}room where to bestow my ^{ag}fruits?

18 And he said, ^{ah}This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my ^{ai}fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, ^{aj}Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, ^{ak}eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, ^{al}this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then ^{am}whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So ^{an}is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not ^{ao}rich toward God.

22 ¶ And he ^{ap}said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, ^aTake no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than ^bmeat, and the ^cbody is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God ^dfeedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with ^etaking thought can add to his stature one ^fcubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why ^gtake ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that ^hSolomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of ⁱlittle faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father ^jknoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ But rather seek ye the ^kkingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to ^lgive you the ^mkingdom.

33 ⁿSell that ye have, and give ^oalms; provide yourselves bags which ^pwax not old, a ^qtreasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 ^rFor where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Parable and warnings pertinent to Christ's second coming (Mt. 24:37-25:30)

35 ^sLet your loins be ^tgirded about, and ^uyour lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 ^vBlessed are those servants, whom the lord when he ^wcometh shall find ^xwatching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to ^ymeat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find ^zthem so, blessed are those servants.

39 And this know, that if the ^{aa}goodman of the house had known what hour the ^{ab}thief would come, he would have watched, and not have ^{ac}suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the ^{ad}Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

Parable of testing of servants

41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, ^{ae}Who then is that ^{af}faithful and wise steward, whom ^{ag}his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give ^{ah}them their portion of ^{ai}meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ^{aj}ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord ^{ak}delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and ^{al}maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a ^{am}day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

51 ^gSuppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather ^hdivision:

53 ⁱThe father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 ¶ And he said also to the people, ^jWhen ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.

13 There were present at that season some that told him of the ^pGalilæans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

(cp. Mt. 12:9-13)

14 And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief ^lPharisees to eat bread on the ^msabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

4 And they held their peace. And he took ^ohim, and ^ohealed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

Parable of the ambitious guest

8 When thou art bidden of any ^sman to a wedding, sit not down in the ^shighest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the ^ulowest ^uroom; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up ^vhigher: then shalt thou have ^wworship in the presence of them that ^wsit at meat with thee.

11 For ^xwhosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; ^xand he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou ^{aa}makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor ^{bb}thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou ^{aa}makest a feast, call the ^{bb}poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ^pambassage, and desireth ^qconditions of peace.

(3) The lost son (vv. 11-32)

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with *m*riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed *n*swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

22 But the father said to his servants, *u*Bring forth the *v*best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and *aa*yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred ^fmeasures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

HADES AND SHEOL

The Greek word hadēs, like its Hebrew equivalent, Sheol, is used in two ways:

(1) To indicate the condition of the unsaved between death and the great white throne judgment (Rev. 20:11-15). Luke 16:23-24 shows that the lost in hadēs are conscious, possess full use of their faculties, memory, etc., and are in torment. This continues until the final judgment of the lost (2 Pet. 2:9), when all the unsaved, and hadēs itself, will be cast into the lake of fire (Rev. 20:13-15).

(2) To indicate, in general, the condition of all departed human spirits between death and the resurrection. This usage is found occasionally in the O.T. but rarely, if ever, in the N.T. (compare Gen. 37:35; 42:38; 44:29,31). It should not lead anyone to think that there is a possibility of change from one state to the other after death, for v. 23 shows that when the unsaved man who was in hadēs saw Abraham and Lazarus, they were "afar off," and v. 26 states that between the two places there is a great gulf fixed, so that no one can cross from one to the other.

Some interpreters think that Eph. 4:8-10 indicates that a change in the place of the departed believers occurred at the resurrection of Christ. It is certain that all who are saved go at once into the presence of Christ (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23). Jesus told the penitent thief: "To day shalt thou be with me in paradise" (Lk. 23:43). Paul was "caught up to the third heaven . . . into paradise (2 Cor. 12:1-4). Paradise is a place of great joy and bliss, but this bliss is not complete until the spirit is reunited with a glorified body at the resurrection of the just (1 Cor. 15:51-54; 1 Th. 4:16-17). Though both sheol and hadēs are sometimes translated "grave" (compare Gen. 37:35), they never indicate a burial place but, rather, the state of the spirit after death. See also Hab. 2:5, note.

Ten lepers cleansed

11 ¶ And it came to pass, as he went to ^dJerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were ^elepers, which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and ^fsaid, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the ^gpriests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were ^hcleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud ⁱvoice ^jglorified God,

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a ^kSamaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where ^{are} the nine?

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the ^okingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the ^okingdom of God is ^pwithin you.

17:20 observation. Or outward show. Jn. 18:36; see v. 21, note.

17:21 within you. The Greek word entos, meaning in the midst. It could not be said of a self-righteous, Christ-rejecting Pharisee that the kingdom of God, as to its spiritual content, was "within him." Our Lord's whole answer, designedly enigmatic to the Pharisees (compare Mt. 13:10-13), has a dispensational meaning. The kingdom in its outward form, as covenanted to David (2 Sam. 7:16, note) and described by the prophets (Zech. 12:8, note) had been rejected by the Jews, so that, during this present age, it would not come "with observation" (literally "outward show") but in the hearts of men (see Lk. 19:11-12; Acts 1:6-8, note). Meantime, the kingdom was actually "in the midst" of the Pharisees in the persons of the King and His disciples. Ultimately the kingdom of heaven will come visibly to earth at our Lord's second coming. See v. 24.

brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the *a*day when the *b*Son of man is *c*revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember Lot's *d*wife.

33 *e*Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 *f*Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, *g*Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

*Two parables on prayer
(vv. 1-14)*

(1) Persistence rewarded

18 And he spake a *h*parable unto them to this end, that men ought *i*always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenger me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenger her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenger his own *i*elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear *k*long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenger them speedily. Nevertheless when the *b*Son of man *c*cometh, shall he find *l*faith on the earth?

(2) The Pharisee and publican: proper and improper attitudes

9 ¶ And he spake this *h*parable unto certain which *m*trusted in themselves that they were *n*righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a *o*publican.

11 The *p*Pharisee stood and *q*prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this *o*publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the *o*publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a *r*sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house *s*justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and *t*he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, *v*Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them

An instructed Jew, the tax collector was thinking, not of mercy alone, but of the blood-sprinkled mercy seat (Lev. 16:5, note; see also Propitiation, Rom. 3:25, note). His prayer might be paraphrased, "Be toward me as thou art when thou lookest on the atoning blood." The Bible knows nothing of divine forgiveness apart from sacrifice (see Mt. 26:28, note).

23 And when he ^lheard this, he was very ^msorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, ⁿHow hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the ^okingdom of God.

3 And he sought to ^csee Jesus who he was; and could not ^dfor the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran ^ebefore, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must ^fabide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a ^gsinner.

8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the ^hpoor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I ⁱrestore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is ^jsalvation come to this house, forso-much as he also is a son of ^kAbraham.

The ten pounds: parable of long journey (see Lk. 17:21, note, and Acts 1:6-8, note)

11 ¶ And as they heard these things, he added and spake a ^oparable, because he was ^pnigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the ^qkingdom of God should ^rimmediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a ^sfar country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will ^vnot have this man to ^wreign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the ^xkingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the ^ymoney, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy ^zpound hath gained ten pounds.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five ^{ac}pounds.

IV. The Rejection of Christ, and His Death, 19:28-23:56

Triumphal entry of Jesus (Mt. 21:1-9; Mk. 11:1-10; Jn. 12:12-19; cp. Zech. 9:9)

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went ^gbefore, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, when he was come ^hnigh to Bethphage and ⁱBethany, ^jat the mount called the ^kmount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village ^lover against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet ^mnever man sat: loose him, and bring ⁿhim hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose ^ohim? thus shall ye say unto him, ^pBecause the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even ^qas he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come ^rnigh, even now at the descent of the ^smount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to ^trejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, ^uBlessed be the ^vKing that ^wcometh in the ^xname of the Lord: ^ypeace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the ^zPharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, ^{aa}rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, ^{ab}if these should hold their peace, the ^{ac}stones would immediately cry out.

47 And he ^{ao}taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the ^{ap}scribes and the chief of the people sought to ^{aq}destroy him,

Jesus' authority challenged
(Mt. 21:23-27; Mk. 11:27-33)

20 And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he ^ataught the people in the temple, and preached the ^bgospel, the chief priests and the ^cscribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, ^aby what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, And I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The ^ebaptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, *¶*If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a ^eprophet.

7 And they answered, *h*that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

Parable of the vineyard owner
(Mt. 21:33-46; Mk. 12:1-9;
cp. Isa. 5:1-7)

9 ¶ Then began he to speak to the people this ⁱparable; A certain man planted a ^vvineyard, and ^klet it forth to ^lhusbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he ^msent a servant to the ^lhusbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the ^lhusbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and ⁿentreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will ^osend my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the ^lhusbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the ^pheir: come, ^qlet us kill him, that the inheritance may be ^rours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and ^skilled him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and ^tdestroy these ^lhusbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to ^uothers. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is ^vwritten, ^wThe ^xstone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be ^ybroken; ^zbut on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

Jesus answers the Herodians
(Mt. 22:15-22; Mk. 12:13-17)

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the ^{aa}scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves ^{bb}just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why ^{cc}tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a ^{dd}penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæsar's.

25 And he said unto them, *ee*Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they ^{ff}marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

21:20 when ye shall see Jerusalem. Two sieges of Jerusalem are in view in the Olivet Discourse, the one fulfilled in A.D. 70, and the other yet to be fulfilled at the end of the age. Here the reference is to the siege by Titus, A.D. 70, when the city was taken and vv. 20-24 literally fulfilled. These horrors illustrate the conditions in Palestine at the time of the end, but neither v. 20 nor v. 24 is included in the accounts of the Olivet Discourse given by Matthew and Mark. The references in Mt. 24:15-28 and Mk. 13:14-26 are to the final siege, when the city will be taken by enemies but delivered by the return of the Lord to the earth (Rev. 19:11-21; Zech. 14:2-4). In Luke the sign is Jerusalem being surrounded by armies (21:20); in Mt. 24:15 and Mk. 13:14 the sign is the abomination of desolation in the holy place (2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13:12-15).

21:24 trodden. The "times of the Gentiles" began with the captivity of Judah under Nebuchadnezzar (2 Chr. 36:1-21). Since that time Jerusalem has been, as Christ said, "trodden down of the Gentiles." See margin, also.

21:27 coming in a cloud. This is clearly the return of Christ in which He comes to the earth, not His return to translate the Church. Signs in the sun, moon, and stars, and the shaking of the heavens do not accompany the rapture but are phenomena that will take place after the Church is gone (compare 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 6:12-17).

21:29 PARABLES IN THE NEW TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

In the N.T., as in the O.T., a parable is a similitude used to teach or enforce a truth (see Zech. 11:7, note). No one in Scripture record is as generous in the use of the parabolic method of teaching as Christ, who employs it liberally to illustrate important spiritual truths, with stories of things familiar in the natural realm.

Asked by His disciples why He spoke in parables, our Lord admitted two purposes: that (a) His followers might know the mysteries of the kingdom; and (b) those whose hearts were hardened might neither hear nor understand the same doctrine (Mt. 13:10-17).

Parables in the N.T. fall into three classifications:

- (1) general, e.g. Mk. 9:50; Lk. 10:30-37; 18:9-14; Rom. 7:1-6;
- (2) pertaining to the Church Age, e.g. Mt. 13:3-9, 18-23; and
- (3) relating to the Messianic kingdom, e.g. Mt. 24:45-51; Lk. 14:16-24.

33 ^aHeaven and earth shall pass away: but my ^bwords shall not pass away.

Watchfulness enjoined

(Mt. 24:36-51; Mk. 13:32-37)

34 ¶ And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and ^cdrunkenness, and ^dcares of this life, and so that ^eday come upon you unawares.

35 ^fFor as a snare shall ^git come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 ^hWatch ye therefore, and ⁱpray always, that ye may be accounted ^jworthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

Judas agrees to betray Jesus

(Mt. 26:14-16; Mk. 14:1-2, 10-11)

22 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew ^knigh, which is called the ^lPassover.

2 And the chief priests and ^mscribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then entered ⁿSatan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the ^otwelve.

4 And he went his way, and ^pcommuned with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and ^qcovenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to ^rbetray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

Preparation for the Passover

(Mt. 26:17-19; Mk. 14:12-16)

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the ^sgoodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, ^tWhere is the ^uguestchamber, where I shall eat the ^vpassover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and ^wfound as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

The last Passover (Mt. 26:20; Mk. 14:17; Jn. 13:1-17)

14 ¶ And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the ^xtwelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to ^yeat ^zthis passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, ^{aa}until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the ^{bb}cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the ^{cc}kingdom of God shall come.

Jesus predicts His betrayal
(Mt. 26:21-25; Mk. 14:18-21;
Jn. 13:18-30)

21 ¶ But, behold, the hand of him that ^abetrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the ^bSon of man goeth, ^cas it ^dwas determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

Renewed strife over who should be the greatest (Mt. 20:20-28; Mk. 9:33-37; 10:35-45; Jn. 13:1-17)

24 ¶ And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the ^egreatest.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 ^fBut ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that ^gsitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that ^hsitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that ⁱserveth.

