INTRODUCTION

History of the Scofield Bible

The Scofield Study Bible, King James Version, is the latest edition of a trusted publication first issued in 1909. Its study system, familiar to millions of Christians around the world, is the masterpiece of evangelist and Bible conference leader Cyrus I. Scofield (1843–1921). He saw the need for a Bible with helps that would display the great orthodox teachings that had been emphasized during the period of doctrinal awakening in which he lived—and to present those teachings in a form that could be easily grasped by the average reader. Scofield resigned his pastoral ministry in 1903, assembled a team of scholars, traveled to Europe for research, and spent countless hours perfecting his notes, chain references and other study aids.

The Scofield Reference Bible was an outstanding success, and it was followed by an improved edition in 1917. After many printings, an extensive revision was begun in 1954 by a new generation of scholars headed by E. Schuyler English, all of whom were in firm sympathy with Scofield's approach. That became the New Scofield Reference Bible, first published in 1967. It is the basis for the current adaptation.

Determined to maintain the spirit of Dr. Scofield's original work, the consultants and editors have labored faithfully to keep this study Bible an adaptation, not a revision, of the latest Scofield Bible. They wish to assure the reader that this adaptation follows the same doctrines of faith as those believed in by Dr. Scofield and by the 1967 revision committee:

. . . the plenary inspiration and inerrancy of the Scriptures; the triune Godhead composed of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; the virgin birth and Deity of Christ; the necessity and efficacy of His atoning work; Christ's bodily resurrection and ascension; His imminent coming for His Church and His visible, premillennial return to the earth; the everlasting felicity of the redeemed; and the everlasting punishment of the lost.

Philosophy of the Scofield Bible

From the very first edition, the Scofield Bible has been concerned with helping the student of the Bible to see the Scriptures as a unified whole. The Scofield Study Bible affirms historic doctrines, such as the deity of Jesus Christ, the existence of the miraculous, and salvation by grace through faith. However, it also reflects a view of God's activity in human history as it is revealed in the Scriptures themselves. Central to this understanding of the Bible in its entirety is the belief that God is dealing with humanity in a progressive way. The relationships God establishes with people are founded on and are unfolded through covenants, which connect human life with divine redemption. Much of the study material in this edition is concerned with analyzing these covenants and their relation to each other and to the work of Christ.

In addition, the Scofield Bible distinguishes dispensations, which further exhibit the progressive nature of God's dealings with humanity. They are associated with periods of time when people have been responsible for specific and varying tests of their obedience of God, from the beginning of human history to its end. Although not all Bible students agree on every detail of the dispensational system presented in this study Bible, it is generally recognized that the distinction between law and grace is basic to an understanding of the Scriptures. Recognition of the dispensations is of utmost value in comprehending the divine program of the ages as long as it is clearly understood that

- (1) throughout all the Scriptures there is only one basis of salvation, that is, by grace through faith;
- (2) strict limits cannot be placed on the terminations of all the dispensations because there is some overlapping; and
- (3) the divinely given stewardship may continue after the time of special testing has ended. Integral to this view of Scripture is the premillennial return of our Lord and the features of biblical prophecy connected with this event.

The 2003 Edition

At the dawning of a new century and the impending one-hundredth anniversary of the ever popular Scofield Bible, Oxford University Press, the original publisher, decided to refresh the design of the Scofield Bible, enhancing its readability and usefulness to the reader. In this undertaking the editors chose to feature the study notes that are unique to the Scofield. All notes on the dispensations, the covenants and the summary notes of each topic chain now prominently appear on the page, drawing the reader's attention to Scofield's most important contributions. Additional notes of an objective nature, expanded book outlines in each introduction, and in-text maps provide information to enhance the understanding of Scripture.

In their attempt to increase the readability of the text, the editors referenced study notes with bold faced chapter and verse, plus a word or phrase entry at the bottom of the page. When the note is concerning a specific part of a verse, a word or phrase is given; when the note pertains to the entire verse no particular word or phrase is noted. Alternate translations, literal and Hebrew meanings of words and any additional information (other than Biblical references) are now located with the study notes. Another new feature is the addition of brief, in-text definitions of proper names of people and places. This provides helpful reminders to the reader to help recall the most prominent historical people and places. An extensive index with pronunciation guides is included at the back of this volume.

May this completed work enhance the efforts of those who serve the loving and holy God and exalt His marvelous grace in Jesus Christ.

HOW TO USE THIS STUDY BIBLE

To better enhance your study of the Bible, take a few minutes to review the outstanding features of this study Bible.

Scripture Text. This edition has the classic King James Version (KJV) text of the original Scofield Reference Bible. Where the 1967 editors inserted alternate translations to help clarify obsolete and archaic words, these words have been moved to the margins, preceded by "Or." In this edition, then, the standard KJV text is presented for public and personal Bible reading, and the alternate translations are available to assist new and younger readers of the KJV.

Introductions to the Eight Sections of the Bible are located on pages xviii, 309, 712, 883, 1225, 1229, 1483, 1621. These are valuable for the reader to

- (1) show how portions of Scripture fit in progressive revelation,
- (2) highlight distinctive features of the different types of literature in the Canon (narrative, poetry, epistle, etc.) and
- (3) relate sections of Scripture to human history and God's purposes through the ages.

These introductions include "From Malachi to Matthew," an overview of the period between the Testaments.

Book Introductions. The notes introducing every book of the Bible include the date of writing, the name of the author, the central theme, a brief overview of the book, along with relevant historical information and an outline. These introductions should be read before studying any book and should be regularly referred to as the text is read.

Book Outlines. The outlines of the text of each book help the reader to be aware of the flow of thought within a book. These outlines are based on an analysis of

- (1) the overall contents of each book,
- (2) the relation of its parts to each other and
- (3) the purpose of each book.

While they are only suggested outlines based on editorial choice, they should be utilized as a framework for understanding a book, to challenge and direct students to further examination on their own. The outlines are placed in the introductory material to each book and in the text itself.

In-text headings. These headings are expanded from the outlines and provide further descriptions of sections of the text.

Study Notes. The study notes appearing at the bottom of pages and in lined boxes are a key feature of this study Bible. They succinctly

- (1) summarize great doctrines of the Scriptures, such as adoption, faith and sanctification,
- (2) comment on key words or phrases and
- (3) suggest solutions to difficult problems.

The reader should make it a habit to check the notations at the bottom of the page for additional information on the passage under study. Notes pertaining to Covenants, Dispensations and the Summary notes of the topic chain reference system are prominently displayed in a boxed format. Many of the notes contain references to related notes elsewhere in the Bible or to other passages that discuss the same subject.

Marginal References. This key tool for Bible study assists the reader in interpreting a given passage by showing what the Bible says elsewhere about individual words, phrases or topics. Since the Bible is its own best interpreter, its message in one place is almost always illuminated by texts elsewhere in Scripture. Students who make a habit of consulting these study aids will find that

- (1) they are better able to relate portions of the Bible to each other,
- (2) they learn to think in terms of the unity of Scripture and

(3) they allow the Bible to shed its own light on difficult portions. For example, at Heb. 12:1 the act of our laying aside "the sin which so easily ensnares" is parallel to and explained by the concept of not drawing back, believing and being saved in Heb. 10:39. The connection is indicated by a superscript d at Heb. 12:1.

A System of Chain References is included in the marginal references. This distinctive feature enables the reader to trace a word or doctrine from one key occurrence to the next. They treat such subjects as Inspiration, the Holy Spirit, Day of the Lord, and so forth, and form one of the most important and useful elements of this study edition. They lead the reader from an early reference to a doctrine to the last, and then direct the reader to a summary note on the topic.

In these chain references the first reference shows where the subject is mentioned on that particular page; the second reference points to the next appearance of the topic. There are two references within parentheses. The first of these shows where the chain starts in the Bible. The second indicates where the summary note appears, which is generally at the last usage. Summary notes appear in a box within the text at or near the reference given.

A complete listing of all the chains and the location of the corresponding summary note is included on page 1687.

Chronology. In the study notes no dates before 2100 B.C. are given, because of the lack of evidence on which to fix such dates (compare Gen. 1:1; 5:3; 11:10, notes.) Between 2100 and 1000 B.C. approximate dates are given. After 1000 B.C. events are dated with more precision in cases where the present state of knowledge makes this possible, but even here most dates are tentative and may need revision if required by new evidence.

In-text maps. These sixty-six maps are located throughout the Bible in relevant places to depict various events and periods in biblical history. They can be easily located in the Table of Contents (page vi) or the Subject Index. Their titles are distinguished with small capital letters.

Subject Index. The subject index includes the key words and topics found in the study notes and Scripture. This selective listing enables the reader to locate the explanations of key words and topics quickly. For example, the topic of the blood of Christ is specifically treated in notes at Lev. 16:5 and 17:11. The more general topic of sacrificial blood is also treated at Lev. 17:11.

KJV Concordance. Along with the marginal references, this concordance provides the greatest assistance for independent Bible study. A concordance is a listing of verses in which particular words are found. The marginal references (cross-references) are keyed to identical words or related topics and words. When used together these two features enable the student to see how Scripture interprets itself by connecting related parts of the Bible. These two study aids facilitate the discovery of Bible truth more than any other. They should be consulted regularly and eagerly.

THE OVERALL PLAN OF THE BIBLE

Approaching Bible Study

Through the centuries the Bible has been the most widely read of all books. Yet as individuals have been prompted to read it, perhaps by curiosity, perhaps by spiritual interest, they have often found that it baffles them. In many instances even those who do not believe that it has any claims on their lives feel, and rightly so, that it is unintelligent to remain in ignorance of the most famous of writings. Still they, along with many sincere believers, all too soon shrink from any serious effort to master the contents of the sacred text. The main reason for not understanding the message of Scripture lies in the failure to see its overall plan and purpose.

The plan of the Bible can be compared to a mosaic. Each word, chapter and book form components that are necessary, yet incomplete in themselves. They can never be viewed in isolation, just as a mosaic is only meaningful as a unified whole. To profit from the Bible the reader must be able to work with the individual parts as well as the overall themes and purposes.

It is a virtue of this study Bible that it attempts to set forth the entire plan of the written revelation. And it seeks to relate this global perspective to the details of Scripture, which can be gathered together into summary statements and descriptions of God's unified purposes and acts in and beyond time.

In presenting God's written Word as a whole, the Scofield Study Bible stresses several unifying characteristics:

- (1) the nature of Scripture as embodying progressive revelation,
- (2) the purposeful division of the total canon of sixty-six books into related subsections,
- (3) the presence of recurring themes throughout the Bible,
- (4) the relation of the acts of God to the continuing flow of human history, including specific goals as He deals with humankind, and
- (5) the connection of individual details of Scripture with God's overall plan, as far as it can be discerned, for humanity and angelic beings.

In a very real sense this Study Bible offers the reader a lifetime of study opportunities. It is designed to help an individual analyze separate parts of Scripture and to put them together. Since the Bible's depths can never be fully plumbed by any finite mind—there is always more to learn—several features are designed to help the reader delve further into the text, discovering details and relating them to each other.

The Overall Plan of the Bible

There are several prominent characteristics of the Bible that are indispensable keys for study.

The Bible is one book.

Several telling signs attest to this unity.

(1) From Genesis onward the Bible bears witness to one God. Wherever He speaks or acts He is consistent with Himself, and with the total revelation concerning Him.

(2) The Bible forms one continuous story—the account of God's dealing with the human race.

(3) The Bible advances the most unlikely predictions concerning the future, and then gives the record of their fulfillment at the appropriate time.

(4) The Bible is a progressive unfolding of truth. God does not give all the information He will give on a subject at one particular point. (It is also important to remember that God has not told us all there is to know about Himself and His purposes with men and women, only what we need to know.) To stimulate our interest and to thwart the casual, God has given His revelation in parts over time. A helpful statement of this principle is found in Hebrews 1:1–2: "God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son . . ."

(5) The Bible presents a single way of access to God. All of biblical history up to the Cross anticipates the great act of God to provide a way for sinners to come into His presence. The remainder of the New Testament records views that act in retrospect, delineating the account of those subsequently living under it. The means of access to God (substitutionary death of a sacrifice) and the sole channel for obtaining that access (faith) are presented uniformly in Scripture, without a suggestion of any other possible way.

(6) From beginning to end the Bible has one great theme: the Person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ. All Scripture is rightly related initially to Him. Revelation 19:10 reminds us of this when it states: "the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." The predictive words of the Old and New Testaments have Jesus Christ as their focus: they are testimonies about Him.

(7) The doctrines of the Bible are harmonious, even though they were penned by some forty-four writers over more than sixteen centuries. The constant quotation of the Old Testament by writers of the New Testament attests to this. For example, the fact that Paul could adduce Genesis 2:24 to advance his argument in Ephesians 5:31 shows that he believed his words were in keeping with those of Moses.

The Bible is a book composed of books.

Each of the sixty-six books is complete in itself and has its own theme and analysis. In the Scofield Study Bible the features of the book are shown in the introduction to that book, which includes an outline of the text, and in paragraph headings, which build on and expand the outline. It is of great importance that each book be studied in the light of its distinctive themes. Genesis, for instance, is the book of beginnings—the seed-plot of the whole Bible. Matthew is the Gospel book that portrays the Lord Jesus Christ as the King presented to Israel, as opposed, for instance, to John, which stresses His acts as the Son of God, that is, as Deity.

The books of the Bible can be assigned to groups.

It is possible to see in the Scriptures five great divisions, each of which can be associated with a key word pointing to Christ's incarnation (compare Luke 24:25–27):

PREPARATION—the Old Testament
MANIFESTATION—the Gospels PUBLICATION—Acts

EXPLANATION—the Epistles
CONSUMMATION—Revelation

The entire Old Testament is a preparation for Christ (Luke 24:27). The four Gospels present His life and ministry as the incarnate second Person of the Trinity. The book of Acts records the early publication of the euangelion, the Gospel, the Good News concerning Him. The Epistles furnish interpretation and explanation of that life, ministry and death. And the book of Revelation portrays the culmination of God's purposes in Christ in and beyond human history on earth.

One can see further significant subdivisions among the books. The Old Testament can be shown to have four well-defined parts:

THE LAW
Genesis
Exodus
Leviticus Numbers
Deuteronomy

HISTORY
Joshua 1 and 2 Chronicles
Judges Ezra
Ruth Nehemiah
1 and 2 Samuel Esther
1 and 2 Kings

POETRY AND WISDOM BOOKS
Job
Psalms
Proverbs
Ecclesiastes
Song of Solomon

PROPHECY
Isaiah Jonah
Jeremiah Micah
Lamentations Nahum
Ezekiel Habakkuk
Daniel Zephaniah
Hosea Haggai
Joel Zechariah
Amos Malachi
Obadiah

Within these groups each book makes a distinctive contribution. While redemption is the general theme, for example, of the Pentateuch, relating the story of the redemption of Israel out of bondage and into "a good and large land," each of the five books has its own particular part in the whole. Genesis describes God's calling of a particular people, Israel, to be the special object of His dealings; Exodus recounts the deliverance of Israel; Leviticus portrays the worship of Israel as a delivered people; Numbers recounts the wanderings and failures of that delivered people; and Deuteronomy warns and instructs them in view of their approaching entrance into their inheritance.

The Bible tells the human story.

Beginning, logically, with the creation of the earth and of the first human being, the story of our race which sprang from the first human pair continues through the first eleven chapters of Genesis. In the twelfth chapter begins the history of Abraham and of the nation of which Abraham was the ancestor. It is that nation, Israel, with which the subsequent Bible narrative is chiefly concerned, from the eleventh chapter of Genesis to the second chapter of Acts. The Gentiles are mentioned, but only in connection with Israel. It is made increasingly clear that Israel so fills the scene only because this nation was entrusted with the accomplishment of great worldwide purposes (Dt. 7:7).

The appointed mission of Israel was

- 1) to be a witness to the unity of God in the midst of universal idolatry (Dt. 6:4; Isa. 43:10);
- 2) to illustrate to the nations the greater blessedness of serving the one true God (Dt. 33:26–29; 1 Chr. 17:20,21; Ps. 102:15);
- 3) to receive and preserve the divine revelation (Rom. 3:1–2); and
- 4) to produce the Messiah, humanity's Savior and Lord (Rom. 9:4–5). The prophets foretell a glorious future for Israel under His reign.

The biblical story of Israel—past, present and future—falls into seven distinct periods:

- (1) from the call of Abram (Gen. 12) to the Exodus (Ex. 1–20);
- (2) from the Exodus to the death of Joshua (Ex. 21 to Josh. 24);
- (3) from the death of Joshua to the establishment of the Hebrew monarchy under Saul;
- (4) the period of the kings from Saul to the captivities;
- (5) the period of the captivities;
- (6) the restored commonwealth (from the end of the Babylonian captivity of Judah to the destruction of Jerusalem, A.D. 70); and
- (7) the present dispersion and subsequent return to the land of Israel.

The Gospels record the appearance of the promised Messiah, Jesus Christ, in human history and with the Hebrew nation, and tell the wonderful story of His manifestation to Israel, His rejection by that people, His crucifixion, resurrection and ascension.

The book of Acts records the descent of the Holy Spirit and the beginning of a new entity in human history, the Church. The division of the race now becomes threefold—the Jew, the Gentile and the Church of God (1 Cor. 10:32). Just as Israel is in the foreground from the call of Abram to the resurrection of Christ, so now the church fills the scene from the second chapter of Acts to the fourth chapter of Revelation. The remaining chapters of that book complete the story of humanity and the final triumph of Christ.

The central theme of the Bible is Christ.

It is this manifestation of Jesus Christ, His person as God revealed in the flesh (1 Tim. 3:16), His sacrificial death and His resurrection, that constitute the Gospel (1 Cor. 15:1–4). All preceding Scripture leads to this; all following Scripture proceeds from this. The Gospel is preached in Acts and explained in the Epistles. The topic of Christ, Son of God, Son of man, Son of Abraham, Son of David thus binds the many books into one Book. As seed of the woman (Gen. 3:15), He is the ultimate destroyer of Satan and his works; as seed of Abraham, He is the benefactor of the world; as seed of David, He is Israel's King, "the Desire of All Nations" (Hag. 2:7). Exalted to the right hand of God, He is Head overall to the Church, which is His body; while to Israel and the nations the promise of His return forms the one and only rational expectation that humanity will yet fulfill itself. Meanwhile the Church looks momentarily for the fulfillment of His special promise, "I will come again and receive you to Myself" (Jn. 14:3). It is to Him that the Holy Spirit throughout this Church Age bears testimony. The last book of all, the consummation book, is "The Revelation of Jesus Christ" (Rev. 1:1).

THE PENTATEUCH

Background

Certain critics have denied that Moses wrote Genesis to Deuteronomy despite the fact that they were attributed to Moses by the Lord Jesus Christ. The arguments against Moses' authorship are chiefly based on the variation of the names of God (Elohim and Jehovah; see Malachi 3:18, note), the differences in style and vocabulary, and the presence of more than one account of the same event, for example, the creation of man in Genesis 1:26 and 2:7.

These contentions have been adequately answered in that the variation in divine names is for the purpose of revealing certain aspects of God's character; the style is dependent on the subject matter; and the so-called parallel accounts, well known in ancient Near Eastern literature, are intended to add details to the first account.

Some theologians, rejecting the actuality of the events recorded in the early chapters of Genesis, yet at the same time recognizing their religious value, call "myths" such accounts as those of Eden and the fall, meaning by "myth" not merely legend but, rather, a "supra-historical" story that conveys spiritual teaching of permanent significance. However, the historicity of the Genesis record is so related to the authority of Christ that it cannot be assigned to a mythical category without impugning the perfection of His knowledge.

Structure and Order

These five books have a peculiar place in the structure of the Bible, and an order which is undeniably the order of the experience of the people of God in all ages.

Genesis is the book of origins—of the beginning of life, and of ruin through sin. Its first words, "In the beginning God," are in striking contrast with the end, "in a coffin in Egypt."

Exodus is the book of redemption, the first need of a ruined race.

Leviticus is the book of worship and communion, the proper exercise of the redeemed.

Numbers speaks of the experiences of a pilgrim people, the redeemed passing through a hostile scene to a promised inheritance.

Deuteronomy, retrospective and prospective, is a book of instruction for the redeemed about to enter that inheritance.

Connections to World History

That Babylonian and Assyrian monuments contain records bearing a grotesque resemblance to the majestic account of the creation and of the flood is true, as also that these antedate Moses. But this confirms rather than invalidates the inspiration of the Mosaic account. Some tradition of creation and the flood would inevitably be handed down in the ancient cradle of the race. Such a tradition, following the order of all tradition, would take on incongruous and mythological features, and these abound in the Babylonian records. Of necessity, therefore, the first task of inspiration would be to supplant the often absurd and childish tradition with a revelation of the true history, and such a history we find in words of matchless grandeur, and in an order which, rightly understood, is absolutely scientific.

In the Pentateuch, therefore, we have a true and logical introduction to the entire Bible; and, in type, an epitome of the divine revelation.

GENESIS

Moses

Theme Beginnings

Date of writing
c. 1450–1410 B.C.

Background

Genesis (from Greek genesis, beginning) is the book of beginnings. It records not only the beginning of the heavens and the earth, and of plant, animal, and human life, but also of all human institutions and relationships. In terms of types, it speaks of the new birth, the new creation, where all was once chaos and ruin. (See also the Pentateuch, p. xviii.)

God's Relationship with Man

With Genesis begins also the progressive self-revelation of God which culminates in Christ. The three primary names of Deity—Elohim, Jehovah, and Adonai—and the five most important of the compound names occur in Genesis, and these in an ordered progression which could not be changed without confusion.

The problem of sin as affecting man's condition on the earth and his relationship to God, and the divine solution of that problem, are here in essence. Of the eight great covenants which condition human life and progressively unfold the divine redemption, four—the Edenic, Adamic, Noahic, and Abrahamic Covenants—are in this book, and these are the fundamental covenants to which the other four—the Mosaic, Palestinian, Davidic, and New Covenants—are related chiefly as adding detail or development.

Types in Genesis

A type in the Bible is a divinely purposed illustration of a truth (see note on 2:23). Genesis presents many types rich in meaning. See notes on the following passages for the typical significance of: woman (2:23); coats of skins (3:21); Cain (4:1); Abel (4:2); flock (4:4); Enoch (5:22); ark (6:14); flood (7:10); Melchizedek (14:18); Hagar (16:3); Sarah (21:3); Isaac (22:9, 24:1); Abraham (22:9, 24:1); the ram (22:9); servant (24:1); Rebekah (24:1); drink-offering (35:14).

The Old Testament in the New

Genesis enters into the very structure of the New Testament, in which it is quoted more than sixty times in seventeen books. In a profound sense, therefore, the roots of all subsequent revelation are planted deep in Genesis, and whoever would truly comprehend that revelation must begin here.

The inspiration of Genesis and its character as a divine revelation are authenticated by the testimony of Jesus Christ (Matthew 19:4–6; 24:37–39; Mark 10:4–9; Luke 11:49–51; 17:26–29,32; John 7:21–23; 8:44,56) and supplemented by the testimony of history. As indicated in notes throughout the book, archaeology bears witness to the historical reliability of Genesis.

1:1 In the beginning. The Bible begins with God, not with philosophic arguments for His existence. beginning. Scripture gives no data for determining how long ago the universe was created. See notes on Gen. 5:3; 11:10. Compare Introduction, p. xii. created. Only three creative acts of God are recorded in this chapter: (1) the heaven and the earth, v. 1; (2) animal life, vv. 20-21; and (3) human life, vv. 26-27. The first creative act refers to the dateless past.

1:2 without form, and void. Two main interpretations have been advanced to explain the expression "without form, and void" (Hebrew tohu and bohu). The first, which may be called the Original Chaos interpretation, regards these words as a description of an original formless matter in the first stage of the creation of the universe. The second, which may be called the Divine Judgment interpretation, sees in these words a description of the earth only, and that in a condition subsequent to its creation, not as it was originally (see Isa. 45:18, note; compare also notes at Isa. 14:12; Ezek. 28:12).

1:3 light. Neither here nor in vv. 14-18 is an original creative act implied. A different word is used. The sense is made to appear, made visible. The sun and moon were created "in the beginning." The light came from the sun, of course, but the vapor diffused the light. Later the sun appeared in an unclouded sky.

1:5 Day. The word "day" is used in Scripture in four ways:

(1) that part of the solar day of twenty-four hours which is light (Gen. 1:5,14; Jn. 11:9);

(2) a period of twenty-four hours (Mt. 17:1; Lk. 24:21);

(3) a time set apart for some distinctive purpose, as "day of atonement" (Lev. 23:27); and

(4) a longer period of time, during which certain revealed purposes of God are to be accomplished (compare 2 Pet. 3:10).

evening. The use of "evening" and "morning" may be held to limit "day" to the solar day; but the frequent parabolic use of natural phenomena may warrant the conclusion that it simply means that each creative day was a period of time marked off by a beginning and ending (compare Ps. 90:6). In any event the sun did not become a measure of time before the fourth day, as seen in vv. 14-18.

1:6 firmament. Literally expanse (that is, of waters beneath, of vapors above); Jer. 10:12.

1:5 THE CONCEPT OF TIME

The Natural Day was from sunrise to sunset.

The Natural Night was from sunset to sunrise.

The Civil Day was, at least in later times in Israel, from sunset one evening to sunset the next: for "the evening and the morning were the first day."

Night (ancient)

First watch (Lam. 2:19) until about midnight.

Middle watch (Jud. 7:19) including midnight (Ex. 11:4) until 3 A.M.

Morning watch (Ex. 14:24) until 6 A.M.

Night (New Testament)

First watch, evening = 6 to 9 P.M.

Second watch, midnight = 9 to 12 P.M.

Third watch, cock-crow = 12 to 3 A.M.

Fourth watch, morning = 3 to 6 A.M.

Day (ancient)

Morning: until about 10 A.M.

Heat of the day: until about 2 P.M.

Day's decline: until about 6 P.M.

Evening or cool of the day: after 6 P.M.

Day (New Testament)

Third hour = 6 to 9 A.M.

Sixth hour = 9 to 12 midday

Ninth hour = 12 to 3 P.M.

Twelfth hour = 3 to 6 P.M.

1:1 NAMES OF DEITY: GOD

Hebrew El, Elah, or Elohim.

Elohim, the first occurrence of the names of Deity in the Bible, is a plural noun in form but is singular in meaning when it refers to the true God. Emphasis in Gen. 1:26 is on the plurality in Deity; in v. 27, on the unity of the divine Substance. (Compare Gen. 3:22.) The plural form of the word suggests the Trinity. See Gen. 2:4; 14:18, note; 15:2, note; 17:1, note; 21:33, note; Ex. 34:6, note; 1 Sam. 1:3, note; Mal. 3:18, note.

ters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and ^adivided the waters which were under the firmament from the ^bwaters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

Third day: land and sea; plant life appears

9 ¶ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be ^cgathered together unto one place, and let the ^ddry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth ^egrass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth ^egrass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

Fourth day: sun, moon, and stars become visible

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for ^fsigns, and for ^hseasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lights; the ⁱgreater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

Fifth day: animal life (see Gen. 2:19)

20 ¶ And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

21 And God created great ^kwhales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

Sixth day: (1) living creatures brought forth

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the ^mbeast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

(1) Man was created, not evolved. This is expressly declared, and the declaration is confirmed by Christ (Mt. 19:4; Mk 10:6); it is also confirmed by the unbridgeable chasm between man and beast; the highest beast has no God-consciousness (religious nature).

(2) Man was made in the "image [and] likeness" of God.

This image is found chiefly in the fact that man is a personal, rational, and moral being. While God is infinite and man finite, nevertheless man possesses the elements of personality similar to those of the divine Person: thinking (Gen. 2:19-20; 3:8); feeling (Gen. 3:6); willing (Gen. 3:6-7). That man has a moral nature is implicit in the record and is further attested by N.T. usage (Eph. 4:23-24; Col. 3:10). Man is also according to 1 Th. 5:23 (compare note) a triunity, made up of body, soul, and spirit; but, because "God is a Spirit" (Jn. 4:24), this tripartite nature of man is not to be confused with the original "image [and] likeness" of God which, being spiritual, relates to the elements of personality.

1:26 dominion. The Bible is a unity and the purpose of God is one. Man created in God's image (vv. 26-27) was placed in sovereignty over the earth (vv. 28-30), crowned with glory and honor (Ps. 8:5-8), yet subject to God his Creator (Gen. 2:15-17). The divine intention was and is that man should have fellowship with God in obedience. Sin came, the essence of which is rebellion against the will of God, and man became separated from God (Gen. 3:8-10) and lost sovereignty over the earth (Gen. 3:17-19).

The goal of God is to restore sinning man to His likeness, fellowship, and dominion (Rom. 8:29; Rev. 21:3; 20:6; 22:5). "But now we see not yet all things put under him [mankind]. But we see Jesus . . . crowned with glory and honour" in anticipation of many sons sharing His fellowship and dominion (Heb. 2:8-10; Rom. 8:17-19). This is in accordance with the first promise of redemption (Gen. 3:15).

In the meantime, we wait with patient assurance for God's complete victory on the earth (Rom. 8:19-25; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 11:15-18). For the working out of God's purpose of total redemption, see note on Dispensations below.

DISPENSATIONS OF THE BIBLE

A dispensation is a period of time during which man is tested in respect to his obedience to some specific revelation of the will of God.

Three important concepts are implied in this definition:

- (1) a deposit of divine revelation concerning God's will, embodying what God requires of man as to his conduct;
- (2) man's stewardship of this divine revelation, in which he is responsible to obey it; and
- (3) a time-period, often called an "age," during which this divine revelation is dominant in the testing of man's obedience to God.

The dispensations are a progressive and connected revelation of God's dealings with man, given sometimes to the whole race and at other times to a particular people, Israel. These different dispensations are not separate ways of salvation. During each of them man is reconciled to God in only one way, i.e. by God's grace through the work of Christ that was accomplished on the cross and vindicated in His resurrection. Before the cross man was saved in prospect of Christ's atoning sacrifice, through believing the revelation thus far given him. Since the cross man has been saved by believing on the Lord Jesus Christ in whom revelation and redemption are consummated.

On man's part the continuing requirement is obedience to the revelation of God. This obedience is a stewardship of faith. Although the divine revelation unfolds progressively, the deposit of truth in the earlier time-periods is not discarded; rather it is cumulative. Thus conscience (moral responsibility) is an abiding truth in human life (Rom. 2:15; 9:1; 2 Cor. 1:12; 4:2), although it does not continue as a dispensation. Similarly, the saved of this present dispensation are "not under the law" as a specific test of obedience to divine revelation (Gal. 5:18; cp. Gal. 2:16; 3:11), yet the law remains an integral part of the Holy Scriptures which, to the redeemed, are profitable for "instruction in righteousness" (2 Tim. 3:16-17; compare Rom. 15:4).

The purpose of each dispensation, then, is to place man under a specific rule of conduct, but such stewardship is not a condition of salvation. In every past dispensation unregenerate man has failed, and he has failed in this present dispensation and will in the future. But salvation has been and will continue to be available to him by God's grace through faith.

Seven dispensations (see Introduction, p. ix) are distinguished in this edition of the Bible: Innocence (Gen. 1:28); Conscience or Moral Responsibility (Gen. 3:7); Human Government (Gen. 8:15); Promise (Gen. 12:1); Law (Ex. 19:1); Church (Acts 2:1); Kingdom (Rev. 20:4), where see notes; also important note at Gen. 11:10, relating to God's dealings with mankind.

29 And God said, Behold, ^aI have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for ^bmeat.

30 And ^cto every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for ^bmeat; and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that he ^dhad made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

God's seventh-day rest (sabbath)
2 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he ^erested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the ^fseventh day, and ^gsanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

2:3 sanctified. The Hebrew word (qdash) means to set apart, hence, to make holy.

2:4 created. It is often said that Gen. 2:4-25 is a second account of creation differing from that in Gen. 1:1-2:3. In point of fact, however, Gen. 1 tells of the creation of the whole universe, including man and woman; while Gen. 2 specifically describes the origin of man and woman without repeating the story of the creation recorded in Gen. 1. Thus Gen. 2 says nothing of the creation of light, of the separation of the waters, or of the formation of sun, moon, and stars. Nor does it actually describe the creation of vegetation or of animals.

Genesis 2:8 is sometimes erroneously interpreted as describing the creation of vegetation, but it only mentions the planting of a particular garden. Verse 19, often misinterpreted as another description of the creation of animals coming after rather than before the creation of man, actually refers back to the creation of the animals that were brought before Adam. To think that the planting of the garden described in v. 8 was not done until after man had been formed, as stated in v. 7, is unnecessary. In both cases (the "planting" of the garden and the "forming" of the animals) the Hebrew verb could be more correctly translated by the English "had planted" and "had formed."

LORD God. Up to this point the general term "God" has been used. "LORD" is added to "God" in this verse, and continues to be used for several chapters. "LORD" is perhaps pronounced Yahweh (YHWH) in Hebrew, though traditionally Jehovah in English. (Here please read notes on LORD at Ex. 3:14; 6:3; 34:6.) The documentary theory of the authorship of the Pentateuch was built in part on the basis of this change in the name of God. See note at Mal. 3:18. Compare also notes at Gen. 1:1; 15:2; 17:1; 21:33; 1 Sam. 1:3.

1:28 THE FIRST DISPENSATION: INNOCENCE

Man was created in innocence, placed in a perfect environment, subjected to a simple test, and warned of the consequences of disobedience. He was not compelled to sin but, tempted by Satan, he chose to disobey God. The woman was deceived; the man transgressed deliberately (1 Tim. 2:14). The stewardship of Innocence ended in the judgment of the expulsion from Eden (Gen. 3:24). For notes on the other dispensations, see: Conscience or Moral Responsibility (Gen. 3:7); Human Government (Gen. 8:15); Promise (Gen. 12:1); Law (Ex. 19:1); Church (Acts 2:1); Kingdom (Rev. 20:4); also Gen. 11:10, note on page 21.

COVENANTS IN THE BIBLE

A covenant is a sovereign pronouncement of God by which He establishes a relationship of responsibility:

(1) between Himself and an individual (e.g. Adam in the Edenic Covenant, Gen. 2:16ff.),
 (2) between Himself and mankind in general (e.g. in the promise of the Noahic Covenant never again to destroy all flesh with a flood, Gen. 9:9ff.),

(3) between Himself and a nation (e.g. Israel in the Mosaic Covenant, Ex. 19:3ff.), or

(4) between Himself and a specific human family (e.g. the house of David in the promise of a kingly line in perpetuity through the Davidic Covenant, 2 Sam. 7:16ff.). A covenant of one category may overlap others; e.g. the Davidic Covenant, where a continuing kingly house is promised with ultimate blessing, not only to David but also to the whole world in the reign of Jesus Christ.

The covenants are normally unconditional in the sense that God obligates Himself in grace, by the unrestricted declaration, "I will," to accomplish certain announced purposes, despite any failure on the part of the person or people with whom He covenants. The human response to the divinely announced purpose is always important, leading as it does to blessing for obedience and discipline for disobedience. But human failure is never permitted to abrogate the covenant or block its ultimate fulfillment.

In the case of the Mosaic Covenant, the fulfillment of all the promises was made conditional upon Israel's obedience, as implied by the words, "... if ye will obey ... then ye shall be ..." followed by "All the people answered together ... All that the LORD hath spoken we will do" (Ex. 19:5,8).

The three universal and general covenants are: the Adamic, the Noahic, and also the Edenic in that the whole race is represented as present in Adam in his failure. All the other covenants are made with Israel or Israelites and apply primarily to them, although with ultimate blessing to the whole world.

There are eight major covenants of special significance in explaining the outworking of God's purposes with man. They are: the Edenic (Gen. 2:16); the Adamic (Gen. 3:15); the Noahic (Gen. 9:16); the Abrahamic (Gen. 12:2); the Mosaic (Ex. 19:5); the Palestinian (Dt. 30:3); the Davidic (2 Sam. 7:16); and the New Covenant (Heb. 8:8). See notes at the above Scriptures.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help ^emeet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the ^frib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

2:17 tree. Apart from the seven references to trees in general in the first three chapters of Genesis, frequently called fruit trees (1:11,12,29; 3:2,3; etc.), two particular trees are assigned great importance in this narrative:

(1) "The tree of the knowledge of good and evil" (2:9), said to be "in the midst of the garden" (3:3), was good for food as well as pleasant to the eyes (3:6), the fruit of which God forbade Adam and Eve to eat on the pain of death (2:17; 3:11,17). The tree was real, not mythical (compare The Pentateuch, p. xviii); it was not, however, any magical or psychological effect of eating the fruit that brought upon man moral disaster and death, but rather his disobedience to God.

(2) Of the "tree of life" (2:9) there are no details except that it was also "in the midst of the garden." The tree acquires significance because of the words in 3:22, that Adam must be expelled from the garden lest he "put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever." Adam and Eve were already in a state of sinfulness and in them, because of sin, the seeds of death were planted. There was, evidently, some virtue in the fruit of this tree which would prolong physical life indefinitely. It would have been tragic for men to live endlessly in a state of sin and approaching death. True life is now made available to all mankind, however, through Christ's death upon another tree (Acts 5:30; 10:39; 1 Pet. 2:24). This tree of life obtains an even richer meaning for the redeemed, according to Rev. 2:7; 22:2, in an eternal paradise prepared by God for sinners saved by His grace.

2:23 Woman. Hebrew Ishshah, because she was taken out of the man (Ish); compare Hos. 2:16. The woman is a type of the Church, the bride of Christ (Eph. 5:25-32; 2 Cor. 11:2-3; compare Jn. 3:28-29; Rev. 19:7-8).

2:24 cleave unto. That is, hold fast or cling to (Mt. 19:5; Mk 10:7-8; 1 Cor. 6:16; Eph. 5:31).

2:16 THE EDENIC COVENANT

The first or Edenic Covenant required the following responsibilities of Adam:

- (1) to propagate the race;
- (2) to subdue the earth for man;
- (3) to have dominion over the animal creation;
- (4) to care for the garden and eat its fruits and herbs; and

(5) to abstain from eating of one tree, the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, on penalty of death for disobedience.

For notes on other major covenants, see "Covenants in the Bible" on the facing page.

2:23 TYPES IN THE BIBLE

A type is a divinely purposed illustration of some truth. It may be:

- (1) a person (Rom. 5:14);
- (2) an event (1 Cor. 10:11);
- (3) a thing (Heb. 10:19-20);
- (4) an institution (Heb. 9:11-12); or
- (5) a ceremony (1 Cor. 5:7).

Types occur most frequently in the Pentateuch, but are found, more sparingly, elsewhere. The antitype, or fulfillment of the type, is found generally in the N.T.

Two warnings are necessary: (1) nothing may be insisted upon as a type without explicit N.T. authority; and (2) all types not so authenticated must be recognized as having only the authority of analogy, of spiritual congruity.

Second Dispensation: Conscience (Moral Responsibility) (Gen. 4:1-8:14)

8 ¶ And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife ^khid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

l Ex. 3:6; Dt. 9:19

3:7 THE SECOND DISPENSATION: CONSCIENCE (MORAL RESPONSIBILITY)

Man had now sinned (3:6-7), the first promise of redemption was to be given (3:15), and our first parents were to be expelled from Eden (3:22-24). Man's sin was a rebellion against a specific command of God (2:16-17) and marked a transition from theoretical to experiential knowledge of good and evil (3:5-7,22). Man sinned by entering the realm of moral experience by the wrong door when he could have entered by doing right. So man became as God through a personal experience of the difference between good and evil, but also unlike God in gaining this experience by choosing the wrong instead of the right. Thus he was placed by God under the stewardship of moral responsibility whereby he was accountable to do all known good, to abstain from all known evil, and to approach God through blood sacrifice here instituted in prospect of the finished work of Christ. The result is set forth in the Adamic Covenant (Gen. 3:14-21, see v. 15, note). Man failed the test presented to him in this dispensation (witness Gen. 6:5), as in others. Although, as the specific test, this time-era ended with the flood, man continued in his moral responsibility as God added further revelation concerning Himself and His will in succeeding ages (e.g. Acts 24:14-16; Rom. 2:15; 2 Cor. 4:2).

For notes on the other dispensations, see: Innocence (Gen. 1:28); Human Government (Gen. 8:15); Promise (Gen. 12:1); Law (Ex. 19:1); Church (Acts 2:1); Kingdom (Rev. 20:4); also Gen. 1:28 and 11:10, notes.

3:1 serpent. The serpent, in his Edenic form, is not to be thought of as a writhing reptile. That is the effect of the curse (Gen. 3:14). The creature which lent itself to Satan may well have been the most beautiful as it was the most "subtle" of creatures less than man. Traces of that beauty remain despite the curse. Every movement of a serpent is graceful, and many species are beautifully colored. In the serpent, Satan appeared as "an angel of light" (2 Cor. 11:14). Satan is called "serpent" in Rev. 12:9,14,15; 20:2. For the record of the fall of Satan, see Isa. 14:12-14, and read carefully note at v. 12.

3:6 did eat. The tragic consequence of the temptation and fall was nothing less than the universal sinfulness of all humanity. The Holy Spirit's commentary in the N.T. clearly states that the woman was deceived, whereas the man was not deceived; but both transgressed (1 Tim. 2:14). Satan's assault was threefold (compare Mt. 4:1-11; 1 Jn. 2:16). The temptation was initiated by Satan's introducing doubt and denial of God's Word (Gen. 3:1-5; Jn. 8:44). The fall brought a consciousness of sin, of condemnation, and of separation from God, as indicated by the fact that Adam and Eve "hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God" (Gen. 3:8; see also vv. 9-13). Man's nature became evil and inimical to God (Rom. 5:19; 8:7-8). This state of spiritual death issued in eventual physical death, both being implied in Gen. 2:17 (compare Rom. 5:12-14, where see notes). See also Gen. 3:15, note.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent ^abeguiled me, and I did eat.

3:15 enmity. As the English word "enmity" comes from the same root as "enemy," so also the Greek word used in the Septuagint at this verse, and the Greek word in the N.T. commonly rendered "enemy," derive from the same root. Our Lord specifically designates Satan as the "enemy" (Mt. 13:25,28, compare v. 39; probably also Lk. 10:19). All men outside of Christ are enemies of God (Rom. 5:10; Col. 1:21; Jas. 4:4); the carnal mind is at enmity with God (Rom. 8:7). This enmity, which is particularly manifested in those who are "enemies of the cross of Christ" (Phil. 3:18), will develop in great intensity in the end times (Rev. 12:13-17). heel. The chain of references which begins here includes the promises and prophecies concerning Christ which were fulfilled in His birth and works at His first advent. THE ADAMIC COVENANT

The Adamic Covenant conditions the life of fallen man—conditions which must remain till, in the kingdom age, "the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God" (Rom. 8:21). The elements of the covenant are:

(1) The serpent, Satan's tool, is cursed (v. 14; Rom. 16:20; 2 Cor. 11:3,14; Rev. 12:9) and becomes God's graphic warning in nature of the effects of sin—from the most beautiful and subtle of creatures to a loathsome reptile. The deepest mystery of the cross of Christ is strikingly pictured by the bronze serpent, a type of Christ "made . . . to be sin for us" in bearing the judgment we deserved (Num. 21:5-9; Jn. 3:14-15; 2 Cor. 5:21).

(2) The first promise of a Redeemer (v. 15). Here begins the "highway of the Seed": Abel, Seth, Noah (Gen. 6:8-10), Shem (Gen. 9:26-27), Abraham (Gen. 12:1-4), Isaac (Gen. 17:19-21), Jacob (Gen. 28:10-14), Judah (Gen. 49:10), David (2 Sam. 7:5-17), Immanuel-Christ (Isa. 7:10-14; Mt. 1:1,20-23; Jn. 12:31-33; 1 Jn. 3:8).

(3) The changed state of the woman (v. 16), in three particulars: (a) multiplied conception; (b) pain in motherhood; (c) the headship of the man (compare Gen. 1:26-27). Sin's disorder makes necessary a headship; it is vested in man (Eph. 5:22-25; 1 Cor. 11:7-9; 1 Tim. 2:11-14).

(4) The light occupation of Eden (Gen. 2:15) changed to burdensome labor (3:18-19), because of the earth's being cursed (3:17).

(5) The inevitable sorrow of life (v. 17).

(6) The brevity of life and the tragic certainty of physical death to Adam and all his descendants (v. 19; Rom. 5:12-21). See also Death (spiritual), Gen. 2:17; Eph. 2:5; and notes. Nevertheless, the curse upon the ground is for man's sake. It is not good for man to live without toil.

Eve: lifegiver. The first woman, created from Adam's rib. She was tempted by Satan and ate the fruit from the tree of knowledge, thus disobeying God.

3:21 coats of skins. A type of Christ, who became for us righteousness (1 Cor. 1:30)—a divinely provided garment that the first sinners might be made fit for God's presence. See Righteousness, garment (Rev. 19:8).

4:1 Cain. Cain is a type of the mere man of the earth. His religion was destitute of any adequate sense of sin or need of atonement. This religious type is described in 2 Pet. 2. Seven things are said of him: he

- (1) worships in self-will;
- (2) is angry with God;
- (3) refuses to bring a sin offering;
- (4) murders his brother;
- (5) lies to God;
- (6) becomes a wanderer; and
- (7) is, nevertheless, the object of the divine solicitude.

Cain: possession. The firstborn son of Adam and Eve who was a farmer. He killed his brother Abel when Abel's meat offering was accepted by God and Cain's produce offering was rejected.

4:2 Abel. Abel is a type of the spiritual man. His sacrifice, in which atoning blood was shed (Heb. 9:22), was therefore at once his confession of sin and the expression of his faith in the interposition of a substitute (Heb. 11:4).

Abel: vanity. The second son of Adam and Eve who was murdered by his brother, Cain.

4:4 firstlings of his flock. Type of Christ the Lamb of God, the most constant type of the suffering Messiah, "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world" (Jn. 1:29). A lamb fitly symbolizes the unresisting innocence and harmlessness of the Lord Jesus (Isa. 53:7; Mt. 26:52-54; Lk. 23:9). This type is brought into prominence by contrast with Cain's bloodless offering of the fruit of the ground and proclaims, in the very infancy of the race, the primal truth that "without shedding of blood is no remission" (Heb. 9:22; 11:4). Cain acknowledged God as the source of all natural good but rejected His revealed way of worship; Abel, in conformity with that revelation, brought a blood offering, thus confessing himself a sinner. In Cain began all false religion, the essence of which is man's coming to God in his own way.

4:7 sin. Or, "sin offering." In Hebrew the same word is used for "sin" and "sin offering," thus emphasizing in a remarkable way the complete identification of the believer's sin with his sin offering (compare Jn. 3:14 with 2 Cor. 5:21). Here both meanings are brought together. "Sin lieth at the door," but so also "a sin offering lieth at the [tent]

First murder: history of Cain
(cp. Gen. 4:23)

8 ¶ And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and ^eslew him.

9 And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I ^bmy brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? ^cthe voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand;

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a ^dvagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, thou hast ^edriven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a ^dvagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that ^fevery one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him ^gsevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

Cainite civilization

16 ¶ And Cain went out from the ^hpresence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city, and ⁱcalled the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech.

19 ¶ And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and ^jorgan.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, an instructor of every ^kartificer in ^lbrass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for ^mI have slain a man ⁿto my wounding, and a young man ^oto my hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged ^psevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

Birth of Seth

25 ¶ And ^qAdam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, ^rwhom Cain slew.

door." It is "where sin abounded" that "grace did much more abound" (Rom. 5:20). Abel's offering implies a previous instruction (compare Gen. 3:21), for it was "by faith" (Heb. 11:4), and faith is taking God at His word; so that Cain's unbloody offering was a refusal of the divine way. But the LORD made a last appeal to Cain even yet to bring the required offering (Gen. 4:7).

4:15 mark. That is, for Cain's protection. The law of Gen. 9:6 was not yet enacted. Compare Ex. 12:23.

4:16 Nod. Literally wandering.

4:17 builded a city. This early civilization, which perished in the judgment of the flood, was Cainitic in origin, character, and destiny. Many elements of material civilization are mentioned in vv. 16-22—city and pastoral life, and the development of arts and manufacturing. But they deliberately excluded God from their thoughts (Rom. 1:18-23). Observe the boastful speech of Lamech (vv. 23-24). The Cainitic civilization may have been as splendid as that of Greece or Rome, but the divine judgment is according to the moral state, not the material (Gen. 6:5-7). No traces of this advanced civilization have yet been found, nor is the geographic location known. Someday evidences may be uncovered by the archaeologist's spade.

4:22 an instructor. Literally the forger of all instruments of bronze and iron.

4:25 Seth. Hebrew Sheth, meaning appointed.

26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: then began men ^ato call upon the name of the LORD.

Reign of death (Rom. 5:12)

5 This is the book of the ^bgenerations of Adam. In the day that God created man, ^cin the likeness of God made he him;

2 ^aMale and female created he them; and ^eblessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

29 And he called his name Noah, saying, This same shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of ^cthe ground which the LORD hath cursed.

30 And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters:

31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years: and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old: and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

*The flood (Gen. 6:1–8:14):
(1) continuation of the race*

6 And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

(2) Warning of the LORD

3 And the LORD said, My ^dspirit shall not always ^estrive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

*(3) Antediluvian civilization
(see Lk. 17:27)*

4 There were giants in the earth in those ^fdays; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

(4) Purpose of the LORD in judgment

5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And it ^grepented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it ^hgrieved him at his heart.

6:4 THE SONS OF GOD

Some hold that the "sons of God" were fallen angels "which kept not their first estate" (Jude 6–7, compare "as Sodom and Gomorrah"; 2 Pet. 2:4–9). Accordingly, this intrusion into the human sphere produced a race of wicked giants (Gen. 6:4–6). Others hold that since angels are spoken of in a sexless way (compare Mt. 22:30), and because the words "took wives" signify a lasting marriage, the reference has to do with the breakdown of the separation of the godly line of Seth by intermarriage with the godless line of Cain. A refinement of the latter view holds that the expression "sons of God" refers to all the godly, and "daughters of men" to all the ungodly, irrespective of their natural paternity. Whichever view is held, it is obvious that Satan attempted so to corrupt the race that the Messiah could not come to redeem man. But God salvaged a remnant (Gen. 6:8ff.), and a godly line was preserved. However, there is no remedy for rebellion against God; the judgment predicted by Noah's ancestor fell (Jude 14–15; compare Gen. 7:11; Isa. 1:2–7,24–25).

5:22 Enoch. Enoch, who was "translated that he should not see death" (Heb. 11:5) before the judgment of the flood, is a type of those saints who are to be translated before the apocalyptic judgments (1 Th. 4:14–17).

6:5 imagination. Literally the whole imagination, that is, including purposes and desires. Compare Gen. 8:21; Ps. 14:1–3.

the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

(5) Purpose of the LORD in grace

8 But Noah found ^agrace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a ^bjust man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was ^cfilled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; ^dfor all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, ^eThe end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred ^fcubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall ^gdie.

18 But with thee will I establish my ^hcovenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 Thus ⁱdid Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

(6) Judgment of the flood

Noah: rest. A righteous, God-fearing man who obeyed God's order to build an ark thus saving himself, his family and the living creatures on earth from a devastating flood.

6:14 ark. A type of Christ as the refuge of His people from judgment (Heb. 11:7).

6:15 The dimensions of the ark are themselves an evidence of the accuracy of the Scriptures. On the basis of a cubit as 18 inches, the ark was 450 ft. long with a beam of 75 ft. and a depth of 45 ft. Similar to the proportions of a modern ocean liner, these dimensions are in marked contrast with descriptions of the ark found in ancient mythology. Compare the cuneiform representation of it as shaped like a six-storied cube of 262 ft. with a mast and pilot on top; or the Greek legend, according to Berosus, that it was 3000 ft. long and 1200 ft. wide.

6:16 window. An opening one cubit high, perhaps running around the ark.

6:19 two of every sort. Compare Gen. 7:2. In addition to two animals, etc., commanded here to be preserved for future increase ("they shall be male and female"), the further command was given to take of clean animals, that is, animals acceptable for sacrifice, seven each. Exodus gives ten such animals, or but seventy in all. Modern ships carry hundreds of live animals, with their food, besides scores of human beings.

7:1 Come . . . into the ark. Here God's beckoning embraces the basic meanings of this gracious invitation occurring again and again in the Scriptures, even down to the last page (Rev. 22:17). This invitation

(1) is extended by God to man;

(2) urges him to avail himself of the perfect provision God has made for his preservation; and

(3) is given in a time of overwhelming judgment and doom.

take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not ^aclean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living ^bsubstance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And ^cNoah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And ^dNoah ^ewent in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the ^fsame day were all the fountains of the ^ggreat deep ^hbroken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the ⁱrain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the ^jselfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, ^ktwo and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was ^lforty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen ^mcubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh ⁿdied that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living ^osubstance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and ^pNoah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

7:10 flood. The N.T. refers to the flood under three aspects:

(1) our Lord said that, as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the end of this age (Mt. 24:37-39; Lk. 17:26-27);

(2) Noah himself is used as an illustration of saving faith (Heb. 11:7); and

(3) the flood is used as a type of baptism (1 Pet. 3:19-21).

Ham: warm. The second son of Noah, who disgraced his father. Ham's son, Canaan, was cursed by Noah to serve Shem.

Japheth: extension. The third son of Noah, who was blessed by him.

7:24 days. The number (150) suggests the use of a 30-day month—5 months of 30 days each. Compare Gen. 7:11 and 8:4; also see 8:14, note.

IV. The Flood to Babel, 8:1-11:9

(7) Flood subsides

8 And God ^aremembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters *b*aswaged;

2 The ^cfountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were ^dstopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark;

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

Third Dispensation: Human Government (Gen. 8:15-11:32)

15 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be ^efruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

There followed 40 days before Noah sent out the raven (8:6-7), and three periods of 7 days related to the three releasings of the dove (8:8-12, compare v. 10 "yet other seven days"). Thus far there were 285 days. The period between the removal of the covering of the ark (601st year, 1st month, 1st day, v. 13) and the third sending forth of the dove is 29 days (deduced by comparing 8:13 with the date of entering the ark, 7:11).

Finally, a comparison of 8:13 with vv. 14-16 indicates a further 57 days' wait before Noah and his family went forth to the dry earth, or 371 days in all, which figure agrees when 7:11 is deducted from 8:14-12 months of 30 days plus 11 days. (The Jews count both the beginning and ending day of a sequence). But the actual elapsed time was exactly a solar year. This is established by multiplying the 12 months, of 7:11 and 8:14, by the 29½ days which comprise a lunar month. The total is 354 days. Add 11 days (17th to 27th of 2nd month, 7:11 and 8:14)—a total of 365 days, one solar year.

THE THIRD DISPENSATION: HUMAN GOVERNMENT

This dispensation began when Noah and his family left the ark. As Noah went into a new situation, God (in the Noahic Covenant) subjected humanity to a new test. Before this no man had the right to take another man's life (compare Gen. 4:10-11, 14-15, 23-24). In this new dispensation, although man's direct moral responsibility to God continued ("Render . . . unto God the things that are God's," Mt. 22:21), God delegated to him certain areas of His authority, in which he was to obey God through submission to his fellow man ("Render . . . unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's," Mt. 22:21). So God instituted a corporate relationship of man to man in human government.

The highest function of government is the protection of human life, out of which arises the responsibility of capital punishment. Man is not individually to avenge murder but, as a corporate group, he is to safeguard the sanctity of human life as a gift of God which cannot rightly be disposed of except as God permits. "The powers that be are ordained of God," and to resist the authorities is to resist God (Rom. 13:1-2). Whereas in the preceding dispensation restraint upon men was internal (Gen. 6:3) as God's Spirit worked through moral responsibility, now a new and external restraint was added, that is, the power of civil government.

Man failed to rule righteously. That both Jew and Gentile have governed for self, not for God, is sadly apparent. This failure was seen racially in the confusion of Babel (Gen. 11:9); in the failure of Israel in the period of the theocracy, which closed with captivity in Babylon (2 Chr. 36:15-21); and in the failure of the nations in the "times of the Gentiles" (Lk. 21:24; compare Dan. 2:31-45). Man's rule will finally be superseded by the glorious reign of our Lord Jesus Christ, whose right to reign is incontestable (Isa. 9:6-7; Jer. 23:5-6; 33:17; Ezek. 21:27; Lk. 1:30-33; Rev. 11:15-18; 19:16; 20:4-6). The dispensation of Human Government was followed as a specific test of obedience by that of Promise, when God called Abram as His instrument of blessing to mankind. However, man's responsibility for government did not cease but will continue until Christ sets up His kingdom.

For notes on other dispensations, see: Innocence (Gen. 1:28); Conscience or Moral Responsibility (Gen. 3:7); Promise (Gen. 12:1); Law (Ex. 19:1); Church (Acts 2:1); Kingdom (Rev. 20:4); also notes on Gen. 1:28 and 11:10.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; ^aneither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, ^bThis is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And ^cI will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting ^dcovenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

9:16 THE NOAHIC COVENANT

The Noahic Covenant reaffirms the conditions of life of fallen man as announced by the Adamic Covenant, and institutes the principle of human government to curb the outbreak of sin, since the threat of divine judgment in the form of another flood has been removed. The elements of the covenant are:

(1) Man is made responsible to protect the sanctity of human life by orderly rule over the individual man, even to capital punishment (Gen. 9:5-6; compare Rom. 13:1-7).

(2) No additional curse is placed upon the ground, nor is man to fear another universal flood (Gen. 8:21; 9:11-16).

(3) The order of nature is confirmed (Gen. 8:22; 9:2).

(4) The flesh of animals is added to man's diet (Gen. 9:3-4). Presumably man had been a vegetarian prior to the flood.

(5) A prophetic declaration is made that descendants of Canaan, one of Ham's sons, will be servants to their brethren (Gen. 9:25-26).

(6) A prophetic declaration is made that Shem will have a unique relation to the LORD (Gen. 9:26-27). All divine revelation is through Semitic men, and Christ, after the flesh, descends from Shem.

(7) A prophetic declaration is made that from Japheth will descend the enlarged races (Gen. 9:27). Government, science, and art, speaking broadly, are and have been Japhetic, so that history is the indisputable record of the exact fulfillment of these declarations.

For notes on other major covenants, see: Edenic (Gen. 2:16); Adamic (Gen. 3:15); Abrahamic (Gen. 12:2); Mosaic (Ex. 19:5); Palestinian (Dt. 30:3); Davidic (2 Sam. 7:16); New (Heb. 8:8).

10:2 Gomer. Progenitor of the ancient Cimmerians and Cimbri, from whom are descended the Celtic family. Magog. From Magog may be descended the ancient Scythians (Josephus, Ant. 1.vi,i), who lived north of the Black Sea. For Magog in prophecy, compare Ezek. 38:2; 39:6; Rev. 20:8. Madai. Progenitor of the ancient Medes. Javan. Progenitor of those who peopled Greece, Syria, etc. Tubal. Some believe that Tubal's descendants peopled the region south of the Black Sea, from whence they spread north and south. It is quite possible that Tobolsk perpetuates the tribal name. Meshech. Progenitor of a race mentioned in connection with Tubal, Magog, and other northern nations (Ezek. 38:2; 39:6). Many think Russia is modern Magog, Tubal, and Meshech. Tiras. According to ancient opinion, progenitor of the Thracians, more recently the Tyrsenoi, a people occupying the coast lands of the Aegean Sea.

10:3 Ashkenaz. Jeremiah 51:27 reveals that the Ashkenaz lived in the vicinity of Ararat, Armenia. In later Jewish literature Ashkenaz is employed as a designation of Germany. The Ashkenazim were Jews who had their abode in Germanic countries, just as the Sephardim denote Jews of Portugal and Spain. Riphath, and Togarmah. Inhabitants of Asia Minor.

10:4 Elishah. Perhaps peoples from Sicily or Cyprus. Tarshish. Tarshish is frequently mentioned in the O.T. as a flourishing seaport (compare 1 Ki. 10:22; Jon. 1:3). This may well be a reference to Tartessus in ancient Spain. Dodanim. Sometimes written as "Rodanim," this name may allude to the people of the Rhodian islands in the Aegean Sea.

10:6 Cush. Ethiopia. Mizraim. Egypt. Phut. Sometimes written "Put," Phut refers to Lybia.

10:15 Sidon. Sidon, sometimes called "Zidon," once was the capital of ancient Phoenicia. Heth. Ancestor of the Hittites.

10:16 Jebusite. A tribe in the neighborhood of Jerusalem, which was also called Jebus (Jud. 19:10).

10:1 AN ETHNOLOGICAL TABLE: NOAH'S FAMILY

Genesis 10 contains the earliest ethnological table in the literature of the ancient world, compiled centuries before the Homeric writings. In this table of nations there is a remarkable perception of the ethnic and linguistic situation of the age of Noah and his descendants. Virtually all the names here have been found in archaeological discoveries of the past century.

Many of these names reappear subsequently in Hebrew literature in Isa. 13-27; Jer. 46-51; Ezek. 25-32. Eleven of the names reappear in Ezek. 27: Javan, Tubal, Meshech, Togarmah, Chittim (Kittim), Dedan, Lud, Zidon, Tarshish, Arvad, and Mizraim (which is Egypt). Chittim (Cyprus) is named also in Isa. 23; Sidon, in Isa. 23:4ff.; Jer. 47:4; Egypt, in Isa. 19; Jer. 46; Ezek. 29-32. Babel, or Babylon, is prophetically discussed in Isa. 13,47; Jer. 50,51; as well as Rev. 17,18. Elam reappears in Isa. 21:2; Jer. 49:34-39; and Tarshish in Isa. 23:1,6. Magog is dominant in Ezek. 38,39. Some of these prophecies have not yet been completely fulfilled; thus some of these areas and tribes will have a history in God's program thousands of years after their names first appeared.

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto Gaza; as thou goest, unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The ^achildren of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and ^bArphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

25 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

10:29 Ophir. Ophir, at the southern end of the Red Sea, was famous for its gold (1 Ki. 9:28; 10:11); almug trees were evidently plentiful there also. See 1 Ki. 10:11, note.

11:1 one language. In judgment upon sinful man's first attempt to establish a world state in opposition to the divine rule, God struck at the very thing which binds men together, namely, a common language (vv. 7-9).

11:4 tower. Among the discoveries of archaeology in Mesopotamia are the ziggurats, terrace towers built for worship of pagan deities.

11:9 As an interesting play on words, Babel is compared with balal, the Hebrew word meaning to confuse. See v. 1 and Isa. 13:1, notes; compare Rev. 18:2, note.

Babel: confusion. A name for the early city of Babylon, established by Nimrod. It was the site of an attempt to build a tower to reach heaven: the earliest attempt of the Babylonians' rebellion against God.

11:10 begat. The Hebrew word rendered "begat" does not mean became the father of but often means became an ancestor of; and the Biblical word "son," though often indicating an immediate child, may also be the equivalent of our English word "descendant." Thus Mt. 1:1 calls Jesus Christ "the son of David, the son of Abraham." See also Mt. 22:42. The genealogy in Mt. 1:8 says that Joram begot Uz-ziah, thus omitting three links: Ahaziah, Joash, and Amaziah, all kings of Judah whose names would have been known to every Jew. Also compare Ezra 7:3 with 1 Chr. 6:7-11. In view of all these facts we see that Gen. 11:10 means that, when Shem was 100 years old, his wife bore a child who was either Arphaxad or an ancestor of Arphaxad. Many links in the chain of ancestry may have been left unmentioned. after the flood. Scripture does not provide data by which the date of the flood can be discovered. (See notes on Gen. 1:1; 5:3.)

Excavations have shown that its material civilization was far advanced, even long before the time of Abram; its houses show a level of material welfare in Abram's day equal to that of Babylon in Nebuchadnezzar's time, more than 1000 years later.

DIVINE DEALING WITH THE HUMAN RACE

Genesis 11 and 12 mark an important turning point in the divine dealing. Up to this point the history has been that of the whole Adamic race. There has been neither Jew nor Gentile; all have been one in "the first man Adam." Henceforth, in the Scripture record, humanity must be thought of as a vast stream from which God, in the call of Abram and the creation of the nation of Israel, has but drawn off a rivulet through which He may at last purify the great river itself. Israel was called to be a witness to the unity of God in the midst of universal idolatry (Dt. 6:4; Isa. 43:10-12); to illustrate the blessedness of serving the true God (Dt. 33:26-29); to receive and preserve the divine revelations (Dt. 4:5-8; Rom. 3:1-2); and to be the human channel for the Messiah (Gen. 21:12; 28:10,14; 49:10; 2 Sam. 7:16-17; Isa. 7:13-14; Mt. 1:1).

The reader of Scripture should hold firmly in mind:

(1) From Gen. 12 to Mt. 12:45 the Scriptures have primarily in view Israel, the rivulet, not the great Gentile river; though again and again the universality of the ultimate divine intent breaks into view (e.g. Gen. 12:3; Isa. 2:2,4; 5:26; 9:1-2; 11:10-12; 42:1-6; 49:6,12; 52:15; 54:3; 55:5; 60:3,5,11-16; 61:6,9; 62:2; 66:12,18-19; Jer. 16:19; Joel 3:9-10; Mal. 1:11; Rom. 9; 10; and 11; Gal. 3:8-14).

(2) The human race, Gentile and Jew, goes on under the Adamic and Noahic Covenants, continuing under the dispensations (stewardship responsibilities) of Conscience (Moral Responsibility) and Human Government. Israel, in addition, received the light and added responsibility of, first the Abrahamic, and then the Mosaic and Palestinian Covenants.

(3) The moral history of the Gentile world beginning with Babel, as it descended into the sin of idolatry and its resulting perversion of morals, is described by the Holy Spirit in Rom. 1:18-32, along with its moral accountability (Rom. 2:1-16). Conscience never acquits: it either accuses or excuses.

(4) Where the law later became known to the Gentiles, it was to them, as to Israel, "the ministration of death," a "curse" (Rom. 3:19-20; 7:9-10; 2 Cor. 3:7; Gal. 3:10). And

(5) a wholly new responsibility arises when either Jew or Gentile knows the gospel (Jn. 3:18-19,36; 15:22-24; 16:9; 1 Jn. 5:9-12).

12:1 THE FOURTH DISPENSATION: PROMISE

This dispensation extended from the call of Abram to the giving of the law at Sinai (Ex. 19:3ff.). Its stewardship was based upon God's covenant with Abram, first cited here, Gen. 12:1-3, and confirmed and enlarged in Gen. 13:14-17; 15:1-7; 17:1-8, 15-19; 22:16-18; 26:2-5, 24; 28:13-15; 31:13; 35:9-12.

Observe (1) the specific provisions affecting Abram himself (Gen. 15:15) and his son and grandson, Isaac and Jacob (Gen. 26:1-5; 28:10-16), under which individual blessing depended on individual obedience (Gen. 12:1; compare 22:18; 26:5).

(2) God made an unconditional promise of blessings through Abram's seed (a) to the nation Israel to inherit a specific territory forever (Gen. 12:2; 15:18-21; 17:7-8); (b) to the Church as in Christ (Gal. 3:16, 28-29); and (c) to the Gentile nations (Gen. 12:3).

(3) There was a promise of blessing on those individuals and nations who bless Abram's descendants, and a curse laid on those who persecute the Jews (Gen. 12:3; Mt. 25:31-46). Consequently this dispensation had varied emphases. To the Gentiles of that period, there was little direct application other than the test implied by Gen. 12:3 and illustrated by God's blessing or judgment upon individuals (Pharaoh, Gen. 12:17; Abimelech, Gen. 20:3, 17, etc.), or nations (e.g. Egypt, Gen. 47-50; Ex. 1-15) who treated Abram or his descendants well or ill.

In the continuance through the centuries of this stewardship of truth, believers of the Church age are called upon to trust God as Abram did (Rom. 4:11, 16, 23-25; Gal. 3:6-9), and thus enter into the blessings of the covenant which inaugurated the dispensation of Promise.

God's promises to Abram and his seed certainly did not terminate at Sinai with the giving of the law (Gal. 3:17). Both O.T. and N.T. are full of post-Sinaitic promises concerning Israel and the land which is to be Israel's everlasting possession (e.g. Ex. 32:13; 33:1-3; Lev. 23:10; 25:2; 26:6; Dt. 6:1-23; 8:1-18; Josh. 1:2, 11; 24:13; Acts 7:17; Rom. 9:4). But as a specific test of Israel's stewardship of divine truth, the dispensation of Promise was superseded, though not annulled, by the law that was given at Sinai (Ex. 19:3ff.).

Other dispensational notes: Innocence (Gen. 1:28); Conscience or Moral Responsibility (Gen. 3:7); Human Government (Gen. 8:15); Law (Ex. 19:1); Church (Acts 2:1); Kingdom (Rev. 20:4); see also Gen. 1:28 and 11:10, notes.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

Palestine to His people Israel, a truth here announced for the first time but repeated in nearly 150 passages in the O.T. from the days of the patriarchs to the return from the exile (Neh. 9:35,36) and even incorporated in the Decalogue (Ex. 20:12).

12:8 Beth-el. One of the sacred places of Canaan, means house of God (Gen. 28:1-22; see 35:7, note). It was at this place that Jeroboam chose to practice his idolatry (1 Ki. 12:28-13:6), whereupon God's judgment decreed the destruction of Beth-el despite its sacred memories (1 Ki. 13:1-5; 2 Ki. 23:15-17; Amos 3:14-15). Although God must act ultimately in judgment against that which is contrary to His character, whatever its former associations, such action is accompanied by the sorrow of His divine compassion (Ex. 34:6-7).

12:9 south. Or Negev, the transliteration of a Hebrew word meaning "dry." It is a geographical term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.).

12:13 thou art my sister. Abram's proposal was partial truth, for Sarai was his half sister (Gen. 20:12), but what was told was with intent of deception. Compare Gen. 26:7.

THE ABRAHAMIC COVENANT

The Abrahamic Covenant as formed (Gen. 12:1-4) and confirmed (Gen. 13:14-17; 15:1-7,18-21; 17:1-8) is in three aspects:

(1) The promise of a great nation: "I will make of thee a great nation" (Gen. 12:2). This had primary reference to Israel, the descendants of Jacob, to whom the everlasting possession of the land is promised (Gen. 17:8), to whom the everlasting covenant is given (Gen. 17:7), and to whom God said, "I will be their God" (Gen. 17:8). Abraham was also promised that he would father other nations (compare Gen. 17:6,20), principally fulfilled through Ishmael and Esau.

(2) Four personal promises are given to Abraham: (a) To be the father of numerous descendants (Gen. 17:16). (b) To receive personal blessing, "I will bless thee," fulfilled in two ways: temporally (Gen. 13:14-15,17; 15:18; 24:34-35); and spiritually (Gen. 15:6; Jn. 8:56). (c) To receive personal honor, "and make thy name great" (Gen. 12:2), fulfilled in recognition by all who honor the Bible. And (d) to be the channel of blessing, "and thou shalt be a blessing" (Gen. 12:2), fulfilled: in blessings to others through his seed, Israel, who became the instruments of divine revelation; through Abraham as an example of pious faith (Rom. 4:1-22); and preeminently through Christ, Abraham's Seed (Gal. 3:16).

(3) Promises to the Gentiles. (a) "I will bless them that bless thee" (Gen. 12:3). Those who honor Abraham will be blessed. (b) "And curse him who curseth thee" (Gen. 12:3). This was a warning literally fulfilled in the history of Israel's persecutions. It has invariably fared ill with the people who have persecuted the Jew—well with those who have protected him. For a nation to commit the sin of anti-Semitism brings inevitable judgment. The future will still more remarkably prove this principle (Dt. 30:7; Isa. 14:1-2; Joel 3:1-8; Mic. 5:7-9; Hag. 2:22; Zech. 14:1-3; Mt. 25:40,45). (c) "And in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed" (Gen. 12:3). This is the great evangelic promise fulfilled in Abraham's Seed, Christ, and in all the spiritual seed of Abraham who, like Abraham, are justified by faith (Rom. 4:3; Gal. 3:6-9,16,29; compare Jn. 8:56-58). It gives added revelation and confirmation of the promise of the Adamic Covenant concerning the Seed of the woman (Gen. 3:15).

The Abrahamic Covenant reveals the sovereign purpose of God to fulfill through Abraham His program for Israel, and to provide in Christ the Savior for all who believe. The ultimate fulfillment is made to rest upon the divine promise and the power of God rather than upon human faithfulness.

For notes on the other major covenants, see: Edenic (Gen. 2:16); Adamic (Gen. 3:15); Noahic (Gen. 9:16); Mosaic (Ex. 19:5); Palestinian (Dt. 30:3); Davidic (2 Sam. 7:16); New (Heb. 8:8).

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he ^aentreated Abram well for her sake: and he had ^bsheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD ^cplagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, ^dWhat is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

13 And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and ^eLot with him, into the ^fsouth.

2 And Abram was very ^grich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

14:9 four kings with five. It was formerly doubted that kings from distant Mesopotamia could conduct a powerful expedition so far from their own land at this early time, but there is now much evidence of similar expeditions. One reason that some have questioned the historicity of this chapter is the description of the kings as following a route near the extreme eastern edge of Palestine (v. 5). Archaeologists, however, have discovered the towns mentioned in v. 5 and have found that they were heavily fortified at the time of Abram. Regarding Sodom and Gomorrah, see Gen. 19:28, note.

14:13 Hebrew. This is the first time that the word "Hebrew" is used in the Bible. It may be derived from "Eber," Abram's ancestor (Gen. 10:25).

14:14 trained servants. The Hebrew word used here occurs nowhere else in the Hebrew Bible; it is employed in early Egyptian documents to indicate the hired soldiers of Palestinian chiefs at this period. pursued them. Abram, the separated man, had power to help. Compare Gen. 19:29; 2 Tim. 2:20-21.

14:18 Melchizedek king of Salem. Melchizedek is a type of Christ the King-Priest. The type strictly applies to the priestly work of Christ in resurrection, since Melchizedek presents only the memorials of sacrifice, bread and wine. "After the order of Melchizedek" (Ps. 110:4; Heb.

5:5-6; 6:20) refers to the royal authority and unending duration of Christ's high priesthood (Heb. 7:23-24). The Aaronic priesthood was often interrupted by death. Christ is a priest according to the order of Melchizedek, as King of righteousness, King of peace (Isa. 11:4-9; Heb. 7:2), and in the endlessness of His priesthood; but the Aaronic priesthood typifies His priestly work. Salem. Salem means peace. Compare Heb. 7:2. This is the first mention of Salem (Jerusalem) in the Bible. Its existence as early as this is evidenced by the Tell el Amarna Tablets, discovered at Tell el Amarna in Egypt. These tablets are letters between the kings of Egypt in the 15th century B.C. and various rulers in Palestine and elsewhere. They throw much light on conditions in Palestine at that early time and corroborate the general picture of Canaan given in Genesis.

Archaeology has demonstrated the existence, as early as the time of Abram, of numerous Palestinian cities mentioned in Genesis. Many cities referred to in later books of the Bible, but not in Genesis, were not founded until a much later period, as excavation proves. priest. First mention of priest. most high God. See note on p. 28.

Melchizedek: king of righteousness. The priest-king of Salem (Jerusalem) who blessed Abraham. The writer of the book of Hebrews stated that Melchizedek was a type of Christ.

MOST HIGH GOD, GOD MOST HIGH

Hebrew El Elyon. "Elyon" means simply highest; El Elyon is "God the highest."

(1) The first revelation of this name (v. 18) indicates its distinctive meanings. Abram, returning from his victory over the confederated kings (Gen. 14:1-17), is met by Melchizedek, king of Salem . . . the "priest of the most high God" (El Elyon), who blesses Abram in the name of El Elyon, "possessor of heaven and earth." This revelation produced a remarkable impression upon the patriarch. Not only did he at once give Melchizedek "a tithe of" the spoil of the battle, but when the king of Sodom offered some of that spoil to Abram, his answer was: "I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD [Jehovah], the most high God [El Elyon], the possessor of heaven and earth, that I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet," etc. (Gen. 14:22-23).

(a) The LORD (Jehovah) is known to a Gentile king (Melchizedek) by the name "most high God" (El Elyon); (b) a Gentile is the priest of El Elyon and (c) His distinctive character as most high God is "possessor of heaven and earth."

Appropriately to this Gentile knowledge of God by His name "most high," it is written that "the most High divided to the nations [that is, Gentiles] their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam," etc. (Dt. 32:8). As "possessor of heaven and earth," it was the prerogative of the most high to distribute the earth among the nations according to whatever principle He chose. That principle is declared in Dt. 32:8. The same thing is taught by the use of the name in Daniel, the book of Gentile prophecy (Dan. 3:26; 4:17,24,25, 32,34; 5:18,21).

(2) As "possessor of heaven and earth," the most high God has and exercises authority in both spheres: (a) the heavenly authority of El Elyon (e.g. Dan. 4:35,37; Isa. 14:13-14; Mt. 28:18); (b) the earthly authority of El Elyon (e.g. Dt. 32:8; 2 Sam. 22:14-15; Ps. 9:2-5; 21:7; 47:2-4; 56:2-3; 82:6,8; 83:16-18; 91:9-12; Dan. 5:18). For other names of Deity, see notes on: Gen. 1:1; 15:2; 17:1; 21:33; Ex. 34:6; 1 Sam. 1:3; Mal. 3:18.

LORD, LORD GOD

"Lord" (Hebrew Adon, Adonai).

(1) The primary meaning of "Adon," "Adonai," is Master, and it is applied in the O.T. Scriptures both to Deity and to man. The latter instances are distinguished by the omission of the capital. As applied to man, the word is used of two relationships: master and husband (Gen. 24:9,10,12: "master," may illustrate the former; Gen. 18:12, "lord," the latter). Both these relationships exist between Christ and the believer (Jn. 13:13, Teacher; 2 Cor. 11:2, husband).

(2) Two principles inhere in the relation of master and servant: (a) the master's right to implicit obedience (Lk. 6:46; Jn. 13:13-14); (b) the servant's right to direction in service (Isa. 6:8-11). Clear distinction in the use of the divine names is illustrated in Ex. 4:10-12. Moses feels his weakness and incompetence, and "Moses said unto the LORD [Jehovah], O my Lord, [Adonai], I am not eloquent," etc. Since service is in question, Moses appropriately addresses Jehovah as Lord. But now power is in question, and it is not the Lord (Adonai) but Jehovah (LORD) who answers (referring to creation power)—"The LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? . . . Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth." The same distinction appears in Josh. 7:8-11.

"Lord God" (Hebrew Adonai Jehovah).

When used distinctively this compound name, while gathering into one the special meanings of each (see Ex. 34:6, note), will be found to emphasize the Adonai rather than the Jehovah character of Deity. (The following passages may suffice to illustrate this: Gen. 15:2,8; Dt. 3:24; 9:26; Josh. 7:7; Jud. 6:22; 16:28; 2 Sam. 7:18-20,28-29; 1 Ki. 2:26; Ps. 69:6; 71:5; Isa. 7:7). For other names of Deity, see notes on: Gen. 1:1; 14:18; 17:1; 21:33; Ex. 34:6; 1 Sam. 1:3; Mal. 3:18.

Israel's captivity predicted by God

7 ¶ And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Lord GOD, ^jwhereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and ^kdivided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but ^lthe birds divided he not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, a ^mdeep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a ⁿstranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them ^ofour hundred years;

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out ^pwith great substance.

15 ^qAnd thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the ^riniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.

17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that ^spassed between those pieces.

18 In the same day the LORD made a ^tcovenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates:

15:6 counted it to him for righteousness. This is the first occurrence of the vital and sole condition of salvation. Man is without righteousness (Ps. 51:5; Rom. 3:23); if he is to be just in God's sight, God must reckon His own righteousness to man's account through man's trust in Him. The quotation of this passage in Rom. 4:3 indicates that the method of salvation in O.T. and N.T. is the same. Galatians 3:3,6 affirms that the Christian life is one of faith, because it was entered by this way. In Jas. 2:21 the teaching is that saving faith manifests itself in works as in Abraham's offering of Isaac (Gen. 22).

13-14,16; Dt. 28:62-65; 30:1-3; Jer. 25:11-12). Two dispossessions and restorations have been accomplished. Israel is now in the third dispersion, from which she will be restored at the return of the Lord as King under the Davidic Covenant (see 2 Sam. 7:16, note; compare Dt. 30:3; Jer. 23:5-8; Ezek. 37:21-25; Lk. 1:30-33; Acts 15:14-17). river of Egypt. Not the Nile but a small stream south of Gaza, known as Wadi el Arish; Num. 34:5.

3 And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, ^cafter Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

4 ¶ And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was ^ddespised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, ^eMy wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me and thee.

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

7 ¶ And the *f*angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to *g*Shur.

8 And he said, Hagar, Sarai's maid, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

9 And the *f*angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands.

10 And the *f*angel of the LORD said unto her, I will ^hmultiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

Hagar: flight. The maidservant of Sarai who had a son Ishmael by Abraham. She and her son were later sent away from Abraham's family.

16:11 Ishmael, the child of Sarai's and Abram's lapse into unbelief, was the progenitor of the Arabs, the traditional enemies of the Jewish people. Moreover Muhammed, the founder of Islam, whose adherents form Christianity's most difficult missionary problem, came from the line of Ishmael. Islam is the world religion which is, perhaps, closest to Christianity; thus it is the hardest to penetrate with the Gospel of Christ.

Abrahamic Covenant confirmed again and made everlasting

Circumcision instituted as sign of Abrahamic Covenant

9 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations.

10 ^fThis is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every ^gman child among you shall be circumcised.

11 ^hAnd ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a ⁱtoken of the covenant betwixt me and you.

12 And he that is ^jeight days old shall be ^kcircumcised among you, every ^lman child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any ^mstranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised ⁿman child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

17:10 circumcised. The rite of circumcision first appears in the Biblical record after the announcement of the Abrahamic Covenant (Gen. 12:1). The sign of the covenant between the LORD and Noah was the rainbow (Gen. 9:13; compare 8:20-22), in regard to which man himself had no responsibility. But this token of God's covenant with Abraham, circumcision, becomes effective only by the voluntary obedience of man, especially of parent toward child, and thus indicates

- (1) man's responsibility;
- (2) his faith in God's Word (Rom. 4:11-12); and
- (3) his assent to the condition of divine mercy.

The circumcised man was to identify himself as a member of Israel.

Circumcision was practiced in Egypt at a very early time, but not among the Babylonians or the Hurrians (Horites) who made up a large part of the population of Palestine in Abraham's day. Genesis 17 does not describe its origin but tells how God prescribed it for Abraham and his descendants, and gave it a spiritual meaning.

17:1 ALMIGHTY GOD

Hebrew El Shaddai.

Shaddai is the name of God characteristically used by the patriarchs prior to the giving of the law at Sinai. Its most frequent occurrence is in the Book of Job, where Shaddai occurs thirty-one times. The name Jehovah largely replaces it from Ex. 6 onward, where attention is centered more particularly on Israel as God's covenant people.

(1) El Shaddai is the name of God which sets Him forth primarily as the strengthener and satisfier of His people. It is to be regretted that Shaddai was translated "Almighty." The primary name, El or Elohim, sufficiently signifies almightiness. "All-sufficient" would far better express the characteristic use of the name in Scripture.

(2) Almighty God (El Shaddai) not only enriches but makes fruitful. This is nowhere better illustrated than in the first occurrence of the name (Gen. 17:1-8). To a man ninety-nine years of age, and "as good as dead" (Heb. 11:12), He said: "I am the Almighty God . . . I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly." The same thing is taught by the use of the name in Gen. 28:3-4.

(3) As bestower of fruitfulness, Almighty God (El Shaddai) chastens His people. For the moral connection of chastening with fruit-bearing, see Jn. 15:2; compare Ruth 1:20; Heb. 12:10. Hence, Almighty is the characteristic name of God in Job. The hand of Shaddai falls upon Job, the best man of his time, not in judgment but in purifying unto greater fruitfulness (Job 5:17-25). For other names of Deity, see notes on: Gen. 1:1; 14:18; 15:2; 21:33; Ex. 34:6; 1 Sam. 1:3; Mal. 3:18.

face, and ^alaughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And Abraham ^bsaid unto God, O that Ishmael might live before thee!

19 And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee ^ca son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my ^dcovenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his ^eseed after him.

Ishmael to be a nation

20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; ^ftwelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great ^gnation.

21 But my ^hcovenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set ⁱtime in the next year.

22 And he ^jleft off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 ¶ And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the ^kselfsame day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Abraham ^lwas ninety years old and nine, when ^mhe was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son ⁿwas thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the ^oselfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son.

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the ^pstranger, were circumcised with him.

18 And the LORD ^qappeared unto him in the ^rplains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, ^sthree men stood by him: and when he saw ^tthem, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and ^uwash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 ^vAnd I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead ^wit, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetcht a calf tender and good, and gave ^xit unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set ^yit before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 ¶ And they said unto him, Where ^zis Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, ^{aa}Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard ^{ab}it in the tent door, which ^{ac}was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah ^{ad}were ^{ae}old and well stricken in age; and ^{af}it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah ^{ag}laughed within herself, saying, After I ^{ah}am waxed old shall I have pleasure, ^{ai}my lord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

32 And he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: ^tPeradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

33 And the LORD went his way, as soon as he had ^uleft communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and ^ywash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and ^ahe made them a feast, and did bake ^bunleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 ¶ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, ^cWhere are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Behold now, ^dI have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a ^ejudge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed ^fsore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they ^gsmote the men that were at the door of the house with ^hblindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the ⁱcry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

Destruction of Sodom

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the ^kangels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him ^mwithout the city.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, ⁿEscape for thy life; ^olook not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape ^pto the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord:

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil ^qtake me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 ¶ The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then the LORD rained upon ^rSodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and ^sfire from the LORD out of heaven;

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the /morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay ^syesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

19:28 The ruins of Sodom and Gomorrah are probably hidden beneath the waters of the shallow southern end of the Dead Sea, which has risen greatly in recent years and now covers a much larger area than formerly. Ruins of a festival center on a neighboring plateau, where inhabitants of these cities may have gathered, have been discovered. Archaeological examination proves that the center was used for centuries but abandoned after Abraham's time.

Sodom and Gomorrah: burning. Cities located in the Valley of Siddim known for their extreme wickedness and destroyed by God with fire and brimstone. Only Lot and his family survived the destruction.

19:32 Lot "pitched his tent toward Sodom" (Gen. 13:12) for worldly gain; then he became an important man in Sodom (Gen. 19:1) at the cost of his daughters' accepting the morals of Sodom.

19:36 Abraham and Lot are contrasted characters. Of the same stock (Gen. 11:31), subjected to the same environment, and both justified men (Gen. 15:6; 2 Pet. 2:7-8), the contrast in character and career is shown to be the result of their respective choices at a crisis in their lives. Lot "chose him all the plain of Jordan" for present advantage; Abraham, waiting "looked for a city which hath foundations" (Heb. 11:10), "came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre [fatness], which is in Hebron [communion]" (Gen. 13:18). The men are representative of the worldly and the spiritual believer.

Abimelech: of the king. The king of the city of Gerar in Philistia who formed an alliance with Abraham.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord, ^awill thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also ^bwithheld thee from sinning ^cagainst me: therefore ^dsuffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for ^ehe is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were ^fsofe afraid.

9 ^gThen Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What ^hsawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the ⁱfear of God is not in this place; and they will ^jslay me for my wife's sake.

12 And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And ^kAbimelech took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, ^lmy land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reproved.

17 ¶ So Abraham prayed unto God: and God ^mhealed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare children.

18 For the LORD had ⁿfast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, ^obecause of Sarah Abraham's wife.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being ^weight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was an ^xhundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

21:3 Sarah. A type of grace, the "freewoman," and of "the Jerusalem which is above." Compare Gen. 17:15-19; Gal. 4:22-31. Isaac. Typical in a fourfold way:

(1) of the Church as composed of the spiritual children of Abraham (Gal. 4:28);

(2) of Christ as the Son "obedient unto death" (Gen. 22:1-10; Phil. 2:5-8);

(3) of Christ as the Bridegroom of a called-out bride (compare Gen. 24; see Church, Mt. 16:18, note); and

(4) of the new nature of the believer as "born after the Spirit" (Gal. 4:29).

Isaac: laughter. The son of Abraham and Sarah, born when they were both very old. His birth was foretold by an angel of the Lord, fulfilling the promise God had made to his father. He married Rebekah, was the father of Jacob and Esau, and inherited the covenant promise.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, ^bCast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac.

11 ^cAnd the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son.

12 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for ^din Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a ^enation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a ^fbottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of ^gBeer-sheba.

15 And the water was spent in the ^hbottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down ^hover against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat ^hover against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the ⁱangel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; ^jfor I will make him a great nation.

19 And God ^kopened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the ^lbottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 ^lAnd God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

21:13 bondwoman. Many features of Abraham's treatment of Hagar seem strange to a modern reader, but they are exactly in accord with the provisions of the Code of Hammurabi, the great Babylonian law code of Mesopotamia, the region from which he had come. Before the discovery of this code many critics had questioned whether so complex a code as that of Moses could have been written at so early a time. However, the Code of Hammurabi is more complex than that of Moses and comes from a much earlier period. The Mosaic Code was not derived from it, but many of the customs of the Book of Genesis show that its prescriptions were familiar in Abraham's day.

21:14 child. The Hebrew word for "boy" (yeled), meaning one begotten or one born, was used for anyone up to young manhood (compare same word translated "young man" in Gen. 4:23). Ishmael was now about fifteen years old (compare Gen. 16:16; 21:5), and Hagar abandoned the exhausted child in the shade of a shrub.

21:19 opened her eyes. Here is a touching scene: the bondwoman, seemingly alone and without help; and the God of grace, calling to her from heaven. "And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water." So the Holy Spirit opens the eyes of believing sinners and directs them to the water of life (compare Jn. 4:14).

ther didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to day.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; ^aand both of them made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he called that place ^bBeer-sheba; because there they sware both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and ^ccalled there on the name of the LORD, the *d*everlasting God.

21:34 in the Philistines' land. The presence of Philistines in Palestine at this period has sometimes been called an inaccuracy in the narrative, since the great invasion of the Philistines did not occur until about 1200 B.C. However, as Genesis declares (21:32,34; 26:15,18; etc.) there were smaller groups of the Philistines in Palestine at an earlier time. See also Jud. 13:1, note.

22:1 after these things. The spiritual experience of Abraham was marked by four great crises, each of which involved a surrender of something naturally most dear. These were:

(1) country and relatives (Gen. 12:1. Compare Mt. 10:34-39; 2 Cor. 6:14-18).

(2) His nephew, Lot; especially dear to Abraham by nature, as a possible heir and as a fellow believer (Gen. 13:1-18; 2 Pet. 2:7-8). The completeness of Abraham's separation from one who, though a believer, was a vessel "unto dishonor," is shown by Gen. 15:1-3. Compare Acts 15:36-40; 2 Tim. 2:20-21.

(3) His own plan about Ishmael (Gen. 17:17-18. Compare 1 Chr. 13:1-14; 15:1-2). And tempt. God tested Abraham's sincerity, loyalty, and faith. The N.T. categorically says that God does not solicit any man to do evil (tempt). See Jas 1:2,13-14, with note. Compare other O.T. references where this word is used: Ex. 17:2,7; Num. 14:22; Dt. 6:16; Ps. 78:18,41,56; 95:9; 106:14; Isa. 7:12; and another word, Mal. 3:15.

(4) Isaac, "thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest" (Gen. 22:1-19. Compare Heb. 11:17-19).

22:2 lovest. First use of word love. Compare Jn. 5:20. Moriah. The offering of Isaac may have occurred near the place where the temple of Solomon was built. Compare 2 Chr. 3:1.

21:33 EVERLASTING GOD

Hebrew El Olam.

(1) The Hebrew Olam is used in Scripture: (a) of secret or hidden things (2 Ki. 4:27, "hid"; Ps. 10:1, "hidest"); (b) of an indefinite time or age (Lev. 25:32, "at any time"; Josh. 24:2, "in old time"). Hence the word is used to express the eternal duration of the Being of God (Ps. 90:2, "from everlasting to everlasting"); it is also the Hebrew synonym of the Greek aion, age. See Gen. 1:28, note on page 4.

(2) The ideas, therefore, of things kept secret and of indefinite duration combine in this word. Both ideas inhere in the doctrine of the dispensations or ages. They are among the "mysteries" of God (Mt. 13:11; Eph. 1:9-10; 3:2-6). The "Everlasting God" (El Olam) is, therefore, that name of Deity in virtue of which He is the God whose wisdom has divided all time and eternity into the mystery of successive ages or dispensations. It is not merely that He is eternal, but that He is God over eternal things. For other names of Deity see notes on: Gen. 1:1; 14:18; 15:2; 17:1; Ex. 34:6; 1 Sam. 1:3; Mal. 3:18.

and worship, and ^acome again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a ^blamb for a burnt-offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and ^claid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the ^eangel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou ^ffearest God, seeing thou hast not ^gwithheld thy son, thine only son from me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a ^cburnt-offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

Abrahamic Covenant confirmed again

15 ¶ And the ^hangel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time,

16 And ⁱsaid, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son:

17 That in blessing I will ^jbless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the ^kstars of the heaven, and as the ^lsand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the ^mgate of his enemies;

18 And in thy seed shall ⁿall the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast ^oobeyed my voice.

19 So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

20 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, ^pMilcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor;

21 Huz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, 22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begat ^qRebekah: these eight Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

22:6 laid it upon Isaac. Abraham "laid it upon Isaac his son." Isaac was not a child, but a young man (compare Gen. 21:14, note). Observe his loving submission to his father (compare Christ, Heb. 5:7-8). fire. Perhaps a lighted bundle of twigs or a pan of embers.

22:9 laid him on the altar. The typical lessons are:

(1) Isaac, a type of Christ "obedient unto death" (Phil. 2:5-8);

(2) Abraham, a type of the Father who "spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all" (Rom. 8:32; Jn. 3:16);

(3) the ram, a type of substitution—Christ offered as a burnt offering in our stead (Heb. 10:5-10); and

(4) compare resurrection (Heb. 11:17-19), where the statement "from the dead . . . he received him in a figure" (v. 19) confirms the typology. Compare Jas. 2:21-23.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,

6 Hear us, my lord: thou art a mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.

THE FAMILY TREE OF ABRAHAM

15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred ^ashekels of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the ^baudience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.

17 ¶ And the ^cfield of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure

18 Unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this, Abraham ^dburied Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.

20 And the field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.

A bride sought for Isaac

24 And Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the LORD ^ehad blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said unto his eldest ^fservant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, ^gPut, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee swear by the LORD, ^hthe God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of ⁱthe Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

4 But thou shalt go unto ^jmy country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said unto him, ^kPeradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

24:1 The entire chapter is highly typical:

(1) Abraham, a type of a certain king who arranged a marriage for his son (Mt. 22:2);

(2) the unnamed servant, a type of the Holy Spirit, who does not "speak of himself" but takes of the things of the Bridegroom with which to win the bride (Jn. 16:13-14);

(3) the servant, a type of the Spirit as enriching the bride with the Bridegroom's gifts (1 Cor. 12:7-11; Gal. 5:22-23);

(4) the servant, a type of the Spirit as bringing the bride to the meeting with the Bridegroom (Acts 13:4; 16:6-7; Rom. 8:11; 1 Th. 4:14-17);

(5) Rebekah, a type of the Church, the ecclesia, the "called out" virgin bride of Christ (Gen. 24:16; 2 Cor. 11:2; Eph. 5:25-32);

(6) Isaac, a type of the Bridegroom "whom having not seen" the bride nevertheless loves through the testimony of the unnamed Servant (1 Pet. 1:8); and

(7) Isaac, a type of the Bridegroom who goes out to meet and receive His bride (Gen. 24:63; 1 Th. 4:14-17).

24:10 Nahor. The existence of this city in Abraham's time has been evidenced by the finding of many references to it in clay tablets from this period, discovered at Mari in northern Mesopotamia.

send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

The servant's prayer answered

15 ¶ And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor.

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and *proven-*der enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 ¶ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

32 ¶ And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and *proven-*der for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

The servant announces his mission

34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

35 And ^athe LORD hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him ^bflocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maid-servants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sarah ^cmy master's wife bare a son to my master when she was old: and ^dunto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master ^emade me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 ^fAnd I said unto my master, ^gPeradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, ^hThe LORD, ⁱbefore whom I walk, will send his ^jangel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:

41 ^kThen shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O ^lLORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go:

43 ^mBehold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, ⁿGive me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had ^odone speaking in mine ^pheart, behold, ^qRebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and ^rI said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, ^sDrink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I ^tasked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nabor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the ^uearring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her ^vhands.

48 And I ^wbowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, ^xwhich had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will ^ydeal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee ^zbad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, ^{aa}bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of ^{bb}gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, ^{cc}Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her ^anurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

Generations of Isaac

19 ¶ And these are the ^egenerations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham begat Isaac:

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took /Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the Syrian.

21 And Isaac intreated the LORD for his wife, because she was ^gbarren: and the LORD was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife ^hconceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to enquire of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said unto her, 'Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be /separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the ^kelder shall serve the younger.

Birth of Esau and Jacob

24 ¶ And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like an 'hairy garment; and they called his name Esau.

26 And after that came his brother out, and his ^mhand took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them.

Sale of the birthright

27 ¶ And the boys grew: and Esau was a ⁿcunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a ^oplain man, dwelling in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because he did ^peat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 And Jacob ^qsod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint:

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright.

32 And Esau said, Behold, I am that he would be the father of many nations (Gen. 17:4,6, 16) and not of Israel only. Of Ishmael, Abraham's son, God said that he would beget "a great nation" (Gen. 17:20). Keturah also bore sons to Abraham (Gen. 25:1-4) who were neither Israelites (Isaac's descendants) nor Arabs (Ishmael's descendants), but another nation.

25:25 Esau. He stands for the mere man of the earth (Heb. 12:16-17). Destitute of faith, he despised the birthright—a spiritual thing, of value only as there was faith to apprehend it.

Esau: hairy. The oldest son of Isaac and Rebekah who was tricked by his brother into selling him the birthright. He was later also deprived of the family blessing.

25:26 came his brother out. Approximately 1790 B.C.

Jacob: supplanter. The younger son of Isaac and Rebekah who tricked his brother Esau into selling him his birthright. He deceived his father in order to receive the family blessing. Married Leah and Rachel. Had twelve sons by his wives and concubines. Also referred to as Israel.

25:30 Edom. Literally red.

(1) until the establishment of the Aaronic priesthood the head of the family exercised priestly rights.

(2) The Abrahamic family held the Edenic promise of the Satan-Bruiser (Gen. 3:15)—Abel, Seth, Shem, Abraham, Isaac, Esau, and

(3) Esau, as the firstborn, was in the direct line of the Abrahamic promise of the Earth-Blessor (Gen. 12:3). He at the point to die: and ^awhat profit shall this birthright do to me?

33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he ^bsold his birthright unto Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau ^cdespised his birthright.

Abrahamic Covenant confirmed to Isaac

26 And there was a ^dfamine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto ^eAbimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar.

2 And the LORD ^fappeared unto him, and said, ^gGo not down into Egypt; ^hdwell in the land which I shall tell thee of:

3 ⁱSojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the ^joath which I sware unto Abraham thy father;

4 And ^kI will make thee seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and ^lin thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;

5 Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

Lapse of Isaac (cp. Gen. 20)

6 ¶ And Isaac dwelt in Gerar:

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my ^msister: for he ⁿfeared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she was fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out ^oat a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was ^psporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 ¶ And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought ^rguiltiness upon us.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an ^shundredfold: and the LORD ^tblessed him.

13 And the man ^uwaxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Philistines envied him.

15 For ^vall the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art much ^wmightier than we.

Isaac, the well-digger

17 ¶ And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called their names sold this birthright for a momentary fleshly gratification. Esau had only natural priority in the birthright, and God never meant that the line of blessing should come through him (Rom. 9:11-13; compare Gen. 25:23). Jacob's conception of the birthright at that time was, doubtless, carnal and inadequate, but his desire for it evidenced faith.

26:3 the oath. Here the LORD confirmed to Isaac the covenant He had made with Abraham. The principal promises to the patriarchs are written in the following Scriptures:

(1) to Abraham, Gen. 12:1-3,7; 13:14-18; 15; 17:1-8, 15-22; 22:15-18;

(2) to Isaac, Gen. 26:1-5; 28:13-15; and after the names by which his father had called them.

(3) to Jacob, Gen. 28:13-15; 35:11-12.

19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well Esek; because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it Sitnah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it Rehoboth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the LORD ^aappeared unto him the same night, and said, ^bI am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

25 And he ^cbuilded an altar there, and ^dcalled upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well.

26 ¶ Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you?

28 And they said, We saw certainly ^ethat the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee;

29 That thou wilt do us no ^fhurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed of the LORD.

30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up ^gbetimes in the morning, and ^hswore one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.

33 And he called it Shebah: therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba unto this day.

34 ¶ And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the ⁱHittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite:

35 ¶ Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

The stolen blessing

27 And it came to pass, that when Isaac was ^kold, and his ^leyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his ^meldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, here am I.

2 ⁿAnd he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death:

3 Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and take me some venison;

4 And make me savoury ^omeat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; ^pthat my soul may bless thee before I die.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ ^qAnd Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

26:20 name of the well. The wells of Genesis have significant names and are associated with significant events:

(1) Beer-lahai-roi, well of Him that liveth and seeth me (Gen. 16:14; 24:62; 25:11).

(2) Beer-sheba, the well of the oath or covenant (Gen. 21:25–33; 22:19; 26:23–25; 46:1–5).

(3) Esek, contention (Gen. 26:20).

(4) Sitnah, hatred (Gen. 26:21). Esek and Sitnah were Isaac's own attempts at well-digging. Afterward he dwelt by the old wells of his father. And

(5) Rehoboth, enlargement (Gen. 26:22). Upon Isaac's return to Beer-sheba, the LORD made Himself known.

26:33 Shebah. Or Shibah, literally oath. Beer-sheba. Literally the well of the oath. Compare Gen. 21:31.

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury ^ameat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, ^bobey my voice according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury ^ameat for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a ^chairy man, and I am a smooth man:

12 ^aMy father ^eperadventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: ^donly obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury ^ameat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took ^ggoodly ^hraiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

17 And she gave the savoury ^ameat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

18 ¶ And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, ⁱthat thy soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, ^jBecause the LORD thy God brought it to me.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, ^kthat I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not.

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he ^ldiscerned him not, because his hands were ^mhairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, ⁿthat my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and ^okissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, ^pthe smell of my son is as the smell of a field ^qwhich the LORD hath blessed:

28 Therefore ^rGod give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of ^scorn and wine:

29 ^tLet people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: ^ube ^vlord over thy brethren, and ^wlet thy mother's sons bow down to thee: ^xcurst be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had ^ymade an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury ^zmeat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, ^{aa}that thy soul may bless me.

35 And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, Is not he rightly named ^bJacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he ^ctook away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

(1) was out of the place of blessing (Gen. 26:3);

(2) was without an altar (Hos. 3:4-5);

(3) gained an evil name (Gen. 31:1; Rom. 2:17-24); but (4) was under the covenant care of the LORD (Gen. 28:13-15; Rom. 11:1, 25-31); and gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

(5) was ultimately brought back (Gen. 31:3; 35:1-4; Ezek. 37:21-23). The personal lesson is obvious: while Jacob was not forsaken, he was permitted to reap the shame and sorrow of his self-chosen way.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of ^aHaran are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye ^bLaban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter ^ccometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 ¶ And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's ^dson: and ^eshe ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when ^fLaban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ^gran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely thou art my ^hbone and my flesh. And he abode with him the space of a month.

15 ¶ And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, should-est thou therefore serve me for 'nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was ⁱbeautiful and well favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, ^jI will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

21 ¶ And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a ^kfeast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her.

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah ^lZilpah his maid for an handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, ^mWhat is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou ⁿbeguiled me?

26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn.

27 ¶ Fulfil her ^oweek, and we will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his Rachel: ewe. The wife of Jacob whom he loved. Mother of Joseph and Benjamin, Jacob's favorite sons.

Leah: languid. Sister of Rachel. Wife of Jacob. Her father tricked Jacob into marrying her. Mother of six sons.

29:17 tendered eyed. Literally weak-eyed.

daughter ^aBilhah his handmaid to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he ^bloved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

31 ¶ And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb: but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath ^clooked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.

33 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Simeon.

34 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband ^dbe joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi.

35 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I ^epraise the LORD: therefore she called his name Judah; and ^fleft bearing.

Jacob's family grows

30 And when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob ^gno children, Rachel envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, ^hGive me children, or else I die.

2 And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel: and he said, Am I in God's ⁱstead, who hath ^jwithheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, ^kBehold my maid Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also have children by her.

4 And ^lshe gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife: and Jacob went in unto her.

5 And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

6 And Rachel said, God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name Dan.

7 And Bilhah Rachel's maid conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son.

8 And Rachel said, With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name Naphtali.

9 When Leah saw that she had ^lleft bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.

10 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a son.

11 And Leah said, ^mA troop cometh: and she called his name Gad.

12 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a second son.

13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher.

14 ¶ And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found ⁿmandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

15 And she said unto her, Is it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

18 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Issachar.

God multiplies Jacob's cattle

25 ¶ And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, ^eSend me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have ^fserved thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

27 And Laban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, tarry: for I have learned by experience that the LORD hath blessed me for thy ^gsake.

28 And he said, ^hAppoint me thy wages, and I will give it.

32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and of such shall be my ^jhire.

30:32 all the speckled and spotted. It was God's control over the breeding process operating through the laws of heredity, not Jacob's highly dubious scheme of prenatal influence, that produced the increase in the colored animal progeny. Compare Gen. 31:11-12, where the angel of the LORD showed Jacob what was really happening: "See, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grised." This is recognized by Jacob's own testimony: "Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father" (31:9).

brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.

34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ^aringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 ¶ And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the ^bhazel and ^cchesnut tree; and ^dpilled white ^estrakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had ^dpilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ^aringstraked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ^aringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 And the man ^fincreased exceedingly, and had ^gmuch cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

God orders Jacob back to Beth-el

31 And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this ^hglory.

2 And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before.

3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, ⁱReturn unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will ^jbe with thee.

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father ^khath been with me.

6 And ye ^lknow that with all my power I have ^mserved your father.

7 And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times; but God ⁿsuffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he said thus, The ^ospeckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ^aringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ^aringstraked.

9 ^pThus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a ^qdream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ^aringstraked, speckled, and ^rgrised.

11 And the ^sangel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ^aringstraked, speckled, and ^rgrised: for I have ^tseen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I am the ^uGod of ^vBeth-el, where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and ^wreturn unto the land of thy kindred.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for a to go to Isaac his father in the land of b Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen c the images that were her father's.

20 And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face to-ward the d mount Gilead.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a e dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount; and Laban with his brethren f pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with g tabret, and with h harp?

28 And hast not i suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you k hurt: but l the God of your father spake unto me m yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou n sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen o my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was p afraid: for I said, q Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 r With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's s furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 ¶ And Jacob was t wroth, and u chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

31:30 hast thou stolen my gods. This incident has long been a puzzle. Why was Laban so greatly concerned about recovering these idols which Rachel had stolen (v. 19)? Attempting to recapture them he conducted a long and expensive expedition.

Excavations at Nuzi in northern Mesopotamia, in the region in which Laban lived, show that the possession of the household gods of a father-in-law by a son-in-law was legally acceptable as proof of the designation of that son-in-law as principal heir. This not only explains the story but also proves that it was written at a time when the facts were so well-known that no explanation was needed. It is no wonder that Jacob was very angry that he should be accused of such a deed (v. 36), and that the two men set up a boundary and promised not to cross it to injure one another (vv. 45-52). Jacob never made evil use of these idols which Rachel had stolen, but ordered that they should be buried at Shechem (Gen. 35:2-4).

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my ^astuff, what hast thou found of all thy household ^astuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the ^bloss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been ^ctwenty years in thy house; ^dI served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and ^ethou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except ^fthe God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath ^gseen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee ^hyesternight.

43 ¶ And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore come thou, let us make a ⁱcovenant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Jacob took a ^jstone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha: but Jacob called it Galeed.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed;

49 And Mizpah; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, ^kGod is witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee;

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 ^lThe God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob sware by the ^mfear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and ⁿkissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

31:47 Jegar-sahadutha. Literally (Aramaic) the heap of witness. Galeed. Literally (Hebrew) the heap of witness.

31:49 Mizpah. Literally watchtower; Jud. 11:29. The LORD watch. Often used incorrectly as a benediction, in their original context these words were, rather, a malediction. Laban and Jacob distrusted one another. At their parting Jacob had a heap of stones erected as a witness of his covenant with Laban, and Laban said that the stones would serve as a reminder that God was watching the way in which Jacob would treat Leah and Rachel in the future.

32:2 Mahanaim. Literally two hosts or bands—the visible band, Jacob and his servants; the invisible band, God's angels. Compare 2 Sam. 2:8,29; 2 Ki. 6:13-17.

fore him to Esau his brother unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now:

5 And ^aI have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly ^bafraid and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 ¶ And Jacob ^csaid, O ^dGod of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD which saidst unto me, ^eReturn unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the ^fmercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands.

11 Deliver me, I pray thee, ^gfrom the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children.

12 And thou ^hsaidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the ⁱsand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother;

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty ^jkine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; ^kperadventure he will accept of me.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford ^lJabbok.

23 And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone; and there ^mwrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

Jacob humbles himself and is forgiven by Esau

33 And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, ^fEsau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph ^ghindermost.

32:28 Jacob. Both names, Jacob and Israel, are applied to the nation descended from Jacob. Israel. Literally he who strives with God; or God strives; or God rules.

Peniel: the face of God. The place where Jacob wrestled with the angel of God. There God blessed him and changed his name to Israel.

32:30 face to face. The concept of seeing the face of God is not always the same in Scripture. In Ex. 33:20 God said to Moses, "Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me and live," but at that time God did reveal Himself to Moses by a manifestation of His glory. When Jacob said that he had seen the LORD face to face, he simply meant that he had looked upon a divine Being, the Angel of the LORD, not that he had beheld God in all of His resplendent glory, which no man could look upon, even as we cannot look upon the sun without being blinded. All that these passages imply culminates in man's beholding the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ (compare Ps. 27:8; 2 Cor. 4:6; see Gen. 12:7 and Jn. 1:18, notes).

32:31 Penuel. Another form of Peniel. Compare v. 30.

33:14 until I come. Not all at once does "Jacob" cease

15 And Esau said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What needeth it? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir.

Jacob worships

17 And Jacob journeyed to ^aSuccoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

18 ¶ And Jacob came to Shalem, a city of ^bShechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from ^cPadan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And he ^ebought a ^eparcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an altar, and called it El-elohe-Israel.

34 And ^fDinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her.

3 And his soul ^gclave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto the damsel.

4 And Shechem spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob held his peace until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to ^hcommune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very ⁱwroth, because he had ^jwrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor ^kcommuned with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and ^lthe land shall be before you; dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father ^mdeceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is ⁿuncircumcised; for that were a ^oreproach unto us:

33:17 Succoth. Literally booths (of branches).

33:20 El-elohe-Israel. Literally God, the God of Israel. This was an act of faith on Jacob's part. In calling the altar El-elohe-Israel, not only did he appropriate his new name but also claimed Elohim in a new sense, as the God through whom alone he could walk according to this new name. See Gen. 14:18-23 (with note at v. 18) for a similar appropriation by Abraham.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was more honourable than all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the ^agate of their city, and ^bcommuned with the men of their city, saying, 21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of theirs be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, ^call that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, ^dSimeon and ^eLevi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they ^fslew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all

THE FIRST REVIVAL

This is the first revival recorded in the Bible and it has nearly all the salient features of the many subsequent revivals described in the O.T. They are:

(1) revival is often, as here, preceded by a period of gross iniquity, disgrace, and consequent fear (34:30-31);
(2) it is initiated by a word from God, direct or through a consecrated leader—"God said";

(3) there must be a forsaking of all that is displeasing to God—"Put away the strange gods . . . be clean" (v. 2);

(4) there is a corresponding return to obedience to God's revealed will—"go up to Beth-el . . . make there an altar" (v. 1);

(5) past blessings are remembered—"that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest," "answered me in the day of my distress" (vv. 1,3);

(6) those who genuinely seek to serve the Lord are assured of divine protection from their enemies—"they did not pursue" (v. 5);

(7) revival is accompanied by a new revelation of the character of God (v. 11);

(8) the promises of God are renewed and a revelation of the possibility of a higher spiritual life is given (vv. 10-11);

(9) revival may prove to have been God's preparation for meeting a coming test or bereavement, as here in the death of Rachel (vv. 16-20); and unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

(10) later O.T. revivals almost always are marked by a resumption of the offering of blood sacrifices. For other revivals of the O.T. see the following: under King Asa (2 Chr. 15:1-15); under King Jehoash (2 Ki. 11-12; 2 Chr. 23-24); under King Hezekiah (2 Ki. 18:4-7; and especially 2 Chr. 29-31); under Josiah (2 Ki. 22-23; 2 Chr. 34-35); in Nineveh (Jon. 3); at the time of Zerubbabel (Ezra 5-6); and under Nehemiah (Neh. 8-9; 13:1-6).

2 Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, ^aPut away the ^bstrange gods that are among you, and ^cbe clean, and change your garments:

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was ^dwith me in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the ^estrange gods which were in their hand, and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

5 And they journeyed: and ^fthe terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 ¶ So Jacob came to ^gLuz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el, he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an ^haltar, and called the place El-beth-el: because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But ⁱDeborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under an oak: and the name of it was called Allon-bachuth.

9 ¶ And God ^jappeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and ^kblessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: ^lthy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

11 And God said unto him, I ^mam ⁿGod Almighty: ^obe fruitful and multiply; ^pa ^qnation and a ^rcompany of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins;

12 And the ^sland which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

13 And ^tGod went up from him in the place where he talked with him.

14 And Jacob set up a ^upillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink-offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.

Death of Rachel; birth of Benjamin

16 ¶ And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son ^valso.

18 And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, (for she died) that she called his name Ben-oni: but his father called him Benjamin.

19 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is ^wBeth-lehem.

35:7 El-beth-el. Compare Gen. 28:19, where it was the place, as the scene of the ladder-vision, which impressed Jacob. He called the place "Beth-el," that is, the house of God. Now it is the God of the place, rather than the place, and he calls it "El Bethel," that is, the God of the house of God. See Gen. 33:20, note.

35:8 Allon-bachuth. Literally the oak of weeping.

35:14 drink-offering. The first mention of the drink-offering. It is not found among the Levitical offerings of Lev. 1-7, though included in the instructions for sacrifice in the land (Num. 15:5-7). It was always "poured out," never drunk, and may be considered a type of Christ in the sense of Ps. 22:14; Isa. 53:12.

Beth-el: house of God. A city in central Palestine where God renewed His covenant with Jacob. Jacob built an altar there to mark the place where he spoke with God.

35:18 Ben-oni. Literally the son of my sorrow. Benjamin, the son of my sorrow (Ben-oni) to his mother, but son of my right hand to his father, illustrates two aspects of Christ. As Ben-oni, He was the suffering One because of whom a sword pierced His mother's heart (Lk. 2:35); as Benjamin, head of the warrior tribe (Gen. 49:27), firmly joined to Judah the kingly tribe (Gen. 49:8-12; 1 Ki. 12:21), He pictures the victorious One.

Benjamin: son of my right hand. The youngest son of Jacob and Rachel who died giving birth to him. Jacob cherished Benjamin after he lost his son Joseph.

35:19 Beth-lehem. This is the first reference in the Bible to Beth-lehem. The word itself means house of bread. In this city our Lord was born, appearing in the flesh which He was to give for the life of the world. It is the city of 20 And Jacob set a ^apillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of ^bRachel's grave unto this day.

21 ¶ And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar.

22 And it came to pass, when Israel dwelt in that land, that ^cReuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:

23 ^dThe sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 ^eThe sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin:

25 ^fAnd the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan, and Naphtali:

26 ^gAnd the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad, and Asher: these are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram.

Jacob restored to Isaac; Isaac dies

27 ¶ And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto ^hMamre, unto the city of Arbah, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Isaac ⁱgave up the ghost, and died, and was ^jgathered unto his people, being ^kold and full of days: and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Generations of Esau (Edom)

36 Now these are the ^lgenerations of Esau, who is Edom.

2 Esau took ^mhis wives of the daughters of Canaan; Adah the daughter of Elon the ⁿHittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

3 And Bashemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

4 And Adah bare to Esau Eliphaz; and Bashemath bare Reuel;

5 And Aholibamah bare Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah: these are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in the land of Canaan.

6 And ^oEsau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Canaan; and went into the country from the face of his brother Jacob.

7 For ^ptheir riches were more than that they might dwell together; and the land wherein they were strangers could not bear them because of their cattle.

8 Thus dwelt Esau in ^qmount Seir: Esau is Edom.

9 ¶ And these are the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in mount Seir:

10 These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau.

11 And the wife of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz ^rAmalek: these were the sons of Adah Esau's wife.

35:27 city of Arbah. Or Kirjath-arba.

35:29 gave up the ghost. How wrong Isaac had been about the time of his death! See Gen. 27:2. He lived for forty-three years after the incident of chapter 27, and twenty-five years after Jacob returned from Padan-aram (35:27). Jacob was away twenty years (31:41).

36:1 Edom (called "Seir," Gen. 32:3; 36:8) is the name of the country lying south of the ancient kingdom of Judah and extending from the Dead Sea to the Gulf of Aqaba. It includes the ruins of Petra, and is bounded on the north by Moab. Peopled by descendants of Esau (Gen. 36:1-19), Edom has a remarkable prominence in the prophetic Word as (together with Moab) the scene of the final destruction of Gentile world-power in the Day of the Lord. See Armageddon (Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17-21) and Times of the Gentiles (Lk. 21:24; Rev. 16:19). Compare Ps. 137:7; Isa. 34:1-8; 63:1-6; Jer. 49:17-22; Ezek. 25:12-14; Obad. 1-21.

motherhood, but motherhood in relation to death as here (Mt. 2:16-18; Lk. 2:34-35). Beth-lehem is never mentioned in the N.T. as the site of any event in the ministry of our Lord or in the church of the first century. There has never been any question as to the site of Beth-lehem, which is located about five miles south of Jerusalem.

35:22 sons of Jacob. Here is the first complete list of the twelve sons of Jacob, whose births have been described in the preceding chapters. From them came the twelve tribes of Israel, the tribal blessings being given each of them respectively at the time of Jacob's death (Gen. 49). The names reappear in the genealogies of 1 Chr. 2:1-2. As tribal names, they are listed on seven different occasions in the Book of Numbers, and appear again in the blessing of Moses (Dt. 33), in the division of the land in Josh. 15, elsewhere in the O.T., and finally as the twelve sealed tribes of Rev. 7:4-8. The order in which the names are given varies.

36:20 Horite. The Horites, or Hurrians, were completely forgotten for thousands of years. It has now been discovered that they were a large group of people who settled in northern Mesopotamia, in Syria, and in Palestine before 2000 B.C. Thousands of tablets containing their business documents and other records have been recovered by excavation.

36:31 kings that reigned in the land. It is characteristic of Scripture that the kings of Edom should be named before the kings of Israel. The principle is stated in 1 Cor. 15:46.

First things are "natural," man's best, and always fail; second things are "spiritual," God's things, and succeed. Adam—Christ; Cain—Abel; Cain's posterity—Seth's posterity; Saul—David, etc.

The mention of kings at this point, when Israel actually had no kings until the time of Saul (1 Sam. 10), has been used by some as an argument against Mosaic authorship. The answer to the objection is found in Gen. 17:6,16, where already Abraham and Sarah were promised kings among their descendants.

Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

38 And Saul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

39 And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

40 And these are the names of the ^adukes that came of Esau, according to their families, after their places, by their names; ^bduke Timnah, ^bduke Alvah, ^bduke Jetheth,

41 ^cDuke Aholibamah, ^bduke Elah, ^bduke Pinon,

42 ^cDuke Kenaz, ^bduke Teman, ^bduke Mibzar,

43 ^cDuke Magdiel, ^bduke Iram: these be the ^adukes of Edom, according to their habitations in the land of their possession: he is Esau the father of the Edomites.

History of Jacob resumed

37 And Jacob dwelt ^ain the land wherein his father was a ^estranger, in the land of Canaan.

Joseph, the beloved of his father

2 These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of ^bBilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father their evil report.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the ^sson of his old age: and he ^hmade him a coat of many colours.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they ⁱhated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Joseph ^jdreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have ^kdreamed:

7 For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made ^lobesance to my sheaf.

Joseph hated and rejected by his brethren

8 And his brethren said to him, ^mShalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have ⁿdominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obesance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and ^athy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And his brethren ^benvied him; but his father observed the saying.

12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 ^cAnd Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he ^dsent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 ¶ And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to ^eDothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they ^fconspired against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.

Joseph cast into pit

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And ^gReuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they ^hstript Joseph out of his coat, his ⁱcoat of many colours that was on him;

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

25 And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels ^jbearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

26 And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and ^kconceal his blood?

27 ^lCome, and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brethren were content.

Joseph pulled up from pit and sold into Egypt

28 Then there passed by ^mMidianites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and ⁿsold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 ¶ And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he ^orent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, ^pThe child is not; and I, whither shall I go?

31 And ^qthey took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood;

32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

33 And he ^rknew it, and said, ^s*It is* my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt ^trent in pieces.

37:28 Ishmeelites. A contradiction has been imagined between the reference to the traders who carried Joseph into Egypt as Ishmeelites, in vv. 25,27,28 (and 39:1), and as Midianites in vv. 28 and 36. Actually, the precise meaning of these terms is not known and there is no reason to doubt that they overlapped.

Reuben: behold a son. The oldest son of Jacob and Leah. Father of the tribe of Israel, the Reubenites.

34 And Jacob ^arent his clothes, and put ^bsackcloth upon his loins, and ^cmourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto ^dPotiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, and captain of the guard.

Judah's shameful sin

38 And it came to pass at that time, that ^eJudah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was ^fShuah; and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name ^gEr.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name ^hOnan.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name ⁱShelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bare him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was ^jTamar.

7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD ^kslew him.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, ^kGo into thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, ^lRemain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest ^mperadventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

12 ¶ And in process of time the daughter of Shuah Judah's wife died; and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to ⁿTimnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and ^osat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, ^pGo to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; for he knew not that she was his 37:35 grave. The Hebrew Sheol is, in the O.T., the place to which the dead go.

(1) Often, therefore, it is spoken of as the equivalent of the grave, where all human activities cease; the terminus toward which all human life moves (e.g. Gen. 42:38; Job 14:13; Ps. 88:3).

(2) To the man "under the sun," the natural man, who of necessity judges from appearances, Sheol seems no more than the grave—the end and total cessation, not only of the activities of life, but also of life itself (Eccl. 9:5,10). But

(3) Scripture reveals Sheol as a place of sorrow (2 Sam. 22:6; Ps. 18:5; 116:3), into which the wicked are turned (Ps. 9:17), and where they are fully conscious (Isa. 14:9-17; Ezek. 32:21). Compare Jon. 2:2; what the belly of the great fish was to Jonah, Sheol is to those who are therein. The Sheol of the O.T. and Hades of the N.T. are identical. See Lk. 16:23, note.

Potiphar: belonging to the sun. A captain of the guard to Pharaoh in Egypt. Joseph's master who threw him into prison for an act he did not commit.

38:8 raise up seed. This custom later became part of the Mosaic law (Dt. 25:5-6); each man would generally have his line of descent carried on by this provision. Compare Mt. 22:23-33, where the Sadducees presented a hypothetical case in their attempt to confute Jesus.

Tamar: a palm tree. A widow of Er, Judah's son, who posed as a prostitute and became pregnant by her father-in-law. Mother of twin sons, Perez and Zerah. One of the few women listed in Jesus' genealogy.

38:10 displeased the LORD. Literally was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, I will send thee a ^akid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy ^bsignet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose, and went away, and laid by her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 ¶ And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by ^cwhoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be ^dburnt.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been ^emore righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more.

27 ¶ And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, ^ftwins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called ^gPharez.

30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called ^hZarah.

Joseph resists temptation

39 And Joseph was brought ⁱdown to Egypt; and ^jPotiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, ^kbought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither.

2 And the LORD was ^lwith Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master ^msaw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD ⁿmade all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him ^ooverseer over his house, and ^pall that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD ^qblessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ^rought he had, save the ^sbread which he did eat. And Joseph was a ^tgoodly person, and well favoured.

7 ¶ ^uAnd it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me.

9 There is ^anone greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great ^bwickedness, and ^csin ^dagainst God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he ^ehearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his ^fbusiness; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she ^gcaught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an ^hHebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice:

17 And she spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the ⁱprison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

21 ¶ But the LORD was with Joseph, and shewed him mercy, and gave him ^jfavour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

40 And it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was ^mwroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the ^finterpretation of it: The three branches are ^gthree days:

13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine ^hhead, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But ⁱthink on me when it shall be well with thee, and ^jshew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was ^kstolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of ^lbake-meats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

19 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall ^mhang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's ⁿbirthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the ^ocup unto Pharaoh's hand:

22 But he ^phanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but ^qforgot him.

Pharaoh's prophetic dream

41 And it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh ^rdreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well favoured ^sskine and fattleshed; and they ^tfed in a meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other ^sskine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed; and stood by the other ^sskine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill favoured and leanfleshed ^sskine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat ^sskine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of ^ucorn came up upon one stalk, ^vrunk and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears and ^wblasted with the ^xeast wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears de-

8 And it came to pass in the morning that his ^bspirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the ^cmagicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 ¶ Then spake the ^dchief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day:

10 Pharaoh was ^ewroth with his servants, and put me in ^fward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker:

11 And we ^gdreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the ^hinterpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an ⁱHebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as ^jhe interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

Joseph's exaltation in Egypt

14 ¶ Then Pharaoh ^ksent and called Joseph, and they ^lbrought him hastily ^mout of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and ⁿchanged his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have ^oheard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: ^pGod shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river:

18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven ^qkine, fat-fleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow:

19 And, behold, seven other ^rkine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill favoured ^skine did eat up the first seven fat ^tkine:

21 And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:

23 And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and ^ublasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I ^vtold this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is ^aabout to do.

26 The seven good ^bkine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill favoured ^bkine that came up after them are ^cseven years; and the seven empty ears ^dblasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come ^eseven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:

30 And there shall arise after them ^fseven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land;

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh ^glook out a man ^hdiscreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do ⁱthis, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

35 And ^jlet them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up ^kcorn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for ^kstore to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

37 ¶ And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find ^lsuch a one as this is, a man in whom the ^mSpirit of God is?

39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, ⁿthere is none so discreet and wise as thou art:

40 ⁿThou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have ^oset thee over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh ^ptook off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and ^qarrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and ^rput a gold chain about his neck;

43 And he made him to ride in the second ^schariot which he had; and they ^tcried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ^uruler over all the land of Egypt.

44 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I ^vam Pharaoh, and ^wwithout thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

Joseph, rejected by his brethren, receives a bride

45 ¶ And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnath-paaneah; and he gave him to wife ^xAsenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

46 And Joseph was ^ythirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the ed one (Jn. 19:15), portrays the Church, called out from the world to be the bride of Christ during the time of His rejection by His brethren, Israel (Jn. 1:10-12; Acts 15:14; Eph. 5:31-32). Israel, like Joseph's brothers, will be preserved (Ezek. 11:16). See Gen. 37:2, note.

food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

49 And Joseph gathered ^acorn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he ^bleft numbering; for it was without number.

50 And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bare unto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my ^cfather's house.

52 And the name of the second called he Ephraim: ^aFor God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ And the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Egypt, were ended.

54 And ^ethe seven years of ^fdearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: and the ^fdearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; ^gwhat he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: And Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine ^hwaxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to ⁱbuy ^acorn; because that the famine was ^jso ^ksore in all lands.

Joseph's brethren, except Benjamin, come to Egypt for food

42 Now when Jacob ^ksaw that there was ^acorn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is ^acorn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may ^llive, and not die.

3 ¶ And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy ^acorn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest ^mperadventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy ^acorn among those that came: for the ⁿfamine was in the land of Canaan.

Joseph tests his ten brethren

6 And ^oJoseph was the governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and ^pbowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself ^qstrange unto them, and ^rspake roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food.

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but ^sthey knew not him.