32 But I have ^rprayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, ^sstrengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice ^tdeny that thou knowest me.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his ^wscrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is ^xwritten must yet be accomplished in me, And he was ^yreckoned among the ^zwtransgressors: for the things concerning me have ^{aa}xan end.

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, ^mSuffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and ⁿhealed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a ^othief, with swords and ^pstaves?

54 ¶ Then took they him, and ^sled him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed ^tafar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the ^uhall, and were ^vset down together, Peter sat down ^wamong them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

Jesus before the Sanhedrin

(Mt. 26:59-68; 27:1; Mk. 14:55-65; 15:1; Jn. 18:19-24)

66 ¶ And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the ^ascribes ^bcame together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 ^cArt thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will ^dnot believe:

2 And they began to ^maccuse him, saying, We found this ⁿfellow ^operverting the nation, and ^pforbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is Christ a ^qKing.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, ^rThou sayest it.

6 ¶ When Pilate heard of ^vGalilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to ^wHerod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was ^xdesirous to see him of a long ^yseason, because he had ^zheard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him ^{aa}nothing.

10 And the chief priests and ^{ab}scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war ^{ac}set him at nought, and ^{ad}mocked ^{ae}him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

23:31 The saying is probably a proverb in the form of an a fortiori argument. If the Romans condemned to death the one they admitted to be innocent, how would they deal in the future with those whom they found guilty?

23:33 For the order of events at the crucifixion of Christ, see Mt. 27:33, note. when they were come. Approximately A.D. 29. Calvary. Or the skull. See Mk. 15:22, note.

23:35 people stood beholding. Jesus crucified is the touchstone revealing what the world is: "The people stood beholding" in stolid indifference; the rulers, who wanted religion but without a divine Christ crucified for their sins, mocked (Mt. 27:41); the brutal "railed on him" (v. 39); that is, reviled Him; the conscious sinner prayed (v. 42); and the covetous sat down before the cross and played their sordid game (Mt. 27:35-36). The cross is the judgment of this world (Jn. 12:31).

23:39 one of the malefactors. When the two malefactors were hanged beside the Lord, the one was no better than the other. Mark says, "They that were crucified with him reviled him" (Mk. 15:32). It is only the grace of God in the cross of Christ that can instantly transform a sinner's belligerence into an attitude of saving faith and confession.

The repentant thief began to see

(1) the justice of his own punishment (v. 41);

(2) the sinless character of Christ (v. 41);

(3) the Deity of Christ (v. 42);

(4) a living Christ beyond the grave (v. 42); and

(5) a kingdom beyond the cross, with Jesus as its coming King (v. 42).

45 And the sun was darkened, and the ^fveil of the temple was ^grent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he ^bsaid, Father, ^hinto thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, ⁱhe ^jgave up the ^kghost.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and ^alaid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein ^bnever man before was laid.

54 And that day was the ^cpreparation, and the ^dsabbath drew on.

55 And the ^ewomen also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and ^fprepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day ^gaccording to the commandment.

3 And they entered in, and ^kfound not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, ^ltwo men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down ^mtheir faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the ⁿdead?

6 He is not here, but is ^orisen: ^premember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, 11 And their words ^wseemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 Then arose ^xPeter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

He told forth divine truth and foretold the divine

 20 And how the chief priests and our rulers ^adelivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

JOHN

Author:
John

Theme:
Christ in His Deity

Date of writing:
c. A.D. 85–90

Background

John, the writer of this Gospel, was the son of Zebedee and one of the Twelve. Along with his brother, James, and with Peter, he belonged to the inner circle of disciples, a group that was near Christ on such occasions as the transfiguration and the agony in Gethsemane. It was to John that our Lord on the cross commended His mother. John appears with Peter in the first part of Acts and is referred to by Paul as one of the three “pillars” of the Church (Galatians 2:9). His other writings are the Epistles bearing his name, and Revelation.

God’s Relationship with Man

John’s purpose in the Fourth Gospel was, as he plainly declares, “that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name” (20:31). Therefore, he presents Christ as the Son of God (1:34,49; etc.), who was sent from God (3:2; 6:46; etc.) and always spoke the message God gave Him (3:34; 7:16–17; etc.). In accordance with the purpose of this Gospel, the words “believe” and “life,” and the titles “Son” and “Son of God,” are used many more times than in the Synoptic Gospels. Other characteristic words of John are “true,” “truth,” “love,” “witness,” and “world” (Greek kosmos). John alone records the great “I am” declarations of Christ (6:35; 8:12; 10:7,11; 11:25; 14:6) and gives the sayings of Christ introduced by the solemn “Most assuredly,” literally, “Amen, amen” (1:51; 5:19,24,25, etc.). Moreover, he alone reports the great controversy between Christ and His enemies (chapters 7–12).

*I. The Prologue:
The Eternal Word Incarnate
in the Son of God, 1:1-14*

*The Deity of Jesus Christ
(cp. Jn. 10:30; Heb. 1:5-13)*

1 In the ^abeginning was the Word, and the ^bWord was ^cwith God, and the Word was ^dGod.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

The preincarnate work of the Son of God

(cp. Col. 1:16-17; Heb. 1:2)

3 ^eAll things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was ^flife; and the life was the ^glight of men.

5 And the light shineth in ^hdarkness; and the darkness ⁱcomprehended it not.

*Witness of John the Baptist
(see also vv. 15-34)*

6 ¶ There was a ^jman sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a ^kwitness, to bear witness of the Light, that all ^lmen through him might ^mbelieve.

8 He was not that Light, but was ⁿsent to bear witness of that ^oLight.

*Jesus Christ, the true Light: rejected and received
(Jn. 3:17-21; 8:12; 9:5; 12:46)*

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him ^pnot.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the ^qsons of God, even to them that ^rbelieve on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

*The Word made flesh (Jn. 14:9;
cp. Mt. 1:18-23; Lk. 1:30-35;
2:11; 1 Tim. 3:16)*

14 And the ^sWord was ^tmade ^uflesh, and dwelt among us, (and we ^vbeheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of ^wgrace and ^xtruth.

II. The Witness of John the Baptist to the Son of God, 1:15-34

15 ¶ John bare ^ywitness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness have all we received, and ^zgrace for grace.

17 For the ^{aa}law was given by Moses, but ^{ab}grace and ^{ac}truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

1:1 Word. Greek Logos (Aramaic Memra, used as a designation of God in the Targums, that is, Aramaic translations of the O.T.). The Greek word means,

- (1) a thought or concept; and
- (2) the expression or utterance of that thought.

As a designation of Christ, therefore, Logos is peculiarly suitable because

(1) in Him are embodied all the treasures of the divine wisdom, the collective thought of God (1 Cor. 1:24; Eph. 3:10-11; Col. 2:2-3); and

(2) He is, from eternity, but especially in His incarnation, the utterance or expression of the Person and thought of Deity (Jn. 1:3-5,9,14-18; 14:9-11; Col. 2:9). In the Being,

Person, and work of Christ, Deity is expressed.

1:6 There was. Approximately A.D. 26.

1:9,10 world. Greek kosmos. See Mt. 4:8, note.

1:11 He came unto his own. Another rendering would be: "He came unto his own things, and his own people received him not."

1:12 power. Literally authority.

1:18 seen God. Compare Gen. 32:30; Ex. 24:10; 33:18; Jud. 6:22; 13:22; Rev. 22:4. No man has ever seen God in His spiritual Being or Essence. But in His O.T. appearances (see Gen. 12:7, note), and especially in Jesus Christ incarnate, God has been seen by men (Jn. 14:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:1-2). declared. Literally led forth, expounded. Compare Jn. 14:9.

not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? ^aArt thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou ^bthat prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, ^cMake straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why ^dbaptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, ^enor Elias, neither ^fthat prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I ^gbaptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know ^hnot;

27 He it is, who coming after me is ⁱpreferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to ^junloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth

Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the ^kLamb of God, which taketh away the ^lsin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is ^mpreferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he ⁿshould be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come ^obaptizing with water.

32 And John bare ^precord, saying, I saw the ^qSpirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it ^rabode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to ^sbaptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the ^tSpirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy ^uGhost.

34 And I saw, and bare ^vrecord that this is the ^wSon of God.

GRACE, SUMMARY

(1) Grace is "the kindness and the love of God our Savior toward man . . . not by works of righteousness which we have done . . . being justified by his grace" (Titus 3:4,5,7). As a principle, therefore, grace is set in contrast with law (Rom. 11:6), under which God demands righteousness from men, as, under grace, He gives righteousness to men (Rom. 3:21-24; 8:3-4; Gal. 2:16; Phil. 3:9). Law is connected with Moses and works; grace, with Christ and faith (Jn. 1:17; Rom. 10:4-10). Under law, blessings accompany obedience (Dt. 28:1-6); grace bestows blessings as a free gift (Rom. 4:3-5; Eph. 2:8).

(2) In its fullness, grace began with the ministry of Christ involving His death and resurrection, for He came to die for sinners (Jn. 1:17; Mt. 11:28-30; 16:21; 20:28; Rom. 3:24-26; 4:24-25). Under the former dispensation, law was shown to be powerless to secure righteousness and life for a sinful race (Gal. 3:21-22). Prior to the cross salvation was through faith (Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:3), being grounded on Christ's atoning sacrifice, anticipated by God (Rom. 3:25; see Gen. 1:28, note, on page 4, par. 4); now it is clearly revealed that salvation and righteousness are received by faith in the crucified and resurrected Saviour (Jn. 1:12-13; 5:24; 1 Jn. 5:11-13), with holiness of life and good works following as the fruit of salvation (Jn. 15:16; Rom. 8:2-4; Eph. 2:8-10; Titus 2:11-14).

(3) There was grace before Christ came, as witnessed by the provision of sacrifice for sinners (Ex. 20:24-26; Lev. 5:17-18; 17:11). The difference between the former age and the present age, therefore, is not a matter of no grace and some grace, but rather that today grace reigns (Rom. 5:21), in the sense that the only Being who has a right to judge sinners (Jn. 5:22) is now seated on a throne of grace (Heb. 4:14-16), not imputing to the world their trespasses (2 Cor. 5:19).

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the ^aLamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they ^bfollowed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What ^cseek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he ^ddwelt, and ^eabode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was ^fAndrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

43 The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and ^gfindeth ^hPhilip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the ⁱlaw, and the prophets, did ^jwrite, Jesus of Nazareth, the ^kson of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of ^lNazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no ^mguile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him,

Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, ⁿthou art the ^oSon of God; thou art the ^pKing of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, ⁿbelievest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the ^rangels of God ascending and descending upon the ^sSon of man.

The first miracle: at Cana

2 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the ^tmother of Jesus was there:

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they ^vwanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the ^wpurifying of the Jews, containing two or three ^xfirkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was ^ymade wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This ^abeginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his ^bglory; and his disciples ^cbelieved on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to ^dCapernaum, he, and his ^emother, and his ^bbrethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

The first Passover (cp. Jn. 6:4; 11:55). First purification of temple (cp. later purification, Mt. 21:12-13; Mk. 11:15-17; Lk. 19:45-46)

13 ¶ And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 And ^gfound in the ^htemple those that sold ⁱoxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he ⁱdrove them all ^kout of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was ^lwritten, The ^mzeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What ⁿsign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou ^prear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the ^qtemple of his body.

22 When therefore he was ^rrisen from the dead, his disciples ^sremembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast ^tday, many ^cbelieved in his name, when they saw the ^umiracles which he ^udid.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he ^vknew all ^umen, 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

REGENERATION

(1) The necessity of the new birth grows out of the incapacity of the natural man to "see" or "enter into" the kingdom of God. However gifted, moral, or refined he may be, the natural man is absolutely blind to spiritual truth and impotent to enter the kingdom; for he can neither obey, understand, nor please God (vv. 3,5-6; compare Ps. 51:5; Jer. 17:9; Mk. 7:21-23; 1 Cor. 2:14; Rom. 8:7-8; Eph. 2:3. See Mt. 6:33, note).

(2) The new birth is not a reformation of the old nature (Rom. 6:6, note), but a creative act of the Holy Spirit (Jn. 3:5; compare 1:12-13; 2 Cor. 5:17; Eph. 2:10; 4:24).

(3) The condition of the new birth is faith in Christ crucified (Jn. 3:14,15; compare 1:12-13; Gal. 3:24).

(4) Through the new birth the believer becomes a member of the family of God (Gal. 3:26; 1 Pet. 1:23) and a partaker of the divine nature, the life of Christ Himself (Gal. 2:20; Eph. 2:10; 4:24; Col. 1:27; 2 Pet. 1:4; 1 Jn. 5:10-12). And

(5) in view of Ezek. 36:24-26, Nicodemus should have known about the new birth. Observe the correspondence between the "clean water," the "new spirit," and the "new heart" of the Ezekiel passage and the "water," "Spirit," and new birth ("born again") of Jn. 3:3,7.

Last testimony of John the Baptist

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and ^{dd}baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they ^{ee}came, and were ^{dd}baptized.

24 For John was not yet cast into ^{ff}prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest ^{gg}witness, behold, the same ^{dd}baptizeth, and all men ^{hh}come to him.

3:16,17,19 world. Greek kosmos. See Mt. 4:8, note.

3:16 believeth. In the N.T. belief denotes more than intellectual assent to a fact. The word (Greek pistis, noun; pisteuō, verb) means adherence to, committal to, faith in, reliance upon, trust in a person or an object, and this involves not only the consent of the mind, but an act of the heart and will of the subject. "Whosoever believeth in him" is equivalent to "whosoever trusts in or commits himself to him [Christ]." Belief, then, is synonymous with faith, which in the N.T. consists of believing and receiving what God has revealed. See Faith, Heb. 11:39, note. perish. Greek apollumi, translated "marred," Mk. 2:22; "lost," Mt. 10:6; 15:24; Lk. 15:4, 6,32. In no N.T. instance does it signify cessation of conscious existence or of consciousness. Instead, it indicates here that state of conscious suffering which continues eternally and is the inevitable result of sin. See 1 Cor. 5:5, note.

3:17 condemn. Or judge.

3:18 condemned. Or judged.

3:19 condemnation. Or judgment.

27 John answered and said, A man can ^areceive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I ^bsaid, I am not the Christ, but that I am ^csent before him.

29 He that hath the ^dbride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 ^eHe must increase, but I must decrease.

The Apostle John's declaration

31 He that ^fcometh from ^gabove is ^habove all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he ⁱtestifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.

34 For ^jhe whom God hath ^ksent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the ^lSpirit by measure unto him.

35 The Father ^mloveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 He that ⁿbelieveth on the Son hath everlasting ^olife: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the ^pwrath of God abideth on him.

2 (Though Jesus himself ^rbaptized ^snot, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judæa, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

Jesus and the Samaritan woman

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the ^tparcel of ground that ^uJacob ^vgave to his son Joseph.

6 Now ^wJacob's ^xwell was there. Jesus therefore, being ^ywearied with ^zhis journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy ^{aa}meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no ^{ab}dealings with the ^{ac}Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the ^{ad}gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee ^{ae}living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that ^{af}living water?

12 Art thou ^{ag}greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his ^{ah}children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

3:36 hath everlasting life. Everlasting life is not only a future hope but the present possession of everyone who believes on Christ.

Joseph: he shall add. Favorite son of Jacob who was hated by his brothers and sold into slavery in Egypt. God rewarded Joseph for his obedience by making him a great ruler in Egypt thus enabling him to save his family from starvation during a great famine.

Samaria: guard. A province (and a city) in central Palestine, north of Judea and south of Galilee. The people from this area were despised by the Jews.

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the ^awater that I shall give him shall be in him a well of ^bwater ^cspringing up into everlasting ^dlife.

15 The woman ^esaith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a ^fprophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this ^gmountain; and ye say, that in ^hJerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for ⁱsalvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall ^jworship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 ^kGod is a Spirit: and they that worship him must ^lworship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that ^mMessias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, ⁿI that speak unto thee am ^ohe.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and ^p marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples ^qprayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have ^rmeat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ^sought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My ^tmeat is to do the ^uwill of him that sent me, and to ^vfinish his work.

Jesus and the Samaritans

39 ¶ And many of the ^dSamaritans of that city ^ebelieved on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the ^fSamaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more ^ebelieved because of his own ^gword;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we ^ebelieve, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the ^hSaviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Jesus himself testified, ⁱthat a ^jprophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, having ^kseen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

Jesus heals a nobleman's son

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he ^lmade the water wine. ^mAnd there was a certain ⁿnobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Ex-

49 The nobleman ^psaith unto him, Sir, come down ^qere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, ^rGo thy way; thy son liveth. And the man ^ebelieved the ^sword that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, ^tThy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to ^uamend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever ^vleft him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, ^wThy son liveth: and himself ^ebelieved, and his whole house.

54 This is again the ^xsecond miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judæa into Galilee.

Another feast of the Jews: healing of the impotent man at pool of Bethesda

5 After this there was a ^yfeast of the Jews; and Jesus ^zwent up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep ^{aa}market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, ^{bb}halt, ^{cc}withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an ^{dd}angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made ^{ee}whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an ^{ff}infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him ^{gg}lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, ggWilt thou be made ^{dd}whole?

5:3 waiting for the moving of the water. The oldest and best manuscripts omit this phrase and all of verse 4.

7 The ^aimpotent man answered him, Sir, ^bI have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, ^cRise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was ^dmade ^ewhole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the ^fsabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the ^fsabbath day: it is not ^glawful for thee to carry ^hthy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me ^ewhole, the same said unto me, ^hTake up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was ⁱhealed ^jwist not who it was: for Jesus had ^kconveyed himself away, a multitude being in ^lthat place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made ^ewhole: ^msin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him ^ewhole.

16 And therefore did the Jews ⁿpersecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the ^fsabbath day.

Jesus claims equality with the Father

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I ^owork.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to ^pkill him, because he not only had broken the ^fsabbath, but said also that ^qGod was his Father, ^rmaking himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, ^sVerily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son ^tlikewise.

20 For the Father ^uloveth the Son, and ^vsheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father ^wraiseth up the dead, and ^xquickeneth them; even so the Son ^yquickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed ^zall ^{aa}judgment unto the Son:

23 That all ^{bb}men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 ^{cc}Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and ^{dd}believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting ^{ee}life, and shall ^{ff}not come ^{gg}into ^{hh}condemnation; but is passed from ⁱⁱdeath unto life.

The two resurrections

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear ^{jj}shall ^{kk}live.

26 For ^{ll}as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have ^{mm}life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute ⁿⁿjudgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall ^{oo}hear his voice,

29 ^{pp}And shall ^{qq}come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of ^{rr}life; and they that have done evil, ^{ss}unto the ^{tt}resurrection ^{uu}of damnation.

5:18 his Father. Literally, "his own Father" (Greek pater idion). It is clear that the Jews understood that Jesus was claiming to be God. Compare 10:33.

5:19 nothing of himself. Some have mistakenly said that Jesus was here disclaiming equality with the Father. On the contrary, the whole context argues the opposite (vv. 18 where see note, 23,26). Our Lord is simply saying that He and the Father work together (compare v. 17). do. Literally doing.

5:25,28 hour. Since this "hour" of spiritual regeneration has already lasted for over twenty centuries, it is also possible for the future "hour" of physical resurrection (vv. 28-29) to extend over a thousand years—the righteous to be raised at the beginning; the wicked, at the end. See Rev. 20.

Confirmatory witnesses to Jesus

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

(1) Witness of John the Baptist

33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

(2) Witness of Jesus' works

36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

(3) Witness of the Father

(cp. Mt. 3:17)

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

(4) Witness of Scripture

(cp. Lk. 24:27,44)

39 ¶ Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had ^fgiven thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were ^gset down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, ^hthat nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the ⁱmiracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth ^jthat prophet that should come into the world.

Jesus walks on the water
(Mt. 14:22-32; Mk. 6:45-52)

15 ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a ^kking, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 ^lAnd when ^meven was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ⁿship, and went over the sea toward Caper-naum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a ^ogreat wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty ^pfurlongs, they see Jesus ⁱwalking on the ^qsea, and drawing ^rnigh unto the ⁿship: and they were ^safraid.

20 But he saith unto them, 'It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ⁿship: and immediately the ⁿship was at the land whither they went.

Jesus, the bread of life

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, ^usave that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (^vHowbeit there came other boats from Tiberias ^rnigh unto the ^wplace where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took ^xshipping, and came to Capernaum, ^yseeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, ^zVerily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did ^{aa}eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 ^{bb}Labour not for the ^{cc}meat which perisheth, but for that ^{cc}meat which ^{dd}endureth unto everlasting ^{ee}life, which the ^{ff}Son of man shall ^{gg}give unto you: for him hath God the Father ^{hh}sealed.

28 Then said they unto him,

What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

Jesus, sent from heaven

30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

^acometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 ^bI ^cam the living bread which ^acame down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall ^dlive ^efor ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will ^fgive for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, ^gVerily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 ^hWhoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal ⁱlife; and I will raise him up at the last ^jday.

55 For my flesh is ^kmeat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 ^lHe that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall ^mlive by me.

58 This is that ⁿbread which ^acame down from heaven: not ^oas your fathers did eat ^pmanna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall ^dlive for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

Discipleship tested by doctrine

(cp. Mt. 8:19-22; 10:36)

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; ^owho can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the ^pSon of man ^qascend up where he was before?

63 It is the ^rspirit that ^squickeneth; the ^tflesh profiteth nothing: the ^uwords that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are ^dlife.

64 But there are some of you that believe ^vnot. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should ^wbetray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were ^xgiven unto him of my Father.

Peter confesses his faith

(cp. Mt. 16:13-20; Mk. 8:27-30;

Lk. 9:18-21)

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went ^yback, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal ^zlife.

69 And we ^{aa}believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of ^{bb}Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should ^{cc}betray him, being one of the twelve.

Christ's unbelieving brethren press Him to go to Jerusalem

7 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in ^{dd}Jewry, because the Jews sought to ^{dd}kill him.

2 Now the Jews' ^{ee}feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

Galilee: A province in northern Palestine. Jesus grew up here, selected His disciples from this area and conducted most of His ministry in this region.

5 For ^aneither did his ^bbrethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My ^ctime is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

7 The world cannot ^dhate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this ^efeast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my ^etime is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

Jesus at the Feast of Tabernacles

10 ¶ But when his ^fbrethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the ^gfeast, not openly, but as it were in ^hsecret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 ⁱAnd there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for ^jfear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the ^kfeast Jesus went up into the temple, and ^ltaught.

15 And the Jews ^mmarvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but ⁿhis that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, ^owhether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that ^pseeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and ^qno unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did not Moses give you the ^rlaw, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a ^sdevil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moses therefore gave unto you ^tcircumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but ^uof the fathers;) and ye on the ^usabbath day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the ^vlaw of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man ^vevery whit whole on the ^usabbath day?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge ^wrighteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to ^xkill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. ^yDo the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 ^zHowbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

31 And many of the people ^cbelieved on him, and said, When Christ ^acometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The ^dPharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the ^hdispersed among the ⁱGentiles, and teach the ⁱGentiles?

37 In the ^klast day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy ^oGhost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet ^pglorified.)

Divided opinion about Jesus

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, ^csaid, Of a truth this ^cis the Prophet.

41 Others ^csaid, This is ^rthe Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Hath not the scripture ^ssaid, That Christ ^acometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and ^dPharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, ^tNever man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the ^dPharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 ^uHave any of the rulers or of the ^dPharisees believed on him?

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (^whe that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 Doth our ^vlaw judge any man, before it ^xhear him, and know what he doeth?

7:53 Although Jn. 7:53—8:11 is not found in some ancient manuscripts, the immediate context, beginning with Christ's declaration, "I am the light of the world" (8:12) seems clearly to have its occasion in the conviction created in the hearts of the Pharisees as recorded in 8:9, and also helps to explain the Pharisees' words in 8:41. It is therefore to be considered a genuine part of the Gospel.

Mount of Olives: The summit of the range of hills east of Jerusalem which was once covered with olive trees. A central location to the events of Christ's ministry.

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the ^alaw commanded us, that such should be ^bstoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, ^ctempting him, that they ^dmight have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without ^esin among you, /let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left ^galone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine ^haccusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I ⁱcondemn thee: go, and ^esin no more.

The central conflict between Jesus and the Pharisees: the origin of Christ. He is the light of the world (cp. Jn. 1:9)

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, /I am the light of the world: he that ^kfolloweth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of ^llife.

13 The ^mPharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest ⁿrecord of thyself; thy ⁿrecord is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear ⁿrecord of myself, yet my ⁿrecord is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the ^oflesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also ^pwritten in your ^alaw, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the ^qFather that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: ^rif ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his ^shour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall ^tdie in your ^esins: whither I go, ye ^ucannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he ^vkill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; ^wI am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall ^xdie in your ^esins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall ^ydie in your ^esins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I ^zsaid unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have ^{aa}lifted up the ^zSon of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I ^{aa}speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

8:37 Abraham's seed. All Jews are natural descendants of Abraham, but are not necessarily his spiritual posterity. Compare Rom. 9:6-8; Gal. 3:6-14.

8:44 father. That this satanic fatherhood cannot be limited to the Pharisees is made clear in 1 Jn. 3:8-10. a lie. Literally the lie. Gen. 3:4-5.

Abraham: of a great multitude. A man chosen by God to become the father of the great nation Israel. God promised Abraham that he would have descendants as numerous as the stars in the heavens. Abraham was revered throughout generations for his great faith.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, ^aVerily, verily, I say unto you, ^bBefore Abraham was, ^cI am.

Jesus heals a man born blind

Q And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man *sin*ned, nor his parents: but ^athat the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must ^bwork the works of him that sent me, while it is ^cday: the ^dnight cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, ^cI am the ^alight of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made ^cclay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He ^mwent his way therefore, and ⁿwashed, and came ^oseeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the ^pPharisees him that ^qaforetim was blind.