9 And Joseph ^tremembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye ^uare spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons; we ^vare true men, thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

13 And they said, Thy servants ^ware twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and ^xone is not.

14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye ^yare spies:

Simeon kept as hostage while other brethren go home

21 ¶ And they said one to another, We are verily ^gguilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And ^hReuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is ⁱrequired.

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself about from them, and ^jwept; and returned to them again, and ^kcommuned with them, and took from them ^lSimeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ Then Joseph ^mcommanded to fill their sacks with ^ecorn, and to ⁿrestore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them.

26 And they ^oladed their asses with the ^ecorn, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass ^pprovender in the inn, he ^qespied his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, ^rWhat is this that God hath done unto us?

29 ¶ And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying,

30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, ^sWe are true men; we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take ^tfood for the famine of your households, and be gone:

34 And bring your ^uyoungest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall ^vtraffick in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, ^wbehold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye ^xbereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take ^yBenjamin away: all these things are against me.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is ^zdead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the ^zgrave.

42:18 fear. "The fear of the LORD" is an O.T. expression meaning reverential trust, including the hatred of evil.

42:38 grave. The Hebrew Sheol is, in the O.T., the place to which the dead go.

(1) Often, therefore, it is spoken of as the equivalent of the grave, where all human activities cease; the terminus toward which all human life moves (e.g. Gen. 42:38; Job 14:13; Ps. 88:3).

43 And the ^afamine was ^bsore in the land.

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the ^ccorn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, ^dbuy us a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not ^esee my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man asked us ^fstraitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, ^gIs your father yet alive? have ye ^hanother brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may ⁱlive, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be ^jsurety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then ^klet me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time.

11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the 15 And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went ^rdown to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

(2) To the man "under the sun," the natural man, who of necessity judges from appearances, Sheol seems no more than the grave—the end and total cessation, not only of the activities of life, but also of life itself (Eccl. 9:5,10). But 28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. ⁱAnd they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this ^jyour younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, ^kGod be gracious unto thee, my son.

30 And Joseph made haste; for his ^lbowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and ^mwept there.

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and ⁿrefrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the ^oHebrews; for that is an ^pabomination unto the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his ^qbirth-right, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another.

34 And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but ^rBenjamin's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

Judah fulfills promise (Gen. 43:9)

44 And he commanded the ^ssteward of his house, saying, ^tFill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his ^ucorn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye ^vrewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he ^wdivineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing:

8 Behold, the ^xmoney, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 ^aWith whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's ^bbondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the ^dcup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they ^erent their clothes, and ^fladen every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 ¶ And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there: and ^gthey fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? ^hwot ye not that such a man as I can certainly ⁱdivine?

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath ^jfound out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's ^kservants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Pharaoh.

19 'My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is ^mdead, and he ⁿalone is left of his mother, and his ^ofather loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, ^pExcept your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more.

24 And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again, and ^qbuy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me ^rtwo sons:

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, ^sSurely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since:

29 And if ye take this also from me, and ^t'mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the ^ugrave.

30 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is ^v'bound up in the lad's life;

31 It shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the ^wgrave.

32 For thy servant ^xbecame surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a ^ybondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest ^z'peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father.

^awhile Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he ^bwept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, ^cI am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were ^dtroubled at his presence.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye ^esold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for ^fGod did send me before you to preserve life.

6 For these two years hath the ^gfamine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be ^hhearing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you to ⁱpreserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but ^jGod: and he hath made me a ^kfather to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ^lruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not:

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of ^mGoshen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast:

11 And there will I ⁿnourish thee; for yet there are five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.

12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and ^obring down my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover he ^pkissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

Joseph's brethren blessed and sent to bring Jacob

16 ¶ And the ^qfame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; ^rlade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father and your households, and come unto me: and ^sI will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall ^teat the fat of the land.

19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you ^uwagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also regard not your ^vstuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them ^wwagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man ^xchanges of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses ^yladen with the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses ^zladen with ^ycorn and ^zbread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father,

Jacob journeys to Egypt

46 And ^cIsrael took his journey with all that he had, and came to ^dBeer-sheba, and offered sacrifices unto the ^eGod of his father Isaac.

2 And God spake unto ^fIsrael in the ^gvisions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, Here am I.

3 And he said, ^h*I am* God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will ⁱthere make of thee a great nation:

4 ^j*I* will go down ^kwith thee into Egypt; and I will also surely ^lbring thee up again: and ^mJoseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes.

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the ⁿwagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and ^ocame into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him:

The "souls of the house of Jacob" (v. 27, that is, the entire Jacobean family) were seventy, that is, the sixty-six who came with Jacob, plus Joseph and Joseph's two sons, who were already in Egypt, which equals sixty-nine, plus Jacob himself, which equals seventy. See Acts 7:14, note.

13 ¶ And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very asore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses: and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

22 Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

Joseph promises to bury Jacob in Canaan

27 ¶ And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

29 And the time drew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt:

30 But I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

31 And he said, Swear unto me. And he swore unto him. And Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, God ^bAlmighty appeared unto me at ^cLuz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me,

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will ^dmake thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will ^egive this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession.

5 ¶ And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.

6 And thy issue, which thou begettest after them, shall be thine, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; the same is ^sBeth-lehem.

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, ^hwhom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will ⁱbless them.

10 Now the ^jeyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he ^kkissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took them both,

Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and ^llaid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands ^mwittingly; for Manasseh was the ⁿfirstborn.

15 ¶ And he ^oblessed Joseph, and said, ^pGod, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did ^qwalk, ^rthe God which fed me all my life long unto this day,

16 ^sThe ^tAngel which ^uredeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them ^vgrow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but God shall be ^wwith you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, ^xwhich I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

49:10 Shiloh. Several suggestions have been offered to explain the word "Shiloh." The oldest translations render it "whose it is" or "to whom it belongs" with reference to the Messiah's reign and the prophecy of Ezek. 21:27. The view that refers it to the city of Shiloh is notably weak, for Judah experienced no epochal crisis at Shiloh. The suggestion of a few that the passage is fulfilled in David empties the passage of its force. Actually there was no manifest rule of Judah until David; therefore, the text indicates rule in Judah before Shiloh comes. The reference is to Messiah. Rule in Judah will not depart until He comes, when that sovereignty will be heightened to include the world.

THE LAST DAYS

This is the first occurrence of the term "the last days," a most important concept in Biblical prophecy. (The Hebrew word for "last" here is acharith.) In general, the expression (as also "latter days," "last time(s)") refers to that terminal period in the history of a particular group of people or nations when God's announced purposes for them are about to be consummated.

(1) In Dan. 2:28—10:14, it refers to the end of the rule of the Gentile nations.

(2) Most frequently in the O.T., the term relates to Israel's final rebellion against God (Dt. 31:29), accompanied by a season of great trouble (Dt. 4:30; Ezek. 38:16), to be followed by her return to the LORD (Hos. 3:5), this being succeeded, in turn, by the establishment in Jerusalem of the center of divine sovereignty on earth, to which the nations of the world will come up to learn the law of the LORD (Mic. 4:1). This is no doubt contemporary with the universal outpouring of the Holy Spirit predicted by Joel (Joel 2:28—29; Acts 2:17).

(3) In the N.T. the expression is twice used for that period of history introduced by the advent of Christ (Heb. 1:2; 1 Pet. 1:20); but

(4) more frequently of the end of the Church age, when departure from the faith, iniquity, and consequent peril will attain their greatest intensity (2 Tim. 3:1; Jas. 5:3; 1 Pet. 1:5; 2 Pet. 3:3). And

(5) our Lord's use of the expression "the last day" is found only in John's Gospel, where it relates to the resurrection (6:39,40,44,54; 12:48; compare 11:24). Chapter 49 would seem to combine the second and third of these definitions. Compare Acts 2:17, note; also Joel 2:28, note.

16 ¶ ^aDan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 ^bI have waited for thy salvation, O LORD.

19 ¶ ^cGad, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last.

20 ¶ Out of ^dAsher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

21 ¶ ^eNaphtali is a hind let loose: he giveth ^fgoodly words.

22 ¶ ^gJoseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall:

23 The archers have ^hsorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him:

24 But his bow abode in strength, and ⁱthe arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the ^jmighty God of Jacob; (from thence is the ^kshepherd, the ^lstone of Israel:)

25 Even by the ^mGod of thy father, who shall help thee; and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee ⁿwith blessings of heaven above, blessings of the ^odeep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb:

26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the ^peverlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

27 ¶ Benjamin shall ^qravin as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

28 ¶ All these are the twelve tribes of Israel: and this is it that their father spake unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be ^rgathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the ^sHittite, 30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a ^tburyingplace.

31 ^uThere they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah.

32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein was from the children of Heth.

33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and ^vyielded up the ghost, and was ^wgathered unto his people.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

49:28 blessed them. Jacob's life, ending in serenity and blessing, testifies to God's power to transform character. Jacob's spiritual life has six notable phases:

- (1) the first exercise of faith, as shown in the purchase of the birthright (Gen. 25:28-34; 27:9-29);
- (2) the vision at Beth-el (Gen. 28:10-19);
- (3) walking in the flesh (Gen. 29:1—31:55);
- (4) the transforming experience (Gen. 32:24-31);
- (5) the return to Beth-el: idols put away (Gen. 35:1-7); and 5 My father made me ^aswear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 ¶ And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very ^bsore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the ^cfloor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and ^dburied him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the ^eHittite, before Mamre.

14 ¶ And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

Joseph's brethren afraid

15 ¶ And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, ^fJoseph will ^gperadventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying, 17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the ^hGod of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and ⁱfell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for iam I in the place of God?

20 But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but ^kGod meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save ^lmuch people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: ^mI will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake kindly unto them.

Joseph's last days, and his death

22 ¶ And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw ⁿEphraim's children of the third generation: the children also of ^oMachir the son of Manasseh were brought up upon Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph ^psaid unto his brethren, I die: and ^qGod will surely ^rvisit you, and bring you out of this land ^sunto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to ^tJacob.

25 And Joseph took an ^uoath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit ^vyou, and ye shall carry up my ^wbones from hence.

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they ^xembalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES CALLED EXODUS

Author:
Moses

Theme:
Deliverance

Date of writing:
c. 1450–1410 B.C.

Background

Exodus, like Genesis, is a title that is not of Hebrew but Greek origin. The Septuagint, a Greek translation of the Old Testament, calls the book Exodos, a word meaning exit, departure—a fitting title for that which describes the going out of the chosen people from the land where they had suffered helplessly as slaves for generations. The word exodos is found in the Greek version of Exodus 19:1 and significantly in the Greek New Testament in Luke 9:31, Hebrews 11:22, and 2 Peter 1:15.

God's Relationship with Man

This redemption from Egypt was accomplished by divine, miraculous intervention and required, on the part of the Israelites, only faith in the efficacy of shed blood (12:1–13). As in the New Testament, redemption is for the purpose of making possible fellowship of a redeemed people with God. After the accomplishment of redemption from Egypt the law was given, followed by a revelation of the great truths of worship acceptable to God as set forth in the tabernacle, with its accompanying sacrifices and attending priesthood.

In Exodus, God, hitherto connected with the Israelite people only through His covenant with Abraham (see Genesis 12:2, note), brings them to Himself nationally through redemption, puts them under the Mosaic Covenant (19:5, note), and dwells among them in the cloud of glory. Galatians explains the relation of the law to the Abrahamic Covenant. In the commandments God taught Israel His just demands. Experience under the commandments convicted Israel of sin; and the provision of priesthood and sacrifice (filled with precious types of Christ) gave a guilty people a way of forgiveness, cleansing, restoration to fellowship, and worship.

Types in Exodus

Exodus presents many types rich in meaning. See notes on the following passages for the typical significance of Moses (2:2); the passover (12:11); manna (16:35); the rock (17:6); the tabernacle (25:9); showbread (25:30); also notes on oil (27:20); and the priesthood (29:4,5).

I. Israel in Egypt: Oppression and Conflict with Pharaoh, 1:1—12:36

Events following Joseph's death

1 Now these are the ^anames of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob.

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were ^bseventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt al-ready.

6 And ^cJoseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

The Egyptian bondage

7 And the children of Israel were ^dfruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and ^ewaxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8 ¶ Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, ^fwhich knew not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and ^gmightier than we:

10 Come on, let us ^hdeal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when ⁱthere fall-eth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

11 Therefore they did set over them ^jtaskmasters to ^kafflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh ^ltreasure cities, Pithom and Raamses.

12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to ^mserve with rigour:

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

15 ¶ And the king of Egypt spake to the ⁿHebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah:

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a ^oson, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives ^pfeared God, and did ^qnot as the king of Egypt commanded them, but ^rsaved the men children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the ^smen children alive?

19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 Therefore God ^tdealt well with the midwives: and ^uthe people ^vmultiplied, and ^wwaxed very mighty.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he ^xmade them houses.

22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every ^yson that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

aa Ex. 6:20

1:8 Since Scripture does not give the personal name of any Egyptian king in this period but calls them all by their official title, Pharaoh, the time of the events from Exodus to Ruth is uncertain. The date of 1447 B.C. has been suggested for the Exodus and is used in this edition of the Bible; the beginning of the oppression would then be about 1550 B.C. However, some conservative scholars place the dates as much as two centuries later.

1:15 midwives. Evidently the two leaders among the midwives.

Shiphrah and Puah: beauty/splendor. God-fearing midwives in Egypt who refused to follow Pharaoh's orders to kill any male infants born to the Hebrew women.

1:22 the river. That is, the Nile.

2 And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and when she saw him that he was a ^agoodly child, she ^bhid him three months.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with ^cslime and with ^epitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

4 And his ^ssister stood afar off, to ^hwit what would be done to him.

5 ¶ And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself ⁱat the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

Moses identifies himself with Israel; rejected, he flees to Midian (Heb. 11:23-27)

11 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, ^kwhen Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he ^lspied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And when he went out the ^msecond day, behold, two men of the Hebrews ⁿstrove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, ^oWho made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses ^pfeared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses ^qfled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of ^rMidian: and he sat down by a ^swell.

16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they ^tcame and drew water, and filled the ^utroughs to water their father's flock.

Levi: associate. One of the twelve tribes of Israel. Their ancestor was Levi, third son of Jacob. This tribe was designated to serve as priests.

2:2 son. Moses, a type of Christ the Deliverer (Isa. 61:1-2; Lk. 4:18-19; 2 Cor. 1:10; 1 Th. 1:10):

(1) A divinely chosen deliverer (Ex. 3:7-10; Acts 7:25; Jn. 3:16).

(2) Rejected by Israel he turns to the Gentiles (Ex. 2:11-15; Acts 7:23-29; 18:5-6; compare Acts 28:17-28).

(3) During his rejection he gains a bride (Ex. 2:16-21; Mt. 12:14-21; 2 Cor. 11:2; Eph. 5:30-32).

(4) Afterward he again appears as Israel's deliverer, and is accepted (Ex. 4:29-31; Rom. 11:24-26; compare Acts 15:14-17). And

(5) officially, Moses typifies Christ as Prophet (Acts 3:22-23), Advocate (Ex. 32:31-35; 1 Jn. 2:1-2), Intercessor (Ex. 17:1-6; Heb. 7:25), and Leader, or King (Dt. 33:4-5; Isa. 55:4; Heb. 2:10); whereas in relation to the house of God, he is in contrast with Christ. Moses was faithful as a servant over another's house; Christ, as a Son over His own house (Heb. 3:5-6).

2:10 Moses. Hebrew Mosheh. Compare Hebrew Mashah, to draw out. The name Moses was already familiar in the Egyptian court. Several Pharaohs had borne names compounded from the element "Moses," as Ramose (or Rameses) and Thutmose (or Thothmes). The fact that this Hebrew woman's child was given such a name corroborates the Egyptian background of the story. Verse 10 points out that the name seemed to her to be especially appropriate because of its similarity to the Hebrew word meaning draw out.

Moses: saved from the water. The great leader of the Israelites who led them out of slavery in Egypt to the Promised Land.

Midian: strife. An area in the desert of northwest Arabia where Moses lived for 40 years after he fled from Egypt.

17 And the ^ashepherds came and ^bdrove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and ^cwatered their flock.

18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may ^deat bread.

21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses ^eZipporah his daughter.

22 And she bare him ^fa son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been ^ga stranger in a ^hstrange land.

God's pity upon Israel

23 ¶ And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and ⁱtheir cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

24 And God heard their ^jgroaning, and God remembered his ^kcovenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God ^lhad respect unto them.

3^m Now Moses kept the flock of 3ⁿ Jethro his father in law, the priest of ^oMidian: and he led the flock to the ^pbackside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to ^qHoreb.

2 And the ^rangel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a ^sbush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not ^tnigh hither: ^uput off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the ^vGod of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God.

7 ¶ And the LORD said, I have surely ^wseen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows;

8 And I am come down ^xto deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land ^yflowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the ^zCanaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000-1800 B.C. and about 1400-1200 B.C.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 And Moses said unto God, ^bWho am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a ^ctoken unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

3:14 I AM THAT I AM. In this initial self-identification of God it is significant that the verb is in the first person; the Speaker names Himself, thus emphasizing His personal identification. It is the announcement of a present God, who has come to fulfill His covenant and keep His promise to the afflicted posterity of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Compare 34:6, note; Mal. 3:18, note.

THE HARDENING OF PHARAOH'S HEART

Compare Ex. 7:3,13,14,22; 8:15,19,32; 9:7,12,34-35; 10:1,20,27; 11:10; 14:4,8. There are two aspects of the hardening of Pharaoh's heart: (1) the judicial; and (2) the personal. The first expresses the sovereignty of God; the second reflects the responsibility of man. In the course of the narrative of the contest with Pharaoh, the LORD is spoken of in nine instances as hardening Pharaoh's heart, whereas Pharaoh himself is in three instances said to have hardened his own heart. In five references it is stated, without indicating the cause, that Pharaoh's heart was hardened.

The Hebrew uses three different words to tell the condition of Pharaoh's heart. These words indicate obstinacy. God permitted the wicked nature of Pharaoh to be manifested and then, in subduing Pharaoh's opposition, God revealed His sovereign majesty. Light rejected, rightful obedience refused, inevitably hardens conscience and heart. Compare Rom. 9:17-24.

8 And the ^atale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish ^bought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard vain words.

10 ¶ And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where ye can find it: yet ^dnot ^eought of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hasted them, saying, Fulfil your works, your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the ^fofficers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were ^gbeaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to day, as heretofore?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said, ^hYe are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the ^atale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not ⁱminish ought from your bricks of your daily task.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 And ^jthey said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have ^kmade ^lour savour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, ^mLord, wherefore hast thou ⁿevil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob encourages Moses

6 Then the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a ^ostrong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD:

3 And I ^pappeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of ^qGod Almighty, but by my name ^rJEHOVAH was I not ^sknown to them.

6:3 JEHOVAH. On the basis of this verse many critics have claimed that two of the sources of the books of Moses are a document using Elohim for the name of God, and one employing Jehovah; and that this passage reveals that the writer was ignorant of the many sections of Genesis in which Jehovah (usually written LORD) is used (see Gen. 2:4, note). It is further assumed that the writer of Ex. 6:3 believed that the name Jehovah was first made known in Moses' time. The answer to these assumptions is as follows:

(1) The statement, "by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them" can also be translated as a rhetorical question, "By my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them?"

(2) In the O.T. the verb "to know" generally means far more than to have an intellectual knowledge. There are many instances of this, such as Amos 3:2: "You only have I known of all the families of the earth."

(3) The patriarchs were familiar with the name Jehovah, but their experience of God was largely that of Him as El-Shaddai (compare Gen. 17:1, note), the One who provided for all their needs. Here in Ex. 6:3 God tells Moses that He is now about to be revealed in that aspect of His character

^a pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5 And I have also ^bheard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, ^cI am the LORD, and I will ^dbring you ^eout from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will ^fredeem you with ^ga stretched out arm, and with great judgments:

7 And I will take you to me for a ^hpeople, and I will be to you a God: and ⁱye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did ^jswear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and ^kI will give it you for an heritage: I am the LORD.

9 ¶ And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: but they hearkened not unto Moses for ^languish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; ^mhow then shall Pharaoh hear me, who ⁿam of uncircumcised lips?

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a ^ocharge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

signified by Jehovah—that is, His covenant-relation to Israel as the One who redeems her from sin and delivers her from Egypt (compare vv. 6-8).

(4) Actually there is no contrast in Ex. 6:3 between Elohim and Jehovah, the names in this text being El-Shaddai and Jehovah. And

(5) the Genesis record over and over reveals knowledge of the name Jehovah; for an outstanding example, compare Gen. 49:18.

6:6 REDEMPTION (EXODUS)

Exodus is the book of redemption and teaches:

- (1) redemption is wholly from God (Ex. 3:7-8; Jn. 3:16);
- (2) redemption is through a person (Ex. 2:2, note; Jn. 3:16-17);
- (3) redemption is by blood (Ex. 12:13,23,27; 1 Pet. 1:18-19); and
- (4) redemption is by power (Ex. 6:6; 13:14; Rom. 8:2. See Isa. 59:20 and Rom. 3:24, notes).

The blood of Christ redeems the believer from the guilt and penalty of sin (1 Pet. 1:18-19) and the power of the Holy Spirit delivers from the dominion of sin on the basis of Calvary (Rom. 8:2; Gal. 5:16).

23 And Aaron took him Elisheba, daughter of ^aAmminadab, sister of Naashon, ^bto wife; and she bare him ^cNadab, and Abihu, ^dEleazar, and Ithamar.

24 And the sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites.

25 And ^eEleazar Aaron's son took him one of the daughters of Putiel ^bto wife; and she bare him ^fPhinehas: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families.

26 These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, ^gBring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies.

27 These are they which spake to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron.

Despite God's encouragement (v. 1), Moses pleads his lack of eloquence

28 ¶ And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt,

29 That the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD: speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto thee.

30 And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of ^huncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

Moses' commission renewed

7 And the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a ⁱgod to Pharaoh: and ^jAaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

2 ^kThou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

3 And I will ^lharden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my ^msigns and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But ⁿPharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may ^olay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great ^pjudgments.

5 And the Egyptians shall ^qknow that I am the LORD, when I ^rstretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and ^sbring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And ^tMoses was fourscore years old, and ^uAaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

Aaron's rod becomes a serpent; Egypt's magicians also do enchantments

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, ^vShew a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a ^wserpent.

10 And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it ^xbecame a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the ^ymagicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents:

7:12 became serpents. The rods of the magicians are said to have become serpents "in like manner" (v.11) as in Moses' act. Some believe that this can be explained only by assuming that either

(1) the magicians themselves had power to create life; or

(2) on this occasion God gave them such power. Preferably it would seem that

(3) the rods of the magicians were actually rigid snakes which, when cast upon the ground, were seen to be what they really were—snakes. Snakes were, and still are, a common element in the paraphernalia of Egyptian magicians.

rod. Compare Ex. 4:2. As here the serpents, symbols of Satan, who had the power of death (Heb. 2:14; Rev. 12:9), are swallowed up, so in resurrection death will be "swallowed up in victory" (1 Cor. 15:54). Compare Num. 17:8. Victory was won by our Lord Jesus Christ through His but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

Water turned to blood

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the ^awater; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink ^bagainst he come; and the ^crod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 ^dAnd thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may ^eserve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear.

17 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to ^fblood.

18 And ^gthe fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall lothe to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and ^hall the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the ⁱmagicians of Egypt did ^jso with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; ^kas the LORD had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with ⁿfrogs:

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneading-troughs:

(1) loathsome—water turned to blood, frogs, lice;

(2) painful—stinging flies, cattle plague, boils;

(3) appalling—hail, locusts, darkness; and

(4) the overwhelming plague—death of the firstborn. Not even the first nine plagues, as frightful as they were, could move the unregenerate and hardened heart of Pharaoh.

8:2 The gods of the Egyptians were numerous indeed (see chart on page 102), supposedly inhabiting the heavens, the earth, and the subterranean regions. It would be impossible to bring judgment in any one of these three spheres without touching one or more deities of Egypt. The ten plagues were designed as visitations on the Egyptians and their gods at the same time. Thus the plague of darkness (10:21–23) was directed against the sun-god Ra, the most prominent of the Egyptian deities.

over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; ^aand the ^bfrogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the ^cmagicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

8 ¶ Then Pharaoh ^dcalled for Moses and Aaron, and said, ^eIntreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people ^fgo, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, ^gGlory over me: when shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, ^hthat they may remain in the river only?

10 And he said, To morrow. And he said, ⁱBe it according to thy word: that thou mayest know that ^jthere is ^knone like unto the LORD our God.

11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

Frogs destroyed

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was ^lrespite, he ^mhardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

Plague of lice

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became ⁿlice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they ^ocould not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, ^pThis ^qis the finger of God: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

Swarms of flies

20 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, ^rRise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; ^slo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of ^tflies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of ^uflies, and also the ground whereon they ^vare.

22 And I will ^wsever in that day the land of ^xGoshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of ^yflies shall be there; to the end thou mayest ^zknow that I ^{aa}am the LORD in the midst of the ^{ab}earth.

THE PHYSICAL ATTRIBUTES OF GOD

Although it is hard for humans to comprehend who God is, the Bible often attributes human characteristics to Him for our better understanding.

Ears	Nehemiah 1:6; Psalm 34:15
Eyes	2 Chronicles 16:9; 1 Peter 3:12

8:23 division. Hebrew peduth, translated redemption. Ps. 111:9; 130:7. It is, in type, Gal. 6:14.

24 And the LORD did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was ^acorrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

Pharaoh's compromise refused

25 ¶ And Pharaoh ^bcalled for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God ^cin the land.

26 And Moses ^dsaid, It is not ^emeet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the ^fabomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27 We will go ^gthree days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, ^hI will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go ⁱvery far away: intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal ^jdeceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

Flies destroyed

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh ^khardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

Livestock stricken

9 Then the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may ^lserve me.

2 For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous ^mmurrain.

4 And the LORD shall ⁿsever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the ^omorrow, and ^pall the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

Boils afflict man and beast

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with ^qblains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with ^qblains upon man, and upon beast.

8:25 in the land. Three compromises proposed by Pharaoh are similar to those urged upon Christians today:

(1) Here he says in effect: "Be a Christian if you will, but not a narrow one—stay in Egypt." This invariably ends in conformity with the world. Compare Ps. 50:9-17; 2 Cor. 6:14-18; Gal. 1:4.

(2) Pharaoh, in suggesting that the Israelites should "not go very far away" (v. 28) simply modifies the former proposal, as if to say: "Do not be too unworldly." Compare 1 Sam. 15:3,9,13-15,19-23. And

(3) Pharaoh then makes the most subtle proposal of the three, saying (10:8-11) that the Israelites might go out to offer sacrifices to their God, but their children should remain in Egypt. Even some of the most godly parents are inclined to desire prosperity and worldly position for their children. Compare Mt. 20:20-21.

11 And the ^amagicians could not stand before Moses because of the ^bboils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the LORD ^chardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he ^dhearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

Judgment of hail and fire

13 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, ^eRise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may ^fserve me.

14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is ^gnone like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will ^hstretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with ⁱpestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16 And in very deed for ^jthis cause have I raised thee up, for to ^kshew in thee my power; and that my ^lname may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

18 Behold, to morrow about this time ^mI will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

19 Send therefore now, and gather thy ⁿcattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that ^ofeared the word of the LORD among the ^pservants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the ^qhail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

26 ^rOnly in the land of Goshen, ^swhere the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

Pharaoh consents; then retracts

27 ¶ And Pharaoh sent, and ^tcalled for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have ^usinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

28 ^vIntreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no ^wmore mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you ^xgo, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the ^yearth is the LORD's.

30 ^zBut as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will not yet fear the LORD God.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten: for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was ^{aa}bolled.

32 But the wheat and the ^{aa}rie were not smitten: for they were not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thun-

Plague of locusts

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: for I have ^ahardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might ^bshew these my signs before him:

2 And that thou mayest ^ctell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may ^dknow how that I am the LORD.

3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may ^eserve me.

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring the ^flocusts into thy ^gcoast:

5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the ^hresidue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6 And they shall ⁱfill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's ^jservants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

8 And Moses and Aaron ^kwere brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, ^lGo, serve the LORD your God: but who are they that shall go?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a ^mfeast unto the LORD.

10 And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look ⁿto it; for evil is before you.

11 Not so: go now ^oye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that ye did desire. And they were ^odriven out from Pharaoh's presence.

10:1		THE TEN PLAGUES
Water turned to blood	Exodus 7:14-25	Fish died. Main water source not usable.
Frogs cover the land	Exodus 8:1-15	Millions of frogs infested every area. When they died their decaying bodies reeked.
Lice or gnats	Exodus 8:16-19	Although the insect type is uncertain, it would have caused extreme discomfort for all living creatures.
Swarms of flies	Exodus 8:20-32	The buzzing and biting of flies bring both discomfort and disease.
Diseased livestock	Exodus 9:1-7	The exact nature of this plague is not known; however, there is no mention that it was ever withdrawn.
Boils	Exodus 9:8-12	Painful boils afflicted humans and cattle. This is the first plague to directly affect humans. No mention is made that it was withdrawn.
Hail and fire	Exodus 9:13-35	Hail, a rare phenomena in Egypt, destroyed the flax, the barley and the trees, and killed humans and animals.
Locusts	Exodus 10:1-20	Any vegetation remaining from the hail storm was now eaten by the locusts.
Darkness	Exodus 10:21-29	This intense and terrifying darkness lasted three days.
Death of firstborn	Exodus 11:1-12:36	The cause of this selective killing of the firstborn humans and animals is unknown but the results would have brought personal and financial devastation on the Egyptians.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the ^alocusts.

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the ^bcoasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts as they, ^cneither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 ¶ Then Pharaoh ^dcalled for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, I have ^esinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and ^fintreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only.

18 And he went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the ^bcoasts of Egypt.

20 But the LORD ^ghardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

Judgment of darkness and light

21 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness ^hwhich may be felt.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a thick ⁱdarkness in all the land of Egypt three days:

23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: ^kbut all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

Final compromise refused

24 ¶ And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, ^lGo ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be ^mstayed: let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt-offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

26 Our ⁿcattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.

27 ¶ But the LORD ^ohardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said unto him, ^pGet thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in that day thou seest my face thou shalt die.

29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well, I will ^qsee thy face again no more.

Pharaoh warned of judgment upon firstborn

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague ^rmore upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; ^rafterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let you go, he shall surely ^sthrust you out hence altogether.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and ^tlet every man ^uborrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 And the LORD gave the people ^vfavour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the ^wman Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About ^xmidnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt:

5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall ^ydie, from the ^zfirstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon

Passover lamb*

12 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, ^jsaying,

2 This ^kmonth shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the ^lfirst month of the year to you.

3 ¶ Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the ^mtenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a ⁿlamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be without ^oblemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

6 And ye shall keep it up until the ^pfourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that ^qnight, ^rroast with fire, and ^sunleavened bread; and ^twith bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat not of it raw, nor ^usodden at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the ^vpurtenance thereof.

10 And ^wye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

11 And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is ^xthe LORD's passover.

12:11 passover. The Passover, a type of Christ our Redeemer (Ex. 12:1–28; Jn. 1:29; 1 Cor. 5:6–7; 1 Pet. 1:18–19):

(1) The lamb must be without blemish, and to test this it was kept for four days (Ex. 12:5–6). So our Lord's public life, under hostile scrutiny, was the testing which proved His holiness (Lk. 11:53–54; Jn. 8:46; 18:38).

(2) The lamb thus tested must be killed (Ex. 12:6; Jn. 12:24; Heb. 9:22).

(3) The blood must be applied (Ex. 12:7). This answers to appropriation by personal faith, and refutes universalism (Jn. 3:36).

(4) The blood thus applied of itself, without anything in addition, constituted a perfect protection from judgment (Ex. 12:13; Heb. 10:10,14; 1 Jn. 1:7). And

(5) the feast typified Christ the Bread of life, answering to the memorial supper (Mt. 26:26–28; 1 Cor. 11:23–26). To observe the feast was a duty and privilege but not a condition of safety. The believer in Christ is saved by the blood of "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world" (Rev. 13:8), and is strengthened daily by feasting on the Word—the living Word, Christ, and the written Word, the Scriptures.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a ^bmemorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ^cordinance for ever.

15 ^dSeven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day there shall be an holy ^econvocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this ^fselfsame day have I brought your 18 ¶ In the first ^hmonth, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a ⁱstranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then ^jMoses called for all the ^kelders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.

22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and ^lstrike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23 For the LORD will ^mpass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the ⁿblood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not ^osuffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall ^pobserve this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

THE GODS AND

Ancient Egyptian religion was very complex. There were dozens of local and regional gods and goddesses, each having a different function. Egyptians needed numerous gods to support their belief that everything that occurred was the act of some god.

Horus	son of Isis and Osiris

Death of the firstborn

29 ¶ And it came to pass, that at ^bmidnight the LORD ^csmote all the ^dfirstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of ^ecattle.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a ^fgreat cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

Children of Israel commanded to depart from Egypt hastily

31 ¶ And he ^gcalled for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and ^hget thyself forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have ⁱsaid.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have ^jsaid, and be gone; and bless me also.

33 And the ^kEgyptians were ^lurgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead ^mmen.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And ⁿthe children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they ^oborrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they ^plent unto them such things as they required. And they ^qspoiled the Egyptians.

II. The Exodus of the Children of Israel from Egypt, and the Journey to Sinai, 12:37-18:27

Redemption: (2) by power (to 15:21); first stage of journey

37 ¶ And the children of Israel journeyed from ^rRameses to Succoth, ^sabout six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

38 And a ^tmixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much ^ucattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were ^vthrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any ^wvictual.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty ^xyears.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the ^yselfsame day it came to pass, that ^zall the hosts of the LORD ^{aa}went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: ^{bb}this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

43 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of ^{cc}the passover: There shall no ^{dd}stranger eat thereof:

44 But every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast ^{ee}circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A foreigner and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ^{ff}ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye ^{gg}break a ^{hh}bone thereof.

12:38 mixed multitude. This "mixed multitude," similar to unconverted church members in the present age, was a source of weakness and division then as now (compare Num. 11:4-6). There had been a manifestation of divine power, and men were drawn to it without a change of heart. Compare Lk. 14:25-27.

12:41 years. This period of time probably began with the descent of Abraham into Egypt. Compare Gen. 12:10; also 1 Ki. 6:1.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall ^akeep it.

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 ^bOne law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the ^cself-same day, that the LORD did ^dbring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

Firstborn set apart for the LORD

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 ^eSanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, ^fRemember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by ^gstrength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: ^hthere shall no leavened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out in the month ⁱAbib.

5 And it shall be when the LORD shall ^jbring thee into the ^kland of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt ^lkeep this service in this month.

6 ^mSeven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt ⁿshew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be for a ^osign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the LORD's law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Thou shalt therefore ^pkeep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

11 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall ^qbring thee into the land of the ^rCanaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, 12 That thou shalt ^sset apart unto the LORD all that openeth the ^tmatrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD's.

13 And every ^ufirstling of an ass thou shalt ^vredeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem.

14 ¶ And it shall ^wbe when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, ^xBy strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage:

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD ^yslew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the ^zmatrix, being

13:5 Hittites. Until the twentieth century the Hittites were unknown apart from the Bible. This once puzzling reference to them has, however, been illuminated by the findings of archaeology. From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000–1800 B.C. and about 1400–1200 B.C.

Journey resumed

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, ^bLest peradventure the people ^crepent when they see war, and they return to Egypt:

18 But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and the children of Israel went up ^dharnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the ^ebones of Joseph with him: for he had ^sstraitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely ^hvisit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 And they took their ⁱjourney from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

Guidance by cloud and fire

21 ¶ And the LORD ^kwent before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the ^lpeople.

Pharaoh pursues Israel

14 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before ^mPi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And I will ⁿharden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honoured ^oupon Pharaoh, and ^oupon all his host; that the Egyptians may ^pknow that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5 ¶ And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD ^qhardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high ^rhand.

9 But the Egyptians ^spursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

10 ¶ And when Pharaoh drew ^tnigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were ^usore afraid: and the children of Israel ^vcried out unto the LORD.

11 And they ^wsaid unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 Is not this the word that we did ^xtell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

Joshua is the Hebrew form of Jesus, and Christ was named Jesus, because "he shall save his people from their sins" (Mt. 1:21). The divine deliverance to which this verse refers is a remarkable illustration of redemption provided by Christ.

15:25 when he had cast into the waters. Israel came to this bitter water while walking in the very path of the LORD's leading, thus indicating that difficult experiences for God's people are educative rather than punitive. The piece of wood which healed the water should remind the Christian that the cross of Christ can take all the bitterness out of all such experiences (compare Rom. 15:3-4; Gal. 3:13). See v. 27 and observe that after a trial which is accepted as the Father's will, blessing and growth will follow (compare Ps. 1:3; 92:12).

^aTo morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day, and ^bseethe that ye will ^bseethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not ^cstink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a ^dsabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

16:31 coriander. The coriander plant, which grows wild in Palestine and Egypt, produces small, spicy gray-white seeds.

16:35 manna. The word "manna" is a transliteration of two Hebrew words meaning What is it? (compare v. 15), the question the Israelites asked on first seeing it. Referred to as "bread" (Ex. 16:4), "the corn of heaven" and "angels' food" (Ps. 78:24-25), and "light bread" (Num. 21:5), it was preserved in a pot in the tabernacle (Heb. 9:4). Manna is compared to coriander seed with the resin-like color of bdellium, resembling hoarfrost as it lay on the ground and tasting like pastry prepared with oil (Num. 11:7-8). It fell throughout the forty years of wilderness wanderings and ceased to fall when Israel began eating grain at Gilgal (Josh. 5:10-12). Although organic in nature, manna is called "spiritual" food (1 Cor. 10:3) in reference to its supernatural origin.

Manna is a type of Christ in humiliation giving His flesh that the believer might have life (Jn. 6:49-51). To meditate upon the Lord Jesus as He lived among men, doing not His own will but the will of the Father (Jn. 6:38-40), is to feed on the manna.

16:35 forty years. Moses' life divides into three equal periods of forty years—in Egypt (Ex. 2:1-14); in Midian (2:15-12:36); and in the wilderness (12:37—Dt. 34:8). The Scriptures often refer to the forty-year period of wandering in the wilderness (Ex. 16:35; Acts 7:36-40); Stephen informs us that the length of time Moses spent as a shepherd in Midian was forty years (Acts 7:30); and once we are told that Moses lived to the age of 120 (Dt. 34:7), making his residence in Pharaoh's court to be forty years in length also.

The period spent by Moses at Mount Sinai was forty days (Ex. 24:18; 34:28), which was the length of time that our Lord was in the wilderness at the beginning of His ministry (Mt. 4:2) and also the time intervening between His resurrection and ascension (Acts 1:3).

Conflict with Amalek

8 ¶ Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and ⁱHur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands ^jwere heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur ^kstayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua ^ldiscomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this ^mfor a memorial in a ⁿ'book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an ^oaltar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi:

(1) Christ the Rock (1 Cor. 10:4);

(2) the people utterly unworthy (v. 2; Eph. 2:1-6); and

(3) characteristics of life through grace: (a) free (Jn. 4:10; Rom. 6:23; Eph. 2:8); (b) abundant (Rom. 5:20; compare Ps. 105:41); (c) near (Rom. 10:8); and (d) the people had only to take (Isa. 55:1). The struck rock aspect of the death of Christ looks toward the outpouring of the Holy Spirit (Jn. 7:37-39) as a result of accomplished redemption, rather than toward our guilt. It is the affirmative side of Jn. 3:16.

"Not perish" speaks of atoning blood; "but have" alludes to life bestowed (Rom. 8:2,10-11).

MOSES AS AUTHOR

This passage and others in the Pentateuch clearly teach that Moses could write. Compare Dt. 28:58; 31:24. Ancient writing has been found in Mesopotamia and Egypt from dates long before the time of Moses.

Until the rise of higher criticism, within the last two centuries, it was the belief of the entire Christian world that Moses wrote the Pentateuch. In 1753 a French physician named Jean Astruc advanced the theory that the change from the word "God," in Gen. 1:1—2:4 to the word "LORD," in the next few chapters, indicates that these come from two distinct sources and give a hint as to the sources which Moses used in writing the Pentateuch. After a long process, during which many views were suggested, there developed from this start the Graf-Wellhausen hypothesis, which was presented in 1878 by Julius Wellhausen and came to be accepted by most higher critics.

This theory divides the Pentateuch into a patchwork of various documents, all of them said to have been written many years after the time of Moses and to have been eventually combined into one work by a long procedure, in which a series of redactors (editors) took part. Four main arguments were advanced for this theory:

- (1) the use of various names for God in different passages;
- (2) the proposal that each of four principal documents could be read as a complete unit by itself;
- (3) the claim that there were many repetitions of parallel statements, events, laws, and even individual stories; and
- (4) the charge that the style of the documents differs widely.

Not one of these claims has been substantiated by careful investigation:

- (1) Similar alterations of divine names are found in other books whose unity is unquestioned.
- (2) The alleged continuity of each document proves on careful examination not to be a fact.
- (3) The so-called parallel passages often record different events. When the same account is repeated twice, there is generally a clear reason why the repetition should occur. And
- (4) the style of the different alleged documents does not usually vary greatly in the Hebrew. Where there is a striking difference, it is due to the dissimilarity of subject matter.

Archaeology has brought numerous evidences to support a Mosaic authorship, all of which fit with the Bible as it stands, many of them in sharp contradiction to the critical theory of the origin of the documents. Our Lord Jesus Christ personally referred to the Pentateuch as the work of Moses. Christians should follow their Lord in taking these five books as actually the work of this great prophet (Mk. 10:3-5; 12:26; Jn. 5:45-46; compare Mt. 8:4; 19:8; Mk. 1:44; 7:10; Lk. 5:14; 24:44; Jn. 7:19,22-23). For a related note, see Ex. 6:3. Compare also notes at Dt. 31:24; 34:12.

18 Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art ^anot able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to ^bGod-ward, that thou mayest ^cbring the causes unto God:

20 And thou shalt ^dteach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover thou shalt ^eprovide out of all the people ^fable men, such as ^gfear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place ^hsuch over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall ⁱbring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall ^jbear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

24 ¶ So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: ^jthe hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 ¶ And Moses let his father in law depart; and he went his way into his own land.

19:3 Thus shalt thou say. It is exceedingly important to observe that:

(1) The LORD reminded the people that up to then they had been the objects of His free grace;

(2) the law is not here proposed as a means of salvation but as a means by which Israel, already redeemed as a nation, might through obedience fulfill her proper destiny as a people for God's possession, a holy nation, and a kingdom of priests; and

(3) the law was not imposed until it had been proposed and voluntarily accepted.

19:5 if ye will obey. Compare 1 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 1:6; 5:10. What under law was conditional is, under grace, freely given to every believer. The "if" of v. 5 is the essence of law as a method of divine dealing, and the fundamental reason why "the law made nothing perfect" (Heb. 7:18–19; compare Rom. 8:3). To Abraham the promise preceded the requirement; at Sinai the requirement preceded the promise. In the New Covenant the Abrahamic order is followed (see Heb. 8:8–12, note). peculiar treasure. Literally a people for His own possession. Dt. 7:6; 14:2; 26:18; compare Ti. 2:14; 1 Pet. 2:9.

19:8 All that the LORD hath spoken. This oral response of the people is commended by the LORD in Dt. 5:27-28: "They have well said all that they have spoken." Their subsequent history, however, shows that they had failed to realize their own spiritual and moral weakness and the infinite perfection of the divine law which they so easily were engaging themselves to obey. See God's lament in Dt. 5:29: "O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always."

THE FIFTH DISPENSATION: THE LAW

This dispensation began with the giving of the law at Sinai and was brought to its close as a time-era in the sacrificial death of Christ, who fulfilled all its provisions and types. In the previous dispensation, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as well as multitudes of other individuals, failed in the tests of faith and obedience which were made man's responsibility (e.g. Gen. 16:1-4; 26:6-10; 27:1-25). Egypt also failed to heed God's warning (Gen. 12:3) and was judged. God nevertheless provided a deliverer (Moses), a sacrifice (Passover lamb), and miraculous power to bring the Israelites out of Egypt (judgments on Egypt; Red Sea deliverance).

As a result of their transgressions (Gal. 3:19) the Israelites were now placed under the precise discipline of the law. The law teaches:

- (1) the awesome holiness of God (Ex. 19:10-25);
- (2) the exceeding sinfulness of sin (Rom. 7:13; 1 Tim. 1:8-10);
- (3) the necessity of obedience (Jer. 7:23-24);
- (4) the universality of man's failure (Rom. 3:19-20); and
- (5) the marvel of God's grace in providing a way of approach to Himself through typical blood sacrifice, looking forward to a Savior who would become the Lamb of God to bear away the sin of the world (Jn. 1:29), "being witnessed by the law and the prophets" (Rom. 3:21).

The law did not change the provisions or abrogate the promise of God as given in the Abrahamic Covenant. It was not given as a way to life (that is, a means of justification, Acts 15:10-11; Gal. 2:16,21; 3:3-9,14,17,21,24-25), but as a rule of living for a people already in the covenant of Abraham and covered by blood sacrifice, e.g. Passover lamb, etc. One of its purposes was to make clear the purity and holiness which should characterize the life of a people with whom the law of the nation was at the same time the law of God (Ex. 19:5-6).

Hence, the law's function in relation to Israel was one of disciplinary restriction and correction (Gal. 3:24), like that exercised over Greek and Roman children by the trusted household slave or tutor, to hold Israel in check for their own good (Dt. 6:24):

(1) until Christ should come (Christ is actually our Tutor, for the grace which saves us also teaches us, Gal. 3:24; Ti. 2:11-12); and

(2) until the Father's appointed time that the heirs (children of promise) should be removed from a condition of legal minority into the privileges of heirs who have come of age (Gal. 4:1-3). This God did in sending His Son, and believers are now in the position of sons in the Father's house (Gal. 3:26; 4:4-7).

But Israel misinterpreted the purpose of the law (1 Tim. 1:8-10), sought righteousness by good deeds and ceremonial ordinances (Acts 15:1; Rom. 9:31-10:3), and rejected their own Messiah (Jn. 1:10-11). The history of Israel in the wilderness, in the land, and scattered among the nations has been one long record of the violation of the law. For notes on the other dispensations, see Innocence (Gen. 1:28); Conscience or Moral Responsibility (Gen. 3:7); Human Government (Gen. 8:15); Promise (Gen. 12:1); Church (Acts 2:1); Kingdom (Rev. 20:4); see also Gen. 1:26 and 11:10, notes.

11 And be ready ^aagainst the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to ^bdeath:

13 There shall not an hand touch it, but ^che shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

14 ¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not ^dat your wives.

16 And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were ^ethunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the ^fnether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a ^gsmoke, because the LORD descended upon it in ^hfire:

and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount ⁱquaked greatly.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and ^jwaxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God ^kanswered him by a voice.

20 ¶ And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses ^lup to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, ^mlest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the ⁿpriests also, which come near to the LORD, ^osanctify themselves, lest the LORD break ^pforth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set ^qbounds about the mount, and ^rsanctify it.

24 And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt ^scome up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

20:1 (heading) The Law. There are six important factors that should be borne in mind about the law:

(1) the origin and source of the law—God (Ex. 31:18; Acts 7:53);

THE MOSAIC COVENANT

The Mosaic Covenant, given to Israel in three divisions, each essential to the others and together forming the Mosaic Covenant, that is, the commandments, expressing the righteous will of God (Ex. 20:1–26); the judgments, governing the social life of Israel (Ex. 21:1–24:11); and the ordinances, governing the religious life of Israel (Ex. 24:12–31:18). These three elements form “the law,” as that expression is generically used in the N.T. (e.g. Mt. 5:17,18). The commandments and the ordinances formed one religious system. The commandments were a “ministration of condemnation” and “death” (2 Cor. 3:7–9); the ordinances gave, in the high priest, a representative of the people with the LORD; and, in the sacrifices, a cover (see Atonement, Lev. 16:6, note) for their sins in anticipation of the cross (Heb. 5:1–3; 9:6–9; compare Rom. 3:25–26). The Christian is not under the conditional Mosaic Covenant of works, the law, but under the unconditional New Covenant of grace (Rom. 3:21–27; 6:14–15; Gal. 2:16; 3:10–14,16–18,24–26; 4:21–31; Heb. 10:11–17). The law did not change the provision of the Abrahamic Covenant but was an added thing for a limited time only—till the Seed should come (Gal. 3:17–19).

For notes on other major covenants, see: Edenic (Gen. 2:16); Adamic (Gen. 3:15); Noahic (Gen. 9:16); Abrahamic (Gen. 12:2); Palestinian (Dt. 30:3); Davidic (2 Sam. 7:16); New (Heb. 8:8).

2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

4 ^aThou shalt not make unto thee any ^bgraven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a ^cjealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

6 And shewing mercy unto ^dthousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7 ^eThou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

8 Remember the ^fsabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 Six days shalt thou labour, and ^gdo all thy work:

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 ^hFor in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 ¶ Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be ⁱlong upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 ^jThou shalt not kill.

14 ^kThou shalt not commit adultery.

15 Thou shalt not ^lsteal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy ^mneighbour.

17 Thou shalt not ⁿcovet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's ^owife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

The effect on the people

18 ¶ And all the people saw the ^pthunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they ^qremoved, and stood afar ^roff.

20:1 THE GIVING OF THE LAW

There is a threefold giving of the law:

(1) Orally. In 20:1-17 ten commandments are given. They are followed by judgments concerning the relations of Hebrew with Hebrew (21:1-23:13), to which are added directions for keeping three annual feasts (23:14-19), and instructions for the conquest of Canaan (23:20-33). These words Moses communicates to the people (24:3-8). Immediately, in the persons of their elders, they are admitted to the fellowship of God (24:9-11).

(2) Moses is then called up to receive the tables of stone (24:12-18). The story then divides. Moses, on the mount, receives the gracious instructions concerning the tabernacle, priesthood, and sacrifice (chs. 25-31). Meantime the people, led by Aaron, break the first commandment (ch. 32). Moses, returning, breaks the tables "written with the finger of God" (31:18; 32:16-19). And

(3) the second tables are made by Moses and the law is again written by the hand of the LORD (34:1, 28-29; Dt. 10:4).

(2) the avenue of the bestowal of the law—Moses and angels (Jn. 1:17; Gal. 3:19; Heb. 2:2);

(3) the nature of the law—(a) not grace (Rom. 10:5; Gal. 3:10; Heb. 10:28), (b) holy, just, good, and spiritual (Rom. 7:12,14), and (c) a unit (Jas. 2:10-11);

(4) the effects of the law—(a) declares all men guilty (Rom. 3:19), (b) justifies no one (Rom. 3:20), (c) cannot impart righteousness or life (Gal. 3:21), (d) makes offenses abound (Rom. 5:20; 7:7-13; 1 Cor. 15:56), and (e) served as a tutor until Christ (Gal. 3:24);

(5) the relation of the believer to the law—(a) is not saved by law (Gal. 2:21), (b) does not live under law (Rom. 6:14; 8:4), but (c) stands and grows in grace (Rom. 5:2; 2 Pet. 3:18); and

(6) the recipients of the law—Israel alone (Ex. 20:2). Some of the laws of the Decalogue are written in the hearts of men everywhere, are found in legal codes of other ancient nations, and are of universal application.

20:13 kill. The Hebrew language expresses several words to express the idea, to kill. The verb used here is a special word which can only mean murder and always indicates intentional slaying.

20:18 afar. For contrast between law and grace compare Lk. 1:10; Eph. 2:13; with Heb. 10:19-22.

hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we ^adie.

20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to ^bprove you, and that his ^cfear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the ^dthick darkness where God was.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have ^etalked with you from heaven.

23 ¶ Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

Gracious provision for sacrifices

24 ¶ An altar of ^gearth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt-offerings, and thy peace-offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places where I ^hrecord my name I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee.

25 And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of ⁱhewn stone: for if thou ^jlift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy ^knakedness be not ^ldiscovered thereon.

The Law: (2) the judgments: master and servant relationship

21 Now these are the ^mjudgments which thou shalt set before them.

2 If thou buy an ⁿHebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free:

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the ^ojudges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ^pear through with an aul; and he shall ^qserve him for ever.

7 ¶ And if a man sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do.

8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a ^rstrange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another ^swife; her food, her raiment, and her ^tduty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

The judgments: personal injuries

12 ¶ He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to ^udeath.

13 And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver ^vhim into his hand; then I will appoint thee a ^wplace whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt ^xtake him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 ¶ And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16 ¶ And he that ^ystealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 ¶ And he that ^zcurseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 ¶ And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with ^{aa}his fist, and he die not, but keepeth ^{ab}his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote ^{ac}him be ^{ad}quit: only he shall pay ^{ae}for the loss of his time, and shall cause ^{af}him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he is his ^amoney.

22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the ^bjudges determine.

23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life,

24 ^cEye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 ¶ And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

28 ¶ If an ^dox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be ^equit.

29 But if the ox were ^fwont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master ^gthirty ^hshekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 ¶ And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox ⁱhath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.

The judgments: property rights

22 If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall ^jrestore five oxen for an ox, and ^kfour sheep for a sheep.

2 ¶ If a thief be found ^lbreaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.

3 If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.

5 ¶ If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.

6 ¶ If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of ^mcorn, or the standing ⁿcorn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 ¶ If a man shall ^odeliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the ^pjudges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14 ¶ And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire.

The judgments: crimes against humanity

16 ¶ And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife.

17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

18 ¶ Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

21 ¶ Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto me, I will surely hear their cry;

24 And my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

25 ¶ If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.

26 If thou at all take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down:

27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.

28 ¶ Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

29 ¶ Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me.

31 ¶ And ye shall be holy men unto me: neither shall ye eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in the field; ye shall cast it to the dogs.

23 Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

2 ¶ Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment:

3 ¶ Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause.

4 ¶ If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.

6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.

The judgments: the land and the sabbath

10 ¶ And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof:

11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy oliveyard.

12 ^eSix days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the ^cstranger, may be refreshed.

13 And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other ^fgods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

Three national feasts: Unleavened Bread; Firstfruits; Ingathering

14 ¶ Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year.

15 Thou shalt keep the feast of ^gunleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month ^hAbib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and ⁱnone shall appear before me empty:)

16 And the feast of ^jharvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord GOD.

18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened ^kbread; neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning.

19 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt ^lbring into the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not ^msee the a kid in his mother's milk.

Instructions and promises concerning conquest of the land

20 ¶ Behold, I send an ⁿAngel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have ^oprepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him.

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then ^pI will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the ^qHittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not ^rbow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly ^soverthrow them, and quite break down their images.

25 And ye shall ^tserve the LORD your God, and he shall ^ubless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take ^vsickness away from the midst of thee.

26 There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the ^wnumber of thy days I will fulfil.

27 I will send my ^xfear before thee, and will ^ydestroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee.

28 And I will send ^zhornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee.

Order of worship before building the tabernacle

24 And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, ^eNadab, and Abihu, and ^fseventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

2 And Moses alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come ^gnigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

People acknowledge the covenant: their worship

3 ¶ And Moses came and told the people all the ^hwords of the LORD, and all the ⁱjudgments: and ^jall the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the LORD hath said will we do.

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered ^kburnt-offerings, and sacrificed peace-offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the ^laltar.

7 And he took the ^mbook of the covenant, and read in the ⁿaudience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the ^oblood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that ^sthou mayest teach them.

13 And Moses rose up, and his ^tminister ^uJoshua: and Moses went up into the ^vmount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and ^wHur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

Mount Sinai: The mountain of God upon which God gave Moses the Ten Commandments.

25:1 The general authority for the types of Exodus is found:

(1) as to the persons and events, in 1 Cor. 10:1-11; and

(2) as to the tabernacle, in Heb. 9:1-24. Having the assurance that the tabernacle and its furnishings are typical, the details of necessity must be received as typical also. But since there is no explicit N.T. reference for the meaning of some of them, the significance in such instances is based on spiritual analogy. See Gen. 2:23, note. The typical meanings of the materials and colors of the tabernacle are believed to be as follows: gold, Deity in manifestation—divine glory; silver, redemption (see Ex. 26:19, note; 30:11-16; 38:27); bronze, symbol of judgment, as in the bronze altar and in the bronze serpent (Num. 21:6-9); blue, heavenly in nature or origin; purple, royalty; scarlet, sacrifice.

25:9 tabernacle. The tabernacle, speaking comprehensively, is explained in the N.T. as typical in three ways:

(1) of the Church as a habitation of God through the Spirit (v. 8; Eph. 2:19-22);

(2) of the believer (2 Cor. 6:16); and

(3) as a figure of things in the heavens (Heb. 9:23-24).

In detail, all speak of Christ:

(1) The ark, in its materials, acacia wood and gold, is a type of the humanity and Deity of Christ (see Ex. 26:15, note).

(2) In its contents, the ark is a type of Christ, as: (a) having God's law in His heart (Ex. 25:16); (b) the wilderness food (or portion) of His people (Ex. 16:33); and (c) Himself the resurrection, of which Aaron's rod is the symbol (Num. 17:10; Heb. 9:4). And

(3) in its use the ark, especially the mercy seat, is a type of God's throne. That it was, to the sinning Israelite, a throne of grace and not of judgment was due to the mercy

THE HISTORY OF THE ARK OF THE TESTIMONY

The long history of the ark of the testimony begins at Mount Sinai where the ark was built. Throughout its history the ark contained the tables of the Law (1 Ki. 8:9) and for a time also the golden pot containing manna and Aaron's rod (Heb. 9:4). The ark ordinarily was kept in the most holy place of the tabernacle. During the journeys of the Israelites it was carried by the priests or the Kohathites of the tribe of Levi (Num. 3:30-31). After Solomon built the temple, it was kept there (1 Ki. 8:6-9). The ark accompanied the children of Israel on their journeys through the wilderness; at Jericho it preceded their army (Josh. 6). The ark's frequent mention in Scripture testifies to its prominence in Israel (Num. 3:31; 10:33; Josh. 3:3-17; 6:4; Jud. 20:27; 1 Sam. 3:3; 4:1-11; 5:1-11; 6:1-21; 7:1-2; 2 Sam. 6:2-17; 7:2; 15:24-29; 1 Ki. 8:1-21).

The description of the furnishings of the tabernacle begins with the ark which, as already stated, was placed in the most holy place; because in revelation God begins from Himself, working outward toward man, as in approach the worshipper begins from himself, moving toward God in the most holy place. The same order is followed in the Levitical offerings (Lev. 1-5). In approach man begins at the bronze altar, a type of the cross where, in the fire of judgment, atonement is made.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a ^acrown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of ^bshittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be ^ctaken from it.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark the ^dtestimony which I shall give thee.

17 And thou shalt make a ^emercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two ^fcherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat.

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

20 And the cherubims shall ^gstretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

21 And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And there I will ^hmeet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from ⁱbetween the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

Table of shewbread

23 ¶ Thou shalt also ^jmake a ^ktable of ^bshittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a ^lcrown of gold round about.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden ^mcrown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of ⁿshittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, ^oto cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt ^pset upon the table shewbread before me alway.

31 ¶ And thou shalt ^qmake a ^pcandlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the ^rcandlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his ^sknops, and his flowers, shall be of the same.

25:30 shewbread. "The shewbread," a type of Christ, the Bread of God, nourisher of the Christian's life as a believer-priest (1 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 1:6). In Jn. 6:33-58 our Lord has more in mind the manna, that food which "came down from heaven"; but all typical meanings of bread are there gathered into His words. The manna is the life-giving Christ; the showbread, the life-sustaining Christ. The showbread typifies Christ as the "corn of wheat" (Jn. 12:24) ground in the mill of suffering (Jn. 12:27) and brought into the fire of judgment (Jn. 12:31-33). We, as priests, by faith feed upon Him as having undergone that in our stead and for our sakes. We are fed by meditation upon Christ, as in Heb. 12:2-3.

25:31 candlestick. Candlestick, a type of Christ our Light (Jn. 1:4,9; 8:12; 9:5) shining in the fullness of the power of the sevenfold Spirit (Isa. 11:2; Heb. 1:9; Rev. 1:4).

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the ^acandlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the ^acandlestick out of the other side:

33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a ^bknop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a ^bknop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the ^acandlestick.

34 And in the ^acandlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their ^cknops and their flowers.

35 And there shall be a ^bknop under two branches of the same, and a ^bknop under two branches of the same, and a ^bknop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the ^acandlestick.

36 Their ^cknops and their branches shall be of the same: all it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light ^dover against it.

38 And the tongs thereof, and the snuffdishes thereof, shall be of pure gold.

39 Of a ^etalent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels.

40 And flood that thou make them after their ^gpattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.

Curtains of linen

26 Moreover thou shalt ^hmake the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with ⁱcherubims of ^jcunning work shalt thou make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty ^kcubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty ^ltaches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the ^ltaches: and it shall be one tabernacle.

Curtains of goats' hair

7 ¶ And thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty ^ltaches of ^mbrass, and put the ^ltaches into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the ⁿbackside of the tabernacle.

26:15 boards. The typical meaning of the boards is clear as to Christ. Acacia wood, a desert growth, is a fitting symbol of Christ in His humanity as "a root out of a dry ground" (Isa. 53:2). The covering, gold, typifying Deity in manifestation, speaks of His divine glory. As applied to the individual believer, the meaning of the boards is less clear. The connection may be found in Jn. 17:21-23; Eph. 1:4,6; 1 Jn. 4:13. Only as seen in Him could the boards be taken as representing the believer. So viewed the type is beautiful. In the world, and yet separated from it by the silver of redemption (Ex. 30:11-16; 38:25-27; Gal. 1:4) as the boards of the tabernacle were separated from the earth by the sockets of silver, and united by the middle bar (v. 28), representing both one life (Gal. 2:20) and one Spirit (Eph. 4:3), "all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord" (Eph. 2:21).

26:19 silver. In Bible times, silver was variously used for money, jewelry, and idols. In the construction of the tabernacle God told Moses to collect from every Israelite a redemption price in silver of half a shekel (Ex. 30:11-16), which is described as "atonement money" to be used "to make an atonement for your souls" (Ex. 30:16). The silver collected in this way was used for the sockets of the sanctuary, and for the bands and hooks (see Ex. 25:1, note; compare 26:15, note). Thus the tabernacle rested upon silver sockets; the curtains of the door, the way of access, were suspended from silver bands and hooks (see Ex. 27:17, note). The silver paid as atonement money was only a token payment; ultimately, the price of redemption had to be paid by Christ with the shedding of His own blood (1 Pet. 1:18-19).

26:31 veil. The inner veil, a type of Christ's human body (Mt. 26:26; 27:50; Heb. 10:20). This veil, barring entrance

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of ^ashittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

33 And thou shalt hang up the veil under the ^btaches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the veil the ark of the ^ctestimony: and the veil shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy.

34 And thou shalt put the ^dmercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

35 And thou shalt set the table ^ewithout the veil, and the ^fcandlestick over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side.

Outer veil

36 ¶ And thou shalt make an hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of ^ashittim wood, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of ^gbrass for them.

Brasen (bronze) altar

27 And thou shalt ^hmake an altar of ^ashittim wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height thereof shall be three cubits.

2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay it with ⁱbrass.

3 And thou shalt make his pans to receive his ashes, and his shovels, and his basons, and his flesh-hooks, and his firepans: all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of ⁱbrass.

4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of network of ⁱbrass; and upon the net shalt thou make four ⁱbrassen rings in the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of ^ashittim wood, and overlay them with ⁱbrass.

7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as it was shewed thee in the mount, ^kso shall they make it.

Court of the tabernacle

9 ¶ And thou shalt ^lmake the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of an hundred cubits long for one side:

into the Most Holy, was the most expressive symbol of the truth that "by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified" (Rom. 3:20; Heb. 9:8). Torn by an unseen hand when Christ died (Mt. 27:51), thus giving instant access to God to all who come by faith in His Son, it was the end of all legality; the way to God was open. It is deeply significant that the priests must have replaced the veil that God had rent, for the temple services went on for nearly forty years. That substitute veil is Galatianism—the attempt to put the believer back under law (compare Gal. 1:6–9). Anything but "the grace of Christ" is "another gospel," and under anathema.

27:1 altar. Bronze altar, a type of the cross upon which Christ, our whole burnt offering, "offered himself without spot to God" (Heb. 9:14). wood. The wood, as a symbol of Christ's humanity (see Ex. 26:15, note) and enclosed here in bronze, must have become completely charred by the sacrificial fires. Compare Heb. 10:5–7. height. Compare Ex. 25:10. The altar of burnt offering is double the height of the mercy seat. The atonement more than saves us; it glorifies God (Jn. 17:4).

27:2 brass. Compare Num. 21:9, where see note, and Jn. 3:14 with Jn. 12:31–33, thus fixing the symbolic meaning of bronze as divine manifestation in judgment.

27:9 fine twined linen. The fine linen commonly typifies personal righteousness (see Ex. 26:1, note), and in the hangings of the court suggests that measure of righteousness which God demands of any who would, in his own righteousness, approach Him. Christ, figuratively speaking, put up the hangings of the court in 1k. 10:25–28. The only way of approach was the "gate of the court" (v. 16, and note; Jn. 10:9). The hangings of the court exclude equally the self-righteous man and the open sinner, for the height was above seven feet (v. 18).

11 And likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and his twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of ^bbrass; the hooks of the pillars and their ^afillets of silver.

12 And for the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits: their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.

13 And the breadth of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And on the other side shall be hangings fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

Gate of the court

16 ¶ And for the gate of the court shall be an hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework: and their pillars shall be four, and their sockets four.

17 All the pillars round about the court shall be ^cfilleted with silver; their ^dhooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of ^bbrass.

18 The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty every where, and the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their sockets of ^ebrass.

19 All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service thereof, and all the pins thereof, and all the pins of the court, shall be of ^ebrass.

Oil for the lamp

20 ¶ And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure ^foil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always.

21 In the tabernacle of the congregation ^gwithout the vail, which is before the ^htestimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD: it shall be a ⁱstatute for ever unto their generations on the behalf of the children of Israel.

27:16 gate of the court. In the hangings of the court (see v. 9, note), representing that practical righteousness which God demands in the law and which, therefore, excludes all men (Rom. 3:19–20; 10:3–5), there are no colors. But the “gate” is Christ (Jn. 10:9), and so the colors reappear, as in the veil (Ex. 26:31).

27:17 pillars. The rods and hooks upholding the linen hangings were of silver (see 26:19, note), for it is in virtue of Christ’s redemptive work that He is our way of access, and not by virtue of His righteous life (symbolized by the fine linen); but the pillars of the court rested upon bronze sockets, not silver as in the case of the boards; and bronze symbolizes divine manifestation in judgment (v. 2; see Num. 21:9, note). Redemption not only displays God’s mercy but vindicates His righteousness in showing that mercy (Rom. 3:21–26).

OLIVE OIL FOR THE LAMPS

Oil is a symbol of the Holy Spirit (compare Zech. 4:2–6 [v. 2, note] and John 3:34 with Heb. 1:9. See Acts 2:4, note). In Christ the oil-fed light ever burns, the Light of the world (John 8:12). But here there is not the world but the sanctuary. It is a question not of testimony in and to the world, but of our communion and worship as believer-priests in the Holiest (Heb. 10:19–20). In the tabernacle there were two compartments, two lights:

(1) the holy place with the candlestick (see Ex. 25:31, note); and

(2) the most holy place with the Shekinah, or manifested glory of God. These two places are now one (Mt. 27:50–51; Heb. 9:6–8; 10:19–22), but it is important to see that there are still two lights:

(1) Christ, the Light of life (Jn. 1:4), through the Spirit giving light upon the holy things of God, the showbread and altar of incense; and

(2) the Shekinah, now, on the face of Jesus Christ (2 Cor. 4:6). Into this twofold light we, as believer-priests, are brought (1 Pet. 2:9). We “walk in the light,” not merely which He gives but in which He lives (1 Jn. 1:7). But what of the command here to bring pure oil? It is because our access, apprehension, communion, and transformation are by the Spirit (Eph. 2:18; compare 1 Cor. 2:14–15; 2 Cor. 3:18; 13:14; Phil. 2:1). Our title to His presence is the blood (Eph. 2:13), but only as we are filled with the Spirit (Eph. 5:18) do we really walk in the light.

28:1 Aaron. Aaron and his sons typify Christ and believers of the Church age. Aaron is a type of Christ as our High Priest. Christ is a priest after the order of Melchizedek (Heb. 7) but He executes His priestly office after the pattern of Aaron (Heb. 9). See Gen. 14:18-20 (see v. 18, note). Aaron's sons are a type of believer-priests of the Church age (Rev. 1:6; compare 1 Pet. 2:9, where see note).

purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onyx ^astones, and ^bgrave on them the names of the children of Israel:

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their ^cbirth.

11 With the work of an ^dengraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ^eouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall ^fbear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial.

13 And thou shalt make ^eouches of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of ^gwreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the ^gwreathen chains to the ^eouches.

The breastplate

15 ¶ And thou shalt ^hmake the breastplate of judgment with ⁱcunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it.

16 Foursquare it shall be ⁱbeing doubled; a ^kspan shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof.

17 And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

19 And the third row a ^ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

20 And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their inclosings.

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 ¶ And thou shalt make upon the breastplate chains at the ends of ^mwreathen work of pure gold.

23 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

24 And thou shalt put the two ^mwreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two ^mwreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two ⁿouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod before it.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the ^ocurious girdle of the ephod.

28 And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the ^ocurious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron shall ^pbear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.

and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

Robe of the ephod

31 ¶ And thou shalt ^amake the ^brobe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of ^can habergeon, that it be not rent.

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

The holy crown

36 ¶ And thou shalt ^dmake a plate of pure gold, and ^egrave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the ^finiquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

Priestly garments

39 ¶ And thou shalt ^gembroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of needlework.

40 ¶ And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and ^hbonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for ⁱbeauty.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his ^jsons with him; and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and ^ksanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

42 And thou shalt make them linen ^lbreeches to cover their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach:

43 And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they ^mcome near unto the altar to minister in the holy place; that they bear not iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute for ever unto him and his seed after him.

and the perfections of Him who is the antitype of the Aaronic high priest. Compare Lev. 8:8. It would seem to be conclusive that the Urim and the Thummim are additional to the stones of the breastplate. In use the Urim and the Thummim were connected, in some way not clearly expressed, with the ascertainment of the divine will in particular cases (Num. 27:21; Dt. 33:8; 1 Sam. 28:6; Ezra 2:63).

THE HIGH PRIEST'S GARMENTS

The high priest's garments were put on in reverse order of the instructions for making them:

(1) The coat (Ex. 28:39), an oriental long garment worn next to the person, made of fine linen (see Ex. 27:9, note).

(2) The robe of the ephod (Ex. 28:31-35), a long seamless garment of blue linen with an opening for the head, worn over the tunic. Pomegranates, symbol of fruitfulness, were embroidered on the skirt of the robe in blue, purple, and scarlet, alternated with golden bells, a symbol of testimony, which gave a sound as the high priest went in and out of the sanctuary. The robe was secured by an embroidered sash.

(3) The ephod (Ex. 28:6-30; 39:1-21; Lev. 8:7-8), a short outer garment. It was "of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen" (Ex. 28:6). It consisted of two pieces, front and back, united by two shoulderpieces and by a band about the bottom. Two onyx stones, set in gold and engraved with the names of the twelve tribes of Israel, were on the shoulders (Ex. 28:7,12,27).

(4) The breastplate, fastened by golden chains to the shoulderpieces of the ephod. It was composed of a square pouch that held the Urim and the Thummim, and an oblong gold setting containing twelve precious stones (four rows, three stones in each row) upon which were engraved the names of the tribes of Israel, one on each stone (Ex. 28:15-21,29-30). As the Urim and the Thummim were in certain cases connected in some way with discovering the will of God (see Ex. 28:30, note), so the ephod, with its attachments, was apparently employed for the same purpose (1 Sam. 23:9-12; 30:7-8).

Although they would hardly have been precisely like the high priest's ephod, it is recorded that linen ephods were worn by Samuel (1 Sam. 2:18), the priests at Nob (1 Sam. 22:18), and David (2 Sam. 6:14).

Our Lord, as our great High Priest (Heb. 3:1; 5:10; 7:26; 9:11), now represents us before God (Rom. 8:33-34; Heb. 7:25; 9:24; 1 Jn. 2:1-2; compare Isa. 49:16), bearing our names before Him as the high priest of old carried the names of the tribes of Israel upon his shoulders and on the breastplate.

(5) The holy crown (Ex. 28:37), bearing upon the front a gold plate engraved: HOLINESS TO THE LORD (v. 36).

(6) Linen breeches, "from the loins even unto the thighs" (Ex. 28:42). The coat and breeches were made for the priests also, and were the ordinary garments of high priest and priests as distinguished from other garments, which were "for glory and for beauty" (Ex. 28:2).

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and ^asprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a ^bburnt-offering unto the LORD: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

19 ¶ And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and ^csprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be ^dhallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the ^ecaul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration:

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD:

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt-offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

Food of the priests

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave-offering before the LORD: and it shall be thy ^fpart.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the heave-offering, which is waved, and which is ^gheaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is an heave-offering; and it shall be an heave-offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their ^hpeace-offerings, even their heave-offering unto the LORD.

29 ¶ And the ⁱholy garments of Aaron shall ^kbe his sons' after him, to be ^lanointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and ^mseethe his flesh in the holy place.

it was "not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins" (Heb. 10:4). The Israelite's offering implied confession of sin and recognized its due penalty as death; and God passed over his sin in anticipation of Christ's sacrifice which did, finally, put away those "sins

The continual burnt-offering

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day ^hcontinually.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even:

40 And with the one lamb a tenth ⁱdeal of flour ^jmingled with the fourth part of an ^khin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink-offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the ^lmeat-offering of the morning, and according to the drink-offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

42 This shall be a continual burnt-offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD: where I will ^mmeet you, to speak there unto thee.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my ⁿglory.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office.

45 ¶ And I will ^odwell among the children of Israel, and will ^pbe their God.

46 And they shall ^qknow that I am the LORD their God, that ^rbrought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

13 This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty ^ggerahs;) an half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD.

14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD.

15 The rich shall not ^hgive more, and the poor shall not give less than

COINAGE IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

The shekel here is a piece of silver, not a coin. Minted coins before 700 B.C. have not been found in Bible lands. Financial transactions were carried on by a system of barter using cattle, grain, spices, and precious metal as a means of exchange. The Hebrews did not use coins until about 500 B.C. (compare Ezra 1:4). Mention of shekels and talents in earlier Hebrew history refers to weights, not coins (compare Gen. 23:15-16; Ex. 21:32; 1 Chr. 21:25). The exact worth of gold and silver is difficult to ascertain because of the fluctuation in purchasing power in different periods. Coins, except for the Persian drachma (dram), differed in weight and varied in value from light to heavy coins, light coins being half the value of heavy ones, though designated by the same name. For Coinage (N.T.) see Mt. 5:26, note.

30:9 strange incense. Compare Lev. 10:1-3. Two prohibitions are given concerning worship:

(1) No "strange" incense is to be offered. This speaks of simulated or purely formal worship. And

(2) no "profane" fire is permitted. This may refer to the substitution for devotion to the LORD of any other devotion, as to religious causes or sects. Compare 1 Cor. 1:11-13; Col. 2:8, 16-19. See Ex. 30:38, note.

30:13 shekel. That is, silver. See Ex. 26:19, note.

30:18 laver. Laver, a type of Christ's cleansing us from defilement and from every "spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing" (Eph. 5:25-27; compare Jn. 13:2-10). It is significant that the priests could not enter the holy place after serving at the bronze altar until their hands and feet were cleansed.

hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels,

24 And of ^acassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an hin:

25 And thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the ^bapothecary: it shall be an holy ^canointing oil.

26 And thou shalt ^danoint the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony,

27 And the table and all his vessels, and the ^ecandlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense, 28 And the altar of burnt-offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot.

29 And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy.

30 And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and ^fconsecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

31 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oil unto me throughout your generations.

32 Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make any other like it, after the composition of it: it is holy, and it shall be holy unto you.

33 Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people.

Incense: type of prayer and praise

34 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight:

35 And thou shalt make it a perfume, a ^gconfection after the art of the ^hapothecary, tempered together, pure and holy:

36 And thou shalt beat some of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy.

37 And as for the perfume which thou shalt make, ye shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee holy for the LORD.

38 Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people.

Arabia. Frankincense is not to be confused with incense (to which it was to be added), as it is often used apart from incense. It is told what composed the incense, but never in Scripture what the frankincense was. All speak of Christ—the sweet spices of those perfections which we may apprehend, the frankincense of that which God saw in Jesus as ineffable.

31:3 workmanship. This unique ability of Bezaleel, given by the Spirit, included not only manual skill but also the intellectual wisdom and understanding essential to all art. Artistic talent of every kind is a divine gift (Jas. 1:17). The God who by His Spirit "garnished the heavens" (Job 26:13) also created man with aesthetic faculties which, like all the human faculties, were corrupted in the fall.

The sabbath, a sign between the LORD and Israel

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my ^bsabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a ^csign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth ^dsanctify you.

14 Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to ^edeath: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

15 Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is ^fthe sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.

17 It is a ^gsign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he ^hrested, and was refreshed.

3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

Moses' advocacy

12 Wherefore should ^hthe Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and ⁱrepent of this evil against thy people.

32:10 God was testing Moses by offering to replace Israel with a new nation descending from Moses. Theologically, a test of this kind must be considered in the light of the sovereign will of God that underlies all human decision. For Moses this test was real, even though the proposed destruction of Israel was not in God's plan, as shown by the Abrahamic Covenant and such promises as Gen. 49:10 to Judah. Likewise Christ in the Gospels offered Himself as King to Israel even though His rejection and His death on the cross, according to "the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God" (Acts 2:23), had to precede the glorious kingdom.

me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and ^aslay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

29 For Moses had said, ^bConsecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

Moses' intercession

30 ¶ And it came to pass on the ^cmorrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; ^dperadventure I shall make an ^eatonement for your sin.

31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of ^fgold.

32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy ^gbook which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, ^hWhosoever hath sinned against me, him will I ⁱblot out of my book.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have ^jspoken unto thee: behold, mine ^kAngel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will ^lvisit their sin upon them.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, because ^mthey made the calf, which Aaron made.

Moses ordered to resume journey

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou ⁿhast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I ^oswore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it:

2 And I will send an ^pangel before thee; and I will ^qdrive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the ^rHittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

3 Unto a ^sland flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a ^tstiffnecked people: lest ^uI consume thee in the way.

4 ¶ And when the people heard these evil tidings, ^vthey mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.

The tabernacle of the congregation outside the camp

7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it ^wwithout the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was ^xwithout the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, ^ythe cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD ^ztalked with Moses.

Moses' prayer; the LORD's answer

12 ¶ And Moses ^bsaid unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, ^cBring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found ^dgrace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now ^ethy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and ^fconsider that this nation is thy people.

14 And he said, ^gMy presence shall ^hgo with thee, and I will give thee ⁱrest.

15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou ^jgoest with us? so shall we be ^kseparated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

Moses seeks a new vision for the new task

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy ^lglory.

19 And he said, I will make all my ^mgoodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and ⁿwill be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see my ^oface: ^pfor there shall no man see me, and live.

21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a ^qclift of the ^rrock, and will cover thee with my ^shand while I pass by:

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, ^tHew thee two tables of stone ^ulike unto the first: and I will write upon these tables the ^vwords that were in the first tables, which thou brakest.

2 And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount ^wSinai, and present thyself there to me in the top of the mount.

3 And ^xno man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

34:6

NAMES OF DEITY: LORD

Hebrew YHWH.

(1) The primary meaning of the name "LORD" (perhaps pronounced Yahweh, in English Jehovah) is the self-existent One; literally (as in Ex. 3:14), He that is who He is, therefore, the eternal I AM. See Gen. 2:4, note.

(2) It is significant that the first appearance of the name Jehovah in Scripture follows the creation of man. It was God (Elohim) who said, "Let us make man in our image" (Gen. 1:26); but when man, as in Gen. 2, is to fill the scene and become dominant over creation, it is the LORD God (Jehovah Elohim) who acts (Gen. 2:4ff.). This clearly indicates a special relation of Deity, in His Jehovah character, to man, and all Scripture emphasizes this.

(3) Jehovah is distinctly the redemption name of Deity. When sin entered the world and man's redemption became necessary, it was Jehovah Elohim who sought the sinning ones (Gen. 3:9-13) and clothed them with coats of skins (Gen. 3:21), a beautiful type of the righteousness provided by the LORD God through sacrifice (Rom. 3:21-25). The first distinctive revelation of Himself by His name Jehovah was in connection with the redemption of the covenant people out of Egypt (Ex. 3:13-17).

As Redeemer, emphasis is laid upon those attributes of Jehovah which the sin and salvation of man bring into exercise. These are

(a) His holiness (Lev. 11:44-45; 19:1-2; 20:26; Hab. 1:12-13);

(b) His hatred and judgment of sin (Dt. 32:35-42; compare Gen. 6:5-7; Ex. 34:6-7; Ps. 11:4-6; 66:18); and

(c) His love for and redemption of sinners, which he always carries out righteously. (Gen. 3:21; 8:20-21; Ex. 12:12-13; Lev. 16:2-3; Isa. 53:5-6,10). Salvation by Jehovah apart from sacrifice is unknown in Scripture.

(4) LORD is also the distinctive name of Deity as in covenant with Israel (Ex. 19:3; 20:1-2; Jer. 31:31-34).

(5) LORD God (Hebrew Jehovah Elohim) is the first of the compound names of God. LORD God is used distinctively:

(a) Of the relation of Deity to man

(1) as Creator (Gen. 2:7-15);

(2) as morally in authority over man (Gen. 2:16-17);

(3) as creating and governing the earthly relationships of man (Gen. 2:18-24; 3:16-19,22-24); and

(4) as redeeming man (Gen. 3:8-15,21).

(b) Of the relation of Deity to Israel (Gen. 24:7; 28:13; Ex. 3:15,18; 4:5; 5:1; 7:5; etc.; Dt. 1:11,21; 4:1; 6:3; 12:1; etc.; Josh. 7:13,19-20; 10:40,42; Jud. 2:12; 1 Sam. 2:30; 1 Ki. 1:48; 2 Ki. 9:6; 10:31; 1 Chr. 22:19; 2 Chr. 1:9; Ezra 1:3; Isa. 21:17).

(6) In God's redemptive relation to man, various compound names of Jehovah are found which reveal Him as meeting every need of man from his lost state to the end. These compound names are:

(a) Jehovah-jireh, "the LORD will provide" (Gen. 22:13-14), that is, will provide a sacrifice.

(b) Jehovah-rapha, "the LORD that healeth thee" (Ex. 15:26). That this refers to physical healing the context shows, but the deeper healing of soul malady is implied.

(c) Jehovah-nissi, "The LORD is my banner" (Ex. 17:8-15). The name is interpreted by the context. The enemy was Amalek, a figure for the flesh, and the conflict that day illustrates the conflict of Gal. 5:17—the war of the Spirit against the flesh. Victory was wholly due to divine help.

(d) Jehovah-shalom, "The LORD is our peace," or "The LORD send peace" (Jud. 6:24). Almost the whole ministry of Jehovah finds expression and illustration in that chapter. Jehovah hates and judges sin (vv. 1-5); Jehovah loves and saves sinners (vv. 7-18), but only through sacrifice (vv. 19-21; compare Rom. 5:1; Eph. 2:14; Col. 1:20).

(e) Jehovah-tsidkenu, "The LORD our righteousness" (Jer. 23:6). This name of Jehovah occurs in a prophecy concerning the future restoration and conversion of Israel. Then Israel will hail Him as Jehovah-tsidkenu—"The LORD our righteousness." And

(f) Jehovah-shammah, "The LORD is there" (Ezek. 48:35). This name signifies Jehovah's abiding presence with His people (Ex. 33:14-15; 1 Chr. 16:27,33; Ps. 16:11; 97:5; Mt. 28:20; Heb. 13:5). There are also descriptions in the O.T. of the activities of the LORD which are in some cases similar to compound names of Jehovah, but are not properly so (e.g. Ps. 23:1; 27:1; 28:1; compare Ps. 61:3-4; 62:6-7).

See other names of Deity, Gen. 1:1, note; 2:4, note; 14:18, note; 15:2, note; 17:1, note; 21:33, note; 1 Sam. 1:3, note; Mal. 3:18, note.

Bezaleel and Aholiab to design and teach

30 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by ^cname Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

36 Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every ^hwise hearted man, in whom the LORD put ⁱwisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose ^jheart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it:

3 And they received of Moses all the ^koffering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning.

4 ¶ And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

5 And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more than ^lenough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too ^mmuch.

Linen curtains

8 ¶ And every wise hearted man among them that ⁿwrought the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of ^ocunning work made he them.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the ^auttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

12 Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty ^btaches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the ^btaches: so it became one tabernacle.

Curtains of goats' hair

14 ¶ And he made curtains of goats' hair for the ^ctent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the ^auttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fifty ^btaches of ^dbrass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

Ram skin covering

19 And he made a ^ecovering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.

Boards and sockets

20 ¶ And he ^fmade boards for the tabernacle of ^gshittim wood, standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two tenons, ^hequally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward:

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards,

26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

31 ¶ And he made bars of ^gshittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 32 And five ⁱbars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to ^jshoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

Overlay of gold

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

Inner veil

35 ¶ And he ^kmade a ^lveil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims made he it of ^mcunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of ^gshittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a ^pcrown of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereunto a border of an handbreadth round about; and made a ^qcrown of gold for the border thereof round about.

37:7 cherubims. The cherubim are symbolic of God's holy presence and unapproachability. They are celestial beings who guard and vindicate the righteousness of God (compare Gen. 3:24; Ex. 26:1,31; 36:8,35), the mercy of God (compare Ex. 25:22; 37:9), and the government of God (compare 1 Sam. 4:4; Ps. 80:1; 99:1; Ezek. 1:22,26). In the holy of holies God's glory dwelt between the cherubim (Ps.

80:1; compare Ex. 25:10-22). Some think that the living creatures of Rev. 4 are cherubim (besides points of similarity, observe dissimilarity to the cherubim in number of wings: Ezek. 1:6; 10:21; Rev. 4:8; compare Isa. 6:2). This dissimilarity may indicate that these beings have power to appear in different forms for purposes of symbolic revelation.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a ^hcrown of gold round about.

21 ¶ This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the ^etabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the ^fLevites, by the hand of ^gIthamar, son to Aaron the priest.

22 And ^hBezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses.

23 And with him was ⁱAholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a ^jcunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the gold that was ^koccupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the ^loffering, was twenty and nine ^mtalents, and seven hundred and thirty ⁿshekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were ⁿnumbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and three-score and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

26 A ^mbekah for every man, that is, ^ohalf a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty ^pmen.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the ^qsockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vail; an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

29 And the ^abrass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the ^abrassen altar, and the ^abrassen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar,

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

2 And he ^tmade the ^uephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut ^{it} into wires, to work ^{it} in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with ^vcunning work.

4 They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple ^{it} together: by the two edges was ^{it} coupled together.

5 And the ^wcurious girdle of his ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

9 And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.

10 And thou shalt ^aanoint the altar of the burnt-offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

12 And thou shalt ^bbring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy ^cgarments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats:

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be an ^deverlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was ^ereared up.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he took and put the ^ftestimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy seat above upon the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the veil of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, ^gwithout the veil.

23 And he set the ^hbread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 ¶ And he put the ⁱcandlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he ^jlighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

26 ¶ And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the veil:

27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 ¶ And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the altar of burnt-offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt-offering and the ^kmeat-offering; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 ¶ And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, ^lto wash withal.

31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons ^mwashed their hands and their feet thereat:

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses ⁿfinished the work.

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES CALLED

LEVITICUS

Author:
Moses

Theme:
Holiness

Date of writing:
c. 1450–1410 B.C.

Background

Leviticus is devoted to the worship of the redeemed people of God, as is shown by the frequent occurrence of words relating to holiness and sacrifice. In the Hebrew Bible this book is called by its first word, wayyiqra, meaning and He called. The English title Leviticus, from the Septuagint, is based on the name of Levi, who was one of the twelve sons of Jacob (Israel), Genesis 46:1–27.

God's Relationship with Man

The vocabulary of sacrifice pervades the book: the words "priest," "sacrifice," "blood," and "offering" occur very frequently; and "qodesh," rendered "holiness" or "holy," appears more than 150 times. Observe also the repeated command: "Ye shall be holy; for I am holy" (11:44,45; 19:2; 20:7,26).

Types in Leviticus

Leviticus presents several types rich in meaning. See notes on the following passages for the typical significance of sacrifices and offerings (1:3, 1:9, 3:1); high priest (8:12); cleansing (14:3); and feast (23:24).

The Old Testament in the New

Our Lord refers to the rites connected with the cleansing of the leper (Matthew 8:4; Mark 1:44), and quotes the second great commandment (Leviticus 19:18; Mark 12:31). The special ceremonies of the day of atonement and their fulfillment by Christ are commented on in Hebrews (Hebrews 9:1–15).

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of ^bthe herd, and of the flock.

3 If his offering be a ^cburnt-sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without ^dblemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will ^eat the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.

4 And ^fhe shall put his hand

5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and ^hsprinkle the ⁱblood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And he shall ^jflay the burnt-offering, and cut it into his pieces.

Moses: saved from the water. The great leader of the Israelites who led them out of slavery in Egypt to the Promised Land.

1:4 hand upon the head. The laying on of the offerer's hand signified acceptance and identification of himself with his offering. In figure it answers to the Christian's faith accepting and identifying himself with Christ (Rom. 4:5; 6:3-11). The believer is justified by faith, and his faith is reckoned for righteousness because his faith identifies him with Christ, who died as his sin-offering (2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 2:24).

1:8 fat. That is, that which burns most quickly—devotedness, zeal. Lev. 3:3-4; 7:23-24. fire. Essentially this is a symbol of God's holiness (Heb. 12:29). As such it expresses God in three ways:

- (1) in judgment upon that which His holiness utterly condemns (e.g. Gen. 19:24; Mk. 9:43-48; Rev. 20:15);
 - (2) in the manifestation of Himself and of that which He approves (e.g. Ex. 3:2; 13:21; 1 Pet. 1:7); and
 - (3) in purification (e.g. Mal. 3:2-3; 1 Cor. 3:12-14).
- So, in Leviticus, the fire which only manifests the sweet aroma of the burnt-, meat-, and peace-offerings wholly consumes the sin-offering.

BURNT-OFFERING

The burnt-offering

- (1) typifies Christ offering Himself without spot to God in delight to do His Father's will even in death;
- (2) is atoning because the believer has not had this delight in the will of God; and
- (3) is substitutionary (v. 4) because Christ did it in the sinner's stead.

But the thought of penalty is not prominent (Heb. 9:11-14; 10:5-7; compare Ps. 40:6-8; Phil. 2:8). The emphatic words (Lev. 1:3-5) are "burnt-sacrifice," "voluntary," "it shall be accepted for him," and "atonement."

The creatures acceptable for sacrifice are five:

- (1) The young bullock, or ox, typifies Christ as the patient and enduring Servant (Heb. 12:2-3), "obedient unto death" (Isa. 52:13-15; Phil. 2:5-8). His offering in this character is substitutionary, for we have been disobedient.
- (2) The sheep, or lamb, typifies Christ in unresisting self-surrender to the death of the cross (Isa. 53:7; Acts 8:32-35).
- (3) The goat typifies the sinner (Mt. 25:33,41-46) and, when used sacrificially, Christ as "numbered with the transgressors" (Isa. 53:12; Lk. 23:33). God "made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin" (2 Cor. 5:21). The holy Son of God was made "a curse for us" (Gal. 3:13) when He hung upon the cross.
- (4-5) The turtledove and pigeon, naturally symbols of mourning innocence (Isa. 38:14; 59:11; Mt. 23:37; Heb. 7:26), are associated with poverty in Lev. 5:7; 12:8 and speak of Him who for our sakes became poor (Lk. 9:58), whose pathway of poverty began with His emptying Himself of His preincarnate glory and ended in the sacrifice through which we became rich (2 Cor. 8:9; Phil. 2:6-8; compare Jn. 17:5). The sacrifice of the poor Man, Christ Jesus, becomes the poor man's sacrifice (Lk. 2:24; 1 Tim. 2:5-6; compare Heb. 9:26; 13:15).

These grades of typical sacrifice test the measure of our understanding of the varied aspects of Christ's one sacrifice on the cross. The mature Christian should see the crucified Christ in all these aspects.

priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt-sacrifice, an ^aoffering made by fire, of a ^bsweet savour unto the LORD.

10 ¶ And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt-sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish.

11 And he shall kill it on the side of the altar ^cnorthward before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt-sacrifice, an ^doffering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 ¶ And if the burnt-sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of ^eturtledoves, or of young pigeons.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out ^fat the side of the altar:

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ^gashes:

17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it ^hasunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt-sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

Sweet savour offerings: (2) the meat-offering (v. 1). (See Lev. 6:14-23)

2 And when any will offer a ⁱmeat-offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put ^jfrankincense thereon:

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn the ^kmemorial of it upon the altar, to be an ^loffering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD:

3 And the remnant of the ^mmeat-offering shall be Aaron's and his ⁿsons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

4 ¶ And if thou bring an oblation of a ^omeat-offering baken in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour ^pmingled with oil, or ^qunleavened wafers anointed with oil.

5 ¶ And if thy oblation be a ^rmeat-offering baken in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, ^smingled with oil.

6 Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a ^tmeat-offering.

7 ¶ And if thy oblation be a ^umeat-offering baken in the ^vfrying-pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

1:9 sweet savour. That is, aroma of satisfaction. The "sweet savour" offerings are so called because they typify Christ in His own perfections and in His affectionate devotion to the Father's will.

The offerings which are not "sweet savour" offerings typify Christ as bearing the whole demerit of the sinner. Both are substitutional. In our place Christ, in the burnt-offering, makes good our lack of devotedness and, in the sin-offering and trespass-offering, suffers because of our disobedience.

2:1 The meat-offering:

(1) fine flour speaks of the evenness and balance of the character of Christ, of that perfection in which no quality was in excess, none lacking;

(2) fire, of His testing by suffering, even to the point of death;

(3) frankincense, of the fragrance of His life before God (see Ex. 30:34, note);

(4) absence of leaven, of His character as "the Truth" (Jn. 14:6, compare Ex. 12:8, margin);

(5) absence of honey—His was not that mere natural sweetness which may exist quite apart from grace;

(6) oil mixed, of Christ as born of the Holy Spirit (Mt. 1:18-23);

(7) oil on, of Christ as baptized with the Spirit (Jn. 1:32; 6:27);

(8) the oven, of the unseen sufferings of Christ—His inner agonies (Mt. 27:45-46; Heb. 2:18);

(9) the pan, of His more evident sufferings (e.g. Mt. 27:27-31); and

(10) salt, of the pungency of the truth of God—that which arrests the action of leaven.

8 And thou shalt bring the ^ameat-offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it unto the altar.

9 And the priest shall take from the ^ameat-offering a ^bmemorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And ^cthat which is left of the ^ameat-offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 ^aNo ^ameat-offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

(Offering of firstfruits)

12 ¶ As for the oblation of the ^efirstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.

13 And every oblation of thy ^ameat-offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou ^fsuffer the ^gsalt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy ^ameat-offering; with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.

14 And if thou offer a ^ameat-offering of thy ^hfirstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the ^ameat-offering of thy firstfruits green ears of ⁱcorn dried by the fire, even ⁱcorn beaten out of full ears.

15 And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a ^ameat-offering.

16 And the priest shall burn ^bthe memorial of it, part of the beaten ⁱcorn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

Sweet savour offerings: (3) the peace-offering (v. 1). (See Lev. 7:11-21)

3 And if his oblation be a ^jsacrifice of ^kpeace-offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without ^lblemish before the LORD.

2 And he shall ^mlay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons the priests shall ⁿsprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

3 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace-offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the ^ofat that is upon the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the ^pcaul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

5 And Aaron's ^qsons shall ^rburn it on the altar upon the ^sburnt-sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an ^toffering made by fire, of a ^usweet savour unto the LORD.

3:1 peace-offering. The whole work of Christ in relation to the believer's peace is here in type. Christ

(1) made peace, Col. 1:20;

(2) preached peace, Eph. 2:17; and

(3) is our peace, Eph. 2:14.

In Christ, God and the sinner meet in peace: God is propitiated, the sinner reconciled; both are alike satisfied with what Christ has done. But all this was at the cost of blood and fire. The details speak of fellowship. This brings in prominently the thought of fellowship with God through Christ. Hence the peace-offering is set forth as affording food for the priests (Lev. 7:31-34). Observe that it is the breast (affections) and thighs (strength) on which we, as priests (1 Pet. 2:9), feed in fellowship with the Father. This it is which makes the peace-offering especially a thank-offering (Lev. 7:11-13).

Sacrifice	Method	Purpose	New Testament Typology

A male sheep, goat, bull, turtledoves, or young pigeons.	All except skin burned on the altar of burnt-offering (Lev. 1:8; 7:8) morning and evening (Ex. 29:38-39). 4. Sin-Offering (Hebrew chattath): (Lev. 4:1-35; 6:24-30) Was not a sweet savour and was a required offering. Four classes: a. A young bull for the high priest. b. A young bull for the congregation. c. A male goat for a ruler. d. A female goat or female lamb for the common people.	Fat on entrails, along with kidneys, was burned on the altar of burnt-offering (Lev. 4:8-10,19,26,31,35). For the high priest or the congregation, what remained of the young bull was burned outside the camp (Lev. 4:11-12,20-21). For a ruler or member of the common people, remaining portions of the lamb or goat were eaten by the priests in the court of the tabernacle (Lev. 6:26).	The sin-offering was required for unintentional sin (Lev. 4:2).	In His death Christ bore the believer's sin in His own body in place of the sinner (2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 2:24). 5. Trespass-Offering (Hebrew asham): (Lev. 5:1-6:7; 7:1-7) Was not a sweet savour and was a required offering. Unintentional sins against holy things or against a neighbor: An unblemished ram and restitution of value plus one fifth. Other sins against God: An unblemished ram. Poor persons could bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and even poorer persons could bring fine flour.	Fat and kidneys of the unblemished ram were burned on the altar of burnt-offering (Lev. 7:3-5). Remaining portions of the ram were eaten by priests in a holy place (Lev. 7:6-7). Restitution plus one fifth was made for trespasses against holy things and neighbors (Lev. 5:16; 6:5). Birds were drained of blood. Birds or flour were then burned on the altar (Lev. 5:7-12).	The trespass-offering was required for unintentional sin against the Lord, against holy things, and against neighbors (Lev. 5:15,17; 6:2-3).	Christ is the only remaining sacrifice for all sin and trespasses (Rom. 8:3-4; 1 Jn. 1:7). 4:3 for his sin. The sin-offering symbolizes Christ laden with the believer's sin, absolutely in the sinner's place and stead and not, as in the "sweet savour" offerings, in His own perfections. It is Christ's death as viewed in Isa. 53; Ps. 22; Mt. 26:28; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3:18. But observe how the essential holiness of Him who was "made sin for us" is guarded (Lev. 6:24-30; 2 Cor. 5:21). The sin offerings are expiatory, substitutional, and efficacious (vv. 12,29,35), and have in view the vindication of the law through substitutional sacrifice.

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young ^abullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock ^ebefore the head of the bullock ^ebefore the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

16 And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation:

4:12 without the camp. Compare Ex. 29:14; Lev. 16:27; Num. 19:3; Heb. 13:10-13. The last passage is the interpretative one. The "camp" was Judaism—a religion of forms and ceremonies. "Jesus also, that he might sanctify [separate, or set apart for God] the people with[through] his own blood, suffered without the gate [temple gate, that is, Judaism civil and religious]" (Heb. 13:12). But how does this sanctify, or set apart a people? "Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp [Judaism then, legalistic Christianity now—anything religious which denies Christ as our sin-offering], bearing his reproach" (Heb. 13:13). The sin-offering, burned outside the camp, typifies this aspect of the death of Christ. The cross becomes a new altar in a new place where, without the smallest merit in themselves, the redeemed gather to offer, as believer-priests, spiritual sacrifices (Heb. 13:15; 1 Pet. 2:5). The bodies of the sin-offering beasts were burned outside the camp, not because they were unfit for a holy camp but, rather, because an unholy camp was an unfit place for a holy sin-offering.

blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned.

29 And ^ahe shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin-offering, and slay the sin-offering in the place of the burnt-offering.

30 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt-offering, and shall pour out ^ball the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

31 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of ^cpeace-offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a ^dsweet savour unto the LORD; and the priest shall make an ^eatonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 And if he bring ^fa lamb for a sin-offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish.

33 And he shall ^glay his hand upon the head of the sin-offering, and slay it for a sin-offering ^hin the place where they kill the burnt-offering.

34 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt-offering, and shall pour out ⁱall the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar:

35 And he shall take away ^jall the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the ^kpeace-offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an ^latonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

Non-sweet savour offerings: (2) the trespass-offering (v. 6). (See Lev. 7:1-7)

5 And if a soul ^msin, and ⁿhear the voice of ^oswearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

2 Or if a soul touch ^pany unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and guilty.

3 Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.

4 Or if a soul ^qswear, pronouncing with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an ^roath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall ^sconfess that he hath sinned in that thing:

6 And he shall bring his trespass-offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned, a ^tfemale from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin-offering; and the priest shall make an ^uatonement for him concerning his sin.

7 And if he be ^vnot able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering.

8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin-offering first, and wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it ^wasunder:

9 And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin-offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be ^xwrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin-offering.

10 And he shall offer the second ^yfor a burnt-offering, according to the ^zmanner: and the priest shall make an ^{aa}atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be ^{aa}forgiven him.

5:6 trespass-offering. The trespass-offerings (5:1—6:7 and 7:1—10) have in view the injury which sin does rather than its guilt, which is the aspect of the sin-offering. What is due to God's rights in every human being is here meant. Ps. 51:4 is a perfect expression of this.

11 ¶ But if he be ^anot able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ^bephah of fine flour for a sin-offering; he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense ^cthereon: for it is a sin-offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, even a memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: it is a sin-offering.

13 And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the ^dpriest's, as a ^emeat-offering.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

15 If a soul commit a ^ftrespass, and sin through ^gignorance, in the holy things of the LORD; then he shall bring ^hfor his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thy ⁱestimation by ^jshekels of silver, after the ^kshekel of the sanctuary, for a ^ltrespass-offering:

16 And ^khe shall make amends for the harm that he hath done in the holy thing, and shall add the ^mfifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest: and the priest shall make an ⁿatonement for him with the ram of the trespass-offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 ¶ And if a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though he ^owist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.

18 And he shall bring ^oa ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy ^pestimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and ^owist it not, and it shall be forgiven him.

19 It is a trespass-offering: he hath certainly trespassed against the LORD.

2 ¶If a soul sin, and commit a ^strespass ^tagainst the LORD, and lie unto his neighbour in that which was delivered him to ^ukeep, or in fellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or hath deceived his neighbour;

3 Or have found that which was ^vlost, and lieth concerning it, and sweareth falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:

4 Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall ^wrestore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

5 Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in the principal, and shall add the ^xfifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, in the day of his ^ytrespass-offering.

6 And he shall bring his trespass-offering unto the LORD, ^za ram without ^{aa}blemish out of the flock, with thy ^{bb}estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest:

5 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass-offering.

6 Every male among the priests shall eat ^dthereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.

7 As the sin-offering is, so is the trespass-offering: there is one ^elaw for them: the priest that maketh ^fatonement therewith shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt-offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt-offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the ^gmeat-offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is ^hdressed in the ⁱfryingpan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

Law of the offerings: (5) the peace-offering (Lev. 3:1-17)

11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the ^ksacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes ^lmingled with oil, and ^munleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes ⁿmingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering ^oleavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace-offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an heave-offering unto the LORD, and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace-offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the ^mmorning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a ⁿvow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the ^omorrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be

7:11 peace-offerings. In the regulations of the offerings, the peace-offering is taken out of its place as third of the "sweet savour" offerings and placed alone, and after all the "non-sweet savour" offerings (Lev. 1:9, note). The explanation is as simple as the fact is beautiful. In revealing the offerings the LORD works from Himself out to the sinner (see Ex. 25:10, note). The whole burnt-offering comes first as meeting what is due to the divine affections, and the trespass-offering last as meeting the simplest aspect of sin—its injuriousness. But the sinner begins of necessity with that which lies nearest to a newly awakened conscience—a sense, namely, that because of sin he is at enmity with God. His first need, therefore, is peace with God. And that is precisely the Gospel order. Following His resurrection Christ's first message was

"Peace" (Jn. 20:19); afterward He showed His hands and His side (v. 20). It is the order of 2 Cor. 5:18-21: first, "the word of reconciliation" (v. 19); then, the trespass-offerings (v. 21). Experience thus reverses the order of revelation.

7:13 leavened bread. The use of leaven here is significant. Peace with God is something which the believer shares with God. Christ is our peace-offering (Eph. 2:13-18). Any thanksgiving for peace must, first of all, present Him. In v. 12 this is seen, in type, and so leaven is excluded. In v. 13 it is the offerer who gives thanks for his participation in the peace; so leaven fitly signifies that, although he has peace with God through the work of another, the offerer still has evil in him. This is illustrated in Amos 4:5, where the evil in Israel is before God.

imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, that pertain unto the ^aLORD, having his ^buncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be ^ccut off from his people.

21 Moreover the ^dsoul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no manner of ^efat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ye shall in no ^fwise eat of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people.

26 Moreover ye shall eat no manner of ^gblood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be ^hcut off from his people.

28 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace-offerings unto the LORD shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings.

30 His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a ⁱwave-offering before the LORD.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aaron's and his ^jsons'.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the ^kpriest for an heave-offering of the sacrifices of your peace-offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace-offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the wave-breast and the heave-shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace-offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel.

35 ¶ This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the ^lanointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that ^mhe anointed them, by a statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the ⁿlaw of the burnt-offering, of the ^omeat-offering, and of the sin-offering, and of the trespass-offering, and of the ^pconsecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings;

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he ^qcommanded the children of Israel to offer their oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

9 And he put the mitre upon his head; also upon the ^fmitre, even ^gupon his forefront, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses.

Consecration: (3) the high priest's anointing

10 And Moses took ^hthe anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and ⁱsanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, ^jto sanctify them.

8:12 anointing oil. Two important distinctions are made in the case of the high priest, thus confirming his typical relation to Christ, the antitype:

(1) Aaron is anointed before the sacrifices are slain, whereas in the case of the priests the application of oil precedes the anointing. Christ the sinless One required no preparation for receiving the anointing oil, a symbol of the Holy Spirit. And

(2) upon the high priest only was the anointing oil poured. "God giveth not the Spirit by measure" (Jn. 3:34). "God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows" (Heb. 1:9).

29 And ^jMoses took the ^kbreast, and waved it for a wave-offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

Consecration: (8) the anointing of the priests

30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

Consecration: (9) the food of the priests (see Ex. 29:26 and refs.)

31 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I ^lcommanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire.

Consecration: (10) the priests separated unto God

33 And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate ^myou.

34 As he hath done this day, ⁿso the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an ^oatonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the ^pcharge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

17 Wherefore have ye not ^aeaten the sin-offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to ^bbear the iniquity of the congregation, to make ^catonement for them before the LORD?

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the ^dholy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin-offering and their burnt-offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin-offering to day, should it have been ^eaccepted in the sight of the LORD?

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

11:2 These are the beasts. The dietary regulations of the covenant people must be regarded primarily as sanitary. Israel, it must be remembered, was a nation living on the earth under a theocratic government. Of necessity the divine legislation concerned itself with the social as well as the religious life of that people. To force upon every word of that legislation a typical meaning is to strain 1 Cor. 10:1-11 and Heb. 9:23-24 beyond all reasonable interpretation.

11:6 hare. Hebrew arnebeth is an unidentified animal, apparently not equivalent to the English hare. The supposed error in the text is due entirely to the translators' assumption that the English hare and the ancient arnebeth were identical.

and their carcase shall ye not touch; they are unclean to you.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an ^aabomination unto you:

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcases in abomination.

12 Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 ¶ And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an ^babomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

14 And the ^cvulture, and the ^dkite after his kind;

15 Every raven after his kind;

16 And the ^eowl, and the night hawk, and the ^fcuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

17 And the ^glittle owl, and the cormorant, and the ^hgreat owl,

18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the ⁱgier eagle,

19 And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the ^jlapwing, and the bat.

20 All ^kfowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat of every ^kflying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth;

22 Even these of them ye may eat; the ^llocust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

23 But all other ^kflying creeping things, which have ^mfour feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever ⁿtoucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carcase of them shall ^owash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth the carcase of them shall ^pwash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶ These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the weasel, and the ^qmouse, and the tortoise after his kind,

30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth ^rtouch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any ^svessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed.

33 And every ^tearthen vessel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall ^ubreak it.

34 Of all ^vmeat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.

42 Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath ^cmore feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

45 For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your ^fGod: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth:

47 To make a ^gdifference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

A holy God—a holy people: (2) the law of motherhood (Ps. 51:5; Jn. 3:6)

12 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a ^hman child: then she shall be unclean ⁱseven days; according to the days of the ^kseparation for her infirmity shall she be unclean.

3 And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be ^lcircumcised.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a ^mmaid child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

6 And ⁿwhen the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a ^olamb of the first year for a burnt-offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a ^psin-offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an ^qatonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.

8 And if she be not ^rable to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two ^sturtles, or two young ^tpigeons; the one for the burnt-offering, and the other for a sin-offering; and the priest shall make an ^uatonement for her, and she shall be clean.

8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned ^gwhite: he is clean.

13:2 leprosy. Medically considered, the symptoms described in chs. 13-14 are not those of the disease known today as leprosy, more accurately called "Hansen's disease," a malady now amenable to treatment. Leprosy in the Bible, as in Num. 12:10-15; 2 Ki. 5; Lk. 5:12-14; and in parts of these two chapters in Leviticus, was something much worse.

Leprosy in the Bible speaks of sin as (1) becoming overt in loathsome ways; and (2) as incurable by human means. The antitype as applied to the people of God is "sin," demanding self-judgment (1 Cor. 11:31); and "sins," demanding confession and cleansing (1 Jn. 1:9).

24 ¶ Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot ^aburning, and the ^bquick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white;

25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a ^crising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

29 ¶ If a man or woman have a ^dplague upon the head or the beard;

30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin; and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard.

31 And if the priest look on the plague of the ^escall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the ^escall ^fseven days:

32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the ^escall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the ^escall be not in sight deeper than the skin;

33 He shall be shaven, but the ^escall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the ^escall seven days more:

34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the ^escall: and, behold, if the ^escall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the ^escall ^hspread much in the skin after his cleansing;

36 Then the priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the ^escall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.

37 But if the ^escall be in his sight at a stay, and that there is black hair grown up therein; the ^escall is healed, he is clean: and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 ¶ If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;

39 Then the priest shall look: and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white; it is a freckled spot that groweth in the skin; he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald; yet is he clean.

41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead bald; yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald ⁱforehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the ^jrising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his ^khead.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be ^lrent, and his head ^mbare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper ⁿlip, and shall cry, ^oUnclean, unclean.

14:3 go forth out of the camp. As a type of Gospel salvation the points are:

- (1) the leper does nothing (Rom. 4:4-5);
- (2) the priest seeks the leper, not the leper the priest (Lk. 19:10);
- (3) "without shedding of blood is no remission" (Heb. 9:22); and

(4) "if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins" (1 Cor. 15:17).

14:4 birds. The killed bird and the live bird, dipped in blood and released, present the two aspects of salvation in Rom. 4:25. Christ "was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification."

14:5 vessel. The earthen vessel typifies the humanity of Christ and the running water typifies the Holy Spirit as the "Spirit of life" (Rom. 8:2). Christ was "put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit" (1 Pet. 3:18).

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a ^gplague in the house:

36 Then the priest shall command that they ^hempty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house:

37 And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow ⁱstrakes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall;

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days:

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house;

40 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place ^jwithout the city:

41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off ^kwithout the city into an unclean place:

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaister the house.

43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plaistered;

44 Then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a ^lfretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean.

45 And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be ^munclean until the even.

47 And he that lieth in the house shall ⁿwash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the priest shall come in, and look upon it, and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plaistered: then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall ⁿtake to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:

The Day of Atonement: Christ as high priest and sacrifice (Heb. 9:1-14)

16 And the LORD spake unto ⁱMoses after the death of the ^jtwo sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died;

2 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all ^ktimes into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will ^lappear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.

3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a ^msin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering.

4 He shall put on the ⁿholy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he ^owash his flesh in water, and so put them on.

5 And he shall take of the ^pcongregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a ^qsin-offering, and one ram for a burnt-offering.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin-offering, which is for ^rhimself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

THE SACRIFICE OF TWO GOATS

The offering of the high priest for himself has no antitype in Christ (Heb. 7:26-27). The typical interest centers upon the two goats and the high priest. Typically

(1) all is done by the high priest (Heb. 1:3); the people only bring the sacrifice (Mt. 26:47,50; 27:24-25).

(2) The killed goat (the LORD's lot) is that aspect of Christ's death which vindicates the holiness and righteousness of God as expressed in the law (Rom. 3:24-26), and is expiatory.

(3) The living goat typifies that aspect of Christ's work which puts away our sins from before God (Heb. 9:26; Rom. 8:33-34).

(4) The high priest, entering the Holy Place, typifies Christ entering "heaven itself" with "his own blood" for us (Heb. 9:11-12,24). His blood makes that to be a "throne of grace" and "mercy seat" which otherwise must have been a throne of judgment (Heb. 4:16). And

(5) for us, the priests of the New Covenant, there is what Israel never had, a torn veil (Mt. 27:51; Heb. 10:19-20). So that for worship and blessing we enter, in virtue of Christ's blood, where He is, into the Holiest (Heb. 4:14-16; 10:19-22).

The atonement of Christ, as foreshadowed by the O.T. sacrificial types, has these necessary elements:

(1) It is substitutionary—the offering takes the offerer's place in death.

(2) The law is not evaded but honored—every sacrificial death was an execution of the sentence of the law.

(3) The sinlessness of Him who bore our sins is expressed in every animal sacrifice—it must be without blemish.

And

(4) the effect of the atoning work of Christ is typified (a) in the promise, "it shall be forgiven him" (Lev. 6:7); and (b) in the peace-offering, the expression of fellowship—the highest privilege of the believer. See Ex. 29:33, note.

ATONEMENT

The Biblical use and meaning of the word must be sharply distinguished from its use in theology. In theology it is a term which covers the whole sacrificial and redemptive work of Christ. In the O.T., atonement is the English word used to translate the Hebrew words which mean cover, coverings, or to cover. The word propitiation in the N.T. expresses the same concept. See Rom. 3:25; Heb. 2:17; 1 Jn. 2:2; 4:10. Atonement is, therefore, not a translation of the Hebrew but a purely theological concept. The Levitical offerings "covered" the sins of Israel until and in anticipation of the cross, but did not "take away" (Heb. 10:4) those sins. These were the sins done in O.T. times ("covered" meantime by the Levitical sacrifices), which God passed over, and for which passing over God's righteousness was never vindicated until, in the cross, Jesus Christ was "set forth to be a propitiation." See Propitiation, Rom. 3:25, note. It was the cross, not the Levitical sacrifices, which made full and complete redemption. The O.T. sacrifices enabled God to go on with a guilty people because those sacrifices typified the cross. To the offerer they were the confession of his deserv-ing death and the expression of his faith; to God they were the "shadows" of good things that were to come, of which Christ was the reality (compare Heb. 10:1). See Ex. 29:33, note.

he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat:

16 And he shall make an ^aatonement for the holy ^bplace, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 And there shall be ^cno man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make an ^aatonement for ^eit; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and ^fput it upon the horns of the altar round about.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

The scapegoat (2 Cor. 5:21)

20 ¶ And when he hath ^gmade an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and ^hconfess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness:

22 And the goat shall ⁱbear upon him all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited: and he shall ^jlet go the goat in the wilderness.

23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall ^kput off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there:

24 And ^lhe shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt-offering, and the burnt-offering of the people, and make an ^matonement for himself, and for the people.

25 And the ⁿfat of the sin-offering shall he burn upon the altar.

26 And he that let go the goat for the scapegoat shall ^owash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp.

27 And the bullock ^pfor the sin-offering, and the goat ^qfor the sin-offering, whose blood was brought in to make ^ratonement in the holy place, shall ^sone carry forth ^twithout the camp; and they shall ^uburn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.

28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

29 ¶ And this shall be a statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the ^vmonth, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you:

In v. 31 it is referred to as "a sabbath of rest," or "a sabbath of sabbaths." Only on this day did the high priest enter into the Holy Place (Ex. 30:10; compare Heb. 9:7-8),

2 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them; This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying,

3 What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp,

4 And ⁱbringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the ^jcongregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD; blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people:

5 To the ^kend that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them for peace-offerings unto the LORD.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and ^lburn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto ^mdevils, after whom they have ⁿgone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

8 ¶ And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the ^ostrangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt-offering or sacrifice,

9 And ^pbringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the ^qcongregation to offer it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

Significance of the blood

10 ¶ And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of ^rblood; I will even ^sset my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

11 For the ^tlife of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an ^uatonement for your ^vsouls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

and only on this day were the people told to "afflict your souls" (v. 29). That the high priest entered three times into the Holy Place and that the blood of the sin-offering was sprinkled seven times before the mercy seat, emphasize the importance of this sacrifice. On this day the dual typology for the putting away of sin was manifested in killing the one goat and in driving the other goat (the scapegoat) into the wilderness. See also Num. 29:7-11.

17:7 devils. Literally hairy ones.

17:11 altar. Two especially important truths are pertinent here:

(1) The value of the "life" is the measure of the value of the "blood." This gives the blood of Christ its inconceivable worth. When it was shed the sinless God-man gave His life. "For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins" (Heb. 10:4). And

(2) it is not the blood in the veins of the sacrifice, but the blood upon the altar which is efficacious. The Scripture knows nothing of salvation by the imitation or influence of Christ's life, but only by that life yielded up on the cross. blood. The meaning of sacrifice for sin is here explained. Every such offering was an execution of the sentence of the law upon a substitute for the offender, and pointed forward to that substitutionary death of Christ which alone vindicated the righteousness of God in passing over the sins of those who offered the typical sacrifices (Rom. 3:24-25; see Ex. 29:33, note).

12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.

13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and ^acover it with dust.

14 ^bFor it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

15 And ^cevery soul that eateth that which died of itself, or that which was torn with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a ^dstranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even: then shall he be clean.

16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity.

3 ^fAfter the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and ^gafter the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances.

4 Ye shall do my ^hjudgments, and keep mine ⁱordinances, to walk therein: ^jI am the LORD your God.

5 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my ^hjudgments: which ^kif a man do, he shall live in them: ^lI am the LORD.

6 ¶ None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness: ^mI am the LORD.

7 ⁿThe nakedness of thy father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

8 The nakedness of thy ^ofather's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's nakedness.

9 The nakedness of thy ^psister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover.

10 The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for theirs is thine own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, she is thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

12 ^oThou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she is thy father's near kinswoman.

13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman.

15 ^qThou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter in law: she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

16 ^rThou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife: it is thy brother's nakedness.

17 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her ^sdaughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

plete extermination of the Canaanites. Several centuries earlier God had predicted that by this time "the iniquity of the Amorites" would be complete (Gen. 15:16). Archaeology illustrates the increasing moral degeneracy of Canaanite civilization during this period.

VI. Laws Regulating the Priesthood and the Seven Great Feasts of the Hebrew Calendar, 21–23

(8) Regulations concerning priests

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, ^gThere shall none ^hbe defiled for the dead among his people:

2 But for his kin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is ⁱnigh unto him, which hath had no husband; for her may he be defiled.

4 But he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 They shall ^jnot make baldness upon their head, neither shall they ^kshave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be ^lholy unto their

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or ^{cc}profane, or an harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife.

15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the LORD do sanctify him.

16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations that hath any blemish, let him not approach to offer the ^{dd}bread of his God.

18 For whatsoever man he be that hath a ^{ee}blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or any thing ^{ff}superfluous, 21:8 Here is an illustration of O.T. holiness or sanctification—a person set apart for the service of God. sanctify.

Hebrew qodesh. See Gen. 2:3, note. holy. Hebrew qodesh. See Gen. 2:3, note.

19 Or a man that is brokenfooted, or brokenhanded,

20 Or crookbackt, or a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or ^ahath his stones broken;

21 No man that hath a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come ^bnigh to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish; he shall not come ^bnigh to offer the bread of his God.

22 He shall ^ceat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy.

23 Only he shall not go in unto the ^dvail, nor come ^bnigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

Separation of the priests

22 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they ^eseparate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and ^fthat they profane not my holy name in those things which they ^ghallow unto me: I am the LORD.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, ^hhaving his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a ⁱleper, or hath a running ^jissue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be ^kclean. And ^lwhoso toucheth any thing that is unclean ^mby the dead, or a man whose ⁿseed goeth from him;

5 Or whosoever toucheth any ⁿcreeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath;

6 The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he ^owash his flesh with water.

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; ^pbecause it is his food.

8 That which dieth of ^qitself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore ^rkeep mine ordinance, ^slest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them.

10 There shall no ^tstranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

11 But if the priest ^ubuy any ^vsoul with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: they shall eat of his ^wmeat.

12 If the priest's daughter also be ^xmarried unto a ^ystranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's ^zmeat: but there shall no ^{aa}stranger eat thereof.

14 ¶ ^{bb}And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth ^{cc}part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing.

15 And they shall not profane the ^{dd}holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;

16 Or ^{ee}suffer them to ^{ff}bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

21 And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a freewill-offering in ^abeeves or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.

22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

23 Either a bullock or a lamb that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill-offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 ^cYe shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land.

28 And whether it be cow or ewe, ye shall not ^gkill it and her young both in one day.

29 And when ye will offer a sacrifice of ^hthanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will.

30 On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave none of it until the ⁱmorrow: I am the LORD.

31 ^jTherefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the LORD.

32 Neither shall ye profane my holy name; but ^kI will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am the LORD which hallow you,

23:2 the feasts of the LORD. These were seven great religious festivals which were to be observed by Israel every year. The first three verses of this chapter do not relate to the feasts, but separate the sabbath from the feasts.

THE HEBREW RELIGIOUS CALENDAR

Israel's religious calendar began in Nisan (in the spring); their civil year, in Tishri (in the autumn). The seven festivals of the Hebrews were included within the first seven months of the religious calendar: the first three feasts (Passover, Unleavened Bread, and Firstfruits) took place in the first month, Nisan; the last three (Trumpets, Day of Atonement, and Tabernacles), in the seventh month, Tishri. Between the first and last three was the Feast of Weeks (Pentecost) which followed fifty days after the offering of the firstfruits.

The following table correlates the Hebrew religious calendar with the one generally accepted by Christians:

Nisan (or Abib)	= March–April	Tishri (or Ethanim)	= September–October
Iyyar (or Zif)	= April–May	Marchesvan (or Bul)	= October–November
Sivan	= May–June	Chisleu	= November–December
Tammuz	= June–July	Tebeth	= December–January
Ab	= July–August	Shebat	= January–February
Elul	= August–September	Adar	= February–March

About every six years an extra month (Second Adar, or leap-year month) was added because the calendar was based upon the moon instead of the sun.

shall proclaim to be ^aholy convocations, even these are my feasts.

3 Six days shall work be done; but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the ^bsabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

The feasts of the LORD:

(1) Passover; Christ our Redeemer

4 ¶ These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 In the fourteenth day of the ^cfirst month at even is the LORD's ^dpassover.

The feasts of the LORD:

(2) Unleavened Bread. Memorial feast (cp. 1 Cor. 11:23-26)

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of ^eunleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do ^fno servile work therein.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

The feasts of the LORD: (3) Firstfruits; Christ risen (1 Cor. 15:23)

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and ^gshall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest:

11 And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the ^hmorrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

13 And the ⁱmeat-offering thereof shall be two tenth ^jdeals of fine flour ^kmingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink-offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth ^lpart of an ^hhin.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched ^mcorn, nor green ears, until ⁿthe selfsame day that ye have ^obrought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

The feasts of the LORD: (4) wave-loaves (Feast of Weeks); the Church at Pentecost, fifty days after the resurrection of Christ

15 ¶ And ye shall ^pcount unto you from the ^hmorrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the ^hmorrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall ^qoffer a new ^rmeat-offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave-loaves of two tenth ^jdeals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked ^rwith

23:5 passover. Verses 4-5. This feast is memorial and brings into view redemption upon which all blessing rests. Typically, it stands for "Christ our passover [who] is sacrificed for us" (1 Cor. 5:7; compare 1 Pet. 1:19). The Passover was the initial Jewish festival and took place on the fourteenth day of the first month, Nisan.

23:6 the feast of unleavened bread. Verses 6-8. This feast speaks of communion with Christ, the unleavened wave-loaf, in the full blessing of His redemption and of a holy walk. The divine order is beautiful; first, redemption; then, holy living. Compare 1 Cor. 5:6-8; 2 Cor. 7:1; Gal. 5:7-9. The festival began on the fifteenth day of the first month, Nisan, and continued for a week.

23:10 firstfruits. The feast of firstfruits, vv. 10-14, is typical of resurrection—first, of Christ, then of those who are His at His coming (1 Cor. 15:23; 1 Th. 4:13-18). The feast, observed in the same week as the feast of unleavened bread, was held on the sixteenth day of the first month, Nisan, being the beginning of the barley harvest.

23:16 fifty days. The feast of weeks, a harvest feast known as Pentecost, vv. 15-22. The antitype is the descent of the Holy Spirit to form the Church. For this reason leaven is present, because there is evil in the Church (Mt. 13:33; Acts 5:1-10; 15:1). Observe, it is now loaves; not a sheaf of separate growths loosely bound together, but a real union of particles making one homogeneous body. The descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost united the separate disciples into one organism (1 Cor. 10:16-17; 12:12-13,20). Pentecost took place fifty days after the offering of the firstfruits, coming at about the beginning of summer.

23:17 wave-loaves. The wave-loaves were offered fifty days after the wave sheaf. This is precisely the period beleaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt-offering unto the LORD, with their ^ameat-offering, and their drink-offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a ^bsin-offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace-offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a wave-offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD ^cfor the priest.

21 And ye shall ^dproclaim on ^ethe selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 ¶ And when ye ^freap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the ^gstranger: I am the LORD your God.

The feasts of the LORD: (5) Trumpets; prophetic of the future regathering of Israel

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the ^hseventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of ⁱtrumpets, an holy convocation.

25 Ye shall do no servile work therein: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

The feasts of the LORD: (6) Day of Atonement (Heb. 9:1-16)

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of ^katonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And ye shall do no work in that same day: for it is a day of atonement, ^lto make an ^matonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be ⁿafflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I ^odestroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month tween the resurrection of Christ and the formation of the Church at Pentecost by the baptism of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:1-4; 1 Cor. 12:12-13). See Church (Mt. 16:18, note; Heb. 12:23, note). With the wave-sheaf no leaven was offered, for there was no evil in Christ; but the wave-loaves, typifying the Church, are "baked with leaven," for in the Church there is still evil.

23:24 trumpets. The feast of trumpets, vv. 23-25, is a prophetic type and refers to the future regathering of long-dispersed Israel. A great interval elapsed between Pentecost and the feast of trumpets, answering to the period occupied in the work of the Holy Spirit in the Church Age. Study carefully Isa. 18:3; 27:13 (with contexts), and Joel 2:1-3:21 in connection with the trumpets, and it will be seen that these trumpets, always symbols of testimony, are connected with the regathering and repentance of Israel after the Church Age is ended. This feast, which was held on the first day of the seventh month, Tishri, was immediately followed by the day of atonement.