14 And it was the ^rsabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the ^pPharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the ^pPharisees, This man is ^snot of God, because he ^tkeepeth not the ^rsabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a ^udivision among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a ^vprophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His ^wparents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they ^xfeared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be ^yput out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we ^aknow that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God ^bspake unto ^cMoses: as for this fellow, we know not from ^dwhence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvelous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth ^enot ^fsinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the ^gworld began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do ^hnothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether ⁱborn in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they ^jcast him out.

Jesus affirms His Deity

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had ^kfound him, he said unto him, Dost thou ^lbelieve on the ^mSon of God?

36 He answered and said, ⁿWho is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him,

Thou hast both seen him, and it is ^ohe that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I ^pbelieve. And he ^qworshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, For ^rjudgment I am ^scome into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made ^tblind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, ^uAre we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, ^vIf ye were blind, ye should have no ^wsin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your ^xsin ^yremaineth.

Jesus as the good Shepherd (cp. Ps. 23; Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 5:4)

10 ^xVerily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other ^yway, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep ^zhear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by ^{aa}name, and ^{bb}leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a ^{cc}stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, ^xVerily, verily, I say unto you, ^{dd}I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

10:6 parable. Literally proverb, that is, a figure of speech. Jn. 16:25, 29; 2 Pet. 2:22.

10:7 I am the door of the sheep. The shepherd work of our Lord has three aspects:

(1) As the "good shepherd" He gives His life for the sheep (v. 11) and is, therefore, "the door" by which "if any man enter in, he shall be saved" (v. 9). This corresponds to Ps. 22.

(2) He is the "great shepherd," who was "brought again from the dead" (Heb. 13:20) to care for and make perfect the sheep. This corresponds to Ps. 23. And

(3) He is the "chief Shepherd" who is coming in glory to give crowns of reward to the faithful shepherds (1 Pet. 5:4). This corresponds to Ps. 24.

9 ^aI am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be ^bsaved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am ^ccome that they might have ^dlife, and that they might have ^eit more ^fabundantly.

11 ^aI am the good ^bshepherd: the good shepherd ^cgiveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and ^bleaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 ^aI am the good ^bshepherd, and ^cknow my ^dsheep, and ^e'am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I ^alay down my life ^bfor the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one ^bshepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father ^alove me, because I ^blay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to ^alay it down, and I have power to take it ^bagain. This ^ccommandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a ^adivision therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a ^adevil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a ^adevil. Can a ^bdevil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they ^abear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, ^abecause ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I ^aknow them, and they follow me:

28 And I ^agive unto them eternal ^blife; and they shall ^cnever perish, neither shall any ^dman pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Father, which gave ^athem me, is greater than all; and no ^bman is able to pluck ^athem out of my Father's hand.

30 I and ^amy Father ^bare one.

31 Then the Jews ^atook up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for ^ablasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not ^{bb}written in your law, I said, ^{cc}'Ye are gods?'

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God ^{bb}came, and the scripture ^{dd}cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath ^{ee}sanctified, and ^{ff}sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

Jesus withdraws from Jerusalem

40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first ^dbaptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John ^espake of this man were true.

42 And many ^fbelieved on him there.

Jesus raises Lazarus of Bethany from the dead

11 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of ^gMary and her sister ^hMartha.

2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is ⁱnot unto death, but ^jfor the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judæa again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to ^kstone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the ^llight of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the ^mnight, he stumbleth, because there is no ⁿlight in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus ^osleepeth; but I go, that I may ^pawake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them ^qplainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said ^rThomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was ^snigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen ^tfurlongs off:

19 And many of the ^uJews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary ^vsat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I ^wknow, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ^xask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall ^yrise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the ^zresurrection at the last ^{aa}day.

Bethany: A town located about two miles to the east of Jerusalem on the eastern slope of the Mount of Olives. Jesus' friends Mary, Martha and Lazarus lived here.

Lazarus: A dear friend of Jesus who lived in Bethany with his sisters, Mary and Martha. When Lazarus died, Jesus went to his tomb and raised him from the dead.

11:12 do well. Literally be saved or restored.

25 Jesus said unto her, ^aI ^bam the ^cresurrection, and the ^dlife: he that ^ebelieveth in me, though he were ^fdead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and ^ebelieveth in me shall ^gnever ^hdie. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I ⁱbelieve that ^jthou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should ^kcome into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard ^{that}, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she ^lfell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus ^mwept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he ⁿloved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the ^oblind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore ^pagain groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a ^qcave, and a ^rstone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the ^sstone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he ^tstinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest be- lieve, thou shouldest see the ^uglory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone ^{from the place} where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up ^{his eyes}, and ^vsaid, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou ^whearest me always: but because of the people which ^xstand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he ^ycried with a ^zloud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead ^zcame ^cforth, bound hand and foot with ^{aa}graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a ^{bb}napkin. Jesus saith unto them, ^{cc}Loose him, and let him go.

Many are converted (cp. Jn. 12:10-11): Pharisees conspire to kill Jesus

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, ⁱbelieved on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and ^{ad}told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the ^{ee}Pharisees a ^{ff}council, and said, ^{gg}What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, ^{hh}all ⁱⁱmen will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, ⁱⁱnamed ^{kk}Caia-^{ll}phas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that ^{ll}one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And ^{kk}not for that nation only, but that also he should ^{ll}gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

3 ^bThen took Mary a ^cpound of ointment of ^dspikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, ^eJudas Iscariot, Simon's ^fson, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred ^gpence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a ^hthief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my ⁱburying hath she kept this.

8 For the ^jpoor always ye have with you; but ^kme ye have not always.

9 ^kMuch people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had ^lraised from the dead.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is ^twritten, 15 ^uFear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood ^vnot his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

12:3 Mary. As Martha served the Lord, and Lazarus had communion with Him (v. 2), so Mary offered the worship of a grateful heart. 12:23 hour. The hour of human decision was now past, as far as the establishment of the kingdom was concerned (Lk. 19:41-44). The King had been rejected by His own nation and, therefore, the predicted temporal blessings of that kingdom for both Jews and Gentiles (Isa. 60:1-4; 62:1-4) had to be deferred until the King's return in glory (Acts 15:16-17). But now a greater hour has arrived—the hour of the King's glorification through death and resurrection (Jn. 12:23-24,28); this hour, set by the determined purpose and foreknowledge of God, will bring eternal life to all who believe, whether Jews or Gentiles (8:24,32).

12:24 Chapters 12-17 are a progression according to the order of approach to God in the tabernacle types. Chapter 12, in which Christ speaks of His death, corre-

Except a ^acorn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it ^bdie, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 ^cHe that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto ^dlife eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him ^efollow me; and ^fwhere I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father ^ghonor.

27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I ^hsay? ⁱFather, save me from this hour: ^jbut for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a ^kvoice from heaven, ^lsaying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An ^mangel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, ⁿThis voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the ^oprince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be ^plifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 This he said, signifying what ^qdeath he should die.

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that ^rChrist abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, ^sYet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for ^the that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the ^uchildren of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many ^vmiracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he ^wspake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias ^xsaid again,

40 He hath ^yblinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; ^zthat they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, ^{aa}when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many ^{ab}believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 ^{ac}For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, ^{ad}believeth not on me, but on ^{ae}him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me ^{af}seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come a ^{ag}light into the world, that whosoever ^{ah}believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him

The next step between the altar and the most holy place is the laver (Ex. 30:17-21), corresponding to ch. 13, where Christ washes the disciples' feet. In chs. 14-16, with His now purified believer-priests (1 Pet. 2:5), the High Priest enters into and shares the blessed fellowship of the holy place.

In ch. 17, the High Priest enters alone into the most holy place to intercede for His own blood-purchased people (Heb. 7:24-28). That intercession is not for the salvation but the keeping and blessing of those for whom He prays. His death (assumed as accomplished, 17:4) has saved them.

IV. The Private Ministry of the Son of God, 13–17

Jn. 13–14 were spoken in the upper room (cp. Mk. 14:14-16)

13 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his ^ghour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he ^hloved them unto the end.

The last Passover: Jesus washes disciples' feet (Mt. 26:20-24; Mk. 14:17; Lk. 22:14,21-23)

2 And supper being ended, the ⁱdevil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's ^json, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had ^kgiven all things into his hands, and that he was ^lcome from God, and ^mwent to God;

4 He riseth from supper, and ⁿlaid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth ^owater into a bason, and ^pbegan to ^qwash the disciples' feet, and to wipe ^rthem with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, ^sdost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou ^tknowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast ^uno part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also ^vmy hands and ^wmy head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not ^xsave to wash his feet, but is ^yclean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he ^zknew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had ^{aa}washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was ^{ab}set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me ^{ac}Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then, ^{ad}your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ^{ae}ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For I have given you an ^{af}example, that ye should ^{ag}do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you,

13:10 THE IMAGERY OF BATHED AND WASH

The words "washed" and "wash" in this verse are translated from two different Greek words. "Washed" should be rendered "bathed;" it is from the Greek louō and denotes complete ablution. "Wash" is from the Greek nip-tō, which is the usual N.T. word for washing the hands or feet (e.g. Mt. 15:2; Jn. 9:15; 1 Tim. 5:10).

The underlying imagery is of an oriental returning from the public baths to his house. His feet would acquire defilement and require cleansing, but not his body. So the believer is cleansed as before the law from all sin "once for all" (Heb. 10:1–12), but needs throughout his earthly life to bring his daily sins to the Father in confession, so that he may abide in unbroken fellowship with the Father and with the Son (1 Jn. 1:1–10). The blood of Christ answers forever to all the law could say as to the believer's guilt, but he needs constant cleansing from the defilement of sin. See Eph. 5:25–27; 1 Jn. 5:6. Typically, the order of approach to the presence of God was, first, the brazen/bronze altar of sacrifice; then, the laver of cleansing (Ex. 40:6–7). See, also, the order in Ex. 30:17–21. Christ will not have communion with a defiled saint, but He can and will cleanse him.

Jesus predicts His betrayal
(Mt. 26:21-25; Mk. 14:18-21;
Lk. 22:21-23)

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, ^gVerily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall ^hbetray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, ⁱwhom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to ^kJudas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop ^lSatan ^mentered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the ⁿbag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was ^onight.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the ^pSon of man glorified, and God is ^qglorified in him.

32 If God be ^rglorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a ^slittle while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and ^tas I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye ^ulove ^vone another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have ^wlove ^xone to another.

Jesus foretells Peter's denial
(Mt. 26:30-35; Mk. 14:26-31;
Lk. 22:31-34)

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I ^ygo, thou canst not follow me now; ^zbut thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will ^{aa}lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? ^{bb}Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not ^{cc}crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

14:16 Comforter. Greek paraklētos meaning one called alongside to help; thus, a helper, a consoler. It is translated "advocate" in 1 Jn. 2:1, "an advocate with the Father." Christ is the Christian's Paraclete with the Father when the Christian sins; the Holy Spirit is the Christian's indwelling Paraclete to help his ignorance and infirmity, and to make intercession (Rom. 8:26-27). See Holy Spirit, Acts 2:4, note. Furthermore, Christ also intercedes as well as advocates (Rom. 8:34; Heb. 7:25).

14:17,19,22 world. Greek kosmos. See Rev. 13:8, note.

14:18 comfortless. Literally orphans.

14:20 ye in me. The new relationship described in the words "ye in me, and I in you" introduces the N.T. mystery of the body of Christ. The position of the Church in Christ, as composed of members of His body (compare Eph. 3:1-7), and the truth of Christ as indwelling the believer (compare Col. 1:24-27) are central features in the Pauline doctrine of the Church, and are here revealed to the disciples for the first time by Christ. The living union of the members of the body is explained by Christ in the figure of the vine and the branches (Jn. 15:1-11).

14:21 keepeth them. Observe that the Lord correlates love for Him with obedience to Him. To love Christ means to care enough about Him to keep His commandments (vv. 23-24). But we cannot keep His commandments unless we search the Scriptures to find out what they are.

- 26 But the ^aComforter, which is the ^bHoly ^cGhost, whom the Father will ^dsend in my name, he shall ^eteach you all things, and bring all things to your ^fremembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.
- Christ's bequest of peace*
- 27 ^gPeace I leave with you, ^hmy peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be ⁱtroubled, neither let it be afraid.
- 28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and ^jcome again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I ^kgo unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.
- 29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might ^lbelieve.
- 30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the ^mprince of this world cometh, and hath ⁿnothing in me.
- 31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me ^ocommandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.
- The Vine and the branches*
- 15 ^pI am the true ^qvine, and my Father is the ^rhusbandman.
- 2 Every branch in me that beareth ^snot fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth ^tmore fruit.
- 3 Now ye are ^uclean through the word which I have spoken unto you.
- 4 ^vAbide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.
- 5 ^wI am the vine, ye ^xare the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much ^yfruit: for without me ye can do ^znothing.
- 6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast ^{aa}them into the fire, and they are burned.
- 7 If ye abide in me, and my words ^{bb}abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be ^{cc}done unto you.
- 8 Herein is my Father ^{dd}glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.
- 9 As the Father hath ^{ee}loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.
- 10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.
- 11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and ^{ff}that your joy might be full.
- 12 ^{gg}This is my ^{hh}commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

15:1 true vine. Christ is the "true vine"—"true" in contrast with Israel. See Isa. 5:1-7.