23:27 a day of atonement. Verses 26-32. The day is the same as that described in Lev. 16, but here the stress is laid upon the sorrow and repentance of Israel. That is, the prophetic feature is made prominent, looking forward to the repentance of Israel after their regathering under the Palestinian Covenant (Dt. 30:1-10) preparatory to the second advent of Messiah and the establishment of the kingdom. See the connection between the trumpet in Joel 2:1 and the mourning which follows in vv. 11-15; also Zech. 12:10-14 in connection with the atonement of Zech. 13:1. Historically, the fountain of Zech. 13:1 was opened at the crucifixion but rejected by most Jews of that and the succeeding centuries. After the regathering of Israel the fountain will be efficaciously opened to Israel. The day of atonement was the tenth day of the seventh month, Tishri.

at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

*The feasts of the LORD:
(7) Tabernacles (Ezra 3:4)*

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the ^afeast of ^btabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

36 Seven days ye shall offer an ^coffering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an ^doffering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a solemn assembly; and ye shall do no servile work therein.

37 These are ^ethe feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt-offering, and a ^fmeat-offering, a sacrifice, and drink-offerings, every thing upon his day:

38 Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and ^gbeside all your freewill-offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

40 And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall ^hrejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 Ye shall ⁱdwell in booths seven days; ^jall that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths:

43 That your ^kgenerations may ^lknow that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when ^mI brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

and Warnings, 24–27*

Oil for the light in the holy place (Ex. 25:6)

24 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 ⁿCommand the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually.

3 ^oWithout the veil of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon the ^ppure ^qcandlestick before the LORD continually.

23:34 tabernacles. The feast of tabernacles, or ingathering, vv. 34–44, is, like the Lord's Supper for the Church, both memorial and prophetic—memorial as to redemption out of Egypt (v. 43); prophetic as to the kingdom-rest of Israel after her regathering and restoration, when the feast again becomes memorial, not for Israel alone, but also for all nations (Ezra 3:4; Zech. 14:16–21; compare Rev. 21:3). This festival, its name derived from the fact that during its observance the Israelites dwelt in booths or tabernacles (vv. 42–43), began on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, Tishri, and lasted for one week.

Penalty of blasphemy (Jn. 8:59; 10:31)

10 ¶ And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this son of the Israelitish woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp;

11 And the Israelitish woman's son ^dblasphemed the name of the LORD, and cursed. And they ^ebrought him unto Moses: (and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan:)

17 ¶ ⁿAnd he that killeth any man shall surely be put to death.

18 ^oAnd he that killeth a beast shall make it good; beast for beast.

19 And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as he hath done, so shall it be done to him;

20 Breach for ^pbreach, ^qeye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again.

21 And ^rhe that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.

22 Ye shall have ^sone manner of law, as well for the ^mstranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the LORD your God.

Penalty for blasphemy executed

23 ¶ And Moses spake to the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Law of the land: (1) sabbatic year

25 And the LORD spake unto Moses in mount ^tSinai, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land ^ukeep a sabbath unto the LORD.

3 ^vSix years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof;

4 But in the ^wseventh year shall be a sabbath of ^xrest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 ^yThat which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine ^zundressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 ^{aa}And the sabbath of the land shall be ^{bb}meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee,

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be ^{bb}meat.

Law of the land: (2) year of jubile

8 ¶ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound on the tenth day of the ^aseventh month, in the day of ^batonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim ^cliberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall ^dreturn every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11 A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine ^eundressed.

12 For it is the jubile; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the year of this jubile ye shall return every man unto his ^gpossession.

14 And if thou sell ^hought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ^hought of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not ⁱoppress one another:

15 According to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and ^jaccording unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

16 ^kAccording to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt ^lfear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my ^mjudgments, and do them; and ⁿye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we ^oeat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will ^pcommand my blessing upon you in the ^qsixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of ^rold fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

23 ¶ The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is ^smine; for ye are ^sstrangers and sojourners with me.

24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

Law of the land: (3) redemption of the inheritance

25 ¶ If thy brother ^tbe waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, ^vand if any of his kin come to ^wredeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and himself be able to redeem it;

27 Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the ^xoverplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubile: and in the jubile it shall go out, and ^yhe shall return unto his possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not ^zredeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubile.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubile.

32 Notwithstanding the ^{aa}cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubile: for

Law of the land: (4) poor brother

35 ¶ And if thy brother ^abe waxen poor, and ^efallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt ^frelieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.

36 Take thou no ^gusury of him, or ^hincrease: but ⁱfear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.

42 For they are my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as ^pbondmen.

43 ¶ Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt ^rfear thy God.

44 Both thy ^sbondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the ^theathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy ^sbondmen and bondmaids.

45 Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your ^pbondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

Law of the land: (5) redemption of the poor brother—Christ our Kinsman-Redeemer

47 ¶ And if a sojourner or stranger ^uwax rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him ^wwax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the ^vstranger's family:

48 After that he is sold he may be ^wredeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him:

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any that is ^xnigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or ^yif he be able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubile: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of an hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubile, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight.

the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Law of the land: (6) conditions of blessing; warnings of chastisement

26 Ye shall make you no ^aidols nor ^bgraven image, neither rear you up a ^cstanding image, neither shall ye set up any ^dimage of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God.

2 ¶ Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and ^ereverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

Conditions of blessing

3 ¶ If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my ^gcommandments, and do them;

4 Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

5 And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall ^hreach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and ⁱdwell in your land safely.

6 ^jAnd I will give peace in the land, and ye shall ^klie down, and none shall make you ^lafraid: and I will rid evil ^mbeasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

8 And ⁿfive of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9 For I will have ^orespect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my ^pcovenant with you.

10 And ye shall eat ^qold store, and bring forth the old because of the new.

11 And I will ^rset my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you.

12 And I will walk among you, and will be your ^sGod, and ye shall be my people.

13 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their ^tbondmen; and I have broken the bands of your ^uyoke, and made you go upright.

Warnings of chastisement

14 ¶ ^vBut if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

15 And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my ^wjudgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant:

First chastisement: distress

16 I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ^xague, that shall consume the eyes, and ^ycause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in ^zvain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will ^{aa}set my face against you, and ye shall be ^{bb}slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall ^{cc}reign over you; and ye shall ^{dd}flee when none pursueth you.

Second chastisement: drought

18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you ^{ee}seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your ^{ff}heaven as iron, and your earth as ^{gg}brass:

20 And your strength shall be spent ^{hh}in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land ⁱⁱyield their fruits.

Third chastisement: beasts

21 ¶ And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring ^{jj}seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

22 I will also send ^{kk}wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cat-

24 Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the ^bquarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the ^cpestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 And when I have broken the staff of your ^dbread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be ^esatisfied.

Fifth chastisement: famine

27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;

28 Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

29 And ye shall ^feat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

30 And I will destroy your ^ghigh

31 And I will make your ^jcities waste, and bring your ^ksanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not ^lsmell the savour of your sweet odours.

Sixth chastisement: dispersion
(cp. Dt. 28:58-67)

32 And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be ^mastonished at it.

33 And I will ⁿscatter you among the ^oheathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 Then shall the land enjoy her ^psabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye ^qbe in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

36 And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a ^rfaintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

Abrahamic Covenant remains despite the disobedience and dispersion

40 If they shall ^fconfess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;

41 And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if ^gthen their uncircumcised hearts be ^hhumbled, and they then ⁱaccept of the punishment of their iniquity:

42 Then will I ^jremember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant ^kwith Isaac, and also my ^lcovenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land.

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised my ^mjudgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not ⁿcast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to ^obreak my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God.

45 But I will for their sakes remember the ^pcovenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the ^cheathen, ^qthat I might be their God: I am the LORD.

46 ^rThese are the statutes and ^mjudgments and laws, which the LORD made between him and the

About dedicated persons and things

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man shall make a ^tsingular ^uvow, the persons shall be for the LORD by thy ^vestimation.

3 And thy ^vestimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy ^vestimation shall be fifty ^wshekels of silver, ^xafter the shekel of the sanctuary.

7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy ^vestimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer than thy ^vestimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value ^zhim; according to his ability that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be ^{aa}holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be.

14 ¶ And when a man shall ^csanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall ^destimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall ^destimate it, so shall it stand.

15 And if he that sanctified it will ^eredeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy ^bestimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy ^bestimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubile, according to thy ^bestimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubile, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that ^sremain, even unto the year of the jubile, and ^hit shall be abated from thy estimation.

19 And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise ^eredeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy ^bestimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 And if he will not ^eredeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.

21 But the field, when it ^sgoeth out in the ⁱjubile, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field ⁱdevoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

22 And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession;

23 Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy ^bestimation, even unto the year of the jubile: and he shall give thine ^bestimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD.

24 In the year of the jubile the field shall ^kreturn unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.

25 And all thy ^lestimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty ^mgerahs shall be the shekel.

Three things that are the LORD's absolutely: (1) firstlings of the beasts

26 ¶ Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the ⁿLORD's firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD's.

27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall ^oredeem it according to thine ^bestimation, and shall add a fifth part of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy ^bestimation.

(2) Any devoted thing

28 Notwithstanding no ^pdevoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or ^oredeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD.

29 None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death.

(3) All tithes of land, trees, and beast

30 And ^qall the ^rtithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's: it is holy unto the LORD.

31 And if a man will at all ^sought of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof.

32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever ^tpasseth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD.

33 ^uHe shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be ^oredeemed.

34 ^vThese are the commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel in mount ^wSinai.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES CALLED NUMBERS

Author:
Moses

Theme:
Wilderness Wanderings

Date of writing:
c. 1450–1410 B.C.

Background

Numbers derives its name from the record of the two numberings of the Israelites (chs. 1 and 26), being called in the Greek version Arithmoi, and in the Vulgate, Numeri. More accurate is the Hebrew title, Bemidbar ("In the Wilderness").

The first part of the book concludes the divine record of the experiences at Sinai and thus points back to Exodus. The major part of Numbers recounts the years of wandering, from the time that Israel departed from Sinai until, as a new generation, they reached the Jordan River. The first year and a half (approximately) of Israel's forty years' wandering is recorded in Exodus 12:37—Numbers 14:45; and the last few months, in Numbers 20:14 to the end of the book. Between 14:45 and 20:14 there is a period of about thirty-eight years (compare Deuteronomy 2:14).

God's Relationship with Man

Redeemed from Egypt, possessing the law, led by Moses, daily looking upon the tabernacle, and supernaturally guided by cloud and pillar of fire, Israel should have walked triumphantly in the perfect will of God. Instead they failed repeatedly, as this book records.

Types in Numbers

Numbers presents several types rich in meaning. See notes on the following passages for the typical significance of show-bread (4:7); Nazarite (6:2); rest (15:1); Aaron's rod (17:8); red heifer (19:2); water (19:2) and serpent (21:9).

The Old Testament in the New

Our Lord makes special reference to the bronze serpent lifted up by Moses (John 3:14). Paul mentions the serpents which destroyed the people (1 Corinthians 10:9), and the sin of Baal-peor (1 Corinthians 10:8). Peter in his epistle (2 Peter 2:15–16) and John (Revelation 2:14) both refer to the sin of Balaam.

As in Israel each person had his definitely assigned place and task for the welfare of the whole nation, so in the Church each member of the body of Christ has his particular place and function for the building up of the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12; Ephesians 4:1–16).

Levites exempted for other service

47 ¶ ^aBut the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.

48 For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying,

49 Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel:

50 But thou shalt ^bappoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle.

51 And when the tabernacle setteth forward, the ^cLevites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it ^dup: and the stranger that cometh ^enigh shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, ^fevery man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.

53 But the Levites shall ^gpitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no ^hwrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall ⁱkeep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

54 And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

Order of the host: (2) arrangement of the camp

2 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Every man of the children of Israel shall ^jpitch by his own standard, with the ^kensign of their father's house: ^lfar off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they ^mpitch.

3 And on the ⁿeast side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah ^opitch throughout their armies: and ^pNahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the children of Judah.

THE LEVITES AND THEIR RESPONSIBILITIES

The Levites derive their name from the fact that they were of the tribe of Levi. Levi had three sons: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari (Gen. 46:11). Kohath's grandsons were Moses and Aaron through Amram (see Ex. 6:16-20; Num. 3:14-24; 1 Chr. 6:1-48). All true priests in Israel were descendants of Aaron; hence they are known as the Aaronic priesthood (Ex. 28:1ff.; 31:10; Lev. 8:2ff.; 9:1ff.; Num. 3:1-4).

The transportation and maintenance of the tabernacle of the congregation, and, later, the care of the temple required the labor of many more men than the descendants of Aaron. Those who so ministered were Levites. They did not, as other tribes, have a definite portion of the land assigned them, but lived in various towns and cities (Josh. 21). Originally the age of those who served was between thirty and fifty; later the age limit was lowered to twenty (2 Chr. 31:17).

In ch. 18 the distinctive tasks of the three major divisions of the Levites are described. They served in the place of the firstborn of all the families of Israel who originally had been declared set apart to the service of God (Ex. 13:1-2, 12-16). All priests were also, as the descendants of Levi, true Levites, but the priesthood is more accurately called Aaronic than Levitical.

10 ¶ On the ^asouth side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben shall be ^bElizur the son of Shedeur.

11 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

12 And those which pitch by him shall be the tribe of Simeon: and the captain of the children of Simeon shall be ^cShelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

13 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

14 Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Reuel.

15 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

16 All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben were an hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And they shall set forth in the ^dsecond rank.

17 ¶ ^eThen the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Levites ^fin the midst of the camp: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards.

18 ¶ On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their armies: and the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be ^gElishama the son of Ammihud.

19 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand and five hundred.

20 And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh: and the captain of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

21 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

22 Then the tribe of Benjamin: and the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall be ^hAbidan the son of Gideoni.

23 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

24 All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were an hundred thousand and eight thousand and an hundred, throughout their armies. And ⁱthey shall go forward in the ^jthird rank.

25 ¶ The standard of the camp of Dan shall be on the north side by their armies: and the captain of the children of Dan shall be ^kAhiezzer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

27 And those that encamp by him shall be the tribe of Asher: and the captain of the children of Asher shall be ^lPagiel the son of Ocran.

28 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

29 ¶ Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the captain of the children of Naphtali shall be ^mAhira the son of Enan.

30 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

31 All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. They shall go ⁿhindmost with their standards.

32 ¶ These are those which were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers: ^oall those that were numbered of the camps throughout their hosts were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

33 But the Levites were ^pnot numbered among the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

34 And the children of Israel ^qdid according to all that the LORD commanded Moses: so they ^rpitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers.

Order of the host: (3) the priests

3 These also are the ^agenerations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD spake with Moses in mount ^bSinai.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstborn, and ^cAbihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests which were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office.

4 And ^dNadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the sight of Aaron their father.

Order of the host: (4) the tribe of Levi

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 ^eBring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him.

7 And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt ^fgive the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Israel.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's ^goffice: and the stranger that cometh ^hnigh shall be put to death.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel ⁱinstead of all the firstborn that openeth the ^jmatrix among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be ^kmine;

13 Because all the firstborn are ^lmine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine shall they be: I am the LORD.

Order of the host: (5) the families of Levi

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15 Number the children of ^mLevi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward shalt thou number them.

40 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, ^mNumber all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 ⁿAnd thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

Order of the host: (8) the service of the Kohathites

4 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Take the sum of the sons of *f*Kohath from among the sons of

Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers,

3 From ^sthirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 And upon the table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withal: and the ^lcontinual bread shall be thereon:

3:43 numbered. Inasmuch as Num. 1:45-46 states that at the time of the Exodus there were 603,550 men "able to go forth to war in Israel," and here it is said that there were 22,273 firstborn males "a month old and upward" in Israel, there would appear to be a contradiction; otherwise it must be assumed that in Israel each family had at least fifty males, which is hardly conceivable. The problem is solved in that the law of the firstborn did not go into effect until the time of the Exodus (Ex. 13:1-2). The 600,000 or more males were those who had been born in the years preceding the Exodus, whereas the 22,273 firstborn were born after the Exodus from the land of Egypt.

4:7 shewbread. A type of Christ, the Bread of God, nourisher of the Christian's life as a believer-priest (1 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 1:6). In Jn. 6:33-58 our Lord has more in mind the manna, that food which "comes down from heaven"; but all typical meanings of bread are there gathered into His words. The manna is the life-giving Christ; the showbread, the life-sustaining Christ. The showbread typifies Christ as the "corn of wheat" (Jn. 12:24) ground in the mill of suffering (Jn. 12:27) and brought into the fire of judgment (Jn. 12:31-33). We, as priests, by faith feed upon Him as having undergone that in our stead and for our sakes. We are fed by meditation upon Christ, as in Heb. 12:2-3.

12 And they shall take all the ^ainstruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bar:

13 And they shall take away the ashes from the ^baltar, and spread a purple cloth thereon:

14 And they shall put upon it all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the basons, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skins, and put to the staves of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sons have ^cmade an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, the sons of ^aKohath shall come to bear it: but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they ^edie. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

Order of the host: (9) the office of Eleazar

16 ¶ And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest pertaineth the ^foil for the light, and the ^gsweet incense, and the daily ^hmeat-offering, and the ⁱanointing oil, and the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

18 Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

19 But thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto the most ^jholy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden:

20 But they shall not go in to ^ksee when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

Order of the host: (10) the service of the Gershonites

21 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

22 Take also the sum of the sons of ^lGershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families;

23 From ^mthirty years old and upward until fifty years old shalt thou number them; all that enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 This is the ⁿservice of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for burdens:

25 ^oAnd they shall bear the ^pcurtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the ^qbadgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, 26 And the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve.

27 At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service: and ye shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens.

28 This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge shall be under the hand of ^rIthamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Order of the host: (11) the service of the Merarites

33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the tabernacle of the ^ccongregation, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

34 ¶ And Moses and Aaron and the chief of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites after their families, and after the house of their fathers,

35 From ^dthirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation:

36 And those that were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

37 These were they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

43 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation,

44 Even those that were numbered of them after their families, were three thousand and two hundred.

45 These be those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

48 Even those that were numbered of them, were ⁱeight thousand and five hundred and fourscore.

49 According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his ^jservice, and according to his burden: thus were they ^knumbered of him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

7 Then they shall ^cconfess their sin which they have done: and he shall ^drecompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

The O.T. sacrifices never removed man's sin; it is "not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins" (Heb. 10:4). The Israelite's offering implied confession of sin and recognized its due penalty as death; and God passed over his sin in anticipation of Christ's sacrifice which did, finally, put away those "sins that are past" [in O.T. times] (Heb. 9:15,26; Rom. 3:25, note). 28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity.

6:2 THE NAZARITE DEFINED

The Nazarite, sometimes spelled Nazirite (meaning one separated), was a person who was separated completely to the LORD. Abstention from wine, the symbol of natural joy (Ps. 104:15), was the expression of a devotedness which found all its joy in the LORD (cp. Ps. 97:12; Hab. 3:18; Phil. 3:1; 4:4,10). The long hair, naturally a reproach to a man (1 Cor. 11:14), was at once the visible sign of the Nazarite's separation and willingness to bear reproach for the LORD's sake. The type found its perfect fulfillment in Jesus who was "holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners" (Heb. 7:26), was utterly set apart to the Father (Jn. 1:18; 6:38), and allowed no mere natural claim to hinder or divert Him (Mt. 12:46-50).

6:1 saying. There is a stimulating moral order in chs. 6—7: (1) separation, 6:1-12; (2) worship, 6:13-21; (3) blessing, 6:22-27; and (4) service, 7:1-89. Cp. Heb. 13:12-16.

6:11 atonement. Hebrew kaphar, to propitiate, to atone for sin. According to Scripture the sacrifice of the law only covered the offerer's sin and secured the divine forgiveness. The O.T. sacrifices never removed man's sin; sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

12 And he shall consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass-offering: but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

13 ¶ And this is the law of the Nazarite, when the days of his separation are ^afulfilled: he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt-offering, and one ^bewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin-offering, and one ram without blemish for peace-offerings,

15 And a basket of ^cunleavened bread, cakes of fine flour ^dmingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their ^emeat-offering, and their drink-offerings.

16 And the priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin-offering, and his burnt-offering:

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his ^fmeat-offering, and his drink-offering.

18 And ^gthe Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace-offerings.

19 And the priest shall ^htake the ⁱsodden shoulder of the ram, and one ^junleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven:

20 And the priest shall wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD: this is holy for the priest, with the wave-breast and heave-shoulder: and ^kafter that the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, beside that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

The Aaronic benediction

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, ^lOn this wise ye shall ^mbless the children of Israel, ⁿsaying unto them,

24 The LORD ^obless thee, and ^pkeep thee:

25 The LORD make his ^qface shine upon thee, and be ^rgracious unto thee:

26 The LORD ^slift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee ^tpeace.

27 And they shall ^uput my name upon the children of Israel; and I will ^vbless them.

it is "not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins" (Heb. 10:4). The Israelite's offering implied confession of sin and recognized its due penalty as death; and God passed over his sin in anticipation of Christ's sacrifice which did, finally, put away those "sins that are past" [in O.T. times] (Heb. 9:15,26; Rom. 3:25, note). See Gen. 4:4, with marginal ref. Sacrifice, and Lev. 16:6, note.

6:23 saying unto them. Prayer is an integral part of worship, in the O.T. and in the N.T. In the O.T. the petitions and supplications of God's people are based upon His character and the divine covenants. O.T. saints, often acting in the priestly office of representing the people before the LORD, frequently appeal to the honor of the name of God and the steadfastness of His word as they plead with the Almighty to fulfill on their behalf the promises that He has graciously made to them as His covenant people (Gen. 15:2-3; 18:23-32; Ex. 32:11-14; 2 Sam. 7:18-29; 1 Ki. 8:22-53; 18:36-37; Dan. 9:3-19). For Bible prayers (N.T.), see Luke 11:2, note.

2 That the ^aprinces of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, and were over them that were numbered, offered:

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six ^bcovered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service.

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of ^cGershon, according to their service:

8 And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of ^dMerari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because the ^eservice of the sanctuary belonging unto them was that they should bear upon their shoulders.

Order of the host: (16) cleansing the Levites

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and ⁱcleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle ^kwater of purifying upon them, and let them ^lshave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with ^mhis ⁿmeat-offering, even fine flour ^omingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin-offering.

9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together:

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall ^poffer the Levites before the LORD for an ^qoffering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the LORD.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one ^rfor a sin-offering, and the other ^rfor a burnt-offering, unto the LORD, to make an ^ratonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them ^rfor an offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou ^sseparate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be ^tmine.

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them ^ufor an offering.

16 For they are ^vwholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; ^vinstead of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

Order of the host: (17) the Passover

¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep the ^apassover at his appointed ^eseason.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And there were certain men, who were ^fdefiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will ^ghear what the LORD will command concerning you.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD.

11 The fourteenth day of the ^hsecond month at even they shall ⁱkeep it, and eat it with ^junleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any ^kbone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it.

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same ^lsoul shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin.

14 ^mAnd if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ⁿordinance of the passover, and according to the ^omanner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance, both for the ^pstranger, and for him that was born in the land.

^acovered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of ^bfire, until the morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the ^ccloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they ^dpitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel ^eabode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

Order of the host: (19) the silver assembly trumpets

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Make these two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an ^falarm, then the camps that lie on the ^geast parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the ^hsouth side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the ⁱpriests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be ^jremembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies.

10 ^kAlso in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt-offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace-offerings; that they may be to you for a ^lmemorial before your God: I am the LORD your God.

13 And they ^bfirst took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

14 ¶ In the ^cfirst place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And the tabernacle was ^dtaken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari ^eset forward, bearing the tabernacle.

18 ¶ And the standard of the camp of Reuben ^fset forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward.

29 ¶ And Moses said unto ^mHobab, the son of Raguel the ⁿMidianite, Moses' father in law, We are journeying unto the ^oplace of which the LORD said, I will give it you: ^pcome thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel.

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what ^rgoodness the LORD shall do unto us, the ^ssame will we do unto thee.

33 ¶ And they departed from the ^tmount of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to ^usearch out a ^vresting place for them.

ISRAEL'S COMPLAINTS

Shortly after being delivered from slavery in Egypt, the Israelites began to complain about one thing after the other. Through Moses' patience and God's understanding and love, their concerns were alleviated.

Complaint

Pharaoh's soldiers will kill us!
What shall we drink?
We will die of hunger!
Will we die of thirst?
Who will give us meat?
We'll never conquer the Promised Land!

Moses acts like a prince over us.
There's no water!
There's no water or food. And we're sick of manna.

God's remedy

Water sweetened at Marah
Manna sent Water from a rock
Quails sent

God kills the complainers.

(5) the seventy elders (cp. Ex. 18:19)*

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

17 And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the ^bspirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

18 And say thou unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

20 But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have ^ddespised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are ^esix hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?

23 And the LORD said unto Moses, Is the LORD's hand ^fwaxed ^gshort? thou shalt see now whether my ^hword shall come to pass unto thee or not.

24 ¶ And Moses went out, and told the people the ⁱwords of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 ^jAnd the LORD came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the ^kspirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.

*From Sinai to Kadesh-barnea:
(6) Eldad and Medad prophesy*

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the ^kspirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, ^lforbid them.

29 And Moses said unto him, ^mEnviest thou for my sake? would God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his ⁿspirit upon them!

30 And Moses ^ogat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

*From Sinai to Kadesh-barnea:
(7) the quails and the plague*

31 ¶ And there went forth a ^pwind from the LORD, and brought ^qquails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two ^rcubits high upon the face of the earth.

correct rendering is, "about two cubits above the face of the earth," which was within reach of the people, that they might kill them for food. The statement is not that the quails were piled up from the face of the earth two cubits deep; the level of their flight was two cubits above the earth.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten *a*homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

12:3 Moses was very meek. It is sometimes questioned whether this statement could have been written by Moses. As a divinely inspired book the Bible never conceals the weaknesses and faults of its characters; so it speaks plainly about their virtues. Despite baseless criticism against his family, Moses said nothing and made no attempt to defend himself until the LORD intervened on his behalf (v. 4). If the account is to be fully understood, this statement of Moses' meekness is necessary. Its presence here is therefore no argument against his authorship.

give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.

3 And Moses by the commandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

4 And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.

6 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.

14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called *a*Oshea the son of Nun Jehoshua.

17 ¶ And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way *b*southward, and go up into the mountain:

18 And see the land, what it is, and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in *c*tents, or in strong holds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And be ye of good *d*courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes.

21 ¶ So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of *e*Zin unto Rehob, as men come to *f*Hamath.

22 And they ascended by the *g*south, and came unto *h*Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of *i*Anak, were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before *j*Zoan in Egypt.)

23 And they came unto the brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

At Kadesh-barnea: (2) the contradictory reports of the spies

26 ¶ And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the *k*wilderness of Paran, to *l*Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither

13:16 Jehoshua. That is, savior, or deliverer.

13:23 Eshcol. Meaning cluster. Num. 32:9.

thou sentest us, and surely it ^afloweth with milk and honey; and ^bthis is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless the ^cpeople be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of ^dAnak there.

29 The ^eAmalekites dwell in the land of the ^fsouth: and the ^gHittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the ^hcoast of Jordan.

30 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 But the men that went up with him said, ⁱWe be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.

32 And they brought up an ^jevil report of the land which they had searched out the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and ^kall the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature.

33 And there we saw the ^lgiants, the sons of ^mAnak, which come of the giants: and ⁿwe were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

At Kadesh-barnea: (3) the rebellious unbelief of Israel (1 Cor. 10:1-5; Heb. 3:7-19)

14 And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people ^owept that night.

2 And all the children of Israel ^pmurmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our ^qchildren should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us ^rreturn into Egypt.

5 ^sThen Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, ^trent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, ^uThe land, which we passed through to search it, is ^van exceeding good land.

8 ^wIf the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; ^xa land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only ^yrebel not ye against the LORD, neither ^zfear ye the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, ^{aa}and the LORD is with us: fear them not.

10 But all the congregation ^{bb}bade stone them with ^{cc}stones. And the ^{dd}glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

At Kadesh-barnea: (4) Moses pleads for pardon for the people

11 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people ^{ee}provoke me? and how long will it be ^{ff}ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will ^{gg}make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

the strength of the warring factions in Canaan, which made life insecure, and not in any sense a denial of the great productivity of the land.

14:1 Because of certain repetitions, there are some who claim that chs. 13 and 14 are a composite of conflicting accounts. But repetition for emphasis is common in the O.T., and each of the alleged discrepancies may be explained in full accord with the unity of the narrative.

13 ¶ ^aAnd ^bMoses said unto the LORD, ^cThen the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have ^dheard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou ^eLORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by daytime in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 ¶ Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16 Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The ^hLORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19 ^hPardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people ⁱaccording unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.

20 And the LORD said, I have ^jpardoned according to thy word:

21 But as truly ^kas I live, all the earth shall be ^lfilled with the glory of the LORD.

22 Because ^mall those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have ⁿnot tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

24 But my servant Caleb, ^qbecause he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, ^rhim will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it.

25 (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valley.) Tomorrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the ^sRed sea.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

27 How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.

28 Say unto them, ^t*As truly as I live*, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I ^udo to you:

29 Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were ^vnumbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me,

31 But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised.

32 ^xBut as for you, your carcases, they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your ^ywhoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness.

14:23 Kadesh-barnea is, by the unbelief of Israel there and the divine comment on that unbelief (vv. 22-38; Dt. 1:19-40; 1 Cor. 10:1-5; Heb. 3:12-19), invested with immense spiritual significance. The people had obeyed God in sprinkling the blood (Ex. 12:28) and coming out of Egypt, but did not enter the Canaan rest because of unbelief (Heb. 3:18-19). Therefore, although members of a redeemed nation, they were a forty-years' grief to the LORD.

37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, ^bdied by the plague before the LORD.

40 ¶ And they rose up early in the morning, and ^dgat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and ^ewill go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

41 And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper.

42 Go ^fnot up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.

44 But they ^gpresumed to go up unto the hill top: nevertheless ^hthe ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp.

15:1 NECESSARY DISCIPLINE

The wilderness was part of the necessary discipline of the redeemed people, but not the years of wandering. The latter were due wholly to the unbelief of the people at Kadesh-barnea. The Red sea, Marah, Elim, and Sinai were God's ways in development and discipline and have, of necessity, their counterpart in Christian experience:

(1) the Red sea suggests the cross as that which (death to Christ but life for us) separates us from Egypt, the world (Gal. 6:14);

(2) Marah, God's power to turn vexatious things into blessing;

(3) Elim, God's power to give rest and refreshment along the way; and

(4) Sinai, God's holiness and our deep inherent evil, the experience of Rom. 7:7-25. So far the path was and is of God. But from Kadesh-barnea to Jordan all (except the grace of God toward an unbelieving people) is for warning, not imitation (1 Cor. 10:1-11; Heb. 3:17-19). There is a present rest of God, of which the sabbath and Canaan were types, into which believers may and, therefore, should enter by faith (Heb. 3-4).

15:2 When ye be come. It is remarkable that just when the people are turning in unbelief from the land, God gives directions for conduct when they shall have entered it. Cp. Rom. 11:29; Phil. 1:6.

^abullock for a burnt-offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace-offerings unto the LORD:

9 Then shall he bring with a bullock a ^bmeat-offering of three tenth ^cdeals of flour mingled with half an ^dhin of oil.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink-offering half an ^dhin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number.

13 All that are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

Law of the stranger

sojourning in the land (vv. 14-16)

14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do.

15 ^eOne ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

16 One law and one ^gmanner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you,

19 Then it shall be, that, when ye ^heat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up an heave-offering unto the LORD.

20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the ⁱfirst of your dough for an heave-offering: as ye do the heave-offering of the threshingfloor, so shall ye heave it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD an heave-offering in your generations.

22 ¶ And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses,

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations;

24 Then it shall be, if ^kought be committed by ^lignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt-offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his ^mmeat-offering, and his drink-offering, according to the ^mmanner, and one kid of the goats for a sin-offering.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be ⁿforgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin-offering before the LORD, ^ofor their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 ¶ And if ^pany soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin-offering.

28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, and it shall be forgiven him.

15:25,28 atonement. Hebrew kaphar, to propitiate, to atone for sin. According to Scripture the sacrifice of the law only covered the offerer's sin and secured the divine forgiveness. The O.T. sacrifices never removed man's sin; it is "not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins" (Heb. 10:4). The Israelite's offering implied confession of sin and recognized its due penalty as death; and God passed over his sin in anticipation of Christ's sacrifice which did, finally, put away those "sins that are past" [in O.T. times] (Heb. 9:15,26; Rom. 3:25, note). See Gen. 4:4, with marginal ref. Sacrifice, and Lev. 16:6, note.

25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, ^slest ye be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little ^tchildren.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know ^uthat the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not sent me.

30 But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that ^vappertain unto them, and they go down ^wquick into the ^xpit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

31 ¶ And it came to pass, as he had ^ymade an end of speaking all these words, that the ground ^zclave asunder that was under them:

16:10 seek ye the priesthood. "The gainsaying of Core [Korah]" (Jude 11) was intrusion into the priest's office, for 34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out a ^bfire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

Plague falls on murmurers

36 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they are ^challowed.

38 The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a ^dsign unto the children of Israel.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the ^ebrassen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar:

40 To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, ^fthat no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near ^gto offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the ^hmorrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and ⁱthe glory of the LORD appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And they ^jfell upon their faces.

46 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an ^katonement for them: for there is ^lwrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun.

47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and ^mhe put on incense, and made an ⁿatonement for the people.

48 And he ^ostood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.

49 Now they that died in the plague were ^pfourteen thousand and seven hundred, ^qbeside them that died about the matter of Korah.

50 And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed.

3 And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the ^rtestimony, ^swhere I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, whom I shall ^tchoose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a ^etoken against the ^frebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.

The responsibilities of caring for and moving the tabernacle and its contents were divided by the three sons of Levi.

Aaron and his sons covered the ark, and disassembled and packed everything (4:5). Only these three were allowed to directly touch the items and furnishings inside the tabernacle.

Items assigned to the Gershonites (3:25-26)

The curtains of the tabernacle
The tent with its coverings
The covering made of skins
The hangings for the entrances
The hangings and cords of the court that surrounds the tabernacle and altar

Items assigned to the Kohathites (3:31)

The ark of the testimony
The table
The candlestick
The altars
The vessels of the sanctuary
The inside curtain

Items assigned to the Merarites (3:36-37)

The boards and bars of the tabernacle
The pillars of the tabernacle: its posts, bases and equipment
The pillars of the court with its sockets, pins and cords

17:8 rod of Aaron. Aaron's rod that budded: a type of Christ in resurrection, acknowledged by God as high priest. Aaron's priesthood had been questioned in the rebellion of Korah; so God Himself would confirm it (v. 5). The head of each tribe brought a dead rod; God put life into Aaron's only.

18:1 bear the iniquity. That is, be responsible for every neglect or offense relating to. Cp. Ex. 28:38.

I have given your priest's office unto you as a ^aservice of gift: and the stranger that cometh ^bnigh shall be put to death.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of mine ^cheave-offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever.

9 This shall be thine of the ^dmost holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every ^emeat-offering of theirs, and every sin-offering of theirs, and every trespass-offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy ^ffor thee and for thy sons.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

11 And this is ^gthine; the heave-offering of their gift, with all the wave-offerings of the children of Israel: ^hI have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.

12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the ⁱfirstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it.

14 Every thing ^kdevoted in Israel shall be thine.

15 Every thing that openeth the ^mmatrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the ⁿfirstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine ^oestimation, for the money of five ^pshekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty ^qgerahs.

17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, ^ras the wave-breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 All the heave-offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of ^ssalt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

20 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have ^tno inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the ^utenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the ^vchildren of Israel henceforth come ^wnigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall ^xbear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel ^ythey have no inheritance.

24 But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave-offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel ^zthey shall have no inheritance.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel ^{aa}the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave-offering of it for the LORD, even a ^{ab}tenth part of the tithe.

THE RED HEIFER: A CHRIST-LIKE SACRIFICE

The red heifer: a type of the sacrifice of Christ as the ground of the cleansing of the believer from the defilement contracted in his pilgrim walk through this world, and an illustration of the method of his cleansing. The order is:

- (1) the killing of the sacrifice;
- (2) the sevenfold sprinkling of the blood, typical public testimony before the eyes of all of the complete and never-to-be repeated putting away of all of the believer's sins as before God (Heb. 9:12-14; 10:10-12);
- (3) the reduction of the sacrifice to ashes which are preserved and become a memorial of the sacrifice; and
- (4) the cleansing from defilement (sin has two aspects—guilt and uncleanness) by sprinkling with the ashes mixed with water. Water is a type of both the Spirit and the Word (Jn. 7:37-39; Eph. 5:26). The operation typified is this: the Holy Spirit uses the Word to convict the believer of some evil allowed in his life that hinders his joy, growth, and service. Thus convicted, he remembers that the guilt of his sin has been met by the sacrifice of Christ (1 Jn. 1:7). Instead, therefore, of despairing, the convicted believer judges and confesses the defiling thing as unworthy of a Christian, and is forgiven and cleansed (Jn. 13:3-10; 1 Jn. 1:7-10).

dren of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

11 ¶ He that ^atoucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days.

12 He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth ^bnot himself, ^cdefileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.

14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15 And every open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean.

16 And whosoever ^dtoucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17 And ^efor an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, ^fand running water shall be put thereto in a vessel:

18 And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave:

19 And the clean person shall ^gsprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at even.

20 But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath defiled the sanctuary of the LORD: the water of separation hath not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean.

21 And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinkleth the water of separation shall wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until even.

22 And whatsoever the unclean person toucheth shall be ^hunclean; and the soul that toucheth it shall be unclean until even.

2 And there was ^lno water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and ^magainst Aaron.

4 And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? ^pIt is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any ^qwater to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they ^rfell upon their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

Sin of Moses in smiting the rock

7 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

8 Take the ^arod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the ^brock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

9 And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, ^cHear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock?

11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the ^drock twice: and the ^ewater came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye ^fbelieved me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall ^gnot bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 This is the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them.

Years of wandering: (8) the never-forgiven sin of Edom (Gen. 25:30; Obad. 10)

14 ¶ And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh ^hunto the king of ⁱEdom, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou ^jknowest all the travail that hath befallen us:

15 How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a ^klong time; and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers:

16 And when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an ^langel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

17 Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's ^mhigh way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.

18 And ⁿEdom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the high way: and if I and my ^ocattle drink of thy water, then I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing ^pelse, go through on my feet.

20 And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with ^qmuch people, and with a strong hand.

21 ^rThus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore ^sIsrael turned away from him.

(1) took credit to himself for what God had done ("must we"), v. 10;

(2) disobeyed God in not speaking to the rock, v. 11;

(3) lost his temper (he struck the rock twice when told to speak to it), v. 11;

(4) used a harsh expression in addressing the people ("rebels," cp. Ps. 106:33), v. 10;

(5) was provoked about their need and resented them ("must we"), v. 10;

(6) was guilty of unbelief, because he did not trust the power of God, as though the power of God needed his help ("believed me not"), v. 12;

(7) failed to glorify God before His people ("to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel"), v. 12; and

(8) rebelled against God, v. 24.

Aaron was with him in this offense, so he suffered the same punishment.

26 And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son: and Aaron shall be ^cgathered unto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and ^dput them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron ^edied there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

3 And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Hormah.

6 And the LORD ⁿsent fiery serpents among the people, and ^othey bit the people; and ^pmuch people of Israel died.

7 ¶ Therefore the people ^qcame to Moses, and said, We have ^rsinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people.

8 And the LORD said unto Moses, ^sMake thee a ^tfiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

9 And Moses made a serpent of ^ubrass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of ^vbrass, he ^wlived.

22 ^cLet me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders.

23 ^dAnd Sihon would not ^esuffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to ^fJahaz, and fought against Israel.

24 And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for ^gthe border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel ^hdwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs say, Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and ⁱprepared:

28 For there is a fire gone out of ^jHeshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it hath consumed ^kAr of Moab, and the lords of the ^lhigh places of Arnon.

30 We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even unto ^qDibon, and we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, which reacheth unto Medeba.

31 ¶ Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to spy out ^rJaazer, and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there.

33 ¶ ^sAnd they turned and went up by the way of ^tBashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei.

34 And the LORD ^usaid unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

3 And Moab was ^csore ^dafraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said unto the elders of ^eMidian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 ¶ He sent messengers therefore unto ^fBalaam the son of Beor to Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me:

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us.

15 ¶ And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

22:5 Balaam. Balaam was a typical hireling prophet, seeking only to make a market of his gift. This is the way of Balaam (2 Pet. 2:15) and characterizes false teachers. The error of Balaam (Jude 11) was that he could see only the natural morality. A holy God, he reasoned, must curse such a people as Israel. Like all false teachers he was ignorant of the higher morality of vicarious atonement, by which God could be just and yet the justifier of believing sinners (Rom. 3:26).

The doctrine of Balaam (Rev. 2:14) refers to his teaching Balak to corrupt the people whom he could not curse (cp. Num. 31:16 with Num. 25:1-3 and Jas. 4:4). Spiritually, Balaamism in teaching never rises above natural reasonings; in practice, it is easy world-conformity. See Rev. 2:14, note.

which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 ¶ And God's anger was kindled because he went: and the ^aangel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his ^bhand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

24 But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

28 And the LORD ^copened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever ^dwont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the LORD ^eopened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is ^fperverse before me:

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

The matter was wholly one between the LORD and His servant. The permission of v. 20 really constituted a testing of Balaam. He chose the path of self-will and self-advantage, and the LORD could not but gravely disapprove. The whole scene (vv. 22-35) prepared Balaam for what was to follow.

22:41 utmost part. Refers to the end of the encampment, "the fourth part of Israel" (Num. 23:10). Balak's thought was not at all to permit Balaam to see the whole of the Hebrew host. In bringing Balaam to Pisgah, Balak corrects what, evidently, he thought was a blunder (Num. 23:13-14). But when the hireling sees the whole camp he must utter a grander word than before, "He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob," and that with the nation in full view. Here is a superb illustration of the truth of Rom. 4:5-8.

23:7 brought. In the prophecies of Balaam, God testifies on behalf of His people rather than to them. It is the divine testimony to their standing as a redeemed people in view of the serpent "lifted up", and of the water from the struck rock (Num. 21:5-9; 20:11). Their state was morally bad, but this was a matter concerning the discipline of God, not His judgment. Through Christ "lifted up" (Jn. 3:14-15) the Christian's standing is eternally secure and perfect, though his state may require the Father's discipline (1 Cor. 11:30-32; Heb. 12:4-10); meantime, against all enemies God is "for us" (Rom. 8:31).

23:13 thou shalt see . . . all. Better thou seest but the extremity of them, and dost not see them all.

17 And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt-offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What hath the LORD spoken?

18 And he took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor:

19 ^aGod is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should ^brepent: hath he ^csaid, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

The prophecy from Peor (continued)

24 And when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the ^qwilderness.

2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel ^rabiding in his tents according to their tribes; and ^sthe ^tspirit of God came upon him.

The order of the offerings
(vv. 1,9,11,16,17,26)

28 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, ^eMy offering, and my bread for my sacrifices made by fire, for a ^fsweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

3 And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot day by day, for a ^gcontinual burnt-offering.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at even;

5 And a tenth part of an ^hephah of flour for a ⁱmeat-offering, ^jmingled with the fourth part of an ^hhin of beaten oil.

6 It is a continual burnt-offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And the drink-offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an ^hhin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink-offering.

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the ⁱmeat-offering of the morning, and as the drink-offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

9 ¶ And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth ^kdeals of flour for a ⁱmeat-offering, ^lmingled with oil, and the drink-offering thereof:

10 This is the burnt-offering of every sabbath, beside the ^lcontinual burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

11 ¶ And in the ^mbeginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt-offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot;

12 And three tenth ^kdeals of flour for a ⁿmeat-offering, ⁱmingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth ^kdeals of flour for a ⁱmeat-offering, ⁱmingled with oil, for one ram;

13 And a several tenth ^odeal of flour ⁱmingled with oil for a ⁱmeat-offering unto one lamb; for a burnt-offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

14 And their drink-offerings shall be half an ^hhin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of an hin unto a ram, and a fourth part of an hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt-offering of every month throughout the months of the year.

15 And one kid of the goats for a sin-offering unto the LORD shall be offered, beside the ^pcontinual burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

28:4 at even. Literally "between the two evenings," taken by the Jews to mean after noon and until nightfall, the time during which the second of the two daily sacrifices was offered. According to Josephus the Passover lamb was slain between the ninth and eleventh hours, 3-5 P.M. (cp. Ex. 12:6, "in the evening"). Thus the death of our Lord at the ninth hour (Mt. 27:45) agrees with the time of the offering of the Passover lamb as well as the second daily sacrifice.

this month is the feast: seven days shall ^aunleavened bread be eaten.

18 In the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein:

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt-offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish:

20 And their ^bmeat-offering shall be of flour mingled with oil: three tenth ^cdeals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth ^cdeals for a ram;

21 A several tenth ^ddeal shalt thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

22 And one goat for a sin-offering, to make an ^eatonement for you.

23 Ye shall offer these beside the burnt-offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt-offering.

24 After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the ^fmeat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

25 And ^gon the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.

26 ¶ Also ^hin the day of the first-fruits, when ye bring a new ^bmeat-offering unto the LORD, after your weeks be out, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall ⁱdo no servile work:

28:22,30 atonement. Hebrew kaphar, to propitiate, to atone for sin. According to Scripture the sacrifice of the law only covered the offerer's sin and secured the divine forgiveness. The O.T. sacrifices never removed man's sin; it is "not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins" (Heb. 10:4). The Israelite's offering implied confession of sin and recognized its due penalty as death; and God passed over his sin in anticipation of Christ's sacrifice which did, finally, put away those "sins that are past" [in O.T. times] (Heb. 9:15,26; Rom. 3:25, note). See Gen. 4:4, with marginal ref. Sacrifice, and Lev. 16:6, note.

29:1,7,12 seventh month. This is the month of Tishri (or Ethanim) in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of September–October. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2. trumpets. The Feast of Trumpets is a prophetic type and refers to the future regathering of long-dispersed Israel. A great interval elapsed between Pentecost and the Feast of Trumpets, answering to the period occupied in the work of the Holy Spirit in the Church Age. Study carefully Isa. 18:3; 27:13 (with contexts), and Joel 2:1–3:21 in connection with the trumpets, and it will be seen that these trumpets, always symbols of testimony, are connected with the regathering and repentance of Israel after the Church Age is ended. This feast, which was held on the first day of the seventh month, Tishri, was immediately followed by the day of atonement.

8 But ye shall offer a burnt-offering unto the LORD for a sweet savour; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year; they shall be unto you without blemish:

40 And Moses told the children of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

Law of vows

30 And Moses spake unto the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.

2 If a man vow a ^svow unto the LORD, or ^hswear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth;

4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all an husband, when she vowed, or uttered ⁱought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband ⁱdisallowed her on the day that he heard it; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her.

9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.

15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.

Midian judged (Num. 25:6-18)

31 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 ^aAvenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shalt thou ^bbe gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and ^cavenge the LORD of ^dMidian.

4 Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the ^eholy instruments, and ^fthe trumpets to blow in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they slew all the ^gmales.

8 And they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, ^hEvi, and Rekem, and ⁱZur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: ^jBalaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their ^kgoodly castles, with fire.

11 And ^lthey took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.

13 ¶ And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them ^mwithout the camp.

14 And Moses was ⁿwroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye ^osaved all the women alive?

16 Behold, ^pthese caused the children of Israel, through the ^qcounsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

17 Now therefore ^rkill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him.

18 But all the ^swomen children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive ^tfor yourselves.

19 And do ye abide ^uwithout the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the ^vbrass, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water.

24 And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.

Booty distributed

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the ^achief fathers of the congregation:

27 And divide the prey into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation:

28 And levy a ^btribute unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the ^cbeeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep:

29 Take it of their half, and ^dgive it unto Eleazar the priest, for an heave-offering of the LORD.

30 And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take ^eone portion of fifty, of the persons, of the ^cbeeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, ^fwhich keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep,

33 And threescore and twelve thousand ^cbeeves,

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.

36 And the half, which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep:

37 And the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen.

38 And the ^cbeeves were thirty and six thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and twelve.

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and one.

40 And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was thirty and two persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's heave-offering, unto Eleazar the priest, ^gas the LORD commanded Moses.

42 And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men that warred, 43 (Now the half that pertained unto the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred sheep,

44 And thirty and six thousand ^cbeeves,

45 And thirty thousand asses and five hundred,

46 And sixteen thousand persons;)

47 Even of the children ^hof Israel's half, Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Levites, which kept the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

48 ¶ And the officers which were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Moses:

49 And they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us.

50 We have therefore ⁱbrought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and ^jtablets, to make an ^katonement for our ^lsouls before the LORD.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even all wrought jewels.

52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty ^mshekels.

Reuben and Gad settle in Gilead

32 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a ^bvery great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of ^cJazer, and the land of ^dGilead, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle;

² The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying,

³ ^eAtaroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and ^fHeshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

⁴ Even the country which the LORD ^gsmote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle:

⁵ Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over Jordan.

⁶ ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here?

⁷ And wherefore ^hdiscourage ye the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them?

⁸ Thus did your fathers, ⁱwhen I sent them from ^jKadesh-barnea to see the land.

⁹ For ^kwhen they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

¹⁰ And the LORD's anger was kindled the same time, and he sware, ^lsaying,

¹¹ Surely ^mnone of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me:

¹² Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun: ⁿfor they have wholly followed the LORD.

¹³ And ^othe LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed.

¹⁴ And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the ^pfierce anger of the LORD toward Israel.

¹⁵ For if ye ^qturn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people.

¹⁶ ¶ And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:

¹⁸ ^tWe will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance.

¹⁹ For we will not inherit with them on ^uyonder side Jordan, or ^vforward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward.

²⁰ ¶ And ^wMoses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the LORD to war,

²¹ And will go all of you armed over Jordan before the LORD, until he hath driven out his enemies from before him, hold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure ^ayour sin will find you out.

24 Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and ^bdo that which hath proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead:

27 But thy servants will pass over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:

29 And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession:

30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours.

33 And Moses ^cgave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof ^din the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

34 ¶ And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer,

35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah,

36 And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, ^efenced cities: and folds for sheep.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baal-meon, (their names being changed,) and Shibmah: and gave other names unto the cities which they builded.

39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorite which was in it.

40 And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein.

41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them Havoth-jair.

42 And Nobah went and took Kenath, and the villages thereof, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

35:6 cities for refuge. Here in vv. 6,9-28 the general command is given to set aside six cities of refuge, three on each side of the Jordan River (v. 14). In Dt. 4:41-43, Moses sets aside three cities east of the Jordan (Bezer, Ramoth, and Golan, v. 43) prior to the conquest of Canaan. Joshua 20 records the law of the cities of refuge and tells of the assignment by Joshua of three cities west of the river (Kedesh, Shechem, and Kirjath-arba, v. 7). Here, too, reassignment of the three cities on the other side of the Jordan is recorded (v. 8). The law of the cities of refuge is recounted in detail in Dt. 19:1-13, and they are alluded to in Ex. 21:13.

The cities of refuge are illustrative of Christ sheltering the sinner from judgment (Rom. 8:1,33-34; Heb. 6:17-20; compare. Ps. 46:1; 142:5).

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan;

11 Then ye shall appoint you cities to be ^acities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person at ^bunawares.

12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the ^cavenger; ^dthat the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment.

13 And of these cities which ye shall give six cities shall ye have for refuge.

14 ^eYe shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them: that every one that killeth any person ^funawares may flee thither.

16 And if he ^gsmite him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 And if he smite him with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The ^hrevenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he thrust him of hatred, or hurl at him ⁱby ^jlaying of wait, that he die;

21 Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die: he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the ^krevenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

22 ^lBut if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without ^jlaying of wait,

23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm:

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the ^krevenger of blood according to these ^mjudgments:

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the ^krevenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come ⁿwithout the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the ^krevenger of blood find him ⁿwithout the borders of the city of his refuge, and the ^krevenger of blood kill the slayer; he shall not be guilty of blood:

mained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 ^aWhoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the ^bmouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover ye shall take no ^csatisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death.

32 And ye shall take no ^csatisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for blood it ^ddefileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the ^eblood of him that shed it.

34 ^fDefile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for ^gI the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.

As to inheritance

36 And the ^hchief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and ⁱspake before Moses, and before the princes, the ^hchief fathers of the children of Israel:

2 And they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the ^jinheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the ^kjubile of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph ^lhath said well.

6 This is the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best; only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry.

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel ^mremove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And ⁿevery daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance ^oremove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad:

11 For ^pMahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their father's brothers' sons:

12 And they were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 ^qThese are the commandments and the ^rjudgments, which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses unto the children of Israel ^sin the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES CALLED DEUTERONOMY

Author:
Moses

Theme:
Law Restated

Date of writing:
c. 1450–1410 B.C.

Background

Deuteronomy begins with a survey of the history of Israel, then enlarges upon some of the basic laws of the preceding books, and concludes with a series of prophecies carrying the history of Israel down to their final return to Palestine.

The title of the book is from the Septuagint and the Vulgate, and means The Second Law. The Hebrew title is Debarim, literally, Words.

The book chiefly consists of the final discourses of Moses given on the plains of Moab, opposite Palestine, shortly before his death.

The Old Testament in the New

Deuteronomy is referred to over eighty times in the New Testament and was quoted by Christ more than any other Old Testament book. Prominent in the book are the concepts of God's love and man's obedience.

The declaration in Deuteronomy 6:4–5 is quoted by our Lord as the chief of all the commandments (Matthew 22:37–38). It is with three sentences (6:13,16; 8:3) from this book that Christ defeats the three temptations of the Evil One (Matthew 4:1–10). The Law of Divorce (24:1) is referred to in Matthew 5:31 and 19:7. Other noticeable references are that in Romans 10:6–8 to Deuteronomy 30:12–14, the double reference (1 Corinthians 9:9; 1 Timothy 5:18) to the law against muzzling the ox, and the references to the Song of Moses (32:21,35–36,43) in Romans 10:19; 12:19; and Hebrews 10:30.

1 These be the words which Moses spake unto all ^aIsrael on this ^bside Jordan in the wilderness, in the ^cplain ^dover against the Red sea, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

2 (There are eleven days' journey from ^eHoreb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadesh-barnea.)

3 And it came to pass in the ^ffortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first ^gday of the month, that Moses ^hspake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them;

4 After he had slain ⁱSihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Astaroth in Edrei:

5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The LORD our God spake unto us in ^jHoreb, saying, Ye have ^kdwelt long enough in this mount:

7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the ^lmount of the Amorites, and unto all the ^mplaces ⁿhigh thereunto, in the ^oplain, in the hills, and in the ^pvale, and in the ^qsouth, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates.

8 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD ^rsware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them.

9 ¶ And I ^sspake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 The LORD your God hath ^tmultiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.

11 (The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!)

12 How can I myself alone bear your ^ucumbrance, and your burden, and your strife?

13 ^vTake you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.

14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took the ^wchief of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the ^xstranger that is with him.

17 Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the ^ycause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that

1:1 the plain. When used with the definite article only, it refers to the valley which runs from the Sea of Galilee to the Gulf of Aqaba. South of the Dead Sea the name is still retained (Wady el-Arabah).

1:2 eleven days' journey. Because of Israel's unbelief, when they would not enter Canaan after hearing the report of the spies that Moses sent from the wilderness of Paran into the land of promise (Num. 13:1-14:39), a journey which should have required eleven days was prolonged to forty years. See Num. 14:23, note.

1:3 eleventh month. This is the month of Shebat in the Hebrew religious calendar. It correlates to the modern months of January-February. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2. spake. Approximately 1407 b.c. See Ex. 1:8, note.

1:7 vale. The "vale" or Shephelah is a section of the Holy Land bounded on the north by the Valley of Ajalon, on the west by the Maritime Plain, on the east by the Central Plateau, and reaching to Beer-sheba in the south. It is characterized by low, rounded chalk hills divided by several broad valleys.

time all the things which ye should do.

19 ¶ And when we departed from ^aHoreb, we went through all that ^bgreat and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we ^ccame to Kadesh-barnea.

20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ And ^dye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying pleased me well: and I ^etook twelve men of you, one of a tribe:

24 ^fAnd they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.

25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a ^ggood land which the LORD our God doth give us.

26 ^hNotwithstanding ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God:

27 And ye ⁱmurmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, ^jThe people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakims there.

29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, ^kneither be afraid of them.

30 The LORD your God which goeth before you, ^lhe shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God bare thee, as a ^mman doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

32 Yet in this thing ⁿye did not believe the LORD your God,

33 Who went in the way ^obefore you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was ^pwroth, and sware, saying,

35 ^qSurely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers,

36 ^rSave Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath ^swholly followed the LORD.

37 ^tAlso the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.

38 ^uBut ^vJoshua the son of Nun, which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: ^wencourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover ^xyour little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But ^yas for you, ^zturn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, We have ^zsinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our

Caleb: a dog. The spy of Israel from the tribe of Judah who was convinced the Israelites could conquer the Promised Land with God's help. Because of this confidence he was allowed to enter the Promised Land.

God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, ^aGo not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but ^brebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went ^cpresumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and ^ddestroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And ye returned and wept before the LORD; ^ebut the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 So ye abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

Wanderings and further conflicts of the wilderness

2 Then we turned, and ^ftook our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, as the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed mount Seir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain ^glong enough: turn you northward.

4 And command thou the people, saying, Ye are to ^hpass through the ⁱcoast of ^jyour brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore:

5 Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; because I have ^kgiven mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shall buy ^lmeat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he ^mknoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the ⁿplain from ^oElath, and from Ezion-gaber, we ^pturned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have ^qgiven Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession.

10 The ^rEmims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the ^sAnakims;

11 Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims.

12 The ^tHorims also dwelt in Seir ^ubeforetime; but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over the brook ^vZered. And we went over the brook Zered.

14 And the ^wspace in which we came from ^xKadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; ^yuntil all the ^zgeneration of the men of war were ^{aa}wasted out from among the host, ^{bb}as the LORD sware unto them.

16 ¶ So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 That the LORD spake unto me, saying,

18 Thou art to pass over through Ar, the ^acoast of Moab, this day:

19 And when thou comest ^bnigh over against the children of ^cAmmon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it ^dunto the children of Lot for a possession.

25 This day will I begin to put the ⁱdread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall ^jtremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

26 ¶ And I ^ksent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon with ^lwords of peace, saying,

27 Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the LORD thy God ⁿhardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before thee: begin to ^opossess, that thou mayest inherit his land.

32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz.

king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at ^aEdrei.

2 And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto ^bSihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.

4 And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of ^cArgob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were ^dfenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwall'd towns a great many.

6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, ^eutterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city.

7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the ^fland that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount ^gHermon;

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Shenir;)

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of ^hgiants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; ⁱis it not in ^jRabbath of the children of Ammon? nine ^kcubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

Og's land given to the two and one-half tribes

12 And this ^lland, which we possessed at that time, from ^mAroer, which ⁿis by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, ^ogave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 ^pAnd the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, ^qbeing the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.

14 ^rJair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob unto the ^scoasts of Geshuri and Maachathi; and called them after his own name, Bashan-havoth-jair, unto this day.

15 And I gave ^tGilead unto Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon half the valley, and the border even unto the river Jabbok, ^uwhich is the border of the children of Ammon;

17 The ^vplain also, and Jordan, and the ^wcoast thereof, from ^xChinnereth even unto the sea of the ^yplain, ^zeven the salt sea, under ^{aa}Ashdoth-pisgah eastward.

18 ¶ And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: ^{bb}ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all ^{cc}that are ^{dd}meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (^{ee}for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 Until the LORD have given ^{ff}rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and ^{gg}until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and ^{hh}then shall ye ⁱⁱreturn every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

21 ¶ And ^{jj}I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for ^{kk}the LORD your God he shall fight for you.

24 O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and ^athy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

25 I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the LORD ^bwas ^cwroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for ^dthou shalt not go over this Jordan.

28 ^eBut charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in the valley over against ^fBeth-peor.

New generation taught greatness of the law

4 Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the ^gstatutes and unto the ^hjudgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you.

2 ⁱYe shall not add unto the ^jword which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ^kought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of ^lBaal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and ^mjudgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them; ⁿfor this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who ^ohath God so ⁿhigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and ^pjudgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and ^qkeep thy soul diligently, lest thou ^rforget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but ^steach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons;

10 Specially the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in ^tHoreb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to ^ufear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness.

12 And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; ^vonly ye heard a voice.

13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ^wten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone.

Three cities of refuge east of the Jordan

41 ¶ Then Moses ^ksevered three cities on this side Jordan toward the sunrising;

42 ^lThat the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour ^munawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live:

43 Namely, ⁿBezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.

44 ¶ And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ⁿjudg-

46 On this side Jordan, in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel ^osmote, after they were come forth out of Egypt:

47 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sunrising;

48 From ^pAroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto ^qmount Sion, which is Hermon, 49 And all the ^rplain on this side Jordan eastward, even unto the sea of the ^rplain, under the springs of Pishgah.

22 ¶ These ^lwords the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And he ^mwrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.

23 And it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;

24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he ⁿliveth.

25 Now therefore why should we ^odie? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.

26 For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and ^pspeak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it.

28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have ^qspoken.

Essence of the law (vv. 4-5)

6 Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the ^bjudgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might ^fdo them in the land whither ye go to possess it:

2 That thou mightest ^gfear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.

3 ¶ Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; ^hthat it may be well with thee, and that ye may ⁱincrease mightily, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the ^jland that floweth with milk and honey.

4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is ^kone /LORD:

5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine ^mheart:

7 And thou shalt ⁿteach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

8 And thou shalt ^obind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

9 And ^pthou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

10 And it shall be, when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst ^qnot,

11 And houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; ^rwhen thou shalt have eaten and be full;

12 Then beware lest thou forget the ^sLORD, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt ^tfear the LORD thy God, and serve ^uhim, and shalt swear by his ^vname.

6:4 "Shema" (pronounced Sh'mah) is the initial Hebrew word of this verse; the entire verse is recited as the Jewish confession of faith. In Hebrew liturgy the Shema includes Dt. 6:4-9; 11:13-21; and Num. 15:37-41. The Shema is understood to emphasize the monotheistic belief of Judaism. Moses is credited with the commandment to read the Shema twice daily ("when thou liest down, and when thou risest up"), and the Jews have always regarded it as divinely prescribed. At the end of the first and last word of the sentence in the Hebrew text, large letters are used. They were meant to emphasize, according to Jewish tradition, the need for pronouncing these important words distinctly and without slur.

LOVE: A THEME OF DEUTERONOMY

The concept of love is one of the great themes of Deuteronomy. There is first the declaration of God's love for His people (7:7; 10:15; 23:5); then the exhortation that God's people should always love Him with their whole being (6:5; 10:12; 11:1,13,22; 19:9; 30:6, 16,20); and finally the exhortation that they love even the stranger among them (10:19). Our Lord sums up all these earlier commands in His address to the Pharisees on "the first and great commandment" (Mt. 22:34-40; Mk. 12:28-34, where He refers also to Lev. 19:18. Compare Lk. 10:27).

15 (For the LORD thy God is a jealous God among you) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

16 ¶ Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted him in Massah.

17 Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore unto thy fathers, 19 To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath spoken.

20 And when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God hath commanded you?

21 Then thou shalt say unto thy son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand:

22 And the LORD shewed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes:

23 And he brought us out from thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore unto our fathers.

24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day.

25 And it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he hath commanded us.

Results of obedience and disobedience (Dt. 7-12). The command to be separate

7 When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou;

2 And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them:

3 Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

4 For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly.

5 But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire.

6 For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

6:16 tempt the LORD. The concept of testing or temptation is expressed in both the O.T. and N.T. not only by the words translated "test" or "tempt," but also by the words rendered "provoke," "snare," "trials," etc. (e.g. Gen. 22:1; Ps. 7:9; 11:5; Lk. 22:28; Jas. 1:2; 1 Pet. 1:6; cp. Job 31:27; Prov. 22:25; Isa. 3:8.) The primary meaning is usually that of proving by testing, or testing under trial. Less frequently the sense is that of enticement or solicitation to evil (e.g. Jas. 1:13-14; Gen. 3:1-6; 2 Cor. 11:3-4).

6:23 bring us in. Redemption must always be followed by sanctification and growth in grace. God has not "brought us out" in order to leave us wandering in the wilderness.

7:1 Hittites. Until the twentieth century the Hittites were unknown apart from the Bible. This once puzzling reference to them has, however, been illuminated by the findings of archaeology. From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000-1800 B.C. and about 1400-1200 B.C.

7:6 a special people unto himself. Literally a people for his own possession. Ex. 19:5; Dt. 14:2; 26:18; cp. Ti. 2:14; 1 Pet. 2:9.

7 The LORD did not set his ^alove upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people:

8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of ^bbondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 Know therefore that the LORD thy God, ^che is God, the faithful God, ^dwhich keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations;

10 And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be ^eslack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face.

11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the ^fjudgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

Promise of victory

12 ¶ Wherefore ^git shall come to pass, if ye hearken to these ^fjudgments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he sware unto thy fathers:

13 And he will ^hlove thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy ⁱcorn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy ^jkine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female ^kbarren among you, or among your cattle.

15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the ^levil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all ^mthem that hate thee.

16 And thou shalt consume all the people which the LORD thy God shall deliver thee; ⁿthine eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a ⁿsnare unto thee.

17 If thou shalt say in thine heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?

18 Thou shalt not be afraid of them: but shalt well remember what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt;

19 ^oThe great temptations which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the ^pstretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out: so shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid.

20 Moreover the LORD thy God will send ^qthe hornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

21 Thou shalt not be ^raffrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty God and ^sterrible.

22 And the LORD thy God will put out those nations before thee ^tby little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.

23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed.

24 And he ^ushall deliver their kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before ^vthee, until thou have destroyed them.

25 The ^wgraven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not ^xdesire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be ^ysnared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God.

26 Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God ^bled thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to ^cprove thee, to know what was in thine ^eheart, whether thou wouldst keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread ^fonly, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

4 Thy ^graiment ^hwaxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 ⁱThou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to ^jfear him.

7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a ^kgood land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

10 When thou hast eaten and art ^mfull, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his ⁿjudgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

12 ^oLest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14 ^pThen thine heart be lifted up, and thou ^qforget the LORD thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were ^rfiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the ^srock of flint;

16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, ^twhich thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might ^uprove thee, ^vto do thee good at thy latter end;

17 And thou say in thine heart, ^wMy power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth.

18 But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for it is ^xhe that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, ^yI testify against you this day that ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the LORD destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God.

verbs: "to . . . prove you, to know . . ."

8:6 fear him. "The fear of the LORD" is an O.T. expression meaning reverential trust, including the hatred of evil.

thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God is he which ^agoeth over before thee; as a ^bconsuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee.

4 ^cSpeak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but ^dfor the ^ewickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee.

5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the ^fword which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a ^gstiff-necked people.

7 ¶ Remember, and forget not, how thou ^hprovokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 Also in ⁱHoreb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the ^jtables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount ^kforty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 ^lAnd the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone ^mwritten with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 ⁿAnd the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a ^omolten image.

13 Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people:

14 ^pLet me alone, that I may destroy them, and ^qblot out their name from under heaven: and I will ^rmake of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 ^sSo I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a ^tmolten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and ^ubrake them before your eyes.

18 And I ^vfell down before the LORD, as at the ^wfirst, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was ^xwroth against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I ^ycast the 24 Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I ^eprayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, destroy not thy people and ^fthine inheritance, which thou hast ^gredeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin:

28 Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy ^hstretched out arm.

God's mercy in replacing broken tables of the law

10 At that time the LORD ⁱsaid unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ⁱark of wood.

2 And ^kI will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark.

4 And he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ^oten commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

8 ¶ At that time the LORD ^tseparated the tribe of Levi, to ^ubear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD ^vto minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 Wherefore Levi hath ^wno part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD ^xis his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, ^yforty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee.

11 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, take ^zthy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I swear unto their fathers to give unto them.

heaven of heavens is the ^aLORD's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is.

15 ^bOnly the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he ^cchose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your ^dheart, and be no more ^estiffnecked.

17 For the LORD your God is ^fGod of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and ^ga terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward:

18 He doth execute the ^hjudgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the ⁱstranger, in giving him food and raiment.

19 Love ye therefore the ^jstranger: for ye were ^kstrangers in the land of Egypt.

20 Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name.

21 He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and ^lterrible things, which thine eyes have seen.

22 ^mThy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the LORD ⁿthy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude.

Importance of heeding God's Word

11 Therefore thou shalt love the LORD thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his ^ojudgments, and his commandments, always.

2 And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his ^pstretched out arm,

3 And his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after ^qyou, and how the LORD hath destroyed them unto this day;

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place;

6 And ^rwhat he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

7 But your eyes have ^sseen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it;

9 And that ye may ^tprolong your days in the land, which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 ¶ For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of ^uEgypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a ^vland of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven:

12 A land which the LORD thy God careth for: the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

13 ¶ And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 That I will give you the ^wrain of your land in his due season, the ^xfirst rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy ^ycorn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them;

17 And then the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be ^bno rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ^cye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

18 ¶ Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your ^dheart and in your ^esoul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 And ye shall ^fteach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

21 That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, ^has the days of heaven upon the earth.

22 ¶ ⁱFor if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him;

23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

24 ^jEvery place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, ^kfrom the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea shall your ^lcoast be.

25 There shall no man be able to ^mstand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the ⁿdread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.

26 ¶ ^oBehold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse;

27 A ^pblessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day:

28 And a ^qcurse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put the ^rblessing upon mount Gerizim, and the ^scurse upon mount Ebal.

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, ^tin the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the ^uchampaign over against ^vGilgal, beside the plains of Moreh?

31 For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and ^wjudgments which I set before you this day.

Law of the central sanctuary

12 These are the statutes and ^xjudgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, ^yall the days that ye live upon the earth.

2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree:

3 ^zAnd ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their ^{aa}groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the ^{bb}graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.

Test of false prophets

13 If there arise among you a prophet, or a ^hdreamer of dreams, ⁱand giveth thee a sign or a wonder,

2 And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, ^jLet us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;

3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God ^kproveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

4 Ye shall walk after the LORD your God, and ^lfear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him.

5 And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to ^mdeath; because he hath spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and ⁿredeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of ^othee.

6 ¶ If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the ^pwife of thy bosom, or thy friend, which is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers;

7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, ^qnigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth;

8 Thou shalt not consent unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither shall thine eye ^rpity him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceal him:

9 But thou shalt surely kill him; thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to ^sdeath, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

11 And all Israel shall hear, and ^tfear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.

12 ¶ And ^aif thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be ^bsold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.

15 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a ^cbondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God ^dredeemed thee; therefore I command thee this thing to day.

The perpetual servant (Ps. 40:6-8)

16 And it shall be, if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee;

17 Then thou shalt take an aul, and thrust it through his ^eear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy ^fmaid-servant thou shalt do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a double hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

19 ¶ All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt ^gsanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep.

20 Thou shalt eat it before the LORD thy God year by year in the ^hplace which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household.

21 And if there be any ⁱblemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.

22 Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the ^jroe-buck, and as the hart.

23 Only thou shalt not eat the blood thereof; thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

The Passover

16 ^kObserve the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the LORD thy God: for in the month of Abib the LORD thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night.

2 Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the LORD thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the ^lplace which the LORD shall choose to place his name there.

3 Thou shalt eat no ^mleavened bread with it; ⁿseven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that thou mayest ^oremember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

4 And there shall be ^pno leavened bread seen with thee in all thy ^qcoast seven days; neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the ^rmorning.

5 Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee:

6 ^sBut at the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt.

16:1 Compare the order of the feasts in Lev. 23. Here the passover and the feast of tabernacles are given special emphasis as marking the beginning and the consummation of God's ways with Israel: the former speaking of redemption, the foundation of all; the latter, of regathered Israel blessed in the kingdom. Between, in Dt. 16:9-12, comes the feast of weeks—the joy of a redeemed people anticipating greater blessing yet to come. Cp. Rom. 5:1-2. Abib. This is the first month in the Hebrew religious calendar, also called Nisan. It correlates to the modern months of March-April. For more information on the Hebrew religious calendar, see the note at Lev. 23:2.

turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents.

8 Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work therein.

The Feast of Weeks

9 ¶ Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn.

10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with a tribute of a freewill-offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, according as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

11 And thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to place his name there.

12 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

The Feast of Tabernacles

13 ¶ Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine:

14 And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15 Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose: because the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

The gifts of the males

16 ¶ Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the LORD empty:

17 Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

Judges in the gates

18 ¶ Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment.

19 Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

20 That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

21 ¶ Thou shalt not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the LORD thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

22 Neither shalt thou set thee up any image; which the LORD thy God hateth.

Offerings must be unblemished

17 Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evilfavouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

11 ⁱAccording to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew

Concerning a king

14 ¶ When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and ^kshalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, ^lI will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me;

15 Thou shalt ^min any wise set ⁿhim king over thee, ^owhom the LORD thy God shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a ^pstranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

16 ^qBut he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor ^rcause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that ^shis heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and ^tgold.

18 ^uAnd it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall ^vwrite him a copy of this law in a book out of that which is ^wbefore the priests the Levites:

19 And it shall be with him, and he shall ^xread therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to ^yfear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them:

20 ^zThat his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may ^{aa}prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

18 The priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor ^ainheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance.

2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 ¶ And this shall be the priest's ^bdue from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the ^cmaw.

4 The firstfruit also of thy ^dcorn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him.

5 For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

6 ¶ And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind unto the ^eplace which the LORD shall choose;

7 Then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the LORD.

8 They shall have like portions to eat, beside that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

18:10 PROSCRIBED PRACTICES OF SACRIFICE

This is an important passage concerning proscribed practices of sacrifice, and of inquiry concerning the future, which were followed by the heathen nations. The item of sacrifice that is condemned had to do with the worship of Molech (cp. Lev. 18:21; 20:2-5; Dt. 12:31; Jer. 19:5; Ezek. 16:21; 23:37).

The eight banned practices for determining future actions are those of

- (1) witchcraft;
- (2) a soothsayer—possibly referring to conjuring or astrology;
- (3) one who interprets omens;
- (4) a sorcerer—one who makes use of magic formulas or incantation;
- (5) one who conjures spells;
- (6) a medium—see (7);
- (7) a spiritist, often used with (6)—Is. 8:19 describes the practice; and
- (8) one who calls up the dead.

Two things should be kept in mind:

(1) this commandment had specific application to Israel's entering the land; it was made to preserve them from the abominations of their predecessors (vv. 9,12,14); and

(2) the contrast between these false prophets and the prophet like Moses is clearly intended (vv. 15-19).

18:1 Levites. The Levites derive their name from the fact that they were of the tribe of Levi. Levi had three sons: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari (Gen. 46:11). Kohath's grandsons were Moses and Aaron through Amram (see Ex. 6:16-20; Num. 3:14-24; 1 Chr. 6:1-48). All true priests in Israel were descendants of Aaron; hence they are known as the Aaronic priesthood (Ex. 28:1ff.; 31:10; Lev. 8:2ff.; 9:1ff.; Num. 3:1-4). They did not, as other tribes, have a definite portion of the land assigned them, but lived in various towns and cities (Josh. 21).

18:13 perfect. That is, upright, or sincere. Cp. Gen. 17:1; Mt. 5:48.

18:15 Prophet. That the allusion in vv. 15-19 is to the Lord Jesus Christ is made clear by the N.T. (Jn. 1:21,45; 6:14; Acts 3:22-23; 7:37).

like unto me; unto him ye shall ^ahearken;

16 ^bAccording to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not.

17 And the LORD said unto me, They have well spoken that which they have ^cspoken.

18 I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto ^dthee, and will ^eput my words into his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

19 ^fAnd it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.

Test of the prophets

20 But the ^gprophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or ^hthat shall speak in the name of other ⁱgods, even that prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?

22 When a ^jprophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it ^kpresumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.

Cities of refuge (Num. 35:1-34)

19 When the LORD thy God hath cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses;

2 ^lThou shalt ^mseparate three ⁿcities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

3 Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the ^ocoasts of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

4 ¶ And this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: Whoso killeth his neighbour ^pignorantly, whom he hated not in time past;

5 As when a man goeth into the ^qwood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand ^rfetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slippeth from the helve, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live:

6 Lest the ^savenger of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt ^tseparate three cities for thee.

8 And if the LORD thy God ^uenlarge thy ^vcoast, as he hath sworn unto thy ^wfathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers;

9 If thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these ^xthree:

10 That ^yinnocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

11 ¶ But if any man ^zhate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite

19:2 cities. The general command is given to set aside six cities of refuge, three on each side of the Jordan River (Num. 35:14). In Dt. 4:41-43, Moses sets aside three cities east of the Jordan (Bezer, Ramoth, and Golan, v. 43) prior to the conquest of Canaan. Joshua 20 records the law of the cities of refuge and tells of the assignment by Joshua of three cities west of the river (Kedesh, Shechem, and Kir-jath-arba, v. 7). Here, too, reassignment of the three cities on the other side of the Jordan is recorded (v. 8). The law of the cities of refuge is recounted in detail here in Dt. 19:1-13, and they are alluded to in Ex. 21:13.

The cities of refuge are illustrative of Christ sheltering the sinner from judgment (Rom. 8:1,33-34; Heb. 6:17-20; cp. Ps. 46:1; 142:5).

The sacred landmark

14 ¶ Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's ^blandmark, which thy of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

Terror of the law

15 ¶ One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three ^cwitnesses, shall the matter be established.

16 ¶ If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is ^dwrong;

17 Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the ^ejudges, which shall be in those days;

18 And the judges shall make diligent ^finquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother;

19 Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.

20 And those which remain shall hear, and ^gfear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

21 And thine eye shall ^hnot pity; but ⁱlife shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Law of warfare

20 When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses, and ^jchariots, and a people more than thou, be not ^kafraid of them: for the LORD thy

God is with thee, which brought ^lthee up out of the land of Egypt.

2 And it shall be, when ye are come ^mnigh unto the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak unto the people,

3 And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not, and do not tremble, ⁿneither be ye terrified because of them;

4 For the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, ^oto fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 ¶ And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not ^pyet eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.

7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a ^qwife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.

8 And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, ^rWhat man is there that is fearful and fainthearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren's heart faint as well as his heart.

9 And it shall be, when the officers have ^smade an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

^athou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword:

14 But the women, and the little ones, and the ^bcattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself; and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of ^cthese people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth:

17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely, the ^dHittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their ^eabominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye ^fsin against the LORD your God.

19 ¶ When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the ^gtrees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege:

20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for ^hmeat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

Inquest for the slain

21 If one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:

2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

3 And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take an heifer, which hath not ⁱbeen wrought with, and which hath not ^jdrawn in the ^kyoke;

4 And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither ^lplowed nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley:

5 ^mAnd the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried:

6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

8 Be ⁿmerciful, O LORD, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast ^oredeemed, and lay not ^pinnocent blood unto thy people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them.

9 ^qSo shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

20:17 Hittite. Until the twentieth century the Hittites were unknown apart from the Bible. This once puzzling reference to them has, however, been illuminated by the findings of archaeology. From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000–1800 B.C. and about 1400–1200 B.C.

^ashave her head, and ^bpare her nails;

13 And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife.

14 And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her ^cgo whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her.

15 ¶ If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another ^dhated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers that was hated:

16 Then it shall be, when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn:

17 But he shall ^eacknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his ^fstrength; the ^gright of the firstborn is his.

A disobedient son under law
(cp. Lk. 15:11-23)

18 ¶ If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them:

19 Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place;

20 And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard.

21 And all the men of his city shall stone him with ^hstones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and ⁱfear.

22 ¶ And if a man have committed a sin worthy of ^jdeath, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree:

23 ^kHis body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt ^lin any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is ^maccursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

Law of brotherhood

22 Thou ⁿshalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and ^ohide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother.

2 And if thy brother be not ^pnigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again.

3 In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with all lost thing of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not ^qhide thyself.

4 ¶ Thou ^rshalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and ^shide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

5 ¶ The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

6 ¶ If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, ^tthou shalt not take the dam with the young:

7 But thou shalt ^uin any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; ^vthat it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days.

Innocent wife

13 ¶ If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and ^hhate her,

14 And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

15 Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate:

16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man ⁱto wife, and he hateth her;

17 And, lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him;

19 And they shall ^jamerce him in an hundred ^kshekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her ^laway all his days.

20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with ^mstones that she die: because she hath ⁿwrought folly in Israel, to play the ^owhore in her father's house: so shalt thou put evil away from among you.

22 ¶ If a man be found lying with a woman married to an ^phusband, then they shall both of them ^qdie, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Israel.

23 ¶ If a damsel that is a virgin be betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her;

24 Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they ^rdie; the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbour's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you.

25 ¶ But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her shall die:

26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter:

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.

28 ¶ If a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found;

29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father ^sfifty ^tshekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

5 ¶ If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no

10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed.

Amalek: Also known as Amalekites. This nation was an enemy of Israel. They fought the Israelites shortly after they had left Egypt, but, in turn were defeated by Israel with God's help (Ex. 17:8-16). They remained an enemy of Israel through the reign of David.

Amalek to be judged

17 ¶ ^aRemember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt;

18 How he met thee by the way, and smote ^bthe hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God.

19 Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it.

(cp. Ex. 23:16-19)

26 And it shall be, when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein;

2 That thou shalt take of the ^cfirst of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there.

3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us.

4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God.

5 And thou shalt speak and ^dsay before the LORD thy God, A ^eSyrian /ready to perish was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and so-journed there with a ^ffew, and became there a nation, ^ggreat, mighty, and populous:

6 And the ^hEgyptians /evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage:

7 And ^kwhen we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression:

8 And the ⁱLORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with ^mgreat terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders:

9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a ⁿland that floweth with milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God:

11 And ^othou shalt rejoice in every good thing which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thou, and the Le-vite, and the ^pstranger that is among you.

12 ¶ When thou hast ^qmade an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase the third year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, the ^rstranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled;

13 Then thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of mine house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the ^sstranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them:

14 ^rI have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away ^sought thereof for any unclean use, nor given ^sought thereof for the dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.

15 Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

17 Thou hast ^bavouched the LORD this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ^cjudgments, and to ^dhear-ken unto his voice:

18 And the LORD hath ^eavouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldst keep all his commandments;

19 And to make thee ^fhigh above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be an holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.

III. Third Discourse: Blessings and Curses for Obedience and Disobedience, 27–28

The stones of the law in mount Ebal

27 And Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day.

2 And it shall be on the ^gday when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt ^hset thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister:

3 And thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the ⁱland which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore it shall be when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in mount ^jEbal, and thou shalt plaister them with plaister.

5 ^kAnd there shalt thou build an altar unto the LORD thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them.

6 Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God:

7 And thou shalt offer peace-offerings, and shalt eat there, and ^lre-joice before the LORD thy God.

8 And thou shalt ^mwrite upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.

Blessings and curses from Ebal and Gerizim

9 ¶ And Moses and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel; this day ⁿthou art become the ^opeople of the LORD thy God.

10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

11 ¶ And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand ^pupon mount Gerizim to bless the people, when ye are come over Jordan; ^qSimeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin:

13 And these shall stand ^rupon mount Ebal to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 ¶ And the ^sLevites shall speak, and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice, 15 ^tCursed be the man that maketh any ^ugraven or ^vmolten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

16 ^wCursed be he that ^xsetteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

17 ^yCursed be he that removeth his neighbour's landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen.

thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

8 The LORD shall ^acommand the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9 The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

10 And all people of the earth shall see that thou art ^bcalled by the name of the LORD; and they shall be ^cafraid of thee.

11 And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the ^drain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not ^eborrow.

13 And the LORD shall make thee the ^fhead, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14 ^gAnd thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Those things that bring a curse

15 ¶ ^hBut it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

16 Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy ⁱkine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

20 The LORD shall send upon thee ^jcursing, ^k vexation, and ^l rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, ^muntil thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

21 ⁿThe LORD shall make the pestilence ^ocleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with ^pblasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be ^qbrass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

37 And thou shalt become ⁱan astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.

38 Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little ^jin; for the ^klocust shall consume it.

39 Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the ^lwine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

40 ^mThou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy ⁿcoasts, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olive shall cast his fruit.

41 ^oThou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity.

42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust consume.

43 The ^pstranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.

44 ^qHe shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the ^rhead, and thou shalt be the tail.

45 Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee:

46 And they shall be upon ^sthee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

47 Because thou ^tservedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things;

48 Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in ^uhunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in ^vwant of all things: and he ^wshall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

Invasion

49 The LORD shall bring a ^xnation against thee from far, from the end of the ^yearth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

50 A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the ^zyoung:

51 And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either ^{aa}corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy ^{bb}kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

53 And thou shalt eat the ^afruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the ^bstraitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

54 So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the ^bstraitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56 The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not ^cadventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

59 Then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and ^hsore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

60 Moreover ⁱhe will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall ^jcleave unto thee.

61 Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD bring upon thee, ^kuntil thou be destroyed.

62 And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were ^las the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

World-wide dispersion

63 And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD ^mwill rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to ⁿnought; and ye shall be ^oplucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

64 And the LORD shall ^pscatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

65 And ^qamong these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life:

67 In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

68 And the LORD shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more ^ragain: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for ^sbondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you.

IV. Fourth Discourse: The Palestinian Covenant; Its Warnings and Promised Blessings, 29-30

Review of the past

29 These are the words of the covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the ^acovenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 ¶ And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, ^bYe have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land;

3 The great ^ctemptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles:

4 Yet the ^dLORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes ^eare not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe ^eis not waxen old upon thy ^ffoot.

6 Ye have not eaten ^gbread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I ^{am} the LORD your God.

7 And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we ^hsmote them:

8 And we took their land, and ⁱgave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh.

Obedience will bring blessing

9 Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, ^kthat ye may prosper in all that ye do.

10 ¶ Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, ^{with} all the men of Israel,

11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy ^lstranger that is in thy camp, from the ^mhewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water:

12 That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:

13 That he may establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a ⁿGod, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

14 Neither with you ^oonly do I make this covenant and this oath;

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day:

Warning against disobedience

16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;

17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, ^pwood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; ^qlest there should be among you a root that beareth ^rgall and wormwood;

19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst:

20 The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy shall ^ssmoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall ^tblot out his name from under heaven.

21 And the LORD shall ^useparate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the ^vlaw:

22 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the ^wstranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they ^xsee the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD hath laid upon it;

23 And that the ^ywhole land

24 Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great ^banger?

25 Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt:

26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he had not given unto them:

27 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book:

28 And the LORD ^crooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.

29 The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are ^drevealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

30:5 No passage of Scripture has found fuller confirmation in the events of history than Dt. 28—30. In A.D. 70 the Jewish nation was scattered throughout the world because of disobedience and rejection of Christ. In worldwide dispersion they experienced exactly the punishments foretold by Moses. On the other hand, when the nation walked in conformity with the will of God, it enjoyed the blessing and protection of God. In the twentieth century the exiled people were restored to their homeland.

THE PALESTINIAN COVENANT

The Palestinian Covenant gives the conditions under which Israel entered the land of promise. It is important to see that the nation has never as yet taken the land under the unconditional Abrahamic Covenant (see Gen. 12:2, note), nor has it ever possessed the whole land (compare Gen. 15:18 with Num. 34:1–12). The Palestinian Covenant is in seven parts:

- (1) dispersion for disobedience, v. 1 (Dt. 28:63–68; see Gen. 15:18, note);
- (2) the future repentance of Israel while in the dispersion, v. 2;
- (3) the return of the LORD, v. 3 (Amos 9:9–15; Acts 15:14–17);
- (4) restoration to the land, v. 5 (Is. 11:11–12; Jer. 23:3–8; Ezek. 37:21–25);
- (5) national conversion, v. 6 (Hos. 2:14–16; Rom. 11:26–27);
- (6) the judgment of Israel's oppressors, v. 7 (Is. 14:1–2; Joel 3:1–8; Mt. 25:31–46); and
- (7) national prosperity, v. 9 (Amos 9:11–15).

For notes on other major covenants, see: Edenic (Gen. 2:16); Adamic (Gen. 3:15); Noahic (Gen. 9:16); Abrahamic (Gen. 12:2); Mosaic (Ex. 19:5); Davidic (2 Sam. 7:16); New (Heb. 8:8).

thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

7 And the LORD thy God will put all these ^acurse upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

8 And thou shalt ^breturn and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day.

9 ^cAnd the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again ^drejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers:

10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God ^ewith all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

The crucial choice before them

11 ¶ For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12 It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to ^fheaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the word is very ^gnigh unto thee, in thy ^hmouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

15 ¶ See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil;

16 In that I command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his ⁱjudgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

17 But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them;

18 I ^jdenounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it.

19 I call heaven and earth to ^krecord this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, ^lblessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

20 ^mThat thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy ⁿlife, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

V. Conclusion: Final Words and Acts of Moses, and His Death, 31–34

Moses' last counsels to nation, Joshua, and priests

31 And Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel.

2 And he said unto them, I am an ^ohundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more ^pgo out and come in: also the LORD hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The LORD thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and ^qJoshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath said.

4 And the LORD shall do unto them as he did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and unto the land of them, whom he destroyed.

5 And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them ^raccording unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.

8 And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee; ^dhe will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

9 ¶ And Moses wrote this law, and ^edelivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which ^fbare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the *s*year of release, in the feast of tabernacles, 11 When all Israel is come to ^happear before the LORD thy God in the ⁱplace which he shall choose, thou shalt ^jread this law before all Israel in their hearing.

12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy ^kstranger that is within thy gates, that they may ^lhear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law:

13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the ^mland whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

The LORD warns Moses of Israel's apostasy

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, ⁿthy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a ^ocharge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a ^ppillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and ^rthis people ^swill rise up, and ^tgo a whoring after the *u*gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Then my anger shall be ^vkindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?

18 And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of ^wIsrael: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.

20 For ^xwhen I shall have brought them into the land which I swear unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and ^ywaxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

21 And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they ^zgo about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swear.

22 ¶ Moses therefore wrote this ^{aa}song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 ^{bb}And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt

24 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses had ^amade an end of writing the ^bwords of this law in a ^cbook, until they were finished,

25 That Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,

26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

27 For I know thy ^drebellion, and thy ^estiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death?

28 ¶ Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and ^fcall heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For I ^gknow that after my death ye will utterly corrupt your-selves, and ^hturn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the ⁱlatter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

MOSES: THE AUTHOR OF DEUTERONOMY

Certain critics have denied the Mosaic authorship of Deuteronomy.

(1) They point out its difference of style from the preceding books.

(2) They declare that it must be the book found by Josiah which led to his great reform (2 Ki. 22:8—23:27), alleging that Josiah's destruction of the high places, centralizing worship at Jerusalem, was entirely new and was based on Dt. 12. And

(3) they say that the laws of Deuteronomy differ at certain points from those of the first four books of the Pentateuch. There are answers to these objections.

(1) The difference of style is easily explained by the fact that Deuteronomy consists of formal addresses and exhortations orally delivered by Moses, and these would naturally be in a style dissimilar to written narrative and technical law.

(2) Josiah's centralization of worship was not new. Hezekiah had instituted a similar reform a century earlier, and Josh. 22 shows knowledge of the same law at the time of Joshua. And

(3) as for differences in laws between the earlier parts of the Pentateuch and Deuteronomy, these divergences may be explained by the fact that it was necessary for Moses, not only to reiterate the general law applicable to the people under all situations, but also to restate certain laws to fit the changed conditions of settled life scattered over the entire land of Palestine. See notes at Ex. 17:14; Dt. 34:12.

8 When the most High ^adivided to the nations their ^binheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 ^cFor the LORD's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him ^din a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the ^eapple of his eye.

11 ^fAs an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings:

12 So the LORD alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

13 ^hHe made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock;

14 Butter of ⁱkine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape.

Danger of apostasy and judgment

15 ¶ But Jeshurun ^kwaxed ^lfat, and kicked: thou art ^mwaxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

16 ⁿThey provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

17 They sacrificed unto ^odevils, not to God; to ^pgods whom they knew not, to new ^qgods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not.

18 ^rOf the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

19 ^sAnd when the LORD saw it, he abhorred them, ^tbecause of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

20 And he said, ^uI will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very ^vfroward generation, children in whom is no faith.

21 They have moved me to ^wjealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger with their ^xvanities: and ^yI will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 ^zFor a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest ^{aa}hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 I will ^aheap mischiefs upon them; I will spend mine arrows upon them.

24 ^bThey shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with ^cbitter destruction: I will also send the ^dteeth of beasts upon them, with the ^epoison of serpents of the dust.

25 ^fThe sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the ^gyoung man and the virgin, the suckling ^halso with the man of gray hairs.

Mercy and judgment

26 ⁱI said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:

27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely, ^jand lest they should say, ^kOur hand is high, and the LORD hath not done all this.

28 For they ^lare a nation void of counsel, neither ^mis there any understanding in them.

29 ⁿO that they were wise, ^othat they understood this, ^pthat they would consider their ^qlatter end!

30 ^rHow should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had ^ssold them, and the LORD had shut them up?

31 For their rock ^tis not as our Rock, ^uneven our enemies themselves ^vbeing judges.

32 For their vine ^wis of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes ^xare grapes of gall, their clusters ^yare bitter:

33 Their wine ^zis the poison of ^{aa}dragons, and the cruel venom of asps.

34 ^{ab}Is not this laid up in store with me, ^{ac}and sealed up among my treasures?

35 To me ^{ad}belongeth vengeance, and ^{ae}recompence; ^{af}their foot shall slide in ^{ag}due time: for the ^{ah}day of their calamity ^{ai}is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

36 For the LORD shall judge his ^{aj}people, and ^{ak}repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that ^{al}their power is gone, and ^{am}there is none shut up, or left.

37 And he shall say, Where ^{an}are their ^{ao}gods, ^{ap}their rock in whom they trusted, 38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, ^{aq}and drank the wine of their drink-offerings? let them rise up and help you, ^{ar}and be your protection.

39 See now that I, ^{as}even ^{at}vI, ^{au}am he, and ^{av}there is no god with me: ^{aw}I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither ^{ax}is there any that can deliver ^{ay}out of my hand.

40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

41 ^{az}If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment; I will render vengeance to mine ^{ba}enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 ^{bb}I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and ^{bc}my sword shall devour flesh; ^{bd}and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the ^{be}beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

43 ^{bd}Rejoice, O ye nations, ^{bf}with his people: for ^{bg}he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, ^{bh}and will be merciful unto his land, ^{bi}and to his people.

toward which all human life moves (e.g. Gen. 42:38; Job 14:13; Ps. 88:3).

(2) To the man "under the sun," the natural man, who of necessity judges from appearances, Sheol seems no more than the grave—the end and total cessation, not only of the activities of life, but also of life itself (Eccl. 9:5,10). But

(3) Scripture reveals Sheol as a place of sorrow (2 Sam. 22:6; Ps. 18:5; 116:3), into which the wicked are turned (Ps. 9:17), and where they are fully conscious (Isa.

14:9-17; Ezek. 32:21). Compare Jon. 2:2; what the belly of the great fish was to Jonah, Sheol is to those who are therein. The Sheol of the O.T. and Hades of the N.T. are identical. See Lk. 16:23, note.

32:37 trusted. Trust is the characteristic O.T. word for the N.T. "faith" and "believe." It occurs 154 times in the O.T., and is the rendering of Hebrew words that mean to take refuge (Ps. 2:12); to lean on (Ps. 56:3); to roll on (Ps. 22:8).

44 ¶ And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and Hoshea the son of Nun.

45 And Moses ^amade an end of speaking all these words to all Israel:

46 And he said unto them, ^bSet your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your ^cchildren to observe to do, all the words of this law.

47 For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your ^dlife: and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

Moses ordered up mount Nebo

48 And the LORD spake unto Moses that ^eselfsame day, saying,

49 ¶Get thee up into this mountain Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession:

50 And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be ^ggathered unto thy people; ^has Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people:

51 Because ⁱye trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Israel.

52 Yet thou shalt see the land before ^jthee; but ^kthou shalt not go thither unto the land which I give the children of Israel.

Moses blesses the tribes

33 And this is ^lthe blessing, wherewith Moses ^mthe man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 And he said, The LORD came from ⁿSinai, and rose up from ^oSeir unto them; he shined forth from ^pmount Paran, and he came with ^qten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them.

3 Yea, he loved the people; all his saints are in thy hand: and they ^rsat down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words.

4 ^sMoses commanded us a law, even the inheritance of the congregation of Jacob.

5 And he was ^tking in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

6 ¶Let ^uReuben live, and not die; and let not his men be few.

7 ¶And this is the blessing of ^vJudah: and he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: let his hands be sufficient for him; and be thou an help to him from his enemies.

8 ¶And of ^wLevi he said, Let thy ^xThummim and thy Urim be with thy holy one, ^ywhom thou didst ^zprove at Massah, and with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah;

9 ^{aa}Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have not seen him; neither did he acknowledge his brethren, nor knew his own children: for they have observed thy word, and kept thy covenant.

10 ^{bb}They shall teach Jacob thy ^{cc}judgments, and Israel thy law: they shall put incense before thee, and whole burnt-sacrifice upon thine altar.

11 Bless, LORD, his substance, and accept the work of his hands: smite through the loins of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not again.

12 ¶And of Benjamin he said, ^{dd}The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by him; and the LORD shall cover him all the day long, and ^{ee}he shall dwell between his shoulders.

13 ¶And of ^{ff}Joseph he said, Blessed of the LORD be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that ^{gg}coucheth beneath, possible that the LORD directed Joshua to add this account to what Moses had written, it is equally possible that He may have led Moses to write it in advance, since He had already revealed to him the manner and time of his approaching death. See notes at Ex. 17:14; Dt. 31:24.

THE HISTORICAL BOOKS

Background

The twelve historical books of the Old Testament (Joshua—Esther) are designated history in contrast with the rest of the Old Testament described as law (Genesis—Deuteronomy), as poetry (Job—Song), and as prophecy (Isaiah—Malachi). Divine laws, history, and prophecy as well as exhortation are found, of course, throughout the Old Testament. The accuracy of the historical books, though questioned by some critics, has been confirmed repeatedly in modern times by discoveries of extra-Biblical evidences.

The historical books relate the rise and fall of the theocracy, the captivities of Israel and Judah, the return to the promised land (Genesis 15:18–21; Ezra 2:1), and the restoration of the Temple and the city of Jerusalem. Chronologically, the historical books reach to the time of Malachi. By contrast, the prophetic books foretell God's judgment upon sin, exhort the people of each generation to faith and righteousness, and hold before even the disobedient nation Israel the bright picture of future national restoration, glory, honor, and peace under the reign of their Messiah.

Divisions of Israel's History

The historical and prophetic program of Israel may be separated into eight divisions:

I. From the Call of Abraham to the Exodus (Genesis 12:1—Exodus 12:51; cp. Acts 7)

In this period the Abrahamic Covenant was given, partially fulfilled in the formation of Israel as a great nation. (It is believed that the events of the Book of Job occurred in this period and that the book documents the divine revelation and the profound philosophic and religious thought of that day.)

II. From the Exodus to the Death of Joshua

In this period, in which the law was given to Israel, the history of Israel's deliverance from Egypt, her wilderness wanderings and the possession of the promised land are set forth in Exodus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, as well as in portions of Leviticus. Moses, Aaron, and Joshua are the principal historical characters.

III. The Period of the Judges

This time period, from the death of Joshua to the choice of Saul, is unfolded in Judges, Ruth, and 1 Samuel 1:1—10:24. Cycles of apostasy, divine judgment, repentance, and restoration characterize this span of time. A godly remnant continued, however, as seen in Ruth. Israel was rescued from moral, spiritual, and political chaos by the Prophet Samuel who, as the last of the early prophets, inducted into office the first of the kings, Saul.

IV. The Period of the Kings

This time period from Saul to the captivities, is described in 1 Samuel 10:25—31:13, 2 Samuel, 1 and 2 Kings, and 1 and 2 Chronicles. The glory and power of the kingdom under David and Solomon declined during the divided kingdoms of Israel and Judah, and was accompanied by complete spiritual failure.

V. The Period of the Captivities

This time of divine chastisement, predicted by Moses and the prophets, is unfolded in Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Daniel, and Esther. The captivity of Judah (586 B.C.) began the prophetically important "times of the Gentiles" (Luke 21:24) during which Jerusalem has been under Gentile control.

VI. The Period of Restoration through the Time of Christ

This period covers from the partial restoration of the nation of Israel to the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The inspired history of this period is found in Ezra, Nehemiah, and the prophetic writings of Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi in the Old Testament, and in the Gospels in the New Testament. Toward the end of this period Christ, the promised King of the Davidic Covenant, and the Seed of the Adamic and Abrahamic Covenants, appeared, was rejected as King and Savior, was crucified, rose again from the dead, and ascended into heaven. These tremendous events also marked the close of the sixty-nine prophetic weeks of Daniel 9:14–27.

VII. The Period of the Church

The period of the church covers the time from Pentecost to the rapture, during which Israel's national program is set aside. Historically this is presented in The Acts and theologically in portions of the Gospels and in the Epistles. In the early part of the period Jerusalem was destroyed (A.D. 70) and Israel began its third and final dispersion. During the Church period, all national priorities and distinctions are in abeyance in the Church, both Jewish and Gentile believers being joined together with equal standing in the one body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:13; Ephesians 3:6).

VIII. Israel's Later History

This time period is given prophetically as beginning with the fulfillment of the seventieth week of Daniel 9:27, the latter half of which is the great tribulation (Daniel 12:1; Matthew 24:21). The tribulation will end at the second coming of Christ in power and glory to judge the earth and reign over it for 1000 years, an epoch in which Israel will be restored to a place of privilege and glory. At the close of the millennium, Israel will likewise have her part in the eternal state, and will continue to illustrate the faithfulness and righteousness of God throughout eternity.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

Author:
Joshua

Theme:
Conquering Canaan

Date of writing:
14th Century B.C.

Background

Joshua records in part the military campaigns waged by Joshua in conquering the promised land and concludes with detailed instructions for the division of the land among the tribes. It is the first Bible book to bear the name of its principal character. As a young man Joshua served in the tabernacle (Exodus 33:11). He and Caleb were the two among the twelve spies who brought back a favorable report (Numbers 14:6–9,30). Toward the end of the wanderings Moses was divinely led to appoint Joshua as his successor as “a man in whom is the spirit” (Numbers 27:18–23; Deuteronomy 1:38) who had with Caleb “wholly followed the LORD” (Numbers 32:12).

God’s Relationship with Man

Israel entered Palestine with a promise of the land, the presence of the LORD, the law of the LORD, and the leadership of Joshua. With all this they should have been successful everywhere, but disobedience led to defeat. The events recorded here may cover as many as thirty years. The book illustrates the principle that the child of God will be involved in conflict with evil powers and with Satan himself if he earnestly undertakes to possess all that God has promised to him on this earth (Ephesians 1:3; 6:10–18).

Types in Joshua

Joshua presents several types rich in meaning. See notes on the following passages for the typical significance of Joshua (1:1); Passover (5:10); cities of refuge (20:5).

1:1 death of Moses. Approximately 1407 B.C. spake unto Joshua. It is not certain just when the conquest of Palestine occurred. Some Bible scholars think it began about 1407 B.C. Others state that it was much later. Joshua (meaning Jehovah-Savior; see note at Gen. 2:4) is a type of Christ, the Captain of our salvation (Heb. 2:10). The more important points are:

(1) He comes after Moses (Jn. 1:17; Rom. 8:3-4; 10:4-5; Gal. 3:23-25).

(2) He leads to victory (Rom. 8:37; 2 Cor. 1:10; 2:14).

(3) He is our Advocate when we have suffered defeat (1 Jn. 2:1-2; cp. Josh. 7:5-9). And

(4) He allots our inheritance (Eph. 1:11,14; 4:7-11).

1:3 have I given. The law of appropriation. God gives, but we must take.

1:6 land. The land had been promised to Abraham and his seed (Gen. 12:6-7; 13:14-15; 15:18-21), and Moses had been reminded of this. The promise was now to be fulfilled.

1:6 WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT: BE STRONG AND COURAGEOUS

The Bible repeatedly gives words of encouragement to humans no matter what they face. "Be of good courage," "be strong," "be courageous" and other phrases are the words delivered by God and echoed by His people throughout Biblical history.

Joshua assumes command

10 ¶ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you ^dvictuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

12 ¶ ^eAnd to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying, 13 Remember the ^fword which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them;

15 Until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall ^greturn unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunrising.

16 ¶ And they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we ^hhearken unto thee: ⁱonly the LORD thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses.

18 Whosoever he be that doth rebel against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words in all that thou commandest him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.

Rahab shelters spies

2 And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of ^jShittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot's house, named ^kRahab, and lodged there.

2 And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel to search out the country.

3 And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the country.

4 And the woman took the two men, and ^lhid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I ^mwist not whence they were:

5 And it came to pass about the time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whither the men went I ⁿwot not:

Jordan: flowing down. The river that runs from north of the Sea of Galilee to the Dead Sea and is central to the history of Israel.

Jericho: fragrant place. The first city to be destroyed in the Promised Land. The Israelites captured the city by marching around it for seven days thus causing the walls to fall down.

2:1 Rahab. No more unlikely character than Rahab could have been divinely chosen for deliverance from ungodly Jericho. The salvation of Rahab, the harlot, illustrates that even in a doomed city a wicked individual could find grace by turning to God in faith. Those who charge Israel with barbaric cruelty in exterminating the inhabitants of Jericho fail to comprehend that Israel was God's instrument of divine judgment. The people of Jericho, hopelessly depraved (cp. Lev. 18:24-26), had chosen to fight Israel instead of seeking mercy as did Rahab. Those who perished did not believe (Heb. 11:31). Even Rahab's lie (vv. 4-5), not to be taken as an example, was evidently motivated by her belief that God would destroy Jericho as had been predicted (vv. 9-11; cp. Josh. 1:1-11). Rahab, as an ancestress of David, is thus in the Messianic line (Ruth 4:21-22; Mt. 1:5-6; Lk. 3:31-32).

Rahab: broad. A prostitute from Jericho who helped the Israelite spies. She and her family were spared when Jericho was destroyed. She is included in the genealogy of Christ (Mt. 1:5).

6 ^aBut she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

8 ¶ And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof;

9 And she said unto the men, ^bI know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your ^cterror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land ^dfaint because of you.

10 For we have heard how the LORD ^edried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye ^fdid unto the two kings of the Amorites, that ^gwere on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye ^hutterly destroyed.

11 And as soon as we had heard ⁱthese things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he ^jis God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.

12 Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true ^ktoken:

13 And ^lthat ye will save ^malive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.

14 And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will ⁿdeal kindly and truly with thee.

Spies escape and report to Joshua

15 Then she let them down by a cord through the window: for her

16 And she said unto them, ^pGet you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: and afterward may ye go your way.

17 And the men said unto her, ^qWe will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.

18 Behold, ^rwhen we come into the land, thou shalt bind this ^sline of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt ^tbring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee.

19 And it shall be, ^uthat whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood ^vshall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood ^wshall be on our head, if ^xany hand be upon him.

20 And if thou utter this our business, then we will be ^yquit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear.

21 And she said, According unto your words, so ^zbe it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window.

22 And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought ^{aa}them throughout all the way, but found ^{ab}them not.

Expeditions in the twentieth century have revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. The two sets of stones (vv. 9,20)

4 And it came to pass, when all the people were ^aclean passed over Jordan, that the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

2 Take you ^btwelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,

3 And command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place, where ye shall lodge this night.

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man:

5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take you up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6 That this may be a ^dsign among you, that when your ^echildren ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean ye by these stones?

7 Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.

8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them ^funto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

10 ¶ For the priests which bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hastened and passed over.

11 And it came to pass, when all the people were ^gclean passed over, that the ^hark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people.

12 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over ⁱarmed before the children of Israel, as Moses spake unto them:

13 About forty thousand prepared for war passed over before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

14 ¶ On that day the LORD ^jmagnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

16 Command the priests that bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan.

17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan.

18 And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of ^kJordan returned unto their place, and ^lflowed over all his banks, as they did before.

19 ¶ And the people came up out of Jordan on the ^mtenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho.

21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?

22 Then ^cye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on ^ddry land.

23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over:

24 That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty: that ye might fear the LORD your God for ever.

Fear falls on Amorites

5 And it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were ^eby the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart smelted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

New generation circumcised

2 ¶ At that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee ^hsharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time.

3 And Joshua made him sharp knives, and ⁱcircumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the *i*cause why Joshua did circumcise: All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war, ^kdied in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 Now all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, them they had not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked ^lforty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD swore that he would not shew them the ^mland, which the LORD swore unto their fathers that he would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

7 And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

8 And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were ⁿwhole.

9 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away the ^oreproach of Egypt from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called Gilgal unto this day.

5:2 THE SIGN OF CIRCUMCISION

Circumcision was the sign of the Abrahamic Covenant (Gen. 17:10-14; see Gen. 12:2, note; Rom. 4:11). "The reproach of Egypt" (v. 9) was that, during the later years of the Egyptian bondage, this separating sign had been neglected (cp. Ex. 4:24-26), and this neglect had continued during the wilderness wanderings. The N.T. analogy is world conformity—the failure openly to take a believer's place with Christ in death and resurrection (Rom. 6:2-11; Gal. 6:14-16). Spiritually, circumcision is putting to death the deeds of the body through the Spirit (Rom. 8:13; Gal. 5:16-17; Col. 2:11-12; 3:5-10).

Gilgal: circle. The location of the Israelite headquarters as they entered Canaan.

5:9 Gilgal. Literally a rolling.

5:10 passover. The passover, a type of Christ our Redeemer (Ex. 12:1-28; Jn. 1:29; 1 Cor. 5:6-7; 1 Pet. 1:18-19):

(1) The lamb must be without blemish, and to test this it was kept for four days (Ex. 12:5-6). So our Lord's public life, under hostile scrutiny, was the testing which proved His holiness (Lk. 11:53-54; Jn. 8:46; 18:38).

(2) The lamb thus tested must be killed (Ex. 12:6; Jn. 12:24; Heb. 9:22).

(3) The blood must be applied (Ex. 12:7). This answers to appropriation by personal faith, and refutes universalism (Jn. 3:36).

12 ¶ And the manna ceased on the ^cmorrow after they had eaten of the old ^bcorn of the land; neither had the children of Israel ^emanna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

The divine Captain

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a ^fman over against him with his ^gsword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?

14 And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua ^hfell on his face to the earth, and did ⁱworship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant?

15 And the captain of the LORD's host said unto Joshua, ^jLoose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest ^kis ^holy. And Joshua did so.

II. The Conquest of the Land, 6-12

Conquest of Jericho

6 Now ^lJericho was ^mstraitly shut up because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in.

2 And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, ⁿI have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

3 And ye shall compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days.

4 And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven ^otrumpets of rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city ^pseven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets.

5 And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him.

6 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD.

7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 ¶ And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the ^qrereward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout.

11 So the ^rark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

(4) The blood thus applied of itself, without anything in addition, constituted a perfect protection from judgment (Ex. 12:13; Heb. 10:10,14; 1 Jn. 1:7). And

(5) the feast typified Christ the Bread of life, answering to the memorial supper (Mt. 26:26-28; 1 Cor. 11:23-26). To observe the feast was a duty and privilege but not a condition of safety. The believer in Christ is saved by the blood of "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world" (Rev. 13:8), and is strengthened daily by feasting on the Word—the living Word, Christ, and the written Word, the Scriptures.

6:5 Spiritual victories are won by means and upon principles utterly foolish and inadequate in the view of the wisdom of sinful men (1 Cor. 1:17-29; 2 Cor. 10:3-5).

morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the ^arereward came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city.

17 ¶ And the city shall be ^baccursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD: only ^cRahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she ^dhid the messengers that we sent.

18 And ye, in ^eany wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves ^faccursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it.

19 But all the ^gsilver, and gold, and vessels of ^hbrass and iron, are ⁱconsecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

20 So the ^jpeople shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the ^kwall ^lfell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

21 And they ^mutterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and ⁿall that she hath, as ye ^oswore unto her.

23 And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them ^pwithout the camp of Israel.

24 And they ^qburnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of ^rbrass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25 ^rAnd Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelleth in Israel even unto this day; because ^sshe hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26 ¶ And Joshua ^tadjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and ^ubuildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof ^vin his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

27 So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was ^wnoised throughout all the country.

6:17 accursed. Joshua meant that it was the will of God that the whole city be put to the sword and its riches devoted to Him. To take anything for oneself, as Achan did, was to bring a curse. Compare the similar severity with which God judged the sin of Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-11).

6:26 in his firstborn . . . in his youngest. That is, with the loss of. 1 Ki. 16:34.

7:1 trespass. The sin of Israel which led to defeat at Ai was threefold:

(1) and most important, was the deliberate disobedience of Achan, for which God held the nation corporately responsible (vv. 1,11);

(2) the decision to send only a few men, because the city was small (v. 3), indicated a sinful dependence upon human strength rather than upon God; and thing; for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing; and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

2 And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside ^aBeth-aven, on the east side of Beth-el, and spake unto them, saying, Go up and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai.

3 And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few.

4 So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

6 ¶ And Joshua ^brent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and ^cput dust upon their heads.

7 And Joshua ^dsaid, Alas, O Lord GOD, ^ewherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan!

8 O Lord, what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies!

9 For the ^fCanaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall ^genviron us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name?

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; ^hwherefore liest thou thus upon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, and they have also ⁱtransgressed my covenant which I ^jcommanded them: for they have even ^ktaken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and ^ldissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

12 Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

13 Up, ^msanctify the people, and say, ⁿSanctify yourselves against to morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, ^oThere is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought ^paccording to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

15 And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel.

16 ¶ So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarahites; and he brought the family of the Zarahites man by man; and Zabdi was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

(3) there is no record of any communication with God for directions in taking Ai, as in the case of Jericho (6:1-5). Achan. Called Achar, 1 Chr. 2:7.

7:11 Israel hath sinned. The sin of Achan and its results teach the great truth of the oneness of the people of God: "Israel hath sinned." See in illustration 1 Cor. 5:1-7; 12:12-14,26. The whole cause of Christ is injured by the sin, neglect, or unspirituality of even one believer.

My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make ^aconfession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed ^bI have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done:

21 When I saw among the spoils a ^cgoodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred ^dshekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

22 ¶ So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD.

24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and ^eall that he had: and they brought them unto ^fthe valley of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, Why hast thou ^gtroubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a ^hgreat heap of stones unto this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger. Wherefore the name of that place was called, The ⁱvalley of Achor, unto this day.

Ai taken by ambush

8 And the LORD said unto Joshua, ^jFear not, neither be thou dismayed: take ^kall the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai:

see, I have ^lgiven into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land:

2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her king ^mas thou didst unto Jericho and her king: only the ⁿspoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it.

3 ¶ So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready:

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, ^oas at the first, that we will flee before them,

6 (For they will come out after us) till we have drawn them from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them.

7 Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

8 And it shall be, when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire: ^paccording to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. See, I have commanded you.

9 ¶ Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua ^qlodged that night among the people.

10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

11 And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew ^rnight, and came before the city, and ^spitched on the 15 And Joshua and all Israel ^emade as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai or Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city.

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hastened and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai.

22 And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape.

23 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24 And it came to pass, when Israel had ^gmade an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

8:17 Ai or Beth-el. Here it is seen that Beth-el and Ai were associated in the fight against Joshua. Joshua 12:16 lists Beth-el as one of the cities that had been conquered, but there is no mention of its conquest except in connection with that of Ai.

25 And so it was, that all that fell that day, ^aboth of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.

26 For Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he ^bstretched out the spear, until he had ^cutterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 ^dOnly the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.

28 And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, even a desolation unto this day.

29 And the king of Ai he ^ehanged on a tree until eventide; and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the ^fentering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

Blessings and curses read

30 ¶ Then Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in mount Ebal,

31 As Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an ^haltar of whole stones, over which no man hath lift up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt-offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed peace-offerings.

32 ¶ And he ⁱwrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the ^jstranger, as he that was born among them; ^khalf of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.

34 And afterward he ^lread all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the ^mbook of the law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua read not before all the congregation of Israel, with the ⁿwomen, and the little ones, and the ^ostrangers that were conversant among them.

17 And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim.

18 And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes.

19 But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them.

9:14 asked not counsel. Though Israel had found that obedience was necessary for victory at Jericho and Ai, they had yet to learn their need of divine guidance at every step. The Gibeonites brought only trouble to Israel (Josh. 10:4-15; 2 Sam. 21:1-14). Furthermore, the presence of the Gibeonites across the center of Canaan tended to isolate the tribes in the north from those in the south, led to sectional feeling, and ultimately had its share in the dividing of the kingdom in Rehoboam's day (1 Ki. 12).

one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the ^aAmorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, ^bgathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

6 ¶ And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, ^cSlack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and ^dhelp us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, ^eFear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there shall not a man of them ^fstand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

10 And the LORD ^gdiscomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah.

11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Aze-kah, and they died: they were more which died with ^hhailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 ¶ Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou ⁱstill upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

13 And the sun ^jstood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the ^kbook of ^lJasher? ^mSo the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14 And there was ⁿno day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the ^oLORD fought for Israel.

Victory at Makkedah

15 ¶ And Joshua ^preturned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it ^qfor to keep them:

19 And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the ^rhindmost of them; ^ssuffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.

20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had ^tmade an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till ^uthey were consumed, that the rest ^vwhich remained of them entered into ^wfenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in Gibeon: pertaining to a hill. A town northwest of Jerusalem whose inhabitants tricked the invading Israelites into a treaty but were then forced to serve as laborers for the Israelites.

Makkedah: place of shepherds. A city of the Canaanites conquered by Joshua. The five Amorite kings who attacked Gibeon hid in a cave here, but were found and executed.

peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, ^aFear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD ^bdo to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and ^cchanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the ^dsun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly ^edestroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah ^fas he did unto the king of Jericho.

29 ¶ Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and fought against ^gLibnah:

30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho.

31 ¶ And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it:

32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33 ¶ Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 ¶ And from Lachish Joshua passed unto ^hEglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it:

35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto ⁱHebron; and they fought against it:

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

38 ¶ And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to ^jDebir; and fought against it:

39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king.

Northern Palestine campaign

11 And it came to pass, when ^hJabin king of ⁱHazor had heard those things, that he ^jsent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,

2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the ^kplains south of Chinneroth, and in the ^lvalley, and in the borders of Dor on the west,

3 And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the ^mAmorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the mountains, and to the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpeh.

4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, ⁿmuch people, even as the ^osand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

5 And when all these kings were met together, they came and ^ppitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, ^qBe not afraid because of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt ^rhough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.

7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto great ^sZidon, and unto ^tMisrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he ^uhoughed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor ^vbeforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, ^wutterly destroying them: there was not any left to ^xbreathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.

term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.). vale. The "vale" or Shephelah is a section of the Holy Land bounded on the north by the Valley of Aijalon, on the west by the Maritime Plain, on the east by the Central Plateau, and reaching to Beer-sheba in the south. It is characterized by low, rounded chalk hills divided by several broad valleys.

10:41 smote. With Jericho destroyed, the heart of Palestine was exposed to assault. By swift marches and decisive battles in the open country, first in the southern campaign (ch. 10) and then in the northern campaign (ch. 11), Joshua defeated major coalitions of Canaanites.

10:42 at one time. Compare Josh. 11:18. As the context shows, the verses refer to different parts of Palestine and different kings. These chapters emphasize a faith that is expressed in works, whereas the Ai defeat illustrates work without faith.

11:2 the plains. Arabah in Hebrew. When used with the definite article only, it refers to the valley which runs from the Sea of Galilee to the Gulf of Aqabah. South of the Dead Sea the name is still retained (Wady el-Arabah).

11:3 Hittite. Until the twentieth century the Hittites were unknown apart from the Bible. This once puzzling reference to them has, however, been illuminated by the findings of archaeology. From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000–1800 B.C. and about 1400–1200 B.C.

13 But as for the cities that stood still in their strength, Israel burned none of them, ^asave Hazor only; that did Joshua burn.

14 And all the ^bspoils of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

15 As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command ^cJoshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded ^dMoses.

Summary of conquests (v. 18)

16 ¶ So Joshua took all that land, the ^ehills, and all the ^fsouth country, and all the land of Goshen, and the ^gvalley, and the ^hplain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same;

17 Even from the ⁱmount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and ^jall their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Joshua made war a ^klong time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, ^lsave the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle.

20 For it was of the LORD to ^mharden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the ⁿAnakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD ^osaid unto Moses; and ^pJoshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land ^qrested from war.

III. The Allocation of Territories to the Tribes, 13-22

Portion of two and one-half tribes

13 Now Joshua was old and stricken in ^ayears; and the LORD said unto him, Thou art old and stricken in years, and there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed.

2 This is the land that yet ^bremaineth: all the ^cborders of the Philistines, and all Geshuri,

3 From ^dSihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, and the Ashdothites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites:

4 From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that is beside the Sidonians, unto ^eAphek, to the borders of the Amorites:

5 And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, from ^fBaal-gad under mount Hermon unto the ^gentering into Hamath.

6 All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon unto ^hMisrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an ⁱinheritance, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

8 With whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which ^jMoses gave them, ^kbeyond Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them;

9 From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon;

10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon;

11 And ^lGilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah;

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for ^mthese did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled ⁿnot the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave ^onone inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them.

15 ¶ ^pAnd Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families.

16 And their ^qcoast was from ^rAroer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba;

17 ^sHeshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,

18 And ^tJahazah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,

19 And Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar in the mount of the valley,

20 And Beth-peor, and ^uAshdohpishgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,

21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of ^vMidian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were ^wdukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

13:2 Joshua 13-19 is devoted to a geographical description of the areas of Canaan allocated to the twelve tribes of Israel. This list is of great help in locating places forgotten with the lapse of years. As archaeological research proceeds, many such places are being rediscovered.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof.

24 ^aAnd Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families.

25 And their ^bcoast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before ^cRabbah;

26 And from Heshbon unto Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim unto the border of Debir;

27 And in the valley, ^dBeth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of ^eChinnereth on the other side Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

29 ¶ ^fAnd Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families.

30 And their ^bcoast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the ^gtowns of Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities:

31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, ^hwere pertaining unto the children of ⁱMachir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by their families.

32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward.

33 ^jBut unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

Caleb's request granted

14 And these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which ^kEleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 By ^llot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

3 For ^mMoses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: ⁿbut unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph ^owere two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no ^ppart unto the Levites in the land, ^qsave ^rcities to dwell in, with their ^ssuburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

6 ¶ Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and ^tCaleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD ^usent me from Kadesh-barnea to ^vespionage out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless my ^wbrethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I ^xwholly followed the LORD my God.

9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have ^ytrodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God.

10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me ^zalive, as he said, these ^{aa}forty and five years, even since the LORD spake ^{bb}this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old.

11 As yet I am as ^{bb}strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then,

13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance.

14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba; which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. ^dAnd the land had rest from war.

Portion of Judah

15^e This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families; even to the border of Edom the wilderness of Zin southward was the *f*uttermost part of the south *g*coast.

2 And their ^hsouth border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the bay that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side ⁱto Maaleh-acrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and ^j fetched a compass to Karkaa:

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the ^kgoings out of that *g*coast were at the sea: this shall be your south *g*coast.

5 And the east border was the salt sea, even unto the end of Jordan. And their ^lborder in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the *f*uttermost part of Jordan:

6 And the border went up to ^mBeth-hogla, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bo-han the son of Reuben:

7 And the border went up toward ⁿDebir from the ^ovalley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is before the ^pgoing up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of En-shemesh, and the ^qgoings out thereof were at En-rogel:

8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the south side of the ^rJebusite; the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward:

9 And the border ^swas drawn from the top of the hill unto the ^tfountain of the water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron; and the border ^uwas drawn to ^vBaalah, which is Kirjath-jearim:

10 And the border compassed from Baalah westward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, on the north side, and went down to ^wBeth-shemesh, and passed on to ^xTimnah:

11 And the border went out unto the side of Ekron northward: and the border ^ywas drawn to Shicron, and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the ^zgoings out of the border were at the sea.

12 And the ^{aa}west border was to the great sea, and the ^{bb}coast thereof. This is the *g*coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.

13 ¶ ^{cc}And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he ^{dd}gave a ^{ee}part among the children of ^{ff}Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron.

15:19 THE NECESSITY OF WATER

Water was immensely important in the economy and religion of Israel. The need for water from rain or wells determined the pattern of life, where settlements would be made and what type of crops could be cultivated. But above all, water was critical for survival.

63 ¶ As for the ^eJebusites the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out: but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day.

Portion of Ephraim

16 ^fAnd the lot of the children of Joseph fell from Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho on the east, to the ^gwilderness that goeth up from Jericho throughout mount Beth-el,

2 And goeth out from ^hBeth-el to Luz, and passeth along unto the borders of Archi to Ataroth,

3 And goeth down westward to the ⁱcoast of Japhleti, unto the ⁱcoast of ⁱBeth-horon the ^knether, and to ⁱGezer: and the ^mgoings out thereof are at the sea.

4 So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

5 ¶ ⁿAnd the border of the children of Ephraim according to their families was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the east side was ^oAtaroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper;

6 And the border went out toward the sea to ^pMichmethah on the north side; and the border went about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah;

7 And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from ^qTappuah westward unto the river ^rKanah; and the ^sgoings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they drave ^tnot out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and ^userve under tribute.

Portion of Manasseh

17 ^vThere was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for ^wMachir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead: because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan.

18 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at ^eShiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.

Division of remaining land

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, How long are ye ^fslack to go to possess the land, which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you?

4 ^gGive out from among you three men for each tribe: and I will send them, and they shall rise, and go through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven ^hparts: ⁱJudah shall abide in their ^jcoast on the south, and the ^khouse of Joseph shall abide in their ^ccoasts on the north.

6 Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven ^hparts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

7 But the ^lLevites have no ^mpart among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.

8 ¶ And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk ⁿthrough the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in ^oShiloh.

9 And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven ^hparts in a book, and came again to Joshua at the host at Shiloh.

10 ¶ And Joshua cast ^plots for them in Shiloh before the LORD: and there ^qJoshua divided the land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions.

18:1 Shiloh was situated in the tribal allotment of Ephraim. Built on a hill about nine miles north of Beth-el (compare Jud. 21:19), it had a commanding and somewhat central location. The tabernacle of the congregation was temporarily located there (Josh. 18:1; 19:51; Jud. 18:31), and at that time the meeting place had doorposts and doors and was called a "temple" (1 Sam. 1:9; 3:3). Although the destruction of Shiloh is not described in the records of this period (1 Sam. 4), it must have been overwhelming, on account of the wickedness of the children of Israel (Ps. 78:60; Jer. 7:12,14; 26:6).

15 ^dAnd the south quarter was from the end of ^eKirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of ^fwaters of Nephtoa:

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to En-rogel,

17 And ^bwas drawn from the north, and went forth to En-shemesh, and went forth toward Geli-loth, which is over against the ^ggoing up of Adummim, and descended to the ^hstone of Bohan the son of Reuben,

18 And passed along toward the side over against ⁱArabah northward, and went down unto Arabah:

19 And the border passed along to the side of Beth-hoglah northward: and the ^ooutgoings of the border were at the north bay of the ⁱsalt sea at the south end of Jordan: this was the south ^kcoast.

20 And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the ^lcoasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz,

22 And Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Beth-el,

23 And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

24 And Chephar-haammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities with their villages:

25 ^mGibeon, and ⁿRamah, and Beeroth,

26 And Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

28 And Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, which is ^oJerusalem, Gibeath, and Kirjath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

Portions of Simeon (v. 1), Zebulun (v. 10), Issachar (v. 17), Asher (v. 24), Naphtali (v. 32), Dan (v. 40)

19^p And the second lot came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 And they had in their inheritance ^qBeer-sheba, or Sheba, and Moladah,

3 And Hazar-shual, and Balah, and Azem,

4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,

5 And Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah,

6 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharhen; thirteen cities and their villages:

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath-beer, ^rRamath ^sof the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

cal term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.).

10 ¶ ^aAnd the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid:

11 And their border went up toward the ^bsea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before ^cJokneam;

12 And turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrising unto the border of Chisloth-tabor, and then goeth out to ^dDaberath, and goeth up to Japhia,

13 And from thence passeth on along on the east to ^eGittah-hepher, to Ittah-kazin, and goeth out to Remmon-methoar to Neah;

15 And Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Beth-lehem: twelve cities with their villages.

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

17 ¶ ^gAnd the fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families.