15:2 purgeth. Three conditions of a fruitful life are shown here:

(1) cleansing, vv. 2-3; compare Jn. 13:10, note;

(2) abiding, v. 4, note; and

(3) obedience, vv. 10,12. (See Law of Christ, Gal. 6:2; 2 Jn. 5, note).

15:4 Abide. To abide in Christ is, on the one hand, to have no known sin unjudged and unconfessed, no interest into which He is not brought, no life which He cannot share. On the other hand, the "abiding" one takes all burdens to Him, and draws all wisdom, life, and strength from Him. It is not unceasing consciousness of these things, and of Him, but that nothing is allowed in the life which separates from Him. See Fellowship, 1 Jn. 1:3-7; Communion, 1 Cor. 10:16.

15:8 much fruit. There are four degrees in fruit-bearing:

(1) no fruit ("beareth not fruit," v. 2);

(2) "fruit" (v. 2);

(3) "more fruit" (v. 2); and

(4) "much fruit" (vv. 5,8).

As we bear "much fruit," the Father is glorified in us. The fruit may be converts (Rom. 1:13); Christian character—the fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22-23); and conduct—the fruits of righteousness (Rom. 6:21-22; Phil. 1:11). The moralities and graces of Christianity, which are the fruit of the Spirit, are often imitated but never duplicated.

than this, that a man ^alay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I ^bcommand you.

New intimacy

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made ^cknown unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have ^dchosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father ^ein my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye ^flove one another.

The world's attitude toward believers in Christ

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it ^ghated me before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have ^hchosen you ⁱout of the world, therefore the world ^jhateth you.

20 Remember the word that I ^ksaid unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had ^lsin: but now they have no ^mcloke for their sin.

23 ⁿHe that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had ^osin: but now have they both ^pseen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is ^qwritten in their law, ^rThey hated me without a cause.

26 But when the ^sComforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the ^tSpirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

27 And ye also shall bear ^uwitness, because ye have been with me from the ^vbeginning.

Jesus warns of persecution (cp. Mt. 24:9-10; Lk. 21:16-19)

16 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall ^wput you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will ^xthink that he doeth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have ^ynot known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the ^zbeginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I ^{aa}go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, ^{bb}sorrow hath filled your heart.

Threefold work of the Spirit toward the world

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, ^{cc}the ^{dd}Comforter will not come unto you; but if I ^{ee}depart, I will ^{ff}send him unto you.

8 And when he is ^{gg}come, he will reprove the world of ^{hh}sin, ⁱⁱand of ^{jj}righteousness, and of judgment:

16:12

CHRIST'S PREAUTHENTICATION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES

(1) He expressly declared that He was leaving "many things" unrevealed (v. 12).

(2) He promised that this revelation would be completed after the Spirit came (v. 13, literally, "guide you into all truth").

(3) He outlined in advance exactly the elements of N.T. revelation: (a) historical—"bring all things to your remembrance" (14:26); (b) doctrinal—interpretation of the historical facts, "teach you all things" (14:26; 16:14); and (c) prophetic—"shew you things to come" (16:13).

(4) He chose certain persons to receive and witness to the revelations (Mt. 28:19; Jn. 15:27; 16:13; Acts 1:8; 9:15-17).

(5) He gave to their words, when speaking for Him in the Spirit, precisely the same authority as His own words (Mt. 10:14-15; Lk. 10:16; Jn. 13:20; 15:20; 17:20; see e.g. 1 Cor. 14:37 for Paul's consciousness of this authority).

(6) That Christ expected this new revelation would be recorded is evident from such passages as Jn. 17:20 and Acts 1:8, for only thus could the accurate witness of the chosen writers reach all nations after they had passed away. And

(7) that some of the new revelation was recorded by men outside the original apostolic group (e.g. Mark and Luke) is explained by the fact that there were "prophets" in the early Church who, like Paul, were chosen by the ascended Christ (Eph. 4:11), and who not only received new revelation (Eph. 3:4-5) but also recorded it in "scriptures" (Rom. 16:25-26). See 2 Tim. 3:16, note.

the Father ^ain my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ^bask, and ye shall receive, that your ^cjoy may be ^dfull.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you ^eplainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself ^floveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I ^gcame out from God.

28 I ^hcame forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou ^eplainly, and speakest no ^hproverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou ⁱknowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou ^gcamest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be ^lscattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have ^kpeace. In the world ye shall have

17 These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and ^msaid, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal ⁿlife to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is ⁿlife eternal, that they might ^oknow thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have ^pfinished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which ^qI had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me ^r'out of the world: ^sthine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

17:1 This chapter constitutes the Lord's own prayer to His Father. Compare the prayer that He taught to His disciples, known as The Lord's Prayer (Mt. 6:9-13; Lk. 11:2-4. See also notes). Here in ch. 17 the reader may look deeply into the heart of the Son of God. The petitions are personal and intercessory, Christ's high priestly prayer. See also next note and Jn. 17:2, notes.

Observe the seven petitions in this prayer:

(1) that Jesus may be glorified as the Son who has glorified the Father (v. 1; compare Phil. 2:9-11);

(2) for restoration to the eternal glory (v. 5);

(3) for the safety of believers from (a) the world (v. 11) and (b) the evil one (v. 15);

(4) for the sanctification of believers (v. 17);

(5) for the spiritual unity of believers (vv. 21-23);

(6) that the world may believe (v. 21); and

(7) that believers may be with Him in heaven to behold and share His glory (v. 24).

In vv. 1-5 the Lord prays for Himself; in vv. 6-19 He prays for His disciples; and in vv. 20-26 He prays for all Christians throughout the whole age.

17:2 power. Or authority. give eternal life. Christ's gifts to those whom the Father gave Him are: eternal life (v. 2); the Father's name (vv. 6,26; compare 20:17); the Father's words (vv. 8,14); His own joy (v. 13); and His own glory (v. 22). given him. Seven times Jesus speaks of Christians as given to Him by the Father (vv. 2,6 [twice], 9,11,12,24). Jesus Christ is God's love gift to the world (3:16), and believers are the Father's love gift to Jesus Christ. It is Christ who commits the Christian to the Father for safekeeping, so that the believer's security rests upon the Father's faithfulness to His Son Jesus Christ.

the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I ^acome to thee. Holy Father, ^bkeep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and ^cnone of them is ^dlost, but the son of perdition; that the ^escripture might be ^ffulfilled.

13 And now ^acome I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy ^eword; and the world hath ^hhated them, because they are ^hnot of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, ⁱbut that thou shouldst ^bkeep them from ^jthe evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am ^hnot of the world.

17 ^kSanctify them through thy truth: ^lthy ^eword is truth.

18 As thou hast ^msent me into the world, even so have I also ⁿsent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I ^ksanctify myself, that they also might be ^osanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall ^pbelieve on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; ^qas thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that ^rthou hast ^msent me.

22 And the ^sglory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made ^tperfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast ^msent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I ^bwill that they also, whom thou hast given me, be ^uwith me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy ^vname, and will declare it: that the ^wlove wherewith thou hast loved me may be ^xin them, and I in them.

Jesus' betrayal and arrest

(Mt. 26:47–56; Mk. 14:43–50; Lk. 22:47–54)

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times ^zresorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and ^{aa}Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, ^{bb}knowing all things that should come upon him, ^{cc}went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, ^{dd}Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which ^{ee}betrayed him, ^{ff}stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and ^{gg}fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again,

Peter smites Malchus

10 Then Simon Peter having a ^bsword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and ^ccut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the ^dcup which my Father hath given me, ^eshall I not drink it?

Jesus brought before high priest (through v. 27; Mt. 26:57-68; Mk. 14:53-65; Lk. 22:63-71)

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And led him away to ^fAnnas first; for he was father in law to ^gCaiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, ^hthat it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

(Interlude: Peter's three denials; see also vv. 25-27; Mt. 26:69-75; Mk. 14:66-72; Lk. 22:54-62)

15 ¶ And Simon Peter ⁱfollowed Jesus, and so did ^janother disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the ^kpalace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door ^lwithout. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the ^mdamsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am ⁿnot.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a ^ofire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake ^popenly to the world; I ever taught ^qin the synagogue, and ^rin the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask ^sthem which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by ^tstruck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if ^uwell, why smitest thou me?

24 Now ^vAnnas had sent him bound unto ^wCaiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am ^xnot.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

29 ^bPilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your ^claw. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he ^dspake, ^esignifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the ^fKing of the Jews?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus ^ganswered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

Pontius Pilate: armed with a javelin. The governor of Judea during Christ's ministry, suffering and death. He allowed Jesus to be crucified.

18:36 This verse has erroneously been taken to mean that Christ was disavowing that His kingdom would be established on earth. Apart from the incompatibility of such a view with the entire testimony of Scripture (compare Lk. 1:33; Rev. 11:15), it conflicts with the remainder of the verse. Earthly kingdoms are inaugurated, carried on, and brought to an end by human force, but His kingdom would be ushered in and maintained by His personal appearance and omnipotence. of this. Greek ek, out of; or according to. world. Greek kosmos. See Rev. 13:8, note.

have a law, and by our ^alaw he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, ^bhe was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him ^cno answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to release thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, ^dThou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were ^egiven thee from above: therefore ^fhe that delivered me unto thee hath the greater ^gsin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against ^hCæsar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your ⁱKing!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your ^jKing? The chief priests answered, We have no ^kking but Cæsar.

Jesus is crucified (Mt. 27:31-50; Mk. 15:19-37; Lk. 23:26-46)

16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be ^lcrucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross ^mwent forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew ⁿGolgotha:

18 Where they ^ocrucified him, and ^ptwo other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the ^qmidst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE ^rKING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was ^snigh to the city: and it was written in ^tHebrew, and ^uGreek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top through-out.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not ^vrend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the ^wscripture might be fulfilled, which ^xsaith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there ^ystood by the cross of Jesus his ^zmother, and his mother's sister, ^{aa}Mary the wife of Cleophas, and ^{ab}Mary Magdalene.

Caesar: The name of the Roman emperor.

19:14 sixth hour. 6 A.M. John uses Roman time with the hours starting at 12 midnight and 12 noon, as is done today. However, the Synoptics use Hebrew reckoning, beginning with sunrise (that is, 6 A.M.; 7 A.M. being the first hour, etc.). This is apparent from the care with which the Gospels specify particular hours in relation to the crucifixion. Our Lord was put on the cross at 9 A.M. ("third hour" Mk. 15:25); darkness was over the land from noon until 3 P.M. ("sixth" till "ninth hour," Mt. 27:45-46; Mk. 15:33-34; Lk. 23:44). Thus here the "sixth hour" could not be Hebrew time (noon), but rather 6 A.M., "when the morning was come" (Mt. 27:1-2). Acts uses Hebrew time.

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now ^daccomplished, ^ethat the ^fscripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of ^gvinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

(Mt. 27:51-56; Mk. 15:38-41;
Lk. 23:45,47-49)

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the ^jpreparation, that the bodies should ^knot remain upon the cross on the ^lsabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an ^mhigh day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and ⁿthat they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified ^owith him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was ^pdead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear ^qpierced his side, and ^rforthwith came there out ^sblood and water.

38 ¶ And after this Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for ^{ab}fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also ^{ac}Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of ^{ad}myrrh and aloes, about an hundred ^{ae}pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in ^{af}linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was ^{ag}crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was ^{ah}never man yet laid.

CHRIST'S APPEARANCES AFTER THE RESURRECTION

During the forty days between His resurrection and ascension, the Lord Jesus is recorded to have appeared to His own followers on ten occasions, the first five of these being on the day of resurrection.

The order of the appearances seems to be:

- (1) to Mary Magdalene (Mk. 16:9-11; Jn. 20:11-18);
- (2) to the women returning from the tomb with the angelic message (Mt. 28:8-10);
- (3) to Peter, probably in the afternoon (Lk. 24:34; 1 Cor. 15:5);
- (4) to the Emmaus disciples toward evening (Mk. 16:12; Lk. 24:13-32);
- (5) to the disciples, Thomas being absent (Mk. 16:14; Lk. 24:36-43; Jn. 20:19-25);
- (6) on the next Sunday night, the appearance to the disciples, Thomas being present (Jn. 20:26-31; 1 Cor. 15:5);
- (7) to the seven beside the Sea of Galilee (Jn. 21);
- (8) to the apostles and "above five hundred brethren" (Mt. 28:16-20; Mk. 16:15-18; 1 Cor. 15:6);
- (9) to James, the Lord's half-brother (1 Cor. 15:7); and
- (10) His last recorded appearance and His ascension from Olivet (Mk. 16:19-20; Lk. 24:44-53; Acts 1:3-12).