18 And their border was toward Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,

19 And Haphraim, and Shion, and Anaharath,

20 And Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abez, for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

25 And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,

26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal; and reacheth to ^lCarmel westward, and to Shihor-libnath;

27 And turneth toward the sunrising to Beth-dagon, and reacheth to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el toward the north side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out to ^mCabul on the left hand,

Joshua's special portion

49 ¶ When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their ^scoasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them:

50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even ^hTimnath-serah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

51 These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in ⁱShiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

Six cities appointed as places of refuge (Num. 35)

20 The LORD also spake unto Joshua, saying,

3 That the slayer that killeth any person ^kunawares and ^lunwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the ^mavenger of blood.

5 And if the ^pavenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour ^qunwittingly, and hated him not ^rbeforetime.

6 And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for ^tjudgment, and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

40 So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were ^bforty and eight cities with their ^asuburbs.

42 These cities were every one with their ^asuburbs round about them: thus were all these cities.

God's promise fulfilled

43 ¶ And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he ^cswore to give unto their fathers; and they ^dpossessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 ^eAnd the LORD gave them ^frest round about, according to all that he swore unto their fathers: and ^gthere stood not a man of all their enemies before them; ^hthe LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 ⁱThere failed ^jnot ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

The two and one-half tribes sent home

22 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

2 And said unto them, Ye have kept all that ^kMoses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that ^lI commanded you:

3 Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

4 And now the LORD your God hath given ^mrest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan.

5 But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged ⁿyou, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him ^owith all your heart and with all your soul.

6 So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents.

7 ¶ ^pNow to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan: but unto the another half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them,

8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with ^rbrass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

9 ¶ And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they ^swere possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

an ^aaltar ^bover against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, ^cat the passage of the children of Israel.

12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at ^dShiloh, to go up to war against them.

13 And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, ^ePhinehas the son of Eleazar the priest,

14 And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each one was an head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

15 ¶ And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith the whole congregation of the LORD, What ^ftrespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might ^grebel this day against the LORD?

17 Is the iniquity of ^hPeor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD? and it will be, seeing ye rebel to day against the LORD, that to morrow he will be ⁱwroth with the ^jwhole congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD's tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar beside the altar of the LORD our God.

20 Did not ^kAchan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

21 ¶ Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered, and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 The ^lLORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel he shall know; if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day),

23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon ^mburnt-offering or ⁿmeat-offering, or if to offer peace-offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it;

24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might speak unto our ^ochildren, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD God of Israel?

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad; ye have no ^ppart in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt-offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But that it may be a ^qwitness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the ^rLORD before him with our burnt-offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace-

23:2 said unto them. The last counsels of Joshua should be compared with those of Moses in Deuteronomy, especially chs. 31—33. Like Moses, Joshua reminded Israel of God's past blessings upon them, the necessity of continued obedience, and urged them to further conquest. He warned of the dangers of worshipping heathen gods and of worldly alliance with heathen nations. Departure from God would lead inevitably to Israel's judgment. Joshua's last counsels concluded with a stirring challenge to choose the LORD, to serve Him, and were highlighted by the exhortation to put away foreign gods (24:23), shocking evidence of incipient apostasy which was already invading Israel. To Joshua's plea Israel readily responded, but this pledge was tragically forsaken after the death of Joshua and the elders associated with him.

offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no ^apart in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt-offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a ^bwitness between us and you.

29 God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt-offerings, for ^cmeat-offerings, or for sacrifices, beside the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 ¶ And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spake, it pleased them.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the ^dLORD is among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD: now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.

32 ¶ And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again.

33 And the thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel ^eblessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar Ed: for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is God.

Joshua's appeal

23 And it came to pass a long time after that the LORD had given ^frest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua ^gswaxed ^hold and stricken in age.

2 And Joshua ⁱcalled for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age:

3 And ye have seen all that the ^jLORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; ^kfor the LORD your God is he that hath fought for you.

4 Behold, ^lI have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward.

5 And the LORD your God, he shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God hath ^mpromised unto you.

6 ⁿBe ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the ^oleft;

7 That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make ^pmention of the name of their gods, nor cause to ^qswear by them, neither ^rserve them, nor bow yourselves unto them:

8 But cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 For the LORD hath driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for ^syou, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.

10 One man of you shall chase a ^tthousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, ^kYour fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood ^lin old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods.

3 ^mAnd I took your father Abraham from the other side of the ⁿflood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and ^omultiplied his seed, and gave him ^pIsaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac ^qJacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau ^rmount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and his children went down into ^sEgypt.

5 I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and ye came unto the ^tsea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea.

7 And when they cried unto the LORD, he put ^udarkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ^vye dwelt in the wilderness a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the ^wAmorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

18 And the LORD drave out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land:

^ktherefore will we also serve the LORD; for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is an ^lholy God; he is a ^mjealous God; he will ⁿnot forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 ^oIf ye forsake the LORD, and serve ^pstrange gods, then he will turn and do you ^qhurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore ^rput away, said he, the ^sstrange gods which are among you, and ^tincline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.

24 And the people ^usaid unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

25 ^vSo Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

26 ¶ And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up ^wthere under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, ^xthis stone shall be a witness unto us; for it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

Author:
Unknown

Theme:
Defeat and Deliverance

Date of writing:
11th Century B.C.

Background

Judges takes its title from the fact that it records the activities of twelve men and one woman, designated as judges and raised up by God to deliver Israel in times of declension and disunion after Joshua's death. No one was capable of such leadership as Joshua had exercised. The fourfold cycle so common in Israel's history (rebellion, retribution, repentance, and restoration) occurs repeatedly. Joshua is a book of victory; Judges is a book of defeat. Joshua, the leader, had died, but God remained. There was no necessity for defeat.

The judges were chosen from different tribes. Not all of them exercised jurisdiction over the entire territory of Israel; the influence of some was local. In a number of cases their periods of administration probably overlapped. See also 2:18, note.

I. Review of the Past, and Institution of the Office of Judge, 1:1-3:4

State of things at the death of Joshua (1:1-2:10)

1 Now after the ^adeath of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel ^basked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the ^cCanaanites first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, ^dJudah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said unto ^eSimeon his brother, Come up with me into my ^flot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with thee into thy ^glot. So Simeon went with him.

Judah's victories

4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Three-score and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered ^htheir meat under my ⁱtable: as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 Now the children of Judah had fought against ^jJerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 ¶ And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the ^ksouth, and in the ^lvalley.

10 ^mAnd Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in ⁿHebron: (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba:) and they ^oslew Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher:

12 And ^pCaleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter ^qto wife.

13 And ^rOthniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter ^sto wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came ^tto him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she ^ulighted from off ^vher ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she said unto him, Give me a ^wblessing: for thou hast given me ^xa south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the ^ywether springs.

16 ¶ And the children of the ^zKenite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the city of ^{aa}palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which ^{ab}lieth in

1:1 Most of the events recorded in Judges occurred between 1400 and 1100 B.C. There is little indication in the Bible for precise chronology of this book, so most of the dates are in round figures. Some of the judges were contemporaries, serving in different parts of the country.

1:6 cut off. "Eye for eye . . . hand for hand, foot for foot" (Ex. 21:24). As Adoni-bezek had done to seventy kings (v. 7), so divine retribution fell upon him (Lev. 24:19; compare Mt. 5:38-45).

1:9 south. Translates the Hebrew word Negev, which is based on a word meaning "to be dry." It is a geographical term which refers to a specific section of Palestine (e.g. Gen. 13:1) located between Debir and the Arabian Desert. It is an arid region most of the year. Since this area was south of the larger part of Israel, the word also came to be used to denote that direction (compare Gen. 13:14; Dan. 8:4,9; 11:5, etc.). valley. The "valley" or Shephelah is a section of the Holy Land bounded on the north by the Valley of Ajalon, on the west by the Maritime Plain, on the east by the Central Plateau, and reaching to Beer-sheba in the south. It is characterized by low, rounded chalk hills divided by several broad valleys.

Achsah: anklet. Caleb's daughter who was won in marriage by Othniel.

Caleb: a dog. The spy of Israel from the tribe of Judah who was convinced the Israelites could conquer the Promised Land with God's help. Because of this confidence he was allowed to enter the Promised Land.

17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called ^bHormah.

18 Also Judah took Gaza with the ^ccoast thereof, and Askelon with the ^ccoast thereof, and Ekron with the ^ccoast thereof.

19 And the LORD was with Judah; and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had ^dchariots of iron.

20 And they gave ^eHebron unto Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the ^fthree sons of Anak.

Incomplete victories of Benjamin and Manasseh

21 And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites that inhabited ^gJerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

22 ¶ And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph sent to ^hdescry Beth-el. (Now the name of the city before was ⁱLuz.)

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and ^jwe will shew thee mercy.

25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; ^kbut they let go the man and all his family.

26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which ^lis the name thereof unto this day.

27 ¶ Neither did ^mManasseh drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean and her towns, nor ⁿTaanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of ⁿDor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: ^obut the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to ^ptribute, and did not utterly drive them out.

29 ¶ Neither did ^qEphraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 ¶ Neither did ^rZebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became ^stributaries.

31 ¶ Neither did ^tAsher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob:

32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 ¶ Neither did ^uNaphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became ^vtributaries unto them.

34 And the Amorites forced the children of ^wDan into the mountain: for they would not ^xsuffer them to come down to the valley:

35 But the Amorites would dwell in mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became ^ytributaries.

36 And the ^zcoast of the Amorites was from the ^{aa}going up to Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

1:26 Hittites. Until the twentieth century the Hittites were unknown apart from the Bible. This once puzzling reference to them has, however, been illuminated by the findings of archaeology. From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century have revealed that Boghaz-koï in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000-1800 B.C. and about 1400-1200 B.C.

THE ANGEL OF THE LORD, SUMMARY

This particular angel, as distinguished in Scripture from all others, is often referred to in the O.T. (compare Gen. 16:9; 22:11; 48:16; Ex. 3:2; 14:19; Num. 22:22; Jud. 2:4; 6:11; 13:3; 2 Ki. 19:35; Isa. 63:9; Zech. 1:12; 12:8).

(1) He is named "the angel of the LORD [Jehovah]" (Gen. 16:7), "the angel of God" (Gen. 21:17), "the angel of his [God's] presence" (Isa. 63:9), and probably "the messenger [angel] of the covenant" (Mal. 3:1).

(2) He is clearly identified with the LORD Himself in His self-manifestation to men. In Gen. 31:11-13 the Angel said to Jacob, "I am the God of Beth-el." In Ex. 3:2-6 the same angel said to Moses, "I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham."

(3) Divine attributes and prerogatives are ascribed to this angel. He said to Hagar, "I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude" (Gen. 16:10), and Hagar spoke of Him as the all-seeing God (v. 13). Jacob referred to him as "the Angel which redeemed me from all evil" (Gen. 48:16). The place where this angel appeared was holy ground and he was to be worshipped (Ex. 3:5-6), whereas worship is sternly forbidden in the case of ordinary angels (Rev. 22:8-9). The angel of the LORD was the keeper of Israel, and His voice had to be obeyed, for the name of God was in Him (Ex. 23:20-23).

(4) In the light of N.T. revelation, this O.T. angel may properly be identified with the pre-incarnate Son of God. In Jud. 13:18 the angel referred to his name as "secret" or literally, "wonderful," and Isa. 9:6 gives this name to the predicted Messiah of Israel. Malachi affirmed that "the Lord" who would "suddenly come to his temple" would also be "the messenger [angel] of the covenant" (3:1). The identification of this Angel with our Lord harmonizes with His distinctive function in relation to the Godhead, for He is the eternal Word through whom the invisible God speaks and manifests Himself (Jn. 1:1,18).

It is significant that in the N.T. there is no further reference to the angel of the LORD. The Greek definite article is used only to identify some ordinary angel previously mentioned in the context. See Mt. 1:20, where the article is absent in the Greek, and 1:24, where it properly occurs as referring back to v. 20.

followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger.

13 And they forsook the LORD, and served ^aBaal and Ashtaroth.

14 ¶ And the anger of the LORD was ^bhot against Israel, and he ^cdelivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he ^asold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had ^esworn unto them; and they were greatly distressed.

God raises up deliverers

16 ¶ Nevertheless the LORD raised up ^fjudges, which ^gdelivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they ^hwent a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way ⁱwhich their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it ^jrepented the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way.

Canaanites left to test Israel

20 ¶ ^kAnd the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said, Because that this people hath ^ltransgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice;

21 I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua ^mleft when he died:

22 That through them I may ⁿprove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

Idolatry brings servitude

3 Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to ^oprove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had ^pnot known all the wars of Canaan;

2 Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof;

3 Namely, ^qfive lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon ^runto the entering in of Hamath.

4 And they were to ^rprove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

2:13 Ashtaroth. The plural of Ashtoreth (1 Ki. 11:5). These were figures of Ashtoreth, the equivalent of the Phoenician goddess of fertility, Astarte (see Dt. 16:21, note), which were worshipped as idols during times of spiritual declension in Israel (Jud. 10:6; 1 Sam. 7:3-4; 12:10; 31:10; 1 Ki. 11:5,33; 2 Ki. 23:13).

2:18 judges. The judges were tribesmen in Israel upon whom the LORD laid the burden of Israel's apostate and oppressed state. They were people raised up by God, the theocratic King, to represent Him in the nation. They were patriots and religious reformers because national security and prosperity were inseparably connected with loyalty and obedience to the LORD. repented. Literally relented.

2:22 prove. Or test. This does not mean that God did not "know" what was in the hearts of men. The knowledge here is something that is to be demonstrated by testing men in moral experience. See the connection between the two verbs: "to . . . prove you, to know . . ."

II. Five Judges, 3:5-5:31

5 ¶ And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, ^aHitites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites:

6 ^bAnd they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

Othniel, the first judge, defeats Mesopotamia

8 ¶ Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he ^gsold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years.

9 And when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD ^hraised up a deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, ⁱeven ^jOthniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And the ^kSpirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

11 And the land had ^lrest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 ¶ And the children of Israel did ^mevil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the ⁿLORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the ^ocity of palm trees.

14 So the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab ^peighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man ^qleft-handed: and by him the children of Israel sent ^ra present unto Eglon the king of Moab.

3:7 Groves, like high places, have been associated with idolatrous worship from time immemorial. The Hebrew asherah, rendered "groves" in the KJV, means also the idol enshrined there (Dt. 16:21). This idol seems often to have been a sacred tree, the figure of which is constantly found on Assyrian monuments. In apostate Israel, however, such places were associated with every form of idolatry (e.g., 2 Ki. 17:16-17). See also "high places" (1 Ki. 3:2, note), and "Ashteroth" (Jud. 2:13, note).

3:9 deliverer. Literally saviour.

Othniel: powerful man of God. The first judge of Israel after Joshua died. He won the right to marry Caleb's daughter Achsah after recapturing Debir.

3:13 Ammon. Descendants of Lot. Amalek. Descendants of Esau. Dt. 25:17,19.

Ehud: joined together. A judge of Israel who delivered the Israelites from the oppression of the Moabites and who killed King Eglon.

CYCLE OF ISRAEL'S ACTIONS

Throughout the time of the judges, the Israelites followed a regular pattern. They sinned by breaking God's Law and worshipping the gods of the Canaanites. God then punished them by sending an enemy to fight them and forcing them to serve a foreign king. When the Israelites finally repented of their wrongdoing, God sent deliverance in the form of a judge who would subdue their enemy. Then for a time, peace and rest would rule the land, until the people fell back into their heathen ways.

length; and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the ^apresent unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had ^bmade an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the ^apresent.

19 But he himself turned ^cagain from the quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him; and he was sitting in a summer parlour, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of his seat.

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly:

22 And the ^dhaft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and the dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he ^ecovereth his feet in his summer chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were ^fashamed: and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he ^gblew a trumpet in the ^hmountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the ⁱfords of Jordan toward Moab, and ^jsuffered not a man to pass over.

29 And they slew of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, all ^klusty, and all men of valour; and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest fourscore years.

and Beth-el in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent and called ^aBarak the son of Abinoam out of ^bKedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw toward mount ^cTabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7 And ^dI will draw unto thee to the river Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a ^ewoman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 ¶ And Barak called ^fZebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: ^gand Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber the ^hKenite, which was of the children of Hobab the father in law of Moses, had ⁱsevered himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent ^junto the plain of ^kZaanaim, which is by Kedesh.

Sisera's defeat and death

12 And they shewed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even ^lnine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the ^mGentiles unto the river of Kishon.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: is not the LORD gone out ⁿbefore thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the ^oLORD ^pdiscomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera ^qlighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the ^mGentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not a man ^rleft.

17 Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of ^sJael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 ¶ And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle.

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. And she opened a ^tbottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and enquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

21 Then Jael Heber's wife took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the

Song of Deborah and Barak

5 ^bThen sang ^cDeborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying,

2 Praise ye the LORD for the avenging of Israel, when the people ^dwillingly offered themselves.

3 Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes; I, even ^eI, will sing unto the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

4 ^fLORD, when thou wentest out of ^gSeir, when thou marchedst out of the field of Edom, ^hthe earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

5 The mountains melted from before the LORD, even ⁱthat Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel.

6 In the days of ^jShamgar the son of Anath, in the days of ^kJael, the highways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through byways.

7 The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that I Deborah arose, that I arose a mother in Israel.

8 They chose ^lnew gods; then was war in the gates: was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?

9 My heart is toward the governors of Israel, that offered themselves ^mwillingly among the people. Bless ye the LORD.

10 Speak, ye that ride on white ⁿasses, ye that sit in judgment, and walk by the way.

11 They that are delivered from the noise of archers in the places of drawing water, there shall they rehearse the righteous acts of the LORD, even the righteous acts toward the inhabitants of his villages in Israel: then shall the people of the LORD go ^odown to the gates.

12 ^pAwake, awake, Deborah: awake, awake, utter a song: arise, Barak, and lead thy captivity captive, thou son of Abinoam.

13 Then he made him that remaineth have dominion over the nobles among the people: the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty.

14 Out of Ephraim was there a root of them against ^qAmalek; after thee, Benjamin, among thy people; out of Machir came down governors, and out of Zebulun they that handle the pen of the writer.

15 And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah; even Issachar, and also Barak: he was sent on foot into the valley. For the divisions of Reuben there were great thoughts of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among ^rthe sheepfolds, to hear the bleatings of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

17 ^sGilead abode beyond Jordan: and why did Dan remain in ships? ^tAsher continued on the sea shore, and abode in his ^ubreaches.

18 ^vZebulun and Naphtali were a people that jeopardated their lives unto the death in the high places of the field.

19 ^wThe kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Canaan in ^xTaanach by the waters of Megiddo; they took no ^ygain of money.

20 They fought from heaven; the ^zstars in their courses fought against Sisera.

BRIEF HISTORY OF MEGIDDO

This strongly fortified elevation, on the northern side of the great plains of Jezreel, was one of a chain of cities that remained unconquered during the period of the judges (e.g. Josh. 17:11; Jud. 1:27). Later Solomon's huge stables were built here. The famous battle between the Syrian states and the Egyptians under Thutmose III (c. 1500 B.C.) took place at Megiddo. This is recorded in ancient literature in such detail as to provide the starting point for the history of military science.

Megiddo commanded the pass between the plains of Jezreel and Sharon, and for this reason was the scene of several battles recorded in the Scriptures:

(1) Deborah's victory (Jud. 4:10-24);

(2) Gideon's victory (Jud. 6:33; compare 7:1-25);

(3) Saul's defeat (1 Sam. 31:1; compare 29:1); and

(4) the death of King Josiah in battle with Pharaoh Necho (2 Ki. 23:28-30; 2 Chr. 35:20-24).

The last great battle of this age will be fought here at Armageddon (Rev. 16:12-16; 17:14; see Rev. 19:17, note).

ished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel ^acried unto the LORD.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites,

8 That the LORD sent a ^bprophet unto the children of Israel, ^cwhich said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the ^dhouse of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drave them out from before you, and gave you their land;

10 And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my ^evoice.

Gideon appointed the sixth judge

11 ¶ And there came an ^fangel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the ^gAbi-ezrite: and his son ^hGideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, ⁱif the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers ^jtold us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD ^khath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent ^lthee?

15 And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall ^mI save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the ⁿleast in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with ^othee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then shew me a ^psign that thou talkest with me.

18 ¶Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 ¶ And Gideon went in, and ^rmade ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ^sephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the ^tangel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this ^urock, and ^vpour out the broth. And he did so.

21 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the ^wstaff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up ^xfire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the un-

6:15 RESISTING GOD'S CALL

More often than not, when God called people into His service, they resisted by coming up with a lot of excuses. This practice of resistance was true even of the strongest and best leaders in the Bible.

Character	Resistance	Reference
Moses	"Who am I?"	Exodus 3:11
Moses	"I don't know who You are."	Exodus 3:13
Moses	"No one will believe me or listen to me."	Exodus 4:1
Moses	"I'm not a good speaker."	Exodus 4:10
Moses	"Send someone else."	Exodus 4:13
Gideon	"I'm a nobody."	Judges 6:15
Saul	Hid in the baggage	1 Samuel 10:22
Solomon	"I am a little child."	1 Kings 3:7
Jeremiah	"I don't know how to speak."	Jeremiah 1:6
Jeremiah	"I'm only a child."	Jeremiah 1:6
Jonah	Said nothing; ran away	Jonah 1:2
Jonah	When he complied he was angry	Jonah 4:1

In contrast note the responses of Isaiah and Mary. When Isaiah was called he replied, "Here am I; send me" (Isaiah 6:8). Mary said, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word" (Luke 1:38).

leavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon ^aperceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord GOD! for because I have seen an angel of the LORD ^bface to face.

23 And the LORD said unto him, Peace be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it *c*Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

Gideon repudiates Baal; calls Israel to arms

25 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and ^dthrow down the altar of ^eBaal that thy father hath, and cut down the ^fgrove that is by it:

26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt-sacrifice with the wood of the ^fgrove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the ^fgrove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the ^hgrove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

33 ¶ Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and ⁱpitched in the ^kvalley of Jezreel.

34 But the ^lSpirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he ^mblew a trumpet; and Abi-ezer was gathered after him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto ⁿAsher, and unto ^oZebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

36 ¶ And Gideon said unto God, ^pIf thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, 37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38 And it was so: for he rose up early on the ^qmorning, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

39 And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this ^ronce: let me ^sprove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

6:32 Jerubbaal. Literally let Baal plead. Jud. 7:1.

6:37 Gideon was not here seeking to learn God's will, because that had already been clearly revealed to him (vv. 14, 16). He put out the fleece for two reasons:

(1) to strengthen the weakness of his own faith; and

(2) to give him evidence that would convince the people that he was really God's instrument. This is not to be taken as the usual method for discovering God's will. See Prov. 3:5-6; Jas. 1:5-8.

40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

Three hundred alert warriors chosen

7 Then ^aJerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and ^bpitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of ^cMoreh, in the valley.

2 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel ^dvaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me.

3 Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ^eears of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

4 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet stoo many; bring them down unto the water, and I will ^ftry them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lapped of the water with his tongue, as a dog lapped, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 So the people took ^hvictuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

Decisive victory over Midian

9 ¶ And it came to pass the ⁱsame night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; ^jfor I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

11 And thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the ^koutside of the armed men that were in the host.

14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else ^esave the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath ^fGod delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 ¶ And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers.

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

19 ¶ So Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their 12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and ^mdiscomfited all the host.

13 ¶ And Gideon the son of Jash returned from battle before the sun was up,

14 And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and enquired of him: and he ⁿdescribed unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, ^o*Are* the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary?

16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and ^pbriers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth.

17 And he beat down the ^qtower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

18 ¶ Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at ^rTabor? And they answered, As thou art, so were they; each one resembled the children of a king.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you.

20 And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and slew ^sZebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

Forty years' rest under Gideon

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, ^tRule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast ^udelivered us from the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you.

24 ¶ And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the earrings of his ^vprey. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast

27 And Gideon made an ^cephod thereof, and put it in his city, even in ^dOphrah: and all Israel went ^ethither ^ffor whoring after it: which thing became a ^gsnare unto Gideon, and to his house.

28 ¶ Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in ^hquietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ And ⁱJerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had threescore and ten ^jsons of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, she also bare him a son, whose name he called ^kAbimelech.

32 And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

Confusion after Gideon's death

33 ¶ And it came to pass, ^las soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and went ^mfor whoring after ⁿBaalim, and made ^oBaal-berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel ^premembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

35 Neither shewed they kindness to the ^qhouse of Jerubbaal, namely, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shewed unto Israel.

Career of Gideon's son, Abimelech

9 And ^rAbimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and ^scommunicated with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Speak, I pray you, in the ^tears of all the men of Shechem, Whether ^uis better for you, either that ^vall the sons of Jerubbaal, which are threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I ^wam your bone and your flesh.

3 And his mother's brethren spake of him in the ^xears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, He ^yis our brother.

4 And they gave him threescore and ten ^zpieces of silver out of the house of ^{aa}Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired ^{bb}vain and light persons, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and ^{cc}slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king, by the ^{dd}plain of the pillar that was in Shechem.

7 ¶ And when they told ^{ee}it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of ^{ff}mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

him? is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of ^aHamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 And ^bwould to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech ^cprivily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem; and, behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou ^ddo to them as thou shalt find occasion.

34 ¶ And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the ^eentering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spake again and said, See there come people down by the middle of the land, and another company come along by the ^fsplain of Meonenim.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the ^eentering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass on the ^hmorrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the ^eentering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; ⁱand he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and ^jbeat down the city, and sowed it with salt.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into an ^khold of the ^lhouse of the god Berith.

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech ^mgat him up to ⁿmount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the ^khold, and set the ^khold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

Jephthah, the ninth judge

11 Now ^aJephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour, and he was the son of an harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah.

2 And Gilead's wife bare him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt ^bnot inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of a strange woman.

3 Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of ^cTob: and there were gathered ^dvain men to Jephthah, and went out with him.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in process of time, that the ^echildren of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob:

6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did not ye ^fhate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress?

8 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our ^ghead over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The LORD be ^hwitness between us, if we do not so according to thy words.

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the LORD in ⁱMizpeh.

12 ¶ And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, ^jWhat hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, Because ^kIsrael took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from ^lArnon even unto Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably.

14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon:

15 And said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, Israel ^mtook not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the Red sea, and came to ⁿKadesh;

17 Then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken ^othereto. And in like manner they sent unto the ^pking of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they ^qwent along through the wilderness, and ^rcompassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and ^spitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And Israel ^tsent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land into my place.

20 But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his ^ucoast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and ^vpitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

11:4 in process of time. Literally after days.

^adelivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed all the ^bcoasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 So now the LORD God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess it?

24 Wilt not thou possess that which ^cChemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever the LORD our God shall drive out from before us, them will we possess.

25 And now art thou any thing better than ^dBalak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them,

26 While Israel ^edwelt in Heshbon and her towns, and in Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the ^bcoasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why therefore did ye not recover them within that time?

27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD the ^fJudge be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

Jephthah's tragic vow

29 ¶ Then the ^gSpirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead, and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah ^hvowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands,

31 Then it shall be, that whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, ⁱshall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt-offering.

32 ¶ So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aroer, even till thou come to ^jMinnith, even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ And Jephthah came to ^kMizpeh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with ^ldances: and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he ^mrent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I ⁿcannot go ^oback.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my ^pfellows.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel,

12 And the men of ^aEphraim gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto Jephthah, ^bWherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? we will burn thine house upon thee with fire.

2 And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I saw that ye delivered me not, ^cI put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: ^bwherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

4 Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.

5 And the Gileadites took the ^dpassages of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was so, that when those Ephraimites which were escaped said, Let me go over; that the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay;

JEPHTHAH'S VOW

In view of the divine commands in the Mosaic law against human sacrifice (Lev. 18:21; 20:2-5; Dt. 12:31; 18:10), a question has been raised about Jephthah's action here. There is considerable doubt as to what he actually did. Those who think that he killed his daughter see no divine approval of the act, but rather attribute it to his rash vow. Passages like 2 Ki. 3:27; 16:3; 17:17; 2 Chr. 33:6; Jer. 7:31; 19:5; 32:35 show how widespread this evil and cruel practice was even in later days. Others do not believe that Jephthah sacrificed his daughter, but that he set her apart to perpetual virginity. The latter view emphasizes the unusual expression (in such a context) in v. 31: "shall surely be the LORD's," and the stress upon virginity instead of death in vv. 37,39: "my virginity," "she knew no man." Jephthah's vow (vv. 30-31) was hasty and seemingly improvident. Our Lord expressed Himself about vows in the Sermon on the Mount (Mt. 5:33-37).

THE PHILISTINES

The Philistines were a non-Semitic people, sometimes referred to in the Scriptures as "the uncircumcised" (Jud. 14:3; 15:18; 1 Sam. 14:6; 31:4; 2 Sam. 1:20; 1 Chr. 10:4). They settled in the plain and low hill country of southwestern Palestine, being part of the great invasion of the sea peoples referred to by Rameses III of Egypt about 1200 B.C. Their knowledge of metallurgy and access to sources of iron gave them a great advantage over other nations and enabled a comparatively small number to conquer far larger groups and to extend their sway for a time over most of Palestine. They were the leading enemy of Israel from the time of Samson to the middle of the reign of David. See 1 Sam. 13:19, note. Eventually the Philistines gave their name to the whole land, in the form "Palestine." Compare Isa. 14:29,31; see Gen. 21:34, note.

Manoah: rest. The father of Samson; he had difficulty believing the news that his wife would have a child.

that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour?

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is ^asecret?

19 So ^bManoah took a kid with a ^cmeat-offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD: and the angel did wondrously; and Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came to pass, when the ^dflame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground.

21 But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to ^eManoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely ^fdie, because we have seen God.

23 But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt-offering and a ^gmeat-offering at our hands, neither would he have shewed us all these things, nor would as at this time have told us such things as these.

24 ¶ And the woman bare a son, and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25 And the ^hSpirit of the LORD began to move him at times in the ⁱcamp of Dan between Zorah and ^jEshtaol.

13:22 we have seen God. Compare Gen. 32:30; Ex. 24:10; 33:18; Jud. 6:22; Jn. 1:18; Rev. 22:4. No man has ever seen God in His spiritual Being or Essence. But in His O.T. appearances (see Gen. 12:7, note), and especially in Jesus Christ incarnate, God has been seen by men (Jn. 14:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:1-2).

12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And there were ^kliers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web.

14 And she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.

SAMSON'S ANTICS

Samson's life was full of colorful stories that tell of his strength and cleverness.

1. Rent a lion apart with his bare hands. Judges 14:6
2. Scooped the bees and honey out of the lion's carcass. Judges 14:8-9
3. Killed 30 Philistines, took their garments to settle a bet. Judges 14:19
4. Left his first wife in a fit of anger. Judges 14:19-20
5. Caught 300 foxes, tied their tails together in pairs, attached a firebrand to their tails and let them loose. They destroyed the standing corn, vineyards and olive groves of the Philistines. Judges 15:3-5
6. Broke free of the ropes that bound him. Judges 15:14
7. Killed 1,000 men with the jawbone of an ass. Judges 15:15
8. Tore down the city gates and moved them to a hilltop. Judges 16:3
9. Fell in love with Delilah, who betrayed him. Judges 16:1-23
10. Pulled down the two middle pillars of the temple, killing himself and over 1,000 Philistines. Judges 16:25-30

she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was ^avexed unto death;

17 That he ^btold her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a ^crazor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he ^dwist not that the LORD was ^edeparted from him.

21 ¶ But the Philistines took him, and put out his ^feyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of ^gbrass; and he did grind in the prison house.

22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven.

Samson avenged in his death

23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto ^hDagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our ⁱgod hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, they ^jpraised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which slew many of us.

25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, ^kSuffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

28 And Samson ^lcalled unto the LORD, and said, O LORD GOD, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house ^mfell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Esh-taol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel ⁿtwenty years.

2 And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred ^bshekels of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou ^ccursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears, behold, the silver ^dis with me; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed ^ebe thou of the LORD, my son.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred ^ashekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a ^egraven image and a ^fmolten ^gimage: now therefore I will restore it unto thee.

10 And Micah said unto him, ^sDwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten ^tshekels of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy ^uvictuals. So the Levite went in.

CHAOS IN ISRAEL

After the death of Samson, chronological sequence in Judges ends. It is not possible to assign the events in the last five chapters to any particular period. They may, however, be considered an appendix which shows the utter apostasy of Israel in their religious, civil, and moral life. These chapters picture the climax of the downward path of Israel resulting from departure from the Word of God. Samson, the last judge in the book, partook of the same sins for which Israel as a whole had suffered. The Levite consecrated by Micah was a man-made priest for the divine order of Aaron (chs. 17—18; see 17:13, note). The horrible story of ch. 19, issuing in civil war and practical destruction of Benjamin in ch. 20, pictures Israel at its lowest moral state in the entire O.T. Written in complete honesty to the facts, characteristic of biblical history, the account reveals the moral degradation of Israel caused by departure from the law. However, a godly remnant existed during this period, as seen in the Book of Ruth. Samuel was the last of the judges, as well as an important prophet. His ministry restored civil and moral order in Israel.

Danites seek further territory

18 In those days there was no ^aking in Israel: and in those days the ^btribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their ^ccoasts, men of valour, from ^dZorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of ^eMicah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of ^eMicah, they ^fknew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in ^gthither, and said unto him, Who brought thee ^hhither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and ⁱI am his priest.

5 And they said unto him, ^jAsk counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 ¶ Then the five men departed, and came to ^kLaish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt ^lcareless, after the manner of the ^mZidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

8 And they came unto their brethren to ⁿZorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, ^oArise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye still? ^pbe not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for ^qGod hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 ¶ And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went up, and ^rpitched in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah.

Danites take Micah's idols and his priest, Jonathan

14 ¶ Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that there is in these houses an ^sephod, and teraphim, and a ^tgraven image, and a ^umolten image? now therefore consider what ye have to ^vdo.

15 And they turned ^wthitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and ^xsaluted him.

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the ^yentering of the gate.

17 And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in ^zthither, and took the ^{aa}graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the ^{aa}molten image: and the priest stood in the ^{aa}entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the ^{aa}molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and ^{aa}be to 21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the ^bcarriage before them.

22 ¶ And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, ^cWhat aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?

24 And he said, Ye have ^ataken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.

28 And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Zidon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth by ^fBeth-rehob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.

29 And they called the name of the city ^gDan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first.

30 ¶ And the children of Dan set up the ^hgraven image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were ⁱpriests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the ^jcaptivity of the land.

31 And they set them up Micah's ^kgraven image, which he made, all the time that the house of God was in ^lShiloh.

Moral degradation—Levite's concubine

19 And it came to pass in those ^mdays, when there was no ⁿmaking in Israel, that there was a certain ^oLevite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of ^pBeth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the ^qwhore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to ^rspeak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his ^sservant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father in law, the damsel's father, ^tretained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, ^uComfort thine ^vheart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.

6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and ^wlet thine heart be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home.

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against ^bJebus, which is Jerusalem; and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city of the ^cJebusites, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside ^dhither into the city of a ^estranger, that is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in Ramah.

17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, ⁱWhither goest thou? and whence comest thou?

18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah toward the side of mount Ephraim; from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem-judah, but I am now going to the ^jhouse of the LORD; and there is no man that receiveth me to house.

19 Yet there is both straw and ^kprovender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man which is with thy servants: there is no want of any thing.

20 And the old man said, ^lPeace be with thee; howsoever let all thy wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the street.

21 ^mSo he brought him into his house, and gave ^kprovender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

22 ¶ Now as they were making their ⁿhearts merry, behold, the ^omen of the city, certain ^psons of Belial, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him.

23 And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this ^qfolly.

Levite's concubine slain; anger of the tribes aroused

29 ¶ And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel.

30 And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider of it, take advice, and speak your minds.

Israel before the LORD at Mizpeh; Benjamin warned

20 Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD in Mizpeh.

2 And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness?

4 And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead.

6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel.

8 ¶ And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house.

9 But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it;

10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel.

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 ¶ And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore deliver us the men, the children of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

Civil war with Benjamin

18 ¶ And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and ^basked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, ^cJudah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and ^ddestroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even, and ^easked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and ^fdestroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 ¶ ^gThen all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and ^hwept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel enquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was ⁱthere in those days,

28 And ^jPhinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, ^kGo up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

29 And Israel set ^lliers in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 ^mAnd the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which ⁿone goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and ^othe liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was ^psore: ^qbut they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day ^rtwenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of ^sIsrael gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the ^aliers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the ^bliers in wait hastened, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the ^aliers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the ^cliers in wait, that they should make a great flame with ^dsmoke rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: ^efor they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sunrising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of ^fRimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour.

47 ^hBut six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of every city, as the beast, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire ⁱall the cities that they came to.

Mourning for lost tribe

21 Now the men of Israel had ^jsworn in ^kMizpeh, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin ^lto wife.

2 And the people came to the house of God, and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and ^mwept ⁿsore;

3 And said, O LORD God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to day one tribe lacking in Israel?

4 And it came to pass on the ^omorrow, that the people rose early, and ^pbuilt there an altar, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him that ^qcame not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Israel ^rrepented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have ^ssworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters ^tto wives?

10 And the congregation sent ^bthither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, ^cGo and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, ^dYe shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to ^eShiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin that were in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably unto them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they sufficed them not.

15 And the people ^frepented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 ¶ Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Israel have sworn, saying, ^gCursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is a ^hfeast of the LORD in ⁱShiloh yearly in a place which is on the north side of Beth-el, on the east side of the ^jhighway that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

21 And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to ^kdance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be ^lguilty.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the ^mcities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 In those days there was no ⁿking in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own ^oeyes.

21:25 every man did . . . eyes. The final clause of Judges does not necessarily mean that conditions were totally bad under the judges, for the beautiful story of Ruth is set in this historical context. Nor does v. 25 teach that all the evil of the times was caused by the lack of a king; later, under some of the kings, conditions were no better. The verse does raise the perennial problem of striking a proper balance between strong central government and personal liberty. Compare 17:6; 18:1; 19:1.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

Author:
Unknown

Theme:
Redeeming Relative

Date of writing:
c. 10th Century B.C.

Background

In Ruth the events set forth are contemporary with the first half of Judges. In contrast with that period of strife and bloodshed is this lovely idyll, renowned in world literature as a masterpiece of narration. The book, however, is more than a beautiful picture of pastoral life; for behind the story of Ruth's fidelity there are clear implications of our Lord's redeeming work. Boaz, the redeeming relative, points to Christ; Ruth portrays those who enter into a new life through trust in Him.

The Old Testament in the New

It is significant that both Boaz and Ruth are mentioned in the Messianic genealogy (Matthew 1:5). For the story of the Book of Ruth as a picture of New Testament redemption, see 4:3–5, note.

I. Ruth Deciding, 1

Famine in Judah

1 Now it came to pass in the days when the ^ajudges ruled, that there was a ^bfamine in the land. And a certain man of Beth-lehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of ^cMoab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

Sojourn in Moab

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, ^dEphrathites of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

3 And Elimelech Naomi's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons.

4 And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was ^eleft of her two sons and her husband.

Return to Judah

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had ^fvisited his people in giving them ^gbread.

7 Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah.

8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, return each to her mother's house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me.

9 The LORD grant you that ye may find ^hrest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

Ruth's loyal decision

11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your ⁱhusbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have an husband also to night, and should also bear sons;

13 Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye ^astay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the ^bhand of the LORD is gone out against me.

14 And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth ^cclave unto her.

15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto her ^dgods: return thou after thy sister in law.

16 And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee, or to ^ereturn from following after thee: for ^fwhither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: ^gthy people shall be my people, and thy God my God:

17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ^hthought but death part thee and me.

18 When she saw that she was stedfastly ⁱ minded to go with her, then she ^jleft speaking unto her.

Back to Beth-lehem

19 ¶ So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is this Naomi?

20 And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the ^kAlmighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why ^lthen call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem ^lin the beginning of barley harvest.

II. Ruth Serving, 2

Boaz compliments Ruth's unselfish care of Naomi

2 And Naomi had a ^mkinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of ⁿElimelech; and his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the ^ofield, and ^pglean ^qears of ^rcorn after him in whose sight I shall find ^sgrace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and ^ther hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

4 ¶ And, behold, Boaz came from ^uBeth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless ^vthee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

7 And she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from ^whence, but abide here ^xfast by my maidens:

Ruth: friendship. The woman of Moab who left her country and returned to Bethlehem with her mother-in-law Naomi. She was the great-grandmother of King David and is named in the genealogy of Christ (Mt. 1:5).

them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn.

10 Then she ^afell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found ^bgrace in thine eyes, that thou shouldst take knowledge of me, seeing I am a ^cstranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, ^dall that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

12 The LORD recompense thy work, and a full ^ereward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me find favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens.

14 And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou ^fhither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched ^gcorn, and she did eat, and was ^hsufficed, ⁱand left.

15 And when she ^jwas risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not:

16 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ^kephah of ^lbarley.

18 ¶ And she took it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought ^mforth, and ⁿgave to her that she had reserved after she was ^osufficed.

19 And her mother in law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? ^pblessed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother in law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to day is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the LORD, who hath not ^qleft off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, one of our next ^rkinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, Thou shalt keep ^sfast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.

22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they meet thee not in any other field.

23 So she kept ^tfast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the ^uend of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law.

10 And he said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a ^gvirtuous woman.

12 And now it is true that I am ^hthy near ⁱkinsman: ^jhowbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will ^kperform unto thee the part of a ^lkinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning.

14 ¶ And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could ^mknow another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.

15 Also he said, Bring the ⁿvail that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, ^oWho art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.

17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother in law.

18 Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

IV. Ruth Rewarded, 4

Ruth requited with marriage

4 Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz ^pspake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a ^qparcel of land, ^rwhich was our brother Elimelech's:

4 And I thought to ^sadvertise thee, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt ^tredeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not re-

3:9 This action of Ruth should be interpreted in the light of the customs of that day. It was clearly a way of letting a close kinsman (goel) know that he had not only the right but also the request to proceed with the legal steps necessary to the exercise of his responsibility. That Ruth's conduct was above reproach is indicated in Boaz's reception, protection, and tacit agreement with the general evaluation of her character (vv. 10-11).

4:3-5 Two O.T. laws are involved in this story (vv. 3-5). The law regulating redemption of property ("a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's," v. 3) is given in Lev. 25:25-34. The law concerning a brother's duty to raise up seed to the deceased, the levirate law, is given in Dt. 25:5-10. The word "brother" is capable of extended interpretation (compare Lev. 25:48-49; Jud. 9:3). The story pictures most beautifully one aspect of our redemption. Boaz represents our Lord. Ruth stands for the believer. On our Lord's part (Heb. 2:14-15), He paid the price with His own blood, for He was both able and willing to redeem. See notes at Ex. 6:6; Isa. 59:20; Rom. 3:24.

deem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it beside thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, ^ato raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 ¶ And the kinsman said, I cannot ^bredeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I ^ccannot redeem it.

7 Now ^dthis was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man ^eplucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the ^bkinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

9 ¶ And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which ^ftwo did build the house of Israel: and do thou worthily in ^gEphrathah, and be famous in ^hBethlehem:

12 And let thy house be like the house of ⁱPharez, whom ^jTamar bare unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

13 ¶ So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the ^kLORD gave her conception, and she bare a son.

14 And the ^lwomen said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, which hath not left thee this day without a ^mkinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel.

15 And he shall be unto thee a restorer of ⁿthy life, and a nourisher of thine old age: for thy daughter in law, which loveth thee, which is ^obetter to thee than seven sons, hath ^pborn him.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it.

Ruth's son to be David's grandfather

17 And the ^qwomen her neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 ¶ ^rNow these are the generations of ^sPharez: Pharez begat Hezron,

19 And Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab,

20 And Amminadab begat Nahshon, and Nahshon begat ^tSalmon, would come into the world. The genealogy in vv. 18-22 discloses that Ruth, the Moabitess, was rewarded for her devotion and loyalty by becoming the great-grandmother of David. The birth of her son was probably not less than forty nor more than 100 years before the birth of David.

David: beloved. The youngest son of Jesse. He was a man after God's own heart who was the greatest king of Israel.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

Author:
Unknown

Theme:
Samuel, Saul, and David

Date of writing:
10th Century B.C.

Background

First and Second Samuel are counted as one book in the Hebrew Bible. Although 1 Samuel begins with the life of Samuel, it tells more about David than about Samuel. The book records Samuel's life, Saul's life, and David's anointing and early years.

Samuel, descended from Levi, was a priest and also a prophet. Sometimes he is referred to as initiating the prophetic order, as in Acts 3:24: "all the prophets from Samuel and those who follow" (compare Acts 13:20; Hebrews 11:32). Samuel's career forms the bridge connecting the judges with the establishment of the Davidic kingdom.

1 Now there was a certain man of ^aRamathaim-zophim, of ^bmount Ephraim, and his name was ^cElkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

2 And he had ^dtwo wives; the name of the one was ^eHannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city ^fyearly to ^gworship and to sacrifice unto the ^hLORD of hosts in ⁱShiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, ^jwere there.

4 ¶ And when the time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, ^kportions:

5 But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: but the ^kLORD had shut up her womb.

6 And her adversary also provoked her ^lsore, for to make her fret, because the ^mLORD had shut up her womb.

7 And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? ⁿam not I better to thee than ten sons?

Hannah's vow

9 ¶ So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of ^othe temple of the LORD.

10 And she ^pwas in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept ^psore.

11 And she vowed a ^qvow, and ^rsaid, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed ^slook on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a ^tman child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life,

Hannah: gracious. The wife of Elkanah who was childless. She earnestly prayed to God in the temple at Shiloh. God answered her prayer and she gave birth to Samuel whom she dedicated to God's service.

Eli: my God. A priest in Shiloh who was also a judge of Israel.

1:7 she provoked her. Monogamy was ordained by God from the beginning for the highest happiness of men and women (Gen. 2:21-24; Mt. 19:3-6; Eph. 5:21-33). Polygamy, though not expressly forbidden in the O.T. (Dt. 21:15-17), falls short of God's ideal in marriage. The O.T. significantly shows the unhappiness of much of polygamous family life.

1:3

LORD OF HOSTS

Hebrew Jehovah Sabaoth. For the distinctive meanings of LORD (Jehovah) see Ex. 34:6, note.

Sabaoth means simply hosts, but with special reference to warfare or service. In use the two ideas are united; Jehovah is LORD of (warrior) hosts. It is the name, therefore, of the LORD in manifestation of power. "The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory" (Ps. 24:10), and accordingly in the O.T. this name is revealed in the time of Israel's need. It is never found in the Pentateuch, or directly in Joshua or Judges, and occurs but rarely in the Psalms; but Jeremiah, the prophet of approaching national judgment, uses the name about 80 times; Haggai employs it 14 times; Zechariah calls upon the LORD of hosts about 50 times; and in Malachi the name occurs about 25 times.

The meanings and uses of this name may be thus summarized:

(1) The word "hosts" is related to (a) heavenly bodies (Gen. 2:1; Neh. 9:6; Isa. 40:26); (b) angels (Lk. 2:13); (c) saints (Josh. 5:15); and (d) sinners (Jud. 4:2; 2 Sam. 10:16; 2 Ki. 5:1). As LORD of hosts, God is able to marshal all these hosts to fulfill His purposes and to help His people (Gen. 32:1-2; Jud. 5:20; 1 Sam. 11:8-11; 1 Ki. 22:19; 2 Ki. 6:16-17; Isa. 10:16; 14:24-27; Jer. 27:6-8; 43:10-13; Acts 4:27-28). No wonder the Psalmist derives such confidence from this name (Ps. 46:7,11).

And (2), this is the distinctive name of Deity for Israel's help and comfort in the time of her division and failure (1 Ki. 18:15; 19:14; Isa. 1:9; 8:11-14; 9:13-19; 10:24-27; 31:4-5; Hag. 2:4; Mal. 3:16-17; Jas. 5:4). For other names of Deity see notes on Gen. 1:1; 14:18; 15:2; 17:1; 21:33; Ex. 34:6; Mal. 3:18.

and there shall no ^arazor come upon his head.

12 And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli ^bmarked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she ^dhad been drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be ^edrunken? put away thy wine from thee.

15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have ^fpoured out my soul before the LORD.

16 Count not thine handmaid ^gfor a daughter of Belial: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I ^hspoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered and said, ⁱGo in peace: and the God of Israel ^jgrant thee thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 And she said, ^kLet thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her ^lcountenance was no more sad.

Prayer answered; Samuel born

19 ¶ And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD ^mremembered her.

20 Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, ⁿBecause I have asked him of the LORD.

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, ^owent up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will ^pbring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and ^qthere abide for ever.

23 And Elkanah her ^rhusband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only ^sthe LORD establish his word. So the woman abode, and ^tgave her son suck until she weaned him.

Samuel brought to Eli

24 ¶ And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, ^uwith three bullocks, and one ^vephah of flour, and a ^wbottle of wine, and brought him ^xunto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young.

25 And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.

27 ^yFor this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him:

28 ^zTherefore also I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there.

THE MAGNIFICATS OF THE BIBLE

The prayer of Hannah and the song of Mary in the New Testament are sometimes both referred to as magnificats. Note their similarities.

Hannah's Prayer (1 Samuel 2:1-10)

1. "My heart rejoiceth in the LORD" (v. 1)
2. "My mouth is enlarged over mine enemies" (v. 1)
3. "There is none holy as the LORD" (v. 2)
4. "The bows of the mighty men are broken" (v. 4)
5. "They that were hungry ceased" (v. 5)
6. "Keep the feet of his saints" (v. 9)

Mary's Song (Luke 1:46-54)

1. "My soul doth magnify the Lord" (v. 47)

21 And ^bthe LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel ^cgrew before the LORD.

Eli rebukes his sons

22 ¶ Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that ^dassembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons; for it is no good ^ereport that I hear: ye make the LORD's people to transgress.

25 If one man sin against another, the judge shall ^fjudge him: but if a man sin against the ^gLORD, who shall ^hintreat for him? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because ⁱthe LORD would slay them.

26 And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with ^jmen.

God warns of judgment upon Eli's sons

27 ¶ And there came a ^kman of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I plainly appear unto the ^lhouse of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And did I ^mchoose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel?

29 ⁿWherefore kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my ^ohabitation; and honourest thy sons above ^pme, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, I ^qsaid indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: ^rbut now the LORD saith, Be it far from me; for ^sthem that honour me I will honour, and they ^tthat despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

31 ^uBehold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see ^van enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and ^wthere shall not be an old man in thine house for ever.

33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die in the flower of their age.

34 And this shall be a ^xsign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; in one day they shall ^ydie both of them.

35 And I will ^zraise ^{aa}me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart and in my mind: and ^{bb}I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk ^{cc}before mine anointed for ever.

36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and ^{dd}crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

God rebukes Eli; Samuel is called

3 And the child Samuel ^{ee}ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was ^{ff}precious in those days; there was no ^{gg}open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was ^{hh}laid down in his place, and his eyes began to ⁱⁱwax ^{jj}dim, that he could not see;

3 And ^{kk}ere the ^{ll}lamp of God went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was ^{mm}laid down to sleep;

Samuel: name of God/heard of God. Son of Elkanah and Hannah who grew up in the service of the Lord at Shiloh. As a leader and judge of Israel he anointed Saul as the first king of Israel.

4 That the LORD called Samuel: and he answered, Here am ^a1.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

7 Now Samuel did not yet know the ^bLORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, ^cSpeak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

Samuel becomes a prophet-priest

11 ¶ And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall ^dtingle.

12 In that day I will perform against Eli all things which I have ^espoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he ^fknoweth; because his ^gsons made themselves vile, and he restrained them ^hnot.

14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall ⁱnot be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 ¶ And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the ^jdoors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to ^kshew Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: ^lGod do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he said unto thee.

18 And Samuel told him ^mevery whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the ⁿLORD: let him do what seemeth him good.

The LORD is with Samuel

19 ¶ And Samuel ^ogrew, and ^pthe LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ^qground.

20 And all Israel ^rfrom Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD.

3:13 HIGH PRIESTS OF ISRAEL

High priests were in charge of worship in Israel. Although Eli is not specifically called a "high priest," he was in charge of the Shiloh sanctuary.

2. He was anointed.
3. He possessed authority over lay officials.
4. He wore an ephod (breastplate) containing 12 precious stones that represented the 12 tribes. The ephod also contained the Urim and Thummin that enabled the priest to receive specific guidance from God on matters not addressed in the Law.
5. He wore a turban on his head.
6. Only he could enter the Holy of Holies on the Day of Atonement to offer the sacrifice for atonement.

21 And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the ^aLORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

*Philistines capture ark of God;
Eli's two sons die*

4 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and ^bpitched beside ^cEben-ezer: and the Philistines ^bpitched in ^dAphek.

2 And the ^ePhilistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 ¶ And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, ^fWherefore hath the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistines? ^gLet us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from ^hthence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which ⁱdwelleth between the cherubims: and the ^jtwo sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, ^kall Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What ^lmeaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, ^mWoe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and ⁿquit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to ⁿyou: ^mquit yourselves like ^omen, and fight.

10 ¶ And the Philistines fought, and ^pIsrael was smitten, and they fled every man into his ^qtent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ark of God was ^rtaken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were ^sslain.

Eli dies; God's glory departs from Israel

12 ¶ And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day with ^this clothes ^urent, and with earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli ^vsat upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told ^wit, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What ^xmeaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were ^ydim, that he could not see.

16 And the man said unto Eli, I ^zam he that came out of the army, and I fled to day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son?

17 And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hophni and 4:1 The first sentence relates to 1 Sam. 3:21.

Hophni: fighter. Son of Eli. A priest who was killed by the Philistines when the ark of the covenant was captured.

Phinehas: serpent's mouth. Son of Eli. A priest who was killed by the Philistines when the ark of the covenant was captured.

Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken.

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that ^ahe fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

19 ¶ And his daughter in law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said unto her, ^bFear not; for thou hast born a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it.

21 And she named the child ^cl-chabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel: ^dbecause the ark of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband.

22 And she said, The glory is departed from Israel: for the ark of God is taken.

God provoked with Philistines because of the ark

5 And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from ^eEben-ezer unto Ashdod.

2 When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by ^fDagon.

3 ¶ And when they of Ashdod arose early on the ^gmorrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and ^hset him in his place again.

4 And when they arose early on the ⁱmorrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

6 But the ^jhand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and ^khe destroyed them, and ^lsmote them with ^memerods, even Ashdod and the ⁿcoasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the ^oGod of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is ^psore upon us, and upon Dagon our god.

8 They ^qsent therefore and gathered all the ^rlords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto ^sGath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about ^tthither.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the ^uhand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had ^vemerods in their secret parts.

10 ¶ Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people.

11 So they ^wsent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the ^xhand of God was very heavy there.

12 And the men that died not were smitten with the ^yemerods: and the ^zcry of the city went up to heaven.

Ark returned to Israel

6 And the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the ^adiviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not ^bempty; but ^cin any wise return him a ^dtrespass-offering: ^ethen ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the trespass-offering which we shall return to him? They answered, ^fFive golden ^gemerods, and five golden mice, ^haccording to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your ⁱemerods, and images of your mice that mar the land; and ye shall give ^jglory unto the God of Israel: ^kperadventure he will ^llighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land.

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh ^mhardened their hearts? when he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people ⁿgo, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a new ^ocart, and take two ^pmilch kine, on which there ^qphath come no yoke, and tie the ^rkine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them:

8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return him ^sfor a trespass-offering, in a ^tcoffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go.

9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own ^ucoast to ^vBeth-shemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then ^wwe shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us.

10 ¶ And the men did so; and took two ^xmilch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home:

11 And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the ^ycoffer with the mice of gold and the images of their ^zemerods.

12 And the ^{aa}kine took the straight way to the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the ^{ab}high-way, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their ^{ac}wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they ^{ad}clave the wood of the cart, and ^{ae}offered the ^{af}kine a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

15 And ^{ag}the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the ^{ah}coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt-offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD.

16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 And ^{ai}these are the golden ^{aj}emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass-offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for ^{ak}Gath one, for Ekron one;

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of ^{al}defenced cities, and of country villages, even unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite.

19 ¶ And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, ^{am}because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he ^{an}smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, be-

21 ¶ And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of ^cKirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

Twenty years waiting; revival begins

7 And the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of ^dAbinadab in the hill, and ^esanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

3 ¶ And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do ^freturn unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the ^gstrange gods and ^hAshtaroth from among you, and ⁱprepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him ^konly: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel ^mdid put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to ⁿMizpeh, and ^oI will pray for you unto the LORD.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and ^ppour'd it out before the LORD, and ^qfasted on that day, and said there, We have ^rsinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, ^sthey were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, ^tCease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

Israelites victorious at Eben-ezer

9 ¶ And Samuel took a ^usucking lamb, and offered it for a burnt-offering wholly unto the LORD: and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD ^vheard him.

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but the LORD thundered with a great ^wthunder on that day upon the Philistines, and ^xdiscomfited them; and they were ^ysmitten before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel took a ^zstone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 ¶ ^{aa}So the Philistines were subdued, and ^{bb}they came no more into the ^{cc}coast of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the ^{dd}coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

Summary of Samuel's ministry

2 Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abiah: they were judges in ^dBeer-sheba.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after ^elucre, and took ^fbribes, and perverted ^gjudgment.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto ^hRamah,

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now ⁱmake us a king to judge us like all the nations.

God protests Israel's demand

6 ¶ But the thing ^jdispleased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel ^kprayed unto the LORD.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Harken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: ^lfor they have not rejected thee, but they have ^mrejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet ⁿprotest solemnly unto them, and ^oshew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

Samuel warns about a king

10 ¶ And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a king.

11 And he said, This will be the ^pmanner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your ^qsons, and appoint them for himself, for his ^rchariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12 And he will ^sappoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to ^tear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be ^uconfectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And he will take your ^vfields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your ^wgoodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the LORD will ^xnot ^yhear you in that day.

God agrees to a king

19 ¶ Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us;

20 ^aThat we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and ^bhe rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.

II. The Anointing and Rejection of Saul as King of Israel, 9–15

God chooses Saul as king

9 Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was ^fKish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a ^ggoodly; and there was not among the children of Israel a ^hgoodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he ⁱwas ^jhigher than any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

4 And he passed through ^kmount Ephraim, and passed through the land of ^lShalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of ^mZuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let ⁿus return; lest my father leave ^ocaring for the asses, and ^ptake thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a ^qman of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he saith cometh surely to ^rpass: now let us go ^sthither; ^tperadventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

ISRAEL DEMANDS A KING

The demand of Israel, as recorded in this chapter (vv. 5, 19–20), did not mean the end of the theocratic kingdom. Although it implied a rejection of God (v. 7), the people's demand was granted only in part. They were given a king, but certainly not "like all the nations." God is always sovereign over the nations in providential control (Acts 17:26), but in this instance He reserved for Himself the right to choose the king by direct control (9:17; Hos. 13:11), and the king was made personally responsible to God for his actions (13:13–14), thus clearly indicating an unbroken continuance of the LORD's particular sovereignty over the nation.

The theocratic kingdom established at Sinai over the nation of Israel, through which God purposed to bless all other nations (Ex. 19:5–6), was a rule of God administered mediocrally, that is, through divinely chosen persons who spoke and acted for God in governing functions, and who were directly responsible to God for what they did. These mediatorial rulers could be great leaders like Moses and Joshua, military judges, or even kings; but God is always the real sovereign down to the end of the kingdom in history (1 Chr. 29:25).

The visible symbol of God's presence as the divine Ruler was the Shekinah Glory. This Glory entered and filled the tabernacle at the establishment of the kingdom at Sinai (Ex. 40:34–38), led the nation into the land, was manifested in the temple of Solomon (2 Chr. 7:1–2), and departed spectacularly from Jerusalem as the kingdom came to an end at the Babylonian captivity, when governmental sovereignty was transferred to the Gentiles (compare Ezek. 11:23 with Dan. 2:31–38). When the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled, this mediatorial kingdom of God on earth will be restored at the coming of God's Messiah in great power and glory to reign over the nations as the perfect mediatorial King (Mic. 4:1–8).

This mediatorial kingdom on earth should not be confused with that original and universal kingdom of God which always exists efficaciously and embraces all objects, persons, and events, all doings of individuals and nations, all operations and changes of nature and history absolutely without exception (Ps. 103:19; Dan. 4:17). However, the mediatorial earthly kingdom may properly be regarded as a phase of the universal kingdom of God (1 Cor. 15:24). For a Summary of the Kingdom in O.T., see Zech. 12:8, note.

But, behold, if we go, what shall we ^abring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we?

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a ^bshekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (c)Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to enquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a Prophet was ^dbeforetime called a ^eSeer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young ^fmaidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for ^g*there* is a sacrifice of the people to day in the ^hhigh place:

13 As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall ⁱstraightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out ^jagainst them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying,

16 To morrow about this time ^kI will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt ^lanoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have ^mlooked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him, ⁿBehold the man whom I spake to thee of! this same shall ^oreign over my people.

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And ^pas for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And ^qon whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of the ^rsmallest of the tribes of Israel? and ^smy family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? ^twherefore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up the ^ushoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is left! set it before thee, and eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 ¶ And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel ^vcommuned with Saul ^wupon the top of the house.

26 And they arose early: and it came to pass about the ^xspring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still a while, that I may shew thee the word of God.

Saul privately anointed king

10 Then ^aSamuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and ^bkissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath anointed thee to be ^ccaptain over his ^dinheritance?

2 When thou art departed from me to day, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel's ^esepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for ^gyou, saying, What shall I do for my son?

3 Then shalt thou go on forward from ^hthence, and thou shalt come to the ⁱplain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God ^jto Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a ^kbottle of wine:

4 And they will ^lsalute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands.

5 After that thou shalt come to the ^mhill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art come ⁿthither to the city, that thou shalt meet a ^ocompany of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a ^ptabret, and a ^qpipe, and a harp, before them; and ^rthey shall prophesy:

6 And the ^sSpirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and ^tthou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

7 And let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, that ^uthou do as occasion serve thee; for God is with ^vthee.

8 And thou shalt go down before me to ^wGilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt-offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings: ^xseven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do.

9 ¶ And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God ^ygave him another heart:

and all those signs came to pass that day.

10 And ^zwhen they came ^{aa}thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him; and the ^{ab}Spirit of God came upon ^{ac}him, and he ^{ad}prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him ^{ae}beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied among the ^{af}prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had ^{ag}made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 ¶ And Saul's ^{ah}uncle said unto him and to his servant, ^{ai}Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were ^{aj}found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

Saul publicly installed as king of Israel

17 ¶ And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to ^{ak}Mizpeh;

18 And said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of ^{al}Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

19 And ye have this day ^{am}rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your ^{an}tribes, and by your thousands.

of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they ^aenquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come ^bthither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the ^cstuff.

23 And they ran and fetched him ^dthence: and when he stood among the people, he was ^ehigher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath ^fchosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, ^gGod save the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the ^hmanner of the ⁱkingdom, and wrote it in a book, and ^jlaid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 ¶ And Saul also went ^khome to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched.

27 But ^lthe children of Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no ^mpresents. But he held his peace.

Saul defeats the Ammonites

11 Then ⁿNahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against ^oJabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a ^pcovenant with us, and we will serve thee.

2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, ^qthat I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a ^rreproach upon all Israel.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the ^scoasts of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 ¶ They will come the messengers to ^tGibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ^uears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, ^vand wept.

5 And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What aieth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

6 And the ^wSpirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and ^xhewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the ^ycoasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, ^zWhosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one ^{aa}consent.

8 And when he numbered them in ^{bb}Bezek, the children of Israel were ^{cc}three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, To-morrow, by that time the sun be hot, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and ^{dd}shewed it to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, ^{ee}To-morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And it was so on the ^{ff}mor-row, that Saul put the people in ^{gg}three companies; and they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

Saul confirmed in kingship

12 ¶ And the people said unto Samuel, ^{hh}Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to ⁱⁱdeath.

Integrity of Samuel's judgeship

12 And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have ^fhearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and ^ghave made a king over you.

2 And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am ^hold and grayheaded; and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3 Behold, here I am: witness against me before the LORD, and before his ⁱanointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I ^jtaken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any ^kbribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

4 And they said, ^lThou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ^mought of any man's hand.

5 And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ⁿye have not found ^oought ^oin my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

Samuel recounts the LORD's past deliverances of Israel

6 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD that ^padvanced Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may ^qreason with you ^rbefore the LORD of all the ^srighteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers.

8 When Jacob was come into ^tEgypt, and your fathers cried unto the LORD, then the LORD ^usent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they ^vforgat the LORD their God, he sold them into the hand of ^wSisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the ^xPhilistines, and into the hand of the king of ^yMoab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and ^zsaid, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served Baalim and ^{aa}Ashtaroth: but now ^{bb}deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

11 And the LORD sent Jerubbaal, and ^{cc}Bedan, and ^{dd}Jephthah, and ^{ee}Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

God confirms kingship

12 And ^{ff}when ye saw that Nabal the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay; but a ^{gg}king shall reign over us: when the LORD your God was your ^{hh}king.

13 ⁱⁱNow therefore behold the king ^{jj}whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired! and, behold, the LORD hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will ^{kk}fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the LORD your God:

15 But if ye will ^{ll}not obey the voice of the LORD, but ^{mm}rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 ¶ Now therefore ^astand and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 ^bIs it not wheat harvest to day? I will call unto the LORD, and he shall send ^cthunder and ^drain; that ye may perceive and see that your ^ewickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly ^ffeared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, ^gPray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins ^hthis evil, to ask you a king.

Saul's self-seeking and cowardice

13 Saul ^wreigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,

2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel; ^xwhereof two thousand were with Saul in ^yMichmash and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with ^zJonathan in ^{aa}Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the ^{ab}garrison of the Philistines that ^{ac}was in ^{ad}Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear.

4 And all Israel heard ^{ae}say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and ^{af}that Israel also was ^{ag}had in ^{ah}abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people ^{ai}as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and ^{aj}pitched in Michmash, eastward from ^{ak}Beth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were ^{al}in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did ^{am}hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

7 And ^{an}some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the ^{ao}land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he ^{ap}was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

13:1 There are two numerical problems in this verse. Its first and second parts read literally "Saul was . . . years old" and "he reigned . . .—two years over Israel." Conjectures as to Saul's age at his ascension have ranged from thirty to forty. As for the second part of the verse, it is clear from Biblical history that he did not reign only two years. Acts 13:21 gives his reign as forty years, perhaps a round number. Evidently, in both parts of the verse, numbers were lost in manuscript transmission.

Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might ^asalute him.

11 ¶ And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that ^bthe Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash;

12 Therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt-offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, ^cThou hast done ^dfoolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he ^ecommanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

14 But now thy kingdom shall ^fnot continue: the LORD hath ^gsought him a man ^hafter his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast ⁱnot kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

Israel helpless before Philistines

15 And Samuel arose, and ^jgat him up from Gilgal unto Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were present with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17 ¶ And ^kthe spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to ^lOphrah, unto the land of Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to ^mBeth-horon: and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the valley of ⁿZeboim toward the wilderness.

19 ¶ Now there was no ^osmith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his ^pshare, and his coulter, and his axe, and his ^qmattock.

21 Yet they had a file for the ^rmattocks, and for the ^scoulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goods.

22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, that ^tthere was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the ^upassage of Michmash.

Jonathan's bold assault

14 Now it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the ^vuttermost part of ^wGibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in ^xMigron: and the people that were with him were about six hundred men;

3 And Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, ^yI-chabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh, ^zwearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

5 The ^b forefront of the one was situate northward over ^c against Michmash, and the other southward over ^c against Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these ^d uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD to ^e save by many or by few.

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will ^f discover ourselves unto them.

9 If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a ^g sign unto us.

11 And both of them ^h discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had ⁱ hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and ^j we will shew you ^k a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for ^l the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they ^m fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was ⁿ trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the ^o spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling.

Subsequent victory of Israel

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, ^p Bring ^q hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, while Saul ^r talked unto the priest, that the noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, every man's sword was against his ^s fellow, and there was a very great ^t discomfiture.

21 Moreover the ^u Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also ^v turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise ^w all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 So the LORD ^x saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over unto ^y Beth-aven.

Ahiah: brother of Jehovah. A priest in Saul's army who was in charge of the ark of the covenant.

Saul's rash order overridden

24 ¶ And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had ^aadured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 And all they of the land came to a ^bwood; and there was honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the ^bwood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore ^che put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were ^denlightened.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father ^estraitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, ^fMy father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have ^gbeen enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much ^hmore, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to ⁱAijalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And ^jthe people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the ^kblood.

33 ¶ Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me ^lhither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul ^mbuilt an altar unto the LORD: the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

36 ¶ And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near ⁿhither unto God.

37 And Saul ^oasked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him ^pnot that day.

38 And Saul said, ^qDraw ye near ^rhither, all the chief of the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.

39 For, as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, ^sthough it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, ^tGive a perfect ^ulot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast ^vlots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, ^wTell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, ^xI did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, God do so and more also: ^yfor thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: as the LORD liveth, there shall ^znot one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought ^zwith God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

Summary of Saul's reign: constant warfare on every side

47 ¶ So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.

48 And he gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchishua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

Saul's incomplete obedience

15 Samuel also said unto Saul, The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley.

6 ¶ And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying,

11 It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night.

Samuel rebukes Saul

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

Amalek: Grandson of Esau, from whom the Amalekites descended. Also refers to a group of nomadic people and the area they inhabited.

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the ^apeople spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, ^bWhen thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel?

18 And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed.

19 ^cWherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have ^dobeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, ^eHath the LORD as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hear-ken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of ^fwitchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. ^gBecause thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also ^hrejected thee from be- ing king.

24 ¶ And Saul said unto Samuel, ⁱI have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared the ^jpeople, and obeyed their voice.

25 ^kNow therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD.

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for ^lthou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it ^mrent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, The LORD hath ⁿrent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also the ^oStrength of Israel will not ^plie nor ^qrepent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet ^rhonour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, ^sthat I may worship the LORD thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 ¶ Then said Samuel, Bring ye ^thither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him ^udelicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, ^vAs thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34 ¶ Then Samuel went to ^wRamah; and Saul went up to his house to ^xGibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his ^ydeath:

nevertheless Samuel ^amourned for Saul: and the LORD ^brepented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

III. The Parallel Lives of Saul and David to the Death of Saul, 16-31

Samuel sent to Beth-lehem

16 And the LORD said unto Samuel, ^cHow long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have ^drejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with ^eoil, and go, I will send thee to ^fJesse the Beth-lehemite: for I have provided me a ^gking among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and ^hI will shew thee what thou shalt do: and ⁱthou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to ^jBeth-lehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, ^kComest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: ^lsanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 ¶ And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on ^mEliab, and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, ⁿLook not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: ^ofor the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the ^poutward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the ^qheart.

8 Then Jesse called ^rAbinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, ^sThere remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the ^tsheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come ^uhither.

David anointed king

12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he ^vwas ^wruddy, and withal of a ^xbeautiful countenance, and ^ygoodly to look to. And the LORD said, ^zArise, anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and ^{aa}anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the ^{bb}Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day ^{cc}forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

David in Saul's court

14 ¶ But the Spirit of the LORD ^{dd}departed from Saul, and an ^{ee}evil spirit from the LORD troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man, who is a ^{ff}ecunning player on an harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall ^{gg}play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is ^{hh}ecunning in playing, and a mighty ⁱⁱvaliant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a ^{jj}comely person, and the ^{kk}LORD is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

Jesse: gift. Father of David and an ancestor of Christ.

David: beloved. The youngest son of Jesse. He was a man after God's own heart who was the greatest king of Israel.

20 And Jesse ^atook an ass laden with bread, and a ^bbottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and ^cstood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

Goliath defies Israel

17 Now the ^ePhilistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at ^fShochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and ^gpitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and ^hpitched by the ⁱvalley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 ¶ And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named ^jGoliath, of ^kGath, whose height was six cubits and a ^lspan.

5 And he had an helmet of ^mbrass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of ⁿbrass.

6 And he had ^omgreaves of brass upon his legs, and a ^ptarget of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a ^qweaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and ^rone bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye ^sservants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve ^tus.

10 And the Philistine said, ^uI defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ Now David was the ^vson of that ^wEphrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had ^xeight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were ^yEliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shamah.

14 And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went and returned from Saul to ^zfeed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

16:21 David came to Saul. Compare 1 Sam. 17:55-56. The order of events is:

(1) David, whose skill on the harp and whose valor in the combat with the lion or the bear (1 Sam. 17:34-36) were known to one of the servants of Saul, was brought to play before the king (1 Sam. 16:17-23).

(2) David returned to Beth-lehem (1 Sam. 17:15).

(3) David was sent to Saul's camp (1 Sam. 17:17-18) and performed his great exploit.

And (4) Saul's question (1 Sam. 17:55-56) implied only that he had forgotten the name of David's father—certainly not remarkable in an oriental king.

17:1 Ephes-dammim. Or Pas-dammim, 1 Chr. 11:13. 17:18 their pledge. That is, some token from them.

Goliath: exile. A giant who fought for the Philistines. He was killed by the boy David with a stone from his sling.

David visits brethren and hears the boasting of the Philistines

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, ^aTake now for thy brethren an ^bephah of this parched ^ccorn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren;

18 And ^dcarry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and ^elook how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 ¶ And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

22 And David left his ^fcarriage in the hand of the ^gkeeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and ^hsaluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and ⁱspake according to the same words: and David heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were ^jsore afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will ^kgive him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the ^lreproach from Israel? for who is this ^muncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the ⁿliving God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 ¶ And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's ^oanger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down ^phither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle.

29 And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?

30 ¶ And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

David slays Goliath

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they ^qrehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him.

32 ¶ And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart ^rfail because of him; ^sthy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art ^tbut a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a ^ulion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and ^vdelivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said moreover, The LORD that ^wdelivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the ^xLORD be with thee.

38 ¶ And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of ^ybrass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

upon his armour, and he ^aassayed to go; for he had not ^bproved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not ^bproved them. And David put them off him.

40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a ^cscrip; and his ^dsling was in his hand; and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he ^edisdained him: for he was but a youth, and ^fruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a ^gdog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine ^hcursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine ⁱsaid to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the ^jfield.

45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but ^kI come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast ^ldefied.

46 This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and ^mtake thine head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may ⁿknow that there is a God in Israel.

47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD ^osaveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the ^pLORD'S, and he will give you into our hands.

48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew ^qnigh to meet David, that David hastened, and ^rran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a ^ssling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

17:50 GIANTS IN THE LAND

Although Goliath is the most well-known giant in the Bible, there are several places that refer to very large people living in the land.

Giants on the earth	Genesis 6:4
Giants in the Promised Land	Numbers 13:33
The people named Emims	Deuteronomy 2:10-11
The people named Zamzummim	Deuteronomy 2:20

Man of great stature	2 Samuel 21:20

51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his ^asword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they ^bfled.

52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of ^cEkron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to ^dShaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they ^espoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

55 ¶ And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, ^fAbner, whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 And the king said, Enquire thou whose ^gson the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, ^h*I am* the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

David beloved by Jonathan

18 And it came to pass, when he had ⁱmade an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him ^jas his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, and ^kwould let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a ^lcovenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and ^mgave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his ⁿgirdle.

5 ¶ And David went out ^owhithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely; and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that ^pthe women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with ^qtabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick.

7 And the women ^ranswered one another as they played, and ^ssaid, Saul hath ^tslain his thousands, and David his ^uten thousands.

Jealous Saul attempts to slay David

8 And Saul was very ^vwroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the ^wkingdom?

9 And Saul ^xeyed David from that day and ^yforward.

10 ¶ And it came to pass on the ^zmorrow, that the ^{aa}evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he ^{bb}prophesied in the midst of the house: and David ^{cc}played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a ^{dd}javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David ^{ee}avoided out of his presence twice.

12 ¶ And Saul was ^{ff}afraid of David, because the LORD was with ^{gg}him, and ^{hh}was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he ⁱⁱwent out and came in before the people.

14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and ^{jj}the LORD was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, ^{kk}because he went out and came in before them.

David marries Saul's daughter

17 ¶ And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter ^aMerab, her will I give thee ^bto wife: only be thou valiant for me, and ^cfight the LORD's battles. For Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the ^dhand of the Philistines be upon him.

18 And David ^esaid unto Saul, Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto ^fAdriel the ^gMeholathite ^hto wife.

20 And ⁱMichal Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the ^jhand of the ^kPhilistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, ^lThou shalt this day be my son in law in the one of the ^mtwain.

22 ¶ And Saul commanded his servants, saying, ⁿCommune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a ^opoor man, and lightly esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any ^pdowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be ^qavenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law: and the days were not expired.

27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their ^rforeskins, and they gave them in full ^stale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter ^tto wife.

28 ¶ And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal Saul's daughter loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself more ^uwisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much ^vset by.

David is thrice protected from Saul

19 And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill ^wDavid.

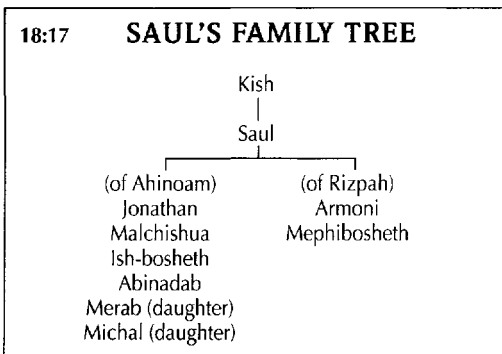

2 But Jonathan Saul's son delighted ^xmuch in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret ^yplace, and hide thyself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou ^zart, and I will ^{aa}commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell ^{ab}thee.

4 ¶ And Jonathan ^{ac}spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, ^{ad}Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been ^ato thee-ward very ^bgood:

5 For he ^cdid put his life in his hand, and ^dslew the Philistine, and the ^eLORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: ^fwherefore then wilt thou sin against ^ginnocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, ^has in times past.

8 ¶ And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and ⁱslew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

9 And the ^jevil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with ^khis hand.

10 And ^lSaul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

11 Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to ^mwatch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain.

12 ¶ So Michal ⁿlet David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' ^ohair for his ^pbolster, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, ^qHe ^ris sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers ^sagain to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, ^tthere was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' ^uhair for his ^vbolster.

17 And Saul said unto Michal,

Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee?

18 ¶ So David fled, and escaped, and came to ^wSamuel to ^xRamah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in ^yNaioth.

19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David ^zis at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And ^{aa}Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the ^{ab}company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing ^{ac}as appointed over them, the ^{ad}Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to a great well that ^{ae}is in Sechu: and he asked and said, Where ^{af}are Samuel and David? And ^{ag}one said, Behold, ^{ah}they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he went ^{ai}thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied ^{aj}before Samuel in like manner, and lay down ^{ak}naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, ^{al}Is ^{am}Saul also among the prophets?

David and Jonathan renew covenant

20 And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and ^{an}said before Jonathan, What have I done? what ^{ao}is mine iniquity? and what ^{ap}is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life?

2 And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will ^{aq}shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? ^{ar}it is not so.

3 And David ^{as}swore moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but ^atruly as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do it for thee.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the ^bnew moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at ^cmeat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the ^dfield unto the third day at even.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to ^eBeth-lehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very ^fwroth, then be sure that ^gevil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a ^hcovenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, ⁱif there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what ^jif thy father answer thee roughly?

11 ¶ And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about to morrow any time, ^kor the third day, and, behold, ^lif there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and shew it thee;

13 ^mThe LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD be with ⁿthee, as he hath ^obeen with my father.

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also thou shalt ^pnot cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan made a ^qcovenant with the house of David, ^rsaying, Let the LORD even ^srequire it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him ^tas he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, ^uTo morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty.

19 And ^vwhen thou hast stayed three days, ^wthen thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself when the business was ^xin hand, and shalt remain by the stone Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side ^ythereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And, behold, I will send a lad, ^zsaying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows ^{aa}are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for ^{ab}there is peace to thee, and no hurt; as the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, ^{ac}Behold, the arrows ^{ad}are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And ^{ae}as touching the ^{af}matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the ^{ag}LORD ^{ah}be between thee and me for ever.

Saul angry with Jonathan

24 ¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, ^{ai}even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and ^{aj}David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he ^{ak}is not ^{al}clean; surely he ^{am}is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the ^amorning, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, ^bWherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to ^cmeat, neither yesterday, nor to day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, ^dDavid earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own ^econfusion, and unto the ^econfusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy ^fkingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto ^gme, for he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, ^hWherefore shall he be slain? ⁱwhat hath he done?

33 And Saul cast a ^jjavelin at him to smite him: whereby ^kJonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no ^lmeat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow ^mbeyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his ⁿartillery unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city.

41 ¶ And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David ^oexceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, ^pGo in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

21 Then came David to ^qNob to Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech ^rwas afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

Ahimelech: of the king. A priest at Nob who gave David the showbread to eat when he was starving.

21:1 Ahimelech. Called Ahiah, 1 Sam. 14:3; also Abiathar, Mk. 2:26.

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.

6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the ^ashewbread, that was taken from before the ^bLORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was ^cDoeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

8 ¶ And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the priest said, The ^dsword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other ^esave that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

David, for fear of Saul, seeks safety at Gath

10 ¶ And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the ^fservants of Achish said unto him, ^g*Is* not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ^hten thousands?

12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was ⁱsore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he ^jchanged his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and ^kscrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is mad: ^lwherefore then have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

22 David therefore departed ^mthence, and escaped to the ⁿcave Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down ^othither to him.

2 And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a ^pcaptain over them: and there were with him about ^qfour hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went ^rthence to Mizpeh of ^rMoab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the ^shold.

5 ¶ And the prophet ^tGad said unto David, Abide not in the ^shold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

Achish: angry. The king of the city of Gath in Philistia. David fled to Gath when Saul was trying to kill him.

se, and there is none of you that is ^asorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

9 ¶ Then answered ^bDoeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to ^cNob, to Ahimelech the son of ^dAhitub.

10 And ^ehe enquired of the LORD for him, and ^fgave him ^gvictuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, ^hto lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so ⁱfaithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more.

16 And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all ^jthy father's house.

17 ¶ And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not put ^kforth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and ^lslew on that day fourscore and five persons ^mthat did wear a linen ephod.

19 And ⁿNob, the ^ocity of the priests, smote he with ^pthe edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 ¶ And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named ^qAbiathar, ^rescaped, and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar shewed David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when ^sDoeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not: for ^the that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

David saves Keilah from the Philistines

23 Then they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against ^aKeilah, and they rob the threshingfloors.

² Therefore David ^benquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

⁴ Then David enquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for ^cI will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

⁵ So David and his men went to Keilah, and ^dfought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

⁶ And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech ^efled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand.

⁷ ¶ And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars.

⁸ And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

⁹ ¶ And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he ^fsaid to Abiathar the priest, Bring ^ghither the ephod.

¹⁰ Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.

¹¹ Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down.

¹² Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee ^hup.

God protects David again; David goes to En-gedi

¹³ ¶ Then David and his men, which were about ⁱsix hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went /whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbare to go forth.

¹⁴ And David abode in the ^kwilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of ^lZiph. And Saul sought him every day, but ^mGod delivered him not into his hand.

¹⁵ And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life; and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

¹⁶ ¶ And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David into the wood, and ⁿstrengthened his hand in God.

¹⁷ And he said unto him, ^oFear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be ^pking over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth.

¹⁸ And they two made a ^qcovenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

¹⁹ ¶ ^rThen came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the ^shill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?

²⁰ Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and ^tour part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand.

²¹ And Saul said, Blessed be ye of the LORD; for ye have ^ucompassion on me.

²² Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtilly.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of ^bMaon, in ^cthe plain on the south of Jeshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men ^acompassed David and his men round about to take them.

27 ¶ But there ^ecame a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Sela-hammahlekoth.

29 ¶ And David went up from ^fthence, and dwelt in strong holds at ^gEn-gedi.

David's mercy to Saul in En-gedi

24 And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was ^htold him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.

2 Then Saul took ⁱthree thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a ^jcave; and Saul went in to ^kcover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.

4 And the men of David said unto him, ^lBehold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe ^mprivily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart ⁿsmote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

6 And he said unto his men, The ^oLORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.

7 So David ^pstayed his servants with these words, and ^qsuffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, ^rDavid stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

9 ¶ And David said to Saul, ^sWherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy ^thurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed.

11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have ^unot sinned against thee; yet thou ^vhuntest my soul to take it.

12 The LORD ^wjudge between me and thee, and the LORD ^xavenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

17 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for ^fthou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

Nabal's ingratitude; Abigail's wisdom

2 And there was a man in ^rMaon, whose possessions were in ^sCarmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was ^tchurlish and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of ^uCaleb.

4 ¶ And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did ^vshear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name:

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, ^wPeace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, ^xneither was there ^yought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a ^zgood day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

10 ¶ And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, ^{aa}Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his master.

11 ^{bb}Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not ^{cc}whence they be?

12 So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword.

25:3 Nabal. Literally fool, v. 25.

And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about ^afour hundred men; and two hundred abode by the ^bstuff.

14 ¶ But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to ^csalute our master; and he railed on them.

15 But the men ^dwere very good unto us, and ^ewe were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we ^ewere conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

16 ¶ They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and ^htook two hundred loaves, and two ⁱbottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five ^jmeasures of parched ^kcorn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid ^lthem on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants, ^mGo on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the ⁿcovert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down ^oagainst her; and she met them.

21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this ^pfellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that ^qpertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for ^rgood.

22 ^sSo and more also do God unto the enemies of David, ^tif I leave of all that ^upertain to him by the morning light any ^vthat pisseth against the wall.

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hastened, and ^wlighted off the ass, and ^xfell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, 24 And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, ^yupon me let this iniquity be: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in ^zthine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this ^{aa}man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withholden thee from coming to ^{ab}shed blood, and from ^{ac}avenging thyself with thine own hand, now ^{ad}let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

27 And now this ^{ae} blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgive ^{af}the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a ^{ag}sure house; because my lord ^{ah}fighteth the battles of the LORD, and ^{ai}evil hath not been found in thee ^{aj}all thy days.

29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be ^{ak}bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he ^{al}sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ^{am}ruler over Israel;

31 That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood ^{an}causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but ^{ao}when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

David again spares Saul

26 And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before ^sJeshimon?

2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having ^tthree thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

5 ¶ And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had ^upitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and ^vAbner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people ^upitched round about him.

6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to ^wAbishai the son of Zeruiah, broth-

Abigail: father of exultation. The wise wife of Nabal who apologized for her husband's blunder and fed David and his troops. Later she became David's wife.

Abner: of light. The commander of King Saul's army.

26:6 Hittite. Until the twentieth century the Hittites were unknown apart from the Bible. This once puzzling reference to them has, however, been illuminated by the findings of archaeology. From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century revealed that Boghaz-koï in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000–1800 B.C. and about 1400–1200 B.C.

er to ^aJoab, saying, Who ^bwill go down with me to Saul to the camp? And ^cAbishai said, I will go down with thee.

7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his ^dbolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then said Abishai to David, ^eGod hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for ^fwho can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?

10 David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, the ^gLORD shall smite him; or his day shall come to ^hdie; or he shall descend into battle, and ⁱperish.

11 The LORD ^jforbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his ^kbolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's ^lbolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a ^mdeep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

13 ¶ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them:

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? ⁿwherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his ^obolster.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, ^pIs this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, ^qWherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the ^rLORD have stirred thee up against me, let him accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, ^scursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the ^tinheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods.

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the ^uLORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a ^vflea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

Saul admits his guilt

21 ¶ Then said Saul, ^wI have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my ^xsoul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the ^yfool, and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 The ^zLORD ^{aa}render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed.

24 And, behold, as thy life was much ^{ab}set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much ^{ac}set by ^{ad}in the eyes of the LORD, and let him ^{ae}deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and

David seeks shelter

27 And David ^bsaid in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any ^ccoast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred ^dmen that were with him unto ^eAchish, the son of Maoch, king of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, ^fevery man with his household, even David with his two wives, ^gAhinoam the Jezreelitess, and ^hAbigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.

5 ¶ And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee?

6 Then Achish gave him ⁱZiklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 And the time that David ^jdwelt in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months.

8 ¶ And David and his men went up, and invaded the ^kGeshurites, and the ^lGezrites, and the ^mAmalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to ⁿShur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and ^otook away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, ^pWhither have ye made a ^qroad to day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the ^rJerahmeelites, and against the south of the ^sKenites.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

12 And Achish believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

28 And it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy ^tmen.

2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David,

3 ¶ Now ^aSamuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, ^beven in his own city. And Saul had put away those that ^chad familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and ^dpitched in ^eShunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they ^dpitched in ^fGilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled.

6 And ^gwhen Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him ^hnot, neither by ⁱdreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.

7 ¶ Then said Saul unto his servants, ^jSeek me a woman ^kthat hath a familiar spirit, ^lthat I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, ^mthere is a woman ^kthat hath a familiar spirit at ⁿEn-dor.

8 And Saul ^odisguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, ^pdivine unto me ^pby the familiar spirit, and ^qbring me ^{him} up, whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath ^rcut off those that ^shave familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: ^twherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou ^uart Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

14 And he said unto her, What form ^vis he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; ^wand he ^vis covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it ^xwas Samuel, and ^yhe stooped with ^zhis face to the ground, and bowed himself.

28:7 THE REALM OF SPIRITS

The Bible gives strict instructions against delving into the realm of spirits (Lev. 19:31; 20:6-7,27; Dt. 18:10-12). Some who claim to have contact with spirits are frauds, but certainly there are genuine cases. God is against any form of spiritism, fraudulent or real. See 1 Chr. 10:13-14.

The most likely explanation is that the woman expected contact with a demon (posing as Samuel, v. 11) but, to her amazement and terror (v. 12), God actually permitted Samuel to appear to her and give a message of doom to Saul. The text clearly states that it was Samuel (vv. 15-16,20). No agent of Satan could have given a message so clearly from the LORD as v. 17.

The passage does not say that the woman "brought up" Samuel from the dead. The incident gives no support to the false contention of spiritists that they can speak with the dead. Mediums do not have access to the dead but communicate with spirits posing as persons who have died; thus these spirits are called lying spirits (1 Ki. 22:22).

28:6 Urim. Urim and Thummim mean lights and perceptions. Some make these to be simply a collective name for the stones of the breastplate, so that the total effect of the twelve stones is to manifest the lights and the perceptions of Him who is the antitype of the Aaronic high priest. Compare Lev. 8:8. It would seem to be conclusive that the Urim and the Thummim are additional to the stones of the breastplate. In use the Urim and the Thummim were connected, in some way not clearly expressed, with the ascertainment of the divine will in particular cases (Num. 27:21; Dt. 33:8; Ezra 2:63).

29:4 reconcile himself. Literally make himself pleasing.

ing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

17 And the LORD hath done to ^ahim, as he spake by me: for the LORD hath ^brent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David:

18 ^cBecause thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executest his fierce wrath upon ^dAmalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to-morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with ^eme: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul fell ^fstraightway all along on the earth, and was ^gsore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 ¶ And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was ^hsore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and ⁱI have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

David kept from fighting Israel

29 Now the Philistines gathered together all their ¹armies to ^jAphek: and the Israelites ^kpitched by a fountain which is in ^lJezeel.

2 And the ^mlords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but ⁿDavid and his men passed on in the ^orereward with Achish.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days, or these ^pyears, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines were ^qwroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his ^rplace which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to ^sbattle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to ^sus: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these ^tmen?

5 Is not this David, ^uof whom ^vthey sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

6 ¶ Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, ^was the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: ^xfor I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour thee not.

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philistines.

8 ¶ And David said unto Achish, But what have I ^ydone? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king?

9 And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, ^zas an ^{aa}angel of God: notwithstanding ^{bb}the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.

in the morning with thy master's servants ^athat are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David rescues Ziklag captives

30 And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to ^bZiklag on the third day, that the ^cAmalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire;

2 And had taken the ^dwomen captives, that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the city, and, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two ^ewives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed; for ^fthe people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David ^gencouraged himself in the LORD his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, ^hbring me ⁱhither the ephod. And ^jAbiathar brought ^kthither the ephod to David.

8 And ^lDavid enquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? ^mshall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all.

9 So ⁿDavid went, he and the six

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: ^ofor two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 ¶ And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water;

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his ^pspirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and ^qwhence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion ^rupon the south of the ^sCherethites, and upon ^tthe ^ucoast which belongeth to Judah, and upon ^vthe south of Caleb; and ^wwe burned Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my ^xmaster, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all ^ythe great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them ^zfrom the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon ^{aa}camels, and fled.

31 ¶ Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount ^vGilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melchi-shua, ^wSaul's sons.

3 ¶ And the battle went ^xsore against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was ^ysore wounded of the archers.

4 ^zThen said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these ^{aa}uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was ^{bb}sore afraid. ^{cc}Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, that same day together.

7 ¶ And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL

Author:
Unknown

Theme:
David's Reign

Date of writing:
10th Century B.C.

Background

First and Second Samuel are counted as one book in the Hebrew Bible. Second Samuel is occupied with the reign of David; the full record of his life extends from 1 Samuel 16:12—1 Kings 2:11.

First Samuel closes with the tragic death of Israel's first king, Saul; 2 Samuel begins with an account of the strife that preceded the establishment of the Davidic throne at Jerusalem. The book records David's military victories, his great sin, his flight at the time of Absalom's revolt, his return to Jerusalem, and his sin in numbering the people. The Davidic Covenant is set forth in 7:8–17.

Whereas the duration of the events in 1 Samuel is not known precisely, 2 Samuel covers a period of forty years.

I. From the Death of Saul to the Beginning of David's Reign, 1-4

David hears of Saul's death

1 Now it came to pass after the ^adeath of Saul, when David was returned from the ^bslaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag;

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, ^ca man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes ^drent, and earth upon his ^ehead: and so it was, when he came to David, that he ^ffell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 And David said unto him, From ^gwhence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, ^hHow went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and ⁱJonathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6 And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon ^jmount Gilboa, behold, ^kSaul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, Here ^lam I.

8 And he said unto me, Who ^mart thou? And I answered him, I ⁿam an ^oAmalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, because my life ^pis yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and ^qslaw him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the ^rcrown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them ^shither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and ^trent them; and ^ulike-wise all the men that ^vwere with him:

12 And they ^wmourned, and wept, and ^xfasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the ^ypeople of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 ¶ And David said unto the young man that told him, ^zWhence art thou? And he answered, ^{aa}I ^{ab}am the son of a ^{ac}wstranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand to destroy the ^{ad}LORD's anointed?

15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he ^{ae}dyed.

16 And David said unto him, Thy ^{af}blood ^{ag}be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

David's elegy

17 ¶ ^{ah}And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son:

18 (Also he ^{ai}bade them teach the children of Judah ^{aj}the use of the bow: behold, ^{ak}it is written in the ^{al}book of Jasher.)

19 ^{am}The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: ^{an}how are the mighty fallen!

20 Tell ^{ao}it not in ^{ap}Gath, publish ^{aq}it not in the streets of ^{ar}Askelon; lest the ^{as}daughters of the Philistines ^{at}rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye ^{au}mountains of Gilboa, ^{av}let there be no dew, neither ^{aw}let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, ^{ax}as though he had not been ^{ay}anointed with oil.

Special tribute to Jonathan

25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: ^ethy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

27 How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

David received as king by Judah

2 And it came to pass after this, that ^gDavid enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, ^hWhither shall I go up? And he said, Unto ⁱHebron.

2 So David went up ^jthither, and his ^ktwo wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

3 And his ^lmen that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of ^mJudah came, and there they ⁿanointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, That the men of ^oJabesh-gilead were they that buried Saul.

David commends Jabesh-gilead

5 ¶ And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, ^pBlessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now ^qthe LORD shew kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

Ish-bosheth made king over northern tribes

8 ¶ But ^rAbner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to ^sMahanaim;

9 And made him king over ^tGilead, and over the ^uAshurites, and over ^vJezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ish-bosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was ^wseven years and six months.

Civil war

12 ¶ And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to ^xGibeon.

13 And ^yJoab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met together by the ^zpool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ish-bo-sheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very ^asore battle that day; and ^bAbner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 ¶ ^cAnd there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel ^dwas as light of foot as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: ^ewherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the ^fhinder end of the spear ^gsmote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood ^hstill.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 ¶ And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ⁱere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liveth, unless thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up every one from following his brother.

28 So Joab ^jblew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no ^kmore, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the ^lplain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to ^mMahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

32 ¶ And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in ⁿBeth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

Abner deserts to David

6 ¶ And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was ^eRizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, ^fWherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner very ^gwroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, ^hAm I a dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 So do God to ⁱAbner, and more also, except, ^jas the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him;

10 To ^ktranslate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, ^lfrom Dan even to Beer-sheba.

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 ¶ And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

13 ¶ And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring ^mMichal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to ⁿ*Ish-bosheth* Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I ^oespoused to me ^pfor an hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

17 ¶ And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do it: for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the ^bPhilistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spake in the ^cears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ^cears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and ^dthat seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, ^eand will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thine heart ^fdesireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 ¶ And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy ^ggoing out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

Joab murders Abner

27 ¶ And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him ^haside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of ⁱAsahel his brother.

28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner:

29 Let it ^jrest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there ^knot fail from the house of Joab one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 ¶ And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, ^lRend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king ^mlamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came to ⁿcause David to eat ^omeat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, So do ^pGod to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ^qought else, ^rtill the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was

Ish-bosheth is murdered

4 And when Saul's son heard that ^cAbner was dead in ^dHebron, ^ehis hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a ^fBeerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin:

3 And the Beerothites fled to ^gGittaim, and were sojourners there until this day.)

4 And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the ^htidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of ⁱJezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was ^jMephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the ^khouse of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came ^lthither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him ^munder the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and ⁿgave them away through the ^oplain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, ^pwhich sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his ^qseed.

9 ¶ And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, who hath ^rredeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 ^sWhen one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now ^trequire his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12 And ^uDavid commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the ^vsepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

(1 Chr. 15:1-16:3; esp. 15:26-16:1)*

12 ¶ And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

13 And it was so, that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 ¶ And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 ¶ Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself!

21 And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD.

22 And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of the maid-servants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour.

THE DAVIDIC COVENANT

The Davidic Covenant (vv. 8-17), upon which the future kingdom of Christ, "which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh" (Rom. 1:3), was to be founded, provided for David:

- (1) the promise of posterity in the Davidic house;
- (2) a throne symbolic of royal authority;
- (3) a kingdom, or rule on earth; and
- (4) certainty of fulfillment, for the promises to David "shall be established for ever."

Solomon, whose birth God predicted (v. 12), was not promised a perpetual seed, but only assured that

- (1) he would "build an house for my name" (v. 13);
- (2) his kingdom would be established (v. 12);
- (3) his throne, that is, royal authority, would endure forever; and
- (4) if Solomon sinned, he would be chastised but not deposed.

The continuance of Solomon's throne, but not Solomon's seed, shows the accuracy of the prediction. Israel had nine dynasties; Judah had one. Christ was born of Mary, who was not of Solomon's line (Jer. 22:28-30); He was a descendant of Nathan, another son of David (compare Lk. 3:23-31 and note at Lk. 3:23). Joseph, the husband of Mary, was descended from Solomon and through him the throne legally passed to Christ (compare Mt. 1:6,16). Thus the throne, but not the seed, came through Solomon, which is in precise fulfillment of the LORD's promise to David.

In contrast with the irrevocable promise of perpetual fulfillment made to David, Solomon illustrates the conditional character of the Davidic Covenant as applied to the kings who followed him. Disobedience on the part of David's descendants would result in chastisement, but not in annulment of the covenant (2 Sam. 7:15; Ps. 89:20-37; Isa. 54:3,8,10). So chastisement fell, first in the division of the kingdom under Rehoboam, and finally in the captivities (2 Ki. 25:1-21). Since that time but one king of the Davidic family has been crowned at Jerusalem, and He was crowned with thorns. But the Davidic Covenant, given to David by the oath of the LORD and confirmed to Mary by the Angel Gabriel, is immutable (Ps. 89:20-37); and the LORD will yet give to that thorn-crowned One "the throne of his father David" (Lk. 1:31-33; Acts 2:29-32; 15:14-17). Both David and Solomon understood the promise to refer to a literal earthly kingdom (2 Sam. 7:18-29; 2 Chr. 6:14-16).

For notes on other major covenants, see: Edenic (Gen. 2:16); Adamic (Gen. 3:15); Noahic (Gen. 9:16); Abrahamic (Gen. 12:2); Mosaic (Ex. 19:5); Palestinian (Dt. 30:3); New (Heb. 8:8).

(1) is kindness to a helpless one (vv. 1-3; Eph. 2:1,4-7);

DISPENSATIONS AND COVENANTS

As compared with a covenant, a dispensation emphasizes more fully the divine side. God presents or dispenses a specific revelation or application of His will as the governing principle for each period, and when thus presented it tests man's response to God.

But a covenant involves the idea of an agreement between God and man, and may have reference to a particular individual or division of mankind.

4 And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of ^bMachir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.

5 ¶ Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

6 Now when ^cMephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did ^dreverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!

7 ¶ And David said unto him, ^eFear not: for ^fI will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and ^gwill restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and ^hthou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead ⁱdog as I am?

9 ¶ Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have ^jgiven unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and ^ashaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their ^bbuttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that ^cthey ^dstank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the ^eSyrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king ^fMaacah a thousand men, and of ^gIsh-tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the ⁱentering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of ^jAbishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 Be of good ^kcourage, and ^llet us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seemeth him ^mgood.

13 And Joab drew ⁿnight, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they ^ofled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to ^pJerusalem.

15 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of ^qseven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, ^rthey made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

David's great sin

11 And it came to pass, after the ^syear was ^texpired, at the ^utime when kings go forth to battle, that David sent ^vJoab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged ^wRabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 ¶ And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon ^xthe roof of the king's house: and from the roof he ^ysaw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David sent and enquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of ^aUriah the ^bHittite?

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he clay with her; for she was purified from her ^duncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and ^ewash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the ^fdoor of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?

11 And Uriah ^gsaid unto David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the ^hmorrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that David ⁱwrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be ^jsmitten, and die.

16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 ¶ Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast ^kmade an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king,

20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, ^lWherefore approached ye so ^mnigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who smote Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the ⁿwall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye ^mnigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

22 ¶ So the messenger went, and came and ^oshewed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the ^pentering of the gate.

Nathan rebukes David

12 And the LORD sent ^dNathan unto David. And he ^ecame unto him, and ^fsaid unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

Nathan: gift. The prophet who confronted David with his sins regarding Bath-sheba and Uriah.

12:9 Hittite. Until the twentieth century the Hittites were unknown apart from the Bible. This once puzzling reference to them has, however, been illuminated by the findings of archaeology. From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century revealed that Boghaz-koi in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000–1800 B.C. and about 1400–1200 B.C.

to the enemies of the LORD to ^ablaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely ^bdie.

15 ¶ And Nathan departed unto his house. And the ^cLORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.

16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and ^dlay all night upon the earth.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.

18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and ^ewashed, and ^fanointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set ^gbread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, ^hWho can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, ⁱwherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go ^jto him, but he shall ^knot return to me.

Birth of Solomon

24 ¶ And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and ^lhe called his name Solomon: and the LORD loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

David and Joab take Rabbah (1 Chr. 20:1-3)

26 ¶ And Joab fought against ^mRabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my name.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a ⁿtalent of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance.

31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them ^opass through the brick-kiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

Consequences of David's sin (chs. 13-20): Amnon's crime

13 And it came to pass after this, that ^pAbsalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was ^qTamar; and ^rAmnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and Amnon

Solomon: peaceable. The son of David and Bathsheba who became king after his father's death. He was known for his wealth and his wisdom.

12:25 Jedidiah. Literally beloved of the LORD. Neh. 13:26; compare Mt. 3:17.

thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 ¶ So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me. And they went out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this folly.

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee.

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.

15 ¶ Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 ¶ And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 ¶ But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

Absalom avenges Tamar and flees to Geshur

23 ¶ And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant ^bhath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be ^cchargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 ¶ Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is ^dmerry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

29 And the servants of Absalom ^edid unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon ^fhis mule, and fled.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and ^gstare his garments, and ^hlay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes ⁱrent.

32 And ^jJonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his ^kheart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead.

34 But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came ^lmuch people by the way of the hill side behind him.

35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy servant said, so it is.

36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had ^mmade an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept ⁿvery sore.

Absalom's flight to Geshur

37 ¶ But ^oAbsalom fled, and went to ^pTalmai, the son of Ammi-hud, king of ^qGeshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Absalom: for he was ^rcomforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

Joab's stratagem to effect the return of Absalom

14 Now ^sJoab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom.

2 And Joab sent to ^tTekoah, and fetched ^uthence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, ^vfeign thyself to be a mourner, and ^wput on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and ^xspeak on this manner unto him. So ^yJoab put the words in her mouth.

4 ¶ And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she ^zfell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king.

5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.

sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, ^afor the life of his brother whom he slew; and ^bwe will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the earth.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give ^ccharge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the ^diniquity be on me, and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be ^eguiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever saith fought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not ^gsuffer the ^hrevengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, ⁱAs the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the ^jearth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak ^kone word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, ^lWherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again ^mhis banished.

14 For we must needs ⁿdie, and ^oare ^pas water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God ^qrespect any person: yet doth he ^rdevise means, that his banished be not expelled from him.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, ^sit is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the ^tinheritance of God.

17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be ^ucomfortable: for ^vas an ^wangel of God, so is my lord the king to ^xdiscern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, ^yIs not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, ^zAs thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ^{aa}fought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he ^{ab}vade me, and ^{ac}we put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To ^{ad}fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing; and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an ^{ae}angel of God, to ^{af}know all things that are in the earth.

David forgives Absalom

21 ¶ And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king; and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 So Joab arose and went to ^{ag}Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

26 And when he ^apolled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he ^bpolled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he ^cpolled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king's weight.

27 And unto Absalom there were born ^dthree sons, and one daughter, whose name was ^eTamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 ¶ So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come shither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and ^hif there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king ⁱkissed Absalom.

III. From the Revolt of Absalom to the Numbering of the People, 15-24

15 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom ^jprepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom rose up early, and ^kstood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a ^lcontroversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is no man ^mdeputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom ⁿsaid moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came ^onigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and ^pkissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my ^avow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in ^bHebron.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, ^cthen I will serve the LORD.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 ¶ But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the ^dsound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom ^ereigneth in ^fHebron.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were ^gcalled; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Absalom sent for ^hAhithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, even from ⁱGiloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people ^jincreased continually with Absalom.

David flees

13 ¶ And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, ^kArise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, which were ^lconcubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the ^mCherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, ⁿsix hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 ¶ Then said the king to ^oIttai the Gittite, ^pWherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a ^qstranger, and also an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? ^rseeing I go ^swhither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: ^tmercy and truth be with thee.

21 And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall ^ube, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.

22 And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook ^vKidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the ^wwilderness.

Ark returned to Jerusalem

24 ¶ And lo ^xZadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the ^yark of the covenant of God: and they set down the ark of God; and ^zAbiathar went up, until all the people had ^{aa}done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he will ^{bb}bring me again, and shew me both it, and ^{cc}his habitation:

26 But if he thus say, I have no ^{dd}delight in thee; behold, here am I, ^{ee}let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

33 Unto whom David said, If thou passest on with me, then thou shalt be a ⁱburden unto me:

34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be thy ^jservant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant ^khitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel.

35 And hast thou not there with thee ^lZadok and Abiathar the priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 Behold, they have there with them ^mtheir two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ⁿye can hear.

37 So Hushai David's ^ofriend came into the city, and Absalom came into ^pJerusalem.

Ziba, the false servant of Mephibosheth

16 And when David was a little ^qpast the top of the hill, behold, ^rZiba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, ^swith a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred of summer fruits, and a ^tbottle of wine.

2 And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, ^uthat such as be faint in the ^vwilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is thy ^wmaster's son? And Ziba said unto the ^xking, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that ^y*pertained* unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

Shimei curses David

5 ¶ And when king David came to ^zBahurim, behold, ^{aa}thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he came forth, and ^{bb}cursed ^{cc}still as he came.

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come out, come out, thou bloody man, and thou ^{dd}man of Belial:

8 The LORD hath returned upon thee all the ^{ee}blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and, behold, thou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man.

9 ¶ Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this dead ^{ff}dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and ^{gg}take off his head.

10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye ^{hh}sons of Zeru-ah? so let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. ^aWho shall then say, ^bWherefore hast thou done so?

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, ^cBehold, my son, which came forth of my ^dbowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? let him alone, and let him curse; ^efor the LORD hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the LORD will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will ^frequite me ^ggood for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side ^hover against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, ⁱcame weary, and refreshed themselves there.

Absalom enters Jerusalem

15 ¶ And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to ^kJerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And it came to pass, ^lwhen Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that ^mHushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king.

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? ⁿwhy wentest thou not with thy ^ofriend?

18 And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, ^pwhom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

20 ¶ Then said Absalom to ^qAhithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do.

21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's ^rconcubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the ^shands of all that are with thee be strong.

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went ^tin ^uunto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And ^vthe counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had enquired at the oracle of God: was so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

Hushai thwarts Ahithophel

17 Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night:

2 And I will come upon him while he is ^xweary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king ^yonly:

3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.

4 And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the ^zelders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he ^{aa}saith.

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not; speak thou.

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is not good at this time.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, ^{bb}as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

10 And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly ^amelt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11 Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, ^bfrom Dan even to Beer-sheba, ^cas the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will ^ddraw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the ^eLORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

Hushai's warning saves David

15 ¶ Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the ^fplains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now ^gJonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by ^hEn-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a ⁱwench went and told them; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in ^jBahurim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground ^kcorn thereon; and the thing was not ^lknown.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman ^msaid unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there ⁿlacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 ¶ And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled ^ohis ass, and arose, and ^pgat him home to his house, to ^qhis city, and put his ^rhousehold in order, and ^shanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

Absalom pursues David

24 ¶ Then David came to ^tMahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 ¶ And Absalom made ^uAmasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of ^vNahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom ^wpitched in the land of Gilead.

Battle of mount Ephraim

18 And David numbered the people that were with him, and ^dset captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a ^ethird part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But the people answered, ^fThou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou ^gsuccour us out of the city.

4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains ^hcharge concerning Absalom.

6 ¶ So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the ⁱwood of Ephraim;

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the ^jwood devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

Joab slays Absalom

9 ¶ And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and ^khis head ^mcaught hold of the oak, and he was ⁿtaken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten ^oshekels of silver, and a ^pgirdle.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand ^qshekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: ^rfor there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. ^sAnd he took three ^tdarts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 And Joab ^ublew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the ^vwood, and ^wlaid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel ^xfled every one to his tent.

18 ¶ Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up ^yfor himself a pillar, which is in the ^zking's dale: for he said, ^zI have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

David's grief

19 ¶ Then said ^aAhimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, ^bhow that the LORD hath avenged him of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead.

21 Then said Joab to Cushy, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushy bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But ^chowsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushy. And Joab said, ^dWherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready?

23 But ^chowsoever, said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and ^eoverran Cushy.

24 And David sat between the two ^fgates: and the ^gwatchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with ^hgood tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, ⁱBlessed be the LORD thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When ^jJoab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.

30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And, behold, Cushy came; and Cushy said, Tidings, my lord the king: for ^kthe LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee.

32 And the king said unto Cushy, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushy answered, ^lThe enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee ^mhurt, be as that young man is.

33 ¶ And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son ⁿAbsalom, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for ^othee, O Absalom, my son, ^pmy son!

Joab reproves David

19 And it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and ^qmourneth for Absalom.

2 And the victory that day was turned into ^rmourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son.

3 And the people gat them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

4 But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, ^smy son!

5 And ^tJoab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast ^ushamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines;

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends. For thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased thee well.

David restored to his kingdom

8 ¶ Then the king arose, and sat in the ^bgate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth ^csit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Israel had ^dfled every man to his tent.

9 ¶ And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our ^eenemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the /Philistines; and now ^fhe is fled out of the land for Absalom.

10 And Absalom, whom ^hwe anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

11 ¶ And king David sent to ⁱZadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my /bones and my flesh: ^kwherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

13 And say ye to ^lAmasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? ^mGod do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the ⁿroom of ^oJoab.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the ^pmen of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to ^qGilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king ^rover Jordan.

16 ¶ And ^sShimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of Bahurim, hastened and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of ^tBenjamin with him, and ^uZiba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan;

19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did ^vperversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his ^wheart.

20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come the first this day of all the ^xhouse of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, ^ybecause he ^zcursed the LORD's anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of ^{aa}Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? shall there any ^{bb}man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, ^{cc}Thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

24 ¶ And ^{dd}Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, ^{ee}Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

19:22 What have I to do with you. That is, What have we in common?

ass, that I may ride ^athereon, and go to the king; because thy servant ^bis lame.

27 And he ^chath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king ^dis ^eas an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

28 ^fFor all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; yet didst thou ^gset thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 ¶ And ^hBarzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old; and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man.

33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Barzillai said unto the king, How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?

35 I am this day ⁱfourscore years old: and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more ^jthe voice of singing men and singing women? ^kwherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king; and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant ^lChimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king ^mkissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

Strife between Judah and Israel about their part in David, the king

41 ¶ And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, ⁿWhy have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have ^obrought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king ^pis near of kin to us: ^qwherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ^rten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20 And there happened to be there a ^sman of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no ^tpart in David, neither have we inheritance in the ^uson of Jesse: every man to his ^vtents, O Israel.

Judah ^aclave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his ^bconcubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ^cward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

Joab murders Amasa

4 ¶ Then said the king to Amasa, ^dAssemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to ^eAbishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him ^ffenced cities, and escape us.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the ^gCherethites, and the Pelethites, and ^hall the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a ⁱgirdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he ^jsmote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his ^kbowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the ^lmidst of the highway.

And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him ^mstood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

Sheba's revolt is suppressed

14 ¶ And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto ⁿAbel, and to Beth-maachah, and all the ^oBerites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in ^pAbel of Beth-maachah, and they cast up a ^qbank against the city, and it stood in the ^rtrench: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 ¶ Then cried ^sa wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near ^thither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, They were ^uwont to speak in ^vold time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou ^wseekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the ^xinheritance of the LORD?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people in her ^ywisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the

Restitution to Gibeonites

21 Then there was a ^ffamine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David ^genquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were ^hnot of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the ⁱAmorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them ^jin his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the ^kinheritance of the LORD?

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, We will have ^lno silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the ^mcoasts of Israel,

6 Let ⁿseven men of his sons be delivered ^ounto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD in ^pGibeah of Saul, whom the LORD did ^qchoose. And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared ^rMephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the ^sLORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of ^tRizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahite:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first ^udays, in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 ¶ And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and ^vsuffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by ^wnight.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 ¶ And David went and ^xtook the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of ^yBeth-shan, where the ^zPhilistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa:

21:3 atonement. Hebrew kaphar, to propitiate, to atone for sin. According to Scripture the sacrifice of the law only covered the offerer's sin and secured the divine forgiveness. The O.T. sacrifices never removed man's sin; it is "not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins" (Heb. 10:4). The Israelite's offering implied confession of sin and recognized its due penalty as death; and God passed over his sin in anticipation of Christ's sacrifice which did, finally, put away those "sins that are past" [in O.T.

times] (Heb. 9:15,26; Rom. 3:25, note). See Gen. 4:4, with marginal ref. Sacrifice, and Lev. 16:6, note.

bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in ^aZelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God was ^bintreated for the land.

Final campaigns against Philistines

15 ¶ Moreover the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David ^cwaxed faint.

16 And Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of the ^dgiant, the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of ^ebrass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought ^fto have slain David.

17 But ^gAbishai the son of Zeruiah ^hsuccoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore unto him, saying, ⁱThou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the ^jlight of Israel.

18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then ^kSibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where ^lElhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew *the brother of m*Goliath the Gittite, the staff of ⁿwhose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 And when he ^odefied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea the brother of David slew him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his ^pservants.

David's song of deliverance

22 And David spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD had ^qdelivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul:

2 And he said, The LORD is my ^rrock, and my ^sfortress, and my deliverer;

3 The God of my rock; ^tin him will I ^utrust: he is my ^vshield, and the ^whorn of my salvation, my high tower, and my ^xrefuge, my saviour; thou savest me from violence.

4 I will call on the LORD, who is ^yworthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

5 When ^zthe waves of death compassed me, the floods of ungodly men made me afraid;

6 The sorrows of ^{aa}hell compassed me about; the snares of death ^{bb}prevented me;

7 ^{cc}In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God: and he did ^{dd}hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 Then the earth shook and ^{ee}trembled; the ^{ff}foundations of heaven moved and shook, because he was ^{gg}wroth.

9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and ^{hh}fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

10 He bowed the heavens also, and ⁱⁱcame down; and ^{jj}darkness was under his feet.

11 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: and he was seen upon the wings of the ^{kk}wind.

12 And he made darkness ^{ll}pavilions round about him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

13 Through the brightness before him were ^{mm}coals of fire kindled.

49 And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: thou also hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me: thou hast delivered me from the ^aviolent man.

50 Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the ^bheathen, and I will ^csing praises unto thy ^dname.

51 He is the ^etower of salvation for his king; and sheweth mercy to his ^fanointed, unto David, and to his seed ^gfor evermore.

David's last prophetic words

23 Now these be the last words of David. ^hDavid the son of Jesse said, and the man who was ⁱraised up on high, ^jthe anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel, said,

2 The ^kSpirit of the LORD spake by me, and his ^lword was in my tongue.

3 The God of Israel said, the ^mRock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be ⁿjust, ruling in the ^ofear of God.

4 And the shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass ^{springing} out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

5 Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an ^qeverlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

6 ¶ But the sons of Belial shall be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands:

7 But the man that shall touch them must be ^rfenced with iron and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place.

*Roll of David's mighty men
(cp. 1 Chr. 11:10-47)*

8 ¶ These be the names of the mighty men whom David had: The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite: he lift up his spear against ^seight hundred, whom he slew at one time.

9 And after him was Eleazar the son of ^tDodo the ^vAhohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:

10 He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was ^wweary, and his hand ^xclave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to ^yspoil.

11 And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a ^zpiece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he stood in the ^{aa}midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory.

13 And three of the thirty ^{bb}chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the ^{cc}cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines ^{dd}pitched in the ^{ee}valley of Rephaim.

14 And David was then in ^{ff}an hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem.

15 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!

16 And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but ^{gg}poured it out unto the LORD.

17 And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this ^{hh}the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

18 And ⁱⁱAbishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and

23:39 Hittite. Until the twentieth century the Hittites were unknown apart from the Bible. This once puzzling reference to them has, however, been illuminated by the findings of archaeology. From Egyptian monuments (Tell el-Amarna Tablets) and the Assyrian texts, it has been shown that these were the Kheta or Hatti. Expeditions in the twentieth century revealed that Boghaz-koï in Asia Minor (east of Ankara, Turkey) was the capital of the Hittite Empire. Periods of Hittite prominence: about 2000-1800 B.C. and about 1400-1200 B.C.

24:1 he. It is stated in 1 Chr. 21:1 that Satan moved David to do this. Evidently God permitted the devil to influence His servant in order that His own purposes might be carried out.

7 And came to the strong hold of ^aTyre, and to all the cities of the ^bHivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to ^cBeer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the ^dsum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel ^eeight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were ^efive hundred thousand men.

10 ¶ And David's heart ^fsmote him after that he had numbered the people. And ^gDavid said unto the LORD, ^hI have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for ⁱI have done very foolishly.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto ^jthe prophet Gad, David's ^kseer, saying, 12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall ^lseven years of ^mfamine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? now ⁿadvise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

14 And David said unto Gad, I am in ^oa great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; for his ^pmercies are great: and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 ¶ So ^qthe LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men.

16 And when the ^rangel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD ^srepented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the ^tthreshing-place of Araunah the Jebusite.

17 And David ^uspoke unto the LORD when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these ^vsheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.

*Plague averted by David's offering
(1 Chr. 21:18-30)*

18 ¶ And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite.

19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out,

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS

Author:
Unknown

Theme:
Kingdom United; Divided

Date of writing:
6th Century B.C.

Background

First and Second Kings were originally one book. They are appropriately called the Books of the Kings because they record the principal events and characteristics of the reigns of the kings of Judah and Israel from the death of David to the end of the kingdom of Judah and the fall of Jerusalem. The three major narratives of 1 Kings cover the reign of Solomon, including an extended account of the building of the Temple; the ministry of Elijah; and the reign of Ahab.

Judah's nineteen kings were all descendants of David and reigned 345 years. Israel had nineteen kings of nine dynasties, reigning 210 years, eight of whom were either slain or committed suicide. Judah had frequent revivals; the divided Israel, none.

3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the ^acoasts of Israel, and found ^eAbishag a ^fShunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.

Plot of Adonijah

5 ¶ Then Adonijah the ^gson of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and ^hhe prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also was a very ⁱgoodly man; ^jand his mother bare him after Absalom.

7 And he conferred with ^kJoab the son of Zeruah, and with ^lAbiathar the priest: and ^mthey following Adonijah helped ^{him}.

8 But ⁿZadok the priest, and ^oBenaiah the son of Jehoiada, and ^pNathan the prophet, and ^qShimei, and Rei, and the ^rmighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which ^sis by ^{En-rogel}, and ^tcalled all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants:

10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and ^uSolomon his brother, he ^vcalled not.

Plan of Nathan and Bath-sheba

11 ¶ Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth ^{it} not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, ^wAssuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

15 ¶ And Bath-sheba went in unto ^xthe king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What wouldest thou?

17 And she said unto him, My lord, thou swarest by the LORD thy God unto thine handmaid, ^ysaying, Assuredly ^{Solomon} thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.

18 And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest ^{it} not:

Abishag: of error. A young, Shunammite woman who took care of King David in his old age.

1:5 I will be king. Adonijah was Solomon's older brother (2:22; compare 1 Chr. 3:1-5), the oldest of David's living sons. Because he knew that David had previously proclaimed publicly that Solomon would succeed him (1 Chr. 22:1-19; 28:1-8), Adonijah plotted to seize the throne by a coup d'état. The plot failed. Nothing could thwart God's sovereign purpose for Solomon (1 Chr. 22:9-10; 28:5-7).

Adonijah: Jehovah is my Lord. The oldest son of David, who attempted to become king.

Nathan: gift. The prophet who confronted David with his sins regarding Bath-sheba and Uriah.

Bath-sheba: of the oath. The wife of Uriah. David committed adultery with her, and later married her. Mother of Solomon.

19 And ^ahe hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath ^bcalled all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not ^bcalled.

20 And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall ^csleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

22 ¶ And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath ^bcalled all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, God save king Adonijah.

26 ^aBut me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not ^bcalled.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 ¶ Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

29 And the king sware, and said, ^eAs the LORD liveth, that hath ^fredeemed my soul out of all distress,

30 Even as I ^gswear unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did ^hreverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live for ever.

32 ¶ And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.

33 The king also said unto them, ⁱTake with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own ^jmule, and bring him down to ^kGihon:

34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet ^lanoint him there king over Israel: and ^mblow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, ⁿAmen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too.

37 ^oAs the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and ^pmake his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

Solomon's second anointing as king (1 Chr. 29:22b)

38 So ^qZadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and ^rBenaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the ^sCherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to ^tGihon.

39 And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the ^utabernacle, and ^vanointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, ^wGod save king Solomon.

40 And all the people came up after him, and the people ^xpipied with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth ^yrent with the sound of them.

Adonijah's submission

41 ¶ And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had ^amade an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, ^b*Wherefore is this* noise of the city being in an uproar?

42 And while he yet spake, behold, ^cJonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for ^dthou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king.

44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule:

45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from ^ethence rejoicing, so that ^fthe city rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard.

46 And also Solomon ^gsitteth on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, ^hGod make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king ⁱbowed himself upon the bed.

48 And also thus said the king, Blessed ^jbe the LORD God of Israel, which hath ^kgiven one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing ^l*kit*.

49 And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 ¶ And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the ^mhorns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 And Solomon said, If he will shew himself a worthy man, ⁿthere shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

David's charge to Solomon

2 Now the ^odays of David drew ^pnigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

2 ^qI go the way of all the earth: ^rbe thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man;

3 And keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ^sjudgments, and his testimonies, ^tas it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest ^uprosper in all that thou doest, and ^vwhithersoever thou turnest thyself:

4 That the LORD may ^wcontinue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, ^x¶If thy children take heed to their way, to ^ywalk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, ^zthere shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of ^{aa}Israel.

5 Moreover thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah ^{bb}did to me, and ^{cc}what he ^{dd}did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his ^{ee}girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 ^{ff}Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his ^{gg}hoar head go down to the ^{hh}grave in peace.

7 But shew kindness unto the sons of ⁱⁱBarzillai the Gileadite, and ^{jj}let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so ^{kk}they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother.

II. The Reign of Solomon, 2:12-11:43

Solomon's accession (1 Chr. 29:23-25)

12 ¶ Then ⁱsat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was ^jestablished greatly.

Adonijah's execution

13 ¶ And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou ^kpeaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was ^lmine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for ^mit was his from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not ⁿsay thee nay,) that he give me ^oAbishag the Shunammite ^pto wife.

18 And Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

19 ¶ Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and ^qcaused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his ^rright hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, ^ssay me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not ^tsay thee nay.

21 And she said, Let ^uAbishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother ^vto wife.

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom ^walso; for he is mine ^xelder brother; even for him, and for ^yAbiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

the LORD, saying, ^aGod do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own ^blife.

24 Now therefore, as the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an house, as he ^cpromised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of ^dBenaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

Abiathar is removed from the priesthood

26 ¶ And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to ^eAnathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and ^fbecause thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might ^gfulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

Innocent blood finally avenged; Joab's execution

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab ^hhad turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and ⁱcaught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon ^jsent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, ^kfall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, ^lCome forth. And he said, ^mNay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; ⁿthat thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the LORD shall ^oreturn his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David ^pnot knowing thereof, to wit, ^qAbner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and ^rAmasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and ^supon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the ^tLORD.

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

Benaiah made chief captain, and Zadok high priest

35 ¶ And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his ^uroom over the host: and ^vZadok the priest did the king put in the ^wroom of Abiathar.

Shimei is executed

36 ¶ And the king sent and called for ^xShimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth ^ythence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook ^zKidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: ^{aa}thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto ^{aa}Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and ^aprotested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad ^bany whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?

44 The king said moreover to ^cShimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is ^dprivy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own ^ehead;

45 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the ^fthrone of David shall be established before the LORD for ever.

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was ^gestablished in the hand of Solomon.

Solomon's treaty with Pharaoh

3 And ^hSolomon made ⁱaffinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the ^jcity of David, until he had ^kmade an end of building his own ^lhouse, and the ^mhouse of the LORD, and the ⁿwall of Jerusalem round about.

Solomon's sacrifice and prayer for wisdom (2 Chr. 1:2-10)

3 And ^pSolomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father: ^qonly he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to ^rGibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great ^shigh place: a thousand burnt-offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

5 ¶ ^tIn Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon ^uin a dream by night: and God said, ^vAsk what I shall give thee.

6 ^wAnd Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he ^xwalked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great ^ykindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am ^zbut a ^{aa}little child: I know not how to go out or come ^{bb}in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou ^{cc}hast chosen, a great people, ^{dd}that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

9 Give therefore thy servant an ^{ee}understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may ^{ff}discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

Solomon's prayer answered (2 Chr. 1:11-13)

3:2 in high places. Compare Lev. 26:30; Dt. 12:1-4. The use of commanding elevations for altars seems to have been immemorial and universal. In itself the practice was not evil (Gen. 12:7-8; 22:2-4; 31:54). After the establishment of Mount Moriah and the temple as the center of divine worship (compare Dt. 12:5 with 2 Chr. 7:12) the Mosaic prohibition of the use of high places (Dt. 12:1-4), which had looked forward to the setting up of such a center, came into effect, and high places became identified with idolatrous practices. The constant reference to the use of high places after the temple was built, even for the worship of the LORD, proves how entrenched the custom was. See Jud. 3:7, note; compare 2 Ki. 18:4,22; 23:4-20; 2 Chr. 33:3,17,19.

Greatness and security of the kingdom

20 ¶ Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

21 And ^gSolomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of ^hEgypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 ¶ ⁱAnd Solomon's provision for one day was thirty ^jmeasures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal,

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and ^kroebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had ^ldominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiphseh even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and ^mhe had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Judah and Israel ⁿdwelt safely, ^oevery man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 ¶ And ^pSolomon had ^qforty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided ^rvictual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.