It is also recorded that, after His ascension, Christ appeared one or more times to three men:

(1) to Stephen, at his stoning (Acts 7:55-60);

(2) to Paul:

- (a) at his conversion (Acts 9:3-8,17; 22:6-11,14-15; 26:12-19; 1 Cor. 9:1; 15:8);
- (b) at Corinth (Acts 18:9-10);
- (c) in the temple at Jerusalem (Acts 22:17-21);
- (d) later at Jerusalem (Acts 23:11); and
- (e) in another vision (2 Cor. 12:1-4); and

(3) to John, the apostle, on Patmos (Rev. 1:10-19, and other visions in Revelation).

to my Father: but go to my ^abrethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto ^bmy Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

18 ^cMary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

*Jesus appears to the disciples,
Thomas being absent
(Mk. 16:14; Lk. 24:33-49)*

19 ¶ Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for ^dfear of the Jews, ^ecame Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, ^fPeace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he ^gshewed unto them his hands and his side. ^hThen were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, ⁱPeace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so ^jsend I you.

22 And when he had said this, he ^kbreathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy ^lGhost:

23 ^mWhose soever ⁿsins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

*Jesus appears to the disciples,
Thomas being present*

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, called ^oDidymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall ^psee in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were ^qwithin, and ^rThomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and ^sstood in the midst, and said, ^tPeace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not ^ufaithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, ^vMy Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast ^wbelieved: ^xblessed are they that have not seen, and ^yyet have ^zbelieved.

Purpose of John's Gospel

30 ¶ And ^{aa}many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 But these are ^{bb}written, that ^{cc}ye might believe that Jesus ^{dd}is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have ^{ee}life through his name.

20:17 Touch me not. Compare Mt. 28:9: "and they came and held him by the feet." A contradiction has been supposed. Three views are held:

(1) That Jesus spoke to Mary, acting, as it were, as the High Priest fulfilling the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16). Having accomplished the sacrifice, He was on His way to present the sacred blood in heaven; and, between the meeting with Mary in the garden and the meeting of Mt. 28:9, He had so ascended and returned—a view in harmony with types.

(2) That Mary was gently rebuked by Christ in the command, "Touch me not" (literally, "Stop clinging to me"). The Lord taught Mary that now she must not seek to hold Him to the earth but, rather, become His messenger of new joy. And

(3) that He merely meant: "Do not detain me now; I have not yet ascended; you will see me again; run rather to my brethren," etc.

20:22 Verses 22 and 23 do not refer only to the original disciples because, according to Lk. 24:33, there were others with them on this occasion. The risen Lord's unique action in breathing on those present and imparting to them the Holy Spirit was probably for their spiritual quickening in preparation for their full endowment with the Spirit in power at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-4).

The commission of v. 23 was not exclusively to the apostles and those who were with them; it applies, therefore, to the Church as a whole and not to any special class of individuals within the Church. Compare Mt. 16:19, note.

THE DEITY OF JESUS CHRIST

The Deity of Jesus Christ is declared in Scripture:

(1) The O.T. both intimates and explicitly predicts His Deity.

(a) The theophanies intimate the appearance of God in human form, and His ministry thus to man (Gen. 16:7-14; 18:2-23, especially v. 17; compare 32:28 with Hos. 12:3-5; Ex. 3:2-14).

(b) The Messiah is expressly declared to be the Son of God (Ps. 2:2-9), and God (compare Ps. 45:6-7 with Heb. 1:8-9; Ps. 110:1 with Mt. 22:44; Acts 2:34 and Heb. 1:13; Ps. 110:4 with Heb. 5:6; 6:20; 7:17-21; Zech. 6:13).

(c) His virgin birth was foretold as the means through which God could be Immanuel, God with us (compare Isa. 7:13-14 with Mt. 1:22-23).

(d) The Messiah is expressly invested with the divine names (Isa. 9:6-7).

(e) In a prophecy of His death He is called the Lord's "fellow" (compare Zech. 13:7 with Mt. 26:31). And

(f) His eternal Being is declared (compare Mic. 5:2 with Mt. 2:6; Jn. 7:42).

(2) Christ Himself affirmed His Deity.

(a) He applied to Himself the Jehovistic I AM (Jn. 4:26; 6:20; 8:24,28,58; 18:5,6). The pronoun "he" appears in translation (4:26 and 18:5,6), but not in the Greek. In 8:56-59 the Jews correctly understood this as the Lord's claim to full Deity (compare Jn. 10:33).

(b) He claimed to be the Adonai of the O.T. (Mt. 22:42-45. See Gen. 15:2, note).

(c) He asserted His identity with the Father (Mt. 28:19; Mk. 14:62; Jn. 10:30. That the Jews so understood is shown by Jn. 10:31-33; 14:8-9; 17:5).

(d) He exercised the chief prerogative of God—the forgiveness of sins (Mk. 2:5-7; Lk. 7:48-50).

(e) He asserted omnipresence (Mt. 18:20; Jn. 3:13); omniscience (Jn. 11:11-14, when Jesus was fifty miles away; Mk. 11:6-8); omnipotence (Mt. 28:18; Lk. 7:14; Jn. 5:21-23; 6:19); mastery over nature, and creative power (Lk. 9:16-17; Jn. 2:9; 10:28). And

(f) He received and approved human worship of Himself (Mt. 14:33; 28:9; Jn. 20:28-29).

(3) The N.T. writers ascribe divine titles to Christ (Jn. 1:1; 20:28; Acts 20:28; Rom. 1:4; 9:5; 2 Th. 1:12; 1 Tim. 3:16; Titus 2:13; Heb. 1:8; 1 Jn. 5:20).

(4) The N.T. writers ascribe divine perfections and attributes to Christ (Mt. 11:28; 18:20; 28:20; Jn. 1:2; 2:23-25; 3:13; 5:17; 21:17; Heb. 1:3,11-12 with Heb. 13:8; Rev. 1:8,17-18; 11:17; 22:13).

(5) The N.T. writers ascribe divine works to Christ (Jn. 1:3,10; Col. 1:16-17; Heb. 1:3).

(6) The N.T. writers teach that supreme worship should be paid to Christ (Acts 7:59-60; 1 Cor. 1:2; 2 Cor. 13:14; Phil. 2:9-11; Heb. 1:6; Rev. 1:5-6; 5:12-13).

(7) The holiness and resurrection of Christ confirm His Deity (Jn. 8:46; Rom. 1:4).

^aLord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he ^bgirt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ^cship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred ^dcubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a ^efire of coals there, ^fand ^gfish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and ^hfor all there were so many, yet ⁱwas not the net broken.

(4) Christ's provision for His servants (cp. Lk. 22:35; Phil. 4:19)

12 Jesus saith unto them, ^jCome and dine. And none of the disciples ^kdurst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and ^ltaketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the ^mthird time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was ⁿrisen from the dead.

(5) Love, the only proper motive in service (1 Cor. 13; 2 Cor. 5:14; Rev. 2:4-5)

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, ^oFeed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my ^psheep.

17 He saith unto him the ^qthird time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my ^rsheep.

(6) The Master reveals to Peter that He determines the time and manner of His servants' death

18 ^sVerily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou ^twouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest ^unot.

21:12 dine. Literally eat breakfast.

21:15 dined. Literally breakfasted. In vv. 15-17 two different Greek verbs are used for "love": agapaō, to love deeply, used of divine love in 14:21, and of the love which the law demands (Lk. 10:27); and phileō, to be fond of, a love of lesser degree than agapaō, as between friends. In the first two instances, where the Lord asks Peter, "Lovest thou me?" He uses agapaō; but Peter, remembering his three denials of the Lord and aware now of his own weakness, does not dare to reply with as strong a word as agapaō. Instead, he employs phileō in his reply, "Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee." When the Lord inquires the third time, "Lovest thou me," He uses the lesser word, phileō. And again the humbled disciple replies: "Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love [phileō] thee." more than these. That is, than the other disciples do. my lambs. Christ's threefold repetition of the pronoun "my"—"my lambs . . . my sheep . . . my sheep" (vv. 15,16,17)—reminds all Christians who hold responsibility over others that the persons under them belong, first of all, to Christ. Pastors, missionaries, teachers, and parents are but under-shepherds to whose care Christ's sheep are committed. Compare Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 5:3.

21:16 Feed. Or Nurture. 1 Pet. 5:2.

21:17 lovest thou me? With his confidence in himself greatly shaken through having so recently denied his Lord, Peter feels unworthy to express his love to Christ by the strong word agapaō, and therefore uses the weaker word phileō. See 21:15, note. Jesus now condescends to Peter's self-evaluation, saying, in effect: "Even if you do not trust your own emotions far enough to apply the word agapaō to them, you still should feed my sheep." Our duty to Christ should depend, not upon the strength of our subjective feelings, but upon our realization of what He has done for us.

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry ^ctill I ^dcome, what is that to thee? ^efollow thou me.

ple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry ^ftill I ^dcome, what is that to thee?

24 This is the ^gdisciple which ^htestifieth of these things, and ⁱwrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

OF THE APOSTLES

Background

The book of Acts, written by Luke, the author of the Third Gospel, is a continuation of that narrative. Luke wrote more of the New Testament than any other individual. The physician and companion of Paul (see Acts 16:10, note), he was the first historian of the early years of the Church.

God's Relationship with Man

The book has often been called "The Acts of the Holy Spirit." The Holy Spirit is referred to more than fifty times in this one book, particularly in relation to baptism with the Holy Spirit, being filled with the Holy Spirit, and being led by the Holy Spirit. Acts begins with Luke's second account of the ascension of the Lord and terminates with Paul's residence in Rome as a prisoner, covering a period of more than thirty years.

This book is of highest importance because it is the only inspired account of the beginning and early work of the Church. It clarifies some of the historical references in the Pauline Epistles. Its place in the New Testament canon identifies it as the bridge from the Gospels to the Epistles. It is the primary textbook for the study of missionary principles, the defense of the faith, the Person and work of the Holy Spirit, and the methods and themes of Christian preaching.

I. The Waiting Church, 1

Introduction: Christ's 40-day ministry

1 The ^aformer treatise have I made, O ^bTheophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy ^cGhost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had ^dchosen:

3 To whom also he shewed himself ^ealive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the ^fkingdom of God:

4 And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have ^gheard of me.

5 For John truly ^hbaptized with water; but ye shall be ⁱbaptized with the Holy ^cGhost not many days hence.

One point was left untouched, that is, the time when He would restore the kingdom to Israel; hence the apostles' question. Observe that the Lord did not rebuke them for their inquiry about the restoration of the kingdom. Their question was a valid one. But His answer was in accord with His repeated teaching: the time is God's secret (Mt. 24:36,42,44; 25:13; compare 1 Th. 5:1).

CHRIST'S TWO ADVENTS, SUMMARY

The O.T. foreview of the coming Messiah is presented in two aspects—that of rejection and suffering (e.g. in Isa. 53); and that of earthly glory and power (e.g. in Isa. 11; Jer. 23; Ezek. 37).

Often these two aspects blend in one passage (e.g. Ps. 22). The prophets themselves were perplexed by this seeming contradiction (1 Pet. 1:10-11). It was solved by partial fulfillment. In due time the Messiah, born of a virgin according to Isaiah's prophecy (7:14), appeared among men and began His ministry by announcing the predicted kingdom as "at hand" (Mt. 4:17, note). The rejection of King and kingdom followed.

Thereupon the rejected King announced His approaching crucifixion, resurrection, departure, and return (Mt. 12:38-40; 16:1-4,21,27; 24; 25; Lk. 12:35-46; 17:20-36; 18:31-34; 19:12-27). He uttered predictions concerning the course of events between His departure and return (Mt. 13:1-50; 16:18; 24:4-26). And this promised return of Christ is a prominent theme in Acts, the Epistles, and Revelation.

Taken together the N.T. teachings concerning the return of Jesus Christ may be summarized as follows:

(1) The return of Christ will be personal and corporeal, in two stages: to the air before the Tribulation—usually called the Rapture (1 Th. 4:14-17; Phil. 3:20-21; Rev. 3:10); then He will return to the earth after the Tribulation (Acts 1:11; Mt. 23:39; 24:30; 25:31; Rev. 19:11-16).

(2) His coming has a threefold relation: to the Church, to Israel, and to the nations:

(a) To the Church, the descent of the Lord into the air, to raise believers who have died and to change the living Christians, is a constant expectation and hope (1 Cor. 15:51-52; Phil. 3:20; 1 Th. 1:10; 4:13-17; 1 Tim. 6:14; Titus 2:13; Rev. 22:20).

(b) To Israel, the return of the Lord to the earth is to accomplish the yet unfulfilled prophecies of Israel's national regathering, conversion, and establishment in peace and power under the Davidic Covenant (2 Sam. 7:16, note; compare Acts 15:14-17 with Zech. 14:1-9). See Kingdom (O.T.), 2 Sam. 7:8-17; Zech. 12:8, note; (N.T.), Lk. 1:31-33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note.

(c) To the Gentile nations, the return of Christ is to bring the destruction of the present political world system (Dan. 2:34-35; Rev. 19:11, note), and the judgment of Mt. 25:31-46, followed by worldwide Gentile conversion and participation in the blessings of the kingdom (Isa. 2:2-4; 11:10; 60:3; Zech. 8:3,20-23; 14:16-21).

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty ^awind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Holy ^bGhost, and began to speak with ^cother tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were ^ddwelling at Jerusalem Jews, ^edevout men, out of ^fevery nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the ^gmultitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all ^hamazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak ⁱGalilæans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judæa, and ^jCappadocia, in ^kPontus, and ^lAsia,

10 Phrygia, and ^mPamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about ⁿCyrene, and ^ostrangers of Rome, Jews and ^pproselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

THE SIXTH DISPENSATION: THE CHURCH

A new age was announced by our Lord Jesus Christ in Mt. 12:47—13:52. The Church was clearly prophesied by Him in Mt. 16:18 (compare Mt. 18:15-19), purchased by the shedding of His blood on Calvary (Rom. 3:24-25; 1 Cor. 6:20; 1 Pet. 1:18-19), and constituted as the Church after His resurrection and ascension at Pentecost when, in accordance with His promise (Acts 1:5), individual believers were for the first time baptized with the Holy Spirit into a unified spiritual organism, likened to a body of which Christ is the Head (1 Cor. 12:12-13; Col. 2:19). Because of the emphasis upon the Holy Spirit, this age has also been called "the dispensation of the Spirit."

The point of testing in this dispensation is the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, the message of good news about His death and resurrection (Jn. 19:30; Acts 4:12; 1 Cor. 15:3-5; 2 Cor. 5:21; etc.). The continuing, cumulative revelation of the previous dispensations combines with this fuller revelation to emphasize the utter sinfulness and lost condition of man and the adequacy of the historically completed work of Christ to save by grace through faith all who come to God by Him (Jn. 14:6; Acts 10:43; 13:38-39; Rom. 3:21-26; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Tim. 4:10; Heb. 10:12-14; 11:6). As those saved individuals who compose Christ's true Church fulfill the Lord's command to preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth (Mk. 16:15; Lk. 24:46-48; Acts 1:8), God, during this age, is taking out from Jews and Gentiles "a people for his name" (Acts 15:14), called "the Church" and henceforth carefully distinguished from both Jews and Gentiles as such (1 Cor. 10:32; Gal. 3:27-28; Eph. 2:11-18; 3:5-6).

The Lord Jesus warned that during the whole period, while the Church is being formed by the Holy Spirit, many will reject His Gospel, and many others will pretend to believe in Him and will become a source of spiritual corruption and hindrance to His purpose in this age, in the professing church. These will bring apostasy, particularly in the last days (Mt. 13:24-30, 36-40, 47-49; 2 Th. 2:5-8; 1 Tim. 4:1-2; 2 Tim. 3:1; 4:3-4; 2 Pet. 2:1-2; 1 Jn. 2:18-20).

The Church Age will be brought to a close by a series of prophesied events, the chief of which are:

(1) The translation of the true Church from the earth to meet her Lord in the air at a point of time known to God but unrevealed to men, and ever held before believers as an imminent and happy hope, encouraging them in loving service and holiness of life. This event is usually called "the rapture" (see 1 Th. 4:17, note).

(2) The judgments of the seventieth week of Daniel, called "the tribulation" (see Rev. 7:14, note), which will fall upon mankind in general but will include the unsaved portion of the professing church, which will have gone into apostasy and thus be left behind on earth when the true Church is translated to heaven. This final form of the apostate church is described in Rev. 17 as "the harlot" which will first "ride" the political power ("beast"), only to be overthrown and absorbed by that power (compare Rev. 18:2, note). And

(3) the return from heaven to earth of our Lord Jesus Christ in power and glory, bringing with Him His Church, to set up His millennial kingdom of righteousness and peace (see Rev. 19:11 and 17, notes). For notes on other dispensations, see Innocence (Gen. 1:28); Conscience (Moral Responsibility) (Gen. 3:7); Human Government (Gen. 8:15); Promise (Gen. 12:1); Law (Ex. 19:1); Kingdom (Rev. 20:4).

THE HOLY SPIRIT IN THE NEW TESTAMENT, SUMMARY

(1) The Holy Spirit is revealed as a divine Person. This is expressly declared (e.g. Jn. 14:16–17,26; 15:26; 16:7–15; compare Mt. 28:19), and everywhere implied.

(2) The revelation concerning Him is progressive:

- (a) In the O.T. (see Zech. 12:10, note) He comes upon whom He will, apparently without reference to conditions in them.
- (b) During His earth-life Christ taught His disciples (Lk. 11:13) that they might receive the Spirit through prayer to the Father.
- (c) At the close of His ministry He promised that He would Himself pray to the Father, and that in answer to His prayer the Comforter would come to abide (Jn. 14:16–17).
- (d) On the evening of His resurrection He came to the disciples in the upper room and breathed on them saying, "Receive ye the Holy Ghost" (Jn. 20:22), but He instructed them to wait before beginning their ministry until the Spirit should come upon them (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:8).
- (e) On the day of Pentecost the Spirit came upon the whole body of believers (Acts 2:1–4).
- (f) After Pentecost the Spirit was imparted to such as believed, in some cases by the laying on of hands (Acts 8:17; 9:17). And
- (g) with Peter's experience in the conversion of Cornelius (Acts 10) it became clear that the norm for this age was that Jew and Gentile were to be saved on precisely the same conditions, and the Holy Spirit was to be given without delay to those who met the one essential condition of trust in Christ (Acts 10:44; 11:15–18). This is the permanent fact for the entire Church Age. Every believer is born of the Spirit (Jn. 3:3–6; 1 Jn. 5:1); indwelt by the Spirit, whose presence makes the believer's body a temple (1 Cor. 6:19; compare Rom. 8:9–15; Gal. 4:6; 1 Jn. 2:27); and baptized with the Spirit (1 Cor. 12:12–13; 1 Jn. 2:20,27), thus sealing him for God (Eph. 1:13; 4:30).

(3) The N.T. distinguishes between having the Spirit, which is true of all believers, and being filled with the Spirit, which is the Christian's privilege and duty (compare Acts 2:4 with 4:29–31; Eph. 1:13–14 with 5:18). There is one baptism with the Spirit, but many fillings with the Spirit.

(4) The Holy Spirit is related to Christ in His conception (Mt. 1:18–20; Lk. 1:35), baptism (Mt. 3:16; Mk. 1:10; Lk. 3:22; Jn. 1:32–33), walk and service (Lk. 4:1,14), resurrection (Rom. 8:11), and as His witness throughout this age (Jn. 15:26; 16:8–11,13–14).

(5) The Spirit forms the Church (Mt. 16:18; Heb. 12:23, note) by baptizing all believers into the body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:12–13; compare the universal address, 1 Cor. 1:1–2); imparts gifts for service to every member of that body (1 Cor. 12:7–11,27–30); guides the members in their service (Acts 16:6–7); and is Himself the power of that service (Acts 1:8; 2:4; 1 Cor. 2:4).

(6) The Spirit abides in a company of believers, making of them, corporately, a temple (1 Cor. 3:16–17).

(7) The N.T. indicates a threefold personal relationship of the Spirit to the believer: "with," "in," and "upon" (Jn. 14:16–17; 1 Cor. 6:19; Acts 1:8).

"With" indicates the approach of God to the soul, convicting of sin (Jn. 16:9), presenting Christ as the object of faith (Jn. 16:14), imparting faith (Eph. 2:8), and regenerating (Mk. 1:8; Jn. 1:33).

"In" describes the abiding presence of the Spirit in the Christian's body (1 Cor. 6:19) to give victory over the flesh (Rom. 8:2–4; Gal. 5:16–17), create the Christian character (Gal. 5:22–23), help infirmities (Rom. 8:26), inspire prayer (Eph. 6:18), give conscious access to God (Eph. 2:18), actualize to the Christian his sonship (Gal. 4:6), apply the Scriptures in cleansing and sanctification (Eph. 5:26; 2 Th. 2:13; 1 Pet. 1:2), comfort and intercede (Acts 9:31; Rom. 8:26), and reveal Christ (Jn. 16:14).

"Upon" is used of the relationship of the Holy Spirit to the Lord Jesus Christ (Mt. 3:16; Mk. 1:10; Lk. 4:18; Jn. 1:32–33), to the Virgin Mary in connection with the incarnation and birth of our Lord (Lk. 1:35), to certain designated disciples (Lk. 2:25 [Simeon]; Acts 10:44–45; 11:15 [household of Cornelius]; Acts 19:6 [disciples at Ephesus]), and to believers generally (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:8; 2:17; 1 Pet. 4:14). Based on Lk. 4:18, some understand that the expression has to do with anointing for special service for God, as well as with the original coming and indwelling of the Holy Spirit to and in the individual Christian.

(8) Sins against the Spirit, committed by unbelievers, are: to blaspheme (Mt. 12:31), resist (Acts 7:51), and insult (Heb. 10:29, "hath done despite"). Christians' sins against the Spirit are: to grieve Him by allowing evil in heart or life (Eph. 4:30–31), and to quench Him by disobedience (1 Th. 5:19). The right attitude toward the Spirit is yieldedness to His sway in life and service, and constant willingness for Him to "put away" whatever grieves Him or hinders His power (Eph. 4:31).

(9) The symbols of the Spirit are:

- (a) oil (Jn. 3:34; Heb. 1:9);
- (b) water (Jn. 7:38–39);
- (c) wind (Jn. 3:8; Acts 2:2);
- (d) fire (Acts 2:3);
- (e) a dove (Mt. 3:16);
- (f) a seal (Eph. 1:13; 4:30); and
- (g) "the earnest of our inheritance" (Eph. 1:14).

2:14 said unto them. The theme of Peter's sermon at Pentecost is stated in v. 36. It was that Jesus was the Messiah. No message could have been more unwelcome to the Jews who had rejected His Messianic claims and had crucified Him. Peter, therefore, did not announce his theme until he had covered every possible Jewish objection. The point of difficulty with the Jews was the apparent failure of the clear and repeated prophetic promise of a regathered Israel established in their own land under their covenanted King (e.g. Isa. 11:10-12; Jer. 23:5-8; Ezek. 37:21-28). Peter did not teach that the covenant and promises were to be fulfilled in the Church in a so-called "spiritual" sense, but showed from Ps. 16 that David himself understood that the dead and risen Christ would fulfill the covenant and sit on his (David's) throne (vv. 25-32). In precisely the same way

James (Acts 15:13-17) met the difficulty. See Kingdom (O.T.), Gen. 1:26-28; Zech. 12:8, note; (N.T.), Lk. 1:31-33; 1 Cor. 15:24, note.

2:17 last days. A distinction should be observed between "the last days" when the prediction relates to Israel (Isa. 2:2; Mic. 4:1, "latter" in some versions; see also Num. 24:14; Dt. 31:29; Jer. 23:20; 30:24; 49:39; Ezek. 38:16; Dan. 2:28; 10:14; Hos. 3:5), and the "last days" when the prediction relates to the Church (2 Tim. 3:1-8; Heb. 1:1-2; Jas. 5:3; 2 Pet. 3:1-9; see also such passages as 1 Tim. 4:1; 1 Pet. 1:5,20; 1 Jn. 2:18; Jude 18).

While Acts 2:17 is part of this context and therefore relates to the Church, it should be remembered that it has reference to Israel as well and, therefore, points to a future out of my ^aSpirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my ^aSpirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 ^bThe sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable ^cday of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that ^dwhosoever shall call on the name of the Lord ^eshall be *f*saved.

Exposition: Jesus is risen and exalted as Lord and Christ. (David foretold this, vv. 25-31; cp. Ps. 16:8-11)

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; ^gJesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you ^hby miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the ⁱdeterminate counsel and ^jforeknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom God hath ^kraised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be ^lholden of it.

25 For David ^mspeaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in ⁿhell, neither wilt thou ^osuffer thine Holy One to see ^pcorruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of ^qlife; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both ^rdead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had ^ssworn with an ^oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, ^the would raise up Christ to sit on his ^uthrone;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in ⁿhell, neither his flesh did see ^vcorruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are ^wwitnesses.

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God ^xexalted, and having received of the Father the ^ypromise of the Holy ^zGhost, he hath shed forth this, ^{aa}which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he ^msaith himself, ^{bb}The LORD said unto my Lord, ^xSit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath ^xmade that same Jesus, whom ye have ^{cc}crucified, both Lord and Christ.

Exhortation: Repent and be baptized day (see Joel 2:28, note). When "last days" is used of the Church, the plural form ("days") should be distinguished from the singular ("day"). The "last day" (Jn. 6:39, 40, 44, 54; 11:24) in this usage refers to the resurrection. (In Jn. 12:48 it is used of the time when unbelievers will be judged.) The "last days," as related to the Church, began with the advent of Christ (Heb. 1:2), but the expression has special reference to the time of declension and apostasy at the end of the age (2 Tim. 3:1). The "last days," as related to Israel, are the days which, though begun in sorrow, issue in Israel's exaltation and blessing (compare Jer. 30:4-10), that is, the Kingdom Age (Isa. 2:2-4; Mic. 4:1-7). They are "last days," not with reference to this dispensation but in respect to the whole of Israel's history. Compare Gen. 49:1, note.

2:31 Christ. Literally the Christ.

^aRepent, and be ^bbaptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the ^cremission of ^dsins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy ^eGhost.

39 For the ^fpromise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this ^guntoward ^hgeneration.

Extension: three thousand saved and baptized; the first church

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And ⁱfear came upon every soul: and ^jmany wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that ^kbelieved were together, and had all things ^lcommon;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their ^mmeat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the ⁿchurch daily such as should be ^osaved.

The first apostolic miracle: the lame man healed

3 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his ^pmother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: ^qIn the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones ^rreceived strength.

8 And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And ^sall the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the ^tporch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

3:19 The appeal to repent and the promise of "times of refreshing" refer to the O.T. prophecy that prior to the second advent of the Messiah the godly remnant of the nation Israel will repent and turn to God in preparation for the millennial blessing to follow the second advent (compare Dt. 30:1-3; Zech. 12:10-14). The nation as a whole rejected Peter's entreaty and, though individuals believed in Christ and were saved, there was no fulfillment of the requirements of national repentance. converted. Literally turned again. when. Literally so that.

3:21 restitution. The word "restitution" is rendered from the Greek noun apokatastasis meaning restoration to a former state (compare Acts 1:6). The meaning is limited by the words: "which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets." The prophets speak of the restoration of Israel to the land (see Israel, Gen. 12:2-3; Rom. 11:26; also Palestinian Covenant, Dt. 30:3, note); and of the restoration of the theocracy under David's Son (see Davidic Covenant, 2 Sam. 7:16, note; Kingdom [O.T.], Gen. 1:26-28; Zech. 12:8, note). No prediction of the conversion and restoration of the wicked dead is found in the prophets or elsewhere. Compare Rev. 20:11-15. world. Greek aiōn. See Mk. 10:30, note.

Sanhedrin forbids further preaching in the name of Jesus

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were ^lunlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been ^mwith Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, ⁿWhat shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this ^oname.

18 And they called them, and commanded them ^pnot to speak at all nor teach in the ^qname of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John ^ranswered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 ^sFor we cannot but speak the things which we ^thave seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, ^ubecause of the people: for all ^vmen ^wglorified God for that which was ^wdone.

(3) evidently restricted to the Jerusalem church.

4:36 consolation. Or exhortation.

Barnabas: A Jewish Christian who was a leader in the early church. He traveled extensively with Paul to preach the gospel.

5:3 lie to the Holy Ghost. The sin of Ananias and Sapphira consisted in lying, not in keeping back their property. Observe especially v. 4.

5:6,10 young. Literally younger.

^atempt the ^bSpirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down ^cstraightway at his feet, and ^dyielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, ^ecarrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the ^fchurch, and upon as many as heard these things.

Mighty miracles at Jerusalem

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many ^gsigns and wonders ^hwrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's ⁱporch.

13 And of the rest ^jdurst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.

14 And ^kbelievers were the more ^ladded to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the ^mshadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude ⁿout of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, ^obringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were ^phealed every one.

Second persecution

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the ^qSadducees,) and were filled with indignation,

18 And ^rlaid their ^shands on the apostles, and put them in the common ^tprison.

19 ^uBut ^vthe ^wangel of the Lord by night ^xopened the prison doors, and ^ybrought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and ^zspeak in the temple to the people all the words of this ^{aa}life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the ^{ab}council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing ^{ac}without before the doors: but when we had opened, we ^{ad}found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they ^{ae}doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they ^{af}feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the ^{ag}council: and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not we ^{ah}straitly ^{ai}command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's ^{aj}blood upon us.

The answer of the apostles

29 ¶ Then Peter and the ^{ak}other apostles answered and said, We ^{al}ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers ^{am}raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God ^{an}exalted with his right hand to be a ^{ao}Prince and a ^{ap}Saviour, for to give ^{aq}repentance to Israel, and ^{ar}forgiveness of ^{as}sins.

Gamaliel's counsel: "Take heed"

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were ^ccut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a ^dPharisee, named ^eGamaliel, a ^fdoctor of the ^glaw, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to ^hnought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the ⁱtaxing, and drew away ^jmuch people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to ^knought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest ^lhaply ye be found even to fight against God.

The apostles beaten and commanded to silence

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and ^mbeaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the ⁿname of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, ⁿrejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and ^opreach Jesus Christ.

Internal dissension overcome by love

6 And in those days, when the ^pnumber of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministrations.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not ^qreason that we should leave the ^rword of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest ^sreport, full of the Holy ^tGhost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this ^ubusiness.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the ^vword.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they ^wchose Stephen, a man full of ^xfaith and of the Holy ^yGhost, and ^zPhilip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a ^{aa}proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of ^{ab}faith and power, did great ^{ac}wonders and miracles among the people.

were all Hellenists (see 6:1, footnote), as their Grecian names indicate.

6:6 laid their hands on. The laying on of hands sometimes accompanied prayer (Mt. 19:13,15) and was also used as a sign of healing (Mk. 5:23; 6:5, etc.), a symbol for the impartation of the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:17,19; 9:17; 19:6), and a token of ordination for special service (Acts 6:6; 13:3; 1 Tim. 4:14, etc.).

Third persecution: Stephen brought before the council

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were ^anot able to resist the wisdom and the ^bspirit by which he spake.

11 ^cThen they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the ^dscribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up ^efalse witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this ^fholy place, and the ^glaw:

14 For we have heard him say, that this ^hJesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall ⁱchange the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, ^jsaw his face as it had been the face of an ^kangel.

7 Then said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, ^lMen, brethren, and fathers, ^mhearken; The ⁿGod of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in ^oCharran,

3 And said unto him, ^pGet thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 ^qThen came he out of the land of the Chaldæans, and dwelt in ^oCharran: and from thence, when his father was ^rdead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he ^spromised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, ^twhen as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake ^uon this wise, That his seed should ^vsojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into ^wbondage, and ^xentreat them evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I ^yjudge, said God: and after that shall they ^zcome forth, and serve me in this place.

8 And he gave him the ^{aa}covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham ^{bb}begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac ^{cc}begat Jacob; and Jacob ^{dd}begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, moved with ^{ee}envy, ^{ff}sold Joseph into Egypt: but ^{gg}God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him ^{hh}favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he ⁱⁱmade him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now there came a ^{jj}dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But ^{kk}when Jacob heard that there was ^{ll}corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the ^{mm}second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob ⁿⁿwent down into Egypt, and ^{oo}died, he, and our fathers, 16 And were ^{pp}carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was ^jmighty in words and in deeds.

23 ^kAnd when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one ^lof them suffer wrong, he defended ^mhim, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, ⁿWho made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

32 ^vSaying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and ^wdurst not behold.

A SEEMING CONTRADICTION EXPLAINED

A contradiction between vv. 15-16 and Gen. 23:17; 33:19 is frequently asserted. A solution of the problem has been suggested in several ways:

(1) a scribal error in naming Abraham in Acts 7:16 (but only one manuscript omits the name);

(2) a telescoping of the accounts in Gen. 23 and 33 (understandable in view of Stephen's situation and the need for brevity); and

(3) Abraham actually did buy two burial places (Gen. 23:17; Acts 7:15-16). The first, near Hebron, he bought from Ephron, the Hittite, in the presence of the children of Heth. The second, near Shechem, he bought from the sons of Hamor. Later Jacob must have repurchased the second as a "parcel of a field . . . at the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father" (Gen. 33:18-19). Since Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob were buried at Hebron (Gen. 49:31; 50:13), Stephen's reference to "our fathers" buried in Shechem (v. 16) must be restricted to Joseph and other members of the family (Josh. 24:32; Acts 7:15-16).

38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the ^aangel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the ^blively ^coracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers ^dwould not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

40 ^eSaying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we ^fwot not what is become of him.

41 And they ^gmade a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and ^hrejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, ⁱO ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and ^jI will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it ^kaccording to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after ^lbrought in with ^mJesus into the possession of the ⁿGentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the ^odays of David;

46 Who found favour before God, and ^pdesired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon ^qbuilt him an house.

48 Howbeit the most High dwelleth ^rnot in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49 ^sHeaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand ^tmade all these things?

51 ¶ Ye ^ustiffnecked and ^vuncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy ^wGhost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers ^xpersecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the ^ycoming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the ^zlaw by the disposition of ^{aa}angels, and have not kept it.

Stephen, the first martyr.

First mention of Saul of Tarsus

(v. 58), later called Paul (13:9)

54 ¶ When they heard these things, they were ^{bb}cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being full of the Holy ^{cc}Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the ^{dd}glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the ^{ee}Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was ^{ff}Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and ^{gg}saying, Lord Jesus, ^{hh}receive my spirit.

7:38 church. Another translation would be "the congregation." The original meaning of ekklesia was a gathering out of citizens in a public place for deliberation. The Septuagint used it to signify the congregation of Israel. Here it is employed in its most general sense of a called-out meeting. In most instances in the N.T. the term indicates the body of believers, the church local or universal.

7:44 tabernacle. Or tent of testimony.

7:54 When they heard these things. False witnesses had been brought to testify before the council against Stephen (6:9-14). Stephen bore true witness against them, quoting the testimony of writings which they acknowledged to be inspired. He spoke of the persistent rejection of God and His servants by the nation, until at length the truth was brought home to them and aroused the maddened enmity in their hearts.

7:59 calling upon God, and saying. Literally while he prayed, saying.

60 And he kneeled down, and ^acried with a loud voice, Lord, ^blay not this ^csin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell ^dasleep.

Fourth persecution: Saul takes leading part (cp. Gal. 1:13-14)

8 And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the ^echurch which was at Jerusalem; and they were all ^fscattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havock of the ^gchurch, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad ^hwent every where ⁱpreaching the word.

Philip's ministry at Samaria

(The case of Simon, the sorcerer)

5 Then ^jPhilip ^kwent down to the city of Samaria, and ^lpreached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the ^mmiracles which he did.

7 For ⁿunclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which ^obeforetime in the same city used ^psorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with ^qsorceries.

12 But when they ^rbelieved ^sPhilip ^tpreaching the things concerning the ^ukingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself ^vbelieved also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and ^wwondered, beholding the ^xmiracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the ^yapostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had ^zreceived the ^{aa}word of God, they sent unto them ^{ab}Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy ^{ac}Ghost:

16 (For as yet he was ^{ad}fallen upon none of them: only they were ^{ae}baptized in the ^{af}name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then ^{ag}laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy ^{ah}Ghost.

BAPTISM

The practice of baptizing with water is introduced into the N.T. during the ministry of John the Baptist, whose baptism is referred to as "unto the remission of sins," or, "baptism of repentance" (Mk. 1:4; Lk. 3:3; etc.). Christ Himself was baptized by John (Mt. 3:13-17; etc.). In His case it was certainly not for the reasons mentioned but as a symbol of His identification with mankind.

Before His ascension, the Lord Jesus commanded His disciples to preach the Gospel to all the world, baptizing all who believed this saving message in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Mt. 28:19; Mk. 16:15-16). This command was faithfully obeyed by the early Church beginning with the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:38,41; 8:12-13,36-38; 9:18; 10:48; 16:14-15,32-33; 18:8; 19:5; 22:13-16).

Baptism has, since the apostolic age, been practiced by every major group in the Christian church and, in Protestant communions, is recognized as one of two sacraments—the other being the Lord's Supper. Since early in the Church's history three different modes of baptism have been used: aspersion (sprinkling); affusion (pouring); and immersion (dipping).

John the Baptist, and our Lord also, prophesied a baptism with the Holy Spirit (Mt. 3:11; Jn. 1:33; Acts 1:5; 11:16). See 1 Cor. 12:12-13; Acts 2:4, note on Holy Spirit, paragraph (5).

18 And when Simon saw that through ^alaying on of the apostles' hands the Holy ^bGhost was given, he offered them ^cmoney, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy ^bGhost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy ^cmoney ^dperish with thee, because thou hast thought that the ^egift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy ^fheart is not right in the sight of God.

22 ^gRepent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine ^hheart may be ⁱforgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of ^jbitterness, and ^kin the bond of ^liniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, ^mPray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had ⁿtestified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the ^ogospel ^pin many villages of the Samaritans.

Philip and the Ethiopian treasurer

26 And ^qthe ^rangel of the Lord spake unto ^sPhilip, saying, Arise, and ^tgo toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of ^uEthiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had ^vcome to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the ^wprophet.

29 Then the ^xSpirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to ^yhim, and heard him read the ^zprophet

Esaias, and said, ^{aa}Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, ^{ab}How can I, except some man should ^{ac}guide me? And he ^{ad}desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the ^{ae}scripture which he read was this, ^{af}He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, ^{ag}so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his ^{ah}judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is ^{ai}taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or ^{aj}of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and ^{ak}began at the same scripture, and ^{al}preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on ^{am}their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, ^{an}here is water; what doth hinder me to be ^{ao}baptized?
